DONLEY COUNTY LIVESTOCK AND AGRICULTURAL EXHIBIT BEGINS FRIDAY, SEPT. 17--CLOSES 18

DIRECTORS AND ASSISTANTS FOR THE BIG FAIR HAVE MOST ALL ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED AND PREDICT A MARVELOUS EXHIBITION AND LARGE ATTENDANCE EACH OF TWO DAYS

The Donley County Free Agricultural Fair promises to be the best that Donley county has had for several years. The fair will open on the 17th of September and will continue through the 18th of September. This will make two days of good peppy live and wide awake entertainment for the two days.

The fair is being conducted under the auspices of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce and it will be conducted under the complete charge of the Fair Department which has been given in full in the pages in previous issues. As director Mr. Geo. A. Ryan will have general supervision of the fair and management of the different departments of the fair.

The financial committee will look after all expenses incurred in the carrying on of the fair. This committee has already done enough work to assure the financial success of the fair and every possible effort is being made to make this fair a fair that is absolutely free to everybody. The catalog of the fair is already on the press and will be ready for distribution at a very early date and the advertising in the catalog will more than pay the cost of printing it. The catalog for all departments are now ready for use and can be had by calling on the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce or by calling on the superintendent of the department you are expecting to show in. The entry tags are ready to be used, some concessions have been sold already and this committee expects to let some more at an early date and in that case the entire expenses of the fair will be assumed. Ribbons have been ordered and the committee is making every possible effort to have everything in good shape before the fair dates get here.

The Entertainment Committee is making every possible effort to make the fair an entertainment stand-out. Negotiations are now in progress for several prominent speakers from over the different parts of the State, ball games, negro ball games, etc., and it is expected to make the fair a very interesting event in the history of Clarendon. Everybody is expected to have a great time during these two days.

The Arrangement Committee is working on plans of arranging in different departments of the fair. The Live Stock department will be shown in the new Lott barn and adjacent yards. The women's department will be shown either in the Y. M. C. A. building or the court house, the agricultural department is expected to be shown at the new tabernacle. This makes a very pretty arrangement and gets everything in good shape with all of the exhibits of a certain class all together so that you can see all of them without going to another part of town.

Mr. E. W. Grogan is the superintendent of the Agricultural Department and you are earnestly requested to get in touch with him immediately and tell him what you have to show along this line. He is now making an effort to get several progressive men or women in each community to begin collecting the exhibit for that community. In this department there will be one entry and a cash prize for the best community exhibit. This exhibit may be shown from that community, such as agricultural products, canned products, etc.

A cash prize will also be offered for the best agricultural exhibit brought in from one farm, grown by one man, and then the usual first and second prizes will be offered for each individual exhibit, covering any and everything grown on the farm in the garden or in the orchard.

Mr. W. T. McBride of Lila Lake, is the superintendent of the Swine Department and as such he will have charge of all entries in the hog department except the boys pig clubs. This department will have one entry and a cash prize for the best side of the big Lott barn, which has three big pens ready. These pens will be cut up into nine pens each, each small pen being about 4x8 feet. Each man who enters in this department is requested to bring four 1 by 12 planks 10 feet long and four feet wide so that these partitions may be built and after the fair is over each man will be expected to tear his pen down and take it away with him. He will also be expected to look after his own hogs while they are here and either bring his feed from home or buy his feed here and feed them himself.

The horse, mule and cattle department will be conducted in the yards of the Lott barn. Mr. Lott will have charge of this department and first and second prizes, being blue and red ribbons respectively, will be offered for stallions, mares, best colts, farm teams, jacks, jennets, etc., and the best bill and cow of the different breeds of cattle.

Mr. Paul Shelton will have charge of the Poultry Department, except the girls' poultry clubs, cash prizes will be offered for the best first and second single displays, and the ribbons will be offered on the best cock, hen, pullet, pair and pen. The poultry will be shown in the new Lott barn and each exhibitor will be expected to bring his own coops and bring two 2x4's 12 feet long and after the fair is over he will be expected to take this away with him. He will also be expected to feed his chickens while they are here.

Mr. J. C. Finley will be in charge of the Pet Stock Department and all who have rabbits or other pet stock that want to show should get in touch with him at once for space. This department will also be in the Lott barn and each exhibitor will be expected to furnish his own pens and look after his own stock.

Mrs. W. H. Martin will have general supervision of the woman's department and any question arising from the different divisions of this department will be referred to her. If you have something that you desire to enter in the woman's department, please let her know just what division it should be entered in. It would be a good idea for you to either telephone or call to see her. Her telephone number is 178.

Mrs. John T. Sims has charge of the cooking and household division and anything that is in the cooking line or of a household furnishing nature, will be entered in this division. If you have anything to enter in this department you are requested to get in touch with her immediately and reserve what space you may need.

Mrs. Odos Caraway will have charge of the textile department and if you have anything in the lace, embroidery, quilts, handkerchiefs, rags, tatting, dresses, aprons, etc., that you desire to show, please take the matter up with her immediately.

Mrs. Joe Humphreys has charge of the Canning and Preserving Department and she is very desirous that you should bring in some of your best canned, preserved, pickles, etc., and show the rest of the women of Donley county what you can do along this line.

Miss Myrtle Houk will have charge of the Fine Arts Department and we desire that you should bring in all of your work in this line so that we can have as good a show in it as possible.

Mrs. E. D. Martin will have charge of the Baby Show which will be held from 3:30 to 4:30 on September 18th. If you have a fine boy or a pretty girl baby in your home, bring that baby along and win the blue ribbon for having the finest baby in Donley county. The baby must be under 12 months old to be shown.

Mr. W. E. Bray will have charge of the Old Relic Department and it is expected to have a lot of relics that will reveal an interesting history of the past in Donley county. To enter the relic must be at least 50 years old.

The First Year's Canning Club will be in charge by Mrs. W. H. Patrick and Miss Casandra Sims and the Sewing Department of this year will be in charge by Mrs. Fred Chamberlain. The Second Year's Canning Club will be in charge by Mrs. Chas. Kenslow and Mrs. U. J. Boston with Mrs. George Ryan in charge of the Sewing Department. Several trips to the Dallas Fair will be given in this department.

Mr. W. L. Butler will be in charge of the Boys' Pig Lubs which will be held in the Lott barn. Several trips to the Dallas Fair will be awarded to the winners in this department.

Mr. Bert Ayers will be in charge of the Feed Clubs and will also award trips to the Dallas Fair to the winners. This exhibit will be in the agricultural department and will probably be held at the tabernacle.

Mr. L. Naylor will be in charge of the Poultry Clubs and this department will be held along with the other live stock in the Lott barn. There will also be trips to the Dallas Fair offered to the winners in these two departments.

If you have anything to enter in any of the above named departments you are requested to take the matter up with the superintendent of that department immediately and make plans to get it in shape to exhibit as soon as possible and if it is impossible for you to get in touch with the superintendent of the department you are requested to take the matter up with the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce as soon as possible.

You may now get the necessary entry blanks and you are requested to get them immediately and help make this the best Fair Donley county has ever had.

Yours for a good fair,
Roy B. Mefferd,
Sec'y-Mgr. Chamber of Commerce.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO HAVE NEW OFFICE

Just as soon as the workmen can get the Y. M. C. A. building near enough furnished the Chamber of Commerce office will be moved in and will remain in the Y. M. C. A. building for an indefinite period. For the last month the Chamber of Commerce has been in the office of Evan Ross, in the rear of the Donley County State Bank. When the Chamber gets moved into the new quarters it is expected to be in a better position to serve your wants, and you are requested to call around.

I. S. Mullins, formerly in business at Alvord, Texas, is in the city visiting friends and looking for a location in this country which he states is just to his liking. We need more of his kind and hope he will find just what he wants.

BAILEY MET BIG DEFEAT OVER MOST ALL OF STATE

The election returns of Saturday's primary up to date show a decided landslide for Pat M. Neff in the governor's race. The Panhandle of Texas likewise lost her choice for lieutenant governor. Many surprises came thick and fast from the very earliest returns in this county and from all over the state. Even Neff supporters in Donley county expected a close race while the poll sheets totaled up 2 to 1 for Neff. The crowd gathered at the corner of Keasler and First street watching the bulletin board returns Saturday evening and night grew enthusiastic from the word go—that is the Neff men did. Bailey supporters retired early to their places of abode feeling that the day was lost.

Returns given out by the Texas Election Bureau of Dallas give Neff 244,445 and Bailey 167,962. In the lieutenant governor's race Davidson received 177,996 votes while his opponent received 121,213 thus defeating our candidate from this section by a wide margin. Pierson won over Hawkins in the judge's race by a vote of 185,674 to 136,935. Neff, Johnson and Pierson carried Donley county by a good margin. Johnson leading. Our two boys in this county gave Bailey a majority. Wilson and Ashola.

RED CROSS NEWS

The chief work of the Red Cross public health nurse is to help people to be well, to get well, to stay well. She is the friend of the family and of the community, and seeks to provide equal and adequate care for all the people in the time of sickness; but more than this she emphasizes the guarding of the health," states Miss Minnie McBride, state board of health and Red Cross advisory nurse. Miss McBride spent Monday in Clarendon to help complete arrangements for the coming of a physician. Prevention of illness for Donley county, who will arrive Sept. 15. "It is not the purpose of the nurse to attempt to care for all the sick through her own efforts, but to give such assistance and instruction as will enable friends and relatives to caring for the ill in the proper manner even though the nurse should not be present. In this way the knowledge of proper methods is spread over the whole community, so that instead of having only a few in the county who are qualified to give attention to the ill, there are many in every community who are able to give care. Emphasis is laid upon the fact that it is not intended that the nurse shall supersede or do away with the services of a physician. Prevention of unnecessary suffering and instruction in the use of proper methods are intended to be aids to the physician in securing early recovery of the patients.

"Any form of community work in which the health of the public is concerned is the work of the public health nurse. As a nurse and a teacher of healthful living she enters the home where there is illness, nursing the people who are sick, protecting from those who are well and showing the well members of the family how to take care of the ill between the visits of the nurse, by actually demonstrating how things are done. Her problem is combining in the nursing of the sick and the protection of the well against sickness.

The public health nurse teaches mothers how to look after their babies, and the school children how to look after their bodies. She lectures on tuberculosis, gives them nursing care, and tells the sick and those who come in contact with tuberculosis of the best methods to be used in its care and prevention. She assists in the physical inspection of school children and follows defective children into their homes where she persuades the parents to act upon the advice of the family physician.

AUTO EXCURSION TO MEMPHIS THIS THURSDAY

The Chamber of Commerce will conduct a booster trip to Memphis, Estelline and Newlin on Thursday for the purpose of advertising the Childress State Fair. President Claude J. Terrell requests all car owners to be at the Chamber of Commerce at 8:30 o'clock as the time for departure has been set at 9 o'clock sharp. Stops will be made at Estelline and Newlin. Dinner and dinner will be taken at Memphis.

CHEAP FUEL BRINGS SMELTER TO AMARILLO

Austin, Texas, Aug. 31.—Following a conference between Dr. Gez C. Butte, chief supervisor of the oil and gas division of the Texas railroad commission, and W. B. Estes, T. E. Durham and J. D. Ward of Amarillo, announcement was made that natural gas from the Potter county gas field was to be utilized for the operation of a large smelter which is soon to be established at Amarillo.

Messrs. Estes, Durham and Ward, the promoters of the project, who were here today, told Dr. Butte that the smelting plant would be one of the largest in the country and would employ approximately 2,000 men. It was stated that the enterprise has been financed.

LAKES FORMED BY A NEAR WATERSPOUT

Lakes of water from a quarter to a half mile wide and waist deep Tuesday afternoon practically stopped all travel over the Colorado-Gulf Highway about twelve miles east of Amarillo, in the vicinity of Washburn. Citizens of Washburn said the downpour there was in the nature of a waterspout. It was estimated that six inches of rain fell there.

Many tourists drove up to the edges of the two lakes, and were forced to camp out Tuesday night, as it was impossible to turn an automobile on the high dunes approaching the lakes. Three cars which attempted to ford the lake, were forced to stop after getting a short distance from the shore, and women and children were forced to either spend the night in the autos, or wade water waist deep to the shore, then walk at least a half mile to reach the nearest farm houses.

H. A. Gardner, flour dealer of Amarillo, and R. N. Burns forded the lakes in Mr. Gardner's Buick car, but at times they were forced to raise their feet off the car floor, as the water came up that high. They took a chance of following the road, and managed to keep their engines running, although water poured through the radiator.

Mr. Gardner said he thought the road would be practically impassable until Sunday, and advised that persons wishing to travel to places east of here, take the postal road out of Amarillo, and make a detour to regain the trail at Washburn.—Amarillo Tribune.

MISS GORDON DINGLER OF COMANCHE COUNTY, WERE UNITED IN MARRIAGE MONDAY MORNING AT THE BAPTIST PARSONAGE.

EX-EDITOR WARREN VISITS HERE FROM CLARENDON

Mr. Warren, former editor of the Clarendon News, now a full fledged real estate dealer, was here this week and paid the office a pleasant call. Mr. Warren stated that his business in this city at this time was in search of a tract of land that he might buy and divide up and sell in small tracts to farmers. He has handled real successfully a number of deals of this kind in different sections of the State, and would have no trouble in subdividing a considerable tract of land in this country, if he is successful in locating what he wants.—Lubbock Avalanche.

RECENT ADVANCE RATES EXPLAINED BY CHAMBER

In order to assist you as much as possible in a general way in determining the application of the recent increases in freight rates, authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission of Texas, we give you herein a brief outline of the situation.

Effective 12:01 a. m. August 26, 1920, by the filing with the Interstate Commerce Commission of appropriate tariffs in conformity with decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission in Ex Parte 71, the rates between all points in Texas and points East of the Mississippi River and South of the Ohio River are increased 33 1-3 per cent. This increase applies to through established rates. Where rates are based on combinations of locals over Mississippi River crossings the factor East of the Mississippi River is increased 25 per cent; the factor West of the Mississippi River is increased 35 per cent.

The increase of 33 1-3 per cent above mentioned does not apply to fruit and vegetable traffic from points in Southern Florida where the present rate is based over Jacksonville. The new basis for rates on this traffic will be 25 per cent increase in the rate into Jacksonville to Texas.

On traffic between all points in Texas and points in Central Freight Association territory, namely, that territory lying North of the Ohio River and East of the Indiana-Michigan state line in the states of Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, Western Pennsylvania and Western New York, the existing through rates are increased 33 1-3 per cent.

On traffic between all points in Texas on the one hand and points in the states of Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Colorado, Wyoming, New Mexico and east of the following line: from Cheyenne, Wyoming, via the Union Pacific railroad running south through Denver, thence via a line south from Denver, through Colorado Springs and Pueblo to Trinidad, thence following the line of the A. T. & S. F. railway thru Raton, Los Vegas and Albuquerque, New Mexico, to El Paso, Texas; on the other hand all present through rates are increased 35 per cent.

Roy B. Mefferd, Secretary Chamber of Commerce.

BAPTIST REVIVAL WILL CLOSE SUNDAY NIGHT

The big Baptist revival now in its third week and conducted by Rev. Joe Smith, will come to a close with the service next Sunday night. Many of those going from here will take the degree admitting them to full fellowship. Others have already crossed the "hot sands" of the desert in the shadowy past. It has been estimated that 300 new members will be taken over the desert today and tomorrow at the greatest gathering of Shriners for this purpose in the history of masonry in the state.

Those going from here expected to make the trip by car today but were forced to change their plans and go by rail owing to the big rain falling from here all along the road to Amarillo yesterday.

NEW HOME OF CHURCH WILL BE READY FOR REVIVAL

The beautiful new church building of the Church of Christ on east Third street will be ready for the big revival that is to begin on Sunday, September 12th, under the leadership of Elder Foy E. Wallace, Jr. noted evangelist. The plastering is being done this week and many other finishing touches being made to the interior. With another week yet to work, workmen announce that this church building will be completed and will compare favorably with the many other substantial church buildings of north-west Texas. Members of this denomination are to be congratulated for their zeal and Clarendon may well be proud of this another beautiful edifice dedicated to the worship of the lowly Nazarene.

ASHTOLA LOCALS

Ed O'Neil and family were business visitors in Goodnight Saturday. Miss Willie Dickert of Hereford was the guest of Mrs. Dollie White the past week. Bob Roy of Goodnight is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Majors. F. J. Hendricks of Water Valley, Miss. and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Sims of McLean, Tex., visited their sister and aunt, Mrs. J. J. Hanson, the past week. Miss Ethel Hanson returned Thursday from an enjoyable trip in Los Vegas, N. M.

TUESDAY LUNCHEON WAS POSTPONED THIS WEEK

The workmen are making rapid progress in completing the Y. M. C. A. building. They were busy Tuesday putting down the floor and for that reason it was decided to postpone the luncheon this week. If they get the work far enough along by next Tuesday we will have our regular noonday luncheon again at that time. Notice will be given at a later date whether or not there will be a luncheon however you might be expecting to get the notice.

ROY B. MEFFERD, SECRETARY BUSINESS MEN'S TUESDAY LUNCHEON CLUB.

SERIOUS CUTTING AFFRAY AT DODSONVILLE

Sunday night at Dodsonville two young men of Oklahoma got into an altercation during which one Lucas stabbed one Metcalf in the lung. Lucas was brought to Wellington and placed under a bond of $2,500. Metcalf has been in a serious condition, but his physician thinks he will soon recover if no complications set up.—Wellington Leader.

STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION HAD MAN HERE TUESDAY

Through the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce the State Highway Commission sent its special representative and engineer, Mr. Elhinger, from Amarillo to Clarendon to make a complete survey of the roads in Donley county. Mr. Elhinger made a careful survey of the entire road system of the county and will make his report within a very few days. In the survey Mr. Elhinger talked to several representative farmers, business men, professional men, stockmen, etc., and the popular opinion expressed by all of these is that Donley county needs a better road system. It has been learned that at least 40 per cent of the tourists who went to Colorado this summer turned out at Childress and went up through a territory that has a better road system than Donley and Hall counties. It is hoped that this survey will eventually develop into a permanent road system.

WEST TEXAS EXHIBIT ATTRACTS NOTICE

The West Texas Exhibit at the Missouri State Fair, Sedalia, Mo., attracted very favorable attention. It was the first of the six State Fairs at which we exhibited this year. This fair closed on August 20, and exhibit manager Wells opened at the Northwestern Ohio State Fair, Toledo, August 23rd. Today, August 26th, Assistant Exhibit Manager, B. M. Whitaker opens with our exhibit at the Illinois State Fair, Springfield, Ill. In turn these two representatives of the association will visit with exhibits the fairs at Columbus, Ohio, Topeka, Kan., Memphis, Tenn., Atlanta, Ga., Mason, Ga., Danville, Ill., Indianapolis, Ind., Louisville, Ky., Nashville, Tenn., Chattanooga, Tenn., Birmingham, Ala., Jackson, Miss., and Shreveport, La. Also 41 West Texas counties have so far signed up for the state fair. Closing at the State Fair, West Texas will compete with East Texas for a prize of $1,500.00.

LOCAL SHRINERS HELP ESTABLISH NEW TEMPLE

About fifty shriners and novices left here last night Amarillo bound where they, in conjunction with like fellows from all over northwest Texas, expect to institute and establish a new temple at Amarillo. Many of those going from here will take the degree admitting them to full fellowship. Others have already crossed the "hot sands" of the desert in the shadowy past. It has been estimated that 300 new members will be taken over the desert today and tomorrow at the greatest gathering of Shriners for this purpose in the history of masonry in the state.

Those going from here expected to make the trip by car today but were forced to change their plans and go by rail owing to the big rain falling from here all along the road to Amarillo yesterday.

MARTIN NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hodge entertained a crowd of young people Friday evening in honor of their daughter, Clarice and Joe and Josie Cannon. Several presents were received. Refreshments were served. Fruit salad and lemonade and cake to those present and all reported a good time.

Very good attendance at Sunday school next Sunday. Be on time for Sunday school at 2 p. m. Services at 3 p. m. by Pastor Bro. Smith. All come.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. C. C. of Estelline visited their uncle J. F. Cannon.

Hilda Cannon is home on a three weeks' vacation. The canning club met with Mrs. White Monday. A large attendance was present. Majority of the Martin community attended church at Clarendon Sunday evening.

All are very happy to have Miss Ocie May among us again after a long siege of typhoid. Mrs. Conda Jones and daughter, Mrs. Robt. Randall spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. May. All seem to be taking advantage of the pretty weather finishing their crops and prospecting.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Massey returned home the last of this week after spending a week with friends in and around Pampa and other nearby places. Mr. Massey saw several old time friends whom he knew back in his Tennessee days and that fact coupled with the outing and good eats, made the short vacation worth while. They expect to take another vacation later when they can get away for a longer period.

Robert Wilson, local manager for the Shamburger lumber company, left Monday to visit with his wife in Vernon. They will begin house-keeping here soon having been fortunate enough to secure suitable quarters after searching some time. K. J. Crow, general auditor for the company, is looking after local interests during the absence of Mr. Wilson.

IT IS THE DUTY OF EVERY CITIZEN OF THIS COUNTY TO SHOW WHAT OLD DONLEY REALLY IS. GET YOUR FAIR EXHIBIT TO THE PROPER OFFICIAL OFFICE, OR MAKE YOUR ARRANGEMENTS TO DO SO.

INTIMIDATING NEGROES TO KEEP THEM FROM WEST

Fort Worth, Texas, Sept. 2.—On behalf of Potter and Kent county citizens, and of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, a memorial was sent to Washington today, alleging that East and South Texas farmers are intimidating negroes, in order to keep them from moving to West Texas.

This memorial was sent also to the State Labor Department in Austin, according to Porter Whaley, manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

It is the duty of every citizen of this county to show what old Donley really is. Get your fair exhibit to the proper official office, or make your arrangements to do so.

OLD FASHIONED POUNDING FOR REV. HUCKLEBERRY

MEMBERS OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH UNITE TO GIVE REV. HUCKLEBERRY A TALK OF REGARD ON WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

One of the most fruitful and outstanding ministries of the First Christian Church of Clarendon came to a happy ending Wednesday night, September 1st, at their beautiful new church just nearing completion. During the ministry of Bro. P. R. Huckleberry the membership of the church has been doubled, there having been one hundred and nine additions, and nine removals by death and change of location, thus leaving a net increase of one hundred. The Bible school attendance has increased from an average attendance of thirty to an average attendance of one hundred and ten. Every department of church relationships were enlarged, and one of the most complete church and Bible school work shops as well as one of the most beautiful on the plains is nearing completion. The loyalty, faithfulness, zeal, love and cooperation on the part of the membership alone made these wonderful accomplishments possible. Bro. Huckleberry at all times sought to exalt the Christ of God, and unselfishly made every sacrifice possible, in order to inspire, encourage and merit the love and esteem of both church and community. How well he succeeded was most graciously and lovingly shown by the unusual pounding of the membership. While friends succeeded in enticing both Brother and Sister Huckleberry away from their home Wednesday afternoon the ladies of the church came in and loaded down the dining table with almost all kinds of good things to eat. A handkerchief shower and the close services by the willing workers class of the Bible school, and a presentation of a beautiful seven-tin jewel Elgin watch by the faithful Bible school superintendent, W. L. Glass, to Bro. Huckleberry, on behalf of the church was a glorious climax to this fruitful ministry. The pastor's heart was too full for utterance, yet he tremblingly and tearfully tried to express the gratitude and love that filled his heart. May this good people continue to faithfully and unselfishly support, in every way possible, every effort looking to the exaltation of Jesus Christ and the glory of the church, which is His body. The fullness of Him that filleth all in all. May the good Lord by His holy spirit guide this church in the selection of a pastor, and may this church continue to be one of the leading institutes in every enterprise of merit, love and service in this community, and may its spirit continue to send forth every minister fall not to "speak the word" in love, fear and hope, and when the recording angel shall open the books, and the Lord the righteous judge shall sit upon the throne, and when the last roll call is heard, may every member of this church happily and expectantly appear present, and may each member receive at the loving hands of Christ that crown of righteousness that is promised to the faithful.

Very good attendance at Sunday school next Sunday. Be on time for Sunday school at 2 p. m. Services at 3 p. m. by Pastor Bro. Smith. All come.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. C. C. of Estelline visited their uncle J. F. Cannon.

Hilda Cannon is home on a three weeks' vacation. The canning club met with Mrs. White Monday. A large attendance was present. Majority of the Martin community attended church at Clarendon Sunday evening.

All are very happy to have Miss Ocie May among us again after a long siege of typhoid. Mrs. Conda Jones and daughter, Mrs. Robt. Randall spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. May. All seem to be taking advantage of the pretty weather finishing their crops and prospecting.

The World's Choice

for the chocolate gift

FIRST in the East the fame of Sequoia's California Chocolate has spread. Now from far off countries comes recognition of their vast superiority. To fastidious friends they solve the gift-giving problem, especially at this time, in a way no ordinary chocolates could. The dainty redwood box remains a useful memento when the chocolates are but a delicious memory.

SOLVING LABOR PROBLEMS

The labor problem is a serious problem and it must be solved largely, if at all, by each individual farmer. Those who find that they cannot afford to pay hands present prices, even if they could get the hands, should either cut down the acreage in the crops that require his labor, or rent out a portion of the farm, or grow crops that they can handle themselves.

There is only one way that we can save our labor and our investments and that is to change our plans to meet any conditions as they exist. If certain crops do not pay under the conditions we find, it is our privilege and our duty to leave these crops out of our rotation plan. If we are growing crops that require expensive hand labor and do not find the crop profitable under present conditions, the only safe plan is to grow some other crop instead. However, difficult the labor problem may be, it can be solved by individual farmers who look ahead and plan wisely. We should not feel that we are contented to grow any certain crop or to manage our farm in any certain way because we have done these things in the past. The present calls for new plans, new ideas and strenuous measures. Let us face these problems intelligently and so begin the solution seriously. We need expect no special favors

A SUCCESSFUL SWEET POTATO STORAGE HOUSE

When I hear on all sides hard-luck stories of the biggest part of sweet potato crops being lost through careless handling and improper banking, I want to hand on my potato storage house experience for the benefit of the other fellow.

Our five years' experience have used a small storage house built according to the plans in the government bulletin on sweet potato storage. It is a 12 by 16 foot house, eight feet in height and has a cement floor. Every effort was made to build the house snug and tight. The walls have storm sheathing nailed to the studding an d tarred paper applied to this. The outside is weather boarded and the inside is closely ceiled. It has a double window and a double door. In addition there is an extra, out-swinging door made with wire screening in the upper half. In the center of the roof there is a slatted ventilator. Shelves built four deep are arranged on either side so as to leave an aisle down the middle of the house. The shelves are not set against the wall but have an air space left on all sides. We have stout home-made crates built to use on the shelves.

At harvest time, the potatoes are sorted, graded and put in these crates right in the field. In all the processes, harvesting, hauling, storing, the potatoes are carefully handled. Bruises and decay come from rough handling of the freshly dug potatoes and this is what we strive to avoid.

After the potatoes are stored, to kiln dry them, we keep a little oil heater running for two weeks. In our snugly built house this sufficient time to cure those potatoes perfectly. Sometimes in extremely cold weather, we run the heater a few hours to keep the temperature even.

In our five years of experience with this method of storage, we have had practically no loss of potatoes. Even the cut potatoes, after being properly dried, keep perfectly. Our house holds over 200 bushels so we are enabled to store not only what is needed for our own use, but also a surplus which is disposed of at a good profit in the late spring.—Mrs. K. P. Goodman, in the Progressive Farmer.

TEACH THE BOY TO DO THINGS WELL

I know a farmer father who makes an especial effort to see that every thing his son does is done well. When plowing, a straight furrow is insisted on; if a job is difficult, all the more reason why a thorough finish of it is expected. It is expected of this boy, and he knows full well it is expected of him, that every horse's harness be properly adjusted, that the ends of rows be plowed up closely to the fence, and that every stump be carefully hoed around.

Not only is this youngster taught thoroughness, but dogged persistence as well, and as an illustration of how he is acquiring this trait, a recent experience will serve. Some hogs had got in the field by accident one morning and he with his dog was given the job of getting them out. The hogs proved pig-headed as they often do, and it took the boy from early morning until three o'clock in the afternoon to get them out; but he stayed with them, doing without his dinner until the job was done.

Anything worth doing is worth doing right and I hope every progressive farmer dad is teaching his boys thoroughness, accuracy, and dogged persistence. These qualities, along with honesty and common sense, make successful men—wherever they are and whatever they be.—The Progressive Farmer.

THE DOWN-TRODDEN (?)

A socialist paper spills a lot of tears over "the condition of the down-trodden wage-worker."

All piffle! There is no such thing as "the down-trodden wage-worker" in these United States. The wage-worker is enjoying prosperity and happiness, and works less than most anybody.

The wage-worker works only seven, eight or nine hours, at high wages. When his day's work is done he goes home with the sun high in the sky, and has several hours of time at his disposal without a worry about his work. He gets a good night's rest, hence he should be happy, healthy and with the wages most of them get should be exercising economy and thrift soon be in good financial circumstances if not wealthy.

It is the employer and owner who needs the sympathy of the kind-hearted these days. The employer "stays on the job" for several hours after the wage-earner is gone, and maybe works twelve to sixteen hours a day. He has to worry over making the business go, spends sleepless nights, and possibly never has a minute he can call his own. He must meet the increased cost of materials, labor, etc., and must buck the game or go down into bankruptcy. Many employers would like to change places with the wage-earner, for they would not have to work half as hard or long, get more pleasure out of life, live longer and as the bankruptcy courts show would gain financially.—Plainview News.

OBSELETE.

A little girl walked into a confectionery, placed a nickel on the counter and called for an ice cream cone.

"Ice cream cones are 7 cents, little girl," the clerk announced.

"Well, then gimme a soda pop."

"Six cents."

"Got any root beer?"

"Yes, six cents, too."

The little girl sighed disappointedly and started out, leaving the nickel on the counter.

"Here, little girl, you're leaving your nickel," the clerk called to her.

"Oh, that's all right," the child shouted back. "It's no good to me; it won't buy anything!"—Indianapolis News.

WOMEN IN PANTS

The time has come when a good many women and girls are donning the style of dress which properly belongs exclusively to men and boys, and are going forth to work or play.

The writer recognizes the fact that, in discussing this subject, he is apt to expose himself to the wrath of some of the fair sex whose friendliness he sincerely desires to retain unimpaired. This article is not written in the spirit of harsh criticism but rather for the purpose of suggesting a few things for consideration. Come, kind friends, let us sit down and reason together about this matter. In the very beginning the writer admits that Texas has no law against the practice. Why should such a law be necessary? There is, however, a moral law against it, which is as follows: The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are an abomination to the Lord thy God." (Deut. 22:5). Thus the all-wise Father, infinite in wisdom, justice and goodness, lays down a very important rule for the guidance of both sexes in this very important matter of dress. Certainly there is a good and sufficient reason for this. Let us look for it.

In the first place the practice has a strong tendency to draw the woman down from her high social plane to the common level occupied by men. The line of distinction is no longer clearly drawn. It adds a touch of coarseness which will inevitably grow and intensify as the years go by. Women and girls thus attired are certain to be exposed to coarse and immoral conditions and influences. They will very often see things they ought not to see, and hear things they ought not to hear for the simple reason that the sex is not readily recognizable. The naturally and unavoidably brings about a familiarity and coarseness of manner and speech between boys and girls and men and women. Any thoughtful person can readily see the drift of this whole matter, so clearly foreseen by our most beneficent Father thousands of years ago.

In this, as in almost any other case, I think some just and reasonable exceptions may be made. For instance, when a woman is doing farm work, handling machinery, such as might entangle her skirts and cause serious injury to her person, she may very readily be excused for donning trousers. In such a case, however, she is in a large measure in private; she is in the field away from the public, and usually in company with members of her own family. Even this practice, while evidently, should be carefully guarded; for, as we all know, such practice is apt to become a fad and rapidly grow into popularity. Such a fashion would certainly deal a serious blow to good morals.

By all means let those women and girls who find it necessary at times to "wear that which pertaineth unto a man," stay off the public roads and streets and away from other public places. This we urge in behalf of pure womanhood and good morals. The Lord knows best; let us follow His advice. Jas. H. Pate in the Snyder Signal.

THE BUTTERMILK HABIT

At about 11 o'clock Tuesday morning a farmer living in the northwest part of the county was severely burned from drinking carbolic acid, which was said to have been bought from a country store. A doctor was called and is said to have given it as his opinion that he couldn't live but a few minutes. All the children were summoned. He was all right, however, yesterday morning and was able to send to a neighbor's for some buttermilk for breakfast.—Paris News.

Here, brethren, is a man of the true type. We do not know who he is or where he resides, or how he happened to imbibe the carbolic acid, but he has been bought a tactician, and a man who will always be able to pull himself out of delicate situations. Happy the man who knows the virtues of the delightful acidulated lacteal fluid and formed the buttermilk habit. Then, if built by carbolic or white mule whiskey rage within, a baptism of buttermilk will put a man's internal economy in fine shape and come as the oil of joy to his inards. The doctor said the man would die, but a few draughts from the churn put the fellow in fine shape and the next morning he was found rushing the can for more buttermilk.—Honey Grove Signal.

Some of the antics of our beloved Government in its efforts to protect the "dear people" from the rapacity of the omnivorous profiteers are enough to wring tears from a cold chisel. Here at the fag end of summer, comes an order to the federal agents to take a fall out of the ice-man! All through the hot-weather, every thing has said about the high cost of ice.—Southwestern Plainsman.

The government's course in these matters has been simply ridiculous. If the government has ever lowered the cost of anything, save what the farmer grows, we have failed to notice it. If the Government was really in earnest about these matters it would go to the manufacturers and say to them, "You quit profiteering on the people or we will get your answers." The government makes a stall around and over the country now and then anent the high cost of living. The prosecution of the ice-men at the tail end of summer is a sample of the government's activities, and its earnestness. If the government wants to do something worth while for the people it will get in after this coal shortage business before winter comes on, and the people of the United States begin to freeze. Its piffle in these matters will be along the line of the ice-acid case. The government will wait till dead winter, when the cold begins to pinch our people and it will then make a big stir and numerous threats.—Lockney Beacon.

The Ladies Christian Aid met with Mrs. E. D. Martin Wednesday, Aug. 25, with 13 members and 5 visitors present. Lesson study from 15th chapter of Romans. Bro. Strong made a good talk which was enjoyed by all. A two course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ginn which was very much enjoyed by everyone.

THE GRAND JURY REPORT

The report of the Grand Jury published in last week's News should cause every good, law-abiding citizen to reflect upon the situation. There isn't any question but that something must be done to remedy the conditions outlined. I think there is plenty of moral and law-abiding sentiment in the community to do what ought to be done if properly organized and directed. I do not think that we should lay all of the blame on any particular parties but the forces whose duty it is to execute the law should use due diligence. At the same time every law-abiding citizen should give the officers of the law his full sympathy and co-operation and should not shrink any responsibility entailed in doing this. If the revival meetings and those to come do not tone up the community sufficiently to solve the problem, an organization for the meeting of the demands will have to be formed.

Are you going to College this Fall?

Then you will be interested in a school that offers the following advantages:

1. A standard four years' college curriculum leading to a Bachelor's degree, and specially equipped to offer advanced instruction in Agriculture, Art, Expression, and Music in addition to the usual college courses.
2. A faculty of fifty "hand picked" specialists in the various fields of learning.
3. A department of Music unexcelled in the whole Southwest, giving private instruction in voice, piano, string instruments, band and orchestra besides instruction in public school music.
4. A department of Expression that takes rank with the best in the country.
5. A Department of Agriculture equipped with splendid laboratories and sufficient land for work in horticulture and stock farming. We have a herd of high bred dairy cows, a few fine hogs, and a poultry yard.
6. A school plant that represents the last word in school architecture, consisting of an Administration Building, a Dormitory for Girls, an Infirmary, a metal shop for Manual Training, and heating plant, conservatively valued at $1,250,000 and easily surpassing all other institutions with in three hundred miles.
7. A Dormitory for women that has every modern convenience at a minimum of expense, under the directions of as fine Christian influence as can be found anywhere.
8. A Kindergarten in charge of trained experts, used as a demonstration school for kindergarten teachers.
9. A common school of nine grades under expert instructors used as a demonstration school for grade and high school teachers.
10. A Manual Training Department that offers courses in all forms of wood and metal work and printing.
11. A Director of Athletics and Physical Education for both men and women and the very best equipment for these departments, including a beautiful indoor swimming pool, shower baths, an unexcelled gymnasium, six tennis courts, a base ball and football field, a race track, etc.
12. A library of 10,000 volumes unexcelled in quality, administered by trained librarians.
13. The religious life of the school is distinctly invigorating. Devotional exercises are held daily for the entire student body. The Y. W. C. A. maintains a paid secretary who gives general direction to Christian activities. In addition, the Baptist and Methodist Churches will have paid secretaries here during the coming session.
14. Expenses very low—no tuition (except for private instruction) free text books, cheap board.

There is no need for the young people in the Panhandle and Plains to go away from this section for college advantages, when all of the above unexcelled facilities are to be found in The West Texas State Normal College, Canyon, Texas.

THE BEST TEST

IS THE TEST OF TIME

Years ago Mrs. L. Howe of W. 4th Street, Clarendon, told of good results from using Doan's Kidney Pills. Now Mrs. Howe confirms the former statement—says there has been no return of the trouble. Can Clarendon people ask for more convincing testimony?

Mrs. Howe gave the following statement on November 27th, 1915: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills a few years ago and from the results I received I know they are good. I got Doan's at Stocking's Drug Store, and I advise everyone troubled with kidney complaint to try them."

On April 20th, 1919, Mrs. Howe added: "Since I recommended Doan's Kidney Pills some time ago I have not needed them. The cure Doan's made has lasted."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Howe had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Wood-Wilson

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wilson on Sunday the 22nd, a three course dinner was served to a few special friends, in honor of Miss Gertrude Wilson and Mr. D. L. Wood, who in the afternoon left for McLean, and was married by Bro. O. B. Oldham accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Headrick, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Jones, Misses Fannie Wilson, Laura Lofton, Katherine Headrick, and Mr. L. K. Rector. The bride is the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wilson, formerly of Clarendon, where she attended college. She is loved and admired by all who know her.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wood. He is a very prominent young man, and a successful farmer. He is well known and has scores of friends who will wish for him and wife many joys and a happy life.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood left on the 9 o'clock train to visit friends and relatives in Oklahoma and East Texas.

After a three weeks' visit they will be at their home three miles north of town.

Three and one-half sections; two sets of improvements; five miles of Clarendon; on public road and mail route Would sell half. We believe that the price of $25 per acre for all or half this place is a little below market conditions.

LOCAL & PERSONAL

Miss La Una Willis spent Sunday and Monday with Amarillo friends.

Miss Lola Mahaffey is a guest this week of the J. W. Rhodes home near Brice.

Miss Mittie Cole left Tuesday for a short visit with friends at Hereford, Texas.

Miss Stella Dugan of Greenville is visiting the families of Drs. Gray and Strickland.

Mrs. C. F. Bogard and daughter have returned from a visit with relatives in Louisiana.

Miss Lula Cottral of Lampasas is visiting at the L. C. Jones and Roy Kendall homes in this city.

C. M. Beyr of Wichita Falls visited with Fred Rathjen and other friends here the first of the week.

J. J. Taylor sold his home on the east side to John Potter the first of the week and will return to his old haunts around Wichita Falls.

Frank Houston, district manager for the Texas Gas & Electric Co., had business in Amarillo Monday.

Mrs. John Beverly arrived home Sunday after a visit of several weeks at Wichita Falls and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Rhodes of Amarillo spent Sunday in this city as guests at the Harry Sitner home.

Eli Johnson, well known to many people here, made this town Tuesday in the interests of a Dallas tire house.

Rev. Jim Bob Rich went down the Denver Tuesday to help hold a revival near Memphis for the next ten days.

Miss Vera Parsons, formerly a stenographer in the Beville insurance office, resigned her position to return to Tulsa where her people now reside.

T. M. Little is taking a much needed rest in the Battle Creek, Michigan, sanitarium after making his fall and winter purchases of stock for his store.

Mrs. C. B. Ingram returned home the last of the week from a lengthy visit with her children living in Oklahoma and several places in Texas. The preacher is happy again once more.

Mrs. R. T. Darnell of Jericho did some shopping here Monday and informed their friends that the family will move soon to Tyler, Texas, where her children may have the advantage of a business course.

Mr. F. R. Jamison, secretary-manager of the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce will be at the banquet of the Donley County Swine Breeders Association Saturday night and will address said organization at Hedley Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Arial and baby of Willington, S. C., spent the past several days at the home of the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Morris, returning here Monday of this week. They are very much pleased with our country and we hope to number them among our citizens at no distant future.

Harry Sitner and S. M. Braswell had business in Amarillo Monday.

Miss Smallwood of Stephenville, Texas, has accepted a position as stenographer with the Beville insurance people.

Emmett Richards, who has been visiting near Kasota, returned to assume his duties at the Central grocery the first of the week.

G. W. Antrobus is in Kansas City for the purpose of consulting a specialist, he being troubled with the same ailment as formerly.

H. M. Field of Durant, Oklahoma, was in town over Tuesday looking for a location in a good school town. You can't beat Clarendon, folks.

J. H. Cooper and family arrived home Sunday from an extended visit to Fort Worth. They left here in June and were delighted to get back to a cooler climate.

Miss Janie Morris, of Atlanta, Georgia, spent the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Morris in this city, leaving for a visit at Denver Monday.

Miss Maymie Davis, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Neal Bagard, left Friday for her home in Waxahachie, Texas. Miss Davis spent the past year in Denver, Colorado.

W. E. Hamlin and son George of near Jericho came down Tuesday to bring hogs and cattle which they sold to the local butcher, a market he states equal to the packing house markets.

Mrs. Newt Whipple and son Kenneth is visiting at the F. C. Whipple home in this city. Newt, who is a conductor on the Santa Fe from Slaton to Sweetwater, is expected to arrive soon to visit with his parents.

Dr. T. B. Loveless of Macon, Georgia, arrived the last of the week on an inspection tour of his property interests in this section, he being a partner of R. F. Morris, the two holding extensive land interests in Donley county.

A fishing party composed of J. T. Warren, Walter Dubbs, Bill Rumble, W. E. Hard and Scott Lambertson journeyed out to McClellan creek Saturday, returning in time for church Sunday. They report a dandy good catch and a royal good time.

Pat Langan and Chas. Corder shipped another car of melons to Amarillo Tuesday of this week. Consumers of the metropolis of the Panhandle scramble for Donley county products on account of the superior quality as compared to what they are getting from other places.

George Nash and Charley Corder have been supplying the Amarillo folk with choice Donley county melons and roasting ears this week. Charley found all to his satisfaction except that the city forced him to pay a license of $25 in order for him to sell that which he had raised himself which many believe to be unjust. The melons and corn were taken up there by truck and some shipped by rail. At any rate the folks up there are glad to get good, fresh stuff with the Donley county quality.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

BOARD AND ROOM FOR BOYS

I announced in the News last week the situation with reference to caring for the out-of-town boys. So far, I have had very few phone in their names and most of the rooms and board offered is beyond the school boy in price. I think we are going to have to provide board and room for something like $30.00 a month outside of the college dormitories, or a number of boys that are coming here to school will have to go home. I would like to ask that any who can care for young men please phone the office between 9 and 11 any day this week or next week. This is vital if we are to care for those who come. I have some boys and girls, too, who would like to work their way. If any would like to have these young men or young women in their homes, you may communicate with me.

We often see cakes of three, four and five layers, but a cake with 55 layers is unusual. This cake was made in Graham the first of this week. It took three hours to make it.

This cake was made for the birthday dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. J. Carter honoring Mrs. J. E. Parsons, Mrs. Carter's mother. The Leader is not saying that Mrs. Parsons is 55 years old but this cake with 55 layers was made for her birthday. There is so much in the papers these days about mistakes being made in reference to ages that The Leader does not pretend to help make or unmake any of the age records of our citizens. All we shall attempt to say about Mrs. Parsons' birthday dinner cake is that it contained 55 layers.—Graham Leader.

FACULTY MEMBERS FOR McLEAN PUBLIC SCHOOL HAVE ALL BEEN CHOSEN

The school board has announced the names of faculty members in McLean Public School for this year, and presents a line-up that is very pleasing. All of the teachers have first grade certificates, several are university trained and some are graduates.

Superintendent W. A. Cain is known to many of the people already, having spent some time here recently, and his qualifications have been published in these columns.

S. M. Castleberry of Denton has been chosen for the principal's place. In addition to normal courses he has done university work, and his ability has been proven to be of high order.

Miss Laura Hill of Waco, a graduate of Baylor University, and Miss Lillian Abbott of McLean, who also has university training, will teach in the high school.

Miss Lois Foster, who comes from Wichita Falls, will have charge of the fifth grade and the high fourth.

Miss Foster also has university training.

Miss Ernestine Osborne of Jericho, an experienced and capable instructor, will teach the low fourth and the third grades.

Mrs. Jno. B. Vannoy, who did such satisfactory work with the small children last year, will have charge of the second grade.

Mrs. W. A. Cain, who has had considerable experience and much success in primary work, will conduct that department.

This year McLean public school has one of the strongest faculties it has ever had, and the school board is behind them, and all that is lacking to insure a successful term is the confidence and cooperation of the patrons, which will, without a doubt, be forthcoming.—McLean News.

Hats of Distinction

FOR FALL WEAR

The new in MILLINERY is always found at our shop and so it is this Fall. We are showing the newest creations in shapes made up in all the latest shades that Dame Fashion has decreed would be most popular. Their decorative treatment, too, lends an added charm—that at once put them in the list of exclusive modes. Come look them over. There's much here to interest the woman who loves to view and wear hats of distinction.

WILL TEXAS HAVE CHANGE OF PARTY?

Does Texas face a possibility of a Republican or American party administration as a result of the regular election in November? Former Senator Bailey, in a statement attributed to him at Fort Worth, accepted the verdict of the people, saying:

"I made the campaign for the principles of Democracy as they have been accepted and cherished for more than 100 years, but the result convinces me that our party in this State will no longer support those principles."

But his campaign manager, Luther Nickels, gave out a statement in which he analyzed the campaign and its possibilities and gave much food for thought, saying:

"We made the fight for what we know to be sound principles. The office was purely incidental and unimportant except as it afforded means to the establishment of the principles. We lost, and that settles the matter in so far as the office is concerned, and with respect to that we cheerfully acquiesce in the result, because a majority of the voters of Texas who affiliate with the Democratic party have the unchallenged right to confer the nomination upon whomsoever they will."

"As the majority of the minority composing the Democratic party in action yesterday had the right to confer the nomination upon its choice so the majority of all the voters of Texas have the unchallenged right to confer the office itself upon whomsoever they desire in the general election in November. More than half a million voters have not participated in the Democratic primaries. Less than half a million did participate. Of those who did participate there are about 100,000 women voters who probably can not vote in November unless the State laws are amended; and if they can vote at all then there will be several hundred thousand other women who can also vote and who, of course, did not participate in the primaries."

"There is no obligation of any sort upon anybody who voted yesterday to attend the polls and vote in November. The only obligation is that they do vote. If the women's vote is eliminated and the vote cast for Senator Bailey is eliminated there will remain about 250,000 votes of those cast yesterday from whom the nominee may expect support in November. His opponents of the Republican party and the American party have more than twice this many to draw from, and if the women shall be permitted to vote at all in the general election they will have 200,000 more. All this suggests interesting developments as November approaches."

The Dallas News estimates that there are now a million voters in Texas. Of these less than a half million participated in the primary, and, as Mr. Nickels points out, 100,000 of those will not be permitted to vote in the general election, unless State laws are amended meanwhile. Then there remains a half million voters who are not obligated to cast ballots for the Democrat, but these are not all Republicans or American partisans. However, should they combine and wage a real campaign, it is not unlikely, in view of Mr. Nickels' showing and the evidence of disaffection in some western counties, that they might make it right interesting for the Democrats of Texas. The preventive, of course, is for the stay-at-homes among the Democrats to get out and vote in the November election.—Amarillo Tribune.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"This May Be Your Church"

"MY HOME"
By Alix Thorn in Ordward
"The home I love is not alone
For me and mine to share,
A blessed place in shine or storm
To bring each joy and care."

"For others need its comfort, too,
The door I open wide,
And wanderers find a welcome, oft,
My blazing hearth beside."

"Now sweeter grows familiar nook,
And every vista fair,
Since I have learned 'tis not alone,
For me and mine to share."

"And my Church home: what of it?
Is there cheer and love to spare?
A welcome warm, where men may find,
A friend, a God, and quiet worship there?"

OH, FUDGE!

Santa Fe New Mexican: "The cowboy, like the trapper, has almost vanished from the western picture. He lives now chiefly in Hollywood or in barnstorming troupes touring the country to stage such shows as the rodeos. He is no longer concerned with cattle, except as theatrical props; he is an actor, not a stockman."

"Except in a very few places, he is gone from the range, and in these scattered spots where he still persists it is in reduced glory as a greatly modified type. He is likely to be as familiar with flippers as with horses; he is as handy with the monkey wrench as with the branding iron, and as for six shooters, he is more likely to carry a kodak."

"The range itself is gone, barbed wire has taken its place, and unless he has had the spirit to become a ranch roystabout."

We might expect this ignorance in New York but it is a trifle surprising in San Francisco. If the writer will come over to New York we can show him a whole raft of simon-pure, dyed in the chaps, bow-legged, lean faced and sun burned cow persons fully as genuine as any Bret Harte ever saw or heard. The cowboy is about as far from being extinct in the west as the bald-faced steer. A good many things of the old days have passed—chiefly the professional two-man mat—but the professional two-man mat is still with us, with the same old tobaker and makings, the same ability to straddle anything on four legs, with the same old lingo and the same old sombrero and the same old goat pants, not to mention the identical Colt's forty-five—the kind you can fan—and the unchanged and unchangeable dusty silk kerchief around his neck. He can lasso a longhorn just as completely as 40 years ago and you don't have to range many leagues to hear the old tune:

"I'm just a pore cowboy
I know I've done wrong."
Vanished!—well, thanks be, not yet.

Plans are afoot for sending General Pershing on a visit to the republics of South America, nominally to return the visit of the President of Brazil to this country, but in reality to cement the friendship being established between North and South America. Prior to the World War, the United States had proceeded in a rather desultory way to encourage a better feeling, maintaining in Washington the Bureau of American Republics and presenting to exporters and merchants, scientists and scholars the openings afforded for trade in the several countries. But, having no merchant marine and being owners of no cable and telegraph lines running to and from South America, these being largely in the hands of the British, South American countries were served largely by ships flying the British flag principally and the German flag to a large extent, and did their communicating with this country almost exclusively over cables that run direct to Europe or by ships flying foreign flags. Our part in the World War has begun to get into closer touch with these republics. We are beginning to install American steamship lines from our ports to South American ports. We are beginning to look at South American lands as profitable fields. We are beginning to study the cable and telegraph situation with a view of installing systems of our own. We are beginning to hear about American boys going from our agricultural colleges to teach Brazilians and others how to raise fine cattle and cotton and other products. Our church missionaries are working in these lands. We are beginning to discover that some of the finest sight-seeing in the world lies in the continent to the south of us. Before the war Secretary of State Elihu Root made a tour of that country, and now it is proposed to send a military figure whose name is doubtless a household word down there as it is here, thus touching the hearts of the common people as well as of those higher up in the affairs of the world. It looks as if it might be a productive idea.—Amarillo Tribune.

PROMINENT CITIZEN IS BADLY INJURED SATURDAY

During the gathering of the big crowd on the streets Saturday afternoon due to election day, A. A. Walker was run over by a jitney driven by Jim Parker of Lelia Lake. The affair was purely accidental and is regretted very much by both Mr. Parker and the many friends of Mr. Walker. The injured man was immediately taken to the sanitarium for examination where it was found that his shoulder had sustained a serious injury as well as bodily bruises. He was able to be taken to his home Tuesday of this week where he is slowly convalescing.

AGED RESIDENT DIES AT TEMPLE MONDAY

Born in 1816, Uncle Dick Knight passed away at his home near Temple Monday of this week at the ripe old age of 104. He had resided on the same farm for more than a half century and was probably the oldest white citizen of the state. Although 45 years of age at the time of the Civil War, he enlisted on the Confederate side and acquitted himself with honor.

The business men of Clarendon will take a trade trip over Donley county on the 7th and 8th of September. The excursion will leave Clarendon about 9 o'clock on the morning of the seventh and will go through Brice, Leslie, Lakeview, Memphis, Giles, Hedley, Lelia Lake and back home.

The excursion will leave here about 9 o'clock on the morning of the 8th and will go through Jericho, Groom, Claude, Goobnight, Ashtola and back home.

The arrangement committee is very desirous of having at least 100 cars to go in the excursion on both days. Get your car ready and see Mr. C. W. Taylor and let him know that you will be in on the excursion. Let's make a great showing for the business men of Clarendon and advertise the Fair all along the route, and incidentally have a great time on the trips.

Our Fall Garments Now On Display

This is an event which is eagerly awaited by women who are anxious to become acquainted with the newest and most acceptable in style and who are content only with stylish garments that have a quality beyond reproach.

In again featuring the "Palmer Garment," we know that we are presenting for your consideration coats and suits of the very highest class—garments which prove their worth as they are worn. For seventy years this make has been growing closer into the hearts of women, because, no matter what the style of the season, the garment is always first class—a conscientious production.

THE PALMER GARMENT

These coats and suits are in splendid variety—hardly any two styles that we show are alike, and yet each is correct and has its own charm. There is one garment in the collection which you will quickly see was made just for you, because it brings out your individuality as no other garment can.

The genuine intrinsic value of these garments, apart from any style feature, is not only discernible now, but their value becomes more evident as you give them opportunity to provide service—the long consistent wear that you expect from a garment of quality.

With all the confidence in the world concerning the acceptability of these coats and suits—for women, for misses, for juniors, for children—we invite you to inspect these garments. Both of us will benefit by your acquaintance with the Fall and Winter models.

LOCAL & PERSONAL

Robert Boydston of near Groom had business here today.

Mrs. J. H. Martin and children of San Saba, Texas is visiting at the N. M. Martin in this city.

Mrs. J. H. Potts and children arrived home today (Thursday) from a visit with relatives in East Texas.

Big rains fell over the Panhandle Wednesday of this week being much heavier near Washburn and Claude than here.

The watermelon season shows no abatement judging from the number being hauled in. Shipping has been brisk also this week.

Mrs. S. E. Mayfield of Shamrock spent the week end with Mrs. R. S. Moss of this city, returning home with her husband Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Smith returned home the first of the week after a visit of a few days with the former's father at Childress.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Perine, formerly of Hedley but who now make their home in Ft. Worth, are spending the week here on business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Martin of Cisco, who have been spending the past several days under the paternal roof at the N. N. Martin home, returned home this week.

A span of big mules attached to a farm wagon pulled off a show on Kearney street the first of the week. They made a fast get away encircling a block entirely with the wagon tongue down and did not hit a single car though the center of the streets were full. The whole affair is typical of the mule. No damage was done and the animals appeared willing to stop after they had their fun.

Read the Fair directions in this issue to get your bearings in early.

J. R. Bartlett and family returned Monday from a pleasant vacation trip spending a part of the time with relatives at Decatur and several days at Mineral Wells, Texas.

Mrs. J. E. Cockrell of Lampasas, Texas, is visiting in our city. She will be remembered as Miss Lulu Kendall and was a student in the Clarendon College during the term 1902-3.

Some of the finest peaches ever grown in Donley county were exhibited by Matt Bennett on the streets this week. Only a few were left after the frost and he remembered his old friend G. B. Bagby, who is unable to be out.

Mrs. Bob McGowan and children arrived home Monday from an extended visit with relatives in Smith county, Texas. The baby has been sick much of the time since going down there and the mother was glad to get back to a cooler climate with the little folks.

Rev. P. R. Huckleberry and Walter Glass, formerly with the T. M. Little company, have formed a partnership and will go on the road for a shoe house and other popular lines. They expect to leave this week to enter upon their new labors.

Ed Peltzel, proprietor of Ed's tailoring shop, he being the only first class tailor in the Panhandle, is extremely proud of a new machine recently added to his equipment in the way of a gasoline cleaner. The machine is operated by electric power and turns out the goods about as fast as they can be hung out to dry. A filter and dust extractor are two more machines to be added to this popular place of business the coming week.

Dick Wilkinson, who has been on the sick list for the past several days, is able to be up again.

J. O. Quattlebaum, who for some years engaged in the realty business at McLean, has opened up for business in this city since moving here. He goes after the business in the right way by advertising to let the people know who he is, what he has to offer and where they will find him.

The Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce is going to the International Wheat Show with an exhibit October 4th to 16th.

To this exposition comes people from all points of this country of ours and even from foreign lands. Accordingly, it is deemed of inestimable value to this section that an exhibit be taken to that exposition.

You are urged to avail yourself of this opportunity to give your community some specific representation. The exhibit taken by this organization will be representative of the entire Panhandle, exhibitive of the products of each section.

A large relief map is now being constructed for this display and we desire that you should send in specimens representative of the products of your community availing yourself of the opportunity thus afforded for the specific exhibition of your community.

Don't get this confused with the Donley County Free Agricultural Fair to be held in Clarendon Sept. 17th and 18th, for it is in no way connected with it.
Roy B. Mefferd,
Secretary, Chamber of Commerce.

LADIES' AID WILL MEET

The next meeting of the Ladies' Aid society is announced for September 8th at 3 p. m. at the home of Mrs. R. L. Jenkins. A large attendance is desired. Members are also requested to send all garments for the orphan asylum to the home of Mrs. Homer Glascoe at the earliest possible date.

Letters remaining uncalled for in this office for the week ending Aug. 21, 1920, as follows: Armstrong, Mrs. J. H.; French, Mrs. Velma; Gilchrist, W. F.; Green, W. H.; Kalika, Miss Frances; Kemp, Fred; Lewis, C. W.; Martin, Earnest; Morrison, Mrs. W. G.; Page, John; Pierce Bros. & Cooper; Ray, Mrs. A. D.; Smith, Miss Roberta; Smith, Mrs. S. A.; Warren, J. W.

When Milady Buys Her Hat

She realizes that it is the one article of her outfit, particularly in Autumn and winter, that must bear every evidence of true distinction. Her Hat must "set her off" from the commonplace.

Individuality is the keynote of our present selected stock. Every hat has been chosen or made with that idea in view. You'll be pleased with this season's assortment, because it is so varied and extensive. Selection, therefore, is a pleasure here.

To the Men Who buy inner tubes by guess

Your inner tubes are almost as important as your tires. But it takes a special skill—a rare skill—to build good tubes.

Miller stands supreme in this field. For 24 years Miller has built super-grade rubber goods.

Miller today remains the largest maker of such things as surgeons' gloves.

That sort of skill is needed in a tube. Men may differ on the best tire maker, but they cannot differ on the best tube maker. That place is conceded to Miller.

Layer on layer

Miller Tubes are built of thin sheets of pure rubber—surgeon grade. They are built layer on layer, sheet on sheet, up to the proper ply.

Then each tube is tested for hours under air pressure to make sure it is air-tight. Yet these ideal tubes cost no extra price.

If you will buy one Miller Tube and watch it, you will always cling to Millers.

THE GREATEST TASK OF A CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The greatest task of a chamber of commerce is to "sell" itself to the people of the community in which it is located and from among whom it draws its support.

The term "sell" is borrowed from the primer of the modern salesman and is used advisedly. Men and women will not pay money to a merchant for goods which they do not want or which do not come up to their requirements nor will they contribute to the maintenance of a civic or commercial organization which does not win their approval or of which they know nothing.

The successful merchant, nowadays, strives to educate his patrons to acquire a taste for the goods he carries on his shelves and the chamber of commerce or other quasi public institution, depending on popular support must prove to its members and to the people as a whole that it has a reason for being and therefore worthy of maintenance.

Too many chambers of commerce were permitted to die of inanition, in the past, because those who should be benefitted by it and who would support it if they were shown how to secure the benefits, were permitted to remain in ignorance of the times even of its very existence except when they were called upon to send checks to cover their dues.

The officers and directors were too often to blame for lack of interest. They either did not know how to "sell" the benefits of the organization to the community or they were inclined to adopt a policy of exclusiveness and converted the chamber of commerce into a "club" at which the favored few gathered on more or less regular occasions for the purpose of forming plans to which the community was expected to agree regardless of the fact that they had no voice in making them or of the further fact that they had not been given good reasons for agreeing to them.

It is an incumbent upon the directors of a chamber of commerce to let the people know what the organization is doing or trying to do to advance the best interests not only of its members but of the community as a whole as it is that the people should support it.

The officers and directors of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce are attempting to follow the advice given above through the work of the different departments.

The people of Clarendon are familiar with the objects and aims of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce through the columns of The Clarendon News.

To again use the language of the salesman they have "bought" the organization. That that is true is manifested in the manner in which the best people of the community support the Chamber of Commerce. They have learned that the organization so far from being a "special man's club" or a "merchants' club" or an exclusive "club" operated in the interests of any class, it is a "clearing house" for the entire community and that from the humblest to the highest, if there are any of either in Clarendon, each and all may feel free to work with it and through it for the benefit of all.

Clarendon Chamber of Commerce, Roy B. Mefferd, Sec'y.

CROWELL MAN WEDDED TO CLARENDON GIRL; NOW IN COLORADO

The marriage of Mr. Herbert K. Edwards and Miss Nell Alexander, which took place at the home of the bride's parents in Clarendon Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, came as a surprise to their many friends here. Although it was known that these young people were to be married the wedding came sooner than expected.

Mr. Edwards left Sunday for Clarendon and was followed on Tuesday by Mr. Alton Andrews who was best man in the wedding ceremony.

Mr. Edwards is one of Crowell's most progressive young business men and is manager of the R. B. Edwards store. He is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Edwards and has been reared here and is well and favorably known throughout this county.

Mrs. Edwards, whose home is in Clarendon, taught in the Crowell school last term, and made many warm friends during her stay here. She is an accomplished and attractive young lady and will be a most welcomed addition to the citizenship of Crowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards left Clarendon on the west bound Denver Wednesday afternoon for a short honeymoon to be spent in Colorado Springs.—Index.

The News joins their host of friends in hearty congratulations and best wishes.

MEXICAN PAPERS STRONG FOR FAIR

Herald Texas Exposition as Great Trade Opening.

Heralded by newspapers throughout Mexico as an event of national importance, the Mexican National Exhibit at the State Fair of Texas—October 9 to 24—promises to be a revelation to those who have overlooked the art, the romance and the beautiful traditions of the land of our southern neighbors. For the exhibit will abound not only with examples of Mexico's industrial and agricultural progress, but will contain relics and works of art that will be the center of attraction to hundreds of art lovers who will visit the Fair. In fact, one of the big features of the entire State Fair program will be the band of the Estado Mayor. This band ranks high among the musical organizations of the entire world and is well known to readers of musical journals. Nearly a hundred highly trained musicians comprise this band.

From a standpoint of commerce, the papers of Mexico have devoted page after page to impress upon their readers the importance of this exhibit. It is pointed out that this is an opportunity which must not be overlooked to establish better relations with business men of the United States. A typical newspaper story devoted to this exhibit appeared in a recent issue of "Excelsior" of Mexico City. The article, in part, follows:

"The Mexican exhibition of natural and manufacturing products, to be shown in Dallas, Texas, at the State Fair this year will be more complete and interesting than any other shown in any foreign country.

"At present the Texas State Fair is one of the most important in the American Union. All producers of the United States, and merchants in general, exhibit their products, without omitting any effort to enlarge the market for their products. Every available space, where this great State Fair is going to take place, has already been taken and every indication is that this exposition will surpass all previously shown.

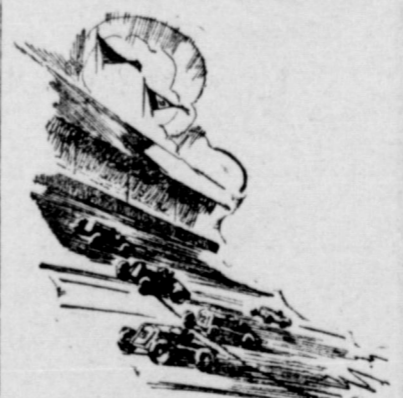

"The city of Dallas has become the large distributing center of great importance in the Southwestern section of the United States. Nearly all the leading American enterprises have branches in Dallas and transactions are conducted on the same line as at headquarters."

The papers stress that Mexico sends its very best products to the Fair, paying particular attention to the art collection which will be brought here.

The importance of the exhibit to American industry can be readily seen when one realizes that it is through the medium of the Texas Jobbing House that the majority of trade will be conducted with Mexico and it is expected that this alone will bring hundreds of Eastern manufacturers and industrial heads here during the Fair.

SET DATES FOR BIG AUTO RACES AT FAIR

Returning from Chicago, where he consulted with many automobile authorities, Secretary W. H. Stratton of the State Fair of Texas has announced the dates for the auto races that will feature the State Fair season—October 9 to 24. These dates are:

Tuesday, October 12.
Saturday, October 16.
Sunday, October 17.

On these dates the kings of the dirt track racing game will meet in competition, insuring some of the greatest sport Texas has ever seen.

In addition to this, plans are now being made to stage a great international sweepstakes race on some day during the last week of the Fair, when the winners of the three days will meet in competition. This will undoubtedly be the greatest automobile racing event ever staged in the southwest.

COUNTY EXHIBITS WILL BREAK ALL FAIR RECORDS

With the co-operation of T. O. Walton, director of the State Extension Department at A. & M. College, assured, the State Fair of Texas is moving forward to a record-breaking season as regards county agricultural exhibits. Mr. Walton and Secretary W. H. Stratton of the State Fair, have had a series of conferences on this important department of the Fair, and every assurance is extended by Mr. Walton that the exhibits will be far more numerous, and far more select, than those of any previous year in Fair history.

..... You Will Save Money at Our Store.....

Here's How---Read It!

The assertion that you WILL save money at our store implies two beliefs on our part—a belief in our merchandise, AND the belief that, because of the genuine values we are able to offer, you will be impelled to buy of us. And when you buy, we know you will save money. Why? Simply this: Selling merchandise over the counter brings out the fact that there are three sorts of customers: the extremely close buyer, the extremely extravagant one, and the economical buyer. The first of these considers price the principal thing, and as a natural result buys the cheapest goods he can find, in too many instances unjustly laying the blame for unsatisfactory service on the seller. The second "doesn't give a hang what it costs" and most of the time pays more than the intrinsic worth of the article justifies. No one is sorry for him, and he doesn't want anybody's sympathy. He bought what he wanted. The third buyer is mindful of both price and intrinsic worth, and studies their relation to each other. That buyer gets maximum service out of the shoes, clothing, etc., that he buys, and pays the minimum price for such service. And then he is thoroughly satisfied.

THAT IS THE KIND OF CUSTOMER WE ARE TRYING TO SERVE

And if you are that kind of buyer, WE KNOW WE CAN SAVE YOU MONEY. We began business here with the intention of becoming known, not as the CHEAPEST house in town, but as a place where GOOD GOODS ARE SOLD AT REASONABLE PRICES. And, we believe we are building up such a reputation. If you are not already one of those who know our kind of merchandise, come to the store, any time, and price around through the store, ALWAYS observing qualities. If we can't get your trade that way, well and good, but we feel sure you will be pleasantly surprised.

NORTHWEST TEXAS FAIR AT PLAINVIEW

Fifty Comanche Indians from the Government reservation in Oklahoma will mix it with the Greek acrobats, the South American wire walker, the second largest wheat show ever held in America, the largest cotton show in Texas this year and dozens of other outstanding attractions at the Northwest Texas Fair at Plainview, September 27, 28, 29, 30 and October 1.

Four of the biggest free acts in the country have been booked by the management of the fair to come directly from the Muskogee, Okla., State Fair and to go directly from Plainview to the Dallas Fair. Fifteen free performances of these big acts will be given daily, morning, afternoon and evening. One of these big acts is Thaler's Circus which has been playing only the big fairs. Another is the Great Martello, a star attraction with Ringling Bros. Circus for a number of years in a daring slide on his head down a tight wire. Another is the Five Petrows who landed in this country in July from Greece. These performers are acrobats and balance artists who do unusual Greek posing. And the fourth big act is the Ples Rector Trio, comedy acrobats who perform on stationary ladders thirty feet in the air.

These are only the four headlines for a program of entertainment which crowds every minute of the five days. There will be the big Wild West Round up with horse racing, steer and goat roping, bronc busting, bulldozing, the Comanche Indians in their war dances and village life, the baseball and football games, auto racing every day with $3500 in purses, wrestling and boxing, band music, quartette and choral singing, foot races and field events, water fights and fire fighting and numerous other exciting and entertaining events.

The Plainview grain dealers have made possible the biggest purses ever offered at a wheat show with a single exception. For instance, the sweepstake for a best bushel of winter wheat is $200 cash with a big list of other sweepstakes in proportion. The alfalfa show will be another feature and the cotton show with $200 sweepstake for the best 10 pounds of lint and other heavy awards will be a winner.

The Horse Association of America, The Herford Association, The Poland China Record Association, The National Duroc-Jersey Association and several others are all cooperating in the awards and the success of the livestock exhibits. The poultry show will be judged by one of the best A. P. A. judges in the Southwest and promises to be unusually large.

There will be every possible department in which the women can display their work and accomplishments and there will be a big better babies conference. Contracts have already been made for as much as four city blocks of space for the tractor and farm machinery show. Similar contracts have been made for the merchants and manufacturers displays which will cover nearly a city block. The auto and accessories show will cover another two-thirds of a city block. The entire city will be decorated in gala attire.

On the first or second day a decorated float parade will be held for which more than forty cars have already entered and on the last day a big livestock parade with all ribbons tied, will be held.

There will be extensive county and individual farm displays. A total of nearly $7500 in premiums is being offered. Over $8000 in race and other contest purses and $5500 in free attractions are sure to bring forth meritorious entertainment. And the best part of it all is that admission is free to all exhibits and competition open to the world, and there is no charge to most of the entertainments and amusements.

Thirty-five hundred catalogues are about ready for distribution, and copies of these can be obtained from the secretary, E. B. Miller, Plainview, Texas.

MENAGERIE IS BIG EXPENSE

One of the most important divisions of John Robinson's mammoth exhibit at Amarillo Sept. 14 to 16, is the immense menagerie. In the past this collection has always held its own with that of any traveling organization, but this season it is said to have added some specimens which make it the most unique and instructive wild animal exhibition ever connected with a circus.

"Fubby," a baby hippopotamus; "Certo," an elephant less than four feet in height, so small that it is necessary to carry him to and from the circus grounds in a wagon; three herds of elephants, many of them monsters of their tribe; and some of the cutest lion cubs ever seen are a few among the list of very interesting specimens.

The cost of the John Robinson menagerie has been variously established at from $350,000 to $400,000, but these figures do not include cost and maintenance of cages, transportation nor feeding. To feed the animals for one year costs approximately $1,000. Not all of the animals can be fed the same food—many of them are given a fish diet, others clean beef, while still others are sustained on special cereals.

A big street parade will be given at 10 a. m. in Amarillo on day of exhibition.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

It Takes Good Shoes Of Real Leather to Stand Hard Wear and Bad Weather

We have never had such a large stock of shoes since we began business as now fills our shelves to overflowing. Many of you were unable last fall to get the shoes you wanted at the time you needed them. Our shoes are all in the house now, and—

WE WANT TO SELL YOU YOUR SHOES THIS FALL

Possibly you don't know just how good the shoes are we sell. But those who have been buying them of us DO know, and they will come back to us this fall. And in all sincerity we want to tell you that the shoes are going to you just as cheaply as is possible to safe and sane merchandising. You can buy shoes cheaper than ours are. They may look like them. But there's lots put into a shoe (or left out) that you cannot see. When you go to buy a leather belt for a piece of machinery, you can buy one just as long and just as wide and just as thick as another for less money, but you know that the higher priced belt surely has the better part of the hide in it.

THE CHURCHES AND THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

One of the most powerful factors in the upbuilding of any community should be the church. John Fiske, who was neither a churchman or a theologian said of religion: "No one can deny that it (religion) is the largest and most powerful fact connected with the existence of mankind, on earth." He was referring to mankind as a whole and to religion as a world embracing institution. But, his reflections may be made to apply to the most infinitesimal community and with equal force.

Caryl Spiller, secretary of the chamber of commerce of Red Wing, Minn., in a recent contribution to "Community Leadership," a New York publication devoted to chambers of commerce and kindred associations for civic advancement, says that "in no time in the history of the world has the influence of the church been more apparent than now or at no time the way more clearly revealed in which to meet its obligations and its opportunities as a community builder."

Religion, according to the modern conception of the term means something more than mere denominational wrangling over fine points of doctrine. It means more than merely going to church on the Sabbath day. The church of today is an organization through which man is permitted to serve his fellows because true religion and service go hand in hand. It is not so much the business of the church to save itself as to save the community.

The great task of the church is to engender and cultivate community spirit. The greatness of a community is not to be found in its fine buildings, its beautiful streets or its commercial prestige but in the civic spirit of its people. The development will solve themselves when the members of the community are moved by a spirit of unselfish service and they can best be moved by the powerful agency of the church.

Advanced as we are prone to believe the world is in the matter of social and community development, the fact is that we, particularly those who live on the frontier, are just beginning to realize our relationship to each other and what is due from each in the matter of advancing the community as a whole.

The help of the church is needed in order that the material forces which make for selfishness and the growth of the individual at the expense of the community shall be held in subjection or metamorphosed to the end that it shall be brought home to us that we are, in more senses than one, our brothers' keepers.

The church should be in the vanguard of community development in that its constant aim should be the inculcation of a spirit of civic righteousness which shall lead to a better understanding of things here and hereafter.

Clarendon Chamber of Commerce,
Roy B. Mefferd.

The revival meeting at the First Christian church closing tonight has been in many respects the greatest in the history of this church. The evangelists: F. W. Strong and Miss Mattie Mae Wofford, were at their best, and the plain, simple teaching of the Gospel by Bro. Strong, and the inspiring solos of Miss Wofford, combined with the efficient singing of the choir, and the excellent cooperation of the pastor and the membership, has resulted in immeasurable good and great blessings to all. Thirty-seven additions to the church, a perfecting and uniting of the membership, increasing of zeal and a determination to do even greater things for the Master are some of the outstanding results of the meeting. Bro. Strong and Miss Wofford were given an invitation to return again next August to lead in another great revival here. The church never faced greater opportunities than now. May the choicest and richest blessings, of a wise and loving Heavenly Father, the incomparable love of the all-conquering Christ, the ever abiding presence and leadership of the Holy Spirit always and ever be the inspiring, uplifting, satisfying possession of this church, and may her candlestick ever shed its glorious light unto one and all, and may her fruitage continue to be a continuous harvest of precious souls for the Master is the prayer and sincere desire of her retiring pastor.

P. R. Hackberry.

To Lady Democratic Workers

At my suggestion you met and organized for work before our recent primary and I feel that you are truly due the commendation for your effective efforts as told by the eloquent results, which shows how enthusiastically you took hold of and worked the plans to bring out the lady voters.

To me the advent of our women to full suffrage betokens better things in our American politics and pleases me very greatly.

Let me suggest the maintenance of your present very effective organization and that you put forth special efforts to have all the legal lady voters secure for themselves, as a Christmas or New Year's present, their state and county, and where necessary, city poll tax receipts, thus equipping themselves for all political purposes for the coming year.

Again personally thanking each worker, I am,
Very truly,
A. M. Beville, Sr.

"A LITTLE PAIR OF ROMPERS"

The other night we sat by idly watching a mother ironing the weekly wash. A plate of cake was at our elbow and as we ate, we talked. It is not hard to do either when the eating is good and the company pleasant. The children were fast asleep in their little beds.

And as the mother ironed, she discussed the children. That's the way of mothers. Their love oozes out at their finger ends and all labor is sweet because of the children. Did God see into the future and make the first mother sew fig leaves because way down the ages her children would be needing clothing? At any rate, the making and washing and ironing little garments has been the chief occupation of mothers for so many years that time does not tell when the first garment was made.

How many garments does a child have in the wash each week? Ask a mother. How many little garments are sprinkled down in the clothes basket each week? And how many motions of the iron is made before the basket is empty? Piece after piece is ironed and neatly folded and put away. Some garments have to be mended. Some buttons have to be sewed on.

Dear little chaps sleeping so sweetly, how much work you do make for your mother. But, land sakes alive how very proud she is of her children! They are her life. They are her constant thought, walking or sleeping.

As the mother pulled out the ruffles and patted down the lace, she peeped now and then to where the children slept. Did you ever watch the face of a mother as she looks upon her children as they lay asleep?

God paints the face of a Madonna more often than we mere mortals of earth realize. As the mother ironed the little dresses and rompers of her dear wee ones, she noted the torn, or worn places, the buttons that were missing and the ever apparent fact that the kiddies wore out many garments and got all dirty and mussed up the time they were dressed in the morning to the time they were undressed at night. And only mother to do all the washing, ironing and mending.

And the little dresses, so dainty, so short and so frilly or so plain are comfy play days; how many stitches a mother puts in each garment and how soon the child outgrows the biggest of them. And the little rompers. God bless the boy! He just wears out more rompers than his mother can keep ship shape and ready to wear.

A pair of little rompers! A pair of clean rompers how many times a day can you guess?

A little boy at play recks not at the washing he makes for his mother. And so he is happy and gets all dirty and runs to his mother a million or so times a day for kisses or petting or sore fingers bound up or a piece of bread and butter. And when the boy can not keep his eyes open a minute longer, he comes to be put to bed for his nap. Bath! Sakes alive, did you ever see a boy who liked to be washed and made clean, even to his ears?

And daddy, even daddy, was a little pair of rompers and a little wee dress all folded up with care. Two little heads on a pillow. Two little ones fast asleep. And a mother ironing away, tired, happy, building air castles and wistfully smiling.

Tired and weary, the last garment ironed and folded away, the mother is glad her task is finished, but she still holds in her hand a pair of little rompers as we say good-night.

Common place work, you say. Monotonous work, and work that keeps one at home most of the time. Yes it grows wearisome at times, and the reward is nothing but love. Yet love is the greatest thing in the world and without it, the world would be a place not pleasant to dwell in and happiness would be unknown. The love of home and her children bring forth the best from the heart of the mother. There is no love like mother's love and no face as sweet as mother's face. Into the mother's care and keeping the wee ones are given and to her they look for all things that are so necessary for their growth in body, mind and spirit. It is the mother who forms the character of her child and she holds its future in her hand. On her slender shoulders rests the burden of the home and though her weary steps may falter, her love never grows cold. All other flowers may fade but the sweetest flower of all, a mother's love is a part of heaven's beauty and can never fade or wither because it is eternal and is God's gift to man.

The home is the foundation upon which nations are built. Upon the home depends the weal or the woe of the nation. If the mother's heart beats true to her country, all the foes that threaten may well tremble and feel afraid. As the mother gathers her little brood about her and tells them of the flag and their duty to God and native land, she moulds their character and shapes the destiny of nations. As the mother bids her sons go fight for liberty and her daughters to nurse the sick and wounded, she gives her life for her country, because her children are her very soul and body. And when she has given her son on the battlefield, she has given her all and the name of mother is wafted to heaven with his spirit as it goes again to the land where love makes heaven.

Little dresses and little rompers, ironed with care and folded away to be worn by wee ones and washed and ironed all over again, you are the fabric of dreams and sweeter by far than the attar of roses. You are the price of love eternal.

The wee ones will soon outgrow the little dresses and rompers and they will be known to memory only, but what is sweeter to the child grown up than the memory of home and mother. And what is sweeter to the mother than a pair of little, faded, outgrown rompers or a tiny dress.—Higgins News.

Lubbock Avalanche: Following investigation of the Federal Attorney of the ice prices in the city, and the issuance of an ultimatum by the attorney, on the dealers there, ice prices dropped to 70¢ last Friday, the former price had reached the eighty cent mark. Even then the ice prices in Amarillo were less than in Lubbock, where we pay a round dollar for a hundred pounds.
