

PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS OF FOUR COUNTIES MEET HERE IN GENERAL INSTITUTE THIS WEEK

ABOUT THREE HUNDRED TEACHERS FROM CHILDRESS, HALL, COLLINGSWORTH, AND DONLEY COUNTIES ARE PRESENT AT INSTITUTE THIS WEEK. MANY PROMINENT EDUCATORS SPEAK AT MEETINGS. ADJOURNMENT TAKEN THIS AFTERNOON.

With an attendance of almost three hundred the first day and a growing attendance ever since, the institute for the public school teachers of Childress, Collingsworth, Hall and Donley counties that has been in session here since Monday and been a great success.

PINE ARTS FACULTY RECITAL HEARTILY ENJOINED BY LARGE AUDIENCE. The faculty recital given Monday evening by Misses Pirtle, Lane and Story was one of the best ever given by members of the Fine Arts department of Clarendon College.

Registration took place Monday morning. When this was finished, Dr. Eby gave an address that was a masterpiece of thought and delivery. In the afternoon shortly after lunch, the visitors were entertained with a program rendered by the pupils of the High School.

This was followed by a delightful number by Miss Pirtle, a Romance by Kenelle. Miss Pirtle was an artist at depicting the sadness of the nineteen year old girl who had had a fuss with her lover. Following a hearty applause, Miss Pirtle was forced to give another number; this time she gave with wonderful realism the Friday afternoon speechmaking of the school that all of us can recall.

Mrs. Phoebe K. Warner addressed the meeting Tuesday afternoon in her usual splendid manner. Other addresses of interest have been made by Miss Lillie Martin, of Waco and Dean Stuart Condora of Clarendon College. Mr. Condron addresses the meeting this morning.

Miss Mattie Eva Lane then gave Shure's Whip-poor-Will Polonaise. Not only is Miss Lane a master of execution, but the understanding and sympathetic spirit with which she enters into each number is caught by the audience from the strains of the piano; this number was highly pleasing.

Local talent has entertained the institute with vocal and instrumental solos and readings. Dr. Eby gave a splendid address last evening at the Methodist church on the subject of "Present religious unrest and Christian education."

In the following number that was rendered by Miss Story, the almost unlimited possibilities of the violin were shown. Of interpretation and execution Miss Story is an artist, and the hearty manner in which she was received by the audience was proved by the prolonged applause that made an encore necessary.

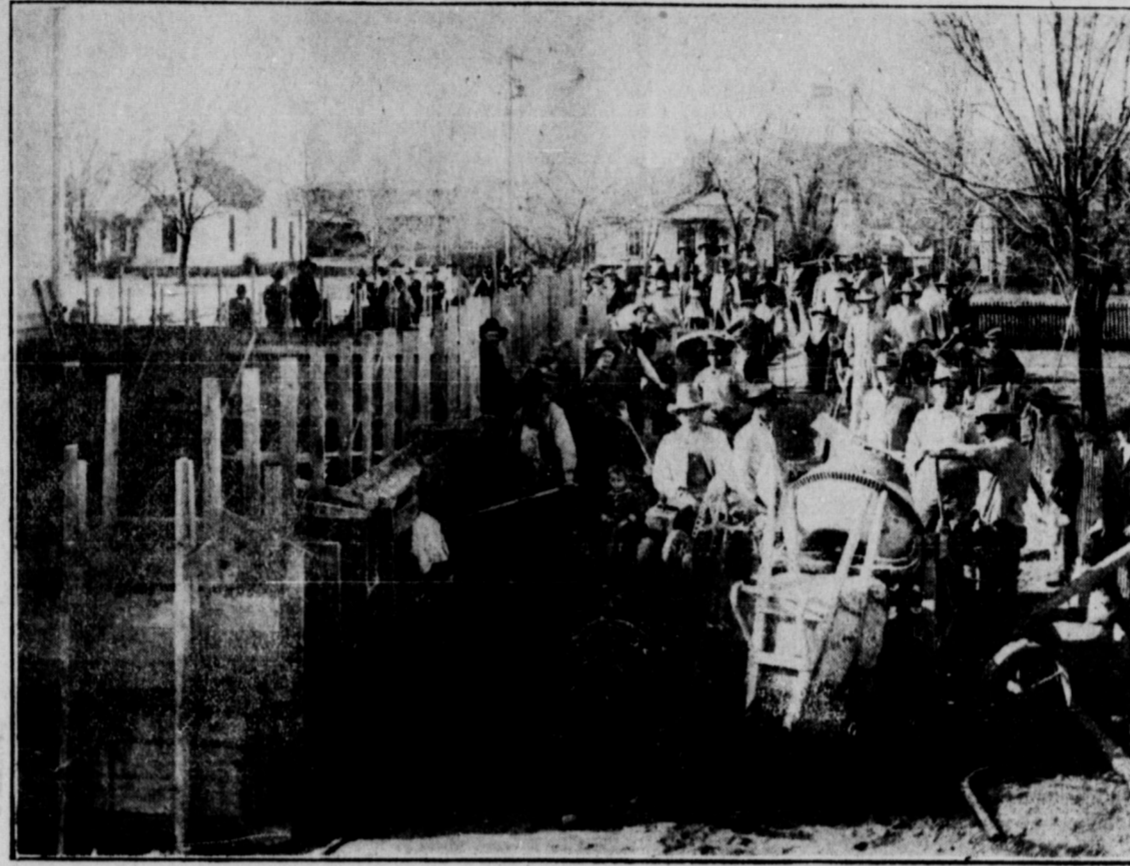

BEN CHAMBERLAIN PASSES TO FINAL REST MONDAY. A shock of sorrow went over Clarendon Monday night when it was learned that Ben Chamberlain had suddenly passed away. Mr. Chamberlain was out at the home of his son-in-law, Mart Kelly that evening. He complained to his relatives that he was not feeling well; he sat down and within a few seconds life was gone.

The closing number of the recital was one of the most dramatic ever seen here. It was a cutting from Sutherland's opera, Cherry Blossoms. It was a Japanese story similar to that of Madame Butterfly, but Miss Pirtle rendered the number in the same artistic manner as she had done the stories with the American setting. The musical accompaniment was furnished by Misses Story and Lane.

Herbert Schoelcraft, who for the past weeks has been suffering with a virulent case of the typhoid, is holding his own and resting very well this afternoon.

A large audience was present; and the hearty manner in which they received the numbers was evinced by the applause given each number. This is the second faculty recital given by members of the department of fine arts, the first having taken place recently when Miss Mabel Betts gave her organ recital assisted by Miss Story with the violin. Clarendon College is, indeed, to be congratulated upon the

Baptist Church Greatly Improved By Addition

Believing that Christ is the world's only hope and that it was the duty of all believers to co-operate in furthering the Master's business, eight persons, W. A. Cooper, R. H. Hall, J. W. Singletary, Mrs. C. J. Hall, Miss Laura Hall, Mrs. M. A. Singletary, Miss Kate Cooper, and Miss Kate Spacksy, on the 16th day of March 1890, organized the First Baptist Church of Clarendon. This little band elected the Rev. J. W. Brice as first pastor, and began work without a church home believing that all things needful in time would be provided.

The church's rapid growth has fully justified the faith and hopes of its pioneers. The membership has grown until now it numbers above four hundred. The frame church building erected in 1892 has been replaced by a $15,000 brick structure completed in the spring of 1914. In November 1921 under the leadership of the church's present pastor, Rev. J. A. Smith and its Sunday School Superintendent, O. C. Watson, the church voted to build an annex which under present plans more than doubles the floor space of the church and gives the needed additional room to the Sunday School.

In looking back over the church's history, W. P. Blake who has served the church as church clerk for more than twenty-five years recalls the revival held by Rev. Sid Williams as being a mountain peak in the church's progress, Rev. J. A. Smith, the church's present pastor, also recalls that Thanksgiving day this year was a great day for the church. On that day business men, professional men, farmers and their families gathered at the church and while the women prepared a real Thanksgiving dinner there at the church the men laid the foundations for the new annex. Indeed it was a great day not alone because of the work done but because of the Spirit of Fellowship, co-operation and worship shown by those gathered there that day.

Among the present membership of the church are a number of Donley county's "old timers" who have been members for twenty years or more. Their names are as follows: W. P. Blake, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Alexander, Mrs. S. E. Atterberry, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bourland, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Brumley, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Stevens, Mrs. S. D. Gentry, Mrs. Allie Rhoderick, Miss Lizzie Stevens and Mrs. Willie Taylor. Among others of the present membership who have been members for over fifteen years are J. H. Rutherford, W. A. Land and Mrs. E. A. Thompson.

CHURCHES OF CITY TO CELEBRATE XMAS EXPECTED J. A. RANCH SOON TO BE FARM LAND

CHRISTMAS TREES AND PAGEANTS CONSTITUTE THE CHIEF PART OF ENTERTAINMENT FOR SEASON. ORPHANS' WORK TO BE AIDED. The Sunday schools of the churches of the city will have Christmas programs and Christmas trees the latter part of this week.

FOLLOWING THE SETTLEMENT OF THE ADAIR ESTATE, IT IS BELIEVED THE EXECUTORS WILL BREAK UP THE BIG RANCH INTO FARMS. That the big ranches of the Panhandle will become a thing of the past before long now seems probable with the growing determination on the part of many of the ranchers to break the large tracts up into farms.

The members of the Christian Sunday school will have a Christmas tree Friday evening commencing at seven thirty o'clock. There will be a gift for every member of the church, and an attendance of all members is invited. Just before the presentation of the gifts, the ladies of the church will render an appropriate program.

The Christmas tree to be given by the Baptist Sunday school will be Saturday evening. A special program will be rendered by the children, and an invitation is extended to everyone to be present. Following the presentation of the presents, there will be taken a free will offering for Buckner's Orphans' home.

On Sunday evening the pageant will be given at the Presbyterian church. This will be an excellent program in keeping with the season, and everyone is invited to attend. By far the biggest thing yet attempted by the Methodist Sunday School in the way of a Christmas program will be given tomorrow evening, when the members of the Sunday School will present a pantomime, "At the Door of the Inn." The plot of the story is laid on the night of the nativity of Jesus Christ, and is an imposing spectacle.

The story of the prophet's foretelling Jesus Christ's birth is given as a prologue, then the pantomime begins with the well known story of the lack of room in the inn. In a manner that inspires reverence the story proceeds until the end which is the oft-quoted verse: "Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me." The music is in charge of Miss Mabel Betts.

The electrical effects add much to the presentation of the program, and this work will be in charge of R. M. Chunn. By agreement reached this afternoon the grocer, dry goods firms, ladies-ready-to-wear, men's clothing, and the banks of Clarendon will not open their doors Monday which will be the day after Xmas. It is presumed that the other stores will do likewise.

Asked directly regarding the future of the J. A. Ranch, Mr. Brown said: "I am not in position to speak authoritatively, but it is my judgment that the joint executors will have their work well rounded out within another thirty days and that ultimately the vast properties will be broken into tracts very much smaller than they include at the present. This is the general tendency, for the people are learning what intensive handling of the land in this section of the state means. In my judgment the day of the extraordinarily big ranch will soon become merely a memory."

Clarendon's merchant princes are proving themselves the equal of the best in the Panhandle in another way, that of arranging the show windows in an attractive manner. As the Christmas holidays draw near, the stores of this city are beginning to take on the holiday dress; and much originality is displayed in the arrangements made. Strickland-Story use paper with holly leaf decorations and small paper bells for the background of their display, which consists of all kinds of appropriate gifts of the season. T. M. Little uses a snowy white foundation for the display in his windows; a Christmas tree in the center is burdened with and surrounded by gifts. Silvery tinsel adds to the general effect. The Clarendon Mercantile uses fancy holiday paper designs for a background and border with snowy white trimmings. In the center of such a display is an assortment of beautiful and appropriate gifts.

For a number of years Mr. Brown has been associated with the White Deer Land Company, and although a native of England, has watched with much keener interest the developments in this Plains country than have many who are native Americans, and who might naturally be expected to be a trifle more closely in touch and in interest with the interests in their home country. Few if any men are more thoroughly posted on values of land, on the possibilities of farming, on the outlook for all this section than is Mr. Brown.

Baldwin Brothers use a gold background bordered with holly leaves for their display, which is made up of many suggestive and beautiful gifts. Hayter Brothers use some beautiful holiday paper designs as a border for their windows which are full of beautiful gifts suitable for men. Sitzer's Style Shop uses brown paper with a white cord for border as a background for windows which are filled with beautiful gifts for ladies. Stocking's Drug Store uses a glass background for their gift Kerbow's Xmas suggestions are along the line of home furnishings of the latest type. Rathjen uses the holiday paper figures as a background for a fine display of shoes. Goldston Brothers have a beautifully decorated window offering a fine selection of jewelry of the highest class. In the center of this is a large glass flower that makes an attractive showing when lighted at night. Hollis Spiller likewise has fashioned his window in pretty manner with a display of beautiful jewelry. Annis' Saddlery shop attractively decorates a window with such suggestions as belts, boots and spurs. Most of the merchants of the city are changing their window decorations daily.

DONLEY COUNTY P. P. C. QUOTA NOW RAISED

GEORGE RYAN, FINANCIAL MANAGER OF THE PANHANDLE PLAINS C. OF C. WILL ALSO ASK LIBERAL AMOUNTS FROM OTHER COUNTIES. George Ryan, who has assumed his duties as financial manager of the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce, reported yesterday that the Donley County quota of $300 to continue the work during the next six months had been raised.

NEW MUNICIPAL BAND TO ORGANIZE SHORTLY

This week the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce is mailing out letters to some fifty-odd young men in Clarendon who have been selected as prospective members of that organization. The letter explains the plan under which the band is to be organized and asks for information from the prospective member as to age, former band experience and instrument preferred. It is expected that about thirty young men with no musical training whatever will join the organization and that the coming winter months will be spent in drilling them in the rudiments of music and in becoming proficient on some instrument. Next spring some six or eight others who are good musicians will be added to the band after the beginners have been whipped into reasonable ability and the purpose is to give Clarendon a band of some thirty or forty pieces.

XMAS WINDOW DECORATIONS VERY PRETTY

CLARENDON MERCHANTS PROVE THE EQUAL OF ANYTHING IN PANHANDLE IN ARRANGING SHOW WINDOWS ATTRACTIVELY. Clarendon's merchant princes are proving themselves the equal of the best in the Panhandle in another way, that of arranging the show windows in an attractive manner.

Mr. Ryan's home is at Clarendon and this quota was obtained easily before he came to Amarillo to take up plans with officials in regard to work in other counties, it was said Monday. Potter County will be the next one on the list, and it will be asked to give $2,500 to carry the work until June 3, 1922, the end of the fiscal year.

The Chamber of Commerce proposes to secure and pay a director, teacher, and all the member is asked to do is to buy an instrument and come into the band with a determination to do his part in giving the city just such a musical organization that will reflect credit upon Clarendon and Donley County. Arrangements have been made whereby the instruments may be purchased on a monthly payment plan with only the cost of handling added to the actual cost of the instrument.

In case there are other young men who would like to become members and who haven't received a letter they may apply for membership to the Chamber of Commerce or see Mess. Braswell, Story or Simpson, the committee in charge. It is expected that the band will be formally organized about the first week in January and practice will begin on the arrival of the instruments.

Mr. Ryan was here yesterday conferring with a number of persons in regard to Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce work—Amarillo News. Miss Eva Patching, who is teaching in Amarillo this year, has returned to spend the holidays with her parents in this city. high type of artists that these young ladies are; and their work is getting most favorable results with the students.

Hon. D. B. Kimbrough of Amarillo, had business here last week.

Homer Mulkey returned last week from Dallas where he had business regarding the getting the films that he ordered. He is director of the Texas Exhibitors Association.

CORNELIUS-MARTIN. Miss Mina Martin and Ralph Cornelius were united in marriage at four o'clock Tuesday afternoon by Rev. J. A. Smith at the Baptist parsonage. The bride is the graceful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Martin east of this city and has lived here for the last four years. The groom has grown to young manhood here. Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius will probably farm the next year. A large circle of friends wishes for them many happy and prosperous years on the sea of matrimony.

IT CAN BE DONE

The writer who did this has become lost somewhere along the line. We put the quotation marks there anyway as our mark of respect to him who did it.

"Somebody scoffed: 'O, you'll never do that!'"

At least, no one ever has done it. But he took off his coat, and he took off his hat, and the first thing he knew he'd begun it.

With the lift of his chin and a bit of a grin,

If any doubt rose he forbade it; He started to sing as he tackled the thing.

That couldn't be done, and he did it."

We are offered federal and State aid on a gravel road, sell the bonds, while money is low on the bond market, let our farmers and everyone willing, earn money now while it is much needed. Money put in circulation helps everyone, idle money never has done any good for the one who owns it, and more especially those who need it. Don't forget a full dinner pail produces happiness and an empty one misery and degradation, so let us get busy now as the accepted time.

Chamber of Commerce.

FARMERS SEEKING RELIEF

It may or may not be that the relief sought by the farmers of the United States will come through the American Farm Bureau Federation, but it is certain that many of them think so. This accounts for the fact that thousands are signing up the contracts expressed in terms of the federation.

That the farmers are entitled to relief goes without saying. This may be a fact in the absence of the added fact that there may or may not be any other one class of society at fault. It is a hopeful attitude in the American Farm Bureau Federation that the ablest workers in that organization, have in mind the one paramount idea: The welfare of the farmers and not the detriment of other classes in society. It is equally lamentable that in days past, promoters of organizations, the underlying idea of which was to help the farmers, allowed their own work to be nullified, vitiated and wasted through the fact that hatred for all others found a place in their propaganda.

The farmers are still looking for a medium through which their own best interests may be conserved. Happily, the most advanced leadership of the medium that is now being looked to for this relief, has risen above the element of pettiness. A broad and comprehensive program has been outlined, and this is being offered to the producers on the farm, with the hope that it may meet their problems and assure solution.

In the event that inherent weaknesses shall develop, unquestionably there will be a considerable measure of sound materials carrying over from the present structure, to be of much use in erecting a building that will withstand the attacks of adverse mental attitudes.

Other classes of society or subdivisions of humanity engaged in lines of similar endeavor have long since discovered the advantage of affiliation. These subdivisions have waded or are wading through the slough of failure, to the firmer foundations of success. It is therefore only to be expected that the farmers should have similar trials in their efforts to secure a machine or vehicle that will carry them to the desired goal of legitimate and profitable co-operation.

HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION

Secretary Hoover of the department of commerce has urged the governors of various states to let as many contracts as possible for highway construction. His purpose, it is stated, is not to suggest that states in the North enter on road building in winter, but he points out that if contracts are let now they will provide a basis upon which contractors can order tools, machinery and supplies. Winter work will result from these orders, and to that extent unemployment will be relieved. In the South much road construction may continue right through the winter with little interruption.

Colonel Arthur Woods of the President's conference on unemployment, is authority for the statement that of the seventy-five million dollars provided in the act of Nov. 9, last to aid highway construction in the various states, $24,375,000 is now available and $8,750,000 will be available on Jan. 1, next, these amounts being addition to the unexpended balance of $68,500,000 from former acts giving federal aid in highway construction, making a total of $141,625,000. The several states are expected to match these funds to the extent of at least $125,000,000.

The bureau of public roads has figured, it is announced, showing that other state and county road construction, in which the federal government will not participate, will bring the grand total of funds for road construction in 1922 to $600,000,000, exclusive of street construction in cities.

"This country has a sufficient width in latitude to make outdoor work possible in some part of it all the year around," said Colonel Woods, "and there never was a time when this advantage could be used to more benefit to the people of the United States than right now."—Ft. Worth Record.

Miss Annie Myra Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bennett, returned Sunday morning from Nashville Tennessee where she attended Ward-Balmsont. Miss Bennett is highly pleased with that school and will return there after the holidays.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF CITIZENSHIP

Any reader of the newspapers will be quite certain that there is an unusual amount of lawlessness, strikes, suspicion and distrust.

Here are some of the headlines in yesterday's Tribune: "Another Victim Claimed by Fear"; "Father of Two Sons Killed at Wortham, Dies"; "Nurse Slays Black as He Attacks Her"; "Troops Will Halt Women—Militant Wives of Kansas Miners Keep Up Campaign"; "Negro Shot by Packer Strikers"; "Disorder Marks Effort to Open Virginia Mines."

And so the current history of our country is being written from day to day in the news dispatches.

One may well inquire into what the future holds if this condition is not checked.

This is an alarming condition, and it calls for a robust determination on the part of good citizens of all walks of life that these things must stop. They cannot be stopped absolutely, but no one will argue that there is any justification for so much disturbance.

There will arise without question many different opinions as to the best remedy. One group will blame the other. The employe will blame the employer and the employer will blame the employe. The slayer will blame the slain and so on.

Seldom does there arise one who will accept his responsibility as a citizen for the prevalence of these conditions.

Then there are those who will clamor for a lot of new laws. Organizations will be formed to draft resolutions deploring our present state of affairs. Campaigns will be instituted and propaganda will be sent out by the wholesale.

The trouble with all such remedies is that they are proposed on the basis of a false diagnosis.

We don't need additional laws so much as we do a profound respect for and a strict enforcement of our existing statutes.—Amarillo Tribune.

LIGHT PLANT GIVING BEST SERVICE IN ITS HISTORY

Clarendon first had electric service in 1902 when George Washington installed a small dynamo. An old type of generator producing 1,100 volts was used, and this was driven by an upright steam engine of about seventy horsepower. Washington did not find the venture a financial success, and he sold to the city in the best form that he could. The city then turned the operation of the plant to George Latimer, who ran the ice factory. The plant was operated by Latimer some two or three years, and then Spittle took charge of the plant. These are about the facts of the early history of the plant.

But today the plant is well equipped, and the city is enjoying excellent service. The Texas Gas and Electric Company bought the plant in 1916, and operated it until this year when it was sold to the Texas Central Power Company, the latter company taking over the operation of the plant on the first of November.

The plant today has three engines, fifty, one hundred and one hundred and fifty horsepower in size. The switchboard is so wired that any two of the engines may run at the same time, and when the two large engines are running they carry a load of 140 kilowatts, or practically two hundred horse power. The voltage is held at twenty-three hundred all the time.

The one hundred horse power engine was installed in 1907, and for twelve years pulled the load of the city almost constantly. In 1912 the fifty horse power engine was installed, and it was used only in case of emergency or when the load is light. The finest engine of the lot was installed last year, it is of one hundred and fifty horse power capacity, and runs with remarkable smoothness.

C. C. Cope is the chief engineer and J. H. Casey and John Riddle are the shift engineers. Monty Garrison is lineman for the company and Mrs. T. J. Allen is the treasurer.

The company also has a fine well in their building, and it was this well that supplied the city last week when the water works operated by the city broke down.

Under the present operation of the plant Clarendon is enjoying excellent service, and the plant is capable of supplying much greater power and lights than the city demands today.

Christmas Greetings

I am thinking of you today, because it is Christmas, and I wish you happiness. And tomorrow, because it is the day after Christmas, I shall still wish you happiness; and so on, clear through the year. I may not be able to tell you about it every day because I will not be with you or the both of us may be very busy, or perhaps I may not be able to pay the postage on so many cards or find the time to write them. But that makes no difference, the thought and wish will be there just the same. In my work and in the business of life I mean to try not to be unfair to you or injure you in any way. In my pleasure, if I have any, I would like to share the fun with you. Whatever joy or success that comes to you will make me glad.

Although one of the thousand tiny wires through which you talk may separate and cause trouble or one of our HUMAN OMISSIONS or thoughtless acts may cause an apparent friction. But remember it will never be intentional for we will always strive to do our best and to please.

Without pretense, and in plain words, good will to you is what I mean.

BOOSTER CLASS HAS A FINE MEETING

The Loyal Booster Class had its regular meeting at the home of W. J. Parsons Tuesday evening at 7:15. There was a good number present, but many of the members were out of town. The regular business was attended to and the sick reported to the class. Arrangements were made for Christmas and other business matters adjusted. The devotionals were then taken up by the leader of devotions and the seventh chapter of Revelations was commented upon by him. Many expressed themselves that they were very much pleased with the study of the Revelation letter and wanted to continue its study right on to the close of the book. There is a spiritual uplift in every lesson and those who attend are always benefitted by the study. The class continues its enthusiasm with ever increasing zeal to do good and help others. This class helps in almost every department of the church life, not confining its work to any particular line of work.

DONLEY GETS CAR OF FINE DAIRY COWS

DAIRY CAMPAIGN IS GROWING IN PROPORTIONS AS THE FARMERS OF THIS COUNTY RECEIVE THIRTY PURE BRED DAIRY COWS.

That Donley will become as successful as a dairying county as in other lines now seems assured with the arrival of a car of pure bred dairy cows. Everyone of these cows is a milk and butter producer of high type. The bankers of the county have expressed themselves as being ready to help their customers to secure cattle of this type. County Agent R. W. Hendrix is highly pleased with the interest that is being shown in the campaign, and he feels that the agricultural work of the county will be much better with the addition of these fine stock. In regard to the matter he says:

"Many of our Donley County bankers have expressed their faith in dairy cows, by declaring that they were the best thing the farmer could buy to tide his family over these strenuous times. They have said further that they would advance money to any of their industrious customers with which to purchase good dairy cows. These bankers base their faith in the dairy cow on the fact that practically every former customer who had as many as four good dairy cows in use on their place, got thru this year without securing a loan from any source. "One of our good bankers of long experience remarked to me not long ago that in his years of banking, he had never seen a foreclosure made on a man who had as many as four dairy cows on his place, and who produced his meat and poultry products at home.

"For sometime an effort has been made to get the people interested in dairying, because we know that the dairy cow will bring a steady income and keep the wolf from the door. Our soil is not as fertile as it once was. Can you look around you and see fields that once produced grain in abundance and are now badly washed and blown? There will be a time when every acre of land in Donley county will be in that condition if we continue to cultivate and not give livestock a place on the farm. This is not critical now, but in a few years it will be, when our soil gets unproductive and we find it impossible to make it raise stuff in paying quantities. We will then thru sheer necessity revolutionize our system of farming as they have done in the old States, but it would be much more convenient to begin now to grow into a new sane system of agriculture. I believe every reader will join me in believing in the old adage, "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," and can see where it should be applied in this connection.

Interest in dairying is spreading rapidly. Our first car of good grade dairy cows arrived in the county this week. They are 3 and 4 gallon cows or better. There was thirty in all with a good bunch of heifer calves following them. If these cows are taken care of, and mated to first class pure bred bulls out of record dams, this will be the dawn of a new era for Donley County in the dairy industry and for rural thrift. In the course of a few years the products and increase from these cows will mean thousands of dollars for the farmers of this county. This is only the beginning; and it is likely that many more dairy cows will be secured.

"Our local expressman has agreed to make an honest effort to get a better rate on the shipment of cream to market. Many farmers are shipping cream and making money on it as the rates are now, and have been even when the price was much lower than it is now. In the old states many farmers ship cream several hundred miles to market, they pay freight, are having feed shipped to them from the west. A high lease or high tax on high priced land and still make money, or at least they stay in the business."

W. L. Mulkey, of Chillicothe, is here visiting his brother, Homer and family.

Merry Christmas

IN THE true spirit of the occasion and with due appreciation of all it implies, we extend Christmas greetings to the readers of The News. Christmas has a meaning possessed by no other holiday. America has its national and special days, other countries have theirs; Christmas is the only one alike in spirit and celebrated in all Christian lands. So pure is its principle that it commands respect and admiration among people who worship their Creator in different ways from ours.

THE makers of newspapers, concerned as they are with the doings, manifestations and thoughts of their respective communities and the world at large, and recording them in their more important aspects for the information, mayhap the education of readers, are brought into an intimate sense of the spirit and meaning of Christmas. Would that we could express to you all the good that we see in the hearts of men and the increased brilliancy behind a few shadows of the light which has upheld the world for so many centuries. In the happy auguries we see for the future, there is every reason to be merry.

OUR Yuletide thoughts go out to the people of this community and our thanks are due the patrons and kind friends who have given us practical support or extended encouragement during the year. May this be the best Christmas you have ever spent.

NOTES FROM THE CHURCH OF CHRIST

The best thing I shall say in this note is that our dear Brother Little is now improving, on the way to his normal health, for which we are all very thankful. We hope and pray for his speedy recovery for we miss him so much from church. He loved the church. He sacrificed for it. The church loved him, and will do anything possible to contribute to his happiness.

We are very sorry that Brother Little will not be able to attend the coming debate, between Brother Tyn-dall and Brother Cooley, that begins the 29th of December. He has looked forward with anxious anticipation to the pleasant and profitable time we expect at that debate. We are looking for 15 or 20 preachers. As school teachers are interested in their institute work, so are the preachers in Bible themes. "Does the New Testament afford proof of instrumental music in the divine worship?" That is the question. Come out and hear these men offer their arguments. Pro and con on the subject. Read the Bible for yourself. Be your own judge and jury in the case and you should be well satisfied with your verdict.

We had a fine service last Lord's day. Four people took membership with the church. I go to Lelia Lake Sunday. Three services with dinner on the ground is the order of the day. As it will be Christmas day we are expecting a happy day. Come and enjoy it with us. Bring your little folks. We will have something to say that will be interesting and helpful to them as well as entertaining. The old year of 1921 will soon be numbered with the eternal past. Many of our dear friends have passed with it. One we too must soon pass that way. But lets keep busy till we are called. Make the world better by your having lived in it. There is plenty for all to do. The doctors have charge of the body, the school teachers have charge of the mind and the preachers have charge of the soul.

These public servants need our sympathy and our co-operation and our prayers, especially the last named. There is a time to all things. Be sure you are right then go ahead. Come over and get acquainted with us.

Thos. E. Millholland, Minister of the church of Christ, Worshipping at the corner of 3rd and Carhart, St., Clarendon, Texas.
