Summer reading program begins

Clarendon school kids will enjoy the theme this summer for the library reading program: Space Capers.

The Texas Reading Club registration begins Monday, May 24 in the Burton Memorial Library. Any child from "Cradle to 8th grade" is eligible to become a space cadet for the summer. Only 10 books are required to earn a certificate at the end of the program, which concludes August 7.

In addition to the fun program outlined, Glenna Hawkins and Regina Wooten will present puppet shows for the kids. There will also be films shown at frequent intervals during the summer. Keep in touch with the

Pipeliners need homes

Anyone who might have a furnished house for rent, a room, an apartment, a vacant lot where a trailer could be hooked up, please contact City Hall at 874-3438 or The Clarendon Press at 874-2259 at once. These families are in dire need of a place to stay for the summer months. They need furniture as well to rent or lease for a part time use.

Please make your rentals known to one of the other locations so we can help these temporary citizens of Clarendon find a home for their stay with us in one of the friendliest communities in Texas.

Each July Celebration on the square, the Al Morrah Shriners Club of Clarendon provides a delicious Texas style barbeque with all of the trimmings. This year, a bigger and better barbeque is expected because a bigger and better crowd is anticipated.

Tickets are now on sale at the First State Bank or from any Shriner in town. A ticket for this meal served at noon on the square is only $3.50. This will get you a hunk of delicious, tender meat, some potatoe salad, bread, beans and a plate!

It would help plan the amount of food to have on hand if plenty of advance tickets are sold. It would be a disasterous event indeed to wait until Saturday, July 3 and plan on eating barbeque and discover that there is none.

McGuire competes in state meet

Brad McGuire represented the Clarendon Bronco track team in the state meet at Austin this past weekend by competing in the shot put.

McGuire who was a third place finisher at region received his chance to compete in the meet. Brad threw well at Austin but did not place. Brad barely scratched on his 2nd throw which was around 54 feet. This throw would have been good enough for second place but did not count because of the foul. The meet was "good experience for Brad and we certainly expect him to return next year and bring home a medal".

Hail and rain damaged gardens

Hail and brimstone fell from the sky this past weekend, demolishing many gardens and denting many a vehicle. Some roofs were damaged, but over all the hail was more a nuisance than real threat. In some areas the hail piled up into drifts that remained until the next morning.

Ashtola reported from 1.30 to 2". Howardwick had 1 1/2" and slight pea sized hail. Windy Valley reported about 1 1/4" and no hail. They must live better than the rest of us do to have avoided the hail. Lelia Lake also had a variety of rain from 1.90 to 2.9" and the general measurement seemed to be around 1 1/4".

Goldston only reported 1" and pea sized hail. Donley County residents are grateful not to have had the wind, tornadoes, and flooding many other areas received out of this last storm. Most of us are ready for the rain to stop altogether now so our roads and gardens and fields can dry out.

Plans for the second Annual Saints Roost Celebration Queen Pageant sponsored by Alpha Upsilon Epsilon and Xi Lambda Xi are underway. The pageant is slated for Saturday, June 12 at 7:30 at the Harned Sisters Fine Arts Center at Clarendon College.

We would like to invite all girls that attend Clarendon School, grades 8-12 to enter the pageant. The Queen and her attendants will receive gifts. The contestants will be required to model a party dress and western wear and will be interviewed by out of town judges.

Entry forms can be picked up at Henson's, Osbourns, and Maurine Butts in the Homemaking dept. at school. Entry forms can be turned in at these places also. Entry deadline will be June 1st.

Rape Crisis seminar to be held

The Donley County Extension Service and the Extension Homemaker's Council will be sponsoring a RAPE CRISIS SEMINAR to be held on Monday, May 24 from 6:30-8:30 p.m. in the Clarendon College Auditorium. The seminar is being conducted by Sylvia Childress, of the RAPE CRISIS ABUSE SERVICES IN AMARILLO.

Several members of the E.H. Council recently attended a program given by JoAnn Dwyer, Director of the Rape Crisis Abuse Service. According to Ms. Dwyer there are several precautions that can be taken to prevent being a rape victim. They include:

1. Keep doors and windows locked in the home. (43% of the rapes in the Panhandle occur in the home).
2. Don't open doors without first looking to see who is there.
3. Drive with car windows rolled up and the doors locked.
4. Always lock car doors when you get out of a car and always look in the back floorboards before you get back in—even if you locked the doors.
5. Don't leave whole sets of keys at a service station or a repair shop—just leave the car keys.
6. If moving into a new house or apartment, have all locks changed. There is no charge for attending the seminar and the public is invited to attend. Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages, regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

ED HAMMOND.
Ed Hammond - new Foxworth-Galbraith manager

Ed Hammond, the very tall sandy haired fellow behind the counter at Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber Co. is the new manager, recently arrived from Plano. He worked for the McKinney store for two years.

Ed has only been with Foxworth-Galbraith for two years, but he has been in and out of the lumber business for nearly all of his life. "There will be no change in policy, of course," Hammond said, "But we will plan in the distant future to do some renovating."

Ed has two ten-year-old twins, Carla and Brian. His wife, Sue, and the twins will be coming up with thirty days or so, as soon as they can sell their home in Plano and settle affairs at home.

"I plan to buy or build, depending on what I get in Plano," Ed said, "but I sure like living in a smaller area. I was getting pretty crowded in down there. My wife and kids are actually looking forward to moving. Sue and I come from a small town, Colorado City, so this will be like coming home to us," Hammond continued.

He has been here just one week, living in a motel and eating out. Because of his unsettled condition, he hasn't had time to investigate the Lion's Club or other organizations and to "belong" to civic functions. As soon as his family gets here and he can settle into a home, things will change.

"I'd be glad for everyone to come in and get acquainted with me," Ed said. "I invite builders and craftsmen to come in and see us and let me get to know them and their needs."

Ed would like to do a lot of fishing, once his tackle gets here and if he can get away from the business for awhile. Clarendon welcomes it's newest businessman, Ed Hammond of Foxworth-Galbraith.

Aerobic dancing class to meet

There will be aerobic dancing classes held at the Donley Co. Community Center every Tuesday and Thursday at 6 p.m.

Christy Cummins will be leading the classes and teaching basic dance routines and exercise. The cost will be $1 per class to help pay for the Community Center fee of $5 per hour.

The excess money will be put in a fund to help raise money for a stereo system for the Community Center. Classes are open to everyone that wants to exercise and have fun while also lending a hand for a great fund raiser that everyone can enjoy.

Chamber of Commerce to give trophies and cash awards

The Chamber of Commerce welcomes Greenbelt Ford under the direction of Mr. Cohen Brister as a new member. The St's Roost Celebration is not far away. Keep in mind that we welcome all businesses and everyone else to enter the parade on the 3rd of July. This year there will be the usual trophies, but in addition, we will give $150 cash prize to the best Over-ALL Float entered in the parade.

A $50 cash prize will be awarded to the best Riding Club. So come on out and participate this year to help make this the greatest July celebration parade ever. We need your participation whether you enter a float, car, truck, tractor, bicycle, motorcycle, horse, band, music or whatever.

The Chamber also helped sponsor a tea Saturday afternoon for 150 parents and girls at the Country Club. We welcome suggestions from anyone who has an idea to create interest in our community. Remember our local business people are the friendliest people in the world, go in and visit them when in town.

Terry Floyd came with a special plea for our chapter to help with the Saints Roost Queen contest this year. They cannot do it alone any longer and need our help or it will not be done this year. We decided that, as much as Clarendon's response was so great and the need so dire, we would indeed help as much as we could on such short notice.

We will discuss People Helping People nominations next time. We need to think about it.

The program was presented by Norma Putman who spoke on drug and alcohol abuse. A lively discussion followed.

Early Bird Homemakers met

President Pat McCombs hosted the last meeting for the summer of the Early Bird Homemakers, May 5.

The program was presented by Katie Dvorak on dehydrating foods. She showed what several kinds of dried foods looked like and there was a general sampling of fruits. Pat had dried some canned pineapple, some apple sauce fruit leather and some bell peppers to see what they looked like. Katie also talked about how to store dried foods, how to use dehydrators and what you could dry and how to use it once the food had been dried.

A delicious stew made entirely of dried foods including the meat was served. Pat had fixed some wonderful cookies called "Forget'ems" and a white frosted cake. There were vegetables, dips, and delicious home made bread. Everyone brought some scrumptious salads to complete the wonderful meal.

Since this was our last meeting for the summer, we visited a great deal after the program.

Those in attendance were: Hostess Pat McCombs, Katie Dvorak, Cherri Brown, Connie Clifford, Maxine Hardin, Priscilla Greene, Clara Hodges, Ruth Mandrofsky, Anita Mooring and Mary Jane Smith.

May Older American Month

In support of President Ronald Reagan's proclamation May as "Older Americans Month", Texas Farmers Union Green Thumb Inc., a senior employment program, joins other senior agencies in honoring our older citizens.

A proclamation concerning "Older Americans Month" has been issued every year since 1963. Each time it becomes more meaningful because the number of older Americans is increasing each year.

Because scientific advances in medicine have increased the length and quality of life for our older citizens, a typical 65-year-old today can expect to live another 16 years. This median age is expected to increase by another three years during the next decade.

At the time the president signed the proclamation for "Older Americans Month", he also announced his endorsement on legislation prohibiting mandatory retirement. Congressman Claude Pepper chairman of the House Aging Committee, praised Reagan's action.

"When it comes to retirement, the criterion should be fitness for work," said Reagan in his proclamation speech, "not year of birth."

Green Thumb, an employment program that is funded by the Department of Labor under Title V of the Older Americans Act, daily demonstrates the many valuable qualities of the older worker.

Farmers Union sponsors the program which employs almost 1,000 rural persons aged 55 and over in 108 counties across Texas. Green Thumb employees are placed in community jobs with non-profit organizations providing services that their communities might not otherwise afford.

Green Thumb, an equal opportunity employer, serves as a resource for locating older jobseekers. Interested persons should write Green Thumb, Box 7898, Waco, Texas.

Calamity in the Classroom

By James Shannon
[From Weekly Reader, Teacher's Edition].
I was going to be a teacher's aide. Instead of relaxing over a second cup of coffee, I, too, was getting ready for school.
"This is going to be real fun!" my son said excitedly, as we waited together for the school bus. He's at such a cute age—we always get a kick out of the little things he does and says—that I actually looked forward to the day ahead.
My first hour in the classroom was a disaster, but I learned something. I learned that I'm not made of the same stuff as teachers. God must have created two kinds of people: regular and teachers.

I knew right away that I wasn't "teacher" material because my hands twitched with the urge to swat the bottoms of those fidgety, energetic, seven-year-olds who couldn't sit still, stand without jumping, talk without yelling, or think without trying to pull their eyelids off their faces.
By 10 o'clock I was an ugly, frazzled mess, and it didn't help when I saw that Miss Parker was calm and smiling at her "angels". Ready to pounce, I took the third jar of paste from Randy with a terse, "Stop that, you're going to spoil your appetite for lunch!"
David cried because his zipper was stuck. Sara cried because she got a word wrong on the spelling test; and Lisa cried because Sara was her best friend. Alan ran into a door and got a nose-bleed; then Paula, who can't stand the sight of blood, threw up. During the six-hour day, Marty never stopped talking; and quiet little Adele didn't open her mouth once. Tommy's loose frog (Don't nobody step on him, he's pregnant!) added to the confusion.

It was a long, long day, and I kept one eye on the clock, the other on all the little...darlings. When the dismissal bell rang at three, my hands shook, my vision blurred, and my stomach was tied in permanent knots.

All together, in their loudest, most grating voices, 30 little throats shrieked out the words, very much like 300 fingernails scraping across a blackboard.
Three days later, when I'd recovered enough to feed myself and move from my bed, I realized just what special people teachers are. It had never dawned on me to give them extra credit for doing a job "ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY." Teachers, I once thought, are people, just like me. But now I know better. And, as soon as my hands stop shaking, I'm going to write Miss Parker a letter and tell her so!

Brownie

BY AUDRA HOGGARD

The Brownies went and painted the park red and white some time this summer the leaders will call and ask if you are going somewhere that week. If you aren't going anywhere we are going to paint half of the park blue. The Brownies would like to thank Regina for bringing the cookies and Shonda for bringing the drinks.

"Come to the Brownie Hoot!" Troops 120 and 29 heard that call and joined right in the fun at Camp Cibola near hear on Sat., April 24. From 9:30 until 2:30 these girls hiked, sang songs played games with other area Brownies, took part in flag ceremonies, went on a nature scavenger hunt, and of course, picnicked under the trees. This was just a little like the Day Camp planned for this summer except that by then we will also be able to go swimming every day. Also there will be several outdoor skills taught to the girls at Day Camp.

First graders attending the Hoot were: Claire Boston, Dottie Bryant, Sheri Hall, Stella Jaramillo, Ginger McAneer, Amy McCord, Jenny Naylor, Dorcas Osburn, Tracy Shadle, Johanna Glover, and Stacy Thomas.

Leader Teresa Watson took her own car, the Harberts took their van and Leader Jondel Moffett again thanks the Fabian Torres Jr. family for the use of their van.
Look for the Brownies this summer—they will be in the 4th of July parade. They do not stop being Girl Scouts when school gets out! Troop 120 will be sending two girls off to other towns next year, Amy McCord to Childress and Dotti Bryant to Almagordo, N.M. We will miss these girls alot, but we are proud to be sending good Girl Scouts on to their new homes knowing they are our friends and also friends to all other Girl Scouts.

Emergency precautions if tornado is sighted

Stay Away From Windows! Don't stand near a window to watch the approaching storm. The window may blow in and cut you horribly. Avoid doors and outside walls for the same reason. The tornado force could suck the walls out or blow them in, in either event, you would be severely injured if you were nearby.
Go to the basement or the interior part of the lowest level of your building. If you don't have a basement, go into a closet or the bathroom located in the middle of the house, furthest from outside walls. If there is no such room, get under something sturdy to protect you from falling roofs, etc.

If you live in a mobile home or modular home or are caught outside in a vehicle, take cover in a substantial building, or, if that is unavailable, hide in a ditch and cover your head with anything, even your hands.
On Amarillo television stations, or radio stations, you will be notified of a tornado WATCH. This means that tornadoes and severe thunder storms are possible. A tornado WARNING means that a tornado has been detected and you should make immediate plans to take cover until the WARNING is over.

It has been said "If it's going to get me, it's going to get me and there isn't any sense in hiding from it," but that is just simply tempting fate and should not be the plan of a sane, sensible person. Don't risk life merely because you don't want to appear a coward. Cowards live; heroes die.

Environmental Dangers
Environmental causes of cancer include cigarette smoking, says the American Cancer Society. About 20% of all cancers are directly related to tobacco use, either alone or in conjunction with excessive consumption of alcohol.

LAWN & GARDEN CARE

...ask the experts

SPOT LAWN WEED CONTROL

Q. I have been unable to control the crabgrass and other weeds in my lawn with regular maintenance, and they have taken over a goodly portion of it. What do I do?

A. Most weeds can be controlled in the spring with a spray program. Annuals such as crabgrass, droopseed, foxtail, and goosegrass are, according to the National Sprayer and Duster Association, most successfully controlled with a pre-emergence herbicide which should be applied prior to seed germination.

See your garden supply retailer or county agent for assistance in choosing the right weed control material for your lawn. Always follow label instructions carefully.

Q. Could you give me some tips on the technique and equipment to use for lawn weed control?

A. Spray application to a lawn may involve total coverage or spot application. The National Sprayer and Duster Association suggests a compressed air sprayer with a tank capacity of one to four gallons for lawn weed control.

If your lawn area is large, you may want to consider a small power sprayer with a tank capacity of about 10 gallons. It will cover large areas fast, especially when equipped with a multi-nozzle boom or a single broad-spray nozzle.

NSDA specialists advise spraying with coarse droplets 18 inches or less from the grass. This distributes the spray evenly and minimizes drifting onto and harming non-target plants.

It's best to select one sprayer for weed control, mark it plainly, and use it only for that purpose. Weed killers are hard to clean out of sprayers, and even a small residue could cause problems if the same sprayer were later used on vegetables, flowering plants or ornamentals.

At General Telephone We're Not Simply Talking About Service Improvements We're Making Them In Clarendon

At General Telephone, better service isn't just a goal, it's a solid commitment. General Telephone spent over 354 million dollars in 1981 on capital expenditure projects (e new electronic switches, expanded cable projects and modernization), and GTE will spend over 400 million dollars in 1982 to provide you the best telecommunications available.

For you, as a valued customer, this investment in service improvement is working as shown below. General Telephone is working hard to continually provide you with the best of service.

The Texas Public Utilities Commission (PUC) has established certain standards in public hearings, and our service results are listed against those standards.

	Texas PUC Standards	Most Current Figure
% customer calls answered promptly business office/rapid service	90 / 90	99.9 / 99.4
% service order commitments met as promised	90	100
* % local calls completed on 1st try	98	98.0
* % direct dialed long distance calls completed on 1st try	95	98.0

Baptist Church of Alledo officiating. Mr. Davis was born February 14, 1923 in Collingsworth County and died May 10, 1982 at 4 a.m. Services were held Wednesday, May 12. He was a veteran of WWII a carpenter and a member of the Baptist Church.

The Lions Tale

BY GENE ALDERSON
The Clarendon Lions Club held its regular meeting at noon on Tuesday at the Lions Hall. 26 members and Lion Sweetheart Jessie Adams and three guests were present. Following the regular opening ceremony, Lion Tamer Messer introduced Brown Smith, an investment banker from Amarillo and Rick Hayes, a student at Texas Tech. Both were guests of Lion Jim Hayes.

Boss Lion McCombs had to leave early so Lion Paul Bivens secured some additional "Volunteers" to work at the Lions Broom Sale to be held this Friday and Saturday at the Bylow Food Store parking lot across the street from the post office.

Our program was given by Shirley Crawford with the Texas War on Drugs Committee. Miss Crawford has a very dynamic personality and did a good job of holding everyone's attention.

Just a few of the many facts she quoted include: 80% of the women in Texas prisons are there on drug related charges. The drug industry ranks in size with AT & T, General Motors and Exxon. It's a 50 billion dollar a year industry. Approximately 10% of American High School seniors are daily users of marijuana. Miss Crawford is anxious to get an organization or group of individuals to form a drug information committee in Clarendon or Donley County. Anyone interested in becoming a part of this may contact her by writing Texas War on Drugs, 5410-B Bell St., Suite 414, Amarillo, TX 79109 or by calling 359-4761.

McGuire paces

Bronco Regional track entries

The Clarendon Broncos Varsity Track Team ended their season this past weekend by participating in the Region I-AA Meet at Odessa. Brad McGuire was the top performer for the Broncos as he finished third in the shot put with a fine effort of 51'2 1/2". McGuire narrowly missed qualifying for the state meet as first and second place finishers in the regional meet qualify for participation in the state meet. Several other Broncos competed in the meet and turned in some of their best performances of the year but failed to place in the extremely rugged competition. Other Broncos who competed and their efforts are as follows.

400 Meter Relay - Jr. Crump, David Weatherton, Glen Weatherton, Bobby Weatherton 44.35

3200 Meter Run - Shaun Heil 11:13.98

800 Meter Dash - Craig Shields 2.19

100 Meter Dash - Bobby Weatherton 11.11

1600 Meter Relay - Loyd Weatherton, Glen Weatherton, David Weatherton, Craig Shields, 3.35.14

Long Jump - David Weatherton 20'1 1/4"

Pole Vault - Dewey Mincey

Brian Rogers also qualified for the meet in the 800 meters and 1600 meter relay but was unable to participate because of an injury. Rotan won the meet with 64 points.

Although the season has come to an end, it has been a rewarding and exciting time for athletes and coaches alike. Some five seniors will be missed next year but a nucleus for another fine Bronco track team returns next spring as the Broncos will battle again for another district title.

An important part of your electric bill.

Time was when your electric bill probably was "just another item" in the family budget. You knew from the year before about what to expect.

Regrettably, this is no longer true. As the costs of producing and supplying electricity have gone up, WTU has had no choice but to pass on fuel cost increases through fuel clause adjustments on your bill. The electric bill has become a large item in your family budget.

You and each member of your family are important parts of your electric bill. How you use appliances and equipment makes a big difference in the amounts of your bills. Make a family project of keeping the thermostat set at 78° in the Summer. Operate the clothes washer, dryer and dishwasher only with full loads. Turn the television off when you leave it. And check around the house for other energy-saving, dollar-saving measures.

WTU is working to assure an adequate supply of electric power for all of its customers and to help them get the most value for their electric dollars.

Remember REDDY Supplies the energy... but only YOU can use it wisely!

Letter to the Editor

This letter is made in the hopes that you will be a contributor to our cemetery MAINTENANCE FUND. If you have not previously been a contributor, please become one. We need your help. If we are to continue as a voluntary, non-governmentally supported organization, it takes the money and help of all who can afford to contribute. We are not in extremely bad financial difficulty at this time, but the difference may be in the contribution you make this year.

We all thank those of you who have been contributors in the past, but we continue to need your support. Our expenses, like yours, continue to rise in all areas and obligations must be met. Whether ours or yours. We continue to strive for improvements as money and time permit. We are aware that all is not perfect but are exerting our efforts and money in that direction so far as we can see what the needs are. All suggestions for correction of deficiencies are welcome and will be implemented if possible.

Our CEMETERY grows larger and more expensive each year and small or large contributions are needed. Thank you for past gifts, but we continue to need your support. If you have already made a gift this year, we thank you. If not, would you please mail one or hand it to one of the trustees. A donation in the form of a memorial helps everyone and is fully tax deductible. If you know of some friend or relative who might like to contribute but has not in the past been contacted by us, would you please drop them a note to remind them in their obligation.

Sincerely, Chauncey Jommel, James F. Clifford, mmie C. Saye, Phebe Ann Juntin, Trustees.

DISSOLVES GALLSTONES

Almost a million new cases of gallstone disease (cholelithiasis) occur in the United States each year. Gallstones block some portion of the gallbladder or its passages. Attacks are often heralded by pain that is excruciating and that occurs without warning. Pain medicines are of temporary value but, for most people, surgery has been the only longterm solution.

Recently, however, there has been much interest in an investigational drug called chenodeoxycholic acid or, more simply, CDA. The results of a two-year National Cooperative Gallstone Study indicated that CDA may be of value in certain individuals who have gallstones...namely, thin women having small stones and high blood cholesterol levels. In these individuals, CDA may actually dissolve the materials that make up the gallstones. There is evidence that CDA helps correct the chemical imbalance that leads to stone formation...too much cholesterol or not enough bile acids to keep the cholesterol in solution.

During the two-year study, only about 14% of patients receiving CDA experienced "complete" dissolution of their stones. Although this figure is small, the drug may still play an important future role in the care of some individuals who have gallstones. More studies are needed to determine the potential value of this investigational drug before it can be made available through physicians to the general public.

FASTER WAYS WITH MICROWAVES

Southern cooking, like Southern hospitality, has become a legend. Every region of the South enjoys a well-deserved tradition of great culinary heritage and good cooks were known for their knack of flavoring foods with salt pork, bacon and ham. A particular favorite is Black-Eyed Peas and Ham. Here's a recipe from a Whirlpool microwave oven cookbook that is easy to fix and captures that true southern flavor. To top off this delicious entree, serve a light Lemon Cake, another favorite from the South.

LEMON CAKE
Total cooking time: 15 minutes
1 1/2 cups granulated sugar
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1 1/2 teaspoons grated lemon peel
3 eggs
2 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 cup milk
1/4 cup lemon juice
2 cups sifted powdered sugar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
Milk

In mixer bowl, cream together granulated sugar, butter, and 1 teaspoon of the peel till fluffy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Stir together flour and soda; add to creamed mixture alternately with 1/2 cup milk, beating after each addition. Beat in the lemon juice. Turn into 13x9x2-inch baking dish. Cook, uncovered, at MEDIUM for 9 minutes, giving dish a half turn twice. Cook at HIGH for 6 minutes or till done. Cool.
Stir together powdered sugar, remaining peel, and vanilla; stir in enough milk (about 2 tablespoons) to make glaze of spreading consistency. Spread glaze on cooled cake.

BLACK-EYED PEAS AND HAM (Shown)
Total cooking time: 1 hour 55 minutes
1 1/2 cups dry black-eyed peas
5 cups water
1 1/2 pounds smoked ham hocks, split
1/2 cup chopped onion
1/2 cup chopped celery
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon cayenne pepper
1 bay leaf
1 10-ounce package frozen cut okra

In 3-quart casserole, combine peas and water. Soak overnight. Do not drain. Stir in hocks, onion, celery, salt, cayenne and bay leaf. Cook, covered, at HIGH for 15 minutes or till boiling. Cook, covered, at MEDIUM LOW for 1 1/2 hours or till peas are done and hocks are tender. Stir in okra. Cook, covered at MEDIUM for 10 minutes, giving dish half turn after 5 minutes. Discard bay leaf. Season to taste. Makes 3 servings.

MICRO TIP: Leftover cake batter can be frozen if you don't intend to bake it right away. Half the batter from a 2-layer size cake can be frozen in a 3-cup freezer container. Thaw, uncovered at DEFROST for 5 minutes. Stir to blend then bake as desired.

English Pub Cooking With Step-By-Step Techniques

Meat mixture is spooned into center of pastry and edges of pastry are brushed with egg before sealing. Seal the edges of the pasties with a fork. They are now ready to be baked to golden-brown. Serve Dickens Pasties pub style with a tankard of ale and a boat of judiciously seasoned gravy on the side.

Venture into any pub in England at lunchtime and chances are you'll be served "pasties" with your tankard of ale. Pasties are traditional English-style "sandwiches" usually filled with cooked beef, pork, fish or lamb. Here, Franco-American Beef Gravy, in the pasties and the flavorful sauce, adds a full, rich taste and gives body.

The parsimonious English are champs at using leftovers to best advantage. Dickens Pasties are proof positive that a pittance of beef with additional ingredients can be stretched to serve six.

Make Your Own Yogurt

Low in calories yet high in nutrition, yogurt is fast becoming one of America's favorite foods. Like milk, yogurt is nutritionally high in calcium, protein, and riboflavin, also known as vitamin B₂.

Making your own yogurt is easy and economical. Save a small amount of plain commercial yogurt to start your recipe and follow these directions.

INGREDIENTS:
2 cups Shurfresh whole milk*
1 tablespoon active culture yogurt

Bring milk to almost boiling (about 190 degrees F.) in saucepan. Allow to cool to 110 to 115 degrees F., but not below. Rinse a 3- or 4-cup glass or enamel bowl with boiling water. Place yogurt in bowl; stir in warm milk. Cover; leave in warm place 8 to 10 hours. Yogurt will thicken after chilling; refrigerate at least 2 hours before serving. Remember to reserve 1 tablespoon yogurt to make the next batch. Makes about 2 cups.

*For a low-fat, low-calorie yogurt, skim milk may be substituted; consistency will be thinner.

For free yogurt recipes, write to Yogurt; Shurfresh Recipe Offer, P.O. Box 1503, Melrose Park, IL 60160. Allow 4 weeks for delivery.

A quick and tasty cake frosting can be created if you mix chocolate syrup with prepared whipped topping.

CHICKEN WITH APPLE JUICE
2 whole chicken breasts, boned, skinned, split and pounded thin
4 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons oil
2 tablespoons butter
1 1/2 cups apple juice
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1/2 teaspoon crushed marjoram

Dredge chicken breasts in flour, shaking off excess. Heat oil and butter in skillet. Add chicken breasts and brown on both sides. Add apple juice, parsley and marjoram. Simmer over medium heat for 10 to 12 minutes, or until chicken is tender when pierced with a fork. Remove chicken and keep warm. Increase heat and boil sauce until slightly thickened (about three minutes). Serve sauce over chicken. Two servings.

Reports

AGRICULTURE, GOVERNMENT AND YOU

AUSTIN - Our good friend Congressman Kent Hance looked into the future of agriculture the other day in Hereford and he didn't like what he saw. Neither do we.

Kent saw low grain and cotton prices, overproduction and little government help. The best farmers are losing money right along with the not-so-good ones.

Some sort of set-aside program, he said, is essential to preserve our means of agricultural production. We don't know if this is the best solution, but the federal government needs to do something. Kent's best guess, though, was that the Reagan administration would not do anything.

"We hoped the Reagan administration would be better (than Carter), and they've been just as bad or worse," Kent said.

While we all would agree the current farm bill is a disaster, that is not the point of this column. The federal farm bill does not have much to do with the state legislature.

The point is the kind of people we elect to public office, or let other people elect for us. The small amount of tax money appropriated for farming in the federal farm bill reflects the amount of involvement in the political process that Congress perceives by farmers and ranchers. In other words, the squeaky wheel gets the grease, and agriculture doesn't squeak.

Nothing could be more important in times like these than knowing who is running for office, what they stand for and what they plan to do for agriculture. This is particularly true at the federal level, where agricultural policy, foreign trade policy and subsidy policy are decided.

We have a good friend in Kent Hance, but we must be aware of every candidate. Once a candidate is elected, we must follow his record closely and see if he is friend or foe to agriculture. In agriculture, nearly every elected official either is part of the solution or part of the problem.

At the state level, we have begun the first major interim study of agriculture that the state has undertaken in years. We hope this study will point out new areas for legislation to help agriculture at the state level.

Remember, our $9.8 billion a year Texas agriculture industry has been neglected for too long. You must become involved in the political process if you expect any help from the government. A good place to start would be to write us and tell us what we should do in the Texas legislature. Write to Senator Bill Sarpalius, P. O. Box 12068, Austin, Texas 78711.

Brucellosis shots now

Cattlemen working their cattle should add one more chore of things to do for better management: get your eligible heifers vaccinated for brucellosis.

That advice comes from Dr. John W. Holcombe, executive director, Texas Animal Health Commission.

Vaccination ages for heifers as official vaccinates are 4 to 12 months of age for all breeds. "Cattle producers should consider vaccination for brucellosis as a routine management practice. A one-time vaccination is normally sufficient for the life of the animal," he said. The reduced dosage of Strain 19 vaccine is recommended.

1. The vaccine is a live bacteria and must be handled with care.

2. The vaccine is fragile and must be handled under controlled conditions to establish a good immunity.

3. There is some personal danger involved when untrained people handle brucellosis vaccine. Humans can contract brucellosis, too. 4. Official records must be maintained to assure you that an animal is indeed an official vaccinee.

Although vaccination by itself is not the single answer to brucellosis control, it is the most important thing a cattle producer can do to build immunity against the disease in his herd.

Texas Crops and Livestock Report Service

The Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service will begin interviewing Texas farmers and ranchers in mid-May on 1982 crop acreage and midyear livestock inventories. State Statistician Doug Murfield has announced.

Results of the confidential interviews, conducted through the mail or in person by field enumerators, will be published in June.

Murfield is urging farmers and ranchers to complete and return mail questionnaires promptly. Information will be combined for state and county estimates.

Murfield said estimates give Texas farmers and ranchers planning information for planting, breeding, feeding, storing, producing, and marketing. "Without these reports, most producers would have to depend on trade and other sources for information on crop and livestock prospects," he said.

Reports are also used by farm organizations and legislatures to plan and develop farm programs, extension economists and farm and ranch management consultants to advise farmers and ranchers, and exporters to plan and promote sales of Texas agricultural products in foreign markets.

Estimates are published annually for livestock, dairy, poultry, cotton, small grains, vegetables, fruits and pecans, and cash receipts from the sale of Texas farm commodities.

For free copies, write the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, P. O. Box 70, Austin, Texas 78767, or Agriculture Commissioner

Reagan V. Brown, Texas Department of Agriculture, P. O. Box 12847, Austin, Texas 78711.

Honeybee melon growers best friend

Honeybees play a key role in pollinating Texas' $100 million crop of cucurbits—watermelon, cucumbers, cantaloupes, pumpkins, squash and gourds.

About 66,000 acres of cucurbits are grown annually in the state, both commercially and in backyard gardens in every county.

They need bee help to transfer pollen from male to female flowers.

Most cucurbit flowers are open for only one day. Since honeybees account for about 85% of all flower pollination, their importance to cucurbits is vital.

Unlike some other plant types, cucurbits receive little help from the wind because of sticky pollen. Thus they must rely on insects for adequate pollination.

Apples keep longer if they don't touch one another.

FAMILY FISHING
Many people believe that fishing is the exclusive domain of the adult male, but this is no longer true. A study conducted for the Federal Fish and Wildlife Service during 1978-79 showed that only 30 percent of the fresh water fishing licenses were issued to males over 18 years of age. More and more youngsters as well as women are joining the men on the streams, lakes and waterways of our country.

Fishing is an inexpensive family activity that can be exciting fun for everyone. In fact, a family of four can get rigged out for about $60, point out the experts at Du Pont Company, who make "Stren" fishing line, America's best-selling brand. Fishing is also an ideal way for the entire family to get away and learn to appreciate the value of conservation.

Fishing also helps a child gain confidence. It makes children feel comfortable in a new environment and teaches them new skills. Important, too, is that it teach an activity that can be shared for a lifetime with family and friends.

Switch to insect defense system

Insects, one of earth's most abundant life forms, have an immune system that helps them fight off diseases.

according to Dr. Stewart Rathner, member of an entomology research team at Texas A & M University.

"If we can find out how the insect immune system works we may be able to develop agents to turn it off so biological control is more effective," Rathner says. But before this can be done, the basic mechanisms of the insect immune system must be understood.

For example, how does the system recognize a foreign object? Once the object is recognized, what signal sets off the attack against it? How is the attack coordinated?

These questions, and many others, must be answered before the insect immune system can be manipulated to man's advantage and is the reason for our research for the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

"We are particularly interested in an immune reaction called 'encapsulation.' This is the formation of a sheath, or 'capsule' of blood cells around relatively large foreign objects such as nematodes and the eggs of parasitoid wasps.

"The capsule often kills the offending organism, probably by suffocating or killing it. Researchers have not had much luck in studying encapsulation in vitro."

"Our early attempts to delay encapsulation invitro were frustrating," says Vinson.

"Keeping the blood on ice doesn't work. Several drugs were found to prevent encapsulation but they seemed to do so by permanently damaging the blood cells. The cells never formed capsules even when washed free of the drugs."

"One strategy finally proved successful: the careful use of the enzyme trypsin which breaks down protein. As soon as the blood is placed in culture it is exposed to a mild trypsin solution for just a few minutes.

"The gently trypsinized blood is unable to form capsules. The ability to encapsulate can be restored, however, by the addition of an extract of ruptured blood cells.

"It has long been suspected that encapsulation is triggered when one type of blood cell ruptures after encountering a foreign object. The material released from the ruptured cells seems to signal other blood cells to come in and encapsulate the object.

"In other words, the released material may contain an encapsulation-promoting factor.

"The important thing is we now have a system in which insect blood will remain unreactive in culture while being treated with viruses, hormones and other agents of interest. Then, upon the experiment's command, encapsulation can occur.

"In this way, the effect of the experimental treatments upon capsule formation can be measured.

"The information we obtain from this system could one day enable us to apply chemicals which will trick a pest insect's immune system into accepting a parasite, make it susceptible to a disease or cause it to reject its own tissue.

"This would be an economical non-polluting method to control destructive insects that threaten our supply of food and fiber," Vinson concluded.

Boat safety... A matter of life & death

Many motor boat operators in Texas apparently fail to heed the simplest safety rule of all, which is "watch where you're going."

Water safety officials of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department said that during 1981 there were 341 boating accidents resulting in 98 fatalities.

Of these, 31 percent involved two-boat collisions, and in 20% the boat struck a fixed object. Oddly, statistics show that weather and visibility conditions had very little to do with the mishaps. The majority occurred between noon and 7 p.m., on a clear day with good visibility and calm or light winds.

Also, 76% of the accidents involved boat operators with more than 500 hours boating experience. Horsepower was another factor, as data show 44% of the motors involved were 75 HP or larger.

FISH TALES

BY KATIE DVORAK

Herman Mooring and Gary Hunt wrangled their way into a college fishing tournament held last weekend. Unfortunately, their story is that they won the tourney, unfortunately for the kids!

John Knight of Amarillo caught a big 8 pound black bass Thursday and is eligible for the Big Bass Award offered by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept.

Someone caught a 6 1/2 lb Northern Pike Saturday and several reports of walleye and white bass have been coming in. The black bass seem to be spawning now, too. A few of the small mouth stocked three years ago are getting caught now. Although the 11 1/2" small mouth are keepers, Herman wished they would've been thrown back to get a little bigger yet.

Catfish are, of course, still coming in off of trot-lines. The black bass are now in their new pond. The pond, as you recall, has been treated, fertilized and stocked with flathead minnows and only about 4,000 fish. The goal this time is to gain size, not retain numbers to stock this fall into the lake.

Life histories of largemouth and Florida Hybrid bass, both in Greenbelt lake, are very similar. The hybrid Florida bass begin to spawning when temperatures warm to about 60, our current lake temperature is around 58 at a 5' depth. If conditions favor rapid growth, one year old bass at least 10" in length may spawn. Nests are dished out on firm bottoms in water two to eight feet deep by the male. The male then attracts a ripe female to the nest by aggressive courting behavior which includes rapid and vivid color pattern changes. The female then lays from 2,000 to 100,000 eggs which are immediately fertilized. Since the female's eggs don't ripen at one time, she may spawn once or twice during the spring.

Eggs hatch in two to five days and the fry begin feeding four to eight days later. The male guards the eggs and fry, but after the young leave the nest, they become prey for adult bass. The young bass feed mainly on zooplankton the first few weeks, but at two to 3' their diet is mainly small fish and aquatic insects. Adults feed mainly on shad, sunfish and a variety of other aquatic and terrestrial life.

Growth rates vary according to food availability and water quality. The hybrid largemouth usually grows faster than either parent and may reach lengths of 12" or more at the end of one year. Native largemouth grow faster than Florida for the first year or so, but the Florida equals and surpasses the native in growth thereafter. Life expectancy of largemouth bass is 6 to 8 years, but reports of older fish have been documented.

Senior Little League

Friday, May 18, Clarendon hosted Panhandle Team #2 and WON their second game 11 to 4! Scoring was again lead by Rodney Keown with his second home run, one aboard. Keown is batting .857. Rodney Smith is leading the team in batting with a perfect average of 1.000. Other averages are Donald Brogdon, .800, Stanley Gardner, .714 and Randy Crump, .600.

An unbelievable defensive play was made by Standley Gardner when in the fifth inning, Clarendon leading by only 4 runs, Panhandle loads the bases with no outs, Gardner made a spectacular grab of a line drive near second base, stepping on the base for the second out, he wheeled and blazed the ball to first for the third out, a triple play putting Panhandle down without a run! That ending the scoring for Panhandle with Clarendon adding three more for the final score of 11 to 4. Winning pitcher was Donald Brogdon.

Thursday-May 20, Lefors will come to Clarendon game time is 7 p.m.

Tuesday, May 25, Clarendon will travel to Panhandle to test their number one team. Clarendon hosted Skellytown Tuesday May 18 the results were not known at press time.

1981 Census results

There was a great deal of controversy and protest when the preliminary census figures for cities throughout the United States were announced several months ago, and as a result very little publicity has centered around this subject since that time. But at long last the Official census figures have been released for all cities, and some interesting tales are being uncovered. It appears that over much of the nation there has been a steady exodus to the suburbs and rural areas of the

Senior trip to Colorado

Twelve Seniors and five adults departed at noon on Tuesday, May 4th for Colorado on the Senior trip. They drove as far as Trinidad and spent their first night there. On Wednesday morning they drove to Colorado Springs and visited the Pro Rodeo Hall of Champions, the Garden of the Gods and Cave of the Winds. They spent the night in Colorado Springs then had a full day Thursday visiting Buffalo Bills Wax Museum, the Car Museum, Van Briggie Pottery Factory, Presidents Wax Museum, Seven Falls, Shrine of the Sun, and the zoo. The next morning they drove to Denver. There they toured the Natural History Museum, the Mint, the Capitol, Cinderella City and dined at Casa Bonita a unique Mexican restaurant which some considered one of the highlights of the trip.

On Saturday, the group visited the Cripple Creek Mine and the Royal Gorge, then drove back to Trinidad for the night. They headed back home on Sunday morning and arrived sometime that afternoon, a very exhausted but happy group because in spite of the fact that they ran into some snow and cold weather on the trip, everyone had a good time.

Those making the trip were: Scott Doherty, Shane Farris, Rosemary Felan, Robbie Guthrie, Melanie Hansard, Linda Kennedy, Randy Langley, Cheryl Phelps, Pam Sullivan, Kim and Tim Taylor and Kelley Woodard. Parents were Jean and Jimmy Taylor and Carolyn Lowe and Sponsors Elaine and Gano Wilson.

Pre-schoolers visit

There were 7 new faces at Hedley School last Friday morning on pre-school visitation day. The group came at regular school time and stayed until after lunch. Some of their mothers joined them for lunch.

Mrs. Quisenberry had planned some nice activities for them. The children who attended were: Heather Wilson, Brian Barton, Mandi White, Rachel Woodard, Brandy Barnett, Michelle Clubb and Nancy Andaverdi.

God's Gifts

Ephesians 1:7-8. For it is in Him that we have deliverance which cost His life; in Him we have received the forgiveness of sins, which only the wealth of His grace could give, a grace which He gave us in abundant supply, and which conferred on us all wisdom and all sound sense.

In the foregoing scripture, there is the conception of deliverance. It is the word used for God's continual receiving of His people in time of their trouble. In every case the conception of delivering is setting the man free from a situation from which he himself was powerless to liberate himself. God sets us free through Jesus Christ His Son. We need to look to Him that we might live the abundant life. Even in these difficult times He is the answer. W. Bryan Knowles.

History for the Class of '82

BY SPENCER HAYES AND KAREN MCANARNEY

When Karen and I were told that we were to present the class history, we immediately began compiling all the information we needed. We decided to start by naming all the seniors who started in first grade and spent every day of their school days in Clarendon. They are Karen (Toad) Alderson, Lana (Tree) Davis, June Asher, Tonya Braddock, Angelia Gardner, Jackie Gardner, Rhonda (Skeet) Butler, Vanessa Calloway, Kelli Hardin, Anna Harrison, Dianne Havens, Spencer Hayes, Jeff Helms, Bryan Hill, Donna Johnston, Dennis Knowles, Angela Klinnert, Bryan Leeper, Rodney McAneer, David Moss, Laecrecia (Butch) Petty, Pat Ritchie, Keith Reese, Bobby Weatherton, Loyd and Floyd Weatherton.

We had a little trouble remembering enough details to write a history, but luckily when Spencer was in the library the other day, he found a little book stuck way back on the shelf. The title read... "Private Diary of the Class of 1982". I'm sure there are some things in that diary that would probably like to be forgotten instead of remembered by some people but just think of it this way, our high school days may be nearly over, but will always have those crazy memories to hang on to, especially if we refresh everyone's memories tonight.

We started making memories early when in the 3rd grade. Mrs. Batson had to put Jackie Gardner at the end of the table so she could hold hands with Donna.

Ted Sawyer also got started early. Ted, remember when you shot Spencer in the stomach with a BB gun and then begged him to shoot you back because you felt so bad about it?

Loyd and Floyd, seems like those early days were when nobody could tell which one was which. Come to think of it, nobody can tell now, either.

Grant Lemons, remember when you were a little boy? That's OK, neither do we!

It is a known fact that our class is full of very gifted athletes and we've surely got the record to prove it.

Yeah, even in the 7th grade our football team and girls' basketball team went undefeated. That was the same year Bobby Weatherton thought he had killed Spencer in the gym.

Yeah, and the guys didn't have access to driving cars to take girls out then, did they Rosie? Seems like you had a date with Craig when he didn't have a car, so Larry chauffeured you around all night while you parked in the back seat.

We really had some track and field studs in the 7th grade, too. Dennis Knowles was one of them-remember at Shamrock when you threw the discus out into the crowd instead of out on the field?

The girls were always having slumber parties--Lana, do you remember at Karen's slumber party when you fell asleep early and ate your pantyhose?

Blake Bryant moved here in the 7th grade. He was an outstanding kid back then. Even Mr. Leathers told everyone they ought to be more like him in class. Boy, times have sure changed!

Bryan Hill had a slumber party for the guys once. Bryan, do you remember playing hearts and running around with your underwear on your head?

Jr. High was really something-it was where we were just getting a taste of what high school would be like, and it seems like just yesterday was September, 1978 when we first set foot into the glorious halls of CHS.

We had a lot of fun times when we were freshmen-remember the hairy legs contest at initiation?

On our AG trip to Huntsville I remember Bryan Leeper locking himself in the bathroom because everybody was picking on him. He spent the entire night sleeping in the bathtub.

Spencer, you are a fine one to be making fun of Bryan. After all, he is the one who taught you to ride a bike and tie your shoe!

But remember how all the girls would ride around in the "Black Snatch" and fight over who was who's best friend?

Seems like cheerleaders were dropping like flies when we were freshmen. I bet the highlight of Laecrecia Pettys high school life was when they moved her up to Varsity Cheerleader that year--better be glad you didn't drink the water, Crecia!

That was also the year Sala had her slumber party bash--I wonder if Kelli Hardin remembers finding her bra in the freezer that next morning?

Tammy White--remember when Blake called you "Nightmare White"? Freshman year is always the hardest year of high school--getting adjusted and making new friends and doing harder work.

Each year got a little better and easier, because we began to get involved in a lot of extra curricular activities such as sports, clubs, and UIL.

Some of us didn't seem to be concerned about UIL--we won't ever forget the day at the Lubbock Literary Meet when Brad Thompson missed speaking in the finals just to go win a couple of Big Macs at McDonalds.

Mark McAneer--we've always wondered since we were sophomores if it was true that a little part of your life was crooked.

That was also the year of Billie Perry's long, outstanding football season: What was it? about 4 minutes before you broke your leg?

Karen Alderson--Why were you laying out in the middle of Hwy. 287 saying "I want a truck to run over me?"

In Spring, 1980, our Sophomore year came to an end. Now we were no longer considered under classmen and it seemed like everyone started getting a little more freedom.

Our Junior year opened with more athletic success as well as many people achieving their individual goals. Sala, now that I think of it, wasn't that the year you were in NHS?

Indeed it was Karen, and as I recall, it was also the year that June Asher was dating a "soybean".

Donna Johnston, remember out on the Castle Road when you said you didn't want "none" out of the blue? Last year was also the year when Doug Williams was seen dancing around in the Syd Blues parking lot explaining to his sister that he had been hired as a hula dancer!

Hosea Hearn, remember when your foot was only an inch?

Mark Dickerson, what really possessed you to dress up like a woman... make-up and everything, and go into Allsups and ask the lady at the counter for some "extra-large" Midol?

Scott Newland, are you proud of the fact that you were always "ahead" when we played current events last year?

In the spring of last year we had a party that we called the Jr.-Sr. prom. It kind of highlighted that year, and for us, giving it to last year's seniors, it was a way for us to say "Move over, cause here we come!" and at the same time say "We love you and we'll never forget you."

Then came the end of school activities. In fact, it was class night a year ago when Rhonda Butler was playing bumper cars. You really shouldn't have used real cars, Rhonda.

Speaking of last year's class night, I never did understand why Craig Shields didn't make it to school until 3rd period the next day...better not pull that trick tomorrow.

We started our senior year on top of the world. Boy did we feel important, especially Brad Woodman. At the first of the year he was dating Gina and Patrice at the same time. Remember that Woody? I bet they don't.

When John Braxton moved here we learned a new way to talk. He gave CHS such phrases as, "C'mon mane, I got the hot hane," and "You sho' is lookin' good Mees Pry."

Jeff Helms, do you always have memory lapses like you did this year, I mean, you loses their pickup?

And Shannon Hall, why did you want to pay $200 for a box of chicken at the box supper? It had to have something to do with all the wild turkeys migrating north.

David Moss, what about all those things you said under your breath about Miss Veach in typing and bookkeeping?

And Keith Reese, how can we ever forget this year's NHS awards. When you were recognized in the "Best Dressed" category, you showed up in ragged pants and a T-shirt.

I'm almost positive Carl Watson will remember all those parking "expeditions" with Lana from what I hear they were pretty memorable events.

And we don't want to leave out our sponsors. Coach Kelm could write the history himself. I bet he remembers every detail of his life. And if he doesn't, we do!

Mrs. Hayes and Mrs. Stavenhagen are in a class by themselves--until you get them together. Then they giggle so much you would think they were freshmen.

OK Karen, enough of sponsors. Now that you're married, we ought to take a look back at some of your old flames: Terry Cole, Terry Putman, Bryan Hill and can you believe it, Scott Newland! Can you see Scott and Karen together now? Not me!

Enough of that, too. Rodney McAneer will remember his senior year by recalling memories like the time he was parked outside West Texas Utilities and all the windows on his pickup were fogged up.

Speaking of those type moments, Junior Crump, do you remember those pre-game drills at Coach Holms house?

How about you SuLynn Ariola, do you remember those pre-game drills?

We have had some nutty times this year, too. Like at Halloween--most people cause trouble or do something destructive. Anna Harrison and Bobbie Hightower went "Trick-or-treating".

We will always remember the only week in Angelia Gardner's life she didn't smile. She had a broken tooth from basketball.

Stella Robinson will always

FIRST BANK & TRUST OF CLARENDON

Can't You Remember the many unexpected trips she took to Amarillo this year... to see her brother, of course. Surely there must be a better reason than that.

Vanessa Calloway met the love of her life this year in Plainview. Who was it Nessa some guy from Ector? Angela Klinnert-remember earlier in the year when you tried to bail out of Sala's car when y'all were going down the highway? All of a sudden we found ourselves at the first of April with a weird feeling. The Juniors were giving a prom for us.

Suddenly it hit us that we didn't have long before our number would be up at CHS. Thanks, Juniors, it was one thing we'll never forget.

It was fun! Especially for Pat Ritchie and Dianne Havens. Remember your last minute primping in the Boy's bathroom? I'll bet Mr. Howell remembers locking you in there!

Tonya Braddock had a similar experience. Remember dragging Sala out of the boys bathroom?

These past 12 years hold too many memories for us to put them all on paper and read to you tonight. There have been many happy times many sad times and many in-between times for every single one of us. We are now at the end of our high school years but we'll always have the memories to cherish for the rest of our lives, and I know we'll always remember our high school days as being The Best of Times.

FHA

By LACRECIA PETTY

The Clarendon Chapter of F.H.A. started off the 1981-1982 school year in full swing. Activities were to be planned and arrangements to be made for the forthcoming year. The officers, Earline Bourque, program chairman; Karen Alderson, secretary-treasurer; Leslie Fincher, recreation chairman; Dalyn Crosslin, encounter chairman; Tammy White, historian; and Lacreia Petty, projects chairman had a meeting to plan everything for the year.

The F.H.A. sponsored the Freshman Initiation which was held in the city park. There were many hairy legs, shapely posteriors and red faces. Amy Hancock won the "leg" contest. Muzzy Hayes received the honor to sing "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" to Ben Clifford. Dean Cearly won the "Best Behind" contest.

Another highlight of the year was the F.H.A.-F.F.A. Box Supper. The girls supplied a decorated box filled with a good homecooked meal while the guys had to bid on the box of their choice. The supper was held in the old gym and Ward Olford did the auctioning. The profit was split between the two clubs.

For fund-raisers, we participated in Tom Wett sales which totaled over $5500 and the selling of spice sets. The proceeds went towards our annual banquet, the state meeting which was held in Fort Worth, and the updating of F.H.A. materials.

The Sweetheart Banquet was held on February 12, 1982 in the school cafeteria. Our theme was "Southern Nights." The cafeteria was beautifully decorated to resemble a southern plantation. Helium balloons in a net suspended from the ceiling. A white lattice frame backed in green with large pink blossoms was the background for pictures. The ironic piece of scenery was our missing "tree" which Kim Anderson worked so hard on for us and it just didn't "jell". Cotton bales were provided by Earl Shields. The menu was southern flavor with southern roast ham and Georgia peach cobbler, prepared by the gracious cafeteria ladies. Our mothers served making the meal move quite smoothly. The F.H.A. Sweetheart for 1982 was Karen Alderson and her beau was Jeff Helms. Runners-up were Lacreia Petty and Craig Shields. The banquet entertainment was Jim Shadle and Tammy White. Then, after the banquet, we danced the night away to the music of Z-93.

For several years now the F.H.A. symbol has been extended hands holding a home. The symbol changed to the now joint F.H.A. and HERO (Home Economics Related Occupations) sharing that background. With the leftover funds the F.H.A. will use the money to update supplies with the purchase of these materials.

The new F.H.A. sponsor this year was Maurine Butts. She did an excellent job organizing the F.H.A. She made all the activities throughout the 1981-1982 year possible.

Pre-Lab

By CRAIG SHIELDS, BLAKE BRYANT & JEFF HELMS

This year in Pre-Lab, has been very satisfactory to all twelve members who made the class worthwhile. The twelve members are as follows: Grand Lemons, Billy Perry, Mark Dickerson, Mark McAnear, Bryan Hill, Blake Bryant, Jeff Helms, Hosea Hearn, Craig Shields, Rodney McAnear and Keith Reese. Our "one of the gang" teacher was Carroll Duncan, whom we called Mr. "D."

Throughout the year, we worked and completed many projects. We started with repairing the victory bell. We re-wired the lights, re-carpeted the flooring, re-painted the entire bell and frame, and had Don Stone paint maroon "Broncos" on each side of the bell.

Next we began welding. All twelve class members seemed to be accomplishing something when they struck an arc. We were all graded for different type welds. Then we started working with electricity. We worked with two- and three-way switches. Next we started on small engines and wood work, in which each member participated. Then we started building metal hog panels, which were going to be put out at the new Ag Farm. While some were working at the new barn, the rest of us were busy at the old ag barn. We then surveyed the land at the location of the new ag farm. We really stayed busy throughout the year.

We would like to thank everyone who helped support the pre-lab class. Overall it was every member's favorite class.

Rodeo Club

By SHANNON HALL

The 1981-82 Rodeo Club experienced some very humorous, exciting, and sadistic moments this year. We saw many future bronc riders come and go. Some went faster than they came. For most of the members this was their first year to try their hand at rodeo. Being a sport of mental, physical and financial strain, this year's team members learned that it takes a lot of determination and some sacrifices to be successful. The CHS Rodeo team travels from 60 to 400 miles a night every weekend from March 1st to May 31st. As the year progressed, everyone showed improvements. Although experiencing many hard falls such as; missed dallys, falling calves, fierce weather and uncontrolled rope horses, the team had a successful year. Placing were: Team Roping-1st River Road; 1st, 7th, 10th Canyon; 3rd Plainview; Calf Roping-7th Claude; Bronc Riding, ag-inst from 50 to 60 participants in each event. The 81-82 officers were: pres., Shannon Hall; vice pres., Alex McAnear; and sec.-treas., Gary Lewis. Other members were: James Alford, Ted Sawyer, Mark McAnear, Tony Kuhn, Gerald Mills, Carl Cox and Ray Crump. The CHS Rodeo team would like to express sincere thanks to our sponsor, Buster Shields and also Burl Hollar for their support and help.

Maranatha

By DENNIS KNOWLES

Our organization has had a very fun and uplifting year during 1981 and '82. Maranatha is finishing its seventh year in existence. We have had many ups and downs this year but we have always come out on the top of our troubles because we have Christ as the chairman of our most unique organization. We at Clarendon High School, have one of the few religious organizations in this school district area. Many persons from other schools have commented "I have never seen a school who is able to have a Christian organization. I wish we could have one!" So Clarendon, we have one of the finest organization around!

Maranatha has accomplished much in this fiscal year, but the services we carry out are always kept secret because of the scripture from the Holy Bible: Matthew 6:1-4. This scripture is why the readers may not be quite so familiar with our fine organization. We usually have several fund raising activities during the year, such as candy sales, bake sales, or even a car wash to enable us to carry out our services for the community. We must stress that all of our proceeds go directly back to some service, such as, helping a needy family or some other related service. The service we enjoyed most this past year was visiting the Clarendon Rest Home. We have had many fun and exciting activities but the individuals at the rest home sort of "adopt you". They have so much to share and give each individual if we just reach out and give them the opportunity.

To highlight the year we have a Spring Banquet which is designed to honor the area's active ministers. This banquet originally started out as a small "get together salad supper," but as the years grew so did the banquet. This year our theme was "A New Beginning... From Jesus, with Love". The scheme included an 8' x 8' backdrop stuffed with crepe paper arranged in a way that a rainbow went up into a cloud with our theme arranged in bold black letters. Streamers, which were the colors of the rainbow, were hung in a way that they appeared to be a rainbow. Our meal was catered by Dyers of Pamap and consisted of a very appetizing bar-b-que plate. The Kingsmen Quartet was our entertainment for the evening. They were a very fine acappella group! Tom Harguess was our featured speaker, who was very witty, but also, gave a very fine message.

Awards for the 1981-'82 year areas follows:

Brother Maranatha-Dennis Knowles; Sister Maranatha-Sharon Schwertner; Most Dependable-Nelda Burrow; Most Faithful-Dennis Knowles.

The officers for the 1981-82 year were as follows: pres., Dennis Knowles; vice pres., Dorothy Braddock; secretary-treasurer, Cara Cornell; parliamentarian, Dyanne Johnston; reporter, Terri Leffew; historian, Sharon Schwertner, ph. chairperson, Nelda Burrow; coordinator officer, Bobbie Dale Hightower.

A special recognition should go to Mrs. Billy Ray Johnston (Janice), our sponsor. She had dedicated seven years of her life to Maranatha. During this time, she could have spent doing something else, but thought this organization worthy to serve in. Mr. Walker should also be recognized because he has always been a strong supporter of this organization. I am honored to say I was able to be in Maranatha for four years. This is a very fine organization in which all individuals can be a part. I strongly urge all to become part of Maranatha and hope to see it prosper for the cause of Jesus Christ's love in the years to come!

Annual Staff, Frustrating yet joyful

By ANNA HARRISON

In the summer of 1981 Betty Veach and four of her students piled into her silver '79 Pontiac and headed for Amarillo College, setting for the Taylor Publishing Company Yearbook Seminar and also for the beginning of a special annual staff year. After an assembly, Miss Veach, Shalane Chamberlain and Karen Alderson went to a journalism workshop to learn how to plan a better yearbook, while Dianne Havens and Anna Harrison went to a separate session for photography. (Remember Kendall?)

Later we shared what we had learned and talked about a theme for our annual. Several ideas were discussed but a western theme seemed easy, fun and fitting since Clarendon had recently celebrated its 100th birthday. The official title became "Best of The West" and the caption, "It's Our Frontier" was added especially for the Seniors. We editors were excited to begin working on it but school had not started yet!

Once school had started, we were still excited, but so many other things took up our time like homework, flag corps, jobs, family chores and other school organizations. Although the pace never slackened from deadline to deadline, the work load was shared by other annual staffers. Sharing the experience were the dependable Nelda Burrow and Sharon Schwertner. Kay

Bell, Sulynn Ariola, Judy Hightower, Rosie Arias, Mary K. Hayes, Amy R. Hancock, Dyanne Johnston and Cara Cornell. Also, Billy Perry, Mark Dickerson, Eddie Pace, Tommy White, Bobbie Hightower, and Cindy Topper, Stella Robinson and Rhonda Butler. Some experienced more frustration than others.

One frustration was not being able to carry out all our great ideas. Another was trying to conquer that dreaded "White space". New people on the staff had to figure out how to use those weird croppers. Not only was taking pictures of large groups of people nerve-racking but taking pictures of them again and again... was also upsetting. For the photographers, the darkroom seemed to harbor one disaster after another. Prints wrinkled and curled because the paper was too thin. The bulb on the enlarger was too dim and later its replacement burned out. An important role of film was practically ruined because the chemicals were too hot. Frustrations were not unknown to our sponsor, Miss Veach. Getting people to turn in their pages on time and done correctly was difficult, as was being responsible for so many "salesmen" out selling sponsorship ads to help make publication possible. Miss Veach devoted many hours to our club despite the frustrations.

Annual Staff had its joys, too. Just having the chance to do something creative was worth all the great hours. Photographing the friendly faces of C.H.S. was especially fun. Shalane had fun putting all those neat Western letters and rope trim into Best of the West. We were happy to hear our representative Doug Altom say it was our best effort in five years. Even better was hearing the cry, "The Annuals are in!" early! The most joyful occasion will be when the annuals are passed out to the student body who will anxiously look for their own faces, exchange books with friends for autograph signing, and turn the pages on special memories.

Boys Track

By JUNIOR CRUMP

Coach Dudley Kelm's expectations of his varsity boy thin clad team turned out just as he and everyone else in Clarendon thought they would; successful. The football and basketball already have been won, the track had a very tough road to follow, as usual the Clarendon Broncos enjoyed performing under pressure.

The Broncos, who appeared shakey at times, won four out of six track meets in which they competed this year, including District. Coming off of an extended basketball season, the Clarendon boys won the first meet of the year. But due to injuries, the next meet was out of reach. Now on the comeback trail the Broncos won the next two in a row before traveling to Amarillo and the toughest meet of the year. After having a meet canceled, Clarendon went to Groom for a practice meet with Groom, Valley, Silverton and McLean. Then: the Mighty Broncos rose to the occasion again, beating the closest challenger by 36 points in district competition. The seniors on the track team were: Brad Woodman, Loyd Weatherton, Brad Thompson, Craig Shields, Junior Crump, John Braxton, and Bobby Weatherton. And Keith Reese helped lighten the load of Coach Kelm by assisting in some of the duties. Regional qualifiers from this year's track team are: 400 m. relay, Junior Crump, David Weatherton, Curly Weatherton and Bobby Weatherton; mile relay, Brian Rogers, Curly Weatherton, David Weatherton, Craig Shields; 100 m. dash, Bobby Weatherton; 800 m. run, Brian Rogers; long jump, David Weatherton; and shot put, Brad McGuire.

Thanks to Coach Kelm, Coach Bryant, and the rest of the coaching staff, the athletes have had another successful track team this year, making it five years in a row that the District Championship trophy has been delivered to Clarendon. This also completes the "triple crown" (football, basketball and track).

FFA

By SHANNON HALL

The Clarendon High School FFA Organization had a busy and productive year. Eighty-one students participated in Ag and Pre-lab this year. The officers for 1981-82 were: President, Shannon Hall; vice-pres., Ken Dorris; secretary, Ray Lindley; treasurer, Jeff Helms; reporter, Dyron Howell and sentinel, Rodney McAnear. Our Sweetheart this year was Kimbell Winson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Wilson. The FFA Greenbelt District president was Shannon Hall.

The Chapter sent representatives to the Area Convention and State Convention. Delegates to the State Convention at Dallas on July 14-16 were Ray Lindley, Dyron Howell and Fabian Torres. Steve Schwertner received the State Farmers Degree at the Convention. Delegates to the District meeting in October were Rodney McAnear and Shannon Hall.

As a money making project during October and November all 81 members sold fruit from the valley of Texas. Also our basketball concession sales were very successful. In November, the FFA, joined the FHA in the annual Box Supper.

For the first time ever, both leadership teams won

Band

By DIANNE HAVENS

On November 11, 1981, the band members piled all their instruments, uniforms, food, and all those other necessary items onto two buses and started off for Canyon. An air of excitement pervaded the atmosphere, mingling with screams, laughter, and rock-n-roll music. They were on their way to the West Texas State University Buffalo Stadium for the 1981 Marching Band Contest. After working hard all through football season, the band had high hopes for the contest. Everyone really concentrated and gave it their all on the field; and afterwards everyone felt it was their best effort ever. Although the ratings were very disappointing, almost everyone was happy with his performance.

Next, Mr. Ronald Boley, the band director, handed out Christmas music and for weeks as the band got ready for the Christmas concert the sounds of Silent Night and other traditional tunes, drifted through the hallways. A large crowd turned out for the concert and went away feeling that their time had not been wasted: Because the 1981 Christmas concert was the best in many years.

After the Christmas Holidays the band started right in working for the concert contest at Panhandle. Again the ratings were disappointing. But the band really did a good job and came away with more experience.

After Spring Concert, Mr. Boley gave the band a break for a few days. But then they started working harder than ever. They worked so hard that the May 3, Spring Concert was a smashing success.

The 1981-1982 year for the Bronco Band was a lot of hard work. But, now, at the end of the year, each member feels that he has gained something from the experience.

Varsity Girls

Basketball

By SCOTT NEWLAND

Success. That is the very word a person would use to describe the varsity girls basketball team. The Bronchettes posted a 27-4 record and won their second straight district championship on their way to the most successful season any Bronchette team has had in years.

Coach Bob Howell used expert leadership of six seniors; Kelli Hardin, Vanessa Calloway, Angelia Gardner, Lana Davis, Rhonda Butler and Sulynn Ariola to guide his team to its magnificent record. Hardin and Calloway both were named to the all-district team, and the pair also received all-star team honors. Angelia Gardner proved to be Clarendon's best rebounder and second best percentage shooter on the team. Lana Davis, Rhonda Butler and Sulynn Ariola all provided excellent leadership, and surprised everyone in the area by pulling as much weight as the previous three.

In addition to his seniors, Coach Howell had one junior and three sophomores that showed tremendous progress all year long. Part-time starter Linda Weatherton turned out to be another super athlete Clarendon has had with the Weatherton name. Although junior Dorothy Braddock and sophomores Kristen Walker and Connie Garmen saw limited playing time, all three provided an integral part of Clarendon's success by providing talented relief for the Bronchette starters.

The Bronchette season did not end quite as all fans hoped it would, with a state championship, but the district championship and the all-out effort given by each individual provided enough enjoyment and excitement to satisfy all the fans until the new Bronchettes start another championship quest next year.

Girls Track

By BRAD THOMPSON
Five state qualifiers and coach Ted Allen led Clarendon's most awesome girls' track team ever to four invitational meet victories, the district, and regional track championships.

Running away with the district championship with 227 points, the Bronchettes qualified eight girls in twelve different events including all three relay races.

At the Regional meet in Odessa, the Lady Broncos racked up 95 points to win the championship, mainly on the strength of the three relay teams. The 400-meter relay (Angelia Gardner, Kelli Hardin, Susan Thompson and Vanessa Calloway) and 800-meter relay (Angelia Gardner, Kelli Hardin, Linda Weatherton and Vanessa Calloway) both finished second while the 1600-meter relay (Patrice Shields, Kelli Hardin, Susan Thompson, and Linda Weatherton) finished third. Angelia Gardner was the only regional champion (in the shot put), but the Clarendon depth proved to be too much for the rest of the field. Vanessa Calloway aided the cause with a second in the long jump, 3rd in the triple jump, and 4th in the 100-meter dash. Linda Weatherton helped out with a second in the 700 and 5th in the long jump while Susan Thompson added a 3rd in the 100-meter hurdles and a 6th place finish in the triple jump.

In Austin, the Bronchettes showed up well with three individual medal winners (Vanessa Calloway-2nd in the long jump, Angelia Gardner-3rd in the shot put, and Linda Weatherton-3rd in the 200), and a 3rd place finish in the 800-meter relay. The sprint relay finished 4th, but with the same time as 3rd place Brookshire-Royal. They amassed 40 points, good enough for 3rd at the state meet, an accomplishment unequalled in Clarendon girl's track history.

Varsity

Cheerleaders

By SCOTT NEWLAND
With the success of Clarendon High School in its activities this year, credit must be given to all that helped in the success. Not only the players, but also the coaches, fans, and finally the cheerleaders.

The contributions made by high school cheerleaders sometimes go unnoticed. They spend many hours of their own time on weekends and other days preparing for pep rallies, games, and other activities. In the summer, the CHS varsity squad attended a full week of cheerleading camp at Wayland Baptist University in Plainview where they won the "Most Spirited Award" given to, obviously, the most spirited group of cheerleaders. Some of the many activities the cheerleaders sponsored to raise money included conducting a clinic for junior high cheerleaders, car washes, bake sales, and a dunking booth at the 4th of July celebration.

This year's group of varsity cheerleaders showed high standards not only in their cheering performances, but also in good conduct and leadership. This is demonstrated by the cheerleaders sacrificing of their own time to conduct a clinic in order to help Amarillo Kids Inc. cheerleaders.

This year's cheerleaders were Kim Wilson-Head, Vanessa Calloway, Sulynn Ariola, Krystal Hayworth, Susan Thompson and pam Jack. The mascot was Shalane Chamberlain and Tonya Braddock. These girls have all worked hard and have set a fine example to all young girls, and deserve the appreciation of the whole student body and townspeople.

Spanish Club

By PAT RITCHIE & ROSIE ARIAS

Spanish Club had many activities this year. A few were: the Mr. Ugly Contest with Dyron Howell being 1st runner-up but with Bobby Weatherton senior winning it hands down; a trip to Amarillo to see a Spanish opera, and the annual Valentines Day sale of flowers. This year we decided to sell daffodils instead of carnations. This sale went over very well.

The officers for Spanish Club this year were: president, Pat Ritchie sr.; vice president, Rosie Arias, sr.; secretary, Brad Thompson sr.; treasurer, Spencer Hayes sr.; reporter, Scott Newland sr. and our ever faithful sponsor Mrs. Kay Hayes. Other members included were Sulyn Ariola, Junior Crump, Tonya Braddock, Shannon Hall, Dennis Knowles, all seniors and Dena Green jr.

Golf and Tennis

By SPENCER HAYES

Two individual spring sports offered at Clarendon High School are golf and tennis. Bob Howell coaches the boys golf team and Ron Holmes assisted both the boys' and girls' tennis teams.

The boy's golf team was made up of Spencer Hayes, Kelly Hill, Bo Kay, Brett Bryant and Kevin Thompson. Under the supervision of Coach Howell and the able assistance of Clarendon Country Club Professional Jerry Thompson, these boys finished third in the district. Thanks to the Clarendon Country Club, this team was able to work out on a regular basis at the Country Club course.

Despite many time conflicts with other sports, the tennis team also enjoyed a pleasant season. The girl's team was made up of Kelli Hardin, Kim Wilson, Linnie Salmon, Mary Katherine Hayes, Gayla Clifford and Shea Green. The boy's team consisted of Spencer Hayes, Brett Bryant, Dean Cearley, Lynn Alderson, and Stan Garland. These teams attended one practice meet in Amarillo at the Amarillo relays. A blinding sandstorm hampered their play but Coach Holmes' bubbling personality made up for the bad weather and poor results. The district tennis meet was held at Canadian. Kelli Hardin won third place in girls' singles.

National Honor Society

By KELLI HARDIN

The National Honor Society consisted of eight old members and eleven new members who were inducted at the NHS awards assembly. The old members are Rhonda Butler, Kelli Hardin, Spencer Hayes, Lacreia Petty, Karen Alderson, Ken Dorris, Cara Cornell and Dorothy Braddock. The new members are Junior Crump, Brad Thompson, Brad Woodman, Shannon Hall, Shalane Chamberlain, Ray Lindley, Susan Thompson, Kim Wilson, Dyron Howell, Dondra Holland and Arlis Thomas. Officers elected were president, Kelli Hardin; vice-president, Spencer Hayes; secretary, Rhonda Butler; and treasurer, Dorothy Braddock. The sponsor of NHS is Carrie Howell who does a fine job of running the organization.

The students in NHS participated in the Bike-A-Thon for the fight against cancer. The students raised $532 in pledges and had a good time while working for a good cause.

The NHS is planning a field trip the last part of the school year. We are planning on going to Amarillo and touring the Harrington Station which is sponsored by Southwestern Public Service. This trip should be very educational as well as fun.

The students in NHS are required to maintain an overall average of 90. In addition, members are required to uphold a good character by displaying high standards of morality, honesty and reliability. Members are also expected to take on and accept responsibilities asked of them. Last of all, members should demonstrate leadership in the classroom, at work and in school activities.

It is a great honor to be in National Honor Society. Many opportunities are available to the members and the organization is looked upon as a very respectable group.

UIL Literary

Clarendon High Schools Literary competitors enjoyed another successful year this year, even though they narrowly missed the district championship that Clarendon has won the last 5 years.

Brad Thompson and Kelli Hardin both qualified in Informative Speaking for the state meet as they led the way for all competitors. Spencer Hayes, 2nd place at state last year, made a good showing at district but failed to qualify for the regional meet. Persuasive speakers Susan Thompson, Shalane Chamberlain, and Krystal Hayworth all competed well in their first year, with Chamberlain and Hayworth taking 3rd and 4th in the district contest. Krystal got her chance to speak at Odessa when Shalane opted to spell. Shalane took 1st at district with Kelli Hardin and Fabian Torres both doing a good job, but not placing.

Miss Betty Veach and Carrie Howell both had students competing in typing and number sense. Cara Cornell, Tammy White, Kristen Walker, and Bo Kay all hit their keys at district with Cara bringing home 1st place. Ken Dorris, Dyron Howell, and Wayne Chambliss all were in the number sense contest with Dorris bringing in the 3rd place medal.

Karen Alderson and Carmen Childs surprised everyone in the whole district by taking 1st place medals in prose and poetry interpretation. Others that worked hard but didn't place were Charla Crump and Scott Newland in Prose, and Patrice Shields, Melody Moreman, and Vanessa Calloway in Poetry.

Kay Hayes was not unlike the other Literary coaches in the category of success as she had 4 writers qualify for the regional contest, and 1 of those 3 qualified for state. Dorothy Braddock qualified in Editorial writing, Krystal Hayworth in Feature writing, Spencer Hayes in Headlines, and Scott Newland in News-writing. Scott qualified for the state contest by winning a 1st place medal at Odessa. Other hard-working journalism students were Todd Muse, Brett Bryant, Patrice Shields, Cara Cornell, Dena Green, Doug Walker, Muzzy Hayes, Brad McGuire, and Sala Lefew.

Although the Bronco writers and speakers failed to win district, Kay Hayes, Jean Stavenhagen, Carrie Howell, and Betty Veach have high hopes about all the returnees, and their chances of starting a new string of district championships.

Boys

Basketball

The 1981-82 Clarendon Bronco basketball team, riding the momentum of an excellent football season, overcame a slow start to run up a 21-6 record and another district championship (the '81-'82 athletic teams would go on to win every major athletic title in the district).

Following a 3-3 start, Coach Ron Holmes' cagers won 16 of their next 18 games to take the District 2-AA crown and earn the right to play Sanford-Fritch in Amarillo for the bi-district game.

In the Civic Center Coliseum, Fritch scored 19 of the first 21 points of the game but, as was characteristic of the Broncos all season, they came fighting back and came within an eyelash of pulling it out, dropping a 71-69 decision.

The district race, which Clarendon was favored to win, proved to be more exciting than many thought. The first half of the race came down to the last game with Memphis and it proved to be a barn burner. The first quarter saw both teams shoot the lights out and come up tied 20-20 after the first eight minutes. The Broncos got into serious foul trouble during the 2nd and 3rd quarters and the Cyclones took advantage, starting the 4th quarter with a 10-point lead.

But, once again showing the toughness that was their trademark, the Broncos came roaring back to tie the game with less than two minutes to play.

The game came down to the last nine seconds, when, Con't P 6 with Clarendon's top four scorers on the bench with five fouls, senior Brad Woodman drove the length of the floor and swished a 15-footer to give the Broncos the championship.

Clarendon's only district loss came after the issue had been settled when Memphis beat the Broncos at home. Clarendon had only seven players because of a flu bug that had many under the weather.

John Braxton (the leading rebounder, no. 2 scorer), Brad Thompson (leading scorer, no. 2 rebounder) and Hosea Hearn were named to the all-district team, and Bobby Weatherton was honorable mention. Thompson was also named to the Globe News Super Team and the All-Region second team.

Football

Following the lead of nine all-district seniors, the 1981 Clarendon Broncos enjoyed the most successful football season a Clarendon team has had since the 1972 state runners-up.

The Broncos swept to an 11-0 record (including a 49-28 bi-district win over Panhandle) before falling in Canyon to Hale Center, 31-14 in the regional championship. The perfect 10-0 regular season was the first since 1969 as the Broncos overwhelmed their opponents by a composite score of 296-50. In five district outings, the powerful Bronco offense racked up 166 points while the stingy defense allowed only 15.

While the flashy Clarendon offense received much notice, the punishing defense provided the backbone to a team that was ranked as high as no. 2 in the state.

Led by All-State Linebacker John Braxton and Globe New Super Team Defensive End Scott Newland, Clarendon registered two shutouts (against Shamrock and Wellington), and surrendered only a field goal to Sanford-Fritch, Wheeler, and Memphis. Other outstanding senior defenders were Bobby Weatherton and Brad Woodman (safeties), and Billy Perry (noseguard). Each was 1st team all-district.

Led by thousand-yard rushers Bobby Weatherton and Hosea Hearn, and the quick-striking aerial combination of seniors Brad Thompson and Junior Crump, the Bronco offense gave the crowds many exciting moments. Behind a predominantly junior offensive line, the Broncos lit up the scoreboard with 51 points against Canadian, 40 against Panhandle and 41 against Memphis. They put more than 30 points up against Quanah, Childress and Wheeler.

The 1981 edition of Clarendon Bronco football will long be remembered by Clarendon sports fans for the excitement it brought to Friday nights, and, more importantly, the success it achieved.

FTA

By PAT RITCHIE & ROSIE ARIAS

The FTA organization this year was very small yet very active. Dianne Havens was our district historian for this school year. At our district convention we ran Annette Watson for District President 1982-83 and she won by a huge margin. She then attended the district officers workshop in Austin with Miss Veach. Dyanne Johnston was elected as District Corresponding Secretary for 1982-83. The State Convention was held in Houston this year and we all had a blast. Didn't we?? "Hey, any you ladies want some has hash?" Right, Dianne? And what about "Aunt Faye"??

The chapter officers this year were: president, Dianne Havens sr.; vice president, Pat Ritchie sr.; secretary-treasurer, Rosie Arias sr.; reporters, Muzzy Hayes and Annette Watson both freshmen, and our sponsor Miss Betty Veach. Other members included Carl Watson sr., Tony Kuhn sr., Kay Bell freshman, Melinda Barker, jr., Dyanne Johnston jr. and Wendy McCombs.
