

INDEPENDENCE DAY TO BE CELEBRATED IN CLARENDON WITH BIG COMMUNITY PICNIC AND DINNER

BAND CONCERT, BASEBALL, POLITICAL SPEAKING AND A BIG BASKET-DINNER TO FEATURE NEXT TUESDAY HERE. EVERY CITIZEN OF THE COUNTY IS GIVEN URGENT INVITATION TO BE HERE. EVERYTHING TO BE FREE.

Clarendon and Donley county will celebrate Independence Day this year with an old fashioned picnic like we so much enjoyed in the by-gone days.

Good music is assured as the Clarendon Band is going through a series of hard rehearsals at this time to be in tiptop shape for the occasion.

Baseball fans will have ample opportunity to enjoy that sport; the Clarendon Shriners will play the Methodist Roosters in the morning, and the winner of that game will meet the American Legion that afternoon.

Several candidates for state offices have already signified their intention of being here that day, and have accepted the invitations of the committee to speak in behalf of their races.

Many of the merchants have signified their desire to close their places of business at noon, and it is felt sure that when the committee asks them they will close so that everyone will have opportunity to enjoy the day.

The basket dinner offers an opportunity for real fellowship; and that is the feature of the day that is considered bigger than the others.

The idea for this celebration has been to have no money making features whatsoever, but to have the day of course, a nominal admission will be charged to see the baseball games, but other than this everything will be free.

BRANDING ON THE RANCHES THIS WEEK

Branding on the large ranches surrounding Clarendon started this week, and it is probable that in all more than ten thousand head of stock will be branded.

Dr. William Webb, of Ft. Worth, was here the first of this week visiting with friends.

Miss Mary L. Young, of Megargel, was the honoree at a delightful dinner party given by Miss Mary Hallett Benedict Thursday at eleven thirty o'clock.

ROGERS DENOUNCES GOV. NEFF

SAYS THAT EXECUTIVE IS TO BLAME FOR ALL ILLS OF THE STATE.

Declaring that he is the candidate of the people, and that he will be their governor and give each and everyone an equal chance with all others, Fred S. Rogers, of Bonham, candidate for governor of Texas, spoke to a small gathering of citizens Friday afternoon.

Declaring Neff a slacker, an autocrat, and a governor with the poorest record of anyone who has held that office, Rogers asserted that Texas is hopelessly in the hands of politicians whom he intends to clear out when he is governor.

Although he advanced no platform other than general promises, the speaker nevertheless received several laughs from his audience when he made some particularly sarcastic or scathing remarks about Governor Neff.

Mrs. J. H. Clark returned Sunday evening from Springfield Missouri where she has been visiting with relatives for some weeks.

Mrs. Frank McCrary, of Phoenix Arizona, visited here the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Letta.

LOCAL COMPANY GETTING READY FOR CAMP LIFE

OFFICERS WHIPPING COMPANY INTO SHAPE FOR ENCAMPMENT NEXT MONTH. ROOKIES HAVE MADE REMARKABLE PROGRESS.

Capt. Perrine and his officers are fast shaping the members of the local Home Guard company, Co. H 142nd, for the two weeks' encampment which will commence the 28th of next month.

Two days and a night of such life were spent last week when the company was taken to Indian Gulch. Fifty-three men and three officers made the trip.

A lively episode took place when Lieut. Taylor attempted to slide by the setting up exercises following reveille, and he received a generous application of the Sam Brown belt.

The three meals which were served there were excellent in every way and this was due to the generosity of the business men who contributed the eats of the occasion.

Further interest in camp life was caused by the fine swimming hole which was readily accessible. One of the trucks, of which there were three thus furnishing transportation, was backed up to the edge of the water to form a fine driving platform.

The company will leave here either the 26th or 27th for Austin to do the two weeks training in Camp Mabry. Orders have been received to send officers and cooks four days before the company arrives.

The excellent manner in which the company has been trained is realized when it is learned that some of the companies in other places have not got their rookies in shape for camp, and are, therefore, enlisting ex-service men for the time of the encampment in order to be able to make a creditable showing.

The news is sent out that the 71st Brigade composed of the 141st and 142nd Infantry is complete; and with the completion of the work of mustering in the company at Claude last month, that city was made headquarters for the battalion of which this company is part.

PREPARING TO HAVE CITY BONDS PRINTED

Word has been received at the mayor's office from Crosby, McConnell and company, purchasers of the city's recent issue of water bonds, stating that the bonds are thoroughly approved and preparations are being made to have them printed at once.

According to the contract made between the city and the purchasers for the bonds, the latter will pay the cost of the printing.

CITY PURCHASES CANTERLOU BUILDING THIS WEEK

CITY OFFICE WILL BE IN NEW HEADQUARTERS AFTER THE FIRST OF JULY. WILL BE GREAT IMPROVEMENT FOR KEEPING RECORDS.

The trade was concluded the first of this week whereby the city of Clarendon becomes the owner of the Canterlou Building across the street north of the ice factory.

One great need for the city hall is to have some place to keep the records of the city with care; in the present location, the vault is becoming too small for the records that will be valuable some day.

When the abstract was passed upon the first of the week, the city made the purchase; the consideration is not made public.

The new hall serves a long felt need of Clarendon in giving a home for the city government and a permanent place for the records.

SKELTON BECOMES GOOD ROADS ENTHUSIAST

Luther Skelton received injuries Monday evening that almost amounted to fractured ribs when the hard head of his small son was thrown against his ribs with a violence that, as Luther swore, almost cleaved him asunder.

UPTON TO BE TRIED HERE ON CHARGE OF MURDER

Houston Upton, charged with the killing of Nell Umberson and Gladys Solomon last April at the Umberson home in the Sunset community in Floyd County, will be tried here in July, the case to be taken up about July 17, on a change of venue.

The two girls were shot while asleep in bed at the Umberson home and Upton was found with a gunshot wound in his left breast at a school house about a mile from the scene of the tragedy.

SHRINERS PLAY AMARILLO LEGION NECK AND NECK GAME

The local shrine team was defeated by the Amarillo American Legion Sunday afternoon in that city by a score of five to four.

Fenn Bourland and family, of Alameda, and their visitor, Mrs. G. W. Medley, of Ft. Worth visited in this city yesterday.

P. J. McNamara and wife, of Burkburnett, are here visiting with the latter's father, H. D. Taylor on the Taylor ranch near this city.

FIRST CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM IS RENDERED TODAY

HAWAIIAN SINGERS AND PLAYERS GIVE EXCELLENT OPENING PROGRAM. AMERICAN LEGION SPONSORS THIS YEAR'S PROGRAM.

The 1922 chautauqua for Clarendon opened this afternoon with a program by Vierra's Hawaiian singers and players.

It is a fact that can not be denied that the last few chautauqua programs that were brought here were poor, but this year the chautauqua people are trying to redeem themselves by giving a better program.

In selecting the vacant lots east of the ward school building as a site for the tent, it was thought that the handiest location for all parts of the city was being selected.

The afternoon performance commences at two forty-five o'clock and the evening at seven forty-five. Following is the program for the remaining four days of the course.

STORM DAMAGE IS REPORTED AT PAMPA

Pampa, June 28.—Windmills, graneries, outhouses and barns were torn to splinters, and damage to growing crops resulted Tuesday afternoon, when a severe storm, assuming proportions of a small cyclone, swept a section of the Panhandle about seven miles northeast of Pampa.

Heavy hail practically wiped out 2,000 acres of wheat about three miles and a half southeast of Pampa, and other damage from the hail and high wind is evident.

LUNCHEONITES DISCUSS CELEBRATION

TUESDAY LUNCHEON GIVES ATTENTION TO PLANS FOR FOURTH OF JULY PICNIC.

Tuesday's luncheon was held at the Denver Hotel this week and was well attended, especially for the summer months.

After the fraternal spirit that flowed while the feed was being stowed away, the meeting was called to order and the question of plans for Clarendon's Fourth of July Basket Picnic was introduced and a report was heard from Homer Mulkey and Jas. T. Patman who have charge of the arrangements for the big day.

The chairman then introduced Guy A. Carlender, architect, of Amarillo, who drew the plans for the new unit of the Clarendon High School buildings and who was here looking after the progress of the work.

Building continues to be on the largest scale in this city that it has been in the last two years.

The digging of the large basement for the new school building is complete and the concrete work has commenced.

The Stewart Construction Company of Oklahoma City is doing the work. Much of the material for the structure is already on the ground, and the building will be hastened to completion; according to the terms of the construction agreement, the structure must be ready for occupancy by the opening of school this fall.

The outside work on the Goldston school house is nearing completion. This will be absolutely one of the finest rural schools in the state, being a handsome brick structure, and the people of that community may well be proud of it.

The Brice gin is also receiving substantial improvements, and will be the better equipped for the large business that it is sure to have this fall.

Work has started on the J. R. Bartlett Studio on south Kearney Street. This, when completed will be one of the most modern studios in the Panhandle, its size being twenty-five by seventy feet.

J. W. Bennett is at this time building one of the most handsome residences in this city. It is bungalow style, tile and brick with seven rooms including breakfast room, and hall and bath. Four large rooms are in the basement which is under the entire building, and these are arranged for a furnished room, a bed room, a billiard room, and a laundry room.

C. L. Benson is building a modern home in the west part of this city. The structure will be a frame building with brick veneer; there will be a large basement with furnace and six rooms and bath with every convenience of the modern home. It will be bungalow style.

The new bungalow home which is being constructed by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nelson will soon be ready for occupancy. It is a four room and bath structure, and is modern throughout. The location is on east Third Street.

M. W. Headrick is having a two room and basement addition made to his home in the west part of town at this time. The basement is being constructed under the entire new part of the home which makes a nice addition to the already fine home.

Henry Parker is remodeling his home in the east part of this city and making it modern throughout.

Mrs. W. H. Latson of Amarillo, returned this morning to her home after having visited here the past week with Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Latson.

Miss Laura Bumpus returned this morning to her home at McLean after visiting here several days with Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Latson.

W. E. Reeves, of Hedley, was in this city on business Tuesday.

"Oh, Buddy boy! Look what Mother went and put into the lunch basket—a whole whopping big package of Kellogg's Corn Flakes! Buddy, I believe I can eat just about twice as much as you do—my, how I love Kellogg's!"

Time to stop eating Kellogg's heavy food! wonderful for the whole family!

Kellogg's CORN FLAKES

Nature rebels against heavy foods in warm weather. Much illness in summer is caused by overtaxing the stomach. Change your diet—and keep snappy in mind and muscle!

Kellogg's Corn Flakes with cold milk and fresh fruit are wonderful for the hot days—for breakfast, for lunch, for supper or for "snacks." They digest without taxing the stomach and supply the nourishment the body needs.

For children, for the workers and for the aged there is no more delicious, sustaining summer food than Kellogg's Corn Flakes.

Insist upon Kellogg's Corn Flakes in the RED and GREEN package bearing the signature of W. K. Kellogg, originator of Corn Flakes. None are genuine without it!

THE GOLDEN RULE

Whatever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.—Matt. 7:12.

The Old Fashioned Fourth of July Basket Picnic which will be held in Clarendon next week will be an event worth coming many miles to attend. The people have worked hard and deserve a day's rest and recreation and Clarendon is offering the best means of enjoyment. Baseball, red soda pop, balloons, cream cones, speaking, shows, etc.—everything but "chiggers." Come to Clarendon on the Fourth.

These fellows who are taking a crack at Governor Neff for his second term either are doing so for the notoriety that may accrue to them or they are passing simple. Governor Neff hasn't pleased all the people all the time—no governor does—but he has made a good governor and he is going back to his second term with a landslide majority.

Ben Smith of the Lockney Beacon comments upon the lack of editorials in the recent issues of The News and asserts that this editor is lazy. We won't take the trouble to deny the accusation—it requires effort—but we will inform Ben that we have been away on a short vacation and that we promise to write something that will either edify or enrage him in the next week or so.

Christopher Columbus discovered America in 1492, but Governor Neff discovered the Panhandle and West Texas in 1922. More and more our state officials are realizing just what a wonderful section of the state is that comprised in the Panhandle and West Texas and it is most fitting that Gov. Neff selected Plainview as the city in which to open his campaign for re-election. The News predicts that more recognition will come to this section in the next two years of the state administration than ever before in history.

The resolution passed by the United Confederate Veterans at their Richmond convention laying the blame for the civil war on Pres. Lincoln, was most unfortunate. There are very few well informed people in the South or North who do not recognize the injustice of this accusation and every year there is a growing understanding here in the South that Lincoln was the only powerful friend the southern people had at Washington when the war came to a close. There is little doubt that most of the humiliation of the reconstruction and carpet-bagging periods would have been prevented had Mr. Lincoln lived. The most charitable construction that may be put on the action of the U. C. V. is that the resolution was drawn by grand old men who have passed into their dotage and carried on the wave of the world's most marvellous enthusiasm which always characterized the Sons of Dixie. It is to be hoped that little attention will be paid to this untimely episode, and that people of the other sections of the nation will continue to believe that the masses in the South realize that the civil war was a conflict of ideas and not the trumped-up war of any man or set of men.

This editor with his family has just returned from an auto trip of 1362 miles which carried us through Oklahoma, a corner of Missouri and the state of Arkansas. In Oklahoma we saw wonderful crops of grain and cotton, in Arkansas we found fine corn, clover and worlds of fruits. In all states we found some good roads and some not so good while in the mountains of Arkansas we piloted the car over roads (?) more like goat trails than public highways in some places. Financial conditions were on the mend in Oklahoma, but were still uncomfortable in portions of Arkansas. All in all there is no part of Oklahoma or any other state that we observed that will compare in all points with the Donley County territory of the Panhandle of Texas.

Every day the acts of anarchists under the guise of the labor unions are arraying public sentiment more and more against the methods of the unionists. The recent butchery in Illinois was the most cold blooded and cruel exhibition of inhumanity witnessed since the German barbarities in France and Belgium. It matters little that many of the union people are foreigners—they live in America and the accumulated vengeance of the nation is certain to fall upon them if they do not mend their ways. Most people are perfectly willing to allow individuals or organizations of individuals the privilege of quitting their jobs if they don't like the wages, the hours or the conditions under which they labor, but there are millions that are good enough Americans to demand that no man or set of men do ought to prevent another man or set of men taking up the job they themselves have spurned. It is a simple problem and one that has become so vital that Americans everywhere are determined upon a complete settlement of the issues involved. By the unreasonable demands and the lawless acts of the labor leaders and their followers public sentiment has turned from its former sympathy to the labor union movement, and they have brought upon themselves the ruin that is now facing them. The News believes that when the readjustment comes, the radical element will be thrown out of power and if unions do survive they will survive on a broad and liberal basis wherein the right of every man to work or not work will be established. This is America and only Americanism can long survive.

A LITTLE TOUCH OF PAINT

There was a little chair
All broken in two—
She painted it!
There was a little stool
So old and blue—
She painted it!
The floors and the wall
And the ceiling, too—
She painted them.

CHORUS
And so behold the change
So pretty and so new,
That all were bewildered
That looked upon them, too.
And while you ne'er suppose
That the little girlie knew,
The old things now are new
With a little paint, paint, paint.
There was a little picture
Hanging on the wall—
She painted it!
There was a pretty wee vase,
So tiny and so small—
She painted it!
There was a little table
Chairs and cabinet tall—
She painted them!
There was a little girl
With a pale, pale cheek—
She painted it.
There was a little curl
So faded and so weak—
She painted it!
The eyebrows and the chin
And the rosy lips—seek—
She painted them!

YOUR HOME TOWN FIRST

Work for your own town.

The World War and the Treaty of Peace and the Protective Tariff and all such things are important subjects, but what's the good of cleaning up the world unless you sweep your own doorsteps?

The city whose main street is dirty, sordid looking, cluttered, uninviting, suffers much. Such a city wants to be cleaned, recreated, made a thing of beauty, so that people will come for miles to see it. The best advertisement of your business is the town you live in.

Towns get reputations, as well as men. Make your town talked of all over the nation. It will thus draw people. And where the people come, there is prosperity.

Rid your town of one eye sore after another. Clean up the vacant lots and plant them in gardens. Make a cluttered yard a disgrace. Make public opinion too hot for those who will not help.—Dr. Frank Crane.

Proof of the pudding is in the eating thereof. Thousands praise Taniac. So will you. For sale by Stocking's Drug Store and R. A. Long Drug Co.

CONTRACTS LET FOR NEW SCHOOL BUILDING

Mr. C. R. Farra of Woodward, Okla., was awarded the contract for the construction of the new high school building at Panhandle, and Mr. W. H. Hayman of Amarillo the contract for the installation of the heating and plumbing, the two bids aggregating the sum of $34,220.00. The board was fortunate in having a number of competitive bidders for the job, and while the bidding grew rather heated, yet Messrs. Farra and Hayman were successful by a good safe margin.

This building is in the nature of an addition to the present building, will be two stories with large commodious boiler room in which will be installed a modern heating plant. It will be placed just east of the present building and the two buildings will be connected by an enclosed corridor making the two buildings readily accessible on both floors. The first floor will be occupied with Superintendent's office, Teachers Administration room and a large auditorium with seating capacity of 500. The second floor will contain numerous class rooms, Home Economics department, study hall, etc. The building when completed will double the present capacity and in addition to the regular literary work, offer courses in Agriculture, Animal Husbandry, Farm Shop Work and Manual Training, Domestic Arts and Domestic Science with allied vocational subjects and a modern business course.—Panhandle Herald.

NEW POSTAL ROUTE
PAMPA TO CLARENDON

Last week the postal inspector for this district went over the road from this city to Clarendon on an inspection tour. An application had been filed several weeks ago for a mail route from here to the Donley County capital, and the inspector found conditions as represented to the department, and approved the project.

The authorities later notified local parties that with the proper support and endorsement the route could be made into a motor truck route, which would be of vast benefit to the residents along the proposed line, as well as to both towns interested.

The matter was immediately taken up by Mayor Reid, who secured the hearty endorsement of the Chamber of Commerce and the Booster Club, and the matter was then presented to Clarendon, which city took similar action.

The round trip to Clarendon could be made daily, and it is believed that a saving of time could be accomplished on mail matter from below Clarendon bound for this city. The trucks would be able to handle a quantity of mail besides passengers when available, and would no doubt prove of benefit to all.

The establishment of another mail route out of Pampa is being considered at present by the postal department, but the outcome is yet somewhat uncertain.—Pampa News.

Mrs. George T. Cope and son Charles, of Ft. Worth, are here visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Headrick.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is a sign you have been eating too much meat, which forms uric acid.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and laggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

The plane was badly damaged, but neither pilot nor passenger were injured save for a few scratches.—Hall County Herald.

Candidates are now getting quite busy attending the picnics, and these social gatherings appear to be very much more numerous than in former years. At the picnic the candidates and the people ready and willing to hear his story and abundant opportunity for meeting a great many people in a short time. Most of the candidates are failing to tell the voters how they stand on the Ku Klux question, preferring to pussyfoot along and leave that important issue untouched if they can. The Post believes this is a pertinent question and one on which men should have the nerve to line up. We honor a known Ku Klux more than an anti Ku Klux that tries to dodge the question. Speak out, candidates, and let the voters know how you stand; they want to know and have the right.—Childress Post.

CLARENDON COLLEGE QUARTETTE
The Clarendon College Male Quartette filled their date at the Methodist Church, Saturday night. The house was well filled and the audience showed their appreciation of every number on the program with their hearty applause. The quartette is well trained and the selections and readings were of high grade. The members of the quartette were so pleased with the reception and appreciation shown by the audience that it concluded to stay over Sunday and sing at the morning and evening services at the Methodist church. If the quartette ever returns to Dalhart it will have a larger hearing next time.—Dalhart Texan.

SCHOOL TAX ELECTION IS CARRIED BY BIG MAJORITY
By a vote of 323 to 115, the citizens of the Memphis Independent School District on Thursday took a forward step that is going to mean much to the future of the Memphis Public Schools.
By that large majority they voted the increased tax rate of $1.00, which failed to carry some months ago.
Intelligent thought as to the future of our present splendid school system was responsible for the overwhelming vote polled in favor of the tax. Our people realized the fact that without the increased tax the schools were doomed to drop to a very poor second class standing. Without the tax it would have been impossible to run a nine months school, and this would have meant the loss of our affiliations with the University of Texas and the other higher colleges of learning.

It is our experience that when our citizenship is fully informed of the facts in any issue put before them, it is certain that the right will prevail, and this case was no exception.—Hall County Herald.

HANDICAPPED STUDENTS MAKE BRILLIANT RECORDS

Austin, Texas, June 21.—Among the students of the University of Texas who were granted fellowships at other universities in the country as a mark of special distinction attained with graduation, there were two graduates of the Texas Blind Institute. They were Paul Mueschke, of Westfield, and Randolph A. Haynes of Austin. Both will be candidates for the degree of doctor of philosophy. It is believed that no other college has ever had two students thus handicapped to achieve such marked success. Both men are well known about the campus, and go about from class to class, and are at home with the other students in all phases of campus life.

Mr. Mueschke, who has been awarded a fellowship in English at the University of Michigan, came to the University of Texas from the Blind Institute, and has won both his bachelors of arts and his masters of arts degrees here. He has already held fellowships at the University of Wisconsin and at the University of Texas.

Mr. Haynes, who has been granted a fellowship in romance languages at the University of Chicago, also received his bachelors and master degrees here. He has been instructor in romance languages at the University of Texas during the last two years. His wife, who is also a graduate of the University of Texas, has been awarded a scholarship in romance languages, and will attend the University of Chicago at the same time.

NEW MOTTOES MADE BY THE MOTOR

Still motors run sweet.
Home is where the car is.
A soft tire turneth away cash.
While there's gas there's hope.
Fools pass on hills and curves.
A wise driver maketh a glad auto.
It is better to be slow than sorry.
Declines make the wheels go faster.
Dry springs squeak louder than "birds."
To speed is human; to get caught a fine.
As the wheel is bent so the car will go.
Where there's a nail there's a puncture.
A body's as old as its paint; a motor's as old as its pulls.
Spin and the world spins with you; stall and you stall alone.

TO THE PUBLIC

You probably observed that in last weeks issue of the Clarendon News there was printed a list of the names of Candidates which would appear on the Democratic ticket, to be voted at the Primary July 22nd, 1922.
You must have noted that my name did not appear. This is to say that my name was filed in due time to have been on this ticket; and will be on the ticket used in said election. I am candidate for Justice of Peace in Precinct No. 2 of this county. This Precinct includes Clarendon. I wish here to thank you for your support in the past and will appreciate it in the coming election.
Truly,
Leon O. Lewis.

COMING TO THE PASTIME THEATRE TWO DAYS ONLY

Douglas Fairbanks will be seen as a dyed-in-the-wool Greenwich Villager in his new production "The Nut," coming to the Pastime Theatre Monday and Tuesday next week. As a wealthy young fellow whose hobby is invention, he adopts all the eccentricities and Bohemianism attributed to the people of this famous quarter.

The incorporation of a number of clever novelty features make this vehicle different from anything Fairbanks has ever before appeared in.

The outstanding element in the picture is the remarkable love story that runs through it. As a wealthy young fellow with a hobby for invention, the hero falls so desperately in love with a girl that he really touches your heart with the misadventures he encounters in his efforts to win favor in her eyes. Everything happens to him from losing his clothes to being suspected of murder. How he at last works out his problem furnishes one of the most remarkable endings ever presented, an for that reason the theatre management believes the public will be nutty about "The Nut." Admission 10 and 25 cents.

THE TRUTH ABOUT HUSBANDS A REAL FEATURE

Next week's feature attraction at the Pastime Theatre is "The Truth About Husbands," adapted from Sir Arthur Wing Pinero's brilliant stage play, "The Profligate." It is a Whitman Bennett production released through First National and has an exceptionally well balanced cast headed by May McAvoy.

It deals in an interesting way with the age-old problem of how a man before marriage cannot have his fling without the danger of his escapades confronting him after marriage. The denouement of the play is perhaps as thrilling a climax as ever screened in a society drama.

H. E. Herbert plays Dunstan Renshaw, a wealthy bachelor who is supposedly typical of his class. He is not vicious, merely worldly.

A CLOSE-UP REMEMBRANCE OF GAIL BORDEN

These stories about Gail Borden which appeared recently in the newspapers of Houston interested me greatly, for while I can not remember ever having seen Gail Borden, I must have done so many times for he and my grandfather were intimate friends, and he visited my grandfather's house whenever he came to Houston. Their friendship started in a peculiar way, namely, in what almost resulted in a fist fight, but I think that perhaps that fact drew them closer together. Borden had been made collector of the port of Galveston by President Houston, and of course, had his headquarters there. Galveston was scarcely more than a name then, consisting as it did of a few shacks built upon a sea of sand with not even a bush more than a few feet high, and no trees to relieve the dreariness of the scene.

My grandfather had gone down to Galveston from Harrisburg on a sailing boat, and when he arrived there the tide was out, leaving a broad expanse of mud and sand between the channel and what afterward became the "Strand," over which it was necessary to wade in order to land. When my grandfather finally reached the drug store the person he met was Gail Borden, the collector, and the first question he asked was if people were serious in thinking that a city could be built on that sand bar, and ending by stating that he would not give a dime for the whole island. That made Borden angry, and he told my grandfather that if he did not like the city he could wade back to his boat and return to Houston; that no one had invited him to come to Galveston, and no one wanted him there. That, of course, precipitated a wordy war, which came near being a personal encounter, but outsiders interfered and restored the semblance of peace. It happened that my grandfather had gone to Galveston to see Borden on some business, but did not know it was he who welcomed (?) him to the city until someone mentioned his name. My grandfather had a letter of introduction from President Houston to Borden, which was presented in due form, and the semblance of peace, at least, was established between them. It took some time to arrange the business on hand and by the time they had talked together for an hour or two, each discovered that the other was something of a good fellow after all, and a friendship between the two was established, which terminated only with the death of Gail Borden.

Borden was an inventor, and his condensed milk was only one of the things he undertook. He was something of a Hoover, and his great desire was to feed the world. His grandson, the late Gail B. Johnson, told me that his grandfather had a horror of anyone being hungry and that his table at his dining room at his home in Elgin, Ill., where he lived after he had perfected his condensed milk discovery, resembled that of a hotel more than anything else, for his grandfather was accustomed to pick up all kinds of people on the street and take them home with him to eat. His milk was only one of the things he discovered, for he discovered the process of preparing all kinds of vegetables so that they would last indefinitely. His milk, however, surpassed all the others so much that the latter have been overlooked or taken up by others.

The story told in one of the articles published a short time ago about what caused him to hit on the process he was seeking, to prepare his condensed milk, lacks much of being correct. In effect it was that he left a glass of milk standing over night and in the morning found it thickly covered with cream or butter fat. Every farm boy knew that fact, of course, and Borden was not ignorant that milk would act that way. The problem he undertook to solve was how to prevent fermentation setting in after the cream had formed, and thus destroying the whole thing. Borden attacked this problem and solved it while living in Texas, and went north where he enlisted capitalists to erect a factory for the manufacture of condensed milk and thus laid the foundation for the immense fortune which he soon acquired.

It is a remarkable fact that no great invention or discovery has ever been made that two or more claimants have not appeared on the field. The telephone, the air brake, the phonograph and the electric telegraph have all had claims filed against the men who were the inventors, and the successful claimants. Borden did not escape that annoyance, for the descendants of the early Texans will tell one today that Borden stole the secret from a lady with whom he went north, of how to condense milk, whose husband had found the secret and told her of it. Since Borden was going north after he perfected his plans and knew the process already, he could learn nothing from a chance acquaintance, so the story falls of its own weight. I have said that he was something of an inventive genius, and so he was. While living in Galveston, he invented a real "prairie schooner," a land boat, to revolutionize traveling on the prairies of Texas. It was a light wagon mounted on four wheels, and having a mast on which a sail was spread. It was guided in the same way that a modern automobile is, but varying the direction of the rear wheels. The front wheels were fixed and the rear wheels were turned in the desired direction by a tiller, just as a ship is steered. At that time Galveston had the finest beach in the world. It was 200 or 300 feet wide, as smooth as a billiard table and about 30 miles long. It was an ideal place for Borden to test his "prairie schooner," and he used it for that purpose. His first trial was entirely satisfactory. There was a good breeze and the schooner acted splendidly, skimming along the beach like a bird. That encouraged him so much that he invited a party of women to make a trip with him. They accepted, and the start was made from a point which is now the foot of Tremont street. All went well for a few hundred yards, but then the sail got jammed or the steering gear went wrong, with the result that the "schooner" figuratively, took the bit in her teeth and headed for the gulf, into which she plunged, taking her precious load with her and subjecting them to an involuntary bath. Fortunately the water was not deep and no harm was done. That settled the fate of the "prairie schooner," and if Gail Borden went any farther with his great invention, no one ever heard of it.—By S. O. Young in Texas Commercial News.

WHO ARE THESE AMERICANS THAT ARE FIGHTING PROHIBITION?

Prohibition is the law of the land—it is in both the Constitution and in the statutes. But for Country America it would not be there at all.

And now certain lawless people are making a laughing stock of what the majority of the people decreed. Perhaps Country America would like to know what kind of Americans these people are—these Bolsheviks of Booze. The following in a recent month's list of those indicted by the grand jury of one of the lesser of our large cities for violating the prohibition enforcement law:

Anthony Beniusin, Joseph Detz, Walter Sikorski, Joseph Podsoid, Gustable Christian, George Levinson, Tony Buholtz, Micky Moore, William Moss, Nicholas Wins, Amrk Sheridan, Paul Dorrington, John Drugnitski, Solomon Miller, Fred Kininger, David Spaight, Sol Marks, Roy Pask, John Welling, August Meier, Pete Crevar, Frank Stefano, Anthony Graska, Edward Shively, William Nykiel, Jacob Roe, John Wagner, Angus Graves, Chester Britz, Emmett Billingsley, Henry Noisson, William Trappe, Peter Jankowski, John Schifke, George Bakich, A. ORIENT TOWNS TOLD TO STORE SUPPLIES

San Angelo, June 26—Warning to merchants and stockmen in towns served exclusively by the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railroad to obtain and store needed supplies before July 1, "as there is no reason now to believe other than that the Orient will cease operations on that date" was issued today by Alex Collins, general attorney for Orient in Texas, who returned Tuesday night from Wichita, Kan., where he attended conference Saturday between W. T. Kemper, Orient president and receiver and employees.

All efforts by management to finance further operations have failed and but $46,000 remains in treasury, Collins said, in emphasizing that warning should be taken seriously.

So far, realization that the Orient trains will stop July 1 with subsequent scrapping of line is likely, says Collins.

Many persons are refusing to believe abandonment is at hand, as it has been averted before.

AM I A GOOD CITIZEN?

MEREDITH NICHOLSON

"Keep out of politics!" is a warning given constantly to young men who show an inclination to interest themselves in public affairs. The civic standard is low in any community where a reputable citizen who seeks office encounters suspicion, reproach, or obloquy. The full powers confided to the people presuppose the participation of all citizens in the business of government.

Every citizen is "in" politics. The Constitution of the United States puts him there, and his conscience grants no exemptions.

I have heard men boast that they never perform jury service, or that they have a "pull" that gains them some other immunity. A corruptible public official finds his job unprofitable unless he is able to enter into partnership with another bad citizen.

If I am more concerned with my privileges and immunities than with my duties, I am skidding; I am on the way of becoming a bad citizen. If I neglect to vote because it is inconvenient to meet that obligation, or I assume that my neighbors will protect me with their ballots, I am a dodger and a slacker. Blind confidence in government is good luck is bound to bring disaster. The constant vigilance and intelligent action of all the people is essential to enlightened, capable government.

Am I a good citizen? Is the first question in the American catechism. Government is a complex business, but citizenship may be reduced to three essentials: understanding, loyalty, and service.

This morning I saw a boy scout walk to the middle of the street, pick up a piece of paper, and deposit it in the litter box at the next corner. He didn't have to do that; it was my business quite as much as his. That had exemplified the good citizenship that is always on the job.

In the rebuilding of the wall of Jerusalem, every man labored "over against his own house." In like manner, an American citizen's duty to his country is immediate and personal, and lies at his own door.

When I say to myself, "I hold an inalienable partnership in this nation; its prosperity and happiness rest with me," then I have caught the spirit of true Americanism. Then indeed I am a "worthy citizen of this mighty republic and a contributor to the forces that make for its perpetuity.

was owned by farmer stockholders who had been led to believe that a printing plant was a goose of the golden egg variety.

The promoters spread the idea that the farmers themselves, the county officials, and the state generally were being soaked mercilessly for both printing and advertising; they proceeded to cut prices recklessly to show that "the printers of the country are robbers."

But let a printer tell the story. Every newspaper has suffered from the same ill cause. Newspaper men know what printing costs are, and if stockholders of a bankrupt newspaper want to put up the difference they are welcome to the glory, even though for the time being they are playing havoc with the industry.

The business man who is incompetent to figure correctly is always a detriment to his competitor, because he places the latter in the wrong light—makes the public think he is a robber. When the square business man explains that he cannot do business on that basis, the customer asks, "How is it that your competitor is not able to, but the public has to wait until the competitor goes broke to prove it."

It is just the same story in the dry goods business, the printing business, the grocery business or any other line. The legitimate dealer knows about what his expenses are, and just what he must make in order to continue in business, and he knows that his low price competitors must go broke in time, unless he makes a real profit over and above his expenses.

TOWN FOR SALE

Do you want to sell your town? If so you must sell to yourself before you can hope to sell to a stranger. Whenever 100 percent of the citizens of any town or community sell to themselves the outsiders will clamor to buy. But before selling yourself the town, here are a number of questions which you should ask yourself. If you find that your town is not one that you can conscientiously sell to yourself, then it is either time for you to make a move or do your part to make it attractive to buy.

1. Attractive—Shall I like the town—its "atmosphere"? Does it have the beauty of shaded streets and other beautiful features? Is it a quiet roomy, airy, well lighted town? Does it have attractive public buildings and homes? Is it well paved? Is it clean in every sense?

2. Healthfulness—Will my family and I have a reasonable chance to keep well in that town? How about its water supply? Its sanitary system? Its methods of milk inspection? Its health departments? Its hospitals? Is it without any congested district?

3. Education—Can I educate my family and myself in that town? How about its public schools—present and future? Its institutions of higher education or of business training? Its libraries? Its lecture and concert courses? Its newspapers? Its postal facilities? Its schedule of salaries to teachers? Its investment in school property?

4. People—Shall I like the people of the town? Are they "home-folks" without false exclusiveness? Are they neighborly and friendly? Is the town free from factionalism? Does it have strong religious, fraternal and social organizations? Is it a law abiding community? Do the people use their public libraries and support artistic undertakings? Do they keep their children in school and not in factories? Are they good American citizens?

5. Recreation—Can I have a time in that town—I and my family? How about the theatres, museums, gymnasiums, parks, etc? Are there active agencies for providing good entertainments, athletic contests, etc? Are inviting opportunities for pleasure drives afforded by well paved streets?

6. Living—Can we live reasonably and well in that town? Are the best of modern conveniences available for its residents—electricity, gas, telephones, etc? Are the housing and shopping conditions favorable? Rents, taxes, and prices fair? Hotels good? Home and truck gardens and dairy products plentiful? Is it a good town in which to bring up children?

7. Accessibility—Can we go and come easily? Does the town have adequate railroad connections and train service? Street car lines? Interurban lines? Well marked automobile routes and hard surfaced roads? Desirable proximity to other cities affording additional advantages?

8. Business—Can I make good use of capital in that town? Are there good banking facilities? Manufacturing interests? Up to date stores? Good shipping facilities? Favorable labor conditions? A prosperous farming territory? Fair real estate values? Reasonably cheap power? Active co-operation among business interests?

9. Employment—Can I get a job in that town at fair pay and with good prospects for the future? Can I count on co-operation from organizations making it their business to introduce and establish new commercial interests and to welcome new citizens?

10. Progressiveness—Shall I find that I am in a live town having a progressive city government, active civic organizations, modern fire department, adequate police protection, organized measures for accident prevention, and a pull-together spirit in everything—a town with a future?—Portales News.

PLANNING YOUR OWN WARDROBE A GREAT HELP

Have you ever really planned your clothes? Do you know how much your parents spend each year for your clothes? If you do not know how much you spent for the different items of clothing such as four-wear, under-clothes or hats last year, suppose you begin now and plan your wardrobe for the coming year.

First, ask yourself this question: "What do I want of my clothing?" You must answer this question before you can plan and select your clothes wisely.

We want clothes to protect us from the heat, cold and moisture. We choose our clothes for beauty also. You can do this by selecting materials, colors and designs best suited to you. We always want our clothes to give us a feeling of self-respect. We can have this when we wear appropriate clothing.

Sometimes we buy very unwisely and especially when we have a limited amount of money to spend. Sometimes we buy a very expensive hat or waist and do not have money enough left to buy shoes when shoes are very much needed. By planning our clothes more carefully and dividing our money out for the different articles before we spend it, we can be sure of being better dressed and much more economically so.

We must consider that many of our garments can be used more than one year if necessary.

First, we want to make an inventory of our wardrobe grouping the articles such as outer garments, under garments, foot wear, head wear, and accessories. When we divide out money for the different articles of clothing before we spend it, we are making a clothing budget. Don't you think it would be interesting for every club girl to make her own clothing budget?

"Just what clothes should a club girl have in her wardrobe?" Of course, I realize that all club girls do not have the same needs, because you do not all live in the same environment.

Following is a list of clothes that one club girl had and I wonder how your needs compare with it:

- Outer Garments—Winter
- 1 rain coat and cap.
 - 1 serge middie suit.
 - 1 wool skirt laid.
 - 2 white middies (Indian head, duck, galatea.)
 - 1 serge dress for best wear.
 - 1 kimona.
 - 1 sweater.
 - 1 coat.

- Summer
- 1 dark skirt, wool or cotton.
 - 2 middies, white.
 - 1 white skirt.
 - 2 gingham or chambray dresses.
 - 2 bungalow aprons.
 - 1 cotton dress for best wear, voile, lawn, etc.
 - 1 sweater.

- Under Garments
- 2 night gowns.
 - 1 dark petticoat (sateen).
 - 3 camisoles or corset covers.
 - 2 brassieres or corset waists or corset fitted snugly over hips, loose at waist and above.
 - 6 tedies (muslin or knitted wear)
 - 2 dark bloomers (sateen) for winter.
 - 2 night gowns.
 - 2 petticoats, 1 whiteel gingham.

- Foot Wear
- 1 pair rubbers.
 - 1 pair high shoes low heel, broad toe.
 - 2 pair low shoes, low heel broad toes.
 - 1 pair pumps, low heel.
 - 6 pair lisle hose.

- Head Wear
- 1 winter hat.
 - 1 summer hat.
 - 1 sport hat.
 - 2 boxes hair pins.

- Accessories
- Handkerchiefs.
 - Sun shade
 - Ribbons
 - Gloves.
 - Toilet articles.
 - Collars.

Take an inventory of all of your clothes. Make a list of the clothes you have on hand and estimate the cost. This will show you the value of the clothes you have on hand. Then keep an accurate account of your expenditures for clothing. It will be helpful and interesting to keep this budget and know what you spend for clothes. Talk to your Home Demonstration Agent or write the Extension Service for information.—By Mrs. Dora Barnes, Clothing Specialist, Extension Service A. and M. College.

Miss Ethel Hudgins left Friday for a visit with relatives and friends in Amarillo and Pampa.

RECIPES FOR CANNING AND PRESERVING

Canned Peaches (Cane Sugar)
—Recipe A

Take firm, ripe peaches, place in wire basket or square of cheese cloth, blanch by lowering for 15 minutes into water below boiling point (about 180 degrees F). Dip into cold water after blanching to make firm.

Peel, stone and pack in jars and cover with a syrup made by boiling together 1 3/8 pounds of cane sugar to 1 quart of water. Process 15 minutes. Use quart jars (if No. 3 cans are used, they should be exhausted 3 minutes.)

Canned Peaches (Glucose)
—Recipe B

Follow directions above, using the following syrup: 1 1/4 pounds of cane sugar, 3/8 pounds of crystal white Karo, 1 pint of water. Heat until sugar is melted and pour over peaches. Process 15 minutes. Quart jars.

Peach Standards
A No. 3 can should have at least 1 pound 5 ounces solids and 11 ounces liquid, should contain between 10 and 12 halves of peaches. The net weight of contents must not be less than 12 ounces.

Peaches—Lye Peeling.
If properly used, peeling with a hot lye solution is not injurious and is more economical and sanitary.

Place the peaches in scalding water for 20 seconds to blister or cauterize the surface. They are then dipped into boiling lye solution for 20 seconds. The lye solution should contain about 1-4 pound of concentrated lye to each gallon of water. The fruit is then sprayed thoroughly with water, or washed through at least four waters, to remove all traces of lye and the peels. Owing to the variation in the strength of lye obtainable, a small amount of the solution should be made and tested before the season opens.

Peach Marmalade

Ripe fruit may be used for this: 2 1/4 pounds sliced peaches. 1 pound of sugar. 6 whole allspice. 1 cracked peach seed. 1 inch piece of ginger root. 1-2 cup of peach juice. 1-2 teaspoon whole cloves. 1-2 teaspoon whole mace.

Cook all together until thick as marmalade and clear (temperature of 220 degrees F.) Pack hot in hot jars and seal at once. If this is done quickly, having everything very hot, a good seal should result. However, when packing for market, it is far safer to process this jam, both to insure sterilization and a tight seal.

Peach Butter

Ripe fruit may be used for this. Peel, stone and weigh the fruit. Cook slowly in porcelain-lined kettle. Mash and stir the peaches until perfectly smooth. Add 3-4 pound of sugar for each pound of fruit and boil until light brown in color (temperature of 220 degrees F.) Fill into hot jars while still hot and seal. This product may be sterilized as for marmalade.

Peaches—Sweet Pickle

7 pounds of peaches. 4 pounds of sugar. 1 pint of vinegar. 1-2 ounce of ginger root. 1 teaspoonful of ground cloves. 2 teaspoonfuls of cinnamon. 1-2 teaspoonful of ground mace.

Peel the peaches. Tie the spices into two or more muslin bags. Add the peaches and spices to the hot vinegar and sugar and bring to a boil. Set aside for about 12 hours. Drain off liquor. Bring to a boil and pour over peaches. Drain and reboil every day for a week or until the fruit is just covered, then bring the fruit and liquor to a boil; fill jars and seal.

Peach Leather

Peel and mash ripe peaches. Spread in thin sheets on a platter, a clean board or a sheet of glass and dry in the air or in the sun. When dry, roll up as a scroll. Stone as dried peaches. Soak to restore freshness. Cook and use for fruit rolls and other desserts.

Peach butter or peach marmalade may be dried in the same manner and used as a confection or in desserts.

KHIVA TEMPLE PRAISED AT NATIONAL CONVENTION

The following circular letter from Recorder George Stapleton, of Khiva Temple, to the members of that Shrine will be of interest to Shriners and those interested in the work.

You might be interested in a short story concerning the recent convention of the Imperial Council, A. A. O. N. M. S., which was held in San Francisco, June 13-14-15. Khiva Temple was represented by O. T. Nicholson, Potentate; F. R. Jamison, Chief Rabban; and the undersigned as Recorder. No doubt you have seen press comments on this convention and have already formed a reasonably clear conception of importance that were performed thereat.

As we proceeded to the western city, pilgrims became more and more numerous and when we finally reached the ferry that transports the San Francisco visitors to the busy city, we found that it had been transformed into a marvel of pleasantness and courtesy. Islam Temple had provided 5500 cars for the comfort and convenience of its visitors and everything was systematized to such exact nicety that there was a minimum of confusion and an immediate habitation of the rooms which had been provided.

Opinions are very often deceptive and to us boys of the short grass country, an estimate of the crowd would be more or less speculative. It is said, however, that 300,000 visitors came to pay their respects to San Francisco while the Imperial Council was in session. Of these, perhaps one fourth wore the canopy of the Arab, which is the badge of the Shriner.

The session opened at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning, following one of the most spectacular pageants that has ever been exhibited on the Western coast. Sessions continued from 9:30 in the morning until 5:00 or 5:30 in the afternoon, with about 31 minutes for lunch. Islam Temple banqueted all representatives at the Fairmount Hotel on Tuesday night, thereby honoring the Imperial Potentate, Noble Ernest A. Cutts of Savannah, Georgia. Luncheon were served free to the representatives, in the basement of the Scottish Rite Cathedral, where the Imperial sessions were held. Notable throughout the sessions was the high principles involved in every discussion, the foundation stones upon which our fraternity finds its resting place. Men who have business cares to occupy their minds; men who when released, might desire to spend their leisure time in recreation; men whose minds are capable of great things—all bowed their heads with the men of ordinary ability and sought audience with the God of Heaven. These same men who are capable of forming great commercial affairs in the busy world, occupied their minds with the humanitarian task of placing unfortunate crippled children upon their feet and to make of them not only useful men and women during their period of life here, but to make ease and comfort for them, a joy and a reality. 400,000 crippled children are seeing new rays of sunshine and joy by reason of the Shriners of North America.

Multipled thousands are receiving pleasure from the wonderful Shrine trains that moved to the Imperial Council from all parts of North America. Khiva Temple received unstinted praise for the conduct of its affairs through its short duration and it is predicted that it will soon take its place in an important way in Imperial affairs. In 1923 it is the hope that a special train may depart from Khiva Temple for the Imperial Council, which is to be held in the Capital of our Nation on June 5-6-7.

No greater convention is held upon this continent than the Imperial Council. More detailed reports will be given you from time to time but we thought you might appreciate this word from your representatives who were early upon the ground and stayed until the gavel fell in adjournment.

Yours in the Faith,
George Stapleton, Recorder.

THOUGHTS AND EXPRESSION REGARDING DIVORCED AND NON-DIVORCED HUMANITY

I cannot believe that the man or woman who has been forced to obtain a divorce will be held as accountable before God as the man or woman who is or has been the cause of them having to obtain a divorce.

Being an observer of such cases, myself being one among thousands. As the number of divorced people is something to cause one to think that something terrible is wrong, and I believe there are many times in numbers of cases the direct cause is not with either husband or wife. Sad to say it can be traced to gossiping neighbors or sometimes even strangers, not only that, but most of them belong to some church or lodge and yet they are the best news carriers the world will ever know.

Every now and then I hear, well I wouldn't do so and so, nor my husband would not. Look out! The past, present and future are gone, now and tomorrow, who knows what tomorrow may bring, perhaps sorrows and troubles which would exceed mine ten to one.

The possession of a lovely wife, or a model husband, and guaranteed possession, with insurance against gossiping intruders are as different as day and night.

Some are heard to say, well why doesn't she dress or tidy up a bit. There may be several reasons, perhaps the husband refuses to let her have sufficient money or she may feel as if they cannot afford it, or worse still he may willingly spend it at the gambling den, pool hall or elsewhere.

When one makes such a statement as this one, which I happened to hear only a few days ago spoken by a church member directly to myself, the subject was divorced and the person made this statement, "divorce nearly always drives a man to drink." It may drive some men to drink, but most of them are already acquainted with it. On the other side, it causes a woman to lose her honor. Maybe so in some cases, not in all cases though, but sad is the day when such is the case, for so far as man's law is concerned, the man is a privileged character. He is permitted to go about without anything on his name. What about the woman? Her name is blackened forever, and nothing can be done to rid her of such an unfortunate circumstance.

Having heard so many remarks also having to go to such an extreme as to have to write for my own marriage certificate, shortly after leaving Clarendon several years ago. Bro. Miller who was Presiding Elder here at that time was kind enough to send it to me, and I shall always feel grateful to him, and since my life has been questioned recently, I wish to make this statement. No men ever come here excepting the ones for whom I am working, and only long enough to bring and get their work, all of them have been very kind and without any question gentlemanly. I make no practice of inviting the men unless it be necessary and as I do not believe in telling everything, and if I go to see any man it is no one else's affair. I have been and still expect to be treated decently and with courtesy.

You who are mothers of daughters, better think before you speak unkindly. How would you like for some one whom you or your daughter had never seen to cause her some day to have to write for a marriage certificate as proof of a legal marriage. I have been through all that, and not only that but since coming here heard the remark, "that little girl has no father." That is not only unkind, but very untrue. I am getting tired of having to prove everything, and I give you perfect liberty to see if my honor is gone. It is not and all these remarks have been made by supposed to be good church members.

Now I think it is time to stop before you get into serious trouble.
 Mrs. C. I. Smith.

GWINN-McLEAN

Harold M. Gwinn of Breckenridge, Texas and Miss Ruie McLean of this city were married Wednesday morning at the Methodist church at eight-thirty o'clock, Rev. G. S. Slover officiating. Only relatives and close friends of the families were present. Miss Lila Maude Eberhart of Mineral Wells, Texas, sang "At Dawning." The bride and groom entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. Ralph Kerbow. During the ceremony Mrs. Kerbow played strains from the "Flower Song" accompanied by Miss Ivy Mae Smith of Mineral Wells, Texas on the violin. The bride was becomingly attired in a suit of navy blue twill trimmed with rust crepe, with accessories to match.

Directly after the ceremony, a three course breakfast was served to the bridal party at the McLean home. Mr. and Mrs. Gwinn left immediately for their home in Breckenridge, Texas, where Mr. Gwinn is engaged in business.

Out of town guests were Mesdames Reba Williams, Mossholder, Misses Mamie Smith, Lila Maude Eberhart, Ivy Mae Smith, Messrs Alan Gwinn, Tygrett, Hays, Preston, Baughn, all of Mineral Wells, Dr. Wallace Gwinn of Breckenridge, Mr. and Mrs. John McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Bobo McLean of Hereford and Miss Orville Headrick of Amarillo.
