Kincaid Receives Award

Carylon A. Kincaid, president of Mortgage Recruiting Consulting, Inc. has won the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year Award of 1993 in the category of Minority/Women - Owned Business. Ms. Kincaid was one of 25 finalists for award, which is a nationwide program sponsored by the Big Six accounting firm and Inc. Magazine.

She is a native of Clarendon, Texas, and is the daughter of the late Walter and Lois Alexander who resided in Clarendon for more than 40 years. She is the grand niece of Mrs. Willie Gardner, a current resident of Clarendon.

Ms. Kincaid's recognition now entitles her achievements to be considered by a panel of judges for the national award to be announced at a Palm Springs, California ceremony in November.

"This award," Ms. Kincaid said, "was made possible by the effort and encouragement of many extraordinary people at MRC. Very often, we don't have time to stop and reflect on our achievements, but winning this award has afforded me that opportunity, and I'm grateful for my blessings."

She is at the age of 40, probably one of the youngest leaders of a major multi-million dollar corporation in the United States. Mortgage Recruiting Consultants, Inc. is a Dallas-based corporation founded in 1985 and is a service organization designed to provide support staff and other services to the financial industry. The company has grown from a one-person operation eight years ago to a 1993 standing of 62 corporate employees, more than 500 interim employees, three divisions and five office locations in the southwest.

The three operating divisions are MRC Staffing Services, which provides interim and permanent staffing for mortgage banking, thrift and related financial industries; MRC Consulting Service, which is the division directly involved in procurement, management, administration and consulting on all contracts for the company from government agencies and private companies; and MRC AccountPros, which was developed to provide specialized accounting professionals and support staff for all types of corporations and companies which are now in challenging employment situations.

Ms. Kincaid has built MRC from the ground up with a constant eye on the same ethics, professionalism and management philosophy that she offers to her clients. Just as her corporation is based on recruiting the precise personnel for the job, with the skills and expertise matched to the requirements of any project, she has done the same for her professional life. Her top managers and supervisors have impressive track records in the staffing of project management and outsourcing.

In 1980, Carylon worked at First Texas Savings & Loan, then the largest S&L in Texas. She was one of the youngest operations supervisors in its largest corporation branch in Dallas, then she started the company's first mortgage production office in the state, focusing on marketing and sales. She led the state in mortgage production for four years, training many of the lending officers statewide and acquiring the company's contracts.

The Clarendon Lions Club held its regular meeting on Tuesday, July 6, 1993 at the Lions Hall with 15 members and 9 guests in attendance. Ryan Burns, Youth Director of the First Methodist Church was the guest of Lion Tamplen.

Program Chairman Don Smith informed us that he had programs lined up for the next 6 weeks. He then introduced his boss, Dr. Jerry Stockton, President of Clarendon College, who bought our program. Dr. Stockton told us that Clarendon College had received over $800,000 in gifts and grants over the last 3 years. Plans are underway for a new building on the Pampa campus which will be entirely financed through gifts and grants. We enjoyed Dr. Stockton's program. meeting adjourned.

SO Clears 18 Burglaries

The arrest of a juvenile and an adult cleared up some 18 burglaries. Most were in the Howardwick area. Many were burglaries of a habitation.

According to the Sheriff's Office, Darrell Whitaker, 17, and a juvenile allegedly committed about 10 burglaries on Sunday, July 11. They will be charged with eight other offenses in a period from February to the present.

Burglary of a habitation is a First-Degree Felony. Burglary of a building is a Third-Degree Felony.

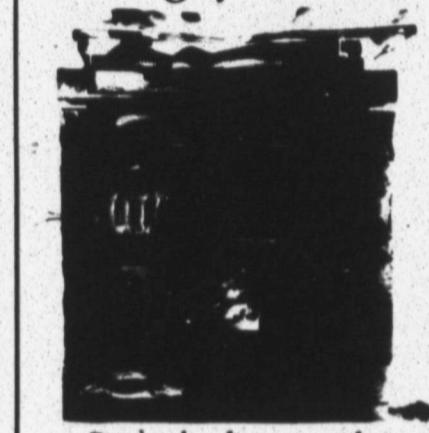

The youths apparently stole many hundreds of dollars worth of goods, including liquor, guns, VCR's, speakers, fishing equipment, knives, jewelry and other valuables.

The suspects turned themselves in when they realized that there were about to be caught. After the arrest, the older suspect was driven through the burglarized area and pointed out to officers houses that he had burglarized. He told them what goods were taken from each.

The investigation is continuing.

If your boat is not performing the way you'd like it to, a good place to start when considering changes is at the prop. Different props will make boats perform in different ways. Some improve the hole shot while cutting top-end speed. Others improve your top end, but make it more difficult to get out of the hole. Still others offer a compromise, improving both areas somewhat. Before making any changes, however, decide exactly what is most important to you in terms of performance. Then, discuss options with your local dealer to come up with the right combination. And don't change a couple of things at the same time. Make one modification, then measure its impact before trying something else. It's a great approach to improving the way your boat performs. ## Pointers For Parents

Teach Your Children Driving Safety

(NAPS)—The "death zone"—when a teenager is statistically most likely to be killed in a car—is between 9 p.m. and 3 a.m. on a summer Saturday night. More than half of all teenage automobile deaths occur at night, and 59 percent on weekends.

"Parents should take heed during summer months," says Farmers Insurance Executive Vice President William H. Braddock, whose company has launched a national education program targeting youthful drivers.

According to the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety, nearly 1,800 teenagers die on U.S. roadways during summer alone.

Georgia Wood, Nacona, TX. Cenia Phipps, Nacona, TX., Dupree Linsteadt and Elizabeth Huff, Denison, TX., Christine Martinez, Andrea and Ashley, Wylie, TX., Elaine Gwynne, Steve and Michelle Stavenhagen, Amarillo, TX. Kathryn Langston, Rockwell, TX., Cassie, Steffan, and Blake Skinner, Wylie, TX., Paul and Ja Nae Mc Peek, Jennifer and John Davenport, Bedford, TX., John and Ila Wood, Amarillo, TX., and Vernon and Nina Wood, Ft. Worth, TX.

Visitors included: William and Juanita Meadow and Billie Ashcraft. Thank you visitors for coming by. We were glad to have you. There were 29 present. We all had a good time, and hope every one comes back next year.

Braddock, who was instrumental in launching Farmers' Youth Education and Safety (Y.E.S.) program, urges parents to discuss safety issues with their teens, and to discourage unnecessary driving during the Saturday night "death zone."

"Don't be complacent because your son or daughter is a good driver and never drinks," cautions Braddock. "Many teen fatalities are passengers, not drivers."

What can parents do? Braddock offers the following tips for parents in dealing with their teens:

•Set the example. Our adult attitudes toward driving are often much too casual. Let your teen know by the way you drive that it is an important activity deserving full attention and respect.

•Insist on seat belts. It's the single most important safety precaution any driver can take.

•Be strict on drinking and driving. Impress on your teens that underage drinking is illegal. If they encounter problems, make sure they have a safe alternative.

•Alcohol-related crash of a young driver.

•Restrict nighttime driving. Forty percent of all teenage driving deaths occur between 9 p.m. and 3 a.m.

Baseball Ends

The 1993 Clarendon Little League culminated in another successful year. The associations officers were: President, Richard Barr; Vice President, Kevin Thompson; and Secretary, Sally Barr. Teams and their coaches were as follows: T-Ball: Red Peppers - Tangelia Copeland and Cheryl Bennett; Purple Pirates - Penny Murphy and Stan Shelton; Rangers - Grett and Renca Betts; Minor League Girls: Fireballs - Toni Bohlar and Connie McKinney; Pink Pazaz - Gina McKinney, Nancy Kidd, and Renca Betts; Minor League Boys: White Sox - Davis and Carol Lane, and Robert Tolbert Jr.; Rockies - Mike Word, Jeff Walker, and Regina Wooten; Bad Boys - Dale Adams, Les Brown, and Bryan Leeper; Boys Major League: Cubs - Lynn Floyd and Joe Mike Yankee; Yankees - Richard Barr and Alvin Reese; Girls Softball - Dan and Teresa Dronzek; Senior League Boys - Joe Neal Shadle, Denise Bertrand, and Charlie Deyhle.

Players selected to play in the High Plains East All Star Tournament were: Clarendon Yankees - Mark Howard; Cubs - Derek Shields, Cale Shields, D.J. Edwards, and Nathan Floyd. Girls Softball All Stars were as followed: Jill Hicks, Cindy Hearn, Niki Carter, Cathryn Chamberlain, Kirsten Bertrand, and America Santos. Dan Dronzek was selected as Girls Softball All Star Assistant Coach.

The Clarendon Little League Association would like to take this opportunity to say "Thank You" to some very special businesses and people. Without their support the association would not be possible. Allsup's, Taylors, Jim Aveni, Benny and Annette Osburn, Connie McAnear, Jondell Moffett, and the City of Clarendon. Also a great big thank you to all the coaches, score keepers, plate umpires, parents and players. Thanks also goes to the following businesses for the fields signs: Mike's Pharmacy, Bivens Pharmacy, Clarendon News, Lane Plumbing & Electric, Floyd's Automotive, Security Abstract, B & R Thriftway, Clarendon Dairy Queen, Jack Owens, The Hitchin Post, Simmons Insurance, Knorpp Insurance, Mary Country Kitchen.

The association would like to remind all coaches that all unpaid player dues, all uniforms, and all equipment must be turned in to Richard Barr by Friday, July 16. Your prompt attention in completing this task will assure the organizations continued existence and growth.

The 1994 Clarendon Little League officers were recently elected as follows: President, Terry J. Floyd, Vice President, Mike Spier, and Secretary Treasurer, Annette Osburn.

•Use available resources. Remember, parents are not alone. Driver education programs are important. School, health care and traffic safety officials are glad to help and student organizations such as Students Against Drunk Driving are excellent. Your insurance company can also assist. For example, through the Farmers Y.E.S. program, the company's agents visit families in their homes or at the office to offer counseling through a video and workbook to newly licensed teen drivers.

Drivers Need to Comply

In nearly 33 months that Texas-based commercial motor drivers have had to study for and take the tests necessary to receive a commercial drivers license (CDL), some 412,000 persons required to have the license have done so.

"We're concerned, though, that some of the drivers in our state who are required to have a CDL don't yet realize that they are now commercial drivers," Inspector John Hall, who administers the Texas Department of Public Safety's Commercial Driver License program, said.

"The law requires some drivers who previously did not meet the criteria of a commercial driver to get a CDL," Hall said. "For instance, a person who drives a vehicle designed to carry 16 or more people (including the driver) now is considered to be a commercial driver, and that could include drivers of vehicles used by churches and day care facilities," he said.

The Texas Department of Public Safety began issuing commercial drivers licenses in September of 1990 and the law mandating that drivers of certain classes of vehicles obtain a commercial drivers license went into effect April, 1992. The Texas law was implemented to conform to the federal Commercial Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1986 that, among other things, makes it illegal for an operator of a commercial motor vehicle (truck or bus) to have more than one license. In addition, it defines who is categorized as a commercial driver.

The law also makes a CDL mandatory to drive a vehicle that weighs more than 26,000 pounds or carries certain hazardous materials. There are exemptions for farm, military, emergency, and personal-use recreation vehicles.

"The law also helps prevent abuses by interstate and interstate commercial drivers, who in many instances had multiple licenses and could spread traffic offenses over different states to circumvent license suspension or revocation," Hall said.

The federal law set up a national registry for commercial

SLO-MOTION BAND Local Man in Award-Winning Band

Jay Gage, who was born and raised in Clarendon, is a member of Slo-Motion, a band that recently won the True-Value Country Show down.

Slo-Motion performs Progressive Country Music throughout the Panhandle of Texas, Oklahoma and Eastern New Mexico. They recently won the area competition of the True Value Country Music Showdown. Their performance included two original songs, "Cold Nights," written by Earl Brosch, "Panhandle Highway," written by Kerry Scheller, and "She's Gonna Win Your Heart," a popular song written by M. Williams and B. Burnette.

Founded in 1984 by lead singer Earl Brosch, Slo-Motion's performances have included openings for such recording acts as Restless Heart, Martina McBride, Canyon, The Maines Brothers, Travis Tritt and Patty Loveless. Slo-Motion will also perform at The Midnight Rodeo Chili Cookoff, July 18, 1993, taking the stage before recording artists Shennadoah. Slo-motion has also played many other clubs, lodges, dance clubs, weddings, barn dances and special occasions. Members include Earl Brosch, Stacy Scheller, Kerry Scheller, Jay Gage and Scott Lambert.

drivers licenses in order to track in which state a person is licensed. Also, the registry allows driving records from other states to be combined with a driver's home state driving record.

The new law imposes stricter penalties on commercial drivers who violate certain traffic and alcohol/drug laws.

The law also gives Texas the authority to use traffic convictions from other states to suspend a CDL and adopts the federal criteria for disqualification of commercial motor vehicle operators.

Since the law went into effect nearly 15 months ago, DPS and other law enforcement agencies have issued citations to persons who do not have a CDL but were required to. CDL suspensions/disqualifications for various lengths of time have been taken against drivers of commercial vehicles.

Anyone needing a CDL or with questions about the CDL law should contact the nearest DPS Driver License Office.

THE ECONOMY AND YOU

Made In U.S.A. Awareness On The Rise

By Robert E. Swift (NAPS)—With growing awareness of the strong link between U.S. job losses and rising imports, it is not surprising that more Americans want to know where a product was made before they buy it. Research shows that country-of-origin is now more important than brand when U.S. consumers shop for clothing and home textiles. Price remains an important factor, but that increasingly leads consumers to Made in U.S.A. The average consumer price of imported apparel has equalled or exceeded the average price of U.S.-made apparel since 1985. As textile-product imports have gained U.S. market share, their price has escalated faster than the price of U.S.-made goods.

U.S. textile products have something else in their favor: Numerous studies have consistently shown that consumers consider the quality of U.S.-made clothing to be superior to the quality of foreign-made—particularly clothing from the Far East, where workers' wages are as meager as 24 cents an hour in China and 18 cents in Indonesia.

This preference for U.S.-made is not new. In the mid-1980s, the Good Housekeeping Institute asked women to rate the quality of U.S.-made clothing and Far East-made clothing on a scale of 0-to-10 (lowest quality to highest quality). Nearly 80% ranked Made in U.S.A. at seven or higher while only 30% ranked Far Eastern clothing at seven or higher. A 1989 Yankelovich study for Time and CNN found that 82% of consumers believed the United States made better quality clothing than other nations.

In the 1990s, concern over job losses has reinforced consumers' motivation to look for a Made in U.S.A. label. An April 1993 study by Demand Factors found that almost three times as many women agreed that people who buy foreign-made products are helping put Americans out of work, versus those who disagreed.

Thank You,

The Project '94 Parents would like to thank everyone who helped make our chicken barbecue and ice cream booth over the 4th of July weekend so successful. A very special thank you goes to B & R Thriftway, The Grocery Store, The Lions Club, The Dairy Queen, Tailors and Allsup's. Your help and contributions are very much appreciated.

Thank You,

We, at Rawhide Leather, wish to express our sincere thanks for the respect and dignity each of you extended to us during your celebration of Independence Day.

We, Charlene and I, were raised in small farm communities in Kansas. We had forgotten that we had learned as children about people helping people and not keeping tabs on who owed what to whom. We had forgotten that there was always a helping, loving hand extended to those in need.

I was amazed that two or three thousand people could, still in the 1990's come together unite, in a common bond, for six hours for one cause, to share and build something for the betterment of the community. The shows we've attended in the past have been of the nature of grab my money and run! This is not so within your town. Ms. Pickard and her office made us feel at home, usually we were outsiders. We knew no one and were treated like family. Your people spoke to us with the same attitudes as if they had known us for years.

I wish to personally thank all of the folks who helped us pick up pictures from my scrap book when the wind blew them away.

Especially the ladies with the ice cream stand. I want to thank the elderly gentlemen and granddaughter for helping us Charlene put the poles and tables back up and the people who restaked our tie lines.

The attitude of the people of Clarendon have changed our lives. We thought this type of attitude has died along with many of the small towns in America.

I had tried everything I could think of to make our business go and grow in the largest towns and was ready to shelve it again.

We had asked God to supply our needs and cover our expenses with this show before we left Amarillo and to show us a new direction.

Our sincere thanks go to a man who gave us a deposit on one expenses pictures and asked if I'd take a two party out of town guaranteed Hot check. I looked at him for a moment, laughed and figured the clothes her wore and his shoes were worth half the amount (if I had to chase him down) and said yes. Thanks Mr. Tim Britten, you have one of my oldest and most loved works. I already miss it.

I haven't attended a show, until now, where someone didn't cut my work or my prices. That wasn't so here. Not one person made an off-color statement. You have extended dignity and respect to us that I thought only existed in my memories.

We, with your permission, would like to come back next year. We have made arrangements with Pat and Bob McCombs to show at your Trader Days in August.

For the kindness you've shown us, and in tribute to your hospitality, we will reduce the prices on nearly all of our ready made leather goods; this is in hopes that they will be in a much easier reach of nearly everyone in your community.

In August, we should bring three new pictures. One of Christ ascending, one of the good shepherd, and one of the American Eagle with the Stars and Stripes.

With your permission (the community's as a whole) we would like to be a part of your Special Project and donate a percentage of all our sales during August Trader Days and all future events.

We will probably always keep our residence in the larger city for the convenience it offers, but our hearts will always be in small town U.S.A. with people like you.

Thank you for giving us hope for the morals of this great Country and faith in it's people.

Sincerely Yours,
Kenneth Stites
