THE FIRST CEN-TURY, which traces the history of The Texas Bankers Association from its founding in 1885 to the present has received very favorable reviews by Dallas and Houston newspapers.

Bronnie F. McNabb, Jr., President of First Bank & Trust stated "We hope THE FIRST CENTURY will provide entertaining reading to Donley County residents as well as serving as a useful source of reference to students of Texas history. # Bronchos defuse

The long play was common place Friday night at Bronco stadium as the Clarendon Broncos beat Wellington 26-13 to keep their hopes alive for a state play off berth.

Rockets 26-12

In 1983 Wellington knocked Clarendon out of the play offs, but the Broncos made sure this didn't happen again.

The early part of the first quarter was 1-2-3 punt for both teams, with both defenses controlling the game. Late in the quarter the Broncos struck like a bolt of lightning, taking the ball on their own 26 yard line and scored in two plays. Robert Youngblood made a super catch of a Trent Sharp pass for 50 yards to move the ball to the Rocket 24 yard line. Rodney Smith on the next play went 24 yards around right end for the touchdown and Sharp added the point after to make the score 7-0. The quarter ended a few seconds later.

The second quarter was a battle between the 30 yard lines except when Dewey Mincey recovered a Rocket fumble on the Rocket 18 yard line. The Broncos quickly moved to the 10 yard line but a penalty and two incomplete passes gave the ball back to the Rockets at the 15 yard line. Neither team threatened to score again and the half ended with the Broncos leading 7-0.

The fireworks started early in the second half as Rodney Smith went up the middle and turned right and went 69 yards for a touchdown on the first play. Smith's ability is unmatched when he reaches the secondary and a thing of beauty. The kick was blocked and the Broncos led 13-0. The Broncos weren't thru for the quarter as they went 50 yards the next time they got the ball. Youngblood again took a Sharp pass for 35 yards to the Rocket 15 yard line. Smith ran to the three yard line and Stanley Gardner scored on the next play. The pass for two points fell incomplete and the Broncos led 19-0

With the way the Broncos play defense one would have thought the game was over, but this was not the case this time. The Broncos quickly moved back into Rocket territory but Sharp to Youngblood pass was intercepted on the Rocket 11 yard line. Rocket halfback Larry Benton put new life in the Rockets as he went 89 yards for the touchdown. Gardner knocked down the pass on the extra point and the Broncos still led 19-6.

PEN of PASTOR ! PINION'

HE IS COMING!

I remember when I was in the service, we would all be laying around the barracks just taking life easy, when all of the sudden the phone would ring notifying us of a prominent officer being in town and that we needed to prepare for a surprise inspection. Needless to say, everyone jumped to their feet picking up trash, cleaning the floors and latrines and running around like chickens with their heads cut off.

The inspecting officers would make his inspection and congratulate us on how neat and orderly we were able to keep our facilities and then be on his way. Everyone would sigh a sigh of relief and return to their usual state of lethargy and slothfulness.

We would have never been able to have the passed the inspection had it not been for that phone call warning us to get prepared.

I cannot help but think that in one way or the other the Bible speaks of the return of Christ hundreds of times. When He returns He will be as a thief in the night because no one will be expecting Him. He will come without warning. He will come literally as He went away. There will not be any telephone call to get us ready. The only word we receive is through His word. We must be prepared to meet the Lord or be prepared to accept the penalty for our slothfulness.

When Jesus comes again we will not have time to run around our homes and put away the literature and magazines and put the Bible in hide our "skimpy" halter top dresses, our short shorts, our tight pants, our mini-skirts or pull the plug on our T.V.

When Jesus comes again there will not be time to prepare a speech on all the good things we have been involved in. There will not be time to tell Him how our neighbors and friends hindered us in His service. There will be judgment, "So then each one of us shall give an account of himself before God." God will not accept our excuses, nor will He give us time to repent. Today is the time to prepare ourselves for His coming. Remember, He is coming!

See in Each Person the Human Face of God

And when they came to the place which is called The Skull, there they crucified him, and the criminals, one on the right and one on the left. And Jesus said, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." Luke 23:33-34

How you see another person determines the quality and direction of your relationships. If you can only see the externals, you will miss the person everytime. If you learn to see with your heart, to penetrate the obstacles of stereotypes, prejudices, possessions, appearance, language, performance, and all the rest-if you look deeply into the heart of another—you will find the real person. Your relationships will become an adventure.

The fighter knows that the fight is for people. Therefore, people are not the enemy. Your children or your parents are not your enemy. The leaders of the church are not your enemy. Your fellow-workers are not your enemy. The people around you in your daily routines—they are not your enemy.

Condemned unjustly by Jewish religious leaders, crucified by Roman soldiers, ridiculed by an angry mob of citizens, Jesus—in the midst of pain, humiliation, and apparent defeat - prayed, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." They were not the enemy. Jesus was fighting not for his life, but for theirs

There is no other way to fight for people than to fight for their hearts

Child restraint law now in effect

A law recently passed by the Texas Legislature and signed by Governor Mark White will go a long way toward protecting the health and safety of Texas children. The new law requires the use of safety restraints for children under age four who ride in cars of light trucks. The law's aim is to reduce the grim statistics which make Texas a national leader in deaths and injuries for this age group.

Last year in Texas, 78 children under the age of four died as innocent passengers in automobiles, and another 6,603 were injured-many seriously. National studies indicate that up to 80 percent of the deaths and injuries could have been avoided through the proper use of child passenger safety restraints.

Texas lawmakers passed the bill mandating the use of child passenger safety seat systems on June 30, 1984. Specifically, the legislation requires children under two years old to be secured in child passenger safety seats, and children between the ages of two and four years to be secured by either safety seats or safety belts. The law went into effect Oct. 31.

The new legislation also provides for a $25-$50 fine for non-compliance but the penalty can be dismissed if a person acquires a safety seat system within 10 days of the offense. No fines will be charged until Jan. 1,

In reaction to the new law, Dr. Robert Bernstein, Commissioner of Health, said, "It gives me great pleasure and relief to learn that the legislature has acted on this problem. The new law, combined with public education and awareness campaigns, will save the lives and protect the safety of thousands of infants and young children in

In an effort to increase parents' voluntary use of safety seats and to reduce the number of young children killed or injured in motor vehicle accidents, the Texas Department of Health has initiated the Safe Riders program.

This program, conducted in cooperation with the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, began in April.

The program consists of a statewide awareness effort and a special demonstration project in the Dallas/ Fort Worth area (Public Health Region 5). The statewide effort includes: *A public awareness campaign to encourage parents to use child safety seats in their cars; *A toll-free information line

(1-800-252-8255) manned by bilingual (English/Spanish) operators from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday; *Promotional and educational materials for consumers and health care providers concerning the use and availability of car safety seats;

*Educational resource materials for community leaders who want to establish loaner and reduced-cost sales programs.

Pamphlets, resources packages, and other information in English and Spanish about localized child passenger safety programs which loan or sell seats at reduced prices are available through the toll-free information line. In addition, callers may order bilingual educational materials and receive consumer information about safety seats.

The fourth quarter also had its excitement as the Rockets recovered a Bronco fumble on the Bronco 25. They quickly moved to score but missed the point after. The score was 19-12 with 8:25 left in the game.

The Broncos and the Rockets each had the ball once and were unable to move. The Broncos took over on their own 39 and Gardner made four yards on the first play and on the second play he raced 57 yards for the touchdown. Sharp kicked the point and the Broncos led 26-12 with 2:52 left. The game ended with the Broncos deep on Rocket territory.

The Bronco offense ran for 240 yards and Sharp hit on 4 of 13 passes for 118 yards. Smith had 20 carries for 148 yards and Gardner had 109 yards on 14 carries. Gardner was the offensive player of the game.

Don Brogdon was the defensive player of the game with 15 tackles and 4 sacks behind the line. Rod Keown had 15 tackles and 4 sacks and he also punted 6 times for a 37 yard average. Leland Howell had 13 tackles and Richard Torres had 12 tackles.

Dean Cearley, one of the leading players on the Broncos team, missed the game due to a knee injury. There is a possibility he will see some action this week.

The Broncos now stand 3-1 in district play. They travel to White Deer to play the Bucks Friday night. The Bronco's play off hopes are still very much alive. White Deer is 4-0 in district and Memphis is 3-1.

DELINQUENT TAX COLLECTIONS CONTINUE

Approximately 95% of local taxes are paid timely by February 1 following each tax year. Those few property owners who do allow their tax assessments to become delinquent are assessed mandatory penalties and interest; notices are always issued warning of the tax delinquency and of any collection action. Most of these few do pay within the following five months; after July 1 following delinquency an additional collection penalty is incurred to defray costs of collections. Then, personal property may be seized and real property otherwise taken to be sold to satisy the tax lien.

This final action is taken only after other collection efforts have failed for a reasonable time!

Unless all pay their tax, it is not a fair system for the willing and prompt taxpayers who are the great majority.

All of the local property tax dollars stay here in Donley County to pay for local governmental services from which we all recieve benefit. These local governing bodies are all composed of local people whom we elect.

Ashtola Martin news

By Naomi Green

Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Brandon were in Hedley for the celebration of her sister's birthday at the home of Myrl and Frank Reger. Happy birthday Myrl!

Mrs. Royce Hall's sister, Gertrude Carnes, came home with them after Royce's medical check-up last Tuesday. The ladies have enjoyed squirreling peas and pears for winter use and of course sisterly company.

Nuford Dill, formerly of Ashtola, was buried in Clarendon Thursday. His brother Edward and family of Muenster came for the service. Mrs. Dill preceded her husband in death in 1980.

Naomi Green enjoyed the company of Laura Tucker enroute to Amarillo Wednesday for admittance to High Plains Baptist Hospital for eye surgery. Laura recalled raiding her grandmother's "safe" for cold biscuits and fat bacon. Her grandmother's floors were bare wood scrubbed with ashes and lye soap. She always cautioned, "Children don't drop grease on the floor." This brought memories of going the long way home through the pasture at Thalia to gain the "jugs" made of biscuits and syrup of a kindly neighbor, Mrs. Adkins. We made it through surgery Thursday and Mrs. Tucker is recuperating at home.

O.V. Bennett of Warshburn and his son Mr. and Mrs. Larry Bennett of Amarillo visited Sunday with the Bill Bennetts.

Jonna Naylor and a friend visited with Naomi Green, Clint, David, Lindsay and Tiffany Patterson enroute to Thalia Saturday. Jonna has been working in Houston but turned up on home turf in time to Richard, Vici and Erin Naylor visited Sunday night with the Royce Halls and their house guest Gertrude Carnes enroute to Amarillo from Thalia.

Clifford and Stella Jewett were honored this year honored at an anniversary supper by of 1957 and 1958.

Viola Graham received word that her granddaughter, Carmen, and her team had won three nights in academic competition at Anderson College Bowl. Many people who live alone or have little appetite are careless about diet. Exercise helps too, allowing you to eat more and consume more nutrients without gaining as much weight.

Even so, with age we absorb and take up vitamins and minerals less efficients. Older people take more medications too; these can interfere with absorption nutrients. Discovery Center

run series about

Halley's Comet

Halley's Comet, the most famous celestial wanderer of all time, is hurtling toward its February 9, 1986 redezvous with the sun. To herald tis event, the Don Harrington Discovery Center is hosting a sneak preview of "Comet Halley: Once in a Lifetime" and "The Night the World Trem-

The series runs Nov. 2 through Dec. 7. Shows are at 7:30 p.m. each Friday during the limited engagement. Cost is $2.00 for adults and $1.50 for children ages 6-12 and senior citizens.

Comets have had a profound influence on human history. The word "comet" comes from the Greeks, meaning "hairy star" - a star with a beard! To the ancient Greeks, comets meant wind and drought. The people of the Middle Ages held them responsible for wars, famine and plague.

"The Night the World Trembled" relives the terror and panic experienced during Halley's 1910 visit. Many Americans thought the world was coming to an end. They sealed their doors and windows, hid in underground bunkers, stockpiled food and bought gas masks, even "comet pills" as protection against 'noxious vapors' as a portion of Halley's tail swept across the earth.

"Comet Halley: Once in a Lifetime" is an American Chemical Society production and is so named because the comet returns to the inner solar system on an average of every 76 years, thus linking human generations across a lifespan. The comet is called Halley to honor Edmond Halley, the 18th century English scientist who was first to recognize that comets travel in predictable orbits around the sun.

Today, we know that comets are "dirty snowballs," pristine material left over from the birth of the solar system. We now know that Halley's Comet is less than three miles in diameter. Yet it will develop a gaseous coma larger than Jupiter, and a tenuous hydrogen cloud with a diameter greater than that of the sun. Its tail will sweep across 50 million miles.

On the 1986 passage, Halley will be studied by astronomers aboard the Space Shuttle and thousands of professional and amateur astronomers will peer at it through Earth-bound telescopes.

Comet Halley may tell us about the chemicals and conditions present at the birth of our solar system, how comets may have played a role in the appearance of life on Earth, and how comets possibley were the culprits in periodic mass extinctions of life on our planet.

One day, two meteor showers may be all that remain of Halley's Comet. Such is the fate of their kind. But for now, Halley has returned - to be remembered for our lifetime.

Farm Credit Initiatives set to go into operation

Regulations for implementing President Reagan's Farm Credit Initiatives have been completed and are being distributed to Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) field offices, Charles W. Shuman said

The regulations provide for a one-time debt set-aside program for FmHA borrowers and loan guarantees for non-FmHA borrowers.

In addition, Shuman has developed guidelines which County Supervisors will use in siging contracts with local non-Government lenders and farm management specialists. These specialists will provide additional advice and assistance to financially distressed farm borrowers.

In both cases, the action will restore farmers to a positive cash flow position.

"With field office training underway, we will have everything in place for the successful launching of this program," Shuman said.

Under the plan announced recently by the President for farmers experiencing serious financial difficulty, FmHA can set aside up to 25 percent, to a maximum of $200,000, of a borrower's debt for five years without interest.

For non-FmHA borrowers, the agency can guarantee up to 90 percent of a loan if the lender is willing to write off a minimum of 10 percent of the debt.

Commissioners Court met Oct. 22.

The Commissioners Court met October 22 with all commissioners present. Also attending the meeting were W.R. Christal, County Judge and P.C. Messer, County Clerk.

*Bob McCombs, Clarendon Postmaster discussed with the court re-locating the rural boxes. McCombs explained some of the rural mail boxes had to be moved to meet the Federal regulations. They asked the Postmaster to get the names of the owners and the boxes and they would oblige.

On a motion by J.R. Graham and second by Buford Holland, the court tabled the hiring of a Home Demonstration Agent until January 14, 1985. On call of question, Commissioner C.W. Cornell voted against the motion. The motion carried.

The president of the state's largest farm organization Friday called proposed state pesticide regulations 'unnecessary, unreasonable, and unworkable.

S.M. True, a Plainview cotton and grain farmer, said existing state and federal regulations on pesticides give adequate protection.

Farm Bureau policy on the subject reads in part, "Regulations governing application of agricultural chemicals must be workable and effective, and should always be accompanied by an economic impact statement proving that they will solve more problems than they create."

True said that the proposals announced Oct. 19 by the Texas Department of Agriculture are "ambiguous" and contain "a number of craps for the unwary farmer or rancher."

"They (the proposals) appear to have been drafted by individuals without a working knowled agriculture or by someone intent on multiplying the problems of farmers and ranchers," True said. "Some one wishing to harass a farmer will find happy hunting in the requirements of these regulations."

True discounted the claim by the TDA that farmers had input in the regulations which the Department has been developing for the past year.

True said that the Texas Farm Bureau, representing 313,000 member families, found out about the proposal "by accident" in August.

On Sept. 20 TFB met with leaders of 20 agricultural groups to discuss the proposals.

"Only three of these organizations knew that TDA was developing these regulations," True said.

"It is a fact that the Department did not make its plans known to agriculture until after we discovered what was being proposed, and only then because members of the Legislature requested that TDA talk to us," the Farm Bureau leader said.

True said a public statement by Texas Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower concerning pesticides "raises the question of Mr. Hightower's motives for these regulations." He said Hightower was quoted in THE DALLAS MORNING NEWS earlier this year as saying "the weaning of Texas Agriculture from chemicals" is a high priority of his administration. "Careful use of pesticides keeps the consumer's food supply safe from rot, worms and rodents," True said. "Consumers demand high quality produce and farmers must have a means of protecting their crops from devastation by insects and disease."

True said farmers do not use pesticides carelessly or unnecessar-

"No farmer or rancher wishes to cause damage to the environment, nor do we want to hurt our employees or the public," True said. "By complying with existing state and federal regulations, we feel that there are adequate protections in place. As a matter of fact, the Texas Department of Agriculture has yet to present a convincing case for the need for these extremely stringent regulations," he said.

The Clarendon Lions Club held its present. After the regular opening ceremony, Boss Lion Lovelady made several announcements and gave the club a report on its current financial status. The report was favorable and the officers and secretary Homer Estlack are to be commended for the good job they are doing. Tail Twister Darrell Leffew will be in charge of a work day to begin at 10:00 a.m. Saturday morning, Nov. 10 to do some much needed clean-up and haul-off type work at the Lions Hall. Rumor has it that the only excuse that he will accept for missing this yours. Our new Deputy District Governor Prickett of the Howardwick Lions Club is looking for a zone chairman to fill the position he vacated. Any Lion who thinks he might qualify for the position can contact Lion Prickett or Boss Lion Lovelady. Our program today was given by Clarendon High School head coach and athletic director Buddy Sharp. He said that he had a good group of boys to work with this year and invited everyone to back the Broncos by their attendance at the game at White Deer Friday night.
