WHY SHOULD WE BE DRAGGED INTO WAR AGAIN?

Listening to a radio talk produced by a spell-binder a few nights ago, this editor was astounded when the speaker strongly intimated that it was the duty of the United States, for "business" reasons, to enter the world war now in progress, and that on the side of England and France. He expressed grave doubts that "democracy" could be saved unless our nation did go to the rescue. As a matter of fact democracies have ceased to exist. There is yet a faint speck of it remaining in the United States. Can the reader recall to mind anything that England and France has done for us that we have not paid for a hundred fold?

Sympathy is divided, of course, but even those who favor the Allies are becoming tired of the constant insinuation that England's fight is our fight. Who who sympathize with the innocent humanity involved, are positive that if the Allies are beaten, it's still none of our business.

England has become a decadent nation since the last World War. Were this not true, the thousands of English and Canadian soldiers would not have been sent to Norway to be slaughtered by a power with superior equipment. The allied soldiers fought heroically against odds. They were recalled and hundreds slaughtered by the enemy as they boarded transports to leave. A nation whose leaders know no more about the mechanized fighting equipment of the enemy than that, are whipped before they start.

Canada gets gold braid from England in peace time, and contributes the flower of her manhood in war time. If Canada were attacked today there is only one nation that could save her. That nation is the United States. We don't propose to have any of that European mess dumped at our back door. Neither do we propose to see our good neighbors become victims of circumstances. There is a whole of a difference between Canada and England, and the attitude of each toward our nation. The United States does not have one single friend in the Eastern Hemisphere. Why go there to fight, and what for?

PRESS AGENTS:

Please notice the following from the Pharr Press—if you think ALL the country editors lap up your goos: "Every day" mail brings additional political announcements to hundreds of editors in Texas. In addition, most editors receive a weekly "communiqué" from all the politicians who have previously announced. Most state in very glowing terms how much they revere the Press of Texas and what a great fortress they think it is for right and justice and freedom, etc., etc. But these same politicians turn right around and give quarter hour and half hour paid political broadcasts over the air waves on state-wide hookups. Weekly editors have always been the greatest suckers on earth about giving away publicity, especially to office-seekers. Heretofore, they have received their publicity free in the newspapers and then paid out thousands of dollars for radio announcements. There is no war between the radios and the newspapers. Each has a place to perform. We, however, cannot understand the attitude of politicians that the newspapers should give away space and at the same time, feel very content about paying for the same

First Aid To Little Farmer

Mr. J. C. Estlack
 The Donley County Leader
 Clarendon, Texas.
 Dear Mr. Estlack:
 We believe you are interested in the welfare of low-income farm families in the forty-seven West Texas counties, and in any program that contributes to the solution of their problems.
 This country was founded on small farm homes, yet today there are forces at work within our rural areas which threaten to destroy them. America must act, and it is taking action through various agencies, including the Farm Security Administration, to stabilize the rural population and help farm people meet their long-range problems, which have been growing steadily worse for more than a generation.
 The function of the Farm Security Administration is to provide security for low-income farm families. This is accomplished partly through the medium of supervised loans and grants for farm operation. Our supervision consists of advice on farm organization and management as well as assistance in home improvement and a fuller participation in community life. For those families who are economically below the level of our lending operations, direct aid is given through subsistence grants. Families receiving grants operate their farms with the advice of FSA workers, under plans which are worked out in advance with the family.

This agency is financed out of relief appropriations, and it takes the place of direct relief in rural areas. It is designed to help needy farm families to become permanently self-supporting, instead of remaining indefinitely dependent on relief.
 It is succeeding largely because we make sure that the money we loan is put to the best possible use. There is ample evidence that this guidance and technical training is the most important part of the rehabilitation program. Without it, few of the families would have been able to make such progress or to repay their loans.
 We wish to report that FSA borrowers in these forty-seven Texas counties, despite the most severe drought in two decades, showed definite progress in 1939. We know statistics are boring, but because of your position in your community, we believe you will accept the following report in the spirit in which it is offered. This report is the result of a recent survey of the progress made in your part of the state by the Farm

Security Administration.
 Last year 5,989 rehabilitation borrowers in these West Texas counties showed an increase of 103 per cent in their average net income over the year before they became FSA rehabilitation borrowers. In 1939 the average net income was $668.35 per family, as compared to $329.62 in the year before they received their first loan. Average net worth above all debts was increased from $901.68 before they came into the Farm Security Administration program, to $1,215.73 at the end of the 1939 crop year, a gain of 35 per cent.
 These families have not only increased their net worth and annual income, but they are making satisfactory progress in the repayment of their loans. They have thus far paid $2,471,541 into the Federal Treasury in loan installments out of a total of $4,670,617 borrowed. The average Farm Security Administration low-income borrower could not be considered an A-1 credit risk, since most of them had been on relief or were rapidly approaching relief status. Yet the typical farm family in West Texas borrowed $1,127.95 and thus far has repaid $518.24 although the greater part of the loan will not be due for four or five years.

In helping rehabilitation borrowers to plan their farm operations, we always urge them to get away from one-crop farming, and to raise as much as possible their food and feed supplies. The progress they are making is indicated by the fact that FSA borrowers in 47 counties produced for home consumption last year $263.54 in farm products as compared with only $138.08 the year before they came into the Farm Security Administration program.
 The average farm family in West Texas last year produced for home consumption 224 quarts of fruits and vegetables, 580 gallons of milk and 33.6 tons of forage under diversified farming. This has meant a higher standard of living, a better diet, and usually a marked improvement in health.
 In a limited number of cases, in order to get the family off to a sound start, small grants have been made to supplement the loan. Usually these grants were just large enough to tide the family over until it could make its first crop. They have averaged $19.62 per family per month.
 Loans and grants are only a part of the FSA program to rehabilitate rural families. A voluntary debt adjustment service, operated by mutual consent of the creditors and debtors and conducted through local Farm Debt Adjustment committees, is open to all farm families, regardless of whether they have an FSA loan. Debt reductions of $2,311,031, a scale-down of 36 per cent, have been effected for individual farmers in West Texas. As a result of these adjustments $70,464 in back taxes have been paid into local treasuries.
 Efforts to solve the rapidly growing tenancy problem have revolved (See FIRST AID, Page 6)

TEMPLE OF TRUTH

By the Apostle

department. It runs like this:
Far away from war's alarms,
Even the hum of bees;
Tuning out radio ads,
And candidates' pitiful pleas.

OFFICE EXERCISES.

Dodge an issue.
Duck a bill collector.
Run the office.
Fall for a racket.
Circle the alleged friends.
Pound home an idea.
Double-cross the wife.
And other things too numerous to mention, said the auctioneer as he recklessly spat ambler in the bull's eye causing him to knock down three bidders who arose with changed minds, etc. Unquote.

BATTLE CRY CHANGED.

There was a time when the blab-mouthed crook sought office on a plea of "Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." The modern guy soothingly strums a "ghettire" and dolefully prates about "Jobs for the young, and Security for the aged." He never gave either a thought until he became a candidate.

POLITICAL TYRANNY.

"You never can tell what a campaign will do for you," states a neighbor editor who complains because seven men are out for the same office and each take up thirty minutes of his time twice a week. He listens, and then makes up for it at night by hard work when he prefers to sleep.

MOTHER'S DAY.

Next Sunday is Mother's Day. Give or send her something if you can. If you can't do more, tell her how much you appreciate her. If you can't talk to her, write her a letter. There is no hurt in a mother's life like being forgotten, and there's no joy like being remembered. Please bear that in mind for your mother. You won't have her many years. Do it now.

THE GNAWING HABIT.

A well known civic leader accustomed to discussing all matters at a breakfast, luncheon or banquet, finally got to the point that he could not carry on a conversation over a telephone without gnawing on a biscuit.

SAME OLD CUSTOM.

Think as you may about the competition of billboards, radio, picture show and a lot of other calendar quality of advertising, when it becomes necessary to reach the public, the newspaper always carries that message as a matter of choice. Right now the Henry Ford Safety Campaign is being carried through the newspapers. Uncle Henry means well and he means to reach his people. He is doing just that through the leading weekly and daily newspapers.

EXPLOSION OF EGOTISM.

Except for the fact that the speaker has an opportunity to appease egotism, there would be very few talks made over a radio. The speaker knows the newspapers can carry the message more effectively at less expense, but they can't hear his voice. Corporations desiring to reach the masses, are constantly changing from the radio back to the printed page of the newspaper.

BLAMED FAD.

"Daylight Savings Time," one of the many disagreeable things born of the World War period, is again in operation in parts of the Nation to the disgust and inconvenience of folks who want to live sensibly.

OUR WEAKLY POME.

Another good reason why life can be enjoyed in the Texas Panhandle is best explained from reading one stanza of a product of our "pome"

SEASONAL DOINGS.

With the school closing season at hand, orators are brushing up on their hardest hitting phrases. Honor graduates write and re-write their pieces. Mamas are up to their eyes in flounces and frills getting the dry-goods in shape. The editor is learning how to spell "baccalaureate" and wondering at the same time why that term is used outside a degree-conferring school commencement contrary to the dictionary and the English language. Who started that thing, anyhow?

MUST USE TONIC.

Publicity is the best tonic for any man's business, but like medicine in a bottle, it won't work unless you use it.

TEXAS WEATHER CHANGES.

When we slumped right out of winter the last of the week into the middle of a hot summer spell, old timers began to recall that Texas has more sudden weather extremes than any other part of the world. The conversation finally drifted around to the time Sy Richerson had a frog idea. He had seen frogs suddenly beat it for the water as a cold snap approached. On one occasion Sy saw the frogs leap in too late. The pond froze suddenly and left frog legs sticking out all around the edge of the pond. That gave Sy an idea. He rushed back home, got his lawn mower and beat it back to the frog pond. Boy howdy! He was slaying the frog legs with that lawn mower by the ton. He pictured the wholesale market of Amarillo, Pampa, Borger and Dalhart. All would be supplied from his crop of mowing. Sy failed to take into consideration another sudden change in the weather. Before he made the complete round, a sandstorm blew up and covered that pond four feet deep in sand. In fact Sy lost his lawn mower in the deluge of sand, and barely escaped with his life by scrambling up the bank and climbing a tree.

JOHN GARNER LEADS PRESIDENTIAL RACE

Texas' distinguished favorite son—John N. Garner, the only Democrat to have announced unqualifiedly that he is a presidential candidate—is today the leading choice of his Party to succeed to the Presidency.

JOHN N. GARNER

Uniformly popular in all sections of the country and among all classes of people, Vice President Garner is esteemed for his sound common sense, practical liberalism, and long experience in governmental affairs. Political observers in Washington agree that these attributes, together with the fact that his sturdy log-cabin Americanism is the nation's best safeguard against involvement in war, are responsible for his popularity among the rank and file of the people.

His name has been submitted directly to voters in a number of state primaries, in accordance with his democratic philosophy that "the people should decide." In announcing his candidacy last December, Mr. Garner said: "I will accept the nomination for President. I will make no effort to control any delegates. The people should decide. The candidate should be selected at primaries and conventions as provided by law and I sincerely trust that all Democrats will participate in them."

Leamon Wallace was in Ft. Worth on business over the week end.

SINCLAIR USES NEWSPAPER TO ANNOUNCE NEW GASOLINE

Development of a new gasoline with double-range anti-knock is being announced in newspaper space in states where Sinclair products are available.

"The double-range feature of the new gasoline", the Company said in an official announcement, "refers to the fact that the new motor fuel gives high anti-knock performance in not one but two ranges of speed.

"Every motorist knows", the Company's statement continued, "that there are just two important ranges where you need knockless power. The first range is from 10 to 45 miles per hour for ordinary pick-up in traffic. The second range is at 45 miles per hour and higher where you need extra high anti-knock for speed on the open highway or for passing cars in traffic. Some gasolines may give high anti-knock in one range but not in the other," according to Sinclair officials, "but now Sinclair has developed a gasoline that gives high anti-knock in both the low-speed and high-speed ranges of driving.

"It is interesting to note", officials said, "that in the great Sinclair refineries two different methods are used to produce the double-range anti-knock quality in Sinclair H-C Gasoline. A special refining process re-forms the hydrocarbons thus giving H-C certain properties which are particularly valuable for anti-knock at low speeds. By the addition of tetraethyl lead, the effectiveness of Sinclair H-C is broadened especially at high speed. By these methods, qualities are obtained which give H-C exceptional anti-knock performance both at low and high speeds."

Because the development of the new double-range H-C Gasoline represents such a forward step in refining as to be of high news value to the motoring public, Sinclair officials selected to announce their new product in over 175 papers in more than 110 cities throughout the territory in which Sinclair products are available.

FIRST AID TO--

around better farm leasing arrangements, and the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act, which provides loans to tenants, sharecroppers, and farm laborers to enable them to purchase family-size farms of their own. Limited funds have restricted the operation of the Bankhead-Jones Program to a few counties. Fifty-one such loans, totaling $365,485 have been made in eight counties in West Texas, and this year we expect to make 10 additional tenant purchase loans in this area, which will total about $100,000.

The effort to secure better leasing arrangements, so that long-time plans for soil conservation and other sound farming practices can be made, has resulted in 17,938 Texas tenants securing written leases in the place of verbal agreements.

Besides loans for use of individual farm families, the FSA also makes cooperative loans secured by chattel mortgage for the purchase of farm machinery, dairy and beef herd breeding services, home equipment, etc. A total of 1,642 West Texas farmers are now participating in 151 of these services. The FSA also has encouraged the formation of local medical care associations for needy farm families.

Any comments or suggestions which you may have to offer for improving the Farm Security Administration program in West Texas will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,
Wilson Cowen
Acting Regional Director

Lee McConnell Announces Race For Congress

PAMPA GRAIN AND OIL MAN ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY FOR CONGRESSMAN FOR THE 18TH CONGRESSIONAL DIST.

I am a native Texan and am 45 years of age. I was born in Lamar County, near Paris in 1894—came to Gray County in the year 1907 and have lived here ever since.

I have been a life-long Democrat, approve in general the New Deal, and will support the Democratic nominee in the Presidential election. I believe in liberal democracy of the American type for the benefit of all the people.

I do not know whether I will have any platform at all or not, as my past observation has been that the planks in these platforms decay so quickly and so easily--If I have a platform it will be simple and will not take a Hoover Economic dietician to understand it.

Many people have asked me my stand on the present Governor's race. My frank statement is that the present Governor, W. Lee O'Daniel, will be high man in the coming Democratic Primaries with a lead of a minimum of 50,000 votes over the next opponent.

I believe in the sales tax as the most fair and equitable means of taxation. The State Constitution says that all taxes shall be equal and uniform. No other method employed to raise taxes has ever gotten close to this Constitutional mandate.

Why has not the old age assistance benefits been paid to the deserving people? Because O'Daniel would not play the kind of ball that the professional politicians wanted him to play. I notice he has some of them on the run.

They have told me that there would be no need for me to run for office if I did not play ball with the politicians, and I will state that it all depends on the kind of ball they want to play. It seems to me that the trouble with our politics today is that not enough men have the courage of their own convictions.

I am very much in favor of the Soil Conservation and the farm program for the benefit of the agricultural interests of the nation and believe that the procession tax was the best and fairest method of raising funds with which to meet the parity payments to the farmer. In this connection I believe that the crop insurance feature of the present law for the benefit of the farmers should be enlarged and amended so as to include those farmers who do not participate in the allotment program because the phase of the law is self-supporting within itself. To the further advantage of the farmer, I believe that the most economical and best place to store products for market is on the farm where raised.

I believe in a closer cooperation and understanding between the farmers and stockmen of the country and their bankers. Any program that would bring them closer together will receive my endorsement, since it could only work to the benefit of both the farmer and the banker and business in general.

I believe wheat growers should receive a minimum of $1.25 per bushel and the cotton grower a minimum of 15c per pound to be on a parity with industry. Thanks to our government for leaving the cowman alone.

I realize that this particular area has some of the highest freight rates known in the land. I believe these rates should be reduced, but since the Honorable Marvin Jones, with his experience, leadership and untiring efforts, has been unable, so far, to secure a reduction of such freight rates, my efforts along this line would probably not be successful; however, it would be my intention and purpose to keep up the fight along the same line as it has been made by Marvin Jones to accomplish a reduction of such rates.

I realize too, that the railroads are in a financial slump, along with the farmers, and I cannot see much relief from the freight rates in the near future.

I am in favor of organized labor. I am strictly opposed to any intervention upon the part of our government in the present or any other foreign war, although it is my firm belief that our government should keep a watchful eye on any foreign interference with any of the countries of the Western Hemisphere, and I would favor at all times a sufficient army, navy, marine and air corps to protect this country and assist in protecting any other country on the Western Hemisphere from foreign interference. I believe we should maintain at all times a navy second to none.

I believe that to keep the good will of our neighbor republics south of us, we need a closer relationship between their monies and our dollar. In this connection, it is my candid opinion that capital does not cooperate closely enough with the government for the general welfare of the nation.

I am opposed to the Cole Bill now under consideration in Congress to put the oil business under Federal Control.

I am not asking for this office on the influence of friends, as many politicians will say, and I would not attempt to insult the intelligence of the voters of this District by telling them whom to vote for in this race. It occurs to me that there is every kind, class and denomination now asking to be elected to Congress from this District, and the people have plenty to choose from without telling them how to vote. I am simply submitting myself and my views for their consideration in selecting their next Congressman.

WITH OUR EXCHANGES

JUST GIMMECRATS, TOO.

After reading the campaign literature sent out from the headquarters of various candidates for president, we have come to the conclusion that all GOP platforms for 1940 can be condensed into the following words: "We like Hull's reciprocal trade agreements, the CCG program, and farm subsidies. We believe in giving labor a fair break, want to continue our army and navy. We've changed our old ideas about the sanctity of high tariffs and agree with the Democrats that where one group—such as manufacturers—are fully protected by a tariff, other groups—such as farmers—should be given certain concessions to enable them to buy fully protected products. In fact, we believe in the whole New Deal program, but we just naturally think it would be much better to have Republicans in the White House."

OTHERS DO TOO, BUT UNDER DIFFERENT NAME.

Whether we realize it or not, it is true nevertheless that this would be a very dead community were it not for the WPA. When we speak of living off of it, the inference is that they and they alone are the only ones benefitted. Get away from such ideas. All of us, to a greater or less degree are living off the WPA. This has been clearly illustrated during the past number of weeks when WPA was practically at a standstill in the county, and on every turn was the cry of poor business, and unpaid bills. ## STUDENTS VISIT CARLSBAD CAVERNS OVER WEEK END

Coronado might have thought he was putting on quite a show in crossing the stretch of country 400 years ago that our student bodies passed over last week end. "The only difference was that we had water in the radiator, and that old boy had none at all," one student stated who must have 'dried' out in the mad rush to cover space.

Just 55 freshmen and seniors of Clarendon College climbed aboard a truck here about 6:30 Friday morning and Carlsbad bound. As the truck clicked into Portales, some arms were uplifted to announce to the starting throng via of wrist watch information, the sun had wobbled across to 12 o'clock. A halt was made. In entering an eating joint, a bright lad noticed that the clock averred that it was only 11 o'clock. Some discussion arose about longitude while others debated any connection between geography and appetite. They ate anyhow, regardless of geographical lines.

Many saw for the first time a glacial moraine of volcanic mud pressed into rock and parked for miles along the highway between Portales and Roswell. It looks like a dike arranged by prehistoric giants, as a mere guess. Supper time found the lurch at White City where a halt was called for the night, just seven miles from the Caverns. Coach Emil Hutto was pretty well worn out chaperoning for the first day.

Entrance to the Caverns was made in time to eat dinner and lunch in the dining room 700 feet below the surface of the greasewood terminal above. After viewing the 9th wonder of the world, supper was eaten at Carlsbad and a stop for the night.

Right behind this motley array of budding talent came 30 High School Seniors in charge of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Stewart and Miss Gladys Wallace. As a further safeguard, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Drennan were traveling 'incognito' safely in the rear to pick up any stragglers who might fall off the trucks. There was plenty of noise but no casualties.

Stops were made in Roswell, Portales, Clovis, Hereford, and the return. The happy band of explorers, 85 in number with escorts, reaching home at about 7:30 Sunday evening. It was a great trip, and well worth riding miles with a foot sticking in the face, as one footballer expressed himself. "It looked like a truckload of feet and curios by the time we got home," was the comment of one young lady who declares the Caverns indescribably beautiful.

HAS HAD EXPERIENCE

"Sadler vs. O'Daniel. It is lamentable if the citizens of Texas are to pass on the qualifications of a man for the high office of governor, judged only on which can produce the best hillbilly band. If that's it, then by all means turn 'em both down and draft one of the "Hoosier Hotshots" themselves—who are delivering the goods. The "Songbird," "Lovebird," or any other crooner's being the best singer to mean that whichever candidate has him is the best material for governor, doesn't make even a little bit of sense.

"Why not stand all the candidates up, give 'em a big dip of snuff, and choose the one that can spit the furthest? It would be a saner way because it would be judging each on his own merits. That might give Jerry Sadler the advantage but it could at least be said that, unlike O'Daniel in 1938, he went in as an experienced man."

A NEW PRAYER

"Our Father, who has set a restlessness in our hearts, and made us all seekers after that which we can never fully find; forbid us to be satisfied with what we make of life. Draw us from content, and set our eyes on far-off goals. Keep us at tasks too hard for us, that we may be driven to thee for strength. Deliver us from fretfulness and self-pity; make us sure of the goal we cannot see, and of the hidden good in the world. Open our eyes to simple beauty all around us, and our hearts to the loveliness men hide from us because we do not try enough to understand them. Save us from ourselves, and show us a vision of a world made new. May Thy spirit of peace and illumination so enlighten our minds that all life shall glow with new meaning and new purpose; thru Jesus Christ our Lord."

FFA Leadership Teams

Win at Childress

The local F.F.A. Chapter Conducting Team and news-writing entry won their fourth consecutive Area I chapter conducting and news-writing contests in the Area contests held at Childress, May 4th. Frank Cannon represented the local chapter in the news-writing contest. Carl Morris, Lee Christie, C. G. Kirkland, Ray Bulls, Ray Robertson, Pete Morrow, Howard Gibbs, Carlton Gordon, Rex Moore, H. A. Harrison, Jr. and Obra Spier were members of the winning chapter conducting team.

The local group was eligible to compete in public speaking, debate, one-act play, and junior chapter conducting events, but due to lack of means of transportation were able to enter only two of the area event, both of which they won.

District F.F.A. Encampment

At Estelle

Approximately thirty F.F.A. members will journey to Estelle Friday afternoon for the annual F.F.A. district encampment. Estelle, Lakeview, Quitaque, Turkey, and Memphis will join the local group there. The groups will compete in softball, baseball, boxing, table tennis, horseshoes, washers and swimming.

Representatives of the local chapter will participate in each of the various events. The local group won the softball championship at the district encampment at Quitaque last year.

CANDIDATE'S WITHDRAWAL ANNOUNCEMENT

I regret that, owing to circumstances that have arisen since my announcement for the office of County Superintendent, I find it advisable to withdraw my candidacy for the office. It is for no selfish reason that I take such action, but simply that I am doing what I think is best for the welfare of my family.

Especially do I regret to disappoint those of my friends who have so heartily and faithfully worked in my interest or have looked forward to the opportunity of favoring me with their votes. . . and I thank everyone who would have voted for me. Personally, I would prefer to run the face out, but I have no doubt that most anyone else with my point of view would have acted as I have. And furthermore, I believe there are few who would concur because of the action I have taken if they were fully apprised of the circumstances leading to such action.

Respectfully,
C. W. Howard

POST OFFICE RECEIPTS SHOW SLIGHT GAIN

The postal receipts for the first quarter this year closing April 30th, showed a slight gain over that of a year ago. But not enough gain to crow about, it was just $68. The receipts this last quarter totalled $3,344.97. That money comes from the sale of stamps and box rentals.

Twelve local people are employed in and through the local postoffice. Five are rural mail carriers.

The postmaster receives $2,400 a year, and each of the clerks $2100 a year. The substitute clerks of which there are two, are paid by the hour for the time employed. The rate is 65 cents an hour. The janitor gets $180 a year.

LEGS INTO ECLIPSE

Hamburger stand leg-art curb service is bad for public morals and public health, the State Restaurant Association decided last week in a meeting in Austin. The association passed a resolution denouncing "nudeness vogue" for carhops. W. E. Gibson, of Houston, president, whose hometown recently gained national fame for gaily and scantily attired feminine carhops, said the board of directors considered half-dressed hired hands—male or female—opposed to the sanitary laws of the state. To attain maximum in sanitation, he explained, there had to be a maximum coverage.

SINCLAIR USES NEWSPAPER TO ANNOUNCE NEW GASOLINE

Development of a new gasoline with double-range anti-knock is being announced in newspaper space in states where Sinclair products are available.

"The double-range feature of the new gasoline", the Company said in an official announcement, "refers to the fact that the new motor fuel gives high anti-knock performance in not one but two ranges of speed.

"Every motorist knows", the Company's statement continued, "that there are just two important ranges where you need knockless power. The first range is from 10 to 45 miles per hour for ordinary pick-up in traffic. The second range is at 45 miles per hour and higher where you need extra high anti-knock for speed on the open highway or for passing cars in traffic. Some gasolines may give high anti-knock in one range but not in the other," according to Sinclair officials, "but now Sinclair has developed a gasoline that gives high anti-knock in both the low-speed and high-speed ranges of driving.

"It is interesting to note", officials said, "that in the great Sinclair refineries two different methods are used to produce the double-range anti-knock quality in Sinclair H-C Gasoline. A special refining process re-forms the hydrocarbons thus giving H-C certain properties which are particularly valuable for anti-knock at low speeds. By the addition of tetraethyl lead, the effectiveness of Sinclair H-C is broadened especially at high speed. By these methods, qualities are obtained which give H-C exceptional anti-knock performance both at low and high speeds.

Because the development of the new double-range H-C Gasoline represents such a forward step in refining as to be of high news value to the motoring public, Sinclair officials selected to announce their newest product in over 175 papers in more than 110 cities throughout the territory in which Sinclair products are available.

around better farm leasing arrangements, and the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act, which provides loans to tenants, sharecroppers, and farm laborers to enable them to purchase family-size farms of their own. Limited funds have restricted the operation of the Bankhead-Jones Program to a few counties. Fifty-one such loans, totaling $465,485 have been made in eight counties in West Texas, and this year we expect to make 10 additional tenant purchase loans in this area, which will total about $100,000.

The effort to secure better leasing arrangements, so that long-time plans for soil conservation and other sound farming practices can be made, has resulted in 17,038 Texas tenants securing written leases in the place of verbal agreements.

Besides loans for use of individual farm families, the FSA also makes cooperative loans secured by chattel mortgage for the purchase of farm machinery, dairy and beef herd breeding services, home equipment, etc. A total of 1,642 West Texas farmers are now participating in 151 of these services. The FSA also has encouraged the formation of local medical care associations for needy farm families.

Any comments or suggestions which you may have to offer for improving the Farm Security Administration program in West Texas will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,
Wilson Cowen

Lee McConnell Announces Race For Congress

PAMPA GRAIN AND OIL MAN ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY FOR CONGRESSMAN FOR THE 18th CONGRESSIONAL DIST.

I am a native Texan and am 45 years of age. I was born in Lamar County, near Paris in 1894—came to Gray County in the year 1907 and have lived here ever since.

I have been a life-long Democrat, approve in general the New Deal, and will support the Democratic nominee in the Presidential election. I believe in liberal democracy of the American type for the benefit of all the people.

I do not know whether I will have any platform at all or not, as my past observation has been that the planks in these platforms decay so quickly and so easily—If I have a platform it will be simple and will not take a Hoover Economic dictionian to understand it.

Many people have asked me my stand on the present Governor's race. My frank statement is that the present Governor, W. Lee O'Daniel, will be high man in the coming Democratic Primaries with a lead of a minimum of 50,000 votes over the next opponent.

I believe in the sales tax as the most fair and equitable means of taxation. The State Constitution says that all taxes shall be equal and uniform. No other method employed to raise taxes has ever gotten close to this Constitutional mandate.

Why has not the old age assistance benefits been paid to the deserving people? Because O'Daniel would not play the kind of ball that the professional politicians wanted him to play. I notice he has some of them on the run.

They have told me that there would be no need for me to run for office if I did not play ball with the politicians, and I will state that it all depends on the kind of ball they want to play. It seems to me that the trouble with our politics today is that not enough men have the courage of their own convictions.

I am very much in favor of the Soil Conservation and the farm program for the benefit of the agricultural interests of the nation and believe that the procession tax was the best and fairest method of raising funds with which to meet the parity payments to the farmer. In this connection I believe that the crop insurance feature of the present law for the benefit of the farmers should be enlarged and amended so as to include those farmers who do not participate in the allotment program because the phase of the law is self-supporting within itself. To the further advantage of the farmer, I believe that the most economical and best place to store products for market is on the farm where raised.

I believe in a closer cooperation and understanding between the farmers and stockmen of the country and their bankers. Any program that would bring them closer together will receive my endorsement, since it could only work to the benefit of both the farmer and the banker and business in general.

I believe wheat growers should receive a minimum of $1.25 per bushel and the cotton grower a minimum of 15c per pound to be on a parity with industry. Thanks to our government for leaving the cowman alone.

I realize that this particular area has some of the highest freight rates known in the land. I believe these rates should be reduced, but since the Honorable Marvin Jones, with his experience, leadership and untiring efforts, has been unable, so far, to secure a reduction of such freight rates, my efforts along this line would probably not be successful; however, it would be my intention and purpose to keep up the fight along the same line as it has been made by Marvin Jones to accomplish a reduction of such rates.

I realize too, that the railroads are in a financial slump, along with the farmers, and I cannot see much relief from the freight rates in the near future.

I am in favor of organized labor. I am strictly opposed to any intervention upon the part of our government in the present or any other foreign war, although it is my firm belief that our government should keep a watchful eye on any foreign interference with any of the countries of the Western Hemisphere, and I would favor at all times a sufficient army, navy, marine and air corps to protect this country and assist in protecting any other country on the Western Hemisphere from foreign interference. I believe we should maintain at all times a navy second to none.

I believe that to keep the good will of our neighbor republics south of us, we need a closer relationship between their monies and our dollar. In this connection, it is my candid opinion that capital does not cooperate closely enough with the government for the general welfare of the nation.

I am opposed to the Cole Bill now under consideration in Congress to put the oil business under Federal Control.

I am not asking for this office on the influence of friends, as many politicians will say, and I would not attempt to insult the intelligence of the voters of this District by telling them whom to vote for in this race. It occurs to me that there is every kind, class and denomination now asking to be elected to Congress from this District, and the people have plenty to choose from without telling them how to vote. I am simply submitting myself and my views for their consideration in selecting their next Congressman.

After reading the campaign literature sent out from the headquarters of various candidates for president, we have come to the conclusion that all GOP platforms for 1940 can be condensed into the following words: "We like Hull's reciprocal trade agreements, the CCG program, and farm subsidies. We believe in giving labor a fair break, want to continue our army and navy. We've changed our old ideas about the sanctity of high tariffs and agree with the Democrats that where one group—such as manufacturers—are fully protected by a tariff, other groups—such as farmers—should be given certain concessions to enable them to buy fully protected products. In fact, we believe in the whole New Deal program, but we just naturally think it would be much better to have Republicans in the White House."

CANDIDATE'S WITHDRAWAL ANNOUNCEMENT

I regret that, owing to circumstances that have arisen since my announcement for the office of County Superintendent, I find it advisable to withdraw my candidacy for the office. It is for no selfish reason that I take such action, but simply that I am doing what I think is best for the welfare of my family.

Especially do I regret to disappoint those of my friends who have so heartily and faithfully worked in my interest or have looked forward to the opportunity of favoring me with their votes, and I thank everyone who would have voted for me. Personally, I would have preferred to run the face out, but I have no doubt that most anyone else with my point of view would have acted as I have. And furthermore, I believe there are few who would censure me because of the action I have taken if they were fully appraised of the circumstances leading to such action.

Respectfully, C. W. Howard

POST OFFICE RECEIPTS SHOW SLIGHT GAIN

The postal receipts for the first quarter this year closing April 30th, showed a slight gain over that of a year ago. But not enough gain to crow about, it was just 888. The receipts this last quarter totalled $3,344.97. That money comes from the sale of stamps and box rentals.

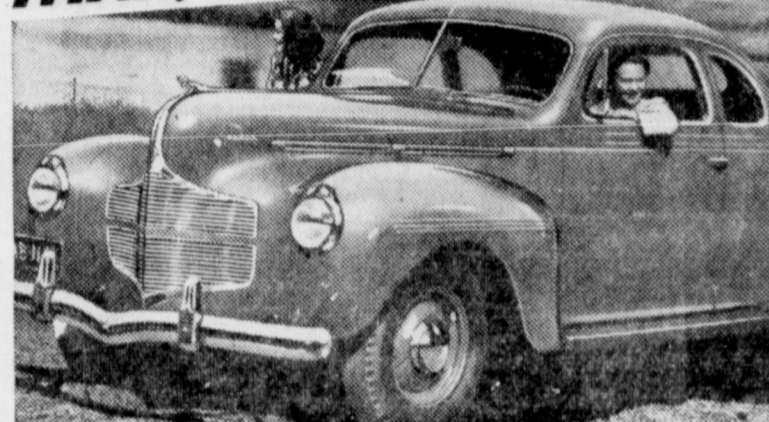

Twelve local people are employed in and through the local postoffice. Five are rural mail carriers.

The postmaster receives $2,400 a year, and each of the clerks $2100 a year. The substitute clerks of which there are two, are paid by the hour for the time employed. The rate is 65 cents an hour. The janitor gets $1/60 a year.

LEG'S INTO ECLIPSE

Hamburger stand leg-art curb service is bad for public morals and public health, the State Restaurant Association decided last week in a meeting in Austin. The association passed a resolution denouncing "nudeness vogue" for carhops. W. E. Gibson, of Houston, president, whose hometown recently gained national fame for gaily and scantily attired feminine carhops, said the board of directors considered half-dressed hired hands—male or female—opposed to the sanitary laws of the state. To attain maximum in sanitation, he explained, there had to be a maximum coverage.

New Film Tells Of Buried Gold

Somewhere west of the ghost town of Virginia City, Nevada, five million dollars in gold is waiting to be found. The story of this treasure and of the men who fought for it is one of those half-forgotten epics of American adventure. The producers and star of "Dodge City" have made a picture about this historic cache—"Virginia City," which will have its local premiere on Wednesday at the Pastime Theatre. Errol Flynn, Miriam Hopkins, and Randolph Scott are the stars.

In 1864, stormiest days of the struggle between the North and South, Virginia City was the biggest boom town of the day. It was there that the Comstock Lode was yielding fabulous sums in gold and silver. Badly in need of money, the Confederates laid the daring plan of freighting five million dollars in gold, donated by Southern sympathizers in Virginia City, to Richmond. Randolph Scott plays the role of the Confederate officer in charge of the convoy, while Flynn is a Union intelligence officer assigned to prevent the shipment. Miss Hopkins is a secret agent, who poses as a dancehall hostess in Virginia City's famed Sazerac Cafe.

Last season's "Dodge City" dealt with a hitherto unfiled phase of the rowdy, adventurous growth of the West "Virginia City" deals with an even more colorful phase of our history. Filmed on location in Arizona's famous Painted Desert, the three cornered chase and battle form the major action of the film.

BLACK AND GOLD CONTRAST FEATURES 1941 PLATES

The State Highway Commission announced today that the order for 1941 License Plates has been placed with the State Prison System which manufactures the plates according to specifications prepared by the Highway Department.

Passenger car plates will be black with numerals of gold. Truck and other series of plates will be the reverse, gold with numerals of black. These color combinations were selected because of high visibility and proven durability.

The manufacture and distribution of three and a half million plates is a job of considerable magnitude, requiring careful preparation and constant inspection.

W. H. Ellis, Jr. of Lelia Lake was returned home Wednesday from Memphis in a Buntin ambulance. He was a patient of a Memphis hospital following an operation. He is said to be improving nicely.
