When 439% Isn't

This issue of The Clarendon News carries an advertisement on Page Seven, warning taxpayers that their taxes are about to go up 439 percent. That ad is required by the Texas Legislature. The only problem is that the figures are totally wrong. The actual increase is from $1.07 to $1.17. And the elderly will not be touched at all.

The Texas Legislature, after about a decade of wrangling with the Federal Courts, created a new taxing entity a couple of years ago called "County Education Districts". They were intended to help even out the tax load between districts.

The courts quickly declared the CED's unconstitutional, but allowed them to operate for a short time anyway. Last year they helped pay for the cost of running the Clarendon schools. Now the money that local citizens paid to the CED will go directly to the CCISD. But the legislature made no provision for the short-lived CED's in their formula for "Truth in Taxation" as computed in 1993. So the document they mandated proclaims that taxes are going up 439 percent. In reality, the tax rate will increase 9.1 per cent; the budget will go up 3.3 percent.

The State has set the system up so that Clarendon [and most other school districts] has to raise local taxes. Otherwise, local schools would have their money from the state cut back drastically.

Local citizens, like those nationwide, are reacting cynically. They know that much of the "budget cuts" at federal and state levels are not cuts at all. Those "cuts" merely transfer the burden back to counties, cities and local school systems.

BUSINESS MATTERS

Program encourages exporting to Europe

I am a small business owner interested in exporting to Europe. Where can I get more information and how can I get involved?

The Texas Department of Commerce Office of International Marketing has an innovative way for small- and medium-sized businesses to penetrate the European market. It's called CASE Trade Days.

CASE is the Council of American States in Europe. They organize business matchmaking events, known as Trade Days, throughout the European continent. CASE is an inexpensive and effective forum for U.S. companies seeking export opportunities, distributors, representatives, joint venture partners, license agreements, and other commercial relations in Europe. Sales, commercial agreements, and important market information can be obtained through CASE Trade Days program participation. This is how it works:

- Summaries of U.S. products and services are coded and printed according to industry and state. (Each state represents approximately 50 companies.)

- A mailing and advertising campaign extends invitations to thousands of companies in a particular territory. European companies and business people who subsequently register for CASE Trade Days receive this catalog or list of the U.S. products and services offered and select those that may be of interest.

- At the Trade Days event, the State of Texas Office representative displays Texas companies' products and literature and exchanges pertinent commercial and contact information with the European companies and business people who have registered for the event.

- The State of Texas Office in Europe gathers and compiles information about the European company and its specific interest in the Texas company. This written "trade lead" is forwarded to the participating Texas firm for follow-up.

The Office of International Marketing is now taking applications for Texas companies wanting to participate in Trade Days. Between 150 and 200 companies will be accepted on a first-come, first-serve basis. A $200 registration fee covers three events. For more information about the CASE Trade Days, contact David Cox at 512/320-9625 or Teresa de Onis at 512/320-9669.

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (SWBT) is asking the Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUC) for approval to offer Caller ID service in Texas. This service includes Calling Number Delivery, Calling Name Delivery and Anonymous Call Rejection (ACR). This service will be deployed statewide on a staggered, city-by-city basis, over a period of years in Texas in association with residence, business single and multiline services, but not PBX, Centrex or Plexar services, where facilities are available. Caller ID is an optional service which allows a subscriber to see date, time, and the phone number (Calling Number Delivery) and/or name associated with the number (Calling Name Delivery) of most direct dialed local calls and some select long distance calls before the telephone is answered. Anonymous Call Rejection is a Caller ID service which permits a subscriber to automatically reject calls from callers who have blocked their number/name. Per-call and per-line blocking will be available when the service is deployed. Detailed information on Caller ID service and how to block will be sent to each customer in their telephone bill during the next few weeks.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in this proceeding should notify the PUC before October 6, 1993. Other parties may seek to also obtain Caller ID service in association with PBX, Centrex and Plexar service. A request to intervene, participate or receive further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. The line-dancing practice at 6 p.m. and regular dance practice at 7 p.m. are going strong. Since the weather is cooling down some, folks may feel more like coming to the Center on Monday evenings to participate in the dance activities.

The Center had a record crowd for the August Birthday/Anniversary supper on Tuesday evening, August 31st with eighty folks attending. Bob Farquhar opened the evening with prayer. The Happy Birthday song was sung to: Louise Dickinson, Mel Mills, Alvie Hicks, Rachel Butler, and T.T. Allred. The anniversary couple was Mary Lee and Lacy Nobles celebrating 58 years of wedded bliss. Clara Lohoefer won the door prize. Fun prizes went to Maxine McCrary, Alvie Hicks and Roy Chauveaux. The food tables were heavy laden with most delicious array of meats, vegetables, salads, desserts and breads. Thanks to everyone for your efforts toward the supper.

Jo Shaller captured the audience by reading some of the poetry she has written along with several pieces of cowboy poetry. Jerry Chambliss and Wes Thomas supplied a background of country music which added to the theme of the poetry. Needless to say the program was most delightful.

If anyone has questions or needs assistance with Medicare, Medicaid or Supplemental Insurance, the Health Insurance Counseling volunteer, Duana Wilkinson, will be here at the Center this Thursday, September 9th from 10:30 a.m. til 12:30 p.m. to help you. This is a volunteer service.

Social Security News

Bank Account Titles Affect SSI Eligibility

Having your name on someone else's bank account could keep you from getting Supplemental Security Income (SSI), says Jim Talbot, Social Security manager in Amarillo. "If you are listed as a co-owner of a bank account, Talbot says, we must count the money as yours even if your name is there merely as a convenience to the account holder."

Talbot explained that people cannot get SSI if they have assets (including bank accounts) worth more than $2,000 ($3,000 for a couple).

Here's an example: Janice Jones, applies for SSI. Her daughter, Stephanie, has $3,000 in a savings account. Stephanie lists Janice as a joint owner of the account—primarily so that Janice will have access to the money in case something happens to Stephanie. Although Janice doesn't consider the account hers, Social Security does. Janice could be found ineligible for SSI because she is over the $2,000 resource limit.

If none or only some of the funds in the account belong to Janice, she can retitle the account to restrict her access to the funds or reflect a situation where Janice is acting solely on behalf of Stephanie. Janice could also remove her name from the account or move any funds belonging to her to another account.

Proper titling is also important when community, civic, or social groups collect money for a special reason, such as to assist an SSI recipient pay medical expenses.

"for the money to satisfy its intended purpose," Talbot says, "the donors must place restrictions on the use of the money and title the bank account in which the money is placed to show these restrictions. As long as the account title shows the money cannot be used for food, clothing, and shelter, the account is not considered a resource," Talbot said.

If you would like more information on helping to set up bank accounts involving SSI recipients, contact your nearest Social Security office, or call Social Security's toll-free number, 1-800-772-1213, business days between 7:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.

(NAPS)—For youngsters aged four to ten, rear seat shoulder belts are no longer a pain in the neck. Thanks to the unique device, shown above, a child wearing the rear shoulder belt will no longer look like the child on the left. The device, developed by a team of Lansing Automotive Division engineers from General Motors, was recently introduced in the Olds Achieva. Aply called the Child Comfort Guide, it lets children comfortably wear rear seat shoulder belts without the belt interfering with face or neck as demonstrated by the child on the right.

Loans for Small Businesses

The First Bank and Trust is committed to our community. That includes the small businesses that are the backbone of our local economy.

Businesses have come to the First Bank and Trust for years. And for years we have worked together to build sound enterprises.

Businessmen and businesswomen have taken out loans for new facilities. They have enlarged their inventory and branched out into more profitable areas. And the First Bank was there to help.

But the bank has provided other valuable help as well. Loan officers have offered informal counseling that sharpened merchants' competitive skills. Bank people have suggested additional markets and other possible opportunities.

The bank is still committed to helping businesses grow, for as such businesses grow, they create new jobs, they bring new money into our community and ultimately they benefit all of us.

Association NEWS & NOTES

(NAPS)—Hundreds of crop farmers, ranchers and other landowners enjoy decreased costs and increased productivity by joining forces with a unique conservation organization:

• Called Ducks Unlimited, it's the number one private wetland and waterfowl conservation organization in the United States, Canada and Mexico, with over half a million members. In the past 50 years, it has restored nearly six million acres of wetlands—vital habitat for more than 600 kinds of birds, fish, plants and mammals.

• Its Private Lands Program takes much of the risk and expense out of testing new farming methods—such as rotational grazing, undercutting and flooding techniques—that are beneficial for wildlife and farmers.

• For example, through the Private Lands program, Mississippi landowners received water control structures made from steel pipe. The pipe let the landowners manage sections of their land for winter waterfowl habitat. By flooding these lands during the idle winter months, the landowners prevented soil erosion, recharged ground water supplies and provided more than 12,000 acres of waterfowl and wildlife habitat.

Attract Wildlife to Your Garden

You can attract birds and other wildlife to your lawn or garden by planting certain plants and trees.

True Birds and other wildlife are seeking food, shelter and water when they make their nests and establish their homes. You can attract the greatest variety of birds with multi-level plantings—that is, by using grasses, large and small trees and medium-sized shrubs.

It's easy to attract birds and other wildlife to your garden, according to the American Association of Nurserymen (AAN). Take the True/False quiz and see how much you know.

False While it's always a good idea to plant trees that attract birds, such as conifers and broadleaf evergreens, it's most important to consider the climatic, sunlight, temperature and soil conditions in your lawn or garden.

True Ask the experts at your local garden center to help you select plants, trees and shrubs that will grow well in your area and in the specific conditions in your yard.

True Birds can add a lot to your enjoyment of a garden, but it's difficult to provide them with adequate food and water.

False Birds eat a varied diet, including nuts, acorns, fruits and grains, depending upon the time of year and what is available to them.

ANDY ROBERTSON and Etta Milhoan cutting a rug during the Sock Hop

Medical Center News

Residents, staff, family and friends really had a wonderful time during their "Fabulous 50's Sock Hop" August 13th. The dining room was decorated with white, purple and orange balloons. They played many songs from the 50's. They would like to thank Shirley Osburn for lending them the music and Julie James for bringing the music for them. During the Sock Hop the residents enjoyed coke floats and then decided to burn off those calories by dancing. They really got their exercise as well as the activity staff who could barely keep up. They had 29 residents present for the Sock Hop.

August 18th they celebrated the Birthdays for the month.

Birthdays celebrated were: Andy Robertson, Fred Patterson, Tunnie Kent, Thruclie Foster, Corrine Harrison and Cora Hearn. Everyone has a wonderful time visiting over cake and punch. They had 30 residents present to help celebrate.

The residents enjoyed eating watermelon while watching the movie "Homeward Bound". They all enjoyed the Walt Disney movie, but mainly the watermelon. They would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Stamps for giving them the watermelons. They have really enjoyed the treat.

They have received many donations toward their Bereavement Room and they are greatly appreciated. They are anxious to get the furnishing of the room on its way.

PUBLIC NOTICE
BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED
CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS
SPECIAL ELECTION
NOVEMBER 2, 1993

PROPOSITION NO. 1
ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 9 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Texas Legislature to provide for the issuance of bonds for the state financing of start-up costs for historically underutilized businesses. The amendment provides that the legislature by law may establish a Texas historically underutilized business capital growth and start-up fund. The money in the fund may be used without further appropriation and only for a program established by the legislature to aid in the start-up costs of a historically underutilized business, as defined by the legislature. To carry out the program, the legislature may issue up to $50 million of general obligation bonds to provide funding. The legislature may require review and approval of the issuance of bonds, the use of the bond proceeds, or of the rules adopted by an agency to govern use of the bond proceeds. Bonds authorized by the amendment constitute a general obligation of the state.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to provide for the issuance of $50 million of general obligation bonds for the recovery and further development of the state's economy and for increasing job opportunities and other benefits for Texas residents through state financing of the start-up costs of historically underutilized businesses."

PROPOSITION NO. 2
ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 86 proposes a constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature, by general law, to exempt from ad valorem taxation all or part of real and personal property used, constructed, acquired, or installed wholly or partly to meet or exceed rules or regulations adopted by any environmental protection agency of the United States, Texas, or a political subdivision of this state for the prevention, monitoring, control, or reduction of air, water, or land pollution. The amendment applies to real and personal property used as a facility, device, or method for the control of air, water, or land pollution that would otherwise be taxable for the first time on or after January 1, 1994. The amendment does not authorize the exemption from ad valorem taxation of real or personal property that was subject to a tax abatement agreement executed before January 1, 1994.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to promote the reduction of pollution and to encourage the preservation of jobs by authorizing the exemption from ad valorem taxation of real and personal property used for the control of air, water, or land pollution."

PROPOSITION NO. 3
ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 3 proposes a constitutional amendment to clear land titles in which the State of Texas relinquishes and releases any claim of sovereign ownership or title to an undivided one-third interest in and to the lands and minerals within the Shelby, Frazier, and McCormick League (now located in Fort Bend and Austin counties) arising out of the interest in that league originally granted under the Mexican Colonization Law of 1823 to John McCormick on or about July 24, 1824, and subsequently voided by the governing body of Austin's Original Colony on or about December 15, 1830. Title to such interest in the lands and minerals is confirmed to the owners of the remaining interests in such lands and minerals.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment providing for the clearing of land titles by the release of a state claim in a fractional interest, arising out of the voiding of an interest under a Mexican land grant, to the owners of certain property in Fort Bend and Austin counties."

PROPOSITION NO. 4
ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 49 proposes a constitutional amendment that would prohibit a state personal income tax without voter approval and would dedicate the proceeds of any income tax, if enacted, to property tax relief and education. The amendment provides that a general law enacted by the legislature that imposes a tax on the net incomes of natural persons, including a person's share of partnership and unincorporated association income, must provide that the portion of the law imposing the tax not take effect until approved by a majority of the registered voters voting in a statewide referendum held on the question of imposing the tax. The referendum must specify the rate of the tax that will apply to taxable income.

The amendment also provides that a general law enacted by the legislature that increases the rate of the tax, or changes the tax in a manner that results in an increase in the combined income tax liability of all persons subject to the tax, may not take effect until approved by a majority of the registered voters voting in a statewide referendum held on the question of increasing the income tax. The referendum must specify the manner in which the proposed law would increase the combined tax liability of all persons subject to the tax. The legislature may repeal, or amend without increasing, a tax approved by the voters without submitting the amendment or the repeal to the voters. If the legislature repeals a tax approved by the voters, the legislature may only reenact the tax without voter approval if the effective date of the reenactment of the tax is within one year of the effective date of the repeal of the tax.

The amendment also provides that, in the first year in which an income tax is imposed, and during the first year of any increase in the tax, not less than two-thirds of all net revenues from the tax shall be used to reduce the rate of ad valorem maintenance and operation taxes levied for the support of primary and secondary education. In subsequent years, not less than two-thirds of all net revenues of the tax shall be used to continue such ad valorem tax relief. The net revenues of the tax remaining after the dedication of money for reduction of ad valorem maintenance and operation taxes shall be used for support of education. The maximum rate at which a school district may impose ad valorem maintenance and operation taxes is reduced by an amount equal to one cent per $100 valuation for each one cent per $100 valuation that the school district's ad valorem maintenance and operation tax is reduced by the minimum amount of money dedicated under the amendment, provided that a school district may subsequently increase the maximum ad valorem maintenance and operation tax rate if the increased maximum rate is approved by a majority of the voters of the school district voting at an election called and held for that purpose. The portions of the amendment relating to dedicating tax revenues to reduce the rate of ad valorem maintenance and operation taxes apply on or after the first January 1 after the date on which an income tax takes effect, except that if the income tax begins to apply on a January 1, the amendment applies to ad valorem maintenance and operation taxes levied on or after that date.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment prohibiting a personal income tax without voter approval and, if an income tax is enacted, dedicating the revenue to education and limiting the rate of local school taxes."

PROPOSITION NO. 5
ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 18 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the legislature to prescribe the qualifications of sheriffs. Currently, the constitution authorizes the legislature to prescribe the duties, perquisites, and fees of office, but not the qualifications for the office of sheriff.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to prescribe the qualifications of sheriffs."

PROPOSITION NO. 6
ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 21 proposes a constitutional amendment that would abolish the office of county surveyor in Jackson County. The amendment also provides for the powers, duties, and functions of the county surveyor to be transferred to the county officer designated by the commissioners court.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment abolishing the office of county surveyor in Jackson County."

PROPOSITION NO. 7
ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 57 proposes a constitutional amendment that repeals article XII, section 6, of the Texas Constitution, which currently provides that no corporation shall issue stock or bonds except for money paid, labor done, or property actually received, and that all fictitious increase of stock or indebtedness shall be void.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment repealing certain restrictions on the ability of corporations to raise capital."

PROPOSITION NO. 8
ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 22 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the commissioners court of McLennan County to call an election to abolish the office of county surveyor. The office of county surveyor will be abolished if a majority of the qualified voters of McLennan County voting on the question favor the abolition. If the office of county surveyor is abolished, the amendment requires the maps, field notes, and other records in the custody of the county clerk of McLennan County. After abolition, the amendment also grants the commissioners court of McLennan County the authority to employ or contract with a qualified person to perform any of the functions that would have been performed by the county surveyor if the office had not been abolished.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to abolish the office of county surveyor in McLennan County."

PROPOSITION NO. 9
ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 19 proposes an amendment to article VIII, section 13 of the Texas Constitution that would modify the provisions for the redemption of real property sold at a tax sale. The amendment deletes current language in article VIII, section 13 that allows the legislature to provide for the sale of property without trial to pay for delinquent taxes. It also states that the deed to the new owner vests a good and perfect title subject only to redemption as set out in this amendment or impeachment for fraud. Language is added limiting application of the current two-year redemption period to former owners of residence homesteads and land designated for agricultural use sold for unpaid taxes. When property is sold as the result of a suit to enforce collection of unpaid taxes, the amendment would allow the legislature to limit redemption to property used as a residence homestead or designated for agricultural use at the time the suit was filed. The amendment creates a second type of redemption for former owners of real property when property is neither a residence homestead, nor designated for agricultural use. These owners would have a six-month period in which to redeem their property by paying the amount of money paid for the property, including the Tax Deed Recording Fee, all taxes, penalties, interest, and costs paid plus an amount not exceeding 25 percent of the aggregate total. The amendment applies to redemption of properties sold at a tax sale for which the purchaser's deed is filed on or after January 1, 1994. For redemption of properties sold at a tax sale for which the purchaser's deed was filed before January 1, 1994, the former law is applicable and remains in effect.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to modify the provisions for the redemption of real property sold at a tax sale."

PROPOSITION NO. 10
ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 34 proposes a constitutional amendment that adds a new section 49-b-2 to article III of the Texas Constitution. This new section provides that, in addition to the general obligation bonds authorized to be issued and sold by the Veterans' Land Board (the "Board") by sections 49-b (3950 million) and 49-b-1 ($1.3 billion) of article III, the board may provide for, issue, and sell general obligation bonds of the state in an amount not to exceed $750 million to provide financing to Texas veterans. $250 million of the bonds authorized by this new section shall be used to augment the Veterans' Land Fund (the "Land Fund"). The Land Fund shall be used by the Board to purchase lands situated in Texas owned by the United States government, an agency of the United States government, the State of Texas, a political subdivision or agency of the State of Texas, or a person, firm, or corporation. The lands shall be sold to veterans in quantities, on terms, at prices, and at fixed, variable, floating, or other rates of interest determined by the Board. Lands in the Land Fund that are offered for sale to veterans and that are not sold may be sold or resold to the purchasers in quantities, terms, prices, and rates of interest determined by the Board.

New section 49-b-2 creates the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund II (the "Housing Fund II"), and $500 million of the general obligation bonds authorized by the section shall be used for the Housing Fund II. The Housing Fund II is a separate and distinct fund from the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund (the "Housing Fund") established under section 49-b-1 of article III. Money in the Housing Fund II shall be administered by the Board and shall be used to make home mortgage loans to veterans for housing within this state in quantities, on terms, and at fixed, variable, floating, or other rates of interest determined by the Board. The principal of, and interest on, the general obligation bonds authorized by this section for the benefit of the Housing Fund II shall be paid out of the money of the Housing Fund II. The principal of, and interest on, the general obligation bonds authorized by section 49-b-1 of article III for the benefit of the Housing Fund shall be paid out of money in the Housing Fund. If there is not enough money in the Land Fund, the Housing Fund, or the Housing Fund II, as the case may be, available to pay the principal of, and interest on, the general obligation bonds authorized by this section or by sections 49-b or 49-b-1 of article III, there is appropriated out of the first money coming into the treasury in each fiscal year an amount that is sufficient to pay the principal of, and interest on, the general obligation bonds that mature or become due during that fiscal year.

If the Board determines that assets from the Land Fund, the Housing Fund, or the Housing Fund II are not required for purposes of the fund, the Board may transfer the assets to another of those funds or use the assets to secure revenue bonds issued by the Board. The revenue bonds shall be special obligations of the Board and payable only from and secured by receipts of the funds, assets transferred from the funds, and other revenues as determined by the Board and shall not constitute indebtedness of the State of Texas or the Board. The Board may issue revenue bonds from time to time, which bonds may not exceed an aggregate principal amount that the Board determines can be fully retired from the receipts of the funds. The revenue bonds shall be sold in forms, denominations, and in installments, and bear a rate or rates of interest as the Board determines.

The general obligation bonds authorized to be issued by the Board by this section or by sections 49-b and 49-b-1 of article III shall be issued and sold in forms and denominations, on terms, at times, in the manner, at places, in installments, and shall bear a rate or rates of interest the Board determines. The bonds shall be incontestable after execution by the Board, approval by the Attorney General of Texas, and delivery to the purchaser.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing issuance of $750 million in general obligation bonds to augment the Veterans' Land Fund and the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund and to fund the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund II."

PROPOSITION NO. 11
ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 31 proposes a constitutional amendment relating to the duties of trustees of local retirement systems which provide retirement and related disability and death benefits for public officers and employees and that do not belong to a statewide retirement system. The amendment provides that the board of trustees of such a system shall (1) administer the system of benefits; (2) hold the assets of the system for the exclusive purposes of providing benefits to participants and their beneficiaries and defraying reasonable expenses of administering the system; and (3) select legal counsel and an actuary and adopt sound actuarial assumptions to be used by the system.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment providing that the trustees of a local public pension system must administer the system for the benefit of the system's participants and beneficiaries."

PROPOSITION NO. 12
ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 23 proposes a constitutional amendment providing that any person accused of a violent or sexual offense committed while under the supervision of a criminal justice agency of this state or a political subdivision of this state for a prior felony may, after a hearing and evidence substantially showing the guilt of the accused, be denied bail pending trial. If the accused is not, however, accorded a trial within 60 days from the time of his incarceration upon the accusation or indictment, the order denying bail shall be set aside unless a continuance is obtained upon the request of the accused. In the amendment, the term "violent offense" means murder, aggravated assault (if a deadly weapon was used or exhibited during the commission of the assault), aggravated kidnapping, or aggravated robbery. The term "sexual offense" means aggravated sexual assault, sexual assault, or indecency with a child.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment permitting the denial of bail to certain persons charged with certain violent or sexual offenses committed while under the supervision of a criminal justice agency of the state or a political subdivision of the state."

PROPOSITION NO. 13
ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 13 proposes a constitutional amendment that amends article VII, section 17(a), of the Texas Constitution to provide that, of the $100 million currently appropriated by that section for the use of public institutions of higher education during each fiscal year, those institutions may also utilize this money to pay for acquiring, constructing, or equipping or for major repair or rehabilitation of buildings, facilities, other permanent improvements, or capital equipment used jointly for educational and general activities and for auxiliary enterprises to the extent of their use for educational and general activities. For the five-year period beginning on September 1, 2000, and for each five-year period thereafter, the legislature, during a regular session that is nearest, but preceding, a five-year period may, by a two-thirds vote of the membership of each house, increase the amount of the $100 million constitutional appropriation for the five-year period. The amendment also reflects name changes that have been made to some of the institutions of higher education for which such funding is available. The amendment adds the Texas State Technical College System to those institutions eligible to receive such funding, but limits its allocation of the annual appropriation to 2.2 percent of the total appropriation each fiscal year. The amendment also provides that each governing board authorized to participate in the distribution of money under article III, section 17, may also issue bonds and notes for the purposes of refunding bonds or notes issued under that section or prior law for the purposes of acquiring capital equipment, library books and library materials, paying for acquiring, constructing, or equipping or for major repair or rehabilitation of buildings, facilities, other permanent improvements, or capital equipment used jointly for educational and general activities and for auxiliary enterprises to the extent of their use for educational and general activities.

The amendment deletes language in article III, section 17, which authorizes the legislature to designate a single agency to issue such bonds or notes in lieu of the governing bodies, and to transfer to that agency the authority to collect and pledge money to the payment of such bonds and notes as directed by the governing body of each eligible institution. Funds appropriated under article III, section 17, may not be used for the purpose of constructing, equipping, repairing, or rehabilitating buildings or other permanent improvements that are to be used only for student housing, intercollegiate athletics, or auxiliary enterprises.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment relating to the amount and expenditure of certain constitutionally dedicated funding for public institutions of higher education."

PROPOSITION NO. 14
ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 45 proposes a constitutional amendment that adds a new subsection (e) to article III, section 49-h, of the Texas Constitution. The new subsection provides that, in addition to the amounts authorized by subsections (a) ($500 million), (c) ($400 million), and (d) ($1.1 billion) of section 49-h, the legislature may authorize the issuance of up to $1 billion in general obligation bonds and may use the proceeds of the bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping new corrections institutions, including youth corrections institutions, and mental health and mental retardation institutions and for major repair or renovation of existing facilities of those corrections and mental health and mental retardation facilities. The amendment also provides that the provisions of subsection (a) of section 49-h, relating to the review and approval of bonds, and the provisions of subsection (b) of section 49-h, relating to the status of the bonds as a general obligation of the state and to the manner in which the principal and interest on the bonds are paid, apply to bonds authorized by this amendment.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of up to $1 billion in general obligation bonds payable from the general revenues of the state for projects relating to facilities of corrections and mental health and mental retardation institutions."

PROPOSITION NO. 15
ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 37 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the county commissioners court of a county to call an election to abolish the office of county surveyor. The office of county surveyor is abolished if a majority of voters of the county voting in the election approve the measure. If the office of county surveyor is abolished, the maps, field notes, and other records of the county surveyor are transferred to the county officer or employee designated by the commissioners court.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to permit the voters of a county to decide, at an election called by the commissioners court, whether to abolish the office of county surveyor in the county."

PROPOSITION NO. 16
ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 44 proposes an amendment to article III, section 49-i(b) of the Texas Constitution, which currently limits the principal amount of bonds outstanding at one time for the Texas agricultural fund to $25 million and for the rural microenterprise development fund to $5 million. The amendment would raise the principal amount limit for the Texas agricultural fund to $100 million. The amendment would also make the principal amount limit for each fund apply to the total principal amounts of both bonds and notes issued or sold rather than just the principal amounts of bonds outstanding at one time.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing up to a total of $100 million in bonds and notes to be issued or sold to finance the Texas agricultural fund for providing financial assistance to develop, increase, improve, or expand the production, processing, marketing, or export of crops or products grown or produced primarily in this state by agricultural businesses domiciled in the state."
