Quiveria Girl Scout Council Day Camp

Plans are underway for Quiveria Girl Scout Council's Day Camp for girls in Clarendon and Memphis, according to Mrs. Connie Havens of Clarendon, volunteer Day Camp director.

Mrs. Havens has announced the registration deadline of May 18 has been extended until June 5. Registration is made through the Council office in Pampa by mail (P.O. Box 459) or in person, (third floor of City Hall). Daisy Dollars earned by Girl Scouts during the cookie sale may be used toward Day Camp fees, as well as some trading stamp books as listed in the Camp Book, distributed to Girl Scouts by troop leaders in April. Registration cards are in the Camp Book. Those who did not receive a Camp Book should contact their troop leader or Mrs. Havens, 874-2459.

Non-Girl Scouts may attend the camp. The fee is $8.00 per week for Girl Scouts and $10.00 per week for non-Girl Scouts.

Girl Scout Day Camp will be held June 15 through June 19 at Camp Cibola, north of Clarendon. Girls will be transported from the Old College Building, meeting outside, east of the Band Room. They will depart at 8:30 a.m. and return to the same location at 2:30 p.m. each day.

Girl Scout Day Camp is where girls go to a campsite in a rural setting each day for five days, departing in the morning and returning in the afternoon. A cookout is held one day during each Day Camp session. The girls bring a sack lunch the other four days.

Day Camp gives the girls a full day in the out-of-doors to learn about the natural world and to enjoy fun and adventure in the sunshine. Girls who attend all five days will receive a Day Camp patch.

The Day Camp program includes using natural materials to fashion an outdoor "home", hiking through nearby meadows or to a stream or river, studying animal and insect habits and habitats, learning about the interdependence of all living things, smelling and identifying a flower or leaf, learning to make a tripod or table from sticks, creating an art object from natural materials, singing, and playing games. Patriotism is promoted through daily flag ceremonies and cooking skills are learned and practiced on cookout day.

Test Site by DEO Scientific Survey

Later this year a test site will be drilled in Donley by the US Department of Energy but it WILL NOT be a test site for nuclear waste. The drilling will be part of a study over an area of hundreds of square miles to determine the factors in the dissolving of salt in the deep portions of these areas.

As a matter of fact this area is not a likely or desirable site due to the salt which is dissolving here and in some cases doing extensive damage to once productive land.

To make a study of the dissolution of salt it is necessary to work where the salt is hence our area is a prime site for scientific study of this problem.

Wanted for the disposition of nuclear waste is a site very deep, 1,000 feet and over, which will remain dry, has no geological stress, no erosion and where there will be no likelihood of drilling for economic resources. A dry salt dome of 250 feet in depth would be desirable.

A drilled into test site would never be used because of the already disturbed site. In addition our area is subject to erosion and certainly the prospect of drilling for oil and gas has become a reality for much of the immediate area.

Test holes will be drilled (and will be many miles apart) on the approximate perimeter, or edge of the area to be studied. From these sites geologic, hydrologic, geomorphic and remote-sensing investigations of specific salt domes as well as regional information will be made available.

Information from the seismicographic studies of the oil companies and that of the scientific studies of the DEO are being exchanged to the benefit of both in the explorations.

Dr. E.G. Wermund, Associate Director of the Bureau of Economic Geology was in Clarendon Wednesday of last week to discuss the drilling of the test site. He is aware of the concern of persons in the area who have been mistakenly thinking that the drilling site is a test for waste materials and is making information available to the public to inform them of the exact nature of the test.

Before the drilling begins later this summer, there will be an announcement made to the public by way of a press release.

Because of gas, oil, small quantities of copper and uranium and perhaps other elements or metals and minerals we are much more valuable for potential development of these resources than for a nuclear waste site.

Dr. Wermund, can be made available to persons who feel that they need more assurance than has been made in this article. For information in this regard you may contact Donley County Judge, W. R. Christal at 874-3625.

Little League Swinging

The Clarendon Little League Baseball is now in full swing. Most week nights there will be some team playing both at the local field and out of town. Please support our kids with your presence.

Also—Little League is in a financial crunch. In other words, we need money bad. If you haven't given as of yet please do so now! Give your donation to Steve Smith or Tom Harguess, in person or mail it to P.O. Box 241 with a note attached—"For Little League". Please Clarendon Community-the Little League belongs to us-lets support it. The recent special drive did not net us enough finances to meet expenses.

When you donate, if you desire a bumper sticker saying "I support Little League" please let us know. Thank you for your support.

Staff at Medical Center Nursing Home Commended

Complementary remarks about the "excellent condition" and "obvious high level and expert care" of a former patient of Medical Center was made known to the CLARENDON PRESS and is being passed on to the readers of this paper.

Upon the transfer of a patient from Medical Center Nursing Home to the Memphis, Tenn. Veterans Administration facility the condition of the patient was described as "in better shape than the V.A. doctor had ever seen him." The doctor further explained to the family that after examination the patient's condition was found to be excellent and that he had made some weight gain.

This was the first time this patient had made the transfer from Medical Center in Clarendon directly to the V.A. Hospital in Memphis. In view of the condition of the patient the doctor stated that his opinion of nursing homes has done an about face. Care, he said, had been A-one for the patient's condition to be so good.

Mr. and Mrs. M.L. Mays have just returned from transferring his brother, Max Mays, to the Tennessee VA Hospital where he goes occasionally.

Such a complimentary report of Clarendon Medical Center Nursing Home justifies reporting it. Mays sent his regards to all the staff who are so dedicated in their care of him, and to all his friends. He has been a patient for many years after injuries suffered 25 years ago.

Congratulations to Medical Center and staff for excellence of performance.

Registration

State Comptroller Bob
 Bullock Monday said Texas counties were paid $627,542 in state funds under a law designed to encourage voter registration and accurate voting lists.

He said 219 counties shared in the funds which represent reimbursement for county voter registration efforts.

The Texas Election Code permits the Comptroller to pay counties 40 cents for each new registered voter and 40 cents for each cancellation made to update lists.

Bullock said the payments were made to help reimburse registration activities from February 1, 1980 through January 31, 1981.

Donley County was paid
 $150.00.

West Texas Utilities Company, a subsidiary of the Dallas-based Central and South West Corporation, has signed an agreement with Exxon Coal, USA, to meet future fuel needs.

The contract calls for the delivery, beginning in 1986 and continuing over a 20 year period, of 48 million tons of Wyoming coal to the Oklahoma Power Plant site in north Central Texas. The Oklahoma project is being managed by West Texas Utilities which will own 350 megawatts of the unit's total capacity of 640 megawatts. Two other Central and South West System Subsidiaries, Central Power and Light Company, Corpus Christi, with 115 megawatts, and Public Service Company of Oklahoma, Tulsa, with 175 megawatts, are participants.

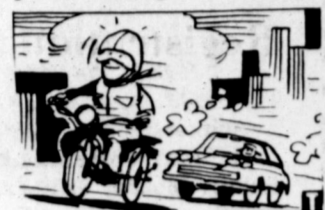

The fuel contract between West Texas Utilities and Exxon Coal is extendable for a 15 year period following completion of the initial 20 year delivery schedule.

Exxon will ship the coal from its Rawhide Mine near Gillette in Campbell County, Wyoming.

On May 8, 1981, West Texas Utilities, acting on behalf of its partners, filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of

NEWS OF SAFETY

Do motorcycle helmet really restrict a rider's vision? Some people claim so but it's not true. In fact, most helmets provide greater peripheral (side) vision (120 degrees) than people are capable of using.

Even more important to remember, according to the Estimated cost of construction of the 1900 acre site is $675 million. The location is in Wilbarger County, South-east of Vernon, Texas and near the community of Oklahoma.

Motorcycle Safety Foundation, is that more than three-quarters of the potential accidents and trouble spots confronting a motorcyclist come from the front. If you picture a clock, most hazards are between ten and two o'clock on the dial, not from the back or side. Most hazards are clearly within a helmeted rider's field of vision.

To ride safely a motorcyclist must be ever on the alert. A rider must constantly be searching the road ahead and around him for possible problems. A good helmet can only help after an accident occurs. Good riding habits can prevent the accident from happening at all.

Only one oyster egg in four million will reach maturity.

Women's Aglow have special speakers

Two women will be speakers for the June meeting of Women's Aglow with creditable references from their experience.

Mrs. Clinton Norman has been a teacher in Wellington High School since 1961 and has used her summers for travel and missionary activities.

In the summer of 1978, she went to Sussex, England, accompanied by another missionary, Mrs. Lewis Portwood. In 1979 she helped with Bible teaching seminars in Johannesburg and Durban, South Africa.

Now she is affiliated with Living Word Truth Center in Wellington, as a Bible teacher and director of drama.

Mrs. Lewis Portwood, a housewife and missionary has travelled throughout many states as well as in Europe sharing her testimony of the transforming power of Jesus Christ in her life.

She also is affiliated with Living Word Truth Center in Wellington where the rightly divided Word is taught.

The motto for this Bible school is, "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

Much of their travel and missionary activities have been done together and the two women have a ministry of intercession.

Sun Facts

Too much sun can do more than give you a suntan. Years of overexposure may be harmful to your skin.

Working or playing long hours in the sun may cause premature aging, wrinkling, leathery texture and precancerous skin conditions. This is especially true of blondes, redheads, fair-skinned people and sunbelt dwellers.

Solar keratoses, a condition which in some cases may become malignant, may result from too much exposure over a long period of time. Its symptoms include irregular, red, usually painless patches, usually on the hands and face. People who have such symptoms should see their doctors. If not treated in time, solar keratoses may lead to skin cancer.

Daze of our lives

No wonder men don't understand women. I'm a woman and I don't understand women. I do understand that a smart man had better outguess us to keep us happy.

A few days before Christmas I saw a Norman Rockwell figurine. Not an ordinary thing, you understand, a masterpiece. A tiny grandmother in a rocking chair holding her sleeping grandchild who clutched a teddy bear. I wanted it. Bad. Enough to wheedle for it. I knew how.

My Christmas present from Hubby was "already under the tree, but..." You know I rarely ever see anything I really want these days. "I said to Hubby the day I spotted this little jewel, "but in the window of the Bridal Bit gift shop there is a..." and I described it right down to grandma's shoe toe. "Its too expensive," I took the steak I'd been saving for a special occasion from the broiler and set it before him, "so don't think of buying it."

There. The seed was sown. I just hoped nobody bought it before the store opened the next morning. (If I like something I figure the whole town will storm the store for that one item as they might for a Mercedes on sale for $1,98.)

I'm devious. The next afternoon when I looked in the store window it was gone. How sweet! He bought it in spite of my objections over the price.

All Christmas eve day I felt especially tender towards him. Not every wife has a husband who will break his neck and bust his wallet to keep her happy. I practiced the expression on my face when he gave it to me. Surprise? Yes. That was the one. No man wants to think his wife has his number.

He would bring it from its hiding place after all the other gifts were opened. I'd be casual and say something unsuspecting like, "Oh, you've gotten me perfume." He'd never guess I knew. Bless his heart.

Everyone opened their gifts and I made the proper noises over mine. We cleared up the Paper mess. No Norman Rockwell. Why wasn't he bringing it out? Probably waiting until we were settled. Did anyone want more coffee and cake?

After everyone had gone and we were in bed I knew the wolf had eaten grandma. I sure didn't get her. Disappointment gave way to anger. One lousy thing, practically all I'd asked for in a year and no results. After all the years I'd given that man... I might have known he wouldn't buy something that frivolous. If you can't eat it, wear it, drive it, or shoot it, forget it.

I scooped to my side of the bed, back turned. What's the matter?" he yawned.

"Nothing."

"Things I got you fit?"

"I don't know." (Of course I did, I picked them out.)

"I guess you're just worn out with all the Christmas doings," he said; turned over and went to sleep."

If I ever saw another figurine like that I'd buy it myself. That would show him. Of course I wouldn't. They were rare.

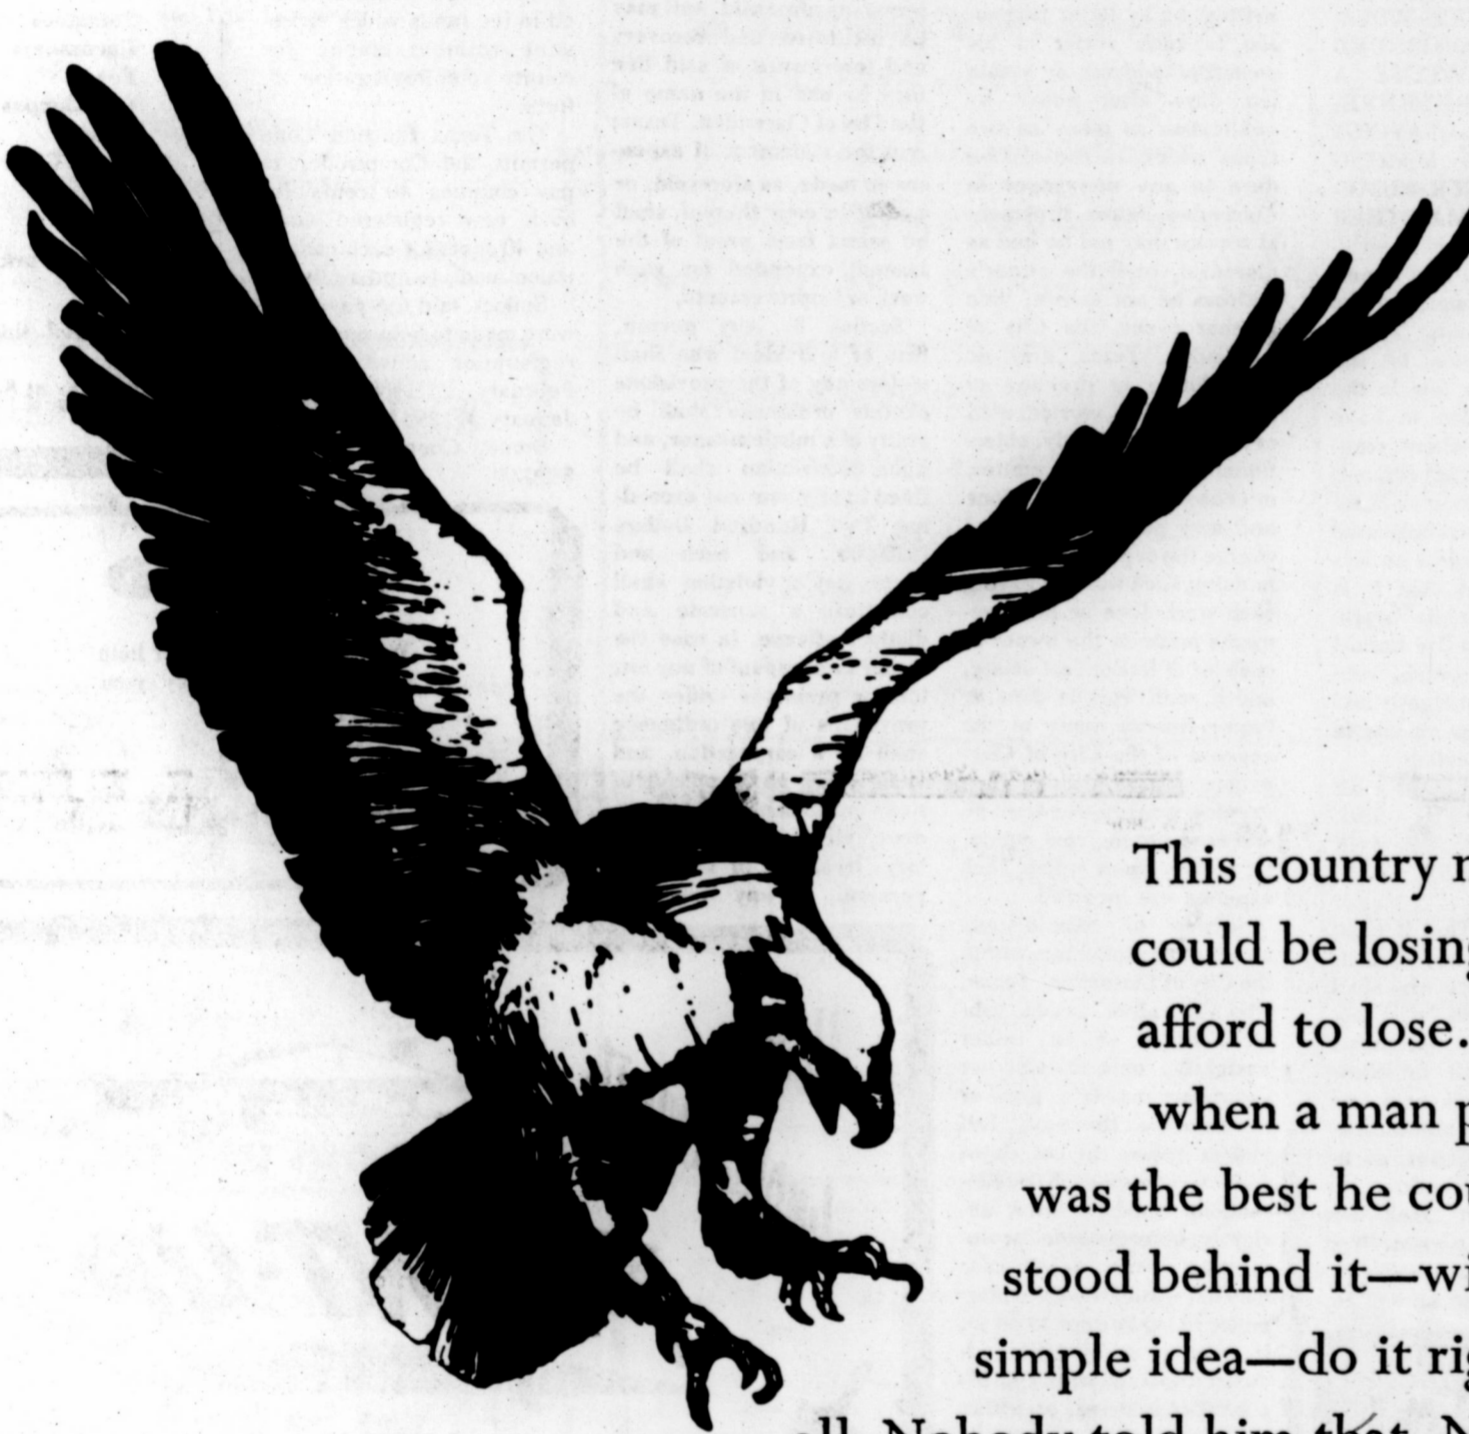

Time heals. January passed and I forgot about it. I even came to a point where I could laugh about being too sure of him. I blessed his heart over some things he DID do.

Yesterday was my birthday. My performance was typical when he gave me a gift. "This time I INTENDED to surprise you," he said. And when I opened it to find my little grandmother all I could do was cry and hug him and say, "Oh, honey, you SHOULDN'T HAVE!"

I don't know why we're like this.

Did you know there really was a Granny Smith, for whom the large, green-skinned apples with the delicious tang and juicy crunch were named? She was Maria Ann Sherwood Smith, who emigrated from England to Australia with her husband in 1838. She grew the first apple tree which bore the fruit which made her name famous among apple lovers the world over.

Unlike many apples, Cape Granny Smiths don't have to be eaten the day you bring them home from the store.

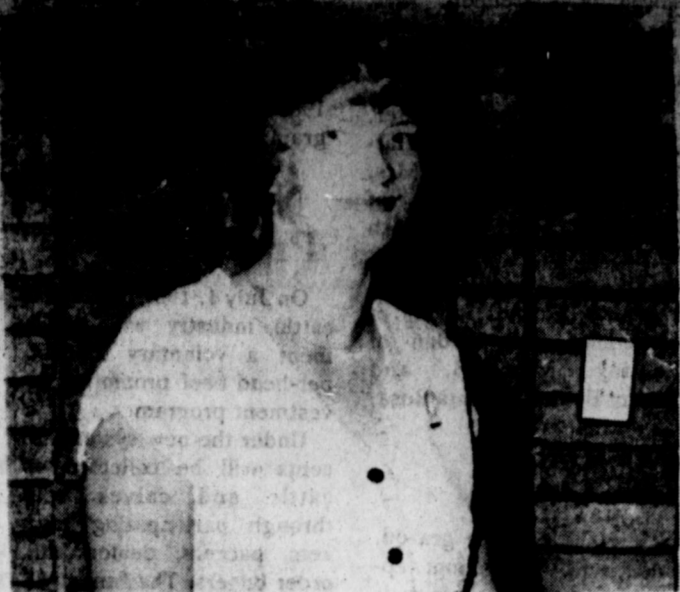

This country may be in danger. We could be losing something we can't afford to lose. Once, in this country when a man produced a product it was the best he could possibly make. He stood behind it—with pride. He lived a simple idea—do it right, or don't do it at all. Nobody told him that. No government agency dictated it. And it built a standard of living for the world to aim at... Now that idea is threatened by the slipshod, the second rate. To some it means quick riches—to some it means quick death of the standards we have built. Some are fighting this threat. Whirlpool Corporation believes in one simple idea: To continue to design, build and service home appliances the right way... with pride... so you can live with them comfortably for years—or they will not build them at all. If we can't keep this simple idea alive—then indeed we are the endangered species.

Upon their receiving full membership into the sorority, all assembled out on the patio for a salad supper.

Each member brought a salad or vegetable dish. The chilly evening brought the sated members back inside for the meeting. Many recipes from the new Donley County Cookbook had been tried and several requests were made for more cookbooks.

The opening ritual was led by President Genella Eads. Roll was called with the following members present: Peggy Anderson, Maurine Butts, Carol Bryant, Katie Dvorak, Genella Eads, Donna Edwards, Janie Finch, Gloria Gage, Priscilla Greene, Ann Harper, Frankie Henson, Susan Henson, Becky Hill, Donna Mann, Charlene Mays, Pat McCombs, Glenda McCullough, Sandra Mooring, Geneva Summers, Betty Veach and Beth Walker. JAMES ARBUCKLE

Church of Christ

James Arbuckle, will be the youth minister for the Clarendon Church of Christ this summer. He is a senior at Abilene Christian University in Abilene, Texas. He is a Bible major who plans to continue to work with young people upon graduation. He has worked with a youth group in Odessa, and various campus groups in Abilene. When asked about his plans for the young people, he had this to say, "A lot of kids have never been challenged to think about their spiritual life, and I hope to challenge them in this area. The Bible says that the idle mind is the devil's workshop and that's a real problem. I hope to be able to keep young people busy enough to keep their minds from wandering. We have a lot of activities planned for this summer:

1. Monday nite Bible studies—we take a chapter in the Bible at a time and discuss it and relate it to our everyday lives.
2. Tuesday nite Summer Youth Series—these are for young people in the Amarillo

National Beef Promotion

On July 1, 1981, the Texas cattle industry will implement a voluntary 25-cent-per-head beef promotion investment program.

Under the new system, 25 cents will be collected on cattle and calves sold through participating markets, packers, dealers and order buyers. The funds will be remitted entirely to the Beef Industry Council of the Meat Board for use in national programs of research, education and promotion.

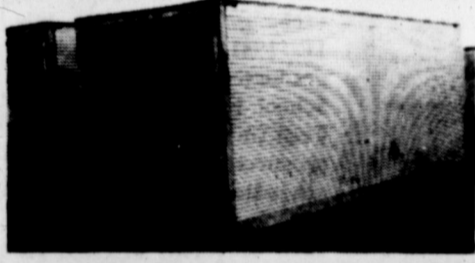

Endorsed recently by five Texas organizations, the investment plan is designed to generate additional funding needed for aggressive beef market development.

The organizations initiating the 25-cent investment are the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Assn., Texas Cattle Feeders Assn., Texas Farm Bureau, the Independent Cattlemen's Assn. and the Livestock Marketing Assn. of Texas.

At a meeting May 6 in Irving, Tex., these groups agreed to put the investment program in motion and also to form a beef promotion coordinating committee which will oversee the implementation of the entire effort.

TALES

By KATIE DVORAK

Judging from the number of campers and tents spotting the lake edge, there was a pretty good turnout for the Memorial Day Weekend. It was certainly fair weather for it and you can bet the skiers and boaters had a good time.

Let's talk about good quality gear. There are some pretty good reels available and I'd like to briefly discuss a couple of them. I'm certainly not an expert, but you might like to hear some of the new types available.

Shimano Bantam 1000 is a new reel with a 3 year guarantee. It has a one piece frame with a 4.8:1 high speed retrieve, and it only weighs 6.8 oz. Shimano has a new reel out for either left or right handed retrieve, the "Fast Cast" Spinning Reel. It has a silent anti-reverse, stainless steel ball bearings, skirted spool, 5:1 high speed retrieve and automatic fingertip bail release feature.

Garcia also has a "Fast Cast" Ambassadors model. It has a 4.7:1 gear ratio, multi-disc star drag, palming side plate and fast cast thumb-bar that allows one-handed casting control. The narrow spool weighs 8.0 oz with a 100 yard/12 lb mono line cap. The standard spool weighs 9.8 oz with 190 yds/14 lb mono line cap.

Zebco had a nifty little outfit for Dad's Little Buddy, the Zebco Snoopy Kit is a rod and reel combo with line and practice plug. It includes a Zebco Kids' Club membership with wallet card and iron on patch. It's a light, short little pole, just the ticket for that beginning fisherman.

Boron high velocity rods are a tungsten filament developed in the aerospace industry and is the strongest metal known to man. Boron weighs less than aluminum, yet is stronger than stainless steel. It is 25% stronger than graphite or glass, it handles heavier, more strenuous loads. Because it is so thin, .004", you have greater sensitivity and can set the hook quicker and more proficiently. Vibrations actually travel up to 125% faster than they travel in comparable fiberglass rods! Although Boron cost alot more, it might be worth it to the dedicated fisherman to investigate this new material.

Triene XT, Low Vis Green 660 Yd jumbo spools is something a little new. Low visibility and unmatched strength team up for superb performance in this premium line from Berkley Research. Designed to be fished under rugged conditions that no ordinary line can handle. Excellent castability, control, durability and abrasion resistance. This sounds like the line I need when I tangle with those logs and trees in the lake.

Get your gear and move your rear! It's Fishin' time!

A statistical profile of visitors to Texas who arrived by automobile indicates Dallas, San Antonio, Houston, El Paso, and Fort Worth were the five most visited cities in 1980. Oklahoma, California, and Illinois were the top three states from which U.S. visitors originated.

Individual spending in 1980 averaged $25.28 per day, a 28 percent increase over 1979. Visitors spent the largest portion of each travel dollar, 26.9c, on auto expenses, then food, at 23.7c; lodging, 22.4c; miscellaneous expenditures, 19.4c, and entertainment, 7.6c.

All data concerning tourists from out of state will be contained in the "1980 Report on the Texas Visitor Industry" which is scheduled for release in May 1981.

RPPCA Plans Open House

Rolling Plains Production Credit Association has announced completion of its new office building in Childress and open house to be held May 31, 1981, from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. The building is located immediately north of Gibson's Discount Center on the east side of Highway 83, north of its intersection with Highway 287.

The building includes, 3,000 square feet of office space and features Arizona schist stone and brick veneer exterior. The interior consists of a fireproof vault, a general work area, a large conference room, and private offices for loan officers. A very spacious customer parking area is provided. Hallmark Builders, Inc. of Amarillo were general contractors.

Rolling Plains' central office is located in Stamford, Texas. In addition to its Childress office, Rolling Plains PCA also maintains field offices in Matador, Munday and Spur.

Production Credit Associations were established in 1933 and became the retail outlets for credit to farmers and ranchers from the Federal Intermediate Credit Banks, who obtain funds from private investors. No Government money has ever been loaned by PCAs. They are controlled by boards of directors elected by farmer and rancher stockholders. Rolling Plains PCA loans in excess of One Hundred Million Dollars annually in the following counties: Childress, Collingsworth, Cottle, Dickens, Donley, Foard, Hall, Hardman, Haskell, Jones, Kent, King, Knox, Motley, Shackelford, Stonewall, and part of Briscoe County.

Tourists Money

Stays in Texas

Some 19.3 million U.S. and foreign tourists who visited Texas in 1980 spent $4.5 billion in the state.

Preliminary figures on the 1980 Texas visitor industry, released by the Travel and Information Division of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, reflect that outofstater's spending in Texas rose 0.5 percent, $22 million, above the corresponding 1979 statistics.

Although the number of visitors who arrived by automobile dropped 26.3 percent, from 18.7 million in 1979 to 13.8 million in 1980, those traveling to Texas on commercial carriers increased 2.8 percent, from 5.3 million to more than 5.4 million.

The 1980 statistics do not include data on tourists from Mexico or on visitors who arrived by air from other foreign countries. Pertinent information on those travelers in 1980 is not yet available.

The clock is ticking away. The Legislative Session will end June 2 little more than 30 days. Old timers in the legislature say this has been a strange session. Very few heated floor fights. Bills passing without being contested. Two years ago the same bill would have required two hours of debate. This week Initiative and Referendum went down the tube. It got only 88 votes on the floor 100 are required for a Constitutional Amendment. H.B. 41 repealing the blue law was defeated. It will not surface for two more years. Polls show up to 80% and higher of the public wanted it rescinded. Two strong Lobby groups worked hard at defeating it.

People all over the state are upset at Judge William Wayne Justice the Federal Judge who is over in the field of legislating with his arbitrary court decisions. On Friday, I had a visit with Governor Clements on the floor of the House. I told Governor Clements I would put up a bill to place a halfway house for criminals next door to the residence of William Wayne Justice if he would agree to pardon some of our hardened, threetime offenders and place them in the halfway house. He was amused by the offer but did not agree to anything.

We also wrote Mark White and urged him to come to the legislature and ask for whatever he needs in money to appeal these highhanded decisions that mandate billions must be spent.

A bill should soon reach the floor for debate that would raise tuition for students in college. Texas has the lowest tuition in the nation. The proposal has been to double the present cost which will still be well below the national average after being doubled.

FIELD ON

By Katie Dvorak

If you are like me and occasionally want to put together a crispy salad ahead of time, but don't like the wilted effect of the lettuce after, then here is some good news, I've found a "tip" that works!

Make-ahead salads are more than just convenient. They also are more delicious. Both the salad bowl and salad are perfectly chilled. The greens become very crisp, the whole salad exudes freshness and flavor.

Clean the salad vegetables and cut the larger leaves in bite size pieces. In a non-porous bowl (never a wooden one) pour in one or two tablespoons per serving salad dressing. Next, drop the sturdier greens on top of the dressing, then add the smaller, more delicate leaves. Last, arrange other vegetables, garnishes or fruit on top of the greens. Cover the bowl tightly with clear plastic and refrigerate. As long as the greens are not mixed with dressing, they won't wilt.

Even though you make a meal out of a good, crisp salad, you are missing protein. Here are a few salad dressings that offer more protein than others—ranging from 11 grams to 20 grams per serving. One third of the recommended daily protein allowance is 19 grams for men and 14 grams for women. To add even more protein to a salad without adding meat, add sprouts or whole wheat croutons or cheese, or serve the salad with a glass of milk.

SUPER CAESAR DRESSING
2 eggs, boiled one minute
1/2 C vegetable oil
1/2 C lemon juice
1 clove garlic, crushed
1/4 C grated Parmesan cheese
1 C whole wheat croutons

Be careful not-to-overcook the eggs. Combine them with the oil, lemon juice and garlic. Cover and chill. Just before serving, stir in the cheese and croutons. Serve this dressing over salads featuring fresh leafy greens. Or, try it over a mixed-bean salad.

HOMEMADE CROUTONS
Cut a slice of whole wheat bread into 1/2 inch cubes. Toss them with a little melted oleo and garlic, then saute or bake them until they are golden brown.

GREEN GODDESS DRESSING
Traditionally, Green Goddess dressing is made with sour cream—which contains less than half the protein and almost four times the calories of low fat yogurt and cottage cheese.

1/4 C cottage cheese
3 TBS vinegar
1 tsp dried tarragon
1 clove garlic, chopped
1/4 C parsley
1/4 C scallions
1 C yogurt

In a blender, mix all ingredients except yogurt until smooth. Fold in yogurt. Serve on a green salad with tomatoes and cucumbers.

RICH ORANGE DRESSING
6 oz cream cheese
1/4 C yogurt
1/2 C cottage cheese
1/2 C orange juice
1 tsp grated orange rind
1 tsp honey

Warm the cream cheese to room temperature, mash with a fork and blend it with the remaining ingredients. If you like it sweet, add the honey, if not, omit the honey. Chill and serve with fruit salads or on coleslaw.

CREAMY YOGURT DRESSING
1/4 C cottage cheese
2 tsp lemon juice
1/4 tsp mustard
1/4 tsp cayenne or Tabasco
1/4 C yogurt

Blend all ingredients except yogurt in blender. Fold in the yogurt. Chill. Serve on coleslaw, potato salad or vegetable salad.

COTTAGE CHEESE AND ROQUEFORT DRESSING
1 C cottage cheese
1 tsp mustard
1 tsp chopped scallions
2 oz. crumbled Roquefort cheese

In the blender, whip the cottage cheese with the mustard. If the cottage cheese you are using is somewhat dry or stiff, add a little milk to make the blending easier. Add the remaining ingredients and chill. Serve with a green salad or over sliced

MOTION SICKNESS

With the summer season comes vacation and with vacation comes travel. For some individuals, this will bring motion sickness... a problem produced by the movement of automobiles, airplanes, boats, and other vehicles. The symptoms of motion sickness are familiar to those who have been afflicted: nausea, vomiting, sweating, rapid breathing, and pallor.

Reducing body movement and fixing the eyes on a distant object can help prevent motion sickness. A child placed in the front seat of an automobile at window level, for example, is less likely to have problems than if placed in the back seat below window level.

Once symptoms begin, motion sickness is difficult to relieve. It may be best to prevent this problem through use of medicines. The preparations available without prescription are generally effective and produce few side effects (primarily drowsiness). Although most of the antihistamine-type medicines seem to be of equal effectiveness, there are product-to-product differences. Cyclizine and dimenhydrinate must be taken every 4 to 6 hours due to a short duration of action. Meclizine, on the other hand, may provide 12 to 24 hours of preventative action following a single dose of medicine.

CAPITOL UPDATE

John Tower
U.S. SENATOR for TEXAS
142 RUSSELL OFFICE BUILDING
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

The public debate over federal budget reductions in social services has generated so many misconceptions, I think it is time to put things in perspective. The Administration's social service cuts will not cause the truly needy to suffer, nor are those programs the primary targets of the budget scalpel.

In fact, the Department of Health and Human Services budget was reduced only by a total of 3.5 percent from the Carter proposal. Other federal departments, excluding defense, underwent budget cuts totaling 13.4 percent. The Administration's revised fiscal year 1982 budget includes $21.5 billion more for Health and Human Services programs than the fiscal year 1981 budget. That means more than half — 54 percent — of the total increase in federal outlays for fiscal year 1982 will go to Health and Human Services.

Much of the budget cutting that was done on these programs resulted from consolidating specific grant programs into block grants. In addition to the economic efficiencies that can be derived from eliminating significant amounts of administrative overhead, this change has other benefits. It improves the effectiveness of services by assigning responsibility to the states, which are closer to the problems to be addressed. It provides the states with resource control and flexibility, and allows the states to meet the particular needs and priorities of their own citizens.

Thus, 15 health service grant programs have been consolidated into a health service block grant program. Another 10 preventive health service programs have been consolidated into a block grant system. Emergency assistance under the Social Security Act has been combined with low-income energy assistance to provide a block grant program covering emergencies ranging from home energy costs to emergency food and shelter. And, finally, 12 social service programs ranging from foster care to day care have been consolidated into yet another block grant program.

Our nation's investment in social welfare at all levels has more than doubled in the past 10 years. In 1970, federal spending for social welfare programs totaled $213.3 billion, with $77.3 billion of that the federal share, and the rest paid for by state and local governments and the private sector. By 1978, that total had grown to $560.5 billion, with the federal government's share $240.3 billion.

"Safety net" programs took 25 percent of the federal budget in 1962, 37 percent in 1981 and are projected to take 41 percent in 1984. The portion of the budget devoted to programs now under the Department of Health and Human Services grew from 24.8 percent in 1970 to 36.1 percent in 1982.

Every one percent increase in the inflation rate makes the cost of Medicare, Social Security and Supplemental Security go up by $1.95 billion. That means that we must bring inflation under control if we wish to preserve our ability to meet the needs of our elderly and disadvantaged citizens. Further, the only way to bring inflation under control is to bring the federal budget into manageable proportions.

Therefore, the Administration's budget revisions are essential to the poor, and should be viewed in that light.

Divorce was possible in early China. However, a man could not divorce his wife if: she had no family to return to, she had shared his three year mourning period for his parents, or she had married him when he was poor and he had since become rich.

Farm Energy Savings

Everyone is thinking about ways to reduce energy used for crop production. Ron Allen, USDA Agricultural Engineer at the Research Laboratory at Bushland has not only been thinking about it, he has been doing something about it. His research shows that shifting to minimum tillage is the best way farmers can reduce their fuel bill. He says going back to the good old days is not one of the ways to save energy.

Allen and fellow scientist, Dale Hollingsworth have measured diesel fuel required to do various tillage and farming operations. It takes 3 gallons of diesel fuel to moldboard plow one acre. Most farmers know that it takes a lot of energy to run a moldboard plow so they have changed to chiseling for deep working of the soil. Their studies showed that chiseling took only 0.8 to 1.8 gallons of diesel fuel per acre depending on the number of chisels and depth of operation. Chiseling 6 to 8 inches deep on 20inch centers required 1.3 gallons of fuel per acre. Chiseling on 40inch centers only used 0.8 of a gallon of diesel fuel per acre. Running tandem disks required one gallon of diesel fuel per acre.

Offset disking took 1.25 gallons per acre. A lister bodder and a sweep rod woecker each took about 0.9 gallon per acre. Pulling a sweep plow 3 or 5 inches deep on a dryland required either 0.6 or 0.9 gallons per acre.

Other research by the two scientists shows that the number of times over a field is the major factor determining the amount of fuel required to produce a crop. Allen says intensive tillage under irrigated cropping uses from 8 to 12 gallons of diesel per acre a year. Cutting back on the number of trips with a limited tillage produce a crop can be cut to 2 to 3 gallons per acre", Allen said. Conventional dryland farming with sweep plows takes from 3 to 4 gallons of diesel fuel per acre.

The researchers found the tractor size did not affect the amount of energy used for a tillage operation. Having a 200 horse power tractor reduced labor cost compared to 100 horse power tractor but did not affect the amount of fuel used per acre to do a particular tillage job.

Shifting to limited or no-tillage can reduce the cost of production for growers, but will not have a big effect on energy use in the United States. Allen says, "Producing and consuming food requires 15 percent of the total energy used in the United States". Of the 15 percent, farmers use 3 percent to produce food and deliver raw products to processors. Processing, transportation, and selling food takes about 8 percent of the energy used in the U.S.A. Housewives use twice as much energy shopping for and preparing food as farmers do growing it.

Going back to the good old days and producing food like granddads is not a practical alternative to the energy problem. To feed the 1980 population in the United States with 1939 technology would require four times the present farm work force of 4 million people, according to Allen. Instead of the 4.5 million tractors on farms today, there would be only 1.5 million. It would take 27 million horses and mules to supplement the 1.5 million tractors. Eight million acres would be required to feed these animals. Because crop yields of 1939 were about half of those today, an additional 200 million acres would be needed to produce food and fiber for people in the United States. This would be an 85 percent increase over the present 360 million acres in production today, and there is not that much arable land. "Today the United States is the world's greatest supplier of food, but with 1939 technology, we could not feed ourselves", Allen said. The price of food would skyrocket even if all sales to foreign countries were stopped.

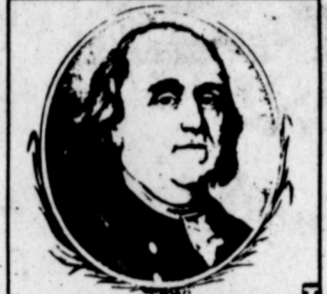

What can farmers do to save energy? Allen relates that herbicides can be used instead of plows to control the weeds in most cropping systems. "Our research shows that farmers could cut one to four operations a year without reducing weed control or hurting yield", he continued. In a recent experiment, the number of operations over the field was reduced from seven to four by using a system of bed splitting to produce continuous sorghum. Yield was better than with disking and rebedding, and annual fuel consumption was cut from 18 to 9 gallons per acre.

NEWS OF BOOKS

Penn Libraries Get Three Millionth Book
The libraries at the University of Pennsylvania have for the past 232 years received gifts from around the world, from people such as King Louis XVI of France and Benjamin Franklin.

Benjamin Franklin was once chairman of a committee to select books for the University of Pennsylvania. In 1981, the University libraries have acquired their three millionth volume. The gift is the first edition of William Penn's book, No Cross, No Crown, published in 1669. The book, which Penn wrote while in prison, is a plea for equality and morality. Haverford College, which has had a long and close association with Penn, has donated the book.

For centuries, while Pennsylvania has helped the university to grow, the university has helped bring jobs, research grants and other funds into Pennsylvania from all over the world.

James, mayor of Texas, and ranchers will receive a crop or livestock questionnaire from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service or will be personally interviewed by the Service's field staff. The crop and livestock information gathered through the questionnaires and interviews is kept confidential, and it is the basis for setting crop acreages and midyear livestock inventories to be published in June for the state of Texas.

These crop and livestock reports give a reliable, unbiased picture of Texas' most important industry agriculture. Furthermore, these reports are tools to help farmers and ranchers work out their planting, breeding, feeding, storing, producing, and marketing plans; other words, to keep them informed.

These reports are also used by: Farm organizations and legislators in planning and developing farm programs, Extension economists and private farm and ranch management consultants for advising farmers and ranchers, exporters in planning and promoting the sale of in foreign markets.

Even though response is voluntary, each farmer or rancher who is contacted is urged to cooperate, helping to make the crop and livestock reports to be published as accurate and reliable as possible. These surveys are a cooperative effort of the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service and the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Senator Bill Sarpalius Reports

AUSTIN - We need strong action to stop the flow of illegal drugs in this state. We need laws that will pass, that will be effective and that are constitutional.

Many of the Governor's "war on drugs" bills meet these qualifications. Many do not.

For example, one bill would require that persons over 21 who were convicted of selling drugs to children under 17 be imprisoned for at least five years. This bill is a proper exercise of the state's police power, and should go a long way toward keeping drugs away from our young people. It is a very good bill that we support.

Another good bill we voted for is SB 396. This bill suspends the license of doctors and pharmacists convicted of drug crimes. This bill strikes at the problem we want to solve, and does so in a way that should work.

But the Governor's program does not go far enough in some ways. One example is the manpower we need to fight this war. We need 40 new Department of Public Safety agents, some of whom would work undercover, to fight the drug trade. The Governor did not request any new undercover agents, but they are an effective weapon to stop drug traffic and we need them.

Fighting this war on drugs is one of the most dangerous assignments in law enforcement. The Department of Public Safety is losing some of its best people to private industry every year. If we are to stop the drug trade, we must have the officers to do it. The Governor's proposals ignore this problem, and we cannot afford this.

These are just a few of the things we want to accomplish to close down the drug market. These projects need the support of all Texans, not just Republicans and not just Democrats. Saving our young people from the drug merchants goes beyond politics.

We know we can count on the people in our District to help fight this war on drugs. We still want to hear what you have to say on this subject. Please write to Senator Bill Sarpalius, P. O. Box 12068, Austin, Texas 78711.

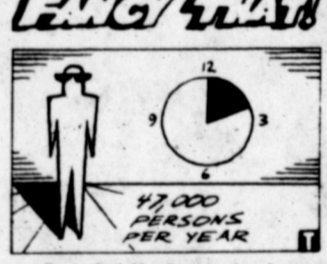

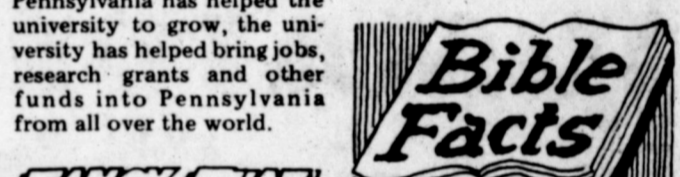

we have the water we need for the future. The plan embodied in HJR 33, will put aside money for water development.

HJR 33 will put a constitutional amendment on the ballot for next November. If the voters pass the amendment, two things will happen. First, the state will put aside half of the budget surplus each biennium to finance water projects. Second, the other half of this surplus will be used to pay off the state's bond debts.

It is important to remember this plan will not raise taxes. It uses only surplus funds-half for water and half to pay off Texas' bonded indebtedness.

Very few places in Texas will not be touched by a need for water in the next few years. Water for farming is one of our biggest concerns, but HJR 33 goes beyond just agricultural needs. The plan also addresses the needs of the entire state, with particular emphasis on the Panhandle-West Texas areas.

No one needs to tell you that water means food. That is why this plan has enjoyed such widespread support from the people in our district. But now that we have support from Legislators from East Texas and urban areas, we have a real chance to make the future of Texas green and bright.

Legal blindness is determined by a central visual acuity for distance of 20/200 or poorer in the better eye with correction, or a field of vision no greater than 20 degrees in its widest diameter. An estimated 47,000-one person every 11 minutes-become blind each year.

In the Bible, James 1:8 (NIV) says, "If any of you lacks wisdom he should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him."

Aloe Vera Juice

While still growing in the fields, Espreo's Aloe plants are cultivated in a nutritionally controlled environment. The gel is removed by coldpressing the aloe heart. This provides us with a juice of the highest nutritional quality, full of all the valuable and natural vitamins (especially the B vitamins), minerals (particularly Potassium and Calcium), amino acids (the building blocks of proteins) and enzymes (natural digestive aids) inherent in Aloe Vera.

According to testimonies made by individuals who have taken the juice consistently, the liquid seems to help eliminate numerous internal problems, aids in digestion, and helps to cleanse the system.
