Lions Club Musical Opened Last Night For 3-Night Showing

The Lions Club Musical revue opened last night at the College auditorium. It was evident that the near capacity crowd enjoyed themselves for two hours of songs, dances and gags. Added to the very fine performances of the entire cast were color costumes and scenery, depicting the old time western cafe and the wild deserts.

The show takes us for a trip through the west. Included are the present ranch days, the old frontier days and an authentic dagger dance by Indian Girls. Rollicking skits run throughout the show.

The second act is made up of the business people of Clarendon who displayed hidden talents in their singing and fun making.

The entire cast should be complimented for a highly polished show, and the talent they displayed. Maurice Alevy, the director certainly did a grand job in bringing forth their capabilities.

There are still two more performances at the College auditorium—Tonight and Friday nite.

Firemen Sponsoring Thanksgiving Dance

A Thanksgiving-evening dance will be held here at the Clarendon Opera House next Wednesday night with Emmett Allen and his string band furnishing the music. The dance is being sponsored by the local Volunteer Fire Department as a means of raising funds to purchase new firemen's coats which will be needed badly if the group is called out on a fire during the cold weather ahead. The city is unable to help with the purchase of the coats at this time so it is up to the firemen and the citizens of this area to raise the money. The firemen hate to ask for an outright donation so they are sponsoring this dance in order that you may help out and have a very enjoyable evening at the same time. The dance will start at 9 p. m. The admission charge will be $1 per person.

Shamrock Is Winner Of District 2-A

Rumors had been making the rounds the past several days which could have possibly dropped the Shamrock Irishmen from the lead in District 2-A football, but this situation was all cleared up in a meeting of the District 2-A Executive Committee at McLean Monday of this week. Wellington had contested the eligibility of Don Stokes of Lefors but evidence showed he was eligible in every respect. Had he not been eligible, Wellington would have won the district championship as they defeated Shamrock last Friday night and they had only been defeated by Lefors and Memphis. With Lefors out of the picture, they would have had one loss and their win over the Irish which would have automatically given them the top honor.

Pastor L. A. Sartain of the local First Baptist Church returned Saturday from the Baptist General Convention of Texas which met in Fort Worth. Last year was a record year when over 57,000 were baptized into Texas Baptist churches. This challenge startled the messengers of the convention but was accepted by a standing vote of more than ten thousand present.

CLUB HOUSE BOARD MEETS

The Club House Board met Monday, Nov. 13 at the Patching Club House with Mrs. Pete Kunz presiding. The meeting was held a week late due to the absence of the board president, Mrs. Kunz.

The chief item of business was a discussion of insurance for the building and its contents. The treasurer was directed to pay the outstanding bills: $5.00 for plumbing and $5.00 for a back screen door.

A vote of thanks was given to the plumber for his prompt service and to Mr. Pete Kunz and Mr. Cap Morris for putting up the screen door.

A committee was appointed to see about the memorial light, as well as replacing two decorative shades on the chandeliers. One of these was broken in shipping. The other seems to have been broken by a gremlin but the club board treasury will have to suffer for it.

The president asked that each club have a substitute representative at the board meeting, when the regular representative can not be there.

The next regular meeting is Monday, Dec. 4. The board is asking for 2 extra representatives from each club to attend this meeting to take part in a discussion concerning an Open House sponsored by all the clubs. Every one should be thinking of ideas, if they care to have a part in it.

—Reported.

Miss Richerson gave short sketches on the lives of several Clarendon artists and art students, then asked the club members to view the pictures these artists had loaned for display. The artists were Mrs. Harry Brumley, Miss Ruth Richerson, Miss Monette Neville, Mr. Harold Bugbee and Mr. Jimmie Howze. Mr. Bugbee was kind enough to hold a picture over for a day in order that the club members could see it before he shipped it for sale.

Notes from - - - CITY HALL

We have just completed graveling the approaches to the bridge at the south end of the city park near the grade school building. This is something that has needed to be done for some time. Those of you that travel this route going and coming from school, we are confident will appreciate this for it will eliminate what has been a mud hole in wet weather.

We had a state health official in our city last week for the purpose of checking our eating establishments and markets. He reported that, except for a few minor adjustments, everything was in a satisfactory condition as a whole. We want to congratulate you people for this satisfactory report that was made to the city by this state official. May you strive continuously to keep your establishments up 100 percent for the health and welfare of all.

Thanks,
Major Hudson, Mayor.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for their kindness, sympathy and beautiful floral offering during our recent bereavement, especially, we would like to thank Rev. Sartain and Rev. Armstrong, members of the ladies circles and our neighbors whose kindness helped to lighten our burden at this time. May God's richest blessings be with each of you always.

Mrs. W. L. Leffew & children.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Shelton spent the past weekend in Lubbock visiting their son Douglas who is a student there. On this occasion they watched the parade and attended ceremonies of the Silver Anniversary of Texas Technological College.

New Treatment Found For Control Of Screwworm

A new treatment for the control of the destructive livestock insect pest, the screwworm, has been developed by the USDA's Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine at their Kerrville laboratory. The new treatment is known as EQ 335 screwworm remedy.

According to H. M. Breedlove, county agent, the new remedy will replace the old reliable Smear 62 formula that has been used for the past 10 years. The formula for EQ 335 contains by weight 3 percent of the powerful new insecticide, Lindane, 35 percent pine oil, 42 percent white mineral oil, 10 percent emulsifier and 10 percent silica gel. Breedlove says production of the new remedy is to start immediately and there will be smears of different consistencies on the market depending upon the type of emulsifier used. He says any of the smears that contain the 3 percent lindane and the 35 percent pine oil will be effective even though the other items in the formula vary somewhat from the original.

Here are the advantages he lists for the new smear over 62. It will not deteriorate upon standing. An application usually lasts for seven days or about twice as long as an application of Smear 62. Treated wounds heal quickly and the lamp black and other coloring chemicals that stain clothing, wool or hair are not found in the new remedy. The treatment kills maggots deep in the wounds, young maggots as they hatch from eggs and flies attracted to the wound to feed or lay eggs.

The new remedy has been tried on thousands of animals during the past four years and none have been injured from the treatment. He points out, however, that young animals, especially calves, might become sick if the treatment is not applied properly. The smear should be applied with a small paint brush and only the wound and a narrow strip of an inch or less about the wound should be treated.

Breedlove says this new smear will soon be available on the market and recommends its use. Check the container label, he says, to be sure the product you purchase contains the 3 percent lindane and the 35 percent pine oil by weight for these are the items that give the smear its kick.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Goodman and son, Mike of Las Cruces and Mr. and Mrs. Harper Scoggins of Borger visited the week end in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bartlett.

MASCOT TO BECOME MOTHER IN JANUARY

WACO—Baylor University's Daily Lariat said Thursday that Chita, one of the Campus' five bear mascots, will become a mother in January.

It will be the second offspring for Chita, a Mexican black bear given to the university in 1946 by then governor Coke Stevenson who had received the cub as a gift from the Mexican government. Her cub last January was unexpected, and Papa Joe killed it before human help could remove it from his cannibalistic reach.

Bill Ogg, bear trainer, said that Chita will be moved to a private pen this December, as was Josephine before she gave birth to cubs Barney and Bailey last January 17.

AMERICAN LEGION NEWS EDUCATIONAL WEEK

The past week featuring educational ideas and purposes simmers down to a matter of free selection, we must educate all so as to enable each individual to perform a practical and useful service to society: pointing a curriculum based on service and grounded in philosophy and embodied in high moral and ethical standards so as to insure natural selection and free imagination, ever mindful of, or made possible through a continual vision of greatness, as well as the degree of that attainment at any given time, and other things being equal; fixing the degree of personal accountability and individual responsibility as with an earned increment status. It is not enough to acquaint students with the known facts about things, the sustained relation with other things of Nature and to ourselves as individuals. We must go further into the field of RIGHT USE and practical application; its constructive adaptation; as the natural pursuits of Justice and Love.

Here is one more item coming to you W.W.2 boys; Social Security has been extended that you are now entitled credit of 160.00 per month for the time you were in service. Some day this will help a lot if and when you need it most. So why not let's join the Legion now and get a bit of the social cooperation and help the fellow who may not be aware of the help they are able and willing to render.

The 18th Dist. Convention at Shamrock brought out many serious problems which face us here and now, many able men are suggesting we get organized and set our house in order to meet any crisis. Remember for GOD, for STATE and Nation, WE SERVE. —F. E. Caraway, Publicity.

Notice To Farmers Planning To Increase Cotton Acreage

FORT WORTH, Nov. 14—Louis P. Merrill, regional head of the Soil Conservation Service, has some timely suggestions for farmers who are considering expansion of their cotton acreage in 1951. Merrill fears that some farmers, with the lifting of government cotton restrictions, may undo much of the good conservation work they have accomplished unless they choose their cotton land wisely and take steps to protect it.

Here are Merrill's recommendations for the farmer planning to increase his cotton acreage:

1. Put cotton only on land that is suited to cotton. Cotton land should be productive enough for a profitable yield and not easily eroded.

2. Plant legumes or other winter cover on land to be planted to cotton. Such crops prevent erosion and step up cotton yields from 25 to 100 per cent. Increased per acre yields can meet national cotton needs without expanding planting to unsafe land, Merrill points out.

3. Think it over before plowing up good stands of grass. Farmers often net more from grass than from cotton, especially when they make full use of opportunities for grazing and seed harvesting.

In most areas, information on land suited to cotton is available, Merrill said. Landowners can make use of the help that soil conservation districts can give them in deciding what land can produce cotton profitably and without damage. In the Plains areas of Texas and Oklahoma, nearly 5,000,000 acres of land now being cultivated are too shallow or too sandy for cotton, a crop offering almost no resistance to the forces of erosion.

Legumes and other winter cover, planted in the fall, would be worked into the soil next spring. These crops improve the soil, protect it against erosion during a danger period and offer winter grazing in addition to increasing the yields of the cotton crop that follows, Merrill said.

It is seldom wise to follow cotton with another crop of cotton, Merrill pointed out. However, when it is done, a legume cover between crops of cotton will help to control erosion, and increase productivity.

Farmers have been getting more grass-conscious in recent years, the regional director said. More than 250,000 acres have been put in native grasses alone in Oklahoma and Texas during the last two years and still additional acreage in introduced grasses. On nearly all of this land grass for livestock is the safest and the most profitable use, and to plow up such plantings with the questionable prospect of a high cotton yield would be poor business, Merrill added.

Several grasses fit in well with rotations that include cotton, Merrill said. Some of these grasses are blue panicum, weeping and sand lovegrass, King Ranch bluestem, Indian, and switch.

Merrill also urges that farmers keep in mind the other practices that are useful in conservation farming. Planting cotton in alternate strips with tall-growing crops such as grain sorghums is beneficial in helping to control wind erosion in sandy lands. Stubble mulching, contour cultivation and terracing help conserve moisture and prevent erosion.

Soil Conservation districts can help farmers needing assistance in making decisions on what lands to plant to cotton and on how to use these lands to best advantage, Merrill said.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jones of Stratford spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Skelton of Amarillo visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Skelton Sunday.

Broncs Lose Last Game of Season To Cyclones

Tough breaks which have hampered the Bronchos throughout the season figured in the game again last Friday night and the Bronchos were defeated by score only, otherwise they outplayed the Cyclones in every category. The locals led the scoring up to the third quarter at which time the tide changed after Freddie Vinson blocked and recovered a Clarendon punt on the Clarendon 10 yard line.

The Bronchos tallied first after taking the ball on the kick-off and going on over in six plays with Mooring making the counter. Trussell plunged for the extra point. Memphis tied it midway in the first period when Roddy Stargel passed to Don Rascoe for 17 yards. Ronnie Smith tied it up with a successful conversion. Memphis kicked to the Bronc 12 yard line and Trussell skirted left end on the next play and went 88 yards for the touchdown behind downfield blocking which had been unequalled by the Bronchos all season. Carlile took out the Memphis safety man with one of the prettiest blocks of the entire season. The try for extra failed. The next Memphis score was set up when Freddie Vinson covered a blocked punt on the Bronc 10 yard line. Tommy Messer went over right tackle for the counter on the next play and Smith's conversion put the Cyclones out in front. Memphis scored again after recovering a Bronc fumble on the 35 yard line. Stargel plunged over from the one yard line and the conversion try was no good.

Even though the game was played in sub-freezing weather, this was considered the best game of the season for the Bronchos. The Broncho line from one end to the other was smashing through, blocking and tackling like veterans on a college team and the Broncho backs clicked through their hand-off plays just like it was mid-summer.

The Bronchos have given each of their opponents a hard fight all through the season but seemed to be jinxed by bad breaks in every game they lost, actually outplaying their opponents on several occasions. They were back nearer to full strength last Friday night than any time during the season since the game with Quannah. Coaches Harrell and Moore are to be complimented along with the boys on the entire season's play. They had tough opposition and had to give several pounds weight difference to the man in every game.

FARM NEWS
From the County PMA Committee

COTTON EXPORT ALLOCATION BOOSTED

Final reports on the cotton carry-over this year have resulted in an immediate increase in the preliminary export allocation for the period August 1, 1950 through March 31, 1951. The total allocation now stands at 2,145,000 bales, compared with the initial allocation of 2,000,000 bales.

In increasing the export allocation, Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan noted that the final Census report on the cotton carry-over showed a total of 146,000 more bales of cotton than were previously reported and known to be available at the time of the original allocation.

The cotton export situation will be kept under constant review, the Secretary said, and adjustments will be made as the situation warrants.

DON'T FORGET THE ELECTION

Don't forget that Friday, November 17th is election day. Be sure to come by the office Friday and vote if you forgot to mail your ballots back in. Remember that this election is for Community Committeemen and Delegates to the County Convention.

1951 ACP PROGRAM

Some approvals have been issued under the 1951 program, so if you want to carry out some practice be sure to come by the office and get your approval. Remember that you must have an approval before the practice is started before you can earn assistance.

CONSUMERS' STAKE IN ACP

Plenty of food! No need to hoard! Eleven percent more food per person in 1950 than the average for 1935-39. Farm production up 40 percent from what it was before World War II. Per acre yields up nearly 50 percent over the per acre yields in the 20's. Grocery shelves full. More people eating more and better.

That's what the Agricultural Conservation Program means to the American Housewife. To the Housewife it's not the number of erosion control dams we've constructed, the acres of green manure plowed under, the contour farming, the lime or the phosphate that counts. Only when these are translated into bread, meat, eggs, milk, vegetables and fruit at the grocery store does it become real.

But the farmer knows and the housewife is beginning to realize that groceries cannot be produced in abundance by a bankrupt agriculture. And it is because of this understanding that we have the ACP.

Through this program the Nation cooperates with its farmers in carrying out conservation practices which protect and build the productivity of the land. This share-the-cost program provides the incentive to get the terraces built, the dams constructed, the lime spread, the pastures seeded, the green manure plowed under.

These are the practices which make effective the work of scientists—improved strains, better machinery, and more effective insecticides and fungicides.

Farmers of Donley County can now sign up for ACP practices to be carried on in 1951.

Guests for dinner Sunday in the home of Mrs. E. W. Tyler and Miss Alice Tyler were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clark of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. B. Government Loses Plenty In Repurchase of Surplus Equipment

Investigations by the Senate Armed Services Preparedness Subcommittee have disclosed how the Air Force paid $63,000 to re-purchase valuable equipment which had been sold by the government as surplus for $6.89.

This was announced recently by Senator Lyndon B. Johnson (D.-Texas), Chairman, who said: "Since its creation, the Senate Armed Services Preparedness Subcommittee has devoted considerable time to efforts to halt the unwise sale of valuable defense materials as surplus. We believe that substantial progress has been made toward establishing more prudent and more realistic policies.

"In all our investigations, however, this case of the Air Force spending $63,000 to re-purchase equipment which had been sold by the government for $6.00 is perhaps the most astounding case of short-sightedness that we have encountered. We hope that this incident will impress upon all agencies dealing with surplus the great necessity for exercising the utmost caution and care in their transactions."

The case mentioned by Senator Johnson is this:

In 1946, a former Naval officer returned to his home in East Texas and began buying small quantities of surplus goods from the War Assets Administration to improve his farm. These goods he bought included blacksmith tools, building materials, carpentry tools, tractors, etc. His total purchases were less than $3,000.

While bidding on this equipment, he found an item offering for sale Air Craft "Computers." The man explained:

"I had in mind that these instruments were small circular cardboard computers which might be used in civilian life for calculating land areas, etc., in a similar manner to a cheap slide rule."

So he filed a bid for about 5 cents each on these items. Some time later he was notified that his bid had been accepted and he was urged to move the "computers" promptly.

"At that time," the purchaser reports, "I told the contracting officer over the telephone just to send them up to me parcel post if he was so anxious to get rid of them."

The officer informed the man that would be impossible, since there was about an acre of them stored in the open. Wondering what he had gotten, the man rushed to San Antonio and found he had about 168 serviceable unused Air Craft Parralax Computers—electric fire control instruments—of the very latest design and model. The packing slip disclosed that these Computers were valued at $7,200 each.

For a total of $6.89 — about 5 cents for each $7,200 machine—he had bought computers worth $1,209,600.

When the purchaser explained to the officer that he had no intention of buying this type "Computer" when he bid—and had no idea of their value — the officer told him that he was bound by contract to accept these machines and dispose of them. So, the Computers were carried away to the man's East Texas home.

He kept the machines stored in a warehouse and eventually wrote the Air Force Procurement office in Washington to explain that the machines were available if the Air Force ever became interested.

Within a short while, Air Force officers arrived to inspect the machines. The Procurement Section, Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, then entered into negotiations and offered $63,000 for these computers. The offer was accepted.

The purchaser estimates that in addition to the $6.89 he paid for these computers, storage, crating, shipping, etc. cost him $4,000. The man offered this comment:

"The thing may be summed up by saying that the disposal agency was delighted to unload what they thought was a heap of junk on an unsuspecting country boy and that the Colonel in charge of the purchasing agency and the personnel at Wright Field were delighted to repurchase this equipment in brand new condition at a cost which saved the taxpayer one-half million dollars."

PEWIN' Out the CORNERS by Uncle Zeb

The great American voter has spoken again, and the results this time was more encouraging than they had been in a long time. The voters turned out in the largest numbers than anyone predicted in an off election. This is a good sign. Indifference and the lack of determination to fight back against the professional racketeers of politics has been one of our most serious dangers. This time the voter spoke out plainly against the communist coddling politicians in our government. Spoke out all the way around against the extreme left wing. The voter has shown to the world that he wants a two party system, and that they want it to stay middle of the road. I feel better about our internal situation. If we could just do something to ease our world crisis, we mothers and fathers could begin to sleep soundly again. Why, oh why, can't we find a way to settle our world troubles without resorting to the way the barbarians have settled their troubles for all down through the histories.

As for our own race here in the Panhandle; there was practically no difference in the views of the two men, and with the larger vote than was polled in the primary the people elected their favorite, and now I say more power to him. He won the race fair and square and with very little mud-slinging. He wound up like a true race horse; came under the wire at his very best. I did not hear his last radio speech but many said it was his best. On the other hand Mr. Guill came to the finish line in bad shape; many say his last two or three speeches on the radio cost him thousands Front end styling improvements of Studebaker's 1951 passenger car offerings center around the new grille, silver-hued "spinner," and bumper support splash shield. Design changes in the rear are reflected principally in the new trunk deck handles enclosing lock, lid release and license plate lamp, and the re-designed tail lamps which give much greater lighting both rearward and laterally. Other features include the use of wider rear springs to improve lateral stability, one-piece windshields, centerpoint steering, new instrument panels, and one-piece rear windows on all models except the 5-passenger and business coupes. Photo shows the 1951 Studebaker 2-door Custom Champion.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

We Ask That "Fares" Play Fair

Judge Cunningham was telling about a taxi ride he took over to the County Seat last week. The cab was all littered with cigarette butts, plus candy and gum wrappers. This annoyed the Judge and he spoke to the driver about it. To his surprise the cabman answered right back. "Don't blame me," he said "Fast as I clear this taxi out, the fares just mess it up again. I like a clean cab as well as anybody, but a man has to have some co-operation!" Judge figures the fellow was in the right, and maybe we ought to do a little campaigning with the public. I agree with him—that's why I'm writing this article. From where I sit, it's important for us to remember the fellow who's going to get in the cab after we leave it. Because he pays the same as we do, he's got the same right to a clean, comfortable ride—just as he has the same right to enjoy the beverage of his choice (be it coffee, beer, lemonade, or what have you).

of votes; the last one being the worst. Five weeks ago I predicted a nip and tuck go with maybe Mr. Guill coming in first. Hundreds resented even the small thing of his speech taking the place of a favorite news cast. You don't have to make many missteps to lose two thousand votes in the whole Panhandle area. Anyway, they both ran a good race and the voters got their choice so, more power to them both.

Some one quoted this: "God grant me the serenity to accept things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference."

A reader gives us this quote from Mrs. Phebe K. Warner: "The most beautiful musical instrument in the world is God's gift to man—man's voice."

From an article written by Ferdie Deering in the Farmer-Stockman we use the quote from a sermon preached by an old Indian preacher: "If we are smokers we carry our tobacco wherever we go; then if we are christians we should carry our Bibles." Anyway, we ought to carry our religion with us. If you still have this month's Farmer-Stockman be sure and read this article on page 12.

Inasmuch as he has lived both places the following letter will be of interest of the Claude and Clarendon readers.

Ink Rte Mena, Ark. Dear Uncle Zeb, Boy, this is the life until the new wears off; neighbors bring in milk, peanuts, wood, butter, etc., and come over to "Hope out." (It may be just curiosity to see what them Texas folks look like.)

Quail, squirrel and fish are plentiful with pretty pine trees. Garden still good when we arrived but the frost got it before we found it.

X (his mark) Anyway, the card was from our good friend Chas. Reed, who only recently left the hurry and bother of public life to find peace and fortune in the quiet of a little Arkansas ranch. Note: he doesn't even sign his name anymore. Anyway, wouldn't it be fun to "drap in" on Chas., and go fishing and hunting. Maybe we will. Until then we join with all his many friends in these parts to wish this family well in their new venture, and thanks for keeping Uncle Zeb posted on your new experiences.

Nurse Tells How Hadacol Was So Helpful To Her

Supplied Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin Which Her System Lacked

Mrs. Jennie Lee Adele, 412 N. 27 St., East St. Louis, Ill., a nurse, says she wishes she had found out about HADACOL sooner because since taking HADACOL she feels so good. Mrs. Adele was suffering a deficiency of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron which HADACOL contains.

Here is Mrs. Adele's own statement: "I have been a nurse for over 14 years. My food never seemed to agree with me. I heard one day how so many folks were being helped because of HADACOL. I tried it and after 3 bottles I could tell a big improvement. Now I eat anything I want—sleep well and I am full of energy."

Why HADACOL Gives Such Fine Results

HADACOL does not bring just symptomatic relief. HADACOL now makes it possible to actually relieve the cause of aches and pains in the shoulders, legs and arms, certain nervous disturbances, and a general run-down weakened condition due to deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron in your system.

HADACOL not only supplies deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron, and Niacin but also helpful amounts of important Calcium and Phosphorus —elements so vital to help maintain good health and physical fitness.

Why These Vitamins and Minerals Come in Liquid Form

There's a very good reason why HADACOL comes in special liquid form. These precious Vitamins and Minerals are more easily and quickly absorbed into the blood stream this way—ready to go right to work. A big improvement is often noticed within a few days.

Don't Be A 'Doubting Thomas'

After reading Mrs. Adele's wonderful experience with HADACOL—how can you doubt that this great new nutritional formula will help you if your system lacks Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron, and Niacin?

What HADACOL did for Mrs. Adele, it can do for you if you're troubled with aches and pains in the shoulders, legs, and arms, certain nervous disturbances, insomnia when due to an upset stomach, stomach distress and a general run-down weakened condition due to such deficiencies.

So what are you waiting for? Don't you see that HADACOL is the kind of product you need—the kind you should buy and the kind you should start taking immediately!

Sold On A Strict Money-Back Guarantee

HADACOL even helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to course through your body, carrying these great health-building elements to every body organ. No wonder HADACOL helps you feel wonderful!

Be fair to yourself! Give yourself a break if you have such deficiencies! Why continue to drag yourself around—a burden to yourself and your family—when relief may be as close as hand as your nearest drugstore if you suffer a deficiency of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron. This great HADACOL is inexpensive, too—costs only a small amount a day. Trial size, only $1.25. Large family or hospital size, $3.50. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order it direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana. © 1950, The LeBlanc Corporation.

Chancellor J. P. Hart Assumes Duties At University of Texas

AUSTIN — The University of Texas must draw its support from Texas citizenry and must remember its primary aim is to educate for good citizenship, Chancellor James P. Hart said Wednesday morning in his first official act as the new head of the South's largest educational institution.

The former associate justice of the Texas Supreme Court delivered his convocation address before students, faculty and staff in Gregory Gymnasium after being officially presented as the University's first chancellor by Regent Chairman Dudley K. Woodward, Jr., of Dallas.

"We must never forget that the people of Texas founded this institution, that they furnished and will continue to furnish nearly all of the funds to build and operate it, and that those who administer it and those who teach in it are their agents," Hart said. He resolved to give personal attention to the affairs of all University units throughout the state and "to see that things run smoothly, that broad policies are formulated and that they are carried out with a minimum of waste effort."

The chancellorship was created this year because the University's recent growth called for an administrative system designed to centralize and coordinate operation of its many units throughout the state. Hart was appointed to the position in July, but delayed taking office until Wednesday to fulfill Supreme Court obligations.

200,000 freshmen can't be wrong!

We believe that something has happened in 1950 that you should take to heart.

Ever since this year's Buicks were introduced, their big bulge in sales has come from people who traded other makes of cars for this bounteous beauty.

The total is more than 200,000.

That's 200,000 "freshmen" added to the roll call of Buick owners—200,000 people who must have sized up the current version of the cars they owned, and decided that Buick offered more thrill, more comfort, more satisfaction for the money.

Beyond that, of course, there were other hundreds of thousands who already owned a Buick and bought a new one this year. But we're speaking here of new owners only.

We can name many reasons for this landslide—including Fireball power—an incomparable ride—and Dynaflo Drive.*

We can remind you that the Buick SPECIAL, SUPER and ROADMASTER just about blanket the range of a car-owner's aspirations—matching prices with many sixes in the lower brackets—matching distinction with the finest in the fine-car field.

We might add that Buick prices are doubly attractive—since their list prices include many features customarily on the "extra" list.

But why try to spell out all the reasons Buick wins in a showdown? The proof of the pudding is in this great car itself. Better come in—look it over—and find out what an unbeatable buy it is.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.
