NOTICE—Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of The News will be gladly corrected upon its being brought to the attention of the publisher.

The Donley County Chapter, American Red Cross, is meeting with better success in their 1925 roll call than in recent years. That is comforting, for it betokens a people of broad sympathies and great heart.

Furthermore, when the State University beats A. & M., the Navy beats the Army and Yale beats Harvard, things are going to be brighter and rosier in this sanctum. We are fully assured that the Clarendon College Bulldogs will defeat the Montezuma Cliff dwellers, and if the Clarendon Bronchos don't pour it on the Lockney Hi team somebody's pants are going to be hard to sit down in.

Thanksgiving closing by the business houses of Clarendon will be the rule next Thursday, the 1925 Thanksgiving Day. Better co-operation in every sort of a community matter is becoming the rule in our city, which is another reason why we may celebrate Thanksgiving Day this year. Let our people take due notice and let us co-operate in allowing our business men and their assistants the privileges of a holiday on this day set aside for the rendering of thanks to Almighty God for the bounteous blessings of the past year.

An eminent divine declared the past week that every badge of masculinity had been usurped by women except the mustache, and urged his brethren to wear one. We would, only, next week from the Rue de la Paix would most likely come charming little "mustachios" in pink, blue, carmine and rose, ready to be affixed to Madam's charming upper lip, and then our old scraggly brownish-grey mustache would be immediately out-of-date and an object of merriment and scorn. No, if a man hasn't any other badge of masculinity than a mustache, he's up against it in this modern and maudlin age.

The Annual Father and Son Banquet is one of the boasted institutions of Clarendon and its power and influence has been growing from year to year since its inception. Too true it is that we often neglect to give thought to the main idea behind the father and son movement until the week of the annual banquet, but the point is that we are calling more attention to our duty as fathers each year, in the hope that the movement will bear fruit every week in the year. The danger in America in recent years has been that the engrossment of business would cause fathers generally to lose touch with their sons, thereby failing to fulfill their duty to the next generation. That has been a real danger and we may well ask "Is the Young Man Safe?" until we have righted it. Clarendon fathers will not contribute to such a condition and Clarendon sons are safer and happier in the more natural relationship.

Somebody up in Arizona started this slogan—"Why keep a cow? Make the cow keep you." Seems to us that would be a sweet tune to sing right here in Donley County.

INITIATIVE DEFINED

The world bestows its riches, both in money and honor, for but one thing. And that is initiative. What is initiative? I'll tell you; it's doing the right thing without being told.—Elbert Hubbard.

We feel that we can assure you that you will be more than pleased with the Annual Home Town Edition of The Clarendon News which will be issued on Thursday, Dec. 17th. A number of new and interesting features are being added this year and the reader interest will be well taken care of. Our local advertisers are beginning to make their reservations for large space and it is hoped that no home institution will be missing from its advertising columns. The edition will be thoroughly distributed in the entire trade territory and will be read by ten thousand people. Work has already begun in this office and we don't expect very much rest until the last load is carried to the postoffice on the date of issue.

In 1917, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, a certain dairyman with a small herd averaged 155 pounds of butter fat per cow, but his profits averaged only sixty-four cents per cow over the cost of feeding them. He joined a cow-testing association under the direction of his county agent and after six years testing and culling his herd his average production of butterfat per cow had raised to the satisfactory figure of 288 pounds with an average income over cost of feed of $146 per cow. Those are the actual records and represent the achievements of those who use the information and science at hand to improve their own income and living standards. None of us are engaged in any pursuit that is not worth effort and study for improvement.

A good citizen of Clarendon, very much interested in high quality products from the farms of Donley County, remarked to this writer the other day, that if we desired to do the people of Donley County a real service, we could do so by joining in with the statewide movement for the planting of better staple cotton giving it wide publicity in this section. This was a welcome remark to our ears, since a few days before we had been reading some of the details of the movement and had already felt much impressed with its importance and necessity. The grade of seed planted in Donley County has steadily declined as the increased acreage has been put in, until this fall we have seen more ill effects of poor seed than at any other period of the county's history. The local chamber of commerce is fully aware of the situation and is alive to the needs of the county in this particular and has already authorized the prefatory work in this connection and a flying start will be made before the first day of 1926. Better seed for Donley County in 1926 is a most urgent need for the New Year.

Another evidence of the fine fraternal and community spirit existing in Clarendon these days was the reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hayter a few evening ago, introducing the new minister of the Christian Church with his wife, to the officials of all the other churches of the city and their pastors. What we want to impress on our people is the fact that the Christian people "started something" with this event, which is without precedent in the history of Clarendon and is most worthy of emulation by other churches in the coming years. Not many of the old-fashioned, close-fisted denominationalists are left among us and the spirit and influence of Christianity is better and stronger by their passing. God blesses the man or woman, who is able to see that there are other routes to Heaven than the one particular one that appeals to him as all to be desired. More real fraternity among our churches means a sweeter, cleaner, happier community life. It means, more than all, a greater drawing influence to help the man of the world to a knowledge of God and fellowship among his servants, weak and faltering though they sometimes be.

ELECTRIC RATES TO BE LOWERED

At a meeting of plant managers of the Texas Central Power Company of this section, held in this city this week, the matter of lowering the rates for power, light and heat in Memphis, Childress, Clarendon, Estelina and Hedley was discussed by District Manager Houston of Childress, and the statement is issued that rates will be lowered in all towns served by the company, in the very near future.

While the new rates have not been worked out, it is said that they will be 10 to 20 per cent lower than present rates. The amount of current on which the minimum charge of $1.50 is based will be increased from 8 to 10 kilowatts which means you may use two kilowatts more current than at present for the minimum charge. It will take a few days to work out the new rates, but they will probably go into effect either the first of December or January.—Hall County Herald.

The Interest Return On Our Investment Is Too Small For Profit

We have been stating for the past few weeks that our return for the money invested did not justify the service rendered the public in the city of Clarendon. We have secured figures and comparative data that are exhaustive in their scope and now ask that you give us the same consideration in the future as in the past.

We are asking a raise in the telephone rates in Clarendon to give us a fair return on the money invested. Full data has been placed in the hands of the city commission and you have the privilege of examining them at your leisure.

We are asking a raise of $1.00 per month on telephones in the business districts of the city which is due to the fact that these instruments are used more than any others in the city. The residence phones will be raised 50 cents per month, which is also relative to the amount these phones are used.

This will give the Clarendon Telephone Company an increase in return of 2.8 per cent and will make it possible for us to make a living wage on the amount invested.

The raise is to take effect immediately and will be found on the statement at the end of the month.

WATER SPORTS SAFER FOR RED CROSS WORK

Expert Life-Savers and Many Thousand Swimmers Reduce Annual Water Toll.

Water sports in the United States have never been so safe as they are today, a survey of the work done by Life-Saving experts of the American Red Cross in the past year indicates.

Thousands of adults and young people were taught to swim proficiently by these experts during this period. In addition, 5,681 men, 4,187 women, and 13,024 juniors successfully passed the rigid tests of the Life Saving Service of the Red Cross. The total thus trained during the year—22,892—is 5,041 more than last year's results. The total membership of the Life Saving Corps of the Red Cross on June 30 was 72,810 persons.

Meeting the demand for qualified instructors and counsellors in these camps, are the college men and women of the country, many devoting whole or part of their annual vacation periods to this field. Meeting the need of standardized instruction in Life-Saving, First-Aid, and kindred subjects, the American Red Cross conducted nine First-Aid and Life-Saving Camp Institutes this year with a total attendance of more than 600, in Maine, Massachusetts, New York, North Carolina, Indiana, Wisconsin, Oregon, and California. Representatives of Red Cross Chapters, summer camps, life guards at municipal pools and beaches, directors of physical education in schools, and others of this calibre made up the student body.

A number of city or regional institutions were conducted also during the winter at indoor pools to develop local experts. The aquatic school conducted by the New York Chapter was especially successful. It is stated. Inspired by this system, many camps, pools, bathing beaches, etc., have adopted in whole or in part, the Red Cross Life Saving and water-safety program. In the New England states alone, more than 180 camps employ counsellors trained in these methods. A partial survey indicates more than 80 cities using the Red Cross senior test as a minimum requirement for their municipal life guards. Educational institutions have turned to it with enthusiasm.

This widespread instruction besides creating unprecedented numbers of expert life-savers, is developing a vast body of Americans who are at home in the water. All contribute to safety the year-round, for swimming is a recognized all-year sport today, records show.

The danger from water accidents is ever-present however where proper safeguards are not taken and to broaden this valuable Red Cross Service is one of the reasons why increased membership in the Red Cross is urged. The Annual Roll Call, during which the opportunity to assist all Red Cross work in many lines of endeavor is extended, will be held from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving, November 11-26.

LIONS DISCUSS GAS SITUATION

PROPOSITION NOW IN EFFECT WILL PASS CLARENDON IF NOTHING IS DONE.

Much business was transacted in the basement of the First Christian Church Tuesday noon of this week when the Clarendon Lions Club met for their usual meeting. The attendance was small, but the spirit was good and the members and visitors enjoyed the meal a great deal. More than ordinarily, the jam served was excellent.

The depot committee was called on for their report and stated that they were working, although they appeared to be doing nothing. A letter to the Chamber of Commerce answering a recent communication was read and much enjoyed by members of the club. Lion Watson stated that a part of the letter was especially personal and was not enjoyed in the least. Further work along this line will be done by the civic clubs of the city to assist the Chamber of Commerce in the work they have already started.

The request for more lights at the depot was also again discussed and the secretary was instructed to write a letter following the one already in the hands of the authorities at the depot in Clarendon.

Announcement of the football game was made by Lion Coach Burton and a good attendance was urged. Boss Lion Porter also made announcement of National Educational week, which was officially recognized and sponsored by the club.

Lion Braswell raised a question of gas, which is of vital interest to the people of Clarendon. Some of the neighboring cities have secured a promise of this fuel and it seems that Clarendon has been overlooking some things that should have been handled. The Chamber of Commerce is at work on the proposition and the Club appointed a committee to help them in any way possible.

Lion Holcomb stated that there was an opening in Clarendon for an oil mill, a compress and above all, a breeding station to secure a staple market for cotton instead of a market based on the amount of trash in the sample. Some work is being done along this line and the thoughts of the city should be turned to something of this sort to help make a real city of Clarendon in the future.

E. Y. Boynton of Waco was the guest of the day. Sub Lion Morris was introduced and Boss Lion Porter was much embarrassed when he learned that Lion Haynes was not a visitor, but a member of the club in good standing.

Adjournment as usual.

TO INCREASE THE BUYING POWER OF YOUR DOLLAR

Spend it with your home merchants.

The President of a large company selling exclusively from door-to-door thru agents, admitted thru pressure the other day at an eastern city convention that it costs his company four or five times as much to sell his merchandise as it did to make it.

It's an economic fact that no one can disprove that the RETAILER'S COST OF DOING BUSINESS cannot be eliminated even if you eliminate the retailer. Despite what the trained door-to-door bell-ringer for the out-of-town concern tells you about selling costs, and how his company sells "cheaper" FACTS remain FACTS. The cost of selling "factory to you" so-called is higher than the regular method of distribution through the permanent retail stores.

Take a simple illustration. Using the case cited at the lowest selling costs, an article that you buy from his company for $5.00 costs him $1.00 to make. The salesman who sells it to you gets 20 per cent, or $1.00 and $3.00 goes to profit and selling. It costs one of the largest door-to-door selling companies $4.00 to sell an article costing $1.00. Is that economical distribution? Are the products of that company being sold "cheaper" than through the store of the PERMANENT merchant? We know the quality is no better, and the service is not as good.

We repeat that selling merchandise from door to door, piece meal, is the most expensive method of distribution in the world. For better values, for better service, and better satisfaction PATRONIZE the permanent merchant. It's your protection too.

A part of the retailer's profits supplies schools for your children and good roads for your automobiles. The out-of-town concern cares only for your dollars, and will help you build a bigger city. Patronize your local merchants if for no other reason than self protection.

RED CROSS YEAR A RELIEF RECORD

Huge Relief Work After Midwest Tornado the Greatest in American Annals.

DISASTERS DROP IN 1925 Ranged From Fire to Earthquake and Covered Wide Area at Home and Abroad.

Virtual completion of the largest peace-time project of post-disaster rehabilitation ever known has been accomplished by the American Red Cross in less than a year, as a part of its relief work in the more than 90 disasters in which it served in the past year.

This great program was undertaken following the tornado which struck five mid-western States last spring, killing 796 people, injuring 2,239 more, and causing incalculable property loss. It left a huge area of devastation in its wake, presenting a real problem. The Red Cross, however, went to work on the heels of the storm, caring for the injured, sheltering and feeding whole communities, and helping every individual sufferer from the destruction back to normal.

The magnitude of the problem is indicated by comparison of its huge casualty list with that of the entire preceding year, whose combined losses were 735 dead and not quite 2,000 injured, as a result of the record number of 192 catastrophes.

The story of the Red Cross service in the past year, recounted by the report, ranges from fires heading the list of destructive forces with 29 disasters, to mine explosions, tornadoes, typhoons, floods and earthquakes.

The Santa Barbara earthquake was among the outstanding events recorded in the report. The Red Cross had completed its relief organization on the scene within a few hours of the disaster, and in addition had launched a program designed to permanently restore every person affected by it, to his former status once more.

The Red Cross service in the period following the wreck of the Navy airship "Shenandoah" was typical of its promptness and effectiveness. Service in this instance was afforded by Red Cross chapters in the vicinity of the wreck, and by representatives of the national organization. It demonstrates graphically the value of each of the more than 3,000 chapters of the society which are at work in virtually every part of the country, in the facility they afford the national organization in emergencies.

There were 61 domestic disaster operations reported in which the Red Cross rendered service either through chapter or national staff personnel during the year. In 34 of these the national organization appropriated a total of $3,047,256.49, the greater portion of which was received as direct contributions for the relief of specified disasters. The relief operations following the northern Ohio tornado of June, 1924, were brought to a close in May, 1925, after an arrangement had been made with the Lorain chapter to provide expert services to the families of any tornado sufferers who required such assistance in the next two years. In this single disaster the relief work, as finally accounted, reached a total of $1,019,751.23.

The mid-western tornado of this year, covering a strip of territory 400 miles long involved an expenditure up to June 30 of $774,000, while the total amount turned in to the fund through the agency of the Red Cross was $2,645,000. In addition to this sum specifically collected for the purpose, the Red Cross had expended from its regular reserves $124,000.

In all these disasters, Red Cross workers have been impressed by the spirit of determination and helpfulness shown by the people. Once they recovered from their grief and bewilderment, they began at once to rebuild, materially and otherwise, and always on a better scale where possible. Another significant feature of these occurrences, as noted in the report of the Red Cross, was the promptness with which the local chapters organized emergency relief before help could be received from outside sources. A direct effect of their example has been to stimulate disaster relief preparedness among chapters all over the country.

The services of the American Red Cross are performed invariably in the name of the American people. On the effectiveness of this representation during the past year, it will launch the ninth annual roll call this year on November 11, to continue until Thanksgiving, November 26, during which support through membership will be invited for 1926.

What Becomes of Red Cross Sweaters What becomes of the sweaters which the American Red Cross has asked for? In the first place, they are needed for the 30,000 disabled veterans still in hospitals this winter, the garments being in great demand. The surplus left from the war has been exhausted since the Armistice, hence the new call for the sweater-knitters to resume their needles, a call already being met.

The American Red Cross serves in your name; you can make it more effective by adding your name to its membership during the Roll Call, Nov. 11-26.

PUPS LOSE GAME TO INDIANS FRI.

OKLAHOMA INDIANS OPEN GREAT RUNNING OFFENSIVE AND TAKE GAME.

The Indians, the team from the Oklahoma Junior A. & M. College at Goodwell, arrived in the city late Thursday of last week and made their presence known to the boys they were to play on Friday. To both teams, the day was particularly unlucky as the game was featured by fumbles from both sides.

Goodwell scored on the Pups early in the first quarter and were far in the lead for the remainder of the game. Most of the game was played in Clarendon territory and at no time was the Goodwell goal seriously threatened. Clarendon fumbles at strategic places caused the loss of the two goals to Clarendon. Two blocked punts were the cause of the second score for Goodwell.

Powell was sent in as half early in the second half of the game and played a splendid game at that position. Hayden played a good game for the college as did the two Whites in the back field. The line held good at all times and were at their best at all points of the game.

The attendance on the game was comparatively small, due to the fact that there was very little interest manifest in the game. The band was present at the game and added life and pep to the players as they marched from one part of the field to the other. The Goodwell college was fairly well represented by a bunch of folks who made the air ring with their yells for their team. The game ended with Goodwell in the lead with a score of 14 to 0.

OUR SEC. SAYS

Now is a mighty good time to stir up interest in the matter of getting Donley County and adjacent territory to consider the importance of the cotton market being known as a good staple market at Clarendon. A tree is known by the fruit it bears and a cotton market may be the means of advertising a city either good or bad.

Quite a few people have been speaking to the secretary about getting the farmers interested in getting a little better staple for the market here. Donley County is a very logical place for a cotton breeding station for this entire section of the Panhandle. And one can be gotten here simply by manifesting an interest and doing something that will prove to people that have such things that it would be welcomed here.

In many different parts of Texas next year there will be gigantic efforts and wonderful results obtained from the improvement of the staple record of those counties. It sells higher, brings more profit to both renter and landlord, costs no more to grow good staple cotton than ordinary cotton and why not do it? Let's start a record next year for pure test cotton and a better staple. It can be done. Let me hear from you.

DONLEY COUNTY FOLK HEAR MORE OIL RUMORS

In the late issue of the Hedley Informer which has come to the desk of the News, there appears an item to the effect that a well near Hedley was showing signs of gas. The well is comparatively shallow, being only about 180 feet deep, but quite a bit of gas makes its appearance in the well and some showing of oil is also evident. Another well in the Buck Creek area also has made some showing of gas and oil and the people near Hedley are looking for an independent operator who will make extensive tests near that city. Not much excitement is evident in and around Hedley, but the prospects are good for something of this sort to start at once.

PROPER FOOD FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

The age during which children are attending school may aptly be called "The Dangerous Age." It is the period of rapid growth and every care should be taken to insure the child of a normal and healthy body. The idea of eating only fit and wholesome foods should be early impressed on the younger members of every family in order to protect them against later ill health and its accompanying unhappiness. If the utmost care is not taken in the diet that is used by children, cases of food poisoning, indigestion and kindred ailments may result.

And milk, being the chief item in the diets of most children, should be carefully guarded. It is, because of its nature, prone to infection if exposed to germs and may soon become unfit for use. Wherever there is the slightest reason for doubt as to its purity and food value, steps should be taken to insure the sterility and the fitness of milk intended for consumption by children. Many mothers have adopted the excellent practice of using milk that is absolutely pure and sterile and free from any germs or bacteria. The most satisfactory, as well as the safest milk used in preparing food for the growing child is evaporated milk.

It is sterile, and therefore safe. It is more digestible than market milk. Its uniformity, convenience and cost are qualities that recommend it. The following dishes are well suited to the needs of the growing child; they are easily digested and very nourishing:

Caramel Custard.
1 cup evaporated milk
1/2 cup sugar (caramelized)
milk diluted 2 tbsp. sugar with 1/4 tsp. salt
1 cup water 1/2 tsp. vanilla
3 eggs
Scald the diluted milk. Caramelize the sugar and add to milk to dissolve. Beat eggs slightly, add sugar, salt, and flavoring and combine with scalded milk. Pour into custard cups and set in a pan of hot water and cook in a moderate oven. When done, a knife blade run in the center will come out clean.

Fish Chowder.
1 pint raw fish cut 3 cups boiling water in 1-inch dice
5 small potatoes, 1 cup evaporated milk
sliced 1 cup water
2 onions chopped with fine 1 cup water
1/2 pound fat salt 6 crackers
pork, sliced

Fry out the salt pork. When brown, remove pieces of pork and put fish, potatoes, and onions in kettle. Cover with boiling water. Simmer until potatoes are tender. Add the milk and cook 5 minutes longer. Season with salt and pepper. Just before serving add the crackers.

FARM HOUSE BURNS SATURDAY EVENING

The four room house on the farm of Major B. Hudson, one mile south of Clarendon, burned Saturday evening, about six thirty. The house was occupied by the Otis Olier family, all of whom were away from home when the house burned. The insurance on the house was not sufficient to cover the loss.

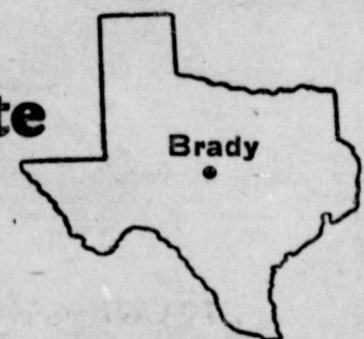

Miss Ellen Hall of Alanreed shopped here Thursday.

Concrete Streets in TEXAS

Brady, the County Seat of McCulloch County, worried along for awhile with dusty, bumpy streets in the business district. But one day some of its business men stopped to figure what unpaved streets were costing them. They found it would be a profitable investment to pave the public square—and pave it right. They demanded a pavement that would stand present traffic, yet not require costly maintenance. The problem was solved by selecting portland cement concrete.

The concrete mixer had been running only a few days when extensions were made to the initial project. Now Brady has 26,000 square yards of concrete paving; and like other Texas cities they will not be willing to stop until all the main streets are permanently paved.

How about the Public Square or Main Street in your town? You can have a pavement that is rigid, unyielding, skidproof—one that will carry any kind of traffic indefinitely, practically without repairs. Concrete paving has these qualities which are but few of many reasons for its rapidly growing popularity.

SAM LAWS BLOCKER

And thou, who, o'er thy dear ones bier Sheddest the bitter drops like rain, Hope that a brighter, happier sphere, Will give him to thy arms again.

At three minutes until eleven on the night of Saturday, the fourteenth of November, the soul of Sam Laws Blocker, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Blocker passed quietly into the great beyond. Sam was born on Oct. 2, 1908. His age was seven-teen years, one month, and twelve days.

He had been to the Johnson ranch, and was leaving for the home ranch, one and one-half miles distant. He was riding in a wagon with Carl Harris, one of the ranch employees, and leading a horse that his father had just bought for him. He got out of the wagon and opened the first gate. He then got on his horse and rode ahead to open the other gate, and his rope slipped and became entangled in the horses feet. The horse became frightened and clamping the bit between his teeth, dashed toward the gate. The fore feet of the horse caught on the top wire. Sam jumped clear, but the wire gave way and instead of falling on the fence, the horse went through and fell upon Sam. Sam's skull was fractured, both lungs were torn loose and he was crushed internally. The tragedy occurred 15 minutes until eleven on Saturday morning, within 200 yards of the home ranch house. Harris picked Sam up and carried him to the house in the wagon. Mr. and Mrs. Sayre, his grandparents were at the house, and the doctors and parents were notified. Many friends came also.

Every possible thing was resorted to and at first some hope was held, but he died eleven hours and twelve minutes later, without ever having regained consciousness.

The body was brought to the Blocker home here in Clarendon Sunday morning. A few hours later relatives arrived. From the arrival until the funeral, there was a crowd of friends constantly present trying to comfort the grieved ones.

The room in which the body lay, was literally strewn with flowers from sympathetic friends, clubs, and other organization, of which Sam was a member.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church at two o'clock Monday afternoon, and were conducted by Rev. J. H. Hamlen. It was singularly impressive.

The flower girls, Misses Athlyn Taylor, Agnes Caraway, Thelma Parsons, Nancy Cole and Ada Benson, under the direction of Mrs. Ira Merchant and Misses Winnie Weatherly and Mildred Martin, had arranged the flowers beautifully.

The pall bearers were, Clarence Whitlock, Roy Ingram, Jack Merchant, Virgil Merchant, Clarence Clark and Weldon Jolly.

Officers of the Amarillo Chapter of DeMolay, and the Clarendon DeMolays, of which Sam was a charter member, along with old members who reside in Clarendon, the DeMolays stood with bowed heads in a double line, from the hearse to the door. Professors Morgan and Boykin of Clarendon High School followed the pall bearers, and in turn were followed by the DeMolays.

The High School students were present in a body. All arose and were led in prayer by Rev. Griswold. The DeMolay Evergreen ceremony was rendered. First a speech in Memoriam was made by the Master Councillor, then the roll call, succeeded by a talk from the heart of each member. The scriptural lesson was read by Emanuel Dubbs, then the last rites were delivered by Rev. Hamlen. Everyone was then allowed to take the final look at the body. Mrs. Jim McMurtry led the choir, and the songs were beautiful. The casket was followed to the I. O. O. F. Cemetery by the DeMolay members, and there laid to rest by the side of his maternal grandmother.

The DeMolay ceremonial was wonderful. This was the first time in was ever used in west Texas. Sam was baptised by Rev. I. P. Howell at Long Beach, Calif., at the age of eleven years.

Sam was fun loving, played fair with everyone. He was a God fearing boy. He was loved, admired and respected by all, and his sudden death has left a vacancy in our hearts, that none can refill. He was a senior at Clarendon High School, a member of the Clarendon football squad the DeMolays and various societies, and a member of G. L. Boykin's Sunday school class. Sam was one of the most popular students ever to attend Clarendon High School.

In behalf of his most intimate friends let this be said: He lived a clean life and believed in a living God. We wish to express our deepest sympathy for the bereaved ones, for we too loved him. Realizing that he is lost to us in this world, we mourn his loss for the sake of the dear ones left here on earth. We know that he awaits us in a world where sorrow is unknown. May we not disappoint him.

Shalt thou not teach me in that calmer home, The wisdom that I learned so ill in this— The wisdom which is love—till I become Thy fit companion in that land of bliss.

—B. Hamlen
 —A friend.

Editor's note—The above tribute to a departed comrade was written by Emanuel Dubbs and Weldon Jolly, and is another notable instance of the honors that were paid the memory of Sam Blocker by the young men and young ladies of Clarendon. Friends are the greatest riches the human heart can know.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Class Foot Ball

Thursday morning Coach Boykin announced in chapel that after the Thanksgiving game with Lockney, five foot ball teams would be organized, one team for each class in High School and one from the South Ward. These teams will be coached by the letter men of the Bronchos and many different brands of football can be expected. Jesse Lowe is expected to put an undefeated team on the field. The members of the winning team are to be presented sweaters in their class colors. This tournament is expected to bring forward much new material for next year's Bronchos and to develop a rivalry between the classes.

At chapel period Tuesday, District Attorney Beville gave an interesting talk on the subject of patriotism. The talk was greatly enjoyed by the student body and it also gave them a chance for the first time to try out their new welcome yell.

Last Friday night the Junior's entertained the Seniors by taking them to the Pastime Theater and after the show to the Bon Ton Confectionery where delicious refreshments were served. The Seniors are now ready to admit that the Juniors are a pretty good crowd after all.

The high school was given a holiday Wednesday, Armistice day, so they could attend the patriotic program which was staged in the business section.

Last Wednesday a rodeo was put on as an extra attraction for the football game with Tulia and also to determine the best rider in the High School. The winner's picture is to be placed in the annual "Who's Who." It was hard to decide who was the best, but Tot Morris was given the decision.

Fifer Estlack gave an interesting talk Thursday morning on how he caught the greased pig. The talk was greatly enjoyed by the whole High School.

Mr. Jones, one of the officials of the Boy Scouts from Amarillo, gave an interesting talk at chapel Wednesday. Mr. Jones is in Clarendon for the purpose of organizing a second troop of the Boy Scouts.

Mr. Watson gave an interesting talk on the Father and Sons Banquet at chapel Wednesday. The banquet is to be held Wednesday evening.

On Nov. 11th, Armistice Day, Clarendon High defeated Tulia High 47-0. This was the most crushing defeat Clarendon has handed any team this year. Our boys had the old fighting spirit from the start, scoring two touchdowns in the first quarter. Clarendon kept the ball in their opponent's territory until the last quarter, when Tulia began to open up passes and carried the ball over into our territory. Tulia by end runs and passes advanced the ball to the Bronchos' twenty yard line. There they were held for downs. By line bucks and end runs Clarendon carried the ball rapidly down the field for their last touch down. When the game ended Clarendon had possession of the ball on Tulia's fifteen yard line. Earl Smith was the most consistent ground gainer for the locals.

"BUFFALO BILL'S BODY MAY BE MOVED TO CODY

Kansas City, Mo.—There has recently been some agitation relative to moving the body of Buffalo Bill, William F. Cody, from the summit of Lookout Mountain, Denver, Colorado, to his old home town, Cody, Wyoming. Relatives of the famous plainsman recently met in Chicago and perfected an organization of the Cody family.

At this meeting it was brought out that many relics of the famous old fighter have been assembled at Cody. Among these are the scalp of "Yellow Hand," an Indian chief whom Cody killed in combat while opposing soldiers and Indians looked on; the coat he wore when presented at the court of Queen Victoria; saddles, guns and trophies from all parts of the world, all his Masonic uniform, in which it is said, "He took more pride than in his frontier buckskins or any other garb in which he appeared."

"Buffalo Bill" was a member of Platte Valley Masonic Lodge of North Platte, Nebraska.

HOW TO READ THE FUTURE

A crack in your chimney is a sure sign that you are going to move.

To see a paper hanger hang paper over a flue hole indicates an impending loss.

It is worse luck to look in a dark closet with a lighted match than to see the new moon over your left shoulder.

When the wind moans it is extremely bad luck to burn trash near your house.

If you smell gas or gasoline and look for it with a lighted match, it is probable that you are about to start on a long journey.

A quart of gasoline will cause an automobile to move three miles. A similar may cause three auto fire trucks and an ambulance to run a similar distance.

A child who plays with matches will gain experience—if he lives—John J. Gilday, Chief of the Fire Department, Hoboken, N. J.

EVERYBODY TELEPHONES IN THIS COUNTRY

Describing, in an interview in the Manchester Guardian, a recent trip to the United States, Sir Alexander Roger, chairman of the Telephone Development Association, London says:

"In America telephoning is as common as talking. Americans live on and by the telephone. It is the cornerstone of their business life and their social life. It would hardly be an exaggeration to say that the great industrial structure they have built up rests ultimately on the telephone.

"What I saw amazed me. It is the land of non-stop phones. Everybody telephones to everybody. Babies imitate the telephone with their first 'flivver.' * * * Let me put it in another way. In New York City, there are at this moment more telephones than in the whole of Great Britain, and a similar preponderance prevails throughout the country."

THE Fountain Of Youth

Was of course a myth, but hundreds of men, women and children, who were suffering from bodily afflictions, have found such wonderful relief after coming to the Milling Sanatorium at Mineral Wells, Texas, that they feel that they have really discovered the fountain of youth. WE SPECIALIZE IN CASES WHERE ALL OTHERS FAIL. Below are two testimonials selected from among the hundreds we have in our files, written by people who have been benefited by coming to us:

Sept. 1, 1925

To Whom it May Concern:

I took my little boy to Dr. Milling for paralysis. He could not walk a step when he started to treat him and after he had treated him for a few days he began to walk. I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Milling and his Sanatorium to any who are sick. I know that he effects cures of all kinds when all others fail. The fact that I have had no further trouble convinces me that his cures are permanent. Any inquiries addressed to me will be answered promptly. Respectfully,

J. W. CARTER, Jermyn, Texas

We will gladly furnish other literature and testimonials concerning our work upon application.

TELEPHONE COMPANY TO HAVE ANNUAL BANQUET

The Clarendon Telephone Company was in the News office the fore part of this week and stated that the annual custom of the Clarendon Telephone Company would be followed and the noon until 2:00 p. m., on Thanksgiving day and the management of the company states that all telephone calls be postponed until after that time unless they are absolutely necessary. This is the custom of this company each year and the employees enjoy the feed and look forward to it with a great deal of enthusiasm.

Mr. and Mrs. Manly Ozier and little son, Edward Blair, moved to Dallas this week. Mr. Ozier has been there for several weeks, and Mrs. Ozier and Edward Blair left Saturday night.

Office supplies at the News office.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ayers of Hedley spent several days of last week here with Mrs. Ayers' sister, Mrs. Lonnie Hahn, who has been ill.

Mrs. Tom Tate and Mrs. J. M. Tate of Hedley were here Saturday to shop.

KEARNEY STREET PICK-UPS

D. O. Stallings: "My coal business this year has been the largest I have ever enjoyed since I have been in Clarendon". Yes, and D. O. has been advertising more this year than common, too.

S. E. Kutch: "I like the way the Canyon conference spoke out on law enforcement. The churches ought to do more of that, and the members, too."

"The Queen Theatre opened with a bang, Friday night and everything came through in fine shape, even if some of the details were delayed until after dark."—Homer Mulkey.

G. W. Antrobus: "Mr. Editor, here's a check from my daughter, Florence—Mrs. Chas. T. Hvass—of New York City, to renew her subscription another year. She says 'take this check to the editor and have him reserve me a seat on the band wagon for another year's reading of the old home paper. I can't do without it.'" The News struts its stuff up there in metropolitan New York among the world's greatest newspapers, every week. Thanks, Mrs. Hvass.

R. E. Morris: "That Abilene editor that the News quoted last week don't know what he is talking about, when he praises Lincoln like he does." Bro. Morris and the News editor agree on the greatness of Southern heroes, all right, even if we do spit a little on some over the Mason-Dixon line.

"We have been sleeping on our rights in the natural gas prospects for Clarendon. It's up to us to get busy and stay awake from here on out."—O. C. Watson. O. C. is hardly ever wrong, and this time he was "righter" than usual.

Lee Casey: "When you are writing up the opening of the Queen, please don't forget to give full credit to Dick Chunn and other employee of the light and power people. They stayed with us right up to opening hour and if they hadn't we couldn't have opened on time. We sure appreciate their interest, after hours." Just another evidence of how Clarendon people usually try to give service plus to their fellows.

Mrs. Roscoe Stapp: "I believe there is more musical talent in Clarendon than any other small city I have ever known. They can put on anything here they want to." Mrs. Stapp is correct; we don't lack anything in Clarendon to make a better show, except the will to do it. That goes for other things as well as music, too.

A. Clarendon Gump says he is going to send Judge Templeton one of those nifty Christmas cards sold at the Clarendon News office, "cause he excused me from jury duty tother day." You got sense, Clarendon.

R. S. Riggs: "I now have twenty nine pupils in my band class at the public school. You ought to have heard the new band at the school play 'America' Tuesday. They are coming fine."

Loran Naylor, announcing at the football game: "We're hurrying the game because Paul Schull has got to go milk."

"How's things coming along down in Gods country. Give my regards to all the fellows."—extract from letter written to a Clarendon man by C. C. Fuller, former director of music at Clarendon College, now studying in Michigan City, Ind.

George Bagby looked all surprised the other day when it finally got over to him that the two-color poster advertising the College football games this season were printed in the job department of The News, right here in Clarendon. Boy, we does that sort of stuff, right regular.

MASONIC SIGNS SAVE MEN FROM HOSTILE ARABS

Boston, Mass.—Dudley Wright, noted English Masonic writer, in his interesting "Notes on Freemasonry" appearing in the Christian Science Monitor, related an account that once again illustrates the universality of the Masonic Order. Says Mr. Wright: "Although not a custom, the following extract from a minute of a lodge, recording the report made by a member of a lodge in Bermuda, will be read undoubtedly with interest:

"He begged to call the attention of the Brethren to an event which had recently happened to himself, forcibly showing the general diffusion of Masonry and its benefits. In the south of the Djered (south of the Tunisian frontier) his party was brought to a stand for the want of fresh camels as well as of provisions. This perplexity was increased by falling in with a hostile tribe, and the brother, on being conducted to the seat of the chief, perceiving the personal danger they were in, and finding all other means fail, tried to communicate with him by one of the higher degrees of Masonry, which was immediately responded to, and although in their interchanges some digression were found, chiefly arising from the difficulty in language, yet sufficient was made known to engage the hospitality of the Arab sheik, who not only furnished them with the means of fresh transport, but entertained them for some days free of expense."
