WIND AND HAIL HITS PANHANDLE TUESDAY NIGHT

Donley County Escapes With Small Hail Damage And Barn Smashed

A building dust storm struck Clarendon shortly after 8 o'clock Tuesday evening from the northwest after having apparently originated in the northwest part of the state from late reports.

The wind did damage to trees and windmills over the county and some smaller buildings. The barn on the D. P. Perdue farm south of Lelia was smashed. This is the only damage of any consequence reported to date.

While the rain amounting to one and half inches at Clarendon averaged that amount over the county, hail in this section did no damage except over a scope of several farms south of Lelia Lake including the Waddell and Perdue and surrounding farms.

Rain fell at Dumas up in Moore county making about eleven inches within the past month where a drouth had prevailed for the past three years. Dalhart registered .22 and Texico and Hereford report a half inch.

Rain reports in varying quantities are received from Hall, Childress and Collingsworth counties. The hind wind damaged growing crops and blew down a farmhouse near Harrel Chapel in Hall county. Cars in the Quail country were stalled, some bogged and others were held up by high water.

The wind caused the West Texas Utilities linemen quite a bit of trouble locally when service to Clarendon stopped. Wade Hilliard, line foreman and Walter Trout, engineer, went out on the high line between here and Hedley repairing damage until 2:30 a. m. spending the time in the dust and rain in order that service might not be interrupted. The local power plant supplied service here until repairs could be made.

Two-Bit Grafter Lands Here Tuesday Morning

A young man showed up in Clarendon early Tuesday morning. His game was to appeal to the individual that he was in dire need of 25 cents to add to his 35 cents that he might wire his people in Temple to send him money to get back home.

When he reached the Leader office, sympathy was aroused to the extent that the editor called Western Union and asked Mr. Welch to send the telegram for the young man and charge the "two-bits" asked for to the Leader account.

The young man thanked the editor and headed for the telegraph office but failed to reach it. In fact he had carried his point with several in picking up two-bit pieces on a sympathy basis, after which he quietly went his way.

Band Boys Adopt Scheme To Secure Finances

Five of the band boys are out this week sweating as they visit individuals in their efforts to secure subscriptions to magazines. All this is being done to secure needed help to put over the financial plan of the band organization.

Those who appreciate the band and the band boys should see either Claude McGowan, Nickey Stewart, Bill Walker, J. R. Cox or Jack Draffin. Either one of these boys will be glad to send in your subscription.

Collingsworth Crops Are Hailed Out Monday

A hail storm gathering force four miles east of Wellington Monday afternoon about 6 o'clock covered a strip about five miles wide and extended down into Childress county beating the crops in to the earth.

Crops in the path of the storm are a total loss. This is regarded as one of the severest hail storms on record. "The hail stones were small but numerous" is the way a tourist described the affair here Wednesday.

ACTUAL RELIEF IN FOOD SUPPLY ONLY IS MADE

Relief Administrator Takes Special University Study Course at Austin

Donley county is again "in the money" and relief operations are being continued as usual with the exception that orders are necessarily issued on a smaller scale than previously. Allocations from state funds have been decreased somewhat during the past two months and counties have been authorized to make each allotment last as long as possible, issuing relief only where it is most necessary. However, according to news received from Mr. R. A. Baker, Donley county Administrator, who is attending school at the University of Texas, Donley county has been in excellent condition when compared with a number of other counties, the Austin Relief office having been closed for more than three weeks. The University of Texas, in co-operation with the Texas Relief Commission, is offering to county administrators a summer course in social welfare work, rehabilitation, and a number of other subjects pertaining to relief work. Out of a district of twenty-four counties, Donley and Oldham were the only two which were chosen for representation. Mr. Baker will return to Clarendon about the fifteenth of July where he will resume his duties as administrator.

For the present, at least, relief is going to be nothing but an eating proposition, only a small amount of work being done at one time, payment for which will be made entirely in kind. Relief and work will, in all probability, continue to decrease in this county as the cotton harvest season approaches.

A rough estimate reveals that during the past year and a half relief and relief work amounting to $82,446.58 has been distributed in Donley county at a cost of $3235.80, which is approximately 3.8 per cent of the total expenditure for relief. This total does not include money that has been spent by the county and city individually but only what has been distributed through the State and Federal Governments.

T-Anchor Ranch Reunion To Be Held August 23

The annual reunion of cowboys of the Panhandle who began punching cattle prior to 1890 will be held at the old T-Anchor ranch headquarters near aCnyon August 23rd according to John Arnot, secretary of the association.

This is an exclusive affair to which the old cowboys and their children are included, but not the third generation owing to the number that has accrued through the years.

Barbecue and chuck wagon feeds are interspersed with talks by the old time cowboys and what few trail drivers that are left.

Further Cotton Reduction Notice is Received

County agent T. R. Broun is in receipt today of a notice that the cotton quota for Donley county will have to be reduced another 38,500 pounds.

The county committee is in session at this time making corrections to meet demands of the department to prevent further delay in the payment of cotton checks. The change apparently will necessitate a rehashing of the contracts which will entail an extra amount of hard work on the part of the committee.

Trades Day Attendance Got More Attention

It is said that the attendance Wednesday was a bit better than the preceding Trades Day. The ceremonies were held on the courthouse lawn.

The band furnished music and Homer Mulkey and G. L. Boykin officiated in the distribution.

Jericho Candidate Rally Wednesday Night

Candidates are invited to be present at a rally to be held in their honor on Wednesday night of June 20th, at the school building. Robt. Weatherly will be master of ceremonies.

The "pig auction" will be something new. It appears to be a secret right now as to what it may mean except that a live pig will be "sold free" to somebody. Of course they will have other forms of amusement to relieve the crowd after being compelled to listen to political speeches.

Pie Supper Set For Ashtola Next Week 21st

Announcement is made that the Ashtola community will entertain the candidates in a rally there on Thursday night of the 21st.

The usual pie auction and music will likely be supplemented with a short program of some kind yet to be announced. The entire public is cordially invited to hear the talks of the candidates on that night.

J. C. Rolls, petroleum engineering student in the State University classes, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira R. Rolls. He returned Sunday to begin with the summer classes.

ALLRED CLOSES WEST TEXAS TOUR AT CISCO WED.

Cisco, June 13.—When Attorney General James V. Allred spoke here Wednesday night he neared the conclusion of one of the most thorough and convincing West Texas campaigns ever undertaken by a candidate for governor.

In less than two weeks he traversed more territory than his pioneer Texas forefathers could have covered in months, and in that time he met and spoke to thousands of citizens.

From Dalhart in the northern reaches of the Panhandle Allred came straight south down the line to the Plains country and turned east only after he had visited Big Spring. Then he moved to Sweetwater, thence to Abilene and so still father east to Cisco.

All along the road from Dalhart to Big Spring the tireless Attorney General stopped at way-points and addressed the various towns' people on his platform for governor.

There were some days when he made as many as five speeches, and no day passed without his making at least three. Only his amazing physical endurance and a constitution which refused to become fatigued enabled him to complete successfully such an ambitious program.

"Judging from the hospitality I have been accorded by the citizens of all these towns, there must be something to the claims of my friends that sentiment is increasing enormously in favor of my candidacy," Allred said. "It gives me an incentive to work even harder and to resolve that if I am elected I will make these people the kind of governor they expect of me and which I owe to them."

At Lubbock recently, as an example of the interest of the people of Texas are taking in Allred's candidacy for governor, more than 3,000 citizens sat on crude board seats for two hours to hear him outline his platform. Townspeople said his audience was "much larger than any candidate for governor has attracted here."

The applause and enthusiasm which greeted him at Lubbock were similar to that which he has consistently encountered since he entered West Texas.

Attorney General Allred Thanks Band Boys

Ever appreciative of every courtesy shown him, Gus B. Stephenson is in receipt of a letter from Mr. Allred thanking him and the band boys for the courtesy extended him on his recent visit to Clarendon.

The letter is as follows: Wichita Falls, Texas, June 11, 1934.

Mr. Gus B. Stephenson, Clarendon, Texas, My dear friend:

I want to thank you and the boys in the band for the courtesy extended me in Clarendon. It was mighty fine of you to entertain the crowd in the first place, but certainly most generous of you to hold them until I got there. Of course, I was unavoidably delayed on account of the big rain at Memphis.

I shall always appreciate the fine reception I had in Clarendon. It was most gratifying.

With kindest personal regards and best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours, James V. Allred Attorney General of Texas.

Fairview Postpones Pie Rally To Later Date

Due to a conflict with Skillet date, Fairview will not have their pie supper on Friday night of this week as stated last week in the Leader.

The new date is set as June 22nd. Candidate speaking, instrumental music and pie auction will be the principal features.

Skillet Gets All Set For Big Show Friday Night

Invading that section north of the river for the first time Friday night of this week, the candidates and others will be given an opportunity to enjoy a minstrel show along with the other features.

Candidates will be given an opportunity to meet the folks. Pies will be auctioned. Stringed instruments will supply plenty of 'refreshing' music, it is promised.

Dr. O. C. Kutch and family of Hobart, Okla. spent Sunday with the J. A. Kutch family. Uncle Geo. Kutch returned home with them Sunday evening. Dr. Kutch reports it unusually hot where he lives. He states that the wheat crop is turning out better than expected.

THIRTY YEARS OF FORD HISTORY WILL BE SHOWN

Palmer Motor Company To Entertain Public At Pastime Friday

Presenting an all-star free talking picture at the Pastime Theatre beginning at 1:30 next Friday afternoon, the Palmer Motor company, local Ford agents expect to bring more forcibly to the attention of the public the merits of the new V-8 Ford of today.

Fords through the Tin Lizzie and Flivver stages up through the years will be shown on the screen with the attendant troubles of the operators of the Ford back in the days when the auto was new to the world and far from satisfactory.

Along with the scenes will be interwoven a love story with the usual thrills and daring deeds that appeal to most all the young folks and many of the older ones. You will get acquainted with Ann Bailey and Bob Haines and her irate father who forbids Bob seeing the girl again. Bob managed pretty well to gain his point, all of which will be shown Friday afternoon.

Get free tickets at the Palmer Motor company any time this week before the picture is shown. Excitement, romance, thrills and many a hearty laugh free to the guests of the Ford agency here.

Don't forget the date, Friday, June 15th beginning at 1:30 p. m.

Edward K. Russell Spoke Here Friday

Russell, said to be a prosperous Red River county farmer, spoke to a small number here Friday afternoon at the Antro hotel.

He lent his endorsement to the betterment of the present state school system without raising taxes, and the payment of teachers with something more substantial than vouchers.

The speaker reiterated his firm stand favoring prohibition, claiming throughout his speaking engagements as being the only candidate against both repeal and submission. He has been endorsed by Ferguson's Forum as the prohibition candidate, Farm Jim editor asking those who would not vote for McDonald as a wet, to vote for Russell as a dry.

Heavyweight Boxers Will Fight Tonight

Through the courtesy of the Goodrich Tire company, the championship bout between the world heavy-weight boxers, Carnera and Baer, will be broadcast tonight from the Madison Square Garden in New York City.

Carnera, present champion, is a physical giant standing 6 feet, 5 and three-fourth inches in his stocking feet, and weighs 260 pounds.

Baer is somewhat smaller standing 6 feet 2 and one-half inches, and weighs 205 pounds. What Baer lacks in size is said to be made up for in skill since he has been trained by Dempsey for several weeks.

Cotton Survey Request Is To Be Made in Donley

Believing that cotton producers of this county will be given a better deal when the facts become known, the county commissioners will be asked to appropriate funds for a cotton survey to determine the actual amount produced in the county.

It is suggested that gin records in this and adjoining counties will show this county to have produced more the past few years than credited, and that growers are entitled to a larger ratio.

If this investigation be made, it is believed that a larger crop will be permitted under the Bankhead law also, when the true facts are considered, according to a member of the cotton committee Wednesday.

MORE THAN 60 ATTENDED AYERS REUNION SUNDAY

Relatives And Friends Are Entertained at Home West of Town

One of the largest gatherings in the county's history on such an occasion was the family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ayers west of town Sunday, the 10th, when sixty relatives and friends were present.

After the 'get acquainted' period, a well supplied table arranged under the trees in the yard attracted more attention.

The women had an enjoyable visit, the older men reviewed past events and the younger men entered into the whole scheme of suggestions not mentioned by their elders. It was a great day at the Ayers farm, and one long to be remembered.

Those coming from McLean were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Robinson and son; Mrs. J. C. McClellan and granddaughter; Mrs. Catherine Heffner; Phillip Dwyer and Bob Rogers.

Coming from Amarillo were Mrs. J. N. Welch; Mrs. W. L. Dennie and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Weaver.

Others from Hedley were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Raney and daughter; Mrs. M. C. Raney and Mrs. Teddie Ayers. Mrs. Ike Hancock and family were from Lakeview.

Local people included Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Lane and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Lane and son; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Blanks and family; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Moore and son; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ayers; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ayers; Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Jones; Mrs. Eller; Mrs. Addierene Pharr; Hershel Thompson; Miss Emma Ayers; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baker; Memphis, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ayers.

Democratic Committee Will Meet Here 18th

County chairman W. P. Cagle has called a meeting of the county democratic executive committee for June 18th, the meeting to be held at the courthouse at 2 p. m.

It is the duty of the Committee to draw names of candidates for their positions on the ballot, and also to determine the cost of holding the primary election. When the cost is estimated, the various candidates will be assessed in proportion to what the office to which they aspire pays in salary or fees.

The primary election being strictly a democratic party affair, the candidates of the party pay all the expenses. The taxpayers pay no part of the cost of holding any election except the general election in November.

Denver to Add Improved Passenger Equipment

Quoting from a letter being mailed from the office of the general passenger agent of the Denver line: "We have under construction three large, air-conditioned and cooled cafe-lounge cars, which should be ready about July 1st.

These cars will be on Train 1 going north at 6:08 a. m. and Train 2 going south at 12:20 p. m. The new cars will operate from Dallas to Denver.

Monday is Hottest Day of Year

The month of June always gangs up a heat record in this section. Contrary to heat customs of other sections, July and August are comparatively cool, and especially so if a normal rainfall is received.

Monday was the hottest day of the season to date when 105 was noted at the Denver depot. With fires out, the thermometer registered 111 in the shade at the "Wimpy" hamburger stand. Attention was called to the record by O. C. Watson Jr. who facetiously remarked that it was a 'hot' dog joint anyway.

NRA HEADED FOR THE CEMETERY.

With regard to the NRA and other members of the alphabetical family, passing the buck has become a favorite pastime. A lot of folks had credited the "Brain Trust" with these experiments. Now comes Prof. Raymond Moley, a leading 'brain trust' who charges the whole mess up to Wall Street.

Prof. Moley, addressing the Advertising Club of New York recently revealed his innermost secrets as follows: "With General Johnson I went over a number of plans not one of which had been prepared by a professor. Prof. G. Tugwell didn't know a thing about it, but I learned the same day that there was a conference of industrialists going on regarding plans for industry, and that it was being held in the offices of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. That was where the NRA started."

NEXT SUNDAY IS DAD'S DAY.

Dad fights many a hard struggle in order to make you happy, and to give you the things you need—and the things you think you need. Will you forget him next Sunday, the 17th? It's no little job for Dad, especially these days, to provide for the family. It's a struggle sometimes to make ends meet. Bills have to be paid and the children have to be educated, and Dad fights on because he loves you—because you are his.

Now when this day rolls around, don't forget that Dad is yours. You have far more to do with his happiness and the lightening of his load than you will ever know until you reach parenthood yourself. Still he is yours, to do with pretty much as you like because he loves you. Some day you will lose him. Let him know that you appreciate him while he is here.

THE "WALTERS" COULDN'T TAKE IT!

When the important "lobby bill" was before the Senate down at Austin during the session of the 41st legislature, quite a number of the senators were man enough to stand pat and vote for the bill.

This bill had for its object letting the people who elected them to office, know how their representatives were representing them. If passed, every senator would have had to file a sworn statement showing what corporation, if any, he represented while representing the people.

There was some intimation that a senator "could not serve two masters," and that meant he could not vote favorable to a corporation and protect the interests of the people at the same time. Some corporations are fair and abide by the laws of the state, but it was the unfair ones that were being questioned.

When the pinch came, and the senators had to vote, Small and Witt voted against the bill denying, so far as lay in their power, the right of the people of the state to know who they represented while working for and drawing state money.

Walter Woodul, now a candidate for lieutenant governor, and Walter (Water Pitcher) Woodward, now a candidate for the office of attorney general, could not "take it" as we term the idea in modern slang.

The two Walters were "absent" and excused. In fact Woodward had gone home when the 'fracas' started and remained at home six days while the bill was pending. Walter did not want his vote on record, so he ran from the opportunity.

It is not any business of ours how you vote, but you have a right to know what you are voting for when you do vote. This information is given here as a matter of record for the benefit of the voters, and is not intended to prejudice any one's vote in any manner.

Wright Patman's Weekly Letter

Processing Taxes The industrial East continues to protest against the payment of processing taxes which go to farmers of the South and West. They overlook the fact that these farmers for a hundred years have paid a high price for manufactured articles on account of the tariff in order to help what was termed "infant industries". A representative from New York State recently presented figures to show that his State is paying one-third of the money that is going to farmers in the form of plow-up checks, ground rent money or for other purposes in the agricultural program. This money, like tariff benefits, is paid by all consumers but goes to producers only. A famous newspaper correspondent included the following in one of his articles:

"Those Southern farmers have been the real chosen people of the present new deal for agriculture. They have received the lion's share of the bounty money distributed out of processing tax receipts. They were given a chance to buy old Farm Board cotton at a cheap price and sell it at a much higher price. The new 59.06 cent dollar has proved chiefly of benefit to them. Not only that, but the Government went in and made price fixing loans to help out at a time when the market wasn't acting right."

New Census Bill The House, after a hard battle, passed a bill providing for another census to be taken this fall, as of November 12th. The date was set after the general election so it could not be contended that politics entered into it. The Senate Committee has favorably reported the bill and it is expected to pass the Senate. If the bill is enacted, notice will be given when and to whom applications should be made for the positions; this information will not be available until the law is enacted and a definite policy adopted.

Criminals The President has approved the bill which authorizes the Attorney General to pay as much as $25,000 reward for the apprehension of a public enemy.

Attorney General Cummings says that armed criminals in this country outnumber the Army, Navy and the Marine Corps in a ratio of two to one. Crime reports from the Police Departments of 1264 cities, population 50,000,000—less than half of total population of country—show that during 1933 the number of murders, robberies, aggravated assaults and burglaries totaled 266,898. The total population of the Army, Navy and Marine Corps is approximately 240,000.

grade of oil stones and there are millions of tons of taicum under that section near Mountain Home. Porphyry is found in abundance and all of these natural resources are within a radius of 50 miles. Wonder if Shorty Oller is working up any of this stuff?

You have to hand it to the prodigal son for being smart enough to walk in instead of telegraphing the old man for money.

You have heard about the druggist who failed to pass the state pharmacist examination because he got too much salt in the sandwich, but did you ever hear of a drug store selling ladies hosiery? Well that is a new one and a new kind of hose sold only in drug stores. The Norwood Pharmacy has a stock of assorted sizes and colors. They are said to be of exceptional quality at a fair price--all silk. Reports from other sections are that the new kind of hose are having a big sale and will likely meet a popular demand here once they become advertised.

A man living at Hollowbore down in Nolan county claims to have a remarkably clever wife. Last winter she knitted him a pair of sox out of an old bathing costume, and this summer she has knitted herself a bathing suit out of 'one' of his sox.

It's the little man--the little farmer, the little merchant, the little banker, the little teacher, the little preacher--that is holding America together today.

An ardent prohibitionist suggests that we take a kind of Literary Digest poll locally to find out if they are drinking more 'bottled in bond' or 3.2 beer here. After we find out, then what?

The Weekly Pay Check

Towns prosper in proportion to the people living within the trade territory of that town. Since Clarendon has no payroll, the next best thing is the "weekly pay check."

Weekly pay checks come mostly from dairy and poultry products. Cream is selling at a fair price, plenty of rain makes feed and grass an assured fact permitting the cream production to reach its highest point.

LOST 20 lbs. OF FAT IN JUST 4 WEEKS

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I'm only 28 yrs. old and weighed 170 lbs. until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and furthermore I've never had a hungry moment."

Pat folks should take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it's the SAFE, harmless way to reduce as tens of thousands of men and women know.

For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at Douglas & Goldston or any drugstore—the cost for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back.

DODGE DEALERS BEAT SALES RECORD OVER 104%

Detroit, June 12.—The latest weekly statement of retail deliveries recorded by Dodge dealers for the week ending May 26, continues the rising trend which has marked Dodge sales activities since the inauguration of the 1934 selling season.

During the six-day period covered by the latest of the company's weekly business tabulations, Dodge dealers delivered 4,660 passenger cars and 958 commercial cars and trucks, or a total of 5,612 vehicles—an increase of 31.2% over sales made during the corresponding week of 1933.

Dodge dealers' 1934 retail sales, at the beginning of the final week of May, were well within hailing distance of the 100,000 mark, the actual total, on May 26, being 93,264 deliveries, denoting an increase of 92.1% over the business done last year in the like period.

Further analysis of the May 26 business report of Dodge dealers shows that of the 93,264 retail deliveries, 39,263 were of Dodge passenger cars—an increase of 69.1%; 36,362 were of Plymouths—an increase of 92.1%; 17,639 were of Dodge trucks—an increase of 416.8% over the respective sales volumes noted for the January 1-May 26 span of 1933.

Of special interest, according to A. vanDerZee, general sales manager of Dodge Brothers Corporation, is the circumstance that the sales statistics so far released by his office do not include deliveries of the three added lower-priced Big Dodge Six cars which, because it was announced only a week ago, has not yet begun to be a factor in dealers' deliveries.

In trade circles the invasion by Dodge of a lower-price market with a trio of attractive 117-inch wheelbase cars is regarded as a decidedly auspicious step which will have the inevitable consequence of expanding the Dodge dealers' market into new fields of large volume business.

As constituted now, the complete Dodge line-up of cars and prices, includes three distinct series of cars—the 121-inch wheelbase Specials, a fashionable streamlined brougham and rakish convertible sedan, listing at $880 and $920, respectively; the 117-inch wheelbase Dodge de Luxe line, including three coupes and two sedans, list priced from $690 to $790; and the just announced lower-priced Big Dodge Six, offering on a 117-inch wheelbase, a sedan listing at $745, a sedan listing at $695, and a coupe listing at $650.

OPEN FORUM

Suggests Swimming Pool On College Heights

Clarendon, Texas June 8, 1934

Dear Editor: We would like to bring to your attention, also to the attention of the City Commissioners, the lack of recreation facilities in the City of Clarendon.

The old buildings of the college belong to the city as everyone knows. It is also a well known fact that the people of the city, with the old college officials, began the construction of a gymnasium. This gym was never finished. This part of a gym could easily and economically be converted into a swimming pool. This would make a sufficiently large pool. The only work that would be necessary would be the construction of a bottom for the pool and the filling in of what was to have been the windows and doors of the gym.

The material for the above construction might be secured from the recently razed school building. The water from the pool could be used to water the school lawn and also used on the football field. The pool would be conveniently located for all and would be far enough from any homes that they would not be disturbed.

At a reasonable price, we sincerely believe that the pool would be in a short time pay for itself, because of the small cost of construction.

Yours respectfully, School Kids.

Dodge Springs Surprise With Price Reduction

Detroit, June 12.—A series of automobile price reductions, coming as a surprise to the trade were announced here this afternoon by Dodge Brothers Corporation.

The new quotations, in effect immediately, reduce former figures up to $45 and make the base price of the company's popular 117-inch wheelbase line $645.

In announcing the readjustment of the Dodge price schedule, the manufacturers point out that the price cut is the sole change involved—that construction details, quality, appointments, and the advertised thirty-two extra Dodge features are continued without any alternation whatever.

Miss Martha Buttrill was a business visitor in Clarendon last week.

W. E. FERRELL
Minister First Christian Church

"Unknown Disciples."

Texts: "The Goodman of the house," Luke 22:1 "The owners said" Luke 19:33.

The circle of our Lord's friends was wide and many of those who loved and served him passed abruptly from history, even their tender ministrations forgotten. Some there were remembered only by what they had done. Here are two instances of secret disciples who were content to be forgotten, and whose claim to distinction is their loving response to Jesus.

I. Only a few are elevated to public notice. There were twelve disciples celebrated in song and story, but what of the multitude who felt the Master's power and went forth to serve Him? There are a few leaders, but what of the vast crowds who daily live for Christ, bearing the burden and heat of the day? We use collective names today, sometimes with little discretion. Behind them one sees not the people, the proletariat and the masses but human being in their individual relationships. Each is of infinite importance to all the others and to the whole. Class movements destroy personality. The individual is lost in the crowd. But God has ordained that it should be otherwise. The tune depends upon the crochets; the garden upon each flower; and the mass upon each member for good or evil. The church is therefore not its "representative leaders" but the unknown, unheard, and unadvertised multitudes who humbly obey the will of God and Christ day by day.

II. Christianity is all giving. Jesus gave his life, and he taught us to do as he did. These unknown disciples in our texts were ready to give. It was enough that the Master had given the word. They gave when the need was most urgent. In that room the Lord's Supper became an everlasting memorial. They gave what was most needed. All through the ages there has been a brotherhood of givers, the strength of the church and the hope of the world. Their generation has never failed.

III. Thank God, for the Unknowns. There were many homes in Jerusalem, in this one Jesus was honored. There were many colts in Judea, this one served the Master. Are you at Christ's command? Can He depend on you in the hour of need? Are you ready to serve? Some day you will be remembered, if not now.

SOUVENIR

Clatter of hoofs in a rhythmic beat,
Alien sound on a city street.

Buckskin pony, lithe of limb,
Horsehair bridle with silver trim.

Spurs and chaps and a lariat,
Neckerchief and a wide-brimmed hat.

Keen young eyes in a sun-browned face,
Wearily watching the crowd's swift pace.

Slip through traffic with loose-held rein,
Seeking some far-flung stretch of plain.

Leaving behind, as the present pales,
Wistful remembrance of long-lost trails.

BLATZ CHOOSES NEWSPAPERS FOR BREW DATE ADV

Finds Use of Local Press Most Effective Method of Introducing the Beer that "Tells Its Own Age"

It was a little over two months ago that the Blatz Brewing Company of Milwaukee introduced into this market a beer that carried a neck label on every bottle, giving the exact Date of the contents of that bottle.

This paper was one of those chosen by the advertising executives to bring this message of what was then hailed as one of the greatest advancements in the brewing industry in over twenty years. It brought to the public for the first time the only visible guarantee of the age of beer that has ever been made in this country.

The manager of the firm of Panhandle Fruit Company of Amarillo, local distributors for the Milwaukee brewery, when interviewed on this subject, said:

"Yes, I know that the Blatz Brewing Company has chosen local newspapers to carry the story of Blatz Old Heidelberg Brew Dated Beer and that your paper not only carried the opening campaign but will continue to carry this advertising for the next two months."

"We are tremendously pleased at the reception the people here have given Blatz Old Heidelberg Brew Dated Beer. To the best of our knowledge it is the only beer that actually tells its own age."

"This Brew Date is an actual guarantee that the contents of each bottle is fully aged, and is a protection against the ill effects of green, unaged beer."

"In pre-prohibition days, physicians used to prescribe beer for many of their patients, but until the introduction of Blatz Old Heidelberg Beer, with its definite guarantee of age, physicians have refused to recommend beer because they were fearful of the age of the beer on the market."

"It is unfortunate that there is so much misbranding and mislabeling of beer. It is hurting the brewing industry."

"Mislabeling, with the idea of conveying the wrong impression as to alcoholic content is much to be condemned by those who are representing the old established breweries who are complying with the laws and regulations of each state, and offering to the public an honest quality product.

"We are glad to represent the Blatz Brewing Company of Milwaukee, who have been engaged in the production of beer since 1851.

"We are glad to be selling a product that we know is properly produced, is of highest quality, is properly labeled, with the Brew Date as evidence of its actual age. "We are pleased, too, that the people here appreciate this new feature, and evidence their confidence by the great increase in sales since Blatz Old Heidelberg Brew Dated Beer was introduced here about two months ago."

Mrs. Eva Humphrey returned Sunday from Brawley, California accompanied by two of her grandchildren. They are children of Mr. and Mrs. John Humphrey. The parents are expected to visit here sometime after the first of July.

INTEGRITY

WILLIAM McCRAW is the type of man that Texans can place faith and confidence in with perfect assurance of his worth. He is the only man that the people of his county ever elected to three terms as their District Attorney. He was never defeated. No class, cult or clique ever influenced him in public service. There were no back doors to his office as District Attorney—he could not be "reached."

The unexpected audit of the books of all Dallas County officials found his books "correct"—thousands of dollars of the people's money had been honestly handled.

All this insures that Texas will combine unquestioned and proven integrity with demonstrated ability.

Ancient And Modern Explorers of Palo Duro Canyon Shown in Museum Pictures

Canyon, June 6.—The Panhandle Plains Historical Society museum here has received two murals painted by Panhandle artists, Ben Carlton Mead of Amarillo, and Harold Bugbee of Clarendon. They were planned and executed under the direction of Dr. John Andeney of Dallas.

Mead's painting represents Coronado's party at the critical moment when its members decided the Indian called "The Turk" was deliberately misleading them and intended to leave them to die of starvation and thirst. The brilliant colors of the canyon at mid-day, the richly caparisoned mount of Coronado, the vivid green of the cedars and masses of clouds make the picture of compelling interest.

On the opposite wall hangs Bugbee's conception of the entrance of Colonel Charles Goodnight and his herd of 1600 cattle into the Palo Duro canyon that day in 1876, so significant to Panhandle history.

A surprise of the picture is the brand on the cattle. The "JA" so long associated with Goodnight and Adair is expected, but instead is seen "PAT". Dave McCormick of San Antonio, the only man living who entered the canyon with Goodnight, and other intimates of the pioneer soon after he came to this part of Texas, vouch for the correctness of the brand. It is not known whose brand it was except that it was a Colorado owner.

Sixteen cattle are shown in the picture or one for each 100 head in the herd.

In the lead is old Maud, a cow about which many tales are told. Henry Taylor of Clarendon, says she was the mother of 27 calves.

Three men, Colonel Goodnight in the prime of manhood, Jud Campbell and Dave McCormick are depicted on the canvas.

The colors in Bugbee's picture are cool, the purple mist of the distant canyon wall suggesting evening and all the lines of the picture leading down giving a sense of destination reached. Even the grapevine which twines around the white trunk of the dead cottonwood turns downward, leading the eyes and thought into rather than out of the canyon.

There are no clouds in the sky as seen in this mural. Although the two pictures were planned and executed without consultation between the two young artists, they fit together admirably; he clouds and live cedar of the Mead picture, as well as its feeling of conflict and movement form a beautiful contrast with the peace and promise of Bugbee's work.

The two murals are the first of a series of six which will give a pictorial representation and dramatic events of each era of Panhandle history.

George Wayne Estlack is leaving today to spend some time with his brother Phifer at Austin.

Jack Weston has again opened his ice cream factory in the Queen Theatre building, making a specialty of "Triple Dip" cream. He operated the plant last season at the same stand.

PRODUCTION IS SPEEDED UP BY REDUCED PRICE

Increased automotive sales, prolonging factory employment and proving a potent factor in the national recovery program, are expected by W. E. Holler, general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor Company, as a result of the price reduction now in effect on all Chevrolet passenger cars and trucks.

The reduction, announced June 1, and effective the following day, not only brings all Chevrolet trucks and Chevrolet Master kneaction models to the lowest prices since the introduction of the 1934 line, but applies also to the new Standard passenger cars formally introduced on June 2 at 62 General Motors exhibits throughout the country. These models were already the lowest-priced cars of six or more cylinders on the market.

No changes whatever, Mr. Holler pointed out, have been made either in the product or in the equipment included in its price. The reduction reflects Chevrolet's success in reaching high-volume production with its 1934 line, and maintaining it consistently by reason of a strong public demand. It is, also, a frank bid for continuation of that demand.

"The immediate effect of the price reduction," Mr. Holler said, "will naturally be the stimulation of retail sales which are already at a high peak. This follows as a natural sequence to the fact that Chevrolet performance, economy, comfort, dependability and safety are now obtainable at the lowest outlay since the new cars came out. Thousands of prospective buyers, we confidently believe, will take advantage of this opportunity."

Texaco Station Now Under New Management

Bill Carroll disposed of his Texaco station on block east of the Donley Bank the last of the week. The new operators are Carl Pitman and Kenneth Brown.

Pitman has long been associated with Beach Bros. in the operation of Texaco Station No. 1. Brown is a comparatively new man in the business but plenty willing to learn.

These young men ask that a share of the business be given them on trial. If the results are not satisfactory, they do not desire it, according to their announcement this week. Both young men are well and favorably known here.

H. H. Monk, district manager for the West Texas Utilities company with headquarters at Childress, was here on official inspection today.

Mrs. Paul Shelton and daughter Edith left Sunday for Dallas where she will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Garrison. Her sister, Mrs. Inez Crotto of Tulsa, Okla. spent Saturday night in the Shelton home and accompanied them.

No uneven wick with this LEVEL-LIFT BURNER

One of the most troublesome things about many oil stoves is wicks turning up unevenly—causing smoking, wick-charring and poor heating. No such trouble with the Level-Lift KITCHEN KOOK burner. You are always sure of a full, clear, sootless flame that will bring two quarts of water to the boiling point in about nine minutes. That's speed!

When buying an oil stove, don't be satisfied with anything less than a KITCHEN KOOK—the finest made. And now purchasable at the LOWEST PRICE IN HISTORY. Let us show you the different models.

GASOLINE MODEL RANGE
Looks like a natural gas range. Burns gas made from gasoline. Absolutely safe. Many times you have said, "I wish I could cook with gas." No matter where you live, here is that gas stove. Fuel costs $1 to $1.50 a month. Large roomy insulated oven. Five burners. Instant heat. It cannot explode, flood or get out of control. See the beautiful model in our store.
H. C. KERBOW & SONS

Gasoline Becomes a Safe Fuel In Modern Range

The latest thing in a cooking range adaptable to any home where safety, economy and convenience is desired is now on display at Kerbows. The range is constructed similar to the natural gas range but burns gas made from gasoline in the tank attached. Due to safety valves, it can neither flood, explode or get out of control.

Ordinary cheap gasoline, nontreated, is used. The model on display has four burners besides the oven. The oven is insulated to conserve heat. In other words it is needed in the oven, but not in the kitchen.

The beauty and utility of this stove cannot be described in words. One must see it. The low fuel cost appeals, and the terms of purchase are liberal. There are a great variety of gas stoves on the market, but this looks so simple, and yet operates so satisfactorily, that we make mention of the new range here in the interest of our readers.
