SKIDDING BUS IMPERILS LIVES OF 14 NEAR BRICE

The lives of fourteen Brice and Lesley school children perilously hung in a balance over a pool of water six feet in depth Monday afternoon. The school bus in which they were being transported, skidded on a down grade some two miles east of Brice.

The bus skidded about ten feet before striking the bridge. By rare presence of mind the driver succeeded in contacting the bridge with the front wheels as the left side of the rear of the bus tore about fifteen feet of banister from the bridge and swung out over a pool of water six feet or more in depth.

The driver remained calm but fourteen pupils were badly frightened, though not a one injured. The children fled out onto the bridge and were taken home by a Lakeview bus called to the scene of the accident.

BUGBEE PREFERS SHORTHORN CATTLE AS ALL-PURPOSE

Topping his herd of dairy stock is a registered bull purchased at the Plainview dairy show. Chas. H. Bugbee is especially proud of the young bull, and should be. He's great. In the dairy herd are more of the shorthorn breed. Cows of different sizes, large udders and all the markings of fine dairy stock. "I prefer the shorthorn durham for both milk and beef production," Mr. Bugbee stated Monday as he showed visitors his fine start of blooded shorthorns.

Milk from the herd is fed to choice hogs. Mr. Bugbee believes that milk will make a pig grow faster and better than most anything. Several of our leading farmers are using the same plan of linking up dairy cows with hogs.

Autogiros Arrive To Aid Growers

Two of the huge planes sailed over Clarendon Tuesday afternoon about 2 p. m. winging their way to Amarillo from Gulfport, Miss. A number of local citizens viewed the peculiar looking grasshopper fighting machines with awe.

The machines are to be used in spreading hopper poison. Scientists claim it can be done faster and cheaper with the machines from the air rather than a truck arrangement as in the past.

A third and larger machine will be due next week. With the coming of warm weather, the "air bombardment" will begin in the upper Panhandle.

LARGE CROWD HEARS SERMON HONORING GRADUATES

Antrobus, grave registration officer of the American Legion, asks that he be supplied with information as to grave locations. If this be done, Mr. Antrobus assures his informants that the matter will have careful attention.

Decoration Day is May 30th, and there is plenty of time to make arrangements if the information is supplied immediately, he said.

MEASLES SPREAD IN DONLEY

The same kind of measles about which you have been reading down state, have finally gotten. They came with a bang! The first to the third graders are in the majority this week. Fortunately, school closes this week. Little school work will be missed. On the other hand, the vacation, though enforced, may be appreciated by a very few. The measles are of the small, red variety, and seldom result seriously when proper precautions are taken. Several cases are noted over the county.

POPEYE PLEASE NOTE

These kids must have eaten their spinach! They are actually pulling this 160-ton locomotive along its track at Canton, Ohio. There is more to the trick, however, than just spinach. The engine is equipped with a type of tapered roller bearing developed for railroads which makes the largest locomotive roll so freely that even "three kid-power" is sufficient to move it with ease.

Lad Is Taken From Deep Well By Teeth

CHILDRESS.—One of the most heroic stories of a mother's bravery came out of the southeastern farm section of Childress County during the Mother's Day weekend.

Two and a half-year-old Donald Glenn Rickman fell into a 14-foot cistern at his parents' farm home five miles southeast of Kirkland and was helpless in two feet of water when his mother discovered the accident.

Unable to find a ladder that would reach to the bottom of the cistern, the young farm mother, Mrs. O. J. Rickman, tied a rope around a near-by post and slid down into the water to rescue the child.

Picking him out of the water, she grasped his clothing in her teeth and climbed hand-over-hand up the rope and out of the cistern, the youngster's body dangling at her breast.

The child suffered only minor head bruises as a result of the fall, and Mrs. Rickman was treated for painful rope burns on her hands and legs.

ATTEND FORD MEETING IN CHILDRESS MONDAY

COTTON GROWERS PLAN CO-OP GIN

Expect to Have Plant In Operation For Next Crop

A meeting of cotton growers was held at the courthouse Monday night for the purpose of discussing plans for a co-operative cotton gin. Six or eight thousand acres of pledged acreage of cotton is necessary, one farmer stated, before the government will approve of the venture.

It is said that the federal loan would be approximately sixty percent of the cost of a gin, and that a new gin would not be erected if one be offered for sale in the same territory. Federal appraisers would approve of the price to be paid, it is learned.

Another meeting will be held when the pledged acreage is secured. A committee is securing pledges at this time.

BAIN CAFE IS ROBBED

Oil Barrel Becomes Tool Of Burglars In Method Of Entrance

Possibly ignoring the lack of an invitation to enter, polite burglars early this morning made a high, front entrance into the Bain cafe. The oil barrel used as a stepladder enabled the inquisitive party or parties to reach a footing on the awning. A window was broken and once inside, the explorer reasoned that all things of perishable value were "kept in an ice box." From that ice box was extracted exactly $26.60. It is understood that the sheriff has a clue. The offense is believed to have been committed some time after midnight.

GREED AND THE GODLESS.

Since the depression began under the Republican administration, and has continued for seven years under the Democratic administration, it appears to be a problem that cannot be solved politically. It appears to be high time for our nation to use brains in a patient, tolerant, democratic manner to escape poverty in the midst of plenty. God has endowed our nation with every natural resource that man could desire. He then gave our people talents for developing those natural resources into materials for everyday life. We have natural resources to supply twice the needs of our population. Our capacity for transforming those resources into useful assets is so great that no man, woman or child should need go without food, clothing or comfortable shelter.

Why, then, is a third of our people on relief? The United States Chamber of Commerce answers that question by waving the flag and prating about our wonderful Constitution and the "good old American way." The needy would likely tell us that there is not enough flags for clothing; they can't eat the Constitution, and the Coat of Arms is a poor windbreak. At the same time, let us not forget that the flag and Constitution were born of a protest against similar conditions such as we know them today. The U.S.C.C. might have included the 14th Amendment and still we would get nowhere. We reverence the flag and the Constitution, but we have gotten so far from the "good old American way" that it has become a dim recollection in history.

Unrestrained individualism confined to political pets, is not a necessary asset to progress. It is merely a parasite. It produces tax-termites that eat the very foundation of freedom from under an unsuspecting people.

There is probably a number of causes of our depression. There are a number of secondary causes. Back of our secondary causes lies the greed of the average man. The basic trouble is likely moral rather than economic to a great extent. Or we might say the attempt to separate economics from morals.

Edward Bellamy wrote his famous book, "Looking Backward." John Stuart Mills, Ricardo and Adam Smith, each in their day, gave the world lessons in Economics, but tried to thrust God out of His world. Present-day economics is based upon some of the ideas of the radicals of another day. Do we wonder that tragedy has overcome God's people?

FAT IN THE FIRE.

The fat was flipped into the fire a few days ago when it became known that army and navy beef contracts had been given to meat packers of Argentina rather than to American meat packers. South Americans will not help pay the ever growing American debt, and meat producers of our own nation bitterly denounce the act as Un-American.

Along about the time farmers were instructed to plow up "every third row" of their crops, the importation of feed stuffs -- corn and grain sorghums -- from South America began. Unorganized farmers could not present a solid front in their behalf. The practice continues because, as national lawmakers point out, America must cultivate the good will of the citizenship of the southern neighbors lest Hitler corral the whole works.

Buying beef and feed outside the nation is a definite plan upon the part of international politicians who seek to feather their own nest. Some Americans are making a big profit out of the importation of beef and feedstuffs, but it isn't the American growers.

HOUSE RAISING.

"I have the best neighbors in the world," Hastoon Yazzie stated Saturday after they came in and raised his house a foot higher so the old lady can reach under the floor and drag the eggs out with a hoe.

THOSE MENTAL GIANTS.

After the worms become scarce and the gold fish are swallowed, college students could be encouraged to go to southwest Texas and kill mountain lions with a bow and arrow. The stunt has two valuable factors to consider: It would provide a new sensation, and at the same time would reduce possible competition after graduation. Those cats despise human intrusion far more than a lawnmower does a loan shark, and act without taking time to declare an "emergency."

IN THE DIM PAST.

Member way back when you parched green coffee in the cook-stove oven, then settled it with egg after it was placed in the pot?

MODERN INSTRUCTIONS.

Ima Fizzle told Red Kian to "keep his mouth shut, and that if his head needed airing, to open his mind." All of which recalls Bob Burns who has become a noted humorist by lying about his relatives. A lot of folks could be fannier by telling the truth on theirs.

CIVIC EXHUBERANCE.

Hastoon Yazzie's oldest brother, Ozzie, noted civic leader, school trustee, notary public and assistant deputy constable of Hogjaw, came out strongly for moving the Trinity river and digging a battleship canal straight from Dallas to the Gulf, in an address delivered before the Snuff & Gossip club Wednesday night.

BROKE, BUT BOOSTER.

"I love the bracing breezes of the Panhandle. My family is better satisfied to stay at home rather than go places looking for a better place to rest."

Second Panhandler: "Yep, we have the best climate in the world right here at home. Besides, I'm broke, too."

GAME PROTECTIONISTS.

After a hunter clutters up his room with hunting trophies until there is no room left except under the floor lamp, he comes out strong for game conservation and is elected president of the local club.

NEWSPAPER HONESTY.

Those who are given to decrying newspaper unreliability merely as a pastime, often seize upon matters of small consequence by which to start a tirade of abuse against what was formerly their favorite source of news—their favorite newspaper. Recently there appeared in the Amarillo Globe under a United Press 'toemark', and a Levelland location, a news story. It was news to a lot of folks because the article depicted a near-tragic scene. The article told a story of a small child being lost in the dense forest near Levelland. Happily for the youngster, evidently of pioneer stock, he piled his wits to natural resources and subsisted upon wild blackberries in the Levelland forest. The casual reader will wonder who moved the "Big Thick-et" from East Texas to West Texas. By whose authority was the moving done? Have our state lawmakers been fighting, bleeding and dying in the moving process while we condemned them for doing nothing except spending over a half million dollars since January 1st? Just as the mystery was clear as mud, along comes the issue of the Amarillo News, following the Globe, in which the location was changed from Levelland to Cleveland. Now we don't know whether berries ripen at this date in Ohio or Tennessee. Both have towns named after the president who transformed democratic sheep men of Texas into republicans back in 1892. Or did President Cleveland promote the growth of towns or republicans any more than Levelland promoted the growth of a dense forest infested with blackberries on the high plains?

CAGNEY IS RINGER FOR 'BILLY THE KID'

—SAY OLD TIMERS

Jimmy Cagney in his role as "The Oklahoma Kid" in the Warner Bros. picture of that name, coming Friday and Saturday to the Pastime Theatre, looks exactly like the only known tintype of William Bonney, better known under his nickname of Billy the Kid.

William Bonney, like James Cagney, was born in New York City and never began to handle firearms until he came west. Like James Cagney, Bonney was good to his family but could be plenty tough on occasion. Billy the Kid began his career as a killer by shooting a blacksmith who had insulted his mother, and most of the deadly gunfights in which he participated in his earlier outlaw career were on the side of underdogs, men who were being abused by the greedy combatants in the Lincoln County, New Mexico, cattle wars. Billy the Kid, like the "Oklahoma Kid" of the Cagney picture, was famous for robbing those who had wealth and sharing portions of the proceeds with the poor families in that section of New Mexico.

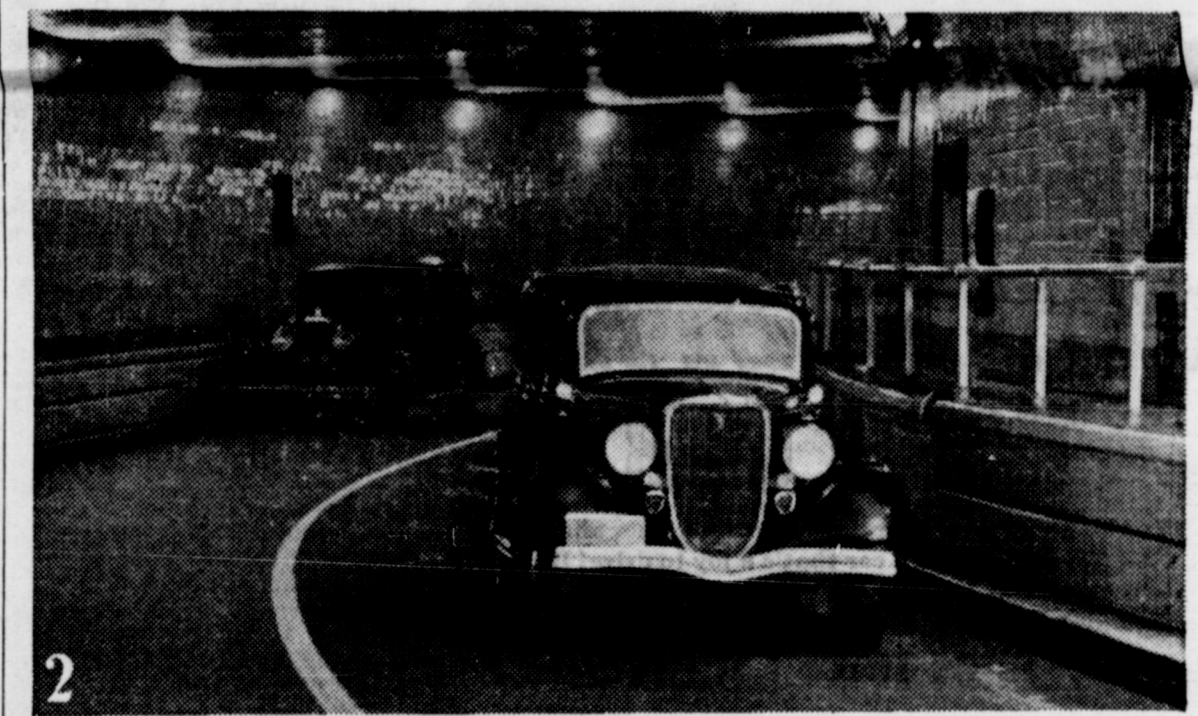

His depredations and his disregard for life finally reached the stage where every man's hand was against Billy the Kid, and he finally was shot to death. Tex Cooper, old time Oklahoma marshal; Al Jennings, a frontier bank robber who was captured by a posse, jailed for life, released on presidential pardon, and who thereupon turned reformer, who worked in "The Oklahoma Kid," remarked the striking resemblance between Cagney and the only pictorial record of William Bonney.

Miss Julia Hahn returned home Saturday. She had spent the two preceding weeks with her sister, Mrs. Andrew Watkins, and family, in Me-Lean.

Nelda Sue Burton was painfully injured Thursday when she fell from the running board of a moving car. Fortunately, the injuries were such that she sustained no permanent injury.

Pretty Bonnie Nolan drives through the famous...

...Holland Tunnel on her way to the New York World's Fair. Over 32,000 cars pass through daily. But even at this rate it would take six and one-half weeks for all the cars using Sinclair H-C Gasoline to go through. H-C is...

...so good it's used in 1,500,000 cars every day. The next time you need gasoline drop in at your nearby Sinclair dealer's and get a tankful of Sinclair H-C. You'll like the way he treats you.

MERCHANTS WILL FEATURE COTTON

NAVASOTA, Texas, May 4.—Merchants throughout the nation—Independent and chain stores alike—are giving Texas and the cotton-growing Old South a "lift" with a Cotton Week opening May 22, John D. Rogers, chairman of the Texas National Cotton Week Committee, said here today.

The "Fiber of American Prosperity" badges for employes and displays for windows, display boards and newspaper advertising will be in evidence throughout the nation in this annual spring period that is climax to year-round cotton promotional campaigns. Miniature bales and bolls also will be used in novelty advertising of the event.

Mr. Rogers said he had been notified by the Institute of Distribution, Inc., and the Limited Price Variety Stores Association that 109 chain store companies already have sent in their plans of cooperation, and food stores will feature cottonseed foodstuffs. This is twenty-five more companies than took part in last year's cotton promotion, in interest of eighteen states in which cotton is the backbone of prosperity. These stores employ about 550,000 persons, operate 15,000 stores throughout the country and have annual sales about three billion dollars. Of this amount, some $800,000,000 business is done in cotton and cotton products. Countless independent stores also are arranging to feature cotton goods during the period May 22 to 27.

Regional sub-chairmen of the Texas National Cotton Week Committee are J. S. Sharp, Paris; L. L. Mackey, Longview; Ralph Moore, Granger; Senator L. J. Sulak, La Grange; and Peter Loran, Munday.

MEMORIES

- I love the space of the wind swept plains
  - The scope of the brilliant sky
  - I love the hue of rich brown soil
  - So restful to the eye.
  - I love the feel of the strong west wind
  - The hum of its lonely song
  - I love the rush of its eastward march
  - Tumbling the weeds along.
  - I love the fields of young green wheat
  - Sprung from their winter beds,
  - I love the brown of ripened grain
  - Waving their bushy heads.
  - I love the scene of a cattle herd
  - On a hill not far away,
  - I love the mixture of red and white
  - Against the winter gray
  - I love the yelp of an old coyote
  - Talking to the moon;
  - I love the coo of a turtle dove
  - On a summer afternoon.
  - I love the antics of frisky colts
  - Sniffing a northern breeze,
  - I love their frolic across the field
  - Before an early freeze.
  - I love the lure of a silver mirage
  - At the end of an endless road,
  - I love the squeak of a wagon wheel
  - Protesting its heavy load.
  - I love the bow of a cowhand's legs
  - The red of his wind burned face,
  - I love the tilt of his big white hat
  - Worn with such ease and grace.
  - I love the thoughts of happy days
  - Among such things as these;
  - I'll love them more as older grow
  - My treasured memories.

METHODIST CIRCUIT NOTES

J. G. Walker, P. C.

A reasonably good crowd at McKnight Sunday 11:00 a. m. and a good service. Large attendance at Bray in the evening. Had a short Mother's Day program preceding the preaching service. All enjoyed it. Many expressed themselves as enjoying the preaching. One member received by certificate. We like to go to Bray because they give us a good hearing.

Mrs. Braswell reports a good service at Lelia Lake. Sunday school session was interesting. Some one has suggested that it will die in two or three Sundays. We don't believe it. We know that the people behind it have the ability to do it and we believe they are determined to do it. The Lord is not dependent on large numbers. His added blessing gives far greater prestige than large added numbers. In fact, if He is lifted up in the lives of a few workers He will draw the numbers. Watch Lelia Lake come back to life.

We are very thankful to Mrs. Braswell for her faithful service. By the help of Bro. Gordon we are arranging for Lay preaching all over the Clarendon circuit. Many of his good people have said that they will help us. If they help us, then we will soon

PNEUMONIA TREATMENTS NOW VERY MUCH MORE EFFECTIVE

But Coughs From Colds Break Down Resistance

The scientists and doctors of the world have made great strides in the diagnosis and treatment of the dreaded pneumonia. They have learned the various types and almost every city has hospital facilities that are fast reducing the death rate.

Most doctors agree that when a person's resistance is low he is much more susceptible, and that coughs following a cold certainly break down your resistance. At the least suspicion of pneumonia, call your doctor at once, and at the first sign of a cough due to a cold start taking Menthomulsion immediately.

Menthomulsion is that time-tested cough remedy, made from ingredients used by many doctors for years. Now fortified with both Vitamins "A" and "D." Menthomulsion, at only 75c, is recommended, sold and guaranteed by good druggists everywhere.—adv.

GARDEN GLANCES

"America beautiful lies in the hands of the gardeners."

There is such a profusion of flowers in bloom now, that it is difficult to determine the most attractive lawns.

The Paul Scarlet and Blaze roses are quite in evidence. Perhaps the most gorgeous rose blossoms are seen at the Ralph Grady's, Mrs. John Potts', Shaver's and Mrs. Wiedman's. There are several hedges of the Paulsen roses. The Rundell home has a rose garden in the back yard that displays some rare blooms, and also some cleverly arranged trellises for her Blaze and Dawn Climbers. While seeing these roses, notice the immense weeping willow at the back. The low rock wall at the Joe Goldston home is overrun with a beautiful rose. The most prolific bloomers and huge bushes are at the McCreary home.

There are honey suckles of various species displaying their flowers in abundance. This is undoubtedly the best season this shrub has had in years.

A lawn of exceptional beauty is that of Fred Chamberlain. The landscaping, rose trellises, rose and privet hedges, magnificent trees, and rock wall enclosure with clinging English Ivy are very entrancing to all who view them.

Make your weekly pilgrimage and you will return in a happier mood from viewing these beautiful spots.

be able to help them.

Our Revival at Ashtola will begin First Sunday in August. Bro. Palmer will be with us there to do the preaching. Pastor will direct song services. Revival at Goldston will begin 3rd Sunday in August. A helper has not been secured yet.

The Third Quarterly Conference will be held at Goldston next Sunday (May 21). Preaching at 11:00 am. Lunch on the ground. Conference in the afternoon. Let's make it a spiritual feast.

We are having our reunion June the first day. We are looking for all our children. We will have our lunch in dining room of Methodist church of Clarendon. In the afternoon we will have some talks. We hope that all or many of our people will be with us.

PIG ONCE ALMOST DISRUPTED RELATIONS BETWEEN FRANCE AND TEXAS REPUBLIC

A pig once almost caused a break in the friendly relations between France and the Republic of Texas. Saligny complained to the Austin constabulary about Bullock's action and the landlord was arrested and bound over to the next term of court.

Owner of the pig was Mr. Bullock, an Austin landlord. The pig ill-advisedly made his way into the stable of M. De Saligny, the French minister, and, in the language of the historian, "proceeded to appropriate a portion of the corn of the minister's horses."

A servant of M. DeSaligny liquidated the pig and Mr. Bullock horse-whipped the minister's servant. Things, by this time, were in a frightful mess.

But Saligny was not satisfied. He took a conciliatory letter from Pres. Houston to placate the testy Frenchman and persuade him again to shoulder his official responsibilities.

THE SAFE DIET FOR GOOD HEALTH AND VITALITY

By RUTH J. COOPER, Consulting Home Economist

Good health depends upon proper nutrition. Proper nutrition depends first, upon the availability of the food supply. This takes us right back to the Breeder-Feeder Movement, or balanced farming program, which is the basis for Southwestern economic independence. Secondly, proper nutrition depends upon the proper use of these food products. Whether you are a producer or consumer, both phases of the problem are of vital importance. Good health and vitality are the direct results of proper nutrition.

But, what is proper nutrition? Briefly the needs of the body are: (1) Calories for heat and energy, (2) Protein to build and repair the body tissue, (3) Minerals to regulate body processes, to build bone, blood, etc., (4) Vitamins to promote growth and protect health, and (5) Bulk to aid in elimination of body waste. Proper nutrition means the selection of a diet which supplies all of the daily needs of the body with a small reserve supply.

The Texas Extension Service working with other scientific specialists, set up a Texas Food Standard as a guide to proper nutrition for rural people. This standard has been broadened for use of urban families and is being suggested as the "Safe Diet" by nutritionists, dietitians, home economists and teaching groups throughout the Southwest. The following standard is a safe

Texas Highway Department

Of the 353 persons killed in motor vehicle accidents in Texas during the first three months of this year, 95 were pedestrians, Harry S. Phillips, Traffic and Safety Engineer of the State Highway Department, said today, pointing out that the pedestrian has an equal responsibility with the driver in avoiding accidents.

"74 of the total 95 pedestrians were more than 25 years of age, while only 13 were under 18, showing a contradiction to the general belief that children in walking and playing on the streets are responsible for a large number of accidents," Mr. Phillips said.

"91% of those walking along traffic lanes who were killed were on the wrong side, that is, walking with traffic. 38% were crossing not at intersections, with only 12% crossing properly.

"86% of the pedestrians killed were male, and 79% were white. 38 were occupied as laborers and clerks, while only 2 were professional men. Only 5 were students and 9 were classed as infants or under 5 years of age.

UNIVERSITY HEAD EXPLAINS MAIN COLLEGE PROBLEM

AUSTIN.—The past 100 years have been virtual realization of the traditional ideal of democracy's "universal education," Dr. Homer P. Rainey, University of Texas president-elect, pointed out in an address at Durham, N. C., on the occasion of the centenary celebration of Duke University. As late as 1890 not more than 6 per cent of all youth of high school age was enrolled in school. Today more than 65 per cent is actually enrolled.

This very development has posed its own social problems. "Aren't too many youth going to high school and college?" is frequently asked.

The stairstep formula of elementary school-high school-college-profession is breaking down at the top, because the preferred professions "do not offer job opportunities to more than a small fraction of those who desire to enter them."

"If we should accept the criterion of the number of employment opportunities that require college training and limit our enrollments in colleges to this number, we should thereby have to reduce our college enrollments to about one-half or possibly one-third their present size. "The democratic alternative is to admit all youth into high school and college who have ability and character and to recognize that such training may have values for our democracy wholly apart from its contribution to the enhancement of one's earning power and economic status."

"In the last 100 years we have been engaged in trying to provide education for the masses of our people. Our problem for the next century is to try to find out what kind of education we should give them."

The Infant of Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Harter is said to be afflicted with diphtheria.
