MOISTURE FOR OCTOBER TOTALS 1.98 INCHES

According to our official weather observer, we had a total of 1.98 inches of moisture during the month of October which came to an end Tuesday night. A slow falling rain Wednesday morning gave us a pretty good start for November with .21 inch being recorded by Wednesday noon.

Rain began falling in this area Sunday night and some areas to the south reported some sleet and other places reported damaging hail. To date we have not received a general killing frost which is above average for this time of year. The weatherman at Amarillo is predicting another chance Thursday night or Friday night.

In selling the business, Hensley stated that his future plans were indefinite at the present time.

Twenty-Six Girls Out For H. S. Basketball

Coach J. R. Williams announced this week that twenty-six candidates had reported for this year's girls' basketball team which is the largest number to participate in recent years.

Even though we are going to have some young girls, we are likely to be as strong as we were last year due to the transfer of students from Lelia Lake, Williams stated.

There will be four seniors on the squad, including Paula Adams and Peggy Jackson who are returning lettermen and Willa Rumpy and Judy Castner who are transfers from Lelia Lake. Judy was on Hedley's A team last year as was Molly Floyd, another Lelia Lake transfer.

The seven Juniors reporting are Sharon Williams, Brenda McAnear, and Janie Ivey returning from last year, Jan Weatherly is returning to the line-up this year and Molly Floyd from Lelia Lake. Jeanine Lowe, a newcomer to the squad is not eligible this season since she played for McLean last year. Judy Pittman is acting manager.

Sophomores are Connie Martin, Deanne McAnear, Patricia Banister and Twila Shipley.

Coach Williams is especially proud of the large number of freshmen girls who came out to add to the team's potential. They are Ann Mills, Janette Rumpy, and Patsy Hutson, transfers from Lelia Lake, Marilyn and Marilyn Noble, Charlene Gray, Lynn Bourland, Dorothy Richey, Regina Borden, and Karen Hill. All these girls played on the Jr. High team last year. These girls will be putting pressure on every position.

Judy Castner and Molly Floyd will be expected to move into the starting positions vacated by Marie Richey and Gay Watson from last year's district winning team. Jan Weatherly and Patricia Banister will strengthen the guarding assignments.

We hope to play several B games this season, Coach Williams stated. If games can be scheduled, they will be played prior to the starting time of the regular varsity girls games which are set for 7 p.m. and will be played on Monday or Thursday nights.

Williams said his boys team will not report for practice until Nov. 6th as most of the boys are members of the Broncho football squad and will be playing their last scheduled game this Friday night.

RPRBC Assn. to Have Biggest Bull Sale In History This Year

The Rolling Plains Registered Beef Cattle Association will have its biggest bull sale in history this year says W. H. Cooke III, president of the association. The sale catalog is now going to press with 51 head of Hereford bulls, 20 head of Angus bulls and 13 Galloway bulls. This makes a total of 84 bulls in the sale.

Flip Breedlove, county agent and secretary of the association says that according to all reports, cattlemen can get some good herd bull prospects and top range bulls for the improvement of their breeding programs. The sale will be held in Clarendon, Texas on December 7th starting at 12:30 p.m. Judging of the bulls will be at 2:00 p.m. on December 8th for sale order. Breedlove says that there will be several pens of three and pens of two for those desiring to buy bulls in pens as well as individuals. The sales arena is all new and has been partitioned off from the show barn and will be well heated for any kind of weather so you will be comfortable during the sale. The auctioneers will be Walter Britton on the Hereford Cattle and Holland Jester on the Angus and Galloway cattle.

Advertising has started in the leading livestock magazines in the Southwest and a big TV program with Cotton John on Channel 4 at Amarillo is planned for the second of December, boosting the registered bull sale. More information on this program as to time and exact date will appear later in your local newspaper. Breedlove says that cattlemen desiring to fly into Clarendon can land at the city, county airport, just one mile southeast of town. Reservations at local motels and hotels can be made by contacting the local Chamber of Commerce or Breedlove. Make your plans now to attend the third annual bull sale at Clarendon and see and buy bulls from the top breeders in the nation.

All members of the Clarendon Highway 287 Association are urged to attend and give our national highway a boost.

MIX HOME BURNS HERE MONDAY NIGHT

Fire of undetermined origin completely destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mix, one-half mile east of town Monday night.

Mr. Mix told firemen that the house was engulfed in flames when he and his wife returned home shortly prior to 7 o'clock. The local volunteer fire department waged a losing battle with the flame due to lack of water. They were able to hold the blaze in check for a short time until the tanks on the fire truck were emptied. They had to return to town to replenish their tanks as no fire line extends beyond the city limit.

Mr. and Mrs. Mix moved here about a month ago after his retirement from the Amarillo street department.

LEADER CLASSIFIEDS GET RESULTS

The 1961 football season, so far as the Clarendon Bronchos are concerned, will come to an end Friday night. They will meet the district favorite, the McLean Tigers, in a game at Broncho Stadium beginning at 7:30.

McLean has put together one of their best teams in many years this year and have been favorites from the beginning of the season to take the district crown. They have won seven and lost only one so far this season and have two conference wins to their credit. Their only defeat has been at the hands of White Deer and that was a mild upset as the Tigers were favored to defeat the Bucks. Their two conference wins have been 35 to 7 over Canadian and 13 to 12 over Memphis.

The Bronchos' season is ending a week earlier than most as they drew Nov. 10 as their open date. The district show-down will probably be on Nov. 10 when McLean meets Lefors. However, Lefors must meet Memphis this week and should Memphis win, and then Lefors beat McLean, the district would be in a three-way tie. That is, of course, provided McLean beats Clarendon which they are top-heavy favorites to do.

Coach Jinks is hoping that his boys can put together a great team effort against the Tigers this week. An upset would not be impossible as this game has produced a number of surprises during the past years. However, on the basis of the scores in the games of four mutual opponents, the Tigers will be rated heavy favorites. The four teams which each have played this season are Memphis, Canadian, Groom and Claude. The Tigers defeated Groom, 49 to 0, Claude 41 to 12, Canadian, 35 to 7, and Memphis 13 to 12. The Bronchos lost to Memphis, 20 to 0, and to Groom, 12 to 6, and won over Canadian, 8 to 0, and Claude, 6 to 0.

The Bronchos, barring further injury or illness this week, should be in fair physical condition and will probably present a starting line-up of Bill Hermesmeier and Leon Gibbs at ends, Charles Stout and David McBrayer at tackles, Frank Hermesmeier and Billy Hearn at guards and Steve Richerson at center. Dwight McAnear will be at quarterback with Jim Robinson and Gary Campbell at halfbacks and Jerry Elmore at fullback.

REBEKAH POT LUCK SUPPER TUESDAY NIGHT

PROPER RATION ESSENTIAL TO PROFITABLE CALF FEEDING

Drylot feeding of calves weighing from 250 to 400 pounds requires a much better understanding of feeding principles than does the feeding of heavier ones. It takes a better ration to achieve the desired results in the lighter animals because they do not have their mother's milk to balance their diet.
In the first place, their stomachs will not hold as much as those of heavier calves so the small amount of feed they do consume must contain enough nutrients to satisfy their needs, explains U. D. Thompson, extension animal husbandman. Due to their small size, they have a small storage capacity for even those nutrients which they can hold in reserve in their bodies.

As an example of this storage capacity, consider vitamin A. If cattle have an adequate supply of this vitamin, they store the excess in their body fat and livers. As long as they have access to green grazing they get their vitamin A. When no green grazing is available, they use their stored supply to satisfy their needs. Here is where a calf's needs are taken care of by milk. When this calf is weaned and placed on drylot, he must be supplied these nutrients in his ration. In 250-400 pound calves vitamin A deficiency can develop within 45 to 60 days unless the ration takes care of his needs.

Either leafy green alfalfa hay, alfalfa leaf meal or pellets are good sources of vitamin A, says Thompson. Calves nearly always do better on rations which contain alfalfa than on those which do not, he continues. Also, commercial synthetic vitamin A preparations are now available for mixing in rations. These may be used if good alfalfa is unavailable or expensive.

Calves do not have the ability to utilize large quantities of roughage. Their digestive system requires feeds high in food values. Shelled corn, sorghum grain, oats, barley and high protein feeds like cottonseed meal are full of some of the nutrients required by calves. A small amount of roughage is essential, but their diet should consist mainly of these high protein feeds. A 300 pound calf on drylot, when on full feed, will need about 6 pounds of concentrates and 3 pounds of roughage daily, says Thompson.

For more detailed information on feeding young calves, contact your local county agent and ask for a copy of "Vitamins for Beef Cattle" and "Rations for Fattening Cattle."
A UPI news item reports that there are slightly more TV sets in American homes than flush toilets or bathtubs. Authority is found in statistics gathered last year by the U.S. Census Bureau.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Watson, Sr. Observe Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar C. Watson, Sr., were honored on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary with an open house in their home in Clarendon, Texas on October 29th, with approximately 150 friends and relatives attending.

A beautiful hand-made net tablecloth with appliqued felt, sequined autumn leaves covered the refreshment table. Tiered candelabras with two sets of tiny golden bells and gold wedding rings were centered with a gold cherub epergne holding a lovely arrangement of yellow carnations with gold foliage. Clusters of gold magnolia leaves and chinaberry formed the base of the centerpieces. Guests were served golden punch, cake, mixed nuts, mints and coffee during the afternoon. Presiding at the table in alternates were

Mrs. Oscar C. Watson, Jr. of Colorado Springs, Colo., daughter-in-law of the couple, Mrs. Mike Galbraith of Denver, Colo., granddaughter, Mrs. T. G. Stargel of Oklahoma City, Okla., Mrs. Edythe Mercer of Ft. Worth, Texas, both sisters of Mrs. Watson, and Mrs. LeRoy Bouldin of Oklahoma City, Okla. Miss Sarah Ann Antrobus of Clarendon, niece of the couple, presided at the guest book.

The couple was married October 25, 1911, in the First Methodist Church of Clarendon. Mrs. Watson, the former Miss Leslie Antrobus, is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George W. Antrobus, early pioneer residents of Clarendon and the Panhandle. She is a life-long resident of Clarendon and graduated with an art major from Clarendon College in 1909. Mr. Watson, originally from Sanger, Texas, was at the time of their marriage, traveling for the N. K. Fairbanks Co. of Chicago, Ill. They lived in Sanger from 1911 to 1912 when they moved to Clarendon where Mr. Watson entered the hardware business with his father-in-law. In 1916, Mr. George Antrobus sold the business to his son, Mr. Barcus Antrobus and Mr. Watson, whereupon they formed the partnership of Watson & Antrobus Hardware, operating as such to the present time.

Children of the couple are Mr. Oscar C. Watson, Jr. of Colorado Springs, Colo., Mrs. Gale Ledbetter of Amarillo, Texas, and Mr. George Watson of Downey, California, who was unable to attend the celebration. They have four grandchildren.

Powerful Memphis Cyclones Shut Out Bronchos, 20 to 0

The Clarendon High School Bronchos went down to a 20 to 0 defeat at the hands of the powerful Memphis Cyclones at Memphis last Friday night. The Cyclones scored twice in the second quarter and once in the third and only once let the Bronchos get inside their 20-yard line during the game.

The two teams battled on even terms most of the first quarter but the superior weight and speed of the Cyclones began to pay off early in the second period. With only three minutes gone in the second quarter Memphis took over on a punt on their own 25 yard line and had their first touchdown six plays later when their swift halfback, Doug Peters, skirted right end for the final eight yards. Quarterback Perry Wright passed to his left end, Dwight Gailey, for the conversion and Memphis was leading, 8 to 0. The scoring play was set up by a beautiful 43 yard run by Peters who was finally stopped on the Broncho 13.

The Cyclones scored again just before the half. They took over on Clarendon's 45 yard line on a punt and ground out the score in seven plays with Fullback Eddie Jones making the last three yards through left tackle. The scoring was completed for the night when Memphis scored their third touchdown midway of the third quarter. They marched 65 yards in six plays with Jones again scoring on a six-yard plunge through the line.

The Bronchos threatened only twice during the game. In the third quarter, Leon Gibbs intercepted a Cyclone pass and returned it 23 yards to the Memphis 26 yard line but the Memphis line held and the best the Bronchos could do in four plays was to the 23 yard line. Again, in the fourth quarter, the Bronchos took over on a punt on their own 20 yard line and it looked like they were on the move as they marched down to the Memphis 19 yard line in five plays. The next play was a completed pass from Dwight McAnear to John Cearley which carried the ball to the Memphis seven yard line, but the play was called back and the Bronchos drew a 15 yard penalty. They could never get started again after that and had to settle for a zero in the score column.

The Cyclones pretty well dominated the game so far as the statistics were concerned. They made 13 first downs as compared to 8 for the Bronchos and made 203 yards rushing to Clarendon's 105. The Bronchos had a slight edge in the passing game as they completed four of 14 passing attempts for 62 yards while Memphis completed two of six tries for 43 yards.

Economic Highlights

Happenings That Affect the Future of Every Individual, National and International Problems Inseparable from Local Welfare.

Partisan politics, at the candidate level, has been pretty well obscured this year by the various world crises, emergencies, and disasters. But that doesn't mean it has lost any of its vitality. Men and women in great numbers still look longingly to political position—all the way from obscure local offices to 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue itself—and lay their plans.

On the highest level, that of Presidency, the cards are beginning to be played in earnest. Knowns and unknowns are being analyzed. Strategy is formed, discussed and revised.

The question of who will carry the banner in 1964, of course, is confined to the Republican side. Barring the completely unforeseeable, Mr. Kennedy will lead his party again and will carry it to triumph or defeat. His nomination will be purely a formality.

But in the Republican camp, the dice are rattling and no one can tell now what number will come up. There are three leading players—all able, all well known, all obviously ambitious, all determined. These are Mr. Nixon, Senator Goldwater, and Governor Rockefeller. They form a varied, even a fascinating group, with Mr. Rockefeller on the left, Mr. Nixon in the middle, and Mr. Goldwater on the right.

It is true that Mr. Nixon, in announcing his candidacy for the governorship of California, a state whose political potency is second only to that of New York, said that he intends to fill out his term if elected, hence is not a Presidential possibility for 1964. But no man has ever turned down a genuine draft. And a draft could result if there were a Rockefeller-Goldwater stalemate. On the other hand, the fact that Mr. Nixon has had a chance and lost is very much against him. Losers who were given additional chances have gone nowhere—as the cases of William Jennings Bryan, Thomas Dewey, and Adlai Stevenson testify.

Mr. Rockefeller must win reelection in New York if he is to be a serious candidate, but that seems to be pretty well taken for granted. He has shown a strong appeal to masses of Democratic voters, along with an ability to hold the Republican upstate support. He is a direct and frank advocate of increased federal participation in the affairs of the nation and its people. And thus presents a straight contrast with Senator Goldwater.

The Goldwater case is a highly unusual one. He is a man of conservative views. As he sees it, the less government we have—so far as our domestic affairs are concerned—the better off we will be. He is an implacable opponent of anything resembling a paternalistic, welfare state. And he has developed an amazingly enthusiastic following which seems to be steadily growing both in numbers and fervor. Indeed, some observers think that had the delegates to the last Republican convention been free to vote their actual wishes, it would have been Goldwater rather than Nixon. But the Nixon decision had been made before the doors to the convention hall were unlocked.

The big question which surrounds Mr. Goldwater has to do with the depth and extent of the conservative movement, especially among the younger people who will hold tomorrow's balance of power. There is no question that the movement exists and has burgeoned—it has brought comment from such diverse publications as the New York Times, National Review, Time and Newsweek. One leading organization is known as Young Americans for Freedom, which holds the conviction that "the U.S. in the 1960's is at a crossroads between freedom and federal domination." It has a fast growing membership, according to its spokesmen, especially in the colleges and universities. It—and other groups of similar views—may prove to be effective political forces in the elections that lie ahead.

In any event, the best bet now is that Mr. Rockefeller and Mr. Goldwater will take the spotlight in 1964. But one more premise should be listed. If, to the experts, President Kennedy should appear to be unbeatable, the leading Republican contenders can be expected to disappear, temporarily, into the background, and to fix their sights on 1968. Then the Republicans would simply go through the motions, and pick a lesser figure to throw to the wolves.

FALL IS RAT-CONTROL SEASON

Rat killing season is here again. During the summer months the rat population is not too noticeable because they stay in the fields, close to their food supplies. They also stay close to their food supplies in the fall, but these supplies have been moved into barns and cribs, thus concentrating the rat and mouse population around the farmstead.

This concentration presents quite a problem to the farmer, but it also affords him the best opportunity for controlling these pests, say rodent control specialists of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

The first necessity in an effective rat control program is sanitation. All debris, loose grain and other sources of shelter or food should be removed from the premises. After this has been done, poison baits should be placed in all areas likely to be frequented by rats or mice. The specialists recommend the use of anti-coagulant type poisons, although others may be used.

Once the rodent population is under control, continued sanitation and the placing of a few poison baits will prevent reinfestation. These poison baits should be checked occasionally to make sure they are still in place.

This type of rodent control is effective on a single farm, but it is much better when employed by every farmer in the neighborhood. You, your neighbors, your local county agent and rodent control specialists of the Fish and Wildlife Service can organize a county-wide control program that will benefit everyone. Talk to your county agent about such a program—he will be glad to help in any way he can.

Ralph T. Moore writes, in Oregon Voter: "Our economy of today is more a people's economy than it has ever been in all our history. Ownership of industrial equities is widely spread and largely in the hands of the millions of small stockholders. Management of our big business enterprises has become almost entirely professional, with top men hired because of their proven proficiency. Competition for such men is very keen... Only a precious few can qualify... We should be shepherding and nurturing the development of such men. But, instead, we are making them political targets and fair game for every aspiring demagogue. They are continually showered with calumny and vicious aspersions when the national interest calls for their encouragement and intelligent support."

COMPUTERS USED IN CANCER FIGHT

The Data Processing Center at Texas A. and M. College is assisting the University of Texas M.D. Anderson Hospital in Houston with computing problems involved in radium treatment of cancer patients.
Robert L. Smith Jr., director of the A. and M. Data Processing Center, labeled the work a cooperative effort in treatment of one of the world's most dreaded diseases.

The Center's role involves, among other things, assisting the radiologist, by full information about treatment intensity, to provide maximum radiation dosage for the cancerous area and minimum dosage for the healthy area surrounding the cancer.
'The math associated with the treatment,' Smith said, 'gets highly technical.' The technique for doing these calculations at computer speeds was developed at the center.

Nine Seniors to Play Final Game for Bronchos

Friday night's game with McLean will bring to a close the high school football careers of nine seniors on the Broncho football squad. Four of these boys are regulars on this year's team and the other five are reserves. The regulars are halfback Jim Robinson, ends Bill Hermesmeier and Leon Gibbs and guard Frank Hermesmeier. The reserves are Jerry Barrett, Shelby Bell, Johnny Longan, Ted Shaller and Rocky Carter.

Robinson moved here from Tahoma at the close of his freshman year and has been a regular during the past three years. He is Co-Captain of this year's team and has thrilled local fans many times with his long runs, punt returns and jarring tackles on defense. The boy who wears old familiar No. 30 next year will have his work cut out for him to live up to the football antics of Jim Robinson. Jim is also a top student in school.

Bill and Frank Hermesmeier are also familiar figures on the football field this year as well as past years. Bill which on the varsity squad his freshman year and has been a regular the past three years. He wears jersey No. 67 and has been a standout on defense and a better than average pass receiver this year. Frank, who wears jersey No. 43, plays guard and does the punting. This is his second year as a regular.

Leon Gibbs, No. 46, the other half of the departing end combination, has been a thorn in opponents sides for the past three years. The last two years prior to this year he played guard and center, but has been switched to end this year. He is also one of the co-captains.

The other five departing seniors have done their parts to strengthen the Broncho reserve power. Barrett moved here from Pampa last year where he did not play football so this is Jerry's first try at the sport. Shelby Bell played on the "B" team during his freshman and sophomore years but did not play last year.

This is also Johnny Longan's first year to play football, but he has done an outstanding job in spots this year. He is a reserve guard and tackle. Ted Shaller played on the "B" team last year and has seen considerable service this year and has been battling for a starting tackle position all year. Rocky Carter is also on the squad for the first time this year.

He has been coming around fine the past few weeks and the coaches regret that Rocky doesn't have another year or two.

Naturally, the coaching staff regrets that all these boys will not be around next year. Head Coach Tom Jinks and his assistants, Fred Hedgecock and Nelson Christi, have a very high regard for all these boys. The boys have given their best for the team, but as all good things must come to an end, Friday night's game must be their "adios" to high school football.

FARM NEWS

from County ASCS Committee

15-ACRE EXEMPTION NO LONGER IN EFFECT

The 15-acre marketing quota exemption for wheat production is no longer in effect. Many farmers still ask us about this at the ASCS office and we want to emphasize this change in the law.

Under the 1962 wheat stabilization program, there is no exemption for a farm which has no 1962 wheat allotment and which did not have wheat for harvest in any one of the 3 years, 1959, 1960 and 1961. On such a farm, the entire harvested wheat acreage would be subject to marketing quota penalty. Under previous programs, farms that produced no more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest were not subject to marketing quotas even though they had allotments of less than 15 acres. For 1962 the marketing quota exemption for a farm is the smaller of: (1) 13.5 acres, or (2) the highest acreage the farm had for harvest in the 3-year period, 1959, 1960 and 1961. The marketing quota exemption for a farm is not an allotment. If the acreage harvested is within the farm allotment, all of the wheat produced on the farm may be marketed free of the marketing quota penalty. If, however, the wheat acreage on the farm exceeds the allotment or the exemption, whichever is higher, the penalty will be computed on the acreage in excess of the allotment.

Wheat growers are reminded that the period for signing up under the program continues through December 1, 1961.

A producer must sign up for the wheat stabilization program for the 10 per cent mandatory reduction if he wishes to collect payment for the acreage diverted to conserving use.

Pasturing of diverted acreage may be continued through May 1, 1962 under the wheat Stabilization Program. This also applies to the 1962 Feed Grain Program.

Farmers are urged to get in touch with the ASCS county office if they are interested in the 1962 wheat stabilization program.

HIGHLIGHTS and sidelights... City officials in Texas got a warning from Chief Engineer John Vandertulip of the State Board of Engineers.

He said Texas had better get moving on its water projects.

Vandertulip's staff has just completed a water study outlining ways in which Texas cities and industries could meet their water needs for 1980.

It is going to take $1,000,000,000 to build the reservoirs, treatment plants and distribution systems to provide water the Texas of 1980 will need. It will also take planning and working—starting now—to get the 45 new reservoirs proposed by the Board of Water Engineers' plan built and full of water by or before 1980.

Plan is endorsed in most details by the U.S. Study Commission.

Sales Tax Modification
State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert thinks it's time to change the oil tax plan just adopted by the Legislature.

Constitution allocates the new sales tax on motor oil to the State Highway fund for road building. Consequently the corner service station man must keep books on this tax separately from sales taxes he collects for the State's general fund.

Calvert plans to suggest to the Legislature that this oil tax be levied at the jobber level, same as gasoline sales taxes. This will simplify bookkeeping and collecting.

Speaker James A. Turman agreed that there are inequities in the new sales tax which the Legislature should correct.

First to talk openly about paying the tax under protest were the vending machine people. They can't collect sales tax on items selling for less than 25 cents, but they must pay sales tax on their gross sales.

Texas Merchandise Vending Association plans to ask for a court ruling.

Last Go-Round
Sale of $25,000,000 in bonds for the Veterans Land Board completes the borrowing by the State government for that program. Voters authorized $200,000,000 to finance purchases of farms and ranches for veterans.

In the last year $37,500,000 has been invested in land since the program was revived after an increase in the authorized interest rate.

L. H. Page of Carthage, member of the Veterans Land Board, estimated that veterans will pay enough extra interest that the state will have made $100,000,000 profit on this program by 2005. That is when the last loan is supposed to be paid off.

More Study
Governor Price Daniel asked the Legislative Council to bring its 1958 study on loans and interest rates up to date.

Governor Daniel now seems likely to call the Legislature back into session in January. He wants up-to-date facts on the subject of regulation of interest rates and lenders. Regular session just could not reach agreement.

He will ask also for passage of a bill extending the new escheat enforcement procedures to unclaimed bank accounts in banks and savings institutions.

Governor Appoints
Gov. Price Daniel assigned Dr. James A. Turman (no kin to Speaker Turman), Texas Youth Council director, and Rep. Don Kennard of Fort Worth to attend the National Governors' Conference on Delinquency and Youth Crime in Denver, Colorado.

They'll come back armed with arguments on why Texas needs juvenile parole officers in more than just the five biggest counties. That's extent of present program.

Governor Daniel is asking the Legislature to expand the five-man juvenile parole set-up it created this year. Kennard has sponsored juvenile parole legislation.

Highway Speedup
Faster feeding of federal-aid money into highway construction is reflected by the State Highway Department's monthly report.

As a recession-trimmer, U.S. cash was sent out faster than had been scheduled. On October 1, there were $325,858,057 worth of highway construction contracts outstanding in Texas, averaging at just about 50 per cent completion.

During last month, highway contractors completed $18,684,270 worth of new construction. Figure doesn't include the maintenance work by Highway Department crews.

"Nothing is so galling to a people, not broken in from the birth, as a paternal, or, in other words, a meddling government, a government which tells them what to read, and say, and eat, and drink, and wear."—Macaulay.

Communist Strategy

The question is asked many times as to whether or not the Communists have changed their strategy or will change their strategy. Strategy is defined as the employment of artifice, intrigue, etc. In the light of this definition, the answer is a resounding NO! However, it is well to note that the Communists have changed their types of strategy or tactics, and can be expected to change these from time to time as circumstances require. Their end purpose, to wit, Communist domination of the world, will not change. However, all of the tricks that can be conceived in the mind of man will be employed or re-employed when they are needed to serve the Communist cause. If this requires a change of position geographically, politically, or otherwise, such change will be made, but the making of the change must not be misconstrued by those under attack as an indication of repentance or weakness on the part of the Communists. Those people who are presently emerging into the light of independence would do well to walk very carefully and to weigh with great care each and every step they take. Many of these peoples who are former colonies look upon this country as the finest example that could ever be created of an ex-colony. They have looked upon us for leadership and will expect that leadership. However, many of the people in these areas are not familiar with the responsibilities, the burdens, the sacrifices and the problems associated with independence and self-government. Hence, they are sitting ducks in many respects for the entreaties and false promises of the Communists. The Communists realize this and are exploiting it for all it is worth. In fact, this is one of the circumstances that caused the USSR to make a ma-

...or change in its tactics. Prior to the emergence of these new countries, the Communists had operated primarily on the premise that they must work outward from their home bastion. In other words, move into those countries adjacent to the Communist countries of the USSR and Red China. Korea was an excellent example of this tactic. Laos and Viet Nam have been other examples as has the satellites in Eastern Europe. However, a marked change has been noted by students of the Communist strategy. They have begun to step up at great length their activities in the infiltration of countries and areas separate and apart from their homeland area, separated in most instances by areas of the Western free world or allies of the Western free world. Cuba is an excellent example of this type of diplomacy as is the great changes that have been made in Indonesia in recent months by the Communists. Other examples are many of the countries in Africa, as well as the stepped up efforts in South America. This does not mean that their efforts will be relaxed in the areas immediately surrounding the main Communist stronghold. The same brush fires will be continually maintained, such as Berlin, and the difficulties in the Near East countries — Laos, Viet Nam, Quenoy, Matsu, and Formosa.

The prime objective in the European area is to destroy the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, commonly called NATO, of which this country is a member. If the Soviets can mislead Western Germany into withdrawing from NATO, it will have accomplished a great proportion of its purpose. They obviously hope to do this by neutralizing Germany with any and all agreements or promises necessary to accomplish this result. Once neutrality has been accomplished, both East and West Germany will be taken into the Red orbit by force or otherwise. It also hopes to so infiltrate Italy as to force withdrawal of that country from NATO and further weaken the organization and undermine world confidence in the power and leadership of the United States. England also will come in for internal attacks in the nature of disarmament demands on the part of Communists and Communist fellow travelers who have infiltrated the British Isles.

Much more could be said on this subject, but the main objective is to point up the continuing danger and the great need for constant alertness by all Americans and all those who look forward to freedom and a better way of life.

FACTS ABOUT FALLOUT

The Soviet Union has resumed testing of nuclear bombs, and there is a belief that some of enormous size will ultimately be exploded. The United States is expected to soon resume tests too—reluctantly, but necessarily, in view of the Kremlin's ominous gestures. And these grim developments have inevitably aroused deep fears of what may result from radio-active fallout.

No one with a modicum of good sense will minimize the possibilities of the nuclear weapons, whether in the stage of testing or the final stage of use. At the same time, it would be equally futile to succumb to needless and dangerous panic. So a survey published by the American Medical Association, made up of the opinions of seven top scientists, is extremely important.

They find that the possible effect of the current increased level of radioactive fallout in the United States on health is "insignificant." They emphasize three basic points: 1. Fallout constitutes a very small amount of radiation compared with the amount of naturally occurring radiation. 2. There is no proof that distant fallout ever caused a disease in a human being. 3. Although most scientists assume that any amount of radiation has a genetic effect, this effect is unknown in human beings.

The consensus, finally, of these seven authorities is that any additional radiation is undesirable, but that the increase due to the distant fallout, because of Russia's resumption of tests, does not represent a significant health hazard.

We certainly should deplore the tests—but there's no present reason to be scared to death.

NOT SACROSANCT

Everyone agrees that we must spend every dollar that an adequate national defense demands, staggering as the total may be. But this does not mean that all defense spending is sacrosanct, and must be accepted as necessary without question.

The General Accounting Office—which is the watchdog of federal spending—has reported on numerous instances of waste in defense outlays. For instance, it says that millions of dollars worth of replacement equipment was needlessly bought in 1960 by the Air Force, and that this could have been avoided had the AF maintained effective control over equipment in its supply system. It says also that, over a recent period of years, the military bought a large number of expensive industrial machines when identical or similar equipment was available in idle status.

So it goes, down the list. The sums involved run far into the millions. It's time we got a dollar's worth of defense for every dollar spent.

"In God We Trust" has long been our national motto. This right to worship and trust in the true God was the basic desire of our forefathers in their search for freedom. The recent decision by the Supreme Court could well lead to the lessening of our emphasis on this principle.

This high court of our land has recently ruled that it is now unconstitutional for the federal government or any state to require of a public office holder a "belief in the existence of God." In so doing the words "So Help Me God" required by law since 1884 in all oaths taken both by civilian and military officers would be superfluous.

To those who came to this new country in search of freedom from bondage we owe a debt of gratitude. As a record for their suffering, for their courage, and for their dying a new basis for a free left was born. It was so great and wonderful that to them it could only be under God and from God. Without faith and prayers they could not have endured. Except that God was with them they could not have succeeded. It must have been unanimous that this great country would be founded on this precept—In God We Trust.

The atheistic Communist has no regard for a Higher Power. Neither does he have regard for our God-given freedoms, except to destroy them. Now these faithful party members must rejoice as we seem to allow them the freedom to even undermine the very foundation of our way of life. . . . There must surely be some other way.

"Obstacles are what you see when you take your eyes off of the goal." This truthful saying came to us from one of our favorite college students. It had been remembered from a lecture given by one of the professors. Our heart always thrills when we hear about inspiring work being done by our young people as they prepare themselves to meet the problems of today.

Now and then we hear someone say that our young people are going to the bad. We don't believe it and no one can prove it. Nothing could be farther from the truth. In fact, if we have a problem most of the cause can be laid at the doorstep of we parents. And if we have a hope for the future it will surely be up to our children to make it a reality.

We have heard a lot about the Elvis Presley Fan Clubs in days past. The rock and roll and the swing-and-swoon boys and girls have been taken to task. The hep-cats and the beatniks received their publicity.

But all we have to do for comparison is to look at one of the old movies of the Roarin' 20's. The short dresses, the funny hairdos, and the knock-yourself-out dances will hold their own with any modern day crowd.

And the other day someone reminded us of the Rudolph Valentino craze. The several women who committed suicide because of his death. Of the heartbroken girls who tried to reach his grave to take their own life. Yes, each generation must have always had its moments of letting down our hair.

It seems to me that one of the most remarkable groups of ladies in our country are the ones who act as private secretaries to the busy and very important people. In most every case you find them efficient, kind, understanding and helpful.

We say the above not only because we believe that it is true and ought to be said but there is another angle to this subject that worries us. Now and then while waiting in an office some guy will come busting in with his card shoved out arms length expecting because of his unusual importance (based on his own inventory) to be ushered straightway into the "king's presence."

Not only will he throw his weight around the waiting room to impress the others who are there but will insult and bully the secretary even in the fact of every possible kindness and consideration. This is the top performance of the year in rudeness, in our opinion, and it spells out several obvious deductions.

First, he may have started the day off badly. The little wife, whom he likely cannot bully, has just told him off for breakfast.

Second, he may be a coward at heart, but because of his size usually gets his way on most things; this leading to the fact that even though he is grown-up in size he is just plain spoiled.

Thirdly, thinking about a quote from "No Trumpet Before Him" we might say, "He don't look like he got anything on his mind 'ceptin' his own importance."
