Bronchos And Irishmen To Battle Here Friday Night

The Clarendon Bronchos are keyed to a high pitch this week and are ready to really scrap the Shamrock Irishmen when they invade college park here Friday night at 8 p. m.

This is expected to be one of the best games of the season and also the next in importance to the Memphis game in regards to traditional rivals; and it can be remembered that the Irishmen have nearly always, by some means or otherwise, toppled the Bronchos off the winning side of the score board.

The Bronchos made up their minds as they were coming through Shamrock last Friday night from Wheeler to beat the Irishmen and they will do it if it is within their power at all.

Coach Naylor has issued new formations this week and has his boys up in good shape for this important game. A few changes in the line-up will probably be made this week which should reveal a stronger defensive team.

Bentley and Jiggs Mann, two regulars who suffered injuries in the McLean game will be back in there dishing out those hard tackles that will make the Irishmen think a little.

This game has also been selected by the football squad as dedication night with the dedication being to their parents who will all be given a free pass to this particular game.

Come out Friday night and give these boys your support. This is their last scheduled game to be played at home. Remember the new time is 8 p. m. Friday night at the college park.

Lion Benefit Show Big Success

Lee Bell, manager of the Pastime Theatre, announced this week that the Lion Benefit Show last Friday had the largest attendance and was the greatest success of any benefit show in recent years.

The show netted a clear profit of over $200 dollars, all of which will be placed in the Community Center Fund.

Lions club members were out selling tickets for the show for two weeks and found that a majority of people were really interested in the Community Center Fund and wanted to help out as well as see a good show.

Mr. Bell, manager and Mrs. H. Mulkey, owner of the Pastime are to be complimented upon their generosity of turning over the show to the Lions for that one night so that the money could go to a very worthy project. This money will make a nice dent in the amount needed to start our Community Center swimming pool and other projects that have been outlined.

LARGE TURNOUT EXPECTED FOR GENERAL ELECTION TUESDAY

Almost a one hundred percent tabulation is expected in the General election next Tuesday when all qualified voters will be out to vote for their next President and Vice President.

From all indications, Donley County voters will favor the straight Democratic ticket with President Roosevelt and Truman heading the list. The straight Democratic ticket will include the President down through our local offices and the ballot will contain 8 tickets that a voter may choose from.

If you have paid your poll tax or have an exemption, it is your duty as a citizen of the United States, to come out and vote regardless of who you might be supporting. This is the principle that our government is built upon and your vote will help the best man and the best party to win.

LT. WAYNE JOHNSTON TRAINS AS CO-PILOT ON FLYING FORTRESS

2nd Lt. Wayne LaVerne Johnston, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil V. Johnston of Clarendon, has reported at the Gulfport Army Air Field, Gulfport, Miss. for an intensive training course as a Co-pilot on a B-17 Flying Fortress.

Selected for this important assignment after stringent examinations, Lt. Johnston will be a member of a ten-man crew who will live and work together under simulated battle conditions. Upon completion of training, the crew will be ready for duty on the fighting fronts.

United Council Will Meet Friday

The United Council of Church Women will meet Friday, 3 p. m. at the Presbyterian Church with the Episcopal ladies as hostesses.

Owing to the fact that the 5th Wednesday is the day before Thanksgiving it was voted at the last meeting to meet on the World Community Day, Nov. 3rd. There will not be the covered dish luncheon as before but a social hour will follow immediately after the program.

The theme of the program is "The Price of Enduring Peace." The program will consist of devotional, special music, "The Price of Enduring Peace"—Mrs. C. A. Burton, and an open forum discussion—"My part in the peace." Every council member and any one interested in this movement is urged to be present as this is a vital subject to all.

The next meeting will not be until February, so a splendid attendance is expected.

Duck Hunting Opens Today

The 1944 duck and goose hunting season was officially ushered in this morning as many of those who like to arise early and hear the honk, honk, were out to get their first wild duck or goose.

Hunting was expected to be exceptionally good at Lake McClellan where a large number of the fowl have been congregated for quite some time. This is the first year that the lake has been opened to hunters and the hunting days, outside of today, are each Wednesday and Sunday of each week and all holidays. The big geese are still waiting for a good freeze up north before coming down, although a few of the big fellows have been seen on Lake McClellan for several days now.

Be sure to buy your hunting license and duck stamp before you start out. It is much cheaper than paying a fine.

LELIA LAKE GIRL ATTENDING COLLEGE AT ABILENE

Lois Reynolds, freshman student in Abilene Christian College, Abilene, Texas, is a member of the Girls' Training Class, meeting each Friday evening on the campus of Abilene Christian College. The purpose of the Girls' Training Class is to acquaint the girls with the problems of the Christian woman in the home, church and community.

Lois, a 1944 graduate of Lelia Lake High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Reynolds of Lelia Lake. While in high school she was a member of the basketball team, and a member and song leader of the Future Homemakers of Texas. She is now majoring in business administration.

F. F. A. and 4-H Club Boys to Hold Pig Sale Saturday

Members of the Clarendon F. F. A. Chapter and Donley County 4-H Club will offer a number of weaning size breeding gilts and boar pigs for sale to other club boys Saturday, November 4th at 11 a. m. Letters have been mailed to all county agents and vocational agriculture teachers in this area, and a large number of the club leaders and club boys have notified the local group of their intention to be present for the sale.

The local group will offer approximately fifty weaning size gilt and boar pigs for sale. This stock is of the same breeding as the prize winning pigs the local club boys have been exhibiting at leading shows and fairs for the past several years. Many clubs had let their program die during the over-supply of hogs last year, and the large supply of pigs of the local group have left them in a favorable position with a good demand for breeding stock.

SON OF FORMER RESIDENT KILLED IN NEW GUINEA

Lt. Sam L. Joekel Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam L. Joekel of the Austin Presbyterian Seminary, has been officially reported killed in action in New Guinea on Oct. 8. Lt. Joekel, prior to his enlistment, was a petroleum engineering student in the University of Texas.

Mrs. Joekel will be remembered here as the former Dorothy Turner.

Bronchos Defeat Wheeler 18-7

The Bronchos journeyed to Wheeler last Friday night to defeat the Mustangs by a tune of 18-7.

This was one of the easiest games of the season for the Bronchos as the Wheeler squad is listed down in the conference cellar position.

The Bronchos scored three touchdowns with Maxey going over for two and Adams going over for the third. They also had four penetrations to their credit and were within easy scoring distance on each occasion but seemed to lose that extra punch that they had acquired on their other scoring missions.

Cowan, who did the linebacking was outstanding all through the game and Maxey and Adams were the outstanding backfield players.

RATIONING AT A GLANCE

By PEPPY BLOCKER

Shoe rationing must continue and victory in Europe will not necessarily mean that more leather will be available, according to those "in the know." When shoe rationing will end, is one of the most discussed questions all over the country. We do not know the answer, nor do we know any person who does know the answer, but the present shoe inventory picture is not as bright as it should be, and production has not been increased this year. It is altogether probable that the end of the war in Europe will not mean that more leather for shoes can be had. So we would suggest that you spend your new shoe stamp wisely and well.

Let's all team up to keep prices down, for the sake of America's future! This is a slogan you'll be hearing quite frequently the next few weeks—whenever you hear it, make it your own personal pledge—Let's all team up to keep prices down, for the sake of America's future!

Texas Teachers Draw Small Pay

The Texas State Teachers Association has just completed an exhaustive survey on teacher vacancies, turnover and qualifications. The survey includes replies from 149 county superintendents and 834 independent school district superintendents, 97,071 teaching positions or approximately 99% of all positions in Texas are included in the survey.

Replies from the superintendents disclosed that on the opening day of school 1,619 teaching positions had not been filled for the school year. The percentage of vacancies in rural schools was higher than for the independent districts. These vacancies exist although the schools abolished or consolidated more than 700 positions during the past school term.

More than one-fifth of all of the teachers in Texas are new to their jobs this year. One question asked of superintendents by the State Teachers Association disclosed that they have 7,992 new teachers in their schools this year.

The rural schools are shown to have been forced to employ more than thirty-five per cent of their teachers with sub-standard qualifications. The reports disclosed that a total of 6,148 teachers started the 1944-45 school term with qualifications that would have been considered below standard before the war.

The supply of teachers in Texas does not promise to improve in the near future. On the contrary the situation could become even more acute. Fewer college students are studying to enter the teaching profession, and although a large number of emergency certificates have been issued, the number has been inadequate to meet the need for well trained teachers.

The low pay of teachers in Texas is given by the Teachers Association as one of the chief reasons for this shortage. The average pay of teachers in Texas last year was approximately $1200 per year. The National average of pay for teachers is more than $1600 per year.

HOME CANNING SUGAR

Sugar for home canning will continue to be issued eligible applicants in the 71 counties of the Lubbock OPA District until December 1, Food Rationing Officer Opal L. Wood has announced in reply to many inquiries.

Mrs. Lena Antrobus, Mrs. Barcus Antrobus and baby and Mrs. Haskel Kemp visited Barcus Antrobus at the Veterans Hospital at Amarillo Tuesday.

Memorial Plans Taking Shape

American towns and cities are planning now for memorials to World War II veterans, living and dead.

Hundreds are thinking of memorials with a double purpose: to honor the veterans and give useful service to the generations coming after them.

These memorials which can be used by the living are called living memorials. There is great emphasis on that type.

Americans have seen memorials to veterans of other wars: men on horseback, heaped cannon balls, moldy cannon on a courthouse lawn.

After the last war living memorials began to spring up across the country. Here are some which the Federal Security Agency (FSA) says are being considered now:

Auditoriums, convention halls, schools for special purposes, hospitals, research institutions, band shells, open air theatres, school forests, community forests, camping areas, picnic grounds, recreation parks, beaches, swimming pools, camping areas, golf courses, baseball and football parks, playgrounds.

In the past three months FSA says it has received more than 1,000 inquiries about youth centers alone. They are intended as World War II memorials but will serve the young people of today and tomorrow.

These inquiries are in addition to hundreds asking about other plans, particularly community centers and recreation grounds.

The FSA has 12 regional offices with a field staff of perhaps 100 men, specialists in recreation facilities. They can be of help.

Suppose a town wishes to build a living memorial, such as a community or recreation center.

The FSA specialist can give advice on a recreation center because he has had a lot of wartime experience in that field.

He can also suggest that the town get from FSA a few typical plans of community buildings which serve many purposes. The plans are outlines. They have nothing to do with the architectural work which would have to be done on them.

LIONS JAMBOREE & CARNIVAL TO BE HELD AGAIN SATURDAY

S/SGT. ROY BULLS HOME AFTER COMPLETING 50 MISSIONS IN ITALY

S/Sgt. Roy Bulls, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bulls, arrived home Sunday night after spending several months in the Italian theater of war.

Roy completed his fifty missions over enemy territory several weeks ago but had to wait for some time before there was available ship room for him to come home. He was a tail gunner on one of the big B-24 Liberator bombers operating in that area. After his visit here, he will report to Palm Beach, Florida November 23rd for reassignment. He states that he is very happy to be back home again.

PFC. BILLY THORNBERRY AWARDED DISTINGUISHED UNIT BADGE

15th AAF IN ITALY—Pfc. Billy G. Thornberry, 20, of Clarendon, an armament worker, has been awarded the Distinguished Unit Badge as a member of a veteran 15th AAF B-24 Liberator Bomber Group which has been cited "For outstanding performance of duty in armed conflict with the enemy."

The group received the nation's highest organization award for an attack on the aircraft factories at Wiener Neustadt, Austria, on May 10th.

Pfc. Thornberry is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thornberry of Clarendon.

Arrangements were completed this week whereby the present Civil Aeronautics Administration emergency landing field will become a municipal airport. The mayor and city commissioners voted unanimously, at a regular meeting Monday afternoon, to take over the present lease of the C.A.A. with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Thornberry.

Officials of the C.A.A. had informed local chamber of commerce officials that the field and equipment would be moved to another location unless the city made the field a municipal airport, and that in this case they would continue their personnel and equipment at the field. Local chamber of commerce officials contacted the regional C.A.A. office, and after securing proper information contacted the City Commission and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Thornberry, owners of the land on which the airport is located, and drew up the leases and made other necessary arrangements.

This progressive move on the part of the city administration will provide Clarendon with one of the best airports for a town of this size in the entire Panhandle area. Many towns of Clarendon's size have had to vote bond issues of large denominations in order to secure desirable airports.

The county commissioners' court in a recent meeting agreed to secure right of way for a wider road and prepare the same for further construction when materials are available after the war is over. This move will provide a good road to the airport.

According to information in the chamber of commerce office at this time, seven corporation operating airlines have made application to the C.A.A. Board at Washington for permission to operate airlines through this region with stops at Clarendon for passenger, mail and freight service. The move of the city officials in doing their part to retain the field and the county commissioners' agreement to improve the road will do much to further Clarendon's interests as a progressive town in the post-war era.

Geo. A. Trout, chairman of the Lions club Carnival committee, announced this week that the carnival held in the building across from the Post office was a great success. There was a large attendance both Friday night and Saturday and everyone seemed to enjoy this change in entertainment very much.

Due to popular demand, the Carnival will open again this Saturday afternoon and night, and there are a large number of those priceless rationed gifts left for you to win at the many different attractions.

Mr. Trout wishes to point out that all the money derived from this carnival will be placed in the Community Center fund. This fund is outlined to build a swimming pool and other recreational buildings, etc. on the City lot just south of main street and will be of great benefit to all citizens of Clarendon and surrounding territory. It will be something that everyone will be proud of and will be honored to say that they were a part of it by patronizing such entertainments as the Lions carnival. Make your plans now to attend the carnival Saturday afternoon and night. You will enjoy the entire set-up.

Mr. Trout and his committee of Lions and outsiders who helped put this carnival on, are to be complimented on the preparation and handling of the show, and a large number of them will be back again Saturday, giving their time and efforts for a very worthy cause.

LIBRARY NOTES

By Mrs. C. A. Burton
November is "Children's Book Week" month—November 12-18, and the slogan is "United Through Books." The celebration will officially begin on Nov. 11 at a luncheon in the Grand Ball Room of the Astor Hotel in New York City. Upwards of a thousand people will be on hand, and the program will include the presentation of the Annual Child Study Award, a symbolic ceremony in which a treasure chest of books will be given to the children in occupied countries of Europe through the Women's Council of Post-War Europe. A formal presentation will be made of an exhibit of books to the U.S.S.R. by the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship. At the same time celebrations of Children's Book Week will start in many parts of the world—England, Brazil, Russia, Bombay, India.

This Book Week will be the 200th anniversary of the publishing of the first book for children—in 1774 John Newbery published the "Little Pretty Pocket Book." It is impossible for us now to visualize a world without children's books—so many of them are published today—so attractive, so interesting, so informative.

That books influence people is attested by their wholesale destruction by the Nazis. A recent cable from Moscow to the American Library Association reported that up to fifty million volumes were destroyed and burned in the Ukraine. But librarians are enthusiastically restoring them. Three scientific, seventeen regional, 687 distinct and 2329 rural libraries have already been restored in this region alone.

We are rejoicing in the thought of the Community Center which is being planned, and especially in the fact that it will contain space for the library. This makes especially interesting a statement by the daily press from Washington that such memorials to the veterans of World War II are being planned in hundreds of towns with the double purpose of honoring the veterans and giving useful service to generations to follow. These are called living memorials and Washington says there is great emphasis on that type.

The Federal Security Agency says auditoriums, convention halls and all kinds of recreation facilities are being considered. Hundreds of inquiries are being made of F.S.A. about plans.

ASHTOLA SCHOOL NEWS

You missed a treat if you didn't come to our school program last Thursday night. We had compliments "galore" and we really appreciated them too.

We want to thank you mothers and fathers, too, for making such cute costumes and for helping the children with their parts.

We want to thank the musicians also, such "toe tapping" music. Just between you and me we are very proud of our youngsters. If you enjoyed their program tell them—if you didn't, well, "tell it to the Marines."

We wondered why our teacher Mrs. Hickey, has been having such a broad smile on her face. Finally one of us wandered up to her desk and inquired. We learned that two things were responsible. In the first place, she has just received her check and in the second place her husband is due home on a short delay. If the corners of her mouth droops we will know he didn't get to come. Jeppers, we hope he comes, don't you?

Party
By the time you read this, we will have had a Halloween party. Our club is planning a very peppy party for us Tuesday night. We will let you know next week just how many victims the goblins, ghosts and witches caught and took to their home behind the moon.

Bob Grant, Gene White's uncle, is spending a few days in Ashtola to help his father with a farm sale.

Erratic driving proves so inefficient in Wartime that it's no longer favored any of the time.

Deftness is the style in motoring. Tactics like swooping in and out of line seem wasted, when the little coupe—from miles behind—presently shows up anyway in the "thrill-driver's" mirror.

That's skill—making a steady good average; not leaping and bounding to make it up. You'll show still greater regard for dutiful mechanism by having your engine OIL-PLATED—internally surfaced to resist corrosion by the unavoidable acids of combustion.

Changing to Conoco Nth motor oil will automatically give you an OIL-PLATED engine. Costly pioneer research created the special Conoco Nth ingredient that gives this popular-priced oil its magnet-like action. And that's what joins OIL-PLATING to inner engine surfaces, as if to stay.

Acids stay too, these days—infesting every cylinder in unreasonable quantities. Former chances of ousting corrosive acids are decreased these days by low engine temperatures—longer stretches of standing cold—mileage limitations of any kind. But you can keep your engine's fine inner finish under cover of protective OIL-PLATING—resisting corrosion! Just change to Conoco Nth motor oil at Your Mileage Merchant's. Continental Oil Co.

Have a Coca-Cola = Going our way?

... or meeting a comrade in Northwest Canada

Friendship comes easy to allies devoted to common causes and borders without guns. Have a "Coke", says the Yank sergeant to the Canadian mountie, and he's talking a lingo of friendship that both understand. That's the informal North American way to say Greetings, friend. It's the same informal way to put friends at ease in your own living room, too. From the Yukon to the Gulf, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes—a symbol of a friendly way to get along with folks.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY MEMPHIS COCA-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY

It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called "Coke".

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN

Dear "Know-it-all",

I'm just simply frantic with worry! Please give me a little consolation. I haven't heard from Jack in three whole days, and I just know he's fallen off his ship into the sea! I even have insomnia because of it.

Dorothy Jean

Dear Dorothy Jean,

I'm quite sure you'll hear from Jack soon. The Navy does keep them pretty busy, you know. And they're really quite efficient at rescuing men who fall overboard.

"Know-it-all"

Dear "Know-it-all",

I'm in a spit. I've tried every way I can think of to make Peggy understand that the inhabitant of a certain two-story, blue house is strictly my personal property, but she won't take the hint. What can I do?

"Worried"

Dear "Worried",

It's hard to handle people who refuse to take hints. Of course, there's always the rolling pin, or the anonymous note!

"Know-it-all"

Dear "Know-it-all",

I promised Raymond that I would not be seen with no other boy who lived around here. But oh, that boy at Memphis! Should I should, or should I shouldn't?

"Undecided"

Dear "Undecided",

That's kind of a ticklish fire you're playing with, but if you can get away with it, go to it! It might be wise to take into consideration Raymond's temperament.

"Know-it-all"

Dear "Know-it-all",

We are just dying to find out how that famous triangle, Kathleen, Carroll, and Bob, are coming along. Could you enlighten us a little bit?

"An interested student body"

Dear Student Body,

I'm horribly ashamed of myself, but I'm afraid I've let you down on that bit of news. I haven't found out anything new lately, but as far as I know, it's still "going around." But the fact that Carroll is away at military school may be a determining factor.

MOOS OF THE MOMENT

BY UNCLE BOB

of the Kraft Dairy Farm Service

One of the reasons why I read so many state extension bulletins is because I always find a way to do a job with less effort. If there's any way of making more money with less work, I want to know about it. And I usually find a lot of good suggestions and reminders in the bulletins.

Take the matter of cleaning cows. The extension folks point out that it is well nigh impossible to produce good milk if the cows are dirty at milking time. And then they come up with a labor-saving idea that appeals to me.

They suggest turning barber every so often and giving the cows a "hair-cut" around the flanks and udder. That means a little extra work once in a while, but look at all the hard work it saves. For you know from experience what a lot of elbow grease it takes to brush dirt out of long hair.

Naturally, clipping and brushing should be done far enough ahead of milking time to permit the dust and hair to settle. If you like the suggestion and need a couple of good bulletins on it, write Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind., for a copy of Leaflet 186, and the University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo., for Extension Circular 283.*

The Extension Service at the University of Minnesota published a leaflet recently on "Faster Milking," which explains in pictures and brief discussions, how and why you should get into this all-important method. I suggest you write for a copy of Extension Folder 119.*

There isn't much point in putting out hard-earned cash for a fine piece of machinery if you don't get the full benefit from it. Milking machines are great labor savers and are the most sanitary way to produce milk, but you can make trouble for yourself by neglecting them.

A milking machine will pay dividends on your investment if you give it thorough cleaning. If you don't, it may result in some of your milk being rejected. Milk which is allowed to cling to parts of the machine provides a breeding place for bacteria, and you know what that means.

Idaho University offers a good booklet on the proper cleaning of milking machines. It is War Circular No. 1, which you can get from the Extension Service, at Moscow, Idaho.* Another source of information on the same subject is the book which came with the machine.

To get rid of the milk which clings to surfaces in the machine after each milking, thorough rinsing, brushing and sterilizing is needed for all the parts. Test cups require special care, these booklets point out. Once you set up a regular habit of following through on the advice Idaho gives you in its booklet, I know you'll find the job has become easier.

It doesn't make much difference to most of us just what time of year our birthday comes around, but it seems to be important to a calf, and to its mother. Records kept by the United States Department of Agriculture in Washington, show that the fall is the best time for a calf to have its birthday.

There's a good discussion of this in Farmers' Bulletin 1470. The USDA got together records from 120,000 cows, to find out the differences in production which resulted when cows freshened at different times of the year.

More milk and more butterfat was produced by cows which freshened in the fall. Such cows averaged 8,238 pounds of milk and 330 pounds of

CATTLE GRUBS

Cattle grubs each year in Texas destroy enough leather to furnish shoes for a million soldiers and enough meat to feed nearly five thousand for a 12-month period.

In view of these and other losses, the Texas A&M College Extension Service is waging a strenuous control program which already is under way in South Texas and will continue to late December in the northeastern section. A leaflet describing control measures entitled "Are Your Cattle Grubby?" just has been issued by the Extension Service and is generally available from county agricultural agents.

Dr. H. G. Johnston, Extension entomologist and author of the new leaflet, says in addition to causing losses of meat and leather, grubs are known to reduce milk flow approximately 25 per cent. In addition, grubby cattle require about 15 per cent more feed. Looking at grub damage as a whole, it costs Texas farmers and ranchers about five million dollars each year. Dr. Johnston believes this can be saved by simple, inexpensive treatment.

For small numbers of animals, dusting is easy and effective, since the dust simply is rubbed into the hair with the finger tips. A fruit jar with a dozen or so holes in the metal lid can be used. A mixture of 5 per cent rotenone and sulfur is preferable, but where these ingredients are unobtainable substitutions can be made.

Cube or derris, sulfur, and water also combine to make a suitable spray mixture. Dr. Johnston recommends use of a power spray producing not less than 250 pounds pressure. The backs of the animals should be wet thoroughly. When both grubs and lice are to be controlled, animals should be dipped. Two applications 17 to 21 days apart are necessary. The first should be made 10 to 14 days after the first grubs are mature, that is, a dark brown or black color.

WEEKLY CROP REPORT

Charles Reed, Donley County Agent, has received the following report from D. A. Adams, Farm Labor Field Assistant, Plainview, Texas.

Good harvest weather has materially assisted the crop harvest this week. Labor demands have become more acute following more combining of grain sorghums and binding of feed before frost.

Cotton Pulling Situation

There is no immediate relief in sight for cotton puller demands. The cotton crop in Northwest Texas is not more than 25% harvested with no county more than 40% completed. Therefore, it is up to the local people to come to their own rescue in critical areas. The numbers of migratory pickers and pullers arriving now is negligible.

Reports from some countries show that they have only one local picker to as many as three farms. If this crop is harvested, more local people will have to assist in the harvest.

Grain Sorghum Situation

The grain sorghum harvest is about 40% harvested as compared with 30% last week (reported as 20% due to a typographical error). Sucker heads still prevent harvesting a large per cent of the fields. After frost there will be a rush to combine this grain, and congested rail facilities and elevator storage space is expected.

Demand for feed shockers is critical. Late feed is being cut for roughage before frost, and South Plains counties need feed shockers with pay about 75 cents an hour, and on the North Plains wages are even higher. Wheeler county reports needing 20 trucks and 18 combines. Confirm your referrals with Wheeler County before sending these machines, notifying this office of your action.

Prices of Grain Sorghums are firm with last week's prices of $1.30 to $1.45 at elevators and $1.20 to $1.35 at the farm. Moisture content of the grain is now low enough to store without danger of spoilage.

RED CROSS VOLUNTEER SERVICE

HOME SERVICE
Mrs. C. A. Burton

A meeting of the Home Service workers for this district was held at Childress on the 24th with a Home Service worker out of the Area office at St. Louis and the Field Representative from Plainview in attendance, as well as the Field Director from the Childress Army Air Field. Each of them contributed to the information necessary for carrying on the work of Home Service—which involves communication, information, benefits and claims, reports and financial assistance.

Even yet after all the efforts to give publicity to the services of Home Service, often some one says, "I didn't know to whom to go." Red Cross stands ready to help in any way possible. If we do not have the information you need, we will try to get it for you. Recently a request came for information as to who was eligible for maternity care—someone had said the wives of all non-commissioned men were eligible. From headquarters came the verification of the fact that only wives of the four lower grades and air cadets were eligible.

"Life Magazine" is asking for back copies of "Life" for returning prisoners of war. Complete files beginning with Dec. 8, 1941 are requested and "Life" will arrange for the shipment.

At one of the largest camps for American prisoners of war in Germany, inmates were refused permission to plant the garden seeds furnished by Red Cross because cultivation offered a convenient means of disposing of earth when digging escape tunnels.

The Red Cross sent to Europe a fleet of 50 heavy trucks to be turned over to the International Committee to carry goods and mail from Spanish or French ports into Switzerland—the distribution center.

Among the activities of the American Red Cross through the International Committee with respect to relief for prisoners of war are optical, dental and orthopedic services. The Detaining Power provides eye examination service. The prescriptions are filled from a large pool of glasses in Geneva. If the order cannot be filled from here they are to be provided from Switzerland. Red Cross has sent more than $100,000 worth of medical and surgical supplies for German prisoners of war, and $12,000 worth of dental equipment.

The Japanese request "no individual next of kin parcels," but the 24 word messages can be by air as often as you wish. Mail goes by way of Teheran, then by rail and water to Japan and all of the Far East.

Fred Wayne Harris Returns To States

Fred Wayne Harris, Aviation Machinist's Mate second class, USNR, of Claude, Texas, is a member of Navy Search Plane Squadron VB-144 which has returned to the United States after eight action-packed months in the Central Pacific.

The 23-year-old petty officer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harris of Claude, and a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Patching of Clarendon.

He was plane captain of a Vega Ventura Navy Bomber attached to Squadron VB-144. He participated in 70 combat, photographic, and reconnaissance patrols and carried out 22 bombing and strafing attacks, dropping a total of 25 tons of bombs and firing 10,000 rounds of ammunition against enemy fortified bases and armed shipping.

While his plane was carrying out these bombing and strafing attacks it was hit on three different occasions by enemy anti-aircraft fire. Luck was always with him, and his plane and crew always got back to its base safely.

On one occasion his plane was responsible for the rescue of a fighter pilot who had gone down at sea. Many of these missions were flown in bad weather and at night.

Operating from the Gilberts and the Marshalls, this land-based Navy Squadron inflicted its heaviest damage on the enemy by bombing and strafing assaults against Nauru in the Gilberts; Wotje, Taroa, Jaluit and Taongi Atolls in the Marshalls, and Kusaie in the Carolines.

The squadron made 1,865 flights in the combat zone for a total of more than 6,900 hours in the air. Only one plane was lost during the eight months, although every one was damaged by enemy anti-aircraft fire at one time or another.

Mrs. Allen C. Jones and her friend, Miss Eva Morris of Amarillo visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Martin.

Mrs. Clyde Slavin and daughter Jacqueline are home for the duration.

Mrs. J. L. McMurtry and daughter, June, were Amarillo visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Shelton were in Amarillo shopping Monday.

There's a Shortage of Copies of The Dallas Morning News—But NOT of Our Desire to Serve!

The crucial shortage of newsprint paper has forced a curtailment of the supply of copies of The Dallas Morning News to our dealers in this county. Only a small part of regular shipments is possible until we are permitted by Government Authority to increase our consumption of newsprint.

Distribution for the present will be made from drug stores and newstands, unless your agent can arrange otherwise.

We realize, with deep regret, that some of our old-time readers are not able to get copies of The News. We trust they will understand and bear with us while we're making every effort to restore service.

In the meantime, although many patrons will not have The News delivered to them temporarily, their names are still on The Dallas News' Big Book and we look forward to serving them again.

Thank you.
