Hold Three Suspects In Hedley Murder

NITE WATCHMAN IS SLAIN SUNDAY

POPULAR PEACE OFFICER OF HEDLEY KILLED AS BURGARS SURPRISED.

While making his rounds of the city of Hedley last Sunday night, J. H. Richey, night watchman for the town, surprised burglars at work in the "M" System store of that city and was shot by one of the members of the band. Injuries were such that he died within a few moments after the wound, being barely able to give a few details of the shooting. The robbers were reported to have come through Clarendon lat in the same night.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed at the last account from Hedley.

The following account of the capture of three of the suspects was taken from the Amarillo Daily News of this morning and is correct according to reports from the office of the sheriff of Donley County. Mr. Moseley stated that he had received great co-operation in all parts of the Panhandle, especially from the police and sheriff's department in Borger and Amarillo. The article follows:

Borger police, deputy sheriffs and state rangers last night were working on clues which they believe will lead them to a fourth man thought to have been connected with the fatal shooting of J. H. Richey, Hedley night watchman, late Sunday night.

To date, three have been arrested in connection with the murder of the watchman; namely, Oscar J. (Jimmy) Brown, Joe Dunwoody and Bert (Cowboy) Hall. Hall was arrested late Tuesday night.

Wednesday Dunwoody and Hall were taken to Amarillo to be lodged in the Potter County jail for safe-keeping. Brown, who is in a Borger hospital facing possible amputation of an arm which was shattered by a revolver bullet, today explained to Lee Hutson and Ben Chapman, Borger officers, the circumstances supposed to have been responsible for his injury.

With Hall and Dunwoody and a fourth man whom he refused to name, Brown said, he was in automobile en route to Hedley when he started to quarrel with his companions. They stopped the car and Brown got out, he alleges, then Dunwoody fired a shot which struck him in the arm. He fell to the ground as if dead, he told the officers, and his companions went on. Then, he claims, he walked back to Borger from the place where the shooting is said to have occurred, about six miles south of here.

Police Wednesday night said they put little credence in the Brown story, especially after they had failed to find the blood-stained clothing which Brown says was worn at the time.

Some notes, found at Hedley after the shooting, have been identified as stolen from a Borger garage.

Amarillo police Wednesday night continued to aid in the investigation of the Hedley murder and to search for the fourth man believed to have been connected with the shooting and attempted robbery.

BAPTISTS TO MEET NEXT IN LELIA LAKE

MEETING HERE ON LAST SUNDAY IS ONE OF MOST SUCCESSFUL.

The Panhandle Baptist Association held their meeting in Clarendon last Sunday. The attendance was not all that could have been due to the prevalence of flu and other sickness in this and Hall Counties but considering all conditions it was excellent. The program was presented with only two changes in its entirety and showed that some great preparation had gone into its presentation. Much good work was done in the meeting and those who attended state that an inspirational day was enjoyed.

In the business session that followed, Lelia Lake was chosen for the next meeting place of the Association. The date set for the event will be March 31st. New officers were elected for the coming year with Fred Landers of Estelline taking the office of President and Miss Ruth Thompson of this city being chosen as Secretary-Treasurer.

SCHOOLS OPEN FOR LONG TERM

SLIGHT LOSS IN ATTENDANCE DUE TO ILLNESS. ENROLLMENT IS GOOD.

The Clarendon Public Schools opened their doors Monday of this week for the long term and found that their numbers were but slightly depleted by the prevalence of illness in the community. At this time there is one teacher away from the school due to illness and this will probably be remedied in the very near future.

The enrollment for the opening showed a slight increase over that for the end of the term before the holidays, with this number to be increased when the harvesting season has been concluded and the students are free to attend school. The students and faculty all entered the new year with enthusiasm and prediction is made that this will be one of the most successful terms ever held in the Clarendon school system.

One change was made in the faculty, Mrs. James Headrick taking the place vacated by Mrs. P. G. Smith when she took the office as County Clerk. No other changes are anticipated in any part of the faculty.

Superintendent Burton stated this morning that the future was bright for the Clarendon school system and that the outlook and enrollment was better than for last year, which proved to be the banner year for Clarendon schools.

TWO FIRES DO LITTLE DAMAGE THIS WEEK

Two fires, the first of which proved to be the most destructive, called the Clarendon department to their places Tuesday night and Wednesday noon. The first of the two fires proved to be the car of W. A. Riddle. The machine was destroyed with no cause showing just how the fire may have started. The second fire was at the home of M. W. Headrick and was caused by a smudge in a chicken house. The damage here was slight as the department was on the scene immediately after the fire had been found.

FEDERATION TO NAME OFFICERS

MEETING HERE SATURDAY WILL SELECT OFFICERS FOR NEW YEAR.

The Donley County Federation of Women's Clubs will hold a meeting Saturday afternoon in the club room in the City Hall Saturday, January 5th, at 2:00 o'clock. Mrs. Trent, as president of the organization for the past year, is very desirous of a good attendance at this meeting in the new year since the officers will be named and the work for 1929 will be planned in part.

The Federation is practically a new item for Donley County, having been in operation for less than a year. It has held a number of meetings that have resulted in the work of the club women of the county being pushed forward a great deal and the resultant better feeling among those of the county who have worked in the clubs.

The furnishing of the club room in the City Hall is one of the projects that has been carried to completion and this meeting to be held in their new home would be one that taxes the capacity of the place for seating.

Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Murrell and Rev. and Mrs. S. E. Allison are in Memphis, Tennessee, this week attending the World Missionary Conference in session there. They plan to return to their homes here the latter part of this week.

Mrs. J. W. Watts returned Monday evening of this week from Glen Rose, where she had been for the past three weeks for treatment. Mrs. Watts reports the flu raging in that part of the state and returned with a case of the disease.

C. C. Powell left Saturday morning of last week for Roswell, N. M., where he goes to assume his duties as district manager for the Hicks Rubber Co., in that section. Mr. Powell has the best wishes of Clarendon people as he goes to his new home though he will be greatly missed in local circles. Mrs. Powell and the children will not move to Roswell for a few months.

Road Meeting 8th Important Event

A very important meeting for the Panhandle will be held in Amarillo January 8th, when the Panhandle Highway Association will be in convention at the Amarillo Hotel. In fact, this will be a two day affair, as the Executive and Legislative Committees will meet at two o'clock at the hotel on the seventh, to formulate plans of action to be presented to the convention on the succeeding day.

All persons who have suggestions or plans for the development of highways are requested to meet with these committees on Monday, in order to assist these committees in their important work.

The general meeting will be opened at eleven o'clock Wednesday morning. Judge Hamlin of Farwell, a member of the Committee of Thirty-one, appointed by Governor Moody, to formulate plans and suggestions to be presented to the Legislature, will make an address, explaining the work of the committee. Other prominent speakers will also address the convention. Ample time will be given for a general discussion of the Panhandle Highway problems. It is expected that a large crowd will be in attendance.

Representatives from both the State Highway Commission and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will probably be at the convention.

BOURLAND FAMILIES HERE IN ANNUAL HOME-COMING

The Bourland families and their immediate connections enjoyed their annual home-coming event in Clarendon this year with the absence of seven of their number. The event was held in the home of Mrs. W. R. Bourland with twenty of the immediate members of the family present for the event. This is one event that is enjoyed annually and which is looked forward to with much interest by those who are members of the family.

STRANGE ANIMAL CAPTURED ON BENNETT FARM

Eugene Caldwell happened on an animal the fore part of this week that was unknown to him and one that is rarely found in this section of the state. This animal was none other than a nine banded armadillo that had wandered from his native habitat and had become entangled in a net wire fence on the C. W. Bennett place in Windy Alley. After a description had been brought to town, the animal was identified by Jerome Stocking and later, the animal was brought in for display. Evidently, the animal had been attacked by dogs and had become entangled in the fence and had struggled to death. Marks on the shell showed distinctly that it had been repeatedly bitten by the dogs but that this was not the cause of its death since there were no signs of injury. The shell will be formed into a basket by Mr. Caldwell.

BALES, WITNESSES MUST BE IN CHILDRESS JAN. 14

The News is in receipt of a letter from Judge A. J. Fires, of the 10th Judicial district, stating that the Bales case, transferred from Donley County to Childress County, would be called for trial on Monday, Jan. 14th. Judge Fires also stated that all witnesses would be required to be in their places on the date set for the trial that further delays might be offset and that the trial would be held as scheduled.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parks have moved to Estelline where they will make their home.

Miss Florence Fink and Kenneth Fink left Tuesday morning of this week for Austin, going by way of Abilene.

Earl Jones returned to McKnight the latter part of last week where he will resume his duties as teacher in the schools at that place.

Lelia Mae Kerbow returned Sunday afternoon to her duties as instructor in the Basic school north of McLean, after spending the holidays here with her parents.

Miss Nadine Haile left the fore part of this week for Colorado, Texas, where she will spend a few days before going on to Abilene, where she plans to attend school for the coming months.

Clair Marie Braswell and Sam Braswell left Wednesday morning for Denton and Austin, respectively, where they will attend school during the coming months.

LIONS HELP IN CRIPPLED WORK

PASS RESOLUTIONS ASKING ACTION ON LAND TITLE MOVEMENT.

The Clarendon Lions started their year's work Tuesday of this week with a bang, hanging up a good attendance marker for the time of year and entering into the work of the year with a great amount of zest. The major part of the time of the Lions was taken with a discussion of the situation in the state concerning the recent actions of high officials with reference to the invalidation of land titles in the Panhandle and other parts of the state. Following some discussion, the club moved and passed unanimously on the matter of a resolution to be sent to the Senators and Representative from this district urging that they take a positive stand to correct these matters and validate all titles held in question under the new ruling. It was later learned that the Chamber of Commerce was working on a similar project.

Lion treasurer Caraway was called on for a report on the fund sent the Amarillo Lions Club to assist in their work with the crippled children. Report was made that a sum of $60 had been sent, $30 of which had been raised outside the club and the balance being the luncheon fees that would have been used had the Lions luncheon been held on Christmas Day.

Guests for the day included two former members of the Clarendon Lions Club, J. R. Bartlett of Childress and Dr. F. N. Reynolds of Amarillo. Each of them stated their pleasure at being with the club and were well heard by the Lions. Lion Bartlett offered a belated farewell speech and invited the Clarendon Lions to the District meeting that is to be held in Childress on January 16th. The invitation was official since Lion Bartlett is a member of the Board of Directors of the Childress Club and also holds a place on the entertainment committee for the occasion.

Rev. Henry Taylor, new pastor of the First Christian Church, made a few remarks, as did Rhodin Chase. Rhodin unofficially invited the Clarendon Lions to their next meeting of the Lions in Austin and stated that they were planning big things for the entertainment of the Lions from over the state on the days they were to be in the capital city. I. E. Jolly, Scout Executive for the Southeast Panhandle Council, spoke a short time on the progress of Scouting in the district and served and made invitation to attend the Council meeting in Shamrock on January 11th.

Lion E. E. Teer of Memphis was welcomed into the club, coming from Memphis to be manager of the local Cameron Lumber yard. Lion Frank Houston also made a few remarks and was well heard by the Lions. Some attention was also given to the road meeting of the Panhandle Association to be held in Amarillo on January 8th. A good attendance is being worked up by the Chamber of Commerce which has this matter under advisement.

Neil McKillop returned Tuesday morning to San Marcos, where he will attend school.

Miss Lucille Murphy spent the week-end in Amarillo visiting with Mrs. Tom Connally.

Judge A. J. Fires of Childress was a visitor in Clarendon Wednesday of this week.

Jo Dalphit of Byers, Texas, transacted business in Clarendon this week.

Mrs. C. T. Everett of Hedley spent Tuesday in the Frank White home.

Mrs. C. E. Lindsey was called to the bedside of her sister, Mrs. C. E. Stillwell, of Memphis, this week.

Jack Mann and family returned the latter part of last week from a visit with relatives in Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewright of Pampa spent Tuesday in Clarendon with the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Noble.

Miss Geraldine Kelly of Happy, Texas, spent the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Kelly.

Miss Eunice Griggs left this morning for White Deer where she will have charge of the Excessions Department in the public schools.

County Ginnings Show Steady Gain

Cotton ginnings for the State of Texas showed a remarkable gain during the weeks preceding December 13th when the last cotton report was gathered. The report was issued to the state on December 20th and includes all cotton ginned to December 13th. Totals for the state will be found to be 4,549,651 for 1928 and 3,972,633 for the year 1927.

The counties immediately surrounding Donley are occupying the same relative positions as they have formerly done in the past few reports with only one county showing a decrease while all others report an increase over the preceding year. Briscoe County shows to have ginned 8,805 bales in 1928 and 2,062 in 1927. Childress is the only county reporting a loss, with 26,962 bales for 1928 against 35,560 for 1927. Collingsworth recovers from the slump that has taken the day for the year previous to this report and reports a gain with 37,567 bales for 1928 and 36,898 for 1927. Donley County shows to almost have doubled the 1927 crop with 21,258 bales reported to date in 1928 and 11,338 bales to the same date in 1927. Gray County shows a big gain with 6,588 bales reported in 1928 and 2,449 bales in 1927. Hall County has completely recovered from their bad year in 1927 and report 62,642 bales for 1928 against 35,749 bales in 1927. Wheeler County is another that has shown a rapid rise in the growth of cotton, reporting 28,085 bales for 1928 with 15,279 bales for the preceding year.

The Government figures for Donley County beat out the prediction made earlier in the season when cotton men in the county stated that there would be a 25,000 bale crop. The ginnings will probably run to more than 27,000 bales according to ginnings in the county.

NEW CHEVROLET DRAWS HUNDREDS OF SPECTATORS

Showing the deep concern of the country at large in the showing of the New Chevrolet Six, a steady stream of spectators thronged the show room of the Almond Chevrolet Company early last Saturday morning when the first car was put on display, until the News goes to press. The local distributors are happy over the approval expressed by the visitors and say they have no fears as to the volume of sales for 1929.

When the New York Automobile Show opened this week, with more than 45 domestic manufacturers exhibiting their 1929 models, Chevrolet Motor Company will again be awarded first place at the show. This award carries with it the honor position in the exhibit, an award coveted by all manufacturers because of its allotment on a strict merit basis.

Each year the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce which sponsors both the New York and Chicago automobile shows makes the award. And each year the standard of computation has been the same. Manufacturers are ranked strictly on the amount of business transacted during the fiscal year ending the August prior to the time of the showing is held. The first place award applies for both the New York and Chicago shows.

Chevrolet's choice once more for this signal honor serves to emphasize the position of leadership the company has secured during recent years. It also serves to open auspiciously a year which W. S. Knudsen, president and general manager of the company, has predicted will see the company surpassing all of its former sales and production records.

The new lines of sixes which Chevrolet will display at the show this year has already been viewed at advance showings throughout the country by millions of people. Since the mid-November announcement of the new line, Chevrolet's vast productive facilities have been rapidly getting underway at all the Chevrolet assembly plants, so that within a few weeks Chevrolet will be running close to full capacity.

The first of the deliveries of the new car are scheduled to take place throughout the country immediately after Jan. 1st. Already the 10,000 Chevrolet dealers who comprise Chevrolet's "great retaining chain in this country" have been supplied with models of the new line.

Saturday was important in Chevrolet's calendar because it marked the date set by company heads for a grand national showing of the 1929 models in all dealers show rooms in the United States.

FEW CHANGES ARE SEEN IN BUSINESS

BUSINESS PROSPECTS LOOK GOOD AS MERCHANTS HOLD TO WORK.

One business change for the first of the year is all that has been reported to the News as taking effect on the first of the new year 1929. This change is the sale of the J. R. Cox grocery to Mr. W. B. Armstrong, the sale taking effect Tuesday of this week. Mr. Armstrong will operate this business in the former location held by Mr. Cox. Mr. Cox states that he has no plans for the immediate future, but that he plans to remain in Clarendon for some time yet.

Another change is the change of location of Russell's Market, which is none other than a consolidation of the two markets into one in the Piggly Wiggly store. Mr. Russell had a lease on this building until January 1st and consolidated the two places of business when his lease expired.

The changes reported in the last issue of the News will include the sale of the Sims-Bennett Chevrolet agency to the Messrs. Almond of Childress and the sale of the interest of Mr. Powell in the Powell & Patman Insurance agency to Mr. Patman.

Other sales and changes may have been made but have not been made public.

PORTER NAMED ON BOARD TAYLOR IS SECRETARY

The resignation of C. C. Powell from the Clarendon school board left a vacancy to be filled in two manners. The first of these was filled by the appointment of J. R. Porter to fill the place vacated, while the office of secretary of the board is to be filled by W. W. Taylor as being familiar with the work in hand. Mr. Taylor served in this capacity for some time and knows the work, thus being enabled to start off with little preliminary training, except as for details.

HATCHERY TO BE READY HERE SOON

MACHINERY IS SHIPPED TO BE PLACED OPPOSITE POSTOFFICE.

The hatchery for Clarendon has been shipped from the factory and will be installed just as soon as it can be secured. The site has been selected by Frank White, Jr., and will be just opposite the postoffice in one of the Mrs. Rhode's buildings. The building is receiving a new coat of paint on the exterior and a fresh coat of calamine to brighten the interior.

Lee Means of Hollis, Oklahoma, has been secured to operate the plant and comes here as one of the outstanding operators of hatchery plants in the state of Oklahoma. He has had a number of years experience in the business and comes highly recommended for the place he will fill.

In addition to the hatching of chickens for sale and the hatching of eggs for the producer, the plant will handle a complete line of supplies of all kinds for the proper care and raising of chickens. Frank White, Junior, will retain the ownership of the proposition.

NATIONAL EDITORIAL ASSOCIATION — PANHANDLE PRESS ASSOCIATION

We should be very careful of our health these days. Over the nation rages an epidemic of influenza, which, though in mild form, so weakens the victim until he is a ready victim for many other ills. The loss of time, efficiency and life is appalling. Watch your health.

Bankers, business men and farmers agree that 1929 opens with the brightest prospects of any year since the war, and some declare 1929 holds the brightest prospects the country ever saw. Be that as it may, it is certain that our people are less in debt than for many years, that the general financial tone of the country is unusually sound, that the soil has one of the finest winter seasons in it for years, that much building and progress are in process and being planned. 1929 starts off with a glowing, roseate hue and holds infinite possibilities and promise for the worker with a vision.

At the Christmas season just passed a young lady of a Panhandle city in attendance on a Texas college refused to come home for the holidays, because of a drinking father, whose actions during past Christmases made her shrink from further humiliation. Brought face to face with a vice so utterly selfish and disgusting, the father came to himself, renounced liquor forever and wired his daughter to come home for a Christmas more joyful than the family had ever known—a Christmas where the Birth of the Prince of Peace was celebrated as it should be celebrated. What a Christmas!

HAVE WE A NET GAIN?

Inventory time is upon us and while we "take stock" in our business, it is well that we take a little time to consider the virtues and vices that are humanly ours. Does our lives and influence show a profitable increase over one year ago? Have we honestly tried to effect changes in our relationships that we know would be for our better citizenship, fellowship and moral well-being? Have we allowed ourselves to carelessly slip into error of mind and deed? What do we propose doing about it? We may refuse to face facts now, but we cannot escape the final accounting. We can't.

CLARENDON STEPS FORWARD WITH THE NEW YEAR

Coming out of nearly two years of business depression brought about by adverse crop conditions and by the slump in oil development, Clarendon faces 1929 after a wonderful fall business, with her banks full of money, her farmers with less carry-over indebtedness than ever before, with dairying and poultry raising established as a side-line on many farms, with the cattle industry in the best condition it has seen since the war, with city, school and county finances in excellent condition, with all lines of business well financed and with good credit, and with a citizenship full of plans and visions of a new era. A moderate building program is now under way and plans are under foot for a much enlarged schedule, which presages one of our best years just ahead of us. One is fortunate to live in Clarendon and be allied with its steady progress.

WILL YOU PARTICIPATE?

Who was the most valuable citizen of this community in 1928? It would be hard to name him or her, without long and careful research, and it is certain that such title could not be rightly bestowed by surface appearances. 1928 is history and we had our most valuable citizen though unnamed, but this brings us to the thought that 1929 is before us as an inviting avenue of service to every citizen in this community. No doubt a loving-cup could be worthily awarded at this year's end, to some individual whose service has been outstanding, but his services alone would not suffice for the desired progress and welfare of Clarendon. What we desire and need is the services of all our citizens working sincerely and earnestly in a harmonious program for the upbuilding of our city and county. There may be no loving-cup, but there is happiness and satisfaction in store for everyone who earnestly endeavors to serve his fellows and his community. May we all participate in the award.

SENATOR SMALL HAS OUR BEST WISHES

Senator-elect Small from this district goes to the coming session of the legislature advocating legislation which has become of popular demand in the Panhandle, and with his experience as a jurist will no doubt take rank at once among the leaders in the state senate. Judge Small is open in his declaration that there should be no tampering with the present system of appointing members of the state highway commission. This is in direct opposition to the plan proposed in some quarters for the election of members to this important work. Judge Small also favors the court reform bill as sponsored by the Texas Bar Association, and in this position he has the general endorsement of his constituency. Our present court system is hedged about and cumbered with the barnacles of olden days and precedent which delays justice, aids in defeating its ends and costs the citizens of this state a monumental sum every year. We know Judge Small will heartily champion a bill to correct the present travesty in the matter of land titles and make forever secure the rights of Texans who have purchased in good faith state lands, while at the same time the state will be rid of the odium its acts under the present law has brought to the good name of the commonwealth. Donley County people are expecting real service and a record of distinguished worth from Judge Small, our senator and our neighbor.

TEXAS JERSEY CATTLE CLUB

MEET JAN. 9 AND 10 IN AMARILLO

TEXAS ORGANIZATION PASSES OKAY ON PANHANDLE SECTION OF STATE BY HOLDING CONVENTION IN 1929 IN AMARILLO. ALL FARMERS AND MILK PRODUCERS ARE INVITED TO ATTEND THE MEETING THAT IS TO BE HELD IN THE HERRING

(Danby White in Dallas News.)

I saw recently in the newspapers the news item: "Governor Al Smith is now penniless." Someone will read the item and laugh with glee while 15,000,000 real Democrats will boastfully remind the money changers that all Democratic statesmen and their public careers were very poor and equally honest. When our own Governor Hogg left the Governor's mansion he, too, was almost penniless. Even while he was at his political pinnacle, chasing the money changers from the people's temple, he became the beneficiary of an old negro's charity.

Every old Southern town has always contained a decrepit, half-witted old negro character. Tyler's chaotic character at that time was known as French Bill. Humorously, one of Governor Hogg's friends started the rumor in Tyler that Jim Hogg while Governor was penniless. Of course, without money, as French Bill reasoned, "Marse Jim, Miss Sally and the Hogg children might be 'hungry' in Austin town. This old vagabond as soon as possible provided food and raiment for them. May we not safely and surely feel the waifs, along the sidewalks of New York will sustain their friend indeed, Governor Smith, as soon as they learn that he and his'n are in need?"

None but the Southern-born and reared fully can appreciate the love that once bound the marster and servant together; the fortunate and the unfortunate; the powerful and helpless, and the rich and the poor. General Hogg—Jim Hogg's father—was an aristocratic slaveholder. Naturally, Jim Hogg had been reared under the cherished memories of the happy past, yet he was a very poor boy, as well as young man. While a young lawyer in Tyler he attained some legal distinction at the bar—accumulating some property and made many friends. He and French Bill naturally became close friends—one possessing power, the other being helpless, each respecting the other. Jim Hogg was massive. French Bill was a runt, for his ancestry contained the blood of the Indian, the French-African and the negro of African origin. In short, he was a "Red-bone," a composite character found only in Lower Louisiana.

He came to Tyler unheralded. He never had while here, nor did he desire, any visible means of support.

It is true he received many tips from the staid and distinguished lawyers who then lived here or attended the various courts held here semi-annually, but his most dependable means of support was in carrying billets-doux for the young society blades. Even the debutantes producing messengers. The saddest day in French Bill's life was the one on which Jim Hogg moved to Austin to become

Governor of Texas. The longest and most sleepless night he ever spent was the one during which he was trying to conceive some plan by which he could get food and raiment for the Hogs. I do not know who suggested the idea to him, but within a day or two he appeared on the square with a gunny sack and announced that he was going to fill it with "cats" for Marse Jim and his'n. For days the decrepit Samaritan solicited among his society and barroom acquaintances. Naturally the sack was filled to overflowing just as soon as Bill could cover the city. This task having been accomplished, the next one was to provide funds for traveling expenses, also for sending telegrams to the keeper of the Big House on Capitol Hill. The necessary money was raised by passing the hat and on the following day the happiest old negro in the Southland was on his way to Austin.

Fortuitous circumstances enabled me to be a passing guest at the Governor's mansion when French Bill arrived. His presence was produced by his head, mine by the heart's desire, for there was then visiting at the Governor's mansion a bright-eyed and popular debutante. Our grandsons—facetiously called by me Hope, Faith and Charity—now ask us jointly and severally to tell them a bedtime story about old French Bill. Naturally the young society folks then guests of the mansion were amused when Governor Hogg called them to the back door of the mansion and introduced them to French Bill with his tattered hat in one hand while the other clutched the bag of provisions. Bill smiled and bowed graciously.

We found old French Bill dead in an abandoned shack on the outskirts of Tyler. He died like his prototype Topsy "grewed." A conference of his friends followed closely and Governor Hogg was telegraphed the fact that Bill was dead and would be buried tomorrow.

row. The legislature was in session and naturally Governor Hogg was a very busy man. However, he was not so busy that he could not conceive a demand for his presence elsewhere on important affairs of state. The Governor of Texas helped us bury Bill. Our mothers and sweethearts covered his grave with flowers. While we still know nothing of his origin, we who knew him best believe his faith and charity carried his harmless old soul somewhere!

EDEN WATER SYSTEM IS NEARING COMPLETION

From the progress made on the water system at Eden it is certain that in a short time the town will have adequate water for any emergency. Blasting is being done on the well, ditches being dug, and eight inch and six inch pipes are being laid.

The farmer who will profit in the future will be the one who reduces the cost of producing crops and livestock.

Miss Tressa Vineyard Becomes Bride of Mr. Jesse Lowe

Christmas bells and wedding bells chimed together while Miss Tressa Vineyard and Mr. Jesse Lowe answered the call of Dan Cupid and took a life membership in the holy bonds of matrimony and pledged their vows before Rev. S. R. McClung, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The ceremony was performed December 22 in the girls' dormitory in the presence of the immediate relatives. The beautiful ring ceremony was used.

Both contracting parties are former students of Clarendon High School, where they were well liked by the student body.

They will make their home in Clarendon and Mr. Lowe will continue in the employ of the Ford Motor Company.

On Sunday, December 23, Mr. and Mrs. Vineyard honored Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Vineyard with a 12:00 o'clock luncheon at the girls' dormitory.

Fifty-two relatives and close friends of the families were present to make this a very happy occasion.

A three-piece orchestra furnished music during the evening and a buffet supper was served at a late hour.

Girls are Honored by "Dads"

Messrs. J. W. Martin, Odos Caraway, A. L. Chase and W. W. Taylor, numbered among our most thoughtful fathers, honored their daughters, Leta Verne, Agnes, Manette and Athlyn, who are home from school for the Christmas holidays, with a New Year party at the Country Club Monday evening.

The rooms were resplendent with decorations of varied hue and the scene was a happy one when the guests gathered.

An eight-piece orchestra furnished music throughout the evening while dancing was enjoyed. Confetti, paper streamers and Brooks of Fort Worth received high score favor and Mrs. Park Chamberlain consolation.

Mrs. A. R. Letts received the club favor, Mrs. J. L. McMurtry guest favor and Mrs. Charles Bugbee consolation at the close of the afternoon's games of auction bridge.

Alpha Delta Psi

Alpha Delta Psi Literary Society met January 2, 1929, to again resume its regular meeting day after having been suspended for the holidays. No special program having been planned for the hour of assembly, a spontaneous program was rendered by a few willing members. Dean Cooper favored the society with two humorous readings which the members all agreed were unusually comical in make-up and which were enjoyed by all. Betty Griswold gave a humorous reading embodying the four fundamentals of arithmetic. Jane Killough and Maude Crawford, each played a piano solo which bordered more on the finer arts of entertainment, something which the majority of people fail to appreciate, but which the society members do. Thanks to their highly developed sense of culture. The society songs were sung with Jane Killough at the piano, and with Cecil Hukel leading.

The radio program which has been pending for some time has at last been definitely decided upon. Alpha Delta Psi will stage its radio program on Sunday, January 13, over KGRS of Amarillo, Texas. An interesting program has been planned, and those possessing radios are urged to tune in and enjoy a Sunday evening's entertainment. The numbers on the program range all the way from piano solos and readings to jive and French harp novelty music. Don't forget the date, Sunday, January 13.

Foolishness

(By "Slick" and Earl)
We wish you a happy New Year, Health, Wealth and Awkwardness.

We don't make New Year resolutions cause we think that we are living this life like we want it to be lived.

Did everyone get what you wanted for Christmas? If not what are you going to do about it? Give Santa one more chance.

Here's one that actually happened the other day. Earl works in the Auto Hospital of Mr. Harp. The other day a colored boy drove a FORD in the shop and wanted the lizzy examined for fear it might need an operation. Earl pulled up on the crank and remarked: "You have no compression."

The customer: "Yes, sir, I've been looking everywhere for that compression. I don't know where I lost it."

Slick: "What's in a name?"
Earl: "Call me one and I will show you."

Who started this old mistletoe kissing stuff? The hardest that I was ever hit was under a mistletoe by a buttercup. I mean a cup of butter.

To the boys of our school who would like to make some New Year's resolutions:

Do right and fear no man.
Don't write and fear no woman.

Now don't cry, but we are going to have some exams next week. I won't charge you anything for this information but here's a few questions that if you can answer correctly you will pass the exams:
How many is a few?
Where is over yonder?
How old is ancient?
Which way is up?
How far is down?
Which is the longest a piece of rope or a piece of string?
How many colonies were there in the United States in 1400?
How many is a hand full?

A little review in History.
Earl—Why did Columbus discover America?

Slick—He was trying to find a shorter route to India.
Earl—Why didn't he wait until they opened the Panama Canal?

TO THE PEOPLE OF DONLEY COUNTY:

This January 1st terminated my tenure as County Judge, which has continued since September 12, 1923. I was first appointed to fill out an unexpired term, then elected for two consecutive terms.

Donley County has had many judges since its organization and will have numerous others as it continues on through time, but never has it had a man whom has served it in this capacity, and I dare say never will have one, who has considered it more of an honor than I have, or who has appreciated the office more than I.

If, during the time I have been serving you as County Judge, I have rendered you a service, the pleasure has indeed been mine. And I wish to thank you for your kindness, and the privilege you have accorded me in serving you so long in the office.

Yours truly,
J. R. Porter.

Few people realize that wet leather "burns" much more readily than dry leather and often spoil their shoes by putting them, while wet on hot radiators, pipes, or stoves. Shoes should be dried very slowly in a place that is not too hot. They should not become hot to the hand.

To obtain "prime" muskrat pelts, trapping should be done during February or March, when they are at their best and have no dark spots on the flesh side. Pelts of other fur bearers are in the best condition through December and until about the end of January.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this opportunity to thank our many friends for every expression of their sympathy and kindness in the recent illness and death of our loved husband, father and kinsman, Albert Reid, who passed to his reward on Dec. 13th. We especially thank those who provided the floral tributes and we shall ever hold you in memory for your thoughtfulness in this dark hour.

Mrs. Albert Reid and children, M. C. Reid, Leonard Reid, H. M. Reid, Millard Reid and families.

(This card of thanks should have appeared two weeks ago, but was presumably lost in the mails, hence its delay.—Editor.)

NOTICE TO MEMBERS

The annual meeting of the members of the Donley County Mutual will be held in the City Hall on Saturday, January 5th, at 2:00 o'clock. The election of officers and such other business as may transpire will be attended at this time.

NEW YORK-PARIS FASHIONS

HATS are hats these days and no longer just a bit of velvet or felt pulled down over the head in a scuffle fashion. Hats now demand the greatest skill in the making and the greatest taste in the choosing and wearing. The hat sketched at the top is one of Suzanne Talbot's most outstanding designs. It looks simple but it has to be cut and fitted to the wearer's head and then worn with just the right clothes or the result is not so happy. But it is such a gay little hat with its veil and its two great rings of crystal-like shell that it is worth any amount of trouble to have.

Then there are the hats of plain felt such as Rebour makes so beautifully, with their soft careless looking folds turning off the face and down over one ear. These hats of felt are often trimmed at one side with a pin or ornament. When they are worn with formal fashions such as velvet ensembles or the like, these pins are usually jeweled to give a note of elaboration but when the keynote of the costume is simplicity, then the pins are of plain shell or amber-like material for nothing is worse than the glitter of rhinestones at the wrong time.

Varietal names of corn mean little; but knowledge of where a strain has been grown and how it has been selected is all important in choosing seed for planting.

TO GET GOOD CHICKS

Begin now to give special attention to feeding the breeders of the poultry flock, if you want early hatchings and chicks of good quality, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The ration for breeders should have somewhat less corn meal and meat scraps than that for the layers. On the other hand, milk, minerals and green feed are of particular importance in the breeding ration. It is very desirable to have an abundance of vitamins in the breeding ration, and 2 quarts of cod-liver oil added to every 100 pounds of mash will enable the breeders to utilize the minerals in the ration. Direct sunlight is beneficial and all breeders should be allowed outdoors as much as possible. If the ground is covered with snow, keep the windows of the poultry house open whenever possible. Yearling birds usually produce better chicks than pullets, and if fed a good breeding ration during January, February and March should produce hatching eggs of the highest quality.

ADJUST THE SEPARATOR

Great variations in the butterfat tests of cream from a separator can be avoided. Although the butterfat content of cream can be regulated within certain limits by adjusting the cream screw or skimmilk screw, various other factors affect the butterfat test of cream, says the Bureau of Dairy Industry of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. A low speed of the separator bowl results in a low test; the machine should be run at the speed recommended by the manufacturer. Another factor is the rate of flow through the bowl, a reduction in the normal rate of flow from the supply tank to the bowl increasing the separator is a factor. Cold milk flows through the machine more slowly than warm milk and results in a smaller volume of higher testing cream. Finally high testing milk produces higher testing cream than low testing milk.

Always feed the dairy cow at regular hours. Dairy cows are very sensitive to changes in feeding routine.

Dairying Proves Successful in South

By M. B. OATES,
Agriculture Agent, Fort Worth & Denver City Ry. Co.

Last summer (August, 1928) the writer conducted an auto dairy tour to Mississippi and Tennessee to study dairy development in these states. Many of us have accepted the fact that dairy farming is practicable in the northern states but too many of us have not accepted dairy farming in the cotton states as a practicable thing. But Mississippi has accepted dairying wholeheartedly. The cotton farmers are milking cows, the bankers are lending financial assistance both to the farmers and to the milk plants and the merchants and business men are all boosting and cooperating. At first, it was accepted on faith but since dairy farming has proven profitable to all concerned, dairying is now accepted as an essential to profitable farm management.

In Middle Tennessee we found dairying further developed than in Mississippi because this part of Tennessee has been more of a stock farming section than the part of Mississippi which we saw and these stock farmers became dairy farmers long before the Mississippi farmers turned to dairying. Therefore we found that dairy farming in Tennessee had developed further than in Mississippi. Indeed her development has been almost spectacular and I wish to deal particularly with her development in the remainder of this article.

It should be stated now that what we saw in Mississippi and Tennessee convinced us that dairy farming is practicable in Texas. This was the consensus of opinion of our party, which consisted of County Agents, Bankers and Dairymen, and we came to this conclusion after visiting dairymen and milk plants and after conferring with bankers and business men in towns which are reaping profits from these numerous and newly established dairy farms in what was, until recently, an exclusive one-crop cotton section of the state.

Volume of Business.
Mississippi is now producing $18,000,000 worth of dairy products. In 1922 the total dairy business was only $10,000,000 and in 1912 there was no dairy business. There are now twelve cheese factories, four condenseries and twenty-seven creameries in the state. Tennessee is doing about $40,000,000 worth of dairy business per year.

The five towns we visited in Mississippi were paying out nearly $4,000,000 per annum for dairy products. Most of these towns have 1,200 to 1,500 dairymen in their trade territory who are regular patrons of the local milk plants. At Starkville, Miss., the Borden Condensery has 1150 patrons.

Kind of Dairymen.
At the Starkville plant we found that 563 of these patrons were negroes, and we found that all of the milk plants had negro patrons; many of these negroes are tenants. All of them until recently had practiced a system of exclusive cotton farming and since this section of Mississippi has until recently been devoted almost exclusively to cotton it follows that practically all dairymen there are men who have followed the all cotton type of farming. It is remarkable how many in this old exclusive cotton section have taken up dairying as one of their major farm enterprises and found it satisfactory and profitable. None of them will go back to all cotton although most of them are still growing cotton. Dairying Has Proven Profitable.

As indicated by the volume of dairy business done and the general acceptance of dairying by everybody there, one would expect to find the dairymen making money. We found this to be true. The best evidence of this is the fact that the old time credit merchant has gone to a cash basis and is doing more cash business than he did on a credit basis. Bankers told us that bank deposits were increasing rapidly and that saving accounts had increased enormously most of which were farmers savings accounts.

Further evidence that dairying is paying is the fact the number of patrons is constantly increasing at all these plants. Furthermore, new plants are being completed every few months.

We were thoroughly convinced that dairy farming is profitable in Mississippi to the farmer, the merchant, and the banker. We all agreed that Texas farmers, particularly those in north and northwest Texas could accept dairying as a part of their regular farm program with just as good, if not better, results than have the farmers of Mississippi. We find no reason why Texas is not just as well adapted to dairy farming as is Mississippi and Mississippi has certainly proven that the Southern farmer can make money from dairying just as well as can Northern farmers.

Co-operation.
One thing that we remember most vividly about this trip is the whole-hearted co-operation of all business men. Almost any merchant or bank clerk could tell how many thousand dollars per month was being paid out by each milk plant in his town, how many patrons each had, how many thousand pounds of milk was being received daily, etc.

Some of the towns employ a field man whose business it is to co-operate with the milk plant and the county agent in dairy development. When we asked one banker how many field men there were he replied that every business man in town was a field man for the condensery. This appeared to be true of the towns we visited.

The banks generally have made a practice of loaning money on as many cows as the customer already owns. These loans have been highly satisfactory. None of the banks had foreclosed on more than one or two such loans. Several of the bankers have gone into the dairy business on a 50-50 basis with their tenants. The banker furnishes the cows and pays for half the purchased feed and the tenant takes care of the cows, the milk checks are divided 50-50. This has proven profitable in every instance for both landlord and tenant.

Further co-operation was given in every town by the business men generally in taking a cow census and getting all necessary data for the prospective milk plant. And their work was backed up by financing the purchase of as many additional cows as was necessary to insure the required production to induce the milk plant to locate.

When the business men of North and Northwest Texas give their whole hearted support and co-operation to dairy development and take the initiative in loaning money to farmers generally to buy cows as have the bankers, business men and landlords of Mississippi, we will have rapid and general dairy development throughout this section of Texas. And such development and general adoption of dairying in this section will bring just as much prosperity to our towns as it has to the towns in Mississippi and just as much to our farmers as it has to the Mississippi farmers.

A study of conditions in Mississippi such as we made, will convince the banker the farmer and the merchant that dairying is profitable one that the facts we got are applicable in Texas.

Misses Mary Jo Chamberlain and Betty Weatherly spent Friday in Wellington.

Never before in the history of the world has the progress of Medical Science been so rapid. One important discovery after another has been made which will have a far-reaching effect upon the health and well-being of mankind. Some of these discoveries are startling in the extreme and absolutely disprove many of the beliefs, practices and theories we have known for a life-time.

As scientific investigators learn more and more about the human anatomy, the practice of medicine changes—the old is discarded for the new.

As a result of this world-wide medical research, Science has discovered that good health is largely governed and maintained by three vital organs and fluids of the body. These are the liver, the blood and the endocrine glands. What is more important, we have learned that these organs and fluids can be stimulated and invigorated by certain basic elements.

Having knowledge of these important discoveries, one of America's leading bio-chemists, succeeded, after two and one-half years of laboratory research, in

"There is no Substitute for Safety"

SAME PRESCRIPTION HE WROTE IN 1892

When Dr. Caldwell started to practice medicine, back in 1875, the needs for a laxative were not as great as today. People lived normal lives, ate plain, wholesome food, and got plenty of fresh air. But even that early there were drastic physics and purges for the relief of constipation which Dr. Caldwell did not believe were good for human beings.

The prescription for constipation that he used early in his practice, and which he put in drug stores in 1892 under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a liquid vegetable remedy, intended for women, children and elderly people, and they need just such a mild, safe bowel stimulant.

This prescription has proven its worth and is now the largest selling liquid laxative. It has won the confidence of people who needed it to get relief from headaches, biliousness, flatulence, indigestion, loss of appetite and sleep, bad breath, dyspepsia, colds, fevers. At your druggist, or write "Syrup Pepsin," Dept. BB, Monticello, Illinois, for free trial bottle.

combining these basic elements in one formula—which may well be considered one of the greatest health-giving remedies of the age.

It is called Sargon. This formula and the formula for Sargon Soft Mass Pills, which are an essential and integral part of the treatment, are the property of the Sargon Laboratories and can be obtained by no other firm or individual in the world.

This new scientific treatment, which represents much of our latest knowledge on modern therapy, has been acclaimed by druggists throughout America as a triumph in the field of medicine.

With the needs of their customers uppermost in their minds, leading druggists everywhere have been eager to be among the first to supply it to their trade.

Although introduced in the Southwest only a few weeks ago, Sargon has already become a household word. Dallas and Fort Worth alone, over 49,000 bottles of Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills have been sold and distributed by local firms. Nothing like it has ever been seen before.

The agency for Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills for this city and section has been awarded to the Douglas-Goldston Drug Co. In anticipation of the enormous demand, this well-known firm has just received a large shipment of these celebrated medicines.

NEWS' WEEKLY COTTON LETTER

PRICES ADVANCE. DULLNESS CONTINUES

A quiet and steady undertone prevailed in the cotton market during the week, Dec. 22-28, with quotations on Dec. 28th about 3-16 to 1-4 cent higher than those of Dec. 21st.

Dullness prevailed throughout the week in both domestic and foreign markets. According to Weather Bureau the past week was more favorable for harvesting the remnants of cotton in the Northwestern portion of the belt.

Some cotton was said to be remaining in the Arkansas fields and some little in Oklahoma as well as in a few other sections. In Texas plowing and other field work was delayed by cold in west and by wet soil in east.

Quotations for middling, 7-8-inch, cotton Dec. 28th: Norfolk, 19.43; Augusta, 19.19; Savannah, 19.47; Montgomery, 18.60; New Orleans, 19.36; Memphis, 18.70; Little Rock, 18.75; Dallas, 18.65; Houston, 19.25; Galveston, 19.30.

Average these ten markets Dec. 28th, 19.07, compared with 18.88, Dec. 21st and 19.51 for corresponding day a year ago.

In the ten designated markets for the week sales of spot cotton amounted to 76,986 bales compared with 134,129 the previous week and 50,148 the corresponding week last season.

January future contracts for the week at New York advanced 24 points to 20.22, at New Orleans 21 points to 19.56, and at Chicago 18 points to 19.63.

Exports this season to Dec. 28th were 4,701,405 bales against 3,888,157 same period a year ago.

World's takings of cotton to Dec. 21st this season, 9,273,001 bales of which American 6,918,801.

Castoria is a comfort when Baby is fretful. No sooner taken than the little one is at ease. If restless, a few drops soon bring contentment. No harm done, for Castoria is a baby remedy, meant for babies. Perfectly safe to give the youngest infant; you have the doctors' word for that! It is a vegetable product and you could use it every day. But it is in an emergency that Castoria means most. Some night when constipation must be relieved—or colic pains—or other suffering. Never be without it; some mothers keep an extra bottle unopened, to make sure there will always be Castoria in the house. It is effective for older children, too; read the book that comes with it.
