CLARENDON FOLKS PLAN MUCH NEEDED CENTRAL BUILDING

Conditions at the City Hall are becoming crowded. There is said to be little room for the library and a club room in the basement. The club room ladies want more space. The library folks tell us that more space is needed. No doubt of it.

Enthusiasts of both library and club room learned this week that it is possible to get a building at little cost under a NYA project.

It is believed possible to get a building erected in a central location that would house the Library, Club Room and the Museum all under one roof.

If such a project can be worked up, it will give employment to some fifty youths of Donley county. It will bring a monthly payroll of around a thousand dollars per month.

The Leader has been informed that the ladies who sponsored the City Park and other worth-while projects, are becoming interested in the proposed building for these worthy objects named above. Several business men are favoring the new building idea, too.

Mrs. U. J. Boston has kindly consented to take the lead in this movement by calling a meeting of representatives of the various women's clubs at the Mayor's office in the City Hall at 9:30 Saturday morning. All those interested are urged to attend this meeting.

Meaning of course that if the last two figures following your name are not "41", you should renew your subscription right away. Some have paid way into 1942 to avoid any rise in the price due to advanced cost of newsprint.

We would prefer that you pay only one year at a time. Bring or send the price to your Leader office at the rate of $1.50 in the first zone, and $2 per year outside the first zone.

If you are behind, attend to this right away—today. We would do as much for you any time.

IS YOUR DATE SET UP?

Hollywood Becomes Dreamland For Clarendon's Ruth Cornell

I'm sitting at the desk of our comfortable suite in the Hollywood Plaza tonight looking over the twinkling city of Hollywood, trying to decide just where to begin in telling you about all the wonderful things that have happened to me.

"Well, Ruth," Mrs. Truitt called me from her adjoining room when she peaked in the door and saw me chewing the end of the hotel's pen, "why don't you just tell them the most exciting things that have happened?"

The most exciting things! But where to begin? Everything has been exciting—it's been just one breathtaking moment after another, without a second to stop and pinch myself to see if it is all not just a movie.

When I first opened my eyes this morning, it took me a long second to realize that I hadn't been selling tickets last night from the glass window of the Paramount Theatre in Amarillo, but instead I had been at a real Hollywood premiere, standing right next to the brightest stars of Hollywood, and even being photographed with Constance Moore!

But maybe I'm getting a little ahead of myself—it doesn't seem possible that all this could happen to a little girl who had spent most of her life right in Clarendon and Amarillo—and all in such a short time, too.

Just a little over two weeks ago I was selling theatre tickets to Amarillians, never suspecting that I wouldn't be doing the same thing the next night. But the next night I found me in Fort Worth, standing with a long line of 250 girls from Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas, and Texas—all contesting for the title of "Miss All America," Queen of the Rodeo.

And just as suddenly, I found myself "Miss Queen of the Rodeo!" Before I had even time to pick up my clothes from Amarillo—when I left I only took enough

Among the out of town relatives here for the funeral service of Mr. Crabtree were included Mrs. Lee Pope of Quanah, Edey Crabtree of Dalhart, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Crabtree and son, and Bud Crabtree, all of Dallas. And Mrs. Art Winkler and sons of Amarillo.

T. R. Crabtree Dies Suddenly

Funeral services were conducted at the family home at 10:30 a. m. Monday for Thomas Richard Crabtree, 66, who suddenly died late Sunday. Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated.

Attending the casket were G. L. Green, Walter Clifford, Pink Rogers, Joe Horn, Odos Caraway, Johnie Johnson. The Buntin mortuary had charge of arrangements.

Surviving are his widow and three daughters and a son, Melvin Crabtree of Denver. The daughters are Mrs. I. B. Pierce, Devine; Mrs. Clarine Rushing, Oklahoma City; Mrs. Ruby White, Purcell, Okla.

Mr. Crabtree first came to Donley county in 1896. After remaining two years, he again made his home at Dallas until after his marriage, when he returned to Donley county in 1908, and resided here until his death.

He was playing checkers sitting at a table with Mrs. Crabtree when he suddenly expired. When he did not make the next move, she looked up and discovered that he was sitting in his chair lifeless with the checker still in his hand that he intended to play next.

At the time of his marriage more than 30 years ago, Mr. Crabtree remarked that his wedding suit should be kept for his burial suit. All these years that suit was kept for that purpose. He was buried in the suit.

Christmas Tree With Pageant

On the evening of December 18th, in front of the Methodist Church, the annual Clarendon Christmas Tree celebration will be held. This event, which affords a splendid opportunity for those of the community who desire to help at Christmas those less fortunate than themselves, is as it has been in the past, in charge of Mrs. J. H. Howze. The High School Band will play the Christmas Carols, the children with their lighted candles will be there to sing and boxes will be placed for the reception of gifts of food, clothing, etc.

Following the presentation of gifts the children, with their candles, light the way into the Methodist Church, where the whole community is expected to watch the presentation of the Christmas Pageant, being presented by the Ministerial Alliance and the united Womens Clubs of the City.

The Pageant will in drama and music tell the story of the birth of the Christ Child from the meeting of Joseph and Mary through to the visit of the Magi. Rehearsals are going forward for this, and the Rev. Edgar W. Henshaw, who is acting as director expresses himself as delighted with the ability and sincerity of the various characters to be portrayed.

Your Leader will next week publish a full list of characters and those in charge of the many activities which are made necessary by such a production. Sufficient at this time is the mention that casting is in charge of Mrs. U. J. Boston and Mrs. J. McMurry. Music is in charge of Mrs. H. R. Beck. Mrs. Ira Merchant is responsible for the costumes, and many others are busily engaged in the preparation of the pageant.

Some time was spent at the home of a sister of Mr. Pipes at Grapevine, and several days were spent with Mr. Casey's relatives at Arlington. "We really got the ham gravy and a lot of squirrels on the trip," Mr. Casey stated today.

Flu Interferes

Should you find many errors in this issue, it is probably due to the fact that three-fourths of the working force on the Leader has the "flu." All members of the Alfred Estlack family are in bed. Likewise the family of Wayne Estlack. This is an alibi for errors in the Leader.

Parks Board To Sponsor Game Tournament

The Parks Board is sponsoring a bridge and 42 tournament in the private dining room of the Antro hotel at 3 p. m. and 7:30 p. m., Tuesday, December 10th. The tickets will be 50 cents per person. This Park has been maintained largely by clubs, with the help of a monthly donation by the City.

PRIZE WINNING ARTICLES IN RECENT STUDENT CONTEST

Last week when Dr. B. L. Jenkins indulged one of his pet hobbies of sponsoring a theme-writing contest for the sixth grade pupils, there was instant attention. The theme subject, "My Dad," touched the hearts of boys, and more especially those whose fathers are but a sweet memory since they have passed on.

Without identification, the papers were judged by three disinterested parties. There was much speculation as the winners narrowed down to two—Tommy Goodner and James Wesley Palmer.

When Principal H. McHenry Lane informed Tommy Goodner that he had won over James Wesley Palmer by a mere incident, Tommy promptly divided the five-dollar prize with James Wesley. A manly act for emulation for elders.

The winning articles are printed below for the reason that they carry volumes of sound reasoning, pathos and appeal. Despite it all, there is an abundance of hope. What a lesson for all of us when the mind becomes a littered room of fading memories in the house that God built.

Here are the first and second prize winners:

In Memory of My Father
 I do not know much about fathers, as my father died when I was two years old. So my knowledge of fathers is limited as I know only what I got from books, poems, and the radio.

I will tell you what I would like my father to be.

First, I would want him to be kind, patient, and loving to me when I bring my troubles to him.

Second, I would want him to teach me to play all kinds of sports.

Third, I would want him to allow me to go with him golfing, hunting and on fishing trips.

Fourth, I would want him to take an interest in my education and health.

Fifth, and last, but not least, I would want him to train me to be a good, honest boy so that I would grow up to be a good man and citizen.

—Tommy Goodner.

MY DAD

I know all of the other boys think their dad is the best. So, naturally, I think my dad is the best of them all. Each night when he came home from work I'd meet him at the door. His cherry face, his happy smile and his teasing pranks he played.

Although he is dead and gone away, I still have my memories left, to make me happy all my life to remember about my dad. I know my dad was my pal, and I was also his. But a dad seems closer than a Mother does because he was once a boy.

Whenever I do anything wrong I expect to be spanked, but instead dad would just say: "Now Mother he won't do it again." We would get together and laugh and chat. But now I will never chat to dad, nor have our little talks. But I will have to dream and pretend he is by my side.

I wonder if dad is thinking of me, because I am thinking of him? And in years to come I hope I still remember my dad. I want to be a good dad like him. For if I have a boy I want to love him and be a good dad just like my dad was to me.

—James Wesley Palmer.

WOMACK HAS BROKEN THE AGE-OLD FUNERAL CEREMONY TRADITION

Until recently, age old traditions made the funeral ceremony in Donley County an occasion entirely for the departed, thus, to pay homage and mourn a loss. And everything about it. The gloomy settings that have been witnessed, the austere proceedings tended to accentuate rather than assuage grief. Now the Womack Funeral Homes have changed all this. The Memorial service offered by Womack's is not only regarded as a tribute to the departed, but as a source of comfort to those who remain. A Womack Funeral service presents an unique opportunity for imparting peace and consolation by infusing the service with beauty, dignity and inspiration. The sound equipment used exclusively by this firm brings an imparting lasting memory to the loved ones and friends, the playing of chimes as you enter the Cemetery, then the playing of Vibra Harp and the recent addition of organ music adds much to the settings. The automatic grave closer, another feature used exclusively by this firm leaves an eternal memory. A 1940 LaSalle Funeral Coach and truly New Modernistic Chapel tent that adds beauty to any funeral service. But we must remember that Womack Funeral Homes were First to Bring this to Donley County including the Free Ambulance Service and eventually the other funeral homes will have to render all these services since the Womack Funeral Homes have brought this service to so high a point. TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By The Apostle

DAYS OF THE SOFTIES.
When the "soft" element of Amarillo's population found themselves deprived of all modern conveniences recently because of the "frozen rain" incident, they put up such a howl it was heard all over the nation. One retired cowpuncher, in giving his experience in Amarillo summed it all to us thusly: "When I was active on the range, we often slept out in a "hot" roll with the customary tarp around our bed and the flap thrown over our faces. Some mornings we would wake up to find two feet of snow had covered us during the night.

We simply kept all the snow out of the bunk, crawled out and dressed and said nothing about it. When this recent freeze cut off our water, we melted ice and made out like a pioneer. But we didn't bellyache about it and got along fine." A lot of us old-timers have had the same experience. Ask them. But you won't find a one that will say it was any more than an incident in the day's work in the days of the real cowpuncher in the wide open spaces.

OTHER COLD PERIODS.
Recalling an incident while a cow hand on the Rita Blanca division of the XIT's back in 1902, we had a lot of snow on the ground and sleet storms from the northeast for days at a time. Several of us stayed at the camp. We read the papers, then the catalogs, and finally wound up by reading the paper on the wall, the wall being papered with newspapers and magazines in the bunk house. We would be a month or more without mail. It was then that we conceived the idea of drawing straws to see who would go to Channing for the mail. The writer never will forget the fateful shortest straw he drew on the morning of November 14, 1902. Being the second one to go "after the mail," he naturally had an advantage in knowing how to dress for the occasion. Beginning with the heavy underwear, newspapers were wrapped around the body. Another layer of clothing was put on and then another double thickness of paper. The boots were removed and the feet wrapped with cloth. Finally a pair of socks was put on the foot that was then just small enough to go inside the stirrup. A pomel-slicker was the finishing touch. It beat an overcoat. There was no chance to walk and lead the pony to warm up. Ponies were not so gentle, and simply didn't lead. He never was trained that way. Mr. Horn at the Hanie mercantile company, who still is there, was a prince. He helped to "thaw out" the mail carrier. After staying all night, the return trip was not so bad since the rider did not have to face the cold high wind. A number of the boys made the same trip during the winter and regarded it as a mere incident. Letters were mailed and the incoming mail taken back to the bunk house where we found pleasure in reading the "Globe Democrat" of St. Louis which might be a month after publication day. We had magazines and other matter. Often the mail sack tied on the saddle would scare the pony and make the rider "earn his feed" before he arrived back in camp. It was a great experience I would like to live over again. Only one other fellow is yet living of that bunch. He is Ira Broyles of Lockney.

MORE OLD-TIME STUFF.
What's become of the old-fashioned girl who used to say, "Ask father!"
She now has a daughter who says, "Give it the gas, Big Boy, the old man's gaining on us."

Now for the benefit of the elders who may read this column, I am reprinting a poem that is a favorite with a lot of folks. Maybe some of you read it in the Household Magazine. That is where I read it.

The Table Set for Two
They are left alone in the dear old home

After so many years
When the house was full of frolic and fun,

Of childish laughter and tears,
They are left alone, they two, once more

Beginning life over again,
Just as they did in the days of yore

Before they were nine or ten.

Ah, well, ah, well, 'tis the way of the world:

Children stay but a little while,

And then into other scenes are whirled

Where other homes beguile.

But it matters not how far they roam;
Their hearts are fond and true,
And there is never a home like the dear old home
Where the table is set for two.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this method to thank our friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness shown us during our recent bereavement in the loss of our dear husband and father. Your acts of kindness shall long be remembered. May God place you among just such friends when sadness comes.

Mrs. T. R. Crabtree and Children.

"NEIGHBOR PAT"

(In memory of Pat Longan)
What has changed the golden dawn? There's a feeling of sadness, something is wrong, we hear again the wild bird's note, and the far away cry of a lone coyote; we feel that tang of early fall, but, a pall seems to linger o'er it all. You ask what has changed this glorious day? Our good neighbor "Pat" has passed away.

He had the kindest, most humorous smile, to those around him he made life worth-while. And never turned any one away, but lived just alike from day to day. Toiling away at the fruits of his land, giving to others with a generous hand, helping the sick, cheering the weak, in all this world there was none so meek; never defiling any one's good name, with out neighbor "Pat" life for all just won't be the same!

When spring comes back with "rustling breeze," and the fragrant apple blossoms are filling the air; we just wonder if his spirit will not be hovering near? And neath the towering boughs, and dense shade—we will see him walk again, among the apple trees his tired old hands have made.

We know now he is standing close by Heaven's open gate, and wondering if a little lady will keep him waiting late. The music may be beautiful, and the angels be most fair, but he will never rest in Heaven, until she enters there; so, with an eager eye he is watching just over in that land, some day, when life is over—he will clasp his vanished hand. —A Friend.

Club Women? Who Are They?

How old are home demonstration club women? How many children do they have? How long have they been club members? What are their families' annual income?

These are some of the questions the Extension Service of Texas A&M College asked of home demonstration club women in 193 clubs in one county in each of the 12 extension districts. Findings of the study have been compiled by Louise Bryant, extension specialist in home management.

She found that 22 per cent of the home demonstration club women in Texas are below 30 years of age, 29 per cent are between thirty and thirty-nine, 24 per cent are between forty and forty-nine, 17 per cent are between fifty and fifty-nine, and 8 per cent are over sixty years of age.

Forty-four per cent of the club women answering the questionnaire reported the family's net income for 1939 under $500, while 31 per cent said their families' income was between $500 and $1000. About 16 per cent said their families' incomes were between $1000 and $2000 for 1939, and only six per cent of the women listed their family incomes above $2,000 for the last calendar year.

More than half of the women questioned have been in home demonstration club work from one to five years, while about one-fourth of them have been club members from five to ten years. Not quite a fifth of them—about 17 per cent—have been identified with home demonstration activities for more than 10 years.

"Figures show that there is about one and one-third child per family, and about 25 per cent of the children in club families are over 19 years of age," Miss Bryant commented.

Two pretty girls, clad in riding togs, were standing at the soda fountain bar. "Gee," said one, "I am lame from that horseback ride; I'll never go riding on those galloping plugs again." "Why, you shouldn't talk that way," said the other. "The average person has a tender spot in his heart for horses." "That may be true," retorted the first girl, groaning, "but judging from where I ache, I must be below the average."

BAPTIST PASTOR THANKS HIS CO-WORKERS

Just a word from a happy-hearted pastor to a whole-hearted church for the manner in which you entered into the celebration of a helpful event in the history of our church. Everything was so delightfully pleasing. There is just no way of describing it, but we are happy about the whole affair and do say thank you with all the sincerity of our souls. The golden days were emblematic of our Anniversary and portrayed the golden characters of those who have labored to give us our church as it is today. invested their time and money and efforts in a divine institution for the benefit of the oncoming generations. God bless every one of you.

We want to thank especially the Deacons, Sunday School Superintendent, B.T.U. Director, W.M.S. President, Brotherhood President, the Program Committee, the Decoration Committee, the Entertainment Committee, the Refreshment Committee, the Social Committee, and all those who helped these organizations and committees with every member of our church who delighted themselves with the happy privilege that we enjoyed in this celebration. You were mutually excellent beyond compare.

Then we would thank the pastors of the other churches who sent messages of christian greeting together with the Mayor of the City and others in and out of town who helped to make the occasion one of genuine Christian fellowship. God bless you too, with every interest near and dear to your hearts.

What shall we say more? Well, it is unspeakable. We had not dreamed that the church would want to honor the pastor and his family, but to our amazement were presented with twenty four pieces of lovely crystal banded with pure gold. How characteristic of the church in her fifty years of service. "Bless Be The Tie That Binds". May this gift remain a fit emblem of the brighter link uniting our hearts and as these rings are without end may your happiness and our happiness endure forever. We love you and we surely do thank you. J. Perry King

Gary Cooper looks on while Walter Brennan as Judge Roy Bean meets Lillian Bond as Lily Langtry in one of the big dramatic scenes which highlight the sweeping action of Samuel Goldwyn's "The Westerner," coming Wednesday, Thursday and Friday to The Pastime Theatre.

Roistering Judge Bean Portrayed By Scene Stealer, Walter Brennan

The current year marks the eleventh anniversary of Walter Brennan's activities as a "scene stealer." Which is to say that this well-known character actor has been working in films steadily for the last decade, for it was when he was making his debut as an actor that he was first dubbed "scene stealer" by the star of the film.

Samuel Goldwyn had seen him among the crowds working in "Wedding Night" and marked him as a face to remember for future casting. Then when Goldwyn was looking for an actor to play "Old Atrocity" in "Barbary Coast," he remembered Brennan and put him under contract, starting him off with a role which is still remembered.

From that time on Brennan has been among the most steadily employed character actors in the film industry. Currently he is appearing in Samuel Goldwyn's Gary Cooper starring vehicle, "The Westerner," showing Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at the Pastime Theatre.

Walter Brennan is best remembered for his work in "Come and Get It," "Seven Keys to Baldpate," "The Buccaneer," "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer," "The Cowboy and the Lady," "Kentucky," "The Story of Vernon and Irene Castle" and "They Shall Have Music."

In "The Westerner," which was directed by William Wyler for United Artists release, Brennan impersonates the roistering, besotted Judge Roy Bean, who administered justice at the point of a gun and established himself as the sole "Law West of the Pecos."

Mrs. Brillhart of Perryton is playing her daughter, Mrs. Cleo Woods and family.

Shelter Belt Plantings Will Begin Soon

Again the season has arrived when the Forest Service begins to move planting stock from the Plainview Nursery to the various locations in the area where farm shelterbelts are to be planted according to James W. Kyle, Acting District Officer in charge of the Shamrock District Office.

The locations where shelterbelts trees will be heeled-in for the Shamrock District are as follows: Shamrock, Wheeler, McLean, Hedley, Memphis and Wellington. Moving of the trees will start in the next few days, Kyle reports. The trees will be moved by Government trucks and only about two weeks supply stored at any one time.

According to the Acting District Officer the interest in the planting of shelterbelts is greater this year than in past years. It is reported that in past years the Forest Service has been in a position to plant shelterbelts for most all farmers desiring them providing the soil was favorable for tree growth, but the indications are this will not be the case.

The Forest Service furnishes trees and labor for the planting of farm shelterbelts on cultivated land where the subsoil is favorable, and landowners desiring these plantings are requested to make application by January 1st as the applications will be considered as they are received and the late ones may not be considered for this year's planting. For this reason Kyle suggests applications either be made through the County Agent or direct to the Forest Service at Shamrock or to one of the Field men. Fained headquarters are maintained at Wheeler, McLean, Memphis and Wellington and Kyle says a post card or letter will be considered as an application.

NYA School Is Practical

For many years war mongers in European Capitals have carefully watched the youth of their nations. Training them minutely in health practices and vigorous war games to make them capable of manning tanks, guns, airplanes and other lethal devices with which to murder less trained youths of other countries.

Here in America, despite the widespread defense program, the eyes of the Nation's leaders have also been turned toward youths, but more so in an effort to create better citizens and to afford boys and opportunity to secure employment in fields which demand highly trained men.

Foremost of Government agencies is the National Youth Administration which offers boys, between the ages of 17 and 25, an opportunity undreamed of a few years ago. Based on practical educational lines, the youngsters are trained by skilled instructors who conduct classroom lectures and work experience programs.

The National Youth Administration is definitely not a relief agency and any boy within the required age limit is eligible for entrance provided he is not otherwise established in a vocation.

Youths at Government expense, are taught aviation mechanics, auto mechanics, radio, welding, sheetmetal work, woodwork, etc., in regular classroom manner in additional to actual work experience programs. In aviation mechanics, for example, every phase of constructing and maintaining an airplane is taught by practical use by means of dismantling and re-assembling army planes motors, wings, struts, etc.

In Youth Resident Centers, such as in Canyon, which is sponsored by West Texas State College, boys live in large roomy barracks which are regularly inspected by Government and state officials. The boys are paid $30 monthly from which $18 is deducted for subsistence which includes room and board, laundry, hospitalization, recreation facilities, shows, overcoats and many other items. In Canyon the boys participate in inter-college sports and have the privilege of attending lyceum programs, football and basketball games and other school activities issued by the college and which is free to the youth.

Broncs Defeat Matador Bullfighters In Post Season Thriller, 13 to 0

The Clarendon Bronchos closed a very successful season here Friday night when they engaged the Matador Bullfighters in a post season encounter, and romped off with the laurels 13 to 0. Deadlocked at nothing all, the Bronchos suddenly exploded in the fourth quarter and shoved over two tallies before the astonished Bullfighters could regain their stance and stem the tide.

The invaders put up the best defense seen here all season. The power of the Broncho backfield was held to nil when the Matador boys decided to tighten up. The same was true of the Bronchos. Time and again the Bullfighters marched down the field only to be held for downs when the double stripe hove in sight. Thus, the game seasawed back and forth through three quarters of the game with neither team being able to push the oval across to pay dirt.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter with the ball on their own 44 yard line, the Bronchos suddenly came to life. Hermesmeyer ripped off 25 yards on the first try, and then on second try added 8 more yards. Hartzog plowed through the line for 12 yards. With the ball on the 2 yard line, Hermesmeyer dashed around left end to score. The try for point failed to split the uprights. A few plays later Clarendon again had the ball on the Bullfighter's 46 yard line. McCrary powerhoused through the Matador line for 12 yards. The Matador line tightened and Hermesmeyer heaved a perfect pass to McCrary which was good for 18 yards. From the 16 yard line Hartzog broke thru the Matador defense and raced across the double stripe. Hartzog's try for point was good. Clarendon was marching goalward when the game ended.

Big Bud Hermesmeyer had a perfect evening at passing. None of his passes were intercepted, and as far as the records show, he had none of his passes intercepted for the season. He is the best passer Clarendon has had in several seasons. Just how good he could have been will never be known as the Bronchos used very few passes during the season, relying mostly on off tackle plays, fast spinners and end-around thrusts. Hats off to Bud Hermesmeyer and L. B. Hartzog, as the best two backs in the district.

It was Goodman of the Broncs who played havoc with the Matador passing machine. What he didn't intercept, he broke up before they reached the intended receiver. The Bronchos as a whole played a whale of a game against a mighty good team. There wasn't any question about the power of the Matador eleven. They were considered tops in their district, and they certainly lived up to that reputation here on the Bronco gridiron Friday night. Allsup, the fine little stocky back on the Matador eleven is truly one of the finest backfield men seen in action all season. He was dangerous every minute of the game. It was a pleasure to watch him side step and weave his way for substantial gains. At one period of the game he pulled a sneak through the Broncho line from his own five yard line, and raced forty-five yards before the Bronchos pulled him down.

The game was played clean from start to finish, and the officials did a fine job of seeing that each side received their just dues. The fans were well satisfied that they had seen one of the best games played here all season. And thanks to the Bronchos, the gridiron curtain fell with the Maroon and White colors waving teta-mount from the pinnacle of 1940.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

At this season of the year most every one is putting in a lot of time trying to decide on a Christmas present. Had you stopped to think that your Donley County Leader costs you less than practically anything else, and that it will be a reminder of the giver every week—52 times during the year?

The rate is $1.50 in the first postal zone. Outside that zone, the rate is $2 a year due to excessive postage charges. You merely tell us who you want to receive the Leader, and we will send the paper and a letter telling them who sent it. That will save you trouble and gladden several hearts through the year. The Leader is a present for the whole family in many cases. Several have already made this valuable Christmas present arrangement.

ENDURED STORM ERA

Mrs. C. T. McMurtry was in Amarillo during the "ice age" that destroyed so much property in the form of trees and wire and poles of the public service companies recently.

BROTHER ILL IN CLOVIS

Mrs. C. A. Burton returned home Tuesday. For several days she had been at the bedside of her brother, W. E. Betts, in Clovis. He is said to be showing some improvement at this time.

CORNELL --

After Lana Turner had spoken her lines and Robert Z. Leonard, the director, had yelled "Cut!" Mr. Herty introduced us, and as I looked up, Mr. Sibley had snapped our pictures! There I was, on the same piece of film as Lana Turner!

Quite soon it was lunch time, and Mr. Herty took us to the studio commissary where the stars eat. While I was picking at my salad and glancing over the crowded room, Laraine Day came over. She had just come back from location in New Mexico where they were shooting "Bad Man" with Wallace Beery, and when she heard I was from snowed-in Amarillo, we swapped "cold" stories.

The commissary was just crammed with stars! At a table by himself, studying over some lines, was Spencer Tracy. The beautiful Hedy Lamarr walked by (even more beautiful than her pictures), and Mickey Rooney was at a noisy table with a lot of laughing boys.

After lunch we walked over to the "Boys Town" set, where I was introduced to Mickey. He was very friendly—full of laughs and cracks, and never at a loss for a comeback.

Oh, I nearly forgot—as we rounded the corner of the high sound stage, we almost collided with John Shelton (he's Ann Rutherford's new husband in "Keeping Company"), and he stopped for a while and asked me if Texas was as big as they say it is!

Well, I haven't space to tell you all about all the exciting things that have happened to me—I still can't realize that I have actually laughed and talked with the stars I've seen so often on the posters in the lobby of the Paramount at Amarillo or the theatre at Clarendon!

Mrs. W. H. Patrick is visiting this week with her daughter, Miss Elgin Patrick in Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruyere and babe of Mineral Wells are visiting relatives here. Mrs. Bruyere is a granddaughter of Mrs. R. A. Chamberlain.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Haley of Silverton were guests of her mother, Mrs. Lalar Wilkerson, the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. John Morris and family of Claude visited in the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Cap Morris Sunday.
