NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Tuesday, February 3, 1970, the National Honor Society held its formal initiation of new members. Beth Waldrop began the program by leading the parents and friends in the Pledge of Allegience, followed by the invocation given by Jay Lamberth. Jim Risley, president, welcomed the parents, faculty, and friends. He urged each of the students to strive for membership in National Honor Society. He then asked Danny Hill to instruct the incoming members about character. Danny emphasized that character is what you are and what you strive to make of your-

Candy Skelton explained to the initiates the meaning of scholarship. She said that "knowledge is not to be gained without sacrifice and hard work." Brian Tuck-Next Door To Fire Station er instructed the candidates as to the meaning of leadership, He said that "the peace and prosperity of the world, and the salvation of mankind from itself, are in the leaders' hands." Charlie Deyhle commented on service. He said "that common, everyday courtesies are the major essentials of service."

After hearing the qualifications Suzanne Moore administered the pledge to the initiates.. Mr. Jeff Walker, with the assistance of Ted Tyler, Annette Alexander, and Pam Perkins formally accepted Carolyn Barrow, J. Lynn Jones, Myrtis King, Debbie Kirkpatrick, Steve Lewis, Jayne Martin, Penny Maxey, Elizabeth McGarity, Susie Price, Ava Vinson, and Gail Williams into the National Honor Society of Clarendon High

Penny Maxey gave the response by saying that as new members they would strive to lead others to join the National Honor Sociity. Lacreta Burgess and Melinda Lyles concluded the program

IRS Refuse Use of Credit Cards In Payment of Taxes

The Internal Revenue Service announced today that it has not entered into any arrangements with banks or others for the payment of taxes by credit card through any other credit means. The IRS said it will not accept credit cards and that any credit arrangement for the payment of federal taxes is strictly between the taxpayer and his bank or other credit company. On the other hand, if a check or other document issued by a bank or credit company and usacceptable by the Federal Reserve District concerned said however, that if a check or ed by the bank on which it is drawn, the taxpayer may be sub
