

Farewell party for Gunnels

Xi Lambda Xi members and husbands honored Mark and Deala Gunnels with a "pot-luck" supper Saturday night, July 29, in the home of Arlis and Sandra Mooring. There was a variety of good foods to choose from and a good time of fellowship was enjoyed by all. Mark and Deala were presented with a silver engraved tray from Deala's sorority sisters.

We are going to miss Deala and Mark very much in our club and community but we wish for them the best in their move to Bovina where Mark will be high school principal beginning August 15.

Those in attendance were Ms. Peggy Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Eads, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Henson, Mr. and Mrs. A.R. Henson, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Gage, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Spier, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Waters, Mr. and Mrs. Arlis Mooring and honored guests Mr. and Mrs. Mark Gunnels.

Howardwick partyline

By Sharon Mills

Approximately seventy members and guests attended church Sunday at the Howardwick Baptist Church. It was the Fifth Sunday services. For special music the Wayne Castner family was in charge. Those present were Wayne and wife, Glenda, children, Steve, Cindy, and Keith and Lee Moffett. Wayne's father and mother, Morris and Eddie Castner and their daughter, Jane and her husband Charles Arthur. After everyone had a covered dish lunch the Castners sang more.

Jerrell and Marilyn McDonald of Lubbock came Tuesday and left Wednesday after visiting her parents. While here Marilyn caught a 4 1/2 pound channel cat. They also caught some bass, bluegill and cat. I'd think forty in all would be a pretty good catch.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Bingham had their grandson, Brad and also Howard Radney of Amarillo for the weekend.

Doil and VonNita are grandparents for the third time. The granddaughter is Audrey Diane Isbell. She weighed 8 lbs. 1/2 oz. and is the daughter of Becky and Gary Isbell of Enid, Oklahoma.

The Albert Moores are great grandparents again. These proud parents are Teresa and Gary Hilburn of Edgemont, S. Dakota. At the present, the young lady is unnamed.

Lois and John McVicker and Lois's sister, Lucille Lowrey of Sayre, Oklahoma visited the girls' brother Duke Weightman of Concord, California. They also visited John's three sisters, Zola Mae Long of Salina, Calif., Louise Rohiback of Fremont, Calif. and Joyce Richards in San Jose, Calif. The trio returned home Friday.

Alene and Waldon More have had her mother, Mrs. Killian of Amarillo spending a week with them.

Mrs. Pauline Koontz visited Mrs. Lois Lair of Hedley Sunday and attended the Grimsley reunion Sunday.

The Lions Tale

By Gene Alderson

The Clarendon Lions Club held their regular meeting at noon on Tuesday with 28 members and 3 guests present. Clyde Noonkester, Clarendon High School Principal, was the guest of Lion Homer Estlack. Boss Lion McGarity announced that he had posted a list of committees showing the chairman and members of each committee. The secretary, Lion Homer Estlack, then presented the following "Old Monarch" chevrons: Lion R.E. Drennan - 45 years, Lion J.G. McAnear - 30 years, Lion Owen McGarity - 10 years.

Lion Billy Ray Johnston then introduced the program which was brought by Bro. Paul Heil, pastor of the First Baptist Church. Bro. Heil presented some very interesting information on the size and order of the universe we live in. In his presentation he presented an illustration in which a number of things about our universe were compared to a group of coins numbered from one to ten. (Things such as the distance of the earth from the sun, the distance of the moon from the earth and its effect on tides, etc.) If these coins were put into your pocket and then pulled out at random, the chances of them being in consecutive order from one to ten would be one in ten billion. This is the same chance that the order of our universe might have come about by chance.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ford of Pampa announce the birth of a daughter, Kerrey Marie, born in Hall County Hospital July 28. She weighed 7 lbs. 5 ozs.

MRS. JOHN DAVID GULL

Addy - Guill exchange wedding vows

Miss Susan Diane Addy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ervin E. Addy, Jr. of Cisco, became the bride of Mr. John David Guill, son of Mrs. Billie Faye Guill of Clarendon and Mr. John Guill of McLean, in ceremonies Saturday, July 29 at the First United Methodist Church in Cisco.

Reverend Mart Agnew, retired Baptist minister, performed the wedding ceremony. Mrs. James Squier of Houston, the soloist, sang "And I Love You So" and "The Lord's Prayer". Mrs. Reginald W. Henley of Westwood, New Jersey, cousin of the bride, was the organist.

Mrs. Ron Cohl of New Braunfels was the matron of honor with Mr. Jack Moreman of Clarendon serving as the best man. Attendants of the bride were Mrs. Lanny Godwin, Athens; Miss Bobbie Blevins, Dun-cannville; and Mrs. Jimmy Riley, Clarendon. Attending the groom were Mr. Jimmy Riley, Clarendon; Mr. James Gillespie, Matador; Mr. Perry Don O'Hair, Muleshoe; Mr. Glenn Wallace, Clarendon; Mr. Ervin E. Addy, III, Albuquerque, New Mexico, and Mr. Blair Addy, Beverly Hills, California, brothers of the bride.

Candlelighters were Miss Christlie Capps and Miss Cheryl Capps of Duncanville. Master Phillip Scott Addy, Houston, nephew of the bride was the ring bearer. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown designed by Galena of white embroidered silk net with a bateau neckline, long fitted sleeves, and ending in a chapel train. The gown was appliqued with leaf-patterned Venice lace. Her veil of illusion was attached to a matching lace cap. The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white phalaenopsis orchids.

The matron of honor was attired in a turquoise formal gown of matte jersey. The dress was fashioned with empire waist, bodice gathers, knife-pleated skirt, and worn with a matching chiffon capelet. The bridesmaids wore identical dresses in yellow. The matron of honor carried a basket of yellow and white daisies. The bridesmaids carried baskets of white and yellow daisies.

A reception was hosted by the bride's parents at the home of the bride. After a wedding trip to Acapulco, Mexico the couple will be at home at 817 West Seventh Street, Clarendon, Texas.

The bride is a graduate of Cisco High School and received her B.A. and M.S. Degrees from Baylor University. She is a member of Chi Omega Sorority and Delta Psi Kappa, an honorary physical education fraternity. She will teach in Clarendon College next fall.

The groom is a graduate of McLean High School and received his B.S. Degree from West Texas State University. He will continue his teaching position in Clarendon College next fall.

Mrs. Billie Faye Guill hosted the rehearsal dinner at the Westwood Club in Abilene on Friday, July 28.

Graves - Leeper vows read

Donna Graves of Raton, New Mexico and Michael Leeper of Clarendon were united in marriage at 2 p.m. on July 29 by Father Tash at St. Mary's Church in Amarillo.

Before the double ring ceremony began, Donna presented her mother with a single off-white rose, and after the ceremony she presented the groom's mother with an off-white rose.

For the wedding, the bride chose a formal wedding gown of ivory organza over satin, designed by Pricilla of Boston. To complete her ensemble, she chose a matching ivory picture hat with a waist length veil. She carried a bouquet of off-white roses.

Attending as maid of honor was Nita Ellis, sister of the groom. Her gown was antique gold, she carried a single off-white rose. Steve Ellis, brother-in-law of the groom, and best man wore dark brown suits.

Chad Ellis was ring bearer. He suit was antique gold. The ring pillow he carried was made of off-white satin with the rings tied with brown ribbon.

The bride's mother wore a floor length pale green dress with an off-white corsage.

The groom's mother wore a floor length apricot dress with a white corsage. The reception followed at Wellington Manor Summer House.

Friends and cousins of the bride served at the reception. Donna is an R.N. at St. Anthony Hospital and Mike is employed at Levi Strauss. He will be attending college this fall.

The couple will be at home in Amarillo after a short wedding trip.

MRS. LANE GARVIN

Hardin - Garvin repeat vows

Paula Jo Hardin and Lane Bomar Garvin were united in marriage Saturday, July 29, in a ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church of Clarendon. Rev. Owen McGarity, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hardin of Clarendon and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Garvin, Jr. of Silverton.

The altar was draped with garlands of boxwood and white satin bows above two large bouquets of silk apricot peonies and roses placed back of the kneeling bench. Four arched candelabrum decorated with silk apricot colored roses, peonies and palm leaves with six palm trees flanked the altar. Windows of the church were decorated with English ivy entwined around votive candles decorated with silk roses and Baby's Breath and pews were marked with bows centered with silk daisies of apricot color.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of candlelight chiffon designed by Priscilla of Boston. The bodice was covered with sheer English net and re-embroidered lace with a Queen Anne neckline. Scallops of lace draped down over the waistline. The full skirt flowed from the hi-low waistline to a chapel length train in the back. Tiny accordeon pleats with wide English net and re-embroidered lace cuffs formed the long sleeves. Self covered buttons accented the back of the dress and cuffs.

The cathedral length veil of imported illusion, designed by Paula and created by her mother, was edged in sheer re-embroidered lace and seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of silk candlelight rose buds and baby's breath. For jewelry the bride wore a string of pearls loaned to her by her mother.

Flower girls were Crystal and Bobbie Jean Havens of Clarendon. They wore dresses and hair pieces identical to the bridesmaids and carried natural baskets decorated with illusion and baby's breath.

The groom was attired in a candlelight tuxedo trimmed in dark brown velvet. Ushering the guests were Tom Burson, John Burson, and Mitchel Simpson all of Silverton.

Organist was Mrs. Jessie Adams of Clarendon. Sam Brown, of Tulia, accompanied by his wife, Mary Catherine, sang "Evergreen" and "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony. "Whither Thou Goest" was sung as they lighted the unity candle and as the bride presented the mothers with silk apricot roses.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hardin chose a floor length pale aqua polyester crepe dress. Mrs. Garvin, the mother of the groom, wore a floor length dress and matching coat of light green. Both wore corsages of silk rosebuds.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church following the ceremony. The bride's table was laid with a white lace cloth over an apricot underlay. The table was centered with an arrangement of silk apricot roses and candlelight peonies in a four candle epergne. The six-tiered wedding cake was designed and decorated by the bride and her mother with white and apricot roses. It was topped with a blown glass heart adorned with doves and bells and placed in a bed of silk apricot roses and baby's breath created by the bride. Mrs. Chris Parker and Mrs. Dee Whittington served the bride's cake and Mrs. Bruce Ony presided at the crystal punch service.

The round groom's table was laid with a chocolate brown taffeta cloth with a lace overlay. It was centered with a bouquet of silk apricot roses and brown daisies and eucalyptus placed in a two candle epergne. Mrs. Cindy Rattan and Dianne Havens served the two-tiered chocolate cake. Shirley Watkins, from Odessa, presided at the silver coffee service.

Mrs. Beryl Clinton provided music for the reception from a table covered with an apricot cloth with a sheer overlay centered with candlelight roses.

Roses made of apricot satin filled with rice were given to guests by Donna Grimland, from Amarillo and Gina Cash from Topeka, JULY 28 MARKED the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Nuford Dill.

Dill's celebrate 50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Nuford Dill were honored Friday, July 28, with a party in honor of their 50th wedding anniversary at Clarendon Rest Home.

Miss Lita Riley of Greenwood and Nuford Dill were united in marriage July 28, 1928 in Denton. They moved to Donley County in 1942 and for many years were residents of the Ashtola and Martin communities where they were engaged in farming.

A beautiful cake iced white with gold flowers and green leaves, had the inscription "Happy Golden Anniversary" across it. The table was centered with an arrangement of golden flowers as befitted the occasion.

About 15 relatives and guests, in addition to the residents, enjoyed the delicious cake and punch.

Host for the party was Neal Carter of Elkhart, Kansas who planned the honor for Mr. and Mrs. Dill, but who was not able to be in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. R.G. Eddelman of Goodnight visited Friday night with their sister, Mrs. Flossie Reynolds.
