Plans Set For Clarendon's Fourth of July Celebration And Rodeo

FULL PROGRAM OF ENTERTAINMENT FOR VISITORS

PANHANDLE'S OLDEST FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION BIGGER, BETTER

Final plans for the Fourth of July Celebration were arranged by the special committee this week. Two rodeo performances will highlight the celebration event. The program will start at 10 A.M. with music by the Pampa Harvester, Memphis Gold Medal, and Clarendon high school bands under the direction of Ray Robbins, local bandmaster. A public speaking will be held at 11 a.m. under the direction of Sam M. Braswell. Efforts are being made to secure a noted speaker for the occasion. At noon free coffee will be served on the courthouse lawn by a representative of the Duncan Coffee Company, makers of Admiration and Bright and Early Coffees. Free ice water will be provided throughout the day. R. E. Drennan and Stanley Carlile will have charge of the placement of the tanks and the providing of ice water.

At 1:30 P.M. the program will consist of band parades and concerts of visiting bands under Robbins' direction. The program downtown will close at 2:45 and the rodeo will start at the ball park at 3 P.M. under the direction of George Norwood. Streets on sides of the park will be blocked and approximately 15 men will be secured to police the roads and sides of the park.

An old fiddlers contest will resume the down town program at

PENNSYLVANIA MAN HERE ENROUTE TO CALIFORNIA

Dr. Roy B. Deer of Philadelphia, Pa., arrived here today to visit with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Sam M. Braswell. He is enroute to Los Angeles to attend the Northern Baptist Convention in his official capacity as Executive secretary of the Pennsylvania Baptist Convention.

This is his second trip to Clarendon, having been here some eight years ago.

The Fourth of July Committee has gone to a great deal of expense and effort in arranging the program for the celebration, the success of which will depend upon the cooperation received. Booster trips will be made June 27th and 28th to all neighboring cities. Advertising featuring the fact that the Clarendon celebration is the oldest 4th of July Celebration in the Panhandle and giving the program for the same was distributed in Pampa, Tuesday at the "Top 'O Texas Fiesta."

George Norwood will be general superintendent of the rodeo, Emil Hutto and Dude Gentry will be timers, "Shy" Johnson will be flagman, and the following men have been asked to be the Judges for the two performances: Allen Jefferies, Joe McMurtry, Bill Thornberry, Loyd Shelton, and La McClellan.

Bert Smith will be in charge of the fireworks. Chairmen of the street dance and old fiddlers contest will be announced at a later date.

FRANK HARDIN IS MASONIC MASTER FOR COMING YEAR

LOCAL MASONS ELECT STAFF OF OFFICERS AT FRIDAY MEETING

Clarendon Lodge, A. F. & A. M. No. 700, held its annual election of officers last Friday evening at the Masonic Hall, and elected the following to lead its activities for the coming year: Frank Hardin, Worshipful Master; Van Kennedy, Senior Warden; W. C. Slater, Junior Warden; W. H. Patrick, Treasurer; R. C. Weatherly, Secretary; Joe Horn, Tiler.

Installation will be held June 26th, at which time the appointive officers will be named.

COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE WILL BE MOVED SATURDAY

The office of the county agent and the Donley County AAA committee will be moved Saturday to the building now occupied by Price's Book Store on the east side of Kearney street in the middle block, it was announced today.

The move is caused by the need for more room as the detail work of the officers will be increased this year.

Clyde I. Price, proprietor of the Book Store has not made plans for moving his store, he stated.

Chicken Barbecue Opens Summer Fun At Country Club

Opening the season of fun and fellowship at the Clarendon Country Club, a chicken barbecue will be held this evening at the Club grounds shortly before sundown.

Members of the club have deposited dressed chickens at the ice plant for storage yesterday and the toothsome fowls have been placed on the bit for barbecuing at the hands of experts this afternoon.

Members have been notified as to guest limitations, and have the privilege of bringing what other food they may desire to make the picnic supper one of the usual high standard common at such affairs.

Other such barbecues will follow during the summer according to announcement of the officers of the Club. Clyde J. Douglas is president.

Construction On REA Lines Into Donley Begun Saturday

Actual construction on the Greenbelt Rural Electrification project which includes service to a section of Donley county east of Hedley was begun last Saturday, when stringing of wires from Wellington, to Quail and to within a few miles of Hedley for a total of 52 miles is now under way.

Two carloads of wire were received in Wellington last week, and approximately 70 miles of holes had already been dug, while some forty miles of poles had been set.

Pampa Fiesta Draws Huge Crowds To Break Records

COUNTY 4-H CLUBS NOW SHOW 130 ENROLLMENT

FEED CROPS, COTTON, POULTRY, SWINE AND BEEF ARE PROJECTS

County Agent H. M. Breedlove stated today that the Donley County 4-H Club boys are showing much interest in their various demonstrations which are being conducted by the boys. The enrollment of the 4-H Club boys is 130 members.

Various demonstrations being conducted by the boys are feed crops, cotton, poultry, swine and beef cattle. Boys in the beef cattle division now have on feed 32 Hereford calves and boys who are conducting swine demonstrations have bought in the past few weeks 26 registered gilts which will farrow pigs in late August and early September and will be shown in the Donley County Fat Stock Show at Clarendon and the Amarillo Fat Stock Show in Amarillo.

Registered Hampshire gilts bought by the local 4-H Club boys were purchased from E. S. Ballow, well known registered Hampshire breeder of Clarendon. Breedlove stated that 20 more gilts would be bought for Club boys in various parts of the county within the next 10 days.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Haley of Silverton spent Sunday here with her mother, Mrs. Lalar Wilkerson. Miss Dorothea Riley returned home with them for a weeks visit.

9 CJC STUDENTS PASS RED CROSS FIRST AID TEST

THIRD CLASS TO PASS TEST; OTHER CLASSES WILL BE TAUGHT

The third class in the past nine months in Clarendon has received certificates in the prescribed Red Cross Course in First Aid, and Lay Instructor W. A. Riney of the highway department passed out the identification cards here this week to nine Clarendon Junior College students who recently passed the test on the 20-hour instruction in the standard course.

Those receiving First Aiders certificates were: James F. Bartlett, Billie Lou Gilbert, Claude McGowan, Jack Reeves, Johnny Rhodes, Zackie Salmon, Rayborn Smith, J. D. Swift, Jr., and Neil Wright.

These courses were made possible through the co-operation of the Donley County Chapter, American Red Cross, and the state highway department, and the certificates bear the signatures of Mr. Riney of the later organization, and Sam M. Braswell chairman of the Donley county chapter.

Two standard courses and one advanced course have been taught by Mr. Riney who announces that other courses will be taught in September or October of this year. There is no charge for the instruction.

Ten are feeding calves for the first time.

DRENNAN HEADS LIONS STAFF FOR NEW YEAR

In the annual election of officers Tuesday of this week the Clarendon Lions Club named a full staff, headed by R. E. Drennan as the new club president. Lion Drennan is a long-time member of the club and is Dean of Clarendon Junior College. As incoming president, Lion Drennan will attend the International Convention of Lions Clubs at Pittsburgh, Pa., in late July as a delegate from the local organization.

Since the 4th of July falls on Tuesday this year, it was voted that the club dispense with its regular weekly luncheon that day. A committee was appointed to draft a plan for a picnic for Lions and their families at some convenient date and place. On this committee Lions Drennan, Patman and Caraway were appointed.

Officers to take office along with President-elect Drennan were elected as follows:

1st Vice President, P. B. Gentry; 2nd Vice President, E. R. Andis; 3rd Vice President, Allen J. Bryan; Secretary, Walker Lane; Treasurer, D. O. Stallings; Tail Twister, J. R. Gillham; Lion Tamer, J. ### CLARENDON GROUP AT PAMPA FIESTA LED BY CHS BAND

THIS CITY SENDS LARGE "TOP 'O TEXAS" EVENT

Clarendon High School's maroon clad band lead a large and enthusiastic group of Donley County folks to Pampa Tuesday for the opening day of the 1939 "Top 'O Texas" Fiesta. Vieng with half dozen other bands the CHS outfit won many plaudits from the happy crowd of 35,000 persons who witnessed the greatest parade ever held in Pampa, the wheat and oil metropolis of the Panhandle.

The man who wrote that machinery had taken the place of the horse in the Panhandle's vast wheat fields was badly mistaken, as beautiful horses pranced to the music of marching bands. Theme of the parade was the Top 'O Texas under six flags. Four centuries of Texas history were bridged in the artistically designed floats. The parade was more than two miles long. Fifteen bands marched in the colorful event.

Honored at a press luncheon at noon were Nellie Walker, Hollywood stunt girl; George "Windy" Hayes of the Hopalong Cassidy Western Series; Walter Mattox, Hollywood agent and former director, Dick Stout, Assistant Attorney General, Austin and newspaper men from the entire Panhandle.

Up to noon, 118 persons had registered for the 89'er Club, men and women who came to the Panhandle prior to 1889. Oldest resident was W. H. Rogers of Pampa who came here in 1873. Up to noon 200 oldtimers, residents who came more than 25 years ago, had registered.

Modern and old time dances will entertain visitors each night and four rodeo performances will be held. One hundred cowboys of the nation were listed for the rodeo.

Two Days Per Week Is Schedule for Poison Plants

Grasshopper poison plants located at Clarendon and Hedley will be open on Monday and Friday of each week, County Agent H. M. Breedlove announced today.

There has been very little demand for poison up to the present time; however, it is expected that with the continuation of warm weather, it will be necessary to keep the plants open full time.

Breedlove said that according to reports from all parts of the county, hoppers were not nearly as bad this year as last two years; however, both grasshopper plants will be open and ready should an outbreak start.

SEE ROPESVILLE AND STATE EXPERIMENT FARM PROJECTS

Mr. J. E. Burch and Miss Goldie Howard of the local FSA staff attended a state meeting of Farm Security Administration of fields in Lubbock last week from Thursday until Saturday.

The first day of the meeting was spent in hearing lectures by various professors in Texas Techological College on different phases of their work. The men were especially interested in the registered Jersey herds and the crops. This project covers ten square miles. The irrigation, alfalfa, and buffalo grass reseedling experiments were featured. Mr. Burch stated.

Bob Land, B. C. Drinkard, and Miss Lois Waggoner of Memphis accompanied Mr. Burch and Miss Howard.

44 Donley Calves On Feed For Next Spring Shows

Twenty-two Donley County 4-H and F. F. A. members are feeding calves for the spring shows. Citizens here are hoping that Mason County's string of victories will be broken next year in the major livestock shows in Texas. These boys already have 44 calves to feed, a new record for this time of the year. Approximately 15 more calves will be placed on feed according to J. R. Gillham, F. F. A. Advisor, and H. M. Breedlove, county agent.

All of the calves are Herefords. Johnny Leathers, who showed the champion Panhandle calf last year will be feeding calves for the fourth year. Two other youths will be feeding for the fourth time, three will be feeding their third year, five will feed for the second year, and

WEST TEXAS PROUD OF DECK WELLS OF WELLINGTON

In the three-day sessions of the Texas Press Association at Lubbock last week, Hon. Deskins Wells, editor of the Wellington Leader, brought his administration as president of that organization to a close with signal honors to himself and the press of this section of Texas.

Deck Wells is one of the most able newspaper men of the South-west and his friends predict a larger field of service for him.

HEAVY TAXATION MUST BE EXPECTED

In his column, "This Week in Washington", J. E. Jones, Capitol Commentator, says: "A series of attempts to bring the Administration and Congress closer together have failed. The President was successful in securing all the appropriations that he recommended for military preparedness and armament. But that was about the only instance in which party lines faded and the forces of Government acted unitedly for a common purpose. The New Deal relief plan stirred up an endless amount of haggling, and criticism. Even at this late date the Congress is discussing the question of returning most of the authority to the states and local communities and President Roosevelt is on the war-path against changing the present system.

"There never were any hopes of 'appeasement of business' along the lines that were advocated by Harry Hopkins and a few other optimists, for the simple reason that large and small business has always been independent in this country, and will continue to oppose attempts that will empower the Government to control and over-regulate private enterprise and initiative.

"Little need be expected in the way of revision or lowering of taxation despite the fight that is going on in Washington at the present time. The government deficit will be between 3 and 4 billion dollars this year. Heavy taxation must be expected."

ALL THE GOLD IS IN KENTUCKY

Some people wonder why nearly all the gold of the world is in a hole on a hill in Kentucky. At the same time they wonder why the world is not buying cotton, wheat, corn and meat. They wonder why the manufacturers of America have grown rich and at the same time the farmers have grown poor.

Well there is little or no mystery about it. During the Halcyon days of cotton, wheat and corn markets, we forced the foreign nations to pay gold for everything they bought of us. They did this until all their gold had been buried in that Kentucky hill. The reason they couldn't buy any more, they had no gold to pay for it. We wouldn't let them trade in their manufactured products for cotton and other stuff, because it might interfere with the manufacturers' getting rich and at the same time making the farmers poor.

These foreign nations are rapidly learning to do without gold or our cotton and other products of the farm. They are either raising their own cotton and other stuff or substituting them with artificial stuff. Until our tariff walls crumble, and our people learn common sense in their dealings with foreign nations, most all the gold in the world will lie idle in a hole, and our commerce will continue to rot. After a few timely funerals, maybe we mortal fools will wake up.—Uncle Bill in Sterling City News-Record.

HARRY HINES BOOMED FOR GOVERNOR

At a banquet in his honor at Vernon a few days ago, friends of Hon. Harry H. Hines, member of the Texas highway commission, openly boomed him for Governor in the next election.

Harry Hines has made a splendid record as a member of the highway commission and he is easily one of the top men from West Texas on every count worthwhile.

Why wouldn't he make Texas a great and useful governor?

RESIGNS TO WED AND MAKE A HOME

Last week we learned of the approaching marriage of Miss Marion Fore, daughter of Editor Sam Fore, Jr. of the Floresville Chronicle-Journal. There was no surprise accompanying the announcement of the wedding of such an attractive and accomplished young lady, nor yet a surprise in the additional news that Miss Fore had resigned her responsible position in the state NYA offices at Austin to wed and make a home. One would expect just that sort of thing from the daughter of such genuine Southern aristocrats as are the Fores, mater and pater.

It is a heartening thing, these days, however to be able to point out an example of simple wisdom such as this on the part of a modern efficient and educated bride, when too many are attempting to carry the responsibilities of married life and a job at the same time. Such a dual situation may be wise in some instances, but in a general sense is not for the advancement of citizenship nor the alleviation of the unemployment problem.

To wed and to make a home still offers the most worth-while avenue of service to young women of America. God grant more of them follow this time-honored custom.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

By JULIAN CAPERS JR.

AUSTIN.—Texas taxpayers were closer this weekend to having a 2 per cent sales tax submitted to the voters as a constitutional amendment than they have been at any time this session. The sales tax constitutional amendment, called up last week for what many believed to be a final test in the House of Representatives, fell nine votes short, and went down to its fifth House defeat, 91 to 56. But the gain registered by proponents of the measure, sponsored by Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel, and backed by a heavy majority of the special interest lobby, was encouraging enough to induce them to lay plans for still another test in the House, due for this week.

The division is so close that no man can say for certain how it will come out. The head of the special interest lobby, who has been directing the unprecedented pressure drive for many weeks, professed confidence that the necessary nine votes would be picked up on the next test. It seems reasonably certain that the next test will be the last one. The Legislature is about ready now to pass the appropriation bills and go home. If the sales tax amendment is adopted, there will be no need for remaining longer in session. If it fails again, it is probably that a majority of the House see no chance of enacting tax legislation at this session and will be just as ready to go home. The Senate has definitely indicated, by its arrogant refusal to consider statutory tax measures, that it is committed to a policy of the sales tax frozen into the Constitution, or nothing. House members point to their record of having passed two statutory tax bills, both killed summarily by the Senate, as a sufficient alibi, if no pension paying revenue is enacted. Leaders of the anti-sales tax bloc in the House declare their ranks will hold on the next test, as they have on previous ones.

HOUSE RESENTS PRESSURE

The House which has blocked the sales tax thus far, showed its resentment at the continued and tremendous pressure to which it has been subjected, when it cast 99 votes in favor of a resolution by Bryan Bradbury, of Abilene, called for a joint House-Senate investigation of the lobbying for the sales tax. The Senate, which wants no undue publicity upon the interests which are backing the stand which it and the Governor have taken in favor of the sales tax quickly killed the resolution by pigeon-holing it in a committee.

Thompson Gets On Record

Political outcroppings on the sales tax issue, which will flare immediately when the time comes for opening next year's campaigns, continued throughout the week. Col. Ernest O. Thompson, Rail Commissioner and runner-up to W. Lee O'Daniel for governor last year, got on record with a statement condemning the freezing of a sales tax into the constitution. "Taxes ought to be statutory", Thompson said. "And when folks begin to vote themselves bounties, it means trouble ahead. About a year from now I might have something to say about politics." Thompson is regarded as a certain candidate against O'Daniel and the sales tax issue will undoubtedly be the leading bone of contention in the race.

Meanwhile, an incipient gubernatorial boom was reported by the political gossips for Joe Hill Senator from Henderson. Hill has been the strongest opponent in the Senate of the sales tax program, and he had denounced O'Daniel from the Senate floor on numerous occasions, with a bitterness seldom heard in that forum.

Other political rumors were heard this week to the effect that O'Daniel, if the Federal Government should cut off grants to Texas pensioners, under the liberalized pension law, might take the field against U. S. Senator Tom Connally, up for re-election next year. Maury Maverick, the extremist New Deal Ex-Congressman, San Antonio, was also rumored as a possible opponent for Connally. Maverick has been making anti-Garner speeches for several weeks.

Loan Shark Decision

The State of Texas is without power to restrain loan sharks from charging usurious interest by injunction, the Supreme Court in an opinion written by Justice Richard Critz held last week. Attorney General Mann, who joined the injunction suit brought by county officials in Travis County against 19 Austin loan concerns, declared the only relief now is action by the Legislature. Mann, however, held recently in an opinion, that a bill proposed by Mason Harrell and others, designed to legalize reasonable interest and service charges for small loans, intended to curb 400 per cent loan sharks was unconstitutional. So it seems the loan sharks will continue to operate unmolested in Texas for another two years, at least.

Road Bond Bill Passes

The Senate finally passed the road bond assumption bill, but it was a far different measure from the monstrosity sponsored by the Texas County Judges Association, which sought to put the State's guarantee behind nearly $200,000,000 of "dead horse" county lateral road bonds. The Senate amended and adopted the Tarwater house substitute, which distributed the surplus in the bond retirement fund to counties, but on a formula involving road mileage, population motor car licenses and area, rather than on the basis of the amount of bond debt owed. Since the bill seeks to put the State's credit behind lateral road bonds with which the State has no concern, many legal authorities believe it is unconstitutional, and it is regarded as virtually certain to face a court test, as soon as it is finally enacted, though acceptance by the House of the Senate amendments, or by adoption of a conference committee report.

Beautiful Lake Marvin, Hemphill County Recreational Project To Be Dedicated Sunday, June 18

CANADIAN, June 14.—Although not the largest lake in the world nor does it even measure up to the largest in the Panhandle, Lake Marvin has the distinction of having more reserved seats for boat races than any course in the world.

By exact count there are 156,000 reserved seats available for followers of the Hell Divers Association, so spaced to afford the most comfort and best seeing advantages to be found. These seats are sand bags placed on the dam by the government but so arranged that a natural grand stand has resulted. These seats will be available to the thousands who attend the official opening of Lake Marvin, Sunday June 18, and no one will be able to find an objection to the seating arrangements.

The 10 races will be run the length of the dam in order that every visitor will have a ring side seat for the attraction. No spectator will ever be more than fifty yards from these powerful boats, promising more thrills than any race ever staged in the southwest. Officials have roped off the entire dam to allow everyone an opportunity for seat accommodations. Cars will be parked in areas reserved for such purposes to insure the greatest degree of safety.

Lake Marvin is the perfect racing course, according to the boat drivers who have seen the water. Measuring three-quarters of a mile in length along the dam, where the water is more than 15 feet deep, the lake circles to form a perfect oval. Drivers claim that more speed may be made on this lake with safety than any other lake in the west. The even depth of the water allows the largest type boat as much speed as the mid-gets and whether the water is rough or calm on opening day drivers expect to set some new records in Class racing.

Hemphill County has announced that one way traffic to and from the Lake will be the plan for opening day to avoid congested highways and snarled traffic. Visitors will appreciate this rule as the road to Lake Marvin from this city winds through some of the most beautiful scenery to be found in Texas. No surprise is registered in seeing deer scampering through the brush and trees or Quail or Prairie Chicken flush from the thickets along the way. This is nature's habitat and Lake Marvin a crowning jewel to the mounting.

"TAIL SPIN" TELLS STORY OF DARING WOMEN FLYERS

Reported to be a smashing romantic melodrama of adventure telling the story of three women who fly, the thrills that come with their split-second escapes and the heart-throbs behind their spectacular lives, "Tail Spin," a 20th Century Fox production, comes to the Pastime Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, June 21-22.

With Alice Faye, Constance Bennett and Nancy Kelly in the starring roles, the film deals with three women of the sky and their reasons for taking the gamble they can lose only once. Miss Faye is seen as Trixie, the girl who flies because she needs money. Constance Bennett plays Gerry, who thinks the sky's the place to hide from love, and Nancy Kelly has been cast as Lois, who flies because it brings her closer to her husband, to whom flying means so much.

Those who have seen the film declare that "Tail Spin" features some of the most thrilling flying that has ever been seen on the screen.

An exceptional supporting cast features Joan Davis, Charles Farrell, Jane Wyman, Kane Richmond, Wally Vernon, Joan Valerie, and Edward Norris. Roy Del Ruth directed and Darryl F. Zanuck was in charge of production.

Boll Weevil and Flea-Hopper Control

By T. C. RICHARDSON, Secretary
Texas Breeder-Feeder Association

It is one of the ironies of nature that soil and rainfall conditions which are most favorable for the growth of the cotton plant are also most favorable for the multiplication of insect pests. The more luxuriant the growth the better the boll weevil, the flea hopper, and the leaf worm like it. It is not uncommon for a casual observer to remark on the promising appearance of a field of cotton, in which a close examination will show that the flea-hopper is destroying the fruiting buds, the boll weevil is laying eggs in the squares which escape the flea-hopper and the leaf-worm moth has deposited her eggs on the lower side of the tender foliage—the more luxuriant the better she likes it.

None of these insects will attack slow-growing, drought-stricken cotton by preference, but may do considerable damage on any kind of cotton if that is all they can find to feed on. What we are here trying to say that when cotton is growing fast it is very important to watch for the insects and see that they do not destroy the fruit to such an extent that "weed" is all that is left.

At this stage cotton should rapidly set squares and the squares become blooms. If rank-growing cotton doesn't look "like a flower garden" every morning there is something the matter. Every cotton grower knows that cotton naturally "throws off" a part of the embryo fruit, but natural shedding and insect damage are two quite different matters. The early and mid-season blooms and bolls are most important in the yield, and must be saved from insect damage in order to insure a normal yield.

With the greatly reduced acreage in cotton under the AAA it becomes the more important to secure good yields from the acreage we have, and controlling insect depredations is one proven means of so doing. Besides, insect control which permits the "weed" to hold all the early fruit it can carry brings the main crop to maturity earlier in the season and a higher percentage of it is harvested at the first picking, when the grades are better than later.

A good many people do not get excited about insect pests until the leaf worm appears, and yet the leaf worm destroys far less cotton than either the flea-hopper or the boll weevil. By the time the leaf worm becomes numerous enough to do real damage the flea hopper and boll weevil have already got in most of their deadly work.

The fight against cotton insect pests is greatly simplified by the fact that a good dusting machine will handle all four—flea-hoppers, boll weevils, leaf worms, and boll worms—if used properly at the proper time. Dusting sulphur and calcium arsenate are the only insecticides necessary, and the campaign begins in time and is continued at intervals of five to eight days until the insects are under control. If no early dusting is done, heavier dusting, or extra arsenicals in the mixture may be needed to handle a heavy infestation of leaf worms, but it is both less effective and more expensive than a program which begins while the cotton is comparatively small and is followed up at regular intervals.

It is all right to make a count of the pests present if one knows how and wants to do so. The safest, surest and in the long run, the cheapest plan, is to prevent rather than cure.

When the flea-hopper begins to destroy the little fruit buds, use sulphur. When the boll weevil comes out of hibernation, or begin to sting the squares which have escaped the flea-hopper, a one-to-two mixture of calcium arsenate and sulphur is best. When leaf worms appear, calcium arsenate alone will handle them if properly applied. No wet spray is necessary.

State Police Will Give Letters To Certify License

AUSTIN.—State police were ready today to give vacationers "diplomatic immunity" when they travel through other states with Texas' out-dated drivers licenses.

If motorists planning out-of-state trips will contact their district highway patrol headquarters, they will receive letters declaring their driver's licenses are still good even though they bear an April expiration date. Licenses were indefinitely extended pending action by the Texas legislature in writing a new license law.

Police in most large cities have been notified of the license extensions, but Texans have encountered trouble with officers in smaller communities, according to reports to state police. The explanatory letters will not take the place of drivers licenses, state police warned.

The highway patrol has district headquarters at Austin, Dallas, Abilene, Wichita Falls, Amarillo, Lubbock, Pecos, San Angelo, San Antonio, Corpus Christi, Houston, Tyler, Harlingen, Ft. Worth, Waco and Beaumont.

MRS. W. H. COOKE PIONEER MOTHER BURIED TUESDAY

CAME TO CLARENDON AS BRIDE ON FIRST PASSENGER TRAIN

A beautiful and impressive Episcopal ceremony in a floral setting of unusual beauty marked the funeral here Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock, at the family home on West Third Street, when all that was mortal of Mrs. W. H. Cooke, was borne lovingly to the Citizens cemetery to be laid to rest beside her husband, W. H. Cooke, who preceded her in death in 1926.

The ceremony was read by the Reverend Frederick A. Foster, rector of St. Andrews Episcopal Church of Amarillo, and the hymns in the service were rendered by Miss Anna Moores, Mrs. George A. Ryan, and Mr. R. E. Drennan, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Allen Bryan.

A large gathering of friends and neighbors of Clarendon and the Panhandle were present to show their respect for the deceased mother and the bereft family.

Mrs. W. H. Cooke was born Hallie Moore, September 9th, 1869 at Mt. Sterling, Kentucky, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Moore, one of the old and respected families of that section of Kentucky. Moving to Texas at an early age, she met and married W. H. Cooke at Harrold, Texas, July 22, 1886, and came to Clarendon as a bride on the first passenger train to reach this, the then terminus of the Denver railroad, in 1887. Here she founded a home with her husband, who became one of the pioneer bankers of this section, and here nine children were born, all surviving their parents except a daughter, Halcyon, who died at an early age and a son, Tom who died in 1935, and all present to pay tribute to the one central figure of a home bounded with ties of a love stronger than steel. The deceased was a member of the Presbyterian Church having united with that faith in girlhood.

Mrs. Cooke was well known over the Panhandle country, as she was the official "Mother" of the Greenbelt Golf Association, always present as long as health permitted, as an interested spectator of the annual tournament play in which her sons so often competed with signal honors.

Death came to this pioneer mother at a Lubbock hospital, Sunday June 11th at 11:20 a.m. from heart and kidney disorders, after several days of critical illness, and following several months of suffering. Most of the family was present when the end came.

Surviving Mrs. Cooke, is her mother, Mrs. M. F. Moore, 90, Lubbock; Mrs. R. A. Morgan, a sister, Lubbock; J. E. Moore, brother, Auburn, Washington; and her children: W. H. Cooke, Clarendon; Julia Cooke, Frances Forest, El Paso; Mary Cooke, Clarendon; Allen Cooke, Littlefield; Mrs. Helen Carr, Borger; Dick Cooke, Clarendon; and those grandsons, whom she raised, Alex Cooke and Billie Cooke, Clarendon.

Pall-bearers were: Sam Dyer, Meredith Gentry, Phillips Gentry, Bennett Kerbow, Dr. T. H. Ellis, Kelly Chamberlain. Honorary: W. H. Patrick; W. H. Fuqua, Amarillo; F. E. Chamberlain, Tom F. Connally, A. T. Cole, C. E. Killough, R. E. Drennan Clarendon; Joe Y. Boyd, Lubbock.

Flower girls were Mesdames P. B. Gentry and Ira Merchant, Misses Ethelyn Drennan, Frances Grady, Jo Ward, La Verne and June McMurtry.

Out of town friends present for the funeral were Weldon Jolly, Borger; E. C. Lowden, J. L. Fite, Fort Worth; W. H. Fuqua, Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woodruff, and son, Amarillo; Mrs. John Deaver, Mrs. F. N. Foxhall, Lewis and Harold Foxhall, Mr. and Mrs. Louie Merrell, Memphis; Mrs. John E. Cooke, Rockdale, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Wheeler; Mrs. Clifford Whitmore, Houston; Perry Powell, Borger; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith, Amarillo; Miss Jewell Boston, Big Spring; Mrs. Sam Lightfoot, Lubbock; Joe Y. Boyd, Lubbock; Mrs. Herbert Kirk, Lubbock and others.

Miss Avis Lee McElvany is now employed as society editor of a Springfield, Mo., daily which issues two editions. Miss McElvany is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. McElvany and graduated from the University of Missouri school of journalism last week.

Pampa Delegates To Washington Get Dam Program Reinstated

As the result of a trip to Washington by C. H. Walker, Garnett Reeves and C. P. Buckler Pampa business men, officials of the Soil Conservation Service have agreed to go ahead with plans to purchase additional land needed in connection with the McClellan lake project, to build over-night cabins, a recreational building, a youth camp and other recreational facilities.

Upon arrival in Washington, officials of the SCS advised, that on account of a change in policy it had been decided to eliminate the building of the cabins, the youth camp and to whittle down the plans on the recreational building and other facilities at the lake. While in Washington the delegation was successful in getting the program reinstated.

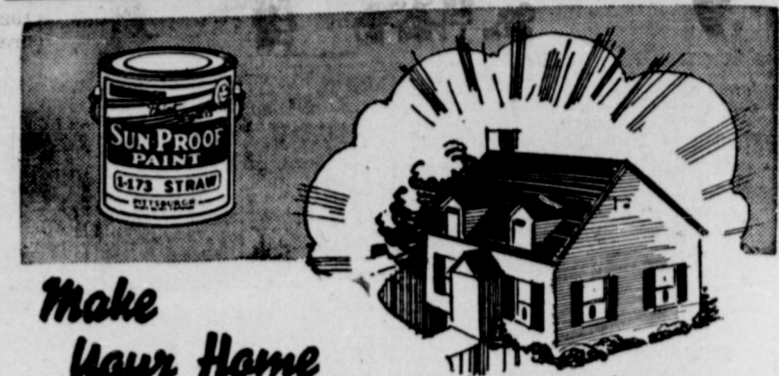

Along with the whittling down of the program, the local project, Rita Blanca dam, suffered loss of some of the facilities planned here. Local chamber of commerce committees have been busy with letters and telegrams in an effort to secure reinstatement.—Dalhart Texan.

Martin Garden Club is Highly Praised for Work

The Martin Garden Club has become one of the leading clubs in the county. The club was organized February 22 of this year and now has a membership of 23. The members have faithfully studied successful gardening and many yards have been beautified. Although they realize there are many hardships, practically every member has started a lawn. Five new yard fences have been built to protect the yards from chickens and several old fences have been rebuilt. All members have started flower beds and now have flowers blooming. Six ladies have piped water to their yards. The garden club is operating with very little expense as most of the members obtained a start of flowers by exchanging what they had for other varieties. Mesdames A. L. Chase, Lon Rundell, Geo. Ryan, and Lumpkin of Clarendon generously helped the club by donating flowers. Mesdames Crockett Taylor and Joe Goldston graciously showed their yards to the club. Many other Clarendon women have helped individual members of the club.

Miss Maurice Berry became the advisor to the club on April 28 and has done much to help them by providing year books, various garden magazines, bulletins from the Extension service and books from the library so that they could study their gardens and work up program parts.

SMOKE From CAMPFIRES

A real West Texas barbecue with all the trimmings was given to editors attending the Texas Press Association last Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The barbecue was staged on the Texas Tech Campus Friday at noon, two fine whiteface steers being furnished one by President Clifford B. Jones of Tech, from his rafter J Ranch near Spur, and the other by Jay Slaughter of the Lazy S. ranch near Post. The barbecue made a big hit with down-state editors not accustomed to such fine food as tender barbecue prepared by those who know how.

TOM ELZIE ANNOUNCES RODEO AND ROPING CONTEST FOR BOYS

Tom Elzie, director of the well known L-Z camp for boys has announced the date for the annual rodeo and roping contest features of the camp held near Perryton on Wolf Creek. The date for the roping contest is June 24. The annual rodeo is one of the big events of the camp. This year Mr. Elzie announces he anticipates Congressman Marvin Jones to be a guest of the camp, and to participate in the activities of the day—perhaps by making a talk to the boys, rather than entering in any of the rodeo contests. The Rodeo event is also officially a guest day for parents of boys in the camp, and for visitors interested in the activities.—Spearman Reporter.

XIT REUNION

Here's a plug for one of the extra-colorful events of the Panhandle calendar:

Cattle and commission men, feeders, breeders and livestock dealers who attend the Fourth Annual XIT Reunion in Dalhart, August 7 and 8 will be accorded a special reception and have a special headquarters, announces John Colquitt, Chairman of the General XIT committee.

The committee to welcome and entertain all visitors identified with the cattle industry is headed by Cecil C. Jones of the Capitol Freehold Land Trust in Dalhart which has charge of the remaining lands of the noted XIT ranch. Serving with him is Orville H. Finch, widely known Southwestern rancher and former mayor of Dalhart; and H. Coon, member of the internationally-known firm of Coon & Culbertson.

"Personal invitations will be sent to all men whose names and addresses are known," Jones said. "However, we want those names we do not have to know that there is a personal invitation and welcome awaiting them and that the latchstring hangs on the outside.

"This is just a big party for cattle men," Jones continued. "They are going to be invited to do just what they want to—sit in the headquarters and swap yarns, discuss problems of the industry or visit neighboring country and ranches in cars that will be provided. We're going to concentrate on showing our visitors a good time."

COWMEN WILL BE HONORED AT HALL COUNTY REUNION

MEMPHIS—The cowhand will ride here again at the 49th Hall county anniversary and old settlers reunion July 27 and 28.

This year's celebration will honor pioneers with special emphasis on the cowmen, who, to quote one of them "let the bars down to this country." Present and former employees of the Shoe Bar, Diamond Rail, JA, Millhorn, Smith and other large ranches in this territory will be honor guests.

Separate headquarters will be maintained for each, with chuck wagons.

A parade on the opening day of the celebration will feature the march of time from the days of the lean cowhand to his successor who rides in a streamlined car. Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel will be invited to speak that day.

A rodeo will be in action both days. A barbecue will be given for old settlers. Exhibits of relics, heirlooms and antiques will be on display in show windows in the business section to lend color and revive memories of pioneer days.

Old settlers who have passed on will be honored in a memorial service at one of the churches

LIVESTOCK OFF AT FORT WORTH

FORT WORTH, Texas June 11.—Draastically lower prices were effected in cattle and calves here the past week, with heavy yearlings and steers leading the decline. Supplies of fed cattle arriving here from four states—New Mexico, Oklahoma, Kansas and Nebraska—gave an unusual twist to the market and by Wednesday the day of reckoning for the high scale of prices had arrived. In spite of the demoralized condition at mid-week, however, values stood up well when compared with other points.

At the close, heavy yearlings and steers ranged 50 to mostly around $1 a hundred lower. Lighter yearlings and heifers ranged 50 to 75 cents lower and plain quality butcher sorts were unevenly 50 cents to $1 lower. Fat cows ranged 50 to 75 cents lower, canners and cutters around 25 to 35 cents lower in a weak market. Heavy slaughter calves fared better than the lighter weights and ranged 50 to 75 cents lower. Lights and medium weights scaled 50 cents to $1 lower and vealers averaged around $1 lower. Rannies drew 25 to 50 cents lower prices. Stocker calves eased somewhat, choice calves of suitable weight and condition steady to unevenly 15 or 25 cents lower, plain and medium kinds 25 to 50 cents lower, nearer the larger figure.

The Low Down FROM HICKORY GROVE

If I was to ever get around to the point where I am not too busy, I would kinda like to put on a campaign for the young men of our nation.

Our young men, they are being pushed off the map. Sometimes I feel sorry for them, and then again I cannot describe my feelings.

To begin with I would start a research. I would find out first if these young ducks had real blood in their arteries, and not water.

No male person could have a full nickel's worth of blood in his system when he allows his lady friend to take his cigarettes and drive his car, while he leads her dog. And his pants, she has got them away from him, along with taking over his barber shop. His bathing suit, it is on the verge of being usurped, etc., etc.

Our young fellers, they are a sorrowful lot. They need either some crochet needles, or a swift kick—and soon.

Yours, with the low down,
JO SERRA.

EXPORT SUBSIDY CHEAPEST FOR COTTON MART

WALLACE BELIEVES THAT PLAN IS ONLY MEANS OF STIMULATING TRADE

COLLEGE STATION.—Secretary Wallace's widely-discussed Arkansas speech on the proposed cotton export subsidy, when stripped of its trimmings, meant that an export subsidy would be the cheapest way to stimulate foreign demand for American cotton without knocking the props from under the cotton farmer's income.

One of 18 Texas Agricultural leaders who attended the Little Rock conference at which Wallace spoke, George Slaughter, said cotton farmers cannot afford to give up the commodity loan program which has kept the bottom from falling out of cotton prices, but that the loan has put "the skids under our export trade" by pegging the price of American lint slightly above the world level.

If it were not for the government loan, cotton which has been selling around 8 cents this year probably would have dropped to 6 cents, Slaughter surmised, adding that the foreign-grown staple consequently has undersold Uncle Sam's product by about 2 cents.

"We must let foreign buyers have our cotton for the same price that our competitors quote, or we will continue to lose export markets."

The farmer would get the same price for his cotton whether it was used in this country or exported, according to the plan. The government simply would make up the difference between the domestic price and the world price, by paying exporters a bounty to place the staple on world markets at competitive prices.

Increase in Soil and Water Conservation Seen in 1939

COLLEGE STATION.—"Show me a crop that is being overproduced and I will show you a crop that is ruining the land on which it is growing."

Often quoted by R. M. Evans, national administrator of the AAA, that phrase keynotes the Agricultural Conservation Program, under which Texas farmers this year are advised to hold soil depleting crops such as cotton to a maximum of 28,518,791 acres and devoted the other 10,045,340 acres of the state's tillable land to such soil-saving growths as clover, Sudan grass, sweet sorghums and green manure crops.

The Texas Agricultural Conservation Committee, which has its headquarters at Texas A and M College, is determined to encourage greater use of available federal funds this year in conservation and improvement of crop and range land, George Slaughter, chairman has disclosed.

Texas farmers, about 85 percent of whom took part in the program last year, held soil-deplet-

Today's popularity of Doan's Pills, after many years of world-wide use, surely must be accepted as evidence of satisfactory use. And favorable public opinion supports that of the able physicians who test the value of Doan's under exacting laboratory conditions. These physicians, if more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove waste that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole body suffers when kidneys lag, and diuretic medication would be more often employed. Burning, scanty or too frequent urination may be warning of disturbed kidney function. You may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel weak, nervous, all played out.

Water and Salt Control Grazing

Proper location of stock water and salt licks is doing much to improve grass land in the Southern Great Plains. Livestock will travel as far to reach a salt supply as they will for water. Distribution of water holes over the range and location of salting places in remote spots, as shown in lower picture, result in better utilization of grass and guard against overgrazing. In carrying out the program of better range management in the plains region the Soil Conservation Service has aided ranchers and farmers in constructing more than 1,200 ponds similar to that shown at top.

AMARILLO, Texas, June 15.—by the best utilization of grass Good range management where— is made and soil and water are conserved is essential to the permanence of the ranching industry in the Texas Panhandle, declares H. H. Fennell, regional conservator of the Soil Conservation Service.

"Once overgrazing has depleted the grass, the normal carrying capacity of the range is decreased," Fennell points out. "When grass is killed because of drought or continued misuse, the land owner faces a revegetation problem which is a slow and costly process," he continues.

One of the best methods for obtaining even distribution of grazing and to guard against overgrazing in spots is through the proper location of stock water ponds and salting places, it is pointed out. Where there are too few water holes, livestock are inclined to graze intensively near the pond or tank and neglect good grass on other parts of the range.

Constant grazing near a pond results in the soil being pulverized by the hoofs of the livestock with the result that silt soon reduces the storage capacity of the reservoir. Often such spots may become serious blow hazards where wind and erosion is a problem, Fennell says.

Stock will go as far to reach a salt supply as they will go for water, it is pointed out, so by locating salt licks in spots far removed from water, stock can be encouraged to graze evenly over the entire range.

In addition to serving an important purpose in preservation of the range, stock ponds can contribute to flood control by retaining water that otherwise would go down stream. Fencing of stock pond dams protects the structure from damage by trampling of livestock and often aids in the establishment of wildlife habitats. In cooperation with

LONE STAR LOSES SUPREME COURT RATE DECISION

AUSTIN, June 7.—The third court of appeals today overruled a motion for a rehearing of the Lone Star Gas Company rate case in which the company protested the Texas Railroad Commission order reducing the "gate" rate from 40 to 32 cents per thousand cubic feet.

The "gate" rate is the charge made by the company for delivery of gas at city "gates" for distribution to consumers.

In Dallas, attorneys for the company said they were not surprised at the decision but "we expect to apply for a writ of error before the supreme court and carry the appeal to the highest court."

The company has 30 days in which to seek a writ of error for a review by the Texas Supreme Court.

The six-year old rate dispute has been through the Texas courts and to the U. S. Supreme Court heretofore.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Knorpp left Saturday for New York City where they will attend the World's Fair. They expect to be gone two weeks.

Ranchers and farmers of the Southern Great Plains, the Soil Conservation Service has aided in construction of more than 1,200 dams within recent years, Fennell reports.

NO one of the forty-eight states in the Union is entirely free of aliens—even those states hundreds of miles from any port of entry to the United States. Graphically illustrated above is the alien problem of the United States—a problem that is admitted one of the major problems to be faced in the nation's fight for democracy.

The figures above give the number of white aliens, 21 or over, according to the 1930 census. They are in effect the total number of aliens eligible for citizenship in each of the states. A long-term attack on this vital problem was recently inaugurated by the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, through its 1,500 subordinate lodges in cities, towns and villages throughout the country.

In most of these lodges, preliminary and first steps have already been taken to set the campaign in motion. The Elks campaign is based on a four-point program. It calls for a survey of the nation's aliens; a campaign to sell aliens on Americanism and American citizenship; instruction for citizenship; and an active part by the Elks in seeing that the aliens do acquire citizenship.

In each lodge there is, or will be set up a permanent naturalization committee. This committee not only guides Elks activities in naturalization, but seeks to make these activities community-wide. Such a community-wide effort is a forward step for democracy, Dr. Edward J. McCormick, grand exalted ruler of the Elks, believes.

Search for New Uses Of Cotton Draws Scientific Skill

COLLEGE STATION — It is estimated that 99 per cent of the world's population uses cotton in one form or another, and still the search for more uses for cotton goes on.

This time F. E. Lichte, cotton gin specialist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service comes up with the idea that increased consumption of cotton in already established lines is needed.

"Insist on cotton materials instead of cotton substitutes," he says. "We know of a silk producing nation whose laws prohibit its people from wearing clothes containing cotton. Of course, we want nothing like that but we can use more cotton."

Cotton cloth is an excellent binder for roads where concrete is costly. Around 20,000 miles of macadam roads are built each year, and another 45,000 miles repaired annually. Use of cotton cloth accounts for seven bales per mile.

Cotton fabricated houses are being tried out now, Lichte says. A five room cotton house, with steel construction, complete, without central heating plant runs to around $2,200.

Cement in returnable cotton bags is cheaper than cement in paper sacks; asphalt treated cotton is being used as ditch and canal linings; cotton mats for curing concrete roads have been made to replace the usual method of curing by ponding. And so it goes.

August Bechtler, who minted money for the United States government at Rutherford, N. C., from 1830 to 1935 died in poverty.

WOMEN GET MANY NEW IDEAS ON CHEESE - BUTTER

A. AND M. SPECIALIST DEMONSTRATES PROPER MANUFACTURE TO 35

Thirty-five women were present Friday morning at the demonstration of dairying practices and cheese making given by W. V. Maddox of College Station, dairy products specialist. Mr. Maddox manufactured farm butter, cream, process cottage and Neufchatel cheeses for the women. He discussed the proper handling of milk and gave the group a number of facts on care of their kitchen utensils and other food preparation. The demonstration was very interesting and many new ideas for the improvement of cheese and butter manufacture at home were gained by the women present.

PLATE GLASS WINDOW IS BROKEN AT CLARENDON MOTOR CO. WEDNESDAY

Flag Day, Wednesday, June 14, will long be remembered at the Clarendon Motor Co., because the flag-staff of Old Glory displayed in honor of the day, was the innocent cause of a costly accident. In backing a used car into the curb the rear bumper broke the flag staff off just above the sidewalk and drove the top of the staff through the plate glass window breaking it in several places.

Mary Jean O'Banion who has been visiting Ruth Hamm returned to her home in Mexia Wednesday.

C. A. BRYAN DIES TUESDAY; FUNERAL HELD WEDNESDAY

89 YEAR-OLD CITIZEN DIES AFTER THREE MONTHS ILLNESS

A well-known figure in Clarendon passed away Tuesday evening at 6:25 p.m. when Mr. C. A. Bryan, 89, died after a three-months illness. He had been in bed since a fall in the spring on the street caused a fractured skull and broken blood vessel in the left eye. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock at the First Baptist Church with Rev. J. Perry King in charge. Burial was in the Citizen's Cemetery.

Mr. Bryan was born November 29, 1850 in Opelika, Ala. With his family he moved to Texas in 1853, settling in Panola county. He was married July 18, 1872 to Miss Lucy Ona Baldwin of Panola County. Mrs. Bryan died in 1926. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan moved to Donley county in 1906 where he purchased a grocery and general business store. He had been a member of the Baptist Church since the age of 13 when he joined in Panola County.

Six children survive him, E. F. Bryan of Amarillo, Earl W. of Tenaha Regan, and Mesdames Frank Whitlock, W. A. Land, Buel Sanford, all of Clarendon. One son, Allen, died forty years ago, in Tenaha. Fifteen grandchildren and seventeen great grandchildren also survive.

CITY COUNTY AND SCHOOL BOARDS EQUALIZE RATES

The City, County and School tax equalization boards were in session Tuesday and Wednesday of this week for the purpose of hearing complaints from taxpayers on the rates set for this year.

The city showed a net loss in the final check-up on the equalization. This will probably be offset by a raise in the rate. The school board announced that about the same valuation was maintained. The county board did not come to any conclusion about the matter. This will be attended to later.

CLARENDON METHODIST CIRCUIT

J. G. Walker, Pastor

We were glad to be at McKnight Sunday. Sunday school was just opening as we arrived. It was a good session. Attendance at preaching the best we have had here. Several were the recipients of the Lord's Supper and the service was an impressive one—the evening services at Bray was not largely attended. We suppose on account of threatening clouds.

Report shows that Sunday School at Lelia Lake still running good—some new ones in attendance. Mrs. Ballow of Clarendon was with them at 11:00 a.m. Do not know her subject but am sure it was good and we are very thankful for her service. We are truly glad to find several in Clarendon willing to render services in interest of rural church work. Much is being said today by many church workers about the country church. All admit that it has been a great factor in making Methodism what it is today. All can see that her influence is not so powerful today as in days of yore. All admit that the retard is due to neglect. To be sure the country people have neglected to do their work well; but not all the loss of power is due to the individual members of these country churches. They have been woefully neglected by people moving to towns or cities and engaging in business of different kinds which needs and must be supported by the people still living in the old community. The country people are supporting them; yet they seem to feel under no obligations to help them keep the old church work going. This old church helped to fit them for their new positions but they are not willing to return once in a while and give a bit of time and talent to keep the old church or a similar one going. Much of rural life is being improved. Better school, better homes, better roads, better trained teachers; but the church,

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heath and son Jimmy Frank returned this week from Chicago where Mr. Heath attended the furniture market the past ten days.

Miss Genevive Yoder of Snyder is the house guest of Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Gordon and family.

Miss Esther Wade, daughter of L. F. Wade the editor of the Jayton Chronicle at Jayton, Texas is spending this week with her brother, H. C. Wade and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Warner and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Roach of Filet, Texas visited in Pampa this week.

Mrs. D. L. Smith of Quitaque returned to her home Tuesday after a weeks visit with her son Victor Smith and family.

Ms. Floyd Keener and children of Vernon arrived Friday to visit relatives.

Miss Pauline Sanford of Vernon spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Buel Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald May of Memphis were guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Brents Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Powell spent Sunday in Canyon with their daughter, Mrs. Robert Linder.

Miss Dorothea Watson is in Canyon studying a business course at West Texas State College.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brown and Mrs. Jess Ashmead of McLean visited Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dishman Tuesday.

The divine institution, seems to be the most backward. Why are we willing to see the church lag behind? The selfish part comes to the surface. Somebody needs to take to the road, burn gas, sacrifice time and pleasure to show willingness to help in such a great work. Meet us at Goldston next Sunday.

Random Reflections

By DICK COOKE

We shall not attempt a column this week. Those who have suffered the loss of their mother, their advisor, their sweetheart, their pal, all rolled up in one gentle and understanding dear old lady, may possibly grasp the full import of our absolute lack of concentration.

And for the Cooke's as a whole may we say that we are afraid we can never show our full appreciation for the many many kindnesses and the wonderful tribute paid our comrade. In our confusion we may have overlooked some of the kind deeds but in this event we beg that you understand and be sure of our deep appreciation.

J. B. Barkett went to Wichita Falls on business Tuesday.

H. B. Rhodes, Jr., of Tell visited relatives here this week.

Rev. and Mrs. G. T. Palmer and daughter Ruth spent the week end on a ranch near Allison.

Miss Dorothy Kelley of Lubbock is visiting her aunt, Mrs. F. E. Chamberlain this week.

Mrs. G. W. Antrobus went to Oklahoma City this week to visit her daughter, Mrs. T. G. Star-gel.

Mrs. R. V. Payne of Plainview is convalescing from an appendicitis operation several weeks ago at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chamberlain.

Miss Dorothy Jo Taylor of Pampa spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Taylor.
