Record Number Of Old Clarendon College Exes Attend Reunion Here

Some 200 ex-students of Clarendon Methodist College gathered in Clarendon Saturday and Sunday for a reunion and to pay tribute to H. T. Burton, former football coach at the College. Friends and acquaintances from the area raised attendance to an even larger number and filled the college auditorium to overflowing at the Saturday evening meeting.

C. E. Ratliff, vice-president of the ex-student association and News Director of KCBD-TV, Lubbock, Texas, was master of ceremonies when Mr. Burton was awarded an honorary degree as Doctor of Humane Letters. Golder H. Russell of San Antonio, a former football player, then presented Mr. Burton with a trophy on behalf of former football players whom Burton had coached. About 60 players were on hand for the presentation. The trophy was beautifully engraved with the players names.

Burton, age 74, came to Clarendon Methodist College in 1919 having just received his Commission and release from the U.S. Army. He coached football for the following eight and a half years and when the college was reorganized in 1927, he became President of the College and Superintendent of Schools. He served in that capacity for 28 years before his retirement. He continued to serve his community as Mayor for several years.

Registration was directed by Clarendon Jaycees and Jayceettes Saturday afternoon at the Junior College Building and the same group served coffee and iced tea in the lounge throughout the afternoon. Visiting was enjoyed by all until the dinner hour.

The group gathered at Lions Club Hall for the dinner which was served by Mrs. Ruby Bromley and later adjourned to the College Auditorium for the evening session. Delbert Robertson, secretary of the Clarendon Jaycees, welcomed the guests and Steve Russell of Denver, Colorado, presented the response. Following the tribute to Mr. Burton, reports were heard from many of the ex-students.

The classes of 1923 and 1924 had the largest number in attendance. V. T. Glenn of Amarillo probably represented the older class attending. His was the class of 1902. Much fun was brought about when the number of grandchildren were compared. An informal gathering was held in the Hospitality Room of the Farmers State Bank later Saturday evening and a number brought old annuals to be enjoyed by all.

Sunday morning was like "old times" when the group met at the Methodist Church for church services. Rev. P. W. Walker, pastor of the Oak Cliff Methodist Church in Dallas, delivered the address and paid tribute to the College and the ideals for which it stood.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Bromley at Lions Club Hall and following the meal a memorial service was held for former students and faculty members who had passed on since the last reunion. Dr. Hubert Sone of Fort Worth, a graduate of the class of 1914 and a former missionary, presided.

Concluding activities included the election of association officers for the next two years. Curtis Cryer of Amarillo was elected President; Golder H. Russell of San Antonio, Vice-President; and Clyde I. Price of Clarendon, Secretary.

Delinquent Insolvent Tax List In This Issue Of Leader

The City Commission is publishing the City's delinquent insolvent tax list in this issue of the Leader in an effort to show the actual tax condition of the city. This list follows the Real Property tax list which was published previously.

City officials have pointed out that many City improvements could be made if these delinquent accounts were cleared from their books.

Collection proceedings are scheduled to begin within the near future to collect all delinquent City Taxes and those owing same can save considerable money by paying up now instead of having to pay lawyers' fees, publication and court costs which will be added and in some cases will far exceed the original amount.

"Property owners evidently are disregarding our notices and we are no going to fool around any longer," City officials stated.

Booster Trip To Be Made June 27

The Booster Trip, advertising the annual July 4th celebration will be made Thursday, June 27. The caravan will leave Clarendon about 8 a.m. and will meet at the Court House.

The trip will be shorter than first planned and a tentative list of the towns to be visited include Hedley, Memphis, Wellington, Shamrock, McLean, Groom, and Claude.

There will be baby sitting at the Methodist Church for those who require this service and desire to make the trip. The charge will be $1.50. All who are interested in the baby sitting should contact Ann Hommel or Kay Bain.

Anyone interested in making the Booster Trip is asked to contact Carroll Hudson, Kenneth Vaughan, a member of the Jaycees or Jayceettes.

Screwworm Case Reported At Hedley

County Agent Flip Breedlove of Donley County announced today that the first confirmed case of screwworms was located eight and one-half miles south of Hedley last Saturday. The sample was sent to the Screwworm Eradication Program at Mission, Texas. Earl Wheatley of Hedley sent in the sample and it was located on the Spalding Ranch.

Monday morning a representative of the Screwworm Eradication Program arrived in Breedlove's office and went to the ranch to mark the location, so that sterile flies can be dropped in the area by plane. Mr. Chaney, representative of the eradication program said that in 48 hours from the time that the case of screwworms was confirmed and the spot marked, sterile flies will be dropped in the area.

The number of flies dropped will be sufficient to cover an area of about seven miles square.

Breedlove is urging all livestock owners in the county to be on the lookout for screwworm cases and immediately put eight or ten worms in a container and ship to the "SCREW WORM ERADICATION PROGRAM", Box 969, Mission, Texas. Containers for shipping can be secured at Breedlove's office and no postage is necessary. Be sure to fill out the papers enclosed with the shipment so that the location of the case can be identified on a map for dropping of sterile flies.

RODEO PROGRAMS NEARING COMPLETION

The Jaycees report they have only a few ads left in the program that is to be printed for the rodeo performances this July 2nd, 3rd and 4th. This is a means by which the Jaycees raise some of the much needed money to carry out their projects during the year and also adds much prestige to the rodeo by offering a souvenir program at the performances. If you would like an ad in the program contact any of the Jaycees or call either Chauncey Hommel, president, or Robert Bain, director in charge of the project, and they will be glad to come by and fix you up with an ad.

AMARILLO FIRMS ADD TO BEEF CONTRIBUTIONS

Glover Packing Co. of Amarillo and Amarillo Livestock Auction Co. have given one beef each to our annual July 4th barbecue, along with local contributions, and the board of directors of the Clarendon Outdoor Entertainment Association wishes to take this opportunity to express their gratitude to these out-of-town firms who are taking such an active part in our community celebration.

Since our beef donations were a little light this year due to circumstances beyond our control and the drought, we went to these firms and they very graciously consented to help us out even though they are outside our community.

Warning Issued Regarding City Machine

City officials are warning parents of youngsters in regard to the City Fogging machine which is used to combat flies and mosquitoes. A number of youngsters have been following the fogging machine on their bicycles and have been riding in the heavy mist which is dangerous to their health.

The mist from the machine is not dangerous when it thins out but could be very detrimental to health by continuous breathing in concentrated form such as some youngsters have been doing by following the machine in the dense fog.

July 1 Billing To Show Increase In City Charges

City of Clarendon residents will note an increase in two different charges on their water bill which will be mailed July 1st.

Fifty cents per meter will be added to the minimum water charge which will be used to move the water tank now located near the depot, to the southeast part of town and for general water improvements. The moving of this water tank will improve the water pressure and will also help the fire insurance rate in Clarendon.

With this same billing, twenty-five cents will be added to the sewer charge for necessary sewer repairs.

PARADE ONLY TWO WEEKS AWAY

The Jaycees remind everyone who is building floats for the parade that you only have two weeks in which to get your materials together and your floats constructed for the western parade which will be July 4th. All businesses, communities, and civic and women's club are urged to build floats this year to help make this parade one of the biggest and best ever.

The Jaycees have secured the Amarillo Air Force Base Band for the parade this year which should add a great deal to the parade.

Beef Cattle Association Schedules Bull Sale

Directors of the Rolling Plains Registered Beef Cattle Association met in the community room of the Farmers State Bank on the night of the 17th of June at 8 p.m. Fourteen of the seventeen directors were present at the meeting. W. H. Cooke, III, president of the organization presided at the meeting. Secretary Flip Breedlove presented the agenda of business for the board's consideration for the coming bull sale to be held on December 4th in Clarendon at the fair building. Mr. Walter Britten will be the auctioneer for the bull sale again this year.

The board voted to hold their barbecue for the directors, consignors of bulls and buyers and prospective buyers at the Country Club on the evening of the 8th of August. The Farmers State Bank of Clarendon will be the host for the barbecue. A program will be planned for the barbecue in addition to the election of officers for the coming year.

Twelve directors will be elected from twenty-four candidates nominated by the nominating committee. The new directors will then elect their officers from their membership. Only members of the association will be eligible to vote and a printed ballot will be submitted to the membership for the election. Advertising for the coming bull sale will be in five leading livestock magazines for this section of the country.

The meeting was adjourned at 11 p.m.

Moisture Total Continues To Climb

A measurable amount of moisture has been recorded here on 10 out of the first 18 days of the month of June to bring our total for the month to 3.69 which is quite a boost to our yearly total which now stands at 6.23.

Larger amounts of moisture have been recorded in surrounding communities throughout the same period.

Farmers have had difficulty in planting their crops and most are already looking forward to another late fall to go along with the late planting. The continued rains are putting broader smiles on the ranchers faces as grass prospects had been quite slim and surface tanks were drying up.

ATTEND CLARENDON COLLEGE REUNION

A complete list of those to attend the Clarendon Methodist College reunion held here Saturday and Sunday was not available and addresses of some of those present were incomplete. Among those to attend were Mrs. Carroll Baldwin of Lamesa; Mrs. Pauline Stephens of Wichita Falls; Mrs. Stewart Condon of Canyon; Mrs. D. P. Pope of Lubbock; Mrs. Julia Dean Simmons of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Nowlin; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Furr of Lubbock; Milton Price; Mamie Price; Mrs. Vivian Major of Hereford; Noah Mead of Vernon; Chief Youngblood; Heck Harris of Portales, N.M.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Loftis of the Fort Worth area; Mrs. Carl Boston of Pampano. Other names are mentioned in local items in this issue of the paper.

Clyde Douglas of Dallas was a week end visitor in Clarendon and attended the Clarendon Methodist College reunion.

The next two weeks will certainly be busy ones as preparations move along for the big annual event which will get underway in less than two weeks. Preliminary events begin this next week which will climax the publicizing of the affair.

A booster trip to neighboring towns has been set for Thursday, June 27th. The group will meet at the Court House in order to leave in a caravan. Those who can make the trip are urged to contact Carroll Hudson, Kenneth Vaughan or Robert Bain.

Next on the program will be the television show at KGNC-TV in Amarillo on Saturday, June 29th. The Clarendon delegation is to be at the studio at 11:15 a.m. on that date and the presentation will be from 12 to 12:30 on Cotton John's Farm program. All locals who can make the trip and be on the television program are urged to do so.

The pre-western week dance has been scheduled for the night of June 29th in the Legion Hall. All queen contestants will be presented at this time but the coronation of the Rodeo Queen will not be held until the first night of the rodeo, Tuesday, July 2nd, and the Queen will reign over the remainder of the three day event.

Bill Porter, President of the Outdoor Entertainment Association, reported 10 beehives have been donated to date for the western barbecue on July 4th and Flip Breedlove says that his barbecuing crew has been lined up for quite some time.

Ray Palmer reports several good box seats left but emphasized that they will not last long, so if you want a box for all events, you should contact Ray soon. Pete Borden said he had several choice car parking spaces left but they too will go fast as the celebration date draws nearer.

Numerous contacts will be made within the next few days by committee chairmen for helpers in various categories so if you are called up to help, please cooperate and help us make this one of the most successful and enjoyable celebrations, stated Bill Porter.

Rodeo Queen To Be Crowned July 2

The Rodeo Queen to reign over the annual July 4th celebration will be crowned the night of July 2nd at the opening of the first rodeo performance. The girls taking part in the contest will be presented at the pre-western dance June 29th.

Buy your tickets to any of the celebration events and vote for the young lady of your choice by buying from her.

Postmaster's Corner

June 20th ends the fiscal year for the Postal Department, and this means primarily one thing to the patrons — EVERYONE'S POST OFFICE BOX RENT IS DUE AND PAYABLE. All rents must be paid on or before June 30th or it is mandatory to close the box. Naturally we are interested in getting as many as possible to pay their rent by the year which would eliminate quarterly collections. If you are going to be on vacation during this period, be sure to leave us a check before you leave.

Several patrons are mixing their in-town and out-of-town mail in the outside mail boxes. When you drop local mail in the out-of-town box, it takes a ride to Amarillo, and then comes back which delays delivery. If you drop out-of-town mail in the local box, then there is a strong possibility that it won't go off until the following day. If speed in delivery is important to you, then make certain the proper box is selected when depositing your mail. We frequently have patrons to ask us to open their box, and we are glad to accommodate; however, we must also make certain that the box is opened ONLY for persons authorized to remove mail from that box — so if you send someone for your mail, either you furnish them the combination, the key or notify us because we cannot disclose your combination or box number to anyone. This is for protection of your mail and not because we just don't want to do it. Also make sure your box is securely fastened after removing your mail.

We are anxious to get all addresses corrected. At least 40% of the mail is still coming incorrectly addressed, especially magazines and newspapers. Remember, we have change-of-address cards for both periodicals and correspondents that are yours for the asking. About two minutes of your time would save us a lot and insure prompt and correct delivery to you.

PUT FIRE RESISTANCE INTO FENCE POSTS

COLLEGE STATION — Did you ever see a wooden fence post burning? The answer is probably yes, but did you check to see if the post had been treated with a preservative?
Tests conducted in Texas and throughout the country during the past 40 years prove that treated posts are resistant to grass and brush fires, points out Extension Forester Bill Smith.
On the other hand, untreated wood posts are quite susceptible to such blazes. Decay, near the ground line, usually begins shortly after such posts have been set and the resultant punky wood makes an excellent point for the kindling action of a fire to get started, he adds.
One railroad concern ran a 2-year test on over 2 million posts in a 4-state area, including Texas. Most of the posts were subjected to repeated "burning off" fires during this and prior periods. At the end of two years, 1 out of every 280 untreated wood posts was destroyed by fire while only 1 out of every 5,000 treated ones had to be replaced because of fire damage.
Untreated posts were destroyed by fire at a rate 18 times greater than the treated ones, Smith stated.
He explains that after wood posts have been treated with a preservative, the surface tends to harden during the seasoning period and the sapwood or outer portion of the post remains sound and strong for many years. For this reason, the surface provides little or no opportunity for kindling action during a series of passing fires.

PLENTIFUL FOODS BRIGHTEN JUNE

COLLEGE STATION — Choose June. June scores high on all yardsticks of enjoyable livability. It's the beginning of the vacation season. Weather and natural beauties are at their apex. Special occasions like weddings and graduation brighten our schedules.

High on the list of June joys is the abundance of good food. Take the U.S. Department of Agriculture's June list of plentiful, for example, suggests the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Milk and all dairy products head the list, naturally. June is Dairy Month, when milk production is at its seasonal peak. The plentiful tag applies to all dairy foods — whole, skim, dried, condensed and chocolate milk; ice cream; cream; half-'n-half; cream of all kinds; butter and even buttermilk. Use them generously, to heighten June enjoyment.

In the meat line, look for plenty of beef, pork and broiler-fryers. All are on USDA's June list. And prices are unusually attractive, as meat production exceeds normal needs.

Eggs also will be plentiful all June. Use them in salads, in baking, as gems of breakfast nutrition, or in egg nogs in combination with the abundance of milk.

Ginners Offer "Mike" Testing Service

How can you get a "mike reading" on your cotton? Ask your ginner to apply for this U.S. Department of Agriculture service, says C. E. Cox, in charge of the Altus Cotton Cladding Office.

Last year, 129 gins served by the Altus and Memphis Cladding Offices applied for free cladding services available to farmers in organized Smith-Doxey groups.

Mr. Cox points out that all of these groups are eligible for the "mike" service at a fee of 8 cents per sample.

"But the gins must apply for it under a special application," he emphasizes.

Applications should be received by July 1, so that the local cotton office can determine how much equipment and personnel it will need to provide the "mike" service to all gins asking for it.

"Last year, farmers in this territory had nearly all of their cotton classed — about 378,000 bales," Mr. Cox reports.

"Since the 'mike reading' has become such an important factor in selling cotton, we expect a large share of the cotton we class will be 'miked' also," he explains.

The applicant may terminate this USDA testing service at any time by giving written notice to the cotton classing office.

Don't you read before you buy?
Most people generally do not only do they read; they cut out and send ads to their family and friends; they clip coupons for information and samples. When people see an advertisement in print, they can compare designs... features... and prices of nationally known products and services. (And people do compare before they buy.) Advertising in print is a handy thing. You can always check back; the message is still there even if your attention is distracted. When you add it up, print advertising—the kind you read in this newspaper—makes sense. And because it measures up to the buying habits of most consumers, print makes sales.

"LONG JOHNS" FOR YOUR HOUSE

COLLEGE STATION — Frigid weather always brings out the long underwear, and people should think about putting long underwear, in the form of insulation, in their houses, says W. S. Allen, extension agricultural engineer.

Allen, housing and building specialist, says that such insulation will contribute much to the comfort of their home. Almost all building materials have some insulation properties, but some are better than others, he adds. A good insulation material retards the flow of heat, is resistant to decay, fire proof, and does not harbor insects and rodents.

Metal foil will help retard the flow of certain kinds of heat and act as an insulation barrier. It is commonly used to reduce the effect of heat radiation and as a vapor barrier, according to the specialist. The use of a vapor barrier is very important, especially where extremely cold winters are common, or there is a great deal of moisture in the warm air inside a building, he adds.

The barrier is normally placed on the warm side of the insulation to reduce the possibility of condensation in or on the insulation material. The insulation can be helpful in the summer as well as during cold spells, Allen says. It serves to keep warm air out as well as in.

Insulation will lower fuel bills for heating and for air conditioning, the specialist notes. These savings should outweigh the cost of insulation, Allen says, not to mention the comfort it will add. He suggests a visit with a building materials dealer for information on the type of insulation best suited for your needs.

THE EMPLOYMENT BARRIER

The Jefferson, Ohio, Gazette, has made this interesting editorial observation: "Many a boy through his high school years earned enough to get a start at college. Often this part-time employment led to a career in the business."

But now, the Gazette goes on, all this has changed. And one of the reasons is the minimum wage requirement. In its words, "Minimum wages have their place in the modern industrial scheme of things, but they have deprived . . . lads of an opportunity to earn spending money and to save for their future . . . in the hundreds of small towns and rural communities, the social reformers, with their well intended laws, have barred youth an opportunity for self independence."

The record supports this view. Take, for instance, retail business — large or small, chain or independent. Large numbers of retail stores can offer jobs, often on a part-time basis, to people who are without experience or any particular skill. Obviously, their value to the store is limited. Yet the work they are given can prepare them for advancement to more responsible, better-paid positions. But, if an arbitrary wage-hour law forces the costs of this kind of employment to unprofitable levels, it will be cut to the limit.

The moral is a simple one: The fundamental element in determining earning power is an individual's productivity. The two can't be separated.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Thomas of Phoenix, Arizona, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Thomas.

Funeral Held For Mrs. J. A. S. Wood

Mrs. J. A. S. Wood, 52, a resident of Lelia Lake for 13 years, died at 7:35 p.m. Friday in Goodall Hospital in Memphis.

Funeral services were held at 3 p.m. Sunday in the First Baptist Church at Lelia Lake with Elder E. J. Norman of Childress and Elder A. D. Wood of Luling officiating; both Primitive Baptist ministers.

Mrs. Wood had been in failing health for several years. Death was due to a stroke.

She was Bertha Callie McFall before her marriage to J. A. S. Wood, October 20, 1907, at Glen Rose, Texas.

Mrs. Wood came to Lelia Lake in 1950 from Muleshoe, Texas. The family lived in the Wellington area several years prior to moving to Muleshoe.

She was born February 18, 1891, in McCulloch County, Texas.

Survivors include her husband, and two daughters, Mrs. Erbie Driver of Chillicothe, Texas, and Mrs. Marshall Milligan of Muleshoe, Texas; two sons, Willis Wood of Littlefield and Cecil Wood of Lelia Lake; two brothers, Sam McFall and Emmett McFall, both of Glen Rose; nine grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Ronald Castner, Lacy Noble, Earl Shields, Coleman Shields, Lonnie Neeley and Zeb Zilibia.

Interment was in West Cemetery at Wellington under the direction of the Murphy Funeral Home.

Word was received here this week that Sid R. Harp, Air Force recruiter at Abilene, had been made Tech. Sgt. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Harp of this city.

Jail Escapee Nabbed At Hobbs, N.M.

James Latham, 18, who broke out of the local county jail the night of June 12 was arrested Monday night in Hobbs, N.M.

Sheriff Truett Behrens returned the fugitive to Clarendon Tuesday afternoon. Latham had been charged with the burglary here of the A.A.A. Motor Co. June 1st.

Latham was apprehended last week at Lenard, Kansas, and was returned here by Sheriff Behrens Wednesday afternoon.

He was placed in the run-around of the jail and while Behrens was out on other business, he removed a window facing and kicked the brick out of a wall to the side of the bars and made his escape down a TV pole. Our local jail has mellowed with age and it takes very little effort to loosen the brick and sandy mortar, Sheriff Behrens stated.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Cora Bramblet and Mrs. T. F. Anthony, Amarillo, Mrs. Lewis Myers, Petaluma, Calif.; two sons, E. L. Cline of Hedley and Y. F. Cline of Dallas; 35 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES AT FORT WORTH

Mrs. Jennie Warren, 96, former Clarendon resident, died Tuesday at her home in Fort Worth.

Before moving to Fort Worth in 1932, she and her late husband, Joe M. Warren, were well-known residents of this city.

Funeral services for Mrs. Warren will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday in the chapel of the First Methodist Church in Fort Worth. Burial will be in Fort Worth.

YANKS TAKE FIRST PLACE IN LITTLE LEAGUE PLAY

The hustling Yankees scored five runs on two hits in the first inning against the Cubs in Monday night's second game and went on to defeat the Cubs by a score of 5 to 1 and take first place in the Little League standing. Benny Reece and Charles Lewis each pitched three innings and limited the Cubs to two hits, both by Jim Moore. Moore tripled in the second inning and doubled in the sixth but his teammates could not bring him home. The Cubs picked up their lone run in the third inning on two Yankee errors.

In Monday night's first game the Giants rallied for three runs in the first half of the seventh inning to take a thrilling 7 to 4 win from the White Sox. Thus the Giants remained in third place behind the Cubs who are in second and the White Sox are in last place. The Sox are playing good ball but just can't seem to score enough runs to win. They picked up one run in the first, two in the second and one in the third and had the Giants deadlocked at the end of the regulation six innings, but in the first extra inning game of the season, the Giants parlayed one hit, one base on balls, two fielders choices and one White Sox error for their three runs. The Sox outhit the Giants 7 to 5. Joe Yankee, Sox third baseman, collected four hits in five trips to lead the hitting for both teams.

Miss Mamie McLean of San Antonio, Miss Wilma McLean of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Quinn of Breckenridge, and Mrs. Carolyn McCorkel of San Antonio visited through the week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Powell and attended the Clarendon Methodist College reunion.

FARM NEWS

from County ASCS Committee

Diverted Acres
To be designated as diverted acreage, land must be in whole fields or in areas of reasonable size within fields. Turn rows, drainage ditches, wet low-lying areas, droughty knobs or banks, other areas which normally would not produce a crop, and strips of less than four normal rows in skip row planting patterns will not qualify.

Substitution of other eligible land for designated diverted acreage will be permitted if a request for such substitution is made not later than the time the reporter secures the initial acreage report for corn and grain sorghums.

Feed Grains and Cotton Performance

We will begin measuring feed grain and cotton acreage in July. Those of you in the feed grain program will have to designate diverted acres when the reporter makes the initial visit to the farm. If you want to have an area measured off, please come by the ASCS Office for assistance. The reporter cannot determine the acreage in the field.

1963 Grain Sorghum Price Support Set

Prices for the 1963 crop of grain sorghum will be supported in Donley County at $1.98 per hundredweight for grain sorghum grading No. 2 or better. This compares with a support of $1.90 per hundredweight for the 1962 grain sorghum crop. The 1963 program provides for 29 cents per hundredweight payment-in-kind and a $1.69 per hundredweight price support loan rate.

Grain sorghum producers eligible for price support in 1963 will be those who participate in the 1963 feed grain program by diverting at least 20 percent of their total grain sorghum, barley, or corn acreage to a conserving use.

As in previous years, price support will be carried out through farm and warehouse stored loans and purchase agreements. Support will be available from harvest time through January 31, 1964.

The latest Kennedy joke going the rounds has to do with a little negro boy playing with Carolyn. He decided to ask the president for her hand in marriage. According to the story, Mr. President said:

"Why Boy, you can't do that." "How come Mr. President," the little boy asked. "Don't you understand young fellow, you're a Baptist."

Speaking of jokes on the family, it is said that the president takes them in good stride and that by sheer numbers the jokes on the family has rivalled those of the Ford and T-Model days...

Our mail brought another letter from Miss Jenn Pool, our retired teacher reader from down Ft. Worth way. She sends us a small booklet as a gift written by another retired teacher who teaches a Sunday School class for retired teachers at Polytechnic Methodist Church in that city. About eleven years ago the class started the hobby of having a Thought For The Day. C. C. Bock, the teacher compiled a large group of them together and had it published in book form. It is a clever idea, and right down my alley. The following are a sample of those used. Thanks Miss Pool and Mr. Bock.

"A man that rolls up his sleeves seldom loses his shirt."

"It is better to sit in the back row and be discovered, than to sit on the front row and be found out."

The best cure for crime is not the electric chair, but the high chair.

The following seemed so very good. We borrowed it from The Sunshine Magazine which has become one of our favorite publications. The title is Was This Your Boy?

Lost, 'A Boy' Not kidnapped by bandits and hidden in a cave to weep and starve and raise a nation to frenzied searching. No, his father lost him. . . Too busy to sit with him at the fireside and answer his trivial questions during the years when Dad is the only hero to a boy, he let go his hold.

His mother lost him too. Engrossed in worthwhile programs, clubs with high aims, she let the babysitter hear his prayers and abdicated her place of influence.

And the church lost him. Amid sermons for the wise and well-to-do with care for dignity and decorum, there was no place for the restless boy in worship or in sport.

Mr. E. T. Cummings, a retired post office worker, writes us from Tampa, Florida and sends along an order for three more of our books. He also sends several of his favorite quotes on the subject of Friends.

"A friend is one who stands by, while the rest of the world walks by" - Ben Franklin.

"A friend is one that knows all your faults, yet loves you just the same." - Elbert Hubbard.

"Friends don't just happen, you have to make them, and the best way to make a friend is to be one." - Emerson. "He who has a thousand friends, has not a friend to spare; And he who has one enemy will meet him everywhere." - Omar Khayyam.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Guar Crop Acceptance Makes Headway

With the planting season just now at hand and as the push for increased guar bean production continues in the drive for expanded acreage in more widespread areas, new interest is being evidenced based on planting intent.

Guar, while no miracle crop, offers farmers double-barreled benefits with its cash crop returns from bean production along with substantial soil-conditioning benefits for increased yields of cotton or grain that follow in rotation on guar-land. Such rotations in many areas are the answer to dry-land farming success.

"Guar's soil conditioning qualities and its high resistance to drought are only two of several reasons for renewed interest in the crop," explains John W. Stewart, General Mills' Feed Representative.

"Guar also is relatively easy to plant and harvest, and it fills a long-felt need for an annual legume that will readily fit into a cotton-grain rotation," he added. "More and more farmers are turning to the sturdy plant to breathe new life into land wearied of successive crops of cotton and grain."

"It seems to be our best answer to the fertility problem of the dry-land farmers," he concluded. "Its roots dig deep for moisture, and they keep soils loose and pliable to absorb and hold what little rainfall that might come."

"You can't make a complete failure with guar," he insists. "Even if it doesn't make you a seed crop, you get your planting costs back in soil improvement. That's an important item to any farmer, especially the dry-land operator."

GRASSROOTS OPINION

FORT PIERRE, S.D., TIMES: "There are better ways, says the Council of State Chambers of Commerce, of increasing the employability of unemployed youth than by enrolling a 'relatively small number' in the pending Youth Conservation Corps program at a cost estimated as high as $675 million a year for 150,000 enrollees. The Council's analysis notes that the estimated cost per man per year is three times that of a year's enrollment in a state university and five times that of training in the nation's better vocational high schools. Among the 'better and less costly ways of making youth more employable' suggested by the Council are correction of laws and regulations that prevent employment of youth, expansion of apprenticeship programs by labor unions and industry and 'most importantly' tax rate reform to stimulate economic growth."

The battle between the Monitor and the Merrimack took place at Hampton Roads, Virginia.

STATE CAPITAL
Highlights
AND Sidelights
by Vern Sanford
 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

JUDGES' PAY — Another legislative study will concern the pay needs of judges.

One of the most controversial subjects during this legislative session has been the proper pay for district judges.

State pays all district judges an annual salary of $12,000. Many counties supplement this. Many more have asked their representatives to pass bills this session to authorize county supplements.

Lawmakers from districts where judges get only $12,000 or a slight supplement have battled every bill that called for increased pay. Some increases would have run as high as $20,000 a year. Rural members argue that judicial salaries like that cause too much competition. Rep. Maurice Pipkin of Brownsville noted that creation of a new Court of Civil Appeals in Corpus Christi and the opening of three justice jobs at $15,000 caused a flood of applications.

WATERSHEDS — Speed-up in planning watershed flood protection projects won approval from the Senate-House conference committee on appropriations.

It allocated $100,000 a year to the State Soil Conservation Board to be used to plan small-watershed programs.

U.S. Soil Conservation Service funds for planning are limited. So some watershed districts have raised money and hired the planning done, rather than wait for the U.S. State program will help in the same fashion.

AUSTIN — Rumors concerning a special session continue to bounce around the Capitol.

Most persistent rumor is that Gov. John B. Connally will "line-item" veto the appropriations bill, which he contends "short-changes" higher education. He then call a special session in the fall.

In a "line-item" veto he would strike out items he considers unnecessary. Then try to convince Legislators that the money should go to higher education instead.

Some lawmakers think they will be called back in September. Others pick October. Those who predict a fall session believe they again will have to tackle the subject of congressional redistricting. They didn't agree to a solution in the regular session.

SPEAKER SATISFIED — House Speaker Byron Tunnell of Tyler thinks a summer session is possible.

Tunnell said he is making no vacation plans until he is certain he won't be called on to preside over the House in late June or July.

But the Speaker stated he was well satisfied with the budget passed by the Legislature. He said, "They apparently did what they thought was right, and I for one will stand behind them."

"The 58th Legislature met its challenge and did its work," Tunnell said proudly.

There were many times during the 58th session when the Speaker and the House seemed at odds. But when the session ended most House members agreed that Tunnell had been a good referee.

"I have never asked anything but the right to take my position and give another man the same right," Tunnell stated when the bustle of the 58th dissolved into post-session silence.

"That is what I really like about the House: There is such a mixture of philosophies, ranging from liberals like Bob Eckhardt to mine. Somewhere in between may be where the answer lies."

INSTANT RAILROAD COMMISSIONER — Many nice things have been said about Jim C. Langdon since Governor Connally appointed him to the Railroad Commission to replace Bill Murray. One thing for sure, he adapts to changes easily.

In two short hours, Langdon resigned as chief justice of the El Paso Court of Civil Appeals; withdrew from the race for the State Supreme Court place which Judge Frank Culver of Fort Worth is expected to leave; was sworn in as Railroad Commissioner; announced as a candidate for re-election in 1964; and went right to work.

Then he and Commissioner Ben Ramsey made the announcement the oil and gas industry was waiting for — a 28 percent allowable for June.

GOVERNORS' CHOICE — Langdon's appointment was the third he has received during three administrations.

Gov. Allan Shivers appointed him 112th District Judge in 1964. He was elected to that bench twice. Then Gov. Price Daniel appointed him Chief Justice of the El Paso Court in 1959. This post he resigned to accept Governor Connally's appointment.

BILLS VERSUS LAWS — A quick tabulation of the results of five months of labor by the 181 members of the 58th Legislature reveals that only about 31 percent of the bills passed both House and Senate, to become laws.

A total of 1,723 bills were introduced. Of these, 543 were passed to law. Most of the weeding-out was done by committees. They reported as favorable only 786 bills as compared with 906 in 1961.

SUPREME COURT BACKS COMMISSION — State Supreme Court upheld the Railroad Commission's right to authorize an operator in a particular oil field to conduct a survey of another operator's well to determine if it were illegally slanted.

Case at bar was L&G Oil Company (headed by H. G. Lewis, Jr., of Kilgore) versus the Railroad Commission et al.

L&G charged that a Railroad Commission order permitting Tidewater Oil Company to authorize Sperry-Sun Surveying Company to run a slant-hole survey on an L&G well in the East Texas field was illegal.

The 126th District Court in Austin had supported the Railroad Commission's order.

But while the Supreme Court affirmed the right to give the order, it said it was improperly worded and sent the case back to the trial court.

Two members of the high court, however — Associate Justices Meade F. Griffin and Joe Greenhill — disagreed with their colleagues.

"To allow a citizen or corporation — a potential foe in litigation — to go upon and take notice of another's property without even so much as an opportunity to be heard, is a clear violation of the due process clause of the Texas and Federal constitutions," they stated.

DATE MIX-UP — On or about August 1, Secretary of State Crawford Martin has to start publishing proposed amendments to the constitution that will be up for a vote in a special election on Saturday, November 9.

Martin checked out the first three amendments scheduled for the ballot: One to decide whether to abolish the poll tax; one asking whether to extend the Veterans' Land Program and increase bonds; and one asking voters whether the state should increase from $54,000,000 to $60,000,000 state funds that can be spent each year on federal-state assistance for old folks, children, the blind and disabled.

Then he came to a fourth — a proposed amendment to authorize a retirement and benefit program for Jefferson County drainage district employees. One clause referred to a November 9, 1963, election. Another set the election for November, 1964.

Martin couldn't decide which date was right, so he referred the matter to Attorney General Waggoner Carr.

FORMER SPEAKER LANDS JOB — James A. Turman of Gohar, former speaker of the House who ran for lieutenant-governor in 1962 and was defeated by Preston Smith of Lubbock, was around Austin for a long time after his term as speaker ended on January 7.

Many political potentates predicted he would be named Secretary of State — he wasn't. Then they said he would head Governor Connally's proposed Commission on Excellence in Higher Education, but that bill didn't pass.

Turman came out fine in the long run. Last week, he joined the U.S. Office of Education in Washington, D.C., as a Special Consultant-Expert to the Commissioner of Education.

Turman once was assistant to the president of Texas Woman's University in Denton.

STOCKS SALES GRANTED — State Securities Commissioner William M. King announced a sharp rise in the number of companies registering stocks with his board in April.

Sixty-three companies — 27 Texas firms included — were granted permits to issue $22,634,384 worth of securities in the state.

HIGHWAY CONTRACTS RECORD SET — A $5,200,000 contract for construction of a 12-mile stretch of Interstate Highway 20 in Kaufman County broke all records for the State Highway Department.

Contract was one of 64, representing $33,000,000 worth of road improvements, let by the State Highway Commission on May 27.

UNEMPLOYMENT DOWN — Economic pictures drawn by state agencies this week began to look like "Texas Brags."

Texas Employment Commission also had a glowing report. It announced that the number of job-seekers dropped from 191,000 in March to 171,500 in April.

Number of employed was 3,543,100 — 56,100 more than the March figure.

According to the Public Service Company of Colorado, utilities could have some $25 million a year by doubling the tree-trimming cycle, increasing it from every two or three years to every four or six years. A project sponsored by the Edison Electric Institute is seeking to control tree growth without hindering the health or appearance of the trees.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18th DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

Congress Must Retain Its Powers

Congress is to the government what a board of directors is to a large corporation. Congress guides the actions of our government by passing laws and by determining whether or not they are properly administered. In a similar way, boards of directors set the policies of corporations and check to see that their decisions are executed by management.

In both government and business, policy-makers must be extremely careful lest they delegate to people on the managerial level powers that should have been retained at the top. This, as I pointed out in last week's newsletter, has occurred too often in the Congress with the result that the authority of Congress, the direct voice of the people in their government, has been sapped. Just as stockholders in a corporation would object if the directors they elected shunned their responsibilities by passing too much power to appointed management so American citizens are protesting that Congress has let too much power slip away to bureaucrats who man departments of the government's administrative branch.

Now before the Senate is a bill that, I am convinced, would further strengthen the power of the administrative branch in overseeing the functions and practices of the quasijudicial regulatory agencies of government. The bill, S. 1864, would establish what some have termed a "super agency." It would have watchdog authority over the efficiency, adequacy and fairness of administrative procedures followed by the regulatory agencies. The Administrative Conference of the United States, as this "super agency" would be called, would be headed by a full-time chairman appointed by the President (with the advice and consent of the Senate) and include an 11-member Council, including agency heads and lawyers, and a larger Assembly consisting of other government officials and citizen specialists.

This is a well-intentioned bill. I applaud its purpose — which is to see that unfair and capricious treatment of citizens is prevented as they deal with these agencies, whose power is in part legislative and in part judicial, and to provide for appeals procedures where none now exist.

I object, however, to the philosophy of government lying behind the proposal — that watchdog authority over these agencies is not properly a function of the Congress, that it belongs in the bureaucracy. It certainly is incumbent upon the departments and agencies to administer the authority given to them in a responsible way, but the ultimate responsibility as to whether or not this is being done rests with Congress. In my view, Congress should set to work to restore to itself authority passed along over the years to the regulatory agencies. Instead of laying down the broad forms of legislation that have characterized past delegations of authority to the administrative branch, Congress should be more specific in enacting policies these agencies are to follow.

In the past few years a number of bills have been introduced in the Congress delegating to government agencies measures of authority which taken singly seem insignificant. Some of these bills have been enacted, some have been defeated but the cumulative effect of those that have passed has been a massive grant of administrative power to the quasi-judicial agencies. In some instances, these grants of power have had the effect of binding the Congress to expenditures not specifically authorized in appropriations bills. In other instances laws have permitted members of the executive branch in these agencies to draft what constitute criminal laws, which then must be enforced by the judicial branch. Under these grants of combined legislative and judicial power, the agency is able to make the rules, the violations of which make the offender subject to penalty by U.S. courts.

I'm in support of every step Congress can take to wrest this sort of authority away from the agencies and return it to where it belongs. By enacting specific legislation delegating less-sweeping administrative authority, placing enforcement of laws in the judicial branch by repealing enforcement powers now held by bureaucrats, by enacting laws to provide for better appeals machinery, by conducting a thorough inquiry into the vast realm of agency-exercised powers — these things would help. Also helpful would be a re-examination by the Congress of its own role in government, a study that might go far to restore the emphasis of Congressional activity to legislative business.

Because only 4 to 8 gallons will effectively treat an entire acre of non-cropped land. TRITAC-D contains the added weed killing ingredient 2, 4-D, thus offering you triple killing action: 1. effective deep-root destruction, 2. quick foliage top kill, 3. prevents seeds from developing. TWICE AS MUCH COOLING

With the patented features of Paramount Coolers

Yes! This famous Paramount 5000 c.f.m. evaporative cooler gives you up to twice as much cooling because of these patented features:

— Many coolers lose as much as 70% of cooling efficiency because dust, dirt and salts clog the filters. Patented No-Clog Sta-Fresh Filters are guaranteed clog-proof, assuring 100% cooling efficiency all summer long.

— Filters saturated with water become heavy and often sag and settle from the top, drawing hot, unfiltered, uncooled air into the cooler which may create as much as a 70% cooling loss. Patented Grip-Lock Filter Holders are guaranteed to prevent sagging and settling of filters assuring 100% cool, clean, filtered air.

— Without correct water trough adjustment, sections of the filters remain dry, resulting in substantial cooling loss and costly service expense. Patented Free-Flo Visible Water Troughs with external adjustment assure 100% saturation, and 100% cooling for the entire life of the cooler.

— Added feature — Patented Window Closing Attachment lets you close and lock your window. Eliminates entry of dust, rain and drafts into your home.
