Clarendon Enters Beautification Contest

Thanksgiving Day Here Offers Variety of Activities

CITY WILL COMPETE IN BEAUTIFICATION

OVER THIRTY MEN ARE AT WORK IN NEEDED CLEAN- UP HERE THIS WEEK

Clarendon is going to be the cleanest city in West Texas and the Panhandle. Over thirty men were put to work here this week and an intensive campaign is under way to attain that end. This campaign includes work in all three cemeteries, also, and many local home owners are co-operating in work about their own premises.

Through cooperation with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and the services of Odos Caraway, director of that organization for Clarendon, appointed to that office by the local Chamber of Commerce for the year 1932, the work of taking care of the unemployed in the city is going forward under the guidance of the local committee in charge and the cooperation of all charity bodies of the city.

According to information from C. J. Douglas, secretary of the committee, 34 men have been used in all the various jobs undertaken to date. This city will endeavor to cooperate with the cities of West Texas and enroll in the beautification contest for West Texas cities and parts of the work done in connection with the use of these funds will be directed to clean-up and beautification in this city.

Working in complete harmony with the plan, Mayor Calge assured the committee this week that citizens of the city who wish to clean-up their premises can get the refuse hauled away if they will notify the City Hall. The Mayor stated the city would do this work as is done regularly each year in spring in order to cooperate in lending employment and a general clean-up city-wide at this time.

Members of the committee have expressed appreciation at the co-operation received from all concerned, especially other charity organizations of the city and stated that where possible work was to be given first to men with families to support.

ROTARY SELLS 90 BANQUET TICKETS

CLUB COMMITTEE HOLDS HONOR OF SELLING MOST FATHER-SON TICKETS

Friday's Rotary Club program consisted of group singing and round table talk as the members enjoyed their weekly luncheon at the Clarendon Hotel, with Dr. O. L. Jenkins, president, in the chair.

Rotarian Drennan announced the football game in the afternoon between the Clarendon Bronchos and the Class A Childress Bobcats, also the Boy Scout training school meeting Monday night.

The ticket selling committee for the Father and Son banquet on the previous evening reported that they had sold ninety of the one hundred and fifty tickets sold, an accomplishment worth while and proving the lively interest taken by the club in civic affairs.

When the question as to what "Donzell", the name of the club bulletin stood for, Rotarian Bill Ferrell explained that it stood for Servant, Page, Carrier and Messenger—all at the service of the local club.

Mrs. R. A. Chamberlain left this morning for Greenville and Ft. Worth. While in Greenville she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Whitfield Carhart later going to Ft. Worth to visit another daughter, Mrs. J. D. Browder.

Highway Patrol Issues Warning

State Highway Patrolmen Conwell and Dorris, stationed at Memphis and who have Donley County under their supervision were here Tuesday afternoon and evening checking up on defective lights, licenses and other infractions of the laws of the state relative to automobiles and motor vehicles.

These affable young officers called at the News office and asked this newspaper to warn the public that sixty cars with defective lights were noted in just a few hours, and that they will return here in a short time charged with a sterner duty—that of turning in every owner of a car who is guilty of neglect in these matters. Violations of the statutes in this regard are finable from one to two hundred dollars and cost.

The patrolmen ask that car owners check up on their lights, and see that their license is properly displayed before they return here as they have no pleasure in making arrests which they will be forced to do in case of violations. These gentlemen are most courteous and our local people will do well to heed their timely warning.

'HEAVY' WHITLOCK NAMED PRESIDENT

FATHERS AND SONS HOLD ENJOYABLE SESSION AND ELECT OFFICERS

The 1932 Father and Son Banquet last Thursday evening at the First Christian Church added another milestone in the movement in this community, and with Dr. B. L. Jenkins presiding, presented a most varied program of music and sleight-of-hand, with long speeches taboo, to the delight of the gathering of men and boys which numbered over one hundred and fifty.

Two groups of musicians furnished the music for the program, one being the Little German Band presented by Bandmaster Gus Stevenson, and the string trio composed of Mess. Joe David, Elmer Palmer and T. D. Nored. The music was given warm applause throughout the evening.

The annual contest on the father present with the most sons and grand sons, was of extra interest this year when it was discovered that L. Ballew, who has held the honors for the past several years, lost them this year to Uncle Johnny Goldston. Billy Davis, thirty-two months-old son of Clifford Davis was the youngest present, and L. W. Chase, aged 85 on December 23rd, was several years the senior of any other father present.

Toastmaster Jenkins briefly reviewed the Father and Son movement in Clarendon, and spoke of the rapidity with which many sons who enjoyed the first affair a decade ago, were now present as fathers. On his call for a few short talks Sam W. Lowe, Tom F. Connally, Tom Coke Connally and O. C. Watson, Jr., responded.

Following these talks and the election of officers, Rev. W. E. Ferrell, pastor of the First Christian Church, was introduced and entertained and mystified the assembly with an assortment of slight-of-hand tricks well up in the professional class.

Lawrence (Heavy) Whitlock, was named president for the coming year, with A. L. Chase as vice-president. Board members elected were George Chamberlain and G. H. McCleskey, Jr., for the Sons, and Dr. Sherman and T. D. Nored for the Fathers.

In closing the entire audience stood and sang "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again".

We're Thankful

LIONS DISCUSS BENEFIT SHOW

SCANDALS OF 1932 WILL BE BROUGHT HERE FOR CRIP- PLED CHILDREN'S FUND

The principal business of the Tuesday luncheon of the Clarendon Lions Club was the discussion of dates and arrangements for bringing the "Scandals of 1932" extravaganza and revenue from Amarillo here for the benefit of the Crippled Children's Fund at some near date. Last season the "Scandals" was presented here to a full house and a goodly sum realized for this worthy purpose, and Lion Mike Hollander of Amarillo, director extraordinary, says the 1932 show is a much better performance than last year's.

President Ira Merchant was named chairman of a committee to work out a suitable date with the Amarillo organization for the presentation here, and has gone to that city to-day to complete the arrangements and details. Director Hollander says his choruses are bigger and better this year, and the show features one of his own compositions, which has proven the hit of the season at Amarillo where over $1400 was realized for the Crippled Children's Fund. The best dancers and singers of Amarillo are in the performance this year as usual, and the troupe is anxious to come here as they enjoyed their appearance last season to the fullest extent.

Announcement was made by Lion Burton of the Thanksgiving football game here between the Clarendon Bronchos and the Sanger Hi team of Sanger, Texas a team defeated only once in three years. Lion Braswell announced the Union Thanksgiving program to be presented at the Methodist Church at 7 a. m. Thursday morning, by the young people of the city.

Arthur Howard of Memphis and a former Lion was the guest of the day.

RALPH INGRAM VISITS WITH HIS PARENTS HERE

Ralph Ingram arrived here last week from his home in the great Northwest, where he is connected with the Long-Bell Lumber Company, for a visit with his father and mother, Rev. and Mrs. C. B. Ingram. Ralph has been lost sight of for over a quarter of a century, having gone into the Northwest years ago and in moving around failed to receive mail, thus losing the address of his parents who had moved to the Panhandle. He has been in all of the states west of the Mississippi, as far south as Central America and North to the Arctic circle during this period. He tells many interesting stories of the gold rush days in Alaska and the development of the Northwestern section of the nation.

CHAMBERLAIN SCHOOL RE-OPENS MONDAY 28TH

After a recess of about seven weeks, the Chamberlain School will resume its work Monday, Nov. 28th at the usual hour. The pupils are about up with their cotton picking and harvest work and it is hoped that a full attendance will be on hand Monday. Clarence Jackson, principal, with Misses Maudie Crawford and Mary Sue Watters, are the three teachers in charge of the Chamberlain school this year and are planning a vigorous program for the remainder of the session.

SMALL BLAZE EARLY WEDNESDAY MORNING

Fire of an undetermined origin was discovered early this morning in a box-car on a Denver siding. The fire department quickly shut down the blaze after a hole had been burned in the car. It is thought that some tenant for the night woke early for a smoke with the result noted.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Brumley announce the birth of a seven-pound baby girl, Tuesday evening.

Boykin President Board of Stewards

Immediately after the eleven o'clock services Sunday at the Methodist Church, the new board of stewards for this conference year, met briefly for organization. Retiring Chairman J. R. Porter called the body to order and in the elections following G. Lester Boykin was named chairman, and Homer McElvaney, secretary.

Committee was appointed to canvass the membership roll and estimate the church budget for this conference year, and to divide the lists among the stewards at a meeting Tuesday night.

At the Tuesday evening session the salaries for the year were set and plans laid for an every-member approach for funds to carry on the work of the local organization. It was ordered that a bulletin be issued every quarter showing just how much and who has paid to the needs of the church for the past three months, and such other information necessary to the aims of the church.

Renewed interest in the work of the year is looked for since Clarendon is to entertain the annual conference here in Nov. 1933.

SANGER HI HERE ON THANKSGIVING

HIGHLY TOUTED TEAM BEAT- EN ONCE IN THREE YEARS TO INVADE CITY

Sanger Hi footballers, mighty class B team of North Texas, will be on the Clarendon football menu here Thanksgiving. This highly respected team has roved the gridiron of Class B in North Texas for the past three years with only one defeat, and are coming here in the full expectation of adding the Broncho scalp to a belt heavy with gory trophies of the chalk-marked field.

The Bronchos are in fighting trim and are determined to send the Sanger lads back home with a second defeat to mark their appearance on the wind-swept fields of the Panhandle. Nosed out of a district championship by one point when thirty minutes of half-hearted playing lost a game to Shamrock, the Bronchos are in no pleasant mood, so to speak, and what they did to a Class A team last week, points to their intentions on Thanksgiving afternoon, when the whistle blows at 2:30 on the frost-bitten grass field at College Park.

Coaches Stocking and Hutton are fully aware of the heavy and heady attack Sanger will unleash here Turkey Day and are adding final priming to their charges, so the Broncho will be ready to withstand the assault and have enough to spare for the winning punch before the final whistle sounds.

College Park is being put in first class condition for the big crowd sure to be attracted by this inter-sectional game, and special police will be on hand to protect the playing field and see that the cash customers have a fair chance of viewing the terrific running and blocking certain to mark the game when two such teams meet.

The coaches say that the returns from this season's games have placed the athletic fund in the "red", and are urging that Clarendon fans come and bring their friends for this extra-exhibition Thanksgiving afternoon. The admission will be 25c and 35c—and it will be worth twice as much.

Mrs. J. W. Martin and daughter, Mildred, returned Friday from Muskogee, Oklahoma where they have been visiting Mr. Martin's daughter, Mrs. Fred Wewerka, for the past month.

THANKSGIVING PLANS READY

CLARENDON PEOPLE WILL WORSHIP, VISIT, HUNT, ATTEND BALL GAME

Thanksgiving Day for Clarendon citizens promises to be one of real relaxation and enjoyment, with practically every business house in town closed for the day, and the grateful spirit generally manifested.

The Union Thanksgiving Program at 7 a. m. in the morning will begin the day for those who feel inclined to attend worship and return thanks to Almighty God. The program is under the direction of Mrs. John M. Bass, general chairman of the movement, and will be participated by the young people of all churches in the city. There will be no address, and according to the program as printed in last week's issue of The News, its variety will appeal to all with union choruses, readings, Thanksgiving proclamations, vocal duets, violin soli, Thanksgiving playlet. A large crowd is expected.

During the day sportsmen will be in the valleys and canyons hunting all the game the law allows, the golf links will be well attended by the devotees of that fascinating outdoor game, and evening among friends and family reunions will hold the boards for many others.

At 2:30 in the afternoon will come the attraction of the day for football fans for at that hour at the College Park, the Fighting Clarendon Bronchos will meet the Sanger Indians, from Sanger, Texas, in one of the few inter-sectional games of the year for Class B teams in the Panhandle. This promises to be an unusually hard-fought battle and one of the largest crowds in years is expected to be on hand.

This is the program of a real Thanksgiving Day—worship, visiting, sports, "turkey and dressing, an' everything."

HILLCROFT CLUB IN GOLF TOURNEY

MEMBERSHIP DIVIDED FOR TOURNEY WITH KERBOW AND WOOD AS COLONELS

PLATFORM OR CONSTITUENCY

The South of course is strongly Democratic, but Southerners also are for the most part Methodist, or Baptist, or members of some kindred denomination or organization, interested in the prohibition movement. These two larger bodies seem to be waking up to the fact that the problem of prohibition is again before the country and that the Eighteenth Amendment may have to fight for its life, so that they are beginning to prepare for the contest. The newly elected Congress is reported to be strongly wet in sentiment and the return of beer, light wines and the amendment's repeal are confidently expected, on the assumption that Southern Democrats will feel under obligations to support Al Smith's anti-prohibition plank in the Democratic national platform. This expectation is natural and, on the face of the returns, the Volstead Act and the Eighteenth Amendment are doomed, as far as the new Congress is concerned.

Yet many a Congressman or State legislator, who suspects that his constituency is still prohibitionist, will hesitate long and thoughtfully before he decided to vote for the modification or repeal of prohibition. He will need to explain to his constituents that a better system is in sight and that will be no easy task. To many it will seem like a return to the days of the saloon, with brewers and liquor dealers in politics, and the consumption of far more liquor than is good for the Nation. Certainly the legislator who desires re-election must be fully convinced that the Nation is moving into "a better 'ole" and be able to prove it when he appears for re-election.

An attractive part of the repeal argument is to show how largely governmental revenues will be increased, how much money will be spent in brewery and similar construction, and how many hands will be employed when the sale of liquor is legalized. They neglect, however, to explain that all of this will really be paid for in the long run by the wage earner, who will therefore expend less on his family; or that for every one newly employed, some one else will be released from other employment. The Nation can not have its cake and eat it, too. If it buys liquor, it spends less on other things.

Both the voter and the legislator must consider squarely the problem before them and find "a better 'ole" before they leave the one that, in part, shields the present generation from the drink-curse of pre-prohibition days.—Dallas News.

"SPEAKING ABOUT YOUR MOTHER'S HUSBAND"

"If he is wealthy and you stand in awe of him, call him 'Father.' If he sits in his shirt sleeves and suspenders at ball games and picnics, call him 'Pop.' If he tills the land and teaches a Sunday School class, call him 'Pa'. If he wheels the baby carriage and carries bundles meekly, call him 'Papa' (accent on the first syllable). If he belongs to a literary or scientific society and writes papers on abstruse subjects, or if he is a reformer in politics, and forgets to vote, call him 'Papa' (accent on the last syllable).

"If however, he makes a pal of you when you are good, and is too wise to let you pull the wool over his loving eyes when you are not; if moreover, you are sure no other fellow you know has quite so fine a father, you may call him, 'DAD'—but otherwise follow above rule."

The above editorial appeared last week in "The Donzell", Clarendon Rotary Club Bulletin, edited by Rev. W. E. Ferrell, pastor of the First Christian Church. It is a splendid thought in connection with Father and Son Week, and following the Father and Son Banquet last week we may all read it and enjoy its quaint philosophy.

CLARENDON—THE CITY BEAUTIFUL

With the memory of certain unsightly aspects of our otherwise attractive city it may be that the use of the slogan, "Clarendon—the City Beautiful" may seem to some, entirely without foundation and the boastful vapourings of editorial enthusiasm.

And yet, there is something to the term, and in view of the activities launched this week in the city it is possible for the combined efforts of the citizenship to accomplish a full realization of all a City Beautiful means.

Too much commendation cannot be given the aims and purposes back of the movement to clean up Clarendon and its environs as it has never been cleaned before, and since the campaign offers employment to the bread-winners of thirty to fifty families, the movement has a two-fold value to this community.

For years Clarendon has ranked as one of the most attractive little cities in the Southwest, and now in the midst of financial adversity, this plan to clean and brighten and polish the landscape here is another evidence of the highly commendable civic spirit that makes the town one of the most desirable residential centers in this section of Texas.

Clarendon is the City Beautiful by comparison. She can truly become the City Beautiful by the well planned and executed work of her citizenship.

CO-OPERATION SHOULD RULE

In the details of routing at Ashtola the proposed highway has encountered some delays, because there seems to be a diversity of interests between the county, the railroad and the Adair ranch.

These interests, so far, have not been mutually adjusted, much to the disappointment of nearly everyone who has been interested in the speedy construction of the badly needed highway, and now it appears that a cleavage of interests may engender feelings which only time can heal.

The committee which has worked so long and arduously on the project still has hopes of an adjustment mutually satisfactory, which will save the interests of all concerned, but that hope isn't as rosy as we might wish.

The road is going to be built, of course, but if it isn't located satisfactory to all interests now, they are due for many years of regret.

The railroad, the ranch and county can all afford to do a little compromising. It's more pleasant and profitable that way.

WILL YOU BE PREPARED?

Prosperity is "just around the corner."

This slogan has been common for the last two years and now it looks as if the corner will soon be turned.

But are you prepared for prosperity?

When prosperity returns, there will be an influx of business in every city.

Those who have become discouraged, and acknowledge that they are licked, will enjoy no prosperity.

It will take them too long to recover from a chronic depression, and unless they cheer up, dress up their places of business and go after the trade before prosperity enters with a bang, they will find that some more enterprising individual has captured their trade.

Business will not be helped by continually harping on hard times. Such talk will frighten the buyer away from your place of business. Do not be too optimistic and try to create a false recovery of business, but play the game on the square and fight for your business, your town and your community.

Do not be misled by the transient door knockers, who come into town offering bargains of questionable merchandise, but trade with the local merchants, and preferably with those who think enough of your business to present their message through the advertising columns of the papers.

Keep in training, and be ready to go at the drop of the hat when the whistle of prosperity sounds.—Portales Valley News, Portales, New Mexico.

West Texas Utilities Company

Chevrolet Company To Present New Car Here Early in December

Mr. Kemp, Manager of the Clarendon Motor Company, announces that early in December a new Chevrolet will be presented to the public. He states that this event will be of such importance that no person interested in the purchase of a low-priced automobile can afford to disregard it.

America naturally expects big things of Chevrolet. For it is Chevrolet that first brought beauty and comfort to the low-priced field. . . . pioneered the six-cylinder engine. . . . built the most economical cars, and the most dependable. It is Chevrolet who has led the world in sales for 4 of the past 6 years. (1932 position based on latest available registration figures). So each year at this time America looks to the leader to learn what's new in the way of low-priced transportation.

And again America's confidence is fully justified. The new Chevrolet, to appear next month, advances standards in every phase of motoring. Again Chevrolet has broken bodily with the past wherever change means improvement in style, comfort, smoothness, performance, safety, economy, and dependability.

Chevrolet engineers have packed this latest of a long line of successful cars with thrill after thrill and advancement after advancement. Fisher body craftsmen have taken advantage of an even longer wheelbase to contribute coachwork which is unique in the low-price field—including dynamic new styling, and an invention which you will immediately recognize as one of the most fundamental comfort improvements of all time. And the experience gained in the production of more than 8,000,000 cars, together with the marked advantages that naturally accrue to the leader in sales has made it possible to build the new Chevrolet at a price which takes account of today's incomes.

So keep an open mind on the question of an automobile purchase until you see Chevrolet's Great American Value for 1933. And watch for it next month! It will prove to you, beyond a doubt, that this is the time to buy a car, and this is the car to buy.

NEW MATTRESS FACTORY NOW OPEN FOR BUSINESS

A new Mattress Factory was opened for business in Clarendon last week. It is located on North Main Street in the building next door to the West Texas Produce and Service Station, is owned and operated by W. M. Rogers from New Mexico and W. H. Rodgers a long time resident of the Panhandle and will be known as the W. M. Rodgers Mattress Factory.

The owners state that they will offer an unequalled service in the renovating and making of new mattresses, also that their renovating service is offered at the lowest price ever offered in Clarendon. The management invites all those needing this service to call on them and get their prices.

An announcement appears in this issue quoting the special price for renovating.

Says Ballew Hog Was Only A Pig

John Potter dropped into The News office last week to say that the 805-pound stag hog sold by Mr. L. Ballew was only a pig compared to a 1020 pound giant sold last summer by J. E. Hunt of Jericho to Bert Mayfield, one of our leading hog dealers.

This Donley County hog contest is getting hot. If you know of anybody with a bigger hog we would like to learn of it and quit talking about the pigs.

A paper remarks that a candidate for the Senate was defeated because he ran on the platform that he was needed to save the country from Communists, Socialists, Nudists, and Infidels. Perhaps his general fanatical tendency made it wise that he be kept at home, but on the other hand, it may be that an outspoken Peter the Hermit, preaching a crusade against the elements mentioned, might not be quite useless in the higher legislative body.

LEGION OFFERS COMMENT ON UNFAIR ATTITUDE

"Publicity is being given to the National Economy League and its attempt to organize business men of the country in a drive in the coming session of Congress to curtail by $450,000,000 the benefits now being paid veterans of the World War, and other wars.

"We wonder if the business men of this community have given thought to the amount of money that is brought into this community each month as a result of the sums paid to World War veterans." An official of the Aubyn E. Clark Post of the American Legion here said today. "We will let the others answer for themselves, but for the World War, the disability compensation amounts to $204,600,000 and disability allowance $104,277,000. The total for these two items is $308,897,000 per year, which amount is what is received by veterans and spent by them for the necessities of life, etc."

"Many of the veterans have no other means of support than the small sums they receive from the government. Take this support away from these veterans and what is going to happen?"

"They are almost certain to become wards of the county. Remember, the veterans are paid out of the federal taxes, and not from the local and state taxes. Their pay comes out of the huge profits of federal income tax-payers. But if they become burdens on the local communities, then they affect the average American home owner and business man.

"Besides they fought for the federal government and it is a federal problem, not a state or local liability.

"Now let's take a look at the membership of the National Economy League—How many store keepers are on its membership list? How many country bankers. How many farmers? How many clerks? How many laborers? How many soldiers and sailors under the commissioned ranks? In other words how many of the soldier class of America have been enrolled by the National Economy League? And by "soldier class" I do not mean the veterans alone. I refer to the average family of the nation—the type of family which furnishes the men who do the dying whenever the nation is in trouble.

"The National Economy League calls attention to the fact that

LAST CIVIL WAR GENERAL

Holding the distinction of being the only surviving general of the Civil War, General Adelbert Ames recently celebrated his 97th birthday quietly at his home in Tewksbury, Mass. He is also one of the few living men who held the rank of general in the Spanish-American War.

The career of General Ames has been a varied and often stormy one. A native of Rockland, Me., where he was born on Oct. 31, 1835, he was graduated from West Point in 1861, at the outbreak of the Civil War, in which he served with distinction, being brevetted a major general of volunteers for gallantry in action.

He settled in Mississippi after the war and was a United States senator from that state from 1870 until 1873, when he was elected governor. His alleged favoritism toward the negroes led to a serious riot in Vicksburg. The legislature impeached him in 1876, but the charges were withdrawn and he resigned, later returning to the North. He was a brigadier general during the war with Spain.

Next to General Ames, the last Civil War general was J. Warren Keifer of Ohio, former speaker of the national House of Representatives, who died at his home in Springfield, O., on April 22, 1932, at the age of 96.

Armistice Day celebrations took on a quiet tone this year. There were parades and speeches, but the roystering tumult of a decade ago was lacking. The boys of 1918 had become sobered men. The khaki, although still bright, will fade as surely as did the blue and the gray.

the veteran is now costing the government something like a billion dollars a year.

"We must remember that, of course, wars cost money and that the signing of an Armistice may end the killing but not the cost, which runs on and on and on. Some day our people will come to realize this fact, and they will be more careful of their wars. But, meanwhile, it is the group shouting loudest over veterans cost which made millions out of the war and doesn't like the idea of paying for it. It is the same group of interests, too, which is the first to call for use of our nation's armed forces in protection of their interests abroad."

IN PURITAN DAYS

Some interesting facts concerning the life of New England Puritans immediately after the Revolution are related by Arthur Train in his "Puritan's Progress," written after extensive research into the old town records, newspapers, letters and other early documents.

There were few roads and no good ones, so most journeys were made on horseback. The first systematic stage route between New York and Boston began operation in 1783, the trip taking from eight to ten days. Relatives living only ten miles apart sometimes visited one another only once or twice a year.

There were no hospitals or trained nurses, no anesthetics, no vaccination against smallpox which caused countless deaths. The hour-glass was still used as a timepiece, fires were lit with flint and steel. If teeth were given any attention it was by rubbing with gunpowder applied with a wooden stick.

While gambling with cards and lotteries prevailed generally, theatrical performances were unlawful, and so was kissing on Sunday, even by husband and wife. An official made his rounds on Sundays to see that everyone went to church. In the few schools which existed the Bible was the principal textbook. Harvard students had to get up for chapel at six, and retired when the curfew rang at nine. They had to call at the kitchen for their bread and milk, which was eaten in their rooms, in which no lights were allowed.

Women usually married young and died young, the average family being nine or ten, with twenty or more children not unusual, but about half of them died before maturity. And considering the hard conditions under which they would have been forced to live, those who died early may have been lucky at that.

The natives of an island in the southern seas honor a friend by keeping his burial place in mind. When they questioned Capt. Cook, the early explorer, along that line, he replied that no person subject to the will of the ocean could foretell his end or place of rest. At Santa Cruz in Cuba, a twenty-foot mass of water, sweeping shoreward from the great deep, has taken a toll of about two thousand lives. Captain Cook was right.

Mrs. R. C. Corson of Houston is visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Chase.

A traveller, returning from Italy, says that every worker in that country has three hours for lunch, which raises some speculation as to what a solid and leisurely Italian dinner must be like.

It's easy to say they're all alike—and easy to prove they are NOT. Dissolve a genuine Bayer Aspirin tablet in water, pour it off, feel the fine powder that coats the glass. Do this with some other tablet; see what coarse particles are left! They feel as sharp as sand, even to your finger. How must they affect those delicate membranes which line your throat—your stomach? For immediate relief from headaches, colds, sore throat, neuralgia or neuritis, lumbago, rheumatism, there's nothing like Bayer Aspirin. It cannot depress the heart.

Grand Jury Makes Final Term Report

The News presents below the final report of the grand jury in the District Court as made to Judge A. J. Fires preceding their discharge last week. Eight felony indictments were returned according to their report which reads as follows:

STATE OF TEXAS, COUNTY OF TEXAS.
To the Hon. A. J. Fires, Judge of said Court:

Comes now the Grand Jury duly empaneled for the October term, 1932, of the District Court for Donley County, Texas, and submits this, its final report:

1. We have inquired diligently into all violations of the law that have come to our knowledge, having been in session for six days, and we have heretofore returned into open court five felony indictments, and we here-with return into open court three felony indictments.
2. We have visited the County jail and find the same in good condition and that the prisoners are getting good food and fair treatment and have no further recommendations to make there-to.
3. We especially wish to compliment Guy Pierce, the Sheriff, and his deputies upon the efficient manner in which they are endeavoring to see that the laws are properly enforced in this county.
4. We wish to thank the Court the County and District Attorneys and especially the Grand Jury bailiffs for their prompt and efficient service and co-operation with the Grand Jury during its deliberations.

We have finished our labors and ask that we be finally discharged.

Done at Clarendon, Texas, this the 10th day of November, A. D. 1932.

A $120,000 BIBLE

An idea of the amazing amount of money represented by literary and art treasures brought to America during the recent years may be suggested by the price of $120,000 paid by an American collector for a Gutenberg Bible, printed at Mainz, Germany, on the world's first printing press.

This is said to be the highest price ever paid for a single book, not within a few years it may bring a great deal more. A similar Bible sold for only $2,500 about 80 years ago.

When J. P. Morgan, the elder, died in 1913, his art treasures were valued at close to $100,000,000. His manuscripts included the originals of nine novels by Sir Walter Scott, Dickens' "The Christmas Carol," Thackeray's "Vanity Fair" and many works by Keats, Poe, Whittier, Longfellow and others. A single purchase of 700 books by Mr. Morgan in 1902 cost him a million and a quarter dollars.

The late Henry Huntington left a collection for which he had paid about twenty millions. The finest collection of Shakespeare works in existence is in the Folger library in Brooklyn.

Europeans have long deplored the acquisition of their literary and art treasures by Americans, but so long as they are highly prized by our wealthy men, they will continue to come to our shores.

MODERATE DRINKING

(By Dr. W. D. Bradfield, S. M. U., Dallas)

A drunken man is so disgusting that there is none to defend him. In fact he deserves our pity. He is a victim of a habit. The criminal is the traffic which produces him.

The defenders of the traffic exhort us "to use but not abuse" liquor, to enjoy the drinking of it but to exercise self-control and not make a beast of ourselves. In all this they ignore the fundamental nature of all alcoholic liquor.

Alcohol tends always to destroy the power of self-control. So they bid us drink that which will destroy our power of self-control and at the same time they exhort us to exercise the very power they would destroy. This is mere mockery.

Alcohol is a habit forming drug. By the time its victim comes to realize its dangers, he is fettered with a habit that makes him helpless to quit. He is driven by a quenchless thirst to certain doom. Then the apologists for liquor would abuse him for becoming a victim of the very drink they encouraged him to use.

Is there anything more heartless than this? Has the soul of man become more deadened to pity or to every noble impulse than when he pleads for a traffic which ensnares the very victim whom, by his pleadings, he has lured into its toils, and then turns his vituperations upon him? Can a man be a worse enemy to his fellow man—to society—than he who pleads for man to use liquor, and then abuse the one who falls a victim?

After years of dealing with the drinker this experience has led an enlightened generation to turn from the drinker to the drink. After standing by the stream of life fishing from it the derelicts of the liquor traffic, enlightened mankind has gone up stream to find and stop the source of these derelicts. This is prohibition.

CITY OF FIVE FLAGS

The distinction of having been under five different flags belongs to Mobile, Ala. In fact, it has changed flags seven times, as a brief account of its strange record will show.

Founded by d'Iberville in 1702, Mobile was in French possession until 1763, when it passed to England by the Treaty of Paris. It was taken by Spain in 1780, captured by the United States in 1813, taken by the English in the same year, and restored to the United States by the Treaty of Ghent in 1815. It flew the Stars and Bars of the Confederacy during the Civil War, after which it again came under the Stars and Stripes.

The Battle of Mobile Bay, on August 5, 1864, in which Admiral Farragot defeated the Confederates, was one of the principal naval engagements of the war, costing the Federals 335 men, while the Confederate loss was 10 killed 16 wounded and 280 taken prisoners.

Mobile was in serious financial difficulties during the reconstruction days and lost its charter in 1876, when a commission was established to liquidate its debt of two and a half million dollars. A new charter was obtained in 1886. In recent years the city has made much progress and in 1930 had a population of 68,202.

Pensacola, Fla., has also been under five flags, its history in that respect closely paralleling that of Mobile.

Why does LAUNDRY WASHING SAVE $$$s

because Wet Wash Service is exactly what home washing gives. You pay from 50c to 60c for the average family washing.

COUNTING— soap, powder, bluing, starch, gas water, repair and depreciation on equipment, interest on investment, etc; the equivalent of this work done at home would cost approximately $1.15

It is this substantial difference in cost that is daily prompting new customers to obtain from the laundry a better quality of work for less money. It will pay you to make this comparison, and to be one of our many customers.

Bridge Club Dance At Country Club

Honoring the winners, which were their wives, in a bridge score contest the husbands of a certain evening bridge club entertained with a dance at the Country Club Saturday evening.

Several couples outside the club were invited to help celebrate the occasion. With the aid of a stringed trio the dancers enjoyed themselves until the strains of "Home Sweet Home" told them it was time to depart.

Guests for the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Phillips Gentry, Mr. and Mrs. Seldon Bagby, Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Gentry, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Knorpp, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Stegall, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. Parke Chamberlain and Mr. and Mrs. Meade Haile.

Blue Bonnet Club

Mrs. C. T. McMurtry contributed to the week's social activities with a delightful affair Tuesday, when she entertained with a Bridge-Luncheon at the Clarendon Hotel, honoring members of her bridge club and a few guests.

A yellow and green color scheme was developed in the table decorations, which was very attractive. A most pleasing luncheon with turkey as the foundation was served, after which the guests repaired to the J. L. McMurtry home to enjoy games of bridge the remainder of the afternoon. Mrs. George Ryan was awarded high score and received a lovely gift.

To enjoy this hospitality were: Mesdames J. F. Blocker, R. L. Bigger, Odos Caraway, Homer Glascoe, A. R. Letts, C. B. McCanne, J. L. McMurtry, W. G. Patrick, George Ryan, C. G. Stricklin, club members; and Mesdames R. A. Chamberlain, and Sella Gentry, invited guests.

Mrs. Seldon Bagby Entertains

Mrs. Seldon Bagby was charming hostess to members of her Contract Bridge Club last Friday afternoon when she entertained at her attractive apartment in West Clarendon.

Miss Maxine Ellis delighted the group with a Thanksgiving reading.

At the close of the study delicious refreshments were served the members and one guest, Mrs. H. T. Burton.

The next meeting will be at the Club Room, December 2nd, with Mrs. Clyde Douglas as hostess.

B. P. R. Have Birthday Party

With Mr. and Mrs. Sam M. Braswell as host and hostess, the B. P. R. Club met in their hospitable home Monday evening to celebrate the Club's second anniversary.

The tallies were unique in that tied to each with a gold cord was a gilded wishbone and on the cover was a verse wishing everyone a happy Thanksgiving and Birthdays galore. The table numbers were also wishbones of different fowls, which had been gilded and were very attractive.

Instead of one prize there were prizes for everyone. All the men received a present from the ladies and they in turn were awarded the ring, thimble, button, and etc., which were in the Birthday Cake.

After a very enjoyable evening of "42", grape marlowe and cake were served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rathjen, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Boykin, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Powell, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Braswell.

In the games which followed Mr. Kelly Chamberlain received high score.

Present for the affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Knorpp, and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Merchant.

During the business session the club voted to sponsor a Mothers and Daughters' Banquet as one of their major activities during the year.

Mrs. Mae Shaver was leader for the evening and gave a talk on Education. The work the clubs were doing to provide a high school education stressed and the local club urged not to let a year pass without helping at least one girl through school.

At the Regional Meeting of the B. & P. W. club held at Tulsa this month the Clarendon Club was represented by Miss Mildred Martin. Miss Martin gave a very interesting summary of the talks and entertainments that she enjoyed while there.

EDUCATIONAL DIGEST

The general property tax does not place the burden of taxation where most of the wealth is to be found. In fact, two-thirds of the burden of taxation is on the land.

The first essential of a tax system is that it be enforceable. Therefore, we must conclude that our present tax system is not enforceable.

The principal of ability to pay is one of the most important tests of a theoretically good tax. As the Tax Survey Committee stated, "ability to pay is fundamentally the first rule in sound tax philosophy". The consensus of public opinion is that property is no longer an adequate test to pay.—Richard Gonzalez in Texas Outlook.

In the Comptrollers' report for 1931, table 82, only forty-two of the 254 counties of the state reported stocks and bonds for taxation. The writer is glad to inform the readers that Donley county reported stocks and bonds for taxation. In this same report, only 26 counties reported shares of capital stock for taxation. This report also states that only 123 counties of the state reported money on hand or on deposit for taxation.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Thanksgiving, the first truly American festival, had its historic origin in 1621 among the Plymouth settlers after an abundant harvest. The Pilgrims observed the first Thanksgiving as a religious festival resembling the Hebrew feast of ingathering. To them, it was symbolic of an accomplishment and an inspiration for still greater accomplishments, for the past year had been one of successful harvest, and the colony had begun to see a vision of a great nation some time to be established on the shores of America. Yet, the first Thanksgiving was by no means merely a day of celebration, but rather a day of praise set aside by the devout pilgrims.

For many years Thanksgiving was observed only by the New England States, but since 1864 it has been observed as a National day for Thanksgiving. Although we are not nearly so devout in our observance of Thanksgiving day as were the Pilgrims, the day may still be said to be symbolic of an accomplishment. Perhaps the past year's accomplishments and harvests have not been so great as those of previous years, nevertheless, the nation has not stood still but has accomplished in comparison much more for which to rejoice.

I WONDER:

Does one's posture while reciting affect his unity of thought? Evidently it has something to do with one's mental capacity. Drew Wilkerson finds that English is quite a snap as long as he can keep his feet over the back of the seat, but with his feet on the floor his knowledge is very limited. The students of History IV also conform to the idea that slouchiness makes for logic, for every student gives his weekly report of current history in a half reclining position on his desk. Although the posture the students use while reciting may be merely habit, their wits would surely go wool-gathering if they were to practice correct posture during recitation.

Palo Duro Literary Society

The Palo Duro Literary Society met the night of Wednesday the 16th to enjoy a short but interesting program. The German Band played a number of selections at the beginning of the programme. These were thoroughly enjoyed by all the members. Filora Wilson read a very interesting short story entitled "The Night Before Christmas". This last number concluded the programme. The members are hoping that the German Band will make frequent visits to the society.

BRONCHOS DEFEAT CHILDRESS 21-0

The Clarendon Bronchos defeated the Childress Bobcats here Friday afternoon by the score of 21 to 0. The Bronchos had the visitors outclassed throughout the game in all phases of play. Early in the first quarter the Bronchos threatened to score but fumbled the ball within the ten yard line. A few minutes later the Bronchos again were in possession of the ball and after a nice drive down the field Whitlock plunged the remaining eleven yards to score. His plunge was also good for the extra point. Again in the first quarter Watson hit the line for four yards and a score. His plunge was also good for the extra point.

The second quarter was without score. In the third quarter Hudson crossed the goal for the final tally of the game. Whitlock's pass to Martin was good for the extra point.

The outstanding players for the Bronchos were Bolles, Whitlock, Hudson, Watson. For the Bobcats Raney and Overby. The entire Broncho squad saw action in the game. In the last few minutes of the game the "third String" chargers were able to show their skill in handling the pigskin.

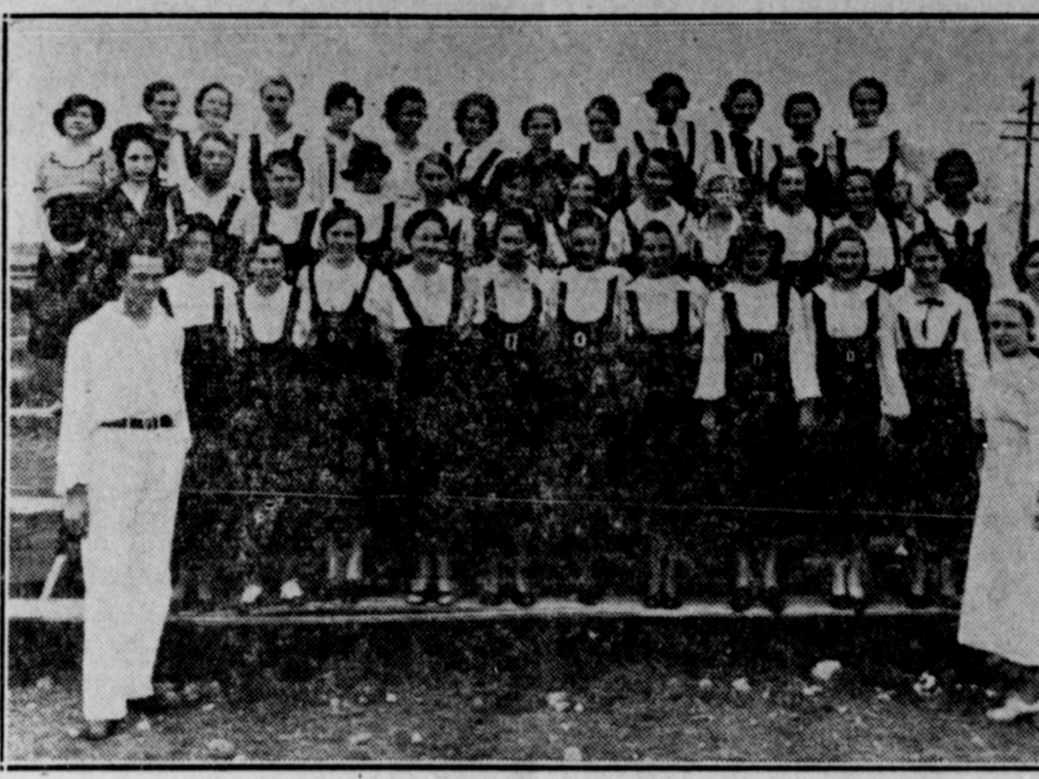

The starting lineup was as follows: Martin, Watson, ends; Greene, Cooke, tackles; McMahon, Haile, guards; Bolles, quarter; Hudson, Whitlock, halves; and E. Watson, full. For Childress: Ends, Summers, Hargrave; tackles, Leister, Sport; guards, Newberry, Sides; center, Noble; quarter, Raney; halves, Kimbrough, Rathan; full, Overby.

Childress substitutions: Preston, Cato, and Marchban. Clarendon substitutions: Easterling, Linders, Davis, Gärmon, O'Neill, Goodson, Jackson, Johnson, Mann, McCrary, Jackson, Word, Greene, Nichils, Wilkerson, Smith, Boston, Jackson, Tidwell, Holtzclaw, Brady, Hedrick, and Bernard.

The Bronchos will meet the team from Sanger here on Thanksgiving for the final game of the season. This game promised to be one of the best of the season. The Sanger team boasts a record of having lost only one game out of seven this season. These boys are coming a long way to meet the Bronchos and are expecting to play before a good crowd. Let's not disappoint them but show the teams we back the Bronchos to the end. YEA BRONCHOS! WE ARE FOR YOU.

SENIORS HAVE ENTERTAINMENT FRIDAY

The Senior class gave their first social Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Davis, who honored their brother, Arthur Davis, a 1933 Senior. Dancing, bridge, and a variety of games furnished entertainment for the evening. Each member of the class was allowed to invite one guest so the party was largely made up of Seniors and their guests. Rhodin Chase and Hubert Reavis furnished the music.

Each of the Seniors report having an enjoyable time, and it has been said that the Juniors will have to do quite a lot of organizing before they can equal the Seniors this year, for the Senior class plans to have many more socials of this kind. Can the Juniors keep up? Juniors, let's hear next week what you think about your ability to cope with the Seniors.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB HAS "TAFFY PULLING"

About thirty members of the Home Economics club met at the Home Economics department last Saturday night, where they made and pulled candy. Many interesting games were played and the members departed declaring that they had enjoyed the "taffy pull". Plans were made to have another party about the twenty first of December.

Pep Squad Ready

The Pep Squad intends to make a big event of the Sanger-Clarendon game on Thursday. Although there were no Pep activities the past week, the squad has been quite active in its preparation for the last game of the season. They hope to make the stunt better than any other of the season and much effort has been put forth to accomplish this end. A pep rally will be held at the central ward building at seven o'clock, Wednesday evening. The squad also plans to parade in town immediately before the game. Everyone who is a member of the squad and has a suit is requested to be present and participate in the stunt.

SPORT SPUTTERS BY O. C. WATSON, JR.

After playing ragged football most of the game Friday, the Bronchos easily defeated the class "A" Childress Bobcats 21-0. Coaches Hutton and Stocking using all reserves. The nearest point to the Bronchos goal where the Bobcats carried the ball, was the 30 yard line. The Bronchos outplayed the visiting team from start to finish. The game was witnessed by a handful of silvering fans. It seems as if the football fans of Clarendon have quit backing the Bronchos.

The Bronchos will go down the "Home Stretch" of their '32 football season when they meet the Sanger Indians tomorrow in the last game of the season, the game is to be called at 2:30 on the Broncho gridiron. This game is to be one of the hardest games of the Bronchos entire season as the Indians have met only one defeat in three years, this is a mighty good record. The Bronchos are determined to break this record but they must play heads up football to do so. All the fans will get their money's worth as this will be the best game of the season. To the fans who do not know where Sanger is located, it is 80 miles North of Fort Worth, between Denton and Gainsville. The boys deserve your support, so come out tomorrow after you have eaten that big turkey dinner and see the Bronchos close the season in a glorifying way.

The Irish of Shamrock were handed a 28-0 defeat Friday by the scrapping Tigers of McLean. Unless the cat slips out of the bag McLean will win the district. Good luck Tigers if we can't win, we like to keep the district crown close to home.

Monday afternoon at the college Park a real football game was played by the Junior High boys weighing 100 pounds and the Groom 100 pounders. It was a good game and enjoyed by all the fans. The Groom boys outsmarted the Clarendon boys and played better ball. The final score being Clarendon 0, Groom 6.

JR. HI COLTS DEFEATED BY GROOM TUESDAY

The Clarendon Jr. High School football team was defeated by the Groom Jr. High School team here Tuesday afternoon 6 to 0. The total weight of both teams was eleven hundred pounds. For boys of this size the game was exceptionally interesting. The visitors scored in the first few minutes of play. After this tally the Colts settled down to hold the larger Groom team to few gains.

The outstanding Colt player was Thomas Earl Noble who was the star defensive player as well as a constant threat with his pass receiving.

The future Bronchos will play a return game at Groom one day next week and hope to regain their lost victory of Tutsday.

Marjorie White and Jo Ella Stewart made a visit to Memphis Saturday.

Alpha Delta Psi Literary Society

The Alpha Delta Psi Literary Society moved to winter quarters in the typing room for their meeting November 16. The Society resolved itself into a round table discussion for the purpose of planning bigger and better programs. As a result the society will presently take up the study of French Literature.

Because there is no piano in the typing room, the piano and violin numbers were postponed until the next meeting. Lu McClellan took his listeners out on the range for several cowboy songs which everyone enjoyed immensely. Pauline Slover changed the scene and gave the Italian dialect reading, "Wh't Sa Use." A motion was then made that the society "Eat and adjourn."

AGRICULTURE REPORT

G. L. Boykin, high school Agriculture instructor, who returned last week from the Kansas City National Stock Show, which is the largest Hereford show in the world, presented the class Monday an interesting report of his trip. In his report, he stated that more than 2200 boys were present with new ideas for the successful farmer. Many interesting lectures were given on farm subjects, and Mr. Boykin gave the class the important topics brought out in each lecture. More than $2200 was given to boys who presented the best work in stock raising and farming. Mr. Boykin also stated that he had a very enjoyable time at the convention and that he acquire much useful knowledge which he intends to use in his teaching of agriculture.

The boys' class is starting the Nutrition Food Unit in which they will begin food preparations. The division of work of each class is beneficial and interesting as well.

Hedley Boy Writes Of Liquor in Canada

The News is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. D. C. Peden of Hedley, Route two, commending our stand on the desirability and righteousness of prohibition, and the certain failure of any form of government control. Along this line of thought Mrs. Peden encloses a letter from her son, who lives at Bellingham, Washington, and who sets down his observations of liquor control as practiced by the Canadian government at Vancouver, B. C. The letter is eloquent of what may be expected here if American voters get weak-kneed enough to surrender prohibition for any form of so-called "control". The portion of the letter dealing with this condition follows:

"There is one blot to Vancouver, and that is their beer parlors. Vancouver, like the rest of Canada, has government liquor control and this permits the sale of all kinds of liquor from the government operated liquor stores, but it does not allow public sale or drinking except in the beer parlors. The city of Vancouver with these beer parlors, and they are well patronized from early until late, and the liquor stores are selling thousands of dollars worth of liquor every day. Of course the liquor stores or beer parlors do not stay open on Sunday, but that does not hinder one from laying in an ample store of liquor to be consumed at home over Sunday or holidays. The beer parlors are not the type of places the saloons were (I speak of the saloons from my observation in Old Mexico) but yet the beer parlors attract a greater mass of the people, young and old, men and women. They are fitted with comfortable tables and chairs; and apparently they seem to be popular as a place to sit for hours soaking in glass after glass of beer, talking in a loud voice until a red nose, a stagger, and an empty pocket-book has been acquired.

"The thing that impressed me about it all was the excessive amount of drinking that was taking place and the huge sums the liquor stores were taking in. Of course persons under 21 are not allowed in the beer parlors but the majority of the crowds, or at least half of them seemed to be made up of boys and girls or youths between the ages of nineteen and thirty. They do not allow the advertisement of liquors in any form but it all tends to encourage drinking to the greatest extent and the amount of drinking and the number of drunken persons can hardly be compared with what we have in the United States as it is so much greater in Canada.

"The Prohibition law is being utilized by politicians of the U. S. along with the press are painting a picture of unemployment, graft, gangsters, crime, etc., as a result of prohibition that is absolutely false and doesn't exist only in a limited fashion in a few crowded areas. They are making the American people believe that they want something repealed that they do not, just to accomplish a few selfish political ends. They are turning hundreds of people, who never drink or have any use for liquor, against prohibition by merely printing a bunch of press stories that are entirely false.

"If we are forced to repeal the 18th Amendment because a thick-headed majority can't see the truth, we should allow no public sale of liquor whatever. "Plato was hitting close to the truth when he said that the masses are too ignorant to rule themselves."

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Killough spent Sunday in Amarillo.

CURSE OF NARCOTICS

In a recent address Captain Richmond P. Hobson declared that the traffic in narcotics is a cancer which has been eating at the vital organs of the world for 200 years, and that the power of American gangsters and racketeers is based upon it, rather than upon liquor. He asserted that most of the bandits and gunmen who rob and kill are dope addicts who are controlled body and soul by those higher up. He believes the hope of the world lies in educating the young to the horrors of the "living death" of the dope fiend. Tracing the steps by which the drug habit is formed, Captain Hobson told of the physical and mental agony suffered by those who "get hooked" by dope. When the habit is confirmed the addict will resort to any means whatever to obtain his daily supply of drugs, and thus becomes a prey for those who would use him to further their evil purposes. For several years Captain Hobson, Spanish-American war hero of Merrimac fame, has devoted himself to fighting the drug traffic and to educating the public to its dangers, and is president of the Narcotic Defense Foundation, with headquarters in New York.

WARNING AGAINST CARELESS FIRES

State Fire Marshal, Raymond S. Mauk, issued a statement today in the form of an appeal to all Texas people to practice care as a means of preventing fires. Mr. Mauk stated that a vigorous campaign was now being waged in every section of Texas against incendiary fires, commonly known as "profit" fires, and that it is highly important that every precaution be taken to prevent careless fires.

The cost of fire-safety, Mr. Mauk said, it is necessary expense for our urban civilization and that it is much better business to prevent a fire than it is to stop a fire, pointing out the fact that fire fighting is expensive and dangerous.

The time of the year is now here, Mr. Mauk said, when every home and place of business will be using fire in some form for heating purposes and that it is important that every precaution be taken to prevent disastrous fires from any of the many heating devices or appliances. He suggests that every home and place of business have their heating apparatus, such as fire places, chimneys, wood stoves, gas heaters, oil heaters and their pipes, carefully cleaned, inspected and put into first class condition before the same is used. He especially warned against the use of kerosene and gasoline as a means of starting or quickening a fire, pointing out that many deaths and injuries have resulted by such carelessness.

Also, he warned against the use of gasoline for cleaning floors and clothes as such practice is likely to cause a fire and sudden death.

In these days, Mr. Mauk further stated, practically every householder is seeking ways and means to economize by reason of necessity, but warned that it is false economy to trust an amateur electrician and cheap electrical devices and that it is good common sense to consult with the city electrician on all matters pertaining to electrical installations, corrections or removal of electrical devices and appliances, pointing out that recent fire records reveal that many fires have occurred as a result of faulty electrical appliances and devices and improper installation.

Mr. Mauk concluded by saying, whenever in doubt about any matter pertaining to fire-safety, to consult with the local Fire Marshal, Fire Chief, Building Inspector, Gas Inspector, Electrical Inspector and others, as it is better to be safe than sorry.

the junior bands. After exerting themselves to the extent of playing for some time, they were served coffee and cakes. Some few were lucky enough to get some pie, but the ladies watched them pretty well.

The German Band seems to have satisfied a need for a smaller organization than the sixteen piece regular band. During last week they played on three occasions. Monday night the local post of the American Legion took the unique organization to Hedley to furnish music during a basket ball game between the Hedley post of the Legion and the firemen. On Wednesday night, the Palo Duro Society heard them at the local post of the American Legion. On Thursday night they performed at the Father and Son Banquet.

They realize that the German type of music is sure to grow old to the people in a short time. Consequently, some music of different types is to be ordered soon and the membership increased to about eight.

Farmers who poured gasoline into a hole where a 7-foot rattlesnake had been seen to disappear near Oakland Park, Fla., got surprising results. Not only did the big rattler come forth, but 49 young ones about two feet long came forth also. After a spirited battle with hoes, shovels and clubs, all the reptiles were killed without casualties to the farmers.

MY LIFE is worth $2.89 how about yours?

It leaps toward you—you hear the hot grinding of steel wheels—a bell frantically jangles. Tragic picture! Answer this question—would your tires grip the road—stop you in time?

Floyd Gibbons

HELLO EVERYBODY—Floyd Gibbons speaking. I always took one particular pride in the old U. S. A. and it was based on the fond belief that Americans have the highest standard of living of any people in the world and, also, we place the highest value on human life.

What a jolt that belief has just received! Could you imagine that human life is cheaper in the U. S. A. than in war-ridden China? Neither could I until the figures proved it to me.

Yes, sir, we killed more people right here in God's Country, in the same length of time, than were killed at Shanghai.

We weren't fighting a war. No, sir. Our killing and wounding was done in automobile accidents. Frightful!

I stopped at the Goodrich plant in Akron on my way home from Shanghai. They told me about a survey just made. It showed 57% of the cars in typical cities were operating on unsafe tires. Tires that invite disaster.

Where inches mean safety I began to understand why so many are killed and injured. Tires carry the weight of the car. They transmit the power. They do the braking. They do the steering. Fifty miles an hour on a few square inches of rubber—the sole link between you and the world—between you and safety!

I found out more at Akron. I found out what Goodrich has done to make this "safety link" safer.

Three years they've been at it. Developing a new tire. Testing formulas. Testing processes. Testing designs.

Now it's ready. They call it the SAFETY Silvertown. They say it's the safest tire ever built. They convinced me.

I saw them drop a heavy metal prong—like a guillotine—on this tire. They had to drop it 75 feet before it penetrated.

I stood in a room where the temperature was 120 degrees—The Torture Chamber—and saw machines strike these tires with steel cleats—hundreds of times a minute. They were duplicating driving conditions on the desert—proving these tires won't burst when super-hot.

Here's thrills for you! We went to a deserted stretch of road. Asphalt. Wet. There was a wedge-shaped corner. Sharper than a right-angle turn.

One of their test drivers brought a car down to that turn at 42 miles an hour. Then took it—without brakes. We saw puffs of steam come out from under those Safety Silvertowns as they clutched that glazed, wet pavement.

They literally burned the water off the street, leaving a clear, dry track behind them.

THEY DIDN'T SKID AN INCH! With thousands injured in skidding accidents every year, this is more than news—it's a SENSATION.

Then came the biggest surprise. I asked who could afford to buy Safety Silvertowns.

I'M FOR THIS LEAGUE, TOO! Here's something: The Silvertown Safety League. It gives me driving rules to follow—for safety. It gives me an emblem for my car. I joined up! My Goodrich dealer will enroll you, they tell me. No cost.

"They don't cost one cent more than any standard tire," I was told. "For instance, the price is $7.05 for the Ford and Chevrolet size. Of course, tires can be bought even cheaper than that.

"Others make them—Goodrich makes them, too—for as little as $4.16. But they are NOT Safety Silvertowns."

I'll save my neck! Let's figure it out—the difference between $7.05 and $4.16 is $2.89.

"Saving" $2.89 on a tire—that's what a lot of people are doing now.

And the toll of dead and injured mounts year after year!

No, thank you! With driving speeds what they are—with traffic what it is—with a few square inches of rubber the sole link with safety—I'll save $2.89 some other way!

Not on tires!

KATY PLANNING GARNER SPECIAL TO WASHINGTON

Jed Adams Urges Texas Hosts to Join in Rousing Inaugural Welcome.

A Real Texas Tribute Will Be Finest Train Ever. Garner May Ride with Texans to Capital.

The part played by Texas in the successful nomination of Roosevelt and Garner at the Chicago Convention will never be forgotten. The part played by Roosevelt and Garner in the triumphant Democratic national victory is a stirring chapter in the life of the Nation. Texas should taste the sweets of victory to the full by seeing with their own eyes the inauguration next March which, without doubt, will be recorded as a great moment in history.

history, Mr. Jed C. Adams believes thousands of Texans will want to witness this memorable event and perhaps have their children witness it and see the Nation's Capitol. The Passenger Department of M-K-T Lines already has started arrangements for the greatest special train or trains ever to leave the state. Vice President Garner himself will be invited to ride into Washington with his neighbors, friends and admirers. Rates, sale dates and return limits cannot yet be announced, but F. B. Griffin, General Passenger Agent of Katy Lines, assures eager inquirers that rates will be extremely popular, according to the best Democratic traditions. The train itself will be a masterpiece of luxury and comfort. As soon as details can be worked out, a sensational announcement will be forthcoming.—Adv.
