"The many other people who set up all the exhibits in the different departments of the fair, we thank all of them because if it had not been for your wonderful cooperation and the hard work you put into it, our fair could not be a success."

Bronchos Meet Turkey Donley County Second In Ribbon Winnings At Tri-State Fair

The Clarendon Bronchos, still looking for their first win of the season, will travel to Turkey Friday night for a game with the strong Class B Turks. The Bronchos have ended up on the short end of the scoring in each of their three games so far this season. They lost to Stinnett 14 to 6; Spearman, 8 to 0, and last week lost to Gruver 18 to 0. The Turks have won one game, a 24 to 6 decision over Kress and have lost two heartbreakers to Happy and Claude. Happy turned back the Turks 7 to 6 and Claude beat them last week 13 to 12.

Coach Tom Jinks feels that his boys have a good chance of winning this game even though the Turkey boys will probably outweigh the Bronchos about 15 pounds per man. The Bronchos have played some real good football this season although winless. Stinnett is still undefeated although they have been tied twice and Gruver has yet to be scored upon this season.

The coach is undecided at this writing as to his starters for the Turkey game. He is toying with the idea of shifting Ted Weatherly from halfback to right end, Milton Mann from a guard to a tackle and Ronnie Tyra from center to guard. Also, Neel Carter may get the call at quarterback and if so Darrell Leffew, who has manned the signal-calling position the past two games, will shift to fullback and Dewey Wilson and John Morrow will be at halfbacks. If the coach stays with Leffew at quarterback, then Morrow and Don Hudgins will be at halfbacks and Wilson at fullback.

Others who seem reasonably sure to start are Bill Hermesmeier at left end, Lynn Spier at left tackle, John Richerson at center, Bob Schull at right guard and Jerry Gray at right tackle. If Milton Mann is shifted to tackle, Spier will fill the guard slot. This will be the last non-conference game for the Bronchos. Next week the District 2-A conference games start with the Bronchos meeting the Panhandle Panthers here at Clarendon.

Flower Show Held In Conjunction With Fair

The Flower Show held annually in conjunction with the Donley County Fair was termed a huge success again this year, despite the plague of grasshoppers and insects that have been so plentiful. A total of 133 entries were on exhibit representing Clarendon, Hedley, and other communities in the county. Mrs. Pete Riley displayed some of her lovely hand-made flowers along with the garden exhibit.

Forty-two first place ribbons were divided among the four divisions: Home Economics, arrangement, specimen, and children's arrangements. In addition eighteen second place ribbons were awarded and many third and fourth place ribbons.

In the Home Economics division Betsy Chamberlain's arrangement of a mouse and pyracantha, and Elwanda Gresham's football arrangement each won first place recognition.

Representing the children's division and receiving first place ribbons were: Judy Greene, two arrangements, a basket and shoes; Joel Greene, two arrangements, a clown and a car; James Emmett Simmons, a train; Frank Phelan III, a dog; Kittie Cooke, a duck; Melissa Cooke, an elephant; Jim Simmons, a car; Mike Mears, two arrangements, boots, and a Chinese girl; and Ann Beth Simmons.

Arrangements receiving first place ribbons were exhibited by: Mrs. Bobby Dishman, a dried arrangement; Mrs. H. T. Warner, love apple; Mrs. Forrest Sawyer, two arrangements, Crimson rose, and Christmas; Miss Anna Mooters, Chinese in brass container, and grape and dried arrangement; Mrs. Walter Taylor, snowberries and blackrose; Mrs. Frank Phelan, Jr., bananas; Mrs. Henry Moore, bachelor buttons; Mrs. Myrtle Deahl, sweetpeas; Mrs. Frank White, Jr., large copper bowl with pyracantha; Mrs. I. J. Self, small yellow zinnas; Mrs. Melvin Cook, hibiscus and ivy; Mrs. Mary Sheffield, Verbenas; Mrs. W. K. Hardin, purple petunias and an Easter table arrangement; and Mrs. Van Knox, Marigolds.

First place ribbons for fine specimen went to: Mrs. Blanche Gray, ornamental pepper; Mrs. A. G. Lane, Peace rose; Mrs. Clyde Butler, two firsts, white althaus, spider lily; Mrs. Walter Taylor, two, zinnas, white dahlia; Mrs. F. O. Hodge, cockscomb; Mrs. Frank Phelan, Jr., rosebud; Mrs. Van Knox, two, reddish dahlia, yellow dahlia; and Mrs. Frank Hommel, dahlia.

The exhibit is sponsored each year by members of Les Beaux Art Club. The committee in charge was composed of Mrs. Tommye Saye, Mrs. W. K. Hardin, Mrs. Emmett Simmons, and Mrs. Lewis Foxhall. Members of the club and the committee would like to thank each one for their contribution and wonderful spirit of cooperation in making this part of the Fair possible.

Getting 'Big Tex' Ready For Big Welcome

"Big Tex," the towering 52-foot cowboy statue who symbolizes the great State Fair of Texas, is being put together in readiness to welcome some two-and-a-half million visitors to the 1958 exposition, October 4 through 19, in Dallas. It takes a crew of workmen with a 100-foot derrick to put the big boy's head on his shoulders.

SOCIAL SECURITY

The Social Security Amendments of 1958 will provide increased monthly payments to about 13,400 people in the Panhandle, beginning with the checks which are due early in February 1959, according to John R. Sanderson, Social Security District Manager in Amarillo. The amount of the increase will be about 7 percent, although the increase in some checks will be slightly more than 7 percent and it will be slightly less than 7 percent in some others.

People who are already getting social security payments do not need to apply for the increase. It will be automatically added to the checks for January, which will be mailed out early in February.

Under other changes made by the new law, social security benefits will become payable to a number of people not previously eligible for payments. They must, however, apply to their social security offices before payments can start. Among the groups now eligible because of the amendments are:

1. Dependents of people who are 50 or over who are now getting disability insurance benefits (children under 18 or disabled; a wife of any age who has a child in her care who is entitled to benefits; a wife 62 or over; or a dependent husband 65 or over).

2. Disabled people 50 or over who could not qualify for benefits under the old law because they did not have as much as 1½ years of work in the 3 years before they were disabled. (A total of at least 5 years of work under the law is still required).

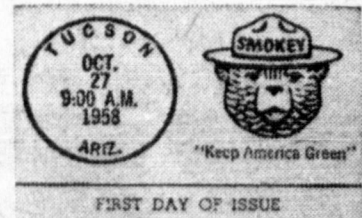

3. Dependent parents whose son or daughter died after 1939 and who could not qualify for benefits under the old law because the son or daughter left a widow, widower, or child.

4. Adopted children whose adoptive parent began receiving retirement benefits less than 3 years after the adoption. (In many cases this provision will also make possible payments to the mother of the adopted child).

5. A person receiving benefits who marries another person also receiving benefits can continue to receive monthly checks, or can become eligible as a dependent of the new husband or wife without waiting 3 years.

Some people in situations similar to those mentioned above may have applied for benefits in the past and been notified that they did not qualify for payments. These people should get in touch with their social security district offices promptly about filing new applications, Sanderson noted.

Disabled workers whose social security disability benefits were

FIRST DAY OF ISSUE

The Nation's first forest conservation postage stamp goes on sale October 27 at Tucson, Arizona during the annual meeting of the American Forestry Association. The issue was designed by the Post Office Department to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the birth of Theodore Roosevelt, one of this country's earliest forest conservationists, and to salute the many private and public agencies whose cooperation has helped make possible the progress in forest conservation.

First-day mailings will be cancelled with the above die featuring the Smokey Bear and the Keep America Green forest fire prevention programs.

reduced or were not payable because they received workmen's compensation or other Federal disability payments will begin to receive the full amount of their social security disability payments. (These people do not have to file applications. Their social security checks will be started automatically with checks mailed out early in September.)

DISASTERS, natural or man-made, call for immediate stocks of medical supplies and often other equipment for furnishing safe drinking water, electricity or other essentials in order to save lives and aid the victims. Civil defense stock-

Beginning January 1, 1959, the social security tax rate for employees and employers will be 2½ percent each. The rate for self-employed people will be 3¾ percent. These rates are scheduled to increase every 3 years until they reach 4½ percent for employees and employers and 6¾ percent for self-employed people in 1969. Starting with 1959 the first $4800 of earnings in a year will be taxed for social security and will count toward social security benefits.

The Amarillo Social Security District Office is at Room 324 New Post Office Building. It is open from Monday through Friday, from 8:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. Mr. Sanderson emphasized that it is not necessary for people already receiving monthly payments to apply for the automatic increase. It will be added to the January checks, which will be delivered early in February. "Inquiries about the automatic increase will slow down our effort to start payments promptly to the people who can now get payments for the first time," he said.

Our farms are just as wide and just as long as they ever were, but are only two-thirds as thick and getting thinner every day. A third of our Nation's topsoil has washed away. Topsoil is the basis of America's wealth and greatness. All of our food, clothing and shelter comes from the soil. When our iron, coal, oil, and other natural resources are gone, we shall have to devise substitutes from products grown from the soil, because the soil is one natural resource that does not have to wear out or be used up.

The immense amount of money annually disbursed by the War Department of the United States, for the protection (?) of the Texian frontier, might well be reduced to one-half the amount, by the withdrawal of every company of U. S. troops, from the twenty odd forts and camps now occupied by them, and the substitution thereof of a single regiment of mounted Texian Rangers.

It is well known by every frontiersman, and woman, and child of ten years old, that these U. S. soldiers, now scattered and stationed in small squads throughout the state, and on its borders, are but subjects for the ridicule and laughter of the Indians that skirt the State, and that the appearance of a score or two of "regimentals" (marked U.S.) creates no sensation among them, when compared with a squad of two or three dozen armed and mounted Texians, in their homespun and hunting shirts.

AUSTIN—Texas Democrats now look toward 1960, the year some think they might nominate the next U. S. President.

And added to the party's tumultuous history is the 1958 Democratic convention. It was billed as a "harmony" meet, but more resembled a family reunion to fight over granspa's will.

Gov. Price Daniel's liberal foes are hotter under their collars than ever, but despite their noisy opposition, the governor "ruled the roost" in San Antonio. And, with an executive committee acceptable to him and a platform reflecting his views, he holds the reins of party leadership for two years.

U. S. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson and Speaker Sam Rayburn also were honored by the conventioners. Johnson was urged to become a presidential candidate.

Test in the struggle between Daniel's supporters and the liberal DOT faction championed by U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough came over the selection of a presiding officer. Congressman Frank Ikard of Wichita Falls, calls upon the citizens of that county (Fayette), to take up the B.B. & C. Railroad at Columbus, and hurry it towards Austin.

A friend gave us quite a few books this week that are an accumulation from her club put out by the Christian Herald. You will enjoy them as they are an assorted list and copy righted dates from 1949 to 1953. This was a much needed addition to our shelves and will be quite useful.

The Sunday Bookman had an excellent discussion of "Recollections of Early Texas" by John Holmes Jenkins III. This was in the Sunday edition of the Sunday News-Globe. This book was given the Library about two months ago in memory of Wayne Aten. We have so many excellent editions that would be delightful reading to all ages and temperaments.

Several of our readers have prodded us lately to express ourselves now and then on the general more or less political situations of our times. We almost hate to get on that subject. To be right honest with you and ourselves the situations for the long pull looks pretty hopeless to us.

It used to be said that the only security was either in the grave or perhaps in jail. But as American people we didn't believe this so we started on the easy road to having nothing to worry about; We wanted security and easy living. We turned to the government and the politicians with our problem.

Until then the government had operated on the idea that "The least governed was the best governed." All this began to change; with each little hand-out came a restriction. We forgot that Uncle Sam and his initials U.S. mean in reality only US. We failed to stop and figure that for every dollar we sent to this dear old uncle to be re-distributed amongst his darling nephews; that the handling charges would eat up at least 50 cents of the original amount.

So one by one we have traded responsibilities for security. We have exchanged our freedom of choice for freedom from worry. We have swapped our freedom of thought for a planned stabilization if all ideas. We have traded our cash inheritance for a credit rating. We can't even picture how much we as a nation owe, all of which we never hope to pay off. We know we will be lucky to be able to keep renewed. Once started we can't turn back. We can only hope that if there is an end that it is a long way off.

Jack Frost Says; "I know the Lord won't send me more trouble than I can bear, But why does he have such a good opinion of my carrying capacity."

"Some people may have their first dollar, but the man who is really rich is the one who has his first friend."

"Nervousness is when you feel in a hurry all over but can't get started."

Anyone can call you a fool but you are the only one that can prove they are right.

"A hundred men can make an encampment, but it takes a woman to make a home."

"If we are too busy to worry in the daytime we will be too tired to worry at night."

A lot of men who do not like back seat driving often try to cook from the dining room table.

The latest fashion news is to the effect that the sack is getting the sack.

Everyone shuns trouble unless it comes disguised as money.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT

By Congressman Walter Rogers

THE NEW EUROPEAN COMMON MARKET

Sometime back I mentioned a few aspects of the proposed European Economic Community. As this approaches reality, I feel that it is important for the people of this country to understand just what is taking place; therefore, I will attempt to point out a few of the highlights of this proposal in this newsletter.

This Community is composed of six signers of a treaty, to wit, Western Germany, France, Belgium, Luxembourg, The Netherlands and Italy. The primary purpose of the movement is to create a closer economic integration in Western Europe. The feeling is that if there can be a successful economic integration between these countries, it will result as a matter of course in a better political integration. As among the six member countries, there is intended to be created a market and trade operation similar to commerce between the states in the United States. The operation is to include the movements of goods, services, manpower or investment of capital. It is contemplated that this will result in a competitive situation within the member countries that will provide concentration of productive power in those areas peculiarly adapted to particular products, and thereby increase efficiency in production. This will, in turn, enable the European Economic Community as a whole to have a most effective weapon in general competition for world trade. The free movement of manpower between the countries is expected to answer labor shortages without difficulty.

It should be noted at this point that there are several countries in Europe and the Scandinavian area not members of the Common Market Treaty. These include the United Kingdom, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Austria and Switzerland. These countries have been negotiating to create a Free Trade Area which would include the Common Market countries. These other countries realize the potential of the common market theory as benefiting Europe, but because of commitments and other situations in which they are involved, they find themselves unable to participate in the entire Common Market program and to become members of the European Economic Community, as such. It is generally felt in Europe that a free trade area will be established in keeping with the general thinking of the common market theory.

The big question concerns what will happen to U. S. business as a consequence of these proposed programs in Europe. Of course, it would be impossible to answer that question as the matter presently stands. However, there are certain facts that must be realized:

(1) The six member nations of the EEC had a gross national product of about 40 per cent of that in the U. S. in 1956. In that same year the 12 nations negotiating for the free trade area produced goods and services equal to about two-thirds of the U. S. total.

(2) Although Europe is the largest market for U. S. exports, it conducts one-third of the world's trade. It imports one-half of U. S. exports of food and tobacco, textile fibers, fuels and petroleum products, and about one-fifth of our machinery exports.

(3) This same Western Europe exports into the world market one and one-half times the exports of the U. S. into the world market. The U. S. exports to Europe consist mostly of raw materials and semi-finished goods. It is important to note that manufactured goods also make up most of Western Europe's exports to other areas.

This creates the following type of problem for the United States to consider. Although Western Europe, under the EEC program, could become a much greater market for some U. S. exporters, those engaged in exporting manufactured products may find much stiffer European competition, both in the European markets and in the other world markets. It has been suggested that this threat might cause many U. S. businesses to set up subsidiaries in Europe or to work out licensing operations so that their products could be manufactured by European manufacturers.

The cheap labor in Europe would certainly pose a serious threat to U. S. manufacturers. This has been one of the major bones of contention in the bitter controversies over the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act, as well as the activities of the Tariff Commission with relation to imports. During the debate in the Congress on the Reciprocal Trade Bill, the attention of the Members was called to numerous articles, from Europe and many other places in the world, manufactured in competition with such articles in this country. The differential in price was great, some foreign products being 200 to 300 per cent cheaper.

There is no doubt but that the countries in Europe are moving into the operation contemplated by the common market theory, for the purpose of stabilizing their own economy and strengthening their several countries. However, it would be well for this country to watch these operations daily as they progress to the end that our business in this country will not be unduly jeopardized. It must be remembered that many of the factories and business concerns in those countries were set up by the use of foreign aid funds furnished out of the pockets of the taxpayers of this country. As I warned previously, the European Economic Community is an excellent approach to the solution of a tragic problem in Europe, but we in this country must watch its development with great vigilance.

Boys, Read This: Help To Protect Young Wildlife

AUSTIN—Don't molest nesting wildlife. This is the warning from the Director of Law Enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission. Teachers and parents should explain to boys who are venturing into the woods with 22 rifles, air guns, and sling shots that nesting birds and young animals should not be harmed.

The same is true on the coast, the Director said. Millions of shore birds are nesting along the shore line and islands. These birds are protected under the laws.

"If nests are robbed or the parent birds otherwise disturbed, it will mean a loss in population of the birds," the Director said. "Sometimes people are thoughtless and throw rocks at these birds or destroy the nests. Wardens over the state are doing a fine educational job, especially among Boy Scouts and organized groups in teaching them the value of protecting wildlife. We hope it will be protected."

The Director also warned again against the capture of young wild animals as pets. Every year it is necessary for wardens to liberate young animals that people have taken for pets.

Safe driving is the result of driver effort—not a product of chance.

Two weeks ago Lion George Benson with the assistance of Lion Clyde I. Price took over the organization and leadership of the Annual Broom & Mop sale to increase our funds for aiding the rehabilitation of the Blind Children & Adults of Texas. This week Lion Benson made a report of the success of the campaign. The entire club was well pleased and the leaders as well as the Lions who did the foot work are to be commended on the good report made by Lion George Benson. The Club has been fortunate to have some good programs the last few luncheon meetings with the District Governor, Bill Hunter and the Rev. Leonard from the recent local Baptist Revival bringing inspiring and informational messages.

At last Tuesday's luncheon meeting the program was given over to reports from our local leaders. The reports indicated lots of hours had been spent recently in promoting Civic activities in Clarendon.

America has undergone more than a century of land use and abuse. Approximately 100 million acres of formerly good cropland have been ruined by erosion for any further food production. Another 100 million acres of cropland have been seriously damaged. Topsoil is still being destroyed faster than it is being repaired or created. Crop production has been increased in the United States, largely by increasing crop acreage.

R. R. Rush of San Marcos visited Monday night with Mrs. J. H. Hurn and Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Cox. He is a nephew of Mrs. Hurn.

The family of John H. Hunt deeply appreciate the friends and neighbors who assisted in his care and comfort during his last illness, and the kind expressions of sympathy and the comforting messages extended to us in the loss of our beloved brother and uncle.

We want to thank all of our friends who remembered us in their prayers, well wishes, and beautiful cards during our stay in the hospital. Your thoughtfulness was appreciated.

Greyhounds Trounce Bronchos 18 to 0

The Clarendon Bronchos lost their third game of the season here last Friday night when the Gruver Greyhounds of District 1-A came out on top of a hard fought 18 to 0 game. The Bronchos were very much in the game until the final quarter. Going into the last stanza the Greyhounds were leading by a score of only 6 to 0, but broke loose their fast backs for two long scoring runs to ice the game away.

The Greyhounds who were led by their ace quarterback, Ronnie Fletcher, scored their first touchdown late in the first quarter. Fullback Donnie Prater went over from the one yard line to climax a 50-yard drive. The Greyhounds had worked the ball down to the Broncho five yard line once before but lost the ball on a fumble. Fletcher made Gruver's other two touchdowns in the fourth quarter, one on a 32 yard run and the other on a 49 yard run.

The Broncho's only serious scoring threat came early in the fourth quarter. John Richardson blocked a Gruver punt and the Bronchos took over on the Gruver 32 yard line. They worked the ball down to the Greyhound eight where Ted Weatherly was jarred loose from the ball on an end run and the Gruver defenders recovered the ball.

Clarendon's offense was pretty well bottled up all during the game. Gruver made 14 first downs to Clarendon's five and made a total of 323 yards running and passing to Clarendon's 100.

This was Clarendon's second shutout in two successive weeks and only their third blanking in the last 37 games.
