

ALL CLARENDON BUSINESS HOUSES TO CLOSE ALL DAY TOMORROW HON- ORING THE HEROES OF WORLD WAR

EVERY BUSINESS FIRM IN CITY SIGNS AGREEMENT TO KEEP BUSINESS CLOSED ALL DAY LONG THAT EMP-LOYEES MAY USE THE TIME AS THEY SEE FIT.
PROCLAMATION OF MAYOR ASKS FOR SILENT PRAY-ER AT HIGH NOON.

By an agreement reached among the business men Tuesday afternoon when they signed an agreement carried around by Secretary Mc-Cardell, all of the Clarendon business houses will be closed all day tomorrow—Armistice Day. There has been arranged no formal program for the day, but many of the ex-soldiers will attend the reunion in Amarillo; and the day will be observed by the closed business in memory of the boys who made the supreme sacrifice and the others who made possible a world of peace.

This is the first time in many months that Clarendon has acted as a unit on a matter, and it is good to see the spirit of co-operation when all of the citizens act together in such manner.

The following proclamation has been issued by Mayor McLean:

Whereas—in the Providence of God, we are at peace with the nations of the world, and

Whereas: On November the 11th the representatives of the greater nations of the world shall convene in Washington in conference on Disarmament; and,

Whereas: This conference might prove, under God, to be a long stride toward a warless world;

Therefore I, A. W. McLean, Mayor of the City of Clarendon, make the following proclamation:

That at high noon Friday, Nov.
the 11th the citizens of Clarendon pause for two minutes of silent prayer for God's blessing not only on our beloved country but also on this International Conference.

Witness my signature this 5th day of November 1921.

A. W. McLean.

Wayne Davis, Commander of the Texas department of the American Legion, also makes the following statement:

On the 11th day of November we will celebrate the third anniversary of the greatest historical event this era of civilization has ever known—Armistice Day—that day when our efforts, combined with those of our Allies, forced our enemies to lay down their arms in defeat to the everlasting glory of American manhood and the principles for which it stands. We, as members of the American Legion of Texas, should therefore strive to perpetuate the sentiments which were foremost in our hearts on that great day, the anniversary of which we will soon be called upon to celebrate; both of joy and of thanksgiving for our triumph in arms and the victory of the principles for which we fought, together with the solemn thought and sacred memory of our fallen brothers who made the supreme sacrifice, and who, by their unselfish giving of their all, have made this great day possible.

We have another battle yet to fight and win, the great battle of peace, the fighting and winning of which will make our country one of peaceful homes and contented and progressive citizenship. We have gone too far to turn back. We must advance, and, advancing, strive to teach those with whom we mingle, the beauty and glory of One Hundred per cent Americanism, and the deep sense of satisfaction which a man only attains by absolute loyalty to his flag.

I therefore, as Commander of the American Legion of the Department of Texas, do hereby proclaim the week beginning November 4th and ending November 11th, as Americanization Week, and do hereby instruct each Post in Texas and each individual member in this State to take such action in their respective communities as will impress the citizenship thereof with our honesty of purpose and hope of improvement in attaining One Hundred Per Cent Americanism throughout the Nation.

I do hereby also proclaim November 11, 1921, as Armistice Day, hereby instructing each Post of the American Legion in Texas and authorizing each of said Posts to hold such suitable programs in their respective localities as they may deem proper, keeping in mind that it is both a day of joyous thank-

FORMER RESIDENT OF CLARENDON DIES IN AMARILLO

The facts of the death of Judge J. N. Browning which occurred at Amarillo yesterday morning are given in this morning's issue of the Amarillo News. Judge Browning was seemingly well at the time that he left the Elks' club Tuesday evening for his rooms. Yesterday morning he was found dead in his bed, the coroner's verdict being a death from heart failure. As his body was not entirely cold, it was thought that his death took place some time late in the night.

Judge Browning was one of the most widely known characters in the Panhandle, having held many important offices; he was lieutenant governor from 1898 until 1902. He was a member, at another time, of the House of Representatives. From 1907 until 1915, he was District Judge of this district.

He made Clarendon his home from 1888 until 1896. A full account of his life will appear in the next issue of the News.

REMAINS OF E. R. TAT- UM INTERRED THURSDAY

Funeral services were held at the First Baptist church Thursday afternoon for E. R. Tatum who had passed away at ten o'clock the previous evening. The services were conducted by Rev. J. A. Smith, pastor of the Baptist church; and following this interment took place at the Citizens' Cemetery with Masonic rites.

Deceased was born in Tennessee.
He came to Texas when a young man and made his home at Bruceville. It was there that he was married to Miss Frances Bruce.

Fifteen years ago Mr. Tatum moved to Clarendon. At first he engaged in business, but later he went into the employ of the Ft.
Worth and Denver as an efficient operator.

For the past two years, Mr. Tatum had been in ill health, and the sad end was not altogether unexpected.
Deceased was a member of the Masonic fraternity and of the Baptist church.

The deceased is survived by his wife, three daughters, Misses Lucile and Frances and Mrs. C. J. Douglas; and four sons, Benton, Lucien, Henry and Robert; and two sisters, Mesdames Mamie Sturgess and Lillie Platt. Deceased leaves a wide circle of friends who mourn his departure and extend a message of condolence and sympathy to the bereaved.

MISS RUTH STOCKING NOW IN WASHINGTON

Miss Ruth Stocking now has a position in Washington with the Agricultural Board of Inquiry. She has gone there from New York where she has been for several months with the Walter Thompson Co., as a compiler of statistics. Miss Stocking's excellent work in mathematics equips her for the success that she is making as a statistician; and her most recent work was a compilation for the Thompson Company of facts on the distribution of the population of the United States. Her work with the Agricultural Board will be of the same nature.

Mrs. H. W. Clutter and little daughter, Margaret Elizabeth, and niece, Geraldine Howe, of Dalhart returned home Wednesday after a visit with the former's sister, Mrs.
W. L. Landers.

Miss Heroize Burrella visited with friends at Goodnight the last week end.

giving and also one sacred to the memories of those who did not return.

mander.

PASTORS FORM ASSOCIATION

PASTORS OF FOUR CHURCHES
FORM ASSOCIATION UPON
CALL OF REV. FOSTER.

The pastors of the Presbyterian, the Methodist, the Baptist and the Christian Churches met Friday afternoon upon the call of Rev. W. H.
Foster, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, and formed a Pastors' Association. The pastors of the other churches had other business at the time, and it is expected that they will join at the next meeting of the association. Among other things attended to, it was agreed that there should be Thanksgiving services in the various churches on the Sunday morning following Thanksgiving Day rather than attempt hold services on that day.

There are no regular set times for the meeting of the association as yet, but meetings will be subject to call of the president, which duty devolves upon Rev. Foster as he was elected the Chairman.

The pastors of the other churches of the city and any preachers are given invitations to become members. The further objects of the association in furthering the church work in every way possible will be worked out at the meetings continue. Those present at the initial meeting were: Rev. W. H. Foster, pastor of the Presbyterian Church;
Rev. J. A. Smith, pastor of the Baptist Church; Rev. Sam J. White, pastor of the Christian Church; and Dr. J. T. Griswold, pastor of the Methodist Church.

PLAY GIVEN BY D. S. GIRLS IS SUCCESS

The girls of Clarendon College who are studying domestic science gave a play Monday evening under the direction of Miss Ruby Fincher, teacher of Domestic Science and Art.
The title of the play was "Aunt Maggie's Will," and it was an interesting little story of how a wealthy spinster left her entire fortune to her nephew provided he married a competent housekeeper.
Then the way by which his fiancee met the requirements was by studying the household arts. Suffice to say that the young lady persevered, and the realization of the wedding soon to take place was the climax.

Many comical situations there were throughout the play; and everyone of the characters performed her part more than well. Music between acts was furnished by the College string quartet under the direction of Miss Beatrice Story, and their performance was greatly enjoyed by the audience. A good sized audience was in attendance.

MRS. HENDRIX HOSTESS TO KILL KARE KLUB

Mrs. Roy Hendrix was the delicious hostess to the Kill Kare Klub Friday afternoon. The guests came attired in the dress of their girlhood years, and more interest was added to the entertainment by the pictures taken in babyhood of each guest. These pictures were numbered and placed in a room, and the guests tried their luck at guessing whose picture was each. Mrs.
W. T. Hayter was successful in guessing the largest number of the pictures and was awarded an immense all day sucker. Mrs. Jim Adams received consolation which was a tiny all day sucker. A delicious salad course was served.

FOUR COUNTY MEDICAL MEET HERE FRIDAY

The doctors of Hall, Childress, Collingsworth and Donley counties will meet here Friday afternoon at one thirty o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. building. This is a meeting of the four county medical society, and the topic for discussion at this time will be cancer. All citizens who are interested in hearing this dreadful disease discuss have been invited to be present.

W. P. Cagle returned yesterday morning from an extended trip over the Southland during which he was present at the Old Confederates' reunion at Chattanooga Tennessee.
Later, he was at Atlanta, Georgia during President Harding's visit there; and as well he attended a big shrine ceremonial. He returned home feeling fine over his wonderful trip.

L. J. Perry, of Miami, was here Monday on business.

PARIS GAY AFTER ARMISTICE WROTE CAPT. SIMPSON

Now that we are approaching the third anniversary of the signing of the Armistice that ended the greatest war in history, we like to recall the feelings that we experienced in those moments. All of the world joined in one grand hallelujah chorus; and the extract from the following letter from Capt. Simpson to home folks, which we are allowed to publish through the courtesy of Mr.
Simpson, gives a vivid description of the celebration in Paris. The letter was dated Nov. 13th, 1918.

"Since I wrote you last the Armistice has been signed and the Great War is at an end. Oh, Dear, how fortunate I have been to be here, to have taken a part in this great conflict, to have suffered honorable wounds even though it has caused me a 1000 hours of agony and above all to have been here in Paris convalescent and able to move around on the night and the succeeding days since Peace was declared.
Dear, you cannot imagine the scene in this city the night Peace came.
It is the 3rd largest city on earth, for 52 months these people have been wrapped in blackest despair and in daily, hourly expectation of capture and pillage. Since 1871 they have suffered under the story of ignominious defeat, then suddenly, unexpectedly came victory, a great victory. Greater than they had ever dreamed of. The utter collapse of their hated enemy, the sudden breaking of the sun through the awful blackness of the darkest storm cloud, like a giant spring long compressed. The long depressed volatile, gay French spirit sprang into life.

For the past three days and nights these wonderful streets, and courts, the Champelyses, Place De La Cour-cours, the Opera, the Medline and others have been filled with a surging, shouting, singing mass of humanity, so dense that all traffic, Government and otherwise was suspended. It was impossible to move except at the will of the crowd.
Everyone laughed, sang, shouted, shrieked, wept, danced. It was a pandemonium of mad joy. Bands paraded, flags were everywhere, French, British, American.
It seems America is the favorite with the French. The sight of an American soldier, buck private or General was the sign for a new demonstration. Everywhere one went, old fussy whiskered Frenchmen grabbed us, kissed us on cheek and then the other toddling children clung to our knees and girls and women hung to our Sam Brown belts crying "vive Le America Saviour of France."

Cannons roared, whistles blew, fire works exploded, bells rang, over head hundreds of air planes soared and swooped dropping colored bombs of inflated silk bearing victorious legends. All Paris was the Ante Bellum Paris. Street lights for 52 months dark sprang into a blaze of light. Champagne and wine flowed like a river. Everywhere was insane joy.

With 3 other American officers I got into a taxi buggy with top down and got caught in a jam and it took us one hour and 13 minutes to go one block. We sat on the edge of the buggy staring wide eyed at the marvelous scene. While in the jam, I do not think I would exaggerate if I should say that 200 French girls climbed into the back to kiss us by force of arms. It was not us only, but every American soldier was kissed by 3 men, women, boys and girls. Hobson in all his glory was never so kissed as any American soldier who happened to be in Paris on the now historic night of Nov. 11, 1918.

On these 3 past days and nights Paris has been the center of the Universe and right well has it played the part of host. As I write now, just outside the window of this hotel, an immense concourse of people have blocked all passage in front of the Grand Opera house, one of the most colossal buildings on earth and in the upper gallery a great French Prima Donna is singing "The Marsellaise," accompanied by a British band of 50 pieces. It has been wonderful to be here.

Editor S. M. Braswell left this morning for Houston where he will attend an executive session of the Texas Press Association.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lott, Mrs. J. W.
Watts and Miss Mabel Claire Betts were Amarillo visitors the latter part of last week.

LUNCHEONITES FAVOR CLOSING BUSINESS 11TH

MATTER OF SUPPORTING COL-LEGE IN ATHLETICS IS ALSO TAKEN CARE OF. PROM-INENT VISITORS ARE PRE-SENT.

The business men at the Tuesday Luncheon went on record as favoring closing the businesses of this city for some time at least on Armistice Day which is tomorrow.
Other matters discussed were the matter of assisting the athletic department of the College in defraying the expenses of the game which is to be played here the 18th. Secretary McCordell announced that after all expenses had been paid, there was left a balance of about sixty dollars out of the prize money received at the Dallas Fair.

Prof. H. T. Burton, athletic coach for Clarendon College, was present at the luncheon and presented the facts of the expense that will be incurred by the football game on Home Coming day at Clarendon College. Mr. Burton said that this year, the college will play seven collegiate football games, four of them with senior colleges. The game here on the 18th of November will cost about $350, and it is only by the loyal support of the business men of the town that the College is able to offer such games.
The business men will be asked either to close between the hours of three and five, or buy at least two tickets. Several of the business men present at the luncheon expressed themselves as ready either to close or to buy the tickets.

The matter of closing the business houses tomorrow was discussed, and the luncheonites voted to go on record as favoring closing at least part of the day. They made it plain that they were not acting in an arbitrary manner, but that they would solicit the other men to close tomorrow, and also to close or buy tickets for the game here next week.
Hon. W. H. Childress, district attorney, was present, and addressed the meeting with a spicy talk which was greatly enjoyed by everyone.

The meeting was a particularly lively one, as everyone seemed in the best of spirits; and during the dinner, which was a fine one, they viewed each other at telling jokes.
Nearly fifty men were there.

SEVERAL FIRES IN CLAR- ENDON THE PAST WEEK

This city was the scene of several fires last week; none of them large, but nevertheless destroying the property where they broke out. The first was at the garage of Sheriff Rutherford in southeast Clarendon Saturday afternoon. The building was small and could not be saved by the time that the fire engine arrived there. Monday afternoon the barn of L. McWhorter in east Clarendon burned as did also the pump house in the east part of the Ft.
Worth and Denver yards. Yesterday afternoon a fire that destroyed some clothes broke out in a cleaning establishment near the ice plant.
In all these instances inadequacy of the Clarendon water system was proved, for the water mains reached no one of the sites of the fires.

CHUNN AND ELMORE TRADE THEIR LANDS

A deal was consummated the last week whereby Frank Elmore became the owner of the Dick Chunn place immediately east of this city, while Mr. Chunn becomes the owner of 160 acres of land formerly owned by Mr. Elmore twelve miles north of Clarendon. The trade had been in the making for some time. Mr.
Elmore plans to move to town. Mr.
Chunn will continue to make his home here rather than move to his newly acquired lands.

Tom Bromley left last week for San Antonio where he will make his home. Mr. Bromley was an old student of engineering in the University of Texas, and in his new home he has been made some attractive offers by large construction companies. He will follow work of this nature.

J. M. Mann left Sunday for his home in Los Angeles, California after a visit of some time in the Panhandle of Texas. While here he visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Blocker.

COUNTY COURT DOCKET IS VERY HEAVY ONE

Several cases of importance were disposed of in the County Court the first of this week. Other civil cases of more than ordinary inmencing the 21st, and as well several gaming cases will be tried. The jury has been called for that week.

The case of T. H. Hughston v. Bell Brook, a suit on a grain deal has been set for the 18th of this month by agreement.

The cases disposed of this week and to be disposed of later are: W.
S. West v. M. P. White, suit for

As well as the work that is being done by the county court, the Commissioners' Court will convene next Monday; the main business to come before that body, as well as checking the quarterly reports, is the approval of the tax rolls which have been completed and are ready to be sent to Austin when they have been approved.

Hon. W. H. Childress was in Clarendon the first of the week on business.

Miss Anna Moores is visiting in Slowly the rediscount rate of the Federal Reserve Banks is dropping to old levels. This means in easier condition of credit and should do much to make 1922 a good business year. Everybody ought to get ready for big business in the new year. Easier money opens the way for prosperity.

Last week the News editor made a hurried trip down state to Waco. Enroute home he passed through Grandview just about dark. Our readers will remember Grandview as the city almost totally destroyed by fire over a year ago. Imagine this writer's surprise when we saw street lights twinkling in all the streets of that city arising from the ashes. Strange it is that a city so in debt from their disaster should stand for a city administration that would pay out good money for street lights. Such recklessness is hard to imagine. Surely the officials are spendthrifts and the citizenship so covered with moss that the error hasn't been noticed yet. And that was in a section usually referred to here in the Panhandle as "down in the sticks."

Tomorrow at high noon every person in these United States who loves liberty, who loves mankind and who reveres the martyred dead, should observe the request to pause for TWO MINUTES and offer prayer for world disarmament, with face turned toward the west. It's a little thing, but it looks toward the greatest movement for Peace that has ever been attempted by man. Great accomplishments and blessings for the race have often hinged upon little matters. Let us do our part.

Several days ago we heard a former member of the legislature telling of his experiences while visiting the various state institutions at Austin. He told of seeing a band organized at the deaf and dumb institute and of hearing them after many months render splendid music. Not to be outdone the head of the blind institute organized an art class among his charges and how one small boy drew and carved out an inlaid map of the United States, almost perfect in detail and how others learned to draw and paint with great skill. The lesson to be drawn from these incidents is that no person ought to be discouraged or down-hearted on account of so-called physical handicaps. To the one in whose heart burns the bright fire of ambition and who has the will to work, there is no handicap. Experiences such as related by the gentleman referred to above are such as to bring shame upon every person who cries he "didn't have a chance" or that "everything was against him" in the vain effort to make excuse for failure. Look up, man, woman, boy or girl; turn your faces to the rising sun. Look eagerly to the morrow and with a steady eye, and an arm firm with determination seize Opportunity and fashion it into success.

Very few men, Democrat or what not, are in full agreement with Mr. Bryan on matters political, but from the standpoint of morals he is nearly always sound as a dollar and as clear as a bell in his utterances. Last week in an eastern city Mr. Bryan delivered a lecture in which he took occasion to point out the present day tendency to forget God and belittle the teachings of the Bible. Mr. Bryan took the so-called "higher critics" to task for their materialistic viewpoints and declared that nowhere is the Bible in disagreement with true science. Several of the leading churches have been having trouble with a few "high-brows" who claim to be critics of the scriptures. Here in Texas the Methodist church has been trying to purge itself of the teachings of Dr. Rice of S. M. U., at Dallas, who maintains that much of the Old Testament is made up of legends and folk-lore, and who says that many of the old prophets were "wandering dervishes." He also takes a very rationalistic view of the super-natural events recorded in the Bible. His position is practically the same as that held by teachers in Chicago University, a great Baptist school. The cheering view of the whole matter is that in every denomination so afflicted there has arisen great majorities of ministers and laymen who stand flat-footed and boldly declare their belief in the whole Bible as the inspired word of God, openly condemning such false teaching. Dr. Rice has resigned his post with S. M. U., and other churches will have similar success with their own cancers as they stand firmly for the Old Book—the Rock of Ages that has withstood every attack and whose teachings are girding the globe with the healing of the Prince of Peace. The News is glad that Mr. Bryan is using his talents to the defense of the Bible and the Christian religion. We repeat what we have said before, that if Mr. Bryan had been a Methodist preacher instead of a political leader, he would have been a bishop.

NEWSPAPERS MAKE MEN
Many people imagine that the prominence of great men is due entirely to their own genius. But it is not so.

In this age the most brilliant of men would be practically unknown except for the work of the press in following their careers step by step and reporting them, to the country at large. Newspapers have been known to pick up men of just ordinary intelligence and make them governors, or place them in other offices of honor and responsibility. They are commonly known as favorites of the newspaper. More often it is simply because they are willing to allow the paper to dictate certain policies and appointments. But few men ever succeed in getting into public office against the hostility of their party press. The press makes or unmakes them when it so desires. It is not that the editor is a man of such superior intelligence that he towers above the rest of mankind. Far from it. We of the fraternity claim to be no more than ordinary humans who are trained in the arts of observation, analysis and dissemination. No public man is ever so perfect but what the editor can unearthen glaring flaws in his career. It is the analyzing and dissemination of these flaws that puts him out of the running. This editor can do or not, as he desires. On the other hand, every public official possesses certain admirable traits of which the public knows but little. If the press keeps these things to the fore it is only a matter of time energetic service when the official becomes what is known as a "made man." Fortunately most editors are rather human. They know the weaknesses of public men, but they do not expect perfection in any one. They are content to give a fellow a fair show, and if he makes reasonably good they boost him along. If not, they generally permit him to gracefully retire at the end of his term, unless his acts are such as to warrant condemnation and exposure. It is not the will of the editor alonethat decides these things. It is the fact that the editor places his information before the people and they render their own judgment. It is in this way only that the press makes and unmakes men. But it does it, just the same.—Exchange.

SANG REQUIEM OF THE HUN

It was night in France and the great Argonne offensive was on.

The section chiefs grew hoarse shouting their commands, the runner corporals manipulated their sights with speed and accuracy, and the gun crews eagerly put forth superhuman effort in serving their pieces which were being loaded and fired as quickly as possible. The terrific detonations shook the forest which actually seemed like a live, throbbing, burning monster, who vomited fire and flame, and roared inhumanly with its terrible voice. Every man in the four gun crews was soon rendered temporarily deaf. Lit up by the ghastly flashes from the fire of their own guns, they looked like veritable devils, their faces gleaming with fiendish joy as they leaped into the pit to shift the gun trail or sprang to the wheels, at which they tugged and pulled with might and main. It was exceedingly tiresome work for the earnest lads. The rate of fire was so rapid that it was necessary for them to pause occasionally in order to permit the intensely heated pieces to cool. It presented a thrilling scene to see in the dim light of the early dawn, a stalwart lad, bareheaded, eyes heavy and red from the burning powder gas, his square jaws grimly set and shirt open at the throat, his arms bare to the elbows and black with grease, standing out there, swabbing out the steaming gun with the slender rammer. A lanyard broke from too constant use on one of the guns. Not hesitating a moment to repair it, the "No. 1" man simply used his fingers to draw back the "striker." A lad fell limp and exhausted into the gun pit, but was quickly pulled out of danger, where he lay quite still and was undisturbed by the terrible barrage. Another man quickly took his comrade's place. So the terrible fight continued. The great iron orchestra played its terrible symphony madly until ten o'clock in the morning, when the tired musicians began one by one, to lay aside their wary instruments, for the score they had been playing had sent the Fritzies scampering over the hills and far away.—Selected.

Hardy Benson and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Baldwin returned Friday evening to Clarendon from Servilleta New Mexico where they have been making their homes for the past several months. The men took up land there, and are highly pleased with the country. As a type of production of which the country is capable, Mr. Benson brought back a large head of cabbage which weighed 21 pounds.

Many people imagine that the prominence of great men is due entirely to their own genius. But it is not so.

In this age the most brilliant of men would be practically unknown except for the work of the press in following their careers step by step and reporting them, to the country at large. Newspapers have been known to pick up men of just ordinary intelligence and make them governors, or place them in other offices of honor and responsibility. They are commonly known as favorites of the newspaper. More often it is simply because they are willing to allow the paper to dictate certain policies and appointments. But few men ever succeed in getting into public office against the hostility of their party press. The press makes or unmakes them when it so desires. It is not that the editor is a man of such superior intelligence that he towers above the rest of mankind. Far from it. We of the fraternity claim to be no more than ordinary humans who are trained in the arts of observation, analysis and dissemination. No public man is ever so perfect but what the editor can unearthen glaring flaws in his career. It is the analyzing and dissemination of these flaws that puts him out of the running. This editor can do or not, as he desires. On the other hand, every public official possesses certain admirable traits of which the public knows but little. If the press keeps these things to the fore it is only a matter of time energetic service when the official becomes what is known as a "made man." Fortunately most editors are rather human. They know the weaknesses of public men, but they do not expect perfection in any one. They are content to give a fellow a fair show, and if he makes reasonably good they boost him along. If not, they generally permit him to gracefully retire at the end of his term, unless his acts are such as to warrant condemnation and exposure. It is not the will of the editor alonethat decides these things. It is the fact that the editor places his information before the people and they render their own judgment. It is in this way only that the press makes and unmakes men. But it does it, just the same.—Exchange.

WHAT IS A FARM WITHOUT A DAIRY COW?
Friends, without a doubt, we are living in a county which is looked upon far and near, as a big portion of the garden spot of West Texas. We have the fertile land, good seasons, and practically no economic crop pests. We can, and do produce an abundance of first class products, yet as a class of farmers over the entire county we are not prospering. We can determine this by looking at the volume of our liabilities. The power which brought these conditions about was one over which we had no control, but nevertheless it brings each and everyone of us face to face with a problem, the solution of which will be A PERMANENT SYSTEM OF AGRICULTURE which is not so sensitive to the action of forces outside of the law of supply and demand. According to the statistics of several states, collected over a long period of years, there is one system of farming, and only one which comes up to the specifications of the above solution, that is; Dairy Farming. When I speak of dairy farming, I mean also carrying out all the side lines connected with it, such as producing cheap pork and valuable huffer calves with the skimmilk, along with grain raised on the farm. In this locality, dairying as a side line to general intensive farming will prove to be the most profitable. Kaffir corn $7.00 per ton will never meet many obligations, and in many instances does not pay the cost of production, yet they will yield a good profit when marketed through a good dairy cow, in the form of milk, cream and butter. The cow is the greatest producer of human food in the world. Many cows have in a single year produced human food equal in value to the food contained in the bodies of five 1,100 pound steers. This shows how efficiently she manufactures food from raw material. Dairy communities are always prosperous communities, for dairying builds up the farm by adding humus, and a soil rich in humus, or vegetable matter neither blows nor washes. It requires fewer acres to produce a living on a dairy farm than on a grain farm, and consequently leads to closer neighbors and more thickly settled communities. There is always an air of permanence and prosperity about a well handled dairy farm. A man feels independent when he knows that his income is steady. The dairy business is a cash business, and the manager can pay his bills on the first of the month, just like the city man. He must have good health, clear judgment and plenty of energy. Then if he sticks to it, grows most of his own feed, has fair cows, and a good bull, he can't lose.

We need more farmers in Donley County who will keep ten cows. I have some plans which have proved a success in several sections, and there is no doubt but that they will work in this county. If you are interested in dairying either on a large or small scale stop me the first time you see me, or call me up, and let's go over these plans, and see what you think of them. Now is the time to think seriously about our 1922 crop system, for we must hit it right next season. Good dairy cows, a few broad sows, and a large well culled flock of chickens, will solve problems for you, and make you a contented farmer, and your family, a contented family. ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR WHO HAS HAD THEM THIS YEAR AND LAST.

DUN'S ENCOURAGED AT FINANCE STATUS

New York, Nov. 4.—Dun's tomorrow will say: Response to constructive forces in the economic situation does not come quickly, but evidences of rivalry multiply. The recovery would be more rapid if fewer restraints were present, yet the gain is fairly steady, and there is promise of its continuance, a further lowering of money rates reflecting the strengthening banking position, is an encouraging factor, and a lessening of price unsettlement makes for more confident operations in different quarters. While all statistical barometers do not reveal the improvement in business, records of production in several basic industries are distinctly better, and a large em-

DILIGENT JURORS

For the past ten days the criminal docket of the district court of this county has been in session. The cases have been disposed of at an unusual rapid rate, and we want to say that the men who have acted as jurors, so far as we are able to judge, have been very diligent in reaching verdicts and seeing that the laws of Texas have been gratified, and at the same time, to do justice to the accused. A return of guilty has been reached in most cases, and in a few who have been turned loose the judge and the jury have warned the accused that they barely escaped by the "skin of their teeth," and at the same time warning them that the penitentiary was staring them in the face unless they lived a life in the future that would remove every doubt as to their character.

We believe in giving officers and juries all the praise and justice that is coming to them. From reading some of our exchanges it seems that we are at the head of the list when it comes to jurors rendering verdicts that will be fair to the accused and yet satisfy the laws of our land. In most cases that have been tried a verdict of guilty has been reached. Other towns, where district court is in session, can not say as much. For instance here is a clipping taken from the Quanah Tribune-Chief which indicates that the jurors of that county have been rather partial to the criminals:

"The juries in district court this week seem to have been sympathetic, and turned everyone of the accused loose by holding them not guilty save one who was given a suspended sentence.

"This boy, Roy Swift, was only eighteen years old but married. He was found guilty of forgery, and given four years.

"R. B. Williamson, charged with burglarizing an Orient car at Chillicothe, was found not guilty. His pal, Sam Johnson, had turned State's evidence, and came clear in that fashion.

"Al McGlothlin, J. C. Morris and Grayson Henderson stood charged with having been too free with a consignment of wine belonging to Jim Tidmore. Henderson's case was dismissed, he being a minor. The others were not guilty, the jury said."

"Oscar Roberts of Amarillo visited his mother, Mrs. J. H. Roberts Sunday.

"Mrs. Smith of Montague is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Walter Cothran.

"Mr. and Mrs. Knowles and family of south Texas have moved to this country. They are now visiting in the home of their son Bill Knowles. Mrs. Roy Guffey and Mrs. Edwards were Clarendon visitors Saturday.

"Mrs. Tom Kennedy of Clarendon attended church here Sunday.

"Walter Morrow is adding a new garage to his place.

TEXAS ILLITERACY

Washington, D. C., October 31.—The Department of Commerce, thru the Bureau of the Census, announces that according to the census of 1920 there are 295,814 illiterate persons 10 years of age and over in the state of Texas, "illiterate" meaning unable to write. Of this number 50,424 are native white of native parentage, 30,219 are of foreign or mixed parentage and 112,177 are of foreign birth. The number of illiterate Negroes is 102,053. In the total population 10 years of age and over the percentage of illiteracy is 8.3, which shows a slight diminution since 1910, when it was 9.9. In the case of the Negroes the percentage declined from 24.6 to 17.8, and in the case of the native white percentage from 3.3 to 2.2. For the foreign-born white the percentage was 30 in 1910 and 33.8 in 1920.

By counties the percentage of illiteracy ranges all the way from 44.6 in Willacy county to one-tenth of 1 in Haysford county.

Miss Orene Hudgins, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Hudgins, and sister, Miss Ethel, made a trip to Wheeler last week making preparations for teaching school there. Her school will commence next Monday.

SING AND GROW HEALTHY

Have you noticed that singers are generally a healthy set of people? They are. Their lungs, through constant singing, are brought about as near to perfection as it is possible to get them. Hence a thought—and a suggestion. Everybody likes good singing and will take an evening of most any time to hear it. There are many good vocalists in this town, and others in the making, but they are not properly organized. Now, why can't we utilize the voices and form a monster chorus in this town, and do more singing, both for the sake of our health and for recreation and enjoyment? If you were told that a chorus of fifty or a hundred voices would be at one of the churches tonight, or at some other public place, wouldn't you feel just like hearing that music? Wouldn't you feel like putting on the musical harness yourself? Without desiring to criticize, we suggest that there is too much of a tendency to live unto ourselves. There is hardly the freedom and the interchange of ideas that should exist in a community of this size. A great many community choruses would bring us together, pull us out of our separate ruts, and put more of the joy of living into our hearts. It would be worth much to us, and yet it would cost nothing but a little pleasurable effort. Who is for a community chorus—a big one, and in time a magnificent one? Sing out and be heard!—Paducah Post.

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoon full at any time during the day or before retiring. Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

ADVERTISING WILL HELP RESTORE NORMAL BUSINESS

Advertising is more necessary today to Manufacturers and Retailers than ever before. It can be used to help restore the proper balance of trade, produce more work through emptying the dealers' shelves. The sooner any business—and especially the retail business—price their present inventories so that the public will rush in and buy, the sooner salesmen who now have goods to sell will have an opportunity to get real substantial orders from the Retailers.

Orders from Retailers will help the Manufacturers make up their minds to help sell their goods to the Consumer through advertising. Such advertising—provided the price and the quality of the merchandise are right—will help the Retailer sell the Consumer at less cost than through any other means.

When you stop to consider that an advertiser may use a National or local newspaper campaign at a cost of 1-10 of a cent per home reached, you can readily understand why newspaper advertising pays so well.

If advertising can be used to restore proper buying by the Consumer—and I know it can if properly used—then automatically the unemployed problem will be solved quickly.

So let us all set about to see what we can do to help solve this unemployment problem by getting behind a "Every American build a home" campaign—and also through our efforts to help the Retailers clear their shelves through energetic and persistent advertising and salesmanship.—William H. Rankin.

A PANHANDLE COUNTRY CLUB BEING ORGANIZED

Judge L. Gough of Hereford was here the past week in the interests of the Sulphur Park Country Club now being organized in the Panhandle. The grounds to be utilized for club purposes are situated just four miles east of Hereford, and consists of two sections now owned by Judge Gough.

The membership of the club is limited to four hundred at a cost of $250 per share and will be distributed throughout the Panhandle. Twenty-five shares have been allotted to Clarendon and from the prospects here Judge Gough feels that the full number will be sold in the next few weeks. Suitable terms may be arranged by those interested.

In the two sections to be incorporated as club property there is two miles of meandering living water from two to twenty feet deep and stocked with bass, croppie and catfish in sufficient numbers to make the club alluring to sportsmen. In the grounds is found the best natural hazards for golf links anywhere in the Panhandle according to golf experts. Also quail and duck hunting will afford fine sport for the huntsman. The proximity of the grounds to Hereford and the Abo Pass highway is an added asset of the club and here will assemble the best minds and spirits of the great Panhandle country to indulge in whole-hearted, care-free recreation.

Some weeks ago Judge and Mrs. Gough entertained a number of local friends and others from over the Panhandle at a fish fry at which time the project was explained to the guests and from that meeting over half the membership has been taken. The tables at this occasion were loaded with succulent fried fish taken from the deep cooling depths of the club waters and proved to everyone the plentiful supply of the fivny tribe in the stream contained in the two sections to be owned by the club members.

There is considerable farming land in the property and one feature of the proposition is that the fertile fields will yield enough revenue to pay the ground keeper and the taxes, thereby making the levying of dues unlikely. The sale of the membership will pay for the land in fee simple and will bring in enough money to build a commodious club house, as well as beautiful grounds.

The organization of the Sulphur Park Country Club is in answer to the demand for suitable recreation grounds here in the Panhandle where busy men and their families may play, hunt, fish and bathe without the great expense incurred in going to Colorado or other resort sections.

Judge Gough expects to return here in a short time to complete the membership allotment in Clarendon.

ENGLISH NEWSPAPER ODD TO AMERICANS

The News in receipt of several copies of the Morning Post, one of the oldest and most conservative London daily papers. The make-up is so different from that of the American papers that the foreign paper is interesting from its peculiarities alone.

The front page is made up entirely of want ads. The headings of the ads are in the usual direct manner of the Englishman. The titles of the plays at the Theatres are direct, and lack the ingenuity of catchwords with which the American Theatres interest many passers-by. For instance, the play at one of the leading theatres in London is "The Bigamist." The corner boxes on the front page carry two ads; one of bedsteads, the other of wines.

The headings of the various articles of news lack the ingenuity also of the American newspapers, but oftentimes the heads are so peculiar that they are interesting if not amusing. An illustration is the article telling of how our own congress stayed with the enforcement of the dry law. The article is headed "The Beer Tonic." The various items of news are not arranged so much with relation to the specific article, as is the American custom, but more nearly in general headings. Such heads as "In Parliament" and "International Law" are common. "Less Settled" is the heading given to the weather report.

The advertisements in the middle of the paper are not made up in the catchy style that is common to the American newspapers, but are usually plain and frequently anything but terse.

LEAGUE TO GIVE PATRIOTIC PROGRAM

At Sunday evening's meeting of the Epworth League, it was voted unanimously, upon the suggestion of the pastor, to render a patriotic program Sunday evening, November 13th, being immediately following Armistice day. At that time the preaching hour will be given to the League, and the program will be given by the League, and the program will be for the entire church and visitors.

The League, under the leadership of Miss Mabel Claire Betts, is doing the finest work in its history. A large membership has been recruited, and the attendance at every service is excellent. Sunday evening's service was a good one, and at the same time some plans were made for conducting a Bible study class, perhaps one Sunday a month. The plans will be completed at Friday's evening's business session. Every young person in Donley county who is not already attending some such young people's service is given a cordial invitation to join the League and help and be helped.

SIGNAL TO BE SOUND- ED FOR SILENT PRAYER

By nation wide proclamation issued by President Harding and by proclamations in almost every city in the land, there will be two minutes of silent prayer at noon tomorrow. By proclamation in this city such prayer will be observed, and arrangements have been made for the ice plant whistle to sound at that moment. All citizens who appreciate the gift of the boys who made peace possible and who wish to see the day of world peace come to stay, are asked to bow their heads wherever they are and utter a silent prayer of two minutes.

C. T. Taylor and E. P. Murrell, of Wichita Falls, were here the first of the week on business.

Mrs. Rich Bowlin passed through this city Saturday enroute to Hedley from Portales New Mexico. She and her husband and daughter are preparing to move back to this county.

PREACHING AT ASHTOLA

Rev. J. J. McNeely will preach at Ashtola Sunday afternoon at three thirty o'clock.

A message was received this week from V. Finch, a former resident of Clarendon now of England ordering the Clarendon News to be sent to him for another year. We have received several such communications of late from former citizens of this county.

NAMES OMITTED FROM R. C. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Due to an error in the information received by the News last week, two names were omitted from the list of the Red Cross Executive Committee. These are W. D. Van Eaton and W. H. Patrick. We are sorry that the omission occurred, but this merely another proof of the adage "Tis Human to err."

Mrs. W. H. Martin left Sunday for Amarillo to visit with her daughter Mrs. B. Younger.

Allen Beville passed through this city Friday evening enroute down state where he has insurance adjusting work.

MRS. RICHARDSON RECEIVES PRIZE

At the contest in which a mattress was given away at the Kerbow store last week, Mrs. C. E. Richardson was the lucky lady. The mattress was given by the factory as an advertisement, and the cards were distributed by Kerbow and sons as they will handle that brand of mattresses. The mattress was absolutely free, and went to the holder of the lucky card. The large Kerbow store building was crowded with ladies, and great interest was manifested.

W. M. Cross, a farmer of the Lakeview community, was in this city Tuesday on business.

W. T. McBride of Lelia Lake, Dan Bell, who is working at Memphisto, spent the week end here with his family.

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH

Tells How to Open Clogged Nasals and End Head-Colds.

You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache, no sneezing, sniffing, mucous discharges or dryness; no struggling for breath at night.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly. It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable.

SUGGESTIVE READING

You will hear it said that such and such a magazine prints suggestive stories, meaning that they present corrupting ideas in an attractive dress. But there is a suggestion that quickens the reader's sense of duty, stimulates ambition, gives courage to face adversity, fortifies against yielding easily to temptation. It is this better kind of suggestiveness that you will find on almost every page of The Youth's Companion. Which of these two kinds of suggestiveness would you wish to have exert an influence in your family life?

The 52 issues of 1922 will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorials, poetry, facts and fun. Subscribe now and receive:

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues in 1922.
2. All the remaining issues of 1921.

PATRIOTISM BEGINS AT HOME

Patriotism, like charity, should begin at home, extend out from the home to the home town and community; thence over the county and nation, and thence over the State and Nation. The patriotism that does not include its own nest, its own family and its own surroundings, is not much of a patriotism, nationally or any other way. We should consider these things often, for they are vital to our best interests and welfare, and the best interests of our family, friends and neighbors. There is always argument on both sides of any question, but the basic fact remains that as a general rule goods can be purchased in the home town as cheaply as in other towns or cities; not all things, but the great majority of the commodities which we all use. Some articles may be a bit higher once in a while, but it is equally true that some are often a bit lower, and the whole monthly account will balance pretty well. If we do not build up our home town there will be no home town.—Exchange.

SULPHUR PARK CLUB STOCK AS AN INVESTMENT

"Make your work your hobby," is a true and tried rule of business success and the financier is the man who applies this principle and makes his hobby pay in terms of dollars as well as pleasure. Hence it follows that the best investment is the one that yields dividends of both pleasure and profit.

Such an investment is surely offered in the stock of the Sulphur Park Club Grounds. These grounds are located on the Tierra Blanco creek within a few miles of Hereford, the county seat of Deafsmith Co., Texas. They are easily accessible by motor and rail road from all Panhandle points and offer opportunities for recreation not found elsewhere in this part of the state. Flowing through the center of this two section tract of land for more than two miles is the beautiful Tierra Blanco, a stream of abundant and never failing water fed by natural springs.

Overhanging forest trees line its banks in many places and myriad fish find homes in its clear waters. The black bass so plentiful here often attain the size of from six to eight pounds while several varieties of perch are caught by thousands every year.

Boating and swimming are universal summer time sports. Picturesque hills rising protectively on either side above broad acres of verdant pasture land give to the spot a marked scenic beauty all the more to be appreciated in the plain country.

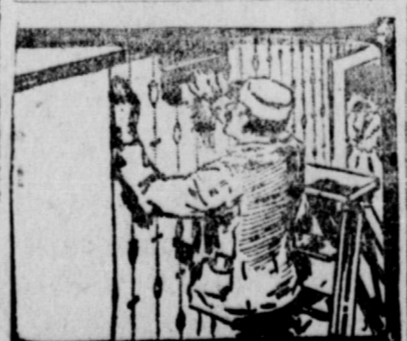

When man has added to nature's handiwork by damming the waters, erecting suitable club houses, laying off golf links, and otherwise equipping the grounds Sulphur Park will be an ideal out-door resort that will yield large and perpetual dividends not only in healthful recreation and entertainments but in the material gain of greatly enhanced property values.

That stock in this enterprise will rapidly increase in value is as certain as the fact that the Panhandle has a great future. The proposed site of the club grounds contains 1280 acres extremely fertile land nearly all tillable, much of it sub-irrigated where alfalfa grows luxuriantly and where water in abundance lies within a few feet of the surface. The land not needed for club grounds proper may be used for farming by those employed to take care of the grounds. The revenue from this source should defray the expenses of the club. This feature is an asset of but few clubs grounds.

A conservative value upon this land as it is now, will within a few years be not less than $100.00 per acre. When it is improved with the money set aside from the sale of 89 shares of stock it should easily be worth twice that or a quarter million dollars, 250 percent of par value. Its value as a pleasure resort should certainly not be less than its real estate value so that when the stock is sold and the grounds improved, a reasonable and conservative estimate of its value should be a half million dollars or 500 percent of par value.

That the prediction that this stock in two years will be selling at five for one is not an extravagant statement is proved by the history of similar enterprises. The stock in the Paloduro Club grounds in Randall County now sells at ten to one and little can be bought at that price. Surely Sulphur Park with its varied natural advantages and its added virtue of means within itself for maintenance could do as well. As an investment for the man or woman of moderate means its easy terms to the purchaser make it especially desirable and such persons may find in Sulphur Park a place where a minimum investment will bring maximum returns in both pleasure and profit—a place where one's hobby be the diversions of God's great out doors these may be come a sound financial investment.—Mrs. B. F. Guthrie, of the Hereford Brand.

Save Money
With the Orrell line you don't have to pay for extra rolls of wall-paper—their system of shading and numbering assures the right paper and the correct number of feet of it.

You'll avoid the inconvenience of having your rooms torn up too long while waiting for another roll to be shipped from the factory because there was one roll that was too short or not the right shade.

RED PEPPER HEAT STOPS BACKACHE

The heat of red peppers takes the "ouch" from a sore, lame back. It can not hurt you, and it certainly ends the torture at once.

When you are suffering so you can hardly get around, just try Red Pepper Rub, and you will have the quickest relief known. Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers.

Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you will feel the tingling heat. In three minutes it warms the sore spot through and through. Pain and soreness are gone.

Ask any druggist for a jar of Kowles Red Pepper Rub. Be sure to get the genuine, with the name Kowles on each package.

GETTING INTO BETTER SHAPE

"The country is getting into better shape and slowly but surely the complicated problems of the readjustment periods are being solved satisfactorily," says the November financial letter of the National City bank of Chicago. "The undertone of business is good in various lines there are gains over last year. A large number of loans are still 'frozen,' however, although there has been considerable headway made within the last six weeks, in liquidating long-standing indebtedness."

Without doubt, people are feeling more hopeful than they did and the country is making sustained headway in directions where a year ago very great uncertainty prevailed. The inflow of foreign gold continues and in some sections there has been a distinctly easier tendency to rediscount rates. The lowering of the rediscount rates by several reserve banks last month was not accompanied by any sensational expansion of speculative activities. On the contrary, the large lending institutions of the great reserve centers have been careful to limit their advances for the most part to strictly productive enterprises.

Another good sign is that the average family is living more nearly within its means, and the setting to work of many thousand idle men through the facilities provided by the recent unemployment conference at Washington has added considerably to the purchasing power of the laboring class.—Ft. THE FOUNDATION OF THE REPUBLIC

HENRY W. GRADY

Not long since I made a trip to Washington, and as I stood on Capitol Hill my heart beat quick as I looked at the towering marble of my country's Capitol, and the mist gathered in my eyes as I thought of its tremendous significance, and the armies, and the Treasury, and the courts, and congress and the president, and all that was gathered there. And I felt that the sun in all its course could not look down upon a better sight than that majestic home of the Republic that had taught the world its best lessons in liberty.

Two days afterward I went to visit a friend in the country, a modest man, with a quiet country home. It was just a simple, unpretentious house, set about with great big trees, encircled in meadow and fields rich with the promise of harvest. The fragrance of pink and hollyhock in the front yard was mingled with the aroma of the orchard and the garden, and resonant with the cluck of poultry and the hum of bees. Inside was quiet, cleanliness, thrift and comfort. Outside there stood my friend—master of his land and master of himself.

The Clarendon News' Americanization series

(Editor's Note—The articles appearing in the above space from week to week are taken from "Americanization" by Elewood Griscom, Jr. This excellent volume, which is a collection of articles upon the general theme of patriotism and good citizenship, is presented to the schools of Texas

There was his old father, an aged, trembling man, happy in the heart and home of his son. And as they started to their home the hands of the old man went down on the young man's shoulders, laying there the unspeakable blessing of an honored and grateful father, and ennobling it with the Knighthood of the Fifth Commandment. And I saw the night come down on that home, falling gently as from the wings of an unseen dove; and the old man, while a startled bird called from the forest and the trees shrilled with the cricket's cry, and the stars were swarming in the sky, got the family around him and, taking the old Bible from the table, called them to their knees; while he closed the record of that simple day by calling down God's blessing on that family and that home.

And while I gazed, the vision of the marble Capitol faded. Forgotten were its treasures and its majesty, and I said: "O, surely, here in the hearts of the people are lodged at last the strength and responsibilities of this government, the hope and promise of this Republic."

IS A BELIEVER IN HOME PAPER

DIRECTOR OF EXPERIMENT STATIONS URGES SUBSCRIBING TO HOME PAPER.

Director B. Youngblood of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station system, A. & M. College is a great believer in the efficacy of the home paper. The great co-operation that the agricultural work in this state has received has been largely from the weekly papers. Not only this, but it is the home paper that boosts the interests of the community. Mr. Youngblood, in commenting upon the observance, November 7th to 12th, "Subscribe for Your Home Town Paper Week" all over the United States says:

"This is a movement that should be widely advertised so that no citizen will overlook this opportunity to give recognition to the signal services rendered by the local newspaper to the promotion of every interest of the community. I hope no citizen of Texas will fail during the week of Nov. 7th to 12th, to pay his subscription at least a year in advance and incidentally give to the editor of the local paper, a word of sincere appreciation for the unselfish and effective services that are continually being rendered by him in every community in this State."

"The local newspaper has had a profound influence upon the social and economic development of the Nation. It is invariably the first in every movement for progress. It is perhaps the strongest single factor in molding public opinion. It is the most desirable channel for conveying to the people important public information."

"The country newspaper of Texas have rendered highly valuable services to the agriculture of this State by publishing extensively the findings of the research workers of the Experiment Station system and their readers have thus been able to make any improvement in their farming and livestock operations almost from the very day any information is available through which such improvements can be effected. These papers have of their own motion, made careful studies of the needs of their communities and many of them are models for same and useful suggestions and instructions through which their readers may become more successful farmers. Certainly the people can do no less than give their local paper every support for which they ask and none should fail to receive every issue of his home paper."

WILD HORSES PLACED IN DEEP PIT SILOS TO PACK ENSLAGE AS CAVITY FILLS

The automobile and the tractor are rapidly taking the place of the horse on the farms of the Panhandle according to those who are enthusiastic over motordrawn machinery but Landgerin Brothers, owners of one of the largest ranches in the Panhandle near Vega, have found one job that horses alone can do. They use wild range horses to tramp down the ensilage as it is put into their large pit silos.

These horses are roped and tied and let down into the silos, some of which are forty feet deep. The horses feed themselves from the ensilage that is dumped into the silo and as they walk about they tramp it down which is the result desired. Water is lowered to the horses once each day; but since the green corn ground into ensilage is saturated with water when it is put into the silo the horses do not require a great deal of water.

POULTRY SHOW AT AMARILLO DEC. 7

EXHIBITORS FROM LARGE TERRITORY ARE EXPECTED TO SHOW STOCK

Amarillo, Texas, Nov. 2.—The Panhandle-Plains Tri-State Poultry Show will be held at Amarillo, December 7 to 11, 1921. Poultry enthusiasts are reviving the old Panhandle Poultry Association under the title of the Panhandle-Plains Tri-State Poultry Show, which includes in its territory the Panhandle of Oklahoma, the eastern portion of New Mexico and the 38 Panhandle and South Plains counties of Texas. The purpose of the organization is to build up enthusiastic interest in the poultry industry.

The officers of the new Association are: W. W. McDonald, President; H. W. Duke, Secretary-Treasurer; A. P. Morrow, Superintendent; Howard A. Ferguson, Clyde C. Cockrell and Frank Kiersey, Program and Publicity Committee, all of whom are well known to the poultry industry throughout this entire section.

There is at present a marked interest in the poultry industry in this part of the country. Entries will be received from all persons residing within the above defined territory, and the catalogue and premiums list will be ready for distribution in about ten days. Anyone desiring a copy may obtain one by writing to H. W. Duke, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Poultry Show will be conducted under A. P. A. Regulations and will be judged by men authorized by that organization. Amarillo is putting up about $1,000.00, and this sum may be added to by various other means so as to make the interest in the competitive exhibitions very keen.

Several communities have given the Association their endorsement and pledged their support.

One hundred twenty-five letters have been mailed to manufacturers of poultry supplies, and indications are that their support will be 100 per cent. It is probable that they will have their expert representatives attending the show to explain the latest development in the way of poultry supplies.

Not only do the horses do their work well but they apparently like it as they get fat while they are in the silos. When the silo is filled the horses step out onto the ground and go back to the pastures.

Landgerin Brothers have been using silos for several years and have had a great deal of success with cattle, that have been heavily wintered on ensilage and then being placed on pasture in the flint hills of Kansas.

Pat and John, as the Landgerin Brothers are known to their friends are real Irishmen and when a friend was told of the use of horses in the silos he remarked, "Irish wit again!"—Amarillo Tribune.

BUILDING GOOD ROADS

Advices from C. H. Walker, president of the Colorado-to-Gulf Highway, indicate that of the 1,750 miles of road from Denver to Brownsville, 65 per cent is surfaced with concrete, asphalt, or gravel. Thirty per cent is now under construction, and only 5 per cent is without plans for improvement.

When one contemplates that 150 counties in Texas voted road-improvement bonds during the last eighteen months, it is not difficult to conceive how much of Texas is building good roads. These counties include the most prosperous sections of the Commonwealth and are the ones which will prove most attractive to the homeseeker.

Unimproved roads mean semi-isolation. This is an age of co-operation, of the exchange of ideas and commodities. As a result any community which refuses or fails to build good roads is penalized by progressive home-seekers, and by the inability of its people to exchange profitably what they grow for money or goods in open market.—Vernon Record.

INSURANCE COMMISSION MAKES RECOMMENDATIONS

Standard automobile hook and ladder truck, the charge in Key Rate of 2c, will be eliminated, and a further credit of 1 percent will be in order.

(c) In order that your fire department may be maintained up to its highest efficiency, we strongly recommend the inauguration of regular drills. Each fireman should become thoroughly familiar with all the details of handling the fire apparatus, location of fire hydrants, and the exact nature of all buildings and fire hazards in the business portion of your city.

(d) In order to insure long life for your fire hose, we strongly recommend the necessity of erecting a hose rack or tower for properly washing and drying all fire hose.

(e) The absence of an approved fire alarm system subjects your city to the menace of a conflagration, owing to the fact that before the fire department could be mobilized, a fire of somewhat insignificant proportions might gain considerable headway, and to this end we strongly recommend the installation of an approved electric fire alarm system; the charge of 5c in Key Rate will be eliminated if this system is installed in strict accordance with the requirements of the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

3. BUILDING LAW: In your present Key Rate you are charged 5c for inadequate building law; in order to remove this charge and also to prevent the erection of poorly constructed and combustible buildings, we recommend the adoption in full of the Building Code of this Commission and the appointment of a competent inspector to rigidly enforce provisions of same.

4. ORDINANCES: Very many fires are due to the storage of unduly large quantities of explosive and inflammable materials, and in order to safeguard both life and property, it is necessary that you adopt some standard ordinances regulating same; copies of such ordinances will be furnished on application to this Commission.

5. ARSON REWARD SIGNS: In order to continue to receive the present credit of 2 percent in Key Rate for the maintenance of a standing arson reward, it will be necessary that placards be kept posted showing that this reward is offered. Placards should be at least 8x12 inches and should be kept posted in all public buildings in your city.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

We are always glad to have our friends come to the services at our church house. We are glad to shake your hand and we are glad to have the entire membership there to tell their friends that they are welcome. Fellowship is one of the reasons for church worship. That good man that said that some time people would quit coming to preaching services, because they didn't want to hear anybody talk, like they used to, might be right, but there will always be the need of brethren meeting together for fellowship in the Christian Spirit.

If you come without that spirit of fellowship, you miss something. If you stay away from what little there might be you miss something also. That's kind of old fashioned, though, maybe, so don't mind me. The communion of the Lord's Supper will be observed at the morning service next Sunday. Won't you come, "in remembrance?" Evening services are changed to the 7 o'clock hour.

W. H. Foster, pastor.

Yours for service,

NOTES FROM THE CHURCH OF CHRIST

I have been unusually busy for two weeks, seeing after the painting of the ceiling of the church, screen frames, etc. Hence have missed two issues of Notes on that account, and the editor says lost the last issue on account of so many advertisements coming in late. So we double up this time a little and make up for the last numbers. I was sent to Ring the fifth Sunday. Had a fine service with good people, and they asked us to return again. Tuesday of last week the writer was called to Claude for the discussion of the music question. Brother Merrill of Pampa representing the music side, and the writer the opposing side. It was a very pleasant affair indeed. This reminds me that next month the 29th day of the month, at 10 o'clock a. m., Broher Tyndall of Atlanta, Ga. and Brother Cooley of Dallas, will have a joint discussion on the instrumental music question in the Church of Christ. Everybody is invited. The discussion is to last two days only, after which C. R. Nichol, one of the finest debaters and lecturers of Texas--or any other state will probably lecture a night or two. Come and hear these great, good and scholarly men on the things that are for our common and mutual good, things that have to do with our present and eternal interest.

On the fifth Sunday night, a splendid man came up from Lelia Lake and was baptized, the same hour of the night. Last Lord's day at the morning service, one took membership. At the 3 o'clock service, three new elders and three new deacons were appointed and installed. This was a short, solemn impressive service. The duties and great and grave obligations that fell upon them were read from the Bible. Likewise the respect, esteem and double honor, due them from the church--the people they serve was read from the Bible. These men are to be examples to the flock, no corrupt communications should proceed out of their mouths. We are happy, growing in spiritual strength, walking in all the ordinances of the Lord, as near blameless as we can. Our young people are doing a good work. They have by their zeal provoked the Senior class to make a nice contribution to our church debt last Lord's day. We wish to thank our good friends also for their kindness to us. May the Lord lead them into His Kingdom. I go next Lord's day to Lockney for some work, but our young men are amply able with the advice of the older brethren to carry on the work. So keep on keeping on, coming. Thos. E. Milholland. Lee Holland was a Hedley visitor Tuesday.
