Wonderful Growth of Galveston's Business.

The Galveston News of Sept. 1 contains a synopsis of the commerce of the port of Galveston for the trade year just closed which shows, among others, the breaking of the following records:

- Value of foreign exports.
- Value of foreign imports.
- Value of cotton exported.
- Amount of packing house products exported.
- Amount of corn exported.
- Exports of animals.
- Value of lumber exported.
- Bank clearings.
- Custom house receipts.
- Amount of foreign tonnage.

Among the features of the year were the development of Galveston beach by the spending of thousands of dollars to turn it into a regular Coney Island, and the coming of the new Brownsville Railroad.

With the increase of the amount of cotton marketed through Galveston, the Galveston spot market is becoming a dominant feature. The Texas cotton crop for 1905-06 amounted to 2,521,885 bales, compared with 2,873,337 bales for 1904-05. Galveston's cotton receipts for the past year were 2,674,575 bales, compared with 2,879,336 bales for 1904-05. The percentage, as compared with the Texas crop, marketed at Galveston was 100.6. The percentage of the Texas and Territories crops marketed at Galveston was 83.3.

Bank clearings for the year just closed were $638,740,000, an increase of $95,240,000 over previous years.

Value of foreign exports through Galveston, $166,239,884, increase of $40,117,547.

Total value of cotton and by-products, $144,063,247, increase of $30,719,535.

Total value of provisions exported, $2,424,623, increase of $1,124,800.

Total value of breadstuffs exported, $11,255,019, increase of $8,366,132.

Total value of animals exported, $1,733,453, increase of $84,765.

Total value of woods exported, $3,178,078, increase of $692,804.

Total value of oils exported, $3,417,614, increase of $1,513,647.

Value of foreign imports, dutiable, $1,280,104, compared with $902,750 of the preceding year.

Total value of foreign goods handled at Galveston, $6,229,946, increase of $732,784.

The total foreign and coastwise vessels entering and clearing, 1,693, with a tonnage of 3,731,765.

Custom house receipts, $527,685; increase, $142,786.

Galveston is served by twenty-nine steamship lines in the foreign trade.

Amount spent in Government improvements, $487,819.

Amount spent in public and private improvements, $2,065,707.

Galveston holds first place in the world in exportation of cotton, first place in the exportation of cotton seed products, second place in value of foreign exports, eighth place among ocean and gulf ports in all import matters, and thirteenth place among customs districts.

Galveston has a total seawall protection of 4 3/4-100 miles, extending completely around the Gulf side of the city. It is estimated that the city's filling is about 45 per cent completed. The cost of the seawall and grade raising is $3,505,040. When the private improvements necessitated by the grade raising are included, the cost of seawall and grade raising is placed at $5,250,000.

One hundred and six thousand and ninety-one loaded cars were handled in the yards of the Galveston Wharf Company by the various railroads, compared with 93,151 for the previous year.

Immigration through the port of Galveston has been the heaviest in the history of the port. Galveston has become noted both as a summer and winter resort and the excursion travel to Galveston during the past year exceeded all previous years.

Bryan Still After Sullivan.

Bryan made two speeches in Chicago Tuesday. In one of these he went after Roger Sullivan, a national committeeman, whose resignation Mr. Bryan had demanded, but who was endorsed by the recent state convention, which also declared itself in favor of Mr. Bryan as the next Democratic nominee for President.

Mr. Bryan not only scored Sullivan and his political methods unmercifully, but informed the Democrats present, many of whom were delegates to the recent state convention, that if they accepted Mr. Sullivan they could not endorse him in any way. He informed them emphatically that he would have none of the approval of the Democrats of Illinois and that he repudiated their recent indorsement of him.

Speaking of Illinois' indorsement of Sullivan he said:

"The question now is, what can the Democracy of Illinois do to register its protest against the kind of politics for which Mr. Sullivan stands. This is the question in which I, as a Democrat, am interested, for the question in Illinois will arise in all other states where the corporations endeavor to obtain control of the party organization.

"What is the objection to Mr. Sullivan? He is a high official in a franchise holding corporation which is constantly seeking favors at the hands of the government. He is familiar with all the methods employed by corporations to gain from the national and state governments special privileges and favors. I hold that no man who is officially connected with a corporation that is seeking privileges ought to act as a member of a political organization because he cannot represent his corporation and the people at the same time.

"I am opposed to allowing a man situated as he is to use the public treasury to pay the debts that he owes to those who help corporations to take advantage of the public, and therefore I insist that the fight should be commenced today to prevent his re-election to the national committee. And what I say of him I say of aspirants for positions in the party organizations in other states. If the Democratic party had not virtue enough to spew out those who traffic in politics for the advantage of the corporations to which they belong, it does not deserve victory nor can it hope for it.

"If they say I have no right to interfere in the politics of this state, I reply that I am simply applying to Illinois a principle which I believe ought to be applied universally. I do not regard it as a compliment to be indorsed for the presidency by a convention which indorsed Mr. Sullivan. I told them in advance that I should not want an indorsement under such circumstances and I repudiate it. If my nomination for any office depended upon that indorsement, I would not accept it.

"Mr. Sullivan is not my friend, although he pretended to be before this discussion arose. He would not have allowed me to be indorsed if he could have prevented it; but instead of opposing me like a man, he attempted to link his name with mine and thus secure an indorsement for himself.

"Those who voted to indorse me were either deceived themselves or thought they could deceive me. If they were deceived they will be glad to be undeceived; if they thought to deceive me, they will have more respect for me when they find that they did not succeed.

"I suggest that every candidate for office who wants the people to have confidence in him should announce that he is opposed to Mr. Sullivan's methods, that he repudiates his leadership and will oppose his re-election. I do not hesitate to express the opinion that no man running on the Democratic ticket in Illinois is entitled to the support of Democrats in this crisis who either stands with Mr. Sullivan, or is afraid to oppose him. It is not the time for cowards. There are times when men can slide into office by dodging issues, but when the life of the party and its chances for success depend upon establishing its character, those who are not with the people are against them, and those who refuse to speak out must expect their silence to be construed as acquiescence in corporate domination."

Senator Bailey has again shown his petulance by getting up and leaving Madison Square garden when Bryan reached the government ownership part of his speech. He gave it out in New York that he was thoroughly disgusted with Bryan and that he would refuse to attend the reception at Louisville next Wednesday to which he was honored with an invitation. When Mr. Bailey cannot be the whole "it" in his party it grates heavily on his feelings.

W. D. Fossett, former United States marshal of Oklahoma, has been granted a license to sell liquor at Waurika, a small town in the southeastern part of Comanche county, Ok. His past experience has learned him something as to the profits and trickery of the business.

Texas is having to pay 30 per cent more on its printing contracts than she did last year.

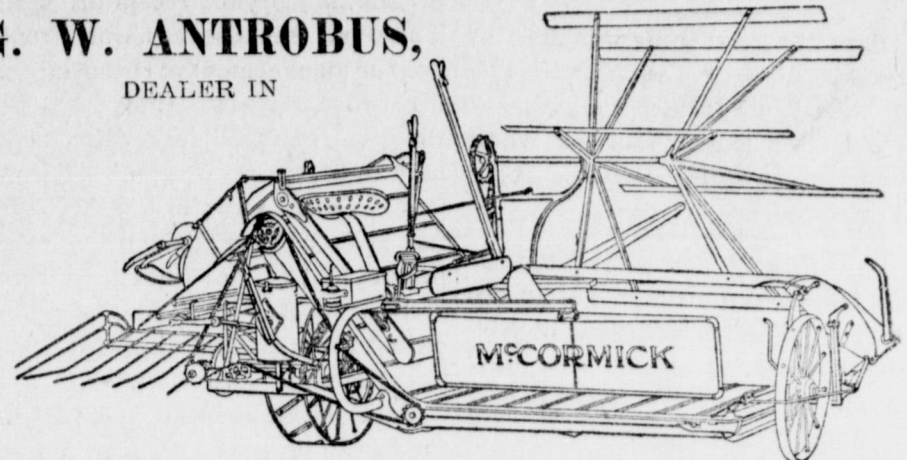

Mrs. Swearinger has returned from Mineral Wells.

W. E. Jones, of Claude, was down yesterday on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. French.

Mr. George Melton, who lived east of town and who was sick for a long time, died Thursday evening. Rev. Rogers conducted the funeral at the baptist church yesterday and the final burial service was conducted by the Woodmen.

The Clarendon Chronicle.

Published Twice-a-Week by
W. P. BLAKE, Editor and Proprietor.
 Entered February 10, 1903, at Clarendon, Tex., as Second class matter, under Act of Congress
 March 3, 1879.

CLARENDON, TEX., SEP. 8 1906.

This is the year when the Panhandle farmer will have hayseed in his hair and cash in his pocket as well.

A pretty good thing was done by stock holders of the Mutual Life of New York when they ousted Rockefeller, Rogers and the whole Standard oil crowd from the board of directors.

Resources of Texas, is the name of a 16-page publication gotten out by H. L. Bentley and Sons of Abilene, descriptive of that and surrounding country. Mr. Bentley has been in that country 22 years, and, of course, can "tell all about it." Abilene has a 25,000 club, who wisely uses this publication to push the development of that country. In these latter days not much advancement can be made without the free use of printer's ink, and Abilene has "caught on."

Augustus Riley, 74 years old, clerk in the war department, whose salary is $1,200 a year, declares he has solved the problem of economical and healthy living. For the last five years his expenditure for food has been $4.11 a month, or a fraction more than 12 cents a day. He declares he has plenty to eat and that his favorite foods are apples, eggs and rice. He states that he lives well. He is a well proportioned, healthy specimen of manhood. He never takes intoxicating liquors and does not use coffee. A man who can economize in such way in Washington need have no fears of starving anywhere on earth.

Nevada still allows disgraceful prize fights within her borders, to which the dissipated, the sluggers, the gamblers and disreputables flock to see, and gloat over. The last was at Goldfields Tuesday, between Joe Gans, a negro 30 years old, and Battling Nelson, a Dane 24 years old. They slugged away at each other for 42 rounds before 7000 mongrels of like character who had put up $78,000. The negro was declared the victor on a foul. The negro broke his right hand in the third round, but the endurance of both was remarkable. The rules of the ring were frequently violated, but the referee said the people were there to see a fight and he would not disappoint them by stopping it. There is only one redeeming feature in the affair and that is that the decision was given to the negro. Any pretending white man who will stoop to a match with a negro should be walloped all over and lose the stakes, as well as the respect of all whites.

Of the 227 cases filed in the present 17th district court in Fort Worth 118 are for divorce. More for divorce than for all other causes put together. Life on the Fort Worth matrimonial sea must run pretty "rocky."

Tom Johnson, mayor of Cleveland, O., believes Bryan's Federal railroad ideas will force the republican presidential nomination upon Roosevelt. Johnson says for every democrat who leaves the party on account of the ownership plank ten recruits will come from other parties. He predicts Bryan will run against Roosevelt.

Many a man goes down town and pays a dollar to hear a lecture to avoid hearing a free one at home.

Reverent sons will become reverend fathers.

Jealous Politicians.

The discord and personal feeling between democratic leaders does not indicate a united party, by any means. The Bryan and anti Bryan factions are drawing a marked line in national affairs, while the different state leaders have all sorts of differences.

It is announced now that Gov. Folk will not show himself at the St. Louis Bryan reception next Tuesday, because Senator Stone has the management of the meeting. Mr. Stone says the affair will be the greatest Democratic rally ever held in St. Louis without exception. This, notwithstanding the fact that Gov. Folk will not be present. The governor's private secretary, Hal Woodside, has admitted as much and the Governor is expected to state why.

Folk played a conspicuous part in the Bryan reception in New York, which Stone did not attend, although he appointed the Missouri delegation. Politicians are guessing why it is that when Folk goes Stone stays away, and vice versa. The coincidence is believed to have some significance on the coming Senatorial race two years hence.

Panhandle Farmers' Congress.

F. W. Zimmerman, secretary of the Panhandle Farmers' Congress, is busy arranging plans for the big meeting here next week. The congress will open Monday afternoon at 2:00 p. m. and will continue on Tuesday and Wednesday.

The session will be held in the court house, which will be fittingly decorated with Panhandle products. Speakers of state and national note will address the gatherings on special topics and discussion of agricultural problems will be encouraged.

Among others, the following well known men will make addresses or read papers during the congress:

Colonel Aaron Coffey of McKinney will speak on "The Hog as a Mortgage Lifter."

Prof. J. H. Connell of Dallas president of the Texas Farmers, congress, will make an address on "Control of prices on Farm Products."

J. J. Egerton, of Channing, will read a paper on "Cattle Feeding in the Panhandle."

R. E. Smith of Sherman, the "alfalfa king of Texas," will speak on "Alfalfa, Livestock and Prosperity."

Hon. Alf Rector, of Marshall, Mo., will tell "What a Missourian Saw in the Panhandle."

A. H. Leidigh, of the experiment station will discuss crop and soil conditions.

H. M. Campbell, the original dry farming man will give talks on farming conditions in the Panhandle.

Besides these speakers other men will deliver addresses and make short talks. The full programme has not yet been arranged and in addition to the men on the list, the discussions will bring forth much interesting experiences.

The committee in charge is especially desirous that a full showing be made during the congress. Farmers who can bring good specimens of Panhandle products or display are urged to bring them for use at the meeting. Every farmer can make a contribution and the result will be a complete and striking display.

School supplies of all kinds at Fleming & Bromley's. Special attention to country orders.

LAND FOR SALE—469 acres patented, windmill, 70 acres in cultivation, 8 m. S. E. of Clarendon, $6.50 per acre.

A. W. WISMAN

Fresh bread and rolls every eve, baked at home by home people, at Rutherford & Adair's saddle shop.

Same Here.

It is hard to tell which we hear the more grumbling about of late, the rains or the shows, they both come in for a good share. It seems that Quanah is fairly flooded with shows, for the past two weeks there has hardly been a night that there wasn't some kind of a show in town.—Quanah Observer.

The Farmers Union will try its hand on combining this year. In their meeting this week at Texarkana they voted to hold cotton for eleven cents. This pledges 650,000 farmers to hold for that price.

Don't forget that the Clarendon Bakery is baking again. Salesroom at Rutherford & Adair's.

A deal has been closed at Tascosa whereby Lrndergin Brothers have sold 35,000 acres of land to Chicago capitalists for $210,000.

The Childress Post has been sold by Mr. Denny to D. S. Carroway.

Childress school opened with 417 scholars present.

Quanah public school opened with 335 pupils.

Childress.

Mrs. T. J. Davis left last evening for a visit to Denver and other Colorado points.

Joe Crews, an old citizen of Childress, but now of Georgetown, Texas, was visiting here last week.

Miss Ray Fields who has been visiting Miss Mit Fields returned to her home in Cheyenne, Oklahoma, last Wednesday night.

Three fights or attempts to fight is the record for this week, on Monday a gun play and ruing match and yesterday two old men scrapping.

Mart McCracken, of Paladuro, was a caller Wednesday. For several weeks he and a dozen other men have been fencing for the J A ranch down on Bitter creek. He says the Brice gin is about ready for business and cotton is opening. The Sachses who recently settled there from Dallas county have a fine cotton crop.

College Notes.

Reported for THE CHRONICLE.

The second week of College work has closed leaving faculty and students feeling that the result so far is very satisfactory. Arranging the program so that all students can be accommodated is always a work of great difficulty. This has been satisfactorily accomplished after many efforts, and the regular work is progressing nicely.

As was predicted, one of the most popular classes in the college work is the Spanish class under Dr. Mood. This is a large class and a most enthusiastic one.

Prof. Quigley spent a night in Amarillo this week, making a business trip between trains.

An unusually large number of students have enrolled for the Senior class this year.

Mrs. Easum of Amarillo visited at the Dormitory the first of the week, bringing with her her daughter, Mabel, whom she placed in school.

New pupils continue to arrive almost daily. We find a most gratifying interest in the College in all directions.

Base ball is very much the order of the day among the College boys. Prof. Quigley's suggestion that an athletic club be organized met a most hearty response and money was quickly forthcoming for balls and bats and everything necessary.

W. P. McMicken and his sister, Miss Rebecca, were called home last Friday by a message, that their father was very sick, although they left at once, he died before they reached home. The sincerest sympathy of their friends is with them. They returned to school a few days later.

The College people have enjoyed visits from J. E. King, V. H. Trammel and D. B. Doak, alumni of the Institution, during the past week.

The special teachers in all departments report very gratifying classes and splendid interest.

The various Societies met in their respective halls last Friday and began the new year's work. The Panhandle Society elected the following officers:

Pres., Lester Sheffy; Vice Pres., D. A. Neeley, secretary, K. H. Anderson, treas., Ernest Wilson, chaplain, Charlie Doak, sergeant-at-arms, Henry Pipkin, critic, Will McMicken. The Adkissonians elected for President John Arnold, Vice Pres., Kenneth Bain, secretary, Roy Wilson, treas., Jno. Baily, critic, Harwood Beville, Censor Morem, Herman Gibson, Sergeant-at-arms, Hugh Arnold, att'y., Robert Lutrick, chaplain, Geo Palmer.

A deputy sheriff from Canyon City was here this week looking for two men and two young women, the latter about 18 and 20 years old, who took advantage of the absence from home of the people around Canyon during the Reunion, and burglarized a number of houses of clothing, tableware and other articles. The two women travel in a dilapidated buggy, behind the two wagons and drive either a dun swaybacked horse, or a bay one. One of the wagons has a long, brown, hack-shaped cover. A reward of $50 is offered for their capture.

Producing Classes Should Unite.

Wm. R. Hearst made a speech Monday to the Trades Assembly at Syracuse, N. Y., in which he said: "The producing classes should stand shoulder to shoulder in the struggle against exploiting corporations. I have been a member of the labor committee in the house of representatives, and I know the attitude of the corporations on the labor question.

"The insincerity of these corporation attorneys before the committee has been made clear to me in several ways. I have seen attorneys for protected interests appear before the labor committee and ask for cheap labor in order to compete successfully in foreign markets, and I have seen these same attorneys on the same day step right across the hall to the committee on ways and means and ask for higher protection, in order to pay higher wages.

"The laws are made to favor the corporations, and they are largely made by attorneys for the corporations. Judge Parker, a typical corporation attorney, says there are enough laws, and that the people do not need or desire any more. I say there are more than enough wrong kinds of laws. I do not advocate a strictly labor union party. I do not urge class distinction, but the abolishment of it.

"My programme is not Socialism or radicalism or extreme of any kind. I call it Americanism. And to my mind it is simply a plan to put into practical operation the plan of government.

"I believe American labor should be protected against Chinese labor and against the entering wedge of oriental conditions. If American men were able to fight in the tropics they are able to work in the tropics if properly paid and properly cared for.

"I believe the tariff should be modified and public ownership inaugurated, but that both should be done cautiously and conservatively. I believe in the restraint and regulation of trusts and monopolies by law. I believe in the prison penalty for the respectable representative of criminal combinations.

"I believe in the direct responsibility of all representatives to the people and in terms of office so short that this responsibility will never be forgotten."

Why do girls wear engagement rings? "On the same principle that a person ties a string around his finger—so they don't forget they're engaged."—Answers.

Celestial item. "De reason," said Brother Williams, "that you never see a angel with a mustache is—de men has sich a close shave ter git dar!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Call money went up to 30 per cent in New York Tuesday and to 40 next day.

J. W. Johnson, a stockman of Milo, I. T., reports that he has lost recently forty head of cattle from tick fever. His cattle sicken, the ears droop and in from five to six days weaken in the loins until they become helpless. After the cattle get down they live only two days.

Early New England Books Rare. The recent discovery in England of a copy of the long lost Massachusetts laws of 1648, printed in Cambridge, and its sale to E. Dwight Church, of Brooklyn, for a price said to exceed $5,000, reminds the collectors of the interesting fact that the earliest works printed in New England are among the world's rarest books and are rapidly becoming as valuable as the earliest imprints of William Caxton, England's first printer.

Remarkable Metaphor. The English women suffragists have contributed besides other things to the gayety of nations a remarkable mixed metaphor. One of these strenuous ladies, speaking of the lack of interest of women in their rights, said: "As yet it is but a flea bite on the ocean, but let us arise in all our strength and nip it in the bud. We have seen too much not to know where the boto pinches."

Few Timepieces in Abyssinia. As regards timepieces, the Abyssinian market has been practically neglected. It has not yet become a fashion among the natives to carry watches, and what few clocks are seen in the local shops are chiefly of the cheap alarm type, in nickel, and of German, French, Belgian or American origin. Gold and silver watches are scarcely to be found anywhere.—Horological Review.

A Creeping Conifer. When planting on rock work an evergreen of a creeping habit is often very valuable. The best creeping conifer is the savin. There are a number of forms of the creeping juniper, mainly varieties of the common juniper and this species. Its color is a beautiful shade of deep green, and it has a free and graceful habit of growing.—Garden Magazine.

Chapter of Accidents. Pain's farm, Cophorne, was burned to the ground yesterday. On receiving the call the Crawley fire brigade started ringing the alarm bell, which broke and crashed down on the roof. When the brigade arrived at the fire it was found that the nearest water was nearly half a mile away, and when eventually the connection was made the hose burst.—London Express.

The Old and the New. The man who gives up the morning paper foregoes reading news 12 to 24 hours old. The man who gives up his afternoon paper loses the news fresh as it happens.—Memphis News-Scimitar.

Mean Insinuation. "Why do girls wear engagement rings?" "On the same principle that a person ties a string around his finger—so they don't forget they're engaged."—Answers.

Celestial item. "De reason," said Brother Williams, "that you never see a angel with a mustache is—de men has sich a close shave ter git dar!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Woman's Status Raised.

The last century has done much for woman. It has taught the thinking world that woman is more than property, more than a toy, more than a home maker. She is placed on earth to be man's comrade and his source of highest inspiration—a soul that loves and awakens love—that divine spark which makes the whole world one.

Man's Lack of Chivalry.

From the beginning the "excuse of Adam": "The woman whom thou gavest to me to be with me, she tempted me," has been a favorite one with all mankind. "Cherchez la femme" is the old French proverb. "There is never a bit of mischief but a petticoat is at the bottom of it," says the old English version of the same maxim.

Ancient Enamelled Ornaments. Enamelled ornaments were among the treasured possessions of the Greeks, Etruscans and Byzantines, and the art was also recognized by ancient nations less cultured.

Discovered. "A whole lot of people," remarked the observer of events and things, "never really know what pate de fole gras was until this Packingtown business came to light."

Ores Absorb Much Moisture. Recent tests have shown that ores of lead and iron may absorb more than three per cent. of their own weight in moisture.

Experiments in Cheap Living. A reverend gentleman of New York, who has been described as the "house-top evangelist," announces as the result of an experiment conducted on himself while working in the harvest field—not the harvest of souls, but of wheat—that he found six cents' worth of food per diem sufficient to sustain life. We can beat that in San Francisco, where the daily emergency ration issued to refugees averages in cost four cents. The house-top gospel must get off the roof.—San Francisco Call.

SPECIAL CLUBBING OFFER. Every man should subscribe to his local paper, because from it he secures a class of news and useful information that he can get nowhere else. He should, however, also subscribe to a first-class general newspaper. Such a newspaper is The Dallas Semi-Weekly News. Thousands of its readers proclaim it the best general newspaper in the world. Its secret of success is that it gives the farmer and his family just what they want in the way of a family newspaper. It furnishes all the news of the world twice a week. It has a splendid pace where the farmers write their practical experiences on the farm. It is like attending an immense farmers' institute. It has pages especially gotten up for the wife, for the boys and for the girls. It gives the latest market reports. In short, it gives a combination of news and in structure reading matter that can be secured in no other way. For $1.75 cash in advance, we will send The Semi-Weekly News and The CLARENDON CHRONICLE. Each for one year. This means you will get a total of 208 copies. It's a combination which can't be beat, and you will secure your money's worth many times over. Subscribe at once at the office of this paper.
