Clarendon Schools Open Next Monday

COLLEGE BUILDINGS TO BE READY FOR OPENING MONDAY

COMPLETE FACULTY ANNOUNCED FOR ALL LOCAL SCHOOLS DURING 1941-42

Without the usual opening-day ceremonies, made impossible this year because the college auditorium is not yet completed, Clarendon College and Clarendon public schools will open their doors for the 1941-42 school term Monday.

High school and college students will meet for registration and preliminaries to actual classes Monday in the remodeled college main building. Work of moving equipment into classrooms of this building was being rushed late this week, and school officials thought the building would be ready for use by Monday, except for the auditorium. At the college old dormitory building, workmen were rushing a remodeling program this week, with indications being that rooms in that building which will be occupied by the band, home economics, and vocational agriculture departments will be ready for use next week.

Clarendon College students will register for fall semester classes at the college office, according to Dean R. E. Drennan. Registration and working out of class schedules for each student will begin at 9 a. m., and continue through as much of the day as will be needed to complete the registration.

High school students will be registered for classes in separate class groups as follows: Seniors in room 11; juniors in room 12; and sophomores in Miss Howren's room, at the southwest corner of the top floor. Junior High students will meet at 9 o'clock Monday at the auditorium of the Junior High building; while South Ward students will meet in their respective classrooms in the South Ward building.

Senior High students will be required to pay a library fee of

BRONCHOS TO OPEN SEASON PRACTICE MONDAY

With another football season just around the corner, the Clarendon Broncho will start an intensive period of pre-season practice Monday, coaches O. C. Warden and L. B. Penick announced this week.

Prospects for a winning team this year could be better, in view of the fact that fourteen of last year's lettermen went off the team by the graduation route this spring, but the coaches Warden and Penick are not discouraged about the outlook yet. Team material is lining up well, according to advance indications, and it is hoped that the handicap of lack of experience in practically all the team can be overcome with intensive practice. One good factor this year is the fact that virtually every player on the team has had experience in junior high years under assistant coach Penick, and most of the boys have played a fair brand of football under his direction against neighboring junior high teams.

First practice of the season will start Monday afternoon at Broncho stadium, and the coaching staff has asked that all boys who are interested in coming out for the team this year try to be on hand the first day, as there will be little time to lose before the first game on September 19.

$1 before they can receive textbooks.

All students will be required to show evidence of a recent smallpox vaccination before they may register. This health ruling applies to students of every branch of the school system, and will be rigidly enforced, officials said.

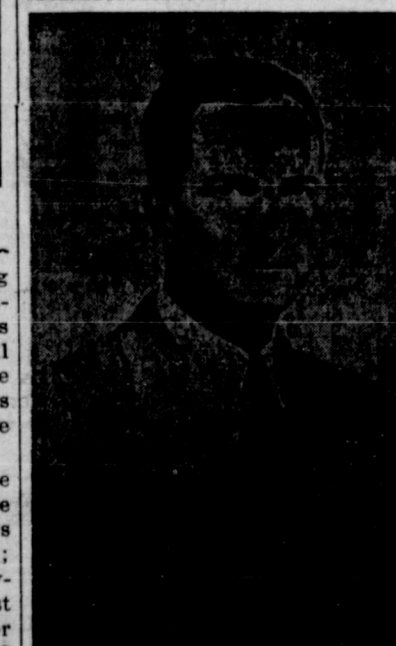

The complete faculty for all local schools was announced this week as follows:

Drennan, Dean of Clarendon College and Principal, Senior High; Miss Madge Hall, English; Miss Gladys Wallis, social science and Spanish; Miss Mary Howren, Mathematics; Miss Maurice Berry, home economics; Mrs. M. C. Goodner, English; Mrs. Rufus White, librarian; L. B. Penick, social science and assistant coach; O. C. Warden, science, head coach, College physical education; S. M. Payne, mathematics; W. C. Larimer, commercial; G. B. Hanchey, science; and J. R. Gillham, agriculture.

SUMMER RECORD FOR MODERATE TEMPERATURES

1941 has given Clarendon a summer season long to be remembered for moderate temperatures.

Not bragging, too much, and with fingers crossed, and according to the records of Weatherman Joe Goldston, The News announces this week that only three days this summer has the thermometer registered one hundred or over. Readings were 100, 101, 102.

Put it down in your scrap book.

NARCOTICS THIEF ADMITS LOCAL BURGLARY

Tommy Gallaher, ex-druggist and former convict, who was arrested by Fort Worth officers recently, confessed this week that he burglarized Norwood's Pharmacy here on the night of June 12, sheriff Guy Wright said today.

Gallaher and a partner, "Dago" Hamilton, had pulled several drug store burglaries in north central Texas towns before their last job, an attempted burglary at Ennis, went wrong. The burglars were surprised there, and Hamilton was captured. Gallaher got away, but an injured leg he suffered in flight gave him away to Fort Worth officers, who returned him to Waxahachie for trial.

Capture of the two men brought forth confessions of burglaries in a number of Texas cities including Clarendon and Memphis, and the two men will have long sentences in federal prison ahead of them before their days in court are ended, it appears. Gallaher was sentenced to two years in federal prison Wednesday at Waxahachie, for participation in a burglary and narcotics theft at Ferris, in Ellis County. Sheriff Wright said he was not certain whether Gallaher would be brought to Donley County for trial. A number of other counties are awaiting to bring him to trail on burglary charges before he is finally committed to prison.

BOYS RANCH CANNED FOOD DRIVE STILL MAKING PROGRESS IN COUNTY

The public-spirited movement of Donley County individuals and clubs to donate canned goods to Boys Ranch at old Tascosa was still going on this week, according to news from county agent H. M. Breedlove, who is acting as go-between for the Ranch and those who feel like giving food to the boys there.

Farmers of the Hudgins community brought in six quarts of canned goods and a cash donation of $3.35, Mr. Breedlove said, while several other clubs and individuals are reported planning to add their donations to the list in the next few days. Anyone wishing to contribute to the welfare of the Goys Ranch boys can bring their contributions to Mr. Breedlove or Doss Palmer, either of whom will see that the donations reach the Ranch.

Billy Wyman Noblett is visiting this week in Heavener, Oklahoma with his grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bryson of Amarillo visited friends and relatives here Monday.

Mrs. Harry Hart, fifth grade; Mrs. Ben Tom Prewitt, fourth grade; Miss Edgar Mae Mongole, fourth grade; Miss Elizabeth Stevens, third grade; Miss Zella Cross, second grade and College art; Mrs. J. H. Headrick, first grade; and Miss Lucille Polk, first grade.

Miss Juanita Jackson will be in charge of the Clarendon colored school.

ONE-DAY RUSH ON COTTON STAMPS EXHAUSTS SUPPLY

$3041 IN STAMPS ISSUED: MORE STAMPS ON THE WAY AAA SECRETARY SAYS

Clarendon and Donley County merchants experienced a mild rush in sales of cotton goods early this week, as county cotton farmers hastened to put into circulation $3,041 in cotton order stamps issued Monday under the Surplus Marketing Administration Cotton Stamp Plan.

The rush to buy cotton work clothes, dresses and yard goods was just a sample of the business increase which is to come from this source, however, as the supply of stamps on hand here gave out before more than just a small part of the total amount due to Donley farmers for cotton acreage reduction was paid. This amount will run to $25,000, it has been estimated. More stamps are on the way, according to AAA secretary Walter J. Flynt, who said that farmers who did not receive stamps Monday or who have not yet been notified that they have stamps coming will be notified by mail when to come to the county agent's office and receive their stamps.

The Cotton Order Stamps are issued to farmers in ratio to the amount of acreage reduction in cotton made on their farms this year. The maximum any farmer may receive is $25 in stamps, but washouts of cotton acreage in Donley County this year has made almost every farmer eligible for a good amount of stamps, it was said. The stamps are used like cash in purchasing any kind of 100 percent cotton goods which were made in America.

Another source of farm income in this area—parity payments—will start flowing before very long, it appeared this week, as AAA secretary Flynt announced that several hundred applications for parity payments were being prepared in his office, for mailing to Washington AAA office, where parity checks are written. Mr. Flynt advised farmers who have not made their parity applications to wait until they are notified to come in for cotton stamps, and then make one trip to the AAA office serve two purposes. No parity checks are expected in the immediate future, he said, and farmers will be notified when these are here.

DONLEY COUNTY'S FAIR EXHIBITS BEING PLANNED

Preparation of a Donley County agricultural exhibit to be shown at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo and the Dallas State Fair began this week at the county agent's office. The exhibit will be planned and arranged entirely through that office this year, and county agent H. M. Breedlove is asking already for county farmers to bring in their contributions of field crops or vegetables which can be used in the exhibit.

The exhibit will be designed to give fair-goers an idea of the diversified nature of agriculture in Donley County, and samples of as many crops grown in the county as possible will be used in making up the display. Extra fine crop samples, of vegetables, fruit, and field crops will of course be needed to make the exhibit outstanding, and Mr. Breedlove asks that farmers who have some special examples of good crops on their farms to bring them in to him as soon as possible. The Tri-State Fair will be held the latter part of September, and early in October the same Donley exhibit will be shown at the Texas State Fair in Dallas.

Opening Ceremonies At Lelia Lake School Scheduled For Monday

TOMMY HARRIS IS NEW FOXWORTH-GALBRAITH HEAD

Getting acquainted with Clarendon this week was Tommy Harris, who will become local manager Monday of Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber Company, succeeding A. A. Mayes.

Mr. Harris is returning to his native state after a stay of almost a year in Buckeye, Arizona, where he was connected with the Foxworth-Galbraith firm. His wife is still in Arizona, but will join him here as soon as their apartment in the Bert Smith home is ready for occupancy, he said.

Mr. Mayes will retire from the lumber business Monday, to devote his time to personal business interests. He has been manager of the local Foxworth-Galbraith yard for the past 25 years, and has been connected with the lumber business for the past 37 years. With Mrs. Mayes he will continue to make his home in Clarendon, it is reported.

FORMER PASTOR TO VISIT CLARENDON THIS WEEK

The News editor has a card from Rev. W. E. Ferrell of Mathews, Va., saying that he and family will arrive in Clarendon late this week for a visit with friends. Rev. Ferrell will be remembered as one of the most popular pastors the Christian Church here ever had, and all will welcome him here for a visit. The Ferrells went from Clarendon to Wink several years ago, and about two years ago went back to Virginia where he has an important pastorate.

RUNAWAY YOUTH STOPPED HERE, RETURNED HOME

Because a Clarendon woman happened to be listening to the radio when a missing persons broadcast was on, a runaway youth of Phillips was back at home this week. The boy stopped at a local residence Tuesday for food, and shortly after he left, the housewife heard his description being broadcast from a Pampa radio station. She notified deputy sheriff Truett Behrens, who found the boy walking on the Brice highway and returned him to Clarendon. The parents were notified, and the youth returned home with them.

LAKE McCLELLAN MOVIES FEATURE LIONS PROGRAM

With the attendance still below par due to summer vacations, the Clarendon Lions Club enjoyed a program made of technicolor and plain moving pictures of nearby Lake McClellan when it met Tuesday for the regular weekly luncheon, with Pres. McHenry Lane in the chair.

Bert Howell of Pampa, concession owner of Lake McClellan and a member of the Pampa Lions Club was guest of the day and presented the movie program as he gave a running fire of information about the popular resort. He announced the big Labor Day Program at the Lake for next Monday, and invited the Clarendon Lions to attend with their families.

W. F. Hunter of Amarillo and Tommy Harris, new manager here for Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber Company, and late of Arizona, were other guests introduced.

Lion Burton announced the opening of the city schools for Monday morning, September 1, as scheduled.

Promoted

This is Leroy McDaniels, who was promoted recently from principal to superintendent of the Lelia Lake school system. Mr. McDaniels succeeds Raymond Wilson. He will preside at opening exercises of the Lelia Lake schools Monday morning.

Mrs. Rolle Brumley and daughter, Shirley, of McCamey accompanied Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Brumley and Mrs. Joe Goldston to Lake Cisco over the weekend to attend a family reunion.

Old Denver Hotel, Landmark Of Late Eighties, Being Razed This Week

As the Denver railroad built into Clarendon in 1887, the Clarendon Land Investment & Agency Co., built the Denver Hotel across the tracks from the depot site, a rambling frame structure which served Clarendon as a hotel for over forty years before it fell into disuse and ill repair.

Yesterday morning the old landmark was being razed by a crew of men put on the job by the Ferrell Lumber Co., of Amarillo, who purchased the salvage in the building from the City of Clarendon for the sum of $350. Several other buildings of

GEORGE WATSON BITTEN BY BLACK SPIDER

Monday afternoon of this week, George Watson had the misfortune to be bitten by a black spider. While riding around with companions, George felt a movement in his slack shirt and ran his right hand inside to investigate. Feeling a sting he withdrew the hand to find a spider busy on reprisal. Hurrying to a doctor he was given treatment at Adair Hospital overnight, and seems now to be recovering with small ill-effects.

REP. ENNIS FAVORS HERE SATURDAY

Representative Ennis Favors of Pampa was here Saturday visiting among his Donley County constituency. Mr. Favors says that he believes the Governor is right in refusing to call a special session of the legislature until leaders of the opposing road bond assumption controversy have perfected a workable compromise.

about the same period in the north section of Clarendon are slated to be sold for salvage in the future, it is reported.

Many big land deals and cattle trades were consummated in the Denver Hotel back through the years before and after the turn of the century, and much of the romantic past of the Panhandle country was bound up in its function as hostelry for this early-day center of the area.

W. H. Patrick recalls that he lived in the Denver for several years beginning in 1888 and later as receiver for the old C. L. I. & A. Co., collected the monthly rentals on the property. Mrs. W. A. Allen, wife of Rev. W. A. Allen of early day fame in this community managed the hotel for many years in its heyday. Mrs. Allen was a sister of I. W. Carhart, founder of the Clarendon Colony.

Jerome Stocking says he recalls the Denver Hotel from the earliest years of his childhood, and remembers the old gallery that ran around its South and West sides, as well as later alterations and additions to the building.

Many citizens of Clarendon recall that they spent their first night in Clarendon at the Denver Hotel, the city's then finest. The landscape at the end of Kearney Street will present a new and a strange panorama when the workmen complete the leveling of the old hotel building.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Goldston left Friday morning for a visit with her people in Waco.

Mr. and Mrs. Fayne Kent of Borger are visiting here with Isabell Wright.

MEMBERSHIP CARD "NUMBER ONE"

A very clever piece of publicity was put out a few days ago by President R. L. Thornton of the Mercantile National Bank of Dallas. The big bank is building a new building in Dallas, and has capitalized the curiosity of city sight-seers and loafers ever present where large scale building is in progress. A fifty foot "upper deck" was provided with sunshade and uniformed attendant. Guests register in the "Sidewalk Superintendents' Club" book, and all questions are cordially answered.

This was good local publicity, but Bob Thornton is a man with a broad vision—he conceived the idea of sending out an illustrated story of the Sidewalk Superintendents' Club to every newspaper in Texas, with a membership card made out to the editor.

This editor got his membership card and was flattered because it was Card No. 1, and then we happened to visit Editor Deck Wells over at Wellington, and we noted that somehow his membership card had the same number. Later in the week we read where Editor Landers of McLean had a card also numbered "One".

There is some mistake, somehow. That numbering machine must have failed to work, or those other fellows wouldn't have got duplicates of the original No. 1 card mailed the News editor.

NEWSPAPER CHANGE AT ROBSTOWN

Last week the Robstown Record announced that Roy L. Swift, for several years editor of that publication for Sam Fore, Jr., was severing his connection and moving to San Antonio to engage in another line.

Simultaneously it was announced that Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Keach of Austin, were taking over the management and editorial duties of the Record. These young people are friends of the News editor who wishes them well in their new connection. Mrs. Keach is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fore, Jr., owners, and is an experienced newspaper woman. Mr. Keach has been personnel chief for the NYA at Austin, and is a capable young man.

All good wishes go with Roy Swift, and their many friends will watch the Keach couple do a swell job on the Record.

SENATOR FORMBY NEW PLAINVIEW PUBLISHER

Senator Marshall Formby last week purchased the controlling interest in the Community Weekly at Plainview, and will devote such time as he may have after taking care of his duties as state senator in the South Plains district.

While Dickens County judge and a member of the house of representatives Marshall Formby always co-operated fully with the Highway 18 boosters of Donley and neighboring counties, and has many friends up this way who wish him well in his newspaper venture at Plainview.

MECHANIZED CATTLE-RUSTLERS

When organized law and order came to the Panhandle and the Southwest the cattle-rustler was put out of business, and for twenty years we had almost forgotten this form of lawlessness so common in the early days.

Now this section is undergoing a new scourge of the crime, but it is harder to cope with, for the cattle-rustler of 1941 employs the fast motor truck in getting away from the scene of his crime and marketing his stolen cattle.

The mechanized blitz of the marauding brigand of Europe, multiplied the problems of defense to all nations, and his doom is just as certain as is the doom of this new crop of cattle-rustlers in the Southwest where competent enforcement officers are amply capable of cutting short this outbreak.

You can't beat the law any more in 1941 than back in 1891.

Economic Highlights

Happenings That Affected the Dinner Pails, Dividend Checks and Tax Bills of Every Individual. National and International Problems Inseparable From Local Welfare.

President Roosevelt's recent appointment of an Economics Defense Board is generally regarded as proof of the administration's intention to wage economic war against the Axis on a big scale. The Board is headed by Vice-President Wallace, and its other members are the secretaries of State, War, Navy, Treasury, Commerce, and Agriculture, and the Attorney General. The important position of executive secretary has been given to W. W. Riefler, a professor of economics at Princeton, and a former economist for the Federal Reserve Board.

Economic warfare will mean the use of all this country's vast resources to advance the cause of the democracies, and to oppose the purposes of the dictatorships. A start has been made in the case of Japan. The Administration is obviously preparing to squeeze the little island empire to the limit. Our present Far Eastern policy says, in effect, that if Japan will call off her current program of conquest, we will continue to buy her silk and sell her the raw materials she so sorely needs—while if Japan insists on going ahead in the East, she need expect nothing else from us than ruthless economic sanctions and possibly a naval war.

When it comes to Germany, our technique must of course be different. We have had almost no trade with the Reich since the war began. Battleground of the trade warfare in this case will be Latin America. Despite all our past efforts, Germany is still a big factor in many countries south of the Rio Grande. Job ahead is to destroy Germany's Latin American influence, and disrupt her plans for bartering her manufactured goods for South America's raw materials.

At the moment, it looks as if most of South America is ready to play along with this government. Uncle Sam isn't loved without reservation down south, but thinking South Americans regard him as a far better friend than Herr Hitler. In the case of South American countries which hesitate to adapt their economic and military policies to ours, polite threats of trade penalties and even military pressure may be used. This government is dead certain that South America must be saved for the democratic cause if the war is to be won, and it will not hesitate to do anything possible to keep South America in line.

Vichy's complete sell-out to Hitler will also form the basis for U. S. action. Few will be surprised if American marines eventually take over Martinique and other French Islands in this hemisphere. And if Vichy goes ahead with her plans for a joint French-German "defense" of strategic Dakar, many expect that we will have to send our Navy in to do the talking for us. Control of Dakar means control over trade routes and military positions which are vital to this hemisphere. From a naval point of view, Dakar is a fairly tough nut to crack, but our admirals think it could be done with dispatch.

Russia's entry into the European war, in the opinion of most, has made our early participation unlikely. For the time being, at least, there is nothing for us to do but send materials abroad. If the American flag goes into battle, it is much more likely to be in the Pacific or off Africa than in Europe.

The joint declaration of policy issued by Prime Minister Churchill and President Roosevelt following their dramatic meeting at sea seems to have as its principal objective the assurance to all nations, including Germany, that the Allies do not seek to conquer or dismember any power. They seek only to establish a world order which will permit all nations to live in peace.

A number of the points laid down in the declaration are of extraordinary interest. Point number four, for instance, guarantees that all states, "great and small, victor and vanquished," will be given access on equal terms to the trade and raw materials of the world. That amounts to a reversal of policy for England, which has usually guarded her resources jealously, and has often used high tariffs to give Empire states preferential treatment in English-dominated markets. This country has at times done the same thing.

Point number eight has iron in it. It says, in effect, that until a wider and more general system of world security is attained, it will be necessary to disarm and keep disarmed the aggressor nations. This means, apparently, that the Allies will, in the event of victory, act as the world's policeman, carrying a big stick with which to at once

A 10-year old boy turned in the following essay on "cats": "Cats and people are funny animals. Cats have four paws but only one mother. People have forefathers but only one mother. When a cat smells a rat, he gets excited; so do people. Cats carry tails and a lot of people carry tales, also. All cats have fur coats. Some people have fur coats, and the ones that don't have fur coats say caty things about the ones who do have them." (Found in the Lometa Reporter).

Some idea of the extent of the loan shark business in Texas may be gained from the fact that, in the city of Houston alone, 30,000 families are in debt to usurers. This estimate is made by C. E. Buehner, Better Business Bureau manager, who has made a study of loan sharks. He places the number of such concerns in Houston at 130 and says the rate of interest ranges, generally, from 10 per cent a subdue any embryo conqueror when he lifts his head.

Some have compared the eight points of this declaration with President Wilson's famous and ill-fated 14 points. There is, however, one extremely important difference. Mr. Wilson's program was purely his own, and he was not able to persuade the heads of the other allied nations to adopt it. This new declaration has been officially signed by Mr. Churchill as well as Mr. Roosevelt, and so amounts to the official policy of both England and the United States.

month to 10 per cent a week. Pyramiding makes it difficult for the borrower ever to get free again. He borrows, let us say, $20 for which he agrees to pay back $26 at $2 a week. After he has it down to $15, (in other words, he has repaid all but $5 of the principal itself) he is persuaded to float a new loan, obtaining $5 in cash but signing a new note for $26—and this process is repeated, over and over, so that he is paying interest on interest.

How the borrower is kept enslaved by debt is shown by a few cases reported to the Better Business Bureau. One man borrowed $20 and paid $3.50 a month for two years, a total of $84—and still owed $20! Another borrowed $20, paid $3.50 a month for a year, or $42—and still owed the original amount. Another borrower had the same experience except that he paid $3.50 each month for six years, a total of $252 on a loan of $20, and yet he still owed the $20.

He Shoots To Kill!

When a man's home is invaded he does not use a pop gun or powder puff as a persuasive. He shoots to kill. And the common judgement of mankind justifies his defense.

Our Nation is threatened by a ruthless invader, who has already displayed his intent by a murderous conquest of weak nations. We would be unworthy of our heritage if we are not prepared at any moment to shoot to kill. We have never yet used powder puffs for ammunition.

But adequate defense costs money. Every one can help by investing in GOVERNMENT DEFENSE BONDS. Come in and ask about them. Plan of purchase and rate of income.

LOCAL ARTIST ILLUSTRATES MAGAZINE ARTICLE

Mrs. Anne M. Merrell of Canadian has written some of her own pioneer experiences for the first October issue of Ranch Romances. The story is called "A Pioneer Dugout," and tells about life in those early homes of the West where comforts were few and visitors far between. The story has been illustrated by Harold Bugbee of this city, who knows well how to catch the spirit of the old West. This intimate bit of Southwest history is in the issue of Ranch Romances to be found on the newsstands from August 29th to September 12th.

WANT TO GET RID OF RED ANT BEDS

Many local residents complain of their inability to kill out the beds of red ants which are to be found near many of the homes. Penn Barber comes forth with a simple "remedy" which he asserts will do the work, if directions are followed.

Merely keep a supply of 20-Mule Team Borax spread around the top of the the beds so that the ants will be forced to travel through it. The supply should be replenished when necessary for a period of about three weeks so that all of the young ants which might emerge later will get their dose of the Borax, and within three or four weeks the entire colony will be killed.

Penn states that he has used this method for a number of year and always has had effective results, often killing out unusually large beds of the pests. It will cost only a few cents to try it.—Uvalde Leader.

Mrs. Frank McClure is spending a few days in Memphis this week with friends.

TEXAS MILK MANUFACTURE SHOWS STEADY GROWTH

Austin, Texas, August 28—Approximately fifteen million pounds more Texas milk was converted into dairy products during July than during July, 1940, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research estimates.

Ice cream, creamery butter and cheese plants used an estimated 153,452,000 pounds of raw milk to turn out 4,667,000 pounds of butter, 2,013,000 gallons of ice cream and 2,213,000 pounds of cheese.

Ice cream production shot 35.2

per cent above that of July, 1940, while cheese output registered a 14.3 per cent gain and creamery butter a 3.6 per cent increase.

The expanding ice cream industry in Texas continues to boom, as 1941's production to August 1 showed a 23.3 per cent gain over the output for the first seven months of 1940.

For the January 1-August 1 period, butter production likewise gained 22.1 per cent, cheese manufacture 4.8 per cent.

G. D. Shelley was in Lubbock over the weekend on business.

THIS BUSINESS OF Living BY SUSAN THAYER

Discipline and Morale

The four-year-old dawdled over his lunch, as little boys will, and his mother said, "Drink your milk, and you'll soon be big enough to have a bicycle."

How different from the old formula for raising children, "Spare the rod and spoil the child." The school to which the modern mother sends her children does not have "readin', 'ritin', and 'rithmetic," taught to the tune of the hickory stick.

Threats of goblins and boogey men are things of the past. Instead of holding fear of punishment over the child's head, we hold hope of reward. We stress co-operation, not compulsion. That applies not only in raising children, but in almost every phase of American life. In fact, this country is based on the idea of voluntary co-operation.

A man who had just returned from Europe drew a sharp distinction between the Dictatorships and the Democracies. He said that the Dictatorships have discipline, but the Democracies as sharp as the difference between living behind prison bars have morale. That distinction is and being free.

The dictator way of life is forced upon the people. Every man or woman living under it must comply, or face the firing squad or concentration camp. The democratic way is the net of the wishes of all the citizens co-operating voluntarily. In this defense effort we are inspired by our devotion to the principles we are arming to defend. We want to preserve freedom, opportunity and hope. We have a real goal to which we aspire because of the zeal within us.

When the American mother sends her children to school this Fall she knows that they will not be taught by slaves of a Dictatorship who are forced to censor facts and distort truth. In her own home he can talk freely with them and know that she will not be persecuted for teaching them her religious faith.

A youth who takes a job knows that his country has not placed any limitation on the height he can reach, and he knows that there is opportunity to rise, that there is hope of reward. He works and thrives and grows because he is free.

Yes, Democracy and Freedom give a nation like America morale—a spirit which no Dictator could commandeer. An ounce of morale is worth a ton of discipline.

Garden Glances Presented weekly by the Garden Club

"America the beautiful lies in the hands of the gardeners"

August rains and cooler days have brought new life to the gardens as well as to the gardeners. Many autumn flowers are beginning to blossom to add new beauty to the yards with the summer flowers still blooming.

One of the most outstanding pictures that I have noticed this week is the home of M. S. Parsons. The vines artistically cover the porch and a portion of the house; surrounding the house the bright colored small flowers and shrubs are framed with the spacious lawn and trees.

Vines and well trimmed hedges make attractive the Gentry apartment. The vines are unusually thick and vigorous this year because of the rains. The Shine Martin home is a lovely vine-covered cottage. If I were a poet I would write a poem about it.

Personality is not only expressed by clothing and the person but it is also expressed by the homes of the individuals. We see a great deal in magazines about making the rooms to fit the person. Also the outside may be made to reveal the characteristics of the person. When a person sees so much improvement in a place as in the Blocker home one can scarcely see how so much can be done in so short time. Then one wonders why more people don't paint and improve as it makes things more beautiful and attractive and more lasting.

Charles Speed's yard is made much more beautiful by the many colored dahlias.

Bright yellow marigolds are showing at the Lovell home, the Lee Bell and the Dishman home. —Contributed

TEXAS OUT-O'-DOORS

Violations Really Vary

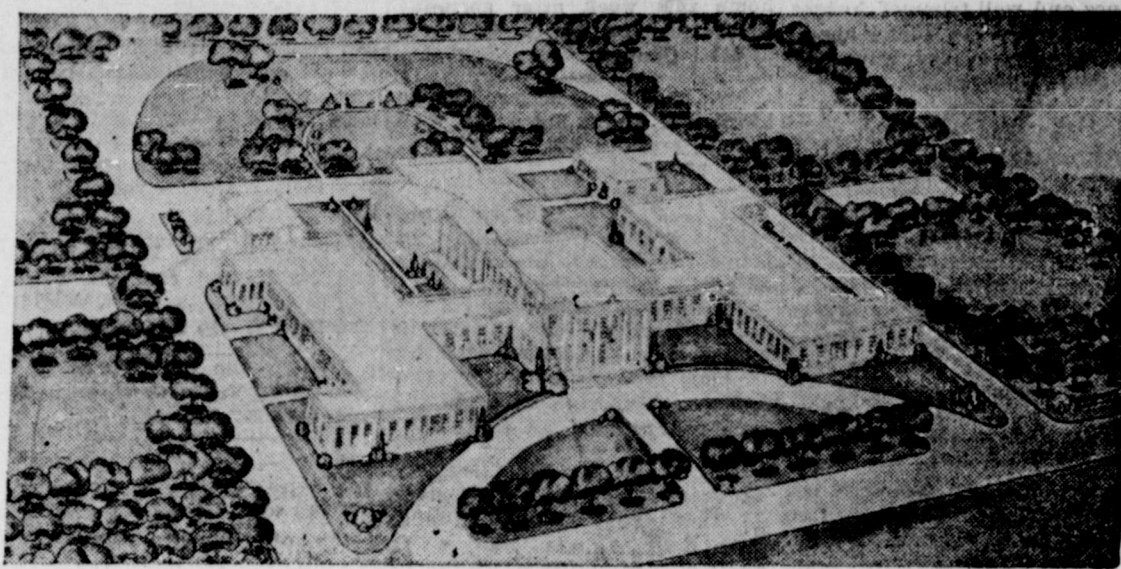

AUSTIN, Texas, Aug. 28—While the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission would rather, much rather, have hunters and fishermen observe the many laws enacted by the legislature, which total more than 700, it is necessary that some arrests be made. A check of a recent monthly report of arrests by wardens made in the Austin office reveals an interesting cross section of the variety of laws which can be violated afield and on streams.

Several hundred arrests during the month checked revealed that there were violations in one way or another of thirty-seven different laws. They varied from killing prairie chickens, upon which there will be no open season for five years; to arrests for the lack of bait dealers licenses.

One fisherman got in trouble for netting during the closed season. Another was fined for possessing short fish. Still another went to court because he was destroying under-sized fish.

Several persons who had killed deer out of season, or who had killed doe deer, paid heavy fines. Non-game bird hunters paid off, as did persons killing javelinas during the closed season. Possessing game birds out of season wasn't healthy for the pocketbooks of several men. Polluters of streams paid off. Persons caught taking fish with their hands found it necessary to pay in justice court. Several commercial fishermen and fish dealers did not have licenses and were caught up with by wardens. The use of unlawful nets got some men in trouble, while others were arrested for hunting ducks out of season.

And so it goes each month. Most sportsmen observe the laws and strive to know all the special laws pertaining to the section of the state in which they are hunting or fishing; but there are those who intentionally violate the laws, the game and fish hogs and they are the ones the Game Department feels should be punished so there will be more game and fish for the sportsmen who appreciate nature's offspring for the food and sport they can provide.

Over two hundred children will enjoy spacious new quarters and better living accommodations at Tipton Orphans Home, Tipton, Oklahoma, when an expansion of the Home, visualized in the architect's drawing above, is completed. A finance drive to pay for the expansion is under way, and is expected to be completed soon, according to home officials. Established in 1921, Tipton Orphans Home has been a home for more than 1,200 children from Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, and other neighboring states in the intervening years. It is supported by 2,000 congregations of the Church of Christ in several states.

Bird Flew To San Salvador

A white-wing dove banded in Cameron County, Texas, July 31, 1940, was shot in San Salvador, Central America, October 15, 1940, two and a half months later, according to word received recently by the Texas Game Department. The distance the bird covered was more than 1,200 miles, and is one of the longest on record for white-wing dove flights.

Another bird banded in Texas was killed in Tampico, Vera Cruz. The bird was banded and released in Cameron County in July, 1940, and was killed in March of 1941.

White-wings are being banded by Texas and U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service biologists to help them obtain information as to the habits of these game birds. Several hundred were banded during the nesting period this year.

Clears Up Mystery

This column recently carried a story of an alligator which inhabits Pecan Bayou, near Brownwood, in West Texas. Alligators are common enough in deep east Texas, but few have ever been seen in West Texas. Now comes word from Mr. L. E. Manning of Colorado City, Texas, which may clear up the mystery of the Pecan Bayou resident, which, is, incidentally, about six feet long. According to Mr. Manning, a patent medicine manufacturing company sent an uncle of his, Mr. B. G. Lindley, a small alligator. That was twenty-five years ago. Mr. Lindley kept the reptile for several days. Then it escaped. The Lindley drug store was only a few hundred yards from Pecan Bayou. It is entirely possible the 'gator is the same one which is frequently sighted.

Hitch-Hiking Scissor-Tails

"A 'Hitch-hiking' scissor-tail flycatcher has been reported to the Game Department by two of its biologists. They recently flushed a great horned owl from a tree where he was taking his afternoon siesta. A tiny, but angry scissor-tail immediately took off in pursuit of the huge bird and twice alighted on the broad back of the owl in flight. The small bird did a good job of feather pulling each time it alighted on the owl's back.

VALUABLE TRAINING GAINED BY LOCAL MUSICIAN AT NATIONAL MUSIC CAMP

Lewis Chamberlain, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Chamberlain of Clarendon returned recently this week after 8 weeks at the National Music Camp, Interlochen, Michigan, where he was a member of the famous National High School Orchestra. As a member of the orchestra, Mr. Chamberlain played over a nationwide hook-up of about 150 stations on the NBC blue network.

Mr. Chamberlain was among the 400 outstanding high school and college musicians from 41 states, Hawaii, and Canada who were students at the camp.

The camp a non-profit educational institution, was organized in 1927 in answer to demands of members of the National High School Orchestra, gathered for a convention of music educators in Dallas, Texas, that they be permitted to meet and play together during the summer.

A site was located amid virgin pines on the shores of twin lakes in Northwestern Michigan near Traverse City. The Camp filled a need and its success, continuing even during worst of the depression years, was such that it now boasts a $300,000 plant.

It attracts each summer a faculty of distinguished musicians

"STOP ACCIDENTS" IS NEW MOTTO FOR DEFENSE

Austin—"Help Defense—Stop Accidents" is the rallying cry issued by the Texas Safety Association in its role as state coordinator in the nationwide campaign against accidents launched by President Roosevelt.

By proclamation the President called on every American citizen to devote maximum effort to a "concerted campaign against accidents which are wasting the manpower and resources so sorely needed for national defense."

The statewide campaign against accidents on the highways, on the farms, in industry, and at home will be waged by more than 30 organizations co-operating with the Texas Safety Association.

"The importance of helping defense by stopping accidents cannot be overemphasized," said George Clarke, managing director.

"For example, the traffic toll for the Labor Day weekend holiday is expected to take the lives of 27 Texans, permanently disable 71 persons and injure some 900 others. The economic loss for the three day celebration will amount to more than one million dollars!

"The prediction is based on the accident trend of this year and the accident rate for the same holiday period last year.

"Translated in terms of the defense program, four bombers could be built with the economic loss of the Labor Day holiday alone.

"Help Defense—Stop Accidents" is a patriotic appeal which every Texan should heed."

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Acord were in Canyon Friday on business.

INCREASED NIGHT FLYING BOOSTS AIR FORCE'S ELECTRICITY BILL

The U. S. Army Air Force's electricity bill is destined to rise as a result of increases in night flying at Randolph Field, Texas, where 4,500 student pilots are being given flight training each year.

Special batteries of field lights—1,000,000 candlepower output on each lamp—have seen increasingly heavy service in the last several months as classes grow larger.

Nearly as large as anti-aircraft spotlights, the field illumination batteries at the huge south Texas training field are fed by a 2,300 volt circuit and provide enough light for Cadets to make out their airplane performance records and check their time aloft while still out in mid-field, a half-mile away.

Meet The South Americans

Democracy is the goal of South America. Carl Crow, author and traveler, describes his impressions of a recent tour of that Continent in a special article for Council For Democracy.

By Carl Crow
Author of '100 Million Customers'

Since returning from an extensive tour of South America, I have been asked these questions: What about South America? Did you feel you were among friends there? Are those countries in fact democracies?

These questions aren't easy to answer. Much has been written about South America that is either too pessimistic or too optimistic. If we are to get down to brass tacks, we must clarify issues, determine standards by which to judge conditions in the South American countries. If I were asked whether the South American republics were perfect democracies, then my answer would have to be "no." But then how many of us believe the United States is a perfect democracy?

We have done pretty well here, and we are still trying. Well, so are the South American countries. If they haven't come quite as far as we have, we must remember that we have had a head start of fifty years. Argentina didn't get her independence until 1821. Bolivia was still fighting the Spaniards in Peru in 1824.

Spirit Was Different
The spirit behind the settling of the two continents must be taken into consideration, too. The people who settled North America were pioneers in search of religious freedom. Mostly English, they represented the great commercial democracy that was just developing. They came here to build homes, and weren't afraid of work.

The Spaniards and Portuguese poured into South America solely for exploitation. And they brought with them ideas of political and social organization which were completely feudal. Aristocrats and gentlemen-adventurers on top—peons and slaves on the bottom! The gentlemen-adventurers were too proud to work, and their main idea was to grab off a fortune as quickly as possible, and get back home to enjoy it.

But feudalism is definitely dying in South America and people know it. Today, most of the South American countries have as their goal, an ideal of individual freedom and democracy patterned on the United States. Once upon a time, the Great Liberator, Simon Bolivar, even had the ideal of a federal union of South America, based upon our own. But it didn't work out because there were too many national jealousies.

All the countries of South America are intensely nationalistic and patriotic. They're proud of what they have accomplished, and jealous and suspicious of their neighbors. They are suspicious of each other as well as of us. But these suspicions are gradually being overcome, thanks to the "Good Neighbor" policy.

There is another and cheerful angle of this intense nationalism. It makes them determined to run their own affairs, and resentful of any attempt at dictation from abroad. Governments are concentrating on rooting out Fifth Columnists. And anti-Nazi pro-democracy meetings are well attended by the people who, for the most part, hate the Nazis.

Meet The South Americans
It would be unwise to underestimate the extent of German penetration in South America. While I don't think there are as many Nazi agents down there as we have been led to believe, it is a fact that Nazi consulates, press attaches and agents are all busy and tireless in their efforts.

The Uruguay outbreak was disturbing because it indicated Nazi penetration. But after the government had seized only the party records it found only about a dozen men were implicated. On top of that came the Nazi South American countries, like ourselves, are working toward more democracy as the great goal of the future. And personally, I am convinced that with time and experience, with understanding on our part, with genuine cooperation in defense and trade, the goal will be achieved.

Where bees are not moved away from poisoned cotton fields, considerable losses occur.

OUR NEIGHBORS TO THE SOUTH AND THE DATES THEY WON INDEPENDENCE

putch in Bolivia and we know how quickly that was squashed. These events are more reassuring than disturbing because they show that our neighbors to the south will not tolerate any interference with their affairs.

We are apt to get pessimistic when we hear a good many of the governments in South America called dictatorships. We should remember that some South American leaders have seized dictatorial powers as the most effective means of destroying feudalism and introducing liberal ideas.

Moreover, the dictatorships of South America have been overplayed in the news. As in those years when we heard about the Huey Long machine in Louisiana and nothing about the orderly government in the other 47 states.

South Americans as a whole have never given up their faith in the democratic ideal. They make their mistakes as we do—occasionally they find themselves in the hands of a Huey Long! They have a property qualification for voters, but in some of our states we still have a poll tax!

The important thing is that

OCTOBER DEADLINE SET TO REDEEM COTTON PLEDGES

Donley county cotton producers with 1938, 1939, and 1940 loan cotton have until October 1, 1941, to repay loans and redeem cotton pledges, Nolie Simmons, chairman of the Donley County AAA committee, has announced.

All cotton not redeemed by this time will be placed in pools as provided by the loan agreement and sold by the Commodity Credit Corporation after March 1, 1942.

Undeemed cotton from each crop will be placed in separate pool with the producers retaining title. When the cotton is sold in each pool, net proceeds will be distributed among the producers in proportion to their interests, Mr. Simmons said.

Recent reports indicate that Texas cotton growers have 77,047 bales of cotton outstanding on the 1938 crop and 360,135 bales on the 1940 crop.

COTTON LEAF WORMS DOING SOME CROP DAMAGE ON DONLEY FARMS

A close watch is being kept these days on the leaf worm situation on Donley cotton farms, by county agent H. M. Breedlove.

Several county farmers already have dusted for leaf worms. Mr. Breedlove said, and others will do so if the infestation gets worse. Dusting machines are available from Roy Jewell, Jake Masterson, or Clyde Bridges at Hedley, and M. G. Cottingham at Lelia Lake.

Calcium arsenate or paris green is used for control of the destructive pests. Calcium arsenate is the best and easiest to use poison, but if it is not available, paris green, mixed with equal parts of flour and five parts of hydrated will kill the worms without burning the cotton.

Mr. Breedlove asks that farmers keep him advised as to the amount of damage being done by the worms, and he will take steps to keep them under control.

Ginnings BY COTTON JOE

I always wear cotton seersucker in summer 'cause it feels so light an' cool. But since seersucker is scarce, I've gotta admit it looks even better on them than it feels on me.

TRENCH SILOS WILL BE BOOSTED IN DONLEY COUNTY

In an effort to build up more interest in trench silos in Donley County, county agent H. M. Breedlove said this week that a silage cutter would be bought for use of Donley farmers if enough of them would sign up acreage enough to make the purchase of a cutter worthwhile.

Proved by many years of practice to be the most economical way to store feed, trench silos have just one main drawback so far as the farmer is concerned—the feed must be cut into silage before it can be stored.

If the silage cutter is bought, it will be rented out to any farmer for $1.50 an acre of cutting. Mr. Breedlove said that he hoped a good number of Donley farmers would show their interest in this plan by signing up some of their feed acreage for cutting into trench silage.

Best Donley County example of a trench silo is on the Claude Bain farm at Hedley. This silo was put in in 1935, and was filled with feed. That same year, half the feed was used to feed out some steers, and the remainder was sealed up in the silo. The silage is in perfect condition today, and has not dried or rotted to any extent since being placed in the silo.

Trench silo demonstrations will soon be held in all communities in the county, Mr. Breedlove said. Farmers will be notified of dates later.

DONLEY FARMERS FIND THAT CONTOURING AND STRIP CROPPING PAY DIVIDENDS

Contouring and strip cropping are paying dividends on Donley County farms this year, according to a survey made by county agent H. M. Breedlove. Farms where these practices were used blew less during the spring wind season, and consequently had to be planted over less times, Mr. Breedlove found.

Good examples of contour and strip cropping can be seen on the Roy Jewell farm at Hedley and on the M. G. Cottingham farm in Windy Valley, Mr. Breedlove said. Both these farmers found contouring and strip cropping a profitable practice this year.

Price Whitlock of San Diego, California arrived Thursday night for a visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitlock.

Mrs. Fred Buntin and Phebe Ann were in Amarillo on business Friday.
