Fifth War Loan Quota For Texas Set At $464 Million Dollars

A state quota of $464 million dollars for the Fifth War Loan, June 12 - July 8, has been announced by State Chairman Nathan Adams of the War Finance Committee of Texas. This is the largest sum yet and the drive will be "a big and vital effort", Adams said.

Of the total, $236 million has been set for individual Texans alone, $125 million of this to be in Series E Bonds.

Counties throughout the state are announcing their quotas now.

"It is going to be big and tough—the biggest and the toughest drive," Adams said in warning that all of the nearly seven million people of Texas must face the facts.

But "it can be done", Adams insisted. "It has been proved."

He pointed out that during the Fourth War Loan more was raised than the total quota for the Fifth. The over-all goal for the Fourth was $395 million and Texans subscribed $480 million.

"No one is exempt," Adams said. "Our boys are dying for you and for me. Think of the invasion and you cannot think of not buying war bonds."

"Our victory volunteers must, of course, do a large part in cutting out the great Texas market," he said in praising the past efforts of the victory volunteers.

"It will be a severe home-front test for every person in the state," he said.

Dairy Production Payments

The War Food Administration has announced, conditioned upon congressional provisions for administrative expense, the following rates for dairy production payments in Texas:

May 1, 1944 through August 31, 1944—45 cents hundredweight on milk and 6 cents a pound on butter fat.

September 1, 1944, through March 31, 1945—70 cents hundredweight on milk and 10 cents a pound on butterfat.

Producers are advised to maintain records of production and sales; however, no payments are to be made until all county offices are advised to begin making payments. No announcement has been made as to the number of months' production that will be included in each payment; however, this information will be furnished as soon as it is received.

This is purely a voluntary proposition and the purpose is to clean up the cemetery on Memorial Day.

RATIONING AT A GLANCE

By PEPPY BLOCKER

All persons of Donley County who are interested in any phase of Price or Price Control are invited to a special meeting in Judge R. Y. King's office promptly at four o'clock Friday afternoon, May 19. Mr. George Young, District Field Representative from Lubbock, will be present to answer questions in regard to this important subject. YOU are invited—YOU are urged to be present! Perhaps you think "Oh, there'll be enough people there—I'm not really needed." But YOU ARE NEEDED! Stop for a moment and think how much money this "Price Panel Thingamajig" has saved you in the past year—and incidentally, it's saved you plenty. Then, think again—very seriously—and the very least you can do in support of this movement is to give one hour of your time by attending this meeting. Remember, it's Friday afternoon of this week—four o'clock sharp—in Judge King's office. And we promise it won't take more than an hour. This means YOU, regardless of your Club affiliation or social status. See you Friday!

Individuals needing canning sugar may apply to the Rationing Office in the Goldston Bldg., after May 15th. Twenty pounds per person may be issued for the canning season. You may receive certificates for the entire twenty pounds at the first application or you may receive half of it now and half later. If all is issued now no further application for canning sugar may be made until after February 28, 1945.

Bring War Ration Book IV with you for each individual for which you are applying for sugar. If it is not convenient for you to call at the office you may request these sugar coupons by mail.

We plan to be in Hedley one or two days in June for the purpose of issuing coupons to those who can not apply to the local board. The dates that we will be in Hedley will be published in advance.

Ration Reminder

MEATS and FATS — Book IV, red stamps A8 through T8 good for 10 points valid indefinitely.

Mrs. W. T. Lowe returned home Friday from a visit with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lowe at Wellington.

DON W. GINTER NOW PARATROOPER

Fort Benning, Ga., May 16—Tec. 4th Gr. Don W. Ginter, husband of Mrs. Jewell V. Ginter of Clarendon, has won the right to wear Wings and Boots of the United States Army Paratroopers. He has completed four weeks of jump training during which he made five jumps from a plane in flight, the last a tactical jump at night involving a combat problem on landing.

Millions Helped By Poppies

"Every penny from poppies that will be sold on the streets of this and thousands of other towns, villages and cities in the country, is contributed to the welfare and rehabilitation work of The American Legion and Auxiliary," Mrs. Huffman, President of the Auxiliary Unit 126, said today. "Because this work is being done by volunteers the money goes a long way."

"Many people have wondered what will become of the money collected by the volunteer workers Saturday, May 27. I wish everyone could see what help this money brings to the disabled and their families. Children left fatherless by two world wars are the special concern of the Legion and the Auxiliary. Their needs are often great, especially their human needs. We try to give them comfort both for the body and the mind."

"Of course the government looks after the physical welfare of the disabled men who are in hospitals in almost every state, but there are things which the government cannot provide, such as the understanding aid and the personal attention that so often helps a disabled man and which often helps to keep a family together when the chief breadwinner is incapacitated."

"This is what the money from the poppy sale helps to accomplish. And we hope that this year more and more people will buy the poppies and show their interest in and their sympathy for the men who have fought for them and are now struggling to get back to the point where they can again become self supporting."

—Mrs. Huffman, President of the Auxiliary Unit 126.

DONLEY COUNTY MEMORIAL COMMITTEE MEETS LAST TUESDAY

A good representation was present at the meeting of the Donley County Memorial Committee held at the American Legion Hall in Clarendon last Tuesday evening.

It was reported that a total of $2422.24 has been turned in to the three banks of the county to date. This is a cash fund that will be kept until the entire fund is raised and will be spent to build a permanent honor roll of the boys and girls from Donley County who serve in the armed forces of our country during this war.

Several communities are over their quotas and others are planning drives to complete the fund. It is hoped that the quotas can all be raised before the next War Bond Drive starts.

Mr. Shelton Nash of the White Fish community brought in $54.00 this week which put them considerably over the top. Hurrah, for White Fish. Who's next?

Mrs. Cap Lane has for house guest this week her small granddaughter Jane Wilson of Paducah.

Dist. Lions Club Conference Held At Plainview

Boss Lion J. R. Gillham, H. T. Burton, and O. D. Lowry represented the Clarendon Lions Club at the annual District Conference held at Plainview, May 14th and 15th. Forty-one of the sixty-seven clubs were represented with over 400 delegates in attendance.

Chief points of interest on the program to the local delegates were the Necrology Ceremony by Grady Wilson of Amarillo and a talk by former District Governor H. C. Pender of Lubbock. Both of these men paid deserving tribute to Lion D. O. Stallings, deceased member of the local club.

Other speakers of note were Roy Keaton, Lions State Secretary, Austin, Texas, who gave a brief summary and history of Lionism in Texas, and International Director Howard R. Sisson of the St. Joseph, Missouri, Lions Club.

John McLean of Hereford, Lee Johnson of Wink, and Russ Harding of El Paso were candidates for district governor for 1944-1945. Childress was selected as Convention City for 1945.

The Hedley Lions Club was well represented at the meeting but a complete list of their delegates is not available at this time.

Royce E. Turnbow Now Bombing Nazidom

Editors Note—The article that follows was received by the Leader Wednesday of this week with a photo attached showing a former Clarendon youth talking to three Red Cross volunteers in England. The photo was received too late to have a cut made so we are giving the piece attached. Lt. Turnbow is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Turnbow of California, and former residents of Clarendon.

An Eighth AAF Liberator Station, England—2/Lt. Royce E. Turnbow, of Clarendon, Tex., pilot of the B-24 Liberator nicknamed Mister Intruder, is talking about throat microphones (used for intercommunication aboard the big bombers) with a trio of British Red Cross volunteers who visited Turnbow's base recently. British Red Cross people are among the first to arrive at the scene of an aircraft accident—friend or foe. From pilot Turnbow they learned first-hand information on the crew positions, various entrances and hatches in the ship, and where to expect to find live ammunition.

Sandy "Texas" Turnbow is a veteran of 14 missions—including assaults on Berlin, Friedrichshaven, Brunswick, Bernburg, Pas de Calais (three times), and others.

The closest he's come to meeting the British Red Cross "officially" was when he returned from Germany one day with a flak-riddled bomber. The brakes had been shot away, landing gear damaged, and the engineer had to crank the landing gear down manually because the hydraulic mechanism was gone. But Turnbow brought his ship in safely. None was injured.

REDUCES HEAVY HOGS CEILING

The ceiling price of live hogs weighing over 240 pounds has been reduced by 75c per hundredweight, effective May 15. Office of Price Administration announces. The action was taken to discourage feeding of grain, especially corn, to heavyweight hogs and to encourage marketing of hogs before they reach 240 pounds.

Pressure Cooker Gauges To Be Checked

Miss Maurice Berry, local Home Economics instructor, announced this week that for the next few weeks she will check the temperature gauges on pressure cookers to see if they are operating correctly and safely. This check-up determines whether the food is being cooked too much or too little and the check-up is to see if the gauge is registering the correct heat of the inside of the cooker.

This is being done now before the main canning season starts, and if your cooker shows over 5 pounds of pressure off, it should be sent in to the factory for correction as it can cause spoilage of food and also can be dangerous.

Those of you that have cookers and wish to have them checked, should get in touch with Miss Berry at the Latson apartments or call 381-J.

The annual City Clean-up week which started the first of this week is showing good results all over the city as citizens seem eager to get their premises cleaned up before the hot weather sets in.

The city wagon will start on the rounds to pick up the trash the first of next week, so everyone is asked to have their stuff piled up in the alley ready when the wagon comes by. You are asked to burn everything burnable as that type of trash will not be hauled.

If you should be missed in the round-up, all you have to do is call the city hall and they will send the wagon by.

If you have not already cleaned-up, please do so this week so we can keep our little city as clean as we possibly can which will help prevent diseases.

DRAFT PROSPECTS UNDER NEW RULES

Draft prospects of men in various age groups have been outlined by National Selective Service Headquarters in a recent statement of policy, subject to adjustment as needs of the armed forces change—men 18 through 25—likely to see service unless irreplaceable in essential activity; men 26 through 29—likely to remain in civil life for the time being if found to be "necessary to and regularly engaged in" war production or in support of national health, safety and interest; men 30 through 37—likely to remain in civil life for an indefinite period, if "regularly engaged in" war production or in support of national health, safety and interest; men 38 through 44—not currently acceptable for induction by the armed forces.

Leader Plant To Be In New Home After Thursday

We are going to press early this week so we can get a good early start on moving the Leader office, plant and equipment to our new location next door to the Antro hotel building.

We should have everything moved by Thursday night or Friday morning and anyone will find us at the new location after that time. The remainder of the week will be used to reset the equipment so that we can be in operation in time to get the regular issue out next week.

We wish to thank those turning in news and our business firms for turning their advertising copy early, for it is this kind of cooperation that has enabled us to work in enough slack time between issues to move and not have to miss an issue of the paper. Again we thank all of you. Come to see us at our new location.

Ruth Donnell is visiting in Mineral Wells.

LIBRARY NOTES

By Mrs. C. A. Burton

There are now in print a total of 1,215,970 copies of "My Friend Flicka" and "Thunderhead" by Mary O'Hara. Our copies of both are in constant demand.

We will all be interested when Warner Bros. biographical film, "The Adventures of Mark Twain" comes to Clarendon. It is said that the picture is quite true to the story of the life of this, America's greatest humorous writer. The picture is said to begin with Mark Twain splashing through a swamp chasing his famous "Jumping Frog of Calaveras."

There seems no saturation point for the sale of "Gone With the Wind" in the cheap reprint edition. One bookseller reports selling at least one copy every day.

He said he had not expected it to sell to any extent because he thought every family in the country had a copy. You know a reprint is an exact copy of the original edition, only with cheaper paper.

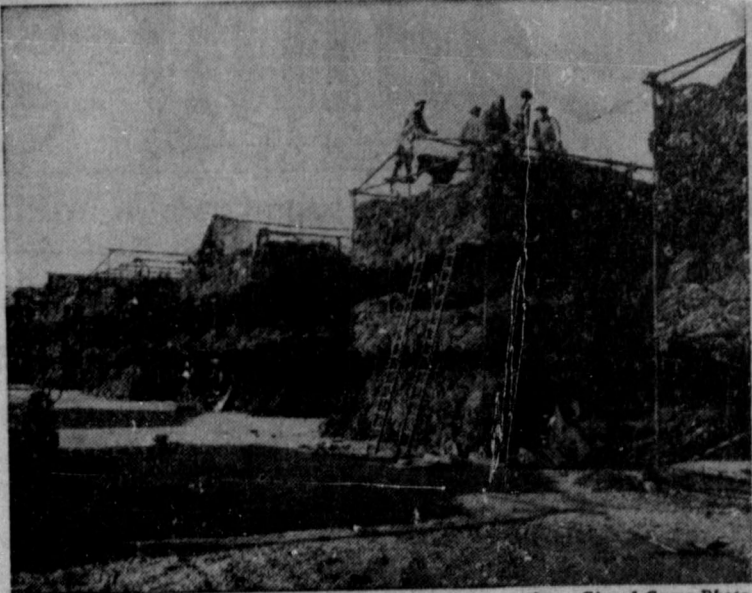

Bob Hope's book, "I Never Left Home," will be published soon. The first printing will be larger than that ever accounted a new author.

"Chicken Every Sunday" has been so popular that the authors are asking $350,000 for the movie rights.

Jan Valtin, author of "Out of the Night," who has been in the army for the required period, has applied for his American Citizenship, thus terminating the legal battle which arose from his admission that he entered the country illegally.

Again the Panhandle appears in the literary field with the announcement that Mrs. Magye Cullen of Wayside has recently had published a book of poems called "Shock Absorbers." It seems that she is also the author of several musical compositions.

Lin Yutang who refueled from China to the U. S. some years ago, and who is the most noted Chinese author of the present day, is writing a book about his recent trip to China. His daughter, Adet Lin, is enroute to China in a WAC uniform to work for China's Blood Book. Three of Lin Yutang's books are on our shelves.

Erich Maria Remarque, author of "All Quiet on the Western Front" of World War I fame is finishing a new play. The above book is on our shelves.

Boyce House has put his "I Give You Texas" into book form and it is proving a phenomenal best-seller. The ninth edition has been printed and is on sale and work is being rushed by the publishers, Naylor Co. of San Antonio, on a tenth edition of 10,000 copies. It is thought the sales will reach 100,000 copies.

Miss Eula Naylor recently brought us a splendid set of books on teaching—which had been passed on to her in a move. And this week Mr. and Mrs. Larimer did likewise with some books on business education, and Mrs. May brought us two used volumes of fiction. The thoughtfulness of our friends is appreciated.

A story is told of a fellow making a talk in an Amarillo church recently. In the course of his remarks he stated that "there is about seventy-five honky tonks in

Cotton Specialist Offers Advice

Texas farmers, high-seed content cotton this year will yield the maximum income from your cotton crop, advises Dr. A. B. Cox, University of Texas cotton specialist.

Citing the relatively high current price of cotton seed—$56 per ton to the farmer—Dr. Cox urged that farmers study carefully the varieties of cotton before deciding which type to plant.

Factors to be considered in determining the relative profit to be derived from the different varieties, he listed as:

(1) yield per acre of lint, (2) yield per acre of seed, (3) staple length, (4) grade and character of lint, (5) quick fruiting, (6) size of bolls, (7) stormproofness, and (8) adaptability to mechanical harvesting where this method of harvest is used.

"Cotton lint and cottonseed are produced to sell," he said. "Farmers are interested in securing the greatest net return for the two products combined."

"The value of lint per pound is about eight times the value of seed in the case of middling 15/16 inch staple, but only four times as valuable per acre where the weight of seed is 2/3 that of lint."

"If a farmer is getting 200 pounds of lint per acre from a variety of cotton that produces 15/16 inch staple, he should get at least 224 pounds per acre from a variety that produces only 3/4 inch staple, and the amount of seed for the short staple should be at least equal to the other. He would have to get 164 pounds from a variety that would yield 1 1/4 inch staple."

"The value of cottonseed is now approximately $56 per ton to the farmer. If a farmer is producing a variety of cotton which yields a lint percentage of 33 1/3, and is getting 200 pounds of lint per acre, he would get approximately 400 pounds of seed. Four hundred pounds of seed at 2.8 cents a pound would be $11.20.

"Now, if the farmer changed from this variety to one with a lint percentage of 40, and got 200 pounds of lint, he would get only 300 pounds of seed, which at 2.8 cents per pound, would bring only $8.40 per acre. The gross difference is $2.80 in favor of the high seed producing variety."

To these calculations, he pointed ed out, must be added picking and ginning costs, which still leave the high seed-yielding variety the winner by $1.80 per acre, other factors being equal.

The staple diet in Tibet is tea with rancid butter.

1926 BOOK CLUB

A very interesting and successful year for the 1926 Book Club ended Tuesday night with the President's Dinner.

This delightful occasion was held in the banquet room of the Methodist church with Mesdames Bairfield, Gillham, Morris, Lowry, and Miss Polk as hostesses.

A very clever nautical playlet was written by the retiring president, Mrs. Bill Ray, and was read by Mrs. Frank White Jr. Mrs. Allensworth very graciously acted the part of the mother whose son has gone to the navy. Several musical selections, which added the pathos to the program, were sung by Mrs. Brumley accompanied by Mrs. Bryan.

The year's work was likened to a ship and the captain, gave medals to the crew upon embarkation. Then, the ship was released to the new captain, Mrs. Lowry, and her crew, to launch on the waters for the new year.

The tables were arranged in the shape of an anchor. At each place a small anchor guarded by a sailor, guided each member to her post of duty. Through the center of the tables were small ships on reflectors and bowls of red, white and blue flowers, that gave a very effective setting.

The hostesses served a delicious two-course dinner to thirty members.

Mrs. R. A. Chamberlain returned to Clarendon last week after visiting the past four months with her daughters in Ft. Worth and Greenville.

MOTHER'S DAY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Kerlee honored Mrs. Kerlee's mother, Mrs. Della Smith with a Mother's Day dinner Sunday. Those enjoying the dinner were Mrs. Kerlee's brothers Homer Smith and wife of Plaska and S. J. Smith and sister Frankie and Mr. Kerlee's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Gillen and daughter Pauline of Lelia Lake, also Mr. and Mrs. R. Gamble and daughter Phyllis of Midway, also Miss Annie Kerlee of Lelia Lake, all enjoyed the day wishing Mrs. Smith many happy occasions.

HARMONY CLASS PARTY

The Harmony Class met in the home of Mrs. Frank Phelan last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Chas. Bairfield as co-hostess.

Vice-President, Mrs. J. R. Gillham, presided over the business, and Mrs. M. R. Allensworth gave a very interesting book review on "The Road".

Lovely refreshments were served to thirty members and guests.

James W. McCrary
Now Stationed
In California

James Wesley McCrary, Coxswain, of McLean, Texas, formerly of Clarendon, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCrary of Clarendon, and husband of Mrs. Bernice McCrary of Amarillo, is now stationed in California after serving some time in the Aleutians.

James entered the Navy Feb. 9, 1943, finishing boot camp and training for Landing Craft at San Diego, Calif., where he was stationed for five months. Going to San Francisco, he was shipped out immediately to the Aleutians, where he was stationed five months, spending three months of that time at Kiska.

Arriving back in the States, and after spending a two-week leave home with his wife and other relatives, he reported back to San Diego, Dec. 28th. After a few weeks stay there, he was moved to Camp Pendleton Boat Base at Oceanside, Calif., where he stayed six weeks, then moved to Morro Bay, Calif., where he is now stationed. He will probably be there for some time. Mrs. McCrary has been with her husband since January 1st.

While in the Aleutians, James Wesley wrote the following poem about his unit which was printed in the Kiska News. Since then his unit has been changed to Unit ten.

A SAILOR'S AMBITION

When our boats are loaded
And the orders are to go,
We'll dash up in the harbor

And unload on Tokyo.

We'll get old Tojo started
And we'll keep him on the run
We're out to win this battle
And to set the rising sun.

Then we'll turn our boats around
And head them for Berlin
We'll see if Mr. Hitler
Can take it on the chin.

We don't want to be McArthur's
Or Napoleon of old,
But just a bit of a chance
To knock the Japs out cold.

We are the Landing Forces
And we have a job to do
A big and important job
And we're sure to see it through.
Our officers are fine fellows
Our boatswain mates are swell
Our seamans are the kind
That will fight their way through hell.

When this war is over
And the stories fall fast and thick,
We'll proudly tell our children
We were unit six.

The Marines are rough and rugged;
The soldier brave and true
But they depend on landing forces
To see them safely through.

We don't care for hero medals;

We don't care for campaign bars;
We just want to go back home
Where the flag is full of stars.

There is another big invasion
And we all long for the day
When we dash up to the shore
And invade the U. S. A.

The ancient Greeks did not have family names; the Romans usually had three.

Monte Wolford, Warren Neighbors, Iva Dell and Lois Marie Williams, Cadet Leland Davis, Beth, Neva Lou, and Fancher Davis. Everyone had a very nice time.

Who kept the Cadet cornered all the time Tuesday night?

We sometimes wonder why Buster didn't come to the party, it wouldn't have been because Reba wasn't there. Was it?

Who were the kids that were knocking on other peoples doors Tuesday night?

"The Fleet" showed off Monday morning. We wish the Cadet lots of good luck.

The Lelia Grade School sponsored the coronation of the "Queen of May" Friday night. Everyone enjoyed it very much.

Some of the Junior and Senior girls have been taking interest in typing in the last week. How come girls, it wasn't because the Cadet typed too, was it?

Everyone is looking forward to the last of school now. Calendars are in all rooms with the days marked off.

It so happened that Lois Marie saw the Cadet and Tula Mae Saturday night, while she was riding around with a certain boy.

Say, Velma, where did you catch that bad cold?

Say, Bobby, are you losing your technique?

Lois Marie, Catherine, and Iva Dell got the car Saturday night. Were they surprised.

The Baccalaureate Sermon will be this coming Sunday night, in the gym.

T/Sgt. Shelby Bell and wife of Vernon spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Bell and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Odos Caraway. Mrs. Bell remained for a longer visit.

In its atmosphere of kindness, home is hospitality headquarters with Wel-come so often summed up in three words, Have a "Coke". To a service man it expresses a bond of understanding and friendliness. MOOS OF THE MOMENT of the Kraft Dairy Farm Service

BY UNCLE BOB

One of the most interesting developments in dairying, in the past few years, is the subject of rapid milking. Almost all of the agricultural schools and extension services have been conducting experiments on rapid milking and they're pretty enthusiastic about the results. The experiments seem to show that you can get more milk by this new method.

In Circular 283, Missouri tells why this is so. The circular also describes the three steps in rapid milking. These apply whether you use a milking machine or milk by hand.

The steps are: (1) Massage the cow's udder in the process of washing with warm water. (2) Start milking one minute later, removing the milk in 3 to 4 minutes. Strip rapidly. (3) Stop milking as soon as the milk stops flowing.

The increased flow of milk and the shortening of milking-time are advantages any time. They are especially important in war-time.

So, if you would like to have more detailed information on the how and why of rapid milking, I suggest that you write for Circular 283, Agricultural Extension Service, University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri.*

Now, if we could just talk the cows into growing spigots instead of udders, we'd be all set. But the cows no spigot da English.

Two booklets issued by Texas A&M College give some highly useful information on feeding dairy cows. These are Extension Bulletins No. 15 and No. B-69. They point out that profitable dairying depends on an ample supply of good, cheap feed, and that silage is the best substitute for pasture.

Bulletin B-69 says that in normal years over the most of Texas at least three tons of silage per cow should be put down. In dry years six tons is recommended. Dry weather to date this spring suggests that it is worthwhile to plan for plenty of silage for 1944. Speaking of supplementary grain feeding, these bulletins point out that the kind of grain mixture to use depends on the kind of feed that can be grown and the kind of roughage the cow is getting.

The publications contain tables showing how much and what kind of supplementary feeding to use. To get these bulletins, write the Extension Service at Texas A&M College, College Station, Texas.

Another booklet that belongs in your collection is Minnesota's

Extension Bulletin No. 218. It gives some very helpful facts and suggestions on supplementary summer feeding.

For example, it points out that a cow on good pasture can gather and digest from 100 to 160 pounds of grass daily. A cow consuming 155 pounds of grass a day will have enough feed to produce slightly more than one pound of butterfat a day.

Thus, it is pretty obvious that the cow producing more than a pound of fat a day will need some supplementary feeding, while the cow which produces less should have none. To get this bulletin, write Extension Service, University of Minnesota, St. Paul, Minnesota.*

One nice thing about being a cow is that you can eat all day without having to spend any ration points.

Which reminds me of a very fine booklet on pasture improvement and management by Illinois. This booklet offers helpful advice on nearly every subject concerning pastures.

Particularly important right now is the warning it contains against overgrazing. To prevent this, it suggests alternate grazing. This means dividing the pasture so that the animals may graze one half thoroughly before moving on to the other half.

After the first half has recovered, the animals may be brought back, while the second half recuperates. The booklet also suggests that you clip your pastures with a mower whenever weeds threaten to smother out the pasture growth. Write for Circular 465, Extension Service, University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill.*

A person can get so absorbed in the amount of feed a cow needs that it's sort of easy to forget that she needs plenty of water, too. In fact, a shortage of water will cut down the flow of milk faster than anything else. So be sure your cows are getting plenty of cool, clean water. They need anywhere from 15 to 30 gallons a day.

And put a little chocolate in mine.

YARD JOBS FOR MAY

Charles Reed, Donley County Agent, states that these landscaping jobs are on the calendar for May. They range from dividing iris to hunting for bag worms. Here is the May landscape calendar as prepared by Sadie Hatfield Miss Hatfield is the specialist in landscape gardening for the A&M College Extension Service.

First, in addition to looking for cedar bag worms, be on the lookout for aphids on shrubs and annuals. If you find that plant leaves are unnaturally yellow with green veins, they may need a dose of copperas. Or if you find signs of powdery mildew on foliage of young shoots, you'd better apply dusting sulphur right away. Spraying with Bordeaux mixture—that's B-o-r-d-e-a-u-x mixture—will do the job too. Dusting sulphur, including copper sulphur dust, also will control black-spot and die-back in roses.

Now for other jobs—It's a good idea to prune rapidly growing plants—especially to prevent long, ungainly branches. And be certain to finish pruning the shrubs which blossomed early. One other thing which will help your young shrubs and flowers have better shape is to stake them.

You may want to divide and reset all iris that have bloomed, but you can expect these to require additional water and care. The point is—protect your foliage; don't cut it too hastily. And the reason these leaves furnish the food which enables the plant to put on blooms next year.

And here are some tips for good care of your shrubs. Fertilize them with a top dressing of barnyard manure. Then cultivate and mulch them to hold moisture in the beds. Every week or so you'll need to water them thoroughly—but don't sprinkle them daily. That's harmful for it brings roots to the surface. For additional information on the care of shrubs and plants, see your county agent at Clarendon.

Mrs. Faye Hearn of Ft. Worth visited her sister, Mrs. Clyde Butler over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Butler were also week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Butler and son Glen Chester of Claude spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Butler.

Misses Coy and Lucile Looper are at Amarillo visiting relatives this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Blocker and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Blocker Jr. and Mrs. H. F. Matthews were shopping in Amarillo Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. Hanks were in Sylvester, Texas Saturday where he conducted funeral services for an old friend, Mrs. C. M. Webb.

Fern Martin was brought home Sunday in an ambulance from Amarillo, and made the trip fine.

Wilma Dee Smith of Dallas spent Mother's Day at home.

Don't Misinterpret The Facts

What's behind the easing up of the food rationing program? Several things—temporary abundances—shortage of storage space, principally. That's welcome news to the consumer—and in many respects to the producer as well.

But because we have plenty now, that doesn't necessarily mean we'll have plenty later. Take meat for example. Not long ago all meats except beef steaks and roasts were removed from rationing restrictions. Here's what War Food Administrator Jones has to say on this subject: "Too many are prone to take out food supply for granted. It will be even harder to meet our needs this year than it was last year."

The problem primarily is one of storage. On April 1 about 80 per cent of this nation's cooler and freezer space was filled. At the same time, shipping space for overseas was loaded to maximum capacity. Since this was true, the only safe use to be made of perishable foods like meat and eggs was to eat them.

There are some other factors, too. Drouths, floods, and tight feed supplies had to be considered. In fact, the feed situation made it necessary to give producers complete freedom in marketing their lambs, sheep, calves, and hogs. This early, it's impossible to predict when these meats will return to the ration list.

Now about butter—You remember, creamery butter has been reduced to 12 points—and other kitchen fats have been off the ration list for several weeks. For one thing, more butter is made in the spring. Then, as long as butter was 16 points per pound, home-makers used it sparingly, so cold storage stocks went up. Eventually there was enough available for civilian demands at 12 points a pound.

So—in the light of these facts, the Texas A&M College Extension Service sends this advice to farmers: Don't let up in your efforts to grow more in '44.
