Plowin' Out the Corners

by Uncle Zeb

So much to tell about this week. Don't even know where to begin. The Rodeo, the parade, and my trip to the re-union in-the-school house near Carr City, Okla.; where Mama taught school a quarter of a century ago, maybe she won't want me to tell. Anyway, most of them remembered and recognized her and seemed so glad to see her. Mama was happy over the trip and so was I, but I am getting ahead of the story.

The Rodeo; people say it was a dandy. I am a poor judge. If the boy gets thrown I am afraid he will never get up, if he stays on the horse the show seems dull to me, what are you supposed to want to see happen at a rodeo, someone write in and tell me.

The parade; people say it was a dandy. Did you see Uncle Zeb's float; people say it was a dandy. Thanks Uncle Zeb the Second for helping us out. And the other floats; the G. I. School, Porters Grocery and the other winners, Miller and Son. And then some that didn't win but were good for my money; the Farm Bureau float with the newly crowned queen upon it, also the other girls who were not picked winners. I would have hated to have been a judge. I couldn't have made a decision, they were all that beautiful and wonderful. The winners were so humble and grateful about winning and the losers so gracious and cheerful about losing. I was so nervous when it was over and I wasn't even a contestant. Thanks and Best Wishes to these fine girls from the farm, and to everyone who had a part in this grand parade. Thanks to David Rasco of the Amarillo News and Bill McCoy of the Times for giving us such good coverage in the Dailies. Thanks also to David for being one of the judges along with Mason King and another gentleman from the city of Amarillo, and for goodness sakes don't tell him but I did appreciate Uncle Jay coming down.

I must get back to my trip to Oklahoma; the state that you can't see for the trees, for next week I go to my family's reunion at Glen Rose and so many things need telling about the trip to Carr City. Mama showed me the shady lanes where as young folks they walked to and from parties and church, but she didn't say anything about wanting to walk down them with me.

Anyway, I met all of her old pupils (grown up now) and if you for company to drop by and we shouldn't have stayed but we couldn't help it, she opened some spam, cut the hamburgers in two pieces, and made frosted drinks out of the pop and cream, while she kept frying home-made potato chips, that were the very best. Anyway, Lillian's in-laws say that there just never was another person like her, and I bet they are right; there is no higher recommendation to me than to be spoken kindly of by your relations. Thanks Lillian for a swell visit, and thanks to all of you for being such a nice family. Claude works in the Post Office, and I liked what he had to say about it. "I work for a living, and preach for the Lord", that way he don't have to worry so much about whether the brethren agree with all that he says. I didn't use up half of my notes on the trip, but must close for now with this little poem that I wrote based on a statement by one of Mama's old friends.

Kissin' your sweetheart, boy, racin'
oh boy, it starts your heart to Kissin' your husband, my gosh, it's just like kissin' a door facin' Thanks Oklahoma for everything, includin' Mama...Don't tell her I said it.

son and family Mr. and Mrs. Otis Martin and family at Gassville, Arkansas.

The Lesson I learned from Susie

The other night we had cabbage for supper. My wife is a swell cook, and she'd done an especially good job on the cabbage. I took a heapin' big plateful for myself and passed it over to Susie. Susie is our little four-year-old.

"Have some cabbage, honey?" I asked her.

"Nah-h-h-h!" she said, "I don't like cabbage."

"Why, Susie," her mother spoke up, "have you ever eaten cabbage?"

"Nah-h-h-h, I never did eat any of it—I just don't like cabbage!"

Well, that set me to thinking. Every time I go down to my Co-op, the boys there ask me to use Co-op Motor Oil. For years now, I've been using another brand of oil and I always thought it was the best, so I always told them: "No, I don't like Co-op oil." You know, when Susie pulled that stunt about the cabbage, it hit me like a ton of bricks—how did I know whether I liked Co-op oil or not, I'd never tried any.

I was startin' some plowin' the very next day, so I order out my first barrel of Co-op Solvent Refined Oil, and I can truthfully say that I have never used a better motor oil. And I know why, too. It's made in a farmer owned refinery for use on farms, to specifications that will meet the heaviest farming uses. From now on, you'll find nothing in the crankcase of my tractor, pick-up and car but CO-OP SOLVENT REFINED MOTOR OIL!

• By the way, Susie likes cabbage now. She tried it.

will talk to me in private (I met a few more people too, that I could tell about). I enjoyed them all and some of them read our column in the Farmer-Stockman. However one fellow said that he didn't read no magazines, didn't read no papers, that his radio was run down; that he just read the Bible. "Figure that's all a man needs", he tells me...Maybe he was right.

First we drove to the home of a girl who taught with Mama, who lives in Oklahoma City now and is still teaching, and from the way she fed us she must be making good money. Anyhow, they (she married a fellow named Tom Ivey) showed us the sights of the city, and entertained us wonderfully in their restful and peaceful little home in the edge of the city; with their fruit trees and their chickens to make an old country boy feel at home.

Before I forget it, I have been made a member of the Cuckoo Club of Station KAMQ. This must be the work of our good friend George Young and soon as I get through plowin' I will listen from 6 to 7 a. m. and find out what I am a member of. Actually George I've been going to work at 5. Thanks anyway.

Next week Mr. Holly Wood, of Lelia Lake invited us to the Farm Bureau Chicken Barbecue again to be held July 29th at 4 o'clock. I went last year and did I love that chicken and that pie, and above all else in the world the fine folks who prepared it. But I can't go this time; I will be in Glen Rose, living off of my kin-folks, sleepin on their feather pillows, and otherwise taking them for a clean ing...Thanks Mr. Wood, I am so sorry to miss, wish I could be in both places.

Back to the trip; after taking in the sights of the City, we stopped by Mrs. Ivey's brother's place and met his fine family. He is the minister of the Northside Church of Christ, and his name is Claude Nance. I don't think I ever met a more wonderful family; three boys and one girl (she is named Edyth and I am supposed to send her some rodeo pictures, and I will) and his lovely wife Lillian; we arrived as they were cooking hamburgers for their supper; they had pop and ice cream and all the trimmings for a picnic supper. Anyway, as I said, it was late dull, lengthy exposition of the reformation of St. Elmo at the hands of a paragon of virtues, Edna Earl. There are several copies of Augusta Evans Wilson's book in the Library, but "St. Elmo" fell to pieces along with "Dora Thorne." The pages were yellow, and the copies past mending.

 Speaking of mending, the Library found it necessary to spend the fine and membership money for filing cards, envelopes and various mending supplies this month. The intake to date for July is $6.42 which is slightly more than the average collections. But we have received some generous gifts in the form of books. A Librarian friend purchased nine assorted adult books, and six children's editions and gave us this week. This gift is classed with the Burton Memorial Fund. She gave a donation for this last year. Our children's corner is attractive, but the books are issued more than any others—usually twenty four or thirty daily.

mines, and worked them, who lived and loved and died in the days when fortunes were made and lost and made again before the first false fronts of buildings proclaimed a town.
 For our Garden Club friends we have received recently: "Woman's Home Companion Garden Book"—a comprehensive guide to gardening in the North, South, East and West. It is edited by John C. Wister. This was ordered as several flower growers had asked for a copy. Then we have "Around the Garden" by Dorothy H. Jenkins. This is material compiled from New York Times. I kept a file of these from the "Times" for a year.
 There is material here for each of you so come and read with us.
 Mrs. W. C. McDonald of Plainview visited homefolks last of this week and attended services at Presbyterian Church Sunday morning and meeting with Rev. McKee.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wheeler had as their week end guests, Mrs. Wheeler's niece, Mr. and Mrs. L. Garey and boy of Wichita, Kan.

Messer-Hudson

Twin bouquets of red roses and bridal wreath dominated decorative arrangements for the wedding ceremony which, Sunday afternoon, July 24th, united Miss Nelda Mae Messer of Amarillo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Messer of Hedley and Jimmy Hudson of Amarillo, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hudson of Amarillo. The ceremony was performed in the home of the bride's parents at Hedley. The double ring ceremony was read by James Willett, Minister of the Church of Christ, Hedley.

O. F. Messer gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a street length frock of light blue crepe featuring a draped skirt with matched lace inserts. Her accessories were white complemented by a corsage of white roses. For "something old" the bride wore her mother's lovelier under neckline of dress. For "something borrowed" she wore a lovely necklace and earrings which belonged to the groom's mother. She further observed bridal tradition by wearing a "penny in her shoe." The bride's only attendant was Miss Blonde Payne of Amarillo, a close friend of the bride. She wore a brown and tan crepe dress and wore tan accessories complemented by a corsage of yellow roses.

Bill Hudson of Amarillo served his brother as best man.

For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Messer chose an aqua crepe dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of red carnations.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Hudson, was dressed in aqua printed crepe with black accessories and wore a pink carnation corsage.

The reception honoring the bridal party was held immediately following the ceremony. Draped with a lace cloth, the serving table was decorated with a floral arrangement of red roses, fern, and baby breath in crystal vases. The wedding cake and crystal punch service centered the table on a mirror reflector.

For their wedding trip to various points in Colorado, Mrs. Hudson chose a white linen suit with white accessories.

Mrs. Hudson was graduated from Quail High School in 1946. She is employed by Southwestern Bell Telephone Company of Amarillo.

Mr. Hudson was graduated from Amarillo High School in 1946. He is employed by Kraft Food Company of Amarillo.

Facts And Figures On Polio

By Dr. Roy James H. LaLonde,
Buffalo, New York

Infantile paralysis is not a new condition in spite of all the ballyhoo which at present seems to surround this modern "mystery disease." It has been known to doctors for 60 or 70 years and no one worries about it very much until an "epidemic" arrives.

What is infantile paralysis? "Infantile paralysis is the popular name for a decidedly unpopular disease that is technically known as anterior poliomyelitis." To begin with, the latter name is more technically correct since this disease not only manifests itself among children but grown-ups as well. When a nerve trunk is irritated by subluxation then that section of the cord where it has its cone of origin will suffer fatigue and disintegrated nessel bodies, thus causing a lesion. If the subluxation and its fatigue lesion do not exist one could feed cold viruses or the fixed virus of polio by the millions to the child without danger of any serious trouble, more than the symptoms of a cold.

I trust I have made this point clear for the simple reason that Dr. Frame, our foremost researcher in this field, has been unjustly accused of saying that poliomyelitis is caused by a virus. He has never made that statement but he has proven by animal experimentation that the "cold virus is one of the factors in the pathological process known as poliomyelitis." It is hardly conceivable that when the fatigue lesion which Dr. Frame has repeatedly written and spoken about is photographed through the microscope upon a two by two slide, and then later projected upon the screen, showing the dissolution of the Nessel bodies of the cell due to fatigue, trauma or shock, there can't exist any doubt as to the fatigue lesion being a fact and not a theory!

The fatigue theory in itself is not a new one when this theory is based upon a generalization that Herrick, Verworm and Sherrington, not to mention others, showed that fatigue of the nervous system could be well established. Please observe that, to my knowledge, such men did not concretely show HOW the nervous system was made susceptible as we do in our laboratory work on experimental animals. In other words, the fatigue lesion as discovered and proven by Dr. Frame's research unequivocally substantiates this "theory," leaving little room for doubt as concerns the cells predisposition to the virus, once a fatigue lesion exists. I shall not expound this aspect, as Dr. Frame has some very interesting slides and pictures which will more clearly illustrate this point.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Estlack and daughters, Ira Jean, Patsy, Barbara and Danalene returned home Monday afternoon from a 5 days vacation trip to Carlsbad Caverns and Ruidoso, N. Mex.

Palo Duro Canyon, Natural Wonderland For Movie Drama

Palo Duro Canyon State Park has been "discovered." Only this time Hollywood discovered it rather than Spanish explorer Coronado.

Discovery of a new natural background suitable for outdoor movie drama is as important to film makers as discovery of a new star. Hollywood still remembers the awed reaction of screen audiences at seeing weird Monument Valley where "Stagecoach" was photographed and Death Valley in the silent film "Greed."

Predictions are that Palo Duro Canyon will become a major scenic attraction after audiences see it in the technicolor film "Thunder in the Dust." Palo Duro Canyon, a geological wonderland of many colors, is a Texas State Park near Amarillo, Texas.

The "discovery" of Palo Duro Canyon came through color photos taken there by John LeMay, 70-year-old father of producer Alan LeMay. The elder LeMay showed the pictures to his son who later explored the Canyon with producer George Templeton. The producing team then wrote the script of their outdoor drama to place it in the actual locale of the Canyon. The story is laid in 1900 and deals with a cattlemen's war.

Producers LeMay and Templeton took players Robert Preston, Robert Sterling, Chill Wills, Cathy Downs, and John Barrymore Jr. to Palo Duro for scenes. The entire picture was shot in the vicinity of the Park.

Technicolor experts had nothing but praise for the vivid colors and rugged formations in Palo Duro. "Thunder in the Dust" will be released in March with the premiere in Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Macklin Butler of Shreveport, La. visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Butler on their way to Berger to be with her brother who is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. LaGrone visited their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Pop Reed at Amarillo the week end.

Health Notes

AUSTIN — A statewide educational campaign for the control of venereal diseases, which will be carried out throughout the summer and possibly into the fall, has been announced by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, who states that the public will be reached by means of radio, newspapers, movies, and lectures by health authorities.

"While it is true that great advances have been made recently in the control of these diseases, nevertheless a lack of full information on the part of the public has hindered the complete success of the program", Dr. Cox said.

"There has been a steady decline in the incidence of new cases reported, in infant and adult mortality rates, and in admissions to mental institutions due to syphilis, since 1938 when intensive measures for the control of venereal diseases were initiated. But this decline has not been great enough", Dr. Cox added, "and this is partly attributable to a lack of accurate information and the general apathy concerning venereal diseases which followed the termination of the war."

"The spread of many completely false ideas about these diseases and their treatment has also led to a feeling of complacency, and the belief that a patient can diagnose his own case, and treat it with self medication. This is a particularly dangerous untruth; only a competent doctor can diagnose and treat venereal diseases, and it is the purpose of this educational campaign to fully inform the public of the actual dangers of venereal diseases, and what measures must be taken to control them."

Dr. Cox said that this campaign of the Texas State Department of Health will coincide with other similar educational campaigns, which will be conducted by health officials throughout the entire nation.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Darden returned home Tuesday from Breckenridge where they attended the funeral of his brother, Mr. J. W. Darden who died at Tyler.

Swine Show To Be Bigger and Better At State Fair of Texas

The State Fair of Texas has added 126 new swine pens for the 1949 exposition, in a move to heighten interest in the swine show still further this year, Ben E. Cabell, chairman of the State Fair's livestock committee, has announced.

A total of 282 pens will be available for the 1949 show, insuring facilities unexcelled anywhere in the nation, Cabell said.

The show will be held in Dallas October 8 - 16, with judging on October 10, 11 and 12. Premiums totaling $5,500 are offered for breeding swine, and $2,750 for fat barrows.

Thursday October 15, has been designated as Texas Swine Breeders Day at the Fair. On that day the Texas Swine Breeders Association will sponsor an all-breed swine sale. Program for the day is being planned by W. S. Walker, president, and E. M. Regenbrecht, secretary of the association.

Prof. L. A. Weaver, chairman of the animal husbandry department at the University of Missouri, and Prof. A. I. Dahlberg, of Texas A&M College, will judge the show.

W. L. Stangel, Lubbock, is general superintendent of the Fair's livestock division. Fred Hale, College Station, is superintendent and Dan Kiber, Arlington, is assistant superintendent of the swine show. John Singleton of Dallas, long identified with the Fair, will assist.

"State Fair directors are determined to make the 64th annual swine show the best in the history of this exposition," Cabell said. "We expect to exceed last year's record of 551 breeding hogs and fat barrows."

Officials have urged swine breeders to make their entries earlier than usual this year, since the demand for facilities is expected to exceed the available pens.

Wayne Wood of Amarillo spent last week in the L. L. Wood home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bingham, Hazel, Juanita and Charles visited relatives in Borger Sunday.

Mr. L. R. Dean who has been seriously ill in Amarillo is reported still in a critical condition.

The Legislature Adjourns

The regular session of the 51st Legislature finally adjourned on July 6, completing the longest session in its history—177 days.

We believe there is hardly anyone, including the Legislators themselves that will bemoan this belated adjournment.

It is too early to evaluate the work of this session, but we do know that it was the most expensive one ever held in the matter of appropriations. It is true that there was no tax-bite put upon the taxpayers at this time.

Doubtless some beneficial measures have been enacted, however; it is the opinion of this publication that commitments have been made and precedents established that will be found hard to fulfill in the future, without a crushing tax burden upon the citizens of this State.

In trying to be all things to all men, we believe that the Legislature has leaned over backwards in appeasing certain strong minorities and blocs in the way of appropriations, and has violated one of the hard and fast rules of economics, that you cannot spend more than you have in sight and still stay out of trouble.

No doubt it will be a source of much wonder and prompt the question of WHY? many times, that this Legislature started off with the excellent surplus in the General Revenue Fund of approximately $90,000,000 (millions) and at the end find that this has all been used up, together with all of the anticipated tax receipts that will accrue to this Fund for the next two fiscal years, and then discover that their appropriations exceed both of these amounts by around $17,000,000 (millions) dollars, thereby necessitating the veto of the Eleemosynary appropriation for the second year of the coming biennium.

Of course the inmates of these institutions are rather inarticulate and don't vote much, and therein might be found the answer or at least part of it.

It is a common practice to point the finger of decision at our Legislative bodies, both individually and collectively, however; in this we are not in accord—the trouble goes back farther—with citizens themselves—They are apathetic and lethargic when it comes to going to the ballot box—they fail to register positive votes for the best and most qualified candidates—they cast negative votes against this one or that one for personal or sentimental reasons. Until more care is exercised by the citizens in selecting the personnel of all of our lawmaking bodies, and they show a more militant and active in trest in home their tax money is handled, they can expect a continuance of more and larger appropriations.

On November 8, of this year the voters of Texas will have an opportunity of passing upon, either by adoption or rejection, of the ten proposals to amend the State Constitution. Several of the amendments affect future taxation. It will be interesting to see whether the citizens of Texas wish to reverse this trend of exorbitant spending, or will by their votes lend encouragement and approval to it. The amendments will be printed in full in the August issue of the TEXAS TAX JOURNAL. — Texas Tax Journal.

factor is usually even more expensive to the victim, than his doctor and hospital bills."

Inasmuch as typhus fever is transmitted to man by the rat flea, the control of typhus depends almost entirely upon ridding ourselves of rats. No garbage should be left exposed where they can get to it to feed. Granaries and feed houses should be rat-proofed so that rats are starved out. All rat harborages such as trash piles, piles of old lumber, accessible quarters in the walls and foundations of buildings and other suitable living quarters should be denied them. Houses and business buildings can be effectively rat-proofed at a comparatively low cost, and the expense is always much less than the damage that can be done by rats, and the sickness they can spread.

"When the rat is gone, typhus fever will go also," Dr. Cox said. "Keep building out, starving out, and killing all rates, and typhus fever will no longer menace the health of our people."

Mrs. L. B. Noble returned from Canyon July 15th where she completed work at West Texas State College for the B. S. Degree.

Mrs. J. R. Brandon, who is attending summer school at Canyon spent the week end at her home in Clarendon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray McManinon and family of Bakersfield, Calif. visited in the L. L. Wood home over the week end.

Hospital Notes

The people of Texas have been fortunate in escaping any serious outbreaks of typhus fever this year, the total number of reported cases so far being 133. This is a gratifying decrease in the incidence of this disease, but at the same time, it is well to warn that only continued stringent rodent-control measures will hold this disease in check.

This is the advice of Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, who says that "typhus is one of the most debilitating of all diseases, and the long drawn out illness results in such loss of time that this

OFFSET DISC HARROWS

NEW HARROW CHANGES TILLAGE METHODS!

Long considered one of the most efficient orchard and vineyard tillage tools, the Massey-Harris Goble Offset Disc is now demonstrating its all-around ability wherever a heavy-duty harrow is required. In some applications, farmers find that this new disc eliminates the need for plowing.

In cotton, corn, grain . . . wherever you have particularly stubborn soil or heavy root growths, these husky all-welded harrows step in to handle the job with a result that's mighty hard to beat. The sharp-edged blades "disc in" the toughest crop leaving just enough residue on top to help check soil drifting.

In spite of its rugged huskiness the Goble is an easy pulling offset harrow . . . the result of oil-bath bearings. These patented bearings extend the full width of each section . . . are free-running, long lasting. And they're positively sealed from dust and dirt—a big economy advantage that means low maintenance. Thrust is absorbed at the center where the greatest strain occurs in any harrow.

It all adds up to better soil preparation . . . easier handling . . . a better job done more economically.

Stop in soon . . . ask about this more efficient way to prepare seed beds.

DONLEY COUNTY HAS CHOICE PEACHES

Donley county, Texas has long been known as a fine fruit section though present day orchards are not as numerous as thirty years or more ago. Three commercial orchards are well known, the Luttrell and the Doherty orchards near Hedley, and the variety orchard of W. Ollie Hommel some five miles south of McLean.

Mr. Hommel grows about all kinds of fruits that are found to succeed in this section. Some of his land is sub-irrigated, and on this type of land he has special varieties best suited for the moist land that needs very little rainfall.

Generous samples of Jubilee peaches brought to Clarendon Monday by Mr. Hommel were of such a size as to attract a lot of attention, some of the fruits measured 9 inches in circumference, and three of them weighed one and one-fourth pounds. They have a light color with a decided red blush on the sun side giving them an advantage of sale where other peaches would not tempt a possible purchaser. And the flavor is tops. The Jubilee variety is a winner because of the thin skin, excellent flavor and being a freestone, it is a most excellent canning variety. Mr. Hommel finds a ready market for this fruit at $2.25 per bushel.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Messer and son spent the weekend at McKnight visiting relatives, and attending the marriage of Mr. Messer's niece.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reed and baby spent the weekend here in the R. O. Maberry home. They live in Amarillo.

Donley County ACA Farm News

Wheat Allotments:

Donley County has received its wheat acreage allotment. We expect to be able to mail out individual allotments to the producers in the County within a few days. When you receive your allotment you will notice that there is a paragraph on the form concerning appeals to the County Committee for an increase in your wheat allotment. Don't forget that you must come to the office and make this appeal within fifteen days after you receive your allotment.

Acreage Allotments And Marketing Quotas:

We would like to explain to you the differences between Acreage Allotments and Marketing Quotas. Under the allotment program, each wheat producer will be given an allotment established by using a factored percent of his average wheat acreage in the past few years. In the event that the producer plants within his allotted acreage, he becomes eligible for price support, loans and any other assistance that this office may be able to help him with. If he overplants his allotment, he will have to sell his product on the open market and receive only market price, where the Government prices might be higher. He will also give up his privilege for any assistance from this office concerning terraces, dams, tanks, stalk and stubble practices, etc. Under Marketing Quotas, the producers who over plant their allotment will be penalized by paying in cash for the excess acreage that they planted. They will also be disqualified to carry out any practices in co-operation with this office. Marketing Quotas will not be in effect in 1950, BUT YOU WILL HAVE ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS.

Cotton Allotments:

We have started work on our Cotton Listing Sheets. The Community Committeemen have been taking each 532-C for the individual farms in the County and carefully going over them to see that the crop history for each one is correct. To date we have had Communities A, B, D, E, and F in the office. Those present were: Roy Stewart, Roy Roberson, Auther Littlefield, Pink Marshall, Pete Land, George Bulman, Carroll Lewis, Gerald Noble, Oscar Anderson, Don Tomlinson, Oscar Wilkinson, Marvin Jones, Frank Davis, and Frank Jones.

Stalk and Stubble:

If you plan to leave your stalks and stubble on the land this fall, don't forget to come to the office and get your approval. The payment for the practice is 25c per acre.

Farm Bureau

Chicken Barbecue:

The big barbecue for members, friends, and prospective members of the Farm Bureau is Friday. Don't forget to have your chicken at the Frozen Food Locker in plenty of time. Everyone is welcome, and the members have an interesting program planned for you. There will be plenty to eat for everyone, so plan to be at the Lelia Lake School House Friday afternoon at 4:00 p. m.

Odds and Ends:

Ward Taylor, our District Field Officer, visited the office this week.

Kelly Neighbors has an approval for an Earthen Dam. James Graham has an approval to seed some Weeping Love Grass, and Loyd Moreland has an approval for leaving stalks and stubble on the land.

To date we have completed 95 Warehouse and 24 Farm Storage Wheat Loans totaling $296,157.68. "Progress comes of going on from where we are. We can never wipe the slate clean and start over."

LOCAL LADY TEACHING IN LEADERSHIP SCHOOL

FAYETTEVILLE, ARK., July 20—Mrs. John A. English of Clarendon is teaching in the laboratory section of the Leadership School of the South Central Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church, which opened here at Mount Sequoyah Assembly, July 18. Her lessons are centering on religious nurture in nursery class and home.

Held annually, the school provides ten days of training and inspiration for persons serving as leaders in all phases of the denomination's program of Christian education. It is a joint project of the Jurisdiction's 19 annual conference boards of education and the Methodist General Board of Education. The great majority of the 24 courses being taught are of a practical, "how-to-do-it" nature on procedures of administration and instruction in the church school program. All classes concerning work with children are being held in a special laboratory section featuring supervised practice teaching.

Daily vesper services at the school on the theme of "World Citizenship" are being led by Dr.

Walter G. Williams, professor of old testament literature and religion at Iliff School of Theology, Denver, Colorado.

The Rev. Mr. English is also enrolled here, and is devoting his studies to the Philosophy of Christian Education.

RURAL RAMBLER

The annual conference of Texas Rural Churches has just ended at College Station. Interest expressed indicates rural churches will strive as they have never before to serve their rural communities well.

The rural way of life throughout the world has been found to be the stronger and more durable portion of the foundation of civilization. Where doctrines contrary to Christian philosophy have been imposed it usually has been the people on the farms and in the rural communities who held out against them the longest.

Rural people live close to and in contact with the work of nature. Also as a rule they wish to live in close communion with their Creator.

Added incentives of the city in the form of shorter hours, higher pay, and better cultural facilities cause too many people to leave the land.

The call of the city adds to the difficulties of the rural church. Membership suffers. Budgets become limited. Pulpits hard to keep filled.

Rural life to blossom must be both comfortable and practical. To check trend away from the farm the rural community must share in the good things of a material sort which come to the larger community of which it is part and parcel. The city and country community must join in projects of mutual benefit.

In line with this rural communities through sound economic and spiritual health and life point the way of reality for better things for the city as well.

Many rural communities thru county-wide programs are active now, and many more will become active later, in the Christian Rural Overseas Program known as CROP. This is a program of all churches of Texas which assures aid and comfort for many suffering people the world over. The agricultural commodities which CROP collects are distributed overseas by the church relief agency of the denunciation of the donor's choice.

In this undertaking to assure better brotherhood, town and country can join, too. Yes everyone can be a part of this Christian giving to help those who suffer.

THE INDIANS ARE COMING!

Yes, the Top o' Texas Rodeo and Horse Show Association is giving this country back to the Indians during the annual Top o' Texas Rodeo and Horse Show to be held at Pampa on August 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6th.

Arrangements have been completed with the U. S. Indian Reservation Offices at Anadarko, Okla., for the appearance of a group of Indians from the United States Indian Reservations to appear in this year's show. There will be three tribes represented in the delegation, the Kiowas, Comanches and Apaches. The oldest Indian, Frank Bosin, is a Kiowa and is 89 years old. George, who is Frank Bosin's son, is a descendant of Toohausen (signer of the Medicine Lodge Treaty). George's wife, Beauty Aspermei is a Comanche, a descendant of Chief Quana Parker. The group of dancers will range in age from 9 to 90.

This group of dancers are nationally famous for their Indian War Dances, and will dance at each night's rodeo performances in full costume and ceremony. The costumes of the Indian girls are buck skin and beads valued up to $500.00, and are treasured very highly by them as it is almost impossible to obtain the materials to make these dresses. The War Bonnets and Head Dresses of the men are Eagle feathers and are also very expensive and hard to obtain. They will be equipped with tom-toms or war drums plus the colorful University Hardin-Simmons Cowboy Band in the background.

These dancers are experts in their tribal dances and do such dances as the war dance, shield dance, Indian round dance, Indian two-step, Eagle dance and many others.

The horizontal tail surfaces of the Navy's plane, Constitution, is 3.5 times the total wing area of a F-80 fighter plane.

Health Notes

AUSTIN — The disabling and often fatal disease of children, rheumatic heart disease, is one of the leading causes of death among children and young adults in the age group 10 to 25 years.

early symptoms and obtaining a competent physician's diagnosis and treatment, some of the damaging results of rheumatic heart disease can be prevented or moderated.

The State Health Officer, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, says that "in general the early symptoms of rheumatic fever are pain and swelling in the joints of the knees, ankles, elbows or wrists. The pain is felt usually in one of these joints, and spreads frequently to the others.

Predisposing causes to this serious illness include frequent chilling, living in damp, steamy quarters, poor diet, frequent colds, and sometimes scarlet fever or other infections caused by certain streptococcus germs. All such conditions should be avoided if at all possible.

Protection for children against rheumatic heart disease, should include a thorough physical examination by a physician at least once a year; a well balanced and nourishing diet; sufficient rest and sleep, and dressing at all times in accordance with the temperature of the room or playground. Consult a physician at once if any symptom suggests that this disease may be present or in the process of developing.

Business Failures

AUSTIN—Business failures in Texas are almost three times greater in 1949 than they were in 1948, Dun and Bradstreet reports to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research showed.

Fatalities in Texas for the first five months of 1949 numbered 71 in comparison with 27 for the comparable period in 1948. A total of 14 Texas businesses failed in May, 17 in April, and 5 in May a year ago. Liabilities per failure averaged $20,000 in May, as compared to $21,000 in April, and $51,000 in May 1948. Mt. Lassen in Calif. is the only active volcano in the U. S.

the State Extension office, A&M College of Texas.

Introduced only last year, the program has already chalked up an unusually good record which includes training 7,150 junior and 4,390 adult 4-H Club leaders in recreation. In addition 1,005 clubs in 44 states were awarded blue ribbons for outstanding performance; 350 counties won $25 each in cash toward buying recreational equipment; 21 states received $50 each for crafts premiums, while five boys and three girls were given educational trips to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

A total of $25,280 will again be awarded in the same manner by United States Rubber company, sponsors of the program. Awards are based on well-rounded recreation activities developed and carried out by local 4-H Clubs. The eight trips are provided for 4-H'ers who have excelled in recreational leadership.

Among the events designed for club groups are indoor and outdoor games; dances, festivals, tours and plays. For members there are numerous types of recreation such as leather, metal or wood craft; stage and set designing; sports and hobbies; singing or dancing leader, and serving as a committee member.

The entire program is conducted under the supervision of the Cooperative Extension Service.

Federal Internal Revenue Collections

AUSTIN — Showing a 7-per cent gain from July 1, 1948 thru May 31, 1949 as compared to a like period a year earlier, federal internal revenue collections in Texas totaled $1,243,421,766, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported.

For the month of May 1949 collections throughout the State amounted to $82,548,672, a 4 per cent slump from May a year ago, when they reached $85,620,037.

In South Texas (First District) income tax collections from July 1948 through May 1949 were 17 per cent above the comparable period of last year; employment taxes stepped up 14 per cent; and withholding taxes slipped 3 per cent.

Withholding taxes for the current fiscal year fell 7 per cent in North Texas during the last 12 months, but employment and income tax collections climbed 12 and 7 per cent, respectively, over the July 1, 1947 - May 31, 1948 period.

Collections in South Texas, totaling $678,261,628 from July 1, 1948 through May 31, 1949, exceeded those for North Texas, which reached $565,160,138. Over the last 12 months collections in South Texas jumped 12 per cent over the July 1, 1947 - May 31, 1948 period, while those in North Texas advanced 4 per cent.

Radioactive Tracers Now Being Used In Research - Corrosion

AUSTIN — Radioactive tracers are now being used in University of Texas research on corrosion.

The technique is part of the research which has been in progress at the University under the direction of Dr. Norman Hackerman, director of the University's Corrosion Research Laboratory. Stearic acid containing radioactive carbon is being applied to steel surfaces so disposition of the acid molecules on the steel may be traced by Geiger counter.

Corrosion costs the oil and gas industry millions of dollars annually. University scientists have been determining what actually happens during the corrosion process and are now concerned with the manner in which metals corrode.

Because exposed metal presents a highly diversified surface, metal corrodes in different ways at different points, Dr. Hackerman explains. "For this reason our research is largely a study of the surface of metals," he says. He and his assistants are trying to discover active spots on surfaces and hope radioactive tracers will help show them the way

OLD PATHS
By
DOYLE WILLIAMS
Minister
Church of Christ

The past few weeks we have been studying the two major divisions in the plan of salvation; which consist of the human and divine; or God's part in his plan to save, and man's part of the plan. In any and all ages of the world, God has never done for man what he could do for himself. But has always done his part of any and all things perfectly. Thus far we have learned, that God's mercy, love, grace, Christ; his death, and his life, all have their place in saving the human family, and that at the same time; when it was beyond the power of man to supply them.

We shall continue to study a few other things that are ascribed to God's side of the plan; that man had neither part or lot in. Who is it that will deny that the blood of Christ does not have a part in saving us? For John says "But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin." This same truth is taught in the first chapter of Revelations the fifth verse; "And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his blood."

We also have this plan by the obedience of Christ. "Though he were a son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation to all them that obey him." Heb 5:8. Then Jesus in his obedience to his father, was part of the means that is instrumental in saving us.

None the less true, we have the Gospel today which is a part of the plan to justify us from our sins. The apostle Paul declares that the Gospel saves us; "Moreover brethren, I declare unto you the Gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; by which also ye are saved;" And again "For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first and also to the Greek." Here the apostle Paul openly declares that the Gospel saves men and women; but the declaration is not made exclusive to other things that God has purposed to save us. It only is a part of the scheme of redemption, and is just as essential as any other part of the plan. They must all be received in their respective places.

God declares that his Word saves us. "Wherefore laying apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted Word, which is able to save your souls." Jam 1:21. "Seeing you have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:" Since the truth is declared to be the word of God, Jno 17: 17, the truth and the word of God saves us.

Now for a summing up of the entire matter; that has been before us in this study for the past few weeks. It is that God saves us, and that there are certain attributes of the plan of salvation, that are without the works of men: That he alone purposed and plan, without any of the merits of man; that all of these and other not mentioned; man had or does not have any thing to do with. This is the divine side of the plan of salvation, and the curses of God are sworn against the man that will take from or add any thing to this plan; is plainly taught in His Holy Volume.

Dear reader: I hope and trust that you have preserved these things in your mind, and understand that this teaching is in perfect harmony with your Bible; and that when we begin to exclude anything from God's word, we are walking on treacherous ground.

Next week we will begin a study of the human side of the plan of salvation. Thanks for your many compliments of these studies, and I pray you will continue with us. According to Tack, one railroad reported a net loss of $1.64 on each meal served on their dining cars during the year. How come, when there was only 7 cents worth on the plate to begin with?

For The Ladies: A Diet That Really Works

We went out visiting the other night and the ladies were talking away about weight-reducing diets. One of them had a special "15-day Hollywood diet" guaranteed to slim her down fifteen pounds' worth. Another was living on bananas and skim milk!

I might have known the missus would get the bug, too, and sure enough the other day she asks me, "Joe, what kind of a diet do you think I ought to go on?"

"Mother," I says, "the only diet I would ever recommend to anyone is simply moderation. I wouldn't trust any of those get-thin-quick diets. Simply cut down on desserts, bread, butter, sweets and fats—but when you do, even do your cutting down moderately."

From where I sit, moderation is the watchword. Moderation with food, with smoking or with the enjoyment of a friendly glass of temperate beer or a/e. Actually, moderation adds to the enjoyment of just about anything.
