WE TRAIN PEOPLE TO OPERATE IT WITH A TIGHT FIST.

"The telephone company does more than send bills. We get them, too. And it's my job to make sure those bills are right. Keeping costs under control is a full-time job. Every penny I save here is a penny our customers won't find on their phone bills. And I'm also helping my company run a tight and efficient business. That's why I'm proud to be one of the people General Telephone is talking about when they say 'We keep you talking.'" and has served as club reporter. She has served on various committees, attended council, been hostess, given programs been instrumental in inviting guest and getting new members. Unless traveling with her husband or a providential hindrance Melba attends all the meetings.

Melba has served as District TEHA Chairman and has attended special meeting countywide or out of town. As you can see, Melba has been an important thread in church, community, and club activities. We the Early Bird Extension Homemakers Club feel that Melba is very worthy to be chosen Club Woman of the year.

Aileen Moore

Aileen began this fascinating journey we call "Life" at Hedley, Texas. She lived most of her earlier life in Amarillo, Texas where she graduated from Amarillo High School. She worked at the Telephone Company until she married Walden Moore, an architect with the Bureau of Prison Industries, whom she met while attending the Buchanan Street Methodist Church. Aileen and Walden moved to Pampa, Texas in 1946, where he was employed as an engineer with Cabot, Corp. They maintained their home in Pampa while working with Cabot overseas. They have lived in Spain, three times, England two times, France, Germany, and Iran. They moved to the quaint little city of Howardwick on the north side of beautiful Greenbelt Lake, where they now reside. Walden retired a year ago, but still works for Cabot. Aileen enjoys living at the lake and holds a fish record with a 7 1/2 lb. bass catch. Aileen's and Walden's daughter Euleen (Thompson) was born in Amarillo and lives in Pampa, where she teaches school. Aileen is a "busy" woman, as the following activities will indicate: girl scout leader for 8 years in Pampa, president of Pampa Garden Club, member of choir in Pampa First Methodist Church, member of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority in Pampa, Study Club in Pampa, opened and managed an Arts & Crafts Store in Pampa, sings with a group country gospel music at the Donley County Nursing Home twice a month and other programs, attends First Methodist Church in Clarendon, Friendship Club at Howardwick, other lake activities, 1979 president of Lakers Homemakers, and 1980 Homemakers' Council Parliamentarian. Whew! Most of these activities and achievements were before my acquaintance with Aileen. You don't have to know Aileen a long time to feel that you know her well. She has a "God-given" love for people and freely extends that love to "whoever". She has an infectious, open friendliness that reaches out eagerly and encompasses all who will receive it. Aileen is every inch a "woman" and altogether worthy to receive the title of "Homemaker of the Year".

Beef referendum

Registration and voting will be conducted through local offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

To register, a producer must complete a registration card, Form ASCS-151, during the registration period. Registration may be in person or by mail. A producer who wishes to register by mail may request the county ASCS office to mail him a registration card. A registration card shall be considered received during the registration period if:

- (1) It was delivered in person to the county ASCS office prior to the close of business on the final day of the registration period, or
- (2) It was postmarked not later than midnight of the final day of the registration period, and was received in the county ASCS office prior to the close of business on the fourth day after the close of the registration period.

A list of registered producers shall be prepared and posted daily in a conspicuous public location at the county ASCS office during the registration period. A final list shall be posted on the fifth day after the close of the registration period. The list shall include all persons who submitted a valid registration card in a timely manner.

The representative period of ownership to determine eligibility of producers to register and vote in the referendum is January 1 through December 31, 1979.

The term "producer" means any person who owns or acquires ownership of cattle. Each person who was a producer at any time during the representative period is entitled to register and vote in the referendum. Each producer entity shall be entitled to cast only one ballot in the referendum.

A group of individuals, such as member of a family, joint tenants, tenants in common, a partnership, owners of community property, or a corporation, engaged in the production of cattle as a producer entity shall be entitled to only one vote; provided, however, that any member of a group may register to vote as a producer if he is an eligible producer separate from the group.

Planning farmstead windbreak

The first item to consider is location, when planning a windbreak. For winter protection where prevailing winds are from the north and west, place the barrier on the north and west sides of the buildings. If winds are from the southwest, the windbreak should be on the south and west sides of the living area. This applies also to hot summer winds.

Planting a distance of 150 to 200 feet away from buildings and driveways is desired. Windbreaks should be located no closer than 100 feet from buildings or driveways.

Avoid creating blind corners by planting no closer than 20 feet to the main road, where farm driveways and main-traveled roads join. Do not plant tall-growing trees under power or telephone lines.

Plant your windbreak in a curved fashion if possible. This makes them easier to cultivate and looks better than one planted with square corners.

Number of Rows

The number of rows planted will depend on available space, species to be planted and the wishes of the land owner.

In general, five to seven rows are desirable. But where space is limited, plant two or three rows of evergreens.

However, the number of rows is not as important as selecting the right species and giving them proper care. These items will be discussed in the following weeks.

If you want help in selecting the proper location and spacing for your windbreak, come by the Soil Conservation Service Office and we will be happy to assist you.

How to keep winter lawns alive

Homeowners who wonder why their front lawn does not look like a well manicured golf course during the summer months can do something about it right now, during winter.

A Texas Tech University horticulturist says the first thing to remember is that "lawns do not die during winter. They only appear dead and need to be kept alive."

The stem and the leaves of most grass species die after the first freeze, but the crown stays alive during winter, according to Robert R. Reed of the Department of Plant and Soil Science.

Reed said there are four things that homeowners can do in winter to help produce a lush growth in summer.

"Water the lawn four or five times during winter, fertilize it, apply pre-emergent herbicide and prevent the soil from getting compacted," he said.

Watering lawns is especially important during unseasonal warm days in winter months, "as the water prevents the soil temperature from increasing beyond winter limits," he added.

High soil temperature during winter starts the growth process in the grass. But the tender growing plant tissue dies following a drop in the temperature, which results in "spotty growth" during summer, the Texas Tech horticulturist said.

"Homeowners should water

lawns on days when the temperature is not expected to drop below freezing because moisture which enters the plant at freezing temperatures may crystallize and break the living cell walls in the plant tissue." Reed added.

Winter fertilization, the second item on Reed's list, helps in root development and strength during the cold months.

"Phosphorous and potassium fertilizers are most important during winter months for root development and homeowners can buy them from any nursery," he said.

Nitrogen fertilizers, which mainly produce the green matter in the stems and the leaves, are of little use during winter, he added.

The third item to remember is pre-emergent herbicide, "which is essential for suppressing weed growth, especially during winters which follow above normal rainfall," he said.

High rainfall during the pre-winter months produces an abundant crop of weed seeds which lie in the soil waiting for warm temperatures, according to the horticulturist.

"Pre-emergent herbicides will suppress the weeds and will not affect the grass crown," he added.

Preventing the soil from getting compacted, Reed's fourth admonition, allows free movement of water and air through the soil surface and helps in regeneration of the grass.

"The soil gets compacted as people tend to step over the grass more often during winter than during summer," he said.

"Homeowners can rent airing or coring equipment from nurseries to punch holes in the soil surface or to remove small cores from the soil to make it fluffy," the horticulturist added.

If homeowners follow these suggestions, Reed said, they can expect to see improvements when the grass turns green after winter, but he cautioned against expecting too much.

"It takes more than one winter of caring for the grass to produce the golf-course look," he said.

Are you farmig farming marginal crop?

By DAVID DAVIDSON

Are you considering breaking out grassland for farming? If so maybe you should evaluate that land and its production potential. Every year many acres of grass are plowed up and planted to crops. The first thought is increased acreage means increased production and increase profit. This sometimes is not the case. Many soils in Donley County will produce from 150# to 200# of lint per acre with intensive management. As the costs of equipment and fuel get higher the farmer will be forced to become more efficient. To plant and care for marginal farmland can be costly.

Consider costs of breaking out grassland. It would probably cost at least $100.00/AC to prepare and produce a cotton crop on freshly broken land. With cotton at 50c/lb it would take 200# of lint to break even and many of the marginal farm soils will only produce 200#. Every acre farmed should produce a profit. When some had produces 400# lint and marginal land produces 200# lint or only breaks even you are losing money and wasting time that could be spent maximizing production on better land. What if all comes down to is that with increasing production costs farm expansion is not always the answer. Intensified management and conservation of prime farmland will increase yields.

Today's land use is the crop of the future. If you have any questions on what type of soil you have and what its crop potential is we can help you at the SCS. We can help you plan for your farms future.

Tired of winter? One good way to shake the winter blues is to start planning your spring garden.

Before planting, you may need to arrange garden rows on the contour. This and other conservation practices can help reduce erosion in your backyard.

For help in planning your spring garden, contact the local office of the U.S. Soil Conservation Service and ask for these free brochures: "Gardening on the Contour" and "Mulches for Your Garden".

The Lions Tale

By GENE ALDERSON

The Clarendon Lions Club held its regular meeting at noon on Tuesday at the Lions Hall. There were twenty-six members, the Lion Sweetheart, and seven guests present. Max Brown of Stinnett, who is the lumber business, was the guest of Lion Carter. We were also happy to have the following Lions in attendance: District Governor Charles Cooley of Borger, Lt. Governor Lynn Cherry of Amarillo who is employed by Santa Fe Systems Board and whose home club is Howardwick; Zone Chairman Larry Parks of Memphis who is a banker; Mike Caldwell of Memphis who is a merchant; Glenn Helton of Howardwick, retired; and B.R. Crossland of Amarillo, retired, homeclub Howardwick.

Following our regular opening ceremonies, Boss Lion Courtney announced that the visiting Lions were here for a Zone Meeting which was to be our program. Lt. Gov. Cherry spoke first and he commended our club on being active and alive. Dist. Gov. Cooley then discussed the need for each club to increase membership. He also mentioned the obligation of each Lions Club member to stand ready to serve in both club and district offices. Next, Zone Chairman Parks reported that our zone had shown a net increase of four members and the Clarendon club an increase of seven members. He also mentioned the possibility of re-establishing the Estelline Club. The next Zone meeting will be in Hedley. Last to speak was Lt. Gov. Cherry who emphasized membership and retention of members. He also encouraged more visitation between the clubs in Memphis, Howardwick, Hedley and Clarendon which comprise our Zone.

MAURINE BUTTS

What's burning in Maurine's Kitchen

By MAURINE BUTTS

How many of you have jumped into your car at the end of another work day, famished barely escaping the caving in of your stomach, because you remembered that there were at least five chocolate chip cookies left on the plate this morning and you thought that at least one or maybe two of those delicious cookies could carry you over until supper, only to find out upon entering the kitchen, narrowly missing shutting your finger in the car door, that Junior just put the fifth and last cookie away? How many of you have broken at least one finger nail trying to open those "Press Here at Perforation for Easy Opening" boxes?

Well, I hope this column will bring some sort of relief for your weary temperament and maybe even your pocketbook. This column will offer some easy microwave recipes that I have had a few requests for and some new ones for you to try out. But, this will not be just a "Cooking Guide", but rather something to look forward to each week with something for everyone. I am also asking you for your favorite recipes or any tidbit of knowledge you would like to share. For instance, did you know that if you cut off the excess fat from the sirloin steak, and put it in a tree, that you will have birds flocking to your home? Now, if you can afford to buy sirloin, you can afford to feed the birds.

Please send your recipes to Box 1036, Clarendon. Here are two candy recipes that you will enjoy making in your microwave oven. These are taken from the November 1979 issue of "Southern Living", page 284-285. They state: "Since wattage of microwave ovens varies, the cooking times will vary. A time range is given in our recipes to allow for the difference. To prevent overcooking, always check for doneness at the lower end of the range."

Southern Pralines
1 1/2 cups firmly packed light brown sugar
1/2 cup half and half
1/8 tsp. salt
2 Tbs. butter or margarine

Combine sugar, half and half, and salt in a deep 3-quart casserole; mix well. Stir in butter; microwave at HIGH for 7 to 9 1/2 minutes or until mixture reaches soft ball state (235 degrees), stirring once. Stir in pecans; cool about 1 minute. Beat by hand until mixture is creamy and begins to thicken (about 3 minutes). Drop by tablespoonfuls onto waxed paper; let stand until firm. Yield: about 2 dozen.

Peanut Brittle
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup light corn syrup
1 1/2 cups raw peanuts
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 Tbs. butter or margarine
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 teaspoon soda

Combine sugar, half and half, and salt in a deep 3-quart casserole; mix well. Stir in butter; microwave at HIGH for 7 to 9 1/2 minutes or until mixture reaches soft ball state (235 degrees), stirring once. Stir in pecans; cool about 1 minute. Beat by hand until mixture is creamy and begins to thicken (about 3 minutes). Drop by tablespoonfuls onto waxed paper; let stand until firm. Yield: about 2 dozen.

Farmers' tax deadline March 3

While most taxpayers have until April 15 to file their 1979 income tax returns, farmers and ranchers face an earlier filing date—March 3.

The March 3 date stands for agricultural producers who did not file an estimate of their income taxes and pay these estimated taxes by Jan. 15. Those who did file an estimate have until the April 15 deadline to file final returns.

For Texas farmers and ranchers preparing their 1979 income tax returns, Dr. Ashley Lovell of Bryan, area economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, offers several considerations.

Filing requirements for 1979 are changed from 1978. For example, an individual must file a return if his gross income is $3,300 or more and a married couple under 65 years of age must file if their joint gross income is more than $5,400. If both are 65 or older, they may make $6,400 before having to file a return.

For some businessmen, a more urgent deadline is Jan. 31, the due date for Form 943 and Form W-2.

Form 943, "Employer's Annual Tax Return for Agricultural Employees," must be filed if you were required to withhold and pay social security tax, or if you withheld income tax under voluntary withholding agreements on farm labor wages during 1979.

Form W-2, "Wage and Tax Statement," must be provided to each employee to whom you paid wages subject to social security taxes or from whose wages federal income tax was voluntarily withheld. Employees should receive Form W-2's by Jan. 31.

For other changes and reporting requirements regarding 1979 income tax returns, Lovell suggests a copy of Internal Revenue Service Publication No. 17, "Your Federal Income Tax" (1980 edition).

Farmers and ranchers will want to get a copy of IRS Publication No. 225, "Farmers Tax Guide" (Revised October 1979).

Carson City Silver Dollars to go sell

Skyrocketing silver prices have forced the General Services Administration to revise the price of the nearly one million 90% silver Carson City dollars scheduled to go on public sale early next month. Roy Markon, Commissioner of the General Services Administration's Federal Property Resources Service, said today the agency must revise previously announced prices which ranged from $20 to $42 per coin depending upon mint year and condition.

"We're in the most volatile precious metals market of recent record with silver prices on November 13, 1979, silver was selling for $16.16 a troy ounce. In less than two months that price has more than doubled," Markon said.

"In view of this, we cannot proceed on the basis of previously announced prices." Each silver dollar contains .7725 troy ounces of silver. When the bullion price of silver is $35 per troy ounce, the value of the silver in each coin is about $27. Markon said a sale of the coins at a price less than its bullion value at the time of the sale would be irresponsible.

The silver dollar sale is scheduled to begin February 8 and end April 8, 1980. The sale will feature three categories of the historic "Cartwheels": 1883-CC (195,745), 1884-CC (428,152), and "Mixed Years CC"-1878-1885 and 1889-1893 -- (299,390).

Public interest in the sale has been enthusiastic, with more than 350,000 people requesting information and order forms. "We're not going to disappoint all those people," Markon said. "The agency will proceed with the sale on schedule but at an appropriate price. Because of the rapid changes in the silver market we will announce the price for each category of coins immediately prior to the sale." Information and order forms, including the final prices, will appear in major daily newspapers -- including the national edition of the Wall Street Journal -- beginning February 8, 1980.

INCREDIBLE BUT TRUE!

Can't lose weight? Consider the case of Paul M. Kimmelmer of Pittsburgh. On Dec. 25, 1966, he weighed 487 pounds. He went on a crash diet of 300- to 600 calories a day. By August 1967, he had slimmed down to 130 pounds—a total loss of 357 pounds. He later stabilized his weight at 175 pounds.

Ron Hunt, infielder who played for various teams in the National League between 1963-74, led the league in getting hit by pitched balls seven years in a row. During his major league career, he was hit 243 times—a also a record of sorts.

Then there's the baseball that couldn't stop time—or at least a Timex. Billy Dicks of East Islip, N.Y. was at bat. The "pitcher" was a pitching machine, tossing balls at him at 85 miles per hour. A ball went wild, hit his Timex, which was thrown out of the band and into the next batting cage, where balls continued to pelt it. When it was all over and the Timex was retrieved it was still ticking away, keeping perfect time.

According to astronomers, as the sun's heat is increased, the rays will make life insupportable on earth. But don't get in a sweat over it. It's not supposed to happen for about ten million years.

Some things thought of as small can actually grow to tremendous size. A lemon picked from a tree in California weighed six pounds, four ounces, and measured 28 3/4 inches in circumference. A three-pound, 11-ounce orange was grown in Arizona. And a peanut grown on a farm in North Carolina was three and a half inches long when it was finally picked from a vine.

HOW TO OUT-FOX A FOX

... or the sad, sad story of Jonas McGillicuddy!

Old Jonas McGillicuddy was as shrewd as a fox with sixteen college degrees, including one from Harvard. He took great pride in bragging far and wide how he could stretch a dollar bill further than anybody.

Jonas was a farmer, and a good one. As careful with his tools and equipment as a mother cat with her kittens.

But ... one day he broke the handle out of his garden hoe ... went to town to look for a new one ... and ain't been the same ever since ...

Jonas bought most of his hardware stuff from a guy named Willard Davis. He'd run the store for thirty years, and knew everybody for miles around. Awful quiet fellow. Wouldn't get excited if his hair caught on fire.

"Need a hoe, Willard," Jonas said. "Whataya got in a good hoe for not too much money?"

Willard hauled out three hoes and laid 'em on the counter. Before he could say a word, Jonas picked up one and remarked that it was just like his old hoe.

"How much?" Jonas wanted to know.

"$3.79," said Willard.

"Too much," said Jonas.

"On?" said Willard.

"Too much," repeated Jonas. "Why I can get the same darn hoe exactly from Whoosis and Whatzis for $3.49, 'cause I looked in their catalog before I came to town. That's a whole 30 cents cheaper than your price!"

Willard didn't say anything for a minute. Just chewed a couple of times on his pipe.

Finally he said, "Jonas, I ain't going to argue with you. You're a good customer. My price of $3.79 is fair and square ... but I'll tell you what I'll do. I'll sell you that hoe 'mail order catalog' style."

"Let me get this right, Willard, you'll sell me this here hoe for just what it'd cost me by mail?"

"For you, Jonas, I will."

"It's a deal!" Jonas barked, before Willard could back down. "Here's your $3.49." He grabbed the hoe and started for the door.

"Hold on, Jonas, you owe me just a little more money," Willard said quietly.

"How so?" Jonas wanted to know.

"Well, said Willard, and he started to grin ... "it'd cost you 15 cents for a stamp to send in your order. That's $3.64 right there."

As Jonas started to turn purple, Willard went on ... "and then it'll cost you $1.20 more return postage from Chicago on your hoe. That's $4.84 and that's what you owe me."

Jonas was breathing a little hard as he hammered $4.84 down on the counter. Willard thanked him, nice as could be.

Once more Jonas reached for the hoe.

"Git your hands off that hoe, Jonas!" Willard said. He was grinning again. "You know darn well what kind of service you get from catalog outfits!"

Willard took the hoe out of Jonas' stunned fingers, and laid it back on the shelf. "Come in two weeks from now, Jonas, and you can have it!"

The moral of this story is simple ... always remember ALL the EXTRA COSTS and DELAYS when you look at a price in any mail-order catalog.

You are probably smarter than either Jonas or the proverbial fox. So ... you'll be quick to realize that 9 times out of 10 you're money ahead buying from local stores ... despite the pretty picture and pretty words in catalogs.

These are just a few of the reasons ...

1. SEE, FEEL, or TRY ON what you buy BEFORE you pay for it.

2. No EXTRA expenses like postage, money orders, etc.

3. No LONG WAITING for your purchase to arrive.

4. BETTER SERVICE, alterations, exchanges, installation, etc.

And ... you may want to remember that mail order companies pay no taxes in our town or county, while local merchants share your tax load.

Mail order houses make no contribution of time or money to local drives and campaigns, some of which YOU may work on. Your home town merchants DO!

In the long run ... you're money and time ahead if you shop here, and not out of a catalog.

Houston Oiler visits at home

Kenneth King, son of Louisa and Walter King, of Clarendon spent a week at home with his family and left at the end of last week for Houston, and the Oiler football squad.

Kenny had been asked to come by the Press office for an interview and this he did. King reported that his rib injury, which has kept him on the inactive medical list, is healed and he was reactivated the last day of the season—to late to play.

He is looking forward to a good year with the Oilers next season with the opportunity to play more.

Asked if he was acquainted with Earl Campbell, Kenny stated that Campbell was one of the first persons he met when he went to Houston. He was invited to his home, accepted the invitation, ate ice cream and drank Cokes and got to know Earl. Kenny reports Campbell is a really nice person.

Hints For Homeowners

Home Improvement, Safety And Economy TIPS TO HELP YOU

Here are some "little known facts" about hand tools for home repair and improvement you may find helpful as well as interesting.

Many of us have heard the term "crescent" wrench and think of it as simply a type of hand tool. While it is, it's the name that's interesting because it came into common usage following the introduction many years ago of America's first adjustable wrench. The company which made it is named Crescent. Like many "firsts," the item and its maker's name became one and the same, and still are. An adjustable-jaw wrench is a toolbox essential because it does the work of a whole set of fixed-opening tools at a fraction of the cost.

Measuring is somehow necessary with almost every job we tackle. A steel tape with a positive non-slip blade locking device and an end hook that frees one hand for marking is best for maximum accuracy and convenience. A popular type is a "Two-Way" which Lufkin designed so that the blade graduations read left-to-right or right-to-left, and are never upside down or backwards.

Chain saws are handy to prune trees or keep the woodbox filled, but like all cutting tools must be kept sharp to be efficient—and expert sharpeners are scarce. So Nicholson, makers of saws for 100-plus years, developed a chainsaw file guide with a built-in angle that gives professional results in the hands of a beginner. At under $9, it pays for itself the first time used.

Perhaps the most practical advice makers of tools offer is that they be used only for the purpose intended, and that top quality is true economy. That means, for example, that a good screwdriver should last an owner's lifetime, but it won't if used as a pry bar. There are fine tools for every use at your hardware dealer's, and he can help you select the right tools for whatever job is at hand.

In the 1800's Sam Carter became a major general of the U.S. Army and a rear admiral in the U.S. Navy.
