BALL PLAYERS OF LIONS CLUB FETED TUESDAY

Judge Cole Delivers His Fellowship Address At Luncheon Hour

The address of Judge Cole before the Lions club at their Tuesday luncheon is said to have been most interesting and at times most touching as he paid his respects to the friendships of years and the many courtesies shown him over the past thirty years as a resident of Clarendon. He closed his address but a few moments before train arrival that was to take him to a federal attorney's position at Ft. Worth.

Another interesting matter that pleased both guests and entertained was the compliment paid the Lions club ball team. Ten of the boys were guests for the luncheon festivities and were highly complimented for the winnings made in behalf of the sponsoring club.

The boys feted were Robert McKee, Robert Nichols, George and Dave McCluskey, Vernon Veazy, Homer Estlack, Harold Gattis, Willard O'Neal, Nelson Merritt, Raymond Tidwell.

These boys have played six games winning four of them. They lost one game each to the Baptist and Rexall teams and won from the Legion, Highway, Baptist and Oiler teams. They play the Rexall again Friday afternoon of this week at 6 o'clock.

Homer Mulkey reported on the results of the first operation on Lindell Ragle of Lelia, a small boy of six being cared for through the Crippled Children's Committee of the Club. Mr. Mulkey stated that he had been advised that the lad could be made to walk within a reasonable length of time.

Men's Bible Class Changes Meeting Place

The Come As You Are, Men's Bible Class, held its monthly business meeting and social Tuesday evening in the basement of the First Christian Church. The program consisted of answering Bible Questions. Every member of the class was requested to drop a question in a box, and the teacher of the class spent over an hour answering these questions which covered many important subjects. A good time was enjoyed by all who attended. The class recommended that it move back to the Pastime Theatre for its regular Sunday Bible study. The class will meet in the basement of the church this coming Sunday, but Sunday week will be back in the theatre at the regular time, nine thirty-five. The men of the city are invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. McHenry Lane are attending state school at Canyon.

PAMPA MEN FIND SKELETONS IN INDIAN BURYING GROUND

"John Doe," unearthed a few miles north of Miami Sunday by O. J. Johnson of The Pampa News staff, Judge Mead of Miami, and others, was taken to Pampa by Johnson to be examined as to his identity.

Those who excavated the skeleton from old Indian burial ground believed it older than the plains men and possibly of the cliff-dwelling age. The bones, including skull, are in good condition except the left side. In the left hand clasp a mussel shell in which small holes had been bored.

A flint bird-point near the heart led to the suggestion that the man had been killed by an arrow with one of the keen little points. However, it has been suggested that he might have swallowed the point. A deep, round dent on the skull showed that he had received a fracture, which had healed nicely.

The oldtimer apparently was at least 6 feet tall. Bones of his arms indicate that his arms were nearly long as his legs, and the length of the fingers suggest that he may have belonged to the ancient basket-weavers. That he lived to a

McMurry Students Appear At Methodist Church

Under the supervision of Mrs. Gypsy Ted Sullivan Wiley, former citizen of Clarendon who is now director of music at McMurry College, Abilene, the boys' and girls' glee club of McMurry College put on a very enjoyable program Sunday night at the Methodist Church. The program consisted of specially arranged songs and solos. Mrs. Wiley sang two songs that had been requested of her by former friends. Mrs. J. L. McMurry accompanied on the piano.

This group of talented young men and women from McMurry began a tour June 2nd which has carried them over West Texas and the Panhandle. The glee club is composed of eight boys and four girls. They showed a remarkable degree of training for a college group.

Large Congregation Hears Prohibition Talk

Dr. J. D. Sanderfer, President of Simmons University, Abilene spoke to an overflowing house at the Methodist Church Sunday night June 11, on prohibition. Meeting the question squarely, Dr. Sanderfer gave enumerable statistics on the progress of prohibition since its adoption both from a religious and economic viewpoint. The speaker held his audience for about an hour and a half with his eloquence and interesting material.

Afterwards Dr. Sanderfer stated that he had never had a more attentive hearing than that which he received in Clarendon.

Lady Dies in Chamberlain Community Tuesday

Funeral services were conducted at the family home by Rev. E. B. Bowen, pastor of the Methodist church of Clarendon, at 3 p. m. Wednesday for Mrs. Evalena Martin.

She is survived by her husband N. E. Martin and three children. The family recently moved here from Hall county and resided on the Lott farm in the Chamberlain community.

Rev. Kellam Makes Appeal For Buckner Orphans

Rev. J. J. Kellam, field representative for Buckner's Orphanage of Dallas for the past several years was here Wednesday and made a practical and forceful appeal for funds at the Baptist church last night.

Some seven hundred children are now being cared for and something like a thousand more are asking to be given a home there. The speaker pictured the plight of the home in a practical common manner that was most touching, the present conditions being due to the financial status of the nation in which the innocent always appear to suffer most.

ONE THOUSAND MEN READY FOR PALO DURO JOBS

Payroll Expected to Reach $50,000.00 Per Month On Forestry Projects

Drilling has begun on wells for supplying water to forestry army camp sites on the Arnold ranch in Palo Duro canyon. Five wells will be required to supply an adequate supply of fresh water for the twelve hundred or more men who will be stationed in the canyon from the beginning.

These men are ready to move to the jobs according to army officers in charge of training at Ft. Sill. Intensive training consists of physical exercise, care of the health, etc. The hardening out process requires six weeks according to Major J. L. Dunn who will have charge of the camps in Palo Duro.

Five camps with two hundred men each are to be established just as soon as the water has been provided. The workmen will clean off underbrush and otherwise fit the camp site for company.

The workmen are expected to arrive by the last of the week and begin preparing highways, bridge paths, water storage reservoirs for lakes to be stocked with fish suitable to the location. Buffalo, deer and wild turkey have already been "planted" in the Canyon through the influence of "Col. Erasmus Tack" of Amarillo who is a member of the State Fish, Game and Oyster Commission.

Equalization School Tax Board to Meet

Numbers of citizens are receiving notices of raises by the Equalization Board of the Clarendon Independent District this week. There appears to be disposition to make a slight raise in most every instance to meet an urgent demand.

Those serving on the board are Henry Williams, T. F. Connally and G. J. Teel. The sessions will be held in the director's room of the Donley County State Bank on June 20-21.

Mrs. Ida Hunsucker Taken To Ft. Worth Jail

As an echo of the murder of Sheriff Joe Brown at Rhome in January after he had arrested three men and a woman on an oil theft investigation, Mrs. Ida Hunsucker of Quitaque, was arrested Saturday and taken to Ft. Worth.

The parties all escaped after the shooting and Mrs. Hunsucker was the only alleged member of the party located since that time. Just what turn the investigation has taken was not disclosed by the officers making the arrest.

County Forced to Curtail Burial Expenses

Due to a depleted treasury and the present financial condition of the average taxpayer, the County Commissioners have been forced to make different arrangements for the burial of those who are put away at county expense.

It is announced that in the future caskets will be manufactured by a local planing mill, trimmed and otherwise made presentable. These caskets will be supplied indigents without charge by the county, but relatives or others will be expected to make arrangements for other parts of the burial expenses such as digging the grave, transportation to the cemetery, etc.

Former Clarendon Resident Killed in Car Crash

Ben Brady, aged 46 and a ranch foreman resident of Clarendon several years ago, was killed in a car crash 15 miles north of Amarillo Monday night. The other car is said to have been driven by C. V. Wooley. The accident happened at a dip near the Canadian river.

Brady was employed on the W. R. Ozler ranch northeast of Amarillo. He is survived by three children, Melvin aged 19, Hollis 16, and Kedron, a daughter aged 14, all of Clarendon.

CLARENDON MAY TAKE ADVANTAGE NEW LOAN PLAN

Those Favoring Plan Cite Advantages of Money Gift of 30 Percent

Information to the effect that towns and cities borrowing money under the new plan as proposed under the National Industrial Recovery Act, may receive an outright gift of thirty percent of the loan, has incited local interest and stirred those in authority to official action.

Under this act it is reasoned that if Clarendon should apply for a loan of ten thousand dollars, the government would make a gift of three thousand dollars with a small interest rate on the remaining seven thousand on a long-time payment plan.

Those favoring the plan call attention to the possibilities of converting the old Grammar School building into a city auditorium by removing the materials in the walls down to the top of the first story. Mayor Cagle explained that the cost to the city would be in the materials of the inclined floor and roof for a completed building. The dimension lumber being taken from the old building being dismantled is of the finest grade and could be used to advantage.

Others favoring the plan see an opportunity to secure the unskilled labor cost free under the RFC plan, and that if Clarendon is to get an auditorium, it is "now or never." A certain amount of skilled labor and supervision would be required which is the only expense other than cost of materials for floor and roofing, it is said.

Mr. Odus Caraway, chairman of the Donley County Relief work has been notified of a conference to be held in Pampa tomorrow, the 16th. The letter is signed by Mr. C. H. Walker, chairman of the Gray County relief committee and reads in part as follows:

"At this conference, there will be an opportunity to make application in behalf of your county or city for funds that will be made available by that Act. This conference will be held under the direction of the Hon. Lawrence Westbrook, Texas Relief Commissioner. Members of your County Relief Committee, City Council and County authorities are invited to attend."

Several local men included in the invitation, as well as several others will be present from Donley county at this meeting which is to be held in the City Hall at Pampa.

DONLEY COUNTY MAY GET HIGHWAY OUTLET SOUTH

Proposed Plan Would Link Towns of Plains From Pampa to Post

Delegates of leading citizens from Ralls, Floydada and Silverton were here Tuesday seeking the cooperation of Donley county citizens in securing the extension of Highway 88 to including their towns.

Highway 88 is a designated state highway from Pampa to Clarendon. By reason of the fact that no state north or south highway now exists between Amarillo and Estelline, a distance of 105 miles, it is believed that it is possible to secure an extension of Highway 88 so as to include Silverton, Floydada, Ralls and Post to there intersect the Lubbock-Snyder highway.

The proposed highway could be constructed from the twenty-three million dollar appropriation recently made Texas by the Federal government, it is said. The matter will be taken up at once with all the towns on the proposed route cooperating with their respective County Commissioners.

The Cap Rock grade on the proposed route has already been put in excellent condition affording one of the most, if not the most, scenic spots in the Panhandle other than Palo Duro canyon.

HEDLEY MAN'S BACK IS BROKEN IN GRAVEL PIT

Two Others Are Injured In Sudden Cave of Bank As Workmen Are Resting

Two men and a small boy were injured, one of them seriously, about 3:30 Monday afternoon in a gravel pit near the Denver tracks in east Hedley. The three had been loading wagons from the gravel pit. At the time the bank caved, they had sought the shade of the bank for a short rest until the next wagon arrived.

The most seriously injured is N. A. Sims who was rushed to Adair hospital in a Buntin & Son ambulance where x-Ray examinations disclosed a broken back and other injuries of a serious nature. An Amarillo orthopedic specialist was called into consultation and other measures taken to render the injured man every assistance possible.

Mr. Sims has resided at and near Hedley for some time, has a wife and six children and was employed in RFC work at the time the injury occurred. His small son of about nine years was painfully injured by falling earth and gravel but was returned home Tuesday.

Del Cooper was also injured to some extent by shock and abrasions from falling rock. He was given treatment by a Hedley physician and it was not necessary to bring him to the hospital with the other two unfortunates.

Nazarene Revival Begins Here Next Sunday

According to an announcement of the local pastor, Mrs. Gussie McDonald, a revival of the Church of the Nazarene will begin Sunday morning. The meetings will be held in the building next door to the Donley County abstract company on the east side of the square.

Rev. W. P. Sibley of Abilene and well known revivalist, will be in active charge of the services which are to be held at 10 a. m. and at 8 p. m. each day.

Odd Fellow Memorial Will Be Held Sunday Night

The Independent Order of Odd-fellows, and the Rebecca Lodge of this city will hold their annual Memorial services Sunday night in the First Christian Church. Rev. W. E. Ferrell, minister of the church will bring the message of the evening. His subject will be "The Vacant Chair." He promises something different in this sermon to all who will attend the services, and the public is invited to be present.

Actions of Citizens Must Determine Band Status

Shall Clarendon continue to have a band? That will be the question put squarely up to the citizens of the town Friday when a committee of ladies from the Parent-Teacher association, and W. C. Stewart of the band committee proper make the rounds to determine the future financial support to be given the band.

For several months the band director has been performing a service with very little financial appreciation shown by the town. Those sponsoring the movement at this time state that the limit has been reached and that it is now up to the citizens of the town to take an active interest in the matter.

Early Morning Fire Destroys Home And Contents

A resident owned by Horner Gorman and Rayburn Stegall was consumed by fire about 3:30 this (Thursday) morning. The home was occupied by Horner Gorman. Nothing was saved from the building. The insurance is said to cover about half the loss sustained. Origin of fire unknown.

JUDGE COLE TO FILL IMPORTANT FEDERAL OFFICE

Appointed Special Assistant To Attorney General With Offices in Ft. Worth

A federal appointment that met with universal approval of his many friends in Clarendon and the legal profession in general was that of Judge A. T. Cole who assumes the duties of special assistant to the Attorney General of the United States, announcement of which came from Washington this week.

The Judge has already entered into the duties of the office with headquarters at Ft. Worth. His principal duties will be prosecuting mail fraud cases in Texas.

He has been a successful practitioner in Clarendon for more than thirty years during which time he represented clients in some of the most important cases here and in other sections of the Panhandle. He always stood firm in his convictions, took a deliberate stand for the principles he believed in and his honor was never questioned.

Charitable to a fault, as some believe, the widow or orphan in distress and in need of his services were not turned away because of a lack of funds. He is said to have represented more clients unable to pay and for whom he worked just as hard, than any other lawyer in this section.

Although a native of Arkansas, he was reared principally in Johnson county near Grand View. He represented that section in the Legislature and received his law degree from the State University. He was previously a student of Baylor University and a classmate of Senator Tom Connally. This association produced a strong friendship between the two men that has lasted through the years. Judge Cole practiced law for a few years in Cleburne and came with his family to Clarendon in 1903. He was the senior member of the law firm of Cole & Porter at the time of his appointment.

A. L. Mace and wife, and J. R. Mace visited relatives near Dalhart this week. They report conditions not very good in that vicinity due to the continued dry weather.

Ashtola Men to Present Play at Martin

Having met with enthusiastic success in presenting the "Womanless Wedding" in their home community, a cast composed of men of the Ashtola community will present the play at Martin Saturday night of this week.

A small charge will be made for admission. The door receipts at Ashtola last Friday night amounted to $15.

Contracts Let On School At Chamberlain

Contracts let for the construction of the Chamberlain school building and the furnishings would indicate that the community will have a community asset of which they will be proud.

The extreme care and caution exercised by the school board in securing most for the money reflects their good judgment. G. G. Reeves is chairman of the Board and with him are serving as community choic Messrs. A. O. Hott and Gilbert Mann.

Speed Brothers have been awarded construction of the building. The contract price is said to have been approximately $4,100. A. L. Millsap will supply the furniture and seats and C. E. Griggs will install the heating equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Mullins of Panhandle visited friends in Clarendon over the week end.

Dr. J. D. Sanderfer was a guest in the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Jenkins while here over Sunday night. By a strange coincidence, Monday was the 39th wedding anniversary of the Doctor and Mrs. Jenkins, and it was Dr. Sanderfer who first introduced them.

THIRD ANNUAL TOURNAMENT TO BE HELD HERE

Hillcroft Golf Club Plans Largest Attendance With Valuable Prizes Given

The directors of the Hillcroft Golf Club have announced their Third Annual Invitation Tournament to be held here July 4-5th. Invitations are being mailed to all surrounding clubs and a large field is expected.

The annual event has grown in popularity each succeeding year and last year attracted 87 of the section's choicest golfers representing 14 towns. The tournament won by Elliott Hatch of Amarillo and now of Fort Worth, was declared to be one of the best ever held in the Panhandle and local officials are planning for an even greater success this year.

As in the past, players will be allowed to qualify over their home course. The 18 hole qualifying score together with the $1.00 entry fee should be sent to the Sec'y, W. S. Bagby, before 7:00 p. m., July 3rd. Match play will begin in all flights Tuesday morning, July 4th and there will be as many 16 player flights as will be required to place every player. Appropriate prizes will be awarded to the winner, runner-up, and to the winner of consolation in each flight and also the winner in the long driving contest.

The Hillcroft course, one of the sportiest in the Panhandle and always well kept, is in the best condition of its history. The fairways are well sodded and freshly mowed; the greens have been resanded and are in perfect order. More than 100 trees have been set out about the course to add to the general appearance and make play more inviting. Officials declare that no effort or expense will be spared to keep the course in such perfect playing condition that it will please the most severe golfing critic.

The officials of the Club, Wesley Knorrp, Pres.; W. H. Cooke, Vice-pres.; and W. S. Bagby, Sec'y, are in charge of general arrangements. The tournament will be handled by the tournament committee composed of Carl Parsons, M. P. Gentry, Doss Palmer, and Bennett Kerbow.

Scholastics Show Decrease Over Last Year

According to County Superintendent Sloan Baker, the scholastics of this year show a decrease of 170 as compared with the figures of last year. In 1931-32 the total was 2,691; for 1932-33 it is 2,521. Clarendon has 753; Hedley 398, and Lelia Lake 220. This shows a decrease of 70 less in the independent districts and of the common school districts a decrease of 100.

Citizens Complain About More Nuisances

Sheriff Guy Pierce asks that the Leader carry his request to the people of the county requesting those in the habit of doing so, to abandon the idea of depositing dead chickens, dogs, cats and other bodies on highways and roads of the county.

The Sheriff says that he has many complaints from citizens protesting against the depositing of bodies in front of their homes which soon become obnoxious during the hot weather period. He further wants the guilty parties to know that such acts are in violation of the laws of the state and sincerely asks the cooperation of all citizens that the nuisance may be stopped. He suggests the burying of all dead fowls or animals.

Misses Ruth Lafon and Naomi Allison of the Amarillo schools faculty are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Taylor have been spending several weeks at Wichita Falls for the benefit of Mrs. Taylor's health. She has been dismissed from care at the hospital and is showing some improvement. Mr. Taylor said Tuesday, but will remain there for some time yet.

Comprehension.

As we understand it, Thos. T. Waggoner of the Claude News wants to see the Palo Duro canyon project made into a deep waterways system with the main boat landing at Claude. Heretofore he has performed a strenuous service in constructing (editorially at least) highways in the Panhandle and regulating the nation's financial system. In either instance, he has been forced to fight these battles alone and single handed simply because his fellow-townsmen are too simple, or he is too deep to be understandable.

Palo Duro Pay Rolls.

Army officers estimated that $500 will be expended every day in Amarillo for food supplies alone for the men of the five forestry camps to be established in Palo Duro canyon just as soon as adequate water supplies can be had.

This is to the distinct advantage of Amarillo. Men of that town worked for the prize and won out by taking advantage of an opportunity incident to unemployment relief.

The remainder of the Panhandle will profit largely from a pay roll standpoint because of the fact that twenty-five dollars per month will be sent home by each individual working in any of the camps. The monthly payroll will be approximately $50,000 according to Major Dunn, an army officer who will be in charge of the work.

President a Commoner.

The more we learn about our president the more we are impressed with his ideals. He is more like William Jennings Bryan than any other man in the public eye today.

Only recently when 400 newspaper men were invited to meet the president at the White House and dine with him, there was a great stir as to the style of clothing to be worn. As is characteristic of newspaper men, there was a wide diversion of opinion. As a result, the style ranged from a cutaway swallow tail through the tux and various evening dress. When the motley array arrived at headquarters, they found the President lounging around in a white suit which bore many wrinkles. To their amusement, he explained that he was wearing his tennis suit, that being the last thing he had on when he brought his day's toil to a close.

Better Cotton Market

After discussing the matter with both business men and farmers, it appears that Clarendon needs a better cotton market for this fall than anything else. The idea uppermost in the minds of the cotton producers is, they want street buyers and more competitive bidding on their product. The "hog round" system of buying is not satisfactory by any means if one may judge from expressions of those who have been forced to sell cotton on a limited market. There appears but one thing to do and that is to work out some method by which street buyers may operate at a profit and supply better marketing facilities for the cotton grower. The farmers need the money and the merchant needs to collect old bills and sell more of his wares to the people he is helping.

Greater Ideas.

We Americans are a great bunch of folks. When we can't think of anything else, we sit around and begin renaming things. For instance we rescued the undertaker and made a mortician out of him.

The real estate agent was looked upon with dubious doubt until we dressed him up as a "realtor." We no longer refer to the old farm standby as "hogs" but classify the animals as "porcine." The hog possibly cares less than any one else what they call his tribe so long as the slop holds out. Another class of animals in disrepute some years ago and better known as wrestlers, come back to us in 1933 as "behe-moths." Now who will come out with a brand new name for spinach, make it stick and change the flavor?

WHEN TIMES WERE HARD

George McKee, Anderson, South Carolina says times are not hard. Here's the way George puts it:

"Don't talk to me about hard times. I was born eight miles from a railroad, five miles from a school house, nine miles from a church, 855 miles from New York, 200 yards from a wash-hole, fifteen feet from a cornfield and 8,767 miles from Hongkong.

Our nearest neighbors lived two miles away and they couldn't read or write. I never saw a suit of underwear until I was 17 years old, and that revelation didn't belong to anybody in our family. The only book in the house during my early childhood was a bible and a catalog somebody sent us.

There was twelve members in our family but, you see, we had three rooms to live in, including a dining room, which was also the kitchen. Everybody worked at our house. We thought everybody else in the world had gravy and bread for breakfast, liver and cracklin' hocke for dinner, buttermilk and corn pone for supper, 'cause that's what we had—and liked it.

Some of us wore brogan shoes occasionally in the winter time. We had nice white shirts for summer time use. We slept on straw ticks and pillows were not thought of or required. I didn't know that money would rattle until I was nearly grown. Father got hold of two half-dollars at the same time, and he let us hear them rattle. Taxes were not higher but harder to pay then than now.

We owned two kerosene lamps, neither of which had a chimney. Our house wasn't ceiled, but two of our rooms had lofts in them. We had a glass window in our "company" room. Our nicest piece of furniture was a home-made rocking chair. Our beds were of the slat or tight-rope variety. The "trundlebed" took care of all the younguns under five years of age, and it stayed full all the time.

We went to school two or three months in the year, but not in a bus. We attended church once a month, but not in a car—we used a two-mule wagon. We dressed up on Sundays, but not in silks and satins. We neither wrote letters nor received any. We made our own lye hominy, distilled our own lye from our own ash-hopper. We drank sassafras tea and never had a yearning for coffee.

We sopped our own molasses; we ate our own meat; we considered rice a delicacy for only the preachers to eat; we had heard of cheese but never saw any; we knew of some store bought clothes, but never hoped to wear any; we got a stick of candy and three raisins for Christmas and were happy; we loved pa and ma and were never hungry, enjoyed going naked, didn't want much, expected nothing. And that's why our so-called hard times ain't hard on me."

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

Just a short time ago the dads and the children honored mother, and she deserved all the consideration received—every one of them. Now old dad is to get a break next Sunday. Instead of flowers he would likely prefer sox. That's because he has had all the sentiment slapped out of his head through the years, and would rather wear something that does not cause corns and bunions instead of smelling something. And if you could hear what father thinks, he would likely tell you that times are a little out of tune and make it something that does not cost much. On top of that wish, he would likely appreciate it a lot more if it was not "charged" against his account at the store. It is seldom ever that dads get a break. So many of them are regarded in the average family pretty much as a necessary evil and something to be seen and seldom heard. Some of them are treated as human beings, have daughters who wash their necks and ears, keep them presentable when they go out and these are the fellows who are the envy of the remainder of the tribe—every dad does not happen to have daughters. June 18th—Father's Day—and that's next Sunday.

Speaking of old relics in this column last week brought out some interesting information. In one instance a man by the name of Bogard told a man by the name of Bogard that he knew of a clock in town so old that the shadow from the pendulum had cut out a slot in the back of the clock. Now this man Bogard wants to see the clock.

C. R. Gamblin has painted his hat black. He sells the paint and wanted a walking advertisement. How's that for ingenuity? That reminds me of the story of the Scotchman whose son wanted a dime to go see the sea serpent. The old man borrowed a magnifying glass and told the son to go find a worm. That's more ingenuity of a different kind.

Amarillo, once referred to as the "Argonne of the Plains" by reason of killings and hijackings, redeemed herself. Now it is referred to as "the only cemetery in the world electrically lighted."

A tourist passing through here Monday night wanted to know "how much farther it was before he got out of Palo Duro canyon." Whatever he might have had in mind, it was a dirty fling at our substantial dirt roads. (P. S. Substantial only is right.)

GW arriving home Sunday evening related a horrifying experience in a Ft. Worth cafe when a federal agent snooping around for gold hoarders spied her massive bridge work while she was in the act of macerating the drum stick of a large roster. After weighing her head and deducting for ear-bobs, he kindly informed her that she was short 14 grains of being subject to a $100 fine.

Moon advice in gardening this kind of weather means nothing. From here out, borrow the tools, beg the seed, let the wife do the planting and leave the rest to nature. To fathom the unfathomable and unscrew the inscrutable is now impossible.

We would far rather have a plain plank coffin without a solitary flower, and a funeral without any eulogy, than a life without the sweetness of love and sympathy.

An old timer speaking of how the first shallow oil pool was discovered in Jack county relates how a "forked stick" water witcher lost his life. A man having trouble locating water, asked a water witcher to take a try at it. He did so and measured the depth at 80 feet. When the driller broke thru granite at 64 feet, a small amount of black oil was found. The land owner shot the water witcher for lying to him about what would be struck down under there. At that time oil was worthless—it was water the cow man wanted.

Had you ever noticed that at school closing time one division and important adjunct of the menagerie is forgotten entirely—the janitor. Janitors are said to have a strong back and weak mind with a disposition to put up with anything. If he has, he is entitled to credit for it. The health of the school folks depends largely upon the diligence and judgment of the janitor. He has far more to look after than mere dirt. The average janitor ought to get a grade of A-plus and a home in heaven whereas he is seldom mentioned when living, few people know his name and that name is misspelled in his obituary when he dies. Janitors are great folks and ought to have more praise.

A small boy writing up an essay in which he referred to the wonderful relatives of the family, listed two uncles in the pen, three in the asylum, one had twins and an old aunt whose feet didn't match.

A copy of the poem, "The Unanswered Letter" will be greatly appreciated. We wish to reprint it in the Leader. Two lines of one stanza are something like this: The postman comes, the postman goes, The postman passes by, etc. Please look through your collection and let us have a copy.

The Apostle has invitations to spend a part of his summer vacation at three different well known places—Stumptoe, Crooked Creek and Gougey—all in Jack county.

Out in New Mexico where men have long been known for their "toughness" because they ride Mexican lions and whip them with rattlesnakes, a raven was given a swig of 3-point-2 and immediately built a nest out of barbed wire, or at least a citizen of near Clovis made such a claim.

All of which reminds us of a woolly who dropped into a Roswell saloon with three rattlesnakes in the bosom of his shirt and a bobcat tied to his leg. The saloon keeper asked him if he thought he was a tough. The young man replied that "he guessed not as he was run out of Arizona by a bunch of toughs because he was a jellybean."

Botts—"Say, I am buying my wife a washing machine for a birthday present."

Potts—"Well, that will be quite a surprise to her, won't it?"

Botts—"I suppose so as she is expecting a new car."

MOONRISE IN PALO DURO PARK

Last night I sat on the canyon's rim
And watched the shadows fall.
At length the inky darkness hit
The earth with its shadowy pall.

Cedars etched themselves against the sky,
In a delicate Japanese line,
To the hum of a murmured German song
And an earthly fragrance fine.

And then in the darkness the shining stars
Reflected the camp fire's glow;
While unrelieved the shadows swam
In a mighty gulf below.

'Till far away in the darkened sky
A delicate luminous haze,
Indistinct and but half defined,
Gloomed in the moon's first rays.

The terraced canyons in robes of dark
Put on a faint, rose hue;
The pools of night were shaken
apart
And dimly the mountains grew.

'Till the rounded moon in her radiance rode
Above in the starry sky;
And I, with the miracle in my eyes,
Lingeringly said goodbye.

A TREE TOAD VETOED

Tongue twisters are always interesting, and if used in speech exercises they will aid one's pronunciation. Here is a dandy twister with a bit of modernism in it, says Pathfinder;

A tree toad loved a she toad that lived up in a tree.

She was a three-toed tree toad, but a two-toed toad was he.

The two-toed tree toad tried to win the she toad's friendly nod,

For the two-toed tree toad loved the ground that the three toed tree toad trod.

But vainly the two-toed tree toad tried; he couldn't please her whim.

In her tree toad bower, with her veto power, the she toad vetoed him.

Clemmens-Dancinger to Play Baseball at Pampa

"We may get whipped out, but we intend to show them how hard it is to win" was the statement of J. E. Clemmens Tuesday in announcing the match between the Clemmens family team and the Dancinger oilers of Pampa.

These are the two leading independent teams of the Panhandle according to baseball fans who have seen both teams on the field in action. The game will be called at 3 p. m. next Sunday at Pampa.

Governor Ferguson Vetoes Three New Bills

Among the last acts of the Legislature was the passing of a bill granting the automatic tax board the right to levy sufficient tax to insure a $17.50 school apportionment. This extra tax loan would have fallen on the general taxpayers, a fact that was guarded against by the Governor through the session. She has now vetoed this bill because of the extra burden to the general taxpayers. Her plan provided for a sales tax, corporation tax, etc. The Legislature disregarded her suggestions to shift the burden to those more able to pay.

Another bill vetoed was that of passing the state printing to the prison printing plant. The third bill vetoed this week would have increased the hunting and fishing license of citizens of Texas.

Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Landreth and family of Memphis attended the McMurry recital at the Methodist church Tuesday evening.

CHICK GAINS DEPEND ON PROTEIN SOURCES

The first six weeks are important in the life of the chick. It is during this period that it gets its real start in life. Poultrymen used to be satisfied with a development of around two-thirds of a pound during the first forty to forty-five days after hatching.

Science, however, has been gradually edging up the handicap for the greater profit of poultry owners. Now, by the proper blending of protein sources, by the proportioning of nutrients from various field crops and concentrates, chicks can be made to average more than a pound in six weeks' time and can be raised to that weight at a cost of less than was formerly paid for lighter-weight birds.

"It is all in the rate of gain that a chick can draw out of its feed."

PROPORTIONS OF VARIOUS PROTEIN CARRIERS HAVE MARKED EFFECT ON CHICK GAINS

3 Chicks of Same Parentage
3 Rations of Same Analysis
But Protein Carriers are in Different Proportions

IN SIX WEEKS, GAINS IN WEIGHT DIFFERED 72%.

Source: Purina Mills Research Report 1482

say the feeding experts of the research staff of Purina Mills. Careful tests, conducted on many thousands of chicks on their own practical poultry farm, make it possible for these experts to assure poultrymen that similar results can be theirs under proper conditions of feeding and management. A typical growth chart from their files shows chicks of the same parentage and fed rations of the same chemical analysis varying widely in weight at the end of the first six weeks feeding period. With all conditions the same, except the proportioning of proteins within the feeds themselves, the best feed showed as much as 75 per cent weight advantage over the ordinary ration constructed on the old principles of mixing according to chemical analysis.

The proper rate of gain today is no longer two-thirds of a pound at six weeks of age, but one and one-tenth pounds or better. Poultry owners who can show such development in their chicks can face the important year of 1933 with more confidence that theirs will be a profitable season. The differences are due to the fact that each protein unit, considered as a building stone, is present in the right amount so that the chick's body can construct new tissues more effectively than if furnished too much of some materials and not enough of others. Besides the difference in gains, the chicks fed A and B rations in these experiments showed much better feathering and general development than those receiving ration C. The ingredients of this poorest ration were, incidentally, the highest priced in the commercial market, yet results were totally out of line. It isn't price and it isn't analysis that makes a good feed.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF TEXAS S. J. R. No. 3

Be It Resolved By The Legislature Of The State Of Texas:

Section 1. That Article IX of the Constitution of Texas be amended by adding thereto a section to be Section 3, which shall provide:

"Section 3. (1) Holding the belief that the highest degree of local self government which is consistent with the efficient conduct of those affairs by necessity lodged in the Nation and the State will prove most responsive to the will of the people, and result to reward their diligence and intelligence by greater economy and efficiency in their local governmental affairs, it hereby is ordained:

"(2) Any county having a population of sixty-two thousand (62,000) or more according to the then last Federal Census may adopt a County Home Rule Charter, to embrace those powers appropriate hereto, within the specific limitations hereinafter provided. It further is provided that the Legislature, by a favoring vote of two-thirds of the total membership of both the Senate and the House of Representatives, may authorize any county, having a population less than that above specified, to proceed hereunder for the adoption of a Charter; however, as a condition for such authorization, it is required that notice of the intent to seek Legislative authority hereunder must be published in one or more newspapers, to give general circulation in the county affected, not less than once per week for four (4) consecutive weeks, and the first of such publications shall appear not less than thirty (30) days next prior to the time an Act making proposal hereunder may be introduced in the Legislature. No County Home Rule Charter may be adopted by any county save upon a favoring vote of the resident qualified electors of the affected county. In elections submitting to the voters a proposal to adopt a Charter (unless otherwise provided by a two-thirds vote of the total membership of each House of the Legislature) the votes cast by the qualified electors residing within the limits of all the incorporated cities and towns of the county shall be separately kept but collectively counted and the votes of the qualified electors of the county who do not reside within the limits of any incorporated city or town likewise shall be separately kept and separately counted, and unless there be a favoring majority of the votes cast within and afavoring majority of the votes cast without such collective cities and towns, the Charter shall not be adopted. It is expressly forbidden that any such Charter may in any way affect the operation of the General Laws of the State relating to the judicial, tax, fiscal, educational, police, highway and health systems or any other department of the State's superior government. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the adoption of a Charter provision inimical to or inconsistent with the sovereignty and established public policies of this State, and no provision having such vice shall have validity as against the State. No Charter provision may operate to impair the exemption of homesteads as established by this Constitution and the Statutes relating thereto.

"(3) a. A Charter hereunder may provide: the continuance of a County Commissioners' Court, as now constituted, to serve as the governing body of a county to operate hereunder; or may provide for a governing body otherwise constituted, which shall be elective, and service therein shall be upon such qualifications, for such terms, under such plan of representation, and upon such conditions of tenure and compensation as may be fixed by any such Charter. The terms for service in such governing body may exceed two (2) years, but shall not exceed six (6) years. In any event, in addition to the powers and duties provided by any such Charter, such governing body shall exercise all powers, and discharge all duties which, in the absence of the provisions hereof, would devolve by law on County Commissioners and County Commissioners' Courts. Further, any such Charter may provide for the organization, reorganization, establishment and administration of the government of the county, including the control and regulation of the performance of and the compensation for all duties required in the conduct of the county affairs, subject to the limitations herein provided.

"b. A Charter hereunder may provide that Judges of County Courts (including that County Court designated in this Constitution), and Justices of the Peace be compensated upon a salary basis in lieu of fees. The jurisdiction of the County Court designated in this Constitution, and the duties of the Judges thereof, may be confined to that general jurisdiction of a probate Court which elsewhere is defined in this Constitution. The office of Justice of the Peace may be made either elective or appointive. Other than as here provided, no such Charter shall provide for altering the jurisdiction or procedure of any Court. The duties of District Attorney and or County Attorney may be confined to representing the State in civil cases to which the State is a party and to enforcement of the State's Penal Code, and the compensation of said attorneys may be fixed on a salary basis in lieu of fees.

"c. Save as hereinabove and hereinafter otherwise provided, such Charters, within the limits expressed therein, may invest the governing body to be established for any county electing to operate hereunder with the power to create, consolidate or abolish any office or department, whether created by other provisions of the Constitution or by statute, define the duties thereof, fix the compensation for service therein, make the same elective or appointive and prescribe the time, qualifications and conditions for tenure in any such office; save, that no such Charter other than as hereinbefore authorized, shall provide to regulate the status, service, duties or compensation of members of the Legislature, Judges of the Courts, District Attorneys, County Attorneys, or any office whatever by the law of the State required to be filled by an election embracing more than one county. Excepting herefrom nominations, elections or appointments to offices, the terms whereof may not have expired prior to the adoption of this Amendment to the Constitution, at such time as a Charter provision adopted hereunder may be in effect (save as to those offices which must continue to be elective, as herein elsewhere specified), all terms of county officers and all contracts for the giving of service by deputies under such officers, may be subject to termination by the administrative body of the county, under an adopted Charter so providing, and there shall be no liability by reason thereof.

"d. Any county electing to operate hereunder shall have the power, by Charter provision, to levy, assess and collect taxes, and to fix the maximum rate for ad valorem taxes to be levied for specific purposes, in accordance with the Constitution and laws of this State, provided, however, that the limit of the aggregate taxes which may be levied, assessed and collected hereunder shall not exceed the limit or total fixed, or hereafter to be fixed, by this Constitution to control counties, and the annual assessment upon property, both real, personal and mixed, shall be a first superior and prior lien thereon.

"e. In addition to the powers herein provided, and in addition to powers included in County Home Rule Charters, any county may, by a majority vote of the qualified electors of said county, amend its Charter to include other powers, functions, duties and rights which now or hereafter may be provided by this Constitution and the statutes of the State for counties.

"(4). Any county operating hereunder shall have the power to borrow money for all purposes lawful under its Charter, to include the refunding of a lawful debt, in a manner conforming to the General Laws of the State, and may issue therefor its obligations. Such obligations, other than those to refund a lawful debt, shall not be valid unless authorized by a majority of all votes cast by those residents qualified voters of the area affected by the taxes required to retire such obligations, who may vote thereon. In case of county obligations, maturing after a period of five (5) years, the same shall be issued to mature serially, fixing the first maturity of principal at a time not to exceed two (2) years next after the date of the issuance of such obligations. Such obligations may pledge the full faith and credit of the county; but in no event shall the aggregate obligations so issued, in principal amount outstanding at any one time, exceed the then existing Constitutional limits for such obligations and such indebtedness and its supporting tax shall constitute a first and superior lien upon the property taxable in such county. No obligation issued hereunder shall be valid unless prior to the time of the issuance thereof there be levied a tax sufficient to retire the same as it matures, which tax shall not exceed the then existing Constitutional limits.

"(5). Such Charter may authorize the governing body of a county operating hereunder to prescribe the schedule of fees to be charged by the officers of the county for specified service, to be in lieu of the schedule for such fees prescribed by the General Laws of the State; and, to appropriate such fees to such funds as the Charter may prescribe; provided, however, no fee for a specified service shall exceed in amount the fee fixed by General Law for that same service. Such Charters as to all judicial officers, other than District Judges, may prescribe the qualifications for service, provided the standards therefor be not lower than those fixed by the General Laws of the State.

"(6) a. Subject to the express limitations upon the exercise of the powers by this subdivision to be authorized, such Charters may provide (or omit to provide) that the governmental and or proprietary functions of any city, town, district or other defined political subdivision (which is a governmental agency and embraced within the boundaries of the county) be transferred, either as to some or all of the functions thereof, and yielded to the control of the administrative body of the county. No such transfer or yielding of functions may be effected, unless the proposal is submitted to a vote of the people, and, unless otherwise provided by a two-thirds vote of the total membership of each House of the Legislature, such a proposal shall be submitted as a separate issue, and the vote within and without any such city, town, district, or other defined governmental entity, shall be separately cast and counted, and unless two-thirds of the qualified votes cast within the yielding defined governmental entity, and a majority of the qualified votes cast in the remainder of the county, favor the proposed merger, it shall not be effected. In case of the mergers hereby authorized, without express Charter provision therefor, in so far as may be required to make effective the object of the proposed merger, the county shall succeed to all the appropriate lawful powers, duties, rights, procedures, restrictions and limitations which prior to the merger were reposed in, or imposed upon, the yielding governmental agency. Particularly, it is provided that the power to create funded indebtedness and to levy taxes in support thereof may be exercised only by such procedures, and within such limits, as now are, or hereafter may be, provided by law to control such appropriate other governmental agencies were they to be independently administered. Such mergers may be effected under proposed contracts between the county and any such yielding governmental agency, to be approved at an election as hereinbefore provided for. In order to increase governmental efficiency and effect economy the county may contract with the principal city of the county to perform one or more of its functions, provided such contracts shall not be valid for more than two (2) years.

"b. In cases of the partial or complete merger of the government of a city operating under a Home Rule Charter, with the government of a county operating hereunder, those city Charter provisions affected thereby shall cease to control, and the county Charter provisions shall control.

"c. When any embraced incorporated city or town elects to merge its governmental functions with those of the county under the provisions hereof, such Charter may provide for defining or redefining the boundaries of such cities and towns, provided, however, that in defining or redefining the boundaries of such cities and towns, such boundaries may be extended only to include those areas contiguous to such cities as are urban in character; and as to such cities or towns and for the benefit thereof the county, in addition to the primary city and county tax herein authorized and any other lawful district tax, may levy and collect taxes upon the property taxable within such city or town as defined or redefined, within the limits authorized by Sections 4 and 5 of Article XI of this Constitution, (or any Amendment thereof) for incorporated cities according to the population, provided that no tax greater than that existing at the time of such merger or for any added purpose shall be imposed upon any such city or town unless authorized by a majority of all votes cast by the resident qualified voters of such city or town.

"d. Areas urban in character though not incorporated, under appropriate Charter provision may be defined as such by the governing body of the county, provided, however, that no portion of the county shall be defined as an urban area unless it has sufficient population to entitle it to incorporate under the then existing laws of the State; and no such urban area, when created, shall be vested with any taxing or bonding power which it would not possess if it were operating as a separate incorporated unit under the then existing Constitutional and Statutory provisions of this State; and provided further that the governing body of the county for the government of such areas shall have and exercise all powers and authority granted by law to the governing bodies of similar areas when separately incorporated as a city or town, and such areas shall be subject to additional taxation within the same Constitutional limits as control taxation for a city or a town of like population. Likewise such Charter may provide for the governing board of the county subject to existing Constitutional and statutory provisions to define, create and administer districts, and have and exercise the powers and authority granted by the Constitution and laws relative to the same.

"(7). No provision of this Constitution in consonant with the provisions of this Section 3, of Article IX, shall be held to control the provisions of a Charter adopted hereunder, and conforming herewith. Charters adopted hereunder shall make appropriate provision for the abandonment, revocation; and amendment thereof, subject only to the requirements that there must be a favoring majority of the vote cast upon such a proposal, by the qualified resident electors of the county; and, no Charter may forbid amendments thereof for a time greater than two (2) years. The provisions hereof shall be self-executing, subject only to the duty of the Legislature to pass all laws (consistent herewith) which may be necessary to carry out the intent and purpose hereof. Further, the Legislature shall prescribe a procedure for submitting to decision, by a majority vote of the electors voting thereon, proposed alternate and elective Charter provisions."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State at an election to be held throughout the State on the fourth Saturday in August, 1933, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"For the Amendment to Article IX of the Constitution of Texas, adding Section 3, providing authority for the adoption of a Home Rule Charter by the voters in counties having a population of sixty-two thousand (62,000) or more, to effect more sufficient and economical government within such counties, and to authorize mergers of separate governmental agencies within such counties as may from time to time be authorized by vote of the people therein."

"Against the Amendment to Article IX of the Constitution of Texas, adding Section 3, providing authority for the adoption of a Home Rule Charter by the voters in counties having a population of sixty-two thousand (62,000) or more, to effect more efficient and economical government within such counties, and to authorize mergers of separate governmental agencies within such counties as may from time to time be authorized by vote of the people therein."

Each voter shall scratch out one of the above listed clauses on such ballot, leaving unscratched that particular clause which expresses his vote on the proposed Amendment to which it relates.

Section 3. The Governor of this State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation ordering an election in conformity herewith to determine whether or not the proposed Constitutional Amendment set forth herein shall be adopted, and the Governor shall have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

Minister First Christian Church

"SUNDAY SICKNESS."

One of the most important questions the preacher and church officers face today is, "Why are more people sick on the Lord's Day than on the other days of the week?" "Sunday Sickness" is one of the most serious diseases that prey upon church people. It is both endemic and epidemic. It is not peculiar to any one religious body. We saw a sane diagnosis of and prescription for this disease, and we pass it on to you.

"Sunday Sickness." "The attack comes on suddenly every Sunday; no symptoms are felt on Saturday night; the patient sleeps well, eats a hearty breakfast, but about church time the attack comes on, and continues until church services are over, for the morning. Then the patient feels easy, and eats a hearty dinner. In the afternoon he feels much better, and is able to take a walk, a motor trip or outing and is able to enjoy life and talk politics or on any other subject, but about church time, he gets another attack and stays home. He retires early, sleeps well, wakes up on Monday morning refreshed and is able to go to work, and does not have any more symptoms of the dreadful disease until next Sunday."

To those who are suffering for this disease, we offer the following remedy. "On Sunday morning, rise at seven or earlier, use plenty of cold water. Then mix and take internally a dose composed of equal parts of the following ingredients, will push, energy, determination, self-respect for God's Day, respect for God's Book, and respect for God's House. Stir well, add a little love just to make it sweet. Repeat the dose every three minutes until church time, unless relief comes sooner. If the day be stormy, an external application of overshoes, rubber coats and umbrellas will be beneficial."

How many times have you been attacked by this disease? Have you not made this excuse to your pastor or church officials? Do you think you can fool God by offering this excuse? Have you been fair with God and His church program? Don't make this excuse any more. Fight the disease.

Our Sunday subjects are: "Opportunity Makers, Takers, and Breakers," and 'The Vacant Chair.'

SUPPLICATION

By Mrs. Hanna Lillian Flora.
Your voice to me comes through the silent night
And moonbeams cast their beauty everywhere,
The grass-blades dipped in dew are sparkling rare,
White clouds are drifting in the breezes light.
I heave a sigh—my heart with love gripped tight
Neath Luna's silver silence bright and fair;
Now pierced by a bird note, so free from care;
The mocking bird, who carols his delight.

His little mate is in a tree quite near,
Ah now! my hungry heart knows solitude
For I have only memories left to me
This night. It seems your voice is calling, dear
Of happy trysting hours, o'er which I brood—
Your eyes aight with tenderness, I see.

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.
It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.
But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931, C. M. Co.

SOME TYPES SHOULD WEAR ONLY

CURVES

Of far more importance than the mere selection of a hat, a collar or the proper neckline, is the selection of the model frame and shape of lenses to be worn when eye-glasses are necessary to good vision - - - We have long specified in the fitting of eye-glasses to different type faces - - - The curved line face should wear only curved line frame and lenses - - - the angular line face may well adopt the angle line frame of lenses.

A Calendar of Chick Management

Second to Sixth Week Full of Dangers.

The second week starts the chick on its way. You will want to watch chicks closely and give them extra attention daily. According to the Educational Division of Purina Mills, there is no more critical period in the chick's life than these first weeks. They recommend after the first seven days the following calendar of care:

7th to 14th day—

Maintain steady temperature, with sufficient ventilation all during growing period, but carefully guard against drafts. Adjust brooder temperature gradually downward to 85 degrees by the 14th day. As chicks learn where heat is, move guards back.

3rd to 4th weeks—

Start chicks roosting at 3 weeks; let roosts lie flat near floor for several days; later raise near ends of perches about 6 inches and place poultry netting underneath so chicks cannot get through, behind or under roosts; week later raise rear ends 10 inches; in another week raise front, so roost is level and about 15 inches from floor. Reduce brood temperature gradually.

4th week to maturity—

Increase hopper space to 2 inches per bird. Provide more watering vessels.

Thin Out Snakes And Help Museum Exhibit

Have you seen the collection of rattles on display in the show window of the Stocking drug store? More than four hundred of them. The largest specimen has nineteen rattles and appears to have lost one. Many others are almost as large though we know that a rattlesnake of any size is equally poisonous.

Jerome D. Stocking is making this collection at the request of Prof. Sheffy of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum at Canyon. Those who wish to contribute to the collection are kindly asked to do so at once.

Friends here have been informed of the marriage of Miss Lois Cox and Fred Davis at Conroe, Texas June 10th. Both are employed by the telephone company there.

The office room formerly occupied by the Bagby brothers in the Donley County state bank building has been completely overhauled the past week. Dr. C. W. Galloway will maintain his office in the building.
