Pfc. Hatfield is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ahart Hatfield who live near Clarendon. ## Monte B. Wolford Bags Jap Plane

A 7th AAF BOMBER BASE IN THE MARSHALLS—Official records of the 7th AAF credit Staff Sergeant Monte B. Wolford with shooting down a Japanese Tony fighter plane, making the kill when the Jap rose from clouds beneath the Liberator bomber in which Wolford is bell turret gunner, during a run over Moen in Truk atoll.

Wolford, who has a 13-year old son, Monte Ray Wolford, attending Lelia Lake High School, was production superintendent of a Troy Laundry in Amarillo when the Japs bombed Pearl Harbor. Thirty-seven years old, he is called "pop" by his fellow crew members, most of them barely out of their teens.

Wolford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Wolford live at Lelia Lake.

"We were flying the coffin corner, or Purple Heart corner (last plane over the target) in a formation that was a bit loose at the tail end," said Wolford, "when a posse of Japs came after us. There were two Hemp fighter-bombers, two Zeke fighters, and the Tony."

"The Tony had our plane spotted, probably thinking we'd be easy to knock off because of the loose formation. I saw him come out of a thin cloud below and back of us and I let him have a burst of fire."

"This moved him over, but only for a minute. He climbed up fast and I poured lead at him as he made straight for us. Then I saw him go into a spin, and I watched as the plane hit the water and exploded, 17,000 feet below us. We never saw the other Jap planes again. I guess they gave up the chase."

Wolford, a crew member of the Liberator "The She Shows It", has attended army schools for chemical, power turret gunner, armor warfare, NCO staff, and master gunnery, and the 7th AAF School of Samurai Extermination in Hawaii.

UNITED STATES WAR EXPENDITURES

For the Fiscal year, 1944, United States War Expenditures were $89,900,000,000, as compared with $75,100,000,000 for 1943—an increase of almost 20 per cent—the War Production Board announces. U.S. War Expenditures amounted to $199,900,000,000 from July 1, 1940, through June 30, 1944.

C. C. May of Amarillo spent over Sunday here with his family.

Beneficial Rains Received Here Past Week

Donley county has been on the receiving end the past week regarding moisture. The total rainfall registered by the official weather station at the Airport shows .90 for the past week with .77 of that amount falling last Thursday.

Different sections of the county reported a much heavier fall, and Clarendon and other parts of the county received a blowing rain Monday night.

The total for the month so far is 2.45 inches at the Airport, although some parts of the county measured as much as 6 inches.

The rain in general was very beneficial to crops even though it has allowed the fields to become over-run with weeds, and caused the farmer to stop his much needed work for a spell. All in all, it pretty well assures a good crop for this section.

Miss Glenda Davis returned home for the week end from Amarillo where she is employed in Phillips Petroleum Co.

RATIONING AT A GLANCE

By PEPPY BLOCKER

"As Americans, we can not do too much for our fighting men and we must not forget the welfare of their dependents at home. . . . We are willing to buy bonds for their sake. We are willing to have our food rationed so that they may have plenty. . . . In fact, we are glad to do anything for the sake of those brave fighting men of our who are enduring all the hardships and discomforts of life, even risking and giving their lives, in order that we, here at home, may continue to enjoy the things that have made America great." . . . Congressman Wright Patman of Texarkana in a recent public address.

Norman Rowell, noted American artist who painted the outstanding pictures of the "Four Freedoms", has done a striking painting of a War Price and Rationing Board which is featured on a double-page spread in the Saturday Evening Post, issue of July 15th, pages 22 and 23. The picture, in color, is a remarkable study in expressions, with an applicant presenting his case to the Board. Underneath the main picture is a series of sketches depicting the varied types of persons who come to the Board throughout the day. An amusing note by the Post editors explains that Rockwell went to the Board wanting something, but not the things that the rest of us try to wheedle out of our Ration Boards. The explanatory note continued, "What I would like," said America's favorite artist, "is the privilege of painting pictures of all you Board members." Could it have been a glow of pleasure, the stirring of some long-suppressed vanity, that seemed momentarily to illumine the seven faces? After all, New Englanders are human. And when Rockwell paints you, the world sees you. At any rate, the Board members consulted one another, reached a decision and in unison nodded to the Artist. "But make us look good, now," they said. In a flash, Rockwell saw his advantage. Living in New England sharpens a man, brings out the trader in him. "If I do," he bargained, "will you give me a B card?" Seven pairs of eyes converged upon the confident half-smiling visitor. Living in New England helps of course, but it doesn't put a man in the same class with people who were born there. "No, but if you don't," said the Board, "we'll take away your A card."

Simple Simon met a pieman, But they had no dealings, "Your price," said Simon to the pieman, "Goes above the ceilings."

SIBLEY FAMILY IN REUNION SUNDAY

For the first time in 6 years, Mrs. A. J. Sibley had all her children home Sunday with the exception of Master Sgt. Euell Sibley who is serving with Uncle Sam in Italy. There are eight children and seven of them were present, with a total of 30 enjoying the occasion.

Those present were Rev. W. S. Sibley and wife of Amarillo; Mrs. C. B. Owens and children of Clarendon; Mrs. W. A. Lewis of Delwin, Texas; Rev. J. M. Sibley and family of Sweetwater; Mrs. Luke Stephenson and children of Panhandle; Guy Sibley and family of Clarendon; H. E. Sibley and family of Amarillo.

GASOLINE FOR THOSE ON FURLOUGH

Members of the armed services on leave or furlough for a period of three days or more will be entitled to one gallon of gasoline for each day of his leave or furlough up to maximum of 30 gallons, the District Office of Price Administration has announced.

Designed to eliminate the unfairness of the existing regulation which granted a flat five gallons to service men regardless of the length of the leave or furlough. It was worked out by OPA in conjunction with representatives of the Army and Navy.

No ration will be granted for passes to Army personnel on liberties to Navy personnel, or for leaves or furloughs of less than three days.

To receive this ration, the service man should apply to the War Price and Rationing Board having jurisdiction over the automobile he expects to drive, and present proper leave or furlough papers.

Miss Glenda Davis returned home for the week end from Amarillo where she is employed in Phillips Petroleum Co.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Methodist Church for Mrs. W. T. Clifford, with Rev. H. W. Hanks, officiating, assisted by Rev. G. T. Palmer.

Mrs. Clifford passed away early Tuesday morning at the Clarendon Clinic, following a quite lengthy illness. She is listed among the old timers of Donley County and her many friends, young and old, were grieved at her passing.

Mrs. Clifford joined the Presbyterian church in 1898 and moved to Callahan County in 1892, and there being no Presbyterian church there, joined the Methodist Church in which denomination she was a faithful and loyal member.

Survivors include three sons, Walter Clifford of Clarendon; George Clifford of Houston and William Clifford of Amarillo. Three daughters, Mrs. Harry Copeland, Ropesville; Mrs. H. B. Spiller, Canadian and Miss Lelia Clifford of Clarendon. Also four brothers and three sisters.

Pallbearers were J. R. Porter, L. N. Cox, B. C. Antrobus, C. C. Powell, S. W. Lowe, and W. E. Ray.

Her body was taken overland to Crowley, Texas for burial Wednesday. Buntin Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

S/Sgt. A. T. Mandril, located at the Roswell, N. M. Army Base, is expected here the last of the week on his furlough, to visit his wife and baby, also parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Warren and family.

Voting in the first primary Saturday July 22nd in Donley county was fairly light and from all indications would have been much lighter had it not rained two days previous to the voting date.

Tabulations of the Donley returns showed the following results of the leading candidates who were elected to office.

Governor Coke R. Stevenson, 1135; Lt. Governor, John Lee Smith 538; Attorney General, Grover Sellers, 491; Congressman, Gene Worley 986 and La Marr Bailey 208, Worley being re-elected to represent this district.

State Representative Ennis Favors, 393; R. L. Templeton, 856. The total in the district gave Favors 4647 and Templeton 4553, this being the most interesting race in this section.

State Senate, Grady Hazlewood 1332, unopposed. District Judge, Luther Grizzle 1319, unopposed; Dist. Attorney, Sam J. Hamilton, unopposed.

Those unopposed in the county races were R. Y. King, county Judge, 1295; County and District Clerk, Helen Wiedman, received the highest individual vote which was 1340. Ruth Richerson was returned as County School Supt., and A. T. Cole was elected County Attorney, Sheriff Tax Assessor-Collector, Guy Wright 1259; Curtis Hanks 114.

The County Treasurer's race was the closest county race with Mrs. Margaret V. Thompson being re-elected with 739 votes and Mrs. Tom Crabtree drawing 645 votes.

Slaton Mahaffey was re-elected commissioner of Precinct No. 1; J. R. Bullis elected Commissioner of No. 2; N. C. Weatherly, Justice of the Peace; C. Huffman, Justice of the Peace, Prec. No. 3.

The office of Commissioner for Precinct No. 3 drew more candidates than any other county office with a second primary runoff between Rollie Kelley and J. A. Tollett. Kelley received 157; Tollett, 224; C. R. Hunsucker, 78; M. W. Mosley, 75.

Marvin Hall was re-elected Commissioner Precinct No. 4.

Arthur L. Chase Jr. Writes Another Interesting Letter From Overseas

EDITORS NOTE—Again it is our pleasure and good fortune to pass to our readers another one of those interesting letters written by Arthur L. Chase Jr., who is somewhere in Italy with a Machine Records Unit. We join with our readers in thanking Arthur for these wonderful trips to Italian beauty spots which most of us can never hope to see.

July 11, 1944

Dear folks,
I received your June 28 letter

today, and I was so happy to hear from you, for it had seemed longer than usual since I have heard from anyone. As usual I am way behind schedule on my writing, too.

Recently I had another really wonderful break. I was the first in the unit to be sent to rest camp on the Isle of Capri, and believe me that place really earns its reputation. I went expecting to find only a very pleasant recreation resort, but I was amazed to find that it is probably the most beautiful single spot I have ever seen. If you can imagine a combination of all the grandeur of Yosemite; the general atmosphere of Catalina Island, (which incidentally now stands revealed to me as an intentional, though not a completely successful imitation of Capri); all of the much-advertised charm of the so-called "Old World"; water of an indescribable shade of blue, so clear that you can see the bottom hundreds of yards out, as warm as tub-water, and at times as calm as a swimming pool; a distinctive race of care-free, happy, friendly, clean people, in contrast to the filth of the Arabs and lower-class Italians to which I have grown accustomed; and a night life similar to what the Mardi Gras must be like, —all that crammed together on a little island about a mile wide and six miles long is why song-writers and poets seem to go a little goofy when they start writing about Capri. Gosh, what a place. I had only two days and three nights on the island, which was about the equivalent of taking a day-trip to Catalina, but being non-combatant, I was lucky to ever get there at all.

Among other things, it was the first time I had suffered the luxury of sleeping on an inner-spring mattress since I left home, and I must admit that I will probably have to put up an army cot in my room and break myself in gradually to the finer things of life when I finally do get home. I had a beautiful double room with a fellow from the Headquarters Squadron with beautifully polished blue tile floor, lavatory, and a large terrace overlooking a large part of the island and the sea. Incidentally, the moon was full while I was there, so everything was just about perfect.

I took a two-hour motor-launch trip around the island the first morning I was there, and I don't know when I have ever seen so much magnificent scenery in so short a time. The island consists of two huge masses of rock rising in most places absolutely vertically out of the water to a height of as much as 2000 feet, and in between the two masses, the resort area rises in a little hump from the dock to the town of Capri which is scattered among vineyards and fruit orchards on top of a low hill, which drops off rapidly to the little swimming beaches on the open sea. This whole area is dotted with rambling hotels and expensive private villas, and the village itself has the little meandering alleys for streets and all the other appeal of the Casbah of Algiers, but without the filth and the stench and the Arabs. I spent both afternoons at the beach, which was a little disappointing as a beach, for there was no sand and it was very small, but the water was perfect. I rented a wooden kayak to get out beyond the rocks for swimming, and I had a marvelous time paddling around in it and trying to keep it from turning over. It's the ideal boat, for it is unsinkable, and you can even bring it in with the compartment you sit in completely full of water.

There are a number of interesting old Roman ruins on the island, for it was also a pleasure resort for the ancient Romans, but I didn't take time to make the special trips necessary to see them at close range since my time was so limited, but I did take one trip by horse and carriage up a wonderful switchback road to the little town of Anacapri, which is located on top of the highest mass of rocks on the island and saw a very famous little chapel which has a painting of the garden of Eden glazed into its floor.

I almost forgot to mention the famous blue Grotto, which I saw during the boat trip around the island. As a cave it isn't much, for it is very small and has but few stalactite formations, but its claim to fame is the manner in which the light of the sun reflects through an underwater opening coloring the water and even the walls an unbelievably beautiful shade of blue. To get in, you must transfer from the motor launch to a small rowboat, and it is necessary to lie flat in the boat while it is pulled by a chain through a little opening about three feet in diameter. When the water is rough, they say it is impossible to get in at all. I had, of course, heard of the place all my life, but I was completely unprepared, for the coloring is something that cannot be described with words, a paint-brush, or even a color photograph; it just has to be seen to be believed.

THE TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

PROMOTION.
We have just learned from a government bulletin that there are 350 plants in our nation that will produce rubber, not including some of the beefsteak we have been getting at times during the past few months. But, after all, nothing yet has been found to produce the popular 6:50x16 size.

INGENUITY.
A wise old Texas farmer has been spending a lot of time trying to cross an onion with a cabbage to produce hamburger material. He finally wound up by discovering the material being used in present day cigars.

INSIDE SPORTS.
A man reflects after having a hearty meal and sitting before a comfortable pipe. A woman reflects before a mirror.

HEAP OF LIVIN'
After having been turned down by the girl of 16, the old man of seventy felt keenly the condemnation of the disparity of ages by the girl, but promptly came back with: "Alright little girl, I'll wait!"

FULLER PRODUCTS.
Up north where they are more numerous, the Republicans are starting Dewey mustache clubs. They evidently want something in November to show for their money, even if they have to produce it themselves.

SOXLESS DAYS.
It gave her a pain. Every time it would rain—A fact most shocking! But that slender peg. Was only her bare leg. With no mud on her stocking.

With this fine, cool weather and plenty of moisture, there will be more fall gardens planted in old Donley county than ever before. Believe it or not, we have had some 64 nights and 78 degree days the past week. Old Donley leads in everything.

F. Murphy which won the $2500 in the Lewis and Clark Northwest contest is to be published soon.

Random House is holding a prize contest open to members of the armed forces, active or discharged, for "the best book on the general subject of the return and readjustment to civilian life." The prize is $2500 and it may be either fiction or non fiction. Closing date is May 31, 1945.

A new book which is getting much attention is "Watching the World" by Raymond Clapper, edited by Mrs. Raymond Clapper. It is an account of the outstanding events of the crucial years from 1934 to 1944 as seen by this noted columnist whose death in an airplane accident in the Pacific area in February was a distinct loss to the eager news-hungry public.

The biographical sketch in the book by Mrs. Clapper tells of her life in the home over the store in Kansas City while Ray worked in the store, of their early marriage and then their determination to "get an education" which they did by working their way through the University of Kansas—and then on to success. It is a splendid illustration of the possibilities of life in America to one willing to work for the thing he wants.

Somerset Maugham's "Christmas Holiday" has been filmed and is being a great success. That could be possible by doing much "eliminating."

Again Walt Disney's "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" is gaining crowds at the movies. This story from "Grimm's Fairy Tales" which was published a century ago has been translated into every civilized language and its readers are numbered by the millions. And so are its screen admirers.

Mrs. Clyde Butler has returned home from a weeks visit with her sons Earl and Glen Butler and families at Claude.

Lois Underdown and Thyria Haley who are telephone operators at Amarillo visited homefolks the weekend.

LIBRARY NOTES

By Mrs. C. A. Burton

"O, for a book and a shady nook!" We can not always supply the shady nook these hot July days, but that people enjoy our books was testified by the fact that they took out 180 of them last Saturday afternoon. We have them both "grave and gay"—war stories and love stories—fact and fiction.

A charming one of the latter class is a story given us this last week by the Book Club—"Look to the Hills" by Marguerite Lyon. It will help you to lose sight of war and worry.

Never have mysteries been more in demand, probably because fiction is so much like fact and fact so much like fiction these days, and each day so full of exciting possibilities and probabilities. The writers are making the most of these chances.

"A Tree Grows in Brooklyn" continues to be a best seller, and now Betty Smith, its author, has put Ellen Pryor's historical novel about the Mormons, "And Never Yield" into a play. The producer hopes to have the play ready by fall.

Not only is the adult world vision being enlarged by stories of people to the ends of the earth but the same is true with the children. Pearl Buck has a new juvenile about China, "The Dragon Fish." This is one of the many interesting juveniles about many lands.

Reference has been made to the fourth Thomas Jefferson Southern Award contest which carries a $2500 prize, and closes Feb. 1, 1945. The 1944 award was for "Taps for Private Tussie" by Jesse Stuart, which has sold more than 400,000 copies. The Ladies Home Journal paid the highest price known for the serial rights, and M. G. M. paid a high price for the film rights, so we will see it later. "The Glittering Hill" by Clyde

MOOS OF THE MOMENT
BY UNCLE BOB
of the Kraft Dairy Farm Service

This is National Farm Safety Week, and I'm reminded that a fellow who leaves a chunk of his right hand in a sickle bar or a corn husker is bound to have trouble keeping up with his rapid-milking program, among other things.

Of course there is no single season of the year when a farmer should give more thought to being careful and avoiding accidents—that's an every day job, like milking. National Farm Safety Week, sponsored by the National Safety Council, just needs to focus attention on the need for care in your daily work.

Most accidents are avoidable. If you'd like to have a check list of good, sensible safety rules, you'll find 23 items tabulated in the latest issue of the Producers' Edition of the Kraftman.

supposed to be pinned to dress uniforms, she says.

I don't know anything more discouraging than to see a lot of work go up in smoke. Maybe you've watched the results of spontaneous combustion in your haymow, with loss of hay and barn. Purdue has a suggestion of how to forestall such loss, simply by taking the hay's temperature.

Use a half inch pipe, with a pointed plug in one end. Drill a series of 3/4 inch holes in the side of the pipe, above the plug. Push the pipe into the hay and lower a thermometer into the pipe, leaving it in long enough to record actual temperature.

Purdue says at 150 degrees, the hay is entering the danger zone. At 160 degrees, inspect every four hours. At 175, stop all ventilation and call fire department for standby service. At 185, remove hot hay and have a fire department pumper ready to quench flames which probably will develop when air comes in contact with the hay.

Hay is almost sure to ignite at 210 degrees. I suggest you write the Extension Service at Lafayette, Indiana, for Leaflet 229 which gives a complete discussion of spontaneous combustion.*

Speaking of the Kraftman, among the interesting items in the latest issue is a step-by-step plan for building a practical low-cost milk house. You'll want a copy and I'll be glad to mail one. Drop a note to Uncle Bob at 500 Peachtree Court, Chicago. Or ask your Kraft fieldman for a copy.

How much and what to feed dry cows probably is something you are studying at this time. The extension service at the University of Missouri says the amount of milk a cow will produce in her lactation period depends greatly on her condition at freshening time.

Feeding during the time a cow is dry is just as important as is proper feeding while the cow is producing milk. She should have good pasture or be fed hay and silage at approximately the same rate as a cow being milked, Missouri Circular 405 says.

Probably we have not handed enough bouquets to the women for their part in the farmer's war job. We believe, like the Maine farmer, in giving credit where due. Someone told him that Andrew Carnegie came to America with 25c in his pocket but died leaving an estate of $250,000,000. "Must have married a mighty saving woman," the Downeaster commented.

Nebraska covers the same subject in Circular 627, pointing out that any additional fat that a cow adds to her body while dry is a reserve upon which she will draw after freshening. Nebraska says just before calving a cow should weigh 100 to 200 pounds more than during lactation.

I think you'll find both of these bulletins interesting. Write the extension services at the University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo., and the University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Nebraska.*

You may be working on preparation of seedbeds now for small grains and for pastures. Wisconsin circular 338 has some helpful ideas on this subject.

This bulletin says land which has been used for peas, soybeans, or cultivated crops need not be plowed but worked with a disc, spring tooth or field cultivator. A reasonably smooth seedbed, loosened to a depth of two or three inches, should be made for planting small grains.

Sods or areas badly infested with quackgrass need plowing now and should be worked immediately. The bulletin can be obtained from the University of Wisconsin Extension Service, Madison, Wisconsin.*

A lady correspondent of ours says the reason they haven't hung any medals on the dairy farmer is because no dairy farmer has time to put on his Sunday best, these days. Medals are

IN MEMORIAM

(Dedicated to the memory of my friend, Mrs. W. T. Clifford)

On the twenty-fourth of July My dear friend has passed to the sweet by and by. She was a friend to all indeed, And helped any one in need.

Her life was full of usefulness— A trait we all should possess. She has crossed the last dark stream so wide;

Her Saviour was right by her side. Her heart was full of christian grace; At church she was found right in her place.

Her work, her influence, will still go on

In the heart of friends, and in her home. Let's not grieve for her, for that is best,

For we have no doubt but that she is at rest.

—Mrs. W. T. Lowe.

NEW PARATROOPERS' BAZOOKA NOW IN USE

A new bazooka has been born. This was disclosed today by the War Department and officials of General Electric.

The new gun has the same general appearance as its older rocket-launching brother, except that it is of knockdown construction and the barrel may be carried in two pieces. The use of dry-cell batteries for firing also has been eliminated and a new sight greatly improves accuracy. It was designed to be used by paratroopers and saw its first action during the invasion of France.

General Electric has manufactured the bazooka from its inception, since the first crude model was submitted by Army Ordnance experts.

Better Inspection Of Truck Tires

Better inspection of truck tires to make sure that no tire goes out of service before it has given its last mile of wear was announced today by the District Office of Price Administration in an action restricting authority for inspections to stations having facilities and personnel capable of doing a thorough, specialized job.

Effective July 25, this provision became necessary because the truck tire situation is extremely critical and is becoming more so, District Rationing Executive J. Doyle Settle said. Tires now in use must be given every care, including expert inspection and servicing, and replacements can be permitted only when absolutely necessary, he said. Officials from the District Office have been inspecting stations to see which are qualified for official inspection stations under this provision.

By this new action, two types of tire inspections — official truck and passenger tire inspection stations and official passenger tire inspection stations—will be designated. The District Office, Fonville said, must be satisfied the premises are operated by a person who will comply with instructions for making proper inspections. The stations must have qualified persons experienced in servicing the tires inspected, the necessary tools and equipment, and in the case of official truck and passenger er tire inspection stations, space to store tires for a 30-day period. Official passenger tire inspection stations will inspect only tires of relatively small sizes, including those for farm tractors and wagons, and implements, passenger automobiles and passenger tires used on equipment.

Official truck and passenger tire inspection stations will inspect all types of tires for replacements. In addition, they will make periodic inspections of commercial motor vehicles and trucks required by ODT.

Wheat Dollars For War Bonds

For the third successive season wheat farmers of the Great Plains are reaping a bumper crop and more dollars are pouring from the combine spouts than ever before in history.

From the high plains of the Texas Panhandle northward thru Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska and on into the Dakotas and Montana the golden harvest, this "miracle" wheat crop, will siphon a jack-pot of a billion and a half dollars into the pockets of the growers. This amazing billion-bushel crop is bringing an average of $1.45 per bushel, a far cry from the big yield of 1931 when the price went as low as 25 cents.

Wheat farmers will use this money for four things:

- 1. Pay debts
2. Buy more land
3. Make investments
4. Purchase consumer goods

After two record crops at top prices, however, the farmers have just about liquidated their indebtedness. Land is hard to get and land speculation is boosting land prices. It is a risky business at best, as witness the sorry spectacle which followed World War I. There is little consumer goods for purchase. At best it is ersatz goods and at war time prices.

That leaves investments, and the best investment in the world today is War Bonds. This huge wheat crop is going to be a big factor in winning the war, for after all food is a most vital weapon and this wheat crop is a big break for the United Nations war effort. So the wheat farmer is already helping to win the war.

Why not, however, help more, and at the same time help yourself by taking advantage of War Bonds as the best investment in the world.

War Bonds are the one big opportunity for wheat farmers today.

I'm a terrible SHERLOCK HOLMES

PLEASE HELP ME!

I'M AN EXPERT, when it comes to checking tires for inflation, cuts and bruises, and re-capping . . . and I'm even more of an expert at lubricating cars, of any age and make, right from front bumper to tail-light.

But when it comes to catching counterfeit gasoline ration coupons, I'm a washout! Believe me, every service station man in the country tries, because it is his patriotic duty. We know that oceans of oil are needed to win the war, and we know that unless the black market in gasoline is broken, there may not be enough to go 'round.

So, help me and help yourself and your Uncle Sam, by endorsing the face of every coupon in your possession.

Don't take any gasoline coupons from anyone as a gift! Don't accept gasoline at any price without giving up coupons! And use the legal gasoline you buy for essential driving only!

I have asked you to help me; in return, I'll be glad to help you. Bring your car in any time for the many Tire-Saving and Car-Saving services I offer. Some are free, and some carry a small charge for materials and labor. But they are a big aid in making your car and your tires last longer and go further.

You'll find me at the Orange and Black 66 Shield, the famous sign of Phillips 66 Gasoline and Phillips 66 Motor Oil.

The proudest title in the Army

IT CONSISTS of two simple words.

Yet every soldier who's worth his salt covets it.

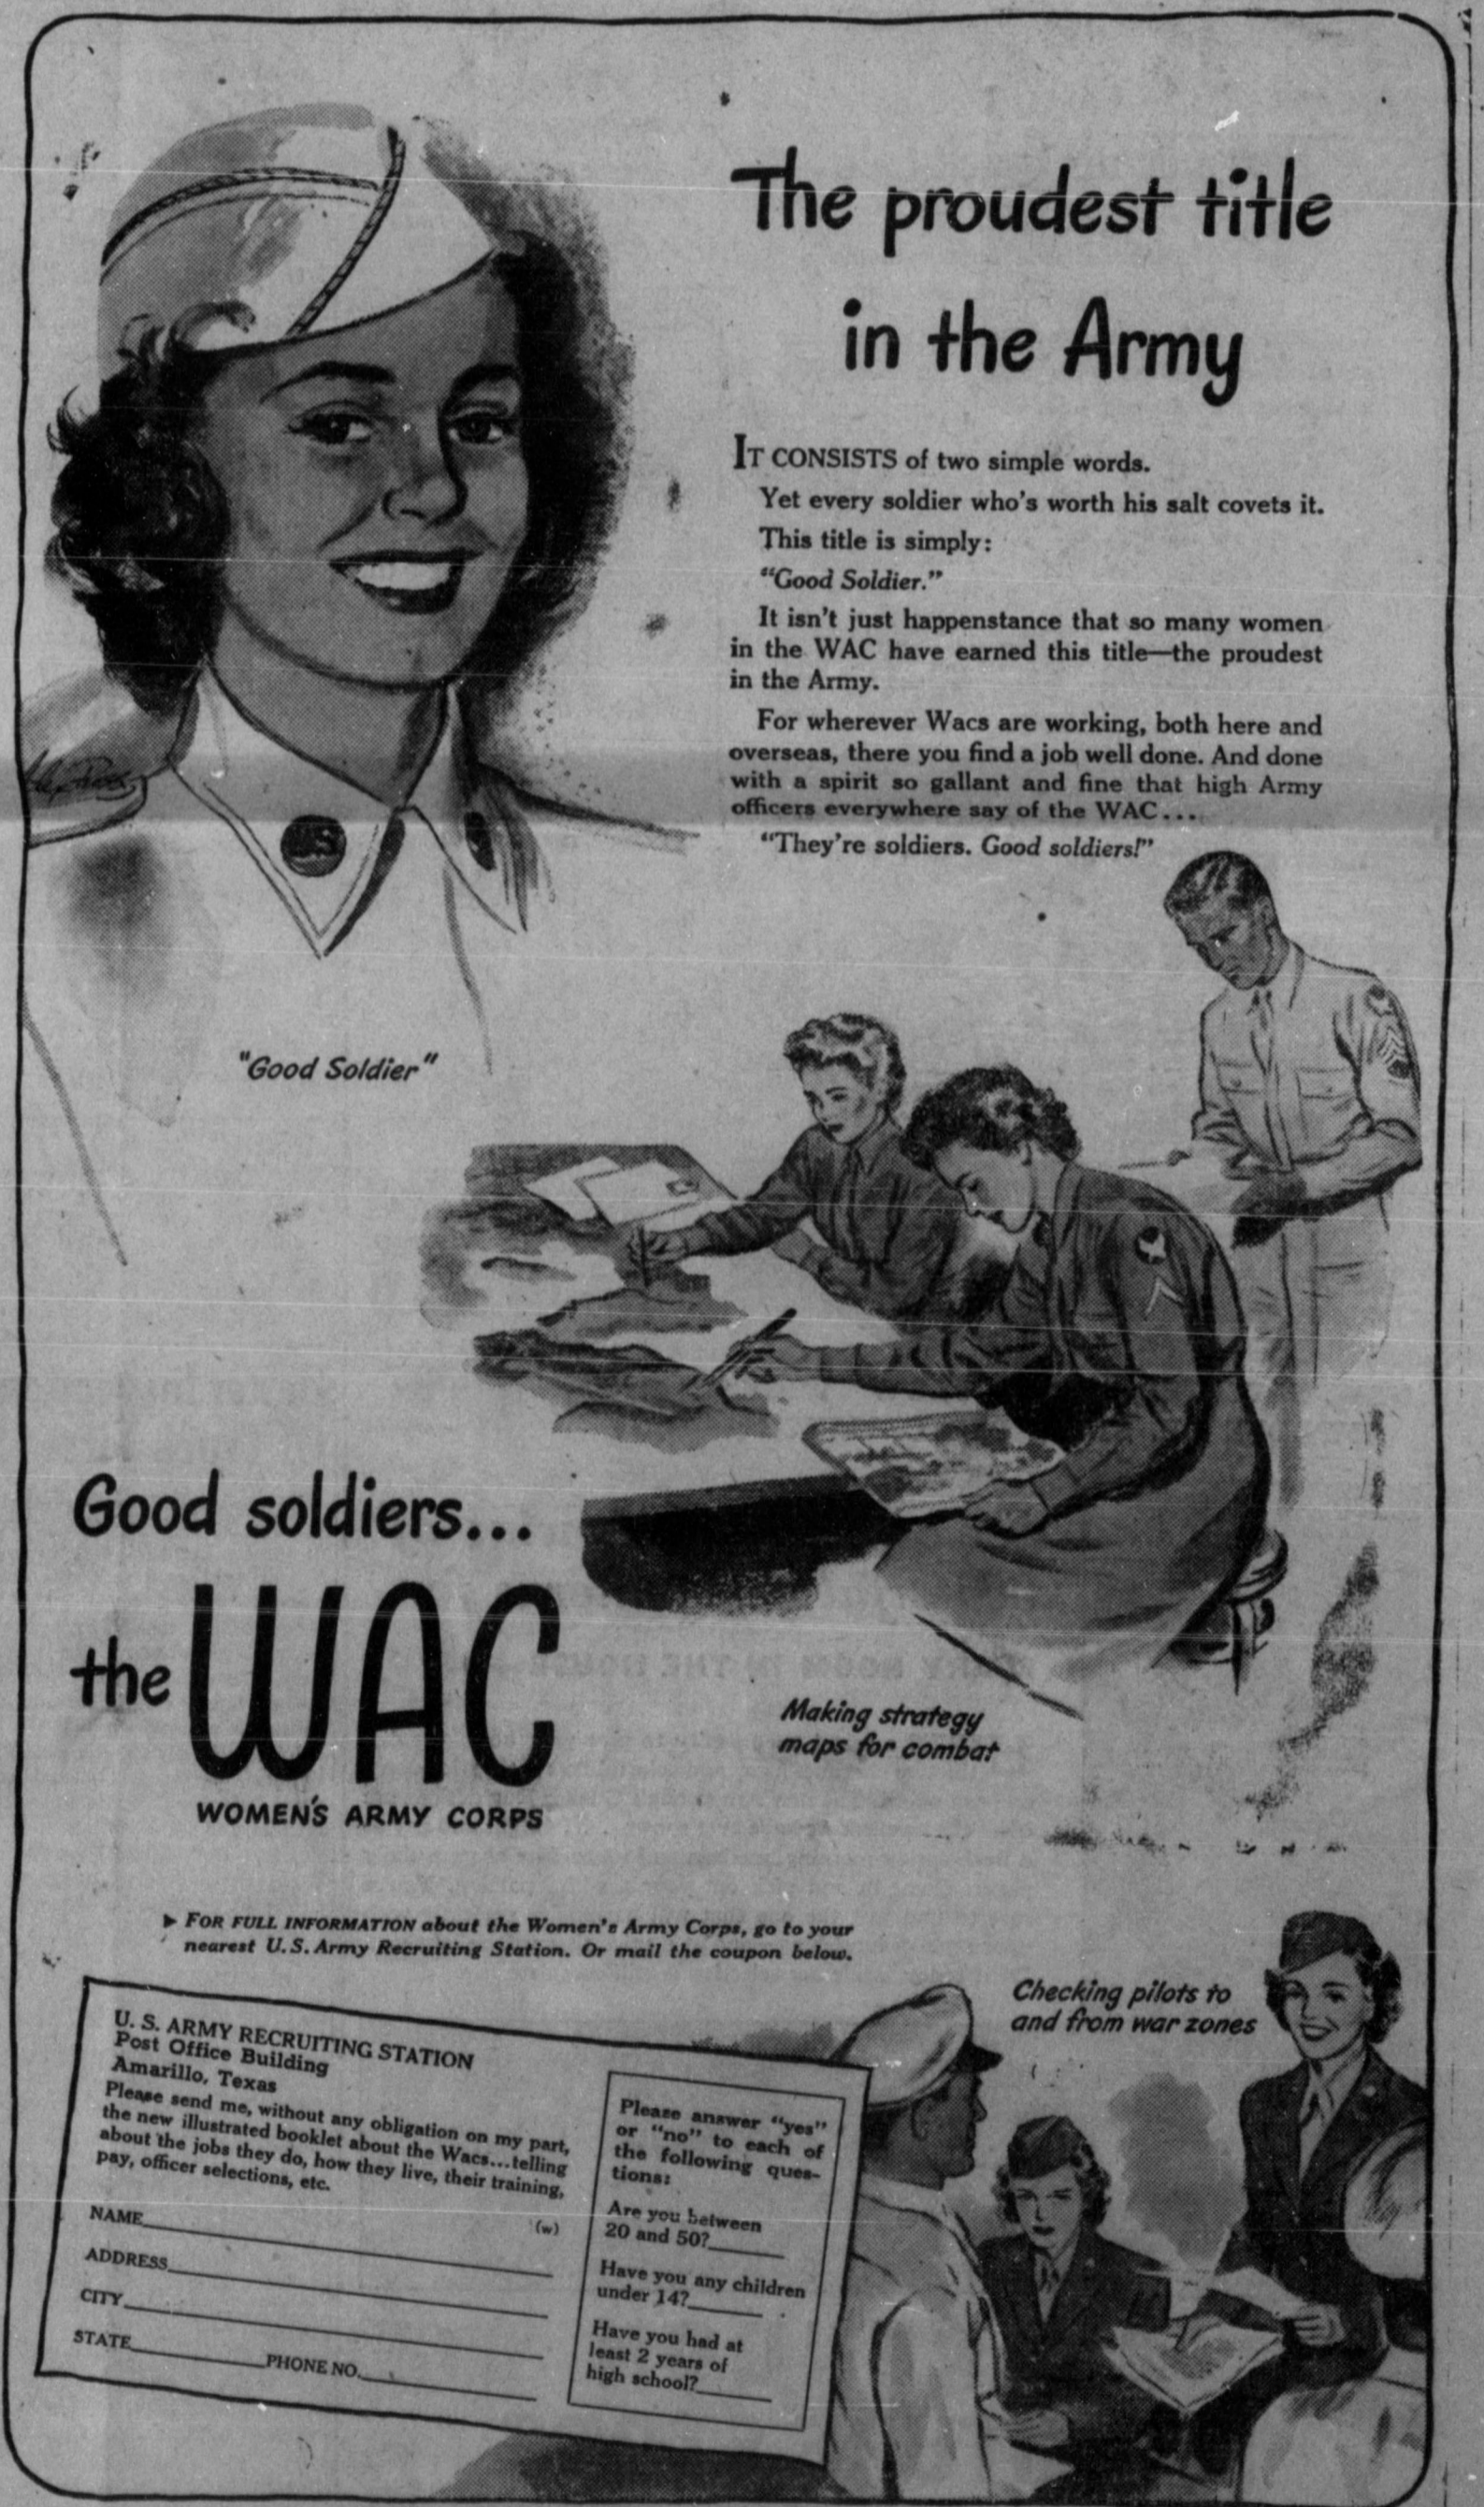

This title is simply:

"Good Soldier."

It isn't just happenstance that so many women in the WAC have earned this title—the proudest in the Army.

For wherever Wacs are working, both here and overseas, there you find a job well done. And done with a spirit so gallant and fine that high Army officers everywhere say of the WAC...

"They're soldiers. Good soldiers!"

"Good Soldier"

THE TEXAN'S SHARE in the WAR

The old lyric "There's Something About a Soldier" might well be changed to "There's Something About a Texan". There very definitely is something about the way a Texan fights.

When his company was pinned down in a ditch in Italy and faced extermination by counter-attacking Germans, Logan singlehandedly routed the Nazis with his M-1 rifle—then he staged a one-man charge, dashed 200 yards through a hail of bullets, dived into the middle of an enemy machine gun nest and killed two gunners - - when the remaining Germans fled, he turned their own gun on them and killed several—then he smashed the gun and "went home", taking with him several prisoners.

An hour later, after a Nazi sniper had killed several of his buddies, Jimmy charged the house where the sniper was hiding, shot the lock off the door, and beat the German "superman" to the first shot. He topped off his fighting day by voluntarily leading three reconnaissance patrols deep into enemy territory.

Quite a lad, Jimmy Logan of Luling.

Another Texan, Colin Ray Sutton of Taylor, made quite a fighting record almost by accident. The former Taylor Hi football star, whose Marine unit was supposed to be in reserve, volunteered to keep a front-line watch for a worn-out pal. When Jap night-prowlers surprised their slit-trench, he and two other Marines wiped out the Japs with rifle fire. Meanwhile, on other fronts other Texans were making history:

Capt. Edwin Dalrymple of Llano won the Distinguished Flying Cross for leading a flight of four Spitfires against 12 Messerschmitt 109's over Pantelleria. During the scrap the Texan shot down one Nazi, his wingman got another and his flight disrupted the entire German formation.

The flyers celebrated that night by sitting calmly through a USO camp show, apparently getting a bigger kick out of the comedy than they had out of the day's fighting.

S/Sgt. John Wilhelm, a Kerrville boy, is back in Texas, one of several hundred Texans recovering from wounds at McCloskey General Hospital. He was wounded by a mortar shell in Italy.

The Texas veterans of the Fighting 36th, by the way, are being royally treated at the hospital. Among other things, they are regularly entertained by show troupes sent out over the "hospital circuit" by USO, an agency of the National War Fund. Thus the Texas lads are drawing big dividends on the $5,000,000 given the National War Fund last year by home-front Texans.

A news dispatch from Saipan reports "in the thick of the fighting was a unit led by Marine Maj. Tom Gaines of New Braunfels". Major Gaines unit is supposed to do engineering work, but so far they've never missed a fight. At Saipan they're fighting as infantry.

Cpl. Bill Curry of Denison and Cpl. Bill Marshall of Bonham were in the first wave to land in France - - And eighteen Texans were in the Navy's Air Group 5 which destroyed 428 Jap planes recently in the Pacific. They were Lt. Comdr. E. E. Stobbins, Dallas; Lt. H. H. Taylor, Sulphur Springs; Lt. B. L. Taylor, Ft. Worth; Lt. Jack Hestlow, Gainesville; Lt. Lester Recktor, Breckenridge; Lt. S. O. Johnson, Sherman; Ens. L. E. Bonson, Commerce; Ens. Hamilton D. Hearne, Perryton; Ens. L. M. Cauble, El Paso; Ens. T. R. Royster, Wichita Falls; C. F. Laws, Aviation machinist mate, first class, Houston; William E. Corbin, Jr., aviation radioman second class, San Angelo; Louis L. Fonton, aviation radioman second class, Houston, and James D. Harvey, Orange.

War causes costs to go up. Your dollar buys less of almost everything... it takes plenty more of them to run your business and your home. Taxes have soared, but one thing that remains the same is your electricity. Your dollar buys twice as much electricity for your home as it did in 1939. Today your electricity is carrying two jobs... a war job and its regular job of peace. You are asked not to be wasteful in its use, but in spite of this double task your electricity has been there when and where you wanted it... there is never any "standing in line."

West Texas Utilities Company

WORTH WHILE COMMENTS

BY COUNTY AGENT
Charles O. Reed

The Texas spring pig crop, representing the period December 1, 1943 to June 1, 1944, nosed dived from the high total of 1943. As forecast by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, USDA, Austin, it is 35 per cent less than the record number in the corresponding period one year ago.

Specifically, the Texas spring crop is estimated at 1,392,000 head compared to 2,148,000 in the preceding year, yet is 22 per cent greater than the 1933-1942 ten year average. The crop was from an estimated 240,000 sows farrowing with an average of 5.8 pigs saved per litter. Comparatively, the record number of 364,000 sows farrowing in the preceding spring saved 5.9 pigs per litter.

This heavy reduction suggests to E. M. Regenbrecht, swine specialist for the A&M College Extension Service, that many growers were stampeded into reducing the 1944 production far below the goals asked by the government. A further reduction is foreshadowed, according to the Crop Reporting Board of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The number of sows to farrow in Texas during the fall period was indicated by breeding intention reports at 194,000 head. This would represent a decrease of 40 per cent from farrowings in the similar period one year ago.

The War Food Administration asked the producers of the nation for not less than 95,000,000 hogs this year. If production is below this figure the quotas for the combined needs of the armed forces, lend-lease and home consumption will not be reached. Regenbrecht believes that the feed outlook is sufficiently encouraging to make unnecessary further drastic reduction in hog production.

Although the expected cotton crop will be one of the smallest in Texas' history, other grain yields will be of record proportions. The yields of oats and barley were double those of 1943, and the production of grain sorghums is expected to be unusually large. Much of the land normally planted to cotton is growing sorghums.

Regenbrecht recommends that each farmer survey his available feed supplies and the facilities he has for efficient hog production, and then plan to produce as many hogs as he can feed and care for properly within those limitations.

MRS TOM CRABTREE THANKS VOTERS

CROWS BUILD NEST OF WIRE ON HIGHLINE CROSS BAR

Chas. Lowry, manager of the West Texas Utilities Company and B. G. Watson, local lineman for the company, removed a crows nest from the cross bars on the Utility highline about two miles east of town and found the nest to be made mostly out of scrap wire of all descriptions. It weighed a little over ten pounds. The Utility company had been having trouble with their private telephone line and believe now that the crows nest had been causing short circuits at various times.

Another crows nest is said to be located on the 33,000 volt line between Lelia Lake and Hedley. This one hasn't been removed yet as the power will have to be cut before a lineman can get to the nest as it is built on top of the cross bar arm holding the 33,000 volts. Several crow carcasses are lying beneath the pole, showing signs that they had been electrocuted.

If you care to view the 10 pound nest, drop by the Utility office and you can see it in their display window.

EXPRESSES THANKS TO DONLEY PEOPLE

To The Democratic Voters of Donley County:

THANKS

Although the only candidate seeking to be nominated by you for the office of District Judge of the 100th Judicial District of Texas, I appreciate your vote, and shall do all within my ability to merit your confidence.

It being the desire of every one of us to win the war and get our boys back home at the earliest possible date, it was and is my purpose not to use anything unnecessarily that is needed or used by any branch of the armed forces; in carrying out that purpose I made no personal visits in the district.

I trust that it may be my privilege to meet and know each one of you individually. Again.

THANKS.

Luther Gribble
