Embryo Museum Here Contains Ancient And Modern Animal Remains Many Species

Remains of African Animals, Artifacts Picturing Home Life And Customs of People of Dark Continent Form Educational Exhibit at Stocking's Drug Store

Interesting as it is, little is known of the wonderful collection of Jerome D. Stocking at the Stocking drug store. The exhibit contains both ancient and modern animal remains specimens. Modern reptiles and an array of educational specimens from Africa are also to be seen in the collection.

From the Panhandle of Texas, Ted Gray's collection of Indian arrow heads tell us something of the weapons of warfare as well as the methods of obtaining food when this section was peopled by a race now extinct.

In the collection of prehistoric bones, may be found teeth of the mammoth, a species of elephant, rhinoceros and other large animals that formerly inhabited this section. The bones of the small two and three toed horse, ancestors of the horse we know today may be seen.

Of the modern American specimens may be seen the rattlesnake, soft shell turtle, buffalo feet, badger skull, Indian and squaw corn and other relics.

A meteorite, the only known specimen in the Panhandle, has been added to the collection recently. This is a fragment from some other planet. It contains a mineral not found on the earth.

Looking over the African exhibit, one is at once interested in the array of instruments with which the natives worship. A ceremonial mask that has a hideous appearance is a necessity to the black man of religious zeal.

"Mildred" of the dark continent has her beauty yearnings pretty much as the American girl, though she may appear to have gone to an extreme. She has her hand carved pendants made from ivory and other fetishes. Her bridal rings are something to admire and her ivory bracelets would perhaps arouse the envy of many. The hand-woven loin cloth may be an abbreviated bathing suit since it is the product of skill and patience. A music box would indicate that her finer sensibilities were not altogether neglected.

Leopard skins, elephant tusks, buffalo skulls and horns, deer and antelope horns, python skins and other specimens gives one an idea of the "happy hunting ground" over there.

Contrary to general opinion, the native African is not lazy. The carved paddles, grass baskets, quiver and arrows and other items of the collection would denote more than ordinary skill and industry.

No charge is made for viewing this collection. Mr. Stocking very graciously explains the history and incidents as necessity requires to a complete understanding on the part of the visitor. The collection is very educational and the enumerations above give one only a faint idea of what this exhibit contains.

Morris Brothers Change Mattress Location

This week Sam and Harshey Morris moved their mattress factory location from the rear of the Heath furniture store to the building opposite the Antro hotel across the street.

These men have been in business here for some time, and through an advertisement in this week's Leader, ask for a share of the mattress business of this section.

Rocks May Be Sold Readily For $1.00 a Pound

Take a look at the meteorite at the Stocking drug store. They are worth $1.00 a pound. You may have such rocks on your farm or ranch.

The purchaser is H. H. Ninninger, curator of the Museum of Natural History of Denver. He was here the past week on a rock hunt. The sample is left at the Stocking store where you can get further advice and suggestions.

Uncle Bud Takes Two to Pen From Here Wednesday

Uncle Bud Russell's one way truck came by Clarendon Wednesday picking up two prisoners of the Sheriff who were given pen sentences at this term of court.

The other was Taft Clements, a negro convicted of murdering another negro, Bill Jones, and who was given two years. He was already under a suspended sentence of five years on a charge of burglarizing Rayburn Smith's filling station. He will now serve seven years.

Above all these, Kryn is conscientious and gives the best that is in him at all times without reserve. He loves music for music's sake, no matter where he appears or under what conditions, he enters into the spirit of his art with all the enthusiasm and vigor of his whole being.

Local Men Open Auto Paint And Body Shop

In this week's issue of the Leader appears the first advertisement of the new auto paint and body works of Homer Taylor and Harlow Stephenson.

The shop is located in the building next door to the Donley County abstract office on the east side of the square. The building has been renovated and overhauled to make it as nearly dustproof as possible that the painting jobs may be of first quality.

Both men are experienced auto painters and body builders, each having had several years experience in this line of work. They ask the consideration of the auto owners of this section when in need of their skill. The new firm will be known as the Economy Paint & Body Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Estlack and little daughter, Ira Jean, Miss Oneta Isham and Harry Hartzog attended the football game at Pampa Sat.

COMMISSIONERS REAPPOINT MEN TO RELIEF BOARD

Odos Caraway Will Continue As Chairman of Board With One Change

During a session of the County Commissioners Monday, the members of the old Relief Board were reappointed by unanimous consent, according to the minutes of the Board of Commissioners.

Due to the resignation of H. T. Burton, L. E. Thompson of Hedley was appointed in his place. With Mr. Thompson will serve C. J. Douglas, G. L. Boykin, Homer Mulkey and Odos Caraway.

Under the new law, the Commissioners make recommendations to the State Board. It is then up to the State Board to ratify or approve the appointments. Under the law before being changed at the last session of the Legislature, the State Board made the recommendations for appointment which in turn required the sanction of the Board of County Commissioners.

For some time it had been the opinion of many that members of the County Relief Board would be appointed from each of the precincts of the county.

The State Board had asked for the appointment of Ed Duncan, Ed Fox, G. E. Allen, G. E. Norwood and H. T. Burton some week back. It was believed at the time that the State Board was making an effort to secure men who took no interest in politics or other organizations, due to the odium created when it was charged that the State Board was playing politics.

Partnership Formed to Push Grocery And Produce Line

A partnership consisting of Sullivan Cooper and Howard Stewart will continue the Cooper grocery and add a general produce line after this coming week.

The building next door to the Cooper grocery has been rented from Clifford & Ray for the purpose, affording plenty of room. A larger grocery stock will be kept and a strong bid made for an expansive trade. Both men are well and favorably known here.

Brumleys Make Trail Drive To Dimmit Ranch

H. C. Brumley returned home Sunday after helping take 200 head of his calves to his Castro county holdings. He was aided by his son Rolle and Bill Wylie.

They drove the calves across the J A's from east of town coming out on the west side of the ranch near Happy. Not a calf was lost on the trip. "It made me think of old times," said Mr. Brumley. They had the chuck wagon and with it went Haynie Robison, old Rowe cook who made sour dough bread and the trimmings of trail drive cooking. Thirteen days were required to make the trip.

Mrs. Will Johnson was an Amarillo visitor Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Whitmore spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Sims.

Relief Funds May Be Used On School Buildings

Trustees of the various districts desiring to use relief funds with which to improve school property, should confer with the superintendent of schools, Sloan Baker at once. Provision has been made for the money without cost to the school district.

A foreman will be appointed to superintend the work in each of their respective school districts relative to the handling of the laborers. In addition to the employment of home labor, the district may enhance the value of the school property by making necessary improvements.

Miss Carrie Davis of Shamrock visited friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Clemant of Shamrock attended Conference here Sunday.

Odos Caraway, administrator of Donley county's Board of Welfare received a wire Sunday instructing him to put men to work on the relief projects who had passed physical examinations. Doctors make no charge for such examinations.

Workmen are to be limited to one hundred and thirty hours per month, or sixteen and a quarter days. The wage scale is 35c per hour for single hands, and 65c per hour for use of trucks. A driver supplying his own truck will receive at this rate $1.00 per hour. The work day consists on an eight hour period.

Work authorized at this time applies to dismantling of the old Grammar School building, and graveling of Highway 66 through Donley county, a distance of 18.5 miles. Forty men and nineteen trucks are employed on this project at this time. The payroll to complete the work is estimated at $10,500.00 with the cost of materials added, making a total cost of $19,975.00. P. S. Bailey is the engineer in charge of the work.

Other projects expected to have starting approval any day is the fencing of right-of-way on Highway 5. The estimated cost from Clarendon west to the Armstrong county line is $1,440.00 for labor. The county will supply the material, though most of the work will be merely the moving of fences that are already located near the route.

The bridging of Kelly Creek northwest of town, and Bell Creek between Lella and Hedley are two projects to receive early attention. The Denver railway is to furnish the material in the Bell creek railway bridge job. The estimated time for construction is forty-two days, and the payroll $4,000.00. M. A. Stainer, engineer of the railway company, will superintend the work since the bridge is for the use of the railway company.

The bridge is necessary to carry off the water, it is said, when the highway is constructed at that point. A concrete culvert is now in use at that point.

Those desiring work on these projects are to file applications with G. L. Boykin at the office of the Chamber of Commerce in the City Hall.

Some folks seem to think that athletics, and especially football, is being overdone in our schools. Since the weekly papers are full of it, and the dailies about half full, perhaps it is—from a newspaper standpoint anyway.

The American News of New York City uses a vocabulary of only 900 words. This restriction is made merely to accommodate the foreign element. It might not be a bad idea to follow out that idea in the weekly press since so many of us fail to get our ideas over.

Texas may have a Centennial in 1936. It may not. About a dozen towns want to share in it and have the thing scattered all over the state. San Antonio, on account of the Alamo, is rightfully the only place to construct permanent buildings. Texas should have at least one large museum building, and now is the time to get it.

Clarendon enjoyed the Conference immensely. The people of this town combined their resources to make the visitors feel at home. The visitors acted like they thoroughly enjoyed mixing with our folks.

The crowd here Sunday was the largest church crowd in the history of the town, or at least that is what a number of our church folks tell us. All the sessions were most interesting, and the benefits to be derived from such a gathering will long be felt in this section. Thrice welcome back again, preachers, laymen and visitors.

Donley county folks are coming out of the kinks this year. Cotton is bringing around ten cents. When one rides over the country stacks of feed, hogs in the pen, Jersey cows hanging around on the farm is a guarantee that the family is going to enjoy life more the next year than has been the custom for the past three.

The women folks have been looking after the canning. Cellars are well stocked. If they have no cellar, they have pantries. Vegetables and meats have been put away for future use. It just takes all these things to add joys to one's existence. No other section of the state has more to be thankful for than Donley this year.

Years ago George F. Sawyer, industrious and hard-working young man, purchased a farm in Nebraska and raised corn to feed pigs to get money to raise more corn to feed more pigs, etc., and prospered. Then he married and later opened a bank, and prospered still more. Then came the depression of a few years ago and he was forced to close his bank in which his friends had all or most all their money deposited. The blow was too much, and on his death bed he called his six children, two sons and four daughters, to his bedside and admonished them to "remember the trust our friends and neighbors placed in us." Last week these children met and made payment of sixty-two thousand dollars in full to depositors whose money was tied up in the bank.

When we ride over the better class of concrete paved highways without a "jolt at the joints," little do we know the reason why the jolt has been left out. A cushion of cotton, asphalt and kerosene was combined to fill the space between the big slabs to properly allow for expansion. Who got up the idea? It was Dr. George Washington Carver of Tuskegee Institute who gave us the simple plan of avoiding jolts.

One naturally becomes interested in this professor of the chemistry department of the noted negro school, and who himself is a black man born on a plantation. His life has been spent in the South, and now at seventy, he wishes to remain there. His big job is to find new markets for farm products by originating methods of extracting by-products from the crops that grow on the farm. For instance, he has found 250 by-products of the peanut. Many other things we use every day came to us through the mental processes of the black man of Tuskegee.

Russia offered him fifty thousand a year to help them develop their resources. He refused. Edison laboratories offered him a yearly salary of $175,000 to work with other scientists in developing new ideas. He refused for, as he said, he had spent his life in the South where the folks had been good to him, and he wanted to remain there. He lost his life's savings in a bank that went broke two years ago. Last week he visited President Roosevelt at Warm Springs, Ga. by special request of the President. He went dressed as he has always dressed, garbed in the regalia of a farm hand. He may work for the government part time, but he will continue to work at Tuskegee.

Plans For Canning Six Million Pounds Beef Is Being Made For Needy

College Station, Texas, Nov. 15. Details of a plan for buying, killing and canning six million or more pounds of beef in Texas for relief of the needy in Texas, through the Federal Emergency Relief Administration and in cooperation with the Texas Relief Commission and the Extension Service of Texas A&M College, were explained here to county farm and home demonstration agents assembled in annual meeting. Principal features of the plan were agreed upon in a conference of extension officials with C. Z. Crane of the Federal Surplus Relief Corporation, Austin.

Texas is the first and only state thus far to try out this plan of supplying its own needy by purchases made wholly within the state, Mr. Crane said. If it succeeds the same plan may be used in the purchase of butter and eggs and possibly other food stuffs, he added.

Federal relief authorities have allocated about $500,000 to Texas for purchases of beef this winter above the regular requisitions, and this money less a relatively small administrative expense will be paid Texas farmers for 20,000 or more cutter cows, Mr. Crane explained. The plan, which is expected to be put in operation very soon, contemplates the assembly of the beeves purchased in 15 to 20 Texas points for slaughter and canning. The location of the processing plants has not been definitely decided, but in general they will be located in the centers of areas where the need for relief is greatest.

Purchases will be allocated to counties, and experienced buyers employed by the relief commission will do the buying. Regular market price will be paid but there will be a saving to farmers in freight and commission due to the fact that the animals will be slaughtered within the area where they are purchased.

All slaughtering is to be done by commercial killers at points where there are slaughtering and refrigeration facilities, and where there are R. F. C. canneries. At some places new canneries will probably be established to save costly transportation.

The unemployed are to be given jobs in these canneries under supervision of persons selected by the Extension Service and directed by home demonstration agents.

The grade of cattle to be bought will be primarily fat cows. Sorry cattle are not wanted in these purchases which are to be as widely distributed over the Texas and between as many farmers as possible. The cutting of the carcasses is to be done by butchers the "A&M Way" to facilitate canning, this process to be demonstrated by Roy W. Snyder, extension specialist. The best meat will be canned as roasts with the other parts going into cans of stew, hamburgers, chili, and hash.

Much credit is due Lawrence Westbrook of the Texas Relief Commission for getting this bought in Texas, used in Texas, plan in operation, Mr. Crane said.

Mrs. J. W. Sherrord returned home Sunday from Wichita where she has been visiting the past month.

State Health Officer Makes Health Suggestions

Austin, Texas, Nov. 15th.—In speaking of New Deals, Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer, suggested that every one should declare a New Deal for their health. Many persons overdid the annual vacation and instead of relaxing and giving the body a chance to recuperate tried to see how much they could do in the time allotted to them. As a result many such persons are now complaining about their tired condition. Vacations spent in such a fashion would seem to need a repeat dose at this time of the year.

In making this statement there is no idea of suggesting that one quit work and do the whole thing over. The point is to give the body a new deal. With the crisp autumn days it would be to everyone's advantage to make the most of them. Instead of staying in an overheated room, step out into the open each day for a walk. It may be that a few less bridge games will be played or fewer movies seen, but your body will not miss them. On the contrary it will be benefitted by the fresh air and exercise.

It may be advisable to give the stomach a new deal. Not that any starvation diet is being advocated; only that if one has been habitually over-eating or undereating, then to return to normalcy. It will be wise to give the body its eight hours of sleep each night of which it has likely been so consistently deprived for a long time. The beauty of this new deal is that it will not cost any money and at the same time make up for the vitality building opportunity lost during the summer. Such a program is quite worth while. TRY ONE.

STOP GETTING UP NIGHTS

Lax the Bladder With Juniper Oil, Buchu, Etc.

Drive out the impurities and excess acids that cause irritation, burning and frequent desire. Juniper oil is pleasant to take in the form of BUKETS, the bladder laxative, also containing Buchu leaves, etc. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Get a 25c box from any drug store. After four days if not relieved of "getting up nights" go back and get your money. If you are bothered with backache or leg pains caused from bladder disorders you are bound to feel better after this cleansing and you get your regular sleep.

About 40 per cent of the cotton from that section fell in the Spotted group. Some 15 per cent was Strict Low Middling in grade and equivalent to the White and Extra White Standards. TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

After making so much explanation in this column last week about the girls writing such fine articles in their English class, we printed an article written by Maxine Ellis and failed to put her name under the heading of the article. Life is like that. About the time we think we are doing well, we are not. And vice-versa. The subject of Maxine's article was "The First Lighthouse in America."

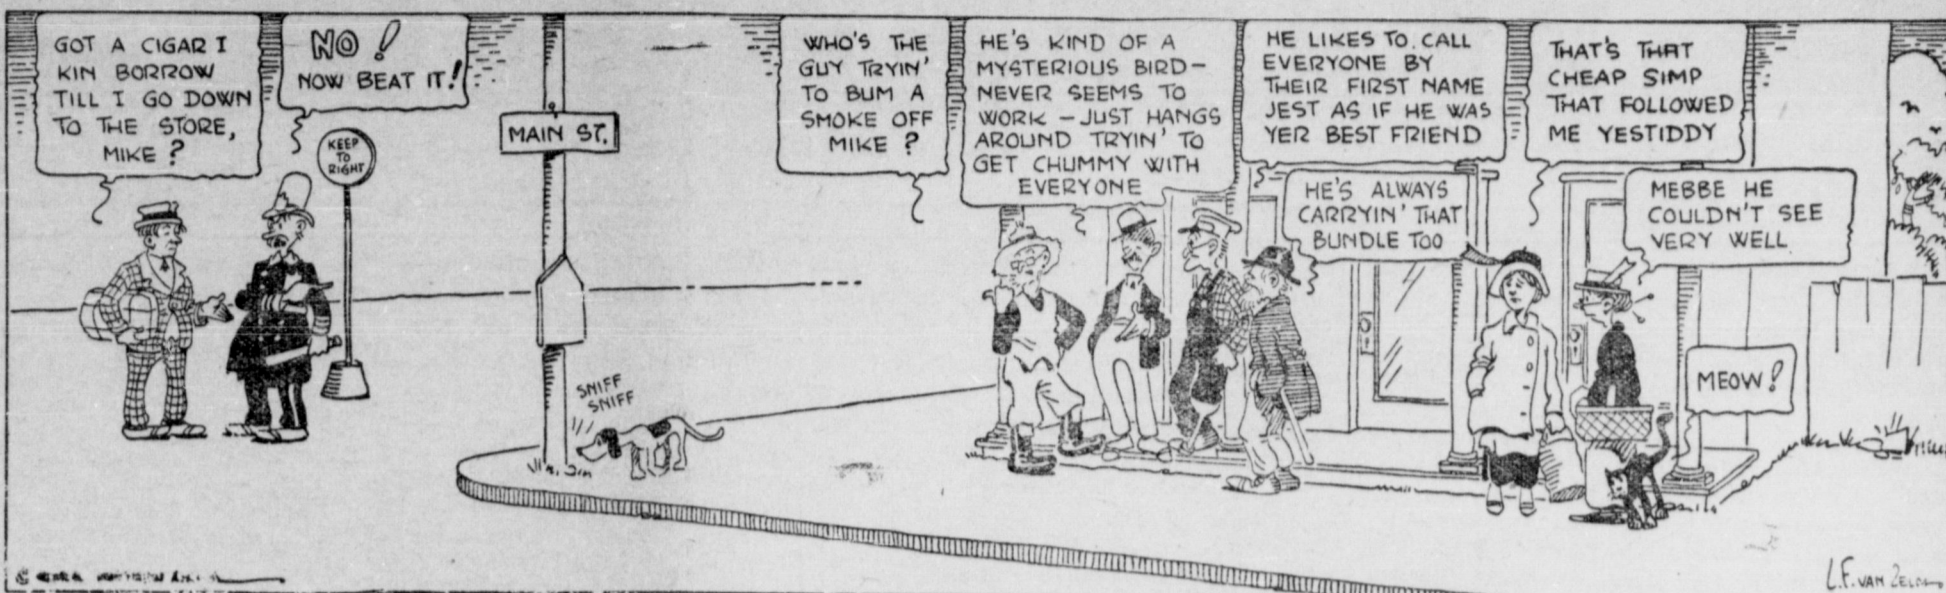

This week Earlene Pitts has an article, "How Grandmother Dressed for School." She, like the other girls who have been writing articles that have been printed in the Leader, is a pupil in the English class of Mrs. M. C. Goodner. When you read these articles, if they appeal to you as having merit considering that these are very young

Mrs. Goodner takes a lot of pains to instruct her pupils in writing articles and in giving readings and by using various other methods that will develop their minds. She's doing a good work and deserves every encouragement. School teachers are human after all, and certainly have a high sense of appreciation even though in some there has been so little to arouse it for so long that it has become latent or dormant.

School teachers have more to do with the moulding of character and the inspiring of our children to achieve success than any other factor either in or out of the home. Seriously speaking, I believe that as a class, they are less appreciated than any other profession. What a pity!

Perhaps you will read this column before you get started to the Father-Son banquet tonight. Don't forget that some boy and plenty of them, would be glad to get there. If you did not intend to go, change your mind right now. Make yourself glad for the morning and take a boy over to the basement of the Christian church and let him have one of the best times of his life.

Did you ever hear of halitosis? That means nothing more than "bad breath" in a Sunday dress. Now that we have broken the ice, gotten better acquainted, and don't feel so timid, may we inquire if you ever heard of "Halitosis of the hoof?" That means feet that don't smell like peaches, vanilla or by any stretching of the imagination could it be compared with any of the better grades of perfume. Why all this discussion? Well, the whole secret is this: there is a foot remedy being used here that will remove the cause of foot odor and save embarrassment on the part of the owner of the foot. After being used a short time, the condition does not return. If you are further interested, call at the office or simply phone 386. You will then be directed to the agent who lives here. Her advertisement appears in the classified column, and her name is Mrs. Hays Robbins.

Stopping in Plainview Sunday, we ate in a cafe that has been operated by a man for a number of years. When we fell to discussing the length of time he had been there, he said, "yes I have seen my hair turn gray in the service here." Nature is a funny thing. While the old man's hair was turning gray in 10 years, he had a waitress whose hair had turned black, henna, yellow and blond in six months.

In the smokeroom of the big hotel the Scot had been boring everyone with tales of the great deeds he had done.

"Well, now," said an Englishman at last, "suppose you tell us something you can't do, and, by jove, I'll undertake to do it myself."

"Thank ye," replied the Scot, "I canna pay ma bill here."

A fish diet may not strengthen the brain, but going fishing certainly invigorates the imagination.

"Have you ever been married?" asked the judge.

"Ye-es," stammered the prisoner "To whom?"

"A woman, sir," answered the guilty one.

"Of course it was a woman," snapped the judge. "Did you ever hear of anyone marrying a man?"

"Yessiree," the prisoner said, brightening, "my sister did."

Scented furniture is all the rage in the east, which means that we will have it here during the coming year. "Feel of the soft cushions, look at the style, sit down on it, and last but not least, smell it." Then again may we hear the salesman say, "what flavor, please?"

For some time many have wondered why the boll weevil did not get in his work down east this season and cut down the cotton crop. The fact that the weevils did not have to work in the field is all due to the Red Cross. The farmers sprinkled Red Cross flour around the edges of their fields, and after the weevils got started and ate up the first batch, they sat around the edges until more flour was spilled. They refused to work in the field and kept up on the flour all the season. That is how those smart farmers down there saved the cotton crop.

Evolution is a marvelous thing. Back in the days of peg top trousers, rented buggies, mustaches and lady-courtin' the college boys spent spare time at the library and never dared be caught out to any kind of a 'dating' through the week.

Now the sons are joined by the daughters, gang up at the coffee shops, sip cokes and smoke cigarettes, make foolish conversation that was once considered a rank insult, go to the picture shows at night and date out at every opportunity. If one is caught going to the library, that one looks like one being sentenced to prison. They seem to get along as well as the students of thirty years ago, though they have an entirely different method of procedure. Evolution is not only a reality, but it is marvelous.

Speaking of evolution, one no longer need guess at how to season sausage for instance, the seasoning powders may be had of the grocery. The proportion is all worked out with spices and other things necessary included. This is a great world so far as sausage making is concerned.

GOLDSTON SCHOOL NEWS

On November 6 school got under way after several months vacation. The kiddies all seem very enthusiastic and eager to get back to their school work. The patrons manifested their interest in their school by being present at the opening.

Brother Ferrell, pastor of the First Christian Church at Clarendon, gave a very interesting and instructive address which was enjoyed by the patrons and pupils. In addition to Bro. Ferrell's address, Mr. Gray brought us greetings and good wishes from the school board.

The teachers this year are Mr. Gordon Gatewood, principal; Miss Nancy Potter of the Midway community, sixth and seventh grade; Mrs. Orville Smith of Shamrock, third, fourth and fifth grades; and Miss Willie Mae Blanks of Lakeview, primary. Our teachers come to us this year well prepared for their work. Mr. Gatewood has been here three years and he is a student of West Texas State Teachers College Canyon, Texas. Miss Potter has had a number of years experience of teaching in the county and she is a student of Clarendon College and West Texas State Teachers College. Mrs. Smith is an experienced but she is a student of the College of Industrial Arts Denton, Texas and of the West Texas State Teachers College. While she was at W. T. S. T. C. she did her practice teaching which is equivalent to teaching experience. Miss Blanks comes to us from Brice where she has taught for three years. Miss Blanks is a student of Wayland College, Plainview, Texas; North Texas State Teachers College Denton, Texas; and West Texas State Teachers College Canyon, Texas.

The teachers and pupils have already formulated their plans for participation in the Interscholastic League activities. Prospects are rather good for gaining recognition at the county meet. The teachers are aware of the fact that this school has been well represented heretofore and they realize that the pace has already been set by their predecessors.

Plans are being formulated for the district Teachers and Trustees Association which is to meet here about the first of December. The schools that are in this district are Ashtola, Martin, Jericho and Goldston. Watch this column for further announcement.

We Don't Send Our Wheat To The Cotton Gins

The United States census statistics show that when most young men and women finish their schooling they go into Business. It is right that it should be so. The greatest opportunities today are in business.

But here is another interesting fact. A great many of these boys and girls who do go into business positions, of one kind and another, have taken courses at school and college that are not intended to train them for business careers at all. They go to this, that and the other kind of schools, they take all sorts and kinds of courses—and then they go out and look for business positions.

Not only are they untrained in modern business methods, but they are not even trained in common business discipline.

Our schools should train our young people for the work they are going to do in life. If they are going to be doctors or lawyers they should go to medical school or law school. But for heaven's sake let's train our business men and women in the same intelligent way.

We do not mean that every boy and girl should go to Tyler Commercial College and School of Business Administration, but we DO maintain that boys and girls who are going into business will be better prepared if they have business educations offered by an outstanding Business School.

The fact that a course at Tyler takes less time and costs less money is not a drawback. It is an advantage. It simply means that a student's effort is turned into profit more quickly.

The courses that are taught at Tyler Commercial College and School of Business Administration are described in the booklet, "Achieving Success in Business," which is mailed free upon request. They are real college courses. A term at Tyler is a real college training—with a lot of waste of time left out.

"AT EVENING TIME IT SHALL BE LIGHT."

Others may wish you peace and ease

With a gentler break for the times ahead,

Silken sails upon stormless seas,

Or rose-rimmed paths where your feet may tread,

I wish you the fiber the valiant need

To drive your way thru the bitter blast;

I wish you the heart of the fighting breed

To carry through while the battle lasts.

Here and there we can rest and dream;

But most of it is a finish fight.

War to the hilt where the red flames stream

Over a field that is thick with blight

Life, as it happens, is raw and rude

With sin and sorrow, defeat and shame,

Where the only answer is fortitude

And the old, old courage to play the game.

I could wish you luck that was spun of gold,

With softer paths for your feet to know;

I could wish you peace through an endless fold,

With never a cloud on the azure glow.

But oh, for the heart that can meet the crash

When storms come down from the hills at dawn!

Oh, for the soul that can face the slash

When life walks in with its sabre drawn!

Nurseryman Tells Method Of Tree Planting

Planting fruit trees is like politics—every body has a different idea about how they should be planted. Some of them have been tried out others are just ideas by people that do not hardly know what a tree is. The first thing to think of in putting out trees is this. That trees need plenty of room to get the best results from them. I say put peach trees twenty-five or thirty feet apart then they will have more power to withstand drouths which in some sections we never failed to have some time during the growing season of the tree. By giving the trees plenty of room I would get bigger peaches and the frost would not be so likely to get them. If I should plant them on soil where trees do not live long. I may figure on digging them up after I get three or four good crops of peaches. If the land is rolling and can be terraced, trees will flourish on terraces. It is often asked should the trees be planted beside the terrace or on top of it. I believe that I get better results on top as they will drain there and live for years. I set an orchard out on terraces a year ago this last April and had some peaches this last spring. The trees have made I believe the best growth of any that I ever planted. And out side of peach trees the land would not grow anything.

In getting land ready for setting the trees I just give it a good breaking and harrowing, checking it off so that I can get my trees in lines. A peach orchard is mighty pretty planted like they plant the citrus groves in South Texas in line either way you look. Then take just an ordinary spade and dig a hole just deep enough for the roots. Some practice cutting the roots off some I rarely ever do.

Some years you will just naturally have better luck than other, no matter how you plant them.

TO THE HONORABLE GRAND JURY EMPANNELED IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF DONLEY COUNTY, TEXAS, OCTOBER TERM, A. D., 1933.

We, your committee appointed on the 18th day of October, A. D. 1933, to inquire into whether or not the county and district officers of Donley County are keeping such records as are prescribed by law touching the receipts and disbursements of county funds, submit the following report:

We examined the records kept in the offices of the Tax Collector, the County Clerk and the County Treasurer and we inquired into the methods employed by such officers touching the receipts and disbursements of county funds.

It is our opinion that the Tax Collector is keeping every record prescribed by law in the proper discharge of his official duty, and that proper reports are being made to the Commissioners' Court. It is our further opinion that all monies collected by him are promptly and duly disbursed.

It is our opinion that the County Clerk is keeping proper record of all fines and jury fees collected by him, and that all such monies are duly paid to the County Treasurer; that proper receipt of such monies is duly made to the Commissioners' Court.

It is our opinion that the claims of the county upon which the County Clerk issues warrants drawn upon county funds are being properly and carefully handled and that full and complete record of all claims is kept by said clerk and that said warrants are drawn only upon proper authority. It is our further opinion that the County Clerk has filed with the Commissioners' Court every report touching his official duty which is required by law.

It is our opinion that the County Treasurer issues proper receipt for all monies coming into her hands as such Treasurer, keeping proper record thereof in her office; that all monies so received by her are duly deposited in the County Depository Bank, proper receipt therefor being received; that all disbursements of county funds are made only upon proper authority and that proper record thereof is retained in her office. It is our opinion that said Treasurer has filed with the Commissioners' Court all reports required by law touching her official duties.

We find that the County Clerk and County Treasurer each keeps a Finance Ledger, which reflects in minute detail the status of the County's indebtedness and reflect the status of the several accounts of the county's funds. We find that the several district, county and precinct officers have filed with the Commissioners' Court reports of the fees of office accruing to them, all of which reports are on file in the office of the county clerk. It is our opinion that all the several reports made by the various officers are in regular form. They are all sworn to before an officer authorized by law to take acknowledgements and have been duly filed and it is our opinion that all such reports have been duly approved by the Commissioners' Court; however in some instances the Commissioners' Court docket and the minutes of said court are silent on that point.

We find that the records and files in each office are being neatly kept. The several officers whom we contacted in this regard, together with their assistants in office, fully co-operated with this committee in its undertaking.

Our labors in this behalf consumed two days, Thursday and Friday, October 19th and 20th, 1933. Our work being completed, we respectfully request that we be discharged.

Dated at Clarendon, Texas, this 20th day of October, A. D., 1933.

Respectfully Submitted,
Committee

What Will Congress Do?

Extraordinary powers were placed in the hands of President Roosevelt before Congress adjourned in the summer of 1933. The next regular session promises unusual measures, whether of help or hindrance remains to be seen. The News has the facilities of Associated Press, United Press and North American Newspaper Alliance. These would be sufficient for most newspapers, but not for The News which maintains its own staff of correspondents. The News is the only paper in the Southwest with its own Washington bureau, being represented by Mark Goodwin, outstanding correspondent on national affairs.

Professor Condron Speaks to High School Friday Morning

The high school students felt they were greatly honored Friday morning, November 10, when Mr. Thomasson came to our first classes and announced that Professor Condron of the West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon, Texas was there. The classes immediately assembled in the study hall to hear Mr. Condron speak.

Mr. Condron's talk was based on thoroughness. He stressed how one must be thorough to get an education and how one must be thorough to get along in the world of today. Another feature of Mr. Condron's talk was how we can and must be a good citizen of the United States.

The civics class was greatly disappointed when Mr. Condron did not get to speak to them as he had to be back at Clarendon for previous engagements.

As Professor Condron was getting near to the end of his talk, Professor G. C. Boswell, with whom Mr. Thomasson had spent two years and Mrs. Thomasson one year teaching at Byers, Texas. Mr. Boswell gave us a short but interesting talk. Mr. Boswell is now dean of the McMurry College at Abilene, Texas.

My Encounter with a Dictionary

One day I went walking in the woods near my home. I had been walking some time when I took to a sharp corner. I did not think much about it, though, as I was day-dreaming.

I turned the corner and Crash! I went into somebody.

When I looked up, I found it was someone I did not know. We both began to apologize but neither knew what to say. In our discomfiture we became friends.

After we had been talking a good bit I suddenly said, "But who are you?"

"Me?" he said, "Oh, I am Mr. Dictionary. My father was Daniel Webster."

"But," I protested, "what good are you?"

"I do many people good. Come and sit down here in the shade of this tree and I will tell you everything that is inside me."

"If you should ever trouble yourself to look inside me, you would find many things you don't know about.

"First you will find the title page, of course. Next will come the preface which explains all about me. Then if you will trouble yourself to turn over a few more leaves you will find a list of authors quoted. Next comes a brief history of the English language in which you find out where all the English words came from. Then you find a guide to punctuation. Next comes the orthography which means dealings with words. Abbreviations follow the orthography. After a few explanatory notes you come to the "New Word" section. After new words comes a Dictionary of the English Language. Here you may find the correct pronunciation and the meaning of all words. You also find what part of speech it is. After the dictionary you find a Pronouncing Gazette and a pronouncing Biographical Dictionary. A few more pages and you find Population of Places in the United States. The next page is a Pronouncing Gazette or another name for it is a Geographical Dictionary of the world. As you go through me you meet up with Arbitrary Signs. A classified selection of Pictorial Illustrations meets you and now as you come to the end of your journey, you meet up with a page of advertisements."

"Why, Mr. Dictionary, it seems terribly strange that I have never met up with you before!"

"Oh, you have met me many times and although you did not know me, I knew you." Then he added, "It is getting late so that you had better let me guide you back to your pathway, for I fear you have lost it."

"I had not noticed it, although I thought this pathway rather strange," I replied.

And so Mr. Dictionary led me back to the pathway of knowledge from which I had gone astray in my day-dreaming.

I now consult with Mr. Dictionary quite often about my troubles.

Laura Mae Gerner.

Girls' Basketball Report

We girls are really getting peppy once more. Miss Hill, the coach, has us in training, and we are really improving. We are, very, anxious to play Goodnight. The score is going to be considerably different from last year's score, we think. We are entering all the tournaments. We think we can, and we are really expecting to be victorious.

Boy's Basketball

Tuesday night the Lelia High Zebras were to play Windy Valley after the pie supper. As they never did show up, we played the town boys and got a very good "beating."

We have been having hard workouts this week. Coach Cooper expects to give us more hard workouts in preparation for a game with Goodnight on November 25th.

Captain Allen has not returned yet, but the ball boys feel that he will be back soon.

Peppy Juniors

Although the Juniors did not have a social Hallowe'en they have not lost interest in social events. They are planning a Junior Banquet at Moody Aten's home Thanksgiving. You will hear the results later.

The teachers know quite a bit more now since they graded the Junior's test papers than they did before. Some examples from our English papers are: One smart boy wrote epos for epic; a bright little girl wrote monoster for monster.

Monday afternoon, a representative from the Star Engraving Company was here to show us class pins and rings. The class made a temporary selection for pins.

See you next week, The Juniors

Ansill Lynn Speaks to School

In Chapel on Friday afternoon, November 10, Reverend Ansill Lynn gave a very interesting talk on his work in Africa. We were very sorry that he did not have any of his curios with him, as we would have enjoyed seeing them very much.

He first told of his journey to the Begian Congo and then of his life there.

Then he told of the animals he saw while he was in Africa, and of those he came in contact with.

Later Rev. Lynn told how the natives dressed and what they wore. He also told what they ate, and how they obtained some of their food. It was very amusing when he told of the way some of the natives dressed in a few of his old, discarded clothing. Some of the students may have felt rather disgusted with the food of Africa when Rev. Lynn told of the natives eating dried ants and grub worms.

After having spent a great many years in Africa, Rev. Lynn gave us a large amount of information on life in Africa.

We all hope that we will have the pleasure of hearing Rev. Ansill Lynn speak again in the near future.

Better English Club

The Better English Club met Wednesday, November 8th. The president took charge, minutes were read and approved. We had an Armistice program. It was rendered as follows:

How we celebrated the end of the World War—Edward McDaniel.

The part the United States played in the World War—Marie Bain.

Two songs were sung by the class. The class had a discussion about results of the World War and the celebration of Armistice Day.

The Club will meet again Nov. 22nd.

LEGAL RESERVE LIFE INSURANCE

Read these figures:

$4,010,817,751.00 paid to policyholders and beneficiaries by Life Insurance Companies in 1932

Approximately as much as the $4,275,000,000.00 gold stock of the United States.

Four billion dollar bills piled on top of each other would make a stack 252 miles high.

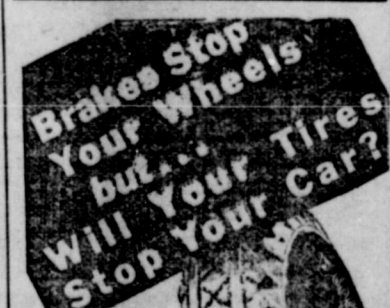

Four billion dollars distributed in a year means $10,988,542.00 a day; $457,856.00 an hour; $7,631.00 each minute; $127.00 each second.

$4,000,000,000.00 in new dollar bills, end on end, would circle the earth about 13 times.

$4,000,000,000.00 in $5.00 gold pieces stacked up would build a tower about 3,000 times as tall as the Empire State Building.

If a person picked up a dollar every step, and took a step every second in every day, it would take 126 years to pick up four billion dollars.

"Three Great Needs."
"Thomas saith unto Him, Lord we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. If ye had known me, ye should have known the Father also: and from henceforth ye know him and have seen him."
John 14:5-7.

Those are true words of Thomas A. Kempis: "Without thy way, there is no going; without the truth there is no knowing; without the life, there is no living." Says Jesus: "I am the way which thou should pursue; the truth which thou should believe; the life which thou should hope for." The three great human needs, direction knowledge and life, are met in Christ and His life.

I. JESUS IS DIRECTION. "I am the way." Jesus is such a directing way. His is the directing way for all the varying experiences and vicissitudes of life, for childhood, youth, manhood, temptation, sorrow, joy, service, love, death, and triumph over death. He is the directing way for all mankind. He is the one universal man. He is the directing way, because, he does not simply point out the way, he himself is the Way, precisely telling his teachings by his life.

II. CHRIST IS THE GREAT ANSWER TO THE GREAT NEED OF KNOWING. "I am the truth." Jesus is the truth concerning God. Before Christ's birth among men, very little was known about God and concerning God, but in Christ's life many very important things about God were revealed to the human family. Christ is the truth concerning man. Since the incarnation of Christ in human flesh and blood, the great truths about man has been made known. A greater value has been placed upon human beings. His worth was revealed. Christ is truth concerning human destiny. He showed by his life and death that there is something beyond the grave, that death does not end all.

III. JESUS IS THE ANSWER TO THE GREAT NEED FOR LIFE. "I am the life." The world's greatest need, nineteen hundred years ago was Christ, and He is still our greatest need. We want life, more life and in Him we find life, the more abundant life. Without Him there is no eternal life.

Sunday we have two interesting sermons on truth, at the morning hour we will study "The Purchase Price of Truth," and at the evening hour, "The Selling Price of Truth." We would like for you to be present for these lessons.

ANNOUNCEMENT-----

Mr. G. Laseter, formerly with the Finklea Jewelry Co. of Amarillo for some time, is now with the Stocking Drug store prepared to take care of your watch repairing. He has had a wide experience in all grades of railroad and other watch repairing.

Thousands have Ended their Bowel Worries by taking this advice!

Can constipation actually be overcome? "Yes!" say medical men. "Yes!" say the many thousands who have followed their advice and know.

You are not likely to cure your constipation with salts, pills, tablets, or any of the habit-forming cathartics. But you can correct this condition by gentle regulation with a suitable liquid laxative.

using force. An approved liquid laxative (one which is most widely used for both adults and children) is syrup pepsin. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a prescription, and is perfectly safe. Its laxative action is based on senna—a natural laxative. The bowels will not become dependent on this form of help, as in the case of mineral drugs.

Hospitals and doctors have always used liquid laxatives. The dose can be measured, and the action controlled. Pills and tablets containing drugs of violent action are hard on the bowels. If there are children in your household, don't give them any form of laxative, but use a healthful, helpful preparation like syrup pepsin. Its very taste will tell you it is wholesome, and agreeable to the stomach. Delightful taste, and delightful action; there is no discomfort at the time, or after. Ask your druggist for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, all ready to take.

THE LIQUID TEST:

This is the way many men and women have made their bowels as regular as clockwork in a very short time.

First: select a properly prepared liquid laxative. Second: take the dose you find suited to your system. Third: gradually reduce the dose until bowels are moving of their own accord.

Simple, isn't it? And it works! The right liquid laxative brings thorough bowel action without

BRONCHOS TRIM MEMPHIS CYCLONES WITH 31-19 SCORE

Crowd Cheers As Both Teams Feature Passing Attack In Armistice Day Game

Traditional rivalry between two strong gridiron warriors again smacked with the spirit of an Armistice Day engagement here last Friday when the Clarendon Bronchos tamed the Memphis Cyclones with a victory of 31-19.

Both teams offered an offensive game that kept the fans on their toes watching passes of both teams, which in a few instances led to touchdowns. With this victory the Bronchos are now holding second place in the district and stand a fair chance of coming out on top should the Cyclones defeat the Shamrock Irishmen.

Both teams started with fast offensive playing that netted the Bronchos two touchdowns during the first quarter. Clarendon got her first score with a 40-yard run on an end-around sprint by Loyd Martin of Clarendon. He repeated a few minutes later with a second end-around dash of 25 yards and over the goal line for the second counter for Clarendon. Neither try for the extra point was good.

During the second quarter, both Martin and Whitlock added touchdowns. Martin made his score when he received a short pass from E. Watson. Only one try for point was good, E. Watson kicking for the extra point.

Memphis scored their first touchdown during the second quarter on a 20-yard pass from Norman to Walker who ran 50 yards to the Broncho goal. A few minutes later he snatched another pass and ran 12 yards for their second counter. Both kicks for points failed.

The Bronchos made their last score during the third period when Easterling intercepted a Cyclone pass and sprinted 60 yards for a touchdown. Try for point was no good.

The Cyclones added their last touchdown in the last quarter when Norman passed to Walker who ran 14 yards to place the ball on the 3-yard line. Norman hit the line for the touchdown and also plunged over for the extra point.

A Broncho penalty at one thrilling point of the game cost the Bronchos a touchdown when Paul Greene made a dash over the goal line only to have it called back.

Father-Sons Banquet All Set For Tonight

Toastmaster "Heavy" Whitlock announces that the members on the program tonight are all set to entertain all the fathers and sons who can get inside the basement of the First Christian church.

The ladies have been cooking the gobblers since Tuesday. "The meat will be as tender as the gravy," is the way Rev. Ferrell has doped it out to those who think he is on the inside of the 'cookery' over at the church where women have made a reputation for excellent judgment in cooking for the dozens of banquet crowds they have served.

Look out for the underprivileged boy who may not have a chance to get there. Bring him along if you have none of your own. The big show starts at 7:15. No admittance except by ticket.

Donley County Leader, $1.50 a year

The Bronchos made 18 first downs to 10 for the opposition. Memphis had the edge on the number of passes completed.

Starting line-up for Clarendon: Martin, le; Behrens, lt; Mann, lg; McMahan, c; Easterlin, rg; Gorman, rt; O. C. Watson, re; Whitlock q; Greene, lb; Word, rb; E. Watson, fb.

By Sloan Baker
County Supt. Schools

The Class B Practice Basketball Tournament will not be played in December but will be postponed until the 12th and 13th of January. This change was made to allow the schools time for a better organization of their teams.

The teachers of the county will meet in a County-Wide meeting at nine thirty a. m. Saturday the 13, day of January, 1934. The Donley county Board ruled at its last meeting that there should be two teacher meetings a year. The new anti-institute law reads, that no teacher meeting shall be over three hours in length and not more than three meetings per year. At the Donley County meeting arrangements will be made for the Interscholastic League Meet. The Deputy State Superintendent for this district will probably be present for this meeting of the teachers. Any suggestions that will help at this meeting will be appreciated by the County Superintendent.

All tax payers should keep in mind that they may by a late law pay their school taxes in the common school districts without paying their other taxes at the same time. If you cannot pay any of the tax but the school tax be sure to pay the school tax. We need in Donley county to keep the schools running for eight months if possible.

Teachers who have not paid their due to Texas State Teachers Association should do so before the Annual Convention in Austin November 13th, December 1st, 2nd. Every teacher who can attend should go to the three day meeting of the Association in Austin.

The lovers of orchestra music will miss a treat if they do not attend the Symphony Band Concert Sunday evening, November 19th. Bohumir Kryl, the orchestra director, has the reputation of being the greatest Symphony orchestra director in America today. In the larger cities Bohumir Kryl engages Madam Ernestine Schumann Heink, paying her a thousand dollars for each engagement. The Bohumir Kryl Symphony Orchestra plays under the auspices of the Aubyn E. Clark Post of the American Legion. Any member of the Legion will help you secure a ticket.

HOW GRANDMOTHER DRESSED FOR SCHOOL

(By Earlene Pitts)

Grandmother did not dress for school as I do now, when she was a girl. She would wash her face until it shone, where I would apply rouge and powder to my already rosy cheeks. She would sometimes apply touches of powder to her nose so that it would not be quite so shiny, but she never let any one know that she did this. Next, she would put on her long, black, cotton stockings and lace her high topped shoes. Then she would take from her closet her supply of petticoats. After they were quite exhausted, she would put on her ankle length dress, which was sometimes very attractive.

In some ways I envy Grandmother, but I am glad I do not have to go to so much trouble to prepare for school.

E. M. Hott and daughter, Mrs. Theda Hough made a trip to Texline the last of the week. They visited relatives and friends at Clayton and were accompanied home by her son Athal Royce who has been visiting relatives at Texline.
