Bronchos To Journey To Shamrock To Play Irishmen Friday Night

The Clarendon Bronchos journey to Shamrock Friday night to tangle with the Shamrock Irishmen in another non-conference encounter. Game time has been set for 8 p.m.

This will be the fourth game of the season for the Bronchos and they are still looking for their first victory and the Irishmen will be a tough bunch to overcome to get on the winning side of the ledger. Shamrock is said to have a comparatively light but highly aggressive team with a very capable quarterback and fullback to cope with.

Coach Jack James said the Bronchos went through a good workout Monday and showed greater determination toward defensive tactics. James has reshuffled his defense in an effort to cope with evident deficiencies the past three games. He said he would probably use Wilkinson as a defensive back, Horton and Gray as ends and Green as a guard on defense in an effort to turn the plays into the line so they can be stopped before much yardage is gained.

Coach James' choice for the probable starting line-up Friday night will be: backfield, David Mooring, QB, Jack Robinson and Ronnie Longan, halfbacks, Teddy Graham at full. In the line will be Dennis Stewart and Lester Welch ends, Douglas Bradshaw and Larry Gray guards, Ronnie McAnear and Steve Shelton, tackles and Kenneth Price as center.

Colts To Open Conference Play

The Clarendon Junior High Colts will open their conference play when they meet the McLean Junior High team in a game to be played at McLean Thursday night, September 26. Game time will be 7 p.m.

The conference schedule will be as follows: October 3, Canadian, Here; October 10, Wellington, There; October 17, Memphis, Here; and October 24, Lefors, There. Game time for these conference games will be 6:30 p.m.

Vote For Greater Progress & Security

(An Editorial)

Regardless of the petty issues and erroneous statements you have heard and which you may hear and receive in printed form from outside interests, you will be voting for greater progress and security for Clarendon when you vote FOR in the election Saturday.

If there was any doubt in our mind which might lead us to believe that the water proposition to be voted on Saturday, was not the best thing for this community, we would readily ask you voters of Clarendon to defeat the issue.

The Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority is governed by men from each of the cities involved. W. Carroll Knorpp, President of the Donley County State Bank, is our local representative on that board and will certainly be looking out for the best interests of this city from the authority viewpoint and also from a citizen viewpoint. Our City Commission will be making a contract with a group of men such as Mr. Knorpp and not a government agency. Sale of water will pay for the project and city taxes will not be increased for this purpose.

We all know that water is becoming more precious each day, and the building of this dam to save and have ample water, can mean more in regard to the future of this community than anything else. The overall benefits from the dam and water will overshadow the few cents increase in water rates.

This is not an over-night project, but one that has received careful study and planning for years and is backed by our foremost citizens and civic organizations who certainly do not wish to bind our city with something harmful, but to give a much brighter outlook for the future.

Areas on down Red River are fighting the Greenbelt District for the water rights we now hold. This is our big opportunity to show other interests that we want this water with an overwhelming vote FOR the issue Saturday, September 28.

John's Men's Wear Opens Departments

John Payne, owner of John's Men's Wear is featuring the grand opening of two new departments at his business this week end.

In order to better serve his customers, Payne has added a ladies' and a boys' department, and is inviting public inspection this week end of the new remodeling job to accommodate the various new lines of merchandise he has to offer.

Donley Young Farmers Party Saturday Night

The Donley County Young Farmers will host an ice cream party Saturday night, Sept. 28, at 7:30 at the City Park.

All old members are urged to attend and bring a guest; also a freezer of ice cream, cookies or cake.

Prospective new members and their families are cordially invited to attend. In case of bad weather, the group will meet at the high school ag building.

The Young Farmers will hold their regular business meeting Tuesday, Oct. 1, at which time plans for the coming year will be completed. All old and new members are urged to attend.

JAYCEE-ETTES TO OBTAIN LITTER CONTAINERS FOR MAIN STREET

The Clarendon Jaycee-ettes announced this week that they had reached an agreement with the City in regards to the type of litter containers to be placed on Main Street. The E-Z-M-Ty type will be installed. A sample container of this type will be placed on the Tunnell corner so that all may see what the container offers.

Jaycee-ettes hope to place at least 12 containers on main street. Advertising to be placed on the receptacles will be sold by Jaycee-ettes and anyone interested in the advertising may contact any member for further information.

The City has agreed to pay for the installation.

JAYCEES SUPPORT GREENBELT DAM

The officers and members of the Jaycees and Jaycee-ettes voted to support the Greenbelt Dam Project. The Jaycees have had many programs on the proposed Greenbelt Dam and feel they have secured enough knowledge of the project to know just how much it will benefit the people of this community both from the use of water and the recreational aspects of the reservoir.

The Jaycees went further into their studies of the proposed project by including it on their community attitude survey to get the general attitude of the people toward the project and over 85 percent expressed their approval. They found from their survey that approximately five percent did not know what the project consisted of and in order that everyone might know what the full extent of the project will be, they ask that you call their President, Chauncey Hommel, and he will see that you receive a booklet which completely outlines the entire Greenbelt Dam Project.

Jaycees in Childress, Quanah, Memphis, and Paducah have been supporting the Greenbelt Dam in their respective cities also.

Large Vote Anticipated In City Water Contract Election Sat.

—of groundless propaganda and deliberate misrepresentations now being spread by the Collingsworth County Water Project promoters — to attempt to confuse us when voting on the Greenbelt Water Project.

Examples:

UNTRUTH NO. 1 — The Greenbelt project would cost 14 millions rather than the nearly 10 millions the Greenbelt claims.

FACT — The Greenbelt has retained the best engineers available — no competent source has questioned their figures and estimates. The Texas Water Commission engineers in Austin have thoroughly studied and have approved and concurred with the Greenbelt engineers report. These State Engineers are the ones who have the responsibility of recommending the Greenbelt loan from State money. If the loan is made it would be for less than 8 million dollars as the State would purchase approximately 2 million dollars of the water and thereby relieve the Greenbelt of having to pay that amount.

UNTRUTH NO. 2 — The Greenbelt contract with its member cities would give the cities present water facilities to the Greenbelt who would then own them and have complete control over them.

FACT — As a means of taking a burden off the cities the Greenbelt has tentatively offered to maintain in good usable shape the water wells presently owned by the cities and at Greenbelt expense. These present supplies would then be on a standby basis and available for any emergencies in our cities, such as a break in the Greenbelt pipe line.

The cities would still own their present wells.

In the case of Childress the City would also still own its present city lakes and would have complete control over their maintenance and use. The Greenbelt would have no connection with their ownership or control.

UNTRUTH NO. 3 — Each city who remains a member of the Greenbelt will be indebted for the total debt.

FACT — No city will owe on the Greenbelt debt. The Greenbelt itself will owe the State Water Development Board if the loan is made; then the credit and treasury of the State of Texas would stand behind the bonds issued by the State of Texas.

UNTRUTH NO. 4 — The Collingsworth promoters charge that the cities who remain in the Greenbelt can be made to pay for their water and own the Greenbelt's debt from any funds available in their city treasuries — even the assessing on their cities.

FACT — The contract which would be signed between the Greenbelt and the cities is available in each city, and has been for weeks, for any and every citizen to read and study. Specific provision is made in this contract that ONLY money from water sales made by the cities will be paid to the Greenbelt. Specific provisions prevent and forbid the possibility of any tax ever being levied on or by the cities to meet their obligation to the Greenbelt.

(The above prepared and submitted by the Greenbelt Municipal & Industrial Water Authority.)

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Ledbetter and Gary of Amarillo visited Saturday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Watson.

A large turnout of voters is expected to go to the polls Saturday to cast their ballot in the all-important Water Contract election which will be held at the City Hall with voting hours from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Every qualified voter should go to the polls and cast their vote so a true picture of what the majority thinks and feels may be forthcoming. Those who can vote in the election are persons who are residents of Clarendon, who have a poll tax, who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered the same for taxation.

GET OUT THE VOTE TO BE CONDUCTED BY JAYCEES & JAYCEE-ETTES

The Jaycees and Jaycee-ettes will be conducting a Get Out The Vote Project this Saturday, September 28th in order that every eligible voter will be reminded to go to the polls and exercise their responsibility by voting on the Greenbelt Dam Project.

The Jaycee sound truck will be running asking everyone to vote and the Jaycee-ettes will be pinning label labels on everyone they see, which will serve as a reminder to others to vote. Signs have been put up at the intersections by the Jaycees and in a last effort to get everyone to the polls they have arranged for the fire whistle to blow six times at 6 p.m. to let everyone know they have only one hour left in which to exercise one of the most important freedoms we have as Americans and that is the freedom of expressing one's opinion through balloting.

Appointed as officers of said election will be: Sam Lowe, Presiding Judge, George Benson, Assistant Judge, Anita Shelton, Clerk, Ann Hommel, Clerk.

Considerable opposition to the proposition has cropped up, mainly due to erroneous statements and misunderstanding and persons who have had access to this type of information should spend a little time in receiving the true facts before going to cast their ballot.

An opposition group from Collingsworth County is expected to flood this area, along with other cities in the Greenbelt District with literature against the issue. These handbills are very derogatory and misleading concerning the true facts of the Greenbelt Authority and any questions you may have in mind regarding the handbill not answered in another article on this page headed BEWARE, please drop by the Leader office and we will do our best to answer them for you.

For those who think the new proposed rate for water will be too high, we submit the following present rate and proposed rate:

per 1,000 gallons	present charge	proposed charge
0-2000
Minimum	3.50	3.50
3000	3.90	4.10
4000	4.30	4.70
5000	4.70	5.30
6500	5.30	6.20
8500	6.10	7.40
11000	7.10	8.55
15000	8.70	10.75
19000	10.30	12.95
35000	16.70	21.15
68000	28.50	34.60

The average water customer will not use beyond the 11000 gallon figure which shows a small increase of 1.45 cents for that amount of water. If Clarendon grows in population and building construction like it is predicted, the future water rate could easily be lowered.

Be sure to exercise your right Saturday by voting in this most important election.

Landmark Tax Legislation

The most important legislation of the year — the "Revenue Act of 1963" will be before the House of Representatives as most of you read this newsletter. Known to most citizens simply as "the tax bill," this measure's major provisions include an across-the-board cut in individual and corporate income tax rates. Because of its impact on virtually every American citizen and business firm, the tax bill has brought more concentrated public and Congressional attention than any other piece of pending legislation.

You've probably read of the bill's provisions in your newspapers and heard them discussed at length in television and radio reports. Perhaps you've determined by how much your own taxes would be reduced and the effects other provisions in the bill would have on you or your business. Perhaps you've found things in the bill with which you disagree; few persons could agree with every item in a bill 310 pages in length, although they might feel that "on balance" the bill is a good one.

The most significant thing about the tax bill is that it represents a strong reaffirmation of the nation's faith in the free enterprise system. At conflict in recent years have been two theories concerning the way in which government can help bolster the country's economy. On one hand have been those who advocate higher government spending in programs and projects which tie a larger proportion of the labor force and industrial production directly to the government. On the other hand have been those who believe, as I do, that a relaxation of governmental controls and a reduction of the tax burden will encourage the free enterprise system to provide goods, services — and jobs — in ever-increasing abundance.

This bill represents the first effort in history to stimulate economic development by freeing capital, through a reduction in taxes, for higher consumer spending and business investment. Congressman Wilbur Mills, my colleague from Arkansas whose House Ways and Means Committee worked steadily for nine months to write the legislation, stated the philosophy underlying it in these words: "This bill reflects an effort by the Federal government to reduce and remove — not to impose — tax constraints on the economy, to give the private sector of the economy greater wherewithal to do what comes naturally to it and which increases the well-being of all of us."

I am convinced that most Americans are anticipating a tax cut. The current strength of the economy reflects, in part, the conviction of many citizens that a tax cut is coming. The high rate of consumer spending, an increase in business investment, the booming stock market, a drop in the rate of unemployment — this good news is not entirely due to the anticipation of a tax cut, but I believe that the prospect of lowered taxes is part of it.

The tax bill has wide bipartisan support, the support of business and labor, support of citizens rich and poor.

The main argument being raised against the bill concerns the wisdom of reducing taxes when the certain result would be an at least temporary greater imbalance between the government's receipts and expenditures — in other words, additional budget deficits. As one who has worked long for reduced government spending, I believe that enactment of this legislation will actually help achieve this goal. More Americans than ever will be writing their representatives to say, in effect: "We are glad to have a tax cut — now redouble your efforts to cut spending and balance the budget." Congress, I believe, will become much more conscious of the need for economy with taxes substantially reduced.

The objective of tax reduction is to stimulate the growth of the economy to such an extent that the resultant higher levels of personal and corporate income will thus produce more — not less — tax revenue. Section I of the bill, which was authored by Committee Chairman Mills, spells out that objective in these words: "To further the objective of obtaining balanced budgets in the near future, Congress by this action, recognizes the importance of taking all reasonable means to restrain Government spending and urges the President to declare his accord with this objective."

Tax reduction and revision provided for in this bill will help hasten the day when our budgets are balanced in a growing economy, providing adequate employment and investment opportunities — and giving full play to the initiative of our free enterprise system.

GRASSROOTS OPINION

DALLAS, PA., POST: "The reason that girl drivers have fewer accidents than boys, is that girls care about their faces — A boy has to show the world that he can beat that car up ahead before it reaches the crest of the hill. Nobody wants a boy to be a pantywaist. Nobody wants him to lack self-confidence. But is it too much to ask of him that he refrain from committing suicide... And that he give some small thought to the young girl at his side, the girl who, as a helpless passenger, may be disfigured for life."

GRASSROOTS OPINION

MOUNT AYR, IOWA, RECORD-NEWS: "A businessman whose office was high up in a skyscraper, waited impatiently for a farmer, with whom he had an appointment. Finally, an hour and a half overdue, the farmer tottered into the office, puffing and panting. Farmer — Sorry I'm late, but it's a long climb up those sixty flights of stairs. Businessman — Stairs! Why didn't you come up in the elevator. Farmer — Wal, I kinda wanted to, but I just missed the darn thing."

HANDY IN HOT WEATHER

A big problem most dove hunters face during the early hot part of the season is how to carry shells and dead birds without wearing a heavy hunting coat. You can solve this problem by wearing a carpenter's apron instead of the bulky coat.

TO THE QUALIFIED VOTERS OF THE CITY OF CLARENDON

I hope the qualified voters of the City of Clarendon will vote for the water contract the 28th of September.

I have been working on this project for eight years, and I am for this project because it is the last fresh water to be had in this section of the Panhandle and if we do not vote for this water, then it will be given to Oklahoma and lost forever as far as we are concerned.

We have been trying to get some kind of industry to locate in Clarendon ever since I have lived here, but they are not going to do so as long as we do not have plenty of water. We need a pay roll in Clarendon.

These are a few of the many reasons I believe we should vote giving our City Commission the authority to sign a water contract with the Greenbelt Water Authority.

AUSTIN — Now in effect is a new compulsory school attendance law which requires school children, ages seven to 18, to go

NOTICE

The annual membership meeting of the Rolling Plains Cotton Producers, Inc., will be held at the Government Cotton Classing Office in Memphis, Texas, beginning at 1:00 P.M. All members are urged to attend this important meeting.

ROLLING PLAINS COTTON PRODUCERS, INC. MEMPHIS, TEXAS

to school 165 days out of each 175-day school year. Before the 58th Legislature passed this law, the minimum attendance requirement was 120 days. This left a wide margin for truancy — especially by children of migrant farm workers who are on the move two to four months out of the year.

Laxity of compulsory attendance laws has been cited as one reason for the high rate of illiteracy among Latin Americans. Texas' rate of illiteracy is high for all races. It has been estimated that almost 10 percent of the state's population is functionally illiterate.

A recent U.S. census survey showed that the average school child in Texas, with a Spanish surname, did not go past the fourth grade. Average Anglo finished the 10th grade and the average Negro completed the eighth.

It will be up to individual school districts to see that children attend school 165 days a year, according to Leon Graham, deputy commissioner of the Texas Education Agency. However, the main responsibility lies with the parents. If a school officer warns the parents of a truant child, they are subject to a fine of $5 for the next day he fails to attend school; $10 for the second offense, after a warning, and $25 for each subsequent offense. Graham said it is no problem for a migrant parent to enroll his child in any school. No formal transfer is required. "Our schools are here to serve the children of Texas," he said. "All they have to do is say, 'Here I am.'"

SCREW WORM PROGRAM PRAISED — Dr. E. F. Knipling — known as the "father of the screw worm eradication program" — addressed Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation trustees at their annual meeting in Austin, and praised the progress of their eradication campaign. But he cautioned them against complacency.

Knipling reported that in August, only 81 screw worm cases were reported in Texas, compared to 5,088 in August, 1962. But a large percentage of the 81 were in the Trans-Pecos area.

Animal health officials feel the Trans-Pecos problem is a direct result of screw worm flies migrating from Mexico. Mexico's northern border has been the target of sterile fly drops for several months now. But newly-gained knowledge that the fly can travel about 180 miles on his own volition is worrying the officials. Knipling said, "We must intensify our survey efforts to find where fly drops will be most effective; then widen the barrier to prevent infestation."

FALL RAINS MAY POSE PROBLEM — Charlie Scruggs of Dallas, president of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation, said his group is beginning to worry about a growing rate of screw worm infestation when fall rains come.

Cool weather and dampness, usually associated with early fall, may couple with shearing and calving wounds to foster screw worms if livestock producers don't take precautions. Scruggs said an "information campaign" will be launched soon.

NEW OFFICERS — Dolph Briscoe of Uvalde is the new president of SWAHRF. The young rancher just completed a term as president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, before he took the animal health post.

New vice-president is Joe Lane of Alpine. T. J. Richards of Paducah is secretary-treasurer.

EDUCATORS MEETING SET — Texas Association of School Administrators and Texas Association of School Boards will hold a joint meeting in Austin on September 22 and 23 to hear talks on education in the Space Age. They will hold seminars on: School dropouts, the migrant pupil, religion and the schools, teaching Americanism - versus - communism, and textbook selection in Texas.

POLL TAX REPEAL — Campaign for repeal of the poll tax as a requirement for voting was launched by the Texas League of Women Voters, with Gov. John Connally and Vice President Lyndon Johnson giving their support to the government.

On November 9 Texans will vote on a constitutional amendment to remove the 60-year-old requirement that you pay a poll tax to vote. Texas voting will be under the shadow of a proposed U.S. constitutional amendment outlawing taxes on the right to vote in elections of Federal officials. Legislatures of 36 states already have ratified this amendment, and when two more approve, it will go into effect.

Texas Legislature provided Texans a "do it yourself first" route by submitting the proposed amendment to the Texas constitution at the November 9 election. There is no chance for the U.S. amendment to go into effect until after that date.

TOURISTS — Texas' first formal effort to attract tourists will get under way now that Governor Connally has appointed the seven men to head the new Texas Tourist Development Agency.

Interestingly enough, most of the seven are natives of other states, indicating that Connally felt they would know best how to bring other Americans into Texas.

Frank Hildebrand, Jr., former Louisiana, Baytown, Houston and Dallas news writer, will be executive director. For the last year, he has been chief of the travel promotion section of the Texas Highway Department.

On the advisory board which will help Connally direct Hildebrand are Bill Berger of the Hondo Anvil Herald and president of the Texas Press Association; Chris Fox, El Paso banker; James M. Gaines, San Antonio radio-TV executive and president of the Texas Tourist Council;

TALKING BOOKS — A new record was set in August on circulation of "talking books."

These are the albums of phonograph records distributed by the State Library under a federal-state program to aid the blind. Current magazines and popular books are read onto records and distributed free to the blind persons.

During August a total of 6,374 albums of records were distributed.

State Library also distributes books in Braille as a part of this service.

GAS — Natural gas continues to be one of the major cash crops of Texas.

Texas Railroad Commission reports that in June, 21,044 gas wells and 125,169 oil wells produced 573 trillion cubic feet of gas. The lion's share, 406 trillion, went into transmission lines.

Of all the gas produced, 39.83 percent was exported to other states, and 30.99 percent was carried by pipelines for use in Texas.

Albert Einstein, German refugee, arrived and settled in Princeton, N.J., on October 17, 1933.

Ralph T. Moore writes in the Oregon Voter: "Our fiscal problems and the safety of our dollar are of eminent concern and mostly because of the contempt for the people's tax monies that seems to have crept into the thinking of the Congress and the several State Legislatures. We have betrayed the integrity of our national debt limitation by cynically raising the limit periodically and when it suits our convenience. We have allowed the keeping-up-with-Lizzie technique to influence our state and local public affairs. This forces us to discard consideration of merit in our tax expenditures and instead adopt a policy of spending not from need but from pride. Another State does and therefore we must follow suit."

TO THE CITIZENS of Clarendon

I am going to vote for the resolution giving the city officials of Clarendon authority to enter into a contract with the officials of the Greenbelt Water Authority. I have always been for the construction of the dam and the many advantages that such facilities will bring to Clarendon. My wife and I chose to come back to Clarendon to continue to make it our home, and we feel that a vote to give our city officials authority to enter into a contract with the Greenbelt Water Authority is a step in the forward progress of Clarendon.

In making a study of our water problem, I have been fortunate in being able to counsel with A. P. Rollins, who was a member of the State Water Board for approximately twenty years and who actively supported the creation of the Greenbelt Water Authority and continued to support it in its first years. Mr. Rollins, a favorite uncle of mine, is presently manager of the North Texas Water Authority which has ten member cities and also supplies water to six other cities in addition to its members. I have spent some time in studying the operation of this district and others currently operating or in the process of construction within the state, and feel that I have learned something of their operation.

I am sure that our city officials will give proper study and consideration to any contract offered to them by the water authority or any contract they care to offer the water authority and that they will be doing their utmost to look after the best interests of the people of Clarendon. I do not believe they will enter into a contract if such action will not uphold their oath to carry out the duties of their offices to the best of their ability. I respect the integrity of our officials and feel that they will enter into no contract unless they feel the same is to the advantage of our city.

I urge you to give the matter careful consideration and if you can possibly see fit to do so, I sincerely urge you to vote to give our city officials the authority to enter into a contract with the Greenbelt Water Authority.

HOMEMAKING FIELD TRIP

The Homemaking III students of CHS find their housing units much more challenging as they combine research and field trips to learn more about buying carpeting and floor coverings.

Mr. B. B. Osburn of Household Supply and Mr. W. E. Goodman of Goodman Furniture took time out to show the students what to look for in fibers, construction, padding, colors, and patterns for both carpeting and other floor coverings. "Know your dealer; know what you are buying; know what guarantee you are entitled to," they stressed. Wool and nylon are still popular fibers and a blend of these fibers makes a durable combination.

After studying catalogues, advertisements, and textbook this was a welcome change for these future consumers.

TEXAS HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT EXPANDS ANTI-LITTER CAMPAIGN

The Texas Highway Department has added two new methods to its continuing anti-litter campaign: a cartoon character printed on its Official Highway Travel Map and revised highway signs reminding drivers they can be fined from $10 to $200 for littering. The cartoon character, "The Litter Longhorn," pleads with the public to "Help Stop Out Litter." The sign emphasizes that it is against the state law to litter. In 1962 the Highway Department had to spend $1.4 million to pick up litter, an increase of about a hundred thousand dollars over 1961.

Bronchos Defeated, 32-8, By Panhandle

By Rod Stoue, Staff Reporter

The Clarendon Bronchos suffered their third loss of the 1963 season by a score of 32-8 at the hands of the Panhandle Panthers in Broncho stadium Friday night. The Bronchos came out on the short end of the scoring, but considerable improvement was shown over the two previous games the Bronchos had played this season. The Bronchos hit hard every play, but were unable to gain much yardage as they picked up only two first downs in the first half and two in the second half.

With one minute and 51 seconds left to play in the first quarter, the Panthers scored the first touchdown of the game as quarterback, David Slagle, scored from the two yard line. The Panthers completed a pass from quarterback, David Slagle, to halfback, Ronnie Edwards, for two extra points.

The second quarter was a costly one for the Bronchos as the Panthers scored twice. Taking advantage of a Broncho fumble on the Clarendon four yard line, the Panthers reached pay dirt as fullback, Mike Eklund, carried the pigskin across for six points. Panther quarterback, David Slagle, ran the extra two points.

The Panthers scored once again in the second quarter of the game with quarterback, Slagle, tossing a 10 yard pass to end, Leon Choate, for the Panther touchdown. Another pass from Slagle to Choate was good for the two point conversion.

The Bronchos scored early in the final quarter of the game as quarterback, David Mooring, hauled a 25 yard pass to halfback, Richard Bell. Carrying the pigskin for another 20 yards, Bell picked up the needed yardage for a Broncho touchdown. Halfback, Eddie Wilkinson, added two extra points for the Bronchos as he plowed through the right side of the Panther defense.

With only 29 seconds remaining in the game the Panthers broke through the Broncho defense for the first time in the second half, when halfback, Bill Purvines, scored from the 12 yard line. Panther end, Alton Daniel, snagged a pass in the end zone for the extra points.

The Broncho "B" team tangled with the Pampa Harvester's "C" team Saturday morning at Broncho Stadium. The Broncho "B" team took the loss by a score of 28-0. This was the first game of the season for the Broncho "B" squad.

A friend and regular reader, John Spencer, tells the following on a young preacher. When asked to fill the pulpit he eagerly jumped to the occasion and bounced into the pulpit as if he was going to take the congregation by storm. The message didn't seem to be forthcoming and after much humiliation sat down with a humble and contrite spirit. An old preacher told him later that if he had entered the pulpit in the spirit which he left it, then he could have left the pulpit in the spirit with which he entered it. Our friend John preaches on Sunday after working all week for the Amarillo Auction Company. We understand from a mutual friend that the spirit is with him when he preaches. Just received an order for our book from Frank Aldrich who lives way up in Greece, New York. He sent along enough extra cash to pay for our hometown paper just in order to keep up with Uncle Zeb. This we appreciate from the bottom of our heart. If we expect to get along in the world we will have to learn to get along with certain people and also to get along without many others. Speaking of preaching; the other day we were travelling during the regular worship hour. We tuned in the strongest station available and sure enough at exactly 11 o'clock the services began. Fifteen minutes went by, then twenty, and thirty and still no preaching. Just about everyone was recognized including an ex-deacon who was back on a visit. Sunday School was reshaped even to planning a future picnic. At twenty of twelve the preacher took over with what seemed like such little time left to recognize the Lord. Maybe He wasn't there. The following is a true and touching experience from real life. Maurine Seale, who lives at 2703 South Taylor Street in Amarillo, Texas, is what we usually call a shut-in. Her spinal cord was severed in a car accident while she was a student at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, Texas. Because of this injury she lost the use of her body from the waist down. Even though she is shut in, Maurine always opens up a new world of thought for everyone who visits her. She is a fire-ball of energy and has more different jobs than a Mr. Fix-It Man.

Albien Vincent is almost totally blind and lives across town from Maurine. She can tell light from darkness and can distinguish objects at close range. She very efficiently operates a news stand in the Post Office Building in the daytime. One day Maurine was a bit disturbed, and was telling her problem to Albien over the phone. It seemed that for some practical reason a tree near her window was being cut down. Maurine hated to see the tree go for one special reason. This being that each year a woodpecker nested there.

"I believe," remarked Maurine, "That it is the same one that comes back year after year. We have become acquainted, and I just hate to see it have to move." "Just what kind of looking bird is a woodpecker?" asked Albien. "Oh My Goodness," exclaimed Maurine, "Here I am complaining because it will have to move after all these years, and you have never seen one at all." With that she became excited telling Albien all about the bird. Later Albien got to visit a nearby museum which had a large collection of stuffed birds. She carefully and thoughtfully examined the woodpecker. Both decided they had rather have their own handicap. PRESERVATIVES ADD LIFE TO YOUR HOME COLLEGE STATION — For and extra $2 or $3 a year you can build a home that will outlive the mortgage and require little care, says Bill Smith, forester with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. By the use of preservatives, wood can be treated to protect it from insects and decay for 40 years or more while keeping repair and maintenance costs to a minimum, says Smith. A variety of good preservatives are available and all exterior woodwork and floor sills, beams and joists should be pressure treated to fully protect the structure, he says. Most of these preserving materials are intended for a specific purpose, Smith explains. For example, penta, with a water repellent additive, is a good preservative for exterior woodwork which will be exposed to heavy moisture. When penta is mixed with a light weight solvent like naphtha the surface can be painted, says the forester. For sills and joists that will not be painted, creosote or penta can be mixed with oil, explains Smith. For wood that will not be exposed to large amounts of moisture, certain water-borne preservatives can be used to leave the wood clean, odorless, and paintable, he adds. Also, when replacing exterior wood or supporting members he advises using pressure-treated lumber. The forester points out that wood can now be treated with a fire retardant, thus giving the home protection against fire as well as decay and insect damage. Smith recommends using pressure preserved lumber where wood will be exposed to weather or near the ground. He says that most builders and lumberyards can obtain this lumber and the extra cost will be more than offset by the protection for the owner. St. Augustine, Florida, the oldest town in the U.S., was founded on Sept. 7, 1565.

TEXAS HAS CATTLE AND FEED COLLEGE STATION — Texas, long known for the production of both feeder cattle and feed grains, may soon begin combining the two into a new industry for the state. There are many areas of the state that have for some time produced a surplus of feed grain, says MP-626, "Demand for Feed Grain by Livestock in Texas." The new bulletin of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station points out that some of these areas are now becoming centers of feeding operations. The publication is described as an analysis of production and consumption conditions existing in local areas and should serve as a basis for evaluating feeding potentials in these areas. It explains, however, that a large amount of grain is not the only factor that determines if cattle feeding will be profitable. Evidence is disclosed in the publication that grain is shipped out of some areas during the harvest season and other feed grain shipped back in when feed demands arise. The unnecessary transportation costs thus created add to the expenses of the buyer and the seller of the feed, it says. In addition to transportation costs and feed quantities, factors that affect profitable feeding operations are the competitive location to meat processing plants and meat markets, and the manager's capabilities. MP-626 analyzes the state feed grain situation by districts and indicates that some districts are deficit producers of grain while others produce a surplus. The study covered the years 1949, 1954 and 1959. Copies of the publication are available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18th DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

Aid Increases To State And Local Governments

The Federal subsidy to State and local governments continues to increase, pointing up another area in which the United States is moving in the direction of centralized control. Pinched by their own revenue and tax problems, States and cities keep the pressure on Washington to turn back a portion of the largest piled up by the Federal tax collector. They've found the mood in Washington, both in the departments and in Congress itself, increasingly willing to lend a helping hand.

I was most interested to see a study of Federal grants-in-aid—money passed along to States, cities and individuals by the Federal government's proliferating programs. Compiled by the authoritative Congressional Quarterly, the study showed that in 1962 grants-in-aid payments for the first time in history topped $10 billion. Of the $10.3 billion so distributed in that year, $7.8 billion went to State and local governments and $2.4 billion went to individual citizens. Texas, fifth largest State in population, ranked third among the States in the amount of money flowing back from the Federal treasury. Here is the breakdown for the Lone Star State, showing the total amount received by Texas in each of the 14 largest Federal grant-in-aid programs, the ranking of Texas among all States in the amount received in each program, and the total amount spent in each program throughout the United States:

Highway, $128,734,600, 5th, $2,782,839,810; Public Assistance, $139,252,153, 3rd, $2,433,133,869; Unemployment Insurance, $31,120,182, 8th, $887,065,569; Public Health, $26,150,663, 6th, $720,166,039; Food Distribution, $28,834,778, 4th, $653,018,071; Education, $25,306,418, 3rd, $601,848,336; Agricultural Conservation, $62,832,854, 1st, $576,773,076; National Guard, $13,350,583, 4th, $554,471,790; Public Housing, Urban Renewal, $11,103,383, 11th, $323,760,947; Conservation Practices, $10,819,255, 3rd, $162,232,510; Veterans Benefits, $7,891,448, 4th, $159,092,758; Agricultural Experimental Stations, Cooperative Ag Extension Work, $4,722,656, 1st, $100,757,531; Vocational Rehabilitation, $2,497,996, 9th, $82,154,594; Child Care, $3,734,447, 2nd, $69,359,951.

The total grant-in-aid share for Texas was $500,295,000 — or $49 for every Texan. With a 4.81 percent share of the total money allocated throughout the United States, Texas had paid into the treasury 4.26 percent of all Federal taxes. The Lone Star State's balance between taxes paid and taxes returned in grants-in-aid was thus roughly equal. Not so in many States. New Yorkers, for example, bore 13.54 percent of the Federal tax burden and were granted 7.10 percent of total assistance. Californians paid 11.16 percent of total Federal taxes and received 8.91 percent of total grant-in-aid money. Because of the relative lack of concentrated and tax remunerative heavy industry, Southern, Mountain and Plains States received more in grants-in-aid than they paid in Federal taxes. However, it is true that the big industrial States are the major beneficiaries of enormous Federal contracts, such as those for defense.

Today, the Federal government is spending more than twice as much in these aid programs as it was 10 years ago. In 1953, the Federal grant-in-aid program amounted to 6 percent of the total Federal tax take compared with the current 11 percent rate. Where will it end? States are now so heavily financed by Federal grants, their programs are so dependent upon Federal support, their program policies are so fully controlled by the dictates laid down in Washington that the State governments are, in many respects, mere shadows of Washington authority. But those citizens who would lay the blame for this completely at the door of the national government, I would say this: States, local governments and individual citizens have campaigned vigorously in behalf of these programs. As an example, the heaviest lobbying for the current Domestic Peace Corps proposal has come from heavily-populated States and cities seeking additional money and manpower to battle public welfare problems.

To The Voters City of Clarendon

During the time when I was Mayor of Clarendon, I became familiar with the City's water requirements and supply. We were working in those years with the other towns in the Greenbelt Authority toward getting a reservoir to supply future needs.

I personally strongly favor the proposed water contract, and hope my friends and neighbors will join me at the polls to cast a big YES vote on September 28th.

LISTS OCTOBER PLENTIFUL FOODS FOR TEXAS

COLLEGE STATION — This fall season will bring abundant supplies of a variety of foods to adorn early fall dinner tables with nutrition and goodness, reports the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

In more-than-ample supply this October are grapes, rice, cheese, apples, cranberries, potatoes and frying chickens.

When supplies are heavy, buyers will be pleased to note, prices usually are more economical.

California's record-large grape crop has once again placed Thompson Seedless and Flame Tokay varieties high on the plentiful foods list of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

With rice estimates 29 percent above the five-year average, cool fall mornings should be perfect for steaming dishes of this versatile favorite. Rice also is delicious cooked with chicken, another October plentiful, for a tempting casserole, as well as for many other uses.

Housewives will be using abundant apples and cranberries served individually or in colorful combinations.

Cheese and potatoes can be used in almost any type of meal to add zest, tang and healthful goodness. Cheese can be melted, mixed or served as is for flavorful enjoyment. Potatoes are excellent baked in the skin, fried or creamed to deliver that final glowing touch to any meal.

Serve these plentiful often this month. They mean extra quality at economy prices.

TERMITES COST TEXANS

COLLEGE STATION — Few insect pests are more discouraging or annoying to a homeowner than hungry termites, says John G. Thomas, entomologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Texans lose thousands of dollars each year satisfying the enormous appetite of this tiny wood-chewing pest, he says. Nothing short of financial or natural disaster is more damaging to the homes of Texans in some areas.

Termites can literally eat a home to pieces if they are allowed to go unchecked, but they can be stopped by several methods, says Thomas.

Prevention is the best way to avoid trouble from termites, he emphasizes. Provide good drainage, ventilation and floor clearance under houses not of slab construction. Remove wood, paper and cloth waste from around the house. Haul off excess piles of dirt and in short, remove the places where termites might live, he says.

Before the home is completed, effective control of termites can be assured by treating the soil under it with a recommended insecticide for the purpose. By working the chemical into the soil where the building is to stand, control of the pest can be expected for at least five years, says Thomas.

For the house already infested, several insecticides are recommended. Five percent DDT and two percent chlordane are the two most common materials, but dieldrin, lindane, and sodium arsenite are also effective, says the entomologist. Injecting a 5 percent gamma isomer of BHC in fuel oil into the tunnels of the termites is also effective, says Thomas.

A precaution on the use of any of these chemicals for controlling termites is to read the label carefully and follow its instructions to the letter, warns Thomas.

North Dakota and South Dakota were admitted to the Union on the same date, November 2, 1889.

Expect great things from Chevrolet again-for '64

Today...Jet-smooth Luxury '64 CHEVROLET

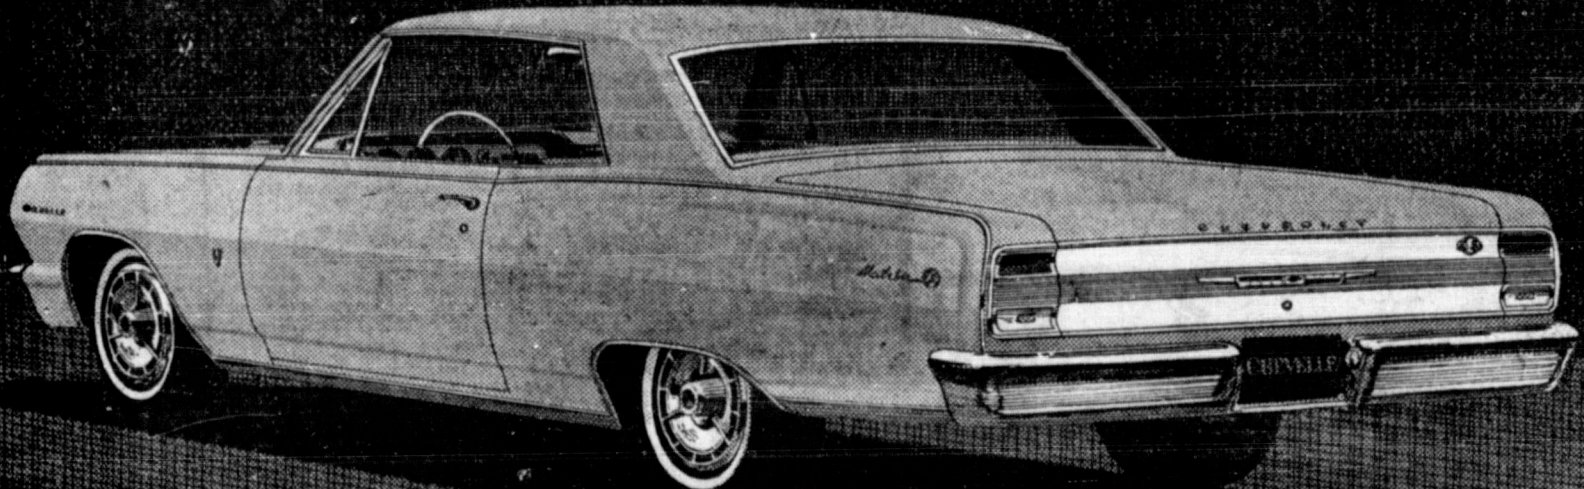

'64 Chevrolet Impala Sport Sedan—one of 15 Jet-smooth luxury Chevys

Chevrolet was luxurious before, but you should see it now. With smart new styling, the '64 Chevrolet looks even longer (but isn't). There's even a whole new series this year—the Impala Super Sports—with front bucket seats as standard equipment. (The new Impalas and Bel Airs are more luxurious, too. Even the lowest priced Biscaynes have new foam-cushioned seats front and rear and are fully carpeted.) Of course, you expect more than just luxury from Chevrolet. A choice of 16 power teams, for instance—a 6 and six V8's up to 425 hp (optional at extra cost). And quieter transmissions. Jet-smooth ride with Full Coil suspension. Flush-and-dry rocker panels, Delco-tron generator, self-adjusting brakes and other low-upkeep features. If you've ever wondered how luxurious Chevrolet could get—with all the extra-cost options there are to choose from—that seems to be entirely up to you.

Take your first look at the first CHEVELLE!

CHEVELLE! by Chevrolet

New Chevelle Malibu Super Sport Coupe—one of 11 models in three great series.

You've never seen anything like this totally new line of cars before. Chevelle is new in everything but Chevrolet quality. Chevelle is a good foot shorter than the big cars, so it parks easily. Yet the interior dimensions of its Body by Fisher provide a generous amount of head, leg and shoulder room. (Chevelle's trunk is big and roomy, too.) The ride is surprisingly smooth with a rugged coil spring at all four wheels. And not so surprisingly for Chevrolet, the new Chevelle offers a choice of engines ranging from an economical 120-hp 6 to a 220-hp V8 (optional at extra cost.) Choose the Chevelle you like best from the three series—the Malibu Super Sport, the Malibu and the 300 Series, eleven models in all—at your Chevrolet dealer's. (Like this good-looking Malibu Super Sport, maybe?)
