DEMOCRATS ENDORSE ROOSEVELT, GARNER AND NAME DELEGATES

Relection of President Roosevelt and Vice-President Garner was endorsed in a resolution unanimously adopted by the Brown county Democratic convention, held in district court room Tuesday afternoon. No instructions other than the resolution were given the 13 delegates from the county who will go to the state Democratic convention in San Antonio May 26.

Speakers at the county convention in expressions of the policy of Brown county Democrats, said that they did not believe that any Democrat should be "read out of the party." "If a member wants to take a walk, let him walk, but there is no need to read him out of the party," one speaker said.

President Roosevelt's measures for relief were heartily endorsed by C. L. McCartney, member of the state Democratic advisory board and county delegate.

In speaking of Roosevelt's administration, he said "The mistakes he has made are infinitesimal in comparison with the great good he has accomplished."

Senator E. M. Davis quoted the President's statement that if he were right 60 per cent of the time he would be happy.

"Texas can give him a much better score than that," the Senator declared.

Davis predicted that if Roosevelt is reelected every unemployed man will be employed in constructive conservation work before the end of his second term. Other speakers were Representative Courtney Gray, Jas. C. White, and T. R. Haylins, who presided in the absence of Chairman T. H. Taylor.

Delegates who will go from this county to the State convention were named as follows:

W. H. Thompson, H. G. Lucas, E. M. Davis, Courtney Gray, T. R. Haylins, Mrs. J. W. Trap, James C. White, E. B. Henley, Jr., C. L. McCartney, W. R. Chambers, S. C. Findley, Leroy Preston and Leonard Bird.

Alternates named were: L. D. Hillyer, J. H. Busbet, Wood Shelton, J. M. Hicks, O. C. Pouns, Jr., W. D. Pearce, E. J. Miller, R. L. McLaugh, C. V. Harriss, T. O. Hurst, J. M. Moore, George McHan, and E. J. Woodward.

COTTON APPLICATION DEADLINE IS MAY 20

All farmers who wish to file applications for the cotton price adjustment payment which will bring the price up to 12 cents must have their applications in the office of County Agent C. W. Lehmburg by Wednesday, May 20, according to Mr. Lehmburg. Payments will be delayed indefinitely on applications made after the May 20 deadline, the county agent said.

He urges that all farmers who have not yet filed applications get them in his office at once. The office will be open every day after May 13, the last day on which meetings for signing work sheets are scheduled and all cotton growers should come to his office to make the cotton applications immediately after that date.

DR. TAYLOR WILL BE DEMOCRATIC SPEAKER

Officers of the Brown County Young Democrats Club are expecting a large attendance at the monthly meeting of the organization Thursday night. At that time the matter of sending delegates to the state convention of the Young Democrats will be discussed.

Dr. Thomas H. Taylor, president of Howard Payne College, will be principal speaker. The meeting will be held in district court room at 8 o'clock.

Instructor Earhart Soon to Have 'Flying Lab'

Pictured above helping Capt. G. W. Haskins in his lecture on aerodynamics in a Purdue University classroom, Amelia Earhart, first woman to fly the Atlantic, soon will have a "flying laboratory" all her own. In a huge plane now under construction at Burbank, Calif., the ace aviatrix will hop about the world, for "field tests," when not using the plane for experimental work at Purdue's airport. Her craft—a twin-motored, 10-passenger, low-wing monoplane, equipped with extra gas tanks, robot pilot, de-icing appliances, radio "homing" device, and all other aids to aerial navigation—was purchased by means of a $50,000 fund contributed by members of the Purdue Research Foundation.

3,000 SCHOOL CHILDREN IN DISTRICT SINGING MEET AT MEMORIAL HALL ON MONDAY

MORE than 3,000 school children joined in singing "The Eyes of Texas" at the close of a district singing meet held at Memorial Hall Monday afternoon in preparation for a program to be held at the Centennial Exposition in Dallas June 13, when 50,000 school children all over the state, singing songs of Texas and Texas history, will form the largest chorus ever known in the history of the world.

Students representing schools in Brown, Comanche, Eastland, Erath, Hamilton, Lampasas, McCulloch, Mills, and San Saba counties, attended the meet here, which was under the direction of Miss Nell Parnley, co-director of rural education. From the number who participated in the singing Monday, 2,500 will be selected to represent this district in the mammoth chorus to be formed at Dallas in June. Students from every county in the state will take part in the huge Centennial celebration.

For the district singing meet the singers were divided into junior and senior choruses. The program followed included songs by both groups and the final song was sung by the entire body singing as one chorus. Except for scattered sections in the top balconies the entire auditorium was occupied by the visiting students and their sponsors. A number of uniformed choral clubs from schools in the district added to the color of the affair.

Similar singing meets are being held all over the state in preparation for the program at Dallas, which is to be broadcast over a world-wide radio hook-up. Mrs. E. Beal, of Dallas of the Centennial Exposition publicity staff, spoke briefly to the assembled students, outlining the program for the Centennial chorus. Every precaution will be taken to insure the safety of the school children who are in Dallas on that day to participate in the chorus, she said. The singers will have the right-of-way in every case, and special patrolmen and police will be on duty to see that the singers are taken care of.

State Superintendent L. A. Woods, here for the program, told the students that the Centennial program is the greatest opportunity they probably ever will have to take part in something really worthwhile. Superintendent Woods was introduced by City Superintendent E. J. Woodward.

Mr. Woodward presided at the opening of the program. He introduced Chester Harrison, Secretary of Brownwood Chamber of Commerce, who welcomed the students to Brownwood. Freddie Martin of Dallas, member of the Stamps Quartette, played piano accompaniments for the songs and gave two accordion numbers.

Other members of the quartette, which sang "Whoopee Ti Yi Yo," and "The Old Chisholm Trail," with students joining in at the choruses, are V. O. Stamps, Harley Lester and Alphas LeFevre.

Miss Opal Gilstrap of Brownwood, deputy state superintendent, who made local arrangements for the program, was introduced by Mr. Woodward. Others introduced were S. G. Bowen of San Angelo, deputy state superintendent, and A. D. Roach, county superintendent of Tarrant county.

Among the special numbers on the program were selections by the Bangs Whistling Chorus and a solo by Miss Martha Johnson.

COMMITTEE TO PLAN FOR WELFARE WORK

Announcements of the program arranged for the meeting and reservation cards were mailed out to members of the clubs of Texas this week by officials of the local organization, which is making all arrangements for the convention.

The letter containing the announcements, signed by T. E. Denman, Brownwood, who is chairman of the state convention committee, was mailed to approximately 2,000 members of Lions Clubs from Texas and Louisiana. Convention headquarters will be at Hotel Brownwood. In addition to the business sessions, a program of entertainment which will include dancing, golfing, fishing and boating at Lake Brownwood and other features has been arranged.

EFFORT BEING MADE TO OPEN STATE PARK TO PUBLIC MAY 29TH

Efforts are being made to have the cabins at Lake Brownwood State Park ready for occupancy by the opening of the lake fishing season, May 29, and officers of the Lake Brownwood Association said this week that they thought the park could be opened for use by that time. A schedule of rates for rental of the cabins, has been announced as follows:

A cabin with sleeping facilities for two persons, $1.50 per day; for three persons, $1.75 per day; for four persons, $2. An occupant may furnish his own equipment and have as many persons as he desires stay in his cabin without additional charge.

The cabins will be equipped with electric lights, running water and gas stoves. There are 14 cabins in the park, all constructed of beautiful native stone.

When the park is first opened the period for one person to rent a cabin will be limited to one week due to the heavy demand for the cabins expected early in the season. Later there possibly will be no limit to the time a cabin may be rented.

EXPERTS WILL STUDY DISEASES OF PEACH

MANY FARMERS SIGN WORK SHEETS UNDER NEW FEDERAL ORDER

Saturday, May 16, has been set as the deadline on filling out work sheets on farms for participation in the new farm program, according to County Agent C. W. Lehmburg. The one day extension of the period for signing the sheets was announced Wednesday. The campaign in the field will end Tuesday, but the work of making out the work sheets will be continued in the county agent's office until Saturday night, May 16.

The one day extension was granted to give every farmer an opportunity to cooperate in the new farm program. Unless a work sheet is made out and signed during this time there will be no further chance to participate in the program this year, Mr. Lehmburg said. He urges all farmers to start working out their program for cooperation with the federal farm plan at once and to get their work sheets signed as soon as possible.

Meetings have been held by Mr. Lehmburg and his assistants for the purpose of getting the work sheets signed at May, Williams, Cross Cut, Blanket, Early, Zephyr, Owens, Holder, Woodland Heights, Indian Creek, Jordan Springs, and Winchell. Basing his estimate on the number of farmers in each community who have already signed, Mr. Lehmburg stated that between 85 and 90 per cent of the farmers in Brown county would participate in the program this year.

The county agent's office will be open Saturday for those who wish to sign up for the program there. Friday meetings are scheduled in the Brooksmith and Bangs communities.

The schedule of meetings for next week is as follows:

Clear Creek, May 11th, 8 a. m. to 11:45 a. m. (half day only).
McDaniel, May 11th, 1:15 p. m. to 5 p. m. (half day only).
Grosvenor, May 12th, 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. (1 day only).
Byrds and Weedon, at Byrds, May 12th, 8 a. m. to 11:45 a. m. (half day only).
Thrifty, May 12, 1:15 p. m. to 5 p. m. (half day only).

MEASURING OF WHEAT ACREAGE IS STARTED

Special Train To Take Crowd To Convention

Brownwood's Bid for 1937 WTCO Meeting To Be Presented At Amarillo

Committees from the Brownwood Chamber of Commerce this week were completing plans for bringing the 1937 convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to Brownwood. A special train, ordered Wednesday afternoon will take a large delegation of Brownwood citizens and a 30-piece band to Amarillo, where the 1936 convention is to be held next week and where Brownwood will make its bid for the convention next year.

The special train will consist of three chair cars and a baggage car. It will leave Brownwood, over the Santa Fe, promptly at noon Sunday, and is scheduled to arrive in Amarillo at 7:15 p. m. Sunday. Upon arrival in Amarillo, the Brownwood delegation, headed by the band, will march from the station to the Herring Hotel, where Brownwood headquarters will be located.

Transportation for the band was secured by a committee headed by Gus J. Rosenberg and D. D. McIntire; while a committee under the direction of B. P. Bludworth, West Texas Chamber of Commerce director for Brownwood and D. C. Pratt had charge of selling tickets for the special train.

Brownwood's invitation will be extended at the Tuesday morning session, and voting for the convention city will take place Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning. Announcement of the winning city will be made at the closing session Wednesday noon.

The Brownwood delegation will be armed with walking canes, hat bands, banners, illustrated folders about the lake, state park, regatta, and other booster material to create interest among the delegates in the Brownwood invitation.

Headquarters for Brownwood have been arranged on the mezzanine floor of the Herring Hotel, which will be convention headquarters.

In addition to the train, a sound truck will be taken to Amarillo in advance, to be on hand when the Brownwood train arrives. It is being decorated to advertise Brownwood, and will assist in spreading propaganda about this city.

So far as is known here, Wichita Falls is the only other city seeking the convention next year.

Mrs. Durwood Caffey of the Mercury community is recovering from a rattlesnake bite received Monday morning when she tried to kill the snake in her yard. She was brought to a local hospital for treatment about nine o'clock Monday morning.

Mrs. Caffey was feeding some small chickens at her home when she saw the snake. She was bitten on the middle finger of her right hand.

THE MAN WHO RAN THREE TIMES
Expecting to ride into office on the votes of old people wanting pensions, Tom Hunter is likely to be known after the election next summer as the man who ran three times.

Cranking up his abuse machine, Hunter has thrown his twice-kicked-out hat in the ring for Governor and is now busy thinking up wisecracks about Governor Allred.

The summer is going to be full of entertainment, daily papers are going to be as full of politics as they were of Bruno Hauptmann, and fall will come, this paper predicts, with Allred back in office and Hunter fling liberal suits against newspapers, which is what happened after the last election.

In his opening announcement, Hunter termed Allred's treatment of old people as "outrageous" and "callous." Exactly what Hunter would have the Governor do is not clear, unless he wants another special session called to pass tax measures to pay pensions, and it is to be remembered that the Governor doesn't pass the laws and that the last special session was called to raise pension revenue and that the legislature didn't do it. Why the members of the legislature should have changed their mind by now, or how they could have acquired more ability for passing tax measures, or how Hunter could confer that ability on them, is not declared.

Moreover, application for pensions are now being taken in every county in Texas, nobody has died of starvation, and neither Hunter nor anybody else could hurry the work fast enough to start pension payments immediately.

Governor Allred has made an honest and efficient Governor, and his vigor and youth have served to dramatize the vigor of Texas in this Centennial year. His selection to a second term should come as a matter of course.—Buffalo Press.

OLDEST EMPLOYEE CHRISTENS REXALL 29,000-MILE TRAIN

When the Million-Dollar Streamlined Convention Train of the United Drug Company was dedicated in Boston at the start of its 29,000-mile Tour, it was christened by Miss Edith Minard, one of the 14 original employees of the Company. L. K. Liggett, President and founder of the Company (right) is an interested spectator as Miss Minard breaks the traditional bottle of champagne on the driving rod of the 350-ton locomotive.

The train will visit 147 cities and meetings of Rexall druggists will be held aboard the "Convention on Wheels" in 109 cities on the eight-month tour.

RENFRO EMPLOYEES TO INSPECT REXALL DRUG'S SPECIAL TRAIN

A group of employees of the Renfro Rexall Drug Stores left Thursday morning for Fort Worth where they will inspect the Rexall special train which is touring the United States. Those going to Fort Worth Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Bennett, Mrs. Pauline Ater, Paul Wynn, Jewett White, Lindsey Thompson, Slick Bagley and Alton Wash.

Porter McMinn will head a group who will go to Abilene Friday to visit the train. Those who will go with Mr. McMinn are J. A. Cunningham, Jr., Mrs. Frances Orton, Doc Young, John Crawford, Henry Powell and Ocho Green.

The million-dollar streamlined Rexall Convention train will enter Texas, May 1, and will be host in five cities to Rexall druggists from 280 towns in the Lone Star State. Meetings aboard the train will be held in San Antonio, Austin, Fort Worth, Abilene and Amarillo. In addition, stops of several hours will be made in Houston, Waco, Dallas and Lubbock. In all cities where stops are made, the 12-car "convention-on-wheels" will be open for public inspection. Free tickets of admission can be obtained free for the asking from any Rexall or Liggett drug store.

The traveling convention, hailed everywhere as "the finest train in the world," is on an 8-month, 29,000 mile tour of the United States and Canada. Meetings are scheduled in 109 cities for the 10,000 Rexall druggists. On the swing through Texas the owners and staffs of 364 Rexall stores are expected to attend the series of one-day conventions.

The train carries all facilities for conventions that can be found in the largest hotel. There are four exhibit cars, two cars for meetings, a cafeteria diner from which lunch and dinner are served daily to several hundred delegates, two cars for dancing, a lounge car, and an office car equipped with telephone and teletype connections with all the outside world.

It carries a permanent staff of forty, including nineteen executives and department heads of the United Drug Company, manufacturer of Rexall products.

The train left Boston March 29, and will close its nation-wide tour November 23, in Atlanta, Georgia.

In the first month it was on the road, more than 200,000 persons have passed through the train to inspect the exhibits aboard. As a novel idea in convention technique it has proved to be an amazing success. Seventeen conventions had been held up to the time the train crossed the Texas border, and delegates had attended from more than 90 per cent of the stores invited. This far more than doubles the percentage of representation through the former method of holding 59 odd district conventions and a national convention every two years. With 109 meetings instead of 59, the distance delegates must travel and the time they must take from their business is greatly reduced. Furthermore, the exhibits are finer than the temporary type that could be set up in hotels, and the tabloid convention program compresses into a single day as much business as is ordinarily accomplished in a two or three day meeting.

Neither are the social and entertainment features neglected. In the train's comfortable lounge, the compartment cars of the United Drug Staff and the private car occupied by George M. Gales, president of the Liggett Company, and other officials, the delegates have room to relax. In the evening there is dancing in two cars. The train carries its own orchestra.

Senior Class Will Present Play Friday

"Shirt Sleeves," the most popular high school play for the years 1933, 1934 and 1935, according to "Play-ers" magazine, will be presented by Brownwood High School seniors Friday night at 8 o'clock in Howard Payne auditorium. The comedy is based on the theme "from shirt sleeves to shirt sleeves" and is guaranteed to provide a full evening's entertainment.

Miss Marjorie Morrison is directing the play. Music between the acts will be furnished by both the High School glee clubs, the boys' quartette and the sophomore orchestra, directed by E. J. Thompson.

Girl Scout Leader Is Kiwanis Speaker

Speakers on the program of the Brownwood Kiwanis Club's regular meeting last week included Miss Bessie Vine, New York, member of the national staff of Girl Scouts who was here conducting a training course, and Mrs. Amelia Sperry, representative of the Cooperative Concert Association. Major George Black, former postmaster at Comanche, and now on the staff of the Texas Centennial, in charge of arrangements for the Dallas Exposition, was also present and made a brief talk.

Other features of the program, which was planned as an observance of Boys and Girls Week, included a dance by Berna Dove Knobler and Virginia Louise Thomas and a cornet solo by Bobby Morris.

The necessity for having someone in each gubernatorial campaign to carry the Ferguson banner accounts, more than anything else, for the presence of Roy Sanderford, of Belton, as a candidate for Governor this year.

The Sanderford Candidacy

This fact was evident to those who heard the Bell county senator in his Brownwood appearance last week when he opened, so far as Brown county is concerned, political speaking in the 1936 campaign.

Mr. Sanderford's candidacy is based, his speech here evidenced, largely upon two issues: his three cents per dollar general sales tax, and an attack upon the Old Age Assistance law. Not that Mr. Sanderford is against the Old Age Assistance. He is too astute a candidate for that. He feels that it is inadequate, and lays its present inadequacy to the present Governor.

The general sales tax proposition is one which Governor Ferguson has advocated for a number of years, and one, which, if the reception it received in Brownwood is a fair indication, leaves the audience a bit cool. Possibly a sales tax will be necessary before we are on the right road, but certainly Texas is not ready for the experiment yet.

Mr. Sanderford finds himself in an awkward position in criticizing the Old Age Assistance law, since he is a member of the Legislature, whose creature it is. The situation calls for a lengthy explanation on the part of the candidate, whose position is that while he was chairman of the free conference committee that wrote the bill, it really was the influence of Governor Allred that wrote bad features into the bill. The good features obviously were the creation of the candidate himself. In the matter of good accomplishments of the Legislature (of which the member can find few) the Governor had no important part.

It all works back to the matter of responsibility for legislation. If it is good, credit goes to the Legislature; if bad, blame is laid at the door of the Governor. And yet, Mr. Sanderford is loudest in proclaiming the ineffectuality of the Governor's legislative program.

Mr. Sanderford's candidacy has little to recommend it. He has none of the fire of his political leader, Mr. Ferguson, and the Ferguson platform falls a bit flat from his lips. Which causes us to believe that if Ferguson were unable to win with an effective campaigner and able vote-getter like C. C. McDonald two years ago, there is little possibility of his candidate this year being a serious contender at the July primaries.

The world is a bit amazed this week with the speed with which the Italian army has subdued Ethiopia, and made of it an Italian province. That Italian victory, barring possible intervention by other powerful nations, was inevitable, was generally recognized, but even Mussolini did not expect the end to come so quickly.

Mussolini, The Conqueror

The victory places Italy in an entirely different light before the world. Not that the victory was a popular one, for few civilized nations did not sympathize with the Ethiopian cause; but without question, the signal victory over the weak African nation has for the moment increased the prestige of Italian arms.

Will the victory be a hollow one? That is a question being pondered by European economists this week, and there are many who feel that Italy has lost through victory. African colonies are not such profitable investments for many of the European powers who have acquired more fertile lands than the Ethiopian hills afford. The cost of maintaining the Italian position in Africa will be burdensome; the cost of the war to date almost had bankrupt Mussolini's government, has cost to such an extent that victory was almost imperative. In no recent war, it is pointed out, has the victor nation been economically stronger after the victory than before. Possibly Italy will lose in economic importance through its conquest of territory. Most observers believe Italy has gained little, if anything.

As for Ethiopia, possibly that country will be better off under the direction of Italy than it was under the reign of Haile Selassie. Mussolini promises the introduction of modern comforts, including the building of highways, establishing of schools, the introduction of improved health and sanitary conditions, and abolition of slavery. Very likely, once the humiliation of defeat is gone, the individual Ethiopian will be a happier person than he has been in the past. Exploitation of the country by Italy, which is to come, may not cause great worry to the individuals, used to exploitation by their own chieftains through countless generations. It is not too much to expect that the ignorant Ethiopian who trudges along through the streets of Addis Ababa, or wanders through the mountain wastes of an infernal country will be the real winner—the only one.

Regardless of the fact that many have pledged to go to Amarillo to back Brownwood's bid for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention in 1937, and a special train is assured, more are needed. And while a good showing will be made at the Amarillo convention—that much has been assured by the splendid work of many committees this week—manpower to swing the votes to Brownwood will be needed when the convention gets under way next week.

Manpower Needed

Brownwood stands an excellent chance to secure the convention, to be sure. Persistent effort has placed this city in a favorable position, but does not assure success. Remember last year when it seemed for a time that one of two or three bidding cities, including Brownwood, had the situation fairly well in hand. At the last minute Amarillo entered the lists, and with such fervor and determination that the dark horse became the winner.

No similar situation is anticipated this year. Yet continued work will be needed to prevent it. Delegates pledged to Brownwood must be interviewed and kept in line; those who have not expressed a preference must be contacted; incoming delegates must be met, those on hand kept enthusiastic for Brownwood.

Those who have signed to take the trip on the special may not be able to do the job alone. They could use quite a bit of help. The cost of making the trip has been held to a minimum. Everyone who possibly can make the trip should make an effort to be on the train when it pulls out for Amarillo Sunday.

In 1920 the United States had a population of 110,000,000 and owed twenty-three billion dollars. Now we have a population of 125,000,000 and owe thirty-six billion dollars. The high cost of civilization.—Pan Alstyne Leader.

Three lovely words that I know Which to our lives are leaven Express the heights and depths of love— Mother... Home... and Heaven.

How true it is that Mother, Home and Heaven, are the three dearest words yet they could be made into one. Mother... for Mother stands for Home and makes that home a Heaven wherever it is. Mothers, both living and dead, are to be honored in a special day next Sunday, the second Sunday in May. Writers have censured the press, for the 'sentimental drive' as some call it, but sentiment to me is one of the finest qualities of a person's make-up. Other writers have used the day and the word for their inspiration in making literature that will last as long as the world stands. Of course it was a woman who instituted mother's day, but its observance has become a national day for the second Sunday in May. Flags will fly, telegrams will be sent, gifts, flowers, letters to Mothers all over the land to honor God's greatest gift... Mother.

Speaking of mothers, reminds me of some statistics I have read recently which makes one shudder to think of. Childbirth is the second most important cause of death in our nation. More than 15,000 mothers die every year of child birth; more than 85,000 babies die every year the same day they are born. The United States ranks highest in the death rate from maternity over twenty-two nations. These facts and figures are shameful. We pride ourselves on our laws, our wealth, our culture, and yet neglect the most vital and precious thing in the world. It is good to know that the Social and Security Bill has become a law. $3,800,000.00 is already available for maternal and child-health work. It means that every year large sums will be appropriated for this purpose. States will receive their allotment according to their need. It is a worthy movement. The women's clubs are taking up and pushing it. Find out the needs of the community in which you live and report it to the proper source so that you state will be doing its bit for motherhood.

I froliced with a Business and Professional group of girls this week at Wichita Falls, Texas. They were honoring their mothers. Bright-eyed, alert business girls introduced with pride their little grey haired mothers. Mothers sat proudly and lovingly back looking over their corsages of pansties at their girls carrying on in this world of business which they would never have dreamed of entering. Girls who had lost their mothers adopted a mother for the evening and introduced her, perhaps a little wistfully and with a little sadness, yet glad that they could honor someone's mother if not their own. In a response from a mother, she said that a daughter was the sweetest thing God gave a mother. Not the dearest for sons could be as dear, but the sweetest for someone has said, "A son is a son till he marries a wife, but a daughter is a daughter all of her life." However, we don't agree with her there. One has just as dear a place as the other in a mother's heart. Perhaps each has a different dearness, because they are different, but a mother's love clothes each child completely, regardless of faults, virtues or sex.

I have in my hands a book which I wish to goodness I had thought of writing. You know how that goes... when a woman sees a beautiful hat or dress on someone else, she at once wishes she had seen it first and that the wearer who did see it first had a large and angry boil on her nose. Not that this book was easy to write... no indeed, not that. It takes a clever, above-average-clever person to really take the land by storm with a "funny book." No, I could never hope to be that clever. I mean I could have used all those lower cases, left out all punctuation and hashed up the King's English with such ease to say nothing of the spelling. Of the few things I do well it is just that.

COLLEGE STATION — "Soil building practices, rates and conditions of payments have been officially stamped by the Soil Conservation Administrator in Washington, D. C." A. L. Smith, state agent assigned to conservation work in Texas, announced this week.

Soil building practices have been divided into three parts: seedings, crops plowed under for green manure, and establishment of pastures forests and terraces.

Payments for soil building practices which will be made to the producer who incurs the expense of the soil building practice consist first of seeding alfalfa, sericea, and kudzu — rate of payment from the government will be $2 per acre when seeded on crop land between January 1, 1936 and October 31, 1936; seeding red clover, mammoth clover, sweet clover, and annual lespedeza — rate $1.50 per acre; seeding alsike, white, bur, and crimson clover; Austrian winter peas, vetch and other locally adapted legumes — rate $1 per acre.

Under the second part of soil building practices some crops plowed under for green manure. The crops and rates are: soybeans, velvet beans, cowpeas, crotalaria, beggar weed and other locally adapted summer legumes — rate $1.50 per acre if grown on crop land in 1936 and nives or stalks left on land and seed not harvested for oil mill crushing, or $2 per acre if plowed under green; crimson clover, bur clover, Austrian winter peas, vetch and other locally adapted winter legumes — rate $1.50 per acre when turned under; rye, oats, barley, Italian rye grass, wheat, or mixture of these—rate $1 per acre when page to the end you are convulsed. According to "Carrie" who is telling all the tales in the book, "she taken the stories to a printer and he ask her what to name it and she says I aint carin, and the dern fule put that there titul right on the outside." Carrie is quite a philosopher, humorist and manhandler of orthography. In case you don't know what she means by the big words she uses, she places funny little marks citing the reader to foot notes explaining all about it. Carrie further states that "startin to rite at my aje is kinder on the same principal as havin a baby at forty-five only i dont have eny grown childrun to be ashamed." If one wants to know the real meaning of words we have always used go as Carrie, says I. You'll have it in a few words and will never forget it.

Miss Beck was born near Sulphur Springs, Texas, and spent her early years there. She attended Simmons University and Kidd Key College, two outstanding schools of her home state. She is now in business in Dallas and her ears have picked up some very realistic yarns which she has put into clever satire at the expense of no one in particular, and yet one sees her neighbors parading through the pages like old friends one remembers from their peculiarities.

The book, published by the Tardy Publishing Company at Dallas is already in its third printing although its first was in October last year which goes to show its popularity.

A daring young thing is lovely Shi Beck As a writer of books she is tops, by heck!

MAKING Smart CLOTHES

There is nothing quite as smart in your Summer town wardrobe as a dark print with a plain-color jacket. You wear it on the train and it will look almost as fresh at six in the evening as it did at six in the morning.

thankfully, it will look smart for church and for movie evenings. In fact, if you are over thirty, a dress of this type is a "must have" in your wardrobe.

Series of Programs Marks Observance of National Music Week

National Music Week is being observed at Daniel Baker College with a series of programs presenting local artists and students of the school. The observance opened Tuesday morning with a program presented by the Brownwood High School glee clubs under the direction of Miss Frances Merritt.

Wednesday morning members of the Schubert Music Club presented a program which included xylophone selections given by Mrs. Karl H. Moore, accordion numbers by Mrs. McAdoo Keaton and several vocal selections by Mrs. Norman Locks.

Daniel Baker College orchestra under the direction of Miss Mae Brannom was in charge of the Thursday morning chapel program. The observance of Music Week was to close with a program presented by the Junior Class of the college at Coggin Memorial Hall Thursday evening. The program arranged included selections by the college band, dance selections, numbers by the Melo Dears trio and an old fiddlers contest. Proceeds from the program will go to defray expenses of the Junior-Senior banquet to be held soon.

CALF ROUND-UP IS PLANNED AT BLANKET

Members of the Blanket 4-H Boys Club will have a "Club Calf Round-Up" at Blanket Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Every club member in the county has been invited to attend the round-up and take advantage of the opportunity to see the calves being fed by the Blanket boys. There will be 25 calves exhibited at that time for the purpose of comparing size, type and gains made up to date.

An invitation mailed to every club boy in the county by County Agent C. W. Lehmborg is worded as follows:

"This occasion will give every Brown county 4-H Club boy and his Dad an opportunity to see these calves. I am hereby urging every 4-H Club leader to bring the boys from his Club who are feeding calves to this meeting. Let's all get together and keep the boys pepped up in their work. Anyone interested in the work the 4-H Club boys are doing is invited to attend this meeting."

Pushing its investigation into every phase of the Townsend Plan movement, the House probe committee is shown during the Washington hearing, with R. E. Clements, resigned co-founder indicated as No. 1, as first witness. Close questioning of Clements was led by Representative C. Jasper Bell (Dem., Mo.), chairman of the investigating group, indicated as No. 2.

COOPERATIVE LOANS TO FARMERS GOING BEGGING IN TEXAS

Unless the approximately half a million dollars now available for cooperative loans in Texas and Oklahoma is loaned by the end of June, it will be diverted to other use, according to information received by George O. Green, supervisor for the Resettlement Administration in Brown county, from his regional headquarters. Only a few thousand dollars of the $312,000 available for Texas and Oklahoma has been loaned to date, he said. Most loans so far have been for purchased sires and farm machinery, and in most cases the loan is made to one man whose neighbors sign an agreement to use the animal or machinery at a specified price.

Many other types of cooperatives enterprises may be financed through such loans from the Resettlement Administration, including syrup mills, feed mills, laundries, canning plants, meat curing plants, threshing outfits, and facilities for grading and shipping farm products such as fruit, vegetables, eggs and poultry. Loans may also be made for membership in existing cooperative associations. In one county a loan is now being considered which would enable borrowers to become stockholders in a cooperative hospital.

"I am sure that there are many worthwhile enterprises that should be started cooperatively in this county," Mr. Green said. "And I

Radio Program Is Dedicated To City

Miss Mary Sears, society editor of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, was in charge of a special radio program dedicated to Brownwood over Station WBAP Wednesday afternoon. The program received much favorable comment locally.

CASH AWARDS TO BE MADE IN CENTENNIAL CLEAN UP CAMPAIGN

The Brownwood Centennial Clean-Up campaign, to be held during the spring and summer months under the direction of a committee headed by Mrs. Carl Blasig, received quite a boost this week when the chamber of commerce directors voted to pay the prizes offered. The chamber of commerce will advance $50 in cash for the prizes, to be awarded under the direction of the committee.

Prizes will be awarded for the best progress shown in cleanliness and beautification, the awards to be made in September. Frequent inspections will be made up to the time of award of the prizes.

A prize also will be announced next week for the best slogan for the contest submitted.

hope that farmers who are interested will call on me at an early date in order that we may make requests for loans before the money is withdrawn." He explained that a sound financial plan must be worked out which will assure repayment and that the cooperatives enterprise must not duplicate any already in existence in the community.

Borrowers must either be farmers who are already receiving aid from the Resettlement Administration, or unable to get the desired financial assistance from any other public or private agency. The others who participate in the enterprise need not be borrowers from Resettlement provided they are in the low-income class who would otherwise not be able to obtain the sort of service provided.

LENIENCY IS SHOWN BY FEDERAL COURT

Leniency was shown by Federal Judge Atwell toward defendants in several cases from Brown county which were tried in San Angelo federal court last week, according to a report received here. In three of the six cases reported the defendants were asserted to be first offenders, and the nature of the other cases resulted in the light sentences being passed.

The least severe of the sentences was given Mrs. Bessie M. Allen, former postmistress at Brooksmith, who received a jail sentence of one hour in addition to the three days served as she awaited sentence. Mrs. Allen pleaded guilty to a charge of showing about $147 in stamp cancellations which had not been cancelled. Joe Jones, assistant United States district attorney, advised the court that the $147 had been paid. No fine was assessed.

Horace G. Guffey, on trial on a narcotics charge, was sent home with his wife. He asserted that it was his first offense and that he was now "off dope." Guffey had already served 45 days in jail.

B. H. Hutton, charged with participating in a mails fraud scheme at Coleman and Brownwood, was freed after advising that he had served five months in jail and that it was his first offense.

Ira E. Michael of May, charged with violation of liquor laws, was sentenced to 30 days in jail in addition to the 18 days already served. Ory B. McDonald and John Emory Slinger of Comanche county, arrested in Brownwood a few months ago and charged with making and passing counterfeit half-dollars, were placed under probation for six months with a six months jail term as alternative in case of further law violations. Both men now have jobs.

LOVELL HERE
Announcement has been made the Rev. A. J. Lovell, radio evangelist from Dublin, will conduct services at the Primitive Baptist church Friday night. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Dr. Lobstein Shows Improvement After Injuries In Crash

Dr. H. L. Lobstein, prominent Brownwood physician who was seriously injured in an automobile wreck at the intersection of West Adams and Main Saturday afternoon, is reported to be improving and attending physicians stated Thursday that unless complications develop he has an excellent chance to recover. Shortly after the wreck he was reported fatally injured, and for several days slight hope was held for his recovery. An examination Wednesday revealed that his injuries were not so serious as earlier reports indicated.

The wreck occurred when the car driven by Dr. Lobstein and a city owned car driven by Baxter Naron, local laborer, collided. Dr. Lobstein's car overturned and the doctor was pinned under his car, suffering severe head injuries, a crushed chest and a broken collar bone. He is being kept under an oxygen tent at Medical Arts hospital.

Naron was taken to a hospital for treatment following the wreck but was dismissed soon after. The car he was driving was extensively damaged.

REV. BRADFORD WILL ACCEPT LOCAL CALL

Rev. J. M. Bradford, who announced this week that he had accepted the call of the Coggin Avenue Baptist Church of Brownwood, to become pastor, will deliver his first sermon as pastor Sunday morning, May 17. The Bradford family will move to Brownwood May 14, coming from Dublin where Mr. Bradford has been pastor of the First Baptist Church for several years. They will make their home here at the parsonage, 1410 Avenue E.

Mr. Bradford holds a degree from Howard Payne College and has done work at Baylor University and at the Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth. He has filled the pulpit at the local church on a number of occasions. He was extended a unanimous call by the local congregation on April 18 and announced his formal acceptance Friday.

SENIORS SPONSOR PROGRAM

Proceeds from a box supper and benefit entertainment held Monday night on Howard Payne campus under the sponsorship of the senior class of the school, will be used toward purchasing a gift of books for the college library. Rev. J. M. Bradford of Dublin, former Howard Payne student, who recently accepted a call to become pastor of Coggin Avenue Baptist Church, served as auctioneer for the affair. The program included a concert by the college band and several numbers by the "Barn Boys" and members of the football squad.

Young Lady Injured In Crash of Autos

In an automobile collision at the intersection of Fifth and Fifth streets Friday night about 8 o'clock Miss Vera Iris Seales suffered a fracture of both her wrists. She was treated at a local hospital.

Others in the car in which Miss Seales was riding were Theron Huggins, Homer Shults and Mildred Jackson, none of whom were injured. A Mr. Anderson was driving the other car which figured in the wreck.

FRONTIER FILM TO BE MADE MAY 15TH

Osburn, cameraman, will be in Brownwood Saturday, May 15, to take pictures for the four films to be used to advertise Brownwood at the Texas Frontier Celebration in Fort Worth this summer and fall, according to word received by the Brownwood chamber of commerce. The films are being taken under the direction of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. One reel of the local film will be devoted to Lake Brownwood.
