'Hick' Halcomb, Who Managed Jerry Sadler Campaign, Not Newcomer In Political World

W. W. (Hick) Halcomb, a former Panhandle newspaperman, is getting on in Texas politics.

Halcomb, who gave himself the name of Hick when he conducted in a Panhandle newspaper a column headed "The World's Worst Hick," managed the campaign of Jerry Sadler, who won the nomination for the office of railroad commissioner in the run-off primary.

Halcomb started his newspaper career at Dumas and worked on several weekly papers in the Panhandle.

After he aided in the campaign of Governor Allred, Halcomb was made assistant secretary of state under Jerry Mann, who won the nomination for attorney general. While serving in that capacity, Halcomb headed a committee appointed to study prison reform. He also played an important part in shaping parole policies.

Several years ago Halcomb aided in the successful campaign of Gov. R. S. Sterling.

Halcomb left Austin more than a year ago and moved to Houston.

Miss Avis Lee McElvany left Monday to resume her study of journalism in the Missouri University at Columbia.

Highway Carnage Brings Heavy Loss of Life

AUSTIN—Twenty percent of the pedestrians struck by motor vehicles in Texas are killed, state police estimated today.

Of 1,238 pedestrians involved in traffic accidents in the first seven months of this year, 209 were killed and 929 were injured.

In order to lower this death rate state police urged pedestrians to obey traffic signals, refrain from crossing streets at places other than intersections and to face oncoming traffic when walking along highways.

Seven hundred and ten students enrolled in Clarendon schools Monday to mark the most substantial scholastic increase in several years.

Showing the most gain was Clarendon Junior college with an enrollment of 88 students. Two hundred and fifteen matriculated in the high school while the South Ward registered 251. Reported from the Junior High School today were 156 registrations.

The figures are far short of registration peak expected for the year, according to Superintendent H. T. Burton and Dean R. E. Drennan who say enrollment gains steadily during the first month of school.

The Junior High School enrollment is below that of last year, according to principal, McHenry Lane. However, Lane stated, there is a noticeable increase in the South Ward.

Meetings will be held in Clarendon and Hedley next week to acquaint Donley County farmers with the federal shelter belt work now available.

Sufficient trees for a 150 mile belt may be obtained upon application. They will be planted by the government. Land owners, however, must cultivate and furnish the land.

The Clarendon meeting will be held at the court house at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon while interested parties will gather at the Hedley school house at 8 o'clock Tuesday night.

Clarendon F. F. A. Will Have Educational Booth At Tri-State Fair

The economy of trench silos, the food saving value and the increase in palatability of feed will be the theme of the exhibit.

RAINS GIVE LIFE TO BURNING CROPS

Much Needed Moisture Is Received In County

Mother nature smiled on Donley County ranchers and farmers last week-end and watered their rapidly parching grassland and crops after a month of burning weather.

During the three days of precipitation, moisture measuring for 1/2 to over an inch was reported from over the county. The official measurement in Clarendon totaled .73 of an inch.

The rains were essential for cotton and feed crops that were showing many destructive hot spots.

BREAKING HOME TIES.

This week is the season when young men and women lie away to college, the breaking of the first link in home ties. Perhaps for the first year or two, they will return at Christmas, and mayhaps the next summer, unless they have the means and inclination to attend summer school. In any event, when our young begin going away to school, we will see them only on rare occasions once they begin to accept the responsibilities of life. Often, too often, they fail to return home for Christmas. Sad parents make the best of it but find that inevitable lump in the throat as they go about their daily lives, constantly reminded by pictures, pennants and athletic remnants of a day that was. All too often the parents come to realize that son or daughter (or both) care less and less to return home. After college days, they may not have the inclination, the time or the means, but if they could only look into the innermost lives of those who love them most, and whose lives are wrapped up in the welfare of their children they would likely write home oftener, and come home at every opportunity. At best, absence is one of the severest penalties placed upon parenthood.

PENALTIES OF PROGRESS.

Shall Clarendon make use of the WPA building program? The answer can best be arrived at by determining the cost. If the building could return no revenue, or supply a need or meet a necessity, then the cost to Clarendon would be a poor investment.

Let us take a look at our neighbors, Pampa, for instance, is in need of more paved streets. Recently a city-wide paving project was approved by the Works Progress Administration. The project calls for an expenditure of $100,000. Of this sum, the WPA grant will be $42,000. Pampa likely needs the paving, and can afford to spend $58,000 in order to receive the $42,000 as an outright gift.

Clarendon needs no street paving. Or at least not badly enough to spend any money on the project. Public gatherings may be held in either of two school auditoriums, or in either of two churches. Certainly the building project can receive no consideration unless there are those who feel that an increase in city taxes would compensate for the employment of a few laborers for some three months. Taxes must increase as money is spent because municipal funds generally come from bond or warrant issues. The nation may be able to spend its way back to prosperity, but Clarendon can't have such luck.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

This is the time of the year when the state health department pours it on, insisting on free space graft for the medical fraternity. How much better it would be to come out in the open on an ethical basis and pay for the space used. Local medical practitioners are not strong for space grafting, and it is about the situation in every town, but a few of the boys in charge of the association seem to think they can "get by" with it and spend the money on something besides advertising. But they can't.

And now, since farmers who cannot dig out an existence under the federal farm program, they are permitted to go on WPA. This is a great boost for the AAA!!

We pay for highway construction and maintenance through a gasoline tax. Along our highways marring the beauty are thousands of unsightly bill boards that pay no tax, county, state or federal. Many of the billboards are offensive to the sight and a menace to the safety of auto traffic. Can't we do something about this when the next legislature meets?

Destruction of food and clothing material of it-self is sacrilegious.

Down in Georgia they are plowing up thousands of acres of cotton ready to gather simply because they "planted too much." Why not gather the cotton, sell it and use the money to feed the hungry this winter? No people can disobey one single law of God and get away with it.

Do you think a picture of a nude woman on a billboard smoking or drinking is an aid to highway beautification? Why plant grass, flowers and trees along a highway and yet permit that highway to be cluttered up with unsightly billboards?

And here comes a letter from Harley Sadler thanking the folks for voting his cousin Jerry Sadler into the office of railroad commissioner. Jerry has Harley to thank for that success more than anything else, even his own personal efforts.

A fellow came in Saturday and asked a question. We pass it on to our readers. Here it is: "If Nero fiddled while Rome burned, will Gov. O'Daniel have his Hill-Billies play while he makes a flour mill out of the state capitol?"

And down at Hedley lives ex-service man big Bill Stroud who is given more credit for the veterans' hospital being located at Amarillo than most any other man except Geo. Broome. Wm. D. Stroud, you have done the Panhandle a great service, and we are proud of your achievements. Friend Stroud talks when and where it does the most good.

Teachers of the lower grades in our South Ward school made a master stroke a few days ago by having a picnic at the city park for the little folks who were to start to school Monday for their first time. This week is where the P.T.A. will come in for their excellent work carried on through each school term. More power to you good ladies and may you have fine cooperation from everybody.

And while we are on the school subject, did you know that practically every school in the Panhandle had a favorable mention in the Amarillo News Monday except the Clarendon schools where over a half million dollars is invested in buildings and equipment. Whose is the fault? Certainly not the newspaper because it is not their duty to send a reporter down here to get the information. What schools were mentioned, you ask. Well, here they are: Claude, Floydada, Canyon, Shamrock, Portales, Friona, Canadian, Higgins, Panhandle, McLean, Groom, Goodwell, Orla, Hereford, White Deer, Wheeler, Skellytown, Lefors, Farwell, Tucumcari, N. M. Clarendon's public school system is the equal of any in the state. Her Municipal Junior College is a member of the Southern Association of Junior Colleges and has the best junior college equipment of the state. This was made possible when the school board purchased the buildings and equipment of the old senior college, to which equipment has been repeatedly added bringing it right up to the topmost round of schools. Students from outside the district pay a lower rate of tuition in Clarendon Junior College than any other similar junior, or senior college, in the Panhandle. Our instructors comply with every requirement insuring a proper credit rating in the higher state schools. Then why can't Clarendon's Municipal Junior College, and her public school system in general, get the publicity it deserves?

There will likely be more said on this subject in this column next week. On the other hand, if any of our readers feel disposed to say anything, we shall be glad to publish their opinions.

Women of Texas the past week joined women from 29 other states in organizing a Consumers Tax Commission, with Mrs. Volney W. Taylor of Brownsville, state chairman. Mrs. Taylor was formerly president of the federated clubs of Texas. Women have long been trained to count their pennies. If they dig deep enough, and get this matter norated around enough, they are going to make professional politicians hard to catch in every state they operate.

If the lady who lost a new slipper near Sunnyview will come to the Leader office, she may have the slipper back. An honest man found it.

Somehow, there was just a lot to say this week. Sensible things we felt our readers ought to know about. Now that it has been said, you are entitled to a rest, and may you reflect deeply while resting.

FAIRS IN BIBLE TIMES

While it may be generally thought the Fair is a comparatively modern institution, yet the fact of the matter is it is one of the most ancient ideas and organizations of history.

The Bible tells of a fair which was held about 600 B. C., at Shushan, in the palace of the Persian King, Ahasuerus. According to the Book of Esther, Ahasuerus in the third year of his reign, showed "the richest of his glorious kingdom, and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even a hundred and four score days."

The exhibits consisted of white, green and blue hangings, "fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble the beds were of gold and silver. And they gave them drinks in vessels of gold, the vessels being diverse one from another." From that time on down to the present day, fairs have each year been one of the interesting events of civilized man.

Roy Jewell of Hedley had business in the county seat Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Chamberlain and sons, Fred and Lewis, returned to Clarendon last week from Colo.

RHYTHMAIRES TO HOLD MEETING 15th.

Plans for reorganization of the Rhythmair Club are being seriously considered. Club officials announced to-day and the 15th has been set as the date for hearing changes that have become necessary.

Although the Labor day dance was one of the most successful thus far presented by the Club, it was observed that there was a sharp decline in members and only the large guest list was responsible for the brilliant outcome of the affair.

Officials are desirous to make the Club substantial enough that there shall be no worry as to the outcome of any of its dances and this, they say, can never be so long as each dance is dependent upon the number of guests present. The club has built up a reserve of an amount in excess of $100, and each member of the club is an equity holder in any disposition thereof, therefore the club is asking that all members and former members

COTTON PRICE ADJUSTMENT COVERS EVERY PHASE OF CROP PRODUCTION

Cotton price adjustment payments on the 1937 crop will be made on a maximum of 60 percent of the 1937 base cotton production of farms for which applications are submitted, according to word received from the Washington headquarters by the state AAA office at Texas A & M College.

An appropriation of 130 million dollars is available for these payments. Of this amount, Texas will receive approximately $37,013,000 it was learned. The average payment rate will be 2.89 cents per pound.

While payments are applied to the eligible part of a producer's 1937 base cotton production, regardless of whether or not he took part in the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program, no payment will be made to a producer who knowingly overplanted his 1938 cotton acreage allotment.

In case the amount of cotton produced in 1937 was less than 60 percent of the base, payment will not be made on more than the amount actually produced, except in cases of crop failure from specified causes. The maximum payment rate applies to all eligible cotton produced in 1937 and not sold by the producer before September 10, 1937, and includes cotton held by producers or put under the 1937 government loan.

The payment rate on eligible cotton sold before September 10, 1937, will be the amount by which the average price of 1/8 inch middling cotton on 10 designated spot markets was below 12 cents on the date of sale, but not to exceed 3 cents per pound in any case.

In cases of crop failure due to hail, drought, flood, insect or fungus infestation, a payment not to exceed 60 percent of the farm's 1937 base allotment will be made on the normal production of the 1937 cotton acreage.

The amount of cotton eligible for payment on a farm will be divided among the 1937 producers in accordance with their share of the acreage planted to cotton in 1937.

Donley County Leader, $1.50 a year please attend the meeting to be held at the Parrish House and help to put the Rhythmair Club upon a more substantial basis, thereby assuring Clarendon of many more delightful dances.

What were the "seven golden candlesticks" that Jesus stood in the midst of when he first spoke to John? What was the angel of the churches that John was to send the letters to? All these important questions will be answered in the lesson to be delivered at the 10:45 morning worship hour. Will you come?

Household Hints For Removing Linen Stains Outlined By Local FSA Supervisor

By LOIS WAGGONER
Farm Security Administration
Home Management Supervisor

Early September is an especially trying season for the homemaker, who has managed to squeeze wash day in between the back-to-school rush and the now-or-never end of the canning season—only to find daubs of peach stain on her best linen tablecloth.

So in consideration for hundreds of homemakers faced with similar hectic washdays throughout the country, we're going to give a few hints on how to keep table linen spotless by simple, home methods. These hints are for white, washable napery, including that made from cotton and rayon as well as from fibers of the flax plant.

Foods now causing the most trouble as a result of accidents at table are fresh fruits, especially peaches, pears, and plums; milkshakes and soft drinks, grape juice, iced tea, coffee and chocolate; ice cream and frozen desserts of all kinds; and salad oil and salad dressings.

Chances of completely removing a stain are at their best if you begin work immediately, before the spot has had time to dry. By all means do the spotting before laundering. Merely smoothing the surface with a hot iron, often sets a stain so it is difficult to budge.

Brush or scrape off as much of the spilled food as possible. Use the simplest methods first. Sponging with clear, cool water often loosens the stain, and it practically never does any harm. Work with patience and care.

A bleach is the substance which comes nearest to guaranteeing final spotlessness in removing stains from white, washable materials. Sodium perborate is one of the best of bleaches because it works slowly and gently. Other good bleaches which are quicker and more vigorous in their action are oxalic acid and Javelle water. Oxalic acid has the disadvantages of being harmful to some materials and poisonous to human beings. Javelle water, and other similar chlorine bleaches commonly sold under trade names, are potent and very rapid in their action, and must be used with caution. Read and follow directions when using bleaches—or your table linen may age before its time.

Good absorbents to use on stains are chalk, white talcum powder, cornstarch, and corn meal. Absorbents act like blotting paper in taking up much of the staining material, and are especially useful for stains of a fatty nature.

A solvent of somekind, to dissolve the staining material, is almost indispensable in cleaning. Plain water will do the trick with sugars and starches. Carbon tetrachloride is invaluable for taking out grease and oil stains. It's the only common grease solvent which is nonflammable. Glycerin is best for dissolving tannin, which causes so much of the trouble with fruit stains.

To use a solvent, place the cloth, stain side down, against folds of soft, clean cloth or clean white blotting paper. Apply the solvent with a piece of cheesecloth or sponge. Thus the soil is forced down from the surface instead of being drawn up through the material.

A Few Don'ts Listed.

Here are a few DON'TS for removing spots:

- Don't delay action. Start now. See the job through.
- Don't press tablecloths that may have food stains. Remove spots before laundering.
- Don't start with a strong, concentrated bleach.
- Don't tackle egg, milk, meat, gravy or other albumin stains with hot water.
- Don't forget to use glycerin to remove tannin.
- Don't give up too soon. Impatience never took out a spot.

CLARENDON GIRL VISITS ARIZONA

By Fannie McGowan

On the morning of Friday, July 29, 1938, Mr. and Mrs. Culwell of Pampa, Texas and the writer left Clarendon for a vacation in the western states of Arizona and California.

Our first stop of importance was at Santa Fe, New Mexico. Here in this old Spanish city we saw many places of historical value—some of which were the state capitol building and the Governor's Mansion. We also visited The Museum of New Mexico, a large Indian museum and the oldest church in the United States.

As we traveled on westward to Gallup, we stopped and visited an exhibit of products from a turquoise mine.

We traveled until midnight Friday at which time we stopped at Holbrook, Arizona and spent the remainder of the night.

After a few hours of restful sleep, and a wholesome breakfast in Winslow, Ariz., we pressed on with great anxiety to reach Prescott.

One of the most interesting places that we visited was the meteor crater which is located 20 miles from Winslow and 40 miles from Flagstaff. This is a crater which was formed many thousands of years ago by the falling of an immense meteor, estimated to weigh 5,000,000 tons. The crater marking its crash into the earth is 800 feet deep and a mile across from rim to rim.

We reached Prescott Saturday afternoon. After a short visit with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Culwell pursued their journey onward to Los Angeles, California.

Located six miles from Prescott in the picturesque mountains and the National Forest of Arizona is the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jackson, cousins of the writer.

Here where the cool pine breezes blow and nature is at her best is where I spent three of the happiest weeks of my life.

Since this hospitable home is located in the forest, it was compatible that we visit the Ranger Station. This station is a tower located on top of Spruce Mountain, a mountain covered with silver spruce trees, where the United States Forest Ranger lives.

As most of us know, Arizona is noted for its mining of various minerals. It was my pleasure to visit a gold mine from which I brought back a piece of ore as a souvenir. May I add, that one of the employees of this mine is a native of the Panhandle of Texas; his home town is in Hereford, Tex.

The growing season in this mountainous region is very short and only a few plants grow well in this section. Probably the one plant that does better than any other is the strawberry plant. Mr. Jackson had the most beautiful strawberry patch that I have ever seen. He also has the largest strawberries that I have ever seen. We measured some that were six inches in circumference and several that were four and a half inches.

I spent two very pleasant days visiting one of the seven wonders of the world, the Grand Canyon. As the words of the poet say—

"No brush can paint, nor pencil trace,
The charm and beauty of this place;
Wonders that in this canyon dwell,
No tongue of man can ever tell."

Down in the Salt River Valley near Phoenix, the state capitol, there are various crops grown by irrigation.

Perhaps you know that Arizona is famous for its great variety of cactus plants. We visited the Cactus Gardens, which is located near Wickenburg, in which there are over one hundred different kinds of cacti.

This section produces lettuce, oranges, figs, grapefruit, dates, and olives which are shipped to all parts of the United States.

We left Prescott late Saturday afternoon, August 20, and arrived in old Donley, and Clarendon Sunday afternoon to report the most enjoyable vacation of our lives.

This is only a brief summary of my trip. There are many more interesting incidents that I should like to relate, but may I say, I hope that you have enjoyed reading this as much as I have enjoyed trying to write it.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tatum and family of Wichita Falls, who spent the week end visiting in the Henry Tatum and Clyde Douglas homes, returned to their home Monday.

PIGSKINS PARAGRAPHS

By DICK COOKE

Seven pretty husky lads, backed by four pretty light boys, going through a peppy scrimmage at College Field Tuesday afternoon, gave promise of pulling Clarendon High School football out of the mire of constant defeat.

The Bronchos, however, probably can't chalk up a victory before September 23 or 30 because they meet the eforts Pirates in the curtain riser here Friday week.

Led by Raymond Carruth, all district back, the Pirates are rated as one of the toughest clubs in these parts. After they entertain the Buccaneers, the Ponies take a whirl at Lakeview on the 30th. The Eagles lost two very valuable backfield men in Brister and Painter and have a pretty heavy line loss.

Jumping on down to other conference tilts, the Horses have a fair chance to take Memphis on October 21. The Hall county school suffered the worst line loss in the district besides losing their spark-plug, Talmage Pounds.

Then Wellington. The Rockets have more lettermen than positions with 13 boys winning stripes last fall. For a backfield they still have Estes, Bailey and Austin, with three years experience, and O'Neal with two years.

Two year men for line duty are Fulton, center and Moulton, end. The others are only one year men.

But going back to Tuesday's scrimmage, working in first string slots were Green, Huffman, Mears, Lane, McWhorter, Robinson and Spier from right to left end. Melton, quarter; Grady, fullback; and Pierce and Longan, halfbacks.

Miss Mantie Graves visited Miss D'Laurel Beville in Fort Worth last week-end.

Sixteen Branding Irons Used On Old Ranches Being Shown In Museum

The call goes out for more of the ancient branding irons, Mrs. L. S. Bagby announced Friday. There are 16 in the exhibit of the Donley County Museum now, but that is far short of the number of "first" ranches in the Panhandle.

One hundred and sixty-five articles of a varied assortment have been taken to the Museum since June. Among them is a leaf imprint in the Pliocene volcanic ash, a fine specimen, and a large knife such as is used by Mexicans in fighting "for their country." The last two named were loaned the museum by J. C. Estlack.
