Roner E. Mace Rites Are Held Wednesday

Former Donley Resident Had Lived In Albuquerque

Roner E. Mace of Albuquerque, New Mexico, died Tuesday, Oct. 11, 1938 in Amarillo following a major operation which he underwent in St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo, about a week previously.

Besides his wife and daughter, Jo Ann, he is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mace of Lelia Lake, two sisters, Mrs. J. A. Warren of Clarendon and Mrs. Z. N. Williams of Lelia Lake; five brothers, W. M. Mace of Lelia Lake; Tine Mace of Plainview; E. B. Mace of Ft. Worth; Frank Mace of Amarillo and Jim Mace of Washington State.

Mr. Mace was born near Stephenville, Texas, and was 42 years of age at the time of his death. He moved to Donley County about 35 years ago with his parents who settled near Lelia Lake, where he resided until he was grown. Some years ago he moved to Landreth, N. M. where he farmed for several years, but had recently been operating a grocery store and filling station at Albuquerque.

He was an active member of the Church of Christ. Funeral services conducted at the Church of Christ at Lelia Lake, Wednesday at three o'clock by M. C. Cuthbertson of Pampa, assisted by H. V. Crumley, with interment in the Clarendon Citizens' cemetery under auspices of Buntin Funeral Home.

Attending the casket were Bob Williams, Heron Mace, Adell Williams, Adkins Mace, Alvin Mace and Mayborn Trout.

STAGE IS SET FOR BRONCHO-CYCLONE FOOTBALL DRAMA AT MEMPHIS FRIDAY

Game To Highlight Current Grid Season For Both Clubs In Tie For First Place In Conference Standing

The stage is set. The last rehearsal has been held and the cast is ready for the lights to go up for the Clarendon-Memphis football drama Friday night at the new Cyclone stadium in Memphis.

Always the highlight for the football season in both towns, this year's conflict is a natural in the way of sporting events. While neither team is expected to have an outside chance of nosing out the powerful Wellington Skyrockets for the south half championship of 3-B, they are now tied for first place leadership.

A victory for either club would be sweet indeed for what could be nicer than to kick out an ancient rival and, for awhile, rest in the high chair of the race.

In the way of dope you may take your choice. The clubs have won only one game each and that one against the Lakeview Eagles. Memphis downed them two weeks ago, 19 to 0 while Clarendon barely managed a 7 to 6 win.

Clarendon dropped games to Mobeetie 6 to 7 and Lefors 6 to 26 while Memphis was losing to class A Quannah, 9 to 14 and Childress, 9 to 34.

Panhandle Settlers 600 Years Ago

The above photograph of a small portion of a new model in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society museum at Canyon shows the type of houses used in this section by the Indian inhabitants of 600 years ago. The model is a restoration of the Panhandle Culture ruins on Antelope creek in southwest Hutchinson County.

This exhibit is being shown at Dallas this week. This collection is made possible largely through the personal efforts of Mr. Floyd V.

Studer, nationally known archaeologist of Amarillo, whose avocation has caused him to render the southwest a real service in collecting material of the Panhandle's first settlers.

Mr. Clampitt Observes His 85th Birthday Tuesday

He looks after his farming interests at Ashtola, Canyon and near Lariat out near Farwell in person, and has been quite successful despite the dry years. He is regarded as one of the leading farm managers of northwest Texas.

DONLEY COUNTY HAS EXHIBITS AT STATE FAIR IN DALLAS THIS WEEK

Donley County is well featured in exhibitions at the State Fair in Dallas, J. R. Gillham, secretary announced today.

The booth is attracting widespread attention, Gillham stated. The background lists various crops grown here. On one side the importance of diversification is stressed while conservation of soil, moisture and feed is used on the other. In the center of the background, bundles of wheat, barley and oats are used in the display.

The local chapter of the F.F.A. gathered and prepared the material for the booth which will remain open until October 23rd.

Pigs Shown
Seven Donley county youths have twenty-two pigs entered in the club division. Joe Williams, Harice Green, Ray Isham, Carrol and Clyde Peabody, Pete Morrow and Russell Morris are the exhibitors. The pigs will be shown October 17 and 18 and the boys will go to Dallas Sunday.

The Donley county group is the largest single entry in the club division Gillham advised. Poland China, Hampshire and Duroc Jerseys are the classes entered from here.

Poultry Featured
In the Club boys poultry division, Donley county F.F.A. members have seventy-five birds entered. Fifty of the fowls, a part of the prize winners of the Tri-State Fair, will be shown in open competition.

Carl and Russell Morris are showing Columbian Wyandottes and White Orpingtons. Pete Morrow has Brown Leghorns; Herman Mooring, Blue Andalusians; Bill McDonald, White Giants and Claude Primrose, White Langshans.

Man In Local Jail Wanted In Iowa State Pen

Sheriff Guy Pierce said this morning that one of the two men arrested in Jericho recently after staging a sit down strike for food, was wanted in Iowa for parole violation.

Pierce said the man had a record of burglaries and had some tools when arrested by deputy Arthur Brown.

The two men were taken into custody after they told a woman in Jericho that they were going to sit in her yard until they were fed. Becoming angry, they tried to force their way into the door, Pierce stated.

Remove Engine From Salt Fork Near Wellington

It will be recalled that last June a Denver engine and crew went down in Salt Fork near Wellington when the bridge gave way, two of the crew being killed or drowned. The engine has been removed a piece at a time, the last of the job being completed Tuesday. The trucks of the tender were left in the quicksand. The parts were hoisted up a bank 396 feet high.

WHEN MARSHALL WORE UNIFORM

Recently in talking over old times here with Bob Muir, he allowed that Clarendon never had a city marshal in uniform. The writer recalled that it did, and offers proof. It was back in 1908 that a driver of a job wagon by the name of Phillips was delegated all the powers of city marshal. His name appears on the city directory. Friends was that of "High-pockets." Phillips dressed out in police garb, helmet hat and all. Did it knock their eyes out! And how!!! Unfavorable comment caused him to soon discard the regalia for more sober garb. The year was 1908, attested to by Jack Killough who refers to the event as the "doformed" marshal. Crockett Taylor further verifies the fact. Plenty of others will recall the good old days when Clarendon was a city with city airs.

Local Chevrolet Men Attend Convention Tuesday

More than twelve hundred dealers and salesmen are said to have attended the gathering in Oklahoma City Monday and Tuesday. The 1939 models of the Chevrolet series were on display. Banquets and talks by the "higher-ups" were among the interesting features.

Attending from here were manager W. W. Noblet of the Clarendon Motor Company and salesman S. C. Bell and Grover C. Heath.

ONE OF LIFE'S TRAGEDIES

(Safety Week Editorial)

The scene is laid in a small home kept clean by a mother's hands that show the effects of a washboard and menial labor. The mother busies herself about the home. Her two small children play with well-worn toys given them by the Legion boys last Christmas. Today is a big event in the mother's life. Her husband has been working the past month on a real job, after a year of service on a relief job barely affording them enough to keep body and soul together. How good it feels to be off relief, and John is coming home to take them nearer his new job. She plans clothing for the children, and possibly that blue dress in the corner store for herself. John would like to see her in that blue dress. "Blue always makes your eyes look like the sky," he used to say. Four o'clock. John must be home anytime now. He's hitch-hiking home to save every penny. Another hour passes and no John. No need to worry. Perhaps overtime and more pay. It looks like things are getting better as the mother's wan eyes stare at the door expecting it to open any minute. A step on the walk! She rushes to the door. A stranger with sad face informs her that the body fragments of her husband is at the morgue. He was killed by a reckless driver on the highway. The trinkets for the babies in his pockets are crushed just like the mother's heart. Her letters in his pocket laid the path of agony to the humble home. This is fiction, but such things have happened. Drive carefully—save a life.

OIL TEST LOOKS BETTER

Work on the wildcat test near Hedley was shut down Wednesday due to minor cavings. A string of casing is to be run and drilling resumed next Monday, it is said. The depth is 3647 barely topping the Pennsylvanian formation. Slight gas showing was noticed just before the casing began. This test is being watched with much interest by the oil fraternity due to favorable promise.

College Exes Hold Meeting Here Thurs.

Over 35 Clarendon College exes dined at the First Christian church last Thursday night to discuss plans for the coming reunion here, November 11-12. Former students were here from several towns in the Panhandle.

The Rev. G. S. Hardie, president of the school soon after the turn of the century was the principal speaker; he related interesting events during his time as college head.

Following Rev. Hardie's address, a round table discussion was held as plans for the reunion's program were gone over. C. I. Price, chairman, presided over the meeting.

O'Neil Finds Porcupine In Alleneed Country

On his rounds Tuesday, district game warden Polly O'Neil found a porcupine near Alleneed. This type of animal has its natural habitat in the mountains, and O'Neil let the animal go its way after seeing it whip a dog that backed off after getting a mouth full of quills.

Hedley P-T Association To Have Halloween Carnival

At a meeting of the Parent-Teacher association last week, the Hedley P.T.A. made plans for a Halloween carnival including all the thrills produced by the uncanny spooks extant in the land on the night when witches walk.

The association will hold their next meeting November 3, at 4 p.m. The subject: "Safety in school and home."

Donley Banks Show Conditions Better

Total Resources Up As Loans Show Normal Fall Incline

With over a million dollars on deposit, Donley County Banks reflect an excellent fall business showing an increase of $217,871.94 since spring.

Taken from the condensed statements of the four county banks, the exact deposit stands at $1,060,608.13 as compared to $842,736.16 as of June 30, this year.

The deposits represent only a small portion of the current cotton crop.

Loans and discounts increased approximately $100,000 as merchants, cattlemen and farmers increased working capital. The increase is normal for the fall business, bankers assert.

With a total of $1,382,860.70, the combined resources are up over $300,000 since the June call when the figure stood at $1,082,447.83.

Palmer Motor Company Has New Car Information

According to information received by their distributing agents here, the new car produced by the Ford company will be known as the "Mercury 8" with a wheelbase of 116 inches, a V-8 engine more powerful than any hitherto marketed by the Ford company. Hydraulic brakes and numerous advanced mechanical features, the announcement said.

A new professional WPA project was begun in Donley County Wednesday, Oct. 12th, which will be of vital importance to the County and the public in general.

It will consist mainly of arranging a complete and accurate index of the Commissioner's Court Minutes of Donley county since the county was organized to date. Other important work in connection will also be carried out, such as arranging all old county records of much importance and properly arranging and filing of same.

This work is under direction of Frank S. Peterson, Dist. Supervisor of Amarillo, who conducted the completed State Wide Tax Survey in this and other Panhandle counties and is sponsored by Donley County through the Commissioner's Court, Judge S. W. Lowe, and County Clerk, W. G. Word, who will be in technical charge of the work.

While the work is new and just starting, it is understood that the citizenship of Donley County is invited to visit the Project at any time to inspect the work and get information on the work that is to be done.

The Census Bureau reported cotton of this year's growth gained prior to Oct. 1 totaled 6,578,313 running bales, compared with 8,260,071 for last year and 6,031,950 for 1936.

MEMBER OF PANHANDLE PRESS ASSOCIATION

MODERN EGYPT AGAIN.

The Latter Day Saints of Salt Lake City have steadfastly refused to share in any form of government spending. No 'relief' aid has been needed for members of that church. In a meeting held Saturday as a part of the church's one hundred and ninth semi-annual conference, leaders outlined further plans to construct apartments and to establish additional storehouses for food. No hungry, ragged or idle in that city among the Latter Day Saints. Perhaps there is a lesson for us of other faiths. Our national leaders might learn something from the plan of these people, if they have not known all along that it is best to store up food and clothing rather than destroy it in an effort to raise the price to a higher level.

BAR BILL TO BAR.

The proposed state bar bill, under which the supreme court would have the power to discipline attorneys as well as to grant them licenses to practice, was endorsed by the board of directors of the Texas Bar association in Dallas Saturday. Those who complete law courses in our schools are now faced with a withering examination of perplexing questions, we are told, that the number of practitioners may be trimmed down to prevent 'over production' in that field of labor. The layman would likely suggest that all lawyers be required to pass the new bar examinations since the number would likely be reduced to a status of scarcity far beyond the expectations of the state association's board. Or would it?

JOB HOLDERS PROSPER.

Fearing a rush of unemployed to Texas, the state planning board has asked chambers of commerce and Lee O'Daniels and Gov. Jimmie Allred to quit boosting prosperity talks in Texas. The folks outside have heard this thunder, and are said to actually believe it. They are coming in droves despite the fact that 261,000 in Texas are looking for jobs.

There was a time when Lee and Jimmie were common poor folks. It has been a long time. In fact so long that they have forgotten slim fares and tattered garments. The state employment office says we don't need any more because we can't take care of what we have. The labor member of the planning board brands this era of prosperity bombast as a lot of hokey. Only those holding good jobs feel that Texas is a utopia. The ten thousand who have registered the past ninety days after coming to Texas' renowned prosperous area upon the call of spellbinders, may tell us that Texas is in one hell of a fix just like the rest of the nation.

Shelterbelts Planted 1938 By Forest Service Double Previous Years

Tree shelterbelt plantings in the Plains states, in which the Forest Service cooperates with farmers, in 1938 almost doubled the total for the three previous years, a report just released by Forest Service headquarters here shows.

A total of 6,871 1/2 miles of tree shelterbelts has been planted, of which 4,264 1/2 miles were planted in 1938, the report shows. A total of 11,636 farms have been served, 7,046 of them this year. Eighty-four million trees were used to establish these shelterbelts.

The largest mileage for the year was in Oklahoma, 1,039 miles on 1,870 farms; Nebraska was second with 1,007 miles on 1,725 farms.

Oklahoma also leads in total plantings, with 1,542 miles on 2,760 farms. Nebraska is second with 1,516 miles on 2,587 farms. Other state totals are: Texas 1,165 miles on 1,488 farms; Kansas, 1,150 miles on 2,088 farms; South Dakota, 843 1/2 miles on 1,594 farms, and north Dakota, 655 miles on 1,119 farms.

Shelterbelt planting in the Plains states is wholly cooperative, Foresters point out. Planting is done only after an application is received, an examination made of the planting site, and the soil prepared for planting. The Forest Service furnishes the trees, and uses relief labor to do the planting and build the fence surrounding the shelterbelt. The farmer furnishes the land, prepares it for planting, furnishes the fence material when needed, and cultivates the shelterbelt during the few years this is necessary.

GREAT NATIONAL CALAMITIES

The most disastrous fire of the century was that which followed the earthquake in San Francisco, Calif., when an estimated 28,000 buildings burned for a loss approximated at $350,000,000. Next in rank was the munitions plant explosion and fire at Lake Denmark, N. J., in 1926. The damage has been placed at $93,000,000.

Five fires since 1900 have killed more persons than the explosion-origin flames which wrecked the New London school building, killing 294 children, teachers and parents.

The greatest loss of life on the American continent from fire in the 20th century resulted from the burning of an excursion steamer at New York June 15, 1904. The fatality list goes down in history at 1,030. Other conflagrations exceeding the New London school disaster in the number of lives lost include the burning of steamships at Hoboken, N. J., June 30, 1900, 326 dead; the Iroquois theater fire in Chicago Dec. 30, 1903, 572 dead; Minnesota forest fires, beginning Oct. 12, 1918, 559 dead; and the Ohio State penitentiary fire at Columbus, April 21, 1930, 320 dead.

HOLC Is Spending $100,000 a Day to Improve Property

WASHINGTON—The Home Owner's Loan Corporation is spending approximately $100,000 a day to improve properties it has acquired through foreclosure.

Charles A. Jones, General Manager of the HOLC, reported that August expenditures of $2,800,000 marked a new high for repair and reconditioning.

The corporation, established in 1933, completed 12,339 reconditioning jobs in August, slightly fewer than in July. About $420,000 more was spent, however, and the outlay per property rose from $188 to $277.

GASOLINE TAX RECORD SEEN

AUSTIN, Oct. 8.—Gasoline tax collections for September, first month of the fiscal year, totaled $4,467,318 and indicated another banner year. Comptroller George H. Sheppard said.

The month's revenue ranked second only to July, 1938, when an all-time record of $4,470,719 was reported.

Sheppard said general economic conditions in September would indicate a decline and he attributed the increase partly to efficient enforcement methods.

September collections were $197,684 more than for the same months last year and $571,304 more than for September, 1936.

The Classified Column will sell it.

University Acquires Records Dating Back to 1524

AUSTIN, Oct. 12.—The University of Texas Library has announced the acquisition of the famous Garcia Icazbalceta collection of Mexican historical documents and books, which, added to the already imposing Garcia Library at that institution, affords that school the most extensive and complete assemblage of Mexicana in the world, outside of Mexico, it was stated.

The Icazbalceta collection is composed of 160 volumes, each rare in its own right, and 60,000 pages of manuscript, including the original of one of four letters written by the explorer Hernando Cortez to Emperor Charles V of Spain, dated October 15, 1524. It is a beautiful document and in an excellent state of preservation. In the opinion of collectors, "there is no measuring stick by which to appraise its spiritual value."

Walter Brady of Lubbock, and Tech student, was here Sunday to visit friends.

Miss Nellie Grady, student of Tech college, spent Sunday with home folks.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
 By the Apostle

It is said that "an honest man is the noblest work of God." At that, he ought to bear the manufacturer's stamp so the grocer won't get fooled.

Among the new models coming out the most peculiar is the GOP body fitted to a New Deal chassis.

No wonder the modern girl is a live wire! She carries so little insulation.

Poke Jarrol offers as another proof that the world is getting worse is that fifty years ago, no one ever heard of a filling station hold-up.

An apple may have caused the first man to trip, but peaches have played a big part ever since.

Smart Guy!

Ad in Iowa paper: "No hunting, trespassing on all ground owned by me. Wm. Wise."

All it takes to feather the modern love nest is just "a little down."

All Messed Up.

Check up on it! If the average person ate, drank, smoked and rubbed on all the dope suggested over the radio, that person would likely become a raving maniac. Perhaps that is why we hear the bullfrog honking about a hospital.

Mule Barn, Perhaps!

Kicked by a mule Saturday, Hastoon Yazzie says he knows the government will pay him for not working if he can find out who to write to.

Another Reason.

Ain't it too bad that you can't cut it out and paste in your scrap book the fine speech in your honor heard over the radio? Another reason why the radio can't take the place of your newspaper.

Bachelor Bill says his idea of a busy woman is one who knits while she rests, and does her talking in her sleep.

Same Ailment.

When you were a kid the fellow who went places and never appeared to be satisfied to stay anywhere very long, was classed as having "itching feet." Now they chop it down to merely saying he "has ants in his pants."

Home Ties Again.

City Judge Murray of Wichita, Kansas fined E. C. Elrod $1 and costs Friday when Elrod was hall-ed before him for permitting his wife to ride down town in his truck. Kansas laws permit no passengers, free or otherwise. Better look it up and see what your wife should have on her feet when she makes up bread. Or she may be one of the moderns who never learned to mix biscuit dough.

WPA's Innocent.

The Dies committee investigating un-American activities have tracked black, red, blue, green, gold and silver shirt organizations, but they can't fasten anything on the WPA worker. He lost his shirt before he went on relief.

Old Number.

If your picture was first taken on a tintype, no use to be looking for a job. The only place left to you is WPA. And you won't get fat on that, either.

Domestic Barter!!

A man in Indiana sold his wife for four dollars. Times are getting back to normal in price, but the old boy was arrested. For selling his wife? Nope! He failed to give a bill of sale with her. The livestock law of Indiana requires a bill of sale be given by the seller, rather than secured by the buyer.

The Kaiser thought "Meinself undt Gott" could lick the world, but Hitler goes the Kaiser one better. He thinks he can get along without God. Both are mistaken.

Biological Freak.

Sometimes, wild oats develop from a little rye.

Hastoon Yazzie says "ignorance ain't so much in not knowing a thing, as knowing so much that ain't so."

Bill Board Center.

Amarillo, better known as the "billboard center," is to build a hospital for the football betters who lost.

The antique of today is what grandmother wanted to throw away because it was out of style.

We elected Wilson to "keep us out of war," but today we need

The two big problems today before the hamlets, villages, towns and cities are, where to park and when to jump.

Headline:

"Spain May Split Under New Plan." Well that whole bunch was cracked when they started.

some one to keep the government "out of business" with better success.

Fun is like insurance. The older you get the more it costs you.

Biggest lie of the week: "Everybody is going to be allowed to produce all they can until everybody has everything they need."

New Stadium To Be Dedicated; Parade To Be Held Friday Afternoon; Students To Be Admitted Without Charge

MEMPHIS, Oct. 12.—Dedication ceremonies for the new Cyclone stadium will be held here Friday before the Memphis-Clarendon football game, W. C. Davis school superintendent said last week.

The courtesy of the local merchants and business men in cooperation with the Memphis chamber of commerce, school children in Hall and Donley counties will be admitted to the game free. Tickets were prepared last week and distributed to Memphis and Clarendon merchants. They are bleacher seats only.

According to the plans announced, a parade will be held at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, led by the Memphis and Clarendon high school bands and will be made up of more than 1,000 school children of Hall County who will come to Memphis to attend the game and dedication ceremonies. Other features are planned for the parade and the various school organizations, including the Pep Squad, will present various formations while in march.

Plans are being made to select the Football Queen from among the high school girls and, with fitting ceremony, she will be crowned at the dedication services. A photograph will be taken of the coronation and be given a page in the high school annual.

An effort is being made to secure a prominent speaker for the occasion.

During the period between the halves, pep squads and bands from both schools will participate in stunts and drills.

ROCKETS WIN

WELLINGTON, Oct. 12.—By a score of 7 to 6, the Wellington Skyrockets defeated the Hollis, Okla. Indians in the most closely contested game played by the Rockets this season. Mobeetie Hornets Down Bronchos 7 to 6 Here Friday Night

A pass from Mixon to Red early in the second quarter, then counted for an extra point after Mixon had slashed over the double line from Clarendon's one-half yard mark, gave the Mobeetie Hornets the edge they needed to down the Bronchos 7 to 6 Friday night.

The Mobeetie touchdown was set up in the first quarter when the Hornets drove to the Bronco 13 yard line, were held, took the subsequent Clarendon punt and came back to the locals 9 yard line where the first quarter's gun closed the period.

The Ponies looked good to stave off the counter after holding the mad Hornets for three line plays. They were, however, caught by an off side penalty which set the ball on the ½ yard line from where Mixon carried over. It was all Mobeetie throughout the first quarter with the Hornets hanging up 7 first downs to Clarendon's none. The Broncos rallied in the second to chalk up three first downs to Mobeetie's three.

Clarendon quarterback Waldron Melton won his way into the hearts of the local fans when he intercepted a Mobeetie pass on the Hornet 45 yard line and scampered all the way through a tight broken field. The try for point was a line smash that failed and the Bronco cause was lost.

Another Mobeetie threat was nipped in the bud by alert Burl Longan who recovered a Hornet fumble on Clarendon's 30 yard line at the outset of the third quarter. Red had taken a slow pass from Mixon for a 40 yard pick-up for Mobeetie, and it looked like they were going places. A Clarendon threat was also killed in the fourth when Mobeetie stiffened on their own 16 and took the ball from Clarendon on downs.

Big Boyd Allison was the running star for Clarendon although Grady circled end for several nice gains. Huffman with his jarring tackles was the defensive luminary for Clarendon.

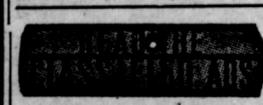

The line up:

Clarendon (6)	Po.	Mobeetie (7)
Splier	LE	Creekmore
Lumpkin	LT	Sivage
McWhorter	LG	Barton
Lane	C	Gordon
Johnson	RG	Mathews

PIGSKINS PARAGRAPHS

By DICK COOKE

The prognosticators fell by the wayside in last week's guessing contest with not a single one in the whole batch picking the winners. Many only had one loser, but the majority called at least two the wrong way. John Gilliam came up with the first prize from Bryan Clothing Company with a total of 80 points after missing only one game. He was only one count short of the actual total of 79.

In second place was Ralph Grady with only one bad pick and a total of 83 points. He gets the Douglas and Goldston award.

The irony of fate stepped in and clouded Clarence Whitlock who won third place and had to give himself his prize. The third place award is cleaning and pressing by the Shaver and Whitlock tailor shop.

Here's the guessing list for this week:

- *Memphis vs. Clarendon.
- *Wellington vs. Lakeview.
- *Shamrock vs. Wheeler.
- * Indicates where games will be played.

The Clarendon and Memphis game next Friday is a natural for local sport fans. Both clubs have only one win for the season and that against the same club, Lakeview. Memphis has an edge on the locals by virtue of playing at home where they will be heavily supported with a gala day crowd, dedicating a new Cyclone stadium. However it is reported that the Memphis star, Talmage Pounds, received a broken leg last week-end. He is a sparkplug of the Cyclones.

CHURCH OF CHRIST
H. V. Crumley—Minister.
This Lords Day we are studying the last of the seven letters to the churches in Asia; namely, "The Letter to the Minister of the church at Laodicea." Of this con- gregation that had much of this worlds goods, Christ says, "Thou are wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked." They were a lukewarm church; they were neither hot or cold; they, so to speak, straddled the fence. For this cause Christ says, "I will spit thee out of my mouth." If there is any thing that Christ hates, it is the christian that is just luke- warm; neither for or against; they neither work nor lay down. Come hear this lesson.
The Bible study starts at 10 o'clock sharp. The song service be- fore the sermon lesson starts at 10:50. Let us be on time.

SONJA HENIE STAGES BRILLIANT "ALICE IN WONDERLAND" BALLET

In their search for a colorful ballet to climax the skating numbers in her current 20th Century-Fox picture, "My Lucky Star," Sonja Henie and her dance director, Harry Losee, turned happily to one of the most beloved story-book classics of all time—Lewis Carroll's "Alice in Wonderland."

All of Carroll's fantastic creatures have come to life—and all on skates. Sonja skims across the ice in the company of Tweedledee and Tweedledum (appropriately played by Jack and Bob Heasley who are identical twins) and the Walrus and the Carpenter.

The philosophic caterpillar descends from his toadstool to join the dance, together with the King and Queen and Knave of Hearts; there are the Griffin and the Dodo, the Mock Turtle and the Dormouse, as well as the Ugly Duchess, the Cheshire Cat, the Mad Hatter, the White Rabbit, the Red and Black court attendants.

The ballet is worked into the story of "My Lucky Star" as part of a gigantic ice carnival which Sonja stages for a big department store. Contrasting with the brilliant costumes of the skaters is the formal wear of several hundred extras who appear as fashionable spectators. Even during rehearsals, the extras loudly applauded each scene, as did the scores of stars and studio workers who took time off from other pictures to come and watch the ballet.

Showing October 15-16-17, "My Lucky Star" finds Richard Greene, last seen in "Four Men And A Prayer," sharing top honors with Sonja. The cast includes Joan Davis, Cesar Romero, Buddy Ebsen, Arthur Treacher, George Barbier, Louise Hovick, Billy Gilbert, Patricia Wilder and Paul Hurst. Roy Del Ruth directed, with Darryl F. Zanuck in charge of production and Harry Joe Brown as associate producer. Mack Gordon and Harry Revel wrote the music and lyrics.

CARD OF THANKS

Friends, your sympathy and efforts to comfort us were worthy of our dear mother who has passed on. Words seem empty when the feeling we would give them is so deep. We want you to know and feel that you help us to carry on in the loss of our best friend, and most precious earthly possession. Today, with but a sweet memory of a noble life left to us, we thank you most graciously for every kindness shown her.

AMERICA A WORLD POWER

By Dortha Watson

America knows that she is a great nation. The elements of greatness were not imparted to her by the war, but they were revealed to her by the war, and their vitality and significance were increased through the war. The world, today as never before, knows and confesses the greatness and power of America. The world today admires, envies, and respects America.

Her voice reaches afar, her spirit travels across seas and mountain ranges to most distant continents and islands; and with America goes far and wide what she represents—democracy and liberty and peace, a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. This is Americanism.

Sometimes wonderful things come through war, we must admit. But we must ever regret that they came through war instead of peaceful justice. When they do come through war, their beauty is dimmed by the memory of the sufferings which were their price. Is there no other way to justice than war—that nations are forced to stoop to the methods of the animal and the savage?

America, the eyes of the world are upon you. Our eyes, the eyes of your children are upon you. We love you, we do not expect you to protect us; instead, we want to protect you, because we know that you are striving for eternal world peace.

THE SUPREME LAW OF BANKING

This Bank has always welcomed constructive legislation for its own sake and for the sake of its depositors.

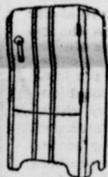

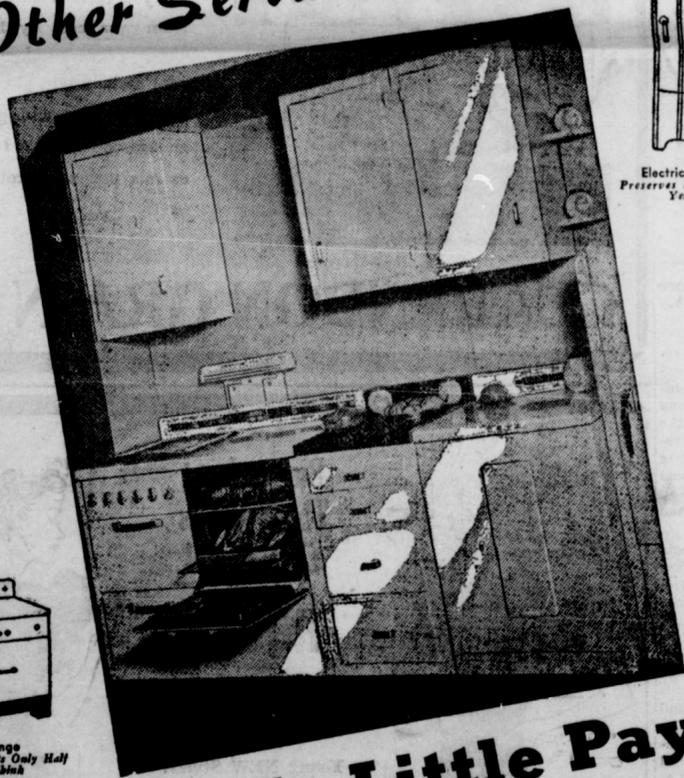

In the midst of today's discussions about banking laws—it is well to keep in mind the fact that no legislation can take the place of honesty of purpose and a strict adherence to the highest standards of banking practice. The unwritten law of character is still the strongest of all.

Presenting Clarendon Junior College

By Dorthea Watson

The rapid growth of the typewriter to a point where it has become indispensable in all lines of business and many other forms of activity is noteworthy. It was placed on the market about sixty-three years ago, and its usefulness was soon appreciated by the courts of law, business houses, and governmental departments.

That the typewriter is found everywhere in business to the practical exclusion of handwriting has long been evident. An average operator can write on the machine some sixty words a minute or at a rate about three times as fast as that of the average penman.

In the modern use of the typewriter the so-called touch system is extensively practiced. The typist is taught to locate the positions of the various keys so that he can strike them at will without looking at the designation of the characters. In this way increased speed and comfort to the operator are secured and even a blind person may use a typewriter.

The most important thing necessary for a good typist is technique. The student who desires to attain the greatest proficiency must devote himself from the outset to the training of the fingers to act with precision and to respond instantly. The real test of the typewriter operator lies in what he can do, not in his theoretical knowledge of the subject. To acquire a good technique, the following are of the utmost importance: systematic, intelligent practice, hard and continuous work; and an unbounded faith in one's ability to master the subject.

Typewriting that is not accurate has no commercial value. It is well to remember that it is a psychological fact that errors tend to perpetuate themselves. The same is true of correct habits. If the right practice is followed from the beginning, it will soon become a habit.

It would not be a bad idea for typing to be a required course. Everyone finds that at sometime in his life, if not many times, he should know typewriting. Many people are not aware of the fact that the so-called "Hunt and Peck" system is often very harmful to a good typewriter.

The typewriting department of this college is without doubt one of the very best. Twenty five new typewriters composed of Remingtons, Royals, and Underwoods have recently been installed. Many more are in demand, for classes were so large this year that some of the students wanting typing had to be withdrawn from the classes. Typing is indeed a popular subject in this school.

Visits School Teacher After Forty Years' Absence

What if you could visit your school teacher of forty years ago? That was a pleasure of Mrs. A. E. Tidrow recently when visiting her childhood home down in Baylor county. In 1896 the Round Timber school was taught by Crutcher Halle. The little brunette girl, no doubt wearing 'pig tails' as was the custom in those days, was Mrs. A. E. Tidrow who met for the first time in 40 years, and talked over old times with Mr. Halle. In the course of the conversation, she found out that her teacher was a brother of W. B. Halle of Clarendon. A pleasant meeting and plenty of thrills with a big surprise thrown in for good measure. "It was the best vacation trip I ever had," Mrs. Tidrow said, who visited relatives and friends galore down in Baylor.

COUNTY ATTORNEY FINDS COAT

After reading the notice of the county attorney's missing coat in the Leader last week, district clerk Walker Lane did a bit of sleuthing on his own hook. A minute inspection of the coat left with the county attorney disclosed the name of Judge W. A. Davis sewed to the cloth. Judge Davis was consulted but disclaimed ownership stating that his coat was at home. Later the Judge discovered that the coat at home did not match his pants, and swapped the stray coat to the county attorney for his own. Now all is quiet again in the capital building of old Donley, thanks to the Leader and the sleuthing of "Hawshaw" Walker Lane, who is entitled to the T-bone steak promised the Leader editor by the county attorney.

WARNING! DON'T SPEED!

The speed limit within the city limits is 20 miles an hour, and I'm going to stop speeding if I have to arrest the best friend I have," so spoke Sheriff Guy Pierce Monday.

He related how citizens had been reporting reckless driving near schools, others at night on school ground and on the streets. "Children under 14 years of age cannot legally drive a car," the Sheriff said in quoting the state law.

This is safety week all over the state. Every week should be safety week. Drive slowly and save a life. Those who disregard the law must pay the penalty. "Every good citizen should help enforce the law," Pierce said. And he could have added that every good citizen appreciates law enforcement. It's better that a few become angered than to have to bury a helpless child, or perhaps some aged one slow on the dodge. Let's be sane, drive sanely and do our utmost to keep the hearse away from our doors.

Purebred Pigs Mean More Money To Farmers, F.F.A. Members Declare

"Purebred hogs pay better returns than scrubs." This is the experience of members of the Clarendon F.F.A. who cared for sows and fed pigs for projects during the past year. The purebred sows returned an average of five dollars per litter over scrub sows and purebred barrows returned an average of two dollars per head more than scrub barrows.

The results of last years projects have caused the local youths to undertake an extensive hog improvement program as one of their major objectives for the year. Registered Hampshire, Poland China, and Duroc Jersey boars have been bought with the aid of the Lions Club, and the purchase of approximately twenty additional gilts and sows has been made possible by financing through local institutions. Forty-registered sows and gilts are now owned by F.F.A. members and the number is expected to reach fifty before the end of the current school year. The number of sows is equally divided between each of the three popular breeds of Hampshires, Polands, and Duroc Jerseys.

Thirty-nine of 41 boys enrolled in vocational agriculture plan to feed pigs for the spring show, and six F.F.A. members who are not in the vocational class have their pigs on feed.

Chief backers, helpers and moral support was given Manager John Gillham in placing the Donley county exhibits at Dallas by Led Jay and Don Matheson.

Mrs. J. A. Warren spent the fore part of the week in Amarillo visiting relatives, also attending her brother, R. E. Mace, who passed away Tuesday.
