TREATISE ON TAXATION.

A lot of our folks are hearing entirely too much about taxation. They are beginning to ask inconvenient questions. Congressmen are beginning to look around for something to plug the hole before the entire nation is eroded of money among the masses.

At any rate, we might cast around and see just where we are at the present writing.

The $18-a-week laborer or clerk who owns no property pays $116 a year in taxes hidden in the prices of the goods and services he buys, or 12 cents on the dollar. The mechanic or minor department head, whose $150-a-month salary permits the operation of a used automobile, pays $229 annually (or 12.7 cents on the dollar), even though he owns no other property and is a family man exempt from income taxes. A study covering forty-eight cities shows that on an average, 25.3 cents on the dollar paid in rent goes to cover taxes. The tax load on unused automobile ownership and operation amounts to 20.1 per cent a year. Finally, with consumer purchases of goods and services totaling $52,000,- 000,000 in 1936, the estimated total taxes which could be (and therefore would be) included were $8,122,000,000. This is at the rate of 15.6 cents for every dollar of the consumer's expenditure.

Present day taxes have a way of slipping right upon you without your being able to put your finger on it. It keeps right on through the night in the quiet of your home, provided you have electrically operated ice machines.

For several years, or until they became 'air conditioned' to the idea, a lot of folks did not like the idea of paying a dollar and seventy-five cents for a poll tax. Of course that carried with it the right to vote if the holder was otherwise qualified. Polls have to be paid whether an election is held or not. Only those who own real estate may be forced to pay a poll tax, but if a man has a wife, he is stuck for a vote tax whether she ever uses it or not. Then again, if poll taxes are not paid before the first of February of any year, they have to be paid just the same when the property tax is paid, but they can't be used for voting that year because they have to be paid before February. In that case, you are made to pay for something that is worthless, and the state knows it to be worth less at the time you are being legally highjacked out of your hard earned money.

There are twenty-seven different taxes paid on the article when the consumer buys a loaf of bread. Fifty-two different tax payments are made when you buy a pair of shoes. But you don't know about it because you pay it in the retail price of the article. There is a lot of curious angles to this tax question, and we are getting more and more of them daily.

PUBLIC OPINION

More and more nice things are being said about the Pioneer Edition of the Leader under date of June 24th. These complimentary remarks are highly appreciated. We acknowledge them with grateful thanks.

The first is from Floyd V. Studer of Amarillo, superintendent of agencies for the American United life insurance company in northwest Texas, and a paleontologist, archaeologist and historian of national reputation. It is on the ranch of Studer & Sons near Canadian that the annual rodeo is held that you hear so much about around the 4th of July each year. Here is what Mr. Studer says:

"The Pioneer Edition of the Donley County Leader was a masterpiece. Congratulations! You are making history publishing and preserving historical facts and traditions of the West.

All of this is of considerable interest to me, and I am inclined to believe it is of interest to all your subscribers.

With every good wish. Sincerely yours, Floyd V. Studer.

The next is a clipping from the editorial column of The Daily Tifton Gazette, a breezy daily published at Tifton, Georgia.

The Gazette is in receipt of a copy of The Donley County Leader, published at Clarendon, Texas. An attractive "Pioneer Edition" was issued to advertise the fact that Clarendon would celebrate its fiftieth anniversary on July 3rd, and all the old settlers were expected to attend the round-up. Just a good town, taking advantage of its opportunities to boost itself and attract a crowd of visitors to town.

Then from away up in Colorado comes a message from Mr. Frank Kane who managed the only contest conducted by the Leader back in 1929. Here is what that prince of subscription contest managers says about it: "Your pioneer edition was a wow! Best I've seen in many moons."

From Vacation Guide, published way up on Cape Cod, Massachusetts:

"Your pioneer edition of your excellent publication brings to us many interesting facts of the past, and at the same time permits us to view that interesting section as it is today. The more our people learn of your Panhandle section, the larger the number to tour it. After all, we had no idea that you had such newspaper talent or printing equipment in the "wild west."

Miami (Florida) Press: We are taking the liberty to reprint some of the material contained in your Pioneer Edition of June 24th which appeared in the Birmingham daily. Your publication, no doubt, does much to interest people in looking at that part of Texas. In fact we shall be glad to include the Texas Panhandle on our route in August to the West coast.

Swanton (N. H.) Herald: Many thanks for permitting us to see your Pioneer Edition. From the subject matter therein, we wonder if your section is not even more progressive than the older sections of our nation. Your arrangement, subject matter and print is first-class.

From Merle Dudley Shane, poet laureate of 'ole Alabam' comes the following: "Your entire issue is a dream. One can hear the war whoop of the Indian while drifting down poetic streams."

Among the very best talent of the state in newspaper and columnist circles is Miss Jeane Suits, young lady editor of the Lockney Beacon. Her talk before the Panhandle Press Association in Amarillo in April was declared the best on the entire program. Miss Suits, in addition to her regular duties as editor and columnist on the Beacon owned by the Suits family, finds time to contribute to a number of other publications. After looking over the Pioneer Edition upon her return from Washington last week, she writes:

"Congratulations upon your 50th anniversary edition of the Leader. I still have my copy and I am perusing it daily since my return from a vacation to Washington, D. C. I only had time to look through it hurriedly before leaving and only since my return have I been able to digest it thoroughly.

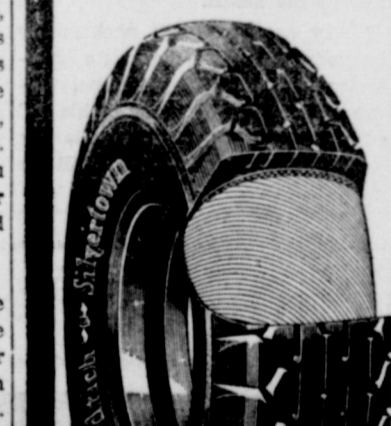

You and your staff are to be highly commended for an edition that will serve as a reference for many years. Since I am writing I might as well express my general opinion of your publication as I find it each week. It rates at the top of a list of 70 exchanges coming to my desk from the standpoint of news and advertising. You seem to cover the territory adequately and then throw in a column of wit called the "Temple of Truth" as sort of a dessert. But like most kids, I find that I always eat my dessert first and then proceed from there. I think you will find a number of your readers do the same childish thing."

All bedding manufacturers (over 3,000 of them) share the right to make both types of modern mattresses—Inner-spring and Outer-spring. Many of them do make both types. Yet nine out of ten Outer-spring mattresses in use are Spring-Air . . . Why? . . . Because the Outer-spring mattress demands a flawless, expertly developed spring construction — and Spring-Air is the only mattress of either type to contain the famous Karr Sleep Unit, — a spring construction so perfectly designed that it carries the strongest of all guarantees. That's why hundreds of world-famous institutions buy Spring-Air — that's why you, too, will find Spring-Air the most comfortable as well as the most economical mattress you can buy. See the fine new models now on display — both inner-spring and Outer-spring types.

Sob, Snort and Sniffle.
We have days for practically everything else, why not have a day for the hay fever sufferers? Instead of enjoying life, they just get a 'swipe' at it. They don't know what causes it or they could get rid of it. No one apparently can tell them. The writer had hay fever for more than twelve years and got rid of it by accident when he had his tonsils X-rayed several years ago.

Partiality.
The Department of Safety looks after the highways, but the entire state official family of lawmakers looks after the jack breeding business.

The Biggest Trust.
Of course you have heard this one before:
"The biggest trust on earth is the country weekly newspaper. It trusts everybody, gets cussed for trusting, mistrusted for cussing, and if it busts for trusting, gets cussed for busting. There is but one way to stop it—pay your subscription.

From Bess Barton.
Me love has flew, he done me dirt,
How were me to know him was a flirt;
To they in love let I forbid,
Lest they be doed like I was did.

Old-Time Radio Program.
A lot of folks would appreciate an old-time song period on KGNC. Plenty of talent could be had in Amarillo for the asking. And speaking of old songs, there is nothing better than "Annie Laurie" written by a Scot in 1432, according to history. Its the oldest song of all, kept alive through the centuries because of its beauty in words and music. Next comes another Scotch song, "Roamin' in the Gloamin'", immortalized by Harry Lauder. After his only child, a son, was killed in the English army during the World War, Harry Lauder sang that song thousands of times for charity benefits, and to raise funds to help ill and crippled English soldiers. Two suggestions from one person is a plenty. How about it, Mr. Wes Izzard? How about it, Mr. Ted Taylor? How about it, Old Tack?

Yelp From Under Dog.
Puppy love marriages generally result from a girl hounding a boy into matrimony, then spending the remainder of her days barking at him.

Crochet Fad Coming.
Back east the men are already at it. It started in England and has followed the course of the English sparrows. The official crochet song is, "In my dear little Wallis blue sweater." The fad of male crocheters has engulfed the effete as far west as Ohio right now. The finest of imported yarns in gay colors are used. Jeweled hooks, needles are whatever the job is done with, afford occasion for friendly competition. Sweaters are being made by the males while the females stick to hats. The official song is:
"Sweet, add a line
One stitch, drop nine,
Tonight, sweetheart
I purr and pine!
In all my dreams
I'm faced with seams
The darndest place
To drop a line!
That's alright. Go ahead and laugh. Just remember that this column announced kewpie golf and yarn six months ahead of their arrival. In less than a year, the swell bloods will sit around and crochet on sweater in the old home town.

Common Denominator.
A down state exchange in writing up a church social wound up by saying that Mrs. Pauline Haney played a sax solo. After the church services, Mrs. Haney was served cafeteria style to nearly three hundred."

Criminals Week.
And why not. It might have been Criminals Day, but they had not had any consideration in this line while the public had been having a Day for most every one else. Having a Criminals Week does not bother the parole board, and does greatly increase the activities of the guardians of the law. Perhaps they need practice. Of course during Criminals Week they have a right to leave a prison farm if they are dissatisfied with the way it is being managed. Then too, it is in their favor to have radio equipped cars handy for them to take trips if they feel that way about it. Otherwise, how would they ever get another chance to shoot up the 'law'? Guns were handy. Naturally so. Every convenience provided because those leaving had been accused of brawls pistol-whipping, highjacking, armed murder and about all the things that are included in the category of real crime. Giving the criminals a break without their having to break out for their breaks was a special favor which they no doubt appreciated. If we really want to protect our officers, we might try putting them inside the prison walls for safe keeping. But we should not be unkind to the criminals who have been hounded around the country until they could not highjack a tourist, much less murder one, without some officers raising a fuss about it. Put yourself in their places and think how you would like to be penned up without your shooting irons. They have some dandy artillery, too. Tommy guns, pistols, winchesters and shotguns all of the latest types. Officers could wear bullet proof vests while observing Criminals Week, but that would rob the criminals of a lot of fun. Criminals are sportsmen. They like to shoot the laws. Later on we might decide to line up a bunch of laws and let the criminals shoot at them for pastime until the criminals decide which way they want to travel. Most of them have in mind a bank to rob, while others recall individuals whom they have to kill for having talked too much at a trial.

Farm News
Despite the fact that the farmers have put out a lot of the government poison, the grasshoppers are still playing havoc with the cotton and feed, that borders on grass land. Some say they have eaten the peaches off the seed in their orchards, cleaning up whole trees of peaches. Some are planting cane on the devastated land. However if rain comes in time and the grass puts out for them to feed on we of Midway still have hopes and prospects for a bumper crop. Some have watermelons as large as gallon buckets, and most of the ladies of Midway are canning something or other. The wild plum crop is in full swing now, and the Donley county people seem to be taking advantage of it. Cars and trucks can be seen passing often loaded with plums which are larger and nicer this year than they have been for several years. The peaches also are the nicest Donley county has had for some time.

Local News
The Midway School board met Thursday evening. It was decided to sign the contract with the Clarendon school board, which provides for the Midway school children to go to school in Clarendon. On account of the financial condition of Midway it was either this or a four months one teacher school at Midway, and since the state cut from $2.00 to 40c on bus transportation the bus could not have run, and the high school children would not have had any advantage of high school whatever.

Monday, Mrs. Pat Longan, Mrs. Bill Gaithers and Mrs. Della Mahaffey visited with Mrs. Joe Myres who lived at Midway on what is now the W. K. Davis place 22 years ago. She now lives out of town about 2 miles on the JA road. The people of Midway, who have lived here several years will be interested to know about them Mrs. Myres is one of the best women that it has been the privilege of the writer to know. She was a real neighbor and lived to do good and help others. She has now reached her 65 birthday. Mr. Myres is now practically an invalid and has been for several months, since falling and hurting his hip some months ago. Her daughter Miss Belle Myres who has taught school at River Side Co. in California for the past eight years is now visiting them. Zerl Myres, a son, who went to France with the 19th Reg. and was in the trenches, has been in Los Angeles, California, a street car conductor, since his return from France. He was hurt in a street car wreck the 1st Feb. and has not recovered sufficiently to return to work yet. His former neighbors and friends will be interested and wish for him a sure recovery. He was one of the finest young men that Midway has ever sent out.

And another one of Midway's fine boys but of more recent times is Frank Taylor Mahaffey of Ash-tola who is now recovering from a serious illness. He was honored with a post card shower on his birthday by Midwayites. He also received an interesting package from an aunt in Honolulu.

Midway friends to visit Frank Taylor the past Sunday and Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Williams, Mr. and Mrs. John Naylor and Mrs. Waldron, Sunday; Mrs. Pat Longan, Mrs. Bill Gaither, Monday. They took Mrs. Della Mahaffey home after her spending the week end in the Longan home. The Glenn Williams children spent the week end with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Meaders.

Prarie Chicken Season Is Closed For 5 Years

AUSTIN, Texas, July 14.—Governor James V. Allred signed recently a bill passed at the recent special session of the Legislature closing for five years the season on prairie chickens. The State-wide closed season was ordered at the request of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, which reported that the supply of the game bird about the size of a frier chicken was fast diminishing. Representative Chas. D. Rutta was the author.

Miss D'Laurel Beville is an investigator for the Old Age Assistance Commission in Dalhart territory at present.

POOR MAN'S PRIDE
 O many times in many ways I might have been untrue; I could have sold for coin or mirth Some love, a kiss or two.
 But I have kept the pattern bright, And now I richly wear A beggar's cloak that's cut from dreams And stitched with gay despair! —Vivian Heyerahl in Poetry World.

E. D. Landreth, pastor

In spite of the summer weather good congregations are attending our services. Last Sunday night we did not hold the services on the lawn because of the wind and the necessary use of the candles in the Camp Fire service. But next Sunday night, if the heat makes it advisable, we shall be on the lawn under the flood light for the evening service, beginning promptly at eight o'clock.

Sunday school at 9:45 with a department and a class for every age and every need. The morning worship opens at 10:50. There are many visitors in the community at this season of the year and a good many have been in our services. In Pastime Theatre Thrill Drama

When "Little Caesar" (Edward G. Robinson—left) and "Duke Mantee," the killer of "Petrified Forest" (Humphrey Bogart) clash over "Marked Woman" Bette Davis, there is certain to result the kind of thrilling drama that will hold spectators at the Pastime Theatre spellbound as the three famous film stars outline the story of "Kid Galahad."

Robinson And Davis Film Opens Tuesday At Pastime Theatre

With three famous stars head- ing in its cast—Bette Davis, Edward G. Robinson and Humphrey Bogart—a drama of the prize ring called "Kid Galahad" will have its local premiere Tuesday and Wednesday at the Pastime Theatre.

Made from the best selling novel by Francis Wallace, ace sports fictionist, this Warner Bros. Thriller deals not only with those elements of the boxing ring with which everyone is familiar, but with the behind-scenes maneuvering of fighters and managers.

Eddie Robinson (staunchly backed by his girl friend, "Fluff" played by Miss Davis) has one contender for the championship. Bogart has another. There's an 11-round fight for the championship (said to be the most fiery ever thrown upon a screen), a duel to the death between the two managers after the fight, some vast scenes of Madison Square Garden—and yet, withal, a tender romance between Eddie's fighter and Eddie's sister.

Besides the three well-established stars previously mentioned, there's a new star, revealed in the person of Wayne Morris, a 23-year old newcomer who plays "Kid Galahad"—big handsome blond boy who gets the name because he has reverent ideas about womanhood. And a new young leading lady in the person of Jane Bryan, with whom he falls in love.

Michael Curtiz, the director who made "The Charge of the Light Brigade," "Captain Blood" and other fast-moving photoplays, guided the making of this, from a screen play by Seton I. Miller, adapted from the Wallace novel. "Kid Galahad" has had splendid preview notices.

Expect Over 100 Members For Two-Day Outing

The 4-H Club annual encampment will be held this year near the Rommie Derrick place on the Rowe Ranch, Wednesday, July 28-29, County agent H. M. Breedlove said yesterday.

The attendance is expected to top that of last year when over 100 boys were at the two-day outing.

CLARENDON YARDS JUDGED FOR CITY CONTEST AWARDS

Mrs. Cooke, Mrs. Taylor, Rev. King Place First In Second Judging

Clarendon yards, entered in the yard beautification contest, were judged for the second time Tuesday afternoon and first places in the three groups were awarded to Mrs. W. H. Cooke, Mrs. Crockett Taylor and Rev. J. Perry King. Miss Margaret Moser, Home Demonstration agent for Collingsworth county classified the lawns. She could not be reached last night for a detailed report on the judging.

Mrs. Cooke was first in the home owned group who hire labor with Mrs. M. P. Gentry, F. E. Chamberlain and Mrs. George Ryan following in the order named. In the second group, home owners who do their own yard work, Mrs. Crockett Taylor led D. O. Stallings and Joe Goldston in order.

Rev. J. Perry King placed before Rev. N. C. Smith in the third group.

Young Lady Is Recovering From Serious Operation

An operation that is described as bordering on a miracle enabled Miss Genevieve Powell to return to Clarendon a few days ago. She was accompanied here from Dallas by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Slaton. The ladies are sisters.

Some months back Miss Powell became ill with what was diagnosed as sinus affection. Later, a prominent surgeon of Dallas pronounced her suffering as being due not from one brain tumor, but two. This surgeon carefully studied the unusual case for several days, then operated. The two tumors, one on either side of the back part of the skull, were removed.

Miss Powell was formerly employed here in the office of the county agent. Her many friends join with relatives in congratulating the popular young lady in her recovery. Not the least of it all do they appreciate the skill of the young brain surgeon.

Tennessean Visits Donley County Relatives

Paying his first visit to this section, W. O. Higgins of Cleveland, Tennessee is making a very pleasant visit with his son W. D. Higgins and family of the Midway community.

In making trips with his son over the plains wheat belt, Mr. Higgins is astounded at the production of wheat where normally wheat production would not be found. "Why back in my country where the wheat is thick on the ground and waist high, we get only about 20 bushels to the acre," he said. He can't understand how Texas promises less and gives more than Tennessee.

The Hereford country is being visited this week with a return trip through the well irrigation district of Floyd county.

Condition of S. A. Pierce Jr. Reported Improved

The condition of S. A. Pierce Jr., who has been seriously ill in a Cortez, Colorado hospital, was reported greatly improved last night.

The nature of his sickness was not learned but in describing the illness, Sheriff Pierce said he was swollen about the face. The swelling gradually went down his left arm, he said.

Sheriff Pierce and S. A. Pierce left last Thursday for Cortez. Sheriff Pierce returned this week.

Over $20,000 For Local Wheat Crop

An Estimated 20,250 Bushels Sold In Clarendon

Over twenty thousand dollars has been received by wheat producers in this vicinity for the current harvest which, with the exception of one or two fields, culminated last week.

Although figures are based, conservatively, on estimates of local grain men and figured on an average of $1.05 per bushel, the total is around $21,262.50.

It is believed the entire shipped out-put would reach 15 cars at 1,350 bushels per car or a total of 20,250 bushels.

While the market rose from around a dollar per bushel to a high of $1.10, the total was figured on an average of $1.05.

Lower Donley county experienced one of the best wheat crops for this section in the past eight years. The yield was estimated at 12 to 25 bushels per acre.

Flea Hoppers Are Damaging Crops In Donley County

Heavy infestation of flea hoppers in Donley County was reported by R. R. Reppert, state entomologist from College Station and County agent H. M. Breedlove, after a tour of the county yesterday.

The portion near Hedley showed the most evidence of the pests, they said, where cotton was not fruiting properly.

Sulphur dusting was recommended by the expert who said this precaution should be taken to protect the crop in the future if not at the present.

Breedlove said if the farmers desired he would obtain sulphur although a large expense would be entailed. There are two types of machines for dusting, he stated. The hand type which will cover 8 or 10 acres a day and the big machine which will cover 40 or 50 acres daily.
