Water Rages through city
Drainage inadequate to care for the heaviest rain fall in history

Coming on the heels of a series of fine drenching rains for the past ten days, old mother nature pulled the torrential faucet last Saturday afternoon about 1 o'clock and swept this city with the most devastating flood waters ever in the history of Clarendon resulting from 4 to 7 inches of rain.

As the streets were just beginning to fill with the usual Saturday afternoon crowds, despite the threatening clouds, a steady rain began falling, a tip of the cloudburst which the watershed south and southwest of the city was receiving. After a good precipitation was received in Clarendon the fall abated for a short time and then the deluge began in earnest as the rainfall drove down in solid sheets. However the drainage ditches were already taxed to their capacity and rising fast with the heavy rainfall reached the city, and without warning raging torrents were swirling through the business section and the lower portions of the residential district, sweeping automobiles, debris, chickens and small livestock in its path.

The concrete flood ditch through the main part of town failed to handle even a portion of the water and a wave some two feet in height rolled down the business district flooding stores and basements, washing out small bridges and undermining practically an entire block of brick paving North of the Clarendon Ice and Cold Storage Co.

Water reached a height of from a few inches in the higher parts of the town to three feet in the business district and four feet in the low flats of the city.

Probably the most damage was sustained by First Christian Church. The Pastime

Theory also bid for damage honors as a shipment of new upholstered seats, still uncrated, drifted around in over two feet of slimy water.

The Ft. Worth and Denver sustained a great deal of damage when two sections of their right away washed away.

Buntin's Funeral Home suffered a big loss when 27 new burial vaults were ruined by water and silt.

Crops were not damaged as much as was first feared.

Rain moves stone wall at high school field house

Clarendon has enjoyed a nice wet week of rain. Some of it has flooded streets, some has run the creek brim to brim. Little of the rain has done more damage than show home and business owners where leaks in the roof are. However, the current rain did do some unsettling damage to the ancient, historic and beloved rock fence around the football field.

That little rock fence had been erected in 1930's as part of a WPA project when it was part of the early H.S. and Jr. College campus. Three or four generations of Clarendon High School students have climbed over and around the wall, have leaned against it and chatted, looked moon-eyed at each other and held secret conferences in the shadows of it.

The rock is native to this area. The very wall itself is a unique and outstanding landmark to the area. Visiting High School football teams have been "pinned against the wall" during games, in the old days when the "Saint's Roost" play was performed in the foot ball field, spectators enjoyed the stone wall as a backdrop to high light their mental pictures of the story.

Now, after the saturating rainfall of 3.92 last week, the slight slope above the field house gave in after all of these years. The mud settled, scooted and slid. The weight of the stones pushed the dirt down and the old stone wall fell, tired and sagging against the new cinder block structure of the field house.

Jeff Walker, Superintendent and a crew of Claude Thomas and Daryl Leffew worked over eight hours to remove the rocks from the roof of the field house. Then they sledged and beat on the aging mortar until the full length of the remaining wall collapsed and fell in crumbles around the bottom of the rise.

The school board will have to meet to decide what measures to take to replace or repair this historic, beloved wall. It is hoped by many that it will be possible to replace the stone fence using the same stones as in the original structure. History has taken a tumble in the collapse of this rock fence.

But maybe all of the king's horsemen and all of the king's men might be able to rebuild it again.

SCAFFOLDING surrounds courthouse for repairs.

Historical County Courthouse getting a new face lift

Two weeks ago, a contract was begun on restorative work on the outside of the historical Donley County Court House.

The brick work is being repointed and cleaned. That explains the scaffolding all around the building. In order to get the scaffolding in, some of the trees had to be cut down.

The main reason the trees directly beside the courthouse were removed is because their roots had begun to crumble and separate the stone foundation. The beauty of the trees had faded through the years, anyway since most of them were sick, lanky and had grown so close to the building that their branches had flattened out.

Wally Hicks, the contractor for the outside renovation work, has subcontracted work to have the cornice and fret work repaired, and replaced where needed.

Gutters will be replaced. This will eliminate many of the leaks that have ruined plaster work inside of the building. The roof is fairly new, so it won't need to be included in this overhaul.

Windows will be caulked, panes replaced and the stain glass windows will be worked on.

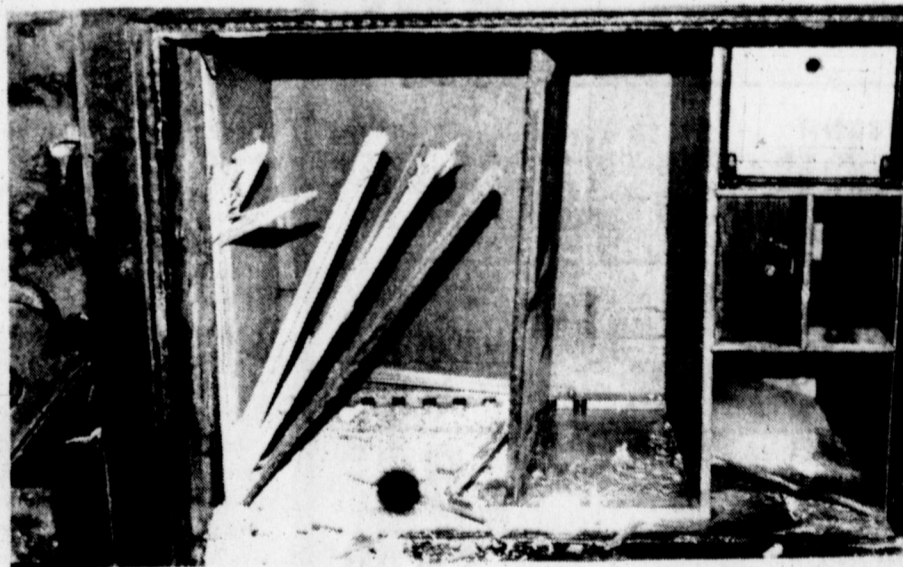

Since all of this work is restorative, not renovative, things must be repaired and/or replaced exactly as they would have been done in the 1880's. This is a real problem for many of the inside repairs.

The inside of this grand old building will have to wait. You can appreciate how the folks who must work, hold court and have business inside that musty, batty, peeling old building must feel about that.

This money for repairs came from a grant in which Donley County, one of the poor counties in Texas with a county tax less than half of the city tax, had to match $2 for every $1 received. We still need $20,000 before the outside job can be completed to satisfaction. This is money Donley County simply does not have nor will it be able to obtain it from its revenue.

It is a shame that we don't have the county tax money available to fix this grand old historic court house up so that it is a source of pride. We are proud that the work is proceeding as far as is possible.

Charlie's Grocery & Market was robbed

Thursday afternoon, person or persons unknown took a ladder leaning against the back of Charlie's Grocery market. The suspects climbed onto the roof and broke out a glass skylight. Apparently, the suspects didn't realize there was a false ceiling under the skylight because they fell through the skylight, through the acoustic ceiling panels and landed into the corner edge of the meat counter. There was blood all over that area indicating a hard landing.

The suspects apparently took a pair of work gloves, deduced from a price tag on the floor near the rear office and the lack of fingerprints on the damaged surfaces.

The exhausted suspects drank 1 quart of orange juice and 1 pint of milk before beginning their destruction.

The cash register at the front of the store was open with only pennies left in the drawers, so they weren't interested in small change and left them there. They couldn't get into the cash register at the back. They did take between $200-250 from the petty cash drawer at the rear office. The office and all of the desks, drawers and areas were ransacked and papers scattered all over. There was blood dripped all over as well.

A safe in the basement in a closet held all of the money. The suspects tried to force the safe open with the result that they damaged the door and punctured a tear gas chamber in the safe. This is what evidently chased them from the building through the rear door which they left open.

Rex Cole from Amarillo Safe Company was called in to open the damaged safe. The amount of merchandise stolen cannot be determined at this time.

Charlie DeMoss discovered the burglary at 6 p.m. Jimmy Thompson arrived to investigate the break-in. Since it had recently rained, there was a fresh set of tire tracks in the alley behind the store. Plaster of Paris was poured into the set of tracks to take an imprint to trace the suspects.

The sheriff's department is working on the evidence. Anyone with any knowledge of this incident should report to the sheriff's office.

Beta Sigma Phi's People Helping People Award

Clarendon is a community of hard working, dedicated people. However, there are a special few among us who spend many selfless hours of their time giving the unexpected, unsolicited gift of effort, energy, concern and even love to those people around them. These citizens of our community are rare and unique, they are the shining stars in our crowning glory.

The Xi Lambda Xi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi honored three of Clarendon's special of this community with his unselfish concern.

Phillip Vargas and Patrick Robertson are the most compassionate, efficient and competent paramedics outside of the TV show, EMERGENCY. Many lives have been saved because of their efforts. Many family members have been comforted knowing these men care about the welfare of the injured or ill person.

People helping people, the best commodity Clarendon has to offer, we salute these three recipients of this newly installed award.

TTU Scholarships Awarded

Fifty-nine incoming students at Texas Tech University have been awarded freshmen scholarships for the 1981-82 academic year.

Recipients of the scholarships, which are given for high performance on entrance exams, will receive a $200 award in both the fall and spring terms.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES

President Reagan, Vice-president Bush, Cabinet Members, Justices of the Supreme Court, Senators and Congressmen

Greetings;

The elderly and disabled of this Country of ours are well aware of the seriousness of the problems that beset us and agree that we must act at once to correct those problems if we are to survive. We recognize the fact that money for Social Programs must be drastically limited, but we would like to say to you, as you consider cuts in Social Security benefits, food stamps, Medicare, etc., etc., REMEMBER THIS — There is a whole wide world of difference between those who CAN NOT help themselves and those who WILL NOT help themselves, and also between those who have toiled all their lives to raise and educate their children and pay their own way in the world and who now, through no fault of their own, find the resources they were able to accumulate in the world of their working days to be totally inadequate in a world dominated by the greed and selfishness of generations that expect the world to be handed to them on a silver platter.

We, the infirm elderly and the disabled, say to you, "Go, and cut the waste and extravagance and duplication from all the programs that encourage sloth and excite cupidity. Cut the money for "Special Interest" idiosyncrasy and Grants for such assiduousness as to: (I quote from the Reader's Digest for June 1981 and I can assure you they are not misprints)—

TO: "Help youth understand how the sky has influenced the humanities disciplines"

TO: "Study the impact of Cicero's jokes on Renaissance France and Italy"

TO: "Produce an exhibition on the humanistic aspects of New York's Grand Central Station" and for "Raccoon Hunting and Hand Fishing: a study of two vanishing skills" and to: "Study the significance as cultural artifacts of Neon Tube advertising in Texas." And the list goes on and on and ON from one absurdity to another.

We adjure you, get busy and purge the welfare rolls of double-dippers and deadbeats, put healthy people to work. Tell them "WORK or GO HUNGRY!" You say there are no jobs? BUNK!

Let them clean up the world we, in avarice and stupidity, have despoiled — clean out the streams and rivers and lakes and ocean shores — repair the erosion of our land and restore our water tables — re-forest our hills and mountains — clean the filth and litter from ditches and roadsides — rebuild our cities and towns and salvage our farm lands from floods — put idle youth into our Armed Services and teach them discipline and skills.

Let's put the old-fashioned, nearly outmoded virtues of industry and thrift ahead of self-serving greed and lust and make this world again a fit habitation for a free and independent people.

Morning Summer Reading Club shuts book

The Tuesday morning Summer Reading Club at the Gabie Bettes Memorial Library was quite successful with an average weekly attendance of 30 to 40 children.

It is hopeful that attendance will increase next summer as word spreads of the fine time had by all and of the comfortable carpet to lay and sit on while reading stories.

A PROUD ROGINA GRAY.

Chamberlain Center

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dingler, Mr. and Mrs. P.T. Bates and Mrs. Molly Dixon will be the hosts for the covered dish supper at the Chamberlain Community Center dinner to be held Friday, August 21 at 8 p.m.

Library Open House well attended

The library held its grand opening Saturday and was well received by those who stopped by to view the new facilities. Mayor Clifford arrived early to help the Friends of the Library to set up a punch and cookie table to serve those who came to view the tremendous achievement.

There were some 70 persons who stopped by. Many sent lovely flowers and plants which will be appreciated in the library for many days to come.

Among those who attended were Dr. H.E. Stocking from Stillwater, OK; Alice Green from the Amarillo Public Library; Jan Ulrich, the coordinator for the Texas Panhandle Library System and Betty Long, the assistant Coordinator for TPLS.

The most notable dignitaries present were introduced by Mayor Clifford one by one and each celebrity presented a nice speech about themselves. These notable guests were: Will Rogers, disguised as Jay Gage; Alice in Wonderland presented by Todora Gray; Robin Hood without his merry men played by Daniel Ford; Annie Oakley was sharply presented by Tanya Bell and Col. Charles Goodnight made his appearance on behalf of the library as presented aptly by Twanna Garland. These guests were invited special by Mary Beth Nelson who coached them with their wonderful speeches.

A special thanks to all those who helped make this dream come true. The folks who worked so hard raising money, and those who offered strong backs and support are all well rewarded by this, the grand opening of the Gabie Bettes Memorial Library, a proud Clarendon possession.

Library Monsters turned out in spite of rain

The day was awash with creeks flooding over, puddles getting muddier and monsters swarming out of their nooks and crannies into the open doors of the new library building.

Mayor Clifford and members of the Friends of the Library were on hand to help serve Sloppy Joes, chips, cookies and punch.

Mr. Neece, Mrs. Justice and Jewel Austin presented those who read 10 books or more with certificates. Special persons received crayons and pencils in appreciation for their great effort in reading books, and participating in a most energetic manner in the reading program.

One young lady, Rogina Gray age 8 read 133 books and received an awed and enthusiastic ovation from her peers.

The monsters shed their skins, took their plates and sat around the walls in the conference room eating and giggling. Many came back for seconds, some bottomless pits arrived at the table asking for thirds. The entire affair was a great success.

When a mother arrived at 7:00 to pick up her brood, her boy looked up at her with pure wonderment and amazement and, yes, adoration. "Mom, how in the world did you know just the exact time to get here?" Aren't mothers wonderful!

It isn't often that Clarendon is blessed with a performance given by a professional, talented musician of such caliber as was Miss Melissa Cooke. Her piano recital given Sunday, August 16th was a welcome drink in our cultural desert.

Miss Cooke attends the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, MASS. Among the many guests who listened to the piano recital that Sunday were: Texas State Representative Foster and Mrs. Whaley of Pampa; Virginia Roby of the Wellington Leader, Wellington; Sim Goodall and daughter and son; Virginia Browder and house guest; Mrs. John Deaver, Mrs. John Fowler and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Cooke in Memphis.

Dorothy Ann Bagwell of Claude attended the recital as well as Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sanders, Nancy Harvey and mother Mrs. Baker; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ford Sr.; Richard Glenn and Mrs. (Kittie Cooke) Ford; Dorothy

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hanson of Vernon as well as many Clarendon people attended the recital. Our thanks to those who came to appreciate this rich experience and to Miss Cooke for sharing her wonderful talent with us.

Cowboy Morning, a local innovation

Tom Christian, son of Teryl and Francis Christian of the Figure 3 Ranch, part of the original JA Ranch once run by Col. Goodnight, has long been familiar with camp cooking and large crowds around the camp fire.

Tom began to excel as a camp cook when he and his father accepted aoudad sheep and mule deer hunters in their part of the Palo Duro Canyon. As part of the guided hunting package, Tom would prepare mouth watering biscuits, tender steaks, smoked turkey and gravy that would melt in your mouth. He could fix wonderful dutch oven breads and cobblers, fix scrumptious pies and a mess of beans like no gourmet chef in French could dream would be so tempting.

That is the culinary background of one Tom Christian.

Now, the Dream of Eastern dudes, foreign folks and even big city Texans (as well as those of us who just can't resist a mouth watering, taste tempting breakfast) is being fulfilled this summer with the debut of the "Cowboy Morning" on the Figure 3 Ranch out of Claude.

Tour groups and individuals can enjoy a ride across the prairie in a wagon drawn by a team of horses and breakfast on the rim of spectacular Palo Duro Canyon.

Tom fixes traditional cowboy fixin's: sourdough biscuits prepared on a campfire in a dutch oven, his specialty. Texas-size eggs, country sausage and gallons of cowboy coffee served in tin cups...watch out, they get hot! A delicious layer of Tom's own special-recipe gravy tops the whole meal.

For folks interested in the arts of branding and roping, Figure 3 cowboys will give a complete demonstration in Old West fashion, a miniature rodeo in the morning light.

The "Cowboy Morning" was developed by the Christian family in order to give visitors the opportunity to see how a ranch was operated 100 years ago. The Christians have operated this ranch for three generations now so theirs is a special offering of family history to those who attend this morning breakfast.

"Since so much of our land and livestock are in the canyon, we still utilize the horse extensively to work our cattle," notes Christian.

Visitors arrive at the ranch house in a modern vehicle. But from there it is a trip back into the Old West.

Visitors take a wagon ride across the prairie to the breath takingly beautiful spot on the edge of the canyon. If you are observant and lucky, you might see a deer or an aoudad sheep slipping off of the rim back into the breaks.

"One thing that most people don't realize, is that it's not an easy thing to put a team of horses and a wagon together," says Christian. "We had some horses and purchased some more. Then we began to build our wagons and train the teams."

"We found the average age of an experienced team driver is between 75 and 80 years old. So we had to train our sons and others to drive the wagons."

The entire Christian family, wife Anne, sons Joe, Rit and daughters Mary and Frannie are involved with this novel enterprise.

"We think this is a unique opportunity for Panhandle visitors to get a true glimpse of life on these beautiful plains a century ago," says Christian. "We invite wranglers young and old to join us for a "Cowboy Morning".

Bookings for the "Cowboy Morning" can be made through the Amarillo Convention & Visitors Bureau, 1000 Polk St., Amarillo, 79101. The telephone number is (806) 374-9812 or in Texas only (800) 692-1338. Cost of the "Cowboy Morning" is $15.00 per person.

This is indeed a fine idea for those with out of state or country guests. Take them to breakfast, tour the canyon and go see "Texas" that evening. A day all of your group will treasure a lifetime.

Five generations of Schaffers

Mrs. Nova Schaffer, a resident of the Medical Center Nursing Home in Clarendon, was recently honored and excited to have her son Curtis Schaffer, her grandson Leon Schaffer and her great grandson Donnie Schaffer place the fifth generation into her arms, her great great granddaughter, Kimberly Ann Schaffer. Kimberly is one year old.

Mrs. Schaffer was born in Winfield, ALA, her father worked in the coal mines so her childhood was probably bleak and filled with sacrifices. She came to the Texas Panhandle in 1900 and married Cleo Schaffer in 1912.

The Schaffer's had two sons, G.W. and Curtis Schaffer. She has four grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren and 2 great, great grandchildren. This is a rare photograph to be treasured by their family for many years.

Clarendon to Get Tax Rebate

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Thursday said August city sales tax rebate checks to 952 Texas cities will total $95.8 million.

This month's payment brings the cities' year-to-date totals to $439.3 million compared to $392.9 million during a comparable period in 1980.

On a statewide average, sales tax payments are up this year by nearly 12% over 1980.

Rain Report

Amarillo has had RAIN! But in June of 1962, they received 10.16 inches in one month. It is quite possible that they are about to break that record with an August rain of well over 10 inches.

We have been having a wet week all around. The heaviest rainfall was reported at Ashkola by Mrs. J.A. McAnear who said she had about 5" of rain. Larry

Area lakes fill-Not Greenbelt

Area lakes, all dangerously low as recently as 10 days ago, recieved a boost from this recent deluge, resulting in an improvement to area municipal water supplies and facilities for fishing and water sports.

The level at Lake Meredith was 75.78 feet, according to John C. Williams, manager of the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority, who said the lake was up from 64-20 feet just a week ago and 63.16 at its record low level on May 28.

Bobby Kidd of the Greenbelt Municipal Water Authority said Greenbelt has only risen about 6 inches. "Not all the rain has gotten into our watershed," said Kidd.

However, the lake depth showed 64.45 in last week's issue yet recorded only 64.25 this week.

Lake McClellan was up about three or four feet. Lake Marvin had no change in it's depth.

D.N. Taylor reported a three foot rise with more expected at Lake McKenzie.

This rain has been a welcome blessing to lakes, watersheds, land, crops and animals and the weather has cooled making it a blessing for those of us without air conditioning. Farmers are about ready for it to stop, however.

Beware Sudden Drowning Syndrome

S.D.S. is a term coined by water safety officials, and it stands for Sudden Drowning Syndrome.

The term is more than just a catch-phrase. The fact is that 3/4 of all boat-related drownings in the U.S. involve a person falling off, or being thrown from a boat and disappearing within 5 minutes of entering the water.

Water safety officials of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept. said American Red Cross studies have shown that in most cases, drowning nonswimmers go under within 20 to 60 seconds of entering deep water.

There are three main aspects of the S.D.S. in boating accidents: cold water and hypothermia; cool beer and drug abuse; inability to swim or support oneself.

Officials realize that nobody plans to fall into the water or, certainly, to drown. But certain precautions can be taken to prevent such a tragic surprise.

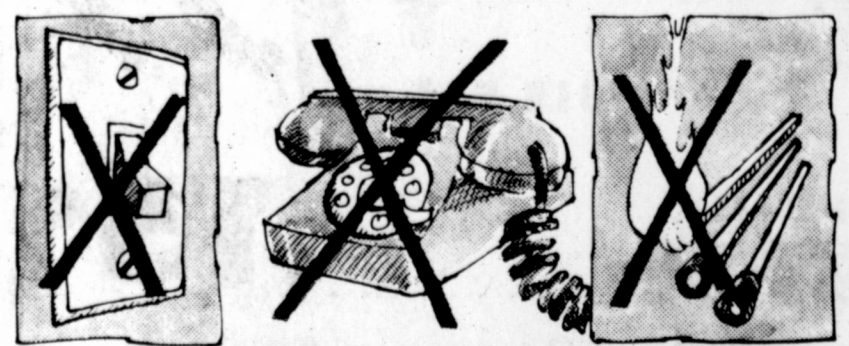

First, wear a personal flotation devise, especially if you're not a strong swimmer or if boating conditions are hazardous because of weather or other reasons. Second, avoid overuse of alcohol or drugs, especially when operating in canoes or other small crafts which can be upset easily.

Third, learn to swim. If you cannot become a good swimmer, admit it and wear a PFD. Above all, treat all water as being potentially dangerous and don't create conditions through carelessness or lack of preparation which might result in tragedy.

Keep your head, keep safe and enjoy the last days of summer.

Tear out and save

NOTICE

IF YOU SMELL NATURAL GAS, FOLLOW THESE 3 STEPS TO SAFETY.

The natural gas industry has an excellent safety record.

The fact that you can smell natural gas is because we add a harmless chemical to it as a safety feature. Otherwise, it would be completely odorless. If you detect faint whiffs of what you think may be gas, investigate. It may be something that is as easily and safely corrected as a pilot light that has gone out, or a burner valve that's partially open.

If your equipment seems to be working properly and the odor intensifies and seems to be everywhere, please follow these precautions:

1. Do not switch anything electrical on or off. Do not use the telephone in your own home. Do not strike a match. Do not do anything that might cause a spark.
2. Have everyone leave the house immediately, leaving doors open to help ventilate.
3. Go to a nearby telephone and call Lone Star Gas Company. Wait until we have found the source of the odor to determine whether it's safe for you to return to the house.

You may never have a natural gas leak, but we want you to be informed in case one does occur. Please make sure your family is aware of these precautionary steps. And we suggest that you keep this message for future reference.

Climate change threatens economy

Unless the world's population cuts down on its burning of coal, oil and gas, the earth's climate may warm up enough to cause drastic changes across the globe, according to the current issue of International Wildlife magazine.

"By the middle of the next century," the National Wildlife Federation's bimonthly publication reports, "our planet could be warmer than at any time during the last 100,000 years. If that happened, entire growing zones, deserts, grasslands, and forests could all shift. Melting ice in the polar regions could raise sea levels 15 feet."

What's causing this alarming rise in temperature? The culprit is an odorless, colorless gas called carbon dioxide. A vital ingredient in photosynthesis, it makes up less than .04 percent of the atmosphere. But since the start of the Industrial Revolution in the late 1700's, the amount of carbon dioxide in the air has increased by 15 to 25 percent.

Carbon dioxide is formed when fossil fuels are burned and stored-up carbon combines with oxygen in the air. Around half the carbon dioxide generated each day is absorbed by the oceans or perhaps by green living matter. The other half accumulates in the lower atmosphere.

"This virtually transparent layer of gas has little effect on the sunlight which passes through it to warm the earth. But infrared heat radiated back into the atmosphere from the planet's surface has a longer wavelength. Some of it is trapped by the carbon dioxide in a process that has been called a 'greenhouse effect.'"

William Kellogg, senior climatologist at the U.S. National Center for Atmospheric Research said, "The increase theoretically has been something on the order of one degree Fahrenheit. When it gets near two degrees, then it'll dominate over the natural process."

That's what scientists fear. If we continue to consume fossil fuels at the present rate, the carbon dioxide build-up could cause an average temperature in-

Bollworm Time

Donley County cotton producers should be checking their cotton fields for bollworm infestations, according to County Agent Ronald Gooch. Bollworm eggs and some bollworms are being found now. Fields need to be checked frequently to detect worms while they are less than 5 days old, for this is the most effective time to control them.

Moths usually lay eggs on the top of young, tender leaves in the upper part of the plant. Eggs hatch in 2 to 4 days. Young worms feed on tender leaves, leaf buds and small squares before moving down the plant to attack larger squares and bolls.

Activity from beneficial insects is lighter than normal in most fields checked. Aphid infestations in cotton have decreased.

According to Lester Machta, a climatologist with the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, we have another 10 to 15 years before we start planning. "The uncertainties are too large to say that some kind of positive actions have to be taken right now," he told International Wildlife.

But other scientists feel those uncertainties should force us to move right away. As David Burns of the American Association for the Advancement of Science puts it, "We are taking the thin film of air and water upon which life on earth depends and messing around with it in an absolutely fundamental way—without really knowing the consequences of what we're doing."

Boys scouting for materials to build own house

EDWARDS RENDERING of proposed Scout House.

CHURCH OF CHRIST DONATED BUILDING FOR Scouts.

Boy Scouts Build Scout House

The Boy Scouts of troop 433 of Clarendon are in the process of building a new "Scout House". The house will be constructed of rock and native materials on a 1/4 acre site on W. Barcas donated by Claude Thomas.

The main structure will be an octagon shaped building with 640 feet diameter. It will have a basement area called an "Eagle Room" with a 30 foot diameter. There will also be two wings coming off the octagon that will be approximately 42 x 20 feet in size. The wings will be used for storage equipment and housing a kitchen, bathrooms and a work area. The design of the house will use passive solar heating and bermed earth to help on utility cost. The scouts feel that every project in this county does not have to be backed by a Federal Grant. This Scout House can and will be built by Donley County People for Donley County People.

The Clarendon Church of Christ has donated an old house at E. 3rd and Carhart to be torn down for lumber. There will be a workday Saturday, August 22 at 9:00 a.m. to tear down this old house.

There are several other donations of buildings and property pending. Any and all contributions toward the Scout House are tax deductible and greatly appreciated. Donations can be made at the Donley County State Bank or Tommie Saye, Scoutmaster. With your help, the Scout House can be built.

The Texas Bass Association Inc. sent a circular announcing the 1981 open tournament at Lake Palestine. There will be $9,400 in cash and merchandise awarded. What struck me as amusing was the notice in bold letters announcing, "Polygraph test will be given". But Herman Mooring assured me that this was indeed truth and fact and that the Bass Tournament people are serious and that they do require a polygraph test on all participants, even ladies, in their tournaments. Herman, well versed on the subject, said that someone could catch a biggie, keep it in the live trap and claim to have caught it that day. Who Herman did get some heat off after all. He either took it or closed the shop and sky-larked because he caught a big 10 lb. Northern Pike! Herman, have you submitted to a polygraph test on the true weight of that claim? Charlie and son Scotty Simms caught 2 blue catfish, one at 5 1/2 and the other a 11 lb. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Rodgers caught a 5 lb. Northern Pike, 28 1/2" long and a 7 1/2 lb blue cat during the week. When did the clouds clear enough to do that? H.H. Rodgers caught a 5 1/2 lb blue cat and H.M. Breedlove pulled in a 5 1/2 lb black bass and a 5 1/2 lb black bass Saturday. Three channel cats weigh-not everyone was the Moorings or the Patton. Landing folks their catch so we can't report it all. Greenbelt will be on TV again. A bass match fishing contest was held over the weekend and filmed for the weekly TV show on Sunday. The current world record white bass is 5 lb. 9 ozs. so keep track of what you got.

BOYD E. TANNEHILL from West Monroe, Louisiana was in Clarendon Friday passing through on vacation. He stopped by the Clarendon Press to buy a paper and told us he was a licensed back seat driver in the state of Louisiana because he is the back driver on a 82' ladder on a fire truck. He's been with the Fire Dept. for 25 years. Recently he has become an ordained Baptist preacher.

"SHAKE WELL"

Liquid medicines often come in bottles with an auxiliary label attached informing the consumer to "SHAKE WELL BEFORE USING". Most medicines bearing this label are classified as suspensions. A suspension consists of fine particles of drug that are dispersed in a liquid...usually water. With time, the particles of drug may either settle to the bottom of the bottle or rise to the top. Shaking the container briskly again disperses the drug within the liquid uniformly.

If a suspension is not shaken appropriately, each dose removed from the container may not contain the same amount of drug. For example, if a drug settles to the bottom of the container, water and flavor may comprise the first teaspoonfuls removed from the bottle. The last doses will contain concentrated drug. A drug that causes serious side effects could create problems when an "overdose" is given in this manner.

Whenever possible and practical, pharmaceutical companies attempt to make solutions of new drug products that are marketed in a liquid form. This prevents dosage errors that could occur should a preparation not be shaken thoroughly before use.

FURNITURE & APPLIANCES

Many essential nutrients are found in the skins of vegetables. If you peel them, you lose them. The protein, carbohydrates and fats, all of the calories, will be there. The minerals and vitamins may not stay put if you boil your vegetables then discard the liquid. If you pull a roast from the freezer and place it on a plate to thaw for several hours before cooking, you'll wind up with one beef roast minus the nutrients that dripped out with the meat juices. Try cooking the roast frozen, it may take longer but it will be healthier.

Suppose you fix mashed potatoes to go with that roast. Peelings contain all of the minerals and vitamins that make potatoes so valuable as a food. To fix mashed potatoes and salvage most of the good, boil them in the skins, then peel them. Better yet, fix them baked.

If you cook string beans in a potful of water, use just enough water to keep them from burning. The best way is to steam them to maintain all of the color and vitamins in your vegetables.

Save the water from canned vegetables to mix into your beef gravy later. Casseroles are another sure way to save all of the good from your food in cooking.

SAVORY SQUASH & SAUSAGE CASSEROLE
1 small onion, chopped
1 med. green pepper, diced
2 4-oz jars pimientos, tear or

8 to 10 tiny pork sausages
1 C shredded or cubed cheddar cheese

Saute onion, green pepper and pimiento in oleo. Cook and stir a few minutes. Set aside. If use Butternut, Hubbard or Acorn, slice and precook a few minutes. If you're using yellow or Zucchini squash, just slice. It's tender and there's no need to precook. Add squash to pimiento mix, turn into greased casserole. Cover and cook in preheated oven, 400 for 15 min. for summer squash, 25 min. for winter squash variety.

Prepare sausages by pricking them all over with a fork to allow steam to escape. Place in frying pan, add cold water bring to slow boil. If use brown and serve type, put directly into casserole.

Cook 15-20 min. Add cheese last 5 min. before removing casserole.

SUMMER VEGETABLE CASSEROLE

1 C finely diced squash (any summer variety)
1 C finely diced bell peppers
1 C finely chopped tomatoes
1 lb hamburger or sausage or round steak cut fine
1/2 C finely chopped banana pepper
1/4 C finely cut cucumbers
1/2 C finely diced carrots

Re-Register Brands Required

Attorney General Mark White has issued two Attorney General's opinions which affects everyone involved in the cattle, farming, ranching and dairy industries. Opinion MW-289 discussed certain changes in laws on the registration of livestock brands, and MW-358 further clarified the statutes.

Article 6899j, V.T.C.S. was passed by the Legislature and became effective on August 30, 1971. Under this law and under Article 6890, V.T.C.S., all marks and brands registered after August 30, 1971 and before August 30, 1981 must be re-registered within six months of the latter date. Marks and brands must then be re-registered at subsequent ten-year intervals by the owner. All marks and brands will then be recorded with the county clerk, regardless of when they originally were recorded.

Article 699j, V.T.C.S. was passed by the Legislature and became effective on August 30, 1971. Under this law and under Article 6890, V.T.C.S., all marks and brands registered after August 30, 1971 and before August 30, 1981 must be re-registered within six months of the latter date. Marks and brands must then be re-registered within six months of the latter date. Marks and brands must be re-registered at subsequent ten-year intervals by the owner. All marks and brands will then be recorded with the county clerk, regardless of when they originally were recorded, within six months of August 30, 1981, August 30, 2001, etc.

White is reminding every citizen who has registered a brand prior to August 30, 1981 that citizens must re-register each brand with the county clerk within six months in order to protect their right to it. If everyone follows the registration schedule set out by the law, county clerks will have a correct, revised set of records every ten years, and there should be no dispute about the correct ownership of livestock.

To register or re-register marks and brands, the livestock owner may obtain forms either by mail or in person from his or her county clerk's office. There will be blank spaces on the form in which to describe the mark or brand and the location on the animal where the brand is recorded. The forms should then be mailed or delivered in person to the county clerk, who will keep the forms in an indexed bound volume or on microfilm for easy reference.

Opinion MW-358 answers questions concerning the recording of the marks and brands and the publication requirements to notify the public of changes in the law. Under Article 6899j, the county clerk is not required to notify individual owners of cattle brands of the ten-year expiration date of their registration. However, the county clerk must publish notice of the registration date in a newspaper of general circulation in the county for a period of thirty days, paying for such notice out of the general county fund. Finally, when the clerk records the brands or marks, the date of record must be noted.

White and his office will be glad to answer any further questions on the matter. Interested persons should call 512 475-2501 for more information, or write to the Attorney General at P.O. Box 12548, Austin, Texas 78711.

Older women

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) - Because so many older women outlive men, the problem of their aloneness and loneliness is one of the saddest in society, says an official of The University of Texas Hogg Foundation for Mental Health.

"There are nine bridegrooms for every bride over the age of 65," says Bert Kruger Smith. While older men who are widowed often reach back 30 years and find younger brides, "most women do not have this kind of option," she says.

She predicts elderly women will learn to overcome their aloneness by finding more meaningful lives through new cooperative living, planning and social arrangements.

She had for sale numerous kittens $1.00 each or two for 50c. They were not moving as rapidly as manufactured so her PaPa offered to give her a dollar for every cat she found a happy home. She has a few available choices for selections if you can give proper recommendations for situations.

Now more than ever this force of part-time soldiers plays a vital role in our nation's defense.
