CITY LOSES RAIL LINE PROSPECTS

ROCK ISLAND PRESIDENT SAYS COST OF CONSTRUCTION IS PROHIBITIVE.

After a hearing had been called at Fort Worth on April 8th, to review opposition to the application of the Rock Island to build their proposed new rail line from Groom, through Clarendon to Paducah, dispatches from Washington threw cold water on the jubilant spirits of Clarendon and other interested communities.

Another development was disclosed Tuesday in a dispatch from Washington when a letter to the interstate commerce commission from the Rock Island lines gave a hint that at a later date a new route might be sought.

The withdrawal of the application for the new line comes as somewhat of a blow to Clarendon's hopes, and throws the city back on her own resources and initiative insofar as large advancement and progress is concerned.

MARINE TEST TO CLOSE DOWN WEEK

TEST DOWN 550 FEET IN RED ROCK. NEARING SALT FORMATION.

F. J. Downey, member of the firm of drilling contractors putting in the Marine test well on the Salt Fork stated this morning to a News representative that the well would be shut down for about a week while he was attending to business matters in Tulsa, the headquarters of the concern.

Mr. Downey stated that the work on the well was no secret and that he was willing to give out for publication any information that was forthcoming as the development was made. He stated that the salt formation should be struck within the next 200 feet and that this should be some indication as to the future of the well.

Dr. and Mrs. Chas. Trent attended the dance given in the Elks Hall at Amarillo last Thursday evening by Mrs. E. A. Simpson and a group of ladies.

RULES ANNOUNCED FOR YARD EVENTS

THREE CLASSES TO BE SEEN IN CONTEST CLOSING AUGUST 8TH.

The Yard Contest committee of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce, composed of Messrs. J. W. Martin, D. O. Stallings and W. W. Taylor, met with Secretary Boykin Monday afternoon and formulated the rules that will govern the yard contests for Clarendon during this summer.

Three groups have been set as being best for the 1929 contest. The first of these will include all old yards, those having entered previous contests. Winners in the past two years may enter but are ineligible for a prize.

The prizes have not been selected for any of the groups, but will be named at date very near in the future. All entrants will receive a certificate of Merit showing that they have put forth an effort to make the town more beautiful.

Final date for entering the contest has been set as May first. The yards will be judged on August 8th and the winners of the contest this year will be entered in a National contest handled by the association named above.

A score card will be used that will be made up of the following points: General appearance, 20; care, 20; permanence, 25; beauty, 10; arrangement, 15. A total of 100 points makes for a perfect score. Further details will be announced at a later date.

Sheriff Asks Assistance of Local People

I find that many good, law-abiding citizens are laboring under a misunderstanding about the "Home-Brew" law.

Eminent law enforcement officers advise me that not only is the selling of home-brew a violation of the law but that it is unlawful for one to make it.

Our merchants can be of inestimable help to the officers in suppressing this vicious crime and I earnestly request their co-operation. I am appealing to every citizen who believes in the extermination of the liquor business to lend us his assistance and moral support in our efforts toward that end.

Respectfully submitted, M. W. Mosley.

City Election To Hold April 2

An election for the city of Clarendon, in which a Mayor will be elected, is to be held in the City Hall on next Tuesday, April 2nd.

The candidacy of Mayor H. W. Taylor was announced some weeks past, he asking for re-election to that office on the basis that he has a number of items to complete and would like to see them finished, and because of the urging of his friends.

In the past few weeks, there have been some rumblings of opposition to Mr. Taylor for this office, but as yet, no one has announced his candidacy against this popular official.

52,000 CAPACITY UNIT IS ADDED

WILL BE LARGEST COMMERCIAL PLANT IN PANHANDLE.

Six tons of eggs. That is to be the capacity of the Clarendon Hatchery when the new 52,000 section is installed the latter part of next week.

Frank White, Jr., the owner of the Clarendon Hatchery, states that the demand for space in his machine is such that he was forced to set 59 trays of eggs the fore part of this week when the hatchery capacity allows for only 48 trays to be set at one time.

The installation of the new unit will make the Clarendon Hatchery the largest unit for hatching eggs in the Panhandle section of the state with a capacity of 104,000 eggs at one time.

G. M. Richards and son, Emmett, both of Wellington, were Clarendon visitors Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Knight's Dairy to Be Electric

Within the next few weeks Knight's Dairy will be one of the most completely electrified plants in the entire state of Texas.

The work order has been passed to the Abilene office of the West Texas Utilities Company and the work is expected to be started the latter part of this week. A line will be built from the Greenhouse to the site of the dairy and will be a three wire line, giving capacity sufficient to meet the demands that will be placed on it.

The first matter to be handled by electricity will be the actual milking of the cows, done by machinery and now handled by a gasoline engine.

Mr. Knight states that he wants all the people of Clarendon to visit his dairy when the electric work has been completely installed.

STUDENTS' RECITAL IS SPLENDID AFFAIR TUESDAY

The students' recital Tuesday evening of this week in the auditorium of Clarendon College was one of the best presented events of the year.

The examinations disclosed that the following from Lelia Lake received credit certificates: Misses Shaw and Holland and Hugh Blaylock, while the Clarendon members received the following number: Lilly McClenny, Myrtle Armstrong, Jeannette Parks, Muade Bledsoe, Charles Summers, Andrew Reavis, Gwynn Allison, Aileen Parks and Adaline Smith.

CONTRACTS LET FOR TWO HOMES MONDAY THIS WEEK

Contracts were let Monday of this week for two homes to be built in Clarendon in the very immediate future. One of these, a residence to be built on First Street by A. L. Chase, was not mentioned before. The work will be done by John Bass.

The other is the Goldston home in west Clarendon, the contract being let to start the work at once. O. W. Latson is doing the brick work on this home.

THREE INCH RAIN FALL APPRECIATED

BREAKS DRY SPELL AND MEANS FARMERS CAN START PLANTING WORK.

Starting Tuesday night and continuing almost without a break through Wednesday, a rain fell in Donley County that means much prosperity to the county again this year.

Three inches of moisture were recorded by the instruments handled by Joe Goldston of this city, with reports being received that the rain was general over the greater part of the Panhandle section of the state.

The cattle men are welcoming the rain as an indication that their feeding problems will soon be over.

Some during the wet days, but a few days of sunshine and their worries will be at an end. Wheat men are jubilant and state that their yield will be almost assured with the abundance of moisture received this week.

Cream Shipments Almost Doubled

Advices from the office of the Railway Express indicate that shipments of cream for the month of March will be near double that for February.

Number of days. Mr. Green states that 75 cans were shipped the first week of the month, 87 the second week and 121 cans the third week. An estimate placed on shipments for the final week of the month with this figure set at 50 cans would bring the total to 336 ten gallon cans for the four weekly reports.

Figured on a basis of $13.00 per can, which is a conservative estimate placed by Mr. Dunn, this would amount to $4,368.00 for the month.

Some have placed this figure at $15.00 per can, which would raise the figures to $5,040.00 for the month. Detailed figures on the number of cans, in five, eight and ten gallon sizes will be given in these columns for next week and a comparison will be made with the figures on this receipt for the months of January and February.

Mrs. G. L. Boykin and son, James Lester, returned last Friday morning from Fort Worth, where they have been for the past two weeks.

Mrs. Knight states that he wants all the people of Clarendon to visit his dairy when the electric work has been completely installed.

PANHANDLE PRESS ASSOCIATION

Soon the cities of the Panhandle bordering the Palo Duro Canyon are to have an opportunity to join forces to work for state built highways into the fastness of the canyon, with a probable effort to enlist the federal government in the establishment of a bird refuge and a game preserve in the same territory. There appears to be some hope of being able to interest the state park board in a movement to create a state park in the canyon, which will in no wise interfere with the bird refuge and game preserve. All of these objectives hinge upon roads, and it is to be hoped that all interested cities will join in an appeal for aid in building suitable roads into the canyon. If we make the progress here in the Panhandle to which we are justly entitled we must join in united efforts, laying aside any spirit of selfishness. If we grow together, we shall grow separately.

Old Donley County has proven all the "experts" badly in the wrong, who predicted from eighteen to twenty thousand bales of cotton as the limit for the nineteen hundred and twenty-eight crop. In running bales the figures are over thirty thousand bales, and when the final estimate is made on bales of five hundred pounds average, the county totals will be around thirty-two thousand for the year. Very few of us are able to sell ourselves strongly enough on Donley County, where our conservative judgment is being set at naught by the facts in scores of instances every year. Our natural resources are so rich and varied that when we have convinced ourselves and sold Donley County as high as the facts will justify, our growth and progress will almost be unbelievable. Donley County is becoming a factor among the cotton counties of West Texas.

Clarendon's prospects for the new Rock Island rail line, Groom to Paducah, went glimmering the latter part of last week when news from Washington was given out of the road's withdrawal of its application to build. Just about the time our stick of candy was getting really sweet, the big boys of the Rock Island reached down and snatched it away from us. Life is like that, sometimes, so we will go ahead and depend on the rich agricultural resources of Donley County, supplemented by enlarged dairying and poultry activities. Those applied by a determined and intelligent citizenship will bring us large success and progress. They will.

The Clarendon News is happy over the success in early days of our subscription campaign being conducted by the American Circulation Service, with General Manager V. Y. Schofield in active direction. Some years ago The News had such a campaign with Mr. Schofield in charge and his work was so satisfactory and gilt edge that we are very happy to bring him here again, for we know that every detail will be handled in a clean, high-class manner with absolute fairness to all concerned. Mr. Schofield has built a splendid business and he has done so by building a character of service that publishers are happy to enlist again and again.

Unselfish movements always win and hold popular approval. This has been proven in Clarendon again in the heavy attendance and successful financial goal which greeted the benefit style show staged by the Clarendon Lions Club Thursday evening for the crippled children fund of the Panhandle. A monumental work is being done here in the Panhandle for the rehabilitation of crippled children and Clarendon people were eager and happy to do their part in contributing something through the benefit performance. The Lions Club or any other club could do no more worthy work.

Collingsworth County is soon to vote on an eight hundred thousand dollar county-wide road bond issue. Several months ago a larger issue met defeat in Collingsworth by a very small margin and The News believes that the forces of progress nad development will win in the coming election. Since a few little differences have been ironed out over there, road bond advocates are optimistic over the results. One by one—

Not long now until Donley County dairy-minded people will be off to Plainview to attend the 1929 Panhandle-Plains Dairy Show. It was a good show last year in its first performance. This year it will be much better and all our people, farmers and business men, interested in the progress of this country through dairy farming should plan to attend.

Old Weather Man sympathizes so deeply with Clarendon and Donley County in the loss of the proposed Rock Island road, that he cut loose with over three inches of rain Tuesday night and through Wednesday. What could be more fitting in the best farming section of the Panhandle?

If anyone had doubts about Clarendon having suitable talent for a Little Theatre movement, those doubts are dissipated if they attended the performance of "The Mollusc" last Friday evening. The play evidenced the guiding hand of a real director.

Another governor has been ousted in Oklahoma. Our political comics here in Texas would become serious were it not for the recurring buffoonry in high places in the capitol of our sister state. Another day, another governor.

SELLIN A TOWN IS LIKE SELLING ANYTHING ELSE

If you are a thinking resident of the place where you live, you desire that the world get sold on your town.

Before you can get sold on it yourself, and before you can sell it to others to anywhere near maximum degree, there is a certain amount of study and analysis necessary. That is, it is necessary if known ethics of good business are adhered to. Sad but true, however, this is altogether too seldom done in things civic.

The first question to be answered is, "Is there a market—a demand for it?"

The demand for good, live, wide-awake communities greatly exceeds the supply. Every day people are asking, "Where is there a good town in which to locate?"—for any one of a thousand reasons. Twenty per cent of your motor traffic is in the market for, or can be sold a new location. Men at the heads of large industrial concerns, people in all walks of life, in fact, everyone is looking for good towns—good communities.

Few people realize the extent to which industry and business go to find good towns. There are in Chicago alone dozens of corporations, concerns and firms who have special departments to do nothing else but find out if a town is suitable for the purpose they have in mind. With some it is for location of a branch factory, employing hundreds; others for place of residence for the representative and family who handles the company business in that area, and there are others who, looking into the future, just want to know.

And this is your opportunity IF your town is in position to take advantage of it.

The second question: "Is your town marketable—suitable for sale, as is?"

To make it marketable, the bugs must be eliminated—the monkey wrenches fished out of the machinery, so that when sold, it will stay sold.

What business man is there that doesn't know what happens to any concern that places a product or service in the hands of the American public, when sold, doesn't stay sold? Every thinking man knows that it spells disaster; but in the face of that very knowledge, they expect their town to go over with the same American public, without eliminating those things that are known to provoke dissatisfaction, create loss of interest, and unsell the customer.

The first bug in the machinery of most communities is that of contemptuous familiarity. You walk down the street and look at hundreds of things that repel other people, but you do not see them. You go to your store or office and there are things that others abhor, but you fail to recognize them because you are so familiar with them. At the same time, above you, below you, and on every side of you, there are acres of diamonds that have never been mined. It is a matter of being so close to the picture that you can't see the frame.

Look around you—put yourself in the position of a stranger and look for the things that would unsell you. See your community as others see it—think about it—talk to your neighbor about it and then do something to eliminate those things that repel, and get behind and push those things that invite.

This Town Doctor article, one of a series of fifty-two, is published by The Clarendon News in co-operation with the Clarendon Lions Club.

WORK OF HAROLD

BUGBEE IS SEEN

PAINTINGS OF CLARENDON ARTIST TO BE SEEN AT W. T. S. T. C.

Canyon, March 25.—Many canvases, the work of Harold Bugbee of Clarendon, are on display at the West Texas State Teachers College this week, the exhibit having been brought by the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society as a special feature of its annual meeting which takes place March 29. The pictures are shown on the first floor of the Administration Building of the Teachers College and may be seen by all who wish to visit the rooms.

There is much discussion of the pictures but "The Chuck Wagon," "Panhandle Starlight," "Colonel C. C. Goodnight," and a new unnamed painting showing two riders in the moonlight are favorites.

Mr. Bugbee and his mother came to Canyon Saturday afternoon to bring the pictures and the artist assisted in placing them.

They will remain on exhibit until after the meeting of the Historical Society.

How to Raise Poultry

By Dr. L. D. LeGear, V. S., St. Louis, Mo.

Dr. LeGear is a graduate of the Ontario Veterinary College, 1902. Thirty-six years of veterinary practice on diseases of live stock and poultry. Eminent authority on poultry and stock raising. Nationally known poultry breeder. Noted author and lecturer.

THE CASH VALUE OF CLEANLINESS

Sanitation, by Insuring a Healthy, Productive Flock, Pays Actual Cash Dividends, Says Dr. L. D. L. LeGear, V. S., of St. Louis, Mo.

Little Johnny, in his bath, with ears full of soap and soul full of rebellion, undoubtedly has no use whatever for the doctrine that cleanliness is next to Godliness. To him it is just a pain in the neck—a devilish invention of grown-ups to keep a boy from his rightful occupation of play. Left to himself, he will most certainly have as little as possible to do with that particular kind of Godliness.

Most grown-ups recognize the desirability of personal cleanliness and of common sense sanitation in their homes and places of business. It is more comfortable to be clean after one has reached maturity and too inconvenient to suffer the expensive ills that result from unsanitary surroundings. When it comes to their poultry, however, that is quite a different story in all too many instances.

The same man who would recoil in horror from a filth-encrusted dish placed before him on his table allows his fowls to eat and drink from utensils that are no less an offense to decency because they are in the poultry yard instead of a dining room. He will howl his head off if Junior tracks a little mud onto the living room rug, but he will allow droppings, decomposed food material and other offensive litter to accumulate in his henhouse until they smell to high heaven. He is scrupulously careful about the lawns near his house, but his chicken yard looks like that lower corner of the "south forty" after the last batch of city picknickers had done their worst to it. Then he wonders why his fowls are such poor layers, look so droopy and dispirited and so readily take on all the ills that chicken flesh is heir to.

The discoveries of Dr. Gorgas in Panama and of Dr. Noguchi, who recently died a martyr to science in Africa, have shown how certain kinds of mosquitos transmit the germs of yellow fever. This suggests that such parasites as lice, fleas, mites, ticks and bedbugs, which so often infect chickens, may also be carriers of disease.

There is reason believing that such is the case, but whether they do or not, such parasites cause a heavy drain on the vitality of the fowls. That means decreased ability to block the progress of disease should infection occur from other sources. The simplest kind of sanitation measures will make poultry houses and yards very unhealthy for germs and parasites, so why they should be tolerated is past understanding. Simple cleanliness is the first essential of sanitation. Poultry houses should be made so they can be scrubbed out occasionally and they should be regularly sprayed with coal tar dip and disinfectant.

No animal or vegetable matter should be allowed to remain exposed in yard or house until it begins to decay. All such material should be removed and burned or deeply buried. Be particularly careful so to dispose of fowls or animals that have died from one cause or another.

Drinking vessels and feeding equipment should be watched carefully. All fountains, troughs and hoppers should be so constructed that the fowls cannot get in them with their feet or roost on them, thereby fouling the contents with dirt or droppings. Fresh water should be given at least once a day. All feeding and watering equipment should be thoroughly scrubbed out, scalded or disinfected at frequent intervals.

Droppings are perhaps the most dangerous of all possible sources of infection. They are almost invariably breeding grounds for disease germs and also frequently harbor intestinal worms. There may be picked up by fowls not already affected, thus spreading the evil. Furthermore, nothing could be worse for fowls than to be compelled to roost just above a filthy droppings board. The odors and gases arising from droppings are extremely unhealthy. Continued breathing of air so contaminated weakens the lungs, thus making easy the progress of any disease which may be contracted later on. Both roosts and droppings board should be frequently cleaned and disinfected, as well as the whole house. It is also advisable to cover the droppings board with wire netting so the fowls cannot get into the droppings with their feet.

Birds that show signs of disease should always be put to themselves and treated until it is safe to return them to the flock. If any considerable number of them show signs of the same trouble, they should all be taken out of the flock and a wholesale clean up should be made; clean out and disinfect all houses and equipment; clean up yards and in every way attempt to remove all possible sources of infection.

Not all of the possible sanitary measures can be discussed in an article of this kind, but some of the most important ones are described above. A good dip and disinfectant used regularly and conscientiously will go a long way toward making disease impossible in your poultry flock, not forgetting the most effective of all—God's own great sterilizers, fresh air and sunshine. It is not easy to keep things sanitary as it is to let them go to pot, but it does keep down disease and THAT PAYS.

Hens that are healthy, robust, strong, free from parasites and disease are better layers, better breeders and are worth more on the market than those that are neglected and compelled to get along as best they can. Maintaining sanitary conditions may mean work, but it is neither difficult nor as trying as fighting disease and it is indefinitely more profitable.

"WHAT I SAW AT THE SHORT COURSE"

By Woodrow Millsap.
News' Fourth Prize Essay
Monday morning, February the eleventh, pupils and parents of the Chamberlain community met at the Chamberlain school house and all went together to the College to attend the Short Course.

The first thing that was impressed upon my mind was the way the high school students vacated the auditorium and gave their room to the boys and girls from the rural districts.

We trust that some time we may be able to return the courtesy given us by our city cousins.

Mr. Mobley's first address on farming caused one to appreciate living on the farm, especially when in his painstaking and very forceful way he spoke of George Washington, Benjamin Franklin and Daniel Webster as master farmers, who had the welfare of the people at heart for truly we can say they could have shown the colonies in no better way than to have taught them the art of better farming. They were to their people like a real farmer is to the people of the county he serves.

In his pictures he showed the farmers better systems of fixing gates, and showed the time one farmer might lose in one old wire gate that he could hardly open.

He showed the farmers how to take care of machinery and not let your plow tools lay out in the weather. He said it will cost you more to let your machinery stay out in the weather than it would cost you to build a shed to keep them in.

Mr. Smith spoke on art he showed the people how to take good care of their lawns and the shrubs they have around their lawn.

Then with his lantern slides, he showed the people the difference it makes if you keep your yards clean from rubbish and keep the weeds down.

Miss Grace M. Smith talked on health. She showed the people how to keep from taking diseases. We have learned that preventing diseases is far more important than curing diseases after we have contracted them, especially so in case of tuberculosis, diphtheria, etc.

We learned from her chart that many millions of dollars are being spent annually in treating diseases.

She said if she had at her command this vast amount of money she would use it in keeping the people well.

She spoke very strongly against the old theory of letting children take the measles, whooping cough and other contagious diseases.

She said that the parents should keep their children away from all contagious diseases and not to keep your children inside too close in trying to prevent spread of diseases.

She said a good plan was to put a card across their arm with

AMARILLO MOTHER TELLS OF SON'S BENEFITS FROM ORGATONE — SUFFERED SIX YEARS.

Mrs. D. M. James, a highly esteemed resident of 307 Garfield, Amarillo, Texas, while at her home recently gave me the following statement in regard to her son's case:

"My son has suffered with stomach and liver trouble for six long years and he has tried all kinds of medicines and treatments but since taking Orgatone, it has benefited him more than anything without food souring on his stomach and he always felt tired, worn-out and no account. He has suffered with terrible headaches and had a bad case of constipation. At times he would get so bilious and dizzy he could hardly stay on his feet.

"We read so much about Orgatone in the local papers that we decided to try it and it was a lucky day for him. He can eat most anything he wants now and food digests properly and seems to do him some good. His general condition seems to be much better. His case of constipation is a thing of the past now and he is just as fit as can be. I am glad to give this statement for him for we want our friends to benefit by Orgatone for what it has done for him."

Genuine Orgatone may be obtained in Clarendon at the Stocking's Drug Store.

WHITLOCK AND DAUGHTER STAGE DEMONSTRATION

A signal honor was tendered Frank Whitlock and his daughter, Mrs. George Garrison, when they were invited to Amarillo to stage a demonstration on permanent wave setting. These two were asked to come to the neighboring city and were given both Monday and Tuesday of this week to complete their work if this amount of time should be necessary. A new method was shown them and they showed their ability as adapters when the found that their work could be finished in one day instead of two as was first planned. They completed their work Monday evening and returned to their home here ready to do this sort of work in their own shop. Additional equipment was secured that should be here shortly.

Texas population density is 20.9 per square mile, about half the density of population of the entire nation.

the inscription "Whooping cough." This could easily be read six feet away and to warn others not to come any closer.

Many good points were given by Mr. Smith on orcharding. He was very much against the old methods of making a tree bear, like the old rusty nail theory. Some folks thought if you had a tree that wouldn't bear just to drive some rusty nails around the lower part of the tree it would make it bear much better. But a much better plan was to fertilize the tree good and make a strong tree out of it.

In a summary will say all the program was fine but Mr. Mobley's lectures and pictures were especially instructive, illustrating sensible farming that is brought about by the help of the cow, sow and hen. Then, too, his strong plea was very helpful in showing that the farmer needs the business man and the business man needs the farmer.

Queen Quality Red Chicks at 20c

I have contracted all eggs from my Queen Quality S. C. Reds to the Clarendon Hatchery. Why not buy your chicks from this extra fine stock? They win at the shows and will lay also. You can get these chicks at the Clarendon Hatchery for 20 cents each. Why pay twice as much elsewhere for your S. C. Reds that are not as high in quality as mine?

The Age Of Power

It is frequently stated that the age in which we live is a "machine age." This is only partially correct. Actually, the present age is a POWER AGE.

Its tempo, its achievements, its prosperity—all emanate to a very great degree from the abundance of cheap electrical power available in this country.

And West Texas realizes this fact, if not more, than any other part of the country. The growth and expansion of this section of the state within the past few years has been almost miraculous.

It is the happy privilege of the West Texas Utilities Company to contribute its part to the prosperity of West Texas. Its great metallic highways are carrying a new civilization to isolated villages, towns and hamlets. With 70,000 available horsepower of electrical energy from three big generating stations and 15 auxiliary plants this company provides uninterrupted service 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

UNDER THE DOME

By United Press

Austin, Texas, March 27, 1929 (UP)—Those of the 102 bills left on Governor Moody's desk by the 41st Legislature that are neither signed nor vetoed by April 3 will become laws without the Governor's signature.

It is not the governor's intent, however, to dispose of the measures in that fashion. He has been spending more than union hours since adjournment of the session in reading the bills.

He began by taking them in the order in which they were completed by the legislature and sent to his office. This order of consideration is being followed, except that he has advanced a number of bills of merely local application, where there was a demand for early action.

The others will be sent to the Secretary of State with approval or veto in bunches. It was the Governor's plan at first to consider all and file his action on all simultaneously.

Newspaper men are largely responsible for dissuading him from this course. They pointed out at a recent conference with the Governor that if all were issued at once, the papers could not have space to carry an intelligible statement of what each of the 102 bills contained.

The Governor's objection to filing each bill as acted upon is that it might lead to the false conclusion that those not acted upon are likely to be vetoed.

The Governor is the last person to act upon a bill, and has a considerable task in deciding whether to sign it. Three, which he signed during the session on the assurance that they were not objected by anyone had to be withdrawn because of mistakes that had crept into them.

The Governor's process of considering bills is thorough. He has always contended that he can get more through his eyes than through his ears and so he reads each bill personally. As a way expressed it during the recent session, every conceivable thing already has been legislated about so most of the bills repeal or amend existing law.

It therefore is necessary for the Governor to consult the existing statute and find out just what the proposed law will do to it.

Frequently he has to call in one of his secretaries to help check the present law and its changes. It is a tedious process at best and it is being carried out under the handicap of demands of visitors to see him about other matters.

On several afternoons the Governor has been forced to hide out in order to get time to complete reading bills.

A check shows that there were 258 measures in all that finally passed both houses of the Legislature and reached the Governor's desk. About two thirds of these were signed by the Governor while the Legislature was still in session.

Governor Moody is about to have an official guard. It is to be composed of University students enlisted into a headquarters troop of the 124th regiment of the 56th Cavalry Brigade of Texas.

The guard will be purely for spectacular purposes so far as the Governor individually is concerned. When he was first a candidate for office, attacking the Ku Klux Klan, and later when he first ran for Governor, attacking the highway administration and contractors, he spurned having even a single bodyguard.

The guard will be available for official functions. Such a guard was in effect from 1898 until departure for the Spanish-American War when it broke up. It was a

OLD FOLKS SAY DR. CALDWELL WAS RIGHT

The basis of treating sickness has not changed since Dr. Caldwell left Medical College in 1875, nor since he placed on the market the laxative prescription he had used in his practice.

He treated constipation, biliousness, headaches, mental depression, indigestion, sour stomach and other indispositions entirely by means of simple vegetable laxatives, herbs and roots. These are still the basis of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a combination of senna and other mild herbs, with pepsin.

The simpler the remedy for constipation, the safer for the child and for you. And as you can get results in a mild and safe way by using Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, why take chances with strong drugs?

A bottle will last several months, and all can use it. It is pleasant to the taste, gentle in action, and free from narcotics. Elderly people find it ideal. All drug stores have the generous bottles, or write "Syrup Pepsin," Dept. BB, Monticello, Illinois, for free trial bottle.

Noted Speakers to Appear on 8th Dist. P. T. A. Program at Pampa, April 3-4-5

By Willette Cole, Publicity Chairman of the Convention.

The seven-fold program of home and school as applied to the four ages of childhood will be the general theme of the sixth annual convention of the Eighth district Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher associations, which is to be held in Pampa April 3, 4 and 5. Each lecture and each program of the three-day meeting will emphasize and give instruction on some special phase of this comprehensive program.

In arranging the convention program the district executive board spared no effort to secure specialists of note on each line of work to be developed. In addition to the large number of state and district officers of the P. T. A. who are to be present, the lecturers will include deans and college professors and public school teachers who have achieved distinction in the field. According to Mrs. J. M. Crain, district president, who spoke two weeks ago to the local steering committee, the most distinguished group of speakers ever assembled for a Eighth district convention will furnish the program at the meeting.

Mrs. Grace Noyes Darling, president of the Texas Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher associations, will be the main speaker for the evening of the opening day. She will speak on "The Significance of the Parent-Teacher Movement." On Friday afternoon, the last day of the convention, she will conduct a school of instruction for delegates.

Mrs. H. B. Grace of Fort Worth crack drill organization and won many prizes in competition.

Among the matters Governor Moody has been asked to submit to the special session of the legislature is a bill giving municipalities the power to condemn land for airports.

The Governor's significant statement in an address to the Texas Cattle Raisers Convention at Houston that he might not be a candidate for office again, has caused considerable speculation. Unless he decides to lock horns with Senator Morris Sheppard in 1930, his return to private law practice is expected.

Few Governors have been able to go into a lucrative law practice after leaving the Mansion at Austin, but none of them have been as young as Governor Moody when they sought to resume private practice.

Former Governor Joseph D. Sayres built up a considerable practice in Austin after his political retirement and Former Governor Pat Neff resumed law practice after his two terms as Governor. Governor Neff, however, remained in private life only a short time before accepting a federal appointment.

Miss Ethel Harvey spent the last week-end in Pampa with Miss Frances McKenzie, Miss McKenzie returning here with her Sunday to spend the day as her guest.

Another state officer who will speak. She is state chairman of Pre-School associations. Mrs. Grace will talk on "The Importance of the Pre-School Age and Worthy Home Service."

Mrs. J. I. Kendrick of Amarillo, a past president of the Eighth district and now fourth vice-president of the state, will speak on "Public Welfare."

Mrs. Emanuel Toomin, a state chairman, will give a lecture on "Humane Education." She also is from Fort Worth.

Rush M. Caldwell, president of the Texas State Teachers Association of Dallas will speak on "The Mastery of the Tool and Technique of Learning." It is expected that his lecture will be one of the best of the convention.

H. T. Burton, president of Clarendon Municipal Junior college and former athletic coach of that school will discuss "Sound Health." Dr. S. H. Condron, dean of men at West Texas State Teachers college, Canyon, will deliver an address on "The Wise Use of Leisure."

Dr. J. M. Gordon, dean of Texas Tech at Lubbock, will speak on "Vocational Effectiveness." Mrs. Geraldine Green, who is dean of women at West Texas State Teachers college, is to talk on "Ethical Character."

"The High School and the P. T. A." will be the subject of an address by Mrs. Gervis Taylor, dean of girls, Amarillo high school. Miss Elizabeth Nixon, principal of Amarillo Central Junior high school, who is said to be without a superior on the rules and conduct of the installation ceremony, will give a lecture on the subject.

Mrs. J. E. Griggs, president of the fourteenth district, will officially extend greetings.

All sessions will be held in the Pampa Methodist church. The lectures will be interspersed with entertainment numbers that are being arranged by a local committee, with Mrs. A. H. Doucette as chairman, and by recreation periods under the direction of Mrs. Mrs. J. W. Sanders of Amarillo, fifth vice-president. Mrs. Doucette is drawing on the musical and dramatic talent of Pampa in arranging the entertainment numbers.

Social features of the convention will include a high tea, a trip to the oil fields; and three luncheons, all of which will be given by the local Parent-Teacher associations. Delegates and alternates from other cities will be guests in the homes of local citizens for the three days of the meeting. It is expected that about 200 out-of-town visitors will attend.

Miss Ethel Harvey spent the last week-end in Pampa with Miss Frances McKenzie, Miss McKenzie returning here with her Sunday to spend the day as her guest.

store are operated by the farmers. B. L. Howard is superintendent of the gins.

Evidence of continued growth for the city of Hedley is found in the story of the Hedley Farmers' Union as carried in the Star-Telegram Sunday paper. A great many organizations of this nature have been organized only to fade away after a few years. This one is an exception and proves that a body of this sort can be made a profitable organization when the management is farsighted and takes an active interest in the work. The story is as follows:

"It's always fair weather when farmers get together."

The above version of an old song might be chanted truthfully by the 200 members of the Farmers Equity Union of Hedley and McKnight communities in Donley County. Starting in 1921 with a small store at Hedley and a capital stock of less than $5,000 paid in, the organization now has assets valued at more than $75,000 and is free of debt.

The membership in this farmers' organization, one of the most unique in the State, has grown from 35 to the present list of stockholders, numbering better than 200 farmers. It is operated and managed by its customers, the agricultural workers. J. W. Bland is president; J. E. Stogner, secretary-treasurer; Frank Simmons, C. F. Doherty, Claude Bain and J. D. Debord, directors. Two gins, one at Hedley and the other at McKnight, and a grocery store are operated by the farmers. B. L. Howard is superintendent of the gins.

The Farmers Equity Union had its start back in 1921 when there was an epidemic of budding farm organization. Howard said in relating the history of the Hedley independent unit. Where a majority of the associations failed or were sold out to private concerns, the local organization continued to prosper under the plan. A store was the first purchase of the 35 stockholders. A controlling interest in a gin was the next step and then a new cotton ginning plant.

Many of the stockholders owning as much as $500 worth of stock in the organization have not been out a penny cash for their investment, Howard said. Their notes were accepted, which in turn were used for collateral at the bank to borrow money on which to operate. The stockholders' earnings were applied to his note until it was liquidated.

Outside of interest paid on the capital stock, a stockholder's earnings in the organization is based on the number of bales of cotton he had ginned at the union's plant or the amount of groceries he purchased at the equity store.

The farmers' organization has attempted to meet competition fairly without price slashing, Howard said. This policy has in a large measure been responsible for the union's success, he added.

NEW MARLAND GASOLINE offers the motorist a fuel built to the needs of today.

It is produced to perform in all weathers at all speeds.

Here are the specifications:

HIGH GRAVITY 60-62 A. P. I. This unusual high gravity, for a regular priced gasoline, insures high volatility and full vaporization. It gives the utmost in power, yet it is so stabilized that "gas lock" cannot occur and loss from dissipation is slight.

LOW I. B. P. 90-100 Degrees F. The "initial boiling point" is that temperature at which the first drop distills over when the gasoline is tested in a United States Bureau of Standards apparatus. The I. B. P. of New Marland Gasoline is accurately controlled to give immediate starting in zero weather, instantaneous pick-up at the touch of the accelerator and perfect flexibility in traffic.

LOW E. P. 400-410 Degrees F. The "end point" is the maximum temperature reached in testing gasoline. The low "end point" for New Marland Gasoline assures complete vaporization, full combustion and the liberation of the maximum available power. It contains no "heavy ends" or "kerosene fractions," which cause engine sluggishness and excessive crankcase oil dilution.

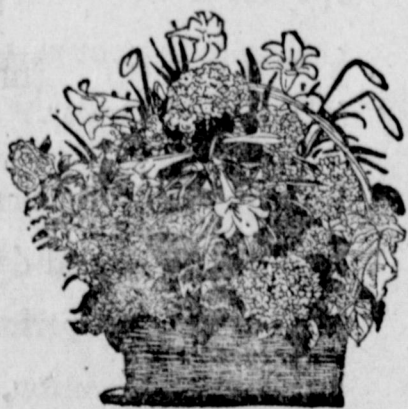

ANTI-DETONAT. ING PROPERTIES New Marland Gasoline is blended from selected petroleum fractions high in natural anti-knock qualities. It is not doped with chemicals, but is the product of adept refining, stabilized to maintain uniform power thrust at all ranges of speed and in all temperatures.

STABILITY New Marland Gasoline is water-white, sweet, clean and full-powered. Tar, resins and all deleterious color-forming materials are completely eliminated by patented processes. Another patented process protects it against the formation of gums or other substances. Compare the clear, clean New Marland Gasoline in the pump bowls at Marland stations with the dull, yellowish appearance of other gasolines which have been exposed to sunlight.

HIGH TEST ONE PRICE Finally, it is high test and sells without premium. There is only ONE Marland Gasoline. It answers every demand of the discriminating motorist.

Tuesday afternoon of this week the declamation elimination was held. The race was closely run as there were fifteen junior girls in it. The judges finally decided the following were winners: 1st, Joy McCann; 2nd, Joveta Wilson; 3rd, Wilma Dee Smith; 4th, Roma Ellison.

Of the junior boys, George Chamberlain won first and Arthur Chase second. Mary Lowe represents the senior girls and Robert Greene the senior boys.

Senior Boys' Club Notes

Annual

There are a few who can't realize that there is really going to be an annual. With a large part of the engraving in the hands of the engraver and the dummy (not the two Juniors that are on our staff, but the original type written copy of our annual) nearly completed we expect to give you a very highly rated annual. Several new pictures have been added to the collection, such as the College basketball team and the Junior High boys' basketball team. If you don't subscribe for this book you will regret it.

Notice, Juniors

It won't be long now until we string your whole class all over the campus of Clarendon College while the graceful and brilliant colors of purple and white wave in triumph. The most spirited and ambitious class that the walls of Alma Mater ever sheltered now hold the seat of honor within its caverns of learning, the Senior Class of '29.

The Senior play has been selected and most of the characters have been selected. It will be the best play that has been presented this year in the College Auditorium.

The Senior Girls' Club met and decided to help win the struggle on Senior Day by stacking all the bunched up Juniors while we skin up the rest.—S. B. C.

We boast of having two members of our class on the team that will represent the school in typing at the County meet. Miss Jane Killough and Miss Katherine Gallagher will do their part in bringing back the honors for our school. Both of these young ladies can make a typewriter smoke and we are expecting more than just county honors from them. Miss Abbie Parker is the third member of the team and her speed is not to be sneered at although she is only a Soph. According to Prof. Wells all three of these girls are far above the average high school typist.

The flower beds in front of the Girls' Hall are becoming more beautiful day by day. Of course the artistic eye of the Seniors guide the tools that put the artistic touches on them. Never mind little slimes, you will be Seniors by and by (maybe).

The order for invitations was sent to the engravers Friday, March 22.

Marvin Lindsey says he has the guitar, although this is not the kind that you play with your fingers—you blow this kind.

The stationery arrived Thursday. Everyone made a mad dash to get their box first. I don't mean everyone, only the underclassmen did such an unruly trick.

Commencement is a-coming and the bills are getting fat. Please put a penny in any Senior's hat.

If you haven't got a penny, a half penny will do.

If you haven't got a half penny, we are just like you.

—By a Senior.

Woe be unto the Junior or any other slime that dishonors the honorable flag of purple and white.

According to W. D. (Monkey-blood) Bryson, the Juniors had better hunt cover when a certain day comes.

Issues have been under discussion on the last few days regarding whether we should entertain the Juniors or not. Nevermind, little Junior, don't you cry. We'll entertain you by and by.

Miss Jane Killough says she is going to Amarillo Saturday with her mother.

Alpha Delta Psi

We are glad to report a large attendance in our society meeting Wednesday morning. Everyone took part in the program and showed great interest which goes to prove we are a very susceptible group. A talk on "Patriotism" was given by Elna Davis. Some of the college algebra students might be interested in knowing patriotism; country, society, school. Current Events were given by Gertrude Witt; reading, Gladys Noble; jokes, Eugene Estlack.

Volley Ball Results

The Volley Ball girls, High School and College, went to Hedley last Tuesday evening. Both teams played Hedley and Lelia Lake. Hedley beat both Clarendon teams and Lelia Lake beat the High School team.

On Wednesday afternoon both teams of Clarendon went to Lelia Lake. The College beat with a score of 28 to 38 and Lelia Lake beat the High School 24 to 16.

Friday afternoon Lelia Lake came up to Clarendon for a practice game.

WHY IS OUR SCHOOL DEAD?

By "Slick" Naylor

One student says, "Good, only eight more weeks of school!" "Hurray, I will be glad when it is out, then I can get away from this dead place," says another.

Our school is what we make it. By going to school we are preparing for the future; making the business men and women that will run this town and other towns in the years to come. We make the school and not the school makes us.

Here school has been running for almost eight months and a large per cent of the student body has not witnessed a contest of any kind that has been staged by our athletic teams or our dramatic club. You are merely going to school at eight o'clock in the morning and away at four in the evening.

All of the entertainment is not over yet. There will be several tennis matches played in the near future. Doubtless to say that ninety per cent of the student body didn't know that we had such a thing as a tennis club. Well, we have, and a good one, too. And another little secret, the High School girls have a volleyball team, also. They have been playing some interesting games and it is not over yet, they are going to play some more.

There are six of the ambitious high school lads who go out on the athletic field (yep, we have one of those, too) twice a day and circle the track for one hour and sometimes longer, in order to be in the best physical condition for the coming meets. There will be a play presented by the dramatic club some time in the early part of the month of April. The Senior class of the College will present a play at the last of April or the first of May and the High School Seniors will also give a play soon afterwards. Watch for the exact dates.

With the spring months here, we are ambitious and want to do something, so let's enter all of the contests that we can and go to see all the other ones. Girls, here is a chance to do a little of your "gossip." Tell everyone of the plays and the various kinds of contests and make the remainder of this school term worth while.

MAZATLAN CONSUL IS A KINSMAN OF LOCAL FOLK

The daily newspapers of Sunday morning carried a story from the Mexican war, that United States Consul William P. Blocker, of Mazatlan, on the west coast of Mexico, had been killed in the fighting between the opposing forces in that city, this report not however being verified. Consul Blocker has been a visitor to Clarendon in times past, being a cousin of Harwood Beville, and a grandson of Col. R. S. Kimberlin.

Miss Lottie E. Lane and Mrs. Matthew Lane were Amarillo visitors Thursday of last week. Mrs. Lane had her tonsils removed while in the neighboring city.

Every ingredient that goes into Startena is carefully chosen and tested. Startena is rich in life-giving and growth-producing vitamins, proteins and minerals. Every ingredient in Startena has its job to do. Every ingredient does its part in keeping chicks alive and growing.

Are You Ready

When your Children Cry for It

Baby has little upsets at times. All your care cannot prevent them. But you can be prepared. Then you can do what any experienced nurse would do—what most physicians would tell you to do—give a few drops of plain Castoria. No sooner does than Baby is soothed; relief is just a matter of moments. Yet you have eased your child without use of a single doubtful drug; Castoria is vegetable. So it's safe to use as often as an infant has a little pain you cannot put away. And it's always ready for the crueler pains of colic, or constipation or diarrhea; effective, too, for older children. Twenty-five million bottles were bought last year.

When Food Sours

Lots of folks who think they have "indigestion" have only an acid condition which could be corrected in five or ten minutes. An effective anti-acid like Phillips' Milk of Magnesia soon restores digestion to normal. Phillips does away with all that sourness and gas right after meals. It prevents the distress so apt to occur two hours after eating. What a pleasant preparation to take! And how good it is for the system! Unlike a burning dose of soda—which is but temporary relief at best—Phillips' Milk of Magnesia neutralizes many times its volume in acid. Next time a hearty meal, or too rich a diet has brought on the least discomfort, try—

NURSES know, and doctors have declared there's nothing quite like Bayer Aspirin for all sorts of aches and pains, but be sure it is genuine Bayer; that name must be on the package, and on every tablet. Bayer is genuine, and the word genuine—in red—is on every box. You can't go wrong if you will just look at the box!

The last rites for Sidney Beach were held last Thursday in Hedley from the Beach home, Rev. C. B. Brooks, pastor of the Baptist Church of that city, officiating. Sidney died in Amarillo after he had been rushed to that city for surgical attention. Interment was had in Hedley.

Sidney Beach was born in Hereford, Texas, January 29th, 1902, and has lived the greater part of his life in Donley County, having come here when he was quite a youngster. At the time of his death he was 27 years, 1 month and 23 days of age. He was married some three and one-half years ago to Miss Elizabeth Bowlin. Two children were born to this union, one of them, Edith Jean, having preceded her father to the better land.

It has been said of Sidney that he was one of the best characters who has ever lived in his section of the county. He was a Christian and acted his beliefs to the very end.

Aside from his wife, he leaves a son, Sidney Rhea, seven months of age; his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Beach, and two brothers and two sisters, all of Hedley. A host of other relatives and a great many friends extend Mrs. Beach their sympathy in the passing of the husband and father.
