CLARENDON, DONLEY COUNTY TEXAS SATURDAY, MARCH 16, 1907,

No 22

STATE NEWS.

Willie Ceer, an 11-year-old boy at Eagle Ford, cut a tree down on himself, and, as a result of his injuries, died Wednesday.

Green bugs have made a clean sweep of wheat fields in that part of Denton county, adjacent to Justin. Last year that town received 120,000 bushels.

Mrs. Christiana Finger, who was the mother of Former Land Commissioner George W. Finger, now deceased, died at Arlington Tuesday. Mrs. Finger was 89 years of age.

For the first time in 48 years Mrs. A. J. Alexander, of Whitesboro, Tex., and Mrs. Adeline Cobb, of West Plains, Mo., met at Hobart, Ok., Tuesday at the residence of A. J. Stewart, their nephew. Each had thought the other dead.

Mrs. P. D. Fralin, four miles south of Denton, was knocked down and badly gored by a bull Monday while in the cow pen. Her arm was broken, shoulder blade crushed and face and body bruised. She is 50 years old, but will likely recover.

Two freight trains on the Central met in a head end collision near Thornton Tuesday and considerable damage was done. Fortunately no one was killed, but two brakemen, Stoner Bell and Hugh Brooks, both of Ennis, were injured but not seriously.

George and Len Gribble and B. R. Hector, the men charged with setting a bulldog on a printer, Legon Carlin, a short time ago, while he was passing thru the country and also with forcing him to saw wood, pleaded guilty in the county court to aggravated assault today and were fined $500 each and placed in jail. Charges of these imprisonment are still pending against them. The court room was full of people. Carlin was badly chewed up.

This week Sheriff H. M. Denny, of Otero county, N. M., arrested at Estes City William Mitchell, alias Henry Russell, a stockman, charged with murder committed in Hood county, Texas, 33 years ago. It is alleged that Mitchell allowed his aged father to be convicted and hanged for the crime in 1874, upon the testimony of a rancher, who recently admitted on his death-bed that the old man was innocent of the crime and who said that the son was the guilty man. Mitchell, senior, was 80 years of age when he was executed. Mitchell has been taken to the county jail at Alamogordo to await the arrival of officers from Texas.

A French battleship, Jena, was blown up Tuesday by the explosion of a torpedo, which set off the powder magazine. Seventy or eighty men, including the commander, were killed outright or burned to death and several hundred men were wounded. It occurred at Toulon.

With a long white beard, a man, bent and tottering and dressed in a red gown, created considerable excitement at McAllester, I. T., Tuesday. He proclaimed himself the rightful successor of "Elijah" Dowie and at the station insisted on getting on the private car of the railroad officials of the Katy and explaining things. He became violent and it was found necessary to place him in jail.

Two million dollars loss in the lower Panhandle from the depredations of the green bugs on the wheat and oats crop is a pretty heavy calamity, but the lower Panhandle can recover from it quicker than any other country on earth. —Ft. Worth Telegram.

Culberson Discredit's Medical Testimony.

Washington, March 12.—Senator Culberson admits that he has not a high opinion of the value of expert medical testimony, discussing the Thaw case today, and especially the testimony of the experts relating to insanity and "brainstorms." Senator Culberson said: "The first criminal case of importance in which I was engaged with older counsel was that of a negro named Adam Teteflair, who was indicted for the murder of another negro near Jefferson, Tex. The state proved by direct and circumstantial testimony that the defendant knocked the deceased off of a mule with a huge stick and killed him. The theory of defense was that the deceased was thrown from the mule and killed. Two physicians testified for the defense that they had examined the body of the deceased, and that he had caries of the vertebrae, a gradual disintegration of the bones, which caused death in the fall from the mule. This testimony of learned men greatly impressed not only the counsel for the defense, but also the court and jury, and the verdict was only for murder in the second degree, with two years in the penitentiary.

"That afternoon I went with the senior counsel to the jail to consult Adams about a motion for a new trial, when it was explained to him that while under the law of Texas he could not on another trial be convicted of higher offense of murder in the second degree, yet the jury might send him to the penitentiary for a longer term than two years. He said: 'Excuse me, gentlemen, it's all right, maybe 'bout dat caries of de bones, but I knows mo dan dem doctors how dat nigger was killed. Thanking you and beggin' your pardon, I'll serve dem two years at Huntsville.' Since then my faith in expert medical testimony has not been so great."

Negro Mail Clerk Trouble.

The postoffice department does not intend to draw the color line in the matter of white and negro railroad mail clerks working together on the same runs. Although an intimation has been given the superintendent of the railway mail service that white clerks in the middle west are preparing to request the department to effect a change so as to put the negroes on runs which will not bring them in proximity to the whites, it was stated that no such discrimination could or would be made.

The particular objection which it is said the white clerks have in the association with negroes on long runs is that they are obliged to eat and sleep in the same car, the regulations of the department permitting a clerk on such a run when his work is up to rest. At certain terminals there is provided dormitories in public buildings where the clerks may stay if they see fit to do so, but these are open to the negro clerks as well as the whites and the department does not see wherein it has any province in the matter.

Pensions Galore.

Washington, March 11.—Commissioner of Pensions Warner stated today that 185,000 applications for pension has been filed under the service-pension law enacted during the last month of the session of Congress just closed. The Commissioner estimated that 300,000 applications will be embraced under the new law, which allows the granting of a pension for service in the Mexican and Civil wars at the rate of $12 a month to veterans 62 years old, $15 to those 65 and $20 to those 70 years old.

Against Street Preaching.

Police Chief Maddox, of Fort Worth, issued an order against holding services on Main and Houston streets, and Tuesday night several of the leaders of such services were arrested.

On being taken to the station a charge of obstructing the sidewalks was filed against Captain Mayfield, of the Christian Volunteer Army, and he was immediately admitted to bond.

Owing to the fact that the Salvation Army captain held a permit issued by Chief Allen, of the detective department, permitting him to hold street services on Main and Houston, no charges were filed against him, but he was warned to avoid the use of these streets in the future.

Wednesday the case against Mayfield was set for trial Friday. Mayfield has secured the services of attorneys and announces that he will fight the charge to the last. The constitutionality of the order of the chief will be attacked.

In speaking of the matter Chief Maddox said that he had issued the order restraining the Salvation Army and the Christian Volunteer Army from using Main and Houston streets for the purpose of holding services, inasmuch as he had been requested by numerous citizens to make such a move. He said that when services are held on the two main thoroughfares of the city traffic is impeded to such an extent that it is often necessary for the street cars to stop, and those who are in vehicles are compelled to drive to the other side of the street. He also said that the sidewalks are blocked to such an extent that at times it is impossible for people to gain entrance to the business houses without the greatest difficulty.

"I have no objection to the holding of services on the side streets," said Chief Maddox, "as long as the merchants do not protest, but inasmuch as the business men on Main and Houston streets are opposed to this practice it must be stopped, and I will do it if the courts will uphold me."

Wednesday night when the members of both organizations were at the police station they decided to hold services there. They prayed for the chief of police, the mayor and members of the police department. After praying, a song service was held.

Another excursion date has passed and hundreds of strangers from the north and east have visited the Panhandle. Many have invested in Panhandle farms, and many more went home, converts to this country of sunshine, fine soil and good crops and cheap lands, and will return to make this locality their future home.—Daily Panhandle.

Alfalfa and corn are the two great feed crops that ought to be on every farm. They feed well together and alfalfa sod is the best kind of fertilizer for corn.—Farm and Ranch.

A huge icicle dropped from the cliffs of the Niagara Gorge onto a trolley car Tuesday. The motor-man was killed. Dr. and Mrs. M. B. Nery, of Sioux City, Ia., and Miss Nery were badly bruised, and S. C. Lindsay and wife, of Pittsburg, Pa., were hurt.

While fighting a fire at Kaw City, Ok., Monday Charles Yeoman was pierced through the heart by a bullet from an exploded cartridge in the building and he died instantly.

Over in Arkansas the legislature is enterprising with another trust. They will require their doctors to write their prescriptions in plain English.

Dr. Jameson Killed.
Dr. Adams Jameson, ex-commissioner of lands at Johannesburg, Transvaal, was killed with 12 other persons Tuesday night in a wreck of a train at Alkmaar on the Delagoa line, due to a washout.

This is a picture of Dr. Jameson, whose raid into the Transvaal a few years ago resulted so disastrously to his command. Seventeen of his men were killed and 49 wounded. The remainder were captured by Commandant T. A. Cronje.

Roads Will Retaliate.

The Railway Journal, presumably speaking for the roads, says:

"It is the general opinion that freight rates will be advanced. Passenger rates are being forced down by state legislation and wages are being increased, hence it is only logical that freight rates should advance."

Because the Nebraska legislature has reduced the fares in that state to 2c per mile, the Union Pacific has taken off two trains which are claimed to be the finest trains of the kind in the country, the Los Angeles Limited, the two brag trains of the Overland route.

An annual meeting of the directors of the Wichita Valley and Wichita Falls and Oklahoma railroads was held in Wichita Falls Tuesday. Frank Trumbull is chairman of the board. The following officers were elected: Morgan Jones, president; D. B. Keeler, vice-president; S. E. Ragsdale, secretary, and L. G. Allen, treasurer. The roads are now operating as a part of the Fort Worth and Denver.

At Chickasha, I. T., Tuesday a car load of beer was seized and 7,848 bottles destroyed.

Railway junkets are still in vogue with the lawmakers. Wednesday both branches accepted the invitation from Mayor Harris and the other citizens of Fort Worth to attend the fat stock show at Fort Worth this month. The invitation was presented in the house by Baskin and by Senator Alexander in the senate.

There are various ways of looking at the thing. The Chicago Journal, for instance, reminds us that "the people of the United States have given $32,000,000 to the general education board but they didn't know it until John D. Rockefeller told them about it." This will not be so bad if John D. does not think that he has given it himself and assess us all again to recoup the amount.

Stocks and bonds, especially railway stocks, took a big slump on the New York market Wednesday, and it was little better Thursday. Financiers are not offering many explanations. Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou lent his aid by announcing that the $30,000,000 which was deposited in national banks the last of September, to be returned about the beginning of March, would not be called for at present. Beyond saying that he was keeping a close watch on the situation at New York, Secretary Cortelyou would not indicate what his further plans were.

Legislators "blowed in" a large part of the time in which they drew $5 a day. Now let them get down to work and make good before they force an extra session, and in that way demonstrate to the people that the "servant is worthy of his hire." —Corsicana Sun.

All well said, but will they do it? Extra session talk is freely engaged in, and the platform demands and pre-election promises have hardly been touched, whether "worthy or unworthy of their hire."

Some alleged democrats and democratic papers are doing all in their power to thwart the attorney general in his efforts to bring the trusts to law. —Coolidge Ledger.

You mean members of the political machine and machine organs. Those are the ones who have alleged the attorney general was a member of a great political conspiracy. —Telegram.

W. J. Bryan thinks the trusts could be cured by denying them the use of the United States mails. This all might be true, but one of the trusts, the express company would likely volunteer to overcome a little difficulty like that.

The man who says advertising don't pay is the man who don't advertise.

You may be sure that if you do not feel yourself growing in your work, and your life broadening and deepening, if your task is not a perpetual tonic to you, you have not found your place. If your work is drudgery to you, if you are always longing for the dinner hour, or the closing hour, to release you from the work that bores you, you may be sure that you have not found your niche. Unless you go to your task with delight greater than that with which you leave it, it belongs to some other person. —Success.

An Indian girl of more than local reputation is Kiowa Annie, who owns one of the handsomest shawls in the United States. She was ten years in making this handsome garment and spent $1,250 for material. It is a beautiful creation, and she is said to have received $5,000 for it.

The house Tuesday killed Representative Wolf's joint resolution to amend the state constitution so as to prevent members of the legislatures interested in any corporation to vote on any measure in which said corporation may be interested. The vote stood 76 for and 20 against, taking 89 votes, or two-thirds, to carry.

LEGISLATIVE.

Tuesday the following house bills passed finally:

A bill levying a tax of 15c on each $100 valuation for jury purposes.

A bill prohibiting district clerks from receiving more than one salary when there is more than one district court in one county.

A bill requiring all corporations to permit the attorney general to inspect books, papers and vouchers of corporations doing business in Texas.

A bill protecting fruit and truck shippers against irresponsible commission merchants.

The state auditor's bill, to suggest a better method of keeping books in the state departments.

A bill making the "Jim Crow" car law apply to street cars and cars on interurban lines.

A bill prohibiting the shooting of craps and other games of chance anywhere.

Veale's bill providing for the removal of the track of the Santa Fe from Panhandle to Washburn was reported favorable Tuesday by the house committee on common carriers.

Lieut. Gov. Davidson appointed Senators Skinner, Veale and Faust as members of the committee to arrange for Mr. Bryan's reception and speech.

Brown, of Wharton, created a sensation Wednesday by denouncing the Dallas convention as the black hole of Calcutta, and snapping his fingers at the democratic platform. He said he voted for as much of it as suited his constituents and the balance could go to the dogs.

Senator Alexander introduced a bill in the senate providing for the appointment by the governor of a commission of three, learned in law, to revise, digest and publish the laws, criminal and civil of the state.

Senator Stokes called up his bill providing for the loan of $150,000 from the permanent school fund at 5 per cent. per annum for the purpose of extending the railroad at the penitentiary at Rusk to a connection with the Texas and New Orleans railroad, providing also for equipment, rolling stock, etc. The bill was passed to engrossment and finally passed under suspension of the rule.

The following new bills have been introduced in the house:

By Hume—Amending the mechanic's lien act by adding thereto a lien in favor of mechanics, contractors and material men on oil well systems, tanks and reservoirs used in storing water, gas or oil.

By Bowman—Amending the law with reference to the maintenance of prisoners confined in county jails.

By McGregor—Prohibiting life insurance companies, any of whose officials, agents or employes receive more than $25,000 compensation per annum, from doing business in the state.

By McDonald—Providing that when any person has served a sentence in the penitentiary and it is afterward proved that he is innocent of the crime for which he was convicted, he shall be given reasonable compensation for the time served under sentence.

By Kenedy—A bill increasing the charter fees of private corporations of from about 35 to 50 per cent. more than the present rate, and providing that no official refusing to take out his commission shall be entitled to collect such fees.

House joint resolution by Jenkins providing that any incorporated city or city may mortgage any plant owned by same by a majority vote of the qualified voters and that the owner of the mortgage shall look to such plant for his money, and providing an easement for such city.

There is a bill passed to engrossment making it a fine from $5 to $25 for any student, of any age, of any school or college to buy liquor, or loiter about where it is sold.

A bill is pending to require hunters to have license to cost residents of the state to be $1, non-residents $5.

Elmer Leach at Waxahachie was fined $100 and given 20 days in jail Thursday for illegally selling whisky.

While burning cornstalks Wednesday near Atlanta Mrs. A. M. Rodgers was seriously burned about the body. Her condition is critical.

The legislature Wednesday adopted a resolution extending an invitation to United States Senator Charles A. Culberson to address the lawmakers during the present session.

An engine, pulling a gravel train on the Cotton Belt, near Grapevine, turned over Wednesday, and seriously, if not fatally, scalded Engineer Mays. The injured man was removed to the company's hospital at Texarkana as soon as possible.

A. G. Branham was found dead in Wichita Falls Wednesday morning with a wound in the temple from a .32 caliber pistol. He had been in Wichita Falls 12 months, coming from Fort Worth, where he was a resident for 20 years. He was a partner of E. M. Winfrey in a gun shop. Nothing was found on the body to verify the theory of suicide, though it is said that he had been suffering with stomach trouble for 15 or 16 years and was very despondent.

Blind Faith of Zionists.

Chicago, March 13.—Rachael Fisher, 26 years old, was seriously injured today in the crowd of people who thronged around the body of John Alexander Dowie at Zion City in the hope of being cured of their ailments by touching the hem of his shroud.

Miss Fisher, who is suffering from locomotor ataxia, kissed the hem of the shroud and then informed her father, who had carried her into the room, that she could walk. She pushed him away and attempted to descend a flight of steps leading to the outer air. She fell on the top step and rolled to the bottom where she was picked up unconscious and seriously bruised about the head and body.

She was only one of many who thronged into the house during the day. All of them sought relief from their ailments by touching the hem of the shroud.

Look at my show windows for many novelties not advertised in papers. Mrs. A. M. Beville. 2t

War on Sheeplemen.

The first of the week a band of 12 masked men raided a sheep camp in Wyoming belonging to David Dickie, overpowered the herder, drove 4,000 sheep into a ravine and there beat or shot them to death. The camp outfit was burned, following which the herder was driven away from the vicinity and threatened with death if he returned. Cattlemen who have been at outs with sheeplemen it is claimed are responsible for the outrage.

Ten days ago the ranch of J. A. Waisner, a sheepman, was also raided and 400 sheep killed. The cattlemen have marked out a "dead line." The war is expected to spread to other sheep camps in Wyoming and further serious trouble is expected to break out any time.

The Missouri legislature is now after the harvester and lumber trusts.

You can actually save money if you select your wall paper at Stocking's store.

Patrick J. Hines, who two seasons ago pitched for the St. Louis American League team, and who had signed with Milwaukee for the coming season, was shot in the head and killed Wednesday in a St. Louis saloon. A bartender, was arrested and charged with the killing. He declared he fired in self-defense.

ITALIAN IMMIGRANTS.

Large Number Are to Be Located in Texas on Farms.

Galveston, March 11.—B. F. Yoakum, chairman of the executive board of the Rock Island-Frisco system and other great railroad interests of the west and southwest, is back from an immigration enterprise in which Galveston is directly interested. The Yoakum interests are preparing to bring a large number of Italian farmers through the gateway of Galveston for settlement along the St. Louis, Brownsville and Mexico and other lines controlled by Mr. Yoakum. The immigration movement, which is well under way, has the approval of the Italian government.

BARBER BADLY BEATEN.

Rendered Unconscious, and So Remained For Some Time.

Texarkana, March 11.—Jim Scott, a negro barber, was knocked down and left for dead by three highwaymen while en route home. A blow on the head with a heavy piece of wood or iron made a wound three inches long and rendered him unconscious for some time. When he came to himself his pockets were turned and his assailants gone. They got nothing of value, as he had neither watch nor money with him at the time. Three arrests were made.

HEADS THE LIST.

All of the Grooms Children Were Born in Oklahoma.

Lawton, March 11.—President Roosevelt need feel no alarm at the race suicide proposition in Oklahoma when it can be related that the fourteenth child has been born to Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Grooms of near Snyder the past week. Mr. Grooms has a record of which no other Oklahoman has, and that is that all his children have been born within the boundaries of what is known as Oklahoma territory. Many of his married years were spent in Greer county, where most of the children were born.

KEPT THEM OFF.

Man Temporarily Insane Creates an Exciting Scene For a While.

Hugo, I. T., March 11.—A man temporarily insane, and while in charge of Deputy United States Marshal Miller, broke from the officer and caught a swiftly moving freight train. The train was stopped and for an hour the man, who had armed himself with a formidable iron bar, defied the Deputy marshal and 600 people. Finally, after much persuasion, he consented to allow Conductor Fred Campbell and brakeman A. K. Smith to board the car and talk the matter over, and they induced him to surrender.

He has prominent relatives, who were telegraphed.

TRAVELER HAS SMALLPOX.

Considerable Excitement Was Caused on Texas and Pacific Train.

Marshall, Tex., March 11.—Considerable excitement was caused at the Texas and Pacific railway station here Sunday by the arrival of passenger train No. 51 from Louisiana, on which was a white man with a well developed case of smallpox. The man was taken charge of by a policeman and taken in the open "Y," so no one could be near him until a place was arranged to take him to.

SALOONIST HELD UP.

Just Leaving Business Place When His Money Was Demanded.

Lockhart, Tex., March 11.—Zeke Baker, who conducts a saloon business at Niederwald, about ten miles north of here, was held up and robbed of $130. Just as he was closing his saloon door a man came up and demanded his money, which he promptly turned over. As the robber left in the darkness Baker shot at him without effect.

TO TRY IT AGAIN.

"Battling" Nelson and Joe Gans Will Meet Second Time in Fistic Arena.

Salt Lake City, March 11.—A special to the Herald from Reno, Nev., says that "Tex" Rickard has just made the announcement that he has signed Joe Gans and "Battling" Nelson for a fight at Ely, Nev. The date is set for July 4. A $20,000 purse will be given and the articles call for a split of 75 and 25 per cent. Rickard posted a forfeit of $20,000 in a Reno bank.

Female Bullfighters Hurt.

El Paso, March 11.—All five of the women bullfighters whose farewell appearance in the ring was the attraction at the Juarez Plaza del Torres Sunday were injured by being gored or tossed by the bulls. Only one was seriously injured, Senorita Herrera, but her injuries are not fatal. Five thousand persons witnessed the contest.

Taken on Stretcher.

Ardmore, March 11.—United States marshals lodged Sidney Cogins in jail, charged with the recent killing of J. E. Warren. The tragedy took place near Ada, where the men were employed on the railroad. Cogins was brought to jail on a stretcher.

Nearly Complete Tieup.

Louisville, March 11.—With the exception of the suburban lines entering the city and a few cars carrying United States mail to and from the postoffice and substations, not a street car moved in Louisville Sunday.

Political Headquarters.

Oklahoma City, March 11.—Within the next ten days the Republicans, Democrats and Prohibitionists, Anti-Prohibitionists and Socialists will establish territorial headquarters here for a vigorous political campaign.

Alfonso Has Chills.

Newspapers are the best givers in any community. No one but the newspaper man knows the amount of free service the newspaper daily and weekly gives to public causes. The newspaper sets an example of public service that other institutions of the community may well emulate.—Columbia Herald.
Young men and women of today who are looking for "soft jobs," or figuring how they may get something for nothing, should ponder well these words of Horace Greeley: "The darkest hour in the history of any young man is when he sits down to study how to get money without honestly earning it."—Bethany Republican.
Government ownership of railroads may be distasteful to most of us but the actions of the railroads themselves are fast bringing matters to a focus, when the people must decide for themselves whether they want to own the railroads or be owned by them. The action of the Pennsylvania railroad in issuing $50,000,000 more stock, when this road is already bonded for $80,000 more per mile than its original cost is significant. It is impossible for heavily watered stock like this to earn any dividends, of course, but as long as a gullible public will buy, this railroad will continue to swindle them. Government ownership would put a stop to such gigantic skin games.—Quanah Tribune.

How It Goes Out.
"What is that proverb about the way March comes in and goes out?" asks the wife, who is surrounded by bonnet boxes.
"I don't recall it exactly," says her husband, "but it is something to the effect that March comes in like a spring shopper and goes out like the man who has to pay the bills."—Ex.
Retribution—Done by as He Did Others.
New York, March 11.—A man who said he was James McNally, once the "king of green goods men," walked into the Center street police court Sunday and with tears in his eyes, asked to be sent to the workhouse. He said he was without home and without means of support. He was sent to the workhouse for three months. The man was in a pitiable condition as the result of the long use of drugs and of exposure. Recently he drifted to a Bowery lodging house but his physical condition was so bad he could not even earn aittance.
McNally, in his prime, was clear eyed and smart. For over 50 years he engaged in the "green goods" swindle and boasted that he saved $600,000 of the money thus gained in ten years. McNally spent his money lavishly but he had only $100,000 left when the postal authorities sent him to prison in 1896. His money, it is said, he entrusted to two men, but when he got out of prison the men and money were gone. His downfall career began then.

BITTERLY DENOUNCED.

Some Managers Termed "Slave Drivers and Inhuman Money Grabbers."
Chicago, March 11.—"The injunction, 'Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy,' is almost an unknown commandment in Chicago. Sunday is a day of riot and law violation. The open theater engenders an air of looseness and hilarity that is greatly responsible for that fact."

In this vein Rev. William White Wilson, pastor of St. Mark's Episcopal church and president of the Actors' Church alliance, arraigned the "lid off" policy prevalent in Chicago nowadays, and declared for a closed theater on Sunday. He bitterly denounced managers of the Chicago theaters who oppose closing on Sunday as "slave drivers and inhuman money grabbers."

Rev. Dr. Wilson presided and made the opening speech at the meeting of the alliance.

The meeting was well attended by representatives of the stage and pulpit. The Sunday closing question was put to a vote. It was unanimous in favor of the closing on Sunday. Dr. Wilson announced that a great mass-meeting will be called in the near future to make a public demand for Sunday closing of the playhouses.

JUDGE SCORES JURY.

Less Crime in England and Ireland Than in Jefferson County.

Birmingham, March 11.—Because they had acquitted Thomas Shelton, a white man, of the murder of Ora Dunn, a white woman, in a house in the "Red Light" district, Criminal Judge S. L. Weaver delivered a stinging rebuke to the members of the jury after the verdict had been announced.

He said that statistics showed that less crime was committed in England and Ireland than in Jefferson county Alabama. He continued: "Under the circumstances in this case, my love for my country forbids me from remaining silent any longer. It was the province of this jury to free the defendant. It may be that he will get full of cheap liquor again and go over to the 'Red Light' district and kill another poor unfortunate woman, or he may join those who are advocating the wiping out of that district. Who knows?"

Shelton's defense was that his pistol dropped from his pocket and shot the woman accidentally. He was arrested in Indian Territory and brought back here.

TWINS NUMEROUS.

Sixth Set Has Just Been Presented at St. Louis Man.

Ravenna, O., March 9.—E. R. Brown of this city, father of eight sets of twins, has just heard from his eldest son in St. Louis that the latter's wife several days ago presented him with the sixth set of twins. In each case they are a boy and a girl.

Brown says his family was numerically strong long before President Roosevelt propagated his race suicide idea.

Mrs. Brown, who died eleven years ago, was a full-blooded Cherokee Indian.

At the World's fair in 1903, the twins were weighed and aggregated over two tons, the biggest weighing 320 pounds.

BY VOTE OF PEOPLE.

Capital City is to Be Selected at First General Election.

Guthrie, March 9.—No public buildings are located in the report submitted by the committee, but a provision is made for locating the state capital by vote of the people at the first general election after 1913. Necessary moneys for temporary buildings at Guthrie may be expended after the capital is located by the people. Two thirds vote is necessary to remove. The legislature may locate all state buildings but the capitol.

"Good Fellows" Going to the Bad

We have among us a few "fast" young men who are always spoken of as "good fellows," and in some respects they are, but it is well to remember that they are not "good fellows" who indulge in pleasure at the expense of what their duty demands of them. There is no lack of time for pleasure, and there are ways of enjoyment for everyone, but in the long run the young man will find it neither pleasant nor profitable to win admiration for companionable qualities from the idle, the dissolute and the vicious. There is nothing new in all this—it is an old, old story—yet every day young men are seen going to the bad through the allurements of so-called good fellowship, and the public teacher cannot too often or too strongly admonish the youth of the folly of such a course.—Mt. Pleasant Times Review.

Senator Bailey is quoted as saying that he proposes to hang in his home one picture of the 70 representatives who voted for him, labeled "Friend," and one of the 40 who voted against him, labeled "Rogues' Gallery," and that he proposes to teach his sons to love the one and hate the other. Luckily, Mrs. Bailey has better sense than to allow such a heathenish procedure in her home. The idea that a man is a rogue and to be hated because he differs from somebody else politically, is repugnant to any American who is worthy the name.—Bridgeport Index.
