General Election November 4

General election will be held November 4th. Residents will be able to vote in all nine boxes in the four county precincts. Box 1 will be at Howardwick; Box 2, Old Courthouse; Box 3 Lelia Lake; Box 4, Patching Club House; Box 5, Hedley; Box 6 Ashtola; Box 7 First Bank & Trust; Box 8 Jericho and Box 9 at Glenwood-Whitefish. You can vote a straight party ticket, by placing an X beside the box which reads "Democratic Party, Republican Party, Libertarian Party". If you place an X in either of those three boxes, you will not have to place an X anywhere else on the ballot, you will be voting a straight ticket.

But, if you wish to cross party lines and vote for the candidates of your choice instead of the party you must place an X beside each of the candidates on the ballot. This way you may vote for a Democratic governor, and a Republican Lt. Governor and a Libertarian State Treasurer if you wish or you may use the space Write-In and write your choice for any office in that space. But it is very important, that if you do not vote a straight party ticket, you must place an X beside your candidates name, even if that candidate has no opponent. If you leave an X off, if you are voting a mixed ticket, and even if there is no other candidate listed, that means a vote not counted for that candidate. If you wish, you can write-in your own candidate.

It is very important that if you mix-party, vote for a candidate listed or write your own in. Otherwise a candidate which does not have an X will not receive a vote. Only candidates with X by their name, or a write-in in the mixed party will receive a vote. If you vote straight party, only the X listed by the party is necessary, and everyone named on the ballot will be credited with a vote. Exercise your right to VOTE for the candidate of your choice.

Broncos fall to Quanah

The state ranked Quanah Indians came to Clarendon Friday night and went home with a victory much closer than the final score of 42-0 shows. The high flying Indians led only 14 to 0 at half, and 21 to 0 through three quarters.

The Broncos kept the high powered Quanah ground attack under control but the Indians completed 13 of 23 passes for 199 yards.

The first quarter saw both teams punt twice before Quanah started it's go ahead march which saw a 5 yd. TD pass and the point after to make the score 7 to 0. The Broncos could not move the ball against a big tough defense, but did control the Indians offense the rest of the quarter.

The second quarter was almost the same as the first quarter. The Broncos up front continued to play well as they stopped the Indians running game. Marcus Smith, Neal Bellah, Mike Murry, Monte Hollar, Mike Moore, Walt Thompson and Brad Shadle were the seven up front that were playing well. A 31 yd pass was the only scoring of the second quarter as the half ended 14 to 0. The score was some what of a surprise to Quanah.

The third quarter was an even battle until the Broncos gambled on fourth and 1 at their 45 yd line and failed to make the yardage. The Indians once again went to pass for 24 yds and a TD to make the score 21 to 0.

The fourth quarter was all Quanah as they continued to throw the ball in hopes to make the final score a run away. The Indians scored 21 points to make the final 42 to 0.

Smith was the offensive player of the game for the Broncos as he had 60 yds on 16 carries. Walt Tompson was the defensive player of the week as he had 19 tackles from his line backer position. Murry was in on 15 tackles as Smith and Wes Hatley had 5 solo tackles.

The Broncos travel to Shamrock Friday night in hopes of evening up their district record which now stands 1-2 and 3-5 for the season. Shamrock is 0-3 in district as they lost 21 to 0 to Wellington Friday night.

Druids gave us Halloween customs

Friday, October 31 is Halloween - the customs that we observe on that day had their beginnings long, long ago. They came from the beliefs of the druids - priests of ancient Gaul and Britain.

The druids believe that witches, demons, and spirits of the dead roamed the earth on the eve of November 1. Bonfires were lit to drive the bad spirits away.

To protect themselves further from the mean tricks of the bad spirits, the druids offered them good things to eat. The also disguised themselves so that the spirits would think the druids belonged to their own evil company.

Surely the spirits would not harm members of their own group! Or so the druids thought. And thus we celebrate Halloween by playing trick or treat, dressing up in costumes, and wearing masks. The autumn leaves, cornstalks, apples and nuts which are so much a part of the Halloween season are reminders of the druids, autumn festival in honor of the harvest.

Much later the Roman Catholic Church set aside the first day of November to honor all the saints who had no special days of their own. This was known as All Saints' or All Hallows' Day. The night before was called All Hallows' Even. The two festivals gradually became one, and All Hallows' Even was shortened to Halloween.

Halloween is a very special occasion for many children around the world and Clarendon is not different from the rest. The Donley County Sheriff's office has asked that an adult accompany their small children and to be especially careful crossing streets. Anyone wishing to have visits by these small ghosts and goblins leave your porch light on. This will be residents signal that trick or treaters will be welcome.

The sheriff also warns that they will be out in full force that night watching for those who would destroy other peoples property in the name of fun. Have your fun, but please respect other people and property.

Harrington Cancer Center Christmas cards on sale

Circle of Friends, a non-profit organization, is a group of volunteers who are business and professional leaders in the community. Each individual shares in the commitment of support for people with cancer and the people who care about them.

The purpose of the organization is to assist patients and their families with health care expenses and programs that are directed towards improving the patient's quality of life. The method for establishing and maintaining the finances needed to support the program is through the annual sale of Christmas cards. This year, 1986, begins the fourth edition. The art design for the Christmas cards was provided by school children. A contest was held during November, 1985 and the cards were displayed at the Harrington Cancer Center during the month of December. A panel of judges selected four winners. Each child whose card was chosen received an award of $100. Businesses and individuals also selected designs for exclusive cards. Each year a contest will be conducted to provide new art for the next edition of Christmas cards, and all Panhandle schools are invited to participate. This program was initiated by local individuals who were awarded and had participated in similar programs of Wadley Institute of Dallas and M.D. Anderson Hospital in Houston. Both of these programs have been successful. M.D. Anderson sold over one million cards in 1985.

The financial assistance provided by this program is available for all individuals who live in the Panhandle area and are treated in any of the Amarillo health care facilities or programs.

Cancer is traumatic experience to every family it touches and the financial burden can be devastating. Today, cancer touches one out of every three families.

Your purchase of the Christmas cards provides the opportunity for you to share in helping your friends and family who may have cancer as well as enjoy sending the beautifully designed cards by children who have given of their talents of love because they care. The "Littlest Angel" care in the series this year was designed by Kory Knorpp of Clarendon.

The Christmas cards are being sold by members of the Edith Ballew Circle of the First United Methodist Church in Clarendon. Please contact any member for purchase of these delightful cards. For further information contact Freddie Jo Moreman, 874-2071, Debbie Roberts, 874-2442 or Doris White, 874-3866.

Social Security Questions & Answers

Q--I understand that as a veteran without a service-related health problem, I may have to pay a deductible for VA health care, depending on my income. Does VA consider such things as stocks and bonds, in addition to my salary, when making this determination?

A--Yes. When you apply for medical care at a VA medical center, you will be required to complete VA form 10-10F, which includes information on income as well as "net worth," such as stocks, bonds, banks deposits and savings, and real estate. Your primary residence is not included, nor is personal property such as one car, clothing and furnishings. You also will be required to provide information on any debts you have.

The total amount of your debts will be deducted from your total net worth. Depending on your combined income and net worth, you will be placed in either Category A, B or C. If your income plus net worth after your debts have been deducted is greater than $40,000, you will be tentatively placed in Category C and will be required to pay a deductible for health care. The VA regional office will make the final determination on your financial situation. If the regional office determines that your net worth (is) a bar to your receiving cost-free health care, you will remain in Category C and will be required to continue paying a deductible for VA health care.

DPS cautions motorists that winter is upon us

The Texas Department of Public Safety reminds motorists that the winter season is upon us, and it's time once again to get both the driver and the vehicle in the best possible condition for this most grueling driving season.

Major V.J. Cawthon, Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety, Region 5, said, "Winter driving can be very hazardous. Driver's are faced with many dangerous obstacles: nights are longer, freezing temperatures, snow, sleet, and ice covered roads, all creating handicaps for the driver.

The most important safety tip for winter driving is to "slow down". On ice covered roads, only drive when it's necessary and realize that it's going to take you at least twice as long to cover that same distance that you drove when the road was dry and clear of ice. So, remember to set more time aside for driving under winter conditions.

When temperatures drop below the freezing point, drivers must guard against reduced visibility caused by frosted windows and windshields. Allow your cars engine to warm up and for the defroster to become effective before driving. Be sure your windows and headlights are clear and free of any obstructions like snow or mud. Do all this in advance, before you hit the road.

The Texas Department of Public Safety reminds you that the hazards of winter driving can be reduced. It's in your hands, the defensive driver, to make for a safer winter.

DPS cautions Halloween trick or treaters

Halloween is fast approaching, a very special time for some very special little "goblins". Once again, hundreds of little children will be taking to our neighborhoods with that all so familiar chant "Trick or Treat".

Major V.J. Cawthon, Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety, Region V, said, "Many disasters can be prevented this Halloween, if parents and motorists will use good judgement." Cawthon stated: "Small children should be accompanied by older children or adults and trick or treating be confined to those areas that the parents are familiar with. Costumes should be light in color, non-flammable and any type of mask used should not prevent the child from being able to see."

Parents should also instruct their children in some traffic safety tips, insuring they look in all directions before crossing streets and to walk, never run. A flashlight carried by the child can serve as a warning to motorists, and children should be instructed to use sidewalks whenever possible.

Motorists should use extra caution in residential areas and be on the lookout for kids darting into the streets between parked vehicles. Remember, they are excited and pre-occupied with trick or treating. Drivers need to be extra alert.

For those of us who wish to participate in this upcoming Halloween evening and receive a visit from that little ghost or goblin, it is a good idea to remember to leave that front porch light on and to insure there are no obstructions in the walkways.

Major Cawthon stated, "If parents and motorists join together and think "Safety First", Halloween, 1986 can be a safe and enjoyable evening for everyone."

Toothache myths

BY J.F. HOWELL, D.D.S.
All sorts of things have been recommended for toothaches and all sorts of things have been recommended for the extraction of the aching tooth. People have had toothaches as long as there have been people with teeth.

People thought for thousands of years that toothache was caused by a worm boring its way into the tooth. One treatment was to poke a copper wire into the tooth to kill the worm. This turned the tooth a lovely green.

Some of the more exotic methods of treating toothache were: 1. Extract the first aching tooth you have and put it in a glass of whiskey and then drink the whiskey. You will never have to remove another tooth. I guess if you do this often enough you won't care.

2. Run three times around a church without thinking of a fox.
3. Put your right ring finger into your left ear.
4. Put a sign on your front door: "Toothache, stay away. I am not at home."
5. Eat grasshopper eggs.
6. Put fresh cow manure on the side of your face where it hurts.
7. Crush a ladybug and put it on the offending tooth.
8. Fry an earthworm and place it in your ear.
9. Strangle a mole and don't wash your hands for 24 hours.
10. Pull a nail from a coffin, prick the gums with it, then drive the nail into an oak tree.
11. Apply the tooth of an executed criminal to your aching tooth in a cemetery at midnight.
12. Eat a mouse twice a month.
13. Bite the head off a mouse.

I am sure none of the above do the job so please do not try them. As far as I can tell, the first pain killer used for toothache was opium. A fellow named Andromachus the Elder used it about the time of Christ. Toothache probably became more popular then.

Getting the tooth out was a tricky affair for a long time. One way was to apply caustics to loosen the tooth but, unfortunately it also loosened the adjoining tooth, too. Another way was to insert a dry peppercorn into the tooth which, when it was wet, would swell large enough to break the tooth into pieces so it could be more easily removed.

The way most teeth were extracted was by iron tongs. The patient's head was between the physician's knees and the tooth was shaken back and forth until something gave. Either the tooth came out or the patient's jaw was broken. Toothache became unpopular again.

I believe I will take care of my teeth rather than bite the head off of mouse. Won't you?

Scouts take awards

By LYNNE WILLIAMS

Six cub scouts walked over a small wooden bridge and received the red kerchief of the Boy Scout at the October pack meeting. As younger club and tiger cubs watched, Scott Tucker, Chris Moffett, Brendan Moffett, Chan Bilbrey, Russell Estlack and John Havens advanced.

Elmonette Bivens introduced Den 2 which led the opening flag ceremony. She spoke of the benefits that the scouting program offered to boys and urged expansion of the program noting that good things do not happen by accident, but are the results of involvement of both parents and boys. The pack needs adult volunteers in the areas of phone work, refreshments, banquet and summer programs.

Awards time! Justin Griffin and Cliff McDaniel took award beads home as did Todd Lindley, Jason Lee and Michael McKinney. Cliff also received his wolf badge and bear scarf. Brenda Lee is the adult leader of Den 1.

Held upside down, Den 2 members Clint Green, Jerry Green, Evan Williams and Logan Mays were presented Bobcat pins. Roger Smith and Brandon Allen received the blue and gold kerchief of the Bobcat rank. Mary Green provides leadership for this group.

Jeremy Grady and David Green took Arrow Points in Den 4. Darren Spier, Monty Adams and Jeremy Grady attained Webelo Rank.

185 Texas farms and ranches honored in FLHP ceremonies

(AUSTIN)—"Not only did we come here to recognize the past achievements of the state's family farm system, but also to help assure a future for such families. Farm families are our nation's seed corn, and we need to protect and nurture the family farm system so it remains vibrant and productive for us for centuries further down the road," Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower said.

Hightower made the comments at the LBJ Library, where the Texas Department of Agriculture held its 13th Annual Family Land Heritage Program. One hundred eighty-five Texas farm and ranch families—the largest number since 1975 and the third largest number ever recognized in a single year by TDA's Family Land Heritage Program—were honored for keeping their land in continuous agricultural production for 100 years or more.

Four of the honored properties are older than Texas, having been established prior to 1836.

The oldest property recognized this year is the Winfree Ranch of Orange County, founded by Abraham Winfree in 1831. Lester Winfree, the current owner, accepted the Family Land Heritage recognition from TDA.

Since it was started by TDA in 1974, the Texas Family Land Heritage Program has recognized 2,089 family farms and ranches for 100 or more years of continuous agricultural production.

"Now think about that for a moment," Hightower said. "Go out on the streets of Austin, Dallas, Houston or any place in the state—few of the businesses you see have made it to their tenth anniversary, much less have been able to celebrate a century of enterprise. The achievement of these productive agricultural families is remarkable indeed."

Each of the 185 honored families received a special gate sign designating their property as a "Texas Century Farm" or "Texas Century Ranch." The 12-inch by 18-inch metal sign, bearing the seal of the State of Texas, certifies that the property has been maintained in continuous operation for more than 100 years by the same family. The signs can be posted on gates or fences, making the Family Land Heritage recognition known to neighbors and Harold M. Stell and his son, John W. Stell, owners of the Stell Ranch in Houston County were among the 185 families honored during the 13th annual Family Land Heritage Program ceremonies held in Austin at the LBJ Library on the campus of the University of Texas. Since its inception in 1974, the program has recognized 2,089 families who have kept their farms and ranches in continuous production for a century or more.

passers-by. Honorees also received a Family Land Heritage Certificate. The four farm and ranch families who have maintained their property for more than 150 years received a certificate of "Special Sesquicentennial Recognition" from TDA. Each of the properties will also be included in the 1986 edition of TDA's Family Land Heritage Registry, which includes a written history of each of the honored farm and ranch families, as well as photographs.

"But it's much more than historic property that we salute," Hightower said. "Really what we're talking about are people—hard-working, efficient, productive, innovative, creative people. There are people of every ethnic background—German, Czechoslovakian, Italian, Black, Mexican-American, right on down the list. These are solid people who are living, productive symbols of an entrepreneurial unit that is our lifeblood in this state and in this country—the family farm and ranch. Better than 15 million Texans, 250 million Americans and a good portion of the rest of the world count on the very people we are honoring today to put three 'squares' a day on the table for us. It's hard to get along without that.

The families and their guests at the LBJ Library also viewed the "Texas Family Land Heritage Sesquicentennial Touring Exhibit." The exhibit is co-sponsored by TDA, Central Freight Lines, Lufkin Industries and the Texas Motor Transportation Association.

The qualifications for TDA's Family Land Heritage Program are quite specific: the land must have been in continuous agricultural production for 100 years; the owners must reside in Texas and actively manage and direct the daily operations; and the land cannot have been leased to someone outside the family. TDA is the final judge on all entries.

Families who believe they will qualify for the program in 1987 will be able to obtain application forms from their county judge, county historical commission, their nearest TDA district office, or by writing the Family Land Heritage Program, Texas Department of Agriculture, P. O. Box 12847, Austin, TX 78711.

Texas' First Scientists'

Texas didn't have any prehistoric Albert Einsteins or Jonas Salk. But it had plenty of 'scientists' among the ranks of the Indians that lived within the state's borders.

That's the opinion of Mike Kingston, editor of the TEXAS ALMANAC. In the article in the 1986-87 TEXAS ALMANAC, Science in Early Texas, Kingston points out that like all early people, prehistoric Texans had well-developed senses of curiosity. 'And that's really the beginning of science,' Kingston notes. 'First people want to know how and why something works and then how it can be controlled.'

Evidence of this curiosity abounds, the ALMANAC editor asserts. The ancient atlatl, or throwing stick used to propel spears, required some understanding of physics. As a consequence, early man mechanically enhanced the strength of his arm.

Through experience in anatomy, the first Texans learned which parts of an animal were nutritious, and a primitive study of botany told them which plants were edible, which were poisonous and which had medicinal values. This early practice of science had a direct and immediate use, Kingston argues.

Perhaps the best examples of observation comes in the rock art and architecture of dwellings left by early inhabitants. There are drawings in at least two rock shelters that some astronomers think are attempts to record the supernova that created the Crab Nebula in 1054 A.D. If so, the Texas sky watchers were ahead of their European counterparts, who did not record the event, though Chinese astronomers did.

'The sky was important to all ancient peoples. From it they learned when to plant their crops, and religious ceremonies were based on the position of heavenly bodies, so they gave astronomical observations careful attention,' Kingston says. In East Texas, there are some evidence that the ancient Caddoes built their houses with the doors positioned to catch the first rays of the summer and winter solstices.

While reviewing the development of science in Texas through the 19th century for the ALMANAC article, Kingston also notes that one of the most unheralded figures in the state's history is a scientist, Mark Francis of Texas A&M. He developed an inoculation against Texas Fever and created a dip to kill the tick that carried the disease. With these contributions, Texas cattlemen could upgrade their herds with imported cattle that previously would have died from the fever,' Kingston explains.

Why does the current ALMANAC include a history of science in early Texas? Today we have ambitions to become a high-tech industrial state and a scientific research center, Kingston points out. 'If we achieve that goal, we need to know how we got there. And this history is a small step in that direction.'

The TEXAS ALMANAC is available at bookstores and newsstands, or it can be ordered from THE DALLAS MORNING NEWS/Communications Center, Dallas, Texas 75265. The book sells for $8.95 in paperback and $14.95 in hardback, plus tax and postage when ordered by mail.

Final planting date for insured barley and wheat in Donley County

November 30 is the final planting date for insured barley and wheat in Donley County, Texas, according to Jackie Harris, a representative for the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (FCIC).

Insured barley and wheat planted by November 30 must be reported by December 15 in order to receive full crop insurance coverage. The acreage report reflects the actual acreage planted and reported by the farmer. 'During the growing season, if damage occurs, notice should be given promptly,' Harris said.

Crop insurance based on actual production history (APH), is available this year to producers of wheat, barley, oats and rye in addition to corn, grain sorghum, soybeans, peanuts, cotton, rice and other crops. 'Increasingly, our insured producers are discovering that with a yield guarantee which reflects production capability, crop insurance establishes a farm income floor. Thus, cash flow and the ability to repay a loan may be more accurately projected,' explained Harris.

Lions Club 64th anniversary Banquet

The Clarendon Lions Club held its 64th Anniversary Ladies Night Banquet at 7:00 p.m. on October 21. The meeting was opened by Boss Lion JEM Simmons who served as Master of Ceremonies. Our song leader Lion Bentley, accompanied by Sweetheart Jessie Adams, led several songs. The rest of the Lions were too bashful to follow Lion Bentley's example when he knelt and sang "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" to his wife. A delicious turkey dinner followed the Invocation by Lion Truett.

Liontamer Messer was scheduled to introduce our guests following the meal, but somehow this got overlooked. We apologize for this. Next came the presentation of perfect attendance awards to Lions Carter, G.W. Estlack, Allen Estlack, Messer, Christal, Simmons, and Sharrar. Certificate of Service Awards were presented to Lions Simmons, Shelton, Sharrar, Messer, Bentley, Carter, Alderson, Smith and G.W. Estlack. Boss Lion Simmons received a President's Pin. Lion Larry Hicks received a Distinguished Service Award for heading up our Bingo Project.

Program chairman Smith introduced our program which consisted of a number of selections by the Clarendon College Cowboy Band which we enjoyed very much. The meeting concluded with the Benediction by Lion Alderson.

Convenience Banking?

What's So Convenient About:

PAYING higher interest on your loans?

EARNING LESS interest on your savings?

PAYING HIGHER service costs at banks?

LOSING local control over banking?

SACRIFICING service to the big banks' benefit?

YOU WILL HEAR A LOT FROM THE SO-CALLED CONVENIENCE BANKERS ABOUT PROPOSITION FOUR BUT YOU PROBABLY WILL NOT HEAR THIS:

The big banks of Texas hope to create a bank monopoly of your expense. Proposition Four has disguised branch banking as "full service banking". Whatever they call it - Branch Banking is a bad idea for Texas, and Texans will end up footing the bill for the big Texas bank holding companies to get bigger.

You especially don't want this to happen now since the Texas Legislature just passed a law permitting the large banks of New York City to purchase some or all of the large Texas bank holding companies. Not only can this legally happen now, but is almost certain to take place in the immediate future.

For all these years, Texans have never wanted or allowed the big banks of New York City to own and control the Texas Banking Industry. We are sure that this position by the people of Texas still has never changed.

Doug Seal calls for a new industrial strategy to make our industries globally competitively by:

- * An aggressive trade policy which promotes the export of U.S. goods and services abroad and enforces U.S. trade rights under international agreements.
- * Promoting new assistance for entrepreneurial small businesses.
- * Increasing federal investments in basic research and development to maintain the United States' world leadership.

AGRICULTURE:

Representing a state where agriculture is one of the leading industries. Doug Seal is a strong supporter of America farmers:

- * A competitive rate of return to farmers that is comparable to the rates of return earned by other American industries.
- * Family Farm remains as central to the success of American Agriculture as ever.

EDUCATION:

Doug Seal believes the U.S. must recommit itself to establish excellence in our educational systems and to providing quality education for every American.

- * A renewed commitment to Chapter I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.
- * Special initiatives to instill excellence in education
- * A renewed commitment to financial assistance for college students

ENVIRONMENT:

Doug Seal believes that we need to protect our air, our water and our farmland.

- *Prohibit landfill disposal of especially hazardous wastes.

DEFENSE:

Doug Seal would strengthen our military as we cut defense spending by redesigning our military in line with the critical challenges of today's warfare.

*Reform of the kinds of weapons we buy. Overly complex weapons cost too much and don't work well in combat. We need to buy simpler, more effective weapons in larger quantities.

* Reform of the way we make defense decisions. Military Policy should be determined by interservice rivalries or political considerations, rather than by the prospects for success in combat.

 When you rise to your highest and best, I am your Pastor...when you yield to temptation and fall to your lowest, I am your Pastor.

 When you make decisions that are right, I am your pastor...when you miss it and make grievous mistakes, I am your Pastor.
 When you walk the pathway of duty, I am your Pastor...when you enter the pathway of disobedience, I am your Pastor.
 When joys come to you that swell the notes of praise in your heart, I am your Pastor...when sorrow comes into your life, I am your Pastor.
 When you have done your best and deserve and secure the praise of men, I am your Pastor...when you have done your best and your good is evil-spoken of, I am your Pastor.
 When the way is clear and you know His will and way, I am your Pastor...when you are perplexed and disturbed about what to do and which decision to make, I am your Pastor.
 When everything goes right and you have not a care in the world, I am your Pastor...when nothing seems right and burdens multiply, I am your Pastor.
 When you please me by the stand you take and the wonderful spirit you manifest, I am your Pastor...when you disappoint me and cause sleepless nights, I am your Pastor.
 When you are living life to the full,

 I am your Pastor...when health fails and the end of mortal life seems near, I am your Pastor.
 When I reveal that I am human and have my own needs and infirmities and you are charitable and understand, I count it a privilege to be your Pastor!
 When we pray for each other and God answers our prayers...I will be a better Pastor.
 May the Good Shepherd Himself continue to bless us in this relationship and may we grow together in His grace as we walk together through the years!

Altho it was a rainy Tuesday there was a nice crowd out for the 3rd Tuesday Dance at the Community building on October 21st. Melvin Srygley and the Offbeats played some real good music.
 Carmen thought she was on vacation last Tuesday, only twenty-two came by for blood pressure checks. Maybe the first Tuesday in November won't be a rainy day.

They had four tables busy on Game Night, Thursday, October 23rd. I left at seven to go to the Chamber of Commerce Meeting.
 Barney and I left Friday afternoon to visit some of his relatives in the Fort Worth area. We had a very enjoyable weekend. Thanks to Hugh and Nova Neuhaus for taking care of the Musical Jam Session - I have heard from several they had a real good session. Twenty folks enjoyed the music of Hugh Neuhaus, Lucille Smith, Fred Fortenberry, Alyce and Cecil Munden, Shirley Bolen, Forrest Denton, Clyde Hoggard and Wally Sides.

Don't forget Saturday is November 1st - that's Fun After Fifty day at the Center. It will be the Thanksgiving dinner, so don't miss it.

- Balanced budget- Doug Seal believes the budget must be balanced and that the needs of people must be respected in the process.
- Strengthened National Defense- Our national defense must be kept strong but without the $500.00 claw hammers that have made the military budget wasteful.
- Re-vamping farm policy- Current farm policy bankrupts not only the farmer but the taxpayer. Doug Seal has a comprehensive plan for re-vamping U.S. farm policy.
- Import Oil Policy- The U.S. needs an oil policy of, by, and for the American people. An oil import fee would keep us from being held hostage by foreign interests, and would immediately create exploration and jobs in the domestic oil industry.

HEALTH TIPS FROM HEALTHMART

Dust-proofing measures are particularly effective when applied to the bedroom, and can result in substantial health benefits to the allergic patient. Here's how to reduce dust and other irritants in your environment:

1. Smooth, uncluttered, easily cleaned surfaces are recommended; bare floors and walls are suggested. Small objects, such as knick-knacks, books and records, should be placed in drawers or closed cabinets. Avoid making your bedroom a library.
2. If carpeting is unavoidable, low pile types are preferred.
3. Place zippered, airtight plastic or fabric encasings on all pillows, mattresses and box springs.
4. Vacuum floors and wood furniture surfaces weekly. Remove chenille spreads, if present, & avoid stuffed items such as quilts and comforters. Do not use feather or down pillows and replace your synthetic pillows every two to three years.
5. If patients must clean, a dust mask should be worn. These masks provide good protection and are re-usable.
6. In homes with forced air systems, central electrostatic precipitators or HEPA filters may reduce allergen levels; however, these expensive options are no substitute for effective dust-proofing measures within the home. Precipitators may generate irritating levels of ozone during prolonged operation and all units require regular maintenance. Free-standing "filter" units have uncertain value. However, central fiberglass filters, replaced monthly, are considered helpful.
7. These anti-dust measures, along with dehumidifiers, help to minimize the growth of mites, microscopic insects found in house dust. Dehumidifiers are also useful in controlling the growth of molds in the home. Condensation on surfaces and seepage of ground water should be restricted. Avoid moldy firewood, hay and dried plants and keep jute and straw accessories dry. Clean up food spills immediately. For mold-sensitive patients, boiler-type vaporizers at room level may be preferable if humidification is considered essential. Keep houseplants to a minimum as they tend to promote mold growth.
8. Outdoors, leaf-raking, cutting grass and hiking through dense undergrowth tend to worsen symptoms. A dust mask may make these activities more bearable. Elimination of ragweed and wild grasses as well as pollen-producing yard trees is also recommended.
9. Though central air conditioning is preferable, window units can be helpful, particularly in the bedroom. All doors and windows should be tightly shut. The window air conditioner (with its vent closed) should be operated only during room occupancy, preferably at night, when pollen levels are low.
10. Respiratory irritants to avoid: cigarette smoke, powders, such as laundry detergents and dry milk, shoe polish, cleaning products and scented cosmetics. Either eliminate these items or confine them to well-ventilated areas.
11. Patients with animal allergies react to epidermal scales, urine and saliva, which are readily dispersed throughout the home, when dry. Severe allergy to animals may improve dramatically within weeks or months after removing an offending pet. However, this avoidance measure should not be undertaken casually. Specific sensitivity should be clearly demonstrated and the results of a trial separation and reintroduction should be analyzed before a pet is totally removed from the home.

Watt's Happening in Hedley

by Peggy Watt

Liven up your Halloween evening. Enjoy a trip to the SPOOK HOUSE in the Hedley Fire Hall at 8:30 p.m. Friday, October 31st. This FREE treat is being sponsored by the Hedley Homemakers. Come join the thrill and chills at the Spook House.

Leon, Linda and Langly lunched with us Sunday. They visited with her parents, Albert and Edith Ivy and sister, Shirley Ivy in Memphis Sunday evening. They left Tuesday morning to Leuters, Texas where they will be making their home. They just stayed in Hedley long enough for us to get used to having Langly around then moved. Oh, well, I guess that's what we have kids for; for them to grow up and move away. We'll miss Leon and Linda, too, I guess. My parents will miss them much more than we will because they were in town and saw them two or three times a day, whereas we only saw them two or three times a week.

Paula Clendennen of McLean visited with her parents, Tom and Opal Clendennen last week. She and Opal went to Memphis.

Don and Erma Lee Young and Melissa of Wichita Falls visited with her parents, Woodrow and Ora Pearl Farris during the weekend.

Ora Pearl visited with Nella Gamble in the Nursing Home in Memphis last week. Nella has been ill.

D.K. and Beulah Hall visited with Royce and Thelma Hall in Clarendon last week.

Tanya Holland visited Heal Taylor in Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo Saturday. She spent the night with Sandy and Clara brought her home Sunday.

Jim and Cecilia Lemons of Brice, Tim and Jody Wigginton, Felicity and Joe of Wellington, Allen and Melissa Beasley, Benjamin and Alice of Memphis, Bobby Hoggard, Audra, Bill, and Candi met at Clyde and Mildred Hoggard's home for a party to celebrate Benjamin's second birthday. They enjoyed lunch and finished with a birthday cake.

Clyde and Mildred Hoggard attended the Plum Creek Rendezvous Saturday. I wish I had known about it. I would like to have gone. I understand there were Mountain Men there from all over the country with their muzzle loading rifles and cap and ball muskets. The men dressed in leather clothing and the women wore gingham and calico. It sounds like fun.

Red and Dean Hill took Red Doherty to Amarillo to see his doctor Monday. Red took him one day last week and they made the entire trip and didn't get a ticket.

Arthell and Velva Gibson of Pampa visited with her dad, Walter Johnson Sunday.

Helen Lamberson spent last week in Vernon helping her children, J.T., JR. and Colleen Lamberson moved into their new mobile home. When she got home her grandchildren, Mike and Donna Lamberson, Mikala and Ashley of Pampa were there.

Kenda Martin has been sick. She missed several days of school last week. Sis took her to the doctor in Memphis Monday. She's better and back in school.

Bobby and Pat Roland of Amarillo spent the weekend with his parents, Bob and Jessie Roland. They went fishing at Greenbelt Lake Sunday and Bobby caught a bunch of fish. Bob didn't catch any.

Ethel Favor and Jessie Roland went to Amarillo Monday and treated Ethel's sister, Oma Ray of Channing to a birthday lunch. They were joined by Ethel's daughter, Alice Paschal. Later in the week, Ed and Ethel enjoyed the company of their niece and nephew from Florida. I guess Ethel told me their names, but I've forgotten it.

Jimmy Owens and Berle Owens of Amarillo visited with their mother, Mrs. Cassie Owens Saturday. When I talked to Mrs. Owens, she told me that her son-in-law, Al Monroe, who recently had major surgery in Amarillo was home and recovering.

Su-San and I went to Amarillo Tuesday. We visited with Thunder and he took us to dinner. We also visited with Neal Taylor in Northwest Texas Hospital. He is improving daily from his accident. His mother, Sandy told us to tell everyone in Hedley that they appreciated everything everyone had done for them during the weeks since he was injured. From Amarillo we went on to Channing to attend the Eastern Star meeting. As we returned home, we stopped again in Amarillo and happened to meet Lisa Mullins. We visited with her for a little while.

That girl giggles more than any girl I ever saw.

Cindy Henderson and Karri and Suzy Mills and Jordan of Childress visited their grandmother, Mrs. Flossie Wood Sunday. Flossie is recuperating from eye surgery. She told me she was doing well and could see and was having no pain.

Nell Land, Geraldine Wiggins, Eddie Mae Fisher, Dorothy Brinson, Gail Johnson, and I attended the Friendship Night at Wellington Eastern Star Saturday evening. We enjoyed a delicious meal followed by a fun program. Someone once asked Charlie Bairfield what O.E.S. stood for and he told them, "Over Eating Sisters". That's an apt description.

Billy Mullins, Tony Clendennen, Bobby Johnson, and Johnny Lund are among the Hedley men who moved with the Ivan Dement road crew. They will be living in Stanford instead of Leuters. I understand Johnny's boys will remain in Hedley with their grandmother, Mildred Fontenot, and go to school. I tried to get Johnny to let them stay with me. We are down to two kids and my big old house seems almost empty at times. I think Johnny and Emory Lund is just what it needs to liven things up!

The election will be held on Tuesday, November 4th. I hope everyone will exercise their right to vote and vote for the candidate of their choice. Sometimes we take for granted the privileges we enjoy in America, one of which is the right to vote. Very few people in the world enjoy that right. In most countries in the world, if the people get to vote, they are told how to vote.

Hedley class reunion

The 1935-36 Hedley High School Class met October 11 at Hedley for a 50th year class reunion. They had a morning coffee at the hospitality room of the bank in Hedley, an array of donuts, cakes and coffee were served by Euva Blanks and Verlin McCracken. Imogene Bain registered the guests.

A delicious lunch was served to the class at noon by Wanda Jennings and a nice time was had by all. Their program Master of Ceremony was Marvin Hickey. Invocation was given by Olen Plunk. Welcome was by Verlin McCracken and memorial for deceased members by Imogene Bain.

The following members were present: Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hickey, Olney; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Blanks, Happy; Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCracken, Pampa; Mrs. Jean Bain, Sunray; Mr. and Mrs. Olen Plunk, Sunray; Mr. Homer Rickerson, Clarendon; Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Bell,

Clarendon Rodeo Club

This weekend was the last Tri-State rodeo for the fall of 1986. The Directors rodeo was held in Canadian, Texas, and Clarendon had seven members signed up to compete. Two of the members signed up from Clarendon were laid up with football injuries. Brad Shadle got hurt at the football game against Quanah, here Friday night. The other one was Jeff Mills also hurt from a football game which happened in the game against Wellington, last Friday night. Both of these guys have done a super job for the Clarendon Tri-State High School Rodeo Club this year, and we hope that they will be great competitors for the next session.

In the boys events, Jimmy Uptergrove had a great time of 10.920 in the Calf Roping and placed second. Jimmy also was in the Ribbon Roping and placed sixth with a time of 7.898. Way to go Jimmy, GOOD LUCK next session.

Monte Hollar and Chris O'Neal Team Roped but had a little tough luck. These two guys are true competitors and are sure to be in the money next session. Monte also roped with Ron Lane from Claude. They make a good pair in Team Roping and we hope to see them at the finals next year. Keep up the hard work and you will succeed in anything that you attempt.

Shannon Buckner was our only Bull Rider that was able to compete in this rodeo. He rode Sunday, but he had some bad luck and bucked off. Good try Shannon. Watch out because he'll be a real winner next time around.

In the girls events, Lisa Burch tried something new that she thought would help her out in her times, evidently it didn't work very well. She would rather not have her time in this article, but just wait until next session and that first rodeo of the new year come around, her and 'ol Benzar are going to give it all they got.

Once again the Rodeo Club would like to say THANK YOU to all of the moms and dads who have taken time out to haul us kids to all of these rodeos. We couldn't have made it this far without our parents to help out. And a most special THANKS to Burl Hollar and Jim Uptergrove for being two of the best sponsors we could have.

THANKS EVERYONE!!!

A Record of Achievement Managing the Public Trust

Garry Mauro is a problem solver. Where some see only problems, he sees solutions. He sees empty state coffers and he finds ways to fill them. He sees Texas schoolchildren with dreams of higher education and he finds ways to pay for those dreams. He sees falling oil and gas revenues and he figures out ways to increase them. He sees the West Texas desert and he creates ways to farm it. GARRY MAURO thinks solutions. And he backs up that thinking with action.

Garry Mauro—Texas Land Commissioner

- Collected more than $1.6 billion from the state's oil and gas leases to defray the cost of public education since taking office in 1983. Last year, Land Office deposits into the Permanent School Fund meant that Texas taxpayers paid an average of 7.2% less in state school taxes and 3.2% less in local property taxes.
- Modernized the Texas Veterans Land Program so that the last three years have been the most productive three year period in its 40-year history.

Congressman Beau Boulter Reports from Washington

TAXING THE PUBLIC'S PATIENCE

This past week, along with over 100 of my colleagues in the House of Representatives, I took a pledge. A pledge that I feel will work to the benefit of not only the citizens of the 13th Congressional District, but the nation as a whole. I pledged that at any future opportunity, I will vote against any income tax increase on the American worker.

Over the past two years, the majority of Congress has avoided facing up to what could be the most important fight this country will ever face. Probably every one of these representatives realizes that unless the current policy of borrow and spend is curtailed, our children and grandchildren will be saddled with a national debt, the size of which staggers the imagination. This debt currently stands at over $2 trillion.

Not many of these Congressmen, however, seem to want to make the hard choices necessary to reduce this tremendous flood of red ink. True, they pay an equally tremendous amount of lip service to reducing the national debt. But when push comes to shove, the lip service ends and the fast talking begins.

In fact, before this fiscal year, not one of the over 2000 federal programs managed to be cut. Unnecessary government spending must be reduced, and bureaucratic fat must be trimmed. It must happen, and it must happen soon.

Some Members of the House of Representatives, however, have another solution to our fiscal worries in mind. If given free rein, they would rather raise the taxes of the people that make this country productive. They don't feel that the federal government spends above its means. On the contrary, they believe that the American public is undertaxed.

I wholeheartedly disagree with this defeatist perspective. The American worker is the best engine for economic progress, not the federal government. By giving the individual the chance to dispose of the fruits of his or her own labor, the fate and priorities of the nation will be decided on by the people who should be making these decisions, not bureaucrats in Washington.

If this is not the case, why then did the Congress spend the better part of two years debating a massive restructuring of the federal tax code? Tax reform was, after all, a change of economic philosophy. Our representatives in Washington reached the conclusion that tax breaks for major corporations were not the answer to our economic problems, letting the individual retain more disposable income through lower rates was.

Now, however, some Members of Congress seem bent on turning their backs on this wise philosophy. They would like to raise taxes, take money away from the people who earn it, and replace the big corporations with the federal government as the engine for economic progress.

I didn't agree with every provision of the tax reform bill. It wasn't perfect, but compared to the current system of high rates, loopholes and tax breaks, it was a significantly better alternative. The point is, we have now committed ourselves to a course of lower taxes for the individual. You have my pledge that I will do whatever possible to stay that sensible course.
