Flu Vaccine Time Is Here Once Again

Public Health Authorities are recommending that vaccine protection against influenza should be started in September, and that any booster immunization be completed by early December. The Advisory Committee on Immunization Procedures of the U.S. Public Health Service recommends seasonal immunization for persons in the following categories: (a) persons suffering from chronic health problems such as rheumatic heart disease, other cardiovascular disorders, other bronchopulmonary disease (e.g., chronic asthma, chronic bronchitis, bronchiectasis, pulmonary emphysema, pulmonary tuberculosis), and patients with diabetes mellitus and Addison's disease, (b) patients residing in nursing homes, chronic disease hospitals, or in other environments should be considered as particular risk, (c) older age groups, i.e., persons over 65, and particularly those over 75. Increased mortality has been recognized regularly in older patients during major influenza outbreaks.

Seasonal vaccination may be advisable in younger age groups for those groups providing essential community services, and who through their occupations, are exposed to high-risk situations, e.g., hospital and other health service personnel, public safety personnel, and industrial employee groups. Routine influenza immunization during pregnancy is not recommended unless the patient is in one of the high-risk groups.

More Help Needed For Camille Victims

In a directive received by telegram, Mike McCully, local Red Cross Chairman received the following information: "Careful on-the-scene estimates show damage from hurricane Camille to be much worse than the first rough appraisal. Severe damage in Virginia and West Virginia will require substantial expenditures also. Approximately 69,000 families have suffered loss. "Total Red Cross relief for Hurricane Camille is now expected to rise to at least fifteen million. It is necessary to increase the National Goal (Red Cross) for Disaster Relief from six million to fifteen million dollars. "Your Chapter's Quota (the Clarendon Chapter) has been increased to $171." We are hoping to do our share within the County so if you have not made your contribution, McCully urges that you do so as soon as possible as these people are in desperate need of help now.

Texas Highway Week Set For Sept. 21-27

Governor Preston Smith has designated the period September 21-27 as "Highway Week in Texas."

Gov. Smith set aside the seven-day period for annual tribute to the State's highway builders and its superb 69 thousand-mile highway network.

Theme for Highway Week this year is "Highways Bring Better Living."

The observance in Texas is sponsored each year by the Texas Good Roads Association in cooperation with the Texas Highway Department and the highway - building industry. Chambers of Commerce and city, county and State leaders organize community programs for the Highway Week observance.

The Texas Good Roads Association is a non-profit organization composed of individual motorists, highway builders and industry-oriented groups joined together in support of a better highway program.

In his official memorandum, Governor Smith noted that "the State of Texas through its efficient Highway Department provides and maintains more than 69 thousand miles of highways for the use of Texans and their visitors."

He called the Texas highway system "one of the great and irreplaceable assets" because of its benefits to the Texas economy and to the Texas citizens.

The benefits of adequate highways exceed their cost through reduced accident and driving expenses, time savings, enhancement of property values and encouragement of industrial, commercial and residential development, the Governor said.

He said modern highways are planned and built to improve the quality of the environment and to preserve and make more accessible the places of scenic, historic and recreational importance.

Texas motorists, the Governor said, support the highway program through highway-user taxes and should take every opportunity to inform themselves of the progress and planning in highways.

As part of the Highway Week observance, members of the Texas Highway Commission will make appearances throughout the state. Members are Chairman Dewitt Greer of Austin, Herbert C. Petry Jr. of Carrizo Springs, and Garrett Morris of Fort Worth.

In addition, many Highway Department employees will take part in special events marking Highway Week in local communities.

A number of Highway Department district offices will hold open house so local citizens can learn more about Department activities. Department representatives also will address civic groups in their areas.

Entertainers Lined Up For Tri-State Fair

Roy Rogers and Dale Evans, the perennially popular and greatest husband and wife team in show business history, headline a large troupe of nationally famous entertainers for nine performances at the 1969 Tri State Fair, September 15-20, in Amarillo.

Included in the star-studded aggregation, designed to please all age groups, are the sensational Steiner Brothers acrobatic team; The Sons of the Pioneers; Pat Brady of motion picture and TV fame; Chase & Park, acrobats; Ben Smathers and the Stoney Mountain Cloggers, a peerless square dancing sextet, formerly featured at New York's Carnegie Hall.

Among free acts on an open-air stage is Ben Gentle, 640 pound trained bear and star of the "Gentle Ben" TV series, who will perform the final three days of the six-day exposition.

Livestock and horse exhibitors, along with competitors in farm and home, art, culinary, textile, china painting, photography and other events, will vie for a record $46,000 in cash awards at this year's sparkling Fair, the largest annual event on the Golden Sward.

Horses this year will show and perform in the new $330,000 horse barn, sporting a 225x80 foot indoor arena, 297 stalls, elaborate offices and display rooms. Additional stalls are available in the old horse barn.

Professional and non-professional cutting contests, approved by the American Quarter Horse Association and the National Cutting Horse Association, are expected to attract a record number of entries and spectators.

An all-youth horse show will draw hundreds of young competitors on Saturday, September 20, which also is Rural Youth Day.

Thirty-three bands from High Schools in Amarillo and across the region will provide music for the Fair's opening day parade at 10 o'clock Monday morning, September 15.

This year marks the Fair's 46th anniversary. It now is larger in exhibits and attendance than some state fairs.

CITY CAFE DAMAGED BY FIRE LAST WEDNESDAY

Fire of undetermined origin was discovered by Betty Simmaker at the City Cafe which she operates when she arrived for work early Wednesday morning, August 27. The fire was in the rear of the building and destroyed records and several personal belongings. The Cafe itself received no damage but was closed for a day or so to allow time to make arrangements to get together all records possible. The business is now open and in full operation.

Betty wishes to express her sincere thanks to the Clarendon Volunteer Fire Department for their splendid job of controlling the blaze and limiting the loss.

Broncs To Scrimmage Shamrock Tonight

The Clarendon Bronchos will journey to Shamrock tonight, Thursday, Sept. 4th, for a practice scrimmage with the Irishmen at 7:30 p.m.

Coach Clyde Noonkester reported yesterday that the boys were all working hard for the various positions on the team and the scrimmage tonight will probably be a big factor in selecting the players that will start the game with Memphis next week.

Even before the regular season gets underway some sports writers are picking Clarendon to win their district and be a strong contender for the state title. Such predictions sound real nice, stated Coach Noonkester, but we have lots of real tough competition. We plan to prepare for the game as they come.

Concerted Team Effort

Each player doing his part is best in every game to put on top. Fans are invited to go tonight to Shamrock and show the team is coming in preparation for their game here with Memphis September 12th.

New Race Of Sorghum Head Smut

female plant to come up with a hybrid very similar genotypically to previous resistant strains.
Tests conducted in a uniform head smut nursery at Beeville indicate there may be several good sources of resistance to the new threat, Frederiksen said. Reactions to the new smut race were determined this year on all commercially available lines and a majority of open-pollinated lines used for breeding. Certain sudan, hegari, broomcorn and feterita lines have shown much promise for incorporating new smut resistance, he added.
The head smut nursery actually verified discovery of the new race when known resistant lines became smutty, Frederiksen noted. A uniform nursery will be continued to monitor genotypes of the new pathogen and to maintain a check for possible new races.
Soil and water conservation districts have helped to shape much of our national legislation in the conservation movement. Senator Herman F. Tamadge (Ga.)

IT IS YOUR MONEY

You have a right to know these facts

You spend a lot of money for auto insurance. You have read wild statements about insurance costs and companies. If you would like some plain talk, here it is.

They say... Auto insurance companies are guaranteed a profit.

FACT: Before insurance companies can make a profit they have to first pay to have wrecked cars repaired or replaced, pay hospital and doctor bills for folks injured in auto accidents, pay for stolen or stripped cars, pay for cars damaged by hail, fire, wind or flood waters, pay wages or commissions to 95,400 Texans who give service to policy holders in every county in the state, pay taxes and operate their companies. If there is anything left after all these payments have been made, it is profit.

They say... Texas auto insurance rates need to go up 11.4 percent.

FACT: The evidence is very clear. Accidents are up. Medical costs are up. Repair costs are up. Auto thefts and vandalism are both up. All this forces rates upward. Facts and figures prove that a 17 percent increase is needed now.

They say... There is nothing you can do to lower your auto insurance costs.

FACT: You can't lower labor and medical costs. You can't lower automobile and parts costs. You can help reduce the number of traffic accidents and crimes against automobiles. The accident that doesn't happen does not boost the cost of auto insurance. The car that isn't stripped or stolen does not increase the cost of your auto insurance.

Let Governor Smith, your Mayor and your County Officials know that you want a stop put to Texas' growing traffic accident and crime tolls... that you want the law enforced. Good law enforcement can reduce accidents and crimes against cars.

Lower accidents and crime rates can mean lower auto insurance rates for you. Isn't this worth a little effort on your part?

Association of Texas Fire & Casualty Companies

They say... Labor costs are a small part of auto insurance costs.

FACT: Labor costs make up the major part of auto repair bills and in some parts of Texas labor costs for auto repairs have increased in recent time by an amazing 40 percent.

They say... Auto insurance companies make too much money.

FACT: Look at this listing of the earnings by major industries in the United States as published by the First National City Bank of New York and as republished in the study developed by the Arthur D. Little Co., an independent research organization then judge for yourself:

Table with 2 columns: Industry and Profit in Relation to Net Worth. Includes Common Carrier Trucking (22.9%), Air Transport (27.5%), Miscellaneous Transportation (16.3%), Electric Power (11.4%), Iron & Steel Mfg. (9.5%), Telephone & Telegraph (10.9%), Auto & Truck Mfg. (22.8%), Automotive Parts Mfg. (13.4%), Fire & Casualty Insurance (8.8%).

'Tis foolish for one soul to say That God cannot be real. The wisest men have found a way His presence ere to feel . . .

If we love only those whose life we wholeheartedly approve we are most likely to be almost a hermit. If we love only those who love us then according to the Bible we are acting like the heathens. This means we must have a spark of love for all of God's creation.

If we love others we not only make them happy but ourselves as well. To love only ourselves makes us lonely . . .

When we plant seeds of kindness in the friendship garden of some neighbor along life's way then we can have the joy of watching these little plants grow into a bountiful harvest.

Kindness is the right hand of love . . . It pays the biggest dividends when we do something without expecting the deed to be returned.

Birds in a small nest should be agreeable. To disagree could well mean to fall out.

When we turn green with envy then it means we are ripe for trouble.

It is awfully hard to take advice from the fellow you think needs it a lot worse. Once upon a time the world stood at the crossroads and wondered which way to turn. Now, we have to decide which lane to get in on the freeway while we are driving 60 miles per hour.

Frustration is when you have ulcers and are still not a success.

"Texas" Draws Large Crowds This Season

The 1969 season for TEXAS, the musical drama produced in Palo Duro Canyon, closed with the Labor Day performance. More than 70,000 people attended the show this year. Comparative figures in the past are: 1966—61,338; 1967—64,925; and 1968—65,012.

It has been the privilege of the "Texas" cast to entertain members of the Agriculture Committee of the U. S. House of Representatives brought to the Canyon by Rep. Bob Price; the speaker of the Texas House, the Hon. Gus Mutscher, and to a group of Texas senators led by Senator Grady Hazelwood. Also, the first meeting of the Texas Tourist Council ever held in West Texas was set so that its members could attend the show.

The audience this year has included visitors from 79 different countries, and the triangle which goes to the visitor who has come the greatest distance has not been given to anyone from the United States. One evening the winner came from Vietnam.

All fifty of the United States have been noted in the parking lot or in the guest book. A man from New Hampshire completed the list. He was the last person to sign the guest book on Saturday night.

At this close of the 1969 season, the staff and the cast wish to express their thanks to everyone who made this success possible. Without the good will of its neighbors, and the skilled help of the newspapermen and the broadcasters in TV and radio, TEXAS could not thrive.

Social Security News

Q. I started receiving my social security payments when I retired at age 62. I am now 63 years of age and totally disabled. May I apply for disability payments even though I have already started receiving my retirement payments?

A. Yes. The receipt of social security retirement payments does not bar anyone, who becomes disabled before age 65, from applying for disability insurance. If you qualify you will receive the slightly higher disability benefit instead of the reduced retirement benefit.

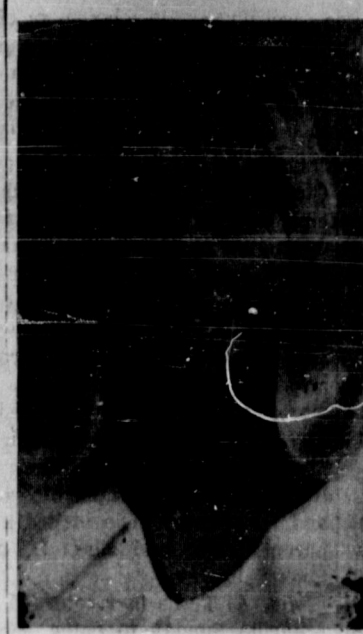

Q. I am 59 years old and receive social security disability payments. May I also enroll for Medicare benefits as a disability insurance beneficiary?

A. No. You must be at least 65 years of age to qualify for Medicare benefits.

Q. I am 63 years of age. I would like to retire but I have heard that once I sign up to receive my social security payments, I cannot stop them and return to work full time. Am I correct?

A. No. The decision to return to work full time, and thereby stop your social security payments, is your decision. You are required to report your return to work so that the necessary adjustments can be made on your record.

Q. My husband receives social security payments. I am not yet old enough to receive payments and I would like to go to work to supplement our income. Will my salary affect my husband's payments?

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. Mary McCrary of McLean Texas and Mr. Calvin McCrary of Clarendon, Texas announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Kathy Ann McCrary, to Mr. Ricky Allen Knox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Knox, also of Clarendon.

Both Miss McCrary and Mr. Knox attended school at Clarendon. Mr. Knox plans to attend Clarendon College this fall while Miss McCrary will be employed at Groom Memorial Hospital.

A. No. Only your husband's own earnings are taken into account in determining whether he is entitled to his social security payments.

Q. I have had maximum earnings each year since social security started. It seems I should get the maximum amount of benefits.

A. All benefits are based on the average earnings of each worker. The maximum amount of earnings that has been taxed and used to determine the amount of benefits, has risen gradually from $3,000 a year to $7,800. This is only the second year in which the earnings base for social security credit has been at the $7,800 level. Each additional year at this higher rate will increase average earnings and therefore the benefit amount. It will be some time yet before the "maximum" defined in the law can be paid.

A. The maximum amount which can be paid to the family of a retired, disabled or deceased worker ranges from $82.50 to $434.40 a month. The amount depends upon the worker's average earnings and the number of persons in the family who are qualified to receive the insurance. Three eligible persons, (worker, wife, and one child, or widow and two children, for example) can get as much as a larger family.

Q. I am a retired welder and have been offered a job at $160 a week. The job will last eight weeks, so I will make a total of $1,280. Will my social security checks be stopped because I will earn over $140 a month for two months?

A. If you do not earn more than $1680 in a year, you will be entitled to all your checks.

Studies have shown that work output is less when breakfast is skipped than when some food is eaten in the morning, reports Sally Springer, Extension foods and nutrition specialist.

Breakfast is a do-it-yourself project in America, says Sally Springer, Extension foods and nutrition specialist. Three-fourths of all American families do not eat breakfast together. A third of all housewives and a fourth of all husbands eat alone.

Jaci and Monte Johnson of Dimmitt, Jim Jordan and Denise Pittman of Amarillo were week end visitors in the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pittman.

I want to thank all of you who remembered me with cards, flowers, calls, and other kindnesses during my stay in the hospital. Your thoughtfulness and concern was sincerely appreciated.

With the first special session of the Legislature a failure, Gov. Preston Smith called lawmakers back for a second try at writing a biennial budget and a balanced tax bill.

Midnight gavels fell August 26 with neither task accomplished after tax conference committees were unable to break a stubborn deadlock.

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes blamed the first session impasse on House refusal to place beer and liquor under the sales tax. House Speaker Gus Mutscher said that was a "smokescreen" masking other reasons for the Senate's refusal to come to terms with the Representatives.

A Senate proposal to place food under a 2.5 per cent (reduced rate) sales tax was batted down unanimously (147-0) by the House. Thereafter, negotiations never budged beyond that point.

In calling for the second session, Governor Smith laid it on the line. "We have been treated to a spectacle of petty quarreling, jealousies between houses, obstinate and self-serving positions, demagogic rhetoric, childish personalities and undue interference from the lobby," said the Governor. "I believe the people of Texas are sick and tired of it. I know I am."

Smith warned that every function of state government would be "paralyzed or thrown into a state of uncertainty and confusion" if the new session failed to come up with a certifiable revenue appropriation by September 1.

Legislature responded by banging through emergency 60-day budget proposals which would operate the state government through October 31 while members sought to reconcile differences over long-range finances.

Safety Plan Resubmitted Texas failed to meet federal requirements with its traffic safety program, but a new plan has been submitted.

Highway Safety Bureau of the U. S. Department of Transportation is reviewing the second effort.

Governor Smith was notified by Robert Brenner, acting director of the bureau, that the plan presented last December, before Smith took office, was incomplete. Comments on the new plan are encouraging, says Smith, but final action is not expected until fall.

Meanwhile, said the governor, safety efforts are continuing through the Texas Education Agency, the State Highway Department, the Department of Public Safety and the Texas Department of Public Health.

Crime Rate Up Col. Wilson Spier, Department of Public Safety director, says Texas' crime rate for the first six months of 1969 was 7.7 per cent higher than the comparable period in 1968.

Major crimes increased in all categories except murder and homicide, where the rate declined 8.8 per cent. Greatest increase was in robbery . . . up 31.2 percent. Aggravated assaults increased 20.9 per cent, auto theft 14.8 per cent, burglary 9.7 per cent, rapes 7.2 per cent and thefts 3.9 per cent.

Urban areas experienced the greatest increase 8.5 per cent. In rural areas, the average hike was less than one per cent. In cities over 100,000, the increase was almost nine per cent. In those from 50,000 to 100,000, increase was 7.1 per cent and in cities of 25,000 to 50,000, 18.8 per cent.

Crime clearance rates for the period was 27 per cent . . . the same as 1968. Clearance rate for murder was 84 per cent, for rapes 66 per cent and robbery 39 per cent.

DPS noted that statistics show a major crime query one and one-third minutes during January-June.

Late Hours Permits Issued Texas Liquor Control Board now is issuing special late hours for taverns and private clubs in wet areas.

A new law, effective September 1, provides that late-hours establishments can serve alcoholic beverages until 2 a. m. However, the statute is effective only in counties of 300,000 or more population (based on the 1960 census) and those where commissioners courts or city councils specifically approve.

State fee of $100 is collected from taverns selling wine and beer until the new curfew hour. Private clubs which want to stay open until 2 a. m. must pay $500 for a permit. State Liquor Control Board must issue the permit or license.

Sadler Censure Refused After lengthy debate, House of Representatives rejected a proposed resolution reprimanding Texas Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler for failing to cooperate with lawmakers.

Rep. Frances Farenthold of Corpus Christi introduced the resolution (and resubmitted it to the second called session) charging that Sadler misled a House committee inquiring about his handling or salvage operations on ancient Spanish ships which sank off Padre Island more than 400 years ago.

Sadler, appearing before the House rules committee, admitted his original testimony on the issue was evasive and misleading. However, he claimed his tactics were necessary because of the delicate nature of the subject under inquiry.

Attorney General Speaks Sale of any alcoholic beverage in Calhoun County Precinct 3 is prohibited under local option vote, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin said in opinion requested by County Attorney William M. Day.

In an opinion for the guidance of Education Commissioner J. W. Edgar, Martin clarified securities authorized for school depository funds.

In a third opinion, Martin said that a new law does not define the practice of psychology as a branch of the healing art.

Road Program Approved State Highway Department has approved a $52 million highway safety and farm to market road improvement program for 1970.

Projects include construction work on 6,373 miles, to cost $1.2 million; and right of way and relocation assistance totaling $4.7 million. Some $871,000 was reserved for later assignment.

About 55 per cent of the work will be on state and U. S.-numbered highways. Forty five per cent is assigned to Texas' farm to market road system.

Most of the work will serve to increase safety on the highways, and a large portion will go to reconstruction.

Securities Truman G. Holladay, deputy securities commissioner, says the State Securities Board has issued a cease and desist order against Pace International, Inc., of Austin (known as Paceco), prohibiting the sale of securities in Texas. He charged that the company had never been registered, as is required by law, with the board.

William King, securities commissioner, also announced that Wayne C. Davison has pleaded guilty to charges that he sold unregistered securities. King was sentenced in Harris County to three years in prison and given a probated sentence. One of the conditions of the probation is that Davison is to make full restitution to the investors.

Hauling Jurisdiction Railroad Commission has agreed to let more than 100 oilfield haulers pool their efforts to get a broader authority for hauling. The 100 companies are asking the Railroad Commission to expand their jurisdiction to include hauling of any "iron and steel articles." If jurisdiction is granted, any oilfield hauler could carry any iron or steel material.

Common carriers, who have jurisdiction to haul anything, and oilfield haulers with wide jurisdiction to haul iron and steel are opposing the application. Interscholastic League That "no transfer" rule of the University Interscholastic League will be the subject of an interim House study. During the first special session of the Legislature, Rep. Bill Swanson of Houston gained passage of a resolution calling for the study.

Swanson said the UIL also thinks there should be some appeal of the one-year bar for athletes who change schools, so the committee will look for an acceptable means.

Appointments Edward M. Yturri, Corpus Christi attorney and city attorney of Mathis, has been designated assistant state chairman of the Texas Republican party and head of state GOP Mexican-American Advisory Committee. Job is one of five top leadership posts in the Texas party.

Governor Smith named Jimmy Ralph Morris of Corsicana criminal district attorney for the 13th judicial district, Navarro County.

S. H. Roberts of Austin is new U. S. Marshal for the Western District of Texas.

Speaker Mutscher selected Reps. John Traeger of Seguin and James E. Nugent of Kerrville as Texas delegates to the 22nd annual meeting of the National Legislative Conference in St. Louis, Mo.

Coin-operated amusements machine operators may lend money to taverns where strict rules set out in statutes are obeyed, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held. Under the new law, a person cannot have financial interest in both vending machines and business which sells alcoholic beverages for consumption on premises, however.

In other recent opinions, Martin held that: Act allowing credit toward state retirement for military service prior to state employment is constitutional. Those receiving military retirement from the federal government for 20 years or more active duty with Armed Forces of U. S. are excluded from receiving credit with the state system.

Commissioners Court of Wharton County does not have authority to sell Nightingale (County) Hospital.

Board of Vocational Nurse Examiners may issue a license to a qualified alien lawfully in the U. S. who passes the examination. Judge Supply Plentiful Texas has enough district judges although they are not always located in areas of need, State Supreme Court Chief Justice Robert W. Calvert told the House Judiciary Committee.

Committee conducted its first hearing in a scheduled year-and-a-half-long interim study of how to improve and modernize the state's court system.

District Judge Truman Robert of Hamilton said some judges are "lazy" and need to be stirred up by Judicial Qualifications Commission. Former Supreme Court Associate Justice W. St. John Garland, president of the Texas Civil Judicial Council, said the Committee is moving at the right time for court reforms.

Watch Ponds For Signs Of Summer Die-Off Of Fish Hot, windless days of August and September are the times pond owners should watch ponds for summer die-off of fish, according to County Agent Ronald Gooch.

Oxygen depletion usually is the major cause for fish die-off and is due to dying and rapid decay of water weeds and other organic substances when the weather is hot and still. All animal life in a pond uses oxygen 24 hours a day, but oxygen is replaced by surface absorption from air and release from microscopic plants only during hours of sunlight.

Oxygen is lowest in ponds at daybreak. If it is dangerously low, fish will come to the surface in the morning and gasp for air. To relieve the oxygen shortage, the county agent suggests broadcasting from 50 to 100 pounds of superphosphate per surface acre over the pond. This buffers toxic effects of carbon dioxide and ammonia and stimulates microscopic plants to produce more oxygen. If treated soon after fish show distress, the situation is usually relieved within an hour.

Using outboard motors to stir up the water and replenish the oxygen supply is often recommended for small ponds. If a pump is available, water can be pumped from the bottom and sprayed back on the surface. Suffocation from oxygen is not the only cause of fish die-off. Careless use of agricultural chemicals can also cause a lot of trouble. Therefore, possible contamination of fish ponds should be considered before chemicals are used.

Today's black bass consider trolling motors about as essential as the hunter's favorite hound. And that's pretty doggone important!
Fact of the matter is, if you want a top bass fisherman to go out on the lake with you... you'd better have a trolling motor on the transom or the bow of your boat. Some are even particular about whether it hangs fore or aft.
Don't get me wrong. They're not "appetish." They are dedicated fishermen and they want every advantage available. When they go to the lake they go to fish. To them that means bringing home a stringer full.
Truth of the matter is that they know how really important the trolling motor is in locating and

Water Loss To Fields Can Be Helped

Soil and water losses to fields by fast, drying winds can be reduced, according to Mason Cloud, Texas Forest Service.

Properly planned and maintained, windbreaks or shelterbelts of trees and shrubs can reduce soil erosion by wind, protect homesteads and livestock, and reduce soil moisture losses from evaporation.

Tree species suited for windbreak plantings available this year from the state nursery near Alto will include Oriental arbutus, catalpa, cottonwood cuttings, eucalyptus, honeylocust (black and thornless), mulberry, Osage orange, pine (Austrian, loblolly, pondcress, shortleaf and slash), redbud, sweetgum, sycamore, and black walnut stratified seed.

Windbreak seedlings are sold in multiples of 50 trees but the minimum acceptable order is 100 trees. The price, $2.50 per hundred, plus sales tax, includes shipping costs. No trees available for resale or for ornamental use.

Shipments of windbreak tree species will begin mid-January and continue through the first week in March 1970. Orders will

TEXAS CRIME RATE STILL GOING UP

The crime rate in Texas for the first six months of 1969 is running 7.7% higher than the comparable period last year according to a report released today by the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Colonel Wilson E. Spier, DPS director, said major crime increased in all categories except murder and homicide, where the statewide rate declined by 8.8%.

The greatest increase was listed in the robbery category, up 31.2%. Aggravated assaults were up by 20.9%, auto theft up 14.8%, and burglary up 9.7%. Spier said rapes were up 7.2% and thefts up 3.9%.

In Texas, the crime clock ticked off one major crime every 1½ for the January thru June period. There was one murder every eight hours, a rape every 4½ hours, a robbery every 1¼ hours, and a burglary every five minutes. An aggravated assault occurred every 21½ minutes, and a theft every 2½ minutes, and an auto theft every 16 minutes.

The greatest increase in crime was in urban areas where the overall rate increased 8.5%. In rural areas throughout Texas, the average rate increased by less than 1%.

An analysis of crime rate changes in urban areas by population indicates an upswing of almost 9% in cities of over 100,000 population. The rate is up 7.1% in cities of over 50,000, and up 18.8% in cities having populations between 25,000 and 50,000.

Cities having populations between 10,000 and 25,000 had an overall rate increase of 6.9%, while those between 5,000 and 10,000 had a 12.4% decrease. Smaller towns from 2,500 to 5,000 population report an increase of just over 18%.

Statewide crime clearance rates for the first six months held at 27%, the same as 1968. However, DPS statistics indicate an 84% clearance rate for murders and 66% for rapes, with a 39% clearance rate for robbery. In urban areas, the 1968 crime clearance rate is 26%, the same as last year. Rural clearances stand at 37%, as compared to 43% at mid-year 1968.

Leader-Out-of-County Rate $5.00

A few generations ago we gave very little thought to the possibility that in this century we might see the end of clean rivers. Now it is up to us. Pollution has increased to a point where water and wildlife will suffer and even people will perish. It is horrible to contemplate. Today, scientists are working diligently on methods of pollution prevention.

But we, the people, are doing our darndest to bring it about. We have turned river and lake banks into settlements. Literally thousands of houses are without proper sanitary facilities. We toss our empty bottles, cans and old tires into the streams. Or leave them where they will wash into the water with the first heavy rain.

We operate thousands of houseboats on our lakes, and nearly all of them are without proper sanitary facilities. It seems that we do just about everything possible to ruin our water.

This is the water we drink. We bathe in it. We use it for our crops and our flowers. We even baptize with this water. Yet we pollute it.

Official steps are being taken to correct this situation, but it still remains a personal obligation, too. Each of us benefits and each of us pays the price.

Some hope may be available from the Scenic Rivers bill now in Congress. This measure sets up a national policy for the protection of wild and scenic streams. Coverage by the bill includes a stream or a tributary and the adjacent lands. Measure passed without opposition in the Senate but it encountered trouble in the House. This because some of the Congressmen were more interested in building dams and providing industry than keeping any scenic beauty for the future generations.

You can give support to this bill by writing your own congressman and letting him know that you believe some of our beautiful streams should be kept for posterity. Also pledge to him your support in keeping the streams of our areas as free from pollution as possible.

City ordinances and state laws exist, but there is a lack of enforcement and few teeth in the laws. Therefore it becomes an individual problem. Every one of us must do something to save our rivers, our fish and wildlife, our recreational areas and our lives.

Next time you are tempted to toss a beverage can or throw old tire into the water, think twice. You are not just hurting yourself, you are robbing your children and grandchildren their heritage . . . clean, pure water!
