Bronchos beat Memphis 17-9

The Clarendon Bronchos closed their season Friday night against old rival Memphis with a 17-9 win. The Bronchos finished the season 8-1-1 and 3-1-1 in district play. Despite the Bronchos fine season record, they still sit at home while Panhandle and Wellington advance to the playoffs.

The Bronchos began the game on their first possession with all cylinders clicking. Booney Gardner received the opening kick-off and returned it 11 yards to the Memphis 35. On 1st down Rodney Smith made 2, Glenn Weatherton added 9 on 2nd down for a Broncho first down at the 46 yard line. On first down, Booney Gardner made 3 and then QB Dyrton Howell hit tight end Johnny Gaines with a perfect pass that Johnny took to the Memphis 1 yard line. Curly Weatherton carried it in and Arlis Thomas added the extra point to give the Bronchos a 7-0 lead early in the first quarter.

The Bronchos seemed poised to put the game away early as they pulled off the "surprise" inside kick with Glenn Weatherton recovering at the 50 yard line. However, this momentum was short lived as Dyrton Howell's pass attempt was intercepted by the Cyclones Coby Smith. This interception set up the Cyclones only touchdown of the night. The Bronchos defense stood tough, however, and forced Memphis into a 4th and 25 situation. Coby Smith's 36 yard pass to Sam Carter was good for a Cyclone TD that cut the Clarendon lead to 7-6 as the kick failed. The Cyclones would take a 9-7 lead in the second quarter when Brian Whitten hit a 39 yard field goal.

The Bronchos came back to put points on the board before the half. The Bronchos put together a drive that would end at the Memphis 18 yard line with an Arlis Thomas field goal. Rodney Smith and Glenn Weatherton accounted for the yardage on the ground. Rodney scampered for 50 yards on a 4th down play to set up the Broncho's scoring attempt. On 1st down from the 10 Glenn Weatherton carried to the Memphis goal line before being knocked out of bounds. However, an illegal procedure penalty nullified that gain. Two running plays and a pass attempt could gain only 5 yards - the Bronchos were faced with 4th down. Arlis Thomas came on to kick a 36 yard FG to give the Bronchos a 10-9 halftime lead.

Neither team could put together a scoring threat in the 3rd quarter. But the Bronchos would add another TD in the 4th quarter. The "Maroon Magic" converted a 4th down fake punt into a 1st down that would set up the Broncho TD. Facing 4th down at the Memphis 39 yard line, the Bronchos pulled off the biggest play of the night. Doug Walker, the short man in the punt formation took the snap, attempted a pass to Brian Smith. The pass was deflected and caught by Broncho Leland Howell as he was trailing the play. The play was good for 18 yards and a Broncho 1st down. From the 18 yard line Glenn Weatherton made 2, and on 2nd down Dyrton Howell hit TE Johnny Gaines again, this time for 16 yards and a Broncho TD. Arlis Thomas added his 2nd extra point to extend the Broncho lead to 17-9.

The Broncho defense stymied the last Cyclone scoring attempt as Richard Gaines intercepted his second pass of the night in the end zone. The Broncho defense held Memphis to 57 yards rushing and 2 of 14 for 56 yards passing. The Broncho offense rolled up 342 total yards gained while limiting the Cyclones to 113 total yards.

This was a hard game for the Bronchos. They desperately wanted to end the season with a win to secure their 8-1-1 season record - but the heart was wanting to be in the playoffs. For a team that began the season picked to finish 5th by both Top of Texas Magazine and the Harris Rating System, the Bronchos proved that desire, hard work, and enthusiasm can bring success. To the coaches and the 1983 Broncho "Maroon Magic" congratulations on a fantastic year.

Broncho outstanding performances:

Rodney Smith - 19 carries for 139 yards, 2 tackles, 7 assists.

assists, 1 sack.

Great American Smokeout

On November 17, all across the country people are going to be putting down their cigarettes and tobacco for one day.

GASO is sponsored by the American Cancer Society in order to possibly help someone kick the habit. This year our local theme for the smokeout is called "Never Say Never to a cure for cancer in our lifetime". Each day we see another friend or relative battling against cancer. It is time we refuse to let cancer dominate our society.

Smoking cigarettes is no laughing matter; neither is quitting. But once a year thousands of serious quitters do have some fun as they try to make it through the day without a cigarette. The occasion is the Great American Smokeout, an annual celebration when the American Cancer Society urges smokers to go a full 24 hours without cigarettes. This year, Smokeout Day is Thursday, November 17.

Good times are the order of the day. Festivities designed to amuse smokers, lift spirits and keep minds off cigarettes will be in full force.

The serious side of quitting will also be addressed. The Surgeon General has labeled cigarette smoking the "chief avoidable cause of death in our society." Statistics bear this out. Smoking has been shown to be responsible for more than 75% of all lung cancer, the number one cancer killer of men. By the end of the 80's, lung cancer is expected to replace breast cancer as the number one cause of cancer death among women.

Larry Hagman of "Dallas" will serve a third year as national Great American Smokeout Chairman. This year, Hagman has a special message for nonsmokers eager to help smoking friends through the day: "Give 'em sympathy, give 'em understanding, but don't give 'em a cigarette." The popular "Larry Hagman Special Stop Smokin' Wrist Snappin' Red Rubber Band" will again be available.

This is the seventh anniversary of the Great American Smokeout. This unusual national event continues to make an enormous impact on smokers. Last year, according to a Gallup study, 3 out of 10 cigarette smokers either cut down or quit for the day. Close to 4.5 million smokers actually quit for the day. About 2.3 million of these quitters were still not smoking 1 to 11 days later.

The Clarendon Elementary is getting involved by having "the battle of the posters". This involved grades 1-5. Each class is drawing a big poster. Bivens will display the artwork in the store's window.

To kick off the event on Tuesday, November 15 films on cancer will be shown to the Lion's Club in Clarendon.

Please make an effort to quit smoking and chewing for one day on November 17. The habit might just be broken!

The GASO Chairman for Clarendon is Dennis Knowles.

Prussic Acid poisoning in livestock

A killing frost will be hitting Donley County before long, and this could lead to prussic acid poisoning in livestock grazing certain pasture grasses and forage, points out Ronald Gooch, Donley County Extension Agent.

Although many plants contain the toxic material that causes poisoning, those causing the highest mortality in livestock when grazing after they have been frozen and wilted are Johnson and Sudan grasses and sorghum or hybrids of these.

The most dangerous time as far as grazing of these plants is concerned is following frost when the plant material begins to wilt, emphasizes Gooch. Livestock should not be allowed access to the wilted material until it has dried completely. This usually takes three or four days of good sunlight. New plant growth usually becomes nontoxic and can be grazed within 10 days to two weeks following rain.

As far as prussic acid poisoning is concerned, the poison acts rapidly and can kill animals within minutes. In most acute cases, animals become affected within 10-15 minutes after eating toxic material and can die in two to three minutes. Symptoms may include a brief period of stimulation followed by depression and paralysis. Signs of colic may be present. Stupor (loss of sensibility), difficult breathing and frequent convulsions may result. Death is caused by suffocation since oxygen remains in the blood and is not exchanged to the tissues. This also causes the blood to appear bright red.

To prevent prussic acid poisoning in livestock, Gooch outlines these steps:

1. Allow plant material affected by frost to dry thoroughly before grazing. This may require a week or more of good sunlight.
2. Feed animals hay or a supplement before turning them in on plants that may contain prussic acid. Animals that are not hungry will not be affected as seriously by toxic material since their intake will be limited.

3. Remove all animals from the pasture if one in the herd shows any signs of poisoning.
4. Call a veterinarian immediately if an animal appears to be poisoned. An antidote to treat affected animals is highly efficient if given early. This product is available from veterinarians.

The overall key to prevent prussic acid poisoning in livestock is to be aware of plant materials that may cause poisoning and then to keep the cattle from grazing such plants until a safe period has passed, points out Gooch.

Worst of the economic recession is over in Texas

State Comptroller Bob Bullock told Texas officials the worst of the economic recession is over in Texas but the state Treasury shouldn't expect any windfalls.

Bullock released a revised estimate of available revenues to top state officials and members of the Legislature.

"The worst of the state's economic slump is behind us," Bullock wrote state leaders. "However, there has been no dramatic overall change in the revenue estimate I gave you last May."

Bullock predicted Texas will have about $15 million more than necessary to meet state expenses when the current 1984-85 state budget ends on August 31, 1985.

"That's a good deal better than the $36,866 left unspent at the end of the special legislative session last summer," Bullock said.

The adjusted revenue estimate shows oil severance tax receipts are higher than

Letter to the Editor

The following article was submitted by Fire Chief Delbert Robertson. It would help if the citizens of Clarendon, Howardwick and Hedley would contact their representative in Austin. They are: Senator Bill Sarpalius, Box 12068, Austin, Texas 78711, phone 512-475-3222 and Representative Foster Whaley, Box 2910, Austin, Texas 78769 or call toll free 1-800-692-1389 and ask them to help pass this bill. This bill would help all the fire departments in the state.

During the most recent session of the Texas Legislature, the State Firemen's and Fire Marshals' Association of Texas sponsored a bill calling for a constitutional amendment to create an emergency equipment fund to help Texas fire departments make major equipment purchases. That bill was passed by the House of Representatives by a 136-0 vote, but got bogged down in a Senate committee and never reached the floor of the Senate for debate.

The losers were the 1,600 fire departments and the hundreds of thousands of Texans who depend on those departments to protect their lives and property. Fire departments have lost two major sources of funds in recent years: (1) low-interest loans previously available on a competitive basis through federal revenue-sharing programs have dried up, and (2) traditional fund-raising barbecues and fish fries no longer net enough money to buy a major item like a pumper -- which costs over $100,000.

Many firefighters in Texas -- perhaps some in your community -- fight fires with 30-year-old trucks, inadequate equipment, and/or little or no protective clothing or breathing apparatus. They deserve better -- and the citizens of your community deserve better. This legislation can give it to them.

Monies for the fund would come from an existing draft made by the State Board of Insurance on fire insurance premiums collected in Texas each year. Estimates are that the fund would make available the first year $20 million to be allocated to individual fire departments through grants and low-interest loans.

The SFFMA, meeting in June in Beaumont, voted to petition Governor Mark White to include this essential piece of legislation on the agenda of any called special session of the Texas Legislature.

"The need is immediate," says SFFMA President Ray Williamson of Wharton. "Fire departments can wait no longer for this kind of help. We don't want to get to the point where the fire service of Texas can no longer provide first rate fire protection to all our citizens."

Created in 1876, the SFFMA is the largest statewide firefighters' association in Texas and represents all firefighters in the state.

Your support of our efforts is greatly appreciated. Sincerely, Delbert W. Robertson Fire Chief

The best thing that one can say about RITA HAYWORTH. A MEMOIR by James Hill is that it is a loan book and the library does not have to pay for it.

A loan book is made to the library through the Texas Public Library Systems by McNaughton, a book company, with the option to buy it. This allows our library members to read a number of books that can be returned to the company if not liked. Many times it is quite difficult to tell from a few short lines whether the book is any good or not.

The author was Rita's third husband for a brief time. He doesn't even tell how long they were married in his memoir. Their marriage was after her divorce from Ali Khan.

For some inexplicable reason he writes the whole book in a Mickey Spillane-type style. Sounds romantic doesn't it? It takes seventy-two boring pages of egomania for him to meet Rita officially. He then goes about selling her on the idea that she really can retire from acting and spend the rest of her life with him and her painting. He told her that he would devote his life to her and his writing. His real reason for marrying her was to sign her up for the movies with which he was connected. And so on such a false foundation was another Hollywood marriage based.

Ironically, Rita had told him at one point that his best talent...that of using people, was keeping him from writing. How right she was. He used her. He used his publishers. He used the readers of this book. If you pay money for the book, he will have used you even more.

From this viewpoint, the only interesting fact in the whole book is that Rita happened to be a good golfer. She was not a long hitter, but with her graceful swing she was accurate. When she became engaged she hit three iron shots at closed windows from the inside. Yes, she used regular golf balls.

Please remember to save your books and paperbacks for our book sale.

Anyone who is interested in the origins of names will enjoy AMERICAN SURNAMEN by Elsdon C. Smith. This book, which in the library, is informative and interesting.

The author tells us that modern hereditary surnames were not used until the tenth century when Venetian patricians started the custom. For the next six hundred years the use of surnames spread. First they were used in France and England, then to Germany and all of Europe. Commerce was increasing, and the exact name of an individual was becoming a necessity.

Names were derived from one's father; from one's occupation or office; from one's nickname; or from a place or location. Hundreds of names are used in the book and chances are that one will find his own.

One, among many, is a chart showing the most common names in order of frequency in the United States in 1790. They were: Smith, Brown, Johnson, Jones, Davis, Clark, Williams, Miller, Wilson, White, Taylor, Thompson, Allen, Moore, Hall, Hill, Adams, Reed, Baker and Green.

A memorial given to the library is always appreciated.

first estimated but this increase is offset by lower receipts from natural gas severance taxes.

Other factors which appear to be trade-outs, according to Bullock, include increased income from franchise taxes and insurance taxes, but lower-than-expected sales

Bullock also knocked out $27 million in potential tax receipts as the result of credits allowed insurance companies to offset insured losses to Hurricane Alicia. "There aren't any pennies from heaven in this economic forecast," Bullock said, "but there aren't any hailstones either."

Fall fruit tree spraying controls diseases

Fall is often the time when fruit tree care is forgotten or neglected, but it's a critical time for controlling many peach and plum tree diseases to insure a good crop next year.

With the arrival of fall, there's often a tendency to forget our peach and plum trees that served us so well last summer, notes Ronald Gooch, Donley County Extension Agent.

Gooch says that applying a copper fungicide now can stop or reduce three of the six diseases that attack peach and plum trees in Texas.

These are peach leaf curl, bacterial leaf spot and bacterial canker.

Puckers and distorted peach tree leaves that were either bright red or light green in diseased areas last spring were due to peach leaf curl fungus. The only time to effectively control this disease is in the fall with a copper-containing fungicide such as Kocide 101.

Timing of the fall spray is critical for effective control and for avoiding tree damage, Gooch explains. Copper is a metal and may cause severe defoliation unless applied correctly.

Bacterial leaf spot affects both fruit and foliage. The infection causes fruit to crack and leaves develop angular spots which drop out. Bacterial canker will kill trees slowly. Infected trees will have gum or wax forming on the trunk and main limbs.

Fall spraying is important to the health and production of fruit trees, Gooch says, because there's no other time when 50 percent of peach and plum tree diseases can be controlled with one spray.

year livestock and poultry inventories.

State Statistician Dennis Findley reported that producer compliance with the current farm programs reduced crop acreage across the state, and many farmers and ranchers are depending on this survey information for an accurate picture of the 1983 agricultural situation.

Findley explained that the confidential interviews, conducted by mail or in person by field enumerators, provide information used by producers to make their production and marketing plans for the coming year.

"Without these reports, farmers and ranchers would have to rely on other sources for crop and livestock information," he added.

To reduce survey costs, Findley is urging farmers and ranchers to return the mailed questionnaires as soon as possible. The reported information will be combined for state as well as county estimates.

Annual county estimates are published for livestock, dairy, poultry, cotton, field crops, small grains, fruits and pecans, vegetables, and cash receipts from the sale of farm products.

Copies of these bulletins can be obtained by contacting the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, P.O. Box 70, Austin, TX 78767.

Greg Collins wins trip to Dallas

Greg Collins, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Robertson of Clarendon was awarded the top prize in the Kids, Inc. Fund Raising Event by being the top popcorn salesman this year. He sold 60 boxes to raise $210.00 through Kids Inc. Soccer League.

The top prize was two tickets and transportation to the Dallas Cowboys football game on November 20 when the Cowboys play the Kansas City Chiefs in Dallas. He will be taking his Pawpaw Robertson with him to the game, leaving that morning and returning that night. He was awarded his prize during the Soccer tournament last weekend.

Greg would like to thank everyone in Clarendon who helped him win his award by buying popcorn from him this year.

Greg is the son of Debbie Hollan of Amarillo. He is a second grade student at Sleepy Hollow Elementary School in Amarillo.

Military update for Veterans Day

In 1789 the War Department of the United States of America was formed for the benefit of a new nation. In 1798 the Navy Department was established and that was sufficient for total armed forces protection and organization until 1942 when the Joint Chiefs of Staff was established to help coordinate efforts between all of the Armed Forces.

In 1947 the National Military Establishment was created making the Army, Navy and Air Force cabinet level Executive departments with the Secretary of Defense functioning as coordinator. This department became the Department of Defense (DoD) in 1949 and made the military department subordinate to the DoD, provided the uniform budgetary and fiscal procedures much as they are today.

There are about 4.7 million people including active duty service members, civilian employees and Reserve forces in the DoD. There are more than 2 million on active duty with the armed forces and 1.4 million in the Reserves with 1 million as civilian workers.

There are a great number of Air Force and Army personnel in Texas. They and the civilians and Reserves in Texas earn almost $5 million a year and spend it annually in Texas.

These folks tend to stay in Texas after they retire as well. According to the number of retired, 130,793 retired in Texas last year from the Armed Forces stationed in Texas or retired out of the states.

Army women out number any of the other branches' female members. The Air Force rates second with the Navy third and the Marine Corps a hard last.

Most of the enlisted personnel have a high school education with only about one-fourth of the total military active duty personnel having one or more years of college education.

All of these facts are meant to illustrate that our nation has an active, strong military. We are proud of those who are currently serving their country, be it active duty, reserve duty or civilian support.

Let us remember the living serving their country. Let us never forget those who have been wounded in service to their flag and YOU. Above all, as Veterans Day passes through our lives, let's never forget those brave men and women who have died for a sacred belief: freedom and love of country.

Senior Citizens

Senior Citizens honor Veterans Nov. 10
There will be a delicious Chili supper served at the Donley County Senior Citizens Center Nov. 10 at 6 p.m. in honor of the Donley County Veterans. We will have whopping big bowls (refills at your request) cornbread, cream pies and a patriotic salad. We will ask a modest donation to our center and to help defray costs of a mere $4.00 a person unless you are a senior of 60 or over or a Veteran, then we ask just $2.50 if you please.

We honor our Veterans each year because they have helped create the United State of America that makes it possible for us to have a newspaper, a Senior Citizens Center, a free enterprise society and the kind of wonderful country all of us enjoy. Too often we fail to recognize and honor those who came back alive. Those who risked their lives, lost their friends, saw the agony of war are often forgotten. Let's take every opportunity to thank them to honor those who died preserving freedom and thank those who serve now.

We welcome all of you to our Veterans Day chili supper Thursday, Nov. 10.

Senior Citizens Menu

Nov. 10 Pepper steak, rice, mixed vegetables, tossed salad, applesauce cake and rolls.

There has been spectacular afghan made and donated to the senior citizens by Thelma Behrens. It is made with a wide variety of color so that it will fit in any decor. It is 50" by 70" in size. The donations will be just $1, to get a ticket for the drawing to be held Nov. 17 at the Senior Citizens Center at noon. Come by and see this beauty to appreciate it.

We had a wonderful Halloween party Oct. 31 at the center. We started with a catfish fry at 6 p.m. and had 94 people come eat delicious catfish with us. We had carmel apples and chocolate dipped bananas as a special treat. Norma Corgill is proclaimed by many as the best catfish fryer in 10 counties! It sure was good eatin'.

Thanks to all for helping us raise a little money for our center.

Blood pressure and exercise are a regular part of our schedule. We have exercise every day at 11 a.m. and on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at 2 p.m. If you can't make one, come to the other, or come twice, you can probably use it!

TWO RESIDENTS enjoying the Halloween party.

Medical Center Halloween Party

Oct. 31st became a day of fun and lots of games for the residents at Medical Center. The dining room was beautifully decorated in Halloween decor.

We wish to thank Kathleen Yankee and Cleo Murff for loaning us hats for this party. Hats were the costumes. Kathleen furnished a cute decoration for the piano.

Cennet Jones furnished prizes for our hat contest. Nancy Shelton and Wanda Dromgole acted as our judges.

The fun began when Vera Johnson and Marie Hill began making pictures as each one entered the room. While the judges were making their decision we played a cat game. Questions were asked and as residents gave the correct answer they were given prizes.

Winners of hat contest were Most attractive, Ola Killough; most unusual, Beaulah Carille; most decorated Veda Mahaffey; most eerie (unusual) Jesse Wood.

Cat game winners were Veda Mahaffey, Sybil Rattan, Frank Mahaffey, Minnie Cannon, Blanch Grey, Blanche Smith, Jessie Wood and Marie Stotts.

Wheel chair race (across the dining room) 7 seconds; Ola Killough 9 seconds, Marie Stotts 7 seconds, Peggy Hudson 18 seconds, Blanche Grey 15 seconds, Edna Hudson 20 seconds, Audrey Jones 30 seconds, Blanche Smith 15 seconds.

After the games all were served a nice supper prepared by women in kitchen.

Vera gave everyone a sack of popcorn to enjoy later.

Pathfinders

The Pathfinder Club held its guest day meeting at the Patching Club House on October 28, 1983.

Mrs. Horace Green, president, welcomed the members and guests. Each member introduced her guest or guests.

The afternoon's program was a book review by Mrs. Dick Delaney. She reviewed the book IT'S MY TURN by Ruth Graham, wife of the evangelist, Billy Graham. Mrs. Graham was born in China in 1920, the daughter of Presbyterian medical missionaries. The second of five children, she remembers her early childhood as very happy, even though China was in turmoil at that time. Her life changed at the age of thirteen when she was sent to boarding school. Even though her older sister was there with her, Ruth was extremely homesick and longed for her home and family life. It was at this time that she became a steady Bible reader.

When she finished boarding school she went to Wheaton College in Chicago, Ill. It was there she met Billy Graham. In the spring of 1943 they were married and Ruth learned the joys and problems of being the wife of a minister. She traveled with him in the first five years, but as their family increased in number the Graham's bought a home in Montreal, North Carolina and Ruth stayed home to raise the five children. When asked how she managed with Billy away so much on crusades, she replied "On my knees". Her mother and father bought a house across the road from the Grahams after they retired from missionary work. Nearly every evening one of the children would pack his nightclothes and go across the street to spend the night with the grandparents.

As their father became well known around the world, the children's normal activities were closely watched by neighbors and strangers alike. Any behavior less than angelic was quickly noted and commented on. But Ruth and Billy gave them as much freedom as possible to make their own decisions. The children are now young adults with children of their own.

Ruth gives as much time as she can to her grandchildren, as she remembers how much her parents helped her with her children. Refreshments were served in the dining room from a lovely fall table. Dessert and hot cinnamon flavored apple cider were served. Hostesses were members of the social committee: Mrs. Baskin Timmons, Mrs. Joe Wells, Mrs. Paul Cook, and Mrs. Blaine Butts.

Members and guests present were: Helen Green, Edgar Mae Mongole, Mabel Mongole, Derelle Stark, Florine Bennett, Betty Williams, Mary Hazel VanZandt Viola Graham, Viola Bones, Lockie Pitts, Murie Butts, Margaret Wells, Gladys Sawyer, Mary Thornberry, Melba Risley, Dessa Day, Nita Manning, Hazel Brandon, Dorothy White, Anna Moores Simmons, Lucy Saye, Gladys Hommel, Frankie Henson, Leona Henson.

The Nose Knows.

An aromatic chemical is added to natural gas to give it a distinct odor. One that's easy to detect.

It's this distinct odor and knowing what to do when you detect it that keeps gas safe.

If you're outdoors and smell gas, you should call your local Lone Star Gas office.

If you're indoors and detect faint whiffs, check to see if a pilot light has gone out or a burner valve has been left partially open. These are corrective steps you can take yourself.

If your equipment is working properly and you still smell gas, please follow these precautions:

1. Don't switch anything electrical on or off. Don't strike a match or do anything that could cause a spark.
2. Have everyone leave immediately, leaving door open to help ventilate.
3. Go to a nearby phone and call Lone Star.

Help us keep natural gas one of the safest energies available. Use your nose. Then use your head... and follow the proper precautions.

(Just a reminder: Before you do any digging, call your local Lone Star Gas office so they can inform you on pipe locations.)

SHOWN IS AIR Ambulance receiving Max Mays for

Air Ambulance transports patient to Memphis, Tenn.

Clarendon's local airport was the scene of a medical transport on October 26, 1983.

Through the professional efforts of Dr. Carl Hudson and his staff, an air ambulance from Hutchinson Flying Service out of Plainview arrived to transport Max Mays to V.A. Hospital in Memphis, Tennessee. This air ambulance was equipped with an RN. The local ambulance service, Pat and Phil, transported Max Mays from Medical Center to the airport and placed him on the air ambulance. Max arrived at the V.A. Hospital before noon to start the medical treatment he needed.

Thanks to the staff at Medical Center, the local ambulance service, Pat and Phil, the local air strip and the special arrangements by Dr. Hudson the transfer was made smooth and easy.

the upcoming attic sale. The program for the afternoon was entitled School Daze and was presented by Ethelyn Grady, as leader, with Mary Beth Nelson and Pauline Heath assisting. Mrs. Nelson played an arrangement of "The World is Waiting for the Sunrise" to get the program underway. Grady and Heath alternated in giving some definitions and test answers from their students' work. These were hilarious. Grady, in true teacher fashion, had a hand-out for the group. It was a graphic portrayal of Teacher Burn Out.

Nelson read an original essay which appealed to all the five senses. It was beautifully written. Grady closed the program by reading "We Have Chosen to Teach Others."

The president then closed the meeting by reading "If I Knew".

Present for this excellent program were Thelma Bair-

1926 Book Club

The 1926 Book Club convened at 4:00 p.m. on November 1, 1983, at the Patching Club House with Evelyn Mann and Rachael Butler as hostesses. They served pumpkin pie, nuts, and tea or coffee from the attractive serving table in the club room. A beautiful arrangement of roses at the president's station caused much favorable comment.

The president, Rachael Butler, led in reading the Club Collect and conducted a short business meeting. She asked for volunteers to help with the February Party as plans will need to be changed. Minutes were read and roll was called by the secretary, Oressa Delaney. Workers were scheduled for

SOMEONE'S IN THE KITCHEN WITH MOMMA

Autumn days bring more than colorful leaves. They often bring cool, damp weather. Turning a rainy day into a fun day is easy when you let the little ones join you in a grey day "baking party." Learning to cook is lots of fun, especially when what's baking is chocolate.

Easy recipes like these, developed in the Betty Crocker Kitchens, are the perfect way to start teaching a junior baker. They involve a minimal amount of ingredients and preparation steps. And young cooks will be as delighted to serve these snacks as kids (of all ages) will be to enjoy them.

For a triple chocolate treat, bake up these Nutty Chocolate Squares. Chocolate cake, chocolate pudding and chocolate chips team up in a deliciously moist bar cookie.

completely. Cut into about 1 1/2-inch squares. 48 squares.

Nutty Butterscotch Squares: Use Betty Crocker Snackin' Cake applesauce raisin, banana walnut, butter pecan, carrot nut, coconut pecan, date nut or spice raisin cake mix. Substitute 1 package (3 1/2 ounces) vanilla instant pudding and pie filling for the chocolate pudding and pie filling and butterscotch chips for the chocolate chips.

High Altitude Directions (3500 to 6500 feet): Heat oven to 375°. Stir 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour into cake mix (dry).

Chocolate and banana flavors blend in this Chocolate Fudge Sundae Cake which bakes in its own pan for easy cleanup. It's crowned with a creamy

Howardwick News

By ALICE HOOD

Visitors in the Floyd Hood home Monday afternoon were Edith and O.B. Otchison, of Amarillo. The Otchisons live next door to the Hood home in Amarillo.

Bea Rogers spent last Wednesday in Amarillo at High Plains Baptist Hospital with great grandson, Rodney Lacy. Rodney had a tonsilectomy and is doing fine.

Darrell Hood was sent to an Orthopedic Specialist in Amarillo Wednesday with a shoulder injury. X-rays were taken. Surgery may be necessary later.

Margaret and Joe Wells enjoyed a visit from their daughter and husband, Marilyn and Fred Green, of Chicago, Ill. They spent three days.

Margaret Wells was admitted to High Plains Baptist Hospital Tuesday for some tests. She will have two hip replacements at a later date. She came home Friday.

The Howardwick City Council held a special meeting Thursday evening. Lee Roy Jackson resigned as mayor and Leon May will take that position for the rest of the term.

The Lakers Homemakers Club Meeting will be held November 14. Plans are to be made for the "Christmas Packaging". Program will consist of "Cherri's Ideas". Cherri Brown and Linda Bell, R.M. will take blood pressures.

Alice Hood had a very pleasant and relaxing birthday Sunday, November 6. Her daughters and grandchildren of Amarillo brought her a birthday dinner and visited. Most enjoyable.

We're proud of you Bronchos!

B.J. Hamilton had an exciting trip on Friday. He, his mother and dad went to Amarillo Air Terminal to see his Nanny off on an airplane to Georgia. He was given a tour of the plane, met the pilot who invited him into the cockpit, was seated in the co-pilots seat. Turning knobs, pushed buttons and drove the plane (As he put it)! You'd have to ask him what he learned about the machine gun and the crickets! Thanks Delta!

Haley Hamilton had an exciting day on Saturday too.

She joined 10 other Brownie Scouts and 3 mothers in a field trip to the Memphis Park. They earned a nice patch for a Brownie cuddle. While in Memphis they met girls from the local area and were introduced to many different worlds, music, outdoors, and art, just to name a few.

Whats Cookin'

The month of November is National Diabetes Month. One of the most common ways to control this disease, besides medication, is diet. But most persons enjoy something sweet now and then in their diet. For the ones that have a sweet tooth, here is a recipe worth trying.

APPLESAUCE CAKE

- 1/2 cup butter
- 1/2 TBS sweetner
- 1 egg
- 1 cup raisins
- 1 cup dates
- 1 cup chopped pecans
- 2 tsp soda

Lady Bulldogs win Ramada Inn Classic

The Lady Bulldogs' season opener was Thursday, November 3. They met Northern Oklahoma in the first round of play in the Ramada Inn Classic played in Amarillo. Coach Mondragon felt they made a good showing in their first outing hitting 58% from the field. The Lady Bulldogs won 95-79 over Northern Oklahoma.

Sophomore guard, Paula Dodson led the Lady Bulldogs in scoring with 19 points followed by Carlen Douglas with 18 and Vanessa Calloway scoring 16.

After the Lady Bulldogs won their game Thursday, they advanced to the second round of play against New Mexico Junior College. These two teams seemed evenly matched during the first ten minutes of the first half but the Lady Bulldogs outscored NMJC building a 21 point lead. NMJC managed to come back within 10 points but couldn't get any closer as the Lady Bulldogs went on to defeat New Mexico Junior College 82-72 to advance to the finals.

Paula Dodson scored 19 points to lead Clarendon with Rosa Benson tossing in 18 points.

In the finals, Clarendon was matched up against conference rival, Amarillo College. The first half was even with Clarendon's biggest lead being 8 points. Amarillo College overcame that retiring the half with the teams even at 34.

Clarendon led most of the second half but with minutes remaining AC took the lead by 1. Clarendon regained the lead though and won 69-65 over AC. This win brought their season record to 3-0.

Again Paula Dodson led the Lady Bulldogs with 29 points with Vanessa Calloway adding 20.

Bulldogs open

Tuesday, November 1 marked the opening of basketball season with the Clarendon College Bulldogs traveling to Lubbock to match up against Lubbock Christian College JV.

The Bulldogs, under new head mentor, Carlyle Dean, came from a 6 point deficit to overtake LCC. The Bulldogs pushed their lead over LCC to eleven but due to some careless turnovers and some poor shots, the Bulldogs saw their lead lessen but they managed to hold a lead over LCC to post their first win of the season 61-58.

The Bulldogs' second win in as many games came Thursday, November 3 over the Panhandle State University J.V.

The first ten minutes of the game were close but as the game progressed it proved to be a Bulldog night as they went on to win 89-68.

Leading Bulldog scoring in both games was a 6'5" returner, Dean Jackson. He scored 15 points in each game and also led in rebounding.

The Bulldogs next home game will be November 21. They will play Western Oklahoma State College. The Lady Bulldogs will play here November 12. They will meet Seward County Community College.

Beta

Phi met

Sorority is often quite exciting, sometimes just boring, many times very informative and always productive. The last meeting, October 24 in the home of Peggy Anderson Beta Sigma Phi met for a regular session. It was very productive in that we discussed the sale of our annual pecan jubilee. We also have some wonderful cookbooks we are selling. Susan collected some on that. The new notebook materials are all ready for next month and each member will have a new larger sized notebook to carry about. We also discussed the Stanley Party Nov. 5 at the bank hospitality room. That is a money raising project. Marvelous Maurine Butts presented a program on fashions. She didn't know she was to give the program until the afternoon before, but marvelous Maurine is so clever, so prepared and so inventive that that didn't stop her and her program was Fantastic! She told us about virgins, wool of course, about lubricants from the virgin wool, about silk and the little "wormies" that gave us such a beautiful, luxurious material, and the best part was the slide presentation on the history of fashion. We don't get new things, we just cycle old fashion. "Nothing new under the sun" is quite true even in fashion. We are currently wearing styles made popular in ancient Egyptian days and from the Greeks. We don't wear much from the Creton civilization but some men wish we did. It was a terrific program we all enjoyed and learned from. Men, did you know your trousers as you know them today were first introduced in 1815?

We were served a totally SUGAR FREE buffet.

ted by Peggy and co-hostess Betty Veach. We sampled some delicious items and all of them without sugar or any sugar related products. It's great to know we can still eat well and sweetly without sugar! Thanks for the effort!

GOOD AS GOLD

A shining piece of history deals with the kingdom which first used precious gold as coins. It was the kingdom of Lydia in Asia Minor. The king who authorized these first gold coins was King Croesus in about 560 B.C.

Today, gold coins are within the reach of nearly everyone. Coins for collecting, or numismatic coins, are valued for their rarity and condition.

Donley County approved for special haying

Severe drought conditions in Donley County prompted USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service to give farm program participants special permission to harvest hay or forage from their conservation use acres to feed their livestock. Farmers previously had received approval to graze their livestock on these acres.

Edwin Campbell, CED says the special conservation use acreage haying and grazing will benefit about 50 farmers in Donley County to this date.

Conservation use acreage includes diverted acreage for which payment is made; the unpaid acreage reduction acres and acres removed from production through the payment-in-kind program. "We restricted the use of harvested hay and forage to the individual farmer's own livestock to minimize the adverse economic impact on commercial hay producers," said Campbell, "but it will provide some relief to livestock producers who are participating in our acreage-reduction and payment-in-kind programs."

The program participants are not allowed to let other farmers use their conservation use acreage. The emergency provisions apply only to their own livestock on their own land, the ASCS official said.

Farmers interested in conservation use acreage haying and grazing should notify the county ASCS office. Producers who have registered to graze their conservation use acreage must also sign a register to harvest those acres.

SYSTOLIC OR DIASTOLIC?

The two numbers used to record a person's blood pressure reflect the pressure in terms of millimeters of mercury. The numbers, which represent the "systolic" and "diastolic" pressures, are written together and recorded as one reading — example, 120 over 80 or 120/80. The first number refers to the amount of pressure exerted against the arteries during each heart beat. This is the systolic pressure. Elevations in the systolic pressure may result from hardening of the arteries or other conditions such as thyroid disease.

The second number is the diastolic pressure and refers to the amount of pressure exerted against the arteries between heart beats. Several elevated diastolic readings may indicate that an individual has hypertension (high blood pressure).

While both the systolic and diastolic readings are important, the diastolic is most closely monitored in hypertensive individuals. It becomes the basis for most decisions regarding drug therapy (when to use drugs, which drugs to use, how long to use drugs, and how large of a dose to use). To determine the effectiveness of treatment programs, it is usually necessary to obtain several readings at different times.

Winterize your home for lower electric bills.

Follow Reddy's tips this winter to help you save money on your electric bills:

CALL YOUR HEATING SERVICE SPECIALIST NOW.

Have your heating unit checked NOW by a qualified specialist to put it into top operating condition. Not only will you minimize the possibility of a costly and uncomfortable breakdown in the middle of winter, you also will help to keep down home operating costs. Have it serviced early, before your serviceman or dealer has a waiting list.

SET YOUR THERMOSTAT AT 68 DEGREES OR LOWER.

Leave your thermostat at 68 degrees or lower in the winter during the daytime, and turn it down a few degrees when you retire at night.

ADD TO THE INSULATION IN YOUR CEILING AND WALLS.

Insulation comes in rolls, loose fill or batts. The "Resistance-value", or "R-value", indicates the ability of a material to keep heat from passing through it. The higher the "R-value", the more heat the insulation will keep inside in winter and outside in summer. Values up to R-30 in the ceiling and R-16 in the walls are recommended in these areas.

KEEP CAULKING AND WEATHERSTRIPPING IN GOOD SHAPE.

Sealing of cracks around doors, windows, pipes and wiring should be done to help you save on both heating and cooling costs. Polyurethane or similar caulking, plus felt or foam rubber products, come in easy-to-install form at most hardware stores and will help to draft-proof your home.
