After the Pass Bribers.

In announcing his platform for governor of Kansas Senator Harris has this to say of free passes: "I should favor legislation which would not only make the carriers giving rebates and accepting graft punishable by fine and imprisonment, but that the dishonest beneficiaries of rebates and the distributors of graft should be equally amenable to law. I have always favored an abolition of free transportation. It is a method of favoritism and special privilege that invariably works to the injury of the honest investor and the public. It is an efficient method of packing conventions and of filling the lobbies of legislatures with the tools and servants of selfish and meddlesome corporations. Our board of railroad commissioners should insist upon a proper enforcement of all provisions of the law against rebates and all manner of discrimination and before additional legislation may be needed the legislature should respond at once in enacting."

Panhandle Crops.

W. F. Sterley, general freight agent of the Denver road, on returning from a trip over the line, said:

"Farmers all along the line have commenced the work of harvesting the wheat and oats crop in good earnest. A number of fields have been cut along the line and several harvesters and binders are working. The work of harvesting was under good headway between Wichita Falls and Iowa Park, while between Decatur and Fort Worth several fields have been cut and the land listed for a cotton crop.

"With weather favoring the farmer during the harvest season, and the prospective yield, everybody will be on easy street.

"The cotton crops are not looking so well on account of the constant and excessive rains, but with ten day's dry weather, farmers will have their fields cleared of grass and weeds and be up with their work.

"Crops along the line of the Denver are in much better shape than through Kansas. I went from here to Denver this trip via Kansas City and had a good opportunity to judge the crops."

Mr. Will R. Davis and Miss Blanche Houk were married Wednesday evening at Mrs. Houk's, Rev. Hardy officiating. The couple left at once for Amarillo, where they will make their home, Mr. Davis being a railroad employe. We extend our good wishes.

To Stop C.O.D. Liquor Shipments in Prohibition Territory.

Agents of the American Express Company have been notified that on and after July 1, 1906, that company will take no more shipments of liquor to be shipped C. O. D. into prohibition districts. J. G. Scott, agent of the company in Dallas, has received notice applying to all points in Texas. He says that the rule is to apply on all shipments of liquor, whether between points in the State or between points in different States. So far as is known, no other companies have made like announcement.

This instruction to the agents follows promptly upon the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the Mississippi case. This was the action of the Harvest King Distilling Company of St. Louis seeking to compel the express companies in Mississippi to take C. O. D. consignments for points in that State. The Supreme Court upheld the company in refusing.

Big Pastures To Be Opened.

Mr. Stephens' bill, providing for the opening to settlement under the homestead act of the "Big Pasture," containing 505,000 acres in the Kiowa, Comanche and Apache reservation of Oklahoma, passed the senate. The measure has already passed the house, so that it needs only the signature of the President to make it a law. Inasmuch as the bill was recalled from the White House to permit some changes in accordance with the President's wishes, it will probably be signed.

The bill provides that the land shall be sold in tracts of 160 acres, but not at less than $5 an acre, payable in five annual installments. The proclamation declaring the land open to settlement is to be issued within six months of the passage of the act. Allotments are made to all children of members of the tribe born since 1900.

Farmers A Prey For Schemers.

The Alanreed correspondent of the McLean News: "The lightning rod man got in his graft on some of our people. For thirty years I have never known the advance agent of any lightning rod firm to tell the truth about cost of putting up rods. They say $10, $20, $30, for the job and when it is done it costs from $30 to $100.00. I believe our people should cut out any sort of a contract that required a note in advance or that is not definite as to the final cost, and this applies to life insurance, lightning rods and any contract that is not definite, and there should be a law voiding any insurance note where a policy is not delivered and to set aside any contract that is not definite and that when done calls for two or three times as much as first agreed upon. The farmers have been a common prey of ages for schemers and unscrupulous persons who make their living by hot air and misrepresentations, and it is time to call a halt. Sign no note until the goods and property is delivered to you and the contract is properly fulfilled."

The biggest fruit crop in the history of Oklahoma will be canned this season. It is claimed that Oklahoma City wholesale dealers have sold 125 cars of glass fruit jars to handle the fruit of that section.

Entered February 10, 1903, at Clarendon, Tex., as Second class matter, under Act of Congress March 3, 1879.

CLARENDON, TEX., JUNE 2 1906.

A DELEGATION has been sent from Panama to the United States to get this Government to intervene to prevent fraudulent voting in the forthcoming election there. If they will only stay long enough to see an election day, they will likely go back thoroughly disgusted.

SENATOR BAILEY saw fit to make a bitter arraignment of magazines in the senate Tuesday on the grounds that they were responsible largely for the postal deficit. That there are a large number of cheap story papers that should be excluded from the mail, there is no denying, but the better class of magazines are as much entitled to second class mail privileges as anything published, and much more so than a lot of stuff the Senator franks through the mail without any postage. It is a little singular, too, that the Senator made his discovery of the abuse of the mail privilege by the magazines since one of them justly saw fit to criticize this important senator. We do not know whether Mr. Bailey knows as much about religious papers as he does about race courses, or not, but in referring to religious papers, he said the cost of their transportation could not be grudged, but protested against making the non-Christian taxpayer share the expense of their distribution, while Mr. Bailey is protesting, he might get it into his head that the tax-payers, both christian and non-christian, are protesting against sharing the expense of tons of campaign literature, and of the congressmen and senators franking office furniture, laundry and other wearing apparel, worthless garden seed and other such stuff. When this is done, the postoffice department will pay its way.

Now that graduating exercises are over the dressmaker will not be so rushed.

Senator Burton says that he will not put the Senate in the position of having one of its members in jail, and would resign as soon as the mandate of the court to the court below is issued and enforced. Senator Burton has been informed that members of the committee, as well as members of the Senate outside of the committee insist upon action at once, and that the committee will likely vote on his case before the expiration of the present session.

Engineer Byrd Killed

A storm Thursday night blew two box cars on to the main track at Iowa Park and sent them flying towards Wichita Falls, and crashing into the northbound passenger four miles this side of the Falls. Engineer M. L. Byrd was killed and Fireman Furlow lost a leg. Sixteen others were slightly hurt.

The crowd at the Giles picnic was immense and enjoyed itself finely, but there were no candidates there for state office and the speaking that attracted most attention came from candidates Veale and Decker, out for the state senate.

Mr. T. A. Ross of Pilot, aged 63, the eldest brother of the Ross brothers here, died Wednesday, just before D. P. Ross and wife reached there. We extend sympathy to the relatives.

Hugh Braly has traded his place four miles from town to Dr. Gray for the latter's residence in town, latter valued at $4,000 and the land at $20 per acre.

INTELLIGENT BOYS AND GIRLS.

Clarendon College Commencement.

Another Commencement occasion has become a part of the history of Clarendon College. As early as Wednesday visitors began to arrive and they came every day till the last. They were here from New Mexico, Oklahoma, Amarillo, Canyon, Stratford, Claude, Memphis, Wellington, Quanah, Silverton, Hale Center, Lubbock, Plainview, Shamrock, Matador and from almost every county in this section of the state. Their presence was a pleasure and inspiration.

The first entertainment of the occasion was the Piano Contest by sixteen young ladies of Mrs. Wedgworth's class. This took place on Thursday morning at 9:30. Three pieces were played by three grades, and each reflected credit on teacher and pupils. Misses Anderson, Chamberlain and Mrs. Williams were the judges. The decision was not made known till Tuesday when it was found that Miss Mamie Harrington had won the medal, while those deserving honorable mention were, Misses Helen Powell, Florence Crews, and Ruth Harrington.

On Friday evening at 9:30 a short farewell program was given in honor of and by the Seniors. Music by the young ladies and speeches by the young men were the order of the hour.

At 3:30 in the afternoon the chapel was filled by lovers of art to enjoy the Art Levee given by Miss Felder and her class. A short program of music and elocution was rendered and then printed lists of the pictures were supplied the guests, and they were asked to inspect the work of the class. This work received much praise and commendation. The medal pictures were on exhibit also. The first, second, and last pictures of the year were to be judged. It was found that Misses Anna Talley and Carrie Smith had tied, and so two medals were awarded.

At 8:30 Friday evening was rendered the joint entertainment of the Sappho and Euterpean societies, this being the first joint entertainment by the young ladies since the division and formation of the two societies. The program proved quite interesting. Among its most attractive features were the choruses by Miss Burkhead's large chorus class, of about 25 or 30 young ladies. "Kentucky Babe" was especially bright and catchy and was loudly but unsuccessfully encored. Miss Annie Laurie Buie's rendition of "The Jiners" was also much appreciated.

On Saturday morning at 9:30 the Board of Trustees met in the Library and spent several hours in considering questions of vital importance to the school, among others the selection of a faculty for the ensuing year. The resignation of Bro. Hardy as president a short time ago necessitated the election of a new president. Rev. J. R. Mood, an A. M. of Southwestern University and a D./D. of Vanderbilt, was elected to the presidency. Dr. Mood is a son of Dr. Francis Asbury Mood, the great Methodist educator of Texas. He came to Clarendon the day before the election, and is still in our midst making friends and winning an interest among the people already. He comes highly recommended and the Board felt that in him they have secured a worthy successor to Bro. Hardy, whose loss to the school was so greatly regretted. Prof. Johnston having decided not to remain with the school, Prof. W. B. Quigley of Amarillo was elected to take his place. Mr. Quigley was notified of his election, and after coming down and studying the situation accepted the place. He, also, is an A. M. of Southwestern and a teacher of experience and ability, especially in mathematics and physics which he has made a specialty. The general opinion is that the school is to be congratulated on securing him. Miss Betts was retained for the primary department, and Mrs. Wedgworth as director of the music department. Miss Burkhead, Voice and Piano, and Mrs. Tressie, Stringed Instruments and Elocution. Dr. Burkhead had been elected for a period of three years at the election last year, so he and Mrs. Burkhead will still have charge of the young ladies. These constitute the faculty so far selected. The Art teacher will be selected later.

Rev. J. T. Griswold of Colorado City, Rev. C. N. N. Ferguson of Amarillo, and W. F. White of Dallas, were here for the Board meeting, in addition to the local members. Bro. Hardy was asked to act as financial agent for the school until conference which he consented to do. Various plans for the improvement of the school were agreed upon.

At 3:30 Saturday afternoon the chapel was full to overflowing for the Primary Entertainment. The small people did their best, and the people seemed to appreciate that "best."

One of the most attractive features of the Commencement to many of our guests as well as the home people was the joint debate between the Panhandle and Adkissonian Societies. This was held at the opera house at 8:30 Saturday evening. The subject was, "Resolved, That the U. S. should not declare a war without first obtaining the consent of the people by ballot." The affirmative was championed by Messrs. Geo. Palmer and Kenneth Bain of the Adkissonians and the negative by Messrs. W. P. McMicken and Clinton Small of the Panhandles. After a hotly contested debate the decision was rendered in favor of the negative by vote of four to one. The usual scene of indescribable panic followed, in which the victors rejoiced and the defeated side learned to smile over their defeat. The Commencement Sermon on Sunday at 11 o'clock at the Methodist church was preached to a large audience by Rev. J. T. Griswold, P. E. of the Colorado District. After the sermon Bro. Sherman took up a collection to put a porch on the boys' dormitory. At 8:30 p. m. Rev. C. V. Oswalt of Missouri Ave., Ft. Worth, preached a sermon to the young people. Both sermons of the day were strong, earnest, and helpful to the young life of the college.

At 10 o'clock Monday morning was held the Oratorical Contest which was participated in by six young men as follows: Herman Gibson, Clint Lee, Floyd Teague, Arthur Neeley, Roy Wilson and Ernest Wilson. This was a contest of unusual interest, each of the young men acquitting themselves with great credit. The decision was rendered for Ernest Wilson.

At 3:30 the Elocutionary Contest took place. Five young ladies spoke for the medal. They were Misses Annie Laurie Buie, Eunice Burk, Dana Klutts, Lizzie Crisp and Laura Pace. The medal was won by Miss Dana Klutts.

The final recital of the year by the Musical and Elocutionary departments was given Monday evening. The Monday evening program is always looked forward to with especial pleasure by all lovers of music and elocution.

At 10 o'clock Tuesday morning

They lost all their household effects, on which there was some insurance. There was $1000 insurance on building. Origin of fire unknown. Some say lightning, as a storm was coming up, but if this was the case, it did not awake the occupants. Electric light wires, lamp, cigar stub and such are discussed, but nothing definite is attributed. There had been no fire in the stoves.

Intelligent Boys and Girls.

the chapel was again packed to its utmost capacity with the friends and admirers of the graduating class who held this crowd in intense interest for about two hours with their essays and orations. Misses Nora Talley, Maud Harrington, Mamie Harrington, Willie Thompson, Ada Hawkins and Messers. Hugh Black, Arthur So Relle, D. B. Doak, Hundley Coker, Marion Law and T. E. Graham composed this class of '06 than which the College has produced none better. After the presentation of diplomas and the Baccalaureate address by Pres. Hardy, the medals and honors were awarded. The first honors which mean a scholarship at Southwestern University, were awarded to Hugh Black. The scholarship medal to Hugh Arnold, the Intermediate scholarship medal to John Bailey, and the primary scholarship medal to Mary Hardy. The second honors in the primary department were awarded to Helen Powell and she was also given to Albert Morris for perfect attendance during the entire school year. The Bible medal was awarded to Miss Mollie Hunt, the voice medal to Miss Pearlie Alley, the house keeping medal to Miss Agnes Brummett, the music medal in Mrs. Tresise's class to Miss Joe Rush, the essay medals to Miss Clara Teague and Harwood Beville, and Mr. George Washington presented a beautiful music roll to the young lady who painted a certain picture which he greatly admired. The young lady proved to be Miss Stella Gribble.

In the afternoon Senator Decker of Quanah delivered the Annual Address to a large audience; his theme was, "The Panhandle—its Opportunities and Possibilities." His address was practical, but scholarly and earnest.

This closed the Commencement. The students at once began to scatter, the guests did likewise, and now a painful quietude reigns on the College Hill. Many things of interest happened of which lack of space forbids mention. Judge Morgan, who never forgets the children, sent up a box of bananas for the Primary people for which he has their thanks.

Mrs. Harrington entertained the Graduating class for dinner on Sunday. While Miss Betts entertained the new class and Alumni from 6 to 8 on Monday evening.

The entire Commencement occasion is considered the best in our history. We look forward already to September when we hope to again meet those whom we have learned to love and appreciate in the past.

Frank Page was down from New Mexico and returned with his girls after the close of the catholic school.

Joseph J. Conley, the manager of the above named drama which plays here Tuesday, June 5, under canvass, says, "I have been in the theatrical business for a number of years, in any number of capacities, but have thus far this season met with better success from a financial standpoint than ever before. I credit the phenomenal business we have been doing to the play we have. The piece is by Hal Ried and is a departure from the ordinary melodrama offered at popular prices throughout the country. Nothing overdrawn but is as true to life as is possible to get a play. I have also been very careful in selecting my cast and, and flatter myself that I have secured the right people in the right place."

Those Mystic Signs.

A story is told of the most conspicuous joiner in a thriving Western city noted for its many lodge members. Indeed, it is said that everybody belongs to at least one lodge, and nearly everybody to two or three. Recently a new family came to town, and located just across the street from the past master of all the organizations. One day a week later he caught the five-year-old son of the neighbor as the lad was passing, and with a few preliminary remarks led up to: "Say, my boy, is your father a Mason?"

"No sir," was the sharp reply.

"Probably, then, he is an Odd Fellow?"

"No sir, he ain't."

"Knight of Pythias? Woodman? Workman? Pyramid? Forster? Maccabee?"

The boy shook his head.

"Isn't your father the member of any lodge?" demanded the questioner in puzzled tone.

"Not a one," replied the boy.

"Then why on earth does he make all those signs when he comes out in the front yard every morning?"

"O, that ain't lodge," cheerfully explained the lad; "pa's got St. Vitus's dance!"—C. M. Harger, in the Atlantic.

Principle Above Party.

Ex-Gov. Stanley, of Kansas, made a speech at Wellington on Decoration Day to the G. A. R., in which he said:

It is not the party or creed that men should work for, but the man and the principle. You who have votes to cast, throw aside the malicious party loyalty and vote for the men and the principles that you see are right. If you have men in state offices who are unworthy of further support, if your representatives in the legislative body of this great state betray their trust and debauch their office, do not for a moment let the fact that you are a Republican or a Democrat stand in the way of your casting an intelligent, truly American vote that will voice a mighty irresistible protest against the abuses of power.

"I am not making a political speech. I am endeavoring to impress upon you at this solemn occasion the necessity of striving for the right. Valor at the cannon's mouth, the patient fidelity of the thousands who languished in vile prisons, the spirit of fortitude that the wives and mothers and sisters showed, were all incidental to any strife. It was the principle of the thing that is truly great. It devolves upon us now to see that their blood was not shed in vain.

"However it may have been at the beginning, men are not all free and equal now. The veterans here to-day may remember with unspeakable pride the fact that they made the greatest step in the history of the world towards the true realization of that principle, but there is still much to be done, wrongs almost as grave as that swept away by the emancipation proclamation are to be combated.

"If this is indeed to be a country of the people, for the people, and by the people, certain changes will have to be made in the existing order of things. There is no one here, outside of the children, who has not heard or read of the falsities of the representatives of the people, of the heartless, grasping greed of the monster corporations that aim at the vitals of our national being, of the treachery, perversion the systematic stealing, the criminal inattention to their real duty that is everywhere apparent in the men that we have elected to work for in the high places."

Monuments.

I often have enquiries about Tomb Stones and Monuments. I write this to the readers of the CHRONICLE to inform them that I have accepted the local agency of The Coggins Marble Co., of Canton Georgia. The Georgia marble is known to be the best marble in this country. And the work turned out by the Coggins Company, for art and beauty, cannot be excelled. We will take pleasure in showing you cuts of many different designs, ranging in price from $25 to $700. Prices are made on the stones being set up at the grave.

I believe I can save you money in buying. As well, I give you a home agency to patronize.

Fraternally,
WILSON C. ROGERS,

TEXAS FARMERS

Located in the Panhandle Country constitute a vast proportion of those who are out of debt, possess an abundance of all that is necessary to comfort and easy hours, and own

Bank Accounts.

Those who are not so fortunate should profit by past experiences and recognize that these conditions are possible in

as no where else for the reason that no other section now offers

Really High-Class Lands at Low Prices

and that the Agricultural and Stock-farming possibilities of this section are the equal of, and in some respects better than three to five times higher priced property located elsewhere.

In a word: Many magnificent opportunities are still open here to those possessing but little money, but prompt investigation and are advisable, as speculators have investigated and are fast purchasing with a knowledge of quickly developing opportunities to sell to others at greatly increased prices
