TWENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL OPENING OF CLARENDON COLLEGE CELE- BRATED TUESDAY AT 10 A. M.

STRONG FACULTY GREET'S STUDENT BODY LARGER THAN LAST YEAR AT AUSPICIOUS OPENING OF LOCAL COLLEGE. W. H. PATRICK GIVES WELCOME ADDRESS FOR THE CITY. DR. GRISWOLD FOR THE CHURCHES—MUCH ENTHUSIASM.

It was a goodly-sized and wonderful fine spirited assembly that greeted the president and faculty of Clarendon College when ten o'clock came Tuesday morning—the zero hour for the formal opening of the twenty-sixth session of the oldest college in the Panhandle country.

After the faculty had assembled on the platform with Miss Mable Claire Betts at the piano, Dr. G. S. Slover, president of the institution, announced the first hymn as the "doxology," immediately followed by "Onward Christian Soldiers," and the zest with which the assembled patrons, visitors and students sang these great old songs gave incontrovertible evidence of the spirit and zeal that beat high in every breast. Presiding Elder J. R. Henson conducted the devotional exercises, reading a scripture and making comment, followed by a prayer. Hon. W. H. Patrick president of the First National Bank of Clarendon, was then introduced and delivered the welcome address for the business interests of Clarendon and Donley County, which he did in his usual impressive style, declaring that the good in the young life attracted here by Clarendon College had left an indelible impression upon the community—a lasting impression.

Another bright spot in the morning's program was the first appearance of the new director of the music department of the school, Mr. Paul Edward Allen, who favored the audience with a piano solo rendered with undoubted mastery, and an encore given in response to prolonged applause.

President Slover then said that the most important interest in Clarendon was the church interest and asked Dr. J. T. Griswold, pastor of the local Methodist Church to respond in a welcome to the new student body. Dr. Griswold reaffirmed his interest in the personal life of every student and declared that as they were welcomed to every service and facility of the local church, that in turn he expected to be one with the student body in their every activity. He admonished the students to "be happy, but above all to be religious." His address was followed by an address from Rev. J. S. Huckabee pastor of the McLean Methodist Church on the subject of "What the Methodists of the Northwest Texas Conference Expect of the Students of Clarendon College." The burden of this address was that all achievement must be based upon Christianity and the development of sterling character.

After the singing of "Stand Up, Stand Up For Jesus," Dr. Slover made his address to the parents and students, outlining the policies of the institution and admonishing the faculty to require even more thorough work from the individual pupil than in any former years. He then introduced the new members of the faculty, viz., Prof. Blocker, who has charge of the boy's dormitory and teaches in the fitting school; Miss Dunn, teacher of violin and voice; Miss Wilson, teacher of home economics; Mr. Allen director of music, having been formerly presented.

Dean Condon then made the announcements relating to matriculation and enrollment in classes and after the benediction invoked by Rev. Huckabee, the opening exercises for Clarendon College for the twenty-sixth time passed into immobile history.

Misses Gladys and Imogene Condon, of Elgin, granddaughters of Mrs. W. H. Condon, and nieces of Dean Stuart Condon, of Clarendon College, arrived here Friday morning and will attend Clarendon College this year.

FIRE DESTROYS RESIDENCE OF CLYDE BUTLER FRIDAY

Fire of unknown origin completely destroyed the residence of Clyde Butler just outside of the southeast city limits Friday afternoon. Mrs. Butler was visiting with a neighbor, Mrs. Hearne, and returned home only to discover flames beginning to spread from the center of the house. The fire alarm was turned in; but on account of the great headway that the fire had made before any warning, nothing could be done when the truck arrived as the whole building had burst into flames. The structure was a new one, and despite the insurance that was carried there is still a heavy loss.

W. S. Davis, a prominent farmer of Goodnight and former resident of this city, was here Saturday on business. He called at the News office and placed on our subscription lists the name of his son, Buel, who is attending New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell this year.

RURAL TEACHERS HIRED FOR YEAR

SEVERAL RURAL SCHOOLS HAVE ALREADY BEGUN
THIS YEAR'S SCHOOL TERM

Although several of the rural schools of the county will not begin their terms until late on account of the picking of the cotton crop, several have already commenced their terms, and prospects are good for a fine school year in Donley County. According to Judge W. T. Link, county superintendent of public instruction, most of the rural districts have hired their teachers for the year, although not all of them have recorded their contracts.

Donley county is not in the territory which attends the teachers' institute held at Canyon, but is in a district composed of this and Hall, Collingsworth and Childress counties; and the teachers in these counties meet in institute the last week before Christmas.

Although many of the schools will not commence until next month, and some until November, four of them, Boydston, Pleasant Valley, Sunnyview and Ashtola, have already commenced their terms for this year.

Although some of the districts below have not officially recorded their teachers for this year, following is a list so far as can be secured of the teachers for the various schools; of course this does not include the independent district.

No. 19—Barfield, Miss Ruth Ruthford.

No. 11—Bray, Rex Reeves and Miss Lois Nipper.

No. 17—Ashtola, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lewis.

No. 6—Windy Valley, Misses Denie Shipley, Velma Newman and Moreman.

No. 8—Goldston, Bryan Thomas, Mrs. Jess Shannon and Miss Grace Barnett.

No. 3—Boydston, Miss Edith Gibson.

No. 13—Hackberry, Miss Dorothy Smith.

No. 25—Pleasant Valley, Mrs. Leonard Goldston.

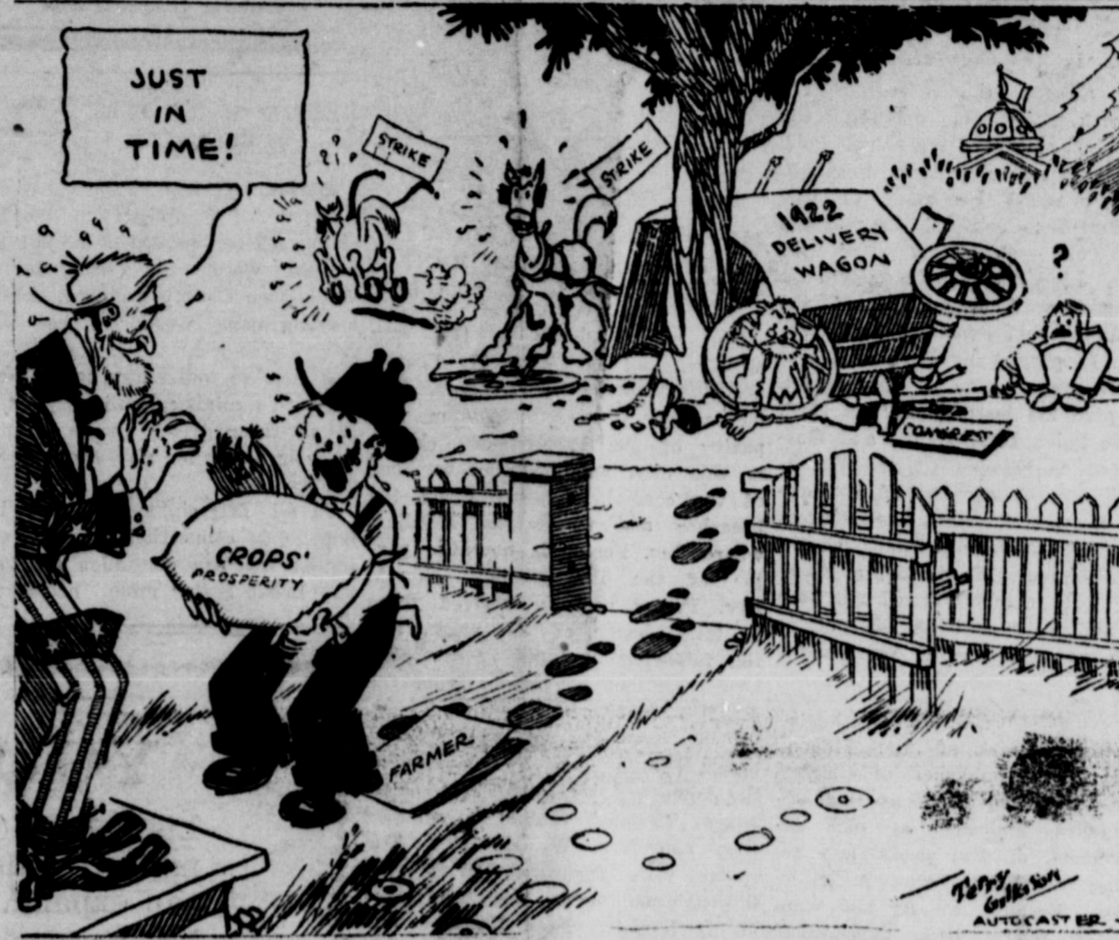

No. 20—Chamberlain, Miss Iris Williamson and Miss Eva Bogard.

No. 18—Martin, Roy Beights, Miss Orene Hudgins and Miss Blanche Bogard.

No. 23—McKnight, N. C. Duggins and Miss Ora Lee Campbell.

No. 4—Glas, Mrs. W. L. Willis.

Getting here just the same

CLARENDON TO ENTERTAIN PAN- HANDLE B. Y. P. U.

FOUR HUNDRED DELEGATES ARE EXPECTED HERE FOR THE TWO DAYS CONFER-ENCE ON SEPT. 28TH AND 29TH.

Four hundred delegates are expected to be here for the two days conference of the B. Y. P. U. and Sunday school workers of the Panhandle Baptist church which will be held in the Baptist church in this city on Thursday and Friday the 28th and 29th days of this month. Many members of the state boards of the organizations will be here to assist in the work and make addresses and many of the prominent speakers of that church in the Panhandle will also have leading parts in the program. Perhaps the most widely known speaker will be Dr. John L. Hill of Nashville, Tennessee, who is educational director for the Southern Baptist Board.

Joe Goldston, of this city, is president of the B. Y. P. U. work and will preside at those sessions, while Rev. E. E. Dawson, of Tulsa, is president of the Sunday school division, and will have charge of those meetings. The class work and the addresses will be on the various phases of B. Y. P. U. and Sunday school work.

The services will begin at ten o'clock each morning and last until twelve fifteen. Following the dinner hour, the services will be resumed at two o'clock and last until four thirty. The evening services will be from seven thirty until nine thirty.

A phase of the work that will prove of unusual interest is the exhibits of the B. Y. P. U. work, among this exhibit there will be various and sundry posters and like advertising methods.

The district represented in this conference comprises fifty-two counties in this part of the state, and is fairly well outlined by commencing at Vernon and going west to the western boundary of the state. The entertainment of the large attendance that will be present will be another triumph for Clarendon and the meeting is looked forward to with much interest.

G. C. Ferguson, of Amarillo, formerly of this city, was here the first week on business and entering his daughter Miss Mildred in Clarendon College.

BISHOP DICKEY TO PREACH HERE ON NEXT SUNDAY

SUNDAY MORNING'S SERVICE WILL CONSTITUTE FORMAL
OPENING OF CLARENDON COLLEGE. REVIVAL WILL FOLLOW.

The formal opening of Clarendon College will be next Sunday morning when Bishop James E. Dickey, of Waco, will preach the sermon. Following Sunday's services, a revival will be held for a week, in which the day services will be held at the college and the evening services at the Methodist church. The preaching during the week will be done by Rev. Alonzo Monk Jr., of Arlington, who will be remembered as the one who conducted the consecration service with success during the Epworth League Assembly in this city last June.

Bishop Dickey is a Georgian by birth and received his schooling there, and it was as president of Emory College as well as a successful pastor that he acquired fame that led to his being elected bishop at the last session of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. He is the bishop in charge of the episcopal diocese of which the Northwest Texas Conference, is a part and has since his appointment to these conferences mood to Texas. He is one of the thinkers as well one of the eloquent men of the church, and his coming to this city is looked forward to with much anticipation.

The revival that will be held the following week is one of the many revivals that will be held that week throughout the colleges in the church. Rev. Monk will arrive here Monday and have charge of the services. Particular efforts will be made to reach the college students during the day services at the college chapel, while the town is heartily invited to come and assist in the services which will be held at the church each evening.

Dr. G. S. Slover, as president of Clarendon College, and Dr. J. T. Griswold, as pastor of the Methodist church, are particularly interested in the outcome of the revival; and from the assurance of co-operation that they are receiving, the revival should be one productive of much good.

Mrs. G. A. Latimer, of Ft. Worth, is visiting here this week with her sister, Mrs. J. D. Stocking and family.

Y. M. C. A. WILL BE OPENED IN CLAR- ENDON SUNDAY

BOARD MAKES ARRANGEMENTS
WHEREBY THE BUILDING WILL BE OPEN TO THE PUBLIC EVERY DAY IN THE WEEK.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. building last week, a plan was worked out whereby the building will be informally opened at two o'clock next Sunday afternoon. Rev. E. L. Hughes, pastor of the Christian church in this city and who has had eleven years' experience in this sort of work, will have general supervision and conduct the place along the regular lines of Y. M. C. A. work. On all days of the week except Wednesdays and Sundays, the building will be open to the public from two until six o'clock in the afternoon, and from seven until eleven o'clock in the evening. On Wednesdays and Sundays the building will be open from two until six o'clock in the afternoon.

For the present at least, there will be no membership fees; but the business men of Clarendon and the board of directors have taken the responsibility of underwriting the expenses necessarily incurred in keeping the building open. Rev. Hughes is generously giving the benefit of his time without financial consideration; and that this was greatly appreciated by the business men and the board was evidenced by the fact that they so quickly subscribed the expenses.

Although the day of the week has not as yet been agreed upon, it is planned to give one day of the week to women and girls.

The privileges of the swimming pool, the gymnasium and the library will be given free to the public, at least until the board shall see fit to make a change from this policy. The public is, therefore, cordially invited to come and receive the benefits of the Y. M. C. A.

The co-operation of everyone is asked by the board in making the work go after a fashion that will be of material benefit to the young life of the community. In planning this, the board hoped to make this sort of a community center, not only for the city, but for all the surrounding territory, thus making this meet one of the long felt needs of this community. And, then, in making the effort to start the work at this time, the board was desirous of making this a help to the young college life

THIS YEAR'S SESSION OF CLAR- ENDON PUBLIC SCHOOLS BEGINS AUSPICIOUSLY MONDAY MORNING

MORE THAN SIX HUNDRED PUPILS ENROLL THE FIRST DAY WHICH IS A SLIGHTLY LARGER NUMBER THAN ON THE FIRST DAY LAST YEAR. FITTING EXERCISES GIVEN BY PUPILS. REV. GRISWOLD MAKES ADDRESS.

REV. CHARLTON TO FILL PRESBYTERIAN PULPIT

Rev. F. T. Charlton, of Amarillo, will fill the pulpit of the Presbyterian church here Sunday at both the morning and evening services. The morning preaching hour is eleven o'clock, and the evening eight o'clock. Rev. Charlton has preached here several times before, and that congregation covets the opportunity of hearing him again.

ROOF ON OUR HOME GIVEN NEW COVERING

The work was completed the latter part of last week in placing a new coat of tar and cinders on the roof of the building occupied by the News. Although the roof was in good shape before the work, this assures us that none of the fall rains will come through, and of course for the past several months we have not needed any sort of roof for keeping the rain out.

ROAD MEETING IS CALLED SEPT. 26

COMMITTEE HEADED BY W. H.
PATRICK CALLS COUNTY-WIDE ROADS COUNCIL.

Along in January a meeting was held in Clarendon attended by bankers and business men of Clarendon Hedley and other communities of Donley County for the purpose of considering a bond issue for the purpose of building permanent roads in the county. Prospects for a fine business year were marked at that time and little further has been done by the committee appointed to handle the movement until now. W. H. Patrick, F. E. Chamberlain, A. L. Chase, T. E. Noel and Pearl Boston comprise the committee and acting under their tentative plans The Clarendon News is authorized to call a countywide mass meeting to discuss the proposition on the evening of Tuesday, Sept. 26th, at 8 o'clock in the district court room at the court house in this city.

Efforts will be made to get a representative attendance from every community in Donley County to discuss and lay plans for the securing of an adequate road system for the county and to meet the financial needs of our people in the next twelve months. This is a matter that affects every man, woman and child in the county and as such it should bring to this meeting the greatest attendance of citizens that has ever met for the deliberation of a common cause in this county. Federal and state aid can be obtained in generous measure and there are overwhelming reasons why the movement should have the support of every provident citizen of Donley County. Further announcement will be made next week.

That is coming into the city at this time.

The board of directors is composed of: O. C. Watson, C. W. Taylor, Dr. B. L. Jenkins, C. H. Wisdom, Whitfield Carhart, J. B. McClelland, C. W. Bennett, Will Dubbs, S. H. Condon, W. A. SoBelle, W. T. Hayter, Tom F. Connally, A. M. Beville, J. H. Rutherford and F. E. Chamberlain.

This year's session of the Clarendon public schools was commenced Monday morning with an interesting program beginning at nine o'clock. The singing by the pupils was par excellence, and Rev. Griswold's talk was inspirational as usual. More than six hundred pupils enrolled the first day, and everything points to one of the most successful years in the history of the schools.

The singing of the pupils under the direction of Supt. J. E. Nelson has come to be one of the fine things of the school. Their work includes standard anthems, and they enter into it with an enthusiasm that is inspiring. Following the singing they recited in concert three of the Psalms, and their excellent training in this was manifest.

Rev. Griswold then prayed for the success of this year, and made a thoughtful short address on "The New Start", emphasizing the idea that this school year constitutes a new starting point in the lives of all the school boys and girls; and that they should forget any sort of discouragement in the past, thus working for the best in this year.

Supt. Nelson then introduced the new members of this year's faculty, and they in turn made pleasing responses.

The interest in the schools was manifested by a goodly number of visitors that were present as were three of the trustees, Messrs. M. M. Noble, J. T. Patman and Matt Bennett.

Of the six hundred pupils who enrolled the first day, four hundred were in the grades, which is about the same number as were in the grades last year; while two hundred were in the high school, which was an increase of about fifteen over the first day's enrollment in the high school last year.

The pupils will occupy the high school and the ward buildings as last year, until the new grammar school building, which is under construction is completed. It is hoped that it may be in shape to be used the first of the year.

This is Supt. Nelson's fourth year as superintendent of the Clarendon public schools, and the favor with which his work is received is shown by the appreciation with which the patrons receive it.

BAND GIVES CONCERT LAST FRIDAY EVENING

A large and enthusiastic audience was present for the concert given by the Clarendon Band in front of the Y building Friday evening commencing at eight o'clock. It had been announced that this would be the last concert by that organization as it was necessary to disorganize on account of lack of support. But several public spirited citizens began to work to carry the organization to Amarillo to compete in the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce contest during the convention there next week. Although it cannot yet be definitely stated whether the band will be carried to Amarillo, it has been decided by the boys to continue rehearsal until this matter is disposed of. It is felt that this band can show up particularly well with other bands organized for the same length of time, and that credit will be done to the city. Friday evening's concert consisted of some standard marches, waltzes and overtures, and the audience gave particularly good applause.

Joe M. Warren was a Hedley visitor Monday.

A SURE DWELLING PLACE

Trust in the Lord and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land and verily thou shalt be fed.—Psalm 37:3.

The hum of Clarendon's two cotton gins is sweet music this crisp autumn weather. It means money in the till.

Clarendon College football prospects are wonderfully bright this season according to Coach Burton, and Clarendon fans may set themselves for a dazzling display of the gridiron game when the "Bulldogs" go into action. All Clarendon is with you, "Bulldogs."

In the news dispatches a few days back we read that the Spring Grove, Minn., brass band had gone to the State Fair at Hamline, Minn., with the result that the little town of Spring Grove was practically closed for business. The banker, the barbers and the only minister in the little burg were all members and they all went along to do their bit. To our mind this conveyed a message that at Spring Grove, Minn., there was a spirit that few towns large or small have to such a degree. This little news item means that there is real co-operation in Spring Grove; it means that no fellow is so bound up in his own affair that he cannot become a unit in the community machine; it means that in Spring Grove people live for more than mere money. They are neighbors and they live— they live.

The U. S. department of agriculture has accepted the word "chevon", meaning goat flesh, coined right here in Texas, and it now becomes a regular and legal word. It is a French derivation and will become good English appearing in the market quotations with beef, mutton and pork. Don't let anybody "get your chevon".

Panhandle towns are vying with each other in trying to carry the largest delegation to the Panhandle Plains Chamber of Commerce Convention, Sept. 19-20, at Amarillo. Clarendon will be there a thousand strong. The railroads are giving special rates for the two days and hundreds will go by auto.

Clarendon ought to go to Amarillo a thousand strong during the convention of the Panhandle Plains Chamber of Commerce Sept. 19th and 20th. Other Panhandle towns are making up large delegations to attend and Clarendon ought to be first in numbers of attendance. There has been a wonderful program prepared and there will be something of interest to everybody.

One amusing feature of the program prepared for the Panhandle Plains Chamber of Commerce Convention, meeting in Amarillo, Tuesday and Wednesday Sept. 19-20, is an address on "What The Public Doesn't Know." Permit us to observe that if the speaker really attempts to cover his subject that convention will do well to adjourn by Christmas.

There are certainly some very strong arguments against the State of Texas establishing another school when the schools we now have are hampered by lack of funds, but this has been the history of education in Texas for the last fifty years. No school president and board of trustees has ever been satisfied with the appropriations granted them by the legislature, and yet we have seen the number of state institutions grow from one to ten under these same conditions and in some way provisions have been made for them to maintain a reasonable degree of efficiency, even if their physical equipment did not always reflect credit upon the Lone Star State. Now to the mind of a layman, it seems that the arguments against the establishment of a new school can be brushed aside just as they have been brushed aside in years past, and that the just'ice of giving West Texas and the Panhandle a branch of the A. & M. College could be generously accorded. If the school is once granted and established it will function as the other state institutions are functioning— with great credit to itself and with a continued and growing appetite for more funds. Just as well look at this matter in a practical way.

There are thousands of union men who deplore the action of their leaders in leading them into the present strike, and they are casting about to find some means to enforce a little more poise and common sense on the radicals. Now it occurs to The News that it might be well for the unions to pass a law that when a strike is ordered that the salaries of all officials of the union shall be suspended for the time of the strike. That is democratic, and the officials are entitled to do without their pay just as the men are. Such a law would cause more caution on the part of the leaders and save ninety percent of all strikes.

Back in the days when Admiral Peary attacked the record of Dr. Frederick A. Cook, denying the latter's discovery of the North Pole, The News editor believed then and hasn't changed his mind to this day that Dr. Cook did discover the North Pole, and in this latter time we are happy to find ourselves in agreement with over fifty of the world's greatest explorers and scientists. People of the Panhandle will have an opportunity of hearing Dr. Cook give his lecture on "My Dash to the Pole; Life, Habits and Customs of the People of the Northlands," on the evening of Wednesday, Sept. 20th when his address closes the Panhandle Plains Chamber of Commerce Convention at Amarillo. A tremendous crowd will hear him and seats will be difficult to secure, as there are no charges for admission.

Editor Warwick of the Randall County News, published at Canyon, and a very close friend of this editor, takes umbrage at our announcement of two weeks ago regarding the West Texas A. & M. matter. Because we do not want to see a pitiful little agricultural department added to the Normal, thrown as a sop to the people of this great section, who deserve a real branch of the Texas A. & M. college, Bro. Warwick says that our attitude is the result of living in the shadow of Clarendon College and calls it a "petty jealousy." 'Tis true that the News is heart and soul for every best interest of Clarendon College, just as Editor Warwick is for every interest of the Normal, but the brother is way off his base when he thinks that zeal for Clarendon College has any bearing, whatever, on our attitude regarding our needs for a West Texas A. & M. Furthermore so far as we know Clarendon will not even ask for consideration when the locating committee seeks a suitable location if the school is ever authorized, and the establishment of an entirely new school would seem to be a greater competition to our own home school than would an extra department added to the Normal at Canyon. This it seems to us, ought to relieve us forever from the charge of "petty jealousy." No, Brother Warwick, we are sincere in our position, justified by the best and larger interests of the people of the Panhandle and West Texas, just as you are sincere in your position, and we just had to say so.

THE CAPTAIN WON

When General Pershing was in Coblenz he reviewed the entire "Rhine Division" at Weisenthurm, near there. All officers were instructed to snap out of it and answer any questions put by the general without hesitation. One captain had this especially well in mind. "How many expert riflemen have you in this company?" queried the general. "Twenty per cent, sir," snapped back the captain. "How many sharpshooters?" "Forty-two percent, sir," just as snappily. "How many marksmen?" "Seventy-six percent, sir," instantaneously. "How is this captain?" asked the general, after his aide had showed him the total of figures he had jotted down on his pad. "This totals 138 per cent of your company." "The company is over-strength, sir," snapped back the captain.—The American Legion Weekly.

DUCK SEASON WILL OPEN OCTOBER 16

The open season for hunting ducks and geese in Texas will open October 16 and continue until January 31, according to Hugh F. Whitcomb, deputy game warden. The hunters will be privileged to hunt geese, ducks, Wilson snipe, pack snipes, brants and plover.

Species of the plover which may be killed include black bellied, golden and yellow legs, Mr. Whitcomb declared. The bag limit is twenty-five a day, and the game officials urge a strict observance of the requirement.

JOHNSON-BERRY

On Sunday, August 27th, at the Presbyterian church in Quanah Mr. Clifford L. Johnson of this city and Miss Willie Berry of Snyder, Okla., were united in the holy bonds of wedlock. Rev. J. W. Harris was the officiating minister. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are at home in the T. J. Davis residence, and Mr. Johnson is again connected with the Guaranty State Bank.

REV. FOSTER AND FAMILY GRACIOUSLY RECEIVED IN THEIR HOME AT McALLEN

The many friends in this city of Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Foster, who lived here for two years, during which time Rev. Foster was pastor of the Presbyterian church in this city, will be glad to hear of the cordial reception given the preacher and family in McAllen, where Rev. Foster is now the pastor of the Presbyterian church. Rev. Foster recently arrived there to take charge of the work, and the following accounts of the various receptions are taken from the McAllen Monitor:

"The members of the Presbyterian church gave a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jones Tuesday evening honoring Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Foster. The rooms were decorated with cut flowers and ferns and Mesdames M. L. Kreidler, Fred Knudson and V. E. Lieb presided at the punch bowl. Several delightful musical numbers were given by Miss Gene Kreidler, Miss Virginia Freeland and Mrs. Fred Taylor. The address of welcome was delivered by Rev. Rowland and Rev. Foster responded, and several talks were made by Rev. Wilkinson and talks were made by W. W. Stockton of Mission and Mr. Thayer."

Reception Tendered New Presbyterian Minister

Tuesday evening many McAllenites gathered at the comfortable home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jones on North Tenth street to get acquainted with the new Presbyterian minister, recently from Clarendon, Texas. The reception tendered in his honor was well attended by a number of McAllen citizens. Refreshments of lemonade and cake and ice cream were served throughout the evening.

Monthly Meeting

"The Valley Presbyterian ministers met for regular conference at the Presbyterian church of Mercedes last Monday. The conference was well attended and resulted in a spirit of renewal activity for the fall and winter months. The association meets once a month. At the noon hour those in attendance were served a delicious lunch in the Sunday school annex of the church, by ladies of the Woman's Auxiliary. The McAllen church was represented by the pastor-elect, W. H. Foster."

John Blocker left Saturday for Kansas City to which markets he was shipping two cars of calves and cows.

WHEN the Irishman got into a row with his wife and she threw a plate at his head the uncle is said to have started and in the midst of it the husband jerkily remarked: "If I'd known married life was like this—I'd have got married long ago." All of which carries out the general conception of the Celtic conviction that we must have peace even if we have to fight for it. Tolstoi preached non-resistance which meant letting everybody walk on your neck. This brings peace to the bullies and death to the meek. Jesus turned the other cheek, but he took the money changers by the scruff of the neck and threw them out of the temple. So it all depends when to fight and what to fight for, which means keep an eye out for the apertious flag wavers.

HERRIN GRAND JURY RECESSES TO SEPT 16

Marion, Ill., Sept. 9.—Twelve men, indicted for complicity in the Herrin massacre, languished in jail here tonight while the remainder of Williamson County prepared for the opening next week of the county fair.

A sombre quiet atmosphere overhung this mining community as the twenty-three grand jurors returned to their homes for a recess until September 16.

In all fifty-eight men have been indicted in connection with the slaying of nineteen non-union miners at the Leslie Strip mine nearly four

CELEBRATE WITH BIRTHDAY DINNER

In celebration of the birthdays of four people, a great dinner was spread at the home of Judge-elect and Mrs. J. L. Bain, north of this city Sunday. Those whose birthdays were celebrated were Mrs. Carl Boston and Little Miss Viola Bain, whose birthdays were Sunday; and Mrs. J. L. Bain and Mayor Cagle, whose birthdays were Monday. Words fit to describe the feast spread by Mrs. Bain are lacking, and following the dinner a watermelon and fruit feast added to the good eats of the day. Those from this city attending were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boston and Mayor Cagle and family. Miss Mildred Wilson, of Claude, a former student and graduate of Clarendon College, arrived here Friday morning to take charge of the domestic art and domestic science departments of the college.

YOUR LIGHT PLANT

Like all other businesses a light and power plant must make a reasonable profit on its investment before it can expand.

Unlike some businesses we are not allowed to make more than a limited percent on the money invested. Our percent of profit is limited by law. If we make more than a reasonable return on the investment we must reduce our prices.

A greater revenue reduces our overhead costs per kwh, it increases our profits and allows us to reduce the price to our customers. This in turn brings about a still greater volume of business and farther reductions, etc. It is to our interest as well as to the interest of our customers for us to reduce our rates as low as a reasonable return on the investment will allow. We want to expand our business, help Clarendon grow and grow with the town.

DALHART WOMAN ENTERTAINED BEFORE MOVING TO CLARENDON

A very enjoyable and impressive occasion was the social hour given for the ladies of the M. E. Church, South, by Mrs. Joe Lewis at the home of Mrs. J. D. Bratton, 601 Denver Ave., on Wednesday afternoon, August 23rd.

The spacious rooms had been tastefully arranged and decorated with garden flowers. Mesdames J. D. Bratton, Joe Lewis and Albert Bratton acted on the receiving line, with Mesdames Burrows and J. L. Howell presiding over the punch bowl.

A short program had been arranged which was enjoyed by all present, at the close of which the ladies of the W. M. Society, with Mrs. Bratton acting, presented Mrs. Lewis with a cold meat fork as a token of her untiring efforts and faithfulness in the W. M. Society for the past eleven years.

As the afternoon was nearing a close, the fifty guests were invited into the dining room where a delicious ice course was awaiting them.

As Mrs. Lewis and family were leaving Tuesday morning for their new home at Clarendon, the ladies departed wishing them prosperity and happiness in their new home, and hoping they might sometime return to Dalhart.

The out of town guests were Mesdames Albert Bratton and Ed Wilson of Wilco, J. L. Young of Birmingham, Ala., and J. L. Howell of Fort Worth. Misses Pearle and Myrtle Precise, cousins of Mrs. Lewis, who will sail for India from San Francisco September 14th, as nurse and missionary from our home fields, were present also.—Dalhart Texan.

LEARN TO WEIGH EVIDENCE

In certain states where it is the custom to elect judges, it often happens, in seasons of political upheaval, that people are elevated to the judicial bench who have no qualifications for the position. They win because of personal popularity or because others thought the chances of election on that particular ticket so remote as to make the nomination not worth seeking.

Not long ago a prosperous, though uneducated farmer won a seemingly worthless nomination without contest and was swept into office on a wave which carried him and all his party associates into power.

The first case that came before him was a suit between two neighbors over certain property rights. They engaged two clever and eloquent, if rather unscrupulous, lawyers to represent them.

Counsel for the aggrieved party, sizing up the situation correctly, wasted little time on evidence and the legal phases of the action but delivered a flowery oration which visibly impressed the judge from the stare. With eyes bulging and mouth open the court absorbed the attorney's statements and when the flood of eloquence ceased brought his gavel down with a bang exclaiming: "Plaintiff wins!"

Of course this brought the counsel for the defense to his feet with a vigorous protest against the manifest unfairness of deciding a case after hearing only one side. But the court was stubborn and stated that it wasn't necessary to hear the defense as he was satisfied that the plaintiff was in the right. Here the counsel for the plaintiff, realizing that no such ruling could stand, requested that the other lawyer be allowed to be heard and the court grudgingly permitted the defense to put in its case.

The defendant's attorney, knowing that it was do or die, started upon a speech containing even less of law and equity than his opponent's but flowered with beautiful bits of poetry, touching anecdotes and other gems. The court, cold at first, gradually warmed up and when the lawyer stopped, weak and spent brought his gavel down and in a voice in which wonder and admiration were curiously blended said: "Now doesn't that beat the devil! Now defendant wins!"

And the lesson is: It is an art to be able to divorce bias and prejudice and magnetism and personality and decide a question absolutely on its merits; an art worth cultivating and essential if success is to be attained.—Walk-Over Shoe Prints.

CORNERSTONE LAYING BY HEDLEY MASONS

The following account of the cornerstone laying at Hedley last week, of which a short account was carried in the News last week, is taken from the Hedley Informer.

A very beautiful and impressive ceremony was witnessed in this city at 4 o'clock last Monday afternoon, Sept. 4th, when the Masons laid the cornerstone of Hedley's new brick school building.

Quite a number of visiting Masons were on hand, and members of the Order headed a procession from their hall to the school grounds at the appointed hour. A large crowd was assembled there.

Rev. Y. F. Walker, as orator for the occasion, delivered a splendid address which held the close attention of all present.

The following officers presided: D. H. Arnold, Acting Grand Master; R. B. Adams, Deputy Grand Master; J. L. Bain, Grand Senior Warden; Mr. Baird of Amarillo, Grand Junior Warden; J. W. Bond, Grand Marshal; J. M. Green, Grand Treasurer; L. Spalding and J. B. Pickett, Grand Deacons; Ed Dishman and C. O. Cooper, Grand Stewards; J. M. Clarke, Grand Tiler; U. J. Boston, Grand Secretary; Rev. Y. F. Walker, Grand Orator.

Articles placed and sealed in the vault were a Holy Bible, list of Lodge members present, list of workers on the building, jar of corn, jar of wine, jar of oil, Tannehill roster and a copy of the Hedley Informer.

Among the Masons attending from neighboring towns were: E. H. Watt and J. D. McCants, of Giles; D. H. Arnold of Memphis; Mr. Blair, of Amarillo; J. L. Bain, E. A. Thompson, J. H. Hunt, S. E. Harris, J. D. Swift and Carl Boston, of Clarendon.

THE PARENT-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION PUBLIC SCHOOL

The first meeting of our association will be the third Thursday of Sept. Regular meetings to be first and third Thursdays through the winter. At the first meeting we will elect a new president and install the new officers, so let us have a full house. We have urgent business to attend to at that meeting. As you all know we contracted for half of the Lyceum course, with the College by a majority vote of a large membership present. The responsibility of the success of the course lies with each person who was a member of the association on the date the contract was signed, so we must get busy with our ticket selling, as the first number comes October twentieth. Half of the numbers will be at high school if we do not have to use the piano that is in the building now.

By selling 176 season tickets, at the college price, we can take care of our part of the expense. By selling fifty more we should be able to get a good piano.

With Mr. Nelson and Miss Manley we had the strongest music department of any school in this part of the state, and they are of untold benefit to our children, but they are handicapped by the piano.

The Lyceum course itself is very fine, the numbers all being by artists who make records for the different reproducing machines—Edison, Victor, Columbia. In the past we have had many fine things here, and let us keep up our ideals.

We are not a poor people so let us buy enough tickets to get the piano, too. Your child's entertainment has as much influence on his life as any part of his education, and I believe the tone of that entertainment in the past, has had much to do with the low delinquent list among our young people; so come and help us give the public school children the same advantages the college child gets. It is obligatory on the college child to buy a ticket to the Lyceum courses and we pay without a murmur, so why not give the public school child a ticket too?

Mrs. C. D. McDowell, Pres.

CARSON COUNTY PREPARING FOR FAIR

Carson County will have a two days fair September 29 and 30. The Executive Committee met Wednesday and completed details and arrangements for two big days at Panhandle. The various Committees for the different departments have been appointed and they are now actively at work planning and outlining the details for each department. This fair, while designated the Carson County Fair, will not be confined to entries in the live stock department solely to Carson County products, but will be open to all corners from all counties in the Panhandle.

Already numerous hog and cattle breeders from several adjoining counties have signified that they will be here with their fine hogs and cattle. Some of the finest stock in West Texas will be seen at Panhandle these two days, and Carson County is sure for a real treat in this line.—Panhandle Herald.

WHY DO MASONS LAY THE CORNERSTONES OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS?

The appropriateness of the Masonic Order as the one above all others to perform such a service arises from the fact that the ritualistic forms and ceremonies of Masonry are built upon, and are symbolical of, the builder's art. It is an undoubted fact that in the infancy of the Order away back in the shadowy past, the Plumb, Square and Level were implements which they used in their daily vocations; that in the dark ages the craft were banded together for mutual strength, for the diffusion among themselves of a proper knowledge of their art, and for the practice of those pure principles of unalloyed friendship and charity which have characterized it throughout its existence; that their lives were devoted to the embellishment of the world with structures which are still extant, the ruins of which are scattered throughout the ancient world. This is the feature of the Order which pre-eminently fits it for the performance of the ceremonies incident to the laying of the cornerstones of public buildings.—The Keystone.

Famous Pastry Chef Has Tasty Bran Dish

Francois Schmitt

A BRAN pudding, termed by those to whom it was served as "simply delicious," has been evolved by Francois Schmitt, pastry chef of the Hotel Pennsylvania, New York. Here it is:

Four heaping teaspoonfuls bran, one tablespoonful flour, one-half tablespoonful corn starch, four eggs, three tablespoonfuls sugar, one-half cup butter, one-half pint milk.

Chop up butter with flour, corn starch, bran and half of the sugar and add to boiling milk; stir well on fire for about one minute, take off, mix in the four yolks. At last add the four whites beaten stiff with rest of sugar. Pour in well buttered and sugared form and set in pan with a little water in bottom and bake in medium oven, for about thirty minutes.

Serve with apricot sauce made as follows: Put contents of one small can of apricots through a sieve, add one-half pound of sugar and let boil for about five minutes.

EXHIBIT OF CLUB GIRLS' WORK TO BE PUT ON HERE

TWO TRIPS TO DALLAS FAIR TO BE GIVEN AS FIRST TWO
PRIZES FOR BEST ALL ROUND WORK. WOMEN'S CLUBS OFFERING PRIZES.

The county wide exhibit of the work done by the Club Girls of Donley county will be shown in the court house and on the lawn on Saturday, the 23rd day of September. The array will include the canning work, sewing, home improvement and poultry. As the first and second prizes for the best general exhibit the women's clubs of the county are offering trips to the Dallas Fair and other prizes will be ribbons. The exhibit will be in charge of Miss Trullie Richmond, home demonstrator for this county.

All exhibits must be in place by ten o'clock on the morning of the 23rd, and may be removed any time after five o'clock in the afternoon. Some of the work will be brought in on the afternoon of the 22nd, but all of the poultry will, of course, have to be brought here on the morning of the 23rd.

Ten girls' clubs will compete in the contest, and it is probable that the work will be arranged in community booths, although the prizes will be offered to the individuals. It is also from this exhibit that Miss Richmond will choose the material that will be entered at the Wichita Falls and the Dallas Fairs.

The young ladies who win the prizes to the Dallas Fair will attend the girls' educational encampment which will be held there from the 13th until the 15th of October inclusive, and will leave here the 12th and return the 16th. Entertainment will be furnished by the Dallas Fair Association. Last year the girls from over the state who won these prizes were entertained with a house party on the Jefferson roof garden and with a theatre party at the Majestic; so that it may be seen that the prizes offered are worth doing the best kind of work for. Due to the fact that there is no county farm demonstrator, there will be no contest for the club boys in the nature of this exhibit for the girls.

MISS HOUK MEETS WITH SUCCESS AT PANHANDLE

The many friends of Miss Myrta Houk in this city are glad to hear of her many successes as director of music in the Panhandle public schools, and will be interested in the following account of her organization of a music club in that city. The account is taken from the Panhandle Herald.

Myrta M. Houk, director of music and expression of the Panhandle High School will organize and direct the new Panhandle Music Club. The name to be selected for the club will come before the musicians next Tuesday night; a name suggested is Panhandle Philharmonic Club.

Members of the club, both vocal and instrumental will be requested to compete for prizes at Amarillo during the festival.

Miss Houk who is a musician of much prominence, will devote much time to training the voices, and with the assistance of a committee of four which will be selected Tuesday night, will immediately begin the training of voices for a permanent organization.

COLLEGE TO GIVE ELEVENTH GRADE SCHOOL DIPLOMAS

Commencing this year Clarendon College will give diplomas to those completing the High school work, which diplomas will be of equal rank with other high school diplomas and will entitle to entrance to college with out condition of any kind. This is a valuable service, as those who do not complete college will, nevertheless, have a diploma for their completion of high school work.

Harold Boehning, of Canyon, a former student and graduate of Clarendon College was in this city visiting with friends Saturday. He was enroute home from Dallas where he has been attending the summer session of S. M. U. He will return for the fall term and will receive his degree next spring.

Mrs. J. J. Jones, of San Francisco, California is visiting here with her sister, Mrs. T. L. Naylor, and family.

REV. SMITH RETURNS TO CLARENDON TO BE PASTOR BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. J. A. Smith and his wife arrived here yesterday at noon from San Angelo where the former has been the pastor of the Baptist church since the first of May, having resigned here to go there. At a conference of the local church held last week, Rev. Smith was called as pastor, and he accepted the call.

For two years preceding his going to San Angelo, Rev. Smith was pastor of the local Baptist church, and during this time, he made hundreds of friends in all denominations of the city, and all rejoice at his return here.

The high character of Rev. Smith's services is known to everyone, and the Baptist church is fortunate in getting him to return here. In preparation for the return of him and his wife, several members of the Baptist church met Monday afternoon and cleaned up the ground and the pastor's home.

F. L. Goldston and family have moved to this city from their farm for the benefit of being accessible to the schools in this city. Their daughter is attending the college. Mr. Goldston will go back and forth to work his farm.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ryan accompanied by Mrs. Gentry and Miss Ethel Gentry left yesterday afternoon for Amarillo where Mrs. Ryan will undergo a slight operation.

BAPTIST ASSOCIATIONAL MEETING BEING HELD HERE

The Panhandle Association of the Baptist churches, which association is composed of Donley and Hall counties, has been in session here since Tuesday. The services are held both during the day and the evening. At Tuesday evening's service following the sermon preached by Rev. Charles T. Whaley, of Memphis, two surrendered themselves for special service and one was converted.

The services are continuing through today. It is at these associational meetings of the churches that the reports for the year are rendered, and these in turn are sent to the state association, and finally sent to the headquarters of the Southern Baptist church. The visiting delegates are being royally entertained by the local church.

COLLEGE STUDENTS TO ISSUE CLARCO AGAIN

With the opening of Clarendon College, the Clarco, the college paper issued by the students of Clarendon College, will be published again. The first issue was put out Tuesday afternoon, the opening day, by the News. Editor P. W. Walker and his staff are to be congratulated upon the preparation of the material submitted, while the liberal amount of advertising is a credit both to business manager Orion Carter and to the business men who make this publication a possibility.

This year's Clarco will be a five column, four page paper issued each week, and a special edition will be run at Christmas time. For several years a paper has been published, but none have shown more promise of being an excellent paper than does this year's paper. Not every junior college by any means publishes a paper, and the students of Clarendon College are to be congratulated upon their enterprise in putting this across.

Hygrade gas filled electric light globes give more light for less money and will give a third longer service. Guaranteed by Stocking's Drug Store. (37c)

COOL WEATHER ARRIVES WITH SATURDAY'S SHOWER

Donley county and the Panhandle are now experiencing cool weather since the showers with the accompanying norther Saturday night. Although the precipitation was slight, in fact so small that it did not interfere with the gathering of the crops and did not injure the crops in the least, the norther which arrived caused the mercury in this section to drop an average of about thirty-five to forty degrees.

The hot weather had continued later this year than at any time within the last several seasons, this perhaps is due to the fact that the usual late summer rains failed to come. But although the change was sudden, everyone is highly pleased, for the relief from the hot weather, which has been record breaking this year, is wonderful. Although the hot weather is gone, it cannot be said that fall is here in full swing, as the blue curtain has not yet risen high enough in the north.

MUCH INTEREST BEING SHOWN IN CHOIR WORK

With the beginning of the rehearsals of the choir of the Methodist Church, unusual interest is being shown in the work. At the first rehearsal, which was held last Friday evening, some thirty singers were present, and there is the promise of many more at the next rehearsal which will be held tomorrow evening commencing at seven o'clock. Although but one rehearsal had been held, the choir rendered really creditably an anthem at the morning service Sunday.

Thirty copies of the "Choir Leader" a monthly publication, have been ordered and as well a like number of copies of the "Alleluia," a collection of some of the finest anthems used by the best choirs in the country. These will form the basis of many of the rehearsals; while it is planned, with the choir's getting into good shape, to do some work in some selections from the oratorios.

Last year's choir did excellent work, but, with the larger number of voices in this year's organization, it is felt that much greater successes will be realized.

Although the promise is good for this year's choir with those who have already reported, the president, director and every member of the organization is anxious to see it accomplish the most possible, and to this end everyone who enjoys singing is asked to help in putting this across. It does not take a trained voice to make this go, and with tomorrow evening's rehearsal, it is hoped that more members will report, and that this year's choir may be the best one yet.

EARLY ENROLLMENT OF C. C. IS VERY LARGE

Although Clarendon College in the past has known larger enrollments than it has realized thus far this year, it has never known as large an early enrollment. Many of the students had arrived here last week, this in part due to the fact that this is the first year that Clarendon College has held a pre-season training camp and almost two hundred were on hand Sunday. At the Sunday services about forty united with the Methodist church. Dr. Slevor says that the indications at present are that this year's enrollment will be from ten to twenty percent larger than that of last year; while with the entrance of so many students this week seems to assure the higher figure.

METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL REALIZES ITS HIGH GOAL

The Methodist Sunday school had the highest attendance Sunday that it has had in several months, there being six hundred and seventy-eight present, thus realizing a goal that had been set very high. Six hundred had been sought, and the school went over the top with a thirteen per cent margin. The goal for next Sunday has been set at eight hundred, and all indications are that this will be more than realized. Last Easter the goal was set at eight hundred, and there were eight hundred and thirty-four present. With the beginning of the fall's work at such a high figure, an average attendance of more than seven hundred should be maintained throughout the year.

MUCH COTTON IS BEING BROUGHT TO CLARENDON

At ten o'clock this morning four hundred and ten bales of this year's cotton crop had been brought here and placed in the local cotton yard. Many of the farmers are also taking their cotton home. It is estimated by the ginners and by cotton buyers that twenty-five hundred bales will be ginned here this year.

One of the good indications is that much of the Brice cotton is being brought here, as the Clarendon market is one of the best in this part of the state.

A Most Unusual and Interesting Contest has been Started by

Goldston Brothers the Jewelers of this City

which will engage the literary talent and historical ability of our young people for the next two weeks.

In Goldston Brother's window stands an exact reproduction of the famous North-east Tower and Gate to the city of Cairo, Egypt. This work is at once a thing of rare beauty and art and exemplifies in its great antiquity a living memorial of scenes famous in the Bible.

Around this wall, which is over 500 years old, the romance of our early civilization has been woven. Only ten miles north-east of this spot is Meliopolis, "The City of the Sun," where there was an obelisk of red granite 68 feet high and erected previous to the visit of Abraham to the land of the Pharaohs. Formerly the obelisks of Cleoptra stood here also. It was probably here where Moses received his education, where Herodotus acquired most of his skill in writing history, and where Plato studied.

The scene displayed in Goldston Brothers' window is typical of the present-day life around the ancient wall to the City of Cairo with its colorful characters—the camel-driver and his camel, the ever-present street beggar, the water girl and the veiled lady—all this gives the scene such a touch of realism that it is startling.

For the best 200-word essay written on Cairo by a girl Goldston Brothers will present a beautiful W. W. W. guaranteed ruby, solid gold ring, and a handsome solid gold Signet ring to the boy winner.

Entrants are eligible up to 15 years of age, and Mr. J. E. Nelson, Supt., of the public schools will be the judge in the contest. Send all essays to Goldston Brothers. Contest closes Saturday, Sept. 30 at 6:00 p. m.

ENTANGLING ALLIANCES

George Washington
Washington refused to be a candidate for a third term of the Presidency; and, in May, 1796, he sent to Hamilton a rough draft of his farewell address, asking for his criticism. After much revision by both, the document was published September 19, and was read to the House of Representatives. The advice contained in it has ever since exercised a profound influence on the policy of the nation. Washington says in part:

The great rule of conduct for us in regard to foreign nations is in extending our commercial relations, to have with them as little political connection as possible. So far as we have already formed engagements let them be fulfilled with perfect good faith. Here let us stop.

Europe has a set of primary interests, which to us have none or a very remote relation. Hence she must be engaged in frequent controversies, the causes of which are essentially foreign to our concerns.
Hence, therefore, it must be unwise
in us to implicate ourselves by artificial ties in the ordinary vicissitudes of her politics or the ordinary combinations and collisions of her friendships, or enemies.

Our detached and distant situation invites and enables us to pursue a different course. If we remain one people under an efficient government, the period is not far off when we may defy material injury from external annoyance; when we may take such an attitude as will cause the neutrality we may at any time resolve upon to be scrupulously respected.
When belligerent nations, under the impossibility of making acquisitions upon us, will not lightly hazard the giving us provocation when we may choose peace or war, as our interest, guided by justice, shall counsel.

Why forego the advantages of so peculiar a situation? Why quit our own to stand upon foreign ground?
Why, by interweaving our destiny
with that of any part of Europe, entangle our peace and prosperity in the toils of European ambition, rivalship, interest, humor or caprice?

It is our true policy to steer clear of permanent alliance with any portion of the foreign world; so far,
I mean, as we are now at liberty to do it; for let me not be understood as capable of patronizing infidelity to existing engagements. But in my opinion it is unnecessary and would be unwise to extend them.

Taking care always to keep ourselves, by suitable establishments, on a respectable defensive posture, we may safely trust to temporary alliances for extraordinary emergencies.
Harmony, liberal intercourse with all nations, are recommended by policy, humanity and interest. But even our commercial policy should hold an equal and impartial hand;
neither seeking nor granting exclusive favors or preferences; consulting the natural course of things.

In offering to you, my countrymen, these counsels of an old and affectionate friend, I dare not hope they will make the strong and lasting impression I could wish that they will control the usual current of the passions, or prevent our nation from running the course which has hitherto marked the destiny of nations.
But if I may even flatter myself that they may be productive of some partial benefit; some occasional good, that they may now and then recur to moderate the fury of party spirit, to warn against the mischiefs of foreign intrigue, to guard against the impostures of pretended patriotism, this hope will be a full recompense for the solicitude of your welfare, by which they have been dictated.

NOW JIM CRUSTIBLE WON

We have always known Jim Crus-tible who ran the store at 720 Commercial, was one of the shrewd business men of this town. You never could tell Jim anything, and when he figured it out, it was so, and that was all there was to it. We were talking to him yesterday about a theory he had two years ago, and Jim says she's working like a charm.
Jim had a notion that it was costing him too mortal much money to do business that his overhead was too heavy, so he says to himself,
"I'll just save $17.50 a month by cutting out my advertising." And it did certainly look reasonable.
There was $17.50 every month in the year, and sometimes $25 during the holidays or in the fall when trade was brisk, and in the course of the year it amounted to two or three hundred dollars. And Jim's head was working like a tack when he concluded that everyone knew his place of business. Of course; why, every Saturday the place was crowded with farmers, and a dozen young fellows in town dropped in every day to buy a little something and chat with Jim.

So he quit advertising. And—that's the funny thing about it; His scheme worked. It really didn't cost old Jim so much money to do business. The books showed that he saved the two hundred a year and more by cutting out advertising; and at the end of the year he found where he could get along without one of his clerks. The farmers didn't lother him so much as they did, and his town trade wasn't forever hectoring him about things people saw in the papers. So he dropped a clerk and saved that five hundred.
There was seven or eight hundred dollars he saved—and say, Jim Crustible was certainly proud of his head piece the way he had calculated it all out. You certainly can't tell Jim anything about business.
He is the man who put come in commerce—originally.

He got the saving streak well developed after dropping the clerk, and worked out a scheme to save on the rent. So he moved off Commercial Street on to the avenue last November, and saved four hundred a year in rent—slick and clean—all good, easy money. There was nearly a hundred dollars a month he'd saved from his overhead, and so he found that the other clerk was just a pensioner, as you may say; he wasn't doing anything much. And you can't fool Jim Crustible about a clerk; so Jim up and lets the other clerk go.

We were in to see Jim the other day. His scheme certainly is working, though we should be the last to say it, as it is a giveaway on the newspaper business. But that isn't the only bright scheme Jim has worked out to save. He said yesterday: "Say, look here! I bought this suit five years ago. And it's perfectly good for my business.
Three years ago, when I was running that store over on the Street, and had three clerks and advertised
in your paper, I had to have a suit every year. The trade was that finicky. But now I've got so that the class of people I have here don't bother about clothes. I used to have to change my shirt every week whether it was dirty or not; the tony folks who read your paper required
it. But now—I change when I need it. My customers can't boss me. I tell you, when you stop advertising
you cut off a lot of fool expenses that pile up all over the store. For instance, I used to spend a lot of money buying screens and fly poison.
My trade demanded it. But now that I'm around on this avenue they don't read your fool newspaper and don't care whether the flies loaf here or not. I tell you more money is spent catering to fool notions of these high-toned women—why, nothing to it! The trade I have now doesn't bother me and doesn't know anything about prices and I can charge 'em what I want to, and I get 'em in my books and they can't leave. I got men here that haven't paid me in a year and don't dast leave me, and what I charge 'em is a plenty!"

That's the way to make money.
If everyone would watch his p's and q's as Jim Crustible does, we wouldn't have so many millionaires. Jim believes that the way to make money is to save it, and he surely is some saver, all right, all right. He even quarreled with the sheriff this week about his fees in serving the notice of attachment which the sheriff served on Jim. It seems old Jim had discovered how to save money by not paying the wholesale house till he got good and ready, and he didn't ever seem to be just exactly good and ready, so the sheriff took a hand, and Jim tried to dicker with the sheriff. He's certainly got a head like a tack for business.

And you can't tell him anything;
for he knows it all.—Emporia Gazette.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but cannot keep from the overwork; they struggle; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will set fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.
Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys if Bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone. makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

GREEN OLIVE PEPPER CORN

Corn sautéed with green peppers and olives is a delicious dish that may be prepared in a few minutes. Once tried it will be repeated frequently each year when corn on the cob is obtainable. Here is an excellent recipe:

Ingredients: Six ears sweet corn (uncooked); one-fourth teaspoon salt; one-eighth teaspoon paprika; one green sweet pepper; one cup chopped Spanish green olives; two tablespoonfuls butter.

Cut corn from cob. Remove seeds and white fibre from the sweet pepper. Cut the pepper into fine strips and cook five minutes in the butter. Add the corn and cook for ten to fifteen minutes, stirring to prevent burning. Add the salt, paprika and green olives. Serve.

THE DUTY AND VALUE OF PATRIOTISM

ARCHBISHOP JOHN IRELAND

The human race pays homage to patriotism because of its supreme value. The value of patriotism to a people is above gold and precious stones, above commerce and industry, above citadels and warships. Patriotism is the vital spark of the nation's honor, the living joint of the nation's prosperity, the strong shield of the nation's safety.

When the fathers of the Republic declared: "That all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness," a principle was enunciated which in its truth, was as old as the race, but in practical realization was almost unknown.

The divine gift of liberty is God's recognition of man's greatness and the man's dignity. In liberty lie the sweetness of life and the power of the growth. The loss of liberty is the loss of light and sunshine, the loss of life's best portion. Under the spell of heavenly memories humanity never has ceased to dream of liberty, and to aspire to its possession. Now and then, here and there, liberty had for a moment caressed humanity's brow. But not until the Republic of the West was born, not until the Star-Spangled Banner rose toward the skies, was liberty caught up in humanity's embrace and embodied in a great and abiding nation.

In America the government takes from the liberty of the citizen only so much as is necessary for the weal of the nation. In America there are no masters who govern in their own right, for their own interest, or at their own will. We have over us no Bourbon saying: "The State, I am the State"; no Hohenzollern proclaiming that in his acts as sovereign he is responsible only to his conscience and to God. Ours is the government of the people, by the people, and for the people. Our government is our own organized

In America, rights begin with and go upward from the people. In other countries, even in those which are apparently the most free, rights begin with and come downward from the state; the rights of citizens the governments called republics, there, too, universal suffrage establishes the state; but once established, the state is tyrannous and arbitrary; invades at will private rights and curtails all individual liberty. One republic only is liberty's native home—America.

In America, whenever the government does not prove its grant, the liberty of the individual citizen remains intact. Elsewhere there are governments called republics, there, too, universal suffrage establishes the state; but once established, the state is tyrannous and arbitrary; invades at will private rights and curtails all individual liberty. One republic only is liberty's native home—America.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

At best, man is an egotistic creature. We all think we can do a lot of things that we can't, and some of us waste much valuable time worrying about the things we can't do. But the first and foremost failure is the fellow who tries to do everything, and never learns to do anything well.

We all recall Switzer's doctor who thought he was a good automobile mechanic and eventually was spending more time mending cars than people. When a good doctor came along he took the practice of the community, and when a regular automobile mechanic opened up a garage he got the automobile business, and the old doctor was left without a job.

Andrew Carnegie attributed his success to his ability to select men to do certain things better than he could do them himself. Henry Ford is an outstanding example of a successful man who has hired men to do things, while he was stuck to the task of planning things for these experts to do.

The man that makes a success is the one that finds something that he can do and learns to do that thing better than anybody else. His services are always in demand.

Dr. Frank Crane, the great philosopher whose inspirational sermons are read by millions every day, has written a wonderful fable on "What I Can Do." It has food for thought for all of us. He says: "As I begin to take stock of the years and their attainments I have become more and more conscious of the many things I cannot do."

"I can write passably enough to make a living and can make a fair speech. That is about all.

"I cannot dance or sing a song, or play a piano.

"I cannot run a race on foot or excel in wrestling or jumping or athletic exercises.

"I cannot manage any piece of machinery from a tack hammer to a locomotive.

"I cannot add a column of figures correctly and never hope to be able to do so.

"I cannot tame wild animals, break a horse or train a dog.

"When I go to lay a book on the table I am never certain that it will not fall off.

"I love chess and games of cards, one lira ticket in the national lot-play them poorly.

"When in Italy I used to buy a tery every day for a period of some months and never won a solitary prize.

"I cannot fix a clock or hang wallpaper, or paint a picture or put up a stove pipe with any degree of success.

"I was never able to become popular in a club party, church or community, so that I was never elected to anything in my life, except to some position no one else wanted.

"I am wholly deficient in the power of competition.

"I am fond of women, but have never been popular among them so that I could really call myself a ladies man.

"When I was young I had as many ambitions as there are divisions of human activity. At different times I thought I would be a lawyer, a physician, a botanist, an entomologist, a Greek scholar, a professor of modern languages, a business man, a great orator, a writer of novels and plays, a wit, a politician, and a preacher.

"One by one I have taken in my sails. By infinite experimentation I have discovered that there are but a few simple things that I can do.

"The world has assisted me in making this discovery by the very simple method of paying me for what I can do and ignoring me for what I cannot do.

"I suppose everybody, in a way, undergoes this process of coming to himself. And the man who arrives to be congratulated, even if he finds out the one big thing other people are willing to pay him for doing is laying brick or trimming whiskers.

"I sometimes wonder how many people really find their pigeonhole.

"Emerson said: 'Few men find themselves before they die.'

HOLD COTTON FOR 30 CENTS IS PLEA

APPEAL IS MADE TO EVERYONE TO ASSIST FROM FORCING COTTON ON MARKET.

Geo. B. Terrell, Commissioner of Agriculture, reviews the cotton situation and urges bankers, merchants and farmers not to force cotton upon the market, depressing the price and causing heavy losses to the producers. He said: "I do not advise, I give facts and sensible men ought to reach sensible conclusions. The cotton crop this year, as estimated by the Government in the report of September 1st, indicates a yield of 10,575,000 bales.

The Texas crop is estimated at 3,644,000 bales, which I believe to be one million bales too high. The reports furnished my office from reliable men in all parts of the State indicate a crop of 2,462,400 as compared with a crop of 2,179,145 last year.

The average cost of producing this cotton crop is estimated to be 22 cents per pound. The spot market is below this price now, and cotton has lost more than five dollars per bale in the last few days, caused by the rapid gathering and selling of the Texas crop.

This crop is several million bales short of the world's needs, and every consideration justifies a price of thirty cents.

I appeal to the farmers, merchants and bankers, not to force all the cotton upon a declining market, causing lower prices, and the loss of millions of dollars so badly needed to pay the farmers' debts and receive the business of this country.

The total crop of the South last year was 8,639,673 bales. The domestic consumption and exports for the year just closed are 11,799,381 bales, or nearly 4,000,000 bales more than was produced last year. The big surplus of 1920 is practically used up. The crop this year will possibly not reach ten million bales, or nearly two million bales less than consumption this year.

Nothing could keep the price of cotton from going to 30 cents, if it were not dumped upon the market as fast as picked.

Don't take my word for it. Consider the facts I have given and take the word of P. H. Naughton, a cotton manufacturer, as published in the Daily News Record of New York.

He says: "The world's annual requirement consumption of cotton is 20,000,000 bales. This quantity of cotton cannot be produced today from the cotton growing countries of the world. A liberal estimate of the world's cotton crop for 1922 would be about 15,500,000 bales. The United States will produce about 9,000,000 bales. With all due respect to Mr. Wallace, United States Secretary of Agriculture at Washington, and his various theoretical Bureaus, issuing kaleidoscopic estimates for Wall Street—fluctuating, liquidating, profit-taking—erroneous big crop estimates emanating from Washington are prejudicial and a deterrent factor in the dry goods business. The legitimate business in dry goods is halted by crying big crop of cotton, lower prices.

All cotton growing countries indicate poor crops—cotton famine is inevitable. The whole world wants cotton. The world is hungry for cotton goods. Middling cotton will sell at 30 cents before the beautiful snow flits.

In view of these undisputed facts, it seems to me that the business interests of Texas and the South, must depend upon cotton for existence could not afford to force this crop upon the market at prices less than cost, causing a loss of millions of dollars to the farmers, and all interests dependent upon the cotton crop. As soon as pressing debts are paid, all interests should unite to stop the rapid sale of cotton, and the price would reach 30 cents in 30 days if the sale of cotton could be stopped that long."

Mrs. W. A. Patman left Tuesday evening for Sulphur Springs where she will visit with a daughter. Later she will visit with a brother in Louisiana.

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Broad Tea at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT

Rub Pain and Stiffness away with a small bottle of old honest St. Jacobs Oil

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 35 cent bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the ache and pain right out of your back and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica and lame back misery so promptly!

Ten Young Texans Sail For Foreign Mission Service In Distant Lands

Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Porter and young daughter (1) of Waco, who will do educational work at Sao Paulo, Brazil; Miss Josephine Ward (2), Austin, who will do educational work in Kaifeng, China; Miss Louise Willis (3), Waco, who will do educational work in Kaifeng, China; Miss L. L. Howard (4), of Brownwood, who goes to North China; Miss Jennie L. Swearingen (5), Bellville, who will do educational work at Belo Horizonte, Brazil; Rev. J. R. Mashburn (6), DeKalb, who will do evangelistic work in China; Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Meredith and young daughter (7), of Peasa, who will do medical work at Ogbomoso, Nigeria, Africa; Miss Nell Hall (8), Hightower, who will teach home economics in Kaifeng, China.

WITH the sending out this season of fifty new missionaries by the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, 250 new workers have been sent to foreign fields during the 75 Million Campaign, or one-half the goal that was set in the number of workers to be provided during that movement. It is anticipated the remaining 250 will go out during the remainder of the Campaign period that will expire in December, 1924. The workers going out this season will enter the fields of China, Japan, Africa, Palestine, Brazil, Argentina, Uruguay, Chile and Mexico.

Inasmuch as the largest missionary effort of the denomination is centered in the Orient, the larger portion of the workers sailed from Seattle Saturday, September 2, on the Admiral Liner President Jackson for stations in China and Japan. The missionaries for fields on other continents sail from New York on various lines and some of them will not depart until September 30.

distinction of being the first architect ever sent out by the Foreign Mission Board, and his appointment indicates the vast extent of the Southern Baptist work in that country. More than half of the total number of missionaries in the employ of this board are located in China, where the results of their labors are very gratifying to the officers of the Board.

Large interest centers, also, in the launching of an intensive missionary work in Palestine to which country there go Rev. and Mrs. Fred Bunyan Pearson of Moulton, Ala., and Rev. and Mrs. J. Wash Watts, of Laurens, S. C. Some native missionaries are already at work in Palestine, and the outlook there is considered very encouraging, despite the present complicated political and racial controversies.

Expense Rate Is Low
More than $5,250,000 net has gone from the Campaign into foreign mission work, and so economically have these funds been handled, the Board reports, that 96.24 cents out of every dollar has actually reached the foreign fields, only 3.74 cents out of every dollar being required to care for the total cost of administration. But with these larger receipts and economical administration the Board is unable to meet the demands upon it, and at its last annual meeting it was compelled to reduce the requests of the missionaries on the field for appropriations by more than $1,000,000.

C. C. CONVENTION

DONLEY COUNTY TO HAVE LARGE REPRESENTATION AT AMARILLO.

According to the plans of many local citizens, Clarendon and Donley county will be well represented at the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce convention which will be held in Amarillo Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. As it is planned to give a prize to the city having the largest representation there, it seems reasonable that Clarendon will stand a good chance of winning this prize. As well the attraction of the many speakers of international fame, there will be an attraction of especial local interests, as the Clarendon College Bulldogs will on Tuesday afternoon meet the Golden Sandstorm of the Amarillo High School.

Although it can not yet be stated whether the Clarendon Band will be carried there to compete in the contest, as it would have to be carried by private means, yet many local people are preparing to be there and help keep Donley county on the map.

The Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce more nearly represents the interests of Donley county and surrounding territory than does any other, and for this reason greatest support is accorded that organization locally. Many good results will be realized from the convention, and Donley will be there for its part.

NEW BOARDING HOUSE PLAN AT THE COLLEGE

With the many applications that came in from students throughout this conference and Oklahoma and New Mexico, it became evident that Clarendon College would be unable to furnish work to assist in putting the many applicants through college. It was then that Dr. G. S. Slover worked out a plan whereby those desiring a college education may do so at a minimum cost, this plan being a co-operative boarding plan. A common treasury is kept toward which all occupants of the house contribute; and from this fund, Mr. Thompson, the cook and also a student of the college, draws for the purchase of groceries. The boys keep their own rooms, and thus their maintenance of the house is at absolute cost.

This is the first time that such a co-operative plan has been used at the college, but every indication is that it will work with success and thus enable many boys, who would otherwise be unable to attend college, to get a college education.

J. B. Cope, of Santa Anna, California, and daughter, Mrs. George Bugbee, of Redlands, California, are here visiting with Cyrus Cope and Mrs. J. H. Headrick and their families.
