Vacations.

Most people took a Scotch vacation this summer. Staid at home and allowed the mind to wander.

Advice to Gardeners.

If in doubt as to whether it is a food or a weed, cut it down. If it comes up again, it is a weed.

The Unconquerable.

Man has conquered about everything in nature except human nature.

Educational.

A large sign displayed one mile south of Sherman, Texas reads: "Building boys is better than mending men."

Miracles.

It is estimated that two mechanics with a thousand bolts can put a Ford together in four days. A nut and two minutes can scatter it over a block of highway.

Home Talent.

Any weekly newspaper publisher wishing to find out how many in his county think they can 'run' his paper better than he can, has only to refer to the last census figures and subtract two.

Two Victories.

In addition to shutting down east Texas oil wells, the national guard should be given credit also for chasing pajama clad girls off the street, one of the first orders given and the second victory of the $4000 a-day army.

Wasted Tax Money.

If we had the enormous amount of tax money that has been wasted in passing unconstitutional legislation, and could apply it toward paying salaries of our school teachers right now, it would relieve a lot of suspense.

Martial Law District.

While in East Texas recently, one of our citizens parked his truck and looked over the town. When he got back to his truck he found a tag tied to the steering wheel upon which the following message had been written by the "law" of the town: "doan Park yor truk in front of a Hotel cus You will be Foun for it nex Time yu art to no beter."

The Battle Front.

There was a time in west Texas when the head of the household defended the interests of that home with a winchester or a muzzle-loading shotgun.

Times have changed. Changed a whole lot. Now when it becomes necessary to keep the wolf from the door, the lady of the house arms herself with a pressure cooker and gets the job done.

The old man who used to prate about his wonderful marksmanship has become an adept at helping the good woman can peas and corn. When they get down to team work the enemy, however great and menacing, is overwhelmed.

Our sturdy citizenship is to be congratulated for its resourcefulness. It all goes to prove that we would have a wonderful people, the happiest and thriftiest on earth in the best section of the world if they had a chance and a square deal.

You can't down a people who have the grit and energy to overcome the impossible. As a further sense of our appreciation to share a big portion of the losses sustained by our neighbors, we are making a special subscription offer in this issue. Read the whole page. We want to be as fair with the canner folks as we were with the wheat raisers, and both have our sincere sympathy.

MURRAY'S BOOM

Governor Murray's presidential boom is getting under way. Several Murray for President clubs have been formed in Texas, quite a number in Oklahoma, and now in Kansas. The politicians haven't taken any notice of it yet, but that doesn't mean anything, one way or the other, at this stage of the game. And if the more thoughtful folk regard it with amusement, that does not necessarily mean anything, either.

Can it be taken seriously? To answer that question, one must consider what the state of mind of the people will be next spring. When presidential booms must meet the test of conventions and primaries. If large numbers of folks have gone jobless during the winter, if prices of farm products are still unreasonably low, it may be found that the stage has been set for just such a man as Oklahoma's governor.

Disregarding the question of ability, or even of sincerity, disregarding the legality, or the lack of it, in the more spectacular things, he has done, we may find the Murray candidacy more formidable than now appears possible. He is a man who acts, who is ready to try to lead; at a time when the country is suffering from official inaction and from lack of leadership, the candidacy of such a man may have a wide appeal. He is a man who knows how to align himself on the popular side, who is quick to adopt the role of people's champion. He knew the public wanted the free bridges opened and he set about in a spectacular manner to have them opened. Call it grandstand if you want to. Cavil about disrespect for federal courts if you want to. The fact remains that the bridges are now open. Nor can Murray's achievements in his fight for lower utility rates be disregarded; that sort of thing hits pretty close to home, with the average man.

It may be admitted that such a candidacy has its ridiculous aspects. But there may be a situation in this country next year that causes folks to overlook the absurdity of it. We may discover that a man who acts, a man who fights and a man who takes the people's side is one to be reckoned with. The next year may be a year when ordinary rules in politics don't hold good. —Wichita Falls Times.

THE LITTLE THINGS IN LIFE

Big things worth while are made up largely of little things. The home canner means much if used. Cream prices are advancing. Poultry products are bringing better prices.

All of these little things when added up for the year, make big things. The weekly pay check means a more independent existence. Those who plan their efforts along this line are our most prosperous citizens.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

Migosh! . Yes sir, it knocked our hat off when a 74-year-old preacher came in and told the old Apostle some one had stolen his hay. Rev. Ingram cuts the Johnson grass along the highways, ties it in bundles and later brings it to town in his buggy. He says some one stole what he had bundled east of town recently. Can you imagine any one stealing the labor of a preacher that old?

Preachers, in most instances, don't get much pay for the great amount of good they do, and this venerable old fellow is one of them. Steal his hay! Ye gods! When a fellow gets so hard up that he has to rob a poor preacher who would give him his shirt off his back if the thief needed it, has reached the limit. Bring Brother Ingram's hay back!

Tom Shadle brought in a musk-mellon that weighed 22½ pounds. We had just eaten that one when W. M. Pickering presented us with one that weighed just three pounds less. Thank you both. They tasted fine and we will always remember the treat.

After reading Mrs. McDowell's excellent article in the Leader last week in which she called attention to the fact that women are being taught their legal rights, it looks like the old Apostle is bound to have trouble with the good woman. She's spunkier than she used to be and she's learned it in the club meetings.

For instance when I yell "get up" in the morning, she says "not crossed". When I ask what kind of a pie it is, she says "caveat emptor". And when I want a clean shirt, she yells "demurer". I'll be nuxvomica if I stand for it and told her so and she yells "carbolic acid" which means goodbye in any language. Worry, worry and something can't be done about it.

Besides being sanitary engineer of this metropolis, Dad O. S. Anerson is also a poultry genius. He bored a hole in each of his hen laying boxes, ran a funnel to a cotton seed bumper below. When a hen lays, she always takes inventory before quitting the nest. Well, the egg falls down below and when the hen sees no egg, she thinks she has failed on the job and lays another. Dad says he has some hens that have laid as high as fifteen eggs a day with the new arrangement in effect.

As stated before, the County Agent is dumb. We not only fell out over the moon, but we fell out this week over English sparrows. The pests got to be something awful and the County Agent advised poison. Who would want to poison a bird? The old Apostle selected the hottest part of the day, fed the blamed birds popcorn and the grains would explode just as the bird swallowed and there you are. Had three bird pies in one day. The meat situation is solved. There's lots of noise to this affair.

A sharp nose indicates curiosity. And a flat one too much curiosity.

A school teacher wants to know what a "popsicle" is. Well, sir, that is a frostbitten phosphate frozen on a stick and guaranteed not to rip, ravel, run, splash or drip. Yeh, kids eat 'em.

Down in the piny woods they never do things by halves. Two families fell out and mixed their affairs up until now one is in jail, another in a hospital, one is out on a $4000 bond with a knot on his head big as a baseball, and the 4th has a broken leg and is minus seven teeth. They fell out over a $4 shoat.

And the optician's daughter made a spectacle of herself with two glasses.

Sam Roberts made an amazing discovery this week. While cutting feed, he skinned his hand and in applying turpentine, some of it dropped down on some "goat heads". Instantly there was a commotion and the goat heads began to butt each other. At last accounts they were about butted out and the sawdust was four inches deep all over Sam's field. One of his neighbors who got lost in his weedy field last week, was in after two gallons of turpentine early this morning.

With the opening of schools this week, we may expect a return of the old-fashioned pie suppers. Remember when the pie of your best girl was being auctioned how you twisted and squirmed as the other fellow bid it up just for pure cussedness? Well, well! Devertie Leathers came in lugging a banana musk-mellon that tipped the beam at a little better than 26 pounds. He boasted that Tom Shadle would have to scratch to beat it and Tom's just the boy to try. These fellows will have some contest next year.

G. Milt Allen could not compete for size, but he brought in a double cantaloupe that was perfect as to flavor, color and size. Two grown together, or Siamese twins as it were. He intends to plant the seed and grow them in a row joined together next season so that he can throw them on the truck like cord wood.

Sunday afternoon late Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Baker joined the Apostle and the Good Woman in a trip out in the country as we often do. We were headed for the punkin patch. Having heard that one M. M. McCracken had a patch of punkins with some as large as a barrel, we naturally wanted to see them.

After skimming along over some Roy Beverly highways down to the Hudgins school house, we landed at punkin headquarters. Not that he had nothing else, but Mr. McCracken has punkins and no mistake about it.

We took the women folks with us down to the patch to swear to anything we might tell and that man showed us dozens and dozens of punkins. Some of them too large to reach around. Golden yellow and some red. There's a million patterns of pie material in that patch.

This man McCracken is a kind of a Burbank when it comes to growing things. He treated us to some of the very best watermelons ever grown. Loaded us up with some to bring home and boy! Howdy! His fruit crop failed this season but he has the trees and the grape vines ready for next season. He knows how to grow fruit, too.

He has acres of cantaloupes and a fine crop in general. He grows "Mung" beans for a soil builder. The beans look like okra seed when shelled. Has them planted right along with his feed crop in the same row and the stock has an extra treat when they hit the bean vines that grows more than two feet tall. He says they stand the drouth fine and they looked it Sunday.

Mrs. McCracken's tomato patch is a little late but loaded and hardly a weed could be seen. Lots of tomatoes coming on and they showed no dry weather effects. This family originally came from Jack county, but by way of apology, Mr. McCracken stated they left there 31 years ago. They have a nice farm out there and plenty to keep them going. It was a fine visit and we got so interested we staid until dark.

Mr. McCracken had been borrowing the Leader each week, but he subscribed for a paper of his own Sunday and he goes on the roll of honor this week. Here's hoping he doesn't forget when the punkins get right for pies. We've got to have some old time punkin pies with the spices like grandmother used to make.

Restless CHILDREN

CHILDREN will fret, often for no apparent reason. But there's always Castoria! Harmless as the recipe on the wrapper; mild and bland as it tastes. But its gentle action soothes a youngster more surely than a more powerful medicine.

That's the beauty of this special children's remedy! It may be given the tiniest infant—as often as there is need. In cases of colic, diarrhea or similar disturbance, it is invaluable. A coated tongue calls for just a few drops to ward off constipation; so does any suggestion of bad breath. Whenever children don't eat well, don't rest well, or have any little upset—this pure vegetable preparation is usually all that's needed.

RID THE ROADS OF Recklessness!

Usually it isn't automobiles which kill people.

More often it's RECKLESSNESS.

This means that thousands of lives CAN be saved, if people will take the trouble to save them.

Will you join in a great national crusade to save lives... to make our streets and highways safer? Will you enlist on the side of safety in a war against the reckless driving that took 32,500 lives last year? If you will, come here to local headquarters of the Silvertown Safety League and sign the League's pledge for car owners.

Hundreds of thousands of these emblems are displayed on cars of Silvertown Safety League members. Get yours here.

The nine, common-sense rules of this pledge were developed by the drivers of the famous Silver Fleet, who have covered 5,000,000 MILES WITHOUT INJURY TO A SINGLE PERSON. The pledge has proved its ability to prevent accidents.

Your copy of the pledge is waiting. We will install, without cost, the handsome chromium emblem of the League on your car—TO SHOW THE WORLD THAT YOU ARE ON THE SIDE OF RIGHT AGAINST RECKLESSNESS. Come in now. Let's save the children in this town. Let's fight for safety!

MY PLEDGE AS A MEMBER THE SILVERTOWN SAFETY LEAGUE I AGREE...

1. To drive at speeds in keeping with the safety of others as well as myself.
2. To keep on the right side of the road, except when passing.
3. To pass only when I know there are ample time and space—never on blind curves or when nearing the crest of a hill.
4. To go through intersections only when I have the right of way.
5. To observe all traffic signals.
6. To give signals myself that can be clearly seen and understood, before turning or stopping in traffic.
7. To drive only when in full possession of my faculties.
8. To keep my brakes, lights, and horn in good condition.
9. To operate my car on tires which assure a positive grip on the road—safe traction—and freedom from hazardous tire failures.

AIR CONTAINERS—taking the place of old-fashioned inner tubes—seal punctures on running wheels. (A) Cross section deflated. (B) Cross section inflated. Compression of rubber underneath cord insert prevents escape of air if a puncture occurs.

THERE ARE MORE SAFE MILES in the Silvertown than in any other tire... We make a generous trade-in allowance for your old, doubtful tires. Don't risk blow-outs and skidding—start riding on safety-tested Silvertowns today!

Governor Sterling

helped Big Oil Interests, but who helps Mollie and the Babies?

Mollie and the babies live out there on a farm. While John was producing so much cotton that they have to go ragged, Mollie was canning to beat the band.

John's business went to the bad this season. There was no market for his products, though it was no fault of his since he had the best products to be grown. When his line got so dull there was nothing left to do, he joined Mollie in canning and now they have a dandy line of canned goods.

There has been very little sold off the farm to date, and while they have plenty of farm products, they have very little money.

It is this class of folks that we want to reach with this page advertisement. We want to be of some help. We want to extend to these good friends a neighborly offer that is mutual because the hundreds of Johns and Mollies make up two-thirds of our subscription list of readers.

PAY YOUR SUBSCRIPTION WITH HOME CANNED PRODUCTS

When the wheat harvest came on, our wheat growing friends had an abundance of wheat but it could not be sold for more than a fourth of what it should have brought. We took wheat on subscription payments at what was probably four times what they could get for wheat on the open market. We were glad to extend a neighborly help.

RULES AND RESTRICTIONS

This offer is open only to those who canned the products, applies to both new and renewals but must not be for more than two years. Provided that one may contribute ONE subscription to a neighbor who has no canned goods to offer though no fault of their own.

All cans or jars must bear a label giving the name of the variety of food in the container, and the name of the one who canned the product.

Please let us have tin cans if possible due to shipping advantages.

This offer applies only to those living within 40 miles of Clarendon.

No Canned Goods Paid Us Will Be Sold In Competition With Your Products

The canned goods received on this offer will under no circumstances be sold locally cutting down your market. Some may be contributed to a charity fund later, but the bulk of it will go to the drouth districts far removed from Donley county.

THIS OFFER IS FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY

When we have reached our capacity, we will be compelled to withdraw this offer. At the same time, every canner has a chance to pay up, get a year ahead, and send the Leader to some one who was unable to can. But do it now.

You may also send the Leader to a disabled ex-soldier, shutin or any widow past seventy years of age on this exchange basis. Provided they live within 40 miles of Clarendon, or within the first postal zone.

We Appreciate Our Friends

And why shouldn't we? You who have made the Leader possible are up against a hard deal. As producers, you feed the world and should be entitled to every consideration. You ought to enjoy every convenience. You ought to have every luxury to enjoy that the market gambler has who runs no risk during the growing season and yet sets a price on your product after you have produced it. Yes, and a thousand times more.

Either of these Items Will Pay for a Year's Subscription to the Leader

We realize that the above exchange is much above any possible market price, but we are willing to share the loss of a market with you. And besides, we don't expect you to stand over a hot stove and give your product away.

"A COMMON PAPER FOR COMMON PEOPLE"

TRAVELING MEN PAY COMPLIMENTS TO LOCAL HOTEL

Has Built up Large Patron List Through Offering First-Class Service

Advertising with a slogan of "the traveling man's home," Hotel Clarendon has constantly increased its patronage among traveling men many of whom pass up other towns of the Panhandle in order to spend the night here.

Nor is this patronage confined to traveling men alone, but tourists and local people have come to appreciate hotel accommodations far above the average.

Upon entering the front lobby of 25x42 feet adorned with ferns and flowers, one is at once charmed with the home-like surroundings. In the center is an aquarium some ten feet square furnishing endless amusement for the guests. Coolness is at once noticeable with fans in operation and plenty of ventilation, with cushioned chairs a-plenty for rest and recreation.

Just to the right of the lobby is the banquet hall 24x32 furnished with tables and chairs and a piano of popular make. The south and west walls are practically glass and the light by day is inviting and the ornamental lights in the evening cast a glow that is most beautiful.

Upon passing through the lobby one enters the reception room 24x34 feet with the latest patterns of furniture of exquisite design. Quiet and secluded one again senses the "home-like" atmosphere.

Next the dining room with a space of 25x48 feet provides ample room for the placing of tables in a manner most pleasing, mirrors and again the flowers that add cheer to those who perhaps have traveled miles and feel the need of relaxation amid the more luxurious surroundings. The meals served are a specialty and one of the chief attractions to this well known hostelry. The price is only fifty cents.

Sample rooms are provided of ample size that the traveling man may display in samples to best advantage. This method has not by any means passed into history as many might think.

The comfort of the guests being the first consideration, the halls and stairway are provided with noiseless cushion matting that there be no disturbing factors after guests have gone to their rooms.

The rooms are thirty-seven in number furnished with circulating ice water, hot and cold bath facilities, reading lights and fans and writing desk each, and two doors to each room assures proper ventilation. The bedding material is of the best and compares favorably with that of any hotel in the state.

The recent changes and renovations have added charm to the bed rooms. Mrs. A. Jasper as designer, planned tints and colors where the furnishings and interior are made to match even to the bed coverings. By using different plans, the room decorations afford a wide range for selection hardly two rooms being furnished in the same color.

Mrs. Irene Mitchell Has Opened Beauty Parlor

Believing that the privacy of her home would appeal to her patrons, Mrs. Irene Mitchell, well known in beauty culture lines locally, this week opened a beauty parlor at her home first door west of the Buick garage.

She recently did post-graduate work in the Moler beauty school at Dallas from which she graduated some time back. She also has a barber's certificate and feels that she can render service that will appeal to those who desire first-class results. Her prices are quoted in her advertisement in this issue.

Childress Daily Index Sold To Brownwood Men

J. L. Martin, veteran west Texas newspaper man and P. A. Glanville, a merchant of Brownwood, purchased the Childress Daily Index from the Nunn-Warren chain this week.

The Index was established by the Haskett in 1888. L. E. Haskett sold the paper to his son Fred L. shortly before it was sold to the chain.

Joe Holland Jr., Mrs. Ray Couch, Misses Fannie Perry and Lois Cox visited Miss Dale Park at Amarillo Tuesday where she has been confined to a hospital for some time. Miss Dale is slowly recovering from two operations and attending illness.

Weekly Poem THE WHINER

I don't mind a man with a red-blooded kick
 At a real or fancied wrong;
 I can stand for the chap with a grouch if he's quick
 To drop it when joy comes along.
 I have praise for the fellow who says what he thinks,
 Though his thoughts may not fit with mine,
 But spare me from having to mix with the ginks.
 Who go through the world with a whine.
 I am willing to listen to sinner or saint
 Who is willing to fight for his rights,
 And there's something in an honest complaint
 That the soul of me really de-lights.
 For kickers are useful and grouches are wise,
 For their purpose is frequently fine,
 But spare me from having to mix with the guys
 Who go through the world with a whine.

—Mortimer Denby

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Allen, owners and managers of the hotel, are due no little credit for their faith in Clarendon, and the indomitable will to furnish the public hotel accommodations at a reasonable price. Many guests choose to spend their nights in Clarendon because of the hotel, and thus spend money here that would otherwise be spent in other towns.

Fred Buntin Becomes Owner President's Cup

Amid a setting of sedate calmness and officious dignity, a bunch of fellow tormenters saw Fred Buntin receive the President's Cup Monday afternoon.

The presentation was made by G. L. Boykin, boy orator of Salt Fork, who took occasion to comment upon the "awardee" that did not by any stretch of the imagination reflect dignity upon the person or reflect honor upon the character of one who is charged with having won first honor in an 18 hole handicap tournament.

In fact Fred was presented with two cups. The first more aptly expressed the opinion of the players who by any means fair or foul sought to defeat his purpose in taking first honors. It was of a nocturnal type bearing an inscription that bespoke the sentiment of other contestants, and made reference to a comparison with the animal of long ears and loud noise.

A synthetic engraving addressed the winner as "Freddie Albi Buntin", to which Fred took positive exceptions.

The next cup presented was of a beautiful design standing 15 inches in height with suitable engraving bearing the information that President Wesley Knorpp of the Hillcroft Golf Club was the donor, and Fred Buntin the recipient.

As "runner up", T. M. Shaver was awarded an ornament depicting the golfer at the height of ambition with club raised for a master stroke. T. M. thanked the donor profusely and expressed his admiration for the fairness in the crowd in not handing him the "trimmings" that had been handed Fred.

The presentation was made at the Kerbow Hardware and some twenty of the faithful gathered for the purpose of adding zest, solemnity, dignity and ludicrousness to the occasion.

M. M. McCracken Heads List of Pumpkin Growers

What is said to be the largest pumpkins and the largest patch devoted to the growing of this delicacy, is that of M. M. McCracken whose farm is located less than a mile southeast of the Hudgins schoolhouse.

His pumpkins will average around forty pounds and he has a number that will beat sixty. They have been grown on sandy land without the aid of either fertilizer or irrigation.

A PSALM OF COTTON

Cotton thou art my shepherd, I am in want; thou hast caused me to feed on dry pastures, thou hast destroyed my credit, thou hast led me into paths of poverty, liars, lawsuits and near nakedness;

Thou hast destroyed my soul and my happiness. Thou hast caused me to go to a banker with my hat under my arm and mortgage the muscle and produce of my farm; Thou hast caused me to live in a rented house in full view of the moon, while stars come twinkling thru the cracks;

Thou preparest a naked back and an empty stomach for me in the presence of my friends; thou anointest my head with ignorance, superstition, poverty and grey hair, how can I trust thee?

Thou hast kept my children out of school, church and society, thereby robbing them of what is good, noble and elevating; Thou hast caused me to go to the barn and bring out the old fertilizer sacks and ask my wife to make me a shirt.

And behold as I stand in the midst of my friends with my new shirt, there are these inscriptions in full view: "18% phosphate" on the front, and "12-4-4" on the tail. Amen.

The BEST Gray Hair Remedy is Home Made

To half pint of water add one ounce bay rum, as small box of Barbo Compound and one-fourth ounce of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. It will gradually darken streaked, faded or gray hair and make it soft and glossy. Barbo will not color the scalp, is not sticky or grossy and does not rub off.
