MUD AND FLOOD IN FRANCE—Autumn rains have added to the vicissitudes of American soldiers in the European battle areas. Above, the sign at the left is unnecessary. There will be no speeding on this Ordnance Depot road. Below, an ammunition truck fords a river in France while Engineers start trestle bridge construction.

Christmas Gifts For Yanks Who "Gave"

The American Legion and its Auxiliary are sponsoring the world's largest Christmas party for servicemen and women in government hospitals over the country. They are trying to collect 500,000 Christmas gift boxes for delivery to every wounded and sick fighting man or woman in a hospital on December 25th.

The local Legion Auxiliary Unit 126, with Mrs. Lea as president, is sponsoring this worthy cause in Clarendon and vicinity.

If you care to, you may place your name and address in your gift box so the one receiving your gifts will be able to thank you for your kindness.

Gifts may be left at Douglas & Goldston Drug, Greene Dry Goods Co. or brought to the American Legion Hall, Dec. 11th after 2:30 where all gifts will be packed that night for delivery to some hospital. If you do not care to wrap these gifts, the Auxiliary will do so for you.

For further information listen in each Wednesday night for Eddie Cantor's "Time to Smile" program, who is co-operating with this movement, at 8 o'clock over N.B.C.

Don't forget to consult the suggested gift list given below, and remember no "eats" or war stories. Let's remember the "Yanks who have given for us."

LT. COL. RUFUS CARHART RECEIVES PROMOTION

Lt. Col. Rufus Carhart, stationed at Camp Bowie, Brownwood, has been promoted to his present rank, it was learned recently by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Whitfield Carhart.

Mr. and Mrs. Carhart were residents of Clarendon several years ago. Col. Carhart went to school here.

Bronchos Defeat Canyon Calves

Climaxing a rather uneventful season the Clarendon Bronchos defeated the W.T.S.T.C. Calves from Canyon here Thanksgiving day to the tune of 25-6. Before the afternoon had passed, practically every man on the squad had seen action.

The Bronchos worked together beautifully and used practically every play in the books. Had the regulars played the entire game, the score undoubtedly would have been much higher. But thanks to Coach Naylor, many of the boys got to see action who had warmed the bench most of the season.

Most of the boys who had been injured previously returned to the game and did a splendid job. W. S. Carlile, mainspring in the backfield at the start of the season and who was out all season due to a broken ankle, saw action part of the time and inspired his teammates.

Although the Bronchos were not champions in their district, they played the game hard, and hold the respect of Clarendon fans who watched them go farther than most anticipated at the season's beginning.

AAA Committee Elections

Farmer committeemen who will have important roles in war and post-war farm problems will be named at annual AAA elections in Donley county between December 11th and 16th. Locations and dates of the election meetings will be announced as soon as they are arranged.

men for each community, and delegates from these meetings will later name three county committeemen and alternates. Conservation practices for 1945, production goals, and general agricultural outlook will be among the subjects discussed at the meetings.

Committeemen represent both their neighbor farmers and the executive branch of the Federal government in the work and responsibilities of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency. Their recommendations, based on personal knowledge and experience, help shape agricultural programs to fit the needs of their own localities and to meet the problems of farmers and consumers throughout the nation.

"The election meetings will give local farmers a chance to consider the problems and the demands of the coming year," says Mr. Simmons, county AAA chairman. "A program is being arranged for a full discussion of what's ahead. Every farmer should attend the meeting in his community to take part in that discussion and to vote in this election."

Quail Season Opens Dec. 1st

The 1944 quail season opens tomorrow, December 1st with a very poor hunting season in prospect due to a reported scarcity of birds.

Heavy rains and a large number of hawks circling the country are said to be the cause of the shortage.

There will be a large number of hunters, local and out of town, out to get their bag limit regardless of the scarcity of birds, shells, and facing a nice crisp cool spell. Reports of good or bad hunts will be the main topic of conversation after the week end has passed, and most everyone has had their chance at the choicest of game birds.

Home For Thanksgiving

Mrs. E. W. Bromley had her children and grandchildren home for the Thanksgiving holidays. They were Mr. and Mrs. Tom B. Bromley of San Antonio, Mrs. R. R. Burnett and daughter Mrs. Harold Dexter of Ardmore, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bromley and children Ann and Pete.

SHERIFF GUY WRIGHT DISCOVERS PRELIMINARY TO JAIL BREAK

While making his rounds of inspection at the county jail last Friday, Sheriff Guy Wright discovered where the only boarder of that well known hostelry had loosened seven bricks in the wall of the run-around and would possibly have escaped the next time he was let in to take a bath, had the discovery not been made.

The would be escapee is W. G. Lindsey, a resident of Wood county. He was returned here recently by Sheriff Wright, and is being held on a burglary and forgery charge, awaiting the action of the Funeral services were held last Thursday afternoon at the Buntin Funeral Chapel for Jim Wilson with Rev. Hal Upchurch officiating.

Mr. Wilson was found dead at his home here last Monday week ago. He was a pioneer cowpuncher and worked on the J. A. Ranch up until 10 years ago when he moved to Clarendon to make his home. He came to Donley county in 1900.

He is survived by three brothers, several nieces and nephews and a host of friends. Mrs. Gladys Wiseman, a niece of Henrietta, Texas was the only relative present for the service.

Pallbearers were C. W. Taylor, John Hunt, John Rhea, Boy Blackwell, Jim Headrick and Frank Barton.

About forty JA ranch cowboys were honorary pallbearers.

Burial was in Citizens Cemetery with Buntin Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

HIGH SEAS GIFT BOXES

The appeal of last week by the Red Cross for gift items to make up boxes for men who will be on the High Seas when Christmas time comes, was met with splendid response, stated individuals in charge of the movement.

The quota of boxes for the local chapter was 40 and gift items were brought in to fill boxes to exceed that amount with the school children from the South Ward and Jr. High and interested individuals bringing in the small local Red Cross chapter will go a long ways toward making our servicemen happy December 25th while they are on the high seas enroute to our many battlefronts.

The local chapter wishes to express their appreciation to everyone for the splendid response.

6th War Loan Drive Slow In County

REAL WINTER WEATHER FELT HERE THIS MORNING

The first real winter weather of the season was felt here this morning as the temperature dropped to a low of 15.9 degrees at 8:30. The official reading was taken at the Municipal Airport weather station.

The mass of cold air reaching here, came from up around the Dakota's where a low of 14 degrees below zero was registered last night.

The weather forecast is for continued cold throughout the day and colder tonight.

Mrs. Lena Antrobus returned from Okla. City Wednesday where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Tren Stargel.

Otis Owens Loses Heel In Duck Hunt

Otis Owens, prominent Hedley farmer, suffered the loss of his right heel while duck hunting last Saturday near Lelia Lake. The accident occurred while Mr. Owens and a companion were crawling up on some ducks. The companion's gun accidentally discharged and struck Mr. Owens' right heel, tearing a big chunk out.

He is reported to be improving nicely at this time. He is at the Clinic-Adair Hospital.

Some of Mr. Owens' Clarendon friends lay the accident to his twisting too many tails. In case

From all reports obtainable, the Sixth War Loan drive in Donley county has not bogged down, but apparently seems to be slow in getting started. As you know, the drive started last Monday a week ago and only a small fraction of the $310,000 quota has been raised in these two weeks, and there are only 16 more days in the drive.

The most important part of the drive is to raise the E Bond quota of $80,000. This is the bond series that is purchased mostly by the small individual, and really carries the main initiative of the drive. When a man is a buyer of one of these bonds, you know he is taking interest in the war and really wants to help.

If we wish to prove our faith in our fighting men, there is no better way of doing so than to buy bonds without being urged to do so through personal calls from other busy people. The county has been completely organized to make these personal calls but at this time everyone is very busy, and it is hard for them to neglect their own business or work and get out to urge others to buy.

Lions club members are working the residential and business district of Clarendon this week, and captains of rural districts are beginning to work their communities but due to the busy season are finding it difficult to contact the parties who are able to buy more bonds.

Next Thursday will mark the passing of our third year at war with the Nazis and Japs. There are many who thought it would all be over before this anniversary on Pearl Harbor, and buy all the extra bonds we can between now and next Thursday. Our boys need the materials that our War Bond money will buy. So let's start our fourth year of war out by backing our boys to the limit and pray that the efforts we extend will help bring the war to a speedy end so our boys can return home.

Let War Bonds head your gift list, and buy them now.

Lt. Wesley Strawn Attending School At Randolph Field

First Lieutenant Wesley H. Strawn, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Strawn, Clarendon, is among scores of combat veterans of a combined 5,000 battle missions now attending Central Instructors' School at Randolph Field, Texas.

At the conclusion of the intensive four weeks' course at the AAF Training Command War College of the Air the pilots will become flight instructors at various AAF training stations.

Bomber and fighter pilots who flew in every global war theatre, from Kweilin, China, to New Guinea in the Pacific and from Normandy to Ploesti on the European front, are among the CIS instructor-trainees.

Virtually every member of the combat group has won the Air Medal and 21 of them have been awarded the Purple Heart. There are 50 holders of the Distinguished Flying Cross among the men who soon will be dispensing their battle-won knowledge to AAF cadets.

Lt. Strawn flew 74 missions overseas and amassed 345 combat hours of flying.

LIBRARY NOTES

By Mrs. C. A. Burton
I am quoting from the Information Bulletin of the Library of Congress: "At 12:00 noon on Sunday, Oct. 1, the most precious possessions of the people of this country, the original copies of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the U. S. were returned to public exhibition in the Library of Congress after two years of war-time seclusion. On the same day, the Library also returned to public display the St. Blasius, - St. Paul copy of the Gutenberg 42-line Bible, the original Articles of Confederation, Jefferson's original manuscript of the Declaration of Independence, the Lincoln Cathedral original of Magna Carta, and the manuscripts of Lincoln's Second Inaugural Address and Gettysburg Address. Shortly before noon, the U. S. Marine band marched up to the shrine on the second floor. A Marine Guard of Honor was posted at both cases. Ceremonies concluded with the National Anthem."

The Library had placed in protective storage the equivalent of 26 freight car loads of materials—all of which have been returned. The names of four of the repositories have now been given: Aideman Library, University of Virginia, Charlottesville; Washington and Lee University, Lexington; Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, and Denison University, Granville, Ohio.

During the last year, the Library of Congress turned over to the Committee on Aid to Libraries in War Areas, of the American Library Association, a total of 20,929 pieces which the Committee will use in its work of rehabilitating foreign libraries after the war. In addition, the library has made space for storing material being contributed by other libraries.

Miss Josephine Fabilli, who was lent by the Library of Congress to the Peruvian government to assist at the Library School of the National Library of Peru, is now in Bogota, Colombia, on a similar mission—thus the Good Neighbor policy goes on.

Major de Seversky, author of "Victory Through Air Power" expects to pilot his own plane across, but must submit to an operation before going overseas.

"God Is My Co-Pilot" by Col. Robert Scott is having a movie adaptation by Robert Buckner.

Well folks here we are again! Most of us are stiff from this icy weather and the rest of us are just stiff from pulling bolls. I'll declare I have never seen so many rusty knees and chaped hands.

What does a little thing like that matter though when there is so much money in our pockets. We have been planning and re-planning just how much of it we will send to that fat old man with the white whiskers. Come to think of it though, it doesn't take much money to buy a switch—does it?

Result—I am going to be a good boy and really study hard and maybe my teacher will put in a good word for me to old Santa Claus.

THE TEMPLE OF TRUTH

By the Apostle

DIGNITY.

There was a time not long since when this writer was jeered when he walked into a store and demanded his favorite "Jack County Navy." Only Monday he saw a package of that well known striped effect reposing gracefully upon the desk of a prominent local banker. This darn war has made folks of all classes seek a common level—by force.

THE GOSSIPER.

If the Creator had intended for us to talk more than we hear, He would have given us two mouths and one ear.

FACTUAL.

You don't get a sheepskin in the school of experience. You simply have your own removed.

STRONG SERMON.

A colored minister sepaking to his flock recently in Amarillo had chosen the neglected subject of "Hell." After getting his congregation tuned up to a high pitch he clinched his oratoin by asking: "Has you all ever saw de liquid metal rolling along that troff out at de smeltur?" Instantly there was loud "amens" from all over the congregation. "Well mah be-luvved," continued the minister, "dey uses dat kind a stuff fo' ice cream in de place I'se talkin' about!"

CALAMITY.

Down at Childress last week the folks experienced a disastrous garage fire. Twenty eight sets of tires were destroyed with autos attached.

OFFICIOUS.

Time goes along and old men dream of the old chuck wagon days. But of all things, no one was held in such austered adoration or superfine respect as was the cook around the chuck wagon, and no man had more authority than he when the punchers gathered around to the call of "Kumin Git It!!!" He was king on a self-constructed throne of sour dough biscuits and the trimmings.

Big Business

A LOT of the writing and talking that's going on these days about "big" business seems to miss one pretty important point. In judging bigness solely by such things as number of employees, size of payrolls, or volume of sales, it overlooks the size of the job the particular business is required to do.

After all, any business exists because there's a demand for the things it produces or the services it renders. And it must either grow to the size necessary to satisfy these demands, or else make way for a competitor that can provide what is wanted.

The war has shown that America's factories and farms can meet demands that would have been fantastic in pre-war years. This is a big country; there will be as big jobs to be done in peacetime as any the war produced. It will take the right kind of "big" business to do them. And whether it operates a 100-acre farm, a garage, a bank, or an industry with 100,000 employees—this kind of big business, which serves the public satisfactorily and with integrity, will continue to be the foundation of America's strength and security, in peace as in war. BOOK CLUB HAS PROGRAM ON THE STORY OF RUBBER

On Tuesday afternoon of last week the Book Club met with Mrs. Allen Bryan with Mrs. Bill Bromley assisting as hostess.

During the business session it was decided to make a donation to the McCloskey Hospital.

"The Weeping Wood" by Vicki Baum was reviewed by Mrs. Bill Thornberry. This book gives the entire story of rubber covering a period of two centuries. The setting is in South America, Central America, the United States, Germany and the Far East. It deals with rubber products from the earliest stage to the present day. Not only does the book give information but it is also quite entertaining.

HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT

The girls in all three sections of the Home Economics Department are making everyone sit up and take notice. The students are complaining that every time they see a bunch of girls all grouped up and buzzing like a bunch of bees, they think they're chewing on some mighty juicy gossip. They rush over to hear it, too, only to discover that they're talking about what fun they're going to have doing something in Home Ec. tomorrow or next week.

The first year girls have been sewing buttons on 43 convalescent robes for the Red Cross as part of their class unit. In spite of pricked fingers and broken needles, they're proud of what they're doing. They feel that they're helping in the war effort some way. We thoroughly agree with you girls! Due to the lack of experience of these girls to use the machine, Miss Berry made the button holes on the robes.

The second year girls have something very interesting as their class project. The girls have been studying the preparation and service of dinners, and a week or two ago they gave a dinner for our very deserving football team. They planned the menu, grocery list, amount to be ordered, and the committees for serving themselves, besides doing all the cooking. The girls said it was wonderful experience, and they did an excellent job. Just ask the boys! Mr. Drennan, Mr. Burton, Coach Naylor, and Mr. Gillham, along with 32 football players, were honored by the girls.

The food was furnished by the men in town who have been interested in the boys and their progress.

A two-course dinner was served, with plenty of hot rolls forth coming. The dinner was served on very attractive tables in the Home Ec. Department. The center piece was a bowl of flowers which carried out the scheme of maroon and white, the school colors. Lace plate doilies were used at each place.

The third year girls are not to be outdone, however. They have learned the truth that lies in the old proverb of, "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." Formerly at meal time the idea was "give us food," but after the study of the intake of food until its assimilation, we see why so many people have indigestion or bad complexions.

The causes of many of the common ailments, as malnutrition, bad colds, constipation, under weight, overweight, anemia, and others that can be corrected by the diet, were studied and diets prepared in laboratory. These discussions and experiments have been very interesting as well as educational and practical.

The train bearers wore lavender dresses under white net.

The way the girls have been listed is the way in which they came on the stage.

BRONCHOS TRIUMPH OVER CALVES

On Thanksgiving Day, 1944, the Bronchos met the Canyon Calves on the Clarendon gridiron. The day was nice and sunny with just a small breeze. The people of both towns turned out fairly well. The High School Band was there doing its bit. The Pep Squad didn't show up so the band and few others made up the cheering section. The final score was the Clarendon Bronchos 25, Canyon Calves 6. This game was a non-conference game, but the boys went in there and fought just the same. It was good to see Carlile out on the field again. We saw many new faces on the field, some of which will probably make up our "A String" next year. Folks, this was the last game of this football season so we want to say goodbye to some of our team, and welcome all of our next year's Clarendon Bronchos.

Texans just won't quit fighting! Even the boys who have spent months overseas, been seriously wounded and returned to the states to recover their health, insist upon doing their extra bit for victory. Dozens of men in McCloskey General Hospital at Temple have volunteered to help with war fund and war bond drives, even though they have won the right to sit back and take things easy.
Two returned veterans, Capt. R. E. Erisman of Ennis and Pfc. Paul Trotter of Sherman, are touring the state now, putting on one-day "clean-up" campaigns for the National War Fund, helping local war chest workers put their counties over the top.
Captain Erisman recently returned from China, where he spent 13 months fighting the Japs with Chinese troops. He is recovering now from a serious illness contracted there.
"People at home who think the war is almost over make me sick," he told a meeting at Stephenville last week. "If they realized how many of our boys will be killed before victory finally comes they would think differently. The Japs are tough, and it will take a long time to whip them."

Trotter, a likeable, lanky Texan, was wounded seriously at Salerno Beach, captured by the Nazis, and spent almost seven months in a German prison camp. He returned on the Gripsholm a few weeks ago, and is recovering from bullet wounds in the left hand, arm and side, and shrapnel wounds of the shoulder and face.
While in the prisoner-of-war camp, he received athletic equipment, books and other recreational supplies from his Texas home-folks, through War Prisoners Aid, the National War Fund agency.
"I am making this tour to tell the people of Texas how much this help means to the men in Nazi camps," he explained. "Men would go crazy from sheer boredom if they didn't receive recreational equipment. Many close friends of mine are still prisoners, and I want to help them get the things they need."
He is helping plenty, too. At Stephenville, where the two heroes spoke, more than $1,800 was raised in a one-hour public rally that put the Erath County War Chest well over the top.

And another Texas fighting

"man" is back home, after engaging in two major battles in the Pacific. He is Alfred Wright of McAllen, who set a record by being the youngest goby to fight the Japs. Alfred took a heroic part in two tough fights before Navy officials discovered that he was only 15 years old. One of the battles was fought when he was 14.
The Navy sent him home when they learned his age. But no one can take from the fighting Texas youngster the two battle stars he wears so proudly.
Yes, Texans fight, at any age! And their type of fighting, both at home and abroad, is going to do a lot toward victory in the war against the Nazis and Japs.

MOOS OF THE MOMENT
BY UNCLE BOB
of the Kraft Dairy Farm Service

Eight new pieces of heavy artillery are ready for delivery to the nation's dairymen for their 1945 battle of production. These are the recommendations in the new 8-point milk production program announced recently from Washington.
Stress in 1945 will be on efficiency in production, and every dairyman who wants to improve his methods will find these eight points invaluable as a guide in his operations.
Here they are:

1. Grow an abundance of high quality roughage.
2. Balance your herd with your feed supply.
3. Keep production records on each cow in your herd.
4. Practice disease control methods.
5. Produce milk and cream of the highest quality.
6. Adopt labor saving methods.
7. Take care of your land.
8. Develop a sound breeding program.

Watch for Kraftsman "How to Milk" Article

Right along the line of points 4, 5 and 6, the November issue of the Producers' Edition of the Kraftsman contains an article which will be of deep interest to every dairyman. The article is called "How to Milk a Cow—and Why."
It is written by one of the nation's foremost authorities on sound dairy practices. It explains how rapid milking helps control mastitis, how it saves time and labor, produces better milk by aiding your sanitation program.
If you are not on the regular mailing list of the Kraftsman, drop me a card at 500 Peshtigo Court, Chicago 99, Ill., and I'll mail you a copy. You don't want to miss this issue, which contains plenty of other interesting items.

However, you can overwork them and right now is the proper time to pull your cows off these fall pastures, to prevent damaging them and cutting down the "golden egg" production which you are expecting next spring.
Cover crops have done a fine job of keeping up milk production. Now they need a rest, particularly if there have not been any good recent rains and if a freeze may be expected in the near future.
Dairy specialists and the experts on pastures at the colleges tell me that the First of December is a cut-off time for cover crop pasturing. In the spring, they'll come back and you can start pasturing again. Past December 1, continued pasturing may cause severe damage.
If you still need cover crop bulletins, write the Extension Service, Mississippi State College, State College, Miss., for Leaflet No. 54, or the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tenn., for Leaflet No. 6.*

Avoid Late Rush By Ordering Seeds Now

I can remember a Christmas way back yonder when I shook my stocking and that jack-knife I was expecting didn't show up. It was an awful blow. It's going to be a shock to some folks next spring when planting time comes 'round and they find their supply of fertilizer or seed or both has not arrived, because supply houses are swamped with late orders.

There was a rush late last spring when many orders came in at once and some farmers had to wait to get their supplies. But, like most problems, there's a simple way out.
You'll save yourself some possible grief if you'll order now and take delivery soon after the first of the year. Probably you already know how much lime or phosphate or nitrogen you'll need, how much corn or oats seed or something else you'll want.
It will help the suppliers and it will help the transportation situation if you'll get your orders in right away.

Late Pasturing May Damage Cover Crops

You remember the story about the goose which laid the golden eggs and how its owner cooked his own goose. Cover crops may not be actual gold mines but they put money in the dairyman's pocket.
However, you can overwork them and right now is the proper time to pull your cows off these fall pastures, to prevent damaging them and cutting down the "golden egg" production which you are expecting next spring.

Weekly Labor And Crop Report

Donley County Agent, Charles Reed, has received the following information from D. A. Adam, Farm Labor Office, Plainview, for week ending Nov. 25, 1944.

Cotton Picking Situation
The cotton crop on the South Plains is about 50% harvested. Rain and cold weather has slowed the cotton harvest with only small numbers of Mexicans going back to South Texas. Most migrants have stopped moving so much, have located in fair houses, and are not interested in moving until cotton is pulled in the neighborhood where they now are.

The big difficulty in placing hands now is that no desirable houses are available. Most farmers with houses now have pullers, but those without houses must wait and use the crew in the neighborhood where they are.

Some crews have left going back because of sickness, mostly children, resulting from bad weather and poor housing conditions. Anticipations are that no large number of Mexicans will return to South Texas until about December 15, at which time they will be needed in the Valley vegetable harvest.

Grain Sorghum Situation
Shortage of rail cars seems to be the number one problem in the grain sorghum harvest. Some extra cars were received last week, however, and we hope this relief was not only temporary.

Much of the grain, although it received frost, still has too much moisture to be stored in granaries. Some farmers are harvesting this grain high in moisture stacking it on the ground to dry, fearing it will fall if left in the fields.

Prices range from $1.15 to $1.40 per hundred at elevators, and about 10c less in the fields, with approximately 80% of the crop harvested.

Labor Situation
General farm hands are needed in all of the counties, particularly in Childress, Dallam, Parmer, Bailey, and Lipscomb counties. Lipscomb county reports needing 40 desirable farm hands with wages from $100 to $250 per month.

The Draft is taking many young men, and this situation will cripple the farming activity on many farms in this area, unless these men are replaced by labor from other areas.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Watson and family of McLean visited Sunday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Hinkle.

RED CROSS VOLUNTEER SERVICE

HOME SERVICE
Mrs. C. A. Burton
Mail may now be sent to United States prisoners of war in Germany regardless of whether the permanent camp address is known or not. It goes through the International Red Cross of Switzerland.

German authorities now approve the sending of ink in next-of-kin parcels to United States prisoners of war. It is the policy of the War Department to retain on active duty combat wounded personnel who voluntarily desire to remain in the service, and whose physical condition permits any reasonably useful employment. Such personnel will be reassigned to limited duty without loss of grade.

Special consideration will be given to applications and appeals for priorities and allocations by discharged war veterans desiring to establish or reestablish small businesses. Included are veterans honorably discharged since Dec. 31, 1940. It may not always be possible to grant each request, but it will be done as far as possible. Such veterans are also given priority in construction, alterations, or betterment of their homes. They are also given priority in homesteading public lands.

The War and Navy Departments have pointed out that members of the armed forces are amply provided with food and clothing and the public is urged not to include these in their gift packages.

Red Cross has 85 blood donor centers and 63 mobile units operating out of those centers, collecting blood for the armed forces. The quota of 5,000,000 pints requires 1000,000 donors weekly.

The War and Navy Departments asked the Red Cross to provide welfare and recreation services for U. S. expeditionary forces. In this country the service is limited to hospitals, but overseas it serves the able bodied as well as the hospitalized.

Synthetic Rubber Needs Special Care
If you get some new tires and tubes for your farm truck, the chances are they'll be made of synthetic rubber. Usually these will perform satisfactorily, but synthetic products need more careful handling and use than the natural rubber products you used to buy.

For one thing, synthetic tires and tubes are more likely to be destroyed by heat. So, experts advise farmers to stick to low or moderate speed in their trucks. And they should be particularly careful about over-loading. It's also important that the tires be kept properly inflated—low air pressure tends to build up heat.

There's additional treatment of new tires and tubes recommended by the Office of Defense Transportation to owners and drivers of trucks, especially heavy ones. The ODT recommends that tubes and the insides of casings be treated with a soap solution before they are mounted for the first time. Dealers can give additional information on this precautionary step, the A&M College Extension Service has been advised.

Incidentally, you'll find that synthetic tread stock is not as resistant to cuts and tears as is natural rubber. That necessitates more careful breaking in of new tires, rotating and mating them properly, retreading when needed, and frequent checking of air pressure. It's also believed to be better to inflate tires when they are cool.
