QUICK ACTION OF LEE MUSE RECOVERS STOLEN CAR

Sitting in front of his cafe about one o'clock Friday morning, deputy constable Lee Muse saw a lone man drive a car hurriedly out from the Holland Bros. service station. His first impression was that "Shorty" Oller, night man of the station, had been robbed by the stranger.

Muse instantly gave chase in his car, following the other car out north of town. He caught up with the driver of the car bearing an Oklahoma tag, and demanded to see his papers certifying ownership. The driver had no such papers.

Muse arrested the man, returned him to town and turned him over to the nightwatchman who called the sheriff's office. The party gave his name as James Elbert Smith, and stated that he lived in Oakland, California.

The car in Smith's possession was stolen in Oklahoma city twelve hours before Lee Muse spotted it on the street here. In jail here until Monday, an FBI man came and took Smith to Dallas.

W. J. Hutchesson of Oklahoma City, owner of the car, came and got it Friday.

MISSISSIPPI MAN LIKES CLIMATE

Visiting relatives here the past week are Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Stewart and son Terrell of Weir, Mississippi. He is a brother of H. M. Stewart of Goldston. With them came J. C. Hutchesson, a cousin of Mr. Stewart.

They have had an enjoyable visit getting around to all the relatives, and enjoying the cool, fresh breeze of the Texas Panhandle. Mr. Stewart says the boll weevils have the cotton crop down his way, but that the corn crop is great. These are the staple crops of his section.

The district encampment will be in session from Tuesday to Saturday inclusive. Our boys will be there through it all. Several hundred boys will be fishing, swimming, playing games and otherwise putting in a very busy five days. It happens just once a year on this scale.

CROSBYTON COUNTRY HAS GOOD CROPS

Speaking of farming conditions over his way Sunday, Theo Darden stated "I have more feed and better feed than I ever saw grow before, and my cotton looks like it will make a bale to the acre."

Darden suffered from the excessive rain last month, planting parts of his crop five times.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Darden and the twin girls, Myrna and Mary, and spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Darden, his brother. He formerly resided in the Midway community several years ago.

Morris, will be one of the twenty-four Texans who will be awarded the American Farmer Degree at the National F.F.A. Convention at Kansas City in October. Carl's expenses to the Convention will be paid by the Texas F.F.A. Association.

Young Morris was president of the 1939-40 Chapter and was one of the most outstanding young future farmers in this Area. He has served on a number of judging teams, has exhibited many prize winning animals and birds, and has won over $650 premium money and over 300 ribbons on his projects.

He will be one of the 154 of over 200,000 members to receive this honor, the highest that the National F.F.A. Organization can confer.

HORSES DISAPPEAR AS BY MAGIC

When a favorite saddle pony disappeared from the horse trap down at the Shoe Bar headquarters, Jake Chamberlain rode the fence and looked over the pasture. Results? Exactly nothing!

A few days later in talking with George McCracken on an adjoining ranch, George allowed as how he had found a lost horse over his way. In fact the horse had been missing 17 days when he found him in a gyp sink, some fifteen feet in depth. By digging an incline, the horse was rescued, and recovered though without water or food the full period.

That gave Chamberlain an idea. He also found his missing horse in a gyp sink where he had been without food and water eleven days. The horse was rescued by several men and a wrecking car, it is said.

VISITS SISTER HERE

George L. Maurer, member of the Air Corps stationed at Ellington Field, Houston, Texas, is a guest of his sister, Mrs. Weston C. Hodges. Miss Beatrice Spangler of San Antonio is also a guest of Mrs. Hodges.

Draft Extension Bill Passed

Congressional approval of the army service extension resolution was had by one single vote Tuesday. The Senate had passed the measure the preceding day. Of the Texas senators, Connally voted for the measure, and W. Lee O'Daniel against it. Every Texas congressman endorsed the measure carrying it through by a vote of 203 to 202.

The measure already had received senate approval in different language but with principal provisions exactly the same:

The president is empowered to keep draftees, militiamen, reservists and army enlisted men in the service for a maximum period of 18 months beyond the term for which they were inducted.

All will receive a raise of $10 a month after they have completed one year in the army. (The present basic army pay is $30 a month.)

The previous restriction limiting the number of draftees simultaneously in the army to 900,000 is removed.

The age limit is set at 28 in this measure, which becomes a law when it receives the President's signature. The President has been conferring with high English officials on the Atlantic ocean the past few days. He is expected back in Washington today, and will no doubt give the measure his prompt attention since it had his unqualified endorsement.

MEMORY LANE

(10 years ago in Donley county.)

Clarendon Municipal Junior College has been recognized by the state department of education, and will offer two years of college work. Credits from the local college will be recognized by any standard school, Dean W. A. Clark, Jr. announced today.

Prof. Mateer of the Canyon museum and Eby Stocking are collecting fossil material on the Dilli farm north of town.

Mrs. Nancy C. Shepherd, mother of Mrs. W. M. Miller, and a pioneer resident of Clarendon, died Wednesday in her 83rd year.

Since the Legislature passed a bill providing purchase money to secure the buffalo on the old Goodnight ranch, local and Panhandle citizens are busying themselves now to find a pasture for the herd.

John S. Morgan, John Thomas and others are preparing to make up large batches of old-time sorghum molasses. County agent T. R. Broun has evolved a farmer-exchange system, and it looks like the country will be saved despite the severity of the depression and dry weather combined.

Misses Norma Rhode, Leola Bell, Madge Davis and Julia Mae Caraway are on a vacation trip to Carlsbad Caverns.

Having led the entire agent field in production for the United Fidelity insurance company of Dallas, Geo. B. Bagby has been awarded a free trip to New York.

A family reunion at the M. W. Hatley home near Goldston Sunday brought all the children home save two, and scores of neighbors and friends from as far away as Brice.

The Clarendon Drug was sold to Van Shaw of Amarillo under receivership proceedings. Joe McLauren of Altus bid in the fixtures. It is understood that McLauren will restock and open the business again in a few days.

Navajo Sits In Perfect Pose

Did you ever see a Navajo Indian making pottery? Whether you did or not, you should see the picture on exhibit at the office of the West Texas Utility company.

The beautiful oil painting was done by Mrs. J. Perry King. Did any one know that Mrs. King could paint real pictures? Not many. She is most modest in every respect, and dislikes publicity. No one will be more surprised, or less pleased than she to know that mention was made of the fact.

WANT MAGAZINES?

Band Concert Makes Hit

The general band concert at the City Park Monday evening was largely attended, the group representing the Music Recreation Session of West Texas State College, directed by H. E. Nutt of Chicago. Mrs. Nutt had charge of the orchestra directors' twirling and flag swinging, student twirling and flag swinging and a string class.

A feature of this presentation was in the various band conductors taking turn, Ray Robbins being among those represented in the music class now in session at Canyon. Mr. Nutt acts as critic in this feature.

Local students attending the Canyon school taking a part here Monday evening included Nelda Sue Burton, Clyde Benton Douglas, Pat Grady, Margaret Fay Wadsworth, John Burton King, Naomi Morris, Annie Rec Porter, R. G. Stevenson of Tucumcari, a son of a former band director here, Gus B. Stevenson, played in the concert.

The same group presented concerts at Happy Tuesday night, and in Elwood Park in Amarillo Wednesday night.

PICKERING IS GARDNER DELUXE

For years W. M. Pickering has trucked truck crops to Amarillo. The products were grown on his excellent farm on Salt Fork northeast of town. This year, he is growing hoice truck for his personal use mostly.

His sweet potatoes is one of his main crops. His cotton looks fine. His feed stuff is up to par. The Pickering farm is one of diversified farming. Mrs. Pickering does a lot of canning. In fact Mr. and Mrs. Pickering have always done team work in farm management.

Tuesday, Mr. Pickering brought a 23-pound muskmelon to the Leader office. The quality would do justice to any grower. He grows a few choice specimens for family consumption, along with cantaloupes, tomatoes and such other things as are valuable on any farm.

They will visit relatives in central Texas before returning here some two weeks hence.

SNAKE IS DESTROYED IN NOVEL MANNER

While working his crop with his tractor, Zoro Hudson came upon a rattlesnake. Having nothing with which to kill the reptile, he figured out a novel scheme of deadly destruction.

Emptying his oil can, he drew from the tractor reservoir a quantity of gasoline. This he squirted upon the snake. Then he struck a match and pitched it upon the snake which instantly became a serpent torch, with death resulting in a few seconds.

WALLACES GET HOME

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wallace returned Monday from a tour of the deep south. They report a wonderful trip of fifteen days, but did not tour Florida as planned. Returning by Greenville, they were accompanied home by Mrs. J. H. Wallace, mother of Mr. Wallace.

OLD SETTLERS WILL MEET IN ANNUAL SESSION FRIDAY

LOST BUFFALO!

Has anyone lost a buffalo? Early today a buffalo was seen in the field of Mrs. R. W. Fowlkes southeast of Chamberlain. Sighting the first human being, the buffalo suddenly remembered unfinished business to the west. It jumped the Fowlkes field fence and was browsing in the R. M. Webb field at last accounts near noon.

There is yet a small herd of buffalo on what was formerly the Goodnight ranch on Mulberry Canyon. Mr. Nutt acts as critic in this feature.

UNCLE DICK COON DIED WEDNESDAY

Richard Sanford Coon, 80, pioneer Dalhart rancher, died in a Houston, Texas hospital at 1:30 Wednesday. For years he was the senior partner of the Coon & Culbertson ranching interests. This firm shipped 1603 registered bulls to foreign nations in 1935. Their ranch was the largest exclusive registered bull producing ranch on the Globe.

It is not because of the great amount of money he made that made him great, but the manner in which he used it. Mr. and Mrs. Coon built a $12,000 church at Dalhart two years ago. They established the Coon Memorial hospital fund. Their benefactions, large and small, will run into the thousands of dollars in that Dalhart country.

"Uncle Dick" was a great character in many ways. Texas has lost one of her most useful and public-spirited citizens.

M. C. Cuthbertson of Pueblo, Colorado will do the preaching. There will be plenty of excellent home talent to do the singing. The public is cordially invited to attend the services.

SLOWLY MENDING

In town Tuesday was J. F. Jones of the Sunnyview community who has been ill for several months. He is now slowly on the mend, and with the coming of cooler weather, he expects to be very active.

The eleventh annual gathering of the Donley County Old Settlers will be held Friday, August 15th at Tate Grove, some eight miles northeast of Hedley.

The program committee is already being complimented for limiting the speakers to ten minutes each. Some claim that will make a complete success of the program so far as the audience is concerned. Several of the speakers are said to know something about what they are expected to say, which will help them to close at the 10-minute deadline.

Those having lived in Donley county twenty years are eligible to become members of the Association. There are no dues to pay. Simply sign your name on the register which will be in charge of Mesdames Malcolm Glass, Claude Hill, Walter DeBord, John Dixon. After your name, write the year of your entry into old Donley, the best Panhandle county in Texas.

It is said that Donley county has more residents who have been here over 50 years than any other county in Texas in proportion to the population. This fact has never been disproved.

The program as outlined by the committee is as follows: Master of Ceremonies — J. C. Estlack, assisted by Clyde Bridges. Thirty minute Concert — Clarendon Band.

Song: "America" by Audience. Welcome address—Judge R. Y. King.

Response—Judge A. S. Moss. Music by Girls Quartet of Me-Knight.

Tribute to Pioneers—Sam Braswell. Music — Childrens' Chorus of Hedley.

Memorial arranged by Rev. Patterson. Song arranged by Thava Crawford.

Business Session. "Beautiful Texas": dedicated to the founder of the Picnic, Mrs. W. I. Rains.

Music by String Band. Prayer—Rev. J. Perry King. NOON.

Band Concert. String Music, arranged by Jess Stiles.

Quartet singing and group singing.

Anyone who has a number to render on program, please see Mr. J. N. Riley, Clarendon or Mrs. Clyde Bridges, Hedley.

Old-timers are liberal. Don't forget the chuck when you start. There will likely be invited visitors who will appreciate eating with you. Western hospitality always takes care of things.

The committee will supply the iced tea and hot coffee. The coffee is always made up in a large washpot so there will be plenty of it. While the program will begin around 10 a. m., there will be no eating done until noon. Or at least that is what Uncle Bill Rains says, and he usually means what he says.

Tom Tate is president, J. C. Estlack, vice president, and Mrs. Thava Crawford is secretary and treasurer of the Association.

SOLDIER BOYS VISIT HOME FOLKS

The past week, H. L. Riley and J. H. Green, both local boys, have been home on furlough. They are soldiering at Ft. Knox, Kentucky, and both like the treatment they get in general. "It's the best job I ever had, and I have gained several pounds since I got into the army," Riley said.

Donley will supply two men on this call. Gen. J. Watt Page, state selective service director, said Texas had been called on to supply 36,202 trainees since the first call last November.

The total called, he said, had been prorated among white and colored registrants on a basis of total registrations, as follows, 30,905 white and 5,297 colored.

MAKING FLOORS FROM TEXAS STONE

The thriving terrazzo chip industry in Texas can thank University of Texas bureaus of Economic Geology and Engineering Research for its origin. These bureaus located, sampled and tested more than 150 deposits of native Texas stone suitable for quarrying as building material. Made from crushed marble, the terrazzo chips come in as many as 20 colors and are used for flooring, stairways and special stone effects. Three Texas firms are now shipping this product to all parts of the country.

Radioclast Examinations

Beginning September 8, 1941, I will again be assisted by a technician from the Radioclast laboratories, in giving what is termed the "ultra modern method of diagnosing and treatment."

The Auto Electronic Radioclast was constructed by Dr. J. G. Miller, after years of study, research, and scientific investigation. Dr. Miller found it possible to calibrate an instrument to detect, measure and locate both normal and abnormal conditions of the body. The operator is enabled to examine the patient for a wide variety of conditions; when it is determined that a given condition exists in the body, the intensity and location can be measured. Once a complete record has been made of all the abnormal conditions in the body, together with a record of the vitality of functional integrity of each organ and gland, the diagnosis is simply a matter of reasoning based on the findings.

The treatment of disease by the Auto-Electronic Radioclast consists of a stream of vibration delivered to the body which breaks down disease vibrations and thus returns the individual to health. These vibrations are picked up from the patient, properly amplified and filtered, then returned to the body in such form that the desired results is produced.

Aid to The Needy Blind Program Begins August 11, 1941

The State Department of Public Welfare announced today that applications for Aid to the Needy Blind will be accepted at its local offices throughout the State, beginning Monday, August 11. Blind persons who are interested in filing applications for assistance should call at the State Department's local office in the county in which they reside and talk with the worker, who will be prepared to explain the eligibility requirements and accept applications.

In order to be eligible to receive Aid to the Needy Blind, an applicant:

- (1) Must be twenty-one years old or older;
(2) Must be blind within the definition of the Department;
(3) Must have resided in Texas continuously during the twelve month period immediately preceding the date of application and for four additional years out of the last nine;
(4) Must not be an inmate of a public institution at the time of receiving aid;
(5) Must not be publicly soliciting alms;
(6) Must be in need of financial assistance;
(7) Must be a citizen; and
(8) Must not be a habitual drunkard or habitual criminal.

All applicants who are otherwise eligible will have to be given a medical examination to determine their degree of blindness before they can qualify for assistance on this point. The law requires that such an examination be given by an ophthalmologist or physician skilled in the treatment of diseases of the eye who is licensed to practice medicine in Texas and who has been approved by the State Department to make such examinations.

These examinations must be made in accordance with certain specified procedures of the Department and must be reported on certain prescribed forms. For this reason, applicants are advised not to go to unnecessary expense in seeking examinations before discussing this procedure with the local worker. Full information concerning the examinations will be given at the time the application is filed; and all applicants who are otherwise eligible will be furnished with authorization slips entitling them to free examinations.

Mrs. Johnnie Denton and baby girl of Adrian spent the week end in Clarendon visiting her mother, Mrs. J. W. Angel and other relatives.

A Little Windy, All Right!

Two old vets of streams and fields were attempting to down one another with tales of their fishing accomplishments. A large audience hung onto every word as they sought to cinch the verbal battle.

"Listen, you snaggle-toothed pond toad!" shouted Uncle Jake. "Once I caught a 50-lb. bass with just a rusty old pin!"

"Wet eel grass!" Dad countered. "About two years ago I pulled in an old lantern, dated 1860, while fishing off Newfoundland, and, believe it or not, that dang lantern was still burning!"

"Now look here, Dad!" Uncle Jake countered. "No use lying about it. I'll take 45 pounds off my fish if you'll just blow out that blasted lantern!"

DEFYING DEATH.
Defying death is not so bad, but to lose is most interesting. This is the great game being played on our modern highways. In the soldier camp belt of central Texas, there is a soldier death a day on some highway. Another angle was figured out by a highway patrolman in this district. Following a fatal auto collision on Highway 66, he figured out the time each car had spent on the highway since leaving home. After making allowances for no stops whatever, one car had averaged 57 1/2 miles per hour across four states. The other car had averaged 53 1/4 miles per hour across five states. Each driver had violated the speed limits of every state crossed, bringing death and destruction in our section when they met head-on. It might be advisable to drive slower.

BERLIN REPORTS.
In the roundup of war news each day, Charles Lohnius gives the Berlin report. On the square, doesn't it sound like he is being choked while he is reading the Nazi-controlled war report?

BOND ISSUE.
These city slickers just can't understand how old Donley county could have escaped a bond issue. They gave it a whirl a few months ago and were beaten 10 to 1 on a basis of "something for nothing." Counties that did get in on that "rare" gift, are now stuck. There is another scheme being worked up to get the taxpayers of Donley county hooked right this time. The appeal will look just as innocent, or even more so, than any other. Get all set for it. It is coming. Your Donley County Leader is all set to fight any bond issue that bobs up. Taxes are too high already. The war tax is steadily climbing. We taxpayers will have all the load we can carry before this thing is settled. The farm and ranch owners tell me they don't need any more taxes to pay. The humble home owners tell me the same thing. Don't let any one try to connect your bond issue with a war scare. I understand that will be the one big thing in the next scheme.

Cotton Crop Insurance

Under the 1942 cotton crop insurance program, Donley county cotton farmers will be able to insure 50% or 75% of their average yield.

The details of the United States Department of Agriculture crop insurance program are being perfected by the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation in Washington now and growers will be able to insure their next year's crop before seeding. The insurance will protect them from all unavoidable hazards, such as droughts, insects, including boll weevils, flood, plant disease, wind, fire and hail.

Premiums and guaranteed yields will be figured in terms of pounds of lint cotton and the premiums will be based on the crop-loss history of individual farms adjusted to reflect the crop loss history of the county. Yields and crop-loss averages will be figured on the basis of historical or appraised productivity over a period of years.

Premiums for individual cotton growers, the AAA official continued, will be figured on a lint cotton basis. Payment of premiums will be made with a commodity note which each grower will be required to sign guaranteeing payment of the premium on or before maturity date. The maturity date is at about the time cotton is picked or about the time indemnities are usually paid.

In paying the note, it may be paid either in cotton or the cash equivalent. In the event the note is not paid when it matures, the cash amount of the premium will be deducted from the indemnity paid the grower, or from the first Government payment he receives. These payments include cotton loan, parity payments and AAA payments.

EXTORTION PLAN

The installment payment system of buying, jokingly referred to as the "extortion" plan, is about to become a thing of the past. The President says the folks should quit buying and begin investing in government bonds. If you intend to buy anything on the monthly payment plan, the quicker you get it done the better. The plan may be stopped by government order any minute. The order will apply to autos, refrigerators, floor sweepers and any other thing paid for on a monthly basis except food and clothing, the Leader is informed.

OLD-TIMER PICNIC.

And don't overlook the annual picnic at Tate Grove especially provided by and for the old-timers. If you have lived in Donley county 20 years, you are eligible to join. It costs you nothing to belong to this bunch. Whether you are an old-timer or not, you are welcome provided you bring a bunch of chuck. A basket, box or tub will do so long as it is filled with good eats. Picnic day is Friday, August 15th at Tate Grove, 8 miles northeast of Hedley.

This column is boiled down to a level of more or less common sense this week. There are times when the "jocular is in the ascendancy," as the English would say. As the adding machine said to the finger, "you can count on me any old time."

Here's What I Expect An Advertisement To Tell Me!

"WHERE CAN I BUY IT?"

Naturally, one of the first things I want to know about something I see in an ad is—where can I buy it? It isn't simply a matter of convenience and of saving time in planning my shopping, either! No, the name of the merchant, itself, often decides whether I buy or not. Invariably, you see, I give preference to stores whose ads I see regularly and often—I know the stores must have good value or they couldn't go on advertising year after year!

"WHAT WILL IT DO FOR ME?"

I find it so much easier to make up my mind when the ad tells me facts about the merchandise! What is it? What will it do? How will it help me? Why do I need it? I want to know about color, weight, texture, material, style—I enjoy reading those things and I usually buy from the merchants who tells them to me.

"HOW MUCH IS THE PRICE?"

Of course nearly every ad mentions the price, but if an item has been marked down I want to know from how much. So many sale ads say 'Was Higher' . . . how much higher? I want to know how much I am saving and I want the chance of deciding for myself if the item is a real value or not. I have more confidence in the store that is consistently truthful and buy from such a store regularly—and my husband says an old customer is worth three new ones because new ones cost additional money to get!

One Variety Cotton Program Has Been Announced

COLLEGE STATION—Texas is given four areas in the one-variety cotton improvement and marketing program for cotton grown in the United States, which the Department of Agriculture announced recently.

The areas, with the varieties being grown, are: Wharton County—Delta and Pine Land variety; Red River County—Rowden variety; Delta-Lamar area—Rowden variety; and South Plains area—Pamaster variety.

"Government classing offices will be set up at El Campo, Clarksville, Paris and Floydada to serve each of the four areas, and growers should receive quick classing," said M. C. Jaynes, cotton work specialist of the A&M College Extension Service. "All farmers in the program are eligible to have their cotton classed, but they do not have to sell it. Their cotton can go into the loan, or they are at liberty to dispose of it wherever they can get the highest price."

Under the plan, up to 225,000 bales produced in 1941 in selected one-variety areas, will be made available to domestic and foreign spinners in even running lots composed wholly of cotton from the same areas.

The marketing division of the Department of Agriculture will make an agreement with a shipper designated by the growers, who will act as buyer, to take over a portion of the cotton from each area, Jaynes said. The present plan of the department is to purchase between 7,500 and 10,000 bales in Wharton County; 10,000 bales in Red River; 15,000 in Delta-Lamar, and 10,000 in the South Plains. Should the loan be under the market, Jaynes added, the purchases probably would not exceed one half of the estimated amounts.

The program provides federal payments of $2.35 a bale for unpressed cotton and $2.75 for compressed to cooperating agencies which assemble the staple and deliver it to domestic or foreign spinners. These payments are to compensate handlers for the extra cost involved in employing the new and improved marketing methods required under the program.

According to the Department's announcement the cotton will be handled from grower to spinner in accordance with the latest approved practices. These practices include ginning, special wrapping, compressing, official sampling and classification. Bales must be completely covered and undamaged by the compress.

Officials of the marketing division expect the program to demonstrate to spinners that one-variety cotton properly handled is more desirable for spinning and more economical to use than cotton assembled and handled under usual commercial conditions. Under the 1940 program, 106,475 bales were assembled.

The provisions of this remission bill were adopted by the Board in order to encourage payment of delinquent tax due the District at this time and to help relieve the financial problems caused by recent storm damage to school property.

GARDEN GLANCES

"America beautiful lies in the hands of the gardeners."

The dry, hot weather is damaging the gardens to a very great extent although there are many interesting things to see in spite of the heat.

The crepe myrtle is beginning to produce a bright touch in the gardens. The orchid and watermelon pink crepe myrtle in the yard of C. C. Gilbert are very interesting and showy. This is one of the latest flowering shrubs and it is an asset to any garden.

Heavenly blue morning glories draped gracefully over the fences welcoming the early visitor to the garden are found in the yards of Nathan Cox and U. J. Boston. Scarlet O'Hara morning glories are also entwined with the blue in the Boston yard.

The pilox on the lot of Sam Dyer gives a bright picture to the garden glancer. The iron settee adds a touch as gay as a stage setting.

A general renovation has been given to several lots of the town. Mrs. A. H. Baker's property has been given a great deal of care. This will present a favorable impression on the many tourists that pass through the town.

The Assembly of God church have made a very great improvement on their grounds, showing quite an interest in their place of worship.

An article from "The Flower Grower" magazine gives this suggestion. Lawns clipped two or three inches high do not dry out quickly or become infested with weeds. Lowering the roller makes a mower cut high. The taller grass will protect the roots, cause the roots to develop better and go down deeper in the soil thereby producing a hardier system that will withstand the cold winter.

Robert Taylor As "Billy the Kid" August 20-21

Robert Taylor makes his debut as a Western star in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Billy the Kid," action-packed Technicolor production opening Wednesday at the Pastime Theatre.

Although Taylor was virtually born on a horse in Nebraska and has owned his own ranch and stables since becoming one of Hollywood's most popular stars, the new picture gives him his first opportunity to show his riding ability on the screen. He has been asking for the chance for almost five years.

Brian Donlevy, who attained stardom in "The Great McGinty," heads a brilliant supporting cast which includes Ian Hunter, Mary Howard, Gene Lockhart and Lon Chaney, Jr.

The story concerns the exploits and fate of a terror of the range during the cattle wars of the 1870's. He enters the picture with a reputation as a "killer," but after first joining up with the Dan Hickey gang, he swings over to the more lawful forces of Eric Keating, an English rancher.

Influenced by the Englishman, Ian Hunter, and Donlevy and Miss Howard, he appears to be reforming until Hunter is killed. Swearing to revenge the death of his friend, he trails and shoots the Hickey men responsible but finally meets his own end in a showdown with Donlevy, sworn in as a deputy to stop the lawlessness.

Lakeside Judge Is 'Law West of Pecos' Report Indicates

Shades of Judge Roy Bean and law west of the Pecos!
C. A. Johnson, cafe owner and justice of peace at Lakeside, 60 miles south of here in Navajo county, recently appeared before himself as justice of peace, signed a complaint asking damages of $50, filed it with himself, then issued a summons for highway department officials to appear before him, as judge for trial of the suit.

He also wants court costs. Johnson claimed improper drainage on Highway 173 damaged his property.

The highway department has pointed out that it cannot be sued, as legally no such body as the state highway department exists; that the road isn't a state highway but a Forest service road, and is therefore a Federal responsibility; and that Judge Johnson cannot legally file the damage suit in his own court.

Betatakin is one of the three main ruins of Navajo National Monument, 152 miles northeast of Flagstaff deep in the Navajo Indian Reservation near the border of southern Utah and not more than 25 miles south of Rainbow Natural Bridge. Betatakin is a Navajo Indian word meaning "sidehill house." The two other ruins of the monument are Kiet Seel and Inscription House, the latter name being derived from an inscription scratched into the clay plaster of one wall, reading "S-hapeiro Ano Dom 1661," evidently left by an early Spanish explorer. Each of the ruins is that of a large communal dwelling.

SIDE GLANCES ON TEXAS HISTORY

By Charles O. Becker
University of Texas Library

One Installment Paid for Freedom

History proves, as patriots put it so often these days, that one can never feel complacent about one's freedom, which has to be guarded and fought for always. And the history of Texas might well be produced as evidence; for, contrary to a widespread impression, the defeat and capture of Santa Anna at San Jacinto did not settle things once and for all as regards the independence of Texas. The Battle of San Jacinto was a tremendous down payment to have to make, of course; but Texas bought its freedom on the installment plan—and the terms weren't easy.

The nine-year history of the independent Republic of Texas, to be specific, is far from uneventful. As records in the University of Texas Library's Texas Collection well attest, it is the history of extremely perilous and extremely tragic times.

In early September of 1842, for example, General Adrian Woll led a Mexican army of 1400 men across the Rio Grande and on the 11th took San Antonio with a surprise attack. Word of the invasion spread quickly, and in the scattered communities of the surrounding country volunteers began to gather for an attempt to drive Gen. Woll out of the Republic. Among these was a company of 53 ill-fated men from Fayette County, led by Captain Nicholas Dawson.

The Siege Begins

Dawson's men reached the close vicinity of San Antonio in the mid-morning of the 18th, when a scout brought them word that 200 other Texans under Captain Jack C. Hays and Matthew "Old Paint" Caldwell were already engaged with the Mexicans on Salado Creek just outside the city. Without knowing exactly what the situation on the Salado was, they rushed forward in hopes of reinforcing the Texans while they could still be of service.

The Mexicans, however, were themselves on the lookout for stray companies of the enemy and, having located Dawson's force out on the prairie, met it with 150 dragoons. Thus cut off from the main body, Dawson withdrew to a mesquite grove for shelter and defiantly refused a request for surrender which was immediately put to him. One quick volley brought down a few of the Mexicans, who then settled down safely beyond the range of the Texan rifles.

After this first brief skirmish, and while the Fayette County company was wondering what it might do under the circumstances, an additional force of 300 Mexicans appeared on the scene, and the Texans quickly found themselves entirely surrounded by an enemy line they couldn't reach with their fire.

The decisive factor, however, was that the Mexican reinforcements brought with them a cannon which they set up at a distance and which soon began to shower grape shot on the force in the grove. Half an hour of this bombardment reduced Dawson's company by half, and at last he raised a white flag, seeing that there was no hope.

Many of his men, when the firing thus ceased, expected only to be slaughtered and so dashed madly off toward safety, inevitably bringing on the slaughter they expected. Two got away, but all except about a dozen of the other survivors of the bombardment were ridden down and killed, some even after they had surrendered their arms. The dead were stripped and left on the field.

Meanwhile, the main battle on the Salado was still raging—and going badly for Gen. Woll. When evening came he drew off to cover and early the next morning retreated hastily to the southwest. And only then did Hays and Caldwell discover that Dawson's reinforcements had almost reached them and now lay dead in the shadows of the little grove they had hoped would be their sanctuary.

MUSEUM SIDELIGHTS

It is still impossible to open the Donley County Museum to the public, but as soon as the work on the building is completed, the Museum will be accessible, and then will be opened each week, as formerly.

In the meantime, interested patrons are bringing in objects of worth to be placed on display when possible. Mrs. T. H. Peebles has presented a colored lithograph which has hung in her home many years. It represents General Lee surrounded by other Confederate generals.

C. E. Griggs, from a recent excursion into New Mexico, brought back to the Museum some curious stones, among them one shaped like a potato, another in the form of a castle, and some odd pieces of pottery dug from an Indian grave, and also the remains of a century plant which had blossomed and seeded.

for MODERN living

In the early days, medicine show quacks sold crude oil for a dollar a bottle as a cure for all human ills. Today hundreds of essentials for modern living are made from oil. It supplies heat for the home. It provides power for the Nation's machinery and transportation. It lubricates the gears of industry. It furnishes fuel for your car. It has shortened distances to make our Nation one big community.

America is safer today because of petroleum. The oil man's initiative and enterprise have made available to the United States the world's largest supply of petroleum.

In all this, Texas plays a leading part. Last year we supplied 36 per cent of all the Nation's oil, and now have over half of the Nation's oil reserves.

You and every American live more comfortably and safely today because of Texas petroleum.

Back in August of 1934, a large group of Boy Scouts, 57 in number, accompanied by Sloan Baker, Frank Whitlock, T. D. Nored, Hubert P. Day, Henry D. Toomb and Ed Speed left Clarendon bound for the Chicago fair.

The two trucks carrying the cargo were driven by Lloyd Risley and Henry Tomb. A great time was had at the fair and surrounding environs.

On the return trip, camp was made on the banks of the Verdigris river near Claremore, Oklahoma on the night of August 10th. Shortly before midnight the entire crowd was affected by what was later termed "metallic" poisoning, some of them becoming delirious.

Sloan Baker hastily went to the nearest service station and asked that help be gotten as quickly as possible. Within a very short time, doctors, ambulances and nurses arrived from Claremore, Catoosa, Tulsa and Broken Arrow.

Among the doctors was Dr. B. Frank Collins of Claremore, who, with Mrs. Collins, visited here a short time Monday on a vacation tour of the western states. They spent most of the time with Mr. and Mrs. Whitlock, and a number of the "unfortunate" group came in to say hello to the good doctor.

The entire crowd was affected with the exception of Odell Barnard and Marvin Salmon. Frank Whitlock appeared to be in the most serious condition. He was laid in an ambulance and the start made for Claremore. Suffering extreme pain and delirious, Whitlock tore the pants from the ambulance driver, according to reports at the time.

The source of the poisoning never was determined. Those who drank lemonade from a cream can were affected. Those who ate ham sandwiches and drank no lemonade were also affected. The entire crowd went into the river swimming late that evening. Some appear to think the trouble arose from drinking the "verdigris" from the Verdigris river.

At any rate, there was no loss of life. The crowd arrived home August 11th. Several local citizens went to meet them when they heard of the unfortunate incident.

No doctor, nurse or ambulance driver made any charge for the services rendered.

Dr. Collins was guest of honor at the Father-Son banquet here in January of 1935, being the principal speaker on that occasion.

Youths to Get School Help

AUSTIN—During the 1941-42 school year the National Youth Administration Student Work Program will enable approximately twenty thousand Texas young people between the ages of 16 and 24, inclusive, to stay in school, according to J. C. Kellam, state NYA administrator.

Allocations have been made to the 254 counties and directly to schools in cities having populations of 25,000 or more. Many of the county placement committees already have met, and their recommendations for allotments of NYA Student Work jobs to schools now are being received in this office.

During the 1940-41 school year the NYA College and Graduate and School Work Programs assisted 7,500 youth, who otherwise could not have continued their educations, in 85 Texas colleges and universities and twenty thousand students in 2,585 secondary educational institutions.

Kellam said boys and girls who desire these Student Work jobs should apply directly to the head of the school or college they wish to attend. Work that will be useful to both the students and to the institutions will be provided on projects designed and supervised by the officials of the schools. Such work will include research and survey activity, clerical work, departmental and library assistance, and improvement of school equipment and properties.

DIES CALLS FOR FEDERAL OFFICE HOUSECLEANING

WASHINGTON — Representative Dies of Texas, chairman of the Un-American Activities Committee, Tuesday called upon President Roosevelt to "clean house of the hundreds of totalitarian agents working for the Government."

The Texan, during a speech on the army extension bill, declared that until this is done "the President can never prepare this country properly."

Dies in his speech, named two federal officials who he said were "Communists."

"One is Tom Tippet, employed June 3, 1941, as assistant chief of rents at a salary of $5,600 a year in the Leon Henderson Office of Price Administration and Civilian Supply," he declared. "Tippet was a sponsor of a banquet for Mother Bloor on Jan. 24, 1936."

"The other is Emil John Lever, who as field representative of the Labor Division of the OPM, also gets $5,600 a year."

Miss Jean McDonald is employed on a Pampa newspaper. Whether the daily or weekly, could not be learned.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Morris of Pampa visited late Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hahn and family.
