Conservation Program Announces Signup

On August 24, 1995, Secretary Glickman announced that starting September 11 through September 22, eligible persons will be able to submit bids for the 13th Conservation Reserve Program signup. Nationwide, 651,000 acres were withdrawn under the early out opportunity. This is the target acreage limit this signup is intended to recover or enroll.

Donley County exceeded the 25 percent cropland limitation in 1988 during the fourth CRP signup. Around 500 acres were released in Donley County during the voluntary option period, however, they still exceed the 25 percent limitation. Shelterbelts and Field Windbreaks are the only two practices that will be offered for Donley County.

If you are interested in establishing a shelterbelt or field windbreak, please contact this office or NRCS (formally SCS).

Broncos Stomp Claude

Lorenzo Moore rushed for 211 yards on 24 carries and scored all five touchdowns leading Clarendon to a 36-6 victory over rival Claude in the Broncos season-opener Friday night at home.

Clarendon starts off its march toward a district title with a 1-0 record. Claude dropped to 0-1.

The Broncos got on the board first at the 4:42 mark with a 7-yard run by Moore, and spunky Clarendon never looked back. Moore capped off the touchdown with a 2-point conversion sending the Broncos into the second quarter with a 8-0 lead.

Quarterback Phillip Hearn went to Moore again and the offensive line created a hole for the senior tailback allowing him to romp 29 yards for his second scoring strike of the evening. The ensuing pass failed, but Moore broke loose again on a 66-yard romp into the end zone at the 6:26 point. Senior Drew Jeffers PAT was good sending the Broncos into the locker room with a 21-0 lead.

It took Moore just over six minutes in the third quarter to find comfort in the end zone - this time on 37-yard run. Sophomore Brent Gaines made a strong block on the sweep play allowing Moore to hit paydirt. Jeffers kick was good and the Broncos led 28-0.

The senior workhorse capped off the third quarter with a 7-yard run, and the PAT was blocked. Clarendon led 34-0, but it was not the last time the Broncos would put points on the board. The Broncos smothering defense led by seniors Evan Williams and Chris Brown caused Claude to snap the ball out of the end zone, and the Broncos scored a 2-point safety.

Claude's lone score came at the 1:00 mark when junior split end Bobby Hill collected a 12-yard pass from Michael Pillard. The run failed.

The Bronco offense rushed for 288 yards, and the Clarendon defense held the Mustangs to 53 yards on the ground. Hearn passed for 74 yards and was 5 for 12 with three interceptions. Penalties hurt the Broncos as they were called 12 times for 120 yards.

"The physical strength was the key to Friday night's game," head coach Kent Allison said. "We came out and dominated the game. Our defense was basically able to keep themselves off the field by making (Claude) go three plays and then out."

Evan Williams had 12 tackles and Clemmie Smith had 10 in the season opener. Allison credited defensive players Seth McAfee and James Hoggat for completing their assignments and allowing Smith and Williams to rack up the tackles.

In addition to Moore's outstanding offensive evening, senior Robert Taylor and Smith also racked up rushing yard marching the Broncos down the field. Junior Dean Stanzione and sophomore Kareem Abdulah grabbed two passes from Hearn in the game between two highway rivals. Abdulah also broke up three passes on defense.

Clarendon travel Friday to Cal Farley's Boys Ranch at 8 p.m. to meet a team who upset the Broncos last year at home. In previewing Boys Ranch, Allison said the Clarendon defense will have to control the Boys Ranch stable of running backs.

Allison said the Broncos will continue their ground assault and throw the football a little bit more. "We're going to try and be balanced. We're going to have to do that if we're going to be district champions."

Game video of each Clarendon contest is shown during the Bronco Booster Club meeting held every Tuesday at 7 p.m. at the Clarendon fieldhouse.

The Clarendon Colts and the Clarendon J.V. will meet Canadian at home beginning at 5 p.m. on Thursday.

PUBLIC NOTICE

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED
CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS
SPECIAL ELECTION
NOVEMBER 7, 1995

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 50 proposes a constitutional amendment providing that the legislature by general law may authorize the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board to issue general obligation bonds of the state in an amount not exceeding $300 million to finance educational loans to students. The maximum interest rate to be borne by the bonds must be set by law. The legislature may provide for the investment of bond proceeds and may establish an interest and sinking fund to pay the bonds.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of $300 million in general obligation bonds to finance education loans to students."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 36 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the legislature to exempt from ad valorem taxation the property of an organization chartered by the Congress of the Republic of Texas if the property is used primarily for the charitable, benevolent, or public service activities of the organization as defined by general law. The Comptroller's Property Tax Division has identified the Grand Lodge of Texas, also known as the Masonic Lodges, as the primary organization which would qualify for this tax exemption.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to exempt from ad valorem taxation property of an organization chartered by the Congress of the Republic of Texas that is used primarily for the charitable, benevolent, or public service activities of the organization."

Senate Joint Resolution 46 would allow the lending institution to foreclose on the homestead property for an owelty of partition if the purchaser defaulted on the loan. In addition, the proposed amendment would allow the refinancing of a lien against a homestead. Finally, the proposed amendment would allow a purchaser or lender to rely on an affidavit that states that the property to be conveyed or encumbered is not the homestead of the affiant.

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 34 proposes a constitutional amendment which would increase by $500 million the constitutional authorization of the Veterans' Land Board to issue and sell general obligation bonds of the state to provide housing financing to Texas veterans. The proceeds from the bonds authorized by this amendment shall be used to augment the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund II to be administered and invested as provided by law. The bonds authorized by this amendment shall be incontestable after execution by the Veterans' Land Board, approval by the attorney general, and delivery to the purchaser.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to increase by $500 million the amount of general obligation bonds that may be issued to augment the veterans' housing assistance fund II."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

The surviving spouse must be age 65 or older when the deceased spouse died, and the property must be the residence homestead of the surviving spouse when the deceased spouse died and remain the surviving spouse's residence homestead. In Mills County, the office of constable is abolished, and the powers, duties, and records of the office are transferred to the sheriff. Currently, such investments are prohibited by article XVI, section 70(r) of the Texas Constitution, which would be repealed.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment allowing investment of money from the Texas growth fund in a business without the business's disclosure of its investments in or with South Africa or Namibia."

Committees Gear Up For Busy Year

By Carol Farris,

Chamber of Commerce Publicity Committee Chair

Enthusiastic views of the coming year marked reports by the new committee chairs for the Clarendon-Donley County Chamber of Commerce at the annual meeting. Assembled members heard of a variety of projects for work and play to promote this area locally and to tourists.

"We have a fresh opportunity to grow as we build on the strengths of our businesses and the promise of Thunder Junction," President Don Stone remarked. "Working together can make it happen for Clarendon and all of Donley County."

Mike Suiter, Chair of the Community/HWY 287 Clean-up and Beautification Committee, noted that changes are inevitable as the state resurfaces the highway through town. "We lived through this when it happened in Childress. It's very disruptive while the work's going on, but it truly is worth it when they finish," he reported.

The committee, consisting of Anna Gay Ceniceros, Doil Douthit, and Kevin Thompson are considering proposals to rename Highway 287 "Thunder Junction Blvd." on its in-town portion and mark it with train silhouette street name signs to make Clarendon memorable to those passing through.

Claudia Elliott and Cindy Shelton Co-Chair the Annual Banquet Committee and together with Bobby Floyd, Gayla Fletcher, and Janie Noble as members are planning this event with a "Table Talk" theme. Women-, Man-, and Student-of-the-Year will be recognized at the Banquet to be held in late January. This committee welcomes suggestions for a speaker and needs more volunteers.

The newly formed Festival Committee chaired by Anna Gay Ceniceros with Pat Robertson, Oneta Thomas, Bobby Kidd, Buddy James, JonDale Moffitt, Johnny Floyd, Kathleen Yankie, and Tina Powel as members have several good options for promoting area attractions. The vision for the festival is a day separate from any other celebration that will bring visitors here. Some ideas they're exploring are a boat parade at Lake Greenbelt coordinated with a quilt fair at the Courthouse, arts and crafts exhibits, prose and poetry readings by local writers, and similar activities.

Frank Amon, Fourth of July Parade committee; Dr. Scott Elliott, Leadership Institute Committee; Ginger Stone, Telephone Committee; and Carol Farris, Publicity Committee also reported.

Informational talks on community resources informed the members. Phil Barefield, Superintendent of the Clarendon Independent School District, described the new computers and other modernizing efforts from elementary to high schools.

Larry Jeffers, Principal of Clarendon High School, told of being asked to lead breakout sessions for rural schools at a state convention and Zell SoRell of the Historical Society reminded Chamber members of the Texas state historical society convention in Amarillo.

All the committees are eager to add members. If you have an interest or talent, please call the Chamber at 2421 for more information on how to contribute.

"Minding Your Own Business"

Increasing Returns

We live in a land of laws. Laws form the foundation of our democracy. Laws protect us from others and sometimes from ourselves. Men and women created most of these "rules for living together." However, not all laws that affect our lives are man-made. Some laws are natural laws.

The law of gravity is one example of a natural law. If I stand behind you and throw a bucket of water up in the air right over your head, you will get wet. It doesn't matter if you know about the law of gravity, or if you understand how gravity works; you still get wet.

The law of "Increasing Returns" is another natural law. You may never have heard of the law of increasing returns, but like gravity, it still exists. This interesting natural law manifests itself in many areas of human endeavor.

Napoleon Hill wrote about this law in his book "Law of Success." He wrote, "Render more service than that for which you are paid and you will soon be paid for more than you render. The law of 'Increasing Returns' takes care of this."

I've seen this law manifest in small business, in the corporate work force and in my own life. I know it's true.

The Truth Hurts

Sometimes we do not wish to hear the truth. For example, a few years ago Japanese officials suggested that American workers were a little on the lazy side. Labor unions, industrial workers and many others rose up in protest. "Not true, not true," they shouted. However, there is some truth in what the Japanese said.

Herring National Bank To Acquire Bank in Vernon

Vernon - Bank of America Texas and The Herring National Bank announced on September 7, that they have signed a definitive agreement under which The Herring National Bank will acquire Bank of America's Vernon branch.

Completion of the transaction is subject to approval of applicable regulatory authorities and is expected to be completed in the fourth quarter of the 1995 or early 1996. Terms were not disclosed.

"We look forward to offering our brand of quality service to Bank of America's customers in Vernon and the surrounding area," said Curtis Johnson, President of The Herring National Bank (HNB). "We are dedicated to making the transition a smooth one for customers, as we continue to focus on our style of banking in Vernon."

Bank of America Texas is a subsidiary of BankAmerica Corporation, which has more than 1,900 branches in ten western states. On June 30, 1995, BankAmerica had assets of approximately $226.5 billion and deposits of approximately $155.7 billion.

Bank of America Texas currently operates 241 branches in Texas and had assets of approximately $7.9 billion and deposits of approximately $6.8 billion at June 30, 1995.

The move will mark the first time that a Vernon-based bank has expanded deposit-related services to a second location in Vernon. "We think that Vernon has a very bright future," said Johnson. "This move will help us promote jobs and hopefully provide a very attractive banking environment for our customers. HNB is committed to the success of the area."

According to HNB officials, the acquisition complements other expansion plans that have been in effect for several years. The new branch will represent the bank's fifth banking office.

HNB currently operates several other offices including its main office in Vernon, First Bank & Trust in Clarendon, First Wichita Credit in Wichita Falls and two newly opened branches in Amarillo.

porate world, I had the opportunity to tour and work in some of the nation's largest industrial plants. I watched workers in steel mills, canneries and automotive foundries. I observed thousands of American workers and few of them do more work than that for which they are paid.

Maybe the reason they don't work more productively is they don't understand the law of increasing returns. How often have you heard someone say, "That's not my job" or "I don't get paid to do that." It is obvious to me that those people don't understand how the law works.

Understanding the law

Most farmers understand the law of increasing returns. They till the soil, plant the seed, cultivate the crop, pray for rain - not that much rain - and harvest in the fall. Before they get any return, they work hard and invest heavily.

If they plant 100 acres, they can harvest no more than 100 acres. Sometimes the harvest is dismal, but the farmers plant again. They know that they have to plant if they ever expect to harvest. They understand that the more acres they plant the greater their potential harvest.

There is a parallel in business. We must prepare the business field, cultivate our customers and provide valuable services. Only then can we harvest profits.

Individual workers often find this process hard to understand. Most employees react to short-term incentives. The weekly or monthly paycheck is the most common example. The harvest comes even if they loafed during the week. Actually the law is still in force though everyone appears to receive the same reward.

When hard times come, management releases the least productive and least efficient workers. Therefore, if you are worth more than you are paid, you have additional job security.

Senior Citizen News

Karen Wortham is the clerk at the Donley County Senior Citizens Center. September 15 will be her sixth anniversary. She is truly an asset to the Center. She can do any job that needs to be done and is always a willing worker. They are very fortunate to have her!

They have really enjoyed the garden fresh fruits and vegetables that have been donated lately: cantaloupes and okra from Bill Tolbert and peas, watermelon, and cantaloupes from Ted Shaller.

Zell Sarsfield, Lee Caskey, Thelma Rudder, Sharon Grady, Ellie Wilkinson, Tammy Christopher, Helena Catoe, Thelma Behrens, Karen Wortham, and Sandra Minatrea met Thursday, September 7, to continue working on craft items for the Center's bazaar on October 7. It's beginning to look like a crafts bazaar with holiday wreaths, Christmas ornaments, centerpieces, baby items, Santas, and angels all over the place! They are going to meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays from now until the bazaar. They invite all crafters to join them. There's plenty to do!

Jean Baten, Fred Fortenberry, Nancy Taylor, Murle Butts, Ellie Wilkinson, Willa Cook, Helena Catoe, and Karen Wortham made short work of shelling blackeyed peas at the Center last week.

Crop Insurance Requirements Must Be Met

Insurance requirements must be met to maintain eligibility for 1996 program benefits. Whether you are a tenant or a landlord sharing in the crop, you need to remember that the sales closing date and the insurance cancellation date for 1996 wheat is September 30, 1995. This is also the final date to change to another insurance company, change from CAT insurance to Buy Up, or change from Buy Up to CAT insurance. CAT insurance policies sold through the Donley county CFSA office last year are continuous contracts, and you will automatically be covered for 1996 unless a written notice of cancellation is filed in the CFSA office by September 30, 1995. The administration fee of $50 will be required by your certification date for the applicable crop.

Help Your Heart

Smoke and Stroke: They're a Deadly Combination

Need a good reason to quit smoking? Try this one: Smoking speeds up the thickening of the walls of your arteries, thus increasing your chance for a stroke.

A stroke, or brain attack, is caused when an artery leading to the brain becomes blocked, thus stopping the flow of oxygen-rich blood.

Stroke is the third leading cause of death in the United States and the No. 1 cause of disability. The American Heart Association points out that strokes killed 143,640 people in 1992 and accounted for about one of every 15 U.S. deaths. Many who do survive a brain attack find that the quality of their lives is lessened significantly by the aftereffects.

One of the easiest ways to eliminate a major risk factor for stroke is to not smoke.

Especially if you are older, smoking increases the chances of having a stroke and heart disease. As people age, their artery walls gradually thicken. Cigarette smoking accelerates this process. In fact, studies show that smoking can add 10 years of age to your arteries and increase the chances that they will become clogged.

The clogging process occurs as cigarette smoke causes the platelets in the blood to become sticky and cluster. This situation, in turn, can lead to atherosclerosis, which means the artery walls have become thickened due to deposits of fat, cholesterol and other substances. That reduces the flow of blood in the narrowed arteries.

Need further convincing? The nicotine in tobacco smoke can increase your blood pressure temporarily, while carbon monoxide reduces the amount of oxygen the blood supplies to the body.

Obviously, just as smoking is tied to brain attacks, it is also linked to heart disease, the nation's No. 1 killer. Even worse, smoking-related illnesses accounted for the deaths of about 417,000 Americans in 1990.

To learn more about the dangers of tobacco or obtain information about brain attacks, contact your nearest American Heart Association, or call 1-800-AHA-USA1 (1-800-242-8721).

JOBS IN AMERICA

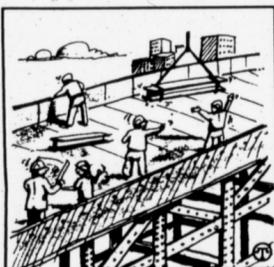

Building Productivity

(NAPS)—People concerned about protecting American jobs agree: improving our roads, bridges and waterworks is essential to enhancing the economy and the quality of life in our nation.

Here are a few facts from the American Society of Civil Engineers which represents the people who build and maintain our infrastructure:

• Every $1 billion of federal investment in infrastructure creates 50,000 jobs and gives regional governments $80 million in added tax revenues.

• Investing $40 billion a year in highways will increase the average

Investing in infrastructure improves safety and quality of life, creates jobs, increases tax revenue, and boosts the economy.

American's productivity $250 per year over the first five years and $3,200 a year after that.

• Good roads and bridges help companies get goods to market faster. Corporate earnings would increase $10 billion annually within five years. That means more jobs.

Many Americans, concerned about the nation's economy and their own, oppose ongoing government efforts to raid the federal highway trust fund and instead, support Congressional efforts to protect the fund.

Lady Broncos Do Well At Meet

Clarendon Lady Bronco Clarissa Smith grabbed the 29th spot and Tangelia Smith placed 99th Saturday in the Plainview Invitational Cross Country meet in a muddy 2-mile race.

Seven Lady Broncos raced along about 225 runners from about 25 schools in the small school division, including powerhouses Sundown, Nazareth, Muleshoe, Dimmitt, and Hart. The Lady Broncos placed about 15th overall in the team competition.

Clarissa Smith's raced to a time of 14:05 and Tangelia Smith's ran the course in 15:10.

Other Lady Broncos times and their places were Kasi Ashcraft, 103rd, 15:15; Korey Knorpp, 118th, 15:30; Kasi Keown, 119th, 15:31; Lolli Menchaca, 130th, 15:45; and Paula Jackson, 140th, 15:55.

Cross Country Coach Steve Schmidt said the girls competed well for their first race of the season. "I think that there was a lot of fear being the first race being in the place that they never had run before," Schmidt said.

"I was really happy for Clarissa. She did really well. She's just a hard competitor. She's using her confidence she gained last year from track last spring."

Schmidt said he believes the Lady Broncos have learned a valuable lesson from their first meet. "If you don't start out really quick and you get behind the mass and you don't have a chance of running your best race. We didn't get around people. It's a learning experience."

Cub Scout Registration Set

Cub Scout registration has been set for Monday, September 18, 1995 at 7:00 p.m. in the Clarendon School Cafeteria. Any and all students interested in being in Cub Scouts is invited to attend. Please bring your parents and $7.00 for dues for the year.

Foreign exchange student Stephane Marmy competed in the junior varsity boys 3-mile race and placed 52nd with a time of 22:24.

The Lady Broncos next race will be September 23 at Amarillo's Thompson Park.

Bronco JV To Host Canadian

In what Coach Kent Allison predicts may be their "toughest test of the season," the Clarendon High School Junior Varsity Broncos will play host to Canadian Thursday night. Kick off will follow the seventh and eighth grade games.

The Broncos will take an 0-1 record into the contest, having dropped their season opener to arch-rival Memphis, 28-0, last week.

Despite the score of the Memphis game, Allison said he was pleased with the effort his J.V. team put forth.

"I'm not looking at the junior varsity program this year on the basis of wins and losses," Allison explained. "I'm looking at the season as an opportunity for our younger players to gain some valuable experience. It's a step forward for our program just to be able to field a J.V. team."

Allison said the J.V. team will undoubtedly be outnumbered when Canadian comes to town.

"We're used to that," Allison said. "Whether it's varsity or junior varsity, Canadian will have more depth than us. I'm just looking for our J.V. team to improve some each week. Offensively, I'm looking for a little better execution of our plays this week, and defensively, we just want the kids to continue to play tough."

Against Memphis, the Broncos were led by sophomore tailback Oren Shields, who pounded out a workhorse-like 35 rushing yards against a stubborn defense. Shields carried the ball 22 times and had a long gain of 12 yards.

The Broncos completed one pass on offense with Freshman QB Scotty Elliott finding lanky wide receiver Blake Bass for a 10-yard pickup. Elliott finished the game hitting on one of three attempts.

Defensively, Allison said he was especially pleased with the play of Trent Mooring, who recorded five solo tackles, two assists, and a fumble recovery. Shields also had five tackles, and Clifford Alexander and Ronnie Tabor racked up five stops apiece. Tabor also had a pass knock down and fumble recovery. Jeremy Shelley and D.J. Edwards were also consistently around the ball.

The Bronco defense also chalked up two pass interceptions. Free Safety Scotty Elliott jumped high in the air to pick off a pass over the middle and returned it 18 yards down the sideline to stop one Memphis march. Sophomore Keith Kidd also stalled an enemy drive with an interception and eight-yard return.

Bell Plans Activities For CC Students

It's Tanya Bell's job to see that Clarendon College students play. President Scott Elliott created the new Activities Director position from student activities fees, to counter former student complaints of "nothing to do." Bell plans a variety of activities for the students during their out-of-class times.

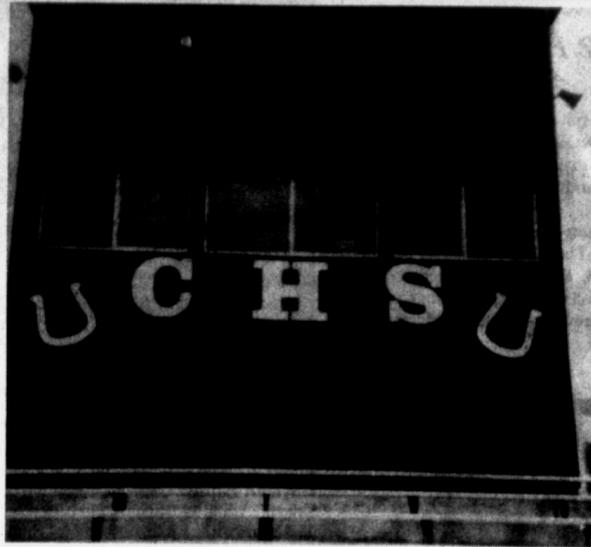

Bell gave the annual ice cream social during the first week of classes a new spin when she invited community members to make their specialty flavors. By coordinating with church committees, many new flavors were added to the tasting options for students.

"Everyone had a great time, the ice cream makers are really appreciated by the students and college staff. We thank all the contributors, not only for the ice cream but for coming to meet the students so they feel welcomed to Clarendon," Bell said.

Other activities Bell plans for Clarendon College students this year will help students meet each other and have fun. One new event already this year was the popular "Blizzard of Bucks" game held Friday. Over 250 college students participated, winning 25 tee shirts, 22 caps, and $240 in cash prizes from the national sponsor.

Bell's own college training at the University of Houston, where she earned a Bachelor of Arts by majoring in hotel and restaurant management, is good training for the Clarendon College Activities Director position. As a student at the Conrad Hilton School of Hotel and Restaurant Management, she studied ways to assure customer satisfaction, promoting an institution as a product, and selling the pleasurable aspects of that institution's environment. Bell uses all these skills to benefit

THE BRONCO BOOSTER CLUB has been busy painting horseshoes on fifth street and the parking lot. In addition, this year has been an extra busy time. All the gates have been painted and horseshoes have been placed on them. But the biggest change of all is the newly painted pressbox. They are doing a great job boosting the spirits of the Broncos and their fans.

Clarendon College students.

In college, Bell was a member of the honors society Eta Sigma Delta and also of Zeta Tau Alpha. She worked in various hotels and for catering companies, during the time one catered the Republican National Convention.

Bell is a graduate of Clarendon High School. She attended Clarendon College through concurrent enrollment and two summer school sessions, earning 32 hours of her degree there.

Paul and Linda Kay Bell are Tanya's parents. Her husband, Jade Drenth, is employed by the City of Clarendon in the street department.

Dr. Dobson Answers Your Questions

Q. I understand how the "love must be tough" philosophy can reconstruct a bad marriage. How would it function in a good relationship?

A. The best way of keeping a marriage healthy is to maintain a system of mutual accountability, within the context of love. Speaking personally, the secret of my beautiful relationship with my wife, Shirley, for the past 32 years has involved a careful protection of the "line of respect" between us.

Suppose I work in my office two hours longer than usual on a particular night, knowing Shirley is preparing a special candlelight dinner. The phone sits on my desk, but I lack the concern to make a brief call to explain. As the evening wears on, Shirley wraps the cold food in foil and puts it in the refrigerator.

Then suppose when I finally get home, I do not apologize. Instead, I sit down with a newspaper and abruptly tell Shirley to get my dinner ready. You can bet there'll be a few minutes of fireworks in the Dobson household. Shirley will rightfully interpret my behavior as insulting and will move to defend the "line of respect" between us.

Let's put the shoe on the other foot. Suppose Shirley knows I need the car at 2 p.m. for some important purpose, but she deliberately keeps me waiting. Perhaps she sits in a restaurant with a lady friend, drinking coffee and talking. Meanwhile, I'm pacing the floor at home wondering where she is. It is very likely that my lovely wife will hear about my dissatisfaction when she gets home. The "line of respect" has been violated, even though the offense was minor.

This is what I mean by mutual accountability. Such minor conflict in a marriage plays a positive role in establishing what is and is not acceptable behavior. Some instances of disrespect are petty, but when they are permitted to pass unnoticed, two things happen. First, the offender is unaware that he has stepped over the line and is likely to repeat the indiscretion later. Second, the person who felt insulted then internalizes the small irritation rather than spilling it out. As the disrespect grows, the stage is set for an eventual explosion.

A workable system of checks and balances of this nature helps a couple keep their marriage on course for a marathon rather than a sprint. And I can assure you, Shirley and I are going the distance!

Q. Do you often deal with the "line of respect" principle in your marriage counseling?

A. In virtually every troubled family I see, the "line of respect" has crumbled. Sometimes the wife is trampling on the husband's territory; sometimes he is all over hers. Either way, within five minutes it is apparent that there is an absence of fair play by one of two partners. Here's an extreme example as described in a letter from a woman whose "line" is now in shambles:

"My husband and I have three children, and I am with them day and night because I can't drive. My husband doesn't want me to go anywhere, anyway. He is very domineering. He dishes out the money and decides how every dollar will be spent."

"This past week was terrible. Mike wouldn't let the kids sing or talk in the car. He orders all of us to bed at a certain time and controls all TV and radio stations. I feel like I have no freedom at all, and my nerves are beginning to act up. The kids are afraid of Mike, too. Anything you can do to help me would be greatly appreciated."

Fortunately, most cases are not as devoid of respect as this one, but it illustrates the problem. If I were working with this woman, my objective would be to teach her how to hold her own with her husband without blowing her marriage off the face of the earth. It would be a delicate task.

To Mommy

*When memories of you, Mommy,
Come to our minds,
Always close by there's a flock
Of adored ones whom love binds
To a woman whose cheers and tears
Have loved us for so many, many years.
Your loving concern encompasses our hungry
Bodies or our thirsty minds, our joys,
Our sorrows, and our pain—even that
From a sticker or a bruised knee;
For all, your love is completely free.
When we see you washing dishes leaning
On one elbow to rest your weary feet,
Your smiling laughter at the chatter
Going 'round you shows your spirit can't be beat.
Once in a while a trace of anger on Your face we find
If one of your loved ones is Injured by someone unkind.
More often though, it's a look of love we see
As you gather a little one on you knee
For one of Mommy's hugs and a kiss:
Or it's delight at seeing again one whom Distance has caused you to miss.
Burnt sugar pies, delicious orange cake
We see you produce if anyone but hints
A desire for Mommy to bake; or we can remember
Your standing at a huge steaming pan
With plenty for an always hungry clan.
Our visions include your obvious faith
As you've met Life's challenges of sickness and sorrow;
It reminds us God's love is as constant as tomorrow.
For all these memories, Mommy, we just want to say,
We'll adore you and love you forever and a day.*

Jacob

*With blue eyes dancing Jacob often sat at our table, and happy laughter filled the room.
His friendly, witty banter always chased away any sign of dreariness or gloom.
Some bright, free spirit seemed this special boy to enfold whose zest for life was a treasure more valuable than gold.
Even dull daily chores Jacob made fun;
and where Jacob was, so was the sun.
Joking and joshing, yet serious, too,
Jacob was God's joy just shining through.
For a moment in Time to cheer me and you and to help spread His love as only a son can do.*
