Well, they say "It's not whether you win or lose, but how you play the game" and we think the Bronchos played a good game in Childress last Friday night. The Broncho stands were full despite the wet weather. We've had the taste of defeat and we are determined not to let it happen again and the Bronchos will prove this when they go against White Deer Bucks next Friday night. Let's all be there to cheer our boys on to a win. See you in White Deer.

The Cheerleaders spent Saturday getting the halls ready again for this week. They took time out to watch the B-Team beat Memphis though Saturday morning. This was a victory that really made everybody happy. We all need to turn out and support our B-Team boys. The Cheerleaders will be getting ready for the Pep Rally Friday afternoon. Let's show the enthusiasm for our mighty Bronchos. See 'ya there.

The Broncho mascot did a good job Friday night. These girls work hard too. I don't think we realize how much work these girls put into this. We want you to know we appreciate you, Pat Trout and Chris Craft.

The Band looked and sounded good Friday night. They are practicing very hard and Mr. Bowen is doing a great job with them. Keep up the good work!!

Would sor cone please see if they could find a longer rope to put on the Victory Bell? Belinda Tanner would get so excited Friday right she would run and then come to a sudden stop when she reached the end of rope. It may be hard to find a rope the length of the entire football field.

What was it that gave Mrs. Grady an ulcer Friday night? Pat Trout received a surprise in the mail last week. At first glance it looked like Mike Leeper had had his senior ring shrunk, but the second look showed it was a miniature ring engraved with the United States Army on it. Pat was really happy about it and she says "keep those cards and letters coming, Mike." Tallene Littlefield, what were you all smiles about the other day? Some of the girls have been getting some pretty funny phone calls lately. What's it all about? Matt Plunkett has a good sense of humor Pam Mooring may be little but she's loud. Connie Fisher don't believe everything you hear.

Cindy Reynolds and Ricky Rattan, are you keeping a secret from us? Just whisper it; we won't tell.

Kathy Osburn, do you stay in a bee hive all the time? Johnny Gerner, that was a good one!!!

Steve Stavenhagen, we noticed that you have been sleeping on Scotty Martin, did you break your whistle? Jerry Holland can really keep a secret. If you don't believe it, Bobby Ellerbroook is really working hard these days, but at what??

Ricky Gerner is a friend indeed.

This is the scene as the Clarendon High School Cheerleaders wait for the Bron- Invaders from outer space? No. this is just a part of the cheerleaders skit at the chos to come on to the field in Friday night's opening game against Childress.

Locally Mr. James Duke, vocational adjustment coordinator is working with Mrs. Arthur Shields, Mrs. Floyd Guinn, Mrs. Jerry Hawkins, and Mrs. Owen employed by the school but are working with EPCO. Just what is EPCO's purpose?

It is a program designed to bridge the gap between school and the world of work for high school youth who have learning problems and difficulty in completing the regular academic program. Young people age 16 and up are eligible.

Vocational Adjustment class is held on the campus of Clarendon High School with services extended to eligible members of this class while they are still enrolled in high school.

The course of study gives first attention to the development of vocational adjustment with emphasis on evaluation, planning and suitable on-the-job training. Job training stations may be secured depending on the maturity of the student. The Marks Of A Christian

Weldon Rives, Pastor First United Methodist Church

Galatians 6:17-For I bear in my body the marks of the Lord

Have you ever noticed persons who bear upon their bodies the marks which tell of the things they do in their daily living? We live in the day of the modern farmer and rancher. However, some things have to be done much, in much the same way they were in the days of our forefathers, and they often bear the marks of their lives: etc. You can tell one when you see one. You know him - he can't be mistook, and this is also true often of other professions of life.
